

Genius 4061

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4061

With the morning sunlight spilling over the valley.

All things awoke.

Flying birds swept across the sky, seemingly fleeing away with a bit of urgency.

At this time, Lin Wuyuan also climbed from the craggy cliff to the top of the mountain.

Only before she could even catch her breath, her whole body could not help but shrink.

There was a group of people dressed in black robes waiting for her in this place.

Just as Lin Wu Huan wanted to retreat back to the crag, several shifting figures instantly blocked his back path.

Directly opposite.

The man at the head of the group frowned upon seeing Lin Wuyuan.

"Why is it a little girl?"

"Where are Lin Mo's two powerful men?"

Hearing this slightly dissatisfied tone, the men behind him hurriedly explained.

"My Lord, this person is Lin Mo's favoured disciple that he took in at Death Island."

"And this little girl is highly regarded by Lin Mo!"

"Not bad!" The chief nodded in satisfaction at this.

"Take it away!"

The words fell.

A man in black then walked out from the surroundings and walked towards Lin Wu Huan.

"Little sister, be good and come with us!"

From the conversation of a few people, Lin Wu Hate instantly understood.

This group of people were running towards his own master to come.

If she was taken down, her master would definitely be held hostage by them.

As she thought, she pretended to be afraid and her body kept retreating towards the direction of the cliff.

It was only when she kept bumping into the black-robed men who were sealing the path behind her that she stopped in her tracks.

Turning her head to look.

Only to see that the black robe behind her had extended its hands.

“What a lovely porcelain doll, it would be nice to take it back and give it to the young leader as a child bride.”

With a wicked laugh.

Those pair of palms also landed on top of Lin Wuyan’s shoulders.

At this moment, Lin Wu Huan’s delicate body was already trembling, and a strong fear was leaking from her eyes.

However, such an appearance made the other black robes around him start to think.

Isn’t this the best thing for the young leader?

If they could bring this little girl back, it would be a great achievement.

At this moment, they were like a pack of hungry wolves surrounding a small, shivering lamb.

Perhaps Lin Wu Huan’s acting skills were too subtle.

So much so that everyone had forgotten how she had appeared here.

Just as the black robe was lifting her up in mid-air, ready to take her back.

Lin Wu Huan’s originally frightened and soft aura changed violently.

The only thing in her icy eyes was an endless deadly aura.

At this moment, the black robe also noticed the abnormality.

Only that it was already too late.

Just as he was about to react, a long, pitch-black sword had already penetrated from his jaw to the top of his head.

Amidst the stunned gazes of the crowd, he fell straight to the ground.

After dealing with this man, Lin Wu Huan did not hesitate.

Rushing to the edge of the cliff, he jumped straight down with a leap.

The original place.

The crowd of black robes were still in deep shock at this moment.

A young girl who was less than ten years old had directly killed a half-step sect master?

Even though they had seen it with their own eyes.

But they still couldn’t believe that this was all true.

The matter was simply too psychedelic.

It was only after the leader of the group gave a cold snort.

Only then did everyone come back to their senses.

“What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and go after them!”

Under a furious rebuke, more than ten half-step clan masters jumped off the cliff together with ropes in hand.

The original place.

The black-robed leader, looking at the corpse in front of him, already the corrosive Qi that continued to surge above that wound.

He was not half angry.

Instead, the heat of his gaze.

“Indeed, the disciples recruited by demons are also demons.”

“If such a person is recruited in, our Five Poison Sect will definitely be able to see the light of day again in the future and take back everything that has pa*sed away from the Southern Barbarians.”

After muttering to himself.

An epileptic look had surfaced on his face.

As for the surrounding men, they could only tremble in fear at this moment, not daring to make a single movement.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4062

Birds of prey startled in the forest.

A dozen figures of half-step clan masters darted through it.

However, after searching for more than ten miles around, they still could not find any trace of Lin Wuyuan.

When they returned to their original location with trepidation, they reported the results.

The black-robed leader gave a cold, angry scolding.

“Are you all trash?”

The words fell to the ground.

One of them instantly had his face twisted up.

With a painful scream, this man lost his breath and fell straight to the ground.

In his chest, a centipede with a red glow slowly burst out.

It then quickly burrowed into the black-robed leader's sleeve and disappeared.

At the sight of this scene, Yuan's men, who were already fearless, were so frightened that they fell to their knees.

Their bodies trembled continuously.

"Humph!"

"This trivial matter still requires my daddy to step in!"

The black-robed leader murmured strange phrases in a low voice as he finished his hand.

Not a moment later, the skin of the corpse that had been attacked and killed by Lin Wuyuan suddenly rubbed.

In the blink of an eye, an identical centipede crawled out of its mouth.

Only this object, was crawling rapidly in the direction of the cliff.

Several people followed.

Only to see the red centipede burrowing straight into, the lush pine tree's layered leaves on the cliff.

"Found you!"

The leading black robe's tone was full of excitement at the moment.

It wasn't because he had found his target.

Rather, it was because of Lin Wuyuan's bizarre hiding tactic.

Before this, he had clearly sensed everything around him.

However, he had not discovered Lin Wuyan, who was hiding under his nose.

A heaven-defying talent coupled with this bizarre hiding technique.

Such a talent was simply born for their Five Poison Sect.

The more the black-robed chief thought about it, the more excited he became.

"Bring the man back to me, and remember to bring him back alive!"

"Yes, my lord."

Having learned from their cruel predecessors, the group of black-robed men looked extra attentive this time.

Staring at the pine tree on top of the cliff face with a deadly gaze.

As the red centipede that had broken in two fell, a smaller body scurried out.

"Give chase!"

A command was given.

All the half-step clerics present immediately gave chase.

Since it was daytime, and because this group of black robes was so numerous.

At this moment, Lin Wu Hate didn't have any chance to get out of the other party's sight.

Moreover, his own cultivation level was not very high.

The main reason he was able to kill that Half-step Patriarch before was because of her special aura attributes.

Plus, the other party had dropped the lightness.

Right now, if she were to really compete with her opponent in terms of endurance and speed, she would not stand a chance.

As the black robe behind her got closer and closer.

Lin Wu Huan's mind could not help but become more and more anxious.

She must not be taken down by them to blackmail Master.

And the Money Gra*s in the bag he had to bring back to the front line in District 3!

The thought came to this.

He deliberately slowed down his pace.

The black robe behind him only thought that he had taken off his strength, and his heart was overjoyed.

In order to make a mark in front of the chief, the speed of the men increased a few points.

Ahead.

After Lin Wu Hate silently estimated the distance between the two sides on one side.

She fiercely tugged on a branch and then braked sharply with one foot.

With the rebounding force of the branch, he then rushed towards the black-robed group coming after him at a faster speed.

At the front of the group, the only thing on his mind was to take it down as soon as possible, Lin Wuyuan Li Gong.

He also did not expect this little girl to come back with such a show.

Unprepared, Lin Wu Hate had already crashed into this person's arms.

A black sharp claw came out.

It directly penetrated the man's chest, and with a grip of Lin Wu Hate's five fingers.

A bright red heart was directly crushed by him.

Although he had already taken care of one person as fast as he could.

But there was still a delay of a few seconds.

And that was already enough for the other black robes to catch up.

“Everyone, be careful, this little thing is evil.”

Although it had surrounded Lin Wu Hate.

But with two of their companions dead, the black-robed crowd was already wary.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4063

Lin Wu Huan knew that with his speed alone, there was no way he could escape the black robe’s pursuit.

So it thought to make a comeback and take care of the nearest enemy first.

Although she achieved her aim and took care of one of them.

However, in the end, he had underestimated the speed of a half-step cleric.

In just a few seconds of stagnation, she was surrounded by her opponent’s group.

And with the previous experience, the other party was clearly alert.

It was clearly impossible to replicate the previous attack again.

Thinking of this, Hate Free’s mind could not help but feel anxious.

If he was taken down by the other party, he would definitely drag down his master.

Recalling, the face that had brought him out of the darkness.

A smile suddenly appeared at the corner of Lin Wu Hate’s mouth.

Only quickly, the smile transformed into a cruel cold laugh.

“Since we can’t escape, let’s kill more of our enemies!”

“This will also be a way to share some of the pressure for Master.”

With this thought in her mind, two long swords in her hands, glowing with black Qi, appeared silently.

At this moment, facing more than ten half-step sect masters, she did not flinch in the slightest.

“Give me death!”

After shouting, she fiercely sprang out and charged towards the place.

However, the reason she had been able to win the first two times was entirely by a surprise.

As well as the special attribute of aura.

At this moment, she was still far from being able to face a half-step sect master head-on.

And several of the black robes had also discovered this at this point.

Although the black qi on top of the longsword made several of them also feel a strong sense of scorn.

However, Lin Wu Hate was not fast in making his moves.

They could easily dodge it with a little bit of care.

So the black-robed crowd, who were still scared, relaxed once again.

“Watch out, brothers, the chief has given his word.”

“Don’t hurt this little girl’s life.”

With this word of caution, several of the black robes also gave up on the idea of striking.

They were not slow to dodge, and kept the integrity of the encirclement.

And so it was.

A strange phenomenon appeared on the scene.

No matter which direction Lin Wu Hate attacked from, the other side just kept retreating, just dodging and not attacking.

While several other black robes shifted their bodies together to keep the entire encirclement tight.

After a long time.

Lin Wu Huan then realised that his physical strength was starting to fail him.

The sound of his breathing became thicker and thicker.

The bean-sized sweat on her forehead was not constantly pouring out.

At this moment, she also finally reacted.

The other party was trying to wear herself out!

Once she collapsed, she would strike at the other party just.

Thinking of this, her eyes also turned redder and redder.

Staring at the nearest black-robed person to her, she charged straight forward.

Only, this time, her stance was violently improved by a large margin.

Ghost Shadow Step!

All that could be seen was a streak of shadow pa*sing by.

Five petite bodies suddenly appeared in front of the crowd.

The black robe in front of them was just about to retreat when his pupils shrank.

Not daring to have any hesitation.

This person immediately retreated backwards.

The distance between the two sides instantly pulled apart.

Only before he could take a breath, his expression flickered.

When he looked down, the shadow of a longsword glowing with black Qi had already penetrated his chest cavity.

Another man had fallen!

This flying sword move was exactly what Hatedless had researched on his own after having seen Master Lin Mo's flying needle technique.

Only this move was extremely consuming.

After dealing with and resolving this man, he only felt weak and his aura had been depleted cleanly.

Strongly holding on to his weakened body.

Her icy gaze swept over the crowd of black robes.

"Those who are still not afraid of death, feel free to come up and try!"

The petite and lovely figure was overflowing with a strong hostile aura at the moment.

Above the lovely face, it was also filled with chilling intent.

For a moment, a hint of fear surprisingly appeared in the hearts of the crowd of half-step sect masters.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4064

Although the half-step Patriarchs present all knew that the young girl in front of them was already at the end of her rope.

But the instinctive fear of that body was not something that could be suppressed by reason.

It had been less than half an hour before and after.

This young girl, who was less than ten years old, had already killed three of their companions.

To know that these three were all half-step Zongshi!

To think that at that age, one might not even dare to kill a chicken.

This little girl in front of him was no longer a genius.

She was a demon among demons.

And the most terrifying thing was that they had clearly put aside their contempt.

They were taking it seriously!

But this little girl seemed to have an endless supply of cards.

Every time everyone thought that they would be able to catch her, someone from the clan would die in this little girl's hands.

After a long time.

Perhaps it was out of fear of the leader, more than their fear of death.

The crowd of black robes finally did stir.

If the chief knew that they were actually intimidated by a little girl.

When the time came, it would still be a matter of death.

Among the crowd, a black robe wielding a gossip blade finally stood his hand.

With a million cautions, he slowly approached Lin Wuyuan.

It was until the tip of the blade was pressed against Lin Wuyuan's heart.

She still did not move.

It seemed that the blow from the flying sword had indeed drained all her spiritual energy.

Thinking of this, the black robe couldn't help but sigh in relief.

"Little girl, give up your hand, you have no way to escape!"

"Follow me obediently and go back to see the chief, you can still suffer a little less flesh and blood!"

Hearing these words.

Lin Wu Huan, who was exhausted, slowly lifted his head.

The resolute and cold look in her eyes was out of place on her young face.

"Trying to take me down and coerce my master, are you?"

When he said sub here, his face suddenly emerged with a touch of death wish.

"You are thinking good thoughts!"

As the words fell, she stepped forward with a fierce thrust.

Poof!

The sharp tip of the blade went straight through his heart.

This sudden and terrifying move directly stunned the black robe.

She had never expected that Lin Wuyuan would be so sang-froid.

And taking advantage of this distraction of his.

With his last breath, Lin Wu Hate fiercely gripped the other party's wrist and yanked it forward.

Caught off guard.

The black robe stumbled.

By the time the man regained his senses, Lin Wu Hate had already locked one hand around his throat.

“Die!”

With a last trace of madness, Lin Wu Hate’s fingers squeezed hard.

There was a click!

The fourth Half-step Patriarch was dead!

After all this last night, Lin Wu Hate also collapsed helplessly to the ground.

“Is this what death feels like?”

“Master, it seems like my apprentice won’t be able to protect you from now on!”

“What a pity that the Money Flower hasn’t been brought back to Master!”

With a hint of resignation, she closed her eyes helplessly and her consciousness sank.

This

The remaining few black robes, looking at the scene before them, froze directly in place.

They had thought that this little girl would have other underhanded means.

Yet, they never expected that a little girl less than ten years old would directly choose to die in order not to be caught.

The most terrifying thing was that even before she died, she had taken a half-step Patriarch with her.

Was this still human?

Just as several people were shocked speechless by the scene before them.

They were oblivious to it.

A man who was as fat as a mountain had already arrived behind them unknowingly.

“Ah, help!”

The sound of a miserable scream came and went as quickly as it came.

In the next second, the sound of chewing bones was heard in the forest.

Seeing their companion being taken down without any resistance.

The other black robes immediately panicked.

Especially when they saw that the mountainous man had actually stuffed his companion into his mouth.

All of them no longer had the heart to resist

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4065

The birds in the forest were frightened.

More than a dozen half-step clerics rolled and crawled towards the far side of the road and ran wildly.

It didn't matter where their destination was.

As long as they could get away from this man-eating monster.

However, they hadn't gotten very far.

They were suddenly stopped in their tracks by a pair of twin sisters in front of them who looked alike.

"Hee hee, uncles think differently!"

The bright smiles of the two sisters, together with a pair of dimples, looked extraordinarily cute.

But at this moment, the black robes were thinking of ways to escape.

There was no time to appreciate this.

"Get out of my way!"

A black robe at the head, viciously scolded angrily.

With that, the said meteor hammer came down heavily towards the two sisters.

It looked like the two were about to be hammered into mush.

In front of the two sisters, several figures fiercely appeared.

Clang!

The hammers fell on the head of one of them, and a loud sound was heard instantly.

However, not only was this person safe and sound, on the contrary, the hammer had been completely dented.

"Zong Zong Shi powerhouse!"

The black robe's pupils shrank, and he was directly frightened to the point where his four eyes were dumbfounded.

The twelve figures in front of him did not even conceal their aura in the slightest.

Twelve clan masters were revealed before his eyes.

Just when the black robe felt that he was bound to die.

The two sisters suddenly spoke.

"Run backwards!"

"Knowing that Big Fatty won't make a move on you when he's had his fill!"

The black robe did not dare to retort, and after swallowing the mouthful of words, he immediately turned around and ran back with his companions.

Compared to facing the Twelve Patriarchs, they would rather face that man-eating beast.

At least the speed of that fat mountain of a body was bound to be a flaw.

The thought was good, the display was indeed cruel.

After they had returned to the original again.

The hill-like man was already blocking their way.

With a single probing motion of his hands, the two black robes were directly in his grasp.

The other companions, seeing this, thought their time to escape had come and ran wildly in the opposite direction of the twin sisters once more in multiple directions.

However, in the next second, the fat man appeared in front of them again.

While chewing in his mouth, his hands once again poked out.

What kind of speed was this?

The group of black robes instantly despaired.

There was no way for them to escape with such a body style.

For a while, there were more screams of misery in the mountains and forests

After hearing these commotions, the black-robed leader could not sit still any longer.

Only when he arrived.

The scene was devoid of living creatures except for the blood everywhere.

There were no bones left!

“Which sect leader, dare to touch my people?”

He hissed in anger.

As the words fell to the ground, his brow suddenly furrowed.

Turning around, he only saw a pair of twin sisters behind him looking at him with a smile on their faces.

At the same time, the huge black shadow had already appeared beside him.

The black-robed chief naturally did not dare to hesitate.

With a casual fling of his hand, the densely packed red centipede swooped directly towards the black shadow.

As for himself, he darted back and pulled away from his opponent.

Taking this opportunity, he finally got a good look at his opponent.

Only upon seeing the mountainous man, the black-robed chief was instantly taken aback.

“Seven Deadly Sins, Tyrannical Corpse Sect Leader!”

Why had this man appeared here?

Just as he was worried.

The sound of talking came from between the trees.

“I told you, which power, has such a big gesture?”

“So it’s your Five Poison Sect!”

“An Qingshan, why don’t you hunker down in your turtle shell and come out to wade in this mess?”

When he saw the visitor, the black-robed leader An Qingshan’s pupils shrank.

Ji Dutuo!

If he was facing a tyrannical corpse, he would still have the heart to compete.

Now that he saw Ji Dutuo come out, he did not have the slightest intention to resist.

“Second Sect Master, I have no enmity with you, why do you want to brutally kill my people?”

Ji Dutuo smiled faintly.

“There was none before, but there is now.”

“Dare to hunt down and kill my people? Who gave you the guts

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4066

An Qingshan, who was standing high up, also spotted at this time, in the distance, the one who had been penetrated through the heart, Lin Wuyuan.

Although it was a bit of a pity but he couldn’t help but be glad.

If such a monster was taken into the organisation by Ji Dutuo, then the future Seven Deadly Sins would definitely be even more invincible.

Thinking of this, An Qingshan arched his hand.

“Second Sect Master, there is much misunderstanding at this point!”

“I only thought he was Lin Mo’s disciple, and didn’t know that this was one of yours!”

“We of the Five Poison Sect are willing to compensate for this!”

Ji Dutuo snorted with laughter.

“An Qingshan you are rusting in the brain, if you want to accompany the birth you can use your Five Poison Sect to pay for it!”

Speaking in general, his face suddenly changed.

An Qingshan, who was the intention of the five chiefs of the Five Poisons Sect, naturally could not be so brainless.

“You are stalling for time!”

After saying that, Ji Dutuo raised his hand and struck a Penning Thunder Strike.

The biting attack directly hit the chest of An Qingshan.

Only, no blood could be seen around.

“No need to chase after him!”

Ji Dutuo called out to the two Xing Yun sisters.

“This kind of shrinking turtle escaped, so be it, we will still have the chance to meet again later anyway.”

With that he walked straight up to Lin Wu Hate’s body.

After the two Nebula sisters curved their bodies and examined them, they shook their heads slightly.

“The heart has been pierced, and with the loss of too much blood, there’s no way to return to heaven.”

Hearing these words.

Ji Duto’s expression also revealed a hint of sadness.

“Such a good seedling, it’s a pity!”

“If he had agreed earlier and joined us, why would he have suffered this undeserved calamity.”

The dead are dead!

Even the most demonic genius is nothing when he dies.

“Bring her back to Lin Mo!”

A sigh was uttered.

The four figures disappeared into place.

A long time later, a palm suddenly poked out of the ground not far away.

An Qingshan climbed out with blood pouring from his mouth.

After glancing at the direction Ji Dutuo had left, his face was written with scorn.

“Worthy of being a smiling tiger of the Seven Deadly Sins!”

“Next time, I’ll top take your head.”

After letting out a fierce word, he also hurriedly disappeared here

.....

The front line of the third district.

Ma Bangde carried strong wine at the first light of day and arrived at the White Cemetery's quarters.

"Old no old ghost!"

After seeing Ma Bangde, the ghostly old man was also obviously a bit surprised.

"Sect Master Ma, what kind of wind is this blowing?"

As the most low-key of the ten great powers, the White Graveyard did not have much intercourse with the other powers.

Especially the other power lords.

The ghostly old man didn't speak to them more than ten words a year combined.

Right now, this Ma Bangde suddenly came to the door, which somewhat seemed limited and abrupt.

In response, Ma Bangde looked indifferent.

As soon as they met, they went upstairs to the ghostly old man's shoulder.

"Old ghost, we are also going to do business together in the future!"

"It is only right that we should walk around more!"

That intimate look, as if the two sides were forgetful friends.

For his part, the ghostly old man looked a little uncomfortable and pulled away from Ma Bangde without a trace.

"Instructor Ma, we all know you are a very busy man."

"If there is anything you need from me, just give me an order."

"If I can do it, I won't resist half of it."

This was a perfect statement.

Even if Ma Bangde had asked him, he would have politely refused on the grounds that he couldn't do it.

But the ghostly old man would never have thought that this man was here to test him.

"Oh, look at you, old man, how insulting!"

Ma Bangde was also directly as its hobnob at this moment.

"Nothing, I can't come and get close to you?"

"Come, ask your men to prepare some dishes, let's have a few drinks."

Faced with this kind of nose-stomping behaviour of his.

The ghostly old man was at a loss for words.

He could only let his subordinates, first, go ahead and prepare.

After all, what was going on between him and Lin Mo was a contest at the Patriarch level.

It was unlikely that someone of Ma Bangde's level would interfere.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4067

Between the pushing and the exchanging of gla*s'es.

Ma Bangde had already argued with the ghostly old man to drink several gla*s'es.

After a whole bottle of high strength white wine had been consumed, Ma Bangde felt that the time was right.

Then he spoke tentatively.

"Old Ghost, what do you think about the current situation in our three districts?"

"What can I say? Just sit back and watch."

The ghostly old man said with an indifferent face, and then a few gla*s'es of white wine went down again.

Er

Such a reply, directly to Ma Bangde whole will not.

This old immortal, so D*mn cunning.

"Old geezer, haven't you ever thought of moving up a bit?"

"You don't want your white cemetery, to be pointed at all the time, do you?"

Yet this kind of thought, which was seen as a target for other power lords.

The ghostly old man was not at all impressed.

"I'm a person who has half a foot in the coffin already, many things are already too much to worry about, yo."

"What else is there to scurry about? Let's leave the opportunity to you youngsters."

"I don't want to be disliked!"

Again, this was a dripping reply.

Ma Bond nodded along at this point.

"Also!"

"The old devil is open!"

The subsequent Ma Bond surprisingly ghosted out of the question.

All he did was to give the ghostly old man one more round of persuasion.

By the time the two bottles of white wine had all been consumed, Ma Bangde had already started to turn red in the face.

Words also started to become big and tongue-tied.

“I can’t, I can’t!”

“Old man, I’ve been too busy these past few days, my body can’t keep up a bit.”

“Next time next time I’ll definitely give you a drink down!”

With that he lurched to his feet.

After exchanging a greeting, he left the White Cemetery.

The original place.

The ghostly old man watched his departing back with a frown.

The only thing he could think of was that this bd had heard something from Lin Mo.

Only that he must not know much.

If Ma Bangde knew his true identity as a Patriarch, there was no way he would have dared to hook up with himself so recklessly.

“What a bore!”

The ghostly old man recalled Ma Bangde’s final appearance of pretending to be drunk and could not help but spit out a sentence.

How could a half-step Patriarch be drunk with some white wine.

After frowning and pondering for a while, Ghost Sou couldn’t think of anything.

He simply asked his men to withdraw the banquet

What he did not know, however, was that Ma Bangde’s final intoxication was not feigned.

He was indeed drunk.

And after returning to the Knife Sect’s premises, he had already started to sway on his legs.

He had just hooked up with a patriarch.

His initial plan had been to get the ghostly old man drunk and then extract information from him.

To do so he had begged a little something from the physician at the front line and added it to the white wine he had just made.

It was colourless, tasteless and non-toxic, and even a master would not be able to detect it.

The effect was also extremely C*ckeyed.

It made it easier for people to get drunk!

At first, Ma Bangde didn't notice anything unusual.

It wasn't until he noticed that after he appeared drunk, the ghostly man was unharmed.

This was what made Ma Bangde discover a hair-raising fact.

This old thing was actually a patriarchal powerhouse.

That was the reason why he had, in the end, left in a hurry.

"Who the hell would have thought that!"

"This old thing with half a foot in a coffin is actually a Sovereign Master."

After complaining, he couldn't help but worry.

Right now, then old ghost was not certain whether he was an enemy or a friend.

The only person who could check him, Lin Mo, was also bedridden.

If the old man suddenly went berserk, the three districts would be ruined.

He was filled with worries.

A sharp knock on the door suddenly interrupted his thoughts.

"Godfather, Godfather!"

"Something big is wrong!"

Hearing the commotion Ma Bangde bounced straight up from his chair.

"That old thing has come to kill us?"

The handlers froze for a second before they opened their mouths to report.

"Yes it's our front line, four strangers have suddenly come"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4068

The time came noon.

The sky, which had been clear, suddenly became dark.

The thick dark clouds seemed to weigh down on people who could not breathe.

Lin Mo had waited until now, but still had not seen the disciple's figure.

Neither the Black Rose nor Ma Bangde had any information about the disciple.

At this moment, the feeling of unease in his heart had become stronger and stronger.

"Don't let anything happen!"

As an atheist, he began to pray for the first time.

It was also at that moment.

There was a sudden knock on the door of the room!

Seeing the sad-faced and depressed Ma Bangde.

Lin Mo's heart seized violently.

It was as if his entire heart had been squeezed, making him unable to breathe.

The feeling of unease in his heart also reached its peak.

"Still no sign of Hatedless, right?"

In his tone, he had taken on the meaning of extravagant begging.

What Lin Mo wanted to hear most at this moment was a negative answer from the horse gang.

They hadn't found it yet!

It just wasn't to be!

Black Rose, who had come in with him, knelt directly in front of Lin Mo.

"Mr. Lin, I'm sorry!"

At these words, her forehead knocked heavily on top of the floor.

Teardrops as big as beans continued to fall.

Lin Mo's breath hitched and he only felt his body go weak.

All his strength was instantly drained.

He could only hold onto the table on the side to support himself from collapsing.

At the same time, a stiff smile was squeezed out of his face.

"It's alright, it's alright!"

"This little girl has special qualities, it's normal for ordinary people not to be able to find her!"

"You guys don't need to blame yourselves!"

These words were not only comforting to Black Rose, but more so to himself.

It was clear that he had guessed the outcome in his mind, he just didn't want to believe it.

"Mr. Lin"

Ma Bangde was just about to speak, but was interrupted by Lin Mo's growling voice.

"I said, if you can't find it, keep going!"

"My disciple, blessed with a gift, will surely be safe and sound."

The roar was heard all around.

By now his eyes were red.

After knowing each other for so long, it was the first time that Ma Bangde had seen Lin Mo lose his temper like this.

However, there were some things that should be faced, and they had to be faced after all.

Lin Mo could not lie to himself, nor could he lie to reality.

There was a light sound of footsteps.

Ji Dutuo slowly walked into the room.

After seeing this person, Lin Mo no longer had any sense of caution.

It was only because behind him, Yun's arms were holding the disciple he had longed for.

Only when they reunited again, Lin Wu Huan no longer had any life left in him.

The eight-trigram blade in her chest had not only pierced her heart.

It also lodged heavily in Lin Mo's heart.

"Brother Lin Mo, feel sorry for yourself!"

No matter how much grudges existed between the two sides.

Ji Dutuo also had a heavy face at this moment and comforted him.

At this moment, Lin Mo was already looking mute.

He had never thought that yesterday would be the last time that the master and disciple would see each other.

"No, my disciple is blessed with talent, he cannot be a short-lived person!"

Under his grief, how could he even care about Ji Dutuo.

After Lin Mo took over his disciple's body, he carefully placed her on the bed.

At this moment, Lin Wu Hate's limbs were already cold, and not a trace of blood could be seen on her pale face.

"Apprentice!"

This time, there was no more response to the call.

For a moment, Lin Mo's eyes were hazy as he raised his hand to gently brush Hate Free's cold cheeks.

"Disciple, don't be afraid, my master will save you!"

As the words fell, dense silver needles quietly surfaced behind Lin Mo's back.

However, at this moment, he was already suffering from internal injuries, plus he had just lost his heart blood not long ago.

Forcing the aura to be driven would only make his injuries more serious.

Poof!

With a fishy mouth and nose, Lin Mo violently spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood.

The veins in front of his forehead rose as high as tree roots.

There was even a heart-breaking pain coming from above the meridians

A severely injured body was forcibly driven to administer needles.

This kind of Lin Mo's already weak body became even more crippled at this moment.

With Lin Mo spurring out a mouthful of blood again, the silver needle finally penetrated into Hate Free's chest.

After sealing the blood near the disciple's wound, Lin Mo then carefully pulled out the one eight trigram blade.

The hideous wound was instantly revealed.

The heart that was originally alive was no longer beating at this time.

It had become dead and dull.

Only even at this moment, Lin Mo still did not believe the fact that his disciple had died.

"Wake up for me!"

After Lin Mo called out in anger, he once again took out the Dokken Nine Needles and combined it with the Art of Creation Divine Needle.

Doing that feeble struggle.

Only under this overdraft of his essence, his own vitality was also being lost.

Originally black, white hair kept surfacing.

Fresh blood continued to gush out of his mouth.

As Black Rose looked at his death-like demeanour, her heart inexplicably ached.

Just as he was about to step forward to dissuade him, Ji Duto's reminder suddenly came from behind him.

"He's in a state now, you can't stop him."

“And let Brother Lin Mo make one last struggle for his disciple.”

Everyone present knew that a person’s lamp had died.

Trying to rise from the dead was simply a nightmare.

Ji Dutuo sighed before frowning and asking.

“How could Lin Mo be so weak?”

In theory, after the two of them had fought, although they were both wounded.

However, he himself had let the two Nebula sisters help Lin Mo expel the thunder power from his body.

The rest of the internal injuries were not so neutral any more as to reach this point.

With such doubts, Ji Dutuo slowly squinted his eyes, and after carefully observing a bit.

Only then did he discover that Lin Mo’s weakness was not just seemingly physical.

There was a deficiency in his essence and spirit.

This was a sign of having moved his Origin Heart Blood.

Looking aside again, Black Rose, who had been half-dead a few days ago.

Ji Dutuo suddenly had an epiphany in his heart.

What a fool!

He had lost his Origin to save a mediocre woman.

Just as he was cursing.

Lin Mo couldn’t hold on any longer either.

After casting the Nine Needles of Doktor, he had come to the brink of collapse.

A sensation of spinning came over him.

He collapsed in front of the bed.

Seeing this, Ma Bangde and Black Rose’s faces were in a great hurry.

With one healthy step, they rushed straight over and immediately held Lin Mo up.

“Mr. Lin, people can’t come back from the dead.”

Ma Bangde said in a sad persuasive voice.

“Hate Free has gone, let her leave in peace.”

“Don’t be torturing yourself!”

These words were uttered.

Lin Mo’s eyes became even bleaker.

He knew that Ma Bangde still had half a sentence left to say.

Don't torment yourself and don't be tormenting Hate Free anymore.

At this moment, he failed to hold his last line of defence, and tears fell straight down his cheeks in his eyes.

The depressed Qi was unbearable and his heart was grieving, coupled with his already crippled body.

Lin Mo once again spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood.

At this moment, he could already feel that the meridians in his inner body had been broken in many places.

Even a few fragile ones were not for had broken.

Only at the moment, he didn't have the heart to care about this.

At this moment, even if he breathed, there was a piercing pain coming from all parts of his body.

"Help me up!"

Lin Mo said with a haggard expression, and his voice began to become breathless.

With the support of the two of them, he struggled his way to the bedside.

Looking at the cold corpse, Lin Mo couldn't help but feel sorrow from his heart.

"It was my master who failed to take care of it!"

"If there is an afterlife, I will make up for what I owe in this life."

With these words he stretched out his trembling palm and gently caressed above Hated's eyes, closing them for him.

At this moment, Lin Mo had already accepted this cruel reality.

But before he could withdraw his palm.

He fiercely noticed that on Hatedless' chest, that one wound had appeared abnormal.

Lin Mo spat blood several times.

The blood had more or less splashed onto the wound on the front of the scarless chest.

And just when Lin Mo was closing his eyes for himself, he was surprised to find out.

The wound was now eating his blood.

At first he thought it was his own eyesight.

After confirming it again, he was surprised to find that not only was the wound of No Hate devouring his blood.

It was also showing tiny signs of healing.

It was still salvageable!

After making this discovery, Lin Mo instantly woke up with a start.

This disciple of his, although all signs of life in his body had dissipated.

However, he was not completely dead, and at the very least, his body still had signs of self-rescue.

“Hahahaha! I told you that my disciple, with his blessed talent, how could he die so easily.”

The sudden uproar of laughter instantly startled the crowd present.

The first reaction of everyone was.

Lin Mo was so sad that he was hallucinating, or had gone mad.

With such doubts, Ji Dutuo followed Lin Mo’s gaze and looked at the corpse on the bed.

In the next second, Ji Dutuo also noticed the strange changes on Hated’s body.

The wounds had actually healed in tiny amounts.

After making this discovery, Ji Duto could not help but have his pupils shrink.

He and the two Nebula sisters exchanged a glance.

They both saw a look of shock in each other’s gaze.

Could there really be a miracle in this world of the dead coming back to life?

Just as several people were amazed.

Lin Mo made another move.

With a wave of his longsword in his hand.

A deep wound appeared on the right side of his heart.

Ma Bangde and Black Rose had not yet regained their senses from Lin Mo’s bizarre move.

Ji Dutuo on the opposite side had already cried out in alarm.

“Stop!”

“Lin Mo you don’t want to live, sacrificing subheart blood for a short time, you’ll die.”

As a martial artist’s origin, heart blood.

Since this item was extremely precious, unless under special circumstances.

Otherwise, people would rarely touch this item in general.

Especially in Lin Mo's current state, he was already weak and emaciated to the extreme.

If he were to move the heart blood, even if he didn't die, his entire cultivation would basically amount to being ruined.

If a disciple was lost, he could find another one.

But if one's life was lost, it would really be lost.

But Lin Mo's thoughts were the exact opposite of this.

He looked up and exchanged a glance with Ji Dutuo.

"Even if I die, even if I'm reduced to a wasteland, so what?"

"My legacy, my disciple will fulfill it for me."

"The way of a teacher, you don't understand!"

Ji Dutuo asked with a serious expression after he had floundered for a few seconds.

"And you can guarantee 100% that you will be able to save him?"

Even if Lin Wuyuan's 'corpse', showed signs of repairing itself.

But this did not mean that it could be brought back to life.

After all, instances of returning to the light were not rare.

It was somewhat reckless to use one's life or future to fight for this slim hope.

"As long as I don't die, I will do everything I can to save her!"

Lin Mo's resounding reply directly subdued everyone present.

Ever since the moment Lin Wu Hate knelt down and kowtowed to his master.

Lin Mo had treated this suffering disciple as if she were his own daughter.

Now that he had seen the hope of saving Hate's life.

Even if he had to sacrifice his own life, Lin Mo would still go for it.

After saying this he clenched his teeth.

Blood continued to seep out from the seven holes in his eyes, ears, mouth and nose.

Just when the blood from his heart was about to be must out of his body.

The tyrannical corpse that had been silent moved.

The hill-like figure swayed slightly.

When he reappeared, he had already arrived at Lin Mo's side.

With a press of his huge palm, he directly took control of Lin Mo.

Just as several people were puzzled, they only saw the tyrannical corpse slowly say.

“I’ll do it!”

The simple three words directly set off shocking waves in Ji Duto’s heart.

“Tyrannical Corpse, do you know what you are doing?”

He was not angry, but merely very surprised.

This tyrannical corpse didn’t have any extra interactions with Lin Mo’s master and disciple at all.

It was a complete stranger.
