Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4101

The scene that had calmed down a little was rekindled by the words of someone with a heart.

“They have the antidote, why didn’t they bring it out earlier, why didn’t they play with it, why did they have to do it at this time?”

“I think you are just fooling us so that you can cheat us back and wait for death!”

Once these words came out, the calm that had just been restored had agitated

Hearing someone dared to question Lin Mo.

Ma Bangde’s eyes opened in anger and he walked straight forward.

“What are you, Mr. Lin is also something you dare to question?”

With that, he reached out, ready to grab this person by the collar, intending to teach him to be a man.

Only at that moment Lin Mo blocked Old Ma off.

“Stand aside, isn’t it messy enough?”

This group of people was at a sensitive moment, and if they were stimulated a little, they would probably riot again.

Ma Bangde was taught a lesson and immediately withdrew his temper, glaring at the troublemakers before retreating.

At this point, however, the leader of the group was not the least bit afraid.

After being intimidated by Ma Bangde, a hint of cunning flashed in his eyes.

“Look at you guys, after being told off by me, you’re annoyed!”

“I think they just want us to wait for death!”

“What contagious disease or not, it’s just a lie!”

“Let’s rush over together, as long as we see our families, we’ll be saved.”

The crowd, whose minds were broken, had no judgement at the moment.

Hearing someone leading the charge, and hearing the word family.

The scene instantly stirred up again.

Seeing that the situation was once again out of control.

Lin Mo immediately gave Xue Lian a look.

In the next second, the fierce wind on the scene rose again.

Only this time, it was much less powerful.

It only set the group of infected back a few steps slightly.

After waiting for the scene to quieten down a little.

Lin Mo slowly narrowed his eyes.

There seemed to be a bit of a problem with this leader picking a fight in front of him.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo opened his mouth and asked.

“You’re from that power, what’s your name?”

The person on the other side did not show any fear in the face of Lin Mo’s scrutinizing gaze.

Instead, he straightened his chest and spoke with pride.

“I’m Gu He of the Turbid Green Gang, why do you want to take revenge on me, is that it?”

“Come on, we, the Turbid Green Gang, have already lost quite a few people for this great battle.”

“It’s not as bad as me, come on, kill me.”

“Let everyone see how you high and mighty people treat your own people.”

The tone of voice was generous to the extreme.

There was also no hint of fear between his expressions.

As soon as these words were spoken, echoes immediately rang out from the crowd behind him.

“What about everyone taking a look, we fought tooth and nail to protect the three districts.”

“Now this group of superiors are thinking that we are useless and want to get us killed.”

“We are not convinced!”

With a flurry of provocation, the crowd that was already restless and agitated.

At this moment, they were already looking at Lin Mo already the Blade Sect and the others with hostility.

“Mr. Lin”

Ma Bangde just wanted to warn the group of people of the possibility of making a move at any time.

Lin Mo suddenly raised his hand and interrupted him.

“There is no rush, these people have problems, keep a close eye on me!”

This Gu He’s words and actions were indeed abnormal to the extreme, not only was he not afraid of himself at all, he was even kind of expecting to get himself killed.

After noticing this.

Lin Mo felt even more that there was something wrong with this person.

“Do you know who I am?”

Gu He only thought that Lin Mo was trying to pose as an identity, after he coldly smiled.

His expression was arrogant to the extreme.

“You’re a big shot from on high, how could a dying man like me possibly know!”

“Why do you want to use your status to oppress me, is that it?”

“I tell you, I, a dying man, am not afraid of you at all!”

“Brothers, are you afraid?”

With a loud and clear question, he asked.

Immediately, a response rang out behind him.

“We’re all going to die, what’s the point of being afraid.”

“Not dying at the hands of the enemy, but dying at the hands of your own people, how ridiculous!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4102

Lin Mo even had to admit it.

This Gu He in front of him was indeed extremely good at pinning down people’s hearts.

In just a few words, he had bound him to everyone to death.

And not only that, he had also pushed himself into a confrontation with the hundred thousand or so infected people.

And the words were full of provocation, constantly stimulating Lin Mo as well as Ma Bangde.

As soon as he made his move, the scene would be completely out of control.

At that time, it would be a ma*sacre.

And once this matter spreads, it will directly affect the three districts.

Thinking about this, Lin Mo suddenly had a plan in mind.

After scanning a circle, he asked a question without slowing down.

“I told you, my name is Lin Mo, now do you know who I am?”

Gu He still had that untamed look.

Even after hearing Lin Mo’s self-introduction, there was still no change.

On the contrary, it was even more divine.

“I said, I don’t care who you are?”

“Either you kill us today, or behave and make way!”

These words came out.

Lin Mo and Ma Bangde looked at each other.

The fox’s tail had finally revealed itself.

It was not true that everyone had seen Lin Mo on the frontline of the three districts, but they must have heard of his name.

However, this Gu He in front of him had no reaction at all to this.

From the words as well as the look on his face.

He simply did not know the meaning of the word Lin Mo.

This person was simply not from District Three!

After Lin Mo gestured to come with a glance at Ma Bangde, a cold smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth.

“It doesn’t matter that you don’t know me!”

“But you don’t look like you’re infected at all.”

“Speaking in a neutral tone too, why are you in such a hurry to barge through this quarantine zone?”

This remark was made.

Gu He, who was still arrogant and proud, instantly changed his face.

During the exchange just now, he had only been focused on egging the crowd on, as well as provoking Lin Mo.

He had completely forgotten about his disguised appearance as a patient.

At this moment, the patients around him also cast questioning glances.

In the room, the sensed were either coughing and coughing or hypocritical and feeble.

Only this Gu He was full of mid-air and did not look a bit sick at all.

“You nonsense me me me”

After stammering properly for a while, Gu He hurriedly explained.

“Who says I’m not infected, I’m just holding it back cough cough!”

At the end of his sentence, he made a pretence of covering his mouth and coughing.

Seeing this, Lin Mo also lost his patience.

“Take it down for me!”

As soon as the words fell, Ma Bangde beside him directly struck out.

Although Gu He had some strength, he had no resistance at all in front of Ma Bangde.

In just one exchange of blows, he was pinned to the ground.

Gu He panicked in his heart and hurriedly shouted.

“Murder, murder!”

“This group of high and mighty administrators are trying to kill to silence them.”

“Everyone run even more

Along with his words fell to the ground.

Immediately, some people among the group began to respond.

“Mabond is going to kill someone, everyone rush over.”

Boom!

With such a voice from him, the unknown crowd at the back immediately stirred up.

Under the constant crowding!

The crowd instantly began to move forward and advance.

Lin Mo hadn't expected that this Gu He had been taken down all upset people.

Seeing that the scene was about to riot.

Lin Mo directly drew out his Tai Ah.

With a flash of coldness, a splash of bright red waved in mid-air.

Gu He, who was still screaming, directly screamed out in misery.

Having lost his arm, his face was filled with shock and pain.

It wasn't that Lin Mo didn't want to kill him.

In this situation right now, if a human life were to be lost making the scene even more out of control.

After finishing the fly that was Gu He, Lin Mo, with the help of Tai Ah's sword Qi, shouted.

“The antidote to the contagion is right here!”

“If any of you don't believe me feel free to come and try it!”

The crowd looked at the pill bottle he held aloft and couldn't help but stop in their tracks

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4103

At the beginning, Lin Mo originally wanted to, directly take out the antidote and pacify the crowd.

Only after the thorn in Gu He's side, it made him realise.

This riot was probably being used by someone with an ulterior motive.

So it was that Lin Mo cooperated with this Gu He to put on such a show.

"Are all eyes on it?"

After Lin Mo received an affirmative answer from Ma Bangde, he then held up the antidote to the contagious disease.

After seeing it in kind.

The crowd, which was originally grumpy and restless, couldn't help but stop in their tracks.

And among the crowd, several people, seeing the form, could not help but feel anxious.

"He's lying to us."

"Just a random pill bottle like fooling us!"

"Everyone, don't believe him!"

Lin Mo's gaze was cold: "Take these few people down for me!"

Since they had taken the initiative to expose themselves, Lin Mo would naturally not be polite.

And when a few of the people who had stirred up trouble were taken down, the crowd began to stir up.

There were twenty-seven people in total.

When Gu He saw that all his companions had been pulled out, his heart could not help but become impatient.

He could see that his plan to disrupt the three districts was about to be completed.

Instead, his own group of people were all taken down.

"You just want to kill and silence him!"

"Everyone doesn't need to believe his bullsh*t, he just thinks we've become invalids and wants to get us killed."

"This isn't an antidote at all!"

Although this was all just a dying struggle.

But under his frantic shouting, there were indeed many people who hesitated.

If it was an antidote, it was fine, but what if it was poison!

For a moment, the crowd could not help but hesitate.

After all, no one wanted to be a white rat for someone else and live for a second longer.

When Lin Mo saw this, he was in no hurry, he just spoke slowly.

“I still say the same thing, if any of you doubt the authenticity of this antidote of mine, feel free to come forward and try it out!”

After a long time.

There was a movement among the crowd.

A sturdy body was seen, carrying a companion to the front of the crowd.

“Please save my brother!”

“He’s dying!”

Immediately after saying this he knelt down and kowtowed heavily.

Beside him was a young man who was dying, with blood spilling from the corners of his mouth.

This was already terminally ill.

Lin Mo frowned and without hesitation, he handed over the medicine bottle in his hand.

“Don’t take it, it’s poison!”

Gu He eagerly blocked to.

“Are you trying to kill your brother?”

However, the other party didn’t even bother to pay attention to him, and even cursed a psycho.

His own brother was already in danger.

So what if there was a glimmer of hope to save him from the poison.

He would not even give up.

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd.

This brother did not hesitate to uncork the bottle.

“A-Di, come and open your mouth, just drink it and you will be saved.”

It seemed that he heard a voice.

The dying brother, convulsing, struggled to open his mouth.

The pale blue medicinal juice went down in a smooth stream.

At this moment, everyone could not help but tense up.

Countless pairs of eyes were fixed on the “white rat” in front of them.

Not a moment passed.

The brother first stopped convulsing.

The continuous coughing and shivering slowly disappeared.

Until he slowly opened his eyes.

“Awake, awake, really awake.”

At the sight of this scene, there were exclams of surprise all around.

The older brother instantly looked surprised at the sight: “A-Di, how are you?”

“Do you feel alright?”

This younger brother, although incredibly weak, could still see the look of relief on his face.

“I feel a wave of unprecedented relief.”

“So it feels so good to be able to breathe freely!”

He breathed heavily after saying that.

Then he passed out again.

“There’s no need to rush, he just hasn’t eaten for a long time. His body is just rather weak.”

Without waiting for this brother to ask a question, Lin Mo directly explained.

“Here, just give him this elixir to take it will be able to recover quickly

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4104

They waited until the two brothers had left unharmed, supporting each other.

The gazes of the people in the audience were already full of enthusiasm.

Having seen the effects of Lin Mo’s pills, how could the crowd dare to doubt them at this moment?

“Mr. Lin, please save us!”

With the first person leading the way.

The other people who were travelling with him followed suit and knelt down.

“Please save us!”

In a flash, more than 100,000 people, one after another, knelt down in front of Lin Mo.

The original hot as well as crazy gazes had all but disappeared.

Only a light full of hope remained.

Lin Mo raised his hand and said, “There is no need for everyone to be anxious.”

“Since the antidote has been developed, we will definitely distribute it as soon as possible.”

“Please return to your respective camps first and wait.”

This statement was made.

The scene instantly stirred up.

“Mr. Lin, do you still have it on you now?”

“I feel like I might not be able to hold on any longer.”

“Can you save us first!”

Hope was once again seen at a time of despair.

The anxious crowd could not help but pray.

Having been tortured by this contagious disease for so long, waiting one more second now was a torment.

With a frown on his face, Mabundu took a big step forward.

“You have over a hundred thousand people here, how can Mr. Lin possibly have so much medicine on him!”

“All of you wait honestly in your respective quarters!”

“Anyone who causes trouble again will not be able to get the antidote.”

At these words, the crowd then became honest.

Under a loud scolding from Ma Bangde, the crowd was full of reluctance and brushed past Lin Mo.

In the end, they had no choice but to leave.

At this moment, Lin Mo couldn't help but sigh with relief.

This kind of blackface scene should still be handled by someone like Ma Bangde!

After everyone had left.

Ma Bangde's gaze also shifted to Gu He's body.

He grabbed the man by the collar and without saying a word, he gave him a few big slaps.

“Tell me, who sent you?”

“Tell me honestly, and I can make you suffer less!”

Gu He looked at Ma Bangde angrily.

“You think I'm afraid?”

“Since I dare to show up here, I'm already prepared for certain death.”

“Trying to get information out of your mouth, you want it badly!”

Hearing these words, Ma Bangde's was about to teach this man a lesson again.

However, before he could do anything, Gu He laughed out loud.

“You guys don’t need to be too complacent, it won’t be long before I you guys will have to bury me with you.”

After saying this he bulged his bite muscles.

Ma Bangde saw this and secretly cried out that it was not good.

This man had a poison sac hidden in his gums, and that was a suicide move just now.

“I’ll go wait for you down there first.”

After Gu He laughed out loud, he directly closed his eyes and quietly waited for death to come.

From the moment he received this any, he had already prepared himself for certain death.

He did not have any fear at all for the impending death.

But he swallowed the poison and closed his eyes for a while.

There was still no movement in his body.

It was as if the poison had worn off!

Thinking of this, he subconsciously opened his eyes.

At this moment, Lin Mo’s brilliant smile was floating in front of his eyes.

“I forgot to introduce myself to you in detail.”

“My humble servant, the Medical Saint of China, as long as you still have a breath left in you, I can keep you from dying.”

He said as he held a few silver needles that he hadn’t used up yet, and deftly returned them to the needle capsule.

Hearing this, Gu He subconsciously glanced down .

Several silver needles had already been stuck into his chest.

The poison that he had swallowed earlier was also being dispatched to his body along the silver needles at this moment.

“How about that, is it a surprise, is it a surprise.”

Ma Bangde raised his eyebrows, his fingers pinching and crunching.

“You f*cking continue to give me foolishness again ah!”

After cursing angrily, his ca*serole-sized fist smashed viciously into the other man’s face.

The next second.

A miserable scream cut through the calm.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4105

“Mr Lim

Ma Bangde hurriedly pushed open the door of the room.

Seeing Lin Wu Huan still in a coma on the bed, he lightened his footsteps.

After exchanging a greeting with Xue Lian as well as Feng Wu Huo, he then came to come to Lin Mo’s side and said softly.

“That Gu He has spoken!”

Lin Mo got up and gestured for Ma Bangde to come above the corridor.

“Did he give an account of the person behind the curtain who gave the instructions?”

At the mention of this person, Lin Mo’s face visibly then turned ugly.

“The Laurens family!” Ma Bonder replied.

“According to their account, this incident of storming the quarantine zone was planned by them from the very beginning.”

“The identities of the members of the Turbid Youth Gang were also impersonated by several people after they killed the original owners.”

Lin Mo’s eyebrows had knitted together after hearing this.

This Lawrence family didn’t have any bottom line in their actions at all, to say the least, there was no caprice to speak of.

Not only did they poison themselves, they even wanted to spread this contagious disease completely.

“Okay, I know, in a few days, I will go find while to make a trip over there.”

“This Lawrence’s continued existence is always a scourge.”

After saying this Lin Mo turned his words around.

“The antidote has all been arranged, right?”

Ma Bangde immediately nodded.

“I have already sent the first batch of antidotes to the physicians.”

“Right now, they have recovered and are working overtime to rush the production!”

“It’s just that

At this point, Ma Bond paused for a moment, his face hardened.

“There are too many of them and there is still a huge gap in our stock of herbal medicines!”

With nearly two million infected people on the frontline, the base was simply too large.

Relying on the three districts' own stocks of herbal medicines alone was simply not enough.

After Lin Mo learned of this situation, he asked straightforwardly.

"Which district has the largest stockpile of herbs?"

"District Five!" Ma Bangde replied back.

"They are the largest district on the entire face of Death Island, and District Five grows medicinal herbs for sale all year round."

"If we are talking about herbal reserves, they must be the top."

When he said this, Ma Bangde naturally knew what Lin Mo was thinking.

"Mr. Lin, if you want to go to District Five, you need to pay attention to one more thing."

"They haven't been too peaceful over there recently!"

Lin Mo asked with curiosity, "Could it be that they you have another large-scale a*sa*sination incident?"

He had been to District 5 once before with Black Rose.

And had saved quite a few people.

It was just less than a month after this incident.

Now there was a problem again!

Ma Bangde shook his head, "Neither did that road, I didn't get into the details."

"But the intelligence coming from the men said that there was some mention of it."

After recalling a bit, Ma Bond continued.

"It was said that in their fifth district, a group of physicians had suddenly appeared, looking for people to compete in medical skills everywhere."

"And all of them are betting their hands and feet or even their lives."

"So far, there have been more than a dozen established physicians that have smashed into their hands."

Hearing this news, Lin Mo instantly sensed a hint of abnormality.

Competitions and sparring between physicians did exist, and were relatively frequent as well.

However, it was extremely rare for bets to involve the names of hands and feet, like in District Five.

Unless there is a deep and irreconcilable blood feud between the two parties.

This is especially true in District 5, where large-scale fights are rare.

Thinking of this.

Lin Mo withdrew his thoughts.

Right now, it would be better to speculate any further than to go to District Five and check things out.

He happened to be acquiring a large amount of medicinal herbs anyway.

“Old Ma, I’ll just take care of the medicinal herbs.”

“On the frontline side, you coordinate and plan well, save as many people as you can first!”

“Also, pay more attention to the authenticity of the identities of the members of the forces!”

Right now, the frontline was in chaos.

It was extremely easy for the Laurens family to plant spies.

This was something that had to be guarded against.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4106

“You want to go out?”

Xue Lian naturally had a hundred reluctances in her heart when she learned that Lin Mo was planning to go to District Five.

Right now, the entire Hidden Patriarchs of Death Island were all watching Lin Mo closely, wanting to get news of the Crystal Skull out of his mouth.

Moreover, Lin Mo had lost blood to his heart and his strength had not yet recovered.

Going out at this time was undoubtedly, a sheep into a tiger’s mouth.

“Why don’t I go with you?” Xue Lian suggested.

Lin Mo refused outright.

“No, District 3 still needs someone to keep an eye on it!”

Right now, Feng Wuhuo had been relying on this side, although he didn’t know what he was up to.

But against the people of the Seven Deadly Sins, Lin Mo would never dare to let his guard down.

And there was also the ghostly old man who had been lurking in the shadows.

This bd had already moved his ghostly thoughts when Lin Mo was injured.

Only to be scared back.

“And I don’t feel comfortable letting other people look after Hatedless.”

Someone had already made a move on Hate Free before, and this couldn’t be left unguarded.

Although it was said that in District 3, the current hidden problem on the surface, the contagion had been lifted.

But secretly, there were other hidden dangers.

Without a trustworthy patriarch sitting in the town, how could Lin Mo feel comfortable going out.

After Xue Lian learnt of Lin Mo's concerns, she could only reluctantly give up her intention to follow along.

"Be careful, don't be brave if you encounter anything."

After saying this, she shoved a showy porcelain bottle into Lin Mo's hand.

"This is the Sacred Lotus Pill I brought with me."

Such a precious thing, Lin Mo naturally didn't dare to hand it down easily.

Just before he could even come to refuse it, Xue Lian glared at him.

"I just put it in your place for safekeeping!"

"You'll have to return it to me when the time comes!"

However with such a far-fetched reason, how could Lin Mo possibly believe it.

It was nothing more than an excuse to force it on himself.

"Alright, I understand!"

"You also take care of your safety, I've already instructed Old Ma and the others about the trivial matters."

"I'll be back as soon as possible, besides when I get out, please escort me for a ride!"

Hearing these words, Xue Lian didn't even reflect them at first.

Only after she knew that he understood and Lin Mo made a dark wink towards himself did she understand.

She then nodded without a trace.

As soon as the words left her mouth.

Lin Mo then set off without stopping.

Just as he had left, a figure quietly appeared in the shadows.

"The little fox has finally left!"

The ghostly old man muttered to himself before quietly following him.

A few days ago.

When he had learned that Lin Mo had been injured, he had already planned to make his move.

It was only when he was just about to make his move that he discovered that Ji Dutuo had actually arrived here.

After making this discovery, he was directly frightened and panicked.

Of course, it was also because of Ji Duto's arrival that the ghostly old man also confirmed one thing.
Before that put out the news.

The news that the Seven Deadly Sins were collaborating with Lin Mo and sharing the Crystal Skull was most likely true.

Now that Ji Duto and the others had left, Lin Mo was going out again.

He could no longer rest easy.

"How foolish, to lose your heart's blood for a little girl!"

After taunting him, there was a sudden smile that appeared on the ghostly old man's face.

"But if not for that, how would I have had the chance to take you down?"

He had waited so hard for so many years on Death Island again.

The purpose was to me up the Crystal Skull.

Now that he had such a good opportunity, how could he let it go so easily.

With this thought in his mind, his pace became faster and faster.

However, just when he was complacent and ready to close the net, Lin Mo's figure in front of him suddenly disappeared.

For a moment, he subconsciously accelerated his speed.

When he reached the location where Lin Mo had disappeared, he still did not find anything.

Just as he was puzzled, a sound suddenly came from the side of the big tree behind him.

"Senior, are you looking for me again?"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4107

Lin Mo leaned against the tree trunk and looked at the ghostly old man in front of him with a deep meaningful smile.

He had guessed correctly, he had lost his heart blood now and his strength was much less than before.

At such an opportune moment, this ghostly old man would definitely not let go.

"Senior, are you looking for me?"

The ghostly old man's gaze flinched, only to quickly return to his normal self.

That signature amiable smile then surfaced on his face.

"Mr. Lin, isn't this ill health?"

"When I learnt that you were going out, I thought I'd come to see you off."

“After all, it’s not too peaceful on Death Island right now!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the branches of the trees in the forest suddenly swayed.

There was a slight chill in the breeze.

Lin Mo raised his eyebrows and smiled: “Not really good enough!”

“How about a match?”

Hearing these words, Ghost Sou’s face, which was still smiling, instantly sank.

Earlier, he had been framed by these words of Lin Mo.

Under the fear of his head, he did not make a move and missed a good opportunity for nothing.

This time, how could he possibly fall for it again.

“Good, I see that Mr. Lin has a rosy complexion and full of mid-air, how could he possibly be lacking in good health!”

“That’s a great opportunity today, I’ll accompany Mr. Lin to have a go at it.”

With that, he slowly squinted his eyes, his qi induced but not released.

From the outside, he still looked like a mediocre old man.

However, the aura within his body was surging wildly.

When Lin Mo saw this appearance of his meal, he knew that his opponent wanted to take him down in one fell swoop.

Of course this was expected by Lin Mo.

After all, no one knew how many pairs of eyes were watching his every move around him.

However, just as both sides were about to make their move, Lin Mo suddenly took a few steps back.

Seeing this, the ghostly old man asked with mockery.

“What, is this Mr. Lin’s fear of battle?”

At this point, he had already made up his mind that overplaying and comparing and all that was just an excuse.

His aim was obvious, to take down Lin Mo as quickly as possible.

Then flee the scene.

As long as he could ask for information about the Crystal Skull, he would be one step ahead of the others.

Opposite.

Lin Mo smiled and shook his head.

“It’s not that I’m afraid of fighting, it’s just that I have a friend who would like to have a go at you today!”

“In my case, I’ll have to excuse myself.”

A friend?

Before Ghost Sou could react, a graceful figure suddenly appeared beside Lin Mo.

With just a glance, Ghost Sou knew the strength of the person coming.

A Zong Shi!

But that wasn’t the end of it.

Just as the ghostly old man was surprised, aura fluctuations came from the leaves behind him.

Turning his head to look, directly an old man of his own age was staring at him with a smile.

One in front of the other, the two sides were in an angle.

At this moment, the ghostly old man could not help but feel a shock in his heart.

Right now, he was actually being pinned down.

Most of all, he had not expected Lin Mo to be so cautious and to have left a backhand.

With one against two, the ghostly old man did not have much chance of winning on his own.

Plus there were other clerics lurking around.

Thinking of this, he changed his face for once.

“Mr. Lin has spoken down, these two friends of yours are highly powerful.”

“The old man is too old, so naturally he cannot be a match, the old man admits defeat!”

Lin Mo had to admire the ghostly old man’s ability to change his face.

“Senior is joking, with your ability to deal with the two of them isn’t it a matter of handy?”

“I believe you!”

The ghostly old man: “???”

I believe you, my a*s!

If I could do that, I would have killed you already!

Just as he was cursing inwardly, Xue Lian had already taken the lead.

“Dunhuang Holy Maiden, Xue Lian, please enlighten me senior!”

Once Lin Mo heard this Xue Lian’s booming voice, he could not help but shake his head with a bitter smile.

It was obvious that this self-introduction was not just for the ghostly old man to hear.

It was more to let those patriarchs hiding in the shadows know as well.

Lin Mo, I, the Dunhuang Holy Maiden, am covered!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4108

Between the layers of forest.

After Snow Lotus introduced herself, she chose to strike straight away.

At this moment, the ghostly old man was forced to choose to take it as well.

Only, when the two sides exchanged blows, he was more likely to dodge, without the slightest intention to counterattack.

Without being sure how many clerics were hidden in the shadows around him, he did not intend to reveal his strength just yet.

Yet the thought was a good one.

But Lin Mo was not likely to give him that chance at all.

“Xue Lian doesn’t need to hold back his hand, Senior Ghost Sou has stepped into a Patriarch for decades, you don’t need to worry about hurting him.”

Hearing these words, Ghost Sou almost suffered internal injuries from anger.

f*ck you!

I’m just trying to hide my strength!

Just as he was cursing in his heart, Xue Lian’s attack had already reached him.

Both the speed and strength of her strikes were several times stronger than before.

There were even several times when he was almost struck by Snow Lotus.

Seeing that the situation had developed to this point.

The ghostly old man did not dare to hide his clumsiness any longer, and his originally unperturbed aura instantly surged up like a tidal wave.

As a result, he was able to face Xuelian’s attack again with ease.

Only, what made the ghostly old man rather depressed was this.

Even if he went all out, he did not dare to strike back.

What an identity the other party had!

The Dunhuang Holy Maiden, the jewel of the Dunhuang Sacred Domain.

If she was injured by herself.

With Xuan Hei Zi's nature, it was guaranteed that he would bring the experts from the Buddha Sect as well as the Dao Sect to kill him on Death Island.

Thinking of this.

The ghostly old man instantly felt regret.

Originally, he had only wanted to take advantage of the gap in Lin Mo's reduced strength to take him down.

For that reason, even if he exposed himself, it was worth it.

But now, he had failed to steal a chicken and lost his rice!

Not only had he exposed himself, he hadn't even touched the corner of Lin Mo's clothes.

However, while he was distracted.

Xue Lian's attacking stance suddenly changed.

"Senior, you still have to be distracted when you fight with Xue Lian."

"Are you underestimating me too much!"

The white shadow wavered.

By the time the ghostly old man came back to his senses, the jade finger show palm had already arrived in front of his body.

Look at this move has old cloth and dodge.

The ghostly old man crossed his arms directly in front of his body and tried to resist.

Only, when the palm was close, the ghostly man was shocked to discover an incredible phenomenon.

Xue Lian's seemingly mediocre palm had actually passed right through his own arms and pressed against his chest.

At the same time, a white light flashed past with great speed.

Without waiting for the ghostly old man to react, he felt his five organs shrink and the pain was unbearable.

In the next second, he was directly slapped out of the way.

After breaking several trees in his face, the ghostly old man crashed into a huge rock before he stopped flying backwards.

After he got up again, he felt that his Qi and blood were in turmoil.

The aura in his body had also become dead, as if his acupuncture points had been sealed.

His strength was greatly reduced!

What kind of palm technique was this?

With such doubts, he glanced at Xue Lian, scorn written in his gaze.

It was Feng Wu Huo, who was at the side of the battle, who could see the significance of this.

Although Xue Lian had hidden herself well and her strikes were as fast as lightning.

But that flash of white light just now still allowed Feng Wu Huo to catch a familiar aura.

That was the Eighth Grade White Lotus!

Although it was only for a brief moment, the hint of aura that emanated from it caused Feng Wuhuo's heart to palpitate.

This seemingly mediocre strike was enough to cause fatal danger.

"As expected, a legendary-ranked Dunhuang sacred object."

He couldn't help but lament in his heart.

On the contrary, on the side of the ghostly old man.

He was facing hard to carry the blow of the snow lotus sandwiched by the eighth-grade white lotus.

At this moment, he was already suffering from serious internal injuries.

He was only forcing himself to endure it due to the form in front of him.

"Worthy of being the Dunhuang Saintess, I am willing to pay respects to the old man"

After Xue Lian easily defeated the ghostly old man, her gaze shifted to Feng Wu Huo's body.

"Senior, since the atmosphere is here, why don't you also instruct me?"

These words came out.

Feng Wu Huo's face instantly changed.

In a matter of moments, he covered his mouth with one hand and held his waist pole with the other as he coughed violently.

"I haven't rested well these past few days, so I seem to have caught a bit of a cold."

"Next time, next time for sure."

He majored in the medical dao, and his strength in martial arts was also that of a master of the Zong Shi realm.

But when faced with Xue Lian, he didn't have any intention of making a move at all.

The status of the person was there.

Who would dare to make a real move?

And even if he won, outsiders would only say that he had bullied the young with the old.

If he lost, it would be even worse.

Just like the ghostly old man in front of him.

He is nearly a hundred years old, but he is still no match for a young girl in her early twenties.

All these decades of cultivation had been spent on cultivating a dog with a knife.

When Xue Lian saw Feng Wu Huo push back like this, she didn't continue in her request.

The reason why she opened her mouth was just to make an example of the monkey.

To suppress these two.

Save them from causing trouble for Lin Mo!

"Since that's the case, then senior should rest well!"

"When senior recovers next time, it won't be too late to instruct me again."

With that, the old man and the young man completed their exchange by tacit agreement.

As for the ghostly old man at the side, the corners of his eyes twitched in anger.

I'm the only one who's going to die, aren't I?

And he had forced himself to reveal his identity.

However, as the defeated man, he was no longer qualified to voice his discontent.

This time, he had lost all his trousers by sneaking up on Lin Mo.

Thinking of this, the ghostly old man also had no face to linger here.

After faking a polite greeting, he hurriedly fled from here and headed towards the third district.

Xue Lian looked at that hasty back, her soft eyes gradually turning icy cold.

"Lin Mo, what's the point of keeping such a person?"

"We might as well just"

Saying that, she made a motion to wipe her neck.

Only it seemed to be unskilled, and it looked a little playful and cute.

Lin Mo snorted a laugh.

"There is no need, there are so many patriarchs on Death Island, not more than one of him, Gisho."

"Not only can he help distract us a bit by being alive."

"And maybe, we can even become allies!"

Lin Mo had a good idea of how this Ghostly Old Man acted.

As long as you had strength, he would be pleasant to you, co-operate when he should and help when he should.

But once you appear tired, he will turn into a bloodthirsty wolf.

He will take the opportunity to bite you.

But as long as you can keep this ghostly old man under control, he is a rare tool.

Although Xuelian is intelligent, she has had too little contact with him.

She was still not sure about the capricious side of things.

But since Lin Mo had already spoken, she was not being insistent.

She was more worried about Lin Mo's safety than Ghost Sou's death or survival.

Especially now that this had happened to Ghost Sou, it made Xue Lian feel a little uneasy.

"Lin Mo, it's really not possible, it's better for me to go instead of you!"

"You haven't recovered your strength now, and Death Island is too dangerous for you."

Such a proposal was ultimately rejected by Lin Mo.

"You're unfamiliar with District Five, you wouldn't even be able to find a place if you went."

He said and craned his neck.

"Just don't worry, no one who can kill me, Lin Mo, has been born yet!"

"Che, bragging again!"

Xue Lian rolled her eyes in slight anger.

Lin Mo skipped over the topic with a laugh.

"Then I'll set off first, I'll rely on you on this side of District 3!"

With that he set off on his journey once more.

The two sides pulled away from each other straight away, and Lin Mo couldn't help but look back.

He didn't know when he had noticed that Xue Lian had changed since then.

Once upon a time, that quiet girl would actually get angry and even move to kill

Zone 5.

Patrol Guard Headquarters.

Xiao Liang, who was the manager of District Five, was no longer glowing at the moment.

On the contrary, his face was full of sorrow, and with that messy hair, he appeared to be a bit downcast.

This report in his hand, his eyes were written with anxiety and anger.

Knock, knock, knock!

Along with a knock on the door, Xiao Liang's head didn't quite scold.

"Get lost!"

"Didn't I say, don't bother me with anything!"

However, when he finished chiding, the door to the study was unexpectedly pushed open straight away.

"Chief Xiao, what kind of troubles have you encountered, you're so angry!"

There was a bit of joking between the words.

Xiao Liang was already annoyed, and at this moment, he heard that someone still dared to joke with him.

A surge of anger shot straight to his heart.

"You"

Just as he raised his head and was about to lash out, his expression suddenly stalled.

A warm smile then instantly appeared on his face.

"Benefactor, what brings you here?"

"Please take a seat, someone, serve tea!"

Lin Mo raised his hand to stop him, "There's no need for tea or anything."

"Let's talk about what's bothering Chief Xiao first, shall we?"

After Xiao Liang froze for a moment, he directly let out a long sigh.

"There's really nothing to say about such a disgraceful matter."

Although Lin Mo knew some of it, it wasn't detailed.

"Chief Xiao, why don't we just talk about it, maybe, I can still help?"

Xiao Liang and Lin Mo looked at each other after a glance.

His heart snapped back to the time before when Lin Mo, alone, had saved hundreds of seriously injured representatives of the forces.

For a moment, Xiao Liang's eyes also became brighter.

"Benefactor, sit down quickly, here's what happened"

.....

After some careful explanation from him.

Only then did Lin Mo understand the truth of the matter.

It turned out that a week ago, a group of strange physicians had suddenly arrived in District 5.

As soon as they arrived here, they started a heartless competition of medical skills.

If a physician from District 5 lost, his signature would be completely disordered by the other side.

In serious cases, their hands and feet would be broken and they would die on the spot.

“These people are deliberately coming to our District Five to cause trouble!”

Xiao Liang gritted his teeth and spoke.

“Originally, I was planning to expel this group of strangers.”

“Except that not only are their medical skills superb, their strength is even more unfathomable, with over twenty people, all of them half-step Zongshi strength.”

When Lin Mo heard this, he instantly caught the point.

This group of people was clearly a group action point.

Moreover, according to Xiao Liang’s description.

The methods of this group of strange physicians were also extremely similar.

This also meant that this group of people must have come from the same side of the force.

But to be able to send out more than twenty half-step Zongshi in one breath, it was evident that their strength was also extraordinary.

Just like the three districts.

There were only three Half-step Patriarchs in the region.

Before this group of strange clan masters, there was no comparison whatsoever.

Xiao Liang was obviously aware of this as well.

“We are also helpless, our medical skills are no match for others, and it goes without saying that the force is not on the same level at all.”

“But if they keep going on like this, our Fifth District will be completely finished.”

The biggest industry in District Five is the medicinal herbs, which is in fact the industry of physicians derived from the medicinal herbs industry.

The two complemented each other.

Once all the physicians in their five districts were brought down.

The real medicine market would definitely fall apart.

Naturally, they also understood this truth.

“In this way, I’ll take care of the matters in your five districts!”

“But you help me prepare some medicinal herbs and transport them to the border of District 3 to settle the bill when the time comes.”

Hearing this assurance from Lin Mo.

Xiao Liang immediately beamed with joy, only for his face to instantly fall when he saw the list of medicinal materials.

“Benefactor, it’s not that we don’t want to help you, it’s just that with so many medicinal herbs, we’re afraid that it would be difficult to gather them all at once
