Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4151

Lin Mo looked at the look of seriousness without hate in front of him, his heart was full of relief.

I remember when we first met.

The little girl was still a sightless, walking corpse-like existence.

Now not only had she come out of her own inner world.

She had even started to make her own judgement choices.

This was what Lin Mo was most worried about before.

He was afraid that one day he would have an accident.

This disciple with unbelievable qualifications and enlightenment would sink to the bottom and become a god of killing without any subjective judgement.

After thinking of this, Lin Mo looked at Ji Dutuo, who was beside him, who was overjoyed.

“Second Sect Master!”

“The matter of Hate Free and your Seven Deadly Sins should not be made public for a short period of time!”

Although Lin Mo supported his disciple’s choice.

However, he did not want Hatedless to face too much danger before Hatedless grew up.

Ji Dutuo smiled heartily.

“Is Brother Lin Mo worried that we won’t be able to look after the safety of Elder Horseless?”

His words shifted quickly.

It was already Hate Free Elder in a moment.

Instead, Lin Mo nodded straight away.

“You know the matters of your Seven Deadly Sins best.”

“Now that Haterless has not grown up yet, I do not want her name to appear on the list of people to be a*sa*sinated.”

This was something that he would not back down from, no matter what he said.

When Ji Dutuo saw how resolute he was, he did not persist any further.

“Fine, since it is Brother Lin Mo’s request, we will satisfy ourselves.”

“Apart from, these few of us, I will only inform our Grand Preceptor of the matter of Hate Free.”

Speaking here, he had added.

“But in that case, many of our treatments, Elder Haterless will not enjoy.”

The Seven Deadly Sins were not his Ji Dutuo’s one word either.

The distribution of materials for cultivation, as well as the transfer of rights were all under the responsibility of a special person.

If he wanted to hold onto his status as a Hate Free, he could only have the Grand Preceptor privately grant the token of Honorary Elder.

Lin Mo was not much bothered about this point.

What the Seven Deadly Sins could grant Hatedless, he, Lin Mo, would not lack either.

After some deliberation.

Both sides had also reached an agreement.

As for the medicine to cure the heart blood, it was rejected by Lin Mo.

He had agreed for Horseless to bear the name of the Seven Deadly Sins purely because he supported his disciple’s decision.

To receive any more from the Seven Deadly Sins would not be pure!

When Feng Wu Huo saw such a result, his heart had naturally already burst with joy.

He had seen Hate Free’s heaven defying qualifications and enlightenment.

Now this little girl was finally considered to have joined their Seven Deadly Sins with half a foot.

After the conversation was over.

Lin Mo had originally planned to return directly to the Third Region.

However, Ji Dutuo stayed with him!

“Brother Lin Mo, right now, there is no longer anything major in the Third Region.”

“Why don’t you rest again for the night and I’ll treat you to a good show tomorrow!”

“A good show about their Lawrence family, maybe the Five Poison Sect’s people will also be present then!”

After hearing the last sentence, Lin Mo directly agreed.

Both the Lawrence family and that Five Poison Sect were his enemies.

It wouldn’t hurt to take a look.

With Lin Mo’s nod, a group of maids immediately poured up with cheers.

Chattering, they led him, his master and disciple, and Xue Lian, who had come with them, to the resting room.

In situ.

Ji Dutuo, on the other hand, looked at Feng Wuhuo with an embarrassed expression on his face.

“Elder Feng, are you planning to follow them all the way?”

Ji Dutuo was also faced with this elder with two big heads.

Feng Wu Huo was at least the divine doctor and elder of their Seven Deadly Sins.

He was a man who stood at the top of the organisation.

Right now, this fart was following the asses of the two posthumans, and he was acting and talking like a butler.

What is this?

Do the Seven Deadly Sins not want to lose face?

However, when Ji Dutuo finished asking, Feng Wuhuo only gave a cold snort.

“When the old man does something, do I still need to ask you for an application .....”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4152

Feng Wu Huo didn't have any good looks at all when he faced Ji Dutuo.

After Ji Dutuo was disliked back, it was not good enough for him to get angry.

In terms of status.

This old man could be ranked as one of the founding fathers of the Seven Deadly Sins.

Moreover, Feng Wu Huo's Pill Spirit Hall had a great deal of credit for the organisation's development to its current state.

These two points alone crushed the vast majority of managers within the organisation.

Even the high and mighty Grand Preceptor would have to bow respectfully when he saw Elder Feng.

Not to mention others.

Ji Dutuo could only patiently explain.

“Elder Feng, why don't you tell me about your plan?”

“Maybe, I can even be of some help!”

He was well aware of the old man's arrogant personality, and his tone exchanged he coaxed as much as he could.

Feng Wu Huo glanced at Ji Dutuo, and after some hesitation, he then spoke.

“I plan to absorb Lin Mo and this Snow Lotus into our Seven Deadly Sins as well!”

“What?”

Once Ji Duto heard this decision of his, he was instantly stunned.

“Old master, this Xue Lian is originally the Dunhuang Holy Maiden, how could she possibly look at an organisation like ours.”

Whether it was the overall strength, or the heritage or status.

Dunhuang Sanctuary had crushed their Seven Deadly Sins in all aspects.

Moreover, Dunhuang also had extremely close relations with the Daoist and Buddhist sects.

She had left her status as a Saintess behind and joined the Seven Deadly Sins?

At this moment, Ji Dutuo even wondered if Feng Wuhuo was crazy.

And even if that was the case, who in the entire organisation didn't know about Lin Mo's deep hatred towards their Seven Deadly Sins.

“Elder Feng, do you want to think clearly about Lin Mo?”

Feng Wu Huo didn't even bother to pay him any mind and spoke impatiently.

“Isn't it just a matter of killing one of our men?”

“What a big deal!”

“When I think of the years, didn't Ao Barbarian just kill the Elder House after coming here.”

“He was eventually subdued before he became the current great sect master!”

“Compared to him, this little matter of Lin Mo's is nothing!”

He nudged his mouth with a disdainful face!

At this moment, Ji Dutuo's face changed greatly and he hurriedly changed the subject.

“Old Master, the matter of the two of them is too involved, we still need to think long and hard about it.”

“It's getting late, why don't you also go and rest first!”

The deeds of Grand Preceptor Ao Barbarian back then were a big taboo for their Seven Deadly Sins.

It was only this old man who dared to speak out with such seeming scruples.

Feng Wu Huo didn't want to say anything more, and after rising a lazy back, he directly got up.

“The two of them, Lin Mo and Xue Lian, I must pull into the organization.”

He said and his face turned serious.

“Little Tuo, I hope you understand that I’m not discussing with you.”

As the words fell to the ground, the temperature in the entire hall seemed to drop several degrees.

Underneath the icy tone, there was a faint murderous intent interspersed.

At this moment, Feng Wu Huo was like a sinister murderer, staring intently at Ji Dutuo and the others.

Under this gaze, Ji Dutuo only felt his spiritual energy stagnate.

His chest also became unusually dull.

“Don’t worry, Elder Feng, I understand what you mean!”

“That’s the best!”

Feng Wu Huo flung his large sleeves, before leaving.

Only when he reached the door, he stopped again.

“It’s normal for your new generation to have their own ideas.”

“But there is a degree to be grasped, and some minds that shouldn’t be moved should not be moved!”

“Touching the red line of the Elders’ Court, even Ao Barbarian cannot protect you.”

With Feng Wu Huo completely departed after that.

The two Nebula sisters immediately made a face towards the gate.

“This old man is really arrogant!”

Ji Dutuo had also recovered his look at this moment, and leaned his body back on top of the sofa.

“Those who can live from the beginning of the Seven Deadly Sins to now, naturally cannot be trusted to underestimate!”

“Master Feng is arrogant, naturally he has his capital to be arrogant.”

He said as he looked with deep meaning in his eyes in the direction where Feng Wu Huo had left .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4153

At night, the moon is high!

The bright moonlight falls silently through the window on the floor.

“Still not sleeping?”

Hearing the movement Lin Mo turned around.

“Aren’t you not sleeping either?” He asked rhetorically, looking at Xuelian who had come forward.

"It's probably because I'm used to it in Dunhuang, so I'm a bit uncomfortable when I come to this strange place."

After Xue Lian explained, her gaze shifted to Hate Free.

The little girl had already fallen into a deep sleep at the moment, and above her childish cheeks, a few tranquil colours leaked out.

"Do you really intend to, let No Hate be titled on the Seven Deadly Sins?"

Xue Lian asked with some curiosity.

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders, "This girl is stubborn as hell!"

"Knowing that I owe him a favour from the Seven Deadly Sins, she already has a decision in her heart."

Said Lin Mo, walking to the side of the bed, covering up the quilt that had been kicked over for Hatedless.

"Speaking of which, this is the first time the little girl has made a choice on her own."

"It's naturally not good for me, as a master, to discourage her!"

Xue Lian persuaded after some thought.

"We actually have other ways to repay the favour of the Seven Deadly Sins."

She didn't have much goodwill towards the Seven Deadly Sins either.

After all, the way this organisation acted was hardly much different from bandits.

There were countless things that were robbed openly and killed secretly.

Joining such an organisation would not be good for Hate Free.

This was something that Lin Mo naturally knew very well in his heart.

"There's no way out!"

"This Ji Dutuo has already made up his mind to recruit Hatedless into their Seven Deadly Sins ever since he had seen Lin Mo's talent."

"Even if it doesn't work this time, there will be another time!"

"You know how they act, they won't stop until they get what they want!"

The two sides are still able to maintain the apparent harmony they have today.

A large part of the reason was because of the existence of No Hate.

"And hanging a name of Honorary Elder, it's not necessary to participate in their Seven Deadly Sins fight."

Saying this, Lin Mo's gaze then looked towards the other end of the castle.

That side was precisely Ji Duto's and their resting area.

For both sides, this was the best outcome.

Ji Dutuo had achieved his goal and had dragged Hatedless into the Seven Deadly Sins.

Lin Mo was not in debt to him either.

Moreover, since Hate Free had become their Honorary Elder, there was no need to worry about Ji Dutuo striking at Hate Free in the future.

After hearing this, Xue Lian nodded with a pensive expression.

"Then will the hatred between you and Ji Dutuo and the others still exist?"

Lin Mo shook his head, "Not really!"

"Of course Ji Dutuo might not strike at me openly."

"But the petty tactics behind the scenes will definitely not stop."

"After all, their two sect masters are still dead in my hands, and he Ji Dutuo won't sleep well if I live!"

Although Hateless had nominally joined their Seven Deadly Sins.

However, Lin Mo would not naively think that the conflict between him and Ji Dutuo or rather the Seven Deadly Sins could be written off.

Both sides were able to maintain the apparent harmony they had today.

On the one hand, it was because of the existence of No Hate.

If Ji Duto were to openly target himself, it would certainly trigger hatred from Hate.

On the other hand, it was because his presence could draw out more hidden masters for him.

Since the last time, Ji Dutuo had released the news.

There were already more and more pairs of eyes secretly staring at him.

Lin Mo knew clearly that right now, he was like a bait to be thrown into Death Island by Ji Duto!

Once Ji Dutuo felt that the time was right, he would definitely set up a deadly killing game.

As he thought about it, a figure suddenly appeared in Lin Mo's vision.

At the other end of the castle, Ji Dutuo also happened to be in front of the window.

The two sides looked at each other after a glance.

He faced a smile and raised the red wine gla*s in his hand, gesturing towards this side.

Lin Mo, in turn, returned the same smile.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4154

The next day.

The sun was up at three o'clock.

Lin Mo followed Ji Dutuo to the place where Lawrence's garrison was.

As soon as he entered the main tent, countless pairs of eyes inside looked at him in unison.

The people present at the moment were all high-ranking managers within the Lawrence family camp.

With Ji Duto's arrival, the atmosphere in the main tent instantly became more tense.

It was Clegg, who was at the head of the table, who immediately stood up and greeted him warmly, breaking the silence.

"Lord Ji Dou, come and take your seat!"

With that he gave up his seat, while his gaze skimmed over the people who had risen together without a trace.

He had seen the two Nebula sisters and the tyrant corpse before.

As for the others, he didn't know them at all.

Lin Mo had gone through a disguise and was wearing a mask, so Clegg didn't recognise him either.

"Lord Ji Dou, these people are?" Clegg asked with a sense of curiosity.

"This is our elder!"

Ji Dutuo briefly introduced the two of them, as for Lin Mo's master and disciple, as well as the veiled Xue Lian.

They were passed over by Ji Dutuo under the name of friends.

"What a cute little girl!"

Clegg complimented as his gaze fell on Hate Free.

Only for some reason, the little girl in front of him looked at him with a bit of fierceness.

With such doubts, Clegg once again invited Ji Dutuo to take the main seat.

Only Ji Dutuo refused outright.

"Today is a scene for your Lawrence family to discuss something big."

"We just came over to watch the fun, don't mind me!"

With that he took away and made it to a corner where five people were seated.

"Go on guys!"

As Ji Dutuo's words fell to the ground.

Clegg first curtly nodded and saluted towards this side.

Only then did he speak towards the crowd.

“Since everyone is already here, let’s start as per us!”

Clegg presided.

“According to the intelligence, the contagion over in District 3, has almost been cured!”

“Right now is the time when they are tired, so this is undoubtedly the best time to attack!”

“Therefore, I plan to prepare for battle in these few days and be ready to attack at any time.”

Originally, the best time for Lawrence to attack was when the outbreak of the epidemic was at its worst in the three districts.

However, Admiral Cousins had interfered with it.

The battle had been delayed again and again.

Now, if they didn’t attack, his previous arrangements for poisoning would all be in vain.

As Clegg’s words fell to the ground.

The crowd also began to murmur.

The generals, of course, wanted the fight to start early so that they could have a chance to take credit.

However, the sub-chain, on the other hand, did not want to start a war when the three districts were weak.

After all, they didn’t want Clegg to unite the three districts until they had worn down the strength of the main lineage’s side.

“The patriarch is right, take advantage of his illness.”

“At this point in time, we start a war, just so we can take, the three districts by surprise.”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the branch members on the side immediately stood up and retorted.

“I disagree!”

“The infectious disease in District Three has not been completely eradicated!”

“There is no guarantee that we will not also be infected if we engage them now.”

The general also stood up and angrily rebuked.

“You cowards, you’re not allowed to go into battle again.”

“You’re afraid of a hammer!”

The branch members also scolded sternly.

“We are only responsible for the lives of our generals.”

“That’s a complete straw man.”

As the two sides argued back and forth, the number of people who took sides for and against became more and more numerous.

In time, the scene became noisy and chaotic in turn.

It was Clegg and his branch representative Cousins who were unmoved.

They both sat calmly in their seats, quietly sipping their tea.

It was as if nothing that was happening around them had anything to do with it.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4155

Lin Mo’s brow furrowed when he saw such a scene.

Could this be what Ji Duto said about watching a good show?

Watching a group of big men quarrelling?

Just as Lin Mo’s heart was in doubt, Clegg, who was on top of the head seat, coughed lightly.

“Alright, everyone be quiet!”

Seeing the family head speak, the noisy scene slowly quietened down.

After glaring at each other, the arguing and red-faced people resentfully sat back down.

“I know that some people are worried about the safety of the soldiers, so they are not willing to risk going to war!”

Said Clegg, sweeping a glance at the crowd in the direction of the branch, with a smile on his face.

Then the conversation turned.

“But war is supposed to be a mixture of opportunity and danger!”

“Why don’t we dare to take a chance and try?”

Last time, he was careless and was set upon by the main vein side.

The last time, he was carelessly manipulated by the Main Line, resulting in the Lawrence family missing the opportunity to fight.

This time, he had prepared well!

Cousins knew that all this was just window dressing.

The purpose was to encourage the people to go to war.

As he thought of this, the corners of his mouth curled up.

“What the patriarch said is not unreasonable!”

“I also support the idea of taking a risk and giving it a try.”

“If we win, we will completely eat up the three districts!”

At these words, Clegg glanced at Cousins with an unexpected look on his face.

Was this b*****d on the wrong medication today?

He had not sung against himself again today.

Just as Clegg’s mind was wondering, another member of the lower branch came forward.

“Admiral Kuis, I would like to ask, if we were unfortunate enough to be infected with this contagious disease.”

“What would be the outcome, have you ever thought about it?”

This statement, again, was what most of the people present wanted to ask.

Whether they were generals or family members.

There is no one who does not want to take credit for something.

But the prerequisite for this is that one’s life is saved.

Otherwise, what a battle!

As the crowd watched, Kuis frowned.

“It’s not a big impact if it’s properly controlled!”

“But .....

He said with a change of tone.

“If it gets out of hand, we, the Lawrence family, including District 2.”

“Or even, the entire Island of Death is alive and well!”

When these words were spoken, the whole room instantly erupted.

This price was more or less too high.

For a moment, even those who wanted to take credit began to feel fearful and hesitant.

Admiral Cousins smiled smugly at this.

All he had to do now was delay the start of the war until the combatants in Sector Three had recovered.

Only then could he engineer, with the forces under Clegg, the paving of the way for his own ascendancy.

The reaction on the scene today was what he most wanted to see.

With that in mind, Kesis rose and rode it out.

"In fact, we can also not be in such a hurry!"

"We could have waited until they had dispatched the infectious disease from the three districts, and then we would have attacked."

"At that time, the cost of gaining victory may be elevated, but the victory lies in a peace of mind!"

Once these words were spoken, those branch members underneath corresponded.

With them taking the lead, more and more neutral forces joined in.

At this moment, Kusi then turned his head to look at Clegg who was sitting above the main seat.

"Do you think this is feasible, Family Head?"

At this moment, he already had a winning smile on his face.

As long as they could delay, the chances of their branch's side winning would be even greater.

However, the expected scene of Clegg's anger did not happen.

He was still smiling calmly at the moment.

Before this meeting, he had already expected such a scene to occur.

"General Cousins, do you think I would fall twice in one pit?"

Just as the crowd was guilty of being baffled and confused.

Clegg was seen to clap his hands suddenly.

Within moments, a guard walked in in response.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4156

Inside the main tent in Zone 2.

Everyone in the room looked with curiosity at the porcelain vase in the guard's hand.

It was at this moment that Clegg suddenly rose to his feet.

"Generals and fellow citizens of Lawrence."

"I have found a solution to your concerns about the contagion."

With that he took the porcelain vase from the guard's hand and displayed it before the crowd.

"This is the antidote they have in the three districts for the treatment of this contagious disease!"

"And we can already mass produce it based on the sample of this antidote."

This statement was made.

The neutrals who were still supporting Kusi's side fell back.

The size of the major factions in District 2 had reached saturation.

It was no longer possible for everyone to move up the ladder.

The attack on District Three was a good time for them to build their careers and get rich.

And with Clegg's antidote, the hidden problems had been solved.

The crowd no longer had any worries.

"House Master, I support you!"

"Our gun combat troops are ready to go to war!"

All at once, the voices of the main battle on the scene became louder and louder.

Clegg smiled faintly and raised his hand to indicate the crowd to calm down a little.

"Admiral Cousins, what do you think?"

This was completely murderous!

At this moment, Kusi's face was extremely gloomy, he also did not expect that this Clegg had kept such a hand.

In this way, the delay in the battle he wanted was no longer possible.

And in the corner at one side.

Ji Dutuo looked at the porcelain vase and could not help but look at Lin Mo behind him.

"Brother Lin Mo, is this the antidote that your three districts have researched?"

Lin Mo directly shook his head in denial.

"Absolutely not!"

The antidote he had developed with his own hands, he could tell the authenticity with a single glance.

And the two main medicines of this antidote, Money Grass and Water Fragrance Vine, were extremely scarce.

Even for their three districts, they had thought that the one with this snow lotus had brought these two main medicines from the Dunhuang Sacred Region.

This was only enough.

To collect enough of these two main medicines from the barren land of Death Island alone is simply a dream.

The most important thing is.

In the recipe for this antidote, there is another indispensable medicine.

That is the blood of Hate's body.

To sum up, this Clegg's words were just bullsh*t.

On the contrary, after Ji Duto got Lin Mo's answer, a playful smile suddenly appeared on his face.

This time, he seemed to have caught this Clegg's fox tail!

The scene.

Kexis, who was already at an absolute disadvantage, suddenly had Ji Duto's life ringing in his ears.

In the next second, his originally lost face suddenly glowed with radiance!

"Wait a minute!"

Just as Clegg was about to order the initiation of war, Kexis jerked up and spoke to stop him.

"House Master, there might be something fishy about this antidote!"

Clegg's face sank violently when he heard this.

"Admiral Cousis, you have been desperately blocking this battle from the very beginning."

"I can understand your estimation of our generals' comfort before."

"Now, you are even trying to force interference!"

He said as he slowly narrowed his eyes.

"Is it hard to believe that the group in the third district is giving you some kind of advantage? Let you be so biased in helping."

Between the two sides, both knew what each was thinking.

Right now, with such a good opportunity to suppress the other side, Clegg naturally wouldn't let go.

After he had made such a point, many people at the scene also reacted.

It was true that this Kusi was acting somewhat abnormally.

"Is it possible that Lord Admiral is really having an affair with the Third District?"

"It's not impossible, Lord Kusi has been acting and speaking erratically from the very beginning."

"I think so too!"

Hearing these voices of discussion, the faces of the members of the Branch I clan suddenly showed anxiety .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4157

The form was looking increasingly unfavourable to Lucius.

The members of the branch were about to rise to their feet to argue their case.

Only at that moment, Kuis suddenly gestured for them to stay calm.

“House Master, I, Kuis, can’t carry such a big hat like you.”

“From the beginning to the end, this fist of mine can be seen by heaven and earth!”

After saying that, he directly drew the dagger at his waist and fiercely slashed it across his palm.

Bright red blood splashed around.

“I, Kuis, make a blood oath to have no interest in anyone in the Third District!”

The blood-red gaze, coupled with that fierce and determined gaze instantly subdued everyone.

Those who were still suspicious of him shut up and didn’t even have the courage to look at Ku Cis.

As Lin Mo watched this scene before him, the corner of his mouth inexplicably curled.

This Ku Xis was a ruthless man.

And very clever, this later word game was played by him vividly.

Right now, the focus of everyone’s attention was on his relationship with the three districts.

Few people thought that his real aim was to pull Clegg out of power.

There was a long silence.

Cousins scanned the room before fixing his gaze on Clegg, who was on top of the main seat.

“House Master, I only ask you one thing!”

“Do you dare to go with us to the third district to compare the ingredients of this antidote face to face?”

Hearing these words, many people at the scene only felt unsure.

But Clegg instantly panicked!

How did Cousins know that?

The antidote in his own hands could indeed cure the infectious disease that was rampant in District Three.

However, there was a loophole.

That was that this antidote of his own was completely different from the ingredients of the antidote in District Three.

Once the comparison was made, all his plans would definitely be exposed!

Thinking of this, Clegg’s expression also turned fierce.

“Admiral Cousins, have you made enough of this?”

“Even if you don’t think of yourself, you must think of the rest of our compatriots in District Two.”

“Once we take District Three, our Lawrence family’s strength will definitely soar.”

“At that time, our Second District will be comparable to the First District and become the most powerful existence on Death Island.”

The more he spoke, the more excited he became and even rose to his feet.

“Even if you want to fool around, you have to have a limit!”

“As a member of the Lawrence clan, don’t you want our family to grow and develop?”

Seeing that the situation was not in his favour, Clegg thought of borrowing the great power to suppress the other party.

Only he had underestimated Cousins’ decision after all.

“Naturally, I want our Laurens family to prosper more and more.”

“But also in what way!”

He said as he raised his hand and pointed to the vial of antidote.

“But it’s just a trip to the third district to compare and confirm, and it won’t take much time.”

“What are you worried about again, House Master?”

Clegg’s expression changed and his eyebrows locked into a frown.

“Right now is a good opportunity to wage war, and this is going to delay a lot of time again.”

“And if this medicine has been compared and it does come from District Three, what are you going to say?”

At this moment, Cousins was completely red-eyed.

If what Ji Duto had said to him was true, there was no better time than now to pull Clegg out of office.

With this in mind, Cousis plunged his dagger into the wooden table in front of him.

“If this medicine does come from the third district, I will not only surrender all the military power in my hands, but also kill myself currently.”

As soon as these words were spoken, the scene instantly exploded.

Who would have thought that this Admiral Kusi would play so big!

The members of the branch side were even more anxious and jumped to their feet.

This was too big a bet!

And they didn’t know where Kusi got such confidence.

If they lost, their branch would never be able to make a name for itself!

Within the noisy scene, the crowd was staring at Cousins with disbelief on their faces.

No one noticed that Clegg's face was already full of panic.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4158

As Lin Mo watched the scene develop into such a situation, it was clear in his heart.

In this match, Clegg had already lost.

After this meeting was over, the believed owner of the Lawrence family would have to be changed as well.

But this is not a good thing for the three districts.

Once the internal strife in the Lawrence family has subsided.

The opponents they would face in the future would be even more powerful.

At the same time as Lin Mo was thinking about the future.

The situation on the field had also come to a critical point.

Clegg couldn't think out of his head why Kusi had such confidence and strength.

The situation had developed to such an extent that it was completely beyond his control.

And he had to admit that with Cousins' death oath, he had been pushed to the brink.

He himself had been pushed to the edge of a precipice, and behind him lay an endless abyss.

One step further was death, and one step back was also death!

Thinking of this.

Clegg's gaze became incomparably fierce.

"I just want to defeat District Three and grow our Lawrence family."

"Cousins, why are you already dying to bite me!"

"I know you covet this family headship of mine, so if you want it, just say so!"

"As long as you defeat the three districts, I will naturally give way to you, so why be in such a hurry."

With these words, the two sides had completely torn their faces apart.

The advocates on Clegg's side instantly came to his side, their palms clutching their weapons tightly.

Naturally, the branch of the clan was not to be outdone, and they rose up to embrace Cousins' side.

Tensions were running high as swords were drawn between the two sides.

The neutral generals, on the other hand, seemed to be blind at the moment.

Those who were drinking tea, those who were sleeping, were busy with their own business.

As for the battle for the head of the family, it was a matter for the Lawrence family and had nothing to do with them at all.

Those who dared to interfere had nothing to do with it!

The two sides confronted each other.

Compared to Clegg's exasperation.

Cousins was at this moment looking smugly confident of his victory.

He knew in his heart that at this point he had won.

"Clegg, I'm going to call you Master of the House one last time!"

"As a member of the Laurens clan myself, I want my family to grow and prosper."

"But it depends on the way in which it is done!"

He said looking at Clegg with a look of disappointment.

"You know best in your heart what you have done!"

"In your way, even if you gained victory."

"We in Lawrence would be the laughing stock of the Isle of the Dead and it would not end well!"

"Don't you understand?"

After all, they were of the same clan.

For the sake of the family's face, Kessis did not make the poisoning public.

But in their hearts, they knew very well.

At the moment, Clegg's heart was already ashes.

The antidote had been his most effective means of fighting back against Cuxis.

Who would have thought that this item would become his own fatal point.

But even at this moment, he still couldn't figure out that the plan had been seamless.

He was the only one who knew about the antidote.

How could Cousins be so sure that the antidote did not come from the Third District?

Thinking about this, Clegg looked at Ji Duto and his group in the corner with a resigned look.

Someone had to have played a trick on them.

However, there was no chance for him to find that person now.

It was at this moment that Cousins, who was opposite, suddenly spoke up.

"Clegg, do you still want to resist?"

“Give up and leave yourself the last bit of decency!”

If the poisoning was made public, Clegg would definitely be ruined.

“Eh!”

Clegg sighed helplessly.

“Stand down, all of you!”

At these words, the supporters in front of him looked at him in confusion.

But Clegg did not explain much at this time, just waved his hand and dispersed all the supporters .....

It was as Cousins had said.

Clegg finally gave up on sophistry and struggle.

It was also his last decency.

With his supporters at his side, he reluctantly withdrew.

Clegg looked for a change of clothes, slowly took his seat and drank from his gla*s.

With the alcohol down, his eyes were already bloodshot.

“You win!”

Clegg said calmly, except that there was a bit of resignation at the loss in his tone.

It had come to this, and he could think that what he had done had been discovered.

And not surprisingly, he had been abandoned.

At the moment, Cousins’ heart could have blossomed!

Forcing back the excitement within him, he said unhurriedly.

“House Master you are drunk, I’ll have someone take you down to rest!”

With a glance from him, the branch members at the side went straight forward.

Clegg, even though he was carrying the strength of a half-step clan master, had completely given up struggling at this moment.

As the crowd watched, Clegg was led out of the area left and right.

It was clear to anyone with a discerning eye that rest was just an excuse.

The captivity was the real thing!

He waited until Clegg had been led away.

Only then did Cousins say.

“The meeting continues!”

With that he waved his sleeve in a grand manner and landed directly on the main seat.

The words and actions were in the air of intent.

From this moment on, the Laurens family had changed hands.

The battle between the two men for the head of the family was over.

Those generals who had been neutral and on the sidelines now rose up and began to enthusiastically greet the new head of the Lawrence family.

Throughout the whole process, Clegg did not say a word.

It was as if he was a spectator closely enjoying the show.

Lin Mo, however, knew in his heart.

All of this was just a way for Clegg to use his sword to kill people.

Only when Clegg was led away from here did he turn his head and say.

“Brother Lin Mo, I wonder if this good show is to your liking?”

Lin Mo didn’t even bother to answer such a question.

The reason why this Ji Dutuo had called himself to come along to watch this good drama of the Lawrence family lord’s fight.

The purpose was purely to tell himself that the blood feud between the two sides would not end just because of Lin Wu Huan’s existence.

The fight would continue, and the murderous spirit would still roam.

Lin Mo had already been prepared for this.

When he thought of Clegg, who had been taken away, Lin Mo suddenly asked rhetorically.

“Second Sect Master is this certain, the person behind the mastermind Clegg?”

Ji Dutuo smiled mysteriously, “Basically we already know, the other party’s information.”

“There are just a few more details that I need to ask this Clegg personally!”

With that, he extended an invitation.

“Would Mr. Lin be interested in coming along?”

After Lin Mo pondered for a while, he turned his head to look at Hate Free who had come beside him, before agreeing to do so.

Led by the guards, the group arrived at the room where Clegg was being held.

Meeting again only, he was not as furious as he thought he would be.

At this moment Clegg was just sitting calmly at the table.

In front of him were steaming cups of tea.

It seemed that he had already anticipated the arrival of Lin Mo and the others.

“Gentlemen, please sit down!”

Clegg retrieved the teapot and invited with a smile on his face.

The calmness was somewhat unusual.

Ji Duto naturally also noticed this, but did not take it to heart.

“Master Clegg, let’s talk!”

“Please!” Clegg still had that trademark smile on his face.

Only when he sat down, he took the lead and said.

“My lord, I have a question that I hope your lordship can help me answer a little!”

Seeing Ji Dutuo nodding slightly, he then asked the doubt that had been hidden in his heart for a long time.

“Is the death of our Lawrence main clan lineage related to your Seven Deadly Sins .....”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4160

The front line of Zone 2.

A separate large tent has been more than tightly enclosed around it.

A constant stream of watchmen came and went, their eyes sweeping deadly around.

At the slightest hint of wind or gra*s, the rifles in their hands would quickly strike.

Inside the tent.

With the sound of Clegg’s question falling to the ground.

Ji Duto shook his head straight away.

“Nothing to do with it!”

“By the time we arrived, there was no one left alive in your Lawrence Castle.”

Clegg also knew that the titular Second Patriarch of the Seven Deadly Sins would not be able to lie to himself about this stone.

With that in mind his gaze shifted to the crowd behind Ji Duto.

"If I'm not wrong, that person should be in here!"

"You're very smart!" Ji Dutuo copped out.

With that previous agreement between him and Lin Mo, he did not delve deeper into this topic.

It was also just as the tone fell.

Hate Free, who was sitting quietly on the side, also slowly rose to his feet.

"You don't need to guess, I killed the man!"

"Including you will die too!"

Clegg looked at the girl in her teens in front of him, his tightly frowning brow indicating that he simply didn't believe it.

Such a little girl could kill everyone in the main clan's lineage?

"Little girl, what a joke!"

Without even finishing the words, Clegg's pupils suddenly shrank.

The originally harmless little girl suddenly had a long, pitch-black whip growing out from her back.

In the next second, the sharp spikes of the long whip slammed here.

Clegg hurriedly turned his body sideways and quickly dodged.

Only he dodged the vital point, but he still left a shallow blood mark on his face.

What speed!

Clegg couldn't help but marvel inwardly.

Although there was an element of this sneak attack in it.

But one had to admit that the strange and swift speed of the young girl's moves was truly terrifying.

Most of all, the young girl was only about ten years old.

At this moment, Clegg finally stopped doubting what Hatedless had said.

Thinking of this, he glanced at Lin Wu Hate with deep meaning in his eyes.

Then, facing the murderer who had slaughtered their main clan, a smile still appeared on Clegg's face.

At the same time there was a hint of envy in his eyes.

If their Lawrence family could always have such a genius, why would he, Clegg, have to survive in the middle of this gap.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh with emotion.

"As expected of the famous Seven Deadly Sins,"

"A little girl is a genius of these demonic levels!"

In the face of his boast, the crowd did not respond at all.

It was Ji Dutuo who spoke with a playful face.

"It's a coincidence to say the least!"

"Hate Free Elder was also a member of your Laurence Family before!"

"It's just that you guys didn't know how to cherish it and hardened her must into an enemy of your Lawrence main clan lineage."

Hearing these words, Clegg looked stunned!

After a careful look at Haterless, he had no recollection of her at all.

"Lord Ji Dou is joking, what virtue is there in my Lawrence clan!"

This remark was made.

Lin Wu Hate stood up straight away.

"Clegg, you're not forgetting, are you."

"How that is heartless brother of yours abused my sister back then!"

"When my parents kowtowed before you and asked for a justice, do you still remember how you perfunctorily treated them?"

By this point, Hate Free's eyes were already covered with blood.

"It's just as well that you didn't do justice to our family."

"Why do you still have to secretly instruct your underlings to harm me my parents!"

Her fierce gaze was now filled with killing intent.

If Lin Mo hadn't been stopping her by the shoulders, at this moment, Hate Free would have already struck out.

It was only at this moment that Clegg finally recalled.

For a moment, a look of disbelief was written all over his face.

"You're the only sister of that family that survived ....."
