Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4131

The visitor is a young man.

From his appearance alone, he looked to be in his early twenties.

His face was slightly pale, but his features were exquisite.

What was most noticeable about him was his long, snow-white hair.

It added a touch of feminine beauty to him.

This was the Chief of Intelligence of the Seven Deadly Sins, White Hair!

Zhang Qingshan recognised him at a glance.

Hastily then, his face also turned gloomy, even with a touch of caution.

“White Hair, our Five Poison Sect and your Seven Deadly Sins don’t have any conflict.”

“Why are you meddling in our Five Poisons Sect’s affairs.”

The words were questioning, but it was obvious that the bottom line was a little lacking.

The white hair turned and did not answer positively.

“Don’t you feel blushing when a sect master bullies an old man like you?”

“It’s true that Lord Ji Dutuo was right, your Five Poison Sect really has no bottom line in what they do.”

He said as he glanced at Old Master Cheng and his body shook around him.

The aura that had originally suppressed him instantly disappeared without a trace.

Elder Cheng only felt a lightness around his body and regained his ability to move once again.

“Many thanks to the young warrior!”

However the proud white hair did not give him any good looks.

“Get lost, we’re just not used to seeing the underhanded style of work of the Five Poisons Sect.”

“Just you’re just along for the ride!”

It was clear that he had not come to rescue Cheng Lao on purpose.

The purpose was clear, only to stop the Five Poison Sect.

Elder Cheng also did not expect such a reply from the other party.

It was just that with people under the roof, even if he had grievances in his heart, he had to suffer in silence.

At this moment, Elder Cheng's mind could not help but conjure up the figure of Lin Mo.

A clan master expert!

The difference between being a human being in this was simply too great.

As he thought, Elder Chen also left the place with quick steps.

Matters at the zong shi level were not something he could get involved in.

As Zhang Qingshan watched his target disappear before his eyes, he had his own reluctance in his heart.

But with the presence of the white hair, there was no chance for him to strike again.

However, just as he was about to leave with a sense of dissatisfaction.

The white hair behind him suddenly called out to him.

"Wait!"

White Hair spoke unhurriedly.

"Our Lord Ji Dou has asked me to convey a message to you."

"Your Five Poison Sect, if you act with such underhanded means again, especially persecuting the aborigines on Death Island."

"We, the Seven Deadly Sins, will definitely not spare you."

When Zhang Qingshan heard these words, his face instantly darkened.

Even a man of clay had three parts of fire.

Not to mention that he could be one of the five great sect masters of the Five Poisons Sect.

"Don't you think your seven deadly sins are too lenient?"

The white hair nodded directly.

"There's no problem if you interpret it that way!"

"Anyway, my words have been brought to you, how you choose is up to you!"

"Except that I need to remind you of one thing."

"Our Seven Deadly Sins' style of action is known to the whole world, we will destroy your Five Poison Sect when we say so."

This statement was made.

Zhang Qingshan could no longer bear it.

Due to his anger, his body had started to tremble slightly at this moment.

"Bullying people too much, just as our Five Poison Sect has no one?"

“The big deal is to burn the jade and stone, but no one will get the Crystal Skull afterwards!”

“Our Five Poison Sect is not easy to mess with either!”

The gloomy tone was full of threatening intent.

Only Hair White, however, was not moved at all, and his expression remained placid and condescending.

There was even a hint of disdain.

“Then you will try!”

“Our Grand Preceptor has already received word and is always on standby!”

“Big deal, we’ll just wait another twenty years, but from now on, there will be no more Five Poison Sects in the world.”

After saying that, his figure swayed and he directly left the

The original place.

Zhang Qingshan stared at the place where the white hair had disappeared, his gaze having turned red.

Only once he thought of the mysterious and terrifying Grand Patriarch of the Seven Deadly Sins.

He instantly calmed down again

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4132

Early the next morning.

The Seven Deadly Sins once again released the news.

Any Patriarch who dared to kill the natives of Death Island would be considered public enemy number one by the Seven Deadly Sins.

No one will die without repentance!

Although Ji Dutuo had already released this similar message before.

But this time it was obviously more serious.

Of course many patriarchs hiding in the shadows were clear that these Seven Deadly Sins were clearly targeting the Five Poison Sect.

If you think of solo travellers like them, or people in groups of three or two, it was too late to hide themselves.

How could they possibly do something so frivolous as to expose themselves.

And a group of patriarchs had also discovered the loophole behind this message.

Their Seven Deadly Sins said that they could not kill the aborigines on Death Island.

But there was no mention of the fact that they could not trend the powers of the districts.

And Lin Mo also seemed to be ignored by their Seven Deadly Sins.

This gave a number of clan masters the opportunity to strike.

Along with this news came the news.

The whole Death Island instantly became a dark tide.

In the following days, mysterious people visited the doors of the major powers.

.....

Lin Mo was naturally unaware of all this.

At this moment, he was following the army of medicinal material transporters, heading towards the third district.

However, just as they were halfway through the journey.

Right in front of the group, several figures suddenly appeared to.

Zhang Hongyun couldn't help but frown.

"Could it be that we've met robbers, what nerve!"

Only it didn't look like it even looking at the stance, the other side was only five people.

While there were nearly 20,000 people on their side.

Lin Mo shook his head, interrupting his uninformed speculation.

"You take the men and continue on your way, I'll go and talk to them."

With Force Demon's orders, Zhang Hongyun naturally wouldn't be inquisitive.

Under his command, the huge group continued to move forward.

As for the five masked strangers on the opposite side, they did not even give them a glance.

The eyes were gathered on Lin Mo's body.

One until the procession was far away and completely disappeared from sight.

Only then did Lin Mo open his mouth and ask.

"Gentlemen, state your purpose directly!"

"I have to continue my escort!"

As soon as the words landed, a person stepped out from the opposite side.

"On the matter of the Crystal Skull, tell us all that you know."

"Or else, die!"

The hoarse tone was filled with killing intent.

It was obvious without thinking that this group of people were not good.

Moreover, from their subtle aura, one could also tell that these five people were all experts of the Zong Shi realm.

Lin Mo glanced towards behind him.

An inexplicable smile then appeared at the corner of his mouth.

“That’s fine.”

“But what I know is all I know from the Seven Deadly Sins.”

“Why don’t you guys go ask Ji Duto, he’s very nice to talk to.”

Anyway, that Ji Dutuo was trying to pull himself into this trap.

Lin Mo simply sucked at explaining, and it wouldn’t do any good even if he did.

After all, his several meetings and exchanges with Ji Duto had already convinced that group of clerics in the shadows.

Lin Mo and the Seven Deadly Sins must have collaborated!

When the five listened to the first half of the sentence, their expressions were tinged with joy.

They felt that Lin Mo knew what he was doing.

However, when he finished only, the faces of several people instantly pulled down again. 33

“You dare to trick us, make a move to take him down!”

Just when since was ready to move, Lin Mo suddenly raised his palm.

“Wait a minute!”

“If you move me, is it hard to understand that you are afraid that the Seven Deadly Sins will be on you?”

After saying that he squared his coat.

“Displeased with you all, I know Brother Ji Dutuo and I from first sight.”

“He and I have long been brothers of the opposite sex in private.”

“So you guys still need to think of a price before you make a move!”

The lie Lin Mo was going to make up using Ji Dutuo was silky smooth.

With that incomparably serious look on his face, he was saying it with a nose and a face.

It was as if it was true.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4133

The outsiders all believed that Lin Mo had already entered into a partnership with the Seven Deadly Sins.

He thought he would just play a big game and scare you all to death!

And so it was.

Once this statement was made, several people were indeed subdued.

When Lin Mo finished speaking.

The five masked patriarchs in front of him did not say that they were completely convinced.

But a layer of scruples was clearly added to their hearts.

After glancing at each other, no one dared to make a rash move.

If Ji Dutuo was really backing him up, then Lin Mo really couldn't be easily moved.

So, the scene fell into an eerie silence.

After a long time, Lin Mo slowly spoke.

"Since you all don't dare to make a move, then I'll leave first!"

After saying that, he directly turned around.

The five Patriarchs were naturally upset as they looked at Lin Mo who was about to leave.

How could they just let go of an opportunity they had found so easily?

"Wait a minute!"

One of them, suddenly stepping forward, called out to Lin Mo.

"If Ji Dutuo was really so close to you, how could he not have sent someone to protect you?"

"Besides, you killed the Seven Deadly Sins, how could Ji Dutuo call you brother."

Hearing this, the other four companions also reacted.

Lin Mo himself had many Hidden Patriarchs keeping an eye on him.

Everyone was intent on being able to pry information about the Crystal Skull out of his mouth, one step faster.

Right now, Lin Mo's strength was greatly damaged, and he had left District Three alone.

If Ji Duto was really close to this Lin Mo, there was no way he would be at ease.

The main thing was that there was a deep blood feud between the two sides.

If they were to be on good terms, that would be a real hell of a thing.

At best, it would be a temporary cooperative relationship.

Lin Mo only smiled calmly in the face of the other party's rhetorical question.

"How about you guys try?"

The unperturbed appearance did add a few points to the caution of several people.

But right now, they did not want to let go of such a good opportunity so easily.

One of them had red eyes, "Just try it!"

As the words fell, he rushed up with his feet in the air.

A sharp short spear in his hand stabbed towards Lin Mo's dantian.

If he was hit by this move, his entire cultivation would definitely be ruined.

Surprisingly.

Lin Mo did not react in the slightest and even closed his eyes directly.

There was no sign of resistance in that look.

It was as if he was resigning to his fate and waiting for death.

"Got it!"

The attacker's heart was overjoyed, as if he had already seen the image of him taking down Lin Mo.

However, just as the tip of the spear was about to strike Lin Mo.

An angry shout suddenly came from the air.

"bd!"

In the next second, a sharp sword sliced through the void and instantly came in front of the duo.

The man who attacked had to give up his attack on Lin Mo as he saw the sword blade flying towards his brow.

By the time he had pulled back, white hair had already appeared between the two of them.

Only at this moment, his face was full of gloom.

"You did that on purpose?"

White Hair asked angrily.

He had investigated Lin Mo's past for so long, and knew well that Lin Mo was definitely not the type of character that could meekly resign himself to his fate.

Right now, he had deliberately given up his resistance, clearly sensing his presence.

And it was also a sure bet that he would never stand by and watch him being captured by another Patriarch.

Thinking of this, White Hair's face became visibly more gloomy.

This feeling of being led around made him extremely unhappy.

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders and denied it outright.

"Nonsense, you should be aware of my loss of heart blood."

"Strength is ten to one, how can one defend against such a sect master expert."

"Rather, I haven't thanked, you for helping out!"

Said he, arching his hand in thanks.

Ji Dutuo had already pulled him into this game anyway, turning himself pa*sively into bait.

Forcing White Hair to make a move now was just a way to collect some interest for being slandered by them.

Wanting to use himself as a pawn, he didn't even see what he was capable of

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4134

Just as the two were talking.

The five patriarchs on the other side were in a great hurry at this point.

In their opinion, the fact that White Hair had such an ugly face must have been because they, the men, had struck out at Lin Mo.

Then, couldn't it be that what this Lin Mo had said was true?

If not, how could this White Hair have just happened to appear here, and even made a move to save this Lin Mo!

With this suspicion, the hearts of the five people became nervous.

The main thing was that the price of verification might well be their own lives, and they could not afford to gamble on that!

After glancing at each other, the group flew away from here

The white hair looked at the back of the five people fleeing, and his face was like eating flies.

He was being used to death by Lin Mo.

As soon as he showed up, he was completely pa*sive to help Lin Mo true that he was extremely close to the Seven Deadly Sins.

And there was nothing that could be done about it.

Ji Duto's decoy plan was not completed and Lin Mo could not yet have an accident.

The only thing that white hair is more comforting is.

Just now he had silently locked on the trail of the five.

After recovering the sesame sized, transparent flying insect.

White Hair grunted coldly before leaping up onto a tree branch and preparing to leave.

However, when he turned around, he saw Lin Mo looking at him with a smile on his face.

And he kept this waving his palm.

“Thanks ha, next time I’ll buy you a drink!”

Hearing these words, White Hair stumbled on his feet and his blood churned in anger.

If he had known this, he should not have trailed over.

With disdain and anger on his face, White Hair glanced at Lin Mo and disappeared directly into the branches of the tree

The original place.

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders slightly, “Che, the youths nowadays are really impolite.”

After spitting out a sentence, Lin Mo once again caught up with the large group.

After this episode, there were no more other people to mess up the journey afterwards

After two days and one night of travel, the group arrived at their destination.

Ma Bangde and Black Rose, who were greeting them at the border, were instantly taken aback by the huge array.

It was just a transport of some medicinal herbs.

The five districts had actually sent nearly 20,000 people.

What was most surprising to the busy people was the serious shortage of physicians.

District Five had surprisingly sent over more than three thousand people.

“Mr. Lin, how did you manage to do that?”

Ma Bangde asked joyfully.

“I was having a headache over the lack of physicians these past few days!”

Lin Mo did not have too much to explain about this matter.

“This is someone’s fifth district being open and bright, so you should hurry up and make a good handover!”

“Right now the medicinal materials and manpower have all been configured, you eradicate this D*mned infection as soon as possible.”

Ma Bangde immediately straightened his back.

“Don’t worry, I promise to get the job done.”

With that, he farted around and approached Cheng Lao’s eldest disciple Zhang Hongyun to start the docking process.

As for Lin Mo, after giving a few explanations, he rushed back to his room.

Just as soon as he entered the door.

A smaller figure pounced towards him.

“Master!”

The seemingly slim arms were like iron rings, clinging to Lin Mo’s thighs in a deadly manner.

The eyes even became incomparably red.

“I was so close, I thought I would never see Master again!”

After murmuring a sentence, Hatedless’s arm increased its strength by a few more points.

It was as if the moment he let go, Lin Mo would seem to leave forever.

Lin Mo reached out his hand and gently stroked the top of Hate Free’s head.

“Silly girl, as long as Master is here, even the King of Hell won’t be able to take your life away.”

With that, he picked up Hate Free with a hug.

Although his tone was arrogant, the qi Lin Mo’s heart was also tight with fear.

If Ji Dutuo had not rescued him and always sent a messenger.

If not for the timely arrival of Snow Lotus.

The two students and teachers must have been separated from each other.

The little girl’s arms were also firmly around his shoulders.

Although they are master and disciple, they are like father and daughter

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4135

It was also when the master and disciple were immersed in the joy of their reunion.

Lin Mo suddenly noticed a hint of abnormality.

The spiritual qi within Hate Free seemed to be exceptionally disordered.

Only without even waiting for Lin Mo to ask, Snow Lotus on the side explained.

“After taking the Sacred Lotus Pill.”

“Hate Free seems to have made another breakthrough in her cultivation!”

“Right now, she has just awakened not long ago and has yet to adapt to this new realm.”

Although the main effect of the Sacred Lotus Pill was for healing injuries.

However, the spiritual power it contained was also extremely terrifying.

It was only reasonable that Lin Wu Hate’s realm had broken through right now.

When this was said, Lin Mo was greatly surprised.

Of course, behind this surprise was also a sense of urgency.

However, if a disciple had such a talent, the master would always be happy.

“Come, Hate Free!”

“Let me see just how far you’ve broken through.”

After saying that, Lin Mo hugged his disciple and walked towards the backyard of the room.

Behind him, Xue Lian did not feel anything.

Since she was Lin Mo’s disciple, the higher the talent, the better.

But on the side, Feng Wu Huo’s gaze was extraordinarily hot.

Such a good, or rather such a perfect seedling, was simply the most ideal successor to their Seven Deadly Sins.

For Lin Wu Huan.

Feng Wu Huo was becoming more and more fond of him.

Coming to the backyard.

Lin Mo placed Hatedless on top of the ground.

“Disciple, you are now attacking me with all your might. Let me see what level of strength you’ve raised to.”

The disciple’s strength had risen too quickly.

For Lin Mo, who was a master, it was also a troublesome matter.

Right now, he could only understand what level Hatedless had actually broken through to at the moment, so that he could treat his disciple for the right symptoms.

As Lin Mo’s words fell.

Haterless slowly took a few steps back.

“Master, Haterless is going to make a move oh!”

After she gave a mischievous greeting, she slightly arched her body.

In the next second, a black mist flooded around her body.

Compared to before, this dense black mist right now was significantly thicker.

Moreover, the aura gave off a more bizarre feeling.

As Hateless lifted his tiny arm.

The black mist instantly condensed onto his palm.

In a matter of moments, a giant claw taller than her body appeared in front of several people's eyes.

Under the sunlight, the black claw even glowed like hardened steel at the same time.

At the tip of the claw, a cold glint shot through it, and it seethed at the sight.

"Strike!" Lin Mo said with relief.

He was still satisfied with the change in Hateless' eyes.

Although the breath was rather disordered.

But that was only a common occurrence after a breakthrough.

And right now, through the breath alone, one could feel the enhancement in strength of this disciple of his.

The words fell.

The smaller body stomped hard with both feet.

In the blink of an eye, it had already appeared in front of Lin Mo.

The huge sharp claws whistled down.

Lin Mo's purpose was to test the disciple's strength, so naturally, he would not dodge.

By the time he raised his arm.

The sharp tip of the sharp claw fitted directly onto Lin Mo's palm.

After the two sides separated.

Four tiny red dots appeared on the palm of Lin Mo's hand.

It was also such a simple change that immediately caused the two people watching the battle, to look surprised.

As long as, although Lin Mo had lost his heart blood, his strength was greatly reduced.

But his own base was that of a clan master powerhouse.

And Lin Wu Hate, the little girl, was not even a half-step Zong Shi.

Yet she was also able to leave behind, on Lin Mo's body, traces of her attack.

If Lin Mo were to be replaced by an ordinary half-step clan master, just this strike would be enough to make him perish.

“This little girl, she is truly terrifying to the extreme!”

Feng Wuhuo marvelled.

To fight across borders was not an extremely difficult task for many pairs of geniuses.

However, there were indeed very few that could be as good as Lin Wuyuan.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4136

Xue Lian also shared the same sentiment as Feng Wu Huo.

No wonder Lin Mo said that this little girl would surpa*s them in the future.

At this moment, Xue Lian had seen it with her own eyes.

And what surprised her the most was this.

This Hateless' methods were also bizarre in the extreme.

This was the first time that Xue Lian had seen such a skill of using black mist to form a physical object.

However, just as the two people watching the battle were deeply shocked, Lin Mo did not have a frown.

“What’s wrong with learning at a young age, learning from your master to hide your clumsiness?”

“Don’t reserve your strength, go all out!”

“Or else my master will be angry!”

Hearing these words.

Feng Wu Huo’s eyes directly widened.

What?

Lin Wu Huan had actually retained a backhand with that strike just now.

Was that really true?

Just as he was shocked and puzzled.

Lin Wu spat out his tongue very mischievously.

“Disciple is not afraid of hurting Master!”

When Lin Mo heard this, his eyebrows couldn’t help but darken.

Was he himself being slighted by his own disciple?

“If you are naughty again, my master will have to send you to Da Qu.”

“When the time comes, you won’t be brought along!”

These words were like stepping on Lin Wu Hate’s tail.

At the thought of not being able to stay by Lin Mo’s side, her heart instantly became impatient.

“Master, then you should be careful!”

Lin Mo nodded, “Fine, if you can’t satisfy me with your performance today.”

“I’ll contact the ship right away and send you away.”

He urged once more in order to force Hatedless to use his full strength.

Only at this point, Lin Wu Hate had stopped talking back.

The look of mischief in his eyes had disappeared.

Instead, it was replaced by a rich seriousness and gravity.

Beneath his feet, the gra*s poured down in all directions.

No Hate launched a direct attack.

It was still the same stance as before.

Only this time, Lin Mo suddenly turned his body.

He raised his hand and shook it.

The sharp claws were directly grasped firmly in his palm.

As for the virtual shadow behind him, it had already disappeared by now.

“Not bad, the Ghost Shadow Step has been studied so thoroughly by yourself!”

Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction as he felt the slight tingling sensation coming from his palm.

Only that although he indicated calmness.

Inwardly, his heart had already rippled.

The Ghost Shadow Step was a medium body technique.

At the ultimate level of cultivation, it can leave five residual shadows in the air.

Such residual shadows could be easily distinguished by an ordinary Half-step Grandmaster.

But right now, the Ghost Shadow Step demonstrated by Hatedless had completely detached itself from the technique itself.

It could even be said that it had advanced the Ghost Shadow Step to an upper level stance.

Although there was only an imaginary shadow, it was extremely confusing.

When caught unawares. A half-step sect master would definitely be caught.

Of course, although Lin Mo was surprised, he was still not satisfied with this.

This disciple of his own had not yet exerted ten percent of his strength.

"It's not enough!"

"If that's all you have, I'll have to arrange for a boat!"

Hearing these words.

Lin Wu Hate slowly closed her eyes.

When she opened them again, her eyes, which were still white to see, were now covered with a faint layer of blood red.

At the same time, the sharp claw in Lin Mo's hand instantly turned into a black mist and escaped from his grasp.

The distance between the two sides pulled apart.

The sharp claw in Lin Wu Hate's hand had disappeared, reverting to the black mist from before.

Only, countless dense black needles had suddenly coalesced within this black mist.

"Isn't this the technique of my Hanging Needle Hand!"

Lin Mo muttered to himself.

In the next second, thousands of glowing black needles shot out at a speed faster than a bullet.

Lin Mo didn't care about his curiosity and leapt back.

With one hand on the ground, he deftly dodged the dense silver needles.

And just as he stood firmly on his feet, Lin Wu Hate had already arrived at his heels.

"What?"

Lin Mo exclaimed in shock.

At this moment, he couldn't help but stare in disbelief.

It wasn't just because of Lin Wu Hate's speed that surpa*sed common sense.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4137

Lin Mo watched as the huge black fist smashed towards him.

He immediately raised his own hands and crossed them against his body.

This was accompanied by a tingling sensation coming from his arms.

Lin Mo actually retreated three steps in a row before he stopped himself.

At this moment, Lin Wu Hate was also exhausted.

“Master, is this an okay performance from me?”

Lin Mo froze for a moment, and then nodded his head.

It was only at this moment that Hatedless closed his eyes in exhaustion and plunged towards the ground.

Lin Mo reacted in time and took a healthy step forward, steadily helping him.

Only when he and Xue Lian looked at each other.

Both saw a look of disbelief in the other’s eyes.

Just now they had both seen it.

On Hated’s back, the black mist had transformed into a pair of pitch-black wings.

And with the aid of these black wings, Hatedless actually soared up.

With that kind of speed that was so fast to the extreme, she rushed in front of Lin Mo.

“I’m afraid this little girl is going to be unbelievable in the future!”

Just as Lin Mo and the two of them were shocked, Feng Wu Huo, who was on the side, said somewhat dumbfounded.

Even experts of the Patriarch realm could only use their own aura to form a short stagnation.

It was not the same thing as flying at all.

And this ability to step into the air was a sign of the Sage realm.

In other words!

This little girl, Hate Free, was not even half a step to Sage, and she already possessed this terrifying ability.

Although it was with the help of the black mist, it was still astounding enough.

“I’ll take her back to rest first!”

Lin Mo apologised with a surprised face to Hate Free.

His mind was unable to calm down for a long time.

Right now, this disciple of his was just below the realm.

The reserves of aura within his body were insufficient.

Once she stepped through Zong Shi.

At that time, she would definitely become, under the saints, the only wonder talent used for soaring ability.

By the time Lin Mo returned to his room.

Ma Bangde's side had also approached him.

"Mr. Lin, I have made full arrangements for the treatment."

"Except that Lawrence's side seems to have made a new move!"

After a pause, he elaborated to.

"There's been no movement on their side of District 2 before."

"But in the past few days, there's been a new change in their troop deployment!"

"It looks like they are planning to launch an attack soon."

Hearing this news.

Lin Mo did not faintly cringe.

During this period of time, the reason why District 3 had been able to be so calm.

It was entirely because of the involvement of the Lawrence Family branch.

Now, it seemed that their branch's side couldn't withstand the pressure anymore.

It wouldn't be long before Clegg would start a new round of war.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo commanded.

"First, mobilise the members of the forces that have recovered, mobilise them."

"The scouts' side should also be strengthened, so that once there are any movements, arrangements can be made in time."

After thinking for a while, Lin Mo realized that this type of large-scale combat.

He was indeed somewhat inept.

It was not clear at all whether his platoon was reasonable.

"Right, how's the situation on Old Wang's side?"

"How long will it take for him to recover?"

It was better to leave professional matters to the professionals.

"He was one of the first people to take the antidote, except that he was also one of the first to be infected."

"It will take a while to see if you want to recover completely."

Here Ma Bond said, and suddenly the conversation changed.

"Why don't I arrange for him to come over!"

Lin Mo immediately refused, "No need, just let him rest for now!"

"However, you remember to talk to him about the information from the Lawrence family's side!"

"When the time comes, you just cooperate with him!"

Ma Bangde was a half-step Patriarch at any time, and had gone through a second time to open his wisdom.

Strength and talent are both superior.

But only the combat aspect would also mean that Chang Xing, a professional like him, is more suitable.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4138

After Lin Mo had finished instructing, Ma Bangde was just about to leave when he was called back.

"Wait a moment, you go to the White Cemetery first."

Ma Bangde's face was puzzled.

"Go where and do what?"

"Ever since the last time I drank with him, that old man, the ghostly old man, has been a complete shrinking violet."

"He doesn't see outsiders at all!"

Lin Mo smiled faintly.

He naturally knew that this old fellow, completely because of Ji Duto's arrival, didn't dare to go out.

It was entirely because he was scared.

"Try again this time!"

"Just say that I want to borrow their White Cemetery people!"

Without waiting for Ma Bangde to ask a question.

Lin Mo then spoke confidently.

"Don't worry, just tell him that I'm the one who wants to borrow it."

"And and tell him that from now on, the White Cemetery is at your disposal."

Lin Mo had never thought about whether or not for the ghostly man would refuse.

As long as he dared to say a single word no, the entire White Cemetery as well as the ghostly old man would have no need to exist in the Third District.

Earlier, this old man had been halfway intent on taking himself down.

If Lin Mo hadn't considered that there was still everything to be gained from keeping this Ghostly Old Man, he would have killed him long ago.

The current collection of the White Cemetery was just a way to recover some interest.

When Ma Bangde saw that Lin Mo looked so serious, he did not ask more questions.

Immediately after leaving this side, he arrived at the White Cemetery.

"Where's your boss?"

Ma Bangde asked straightforwardly as soon as he entered the door.

The subordinate shook his head, still with the same answer as before.

"The garden master is physically ill, and I'm afraid he won't be able to see guests for a while."

"Preceptor Ma, why don't you come back another time?"

If it were in the past, Ma Bangde would have just let it go when he heard such a reply.

He would have turned his head and left!

But today, he had come with a mission from Lin Mo.

Thinking of this, Ma Bangde raised his foot and gave a heavy kick.

"f*ck you!"

"Every time, so perfunctory!"

He said fiercely.

"Hurry up and inform your ghostly old man to hurry up and come out to see me."

"Or else you'll suffer the consequences!"

The subordinate saw that excuses were useless, and Ma Bangde again looked as if he would not give up.

After hesitating for a moment, he ran out, holding his red and swollen stomach.

Not long afterwards.

Footsteps sounded outside the door.

"Sect Master Ma, you have come to my White Cemetery in such a raging manner, are you planning to cause trouble?"

As soon as he entered, the ghostly old man questioned with slight dissatisfaction.

After seeing the rightful owner, Ma Bangde naturally had some weakness in his heart.

After all, this fellow was a great man of the Sovereign Realm.

However, once he thought of Lin Mo's command, he instantly straightened his back.

“Old man, Mr. Lin asked me to come and bring a message!”

As soon as the ghostly old man heard Lin Mo, his aura instantly wilted.

His face, which had been somewhat downcast, instantly revealed a brilliant smile.

“So that’s it!”

“Sect Master Ma, come, come, hurry and sit down and talk!”

“Someone, look at the tea!”

Such an attitude was given to Ma Bangde whole would not.

Since when had this old fellow been so afraid of Lin Mo?

Of course, it was best this way, to save oneself more trouble with words.

“There is no need for tea or anything!”

“Mr. Lin instructed that you be told to White Cemetery and listen to my calls from now on!”

After saying that, Ma Bangde’s mood couldn’t help but be apprehensive.

If this old fellow, angry on the head.

He himself, a half-step master, would be far from his opponent.

Just when he was filled with worry.

The ghostly old man unexpectedly agreed without hesitation.

“Since it’s Mr. Lin’s arrangement, then naturally there is no problem.”

With that said he he immediately took out a red wooden plaque.

“This is our White Tomb Order!”

“Seeing this order is like seeing me personally, and you can call upon all members of the White Tomb Garden at will.”

“There is no disobedience!”

The words fell to the ground.

Before Ma Bangde could even react, there was an additional wooden plaque in his palm.

Marbond was in a state of guilty blindness in his thoughts until he left the premises of the White Cemetery.

What he had thought would be a difficult task.

In the end, it went so smoothly that he was a bit overwhelmed.

“This old man, does he have some deadly hold on Mr. Lin.”

Ma Bonder muttered to himself.

This was all coming too evil.

The White Cemetery had been developed by the ghostly old man for twenty years.

It was so hard to have the scale that it had now.

It was surprising to say that it had let go.

Although it's not that it's giving way.

But this White Tomb Order is not much different from giving up the throne.

And Ma Bangde did not know that at this moment, the ghostly old man was also in a difficult position.

He, the ghostly old man, as a clan master expert, even if he did not see the White Tomb Garden.

But it was also his eyes to gather information.

Now that he had given it away for nothing, it would be a lie to say that he did so willingly.

All these things are just a choice of desperation.

Ever since he had revealed his presence, there had been some people around him.

Since he had revealed his presence, there were more or less hidden eyes on him.

If he left, he would definitely be intercepted and killed.

He knew exactly how strong he was, and he was not weak in a one-on-one fight.

If there were more than two of them, he would not be able to compete with them.

Compared to this, he could only stay on the front line.

At the very least, Lin Mo had not killed him before, which meant that he was not a threat to his life in Zone 3 for the time being.

It was just a matter of being exploited by Lin Mo!

Who let himself get carried away and think of capturing Lin Mo in advance?

Now it's too bad that all the rice was lost when he failed to steal the chicken.

I have to be on my toes all day long

.....

The other side.

After Lin Mo had accompanied him for a while.

The haterless then woke up in a quiet way.

After all, the time of exhaustion led to a great coma, to the point that there was not much delay.

As soon as she opened her eyes, she said with a mischievous face.

“Master, is Hate Free’s current strength a shock to you.”

With that, she stared expectantly, waiting for an answer.

Lin Mo shook his head with a bitter smile.

“Yes, yes, yes! No Hate is really powerful!”

“I believe it won’t be long before you’ll be able to protect Master!”

Hearing such a reply, Wu Hate’s eyes narrowed and she giggled out loud.

Although she was an excellent being in terms of natural talent and enlightenment, she was still a small child after all.

Since she was expecting affirmation, especially from Lin Mo who was closest to her.

“Master, I’m talking to you!”

Hatedless lifted her chin somewhat arrogantly.

“Actually, I still have many moves that I haven’t used yet!”

“It’s just that I have too little aura to release it!”

“Otherwise, it’s guaranteed to open your eyes!”

With that, he chattered and introduced himself.

Hearing such words.

Lin Mo was not much elated, instead he frowned.

He had to know that the heart techniques he had passed on to Hatedless before and after were only a copy of the Creation Technique as well as the Free and Easy Technique.

In terms of martial arts, he also only had the inferior Ghost Claw Technique.

And this was still an inferior martial art collected from the Cang Ying Gang.

As for body techniques, it was Director Qiu’s Ghostly Shadow Steps.

Then look at the current Lin Wu Hate.

The Ghost Claw Technique had been completely transformed into an unknown terrifying martial art by her.

The existence of that black mist was something that Lin Mo hadn’t even studied with any results right now.

Only that this thing was again so strong that it was terrifying!

Using martial arts levels alone as well as being unable to locate this black mist.

It could be expected.

Once Hatedless broke through to Zongshi!

I was afraid that the black fog would become a nightmare for countless clan masters.

Now Lin Mo heard that Hatedless had said that the black fog still had many moves that had not been used.

He couldn't help but be suspicious.

"Haterless, have you ever cultivated any other martial arts?"

Seeing that Hate Free shook her head, Lin Mo had carefully examined her once more.

Repeatedly, he confirmed that there was nothing abnormal about his disciple's body.

Only then did Lin Mo let out a sigh of relief

Although the idea was somewhat impractical.

But Lin Mo sometimes, really doubted if this disciple of his had had his divine soul tampered with.

Only after the test of the Doktor Nine Needles.

Lin Wu Huan did not have any accidents apart from the overuse of his spiritual energy, which had caused his body to be weak.

In this way, Lin Mo could only blame it all on his exceptional talent.

Some people were truly the Chosen Children.

Lin Mo couldn't help but believe this!

After a detailed enquiry.

After confirming it again and again, Lin Mo didn't mind if Hate Free went back to mulling over Black's new moves.

"You are now strong enough to crush a normal half-step sect master!"

"There is no longer a need to obsess over realm breakthroughs."

Lin Mo patiently taught.

"Right now the most important thing for you is to go and refine the aura in your body."

"Consolidate the realm you have today."

Although Lin Mo was not very old, his understanding above the martial dao had already surpassed that of an ordinary patriarch.

On the one hand, it was because he was also a person of outstanding natural talent.

On the other hand, it was because his current realm of Patriarch was refined by countless crises of horizontal death.

Not only was his base solid, his strength was even more formidable.

Hatedless naturally listened obediently to his words.

“Master, I understand!”

Lin Mo looked at her well-behaved appearance, his gaze filled with doting.

Just as the master and disciple, were talking.

There was a loud cacophony of noise coming from downstairs.

“I want to see Mr. Lin!”

“We want to see Mr. Lin!”

Dozens of physicians from District Five kept shouting out in front of a crowd of sabre teachers.

When Lin Mo arrived and saw how impatient Zhang Hongyun was, he couldn’t help but have a bad laugh in his heart!

“What’s wrong with you guys?”

“Could it be that someone is mistreating you all?”

“Yes!” Zhang Hongyun replied with righteous indignation.

Lin Mo said, “What’s going on, you guys tell us!”

In the next second, Zhang Hongyun turned red and said anxiously.

“Mr. Lin, that Ma, who was surnamed Ma, actually gave us only steamed buns to eat and slept in the open air!”

“That’s not treating us like human beings at all!”

And when he finished speaking, Lin Mo surprisingly nodded his head.

“Right, Old Ma did this, all because I arranged it!”

As soon as these words came out, the whole scene instantly became noisy.

The crowd exchanged pleasantries.

“Although we’re not exactly VIPs, we’re not treated so badly!”

“My God, we came to help out in District 3 and we’re actually eating steamed buns and sleeping on the gra*s!”

“Why do we feel that we are refugees!”

These comments naturally reached Lin Mo’s ears, word for word.

However, he did not say a word.

He just watched them quietly.

Time had pa*sed, and the crowd had noticed Lin Mo’s appearance.

Gradually, they stopped speaking.

Although they were discontented, they still had extreme respect for Lin Mo.

On the one hand, it was his superb medical skills.

On the other hand, it was Lin Mo’s hand that saved their master’s hands, and also saved the last face of the physicians in the fifth district.

He waited until the scene had completely quieted down.

Only then did Lin Mo open his mouth and explain.

“The front line is still in a state of isolation from the rear, using supplies as well as almost reaching the bottom.”

“As for accommodation, to be honest, we have a lot of empty tents.”

“When more or less all have died because of this epidemic.”

“I can have it sorted out if you guys can live with that.”

At these words, the crowd shook their heads.

How else could people live in a tent where people had died.

“If you can’t, what about my side?”

“If we squeeze it in, there’s no problem for 50 to 60 people to live there!”

Seeing Lin Mo give up his house.

Zhang Hongyun and the others, hurriedly refused.

“Mr. Lin, forget it, let’s just settle for a while!”

Seeing that there was no way to improve the food and accommodation.

Since they could only return unhappily as well.

It would pa*s after a while!

What they didn't know was that Lin Mo behind them suddenly had a bad smile on the corner of his mouth at this moment.
