Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4161

Clegg thought back to the walking dead state that Hate Free had been in before.

And then to this cute, spirited little girl now.

He was tempted to link the two together.

But all that didn't matter anymore.

"This is probably all fate!"

Clegg let out a long sigh.

Being in a high position for so long had made him forget many things.

When he was young, he was also a cynical and righteous young man.

It was only after sitting on the position of family head that his mentality slowly changed.

"Ridiculous, ridiculous!"

Clegg laughed to himself.

If only he could have stopped himself from taking his lustful brother in the first place.

He would not have lost all of his own family to death.

As for himself, he would not have ended up in such a situation.

Even more so, the Lawrence family would have had a man of unbelievable qualifications.

Now it was too late to regret.

Everything was a foregone conclusion!

Lin Mo looked at his face and was speechless.

Perhaps the Lawrence family was not destined to grow and develop.

Of course none of this had anything to do with himself.

He had been stopping Hate Free from doing it, purely just the man behind the curtain.

"Who gave you that source of poison for your infectious disease?"

Clegg suddenly lifted his head when he heard this familiar voice.

At this moment, Lin Mo also withdrew his disguise and stared at him with an icy face.

"So that's it!"

Clegg muttered to himself with a strange expression.

“That senior was right!”

“The game at the Patriarch level, ordinary people like us are not worthy to interfere!”

“Is someone like me just a pawn in your eyes? At your mercy!”

“Or can be discarded at any time.”

Under such cold mockery.

Ji Dutuo, who was at the side, could not help but frown.

“Watch your words!”

“The fact that you will end up like this is purely of your own making!”

“If you hadn’t been two-faced, no one could have taken this family headship away from you!”

Speaking of this, Ji Dutuo’s expression also turned a few shades colder.

“We’ve told you everything you want to know!”

“Now you can explain the master messenger behind you!”

At this moment, he had already lost his patience.

However, just at that moment, Clegg suddenly laughed out loud.

“Lord Ji Dou, you are not monstrous in strength!”

“Can’t you even find out about this little matter with you?”

At these words, two figures instantly arrived in front of him.

One left and one right two short swords plunged directly into Clegg’s shoulders.

And pinned him dead to the wall.

“Speak, or die!”

Sister Nebula said with a grim face.

But even so, Clegg was not half afraid, and his expression looked incomparably frantic.

“Little children, you will never know any information from my mouth!”

At this moment, he looked as if he had gone insane.

Ji Dutuo frowned and was about to prepare to put an end to him directly.

Just at that moment, Lin Mo, who was on the side, reached out to stop Ji Dutuo.

“This is Hate Free’s last enemy, let him do it!”

After saying that, he patted Hate Free’s shoulder.

He had not let her do it before because he thought he could pry some useful information out of this Clegg's mouth.

Now that he couldn't get anything out of him, there was no point in keeping him.

Ji Duto did not object either.

After all, the Hated One was now one of their Seven Deadly Sins.

This little thing would naturally be enough.

However, just as Hate Free was walking forward with his pitch-black claws in hand.

Only to see Clegg go berserk again.

"You guys don't really think you can eat me up, do you!"

"Hahahaha, wards, you're still too young."

At these words, Lin Mo instantly realised that something was wrong.

"Beware of"

In the next second, the ground instantly shook all around!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4162

Wait until everything had calmed down.

Lin Mo's ears buzzed.

The place where the crowd was had turned into a ruin at the moment.

The huge pit overflowed with the smell of gunpowder everywhere.

No one would have thought that this Clegg was so ruthless as to have buried a large amount of gunpowder in this area.

The dust cleared.

Lin Mo hurriedly began to look for Hate Free.

Fortunately, at the first moment of the explosion, Ji Duto had stepped in to protect her.

This was coupled with the black mist that Hate Free herself had coalesced into a shield.

Under the huge explosion, she was unharmed.

As for the others present, they were all experts of the Sovereign Realm, so this explosion was no more than an itch for them.

When Lin Mo looked at Clegg's side, there was no sign of this man.

"No good!"

If there was no mistake, someone had just taken advantage of that set of explosions to take Clegg away.

For someone to have such an ability, one could know with one's knees that the person who came must also be an expert of the Zong Shi realm.

"They haven't gone far yet, chase!"

Ji Dutuo shouted immediately after he found out.

In a flash, the two Nebula sisters, as well as the tyrant Feng Wu Huo, instantly disappeared into thin air.

Lin Mo saw that Xue Lian was also planning to make a move, he hurriedly blocked them and said.

"You don't need to go, be careful of transferring the tiger away from the mountain!"

He was not yet healed now, and was also worried that he would not be able to protect Hate Free properly.

After Snow Lotus reacted, a shrunken version of the Eight White Lotus quietly appeared in his palm.

While vigilantly observing the surrounding movements, it came directly to the side of Lin Mo's master and disciple.

After a long while!

Ji Duto and the others went and returned.

After seeing several people again, one could clearly see the look of disappointment on several people's faces.

"They should have been prepared!"

When Lin Mo heard this, he also knew that these few people had failed to catch up with each other.

And with such a huge commotion happening over here, it naturally alerted the entire front line.

By the time Ku Xis arrived with his men.

He was stunned by the huge sunken ground of more than 20 metres in front of him.

The guards who had been guarding the area were reduced to ashes in the explosion.

And the most amazing thing about it was that Cousins was amazed.

Even with such a tragic explosion, Ji Duto and his group were unharmed.

Apart from a little dust around their bodies, there was nothing unusual at all.

"Nothing happened over here!"

Ji Dutuo hurriedly said when he saw the steady stream of legions gathering around him.

"Let everyone disperse!"

"It's just an explosion!"

At this time, Kuis also reacted.

If such a big commotion was not dealt with in time, the whole front line would be in chaos.

“All generals, listen to the order!”

“Retreat to the legions under your jurisdiction, if you find a riot, behead them!”

With a roar.

The legions that had been rushing to this place stopped in their tracks.

After a while, the chaotic scene gradually calmed down.

As for Cuxis, seeing that Ji Duto and the others were unharmed, he led everyone away from here.

He understood in his heart.

Since Ji Dutuo did not say anything, it meant that he did not need to be involved in this matter at all.

The position of family head was not easy to come by.

It was only right for him to serve Ji Dutuo well.

After everyone had left the room, Ji Dutuo was frozen.

Only then did Ji Dutuo freeze his face and said.

“It’s the Five Poison Sect’s people, although they didn’t manage to catch them on their heels.”

“But when it exploded just now, I felt a familiar aura.”

“If I didn’t guess wrong, it should be that old fox An Qingshan who came by.”

The two sides had crossed paths before because of their pursuit of Lin Wuyuan.

Ji Dutuo then made a note of An Qingshan’s scent.

“This matter, we Seven Deadly Sins will not rest in peace!”

“Don’t worry, Haterless Elder, we will definitely deliver Kleck to you when the time comes.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4163

Clegg’s life or death was simply a matter of no consequence to Ji Duto.

But right now, with so many of his own people present, he had even let someone take Clegg away.

This involved a question of face.

Especially since Hate Free had just taken up the name of Honorary Elder of the Seven Deadly Sins, and this kind of face-smashing incident had occurred.

This made Ji Dutuo even more upset.

After saying a few very nice words, he repeatedly assured that they would send Clegg to Hate Free in a few days.

Only then did the matter settle down.

There were two sides to the story.

On Cousins' side, with Clegg's downfall and disappearance.

He immediately began a radical overhaul.

Clegg's inner circle was removed from their posts and then easily returned to the rear.

As for those positions that were left vacant, other members of the branch were the first to fill them.

Under this orderly arrangement.

The Lawrence family, from top to bottom, was undergoing a major bloodletting.

The time came to noon.

Lin Mo felt that he had taken a little too long on this side.

So it was time to prepare to say goodbye to Ji Duto's.

"Brother Lin Mo, you've come just in time!"

"I was just about to look for you too!"

With that, he let a delicate wooden box be handed over to Lin Mo.

And laid inside was a token that was constantly glowing with silver light.

"This is the Elder Decree of our Seven Deadly Sins!"

"Elders who hold this order can call upon most of the battle power within the power."

"Of course heavenly spirits and earthly treasures and the like may be exchanged for it as long as one has enough contribution value."

As for the function of the token, Ji Dutuo only explained a few simple words.

"Haterless Elder, I still have to caution before the sub."

"Once you hold this token, you must not innocently mutilate our fellow Seven Deadly Sins!"

"Moreover, our organisation most abstains from killing each other, so if not necessary, I hope that Elder Haterless will refrain from making a move against one of his own."

This was something that even he, Ji Dutuo, did not dare to touch.

Once there was an unprovoked, internecine killer!

What they would have to face was the mad pursuit of the entire Seven Deadly Sins.

The kind that would not stop until death.

No Hate did not reply, just reached out and silently took it.

Up to this point.

The matter of Lin Mo coming to District 2 was also advised not to be dealt with.

Ji Dutuo's favor was also repaid.

The person behind the poisoning and the mutilation of his disciples was also known.

It was time to return to the third district.

"Second Sect Master, since there is no more business over here, it's time for us to go back!"

"Next time we have time to have a drink and a chat!"

The two exchanged information with each other after some courtesy.

Of course, when they said they were exchanging information, it was actually more like Ji Dutuo telling them some news.

The two sides continued to talk until the afternoon.

Only then did Lin Mo take Xuelian and No Hate on their way home.

Inside Lawrence Castle.

Ji Dutuo was standing right in front of the window, quietly watching the backs of the few people leaving.

"Lord Ji Duo, we're just going to let him go back?"

White Hair asked with some confusion.

Especially when he thought of the scene a few days ago where he was held by Lin Mo without any help at all, he couldn't help but feel angry.

"Or else!" Ji Dutuo looked back and asked rhetorically.

"Even if we keep him, what's the use?"

"It's not like we can move, so instead of that we should put him back in the third district."

He said as he lifted the red wine brought by the two Nebula sisters.

"The more contact we have with Lin Mo."

"The more the outside world will believe in the news we put out before!"

"Such good bait, what a pity not to throw it out!"

Ever since the last time we let out the news that Lin Mo knew the location of the Crystal Skull.

The harvest wasn't small.

The white hair alone had locked up no less than twenty of those hidden clan masters.

As long as the time was right.

The Seven Deadly Sins would start their hunting operation.

Now that No Hate had taken on the name of the Seven Deadly Sins.

The only thing left to do was to get to the Crystal Skull.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4164

The front line of Zone 3.

By the time Lin Mo rushed back.

The infectious disease had already been effectively eradicated.

Apart from the first batch of infected people who were still in the recovery stage, the other members of the forces were already able to move around normally.

It was just that due to being bedridden for a long time, their body skills had not yet fully recovered.

A period of recuperation was still needed.

The first time Ma Bangde learnt that Lin Mo had returned, he rushed over with Black Rose!

“Mr. Lin, the casualty count of this epidemic has come back.”

Black Rose said and fetched out the document from Hand Mountain.

“The total death toll of the forces is over sixty-seven thousand, with the Clear Turbine Gang being the most tragic.”

“The number of people who died from the contagious disease in their one force alone reached over thirty-six thousand!”

As the Turbid Green Gang was the first to be exposed.

Such a large number of deaths was to be expected.

Only when Lin Mo thought of this group of people, they had been deliberately poisoned to death.

A nameless anger could not help but arise in his heart.

“I will make those behind the scenes pay!”

Lin Mo said with a gloomy face.

Only at the moment there were more important matters that needed to be dealt with.

He could only suppress, the anger within him and said.

“Gather all the power lords on the front line, gather them all!”

“I have something big to announce!”

Seeing Lin Mo's serious expression, the two did not dare to delay and hurriedly went to inform several other power lords.

Within a short while, there were power lords arriving one after another.

The last person to arrive was Wang Changxing, who had just recently recovered.

Having crossed the ghostly threshold, his whole mental outlook was obviously much better.

Only his body bones had not yet fully recovered and his face was slightly pale.

"Greetings, Mr. Lin!"

Above the first seat, Lin Mo nodded slightly in response and casually gestured for the crowd to take their seats.

"Time is short, so I'll get straight to the point!"

"Firstly, all the infected people on our frontline have been effectively treated for their conditions."

"But for those brothers who unfortunately died, everyone should dispose of their remains as soon as possible!"

Said here Lin Mo's expression also became serious.

"In order to prevent secondary infection, all remains must be cremated."

This was indisputable, although the living ones had been cured.

However, these remains were still a source of infection.

Regarding this point, the power lords present, to the extent that they had no opinion.

Lin Mo continued.

"Not long ago, I went to District 2!"

"The Lawrence family has changed hands, and now it is their Admiral Cousins, who is in charge of the entire Lawrence."

When these words came out, several power lords, couldn't help but look astonished.

They did not expect that in just a few days.

The Lawrence family had unexpectedly suffered such a big change.

Just as a few people exchanged whispers, Wang Changxing's eyebrows could not help but knit together.

Sensitive to war, he immediately realised that the situation was not good.

Previously, Lawrence's infighting had only been in the best interest of their three districts.

Now that Clegg had fallen, the screwed-up Lawrence family would be even harder to deal with.

Thinking of this, Wang Changxing immediately got up and asked.

“Mr. Lin, is the war about to start again?”

Lin Mo nodded slightly.

“That’s right!”

“What we need to do now is to grab time.”

“Their Lawrence family head has just changed, and they also need to tidy up and clean up.”

“This time is our chance!”

Saying this, Lin Mo solemnly instructed.

“Ma Bangde you send this medicine recipe to Zhang Hongyun!”

“Tell him to refine the largest amount of such a body toning medicinal juice!”

“As for the others, deal with the afterlife of the brothers under your name as soon as possible!”

The words fell to the ground.

Everyone immediately rose to their feet, “Yes! Mr. Lin!”

With that said, the various power lords got up and rushed to their own power’s quarters.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4165

As several of the power lords dispersed.

Lin Mo left Ma Bangde alone with Wang Changxing and Black Rose.

“There are some things that I should also talk to you guys about to come clearly.”

When the three saw that Lin Mo looked so serious, they immediately gathered their attention.

“In fact, what you are all facing now is only a superficial image

Said Lin Mo then hid the upper level of the patriarch and spoke out.

As for the crystal skull it was directly covered up by him under the guise of a supreme treasure.

It wasn’t that he intended to hide it, it was just that at the level of the three of them, it wasn’t good to know too much.

After Lin Mo had finished telling the three of them about the situation.

The scene instantly fell into silence.

It was only after a while that Ma Bangde spoke.

“Mr. Lin, we’re too bullish too!”

“If you heard correctly, that means that the people we’ll be facing in the future in the three districts could be all sect masters?”

Lin Mo nodded slightly, “That’s right!”

“As long as they want to take the first opportunity to capture the treasure, they will have to be involved in this new game.”

Lin Mo had kept this to himself, taking into account the fetal hearts of these power masters.

He was worried that if they knew that the opponents they would be facing were patches of clan masters, they would become fearful.

Thus, they would not have the heart to fight.

Now he looked at Ma Bangde’s incomparably excited look and instantly realised that his previous fears were completely superfluous.

Not only Ma Bangde, but also Wang Changxing and Black Rose at the side were also eager to fight.

Especially Wang Changxing, whose gaze was already full of enthusiasm at the moment.

After thinking about it for a while, he asked excitedly.

“Mr. Lin, the first thing I know is that going forward, in our fight with District 2, will a Patriarch intervene?”

Lin Mo shook his head straight away.

“You guys don’t need to worry about that.”

“They Seven Deadly Sins have already put the word out!”

“As long as any clan master is not allowed to persecute the aborigines on Death Island.”

Before returning to District Three, Ji Duto had left himself behind just to clarify this matter with himself.

Although he did not understand its intention.

But for Lin Mo this was a good thing.

At the very least, he didn’t have to worry anymore about existences like the Five Poison Sect using the underhanded tactics of Yixi.

After Wang Changxing received this news, his entire person was visibly exuberant.

“It still means that all the sect masters can only command from behind the scenes in the end?”

“It can be understood that way.” Lin Mo said with certainty.

After the rules of the game were set down along with the Seven Deadly Sins.

No matter if it was the clan masters hiding in the shadows.

Or even existences like the Seven Deadly Sins and the Five Poison Sect.

If they want to get a head start in the battle for the Crystal Skull, they must develop local forces on Death Island.

The more chaos they occupied, the greater the chance of finding the Sea Wolf King and Lan Dieyi in the future.

After Wang Changxing got the answer he wanted.

Immediately, his eyes locked on the area map of Death Island.

He was so full of wariness that he could not wait to go to war right now.

It was Lin Mo who looked at the perverse attitude of several people and couldn't help but feel curious?

"Aren't you guys scared?"

"Afraid of what?" Wang Changxing twisted his head and asked.

"The other side are all clan masters hey!"

Lin Mo raised his finger and pointed at the three of them.

"If you guys are like that, even a thousand more wouldn't be enough for them to kill!"

When Wang Changxing heard such mockery, not only did he not get angry, but he was full of excitement.

"Didn't you say, Mr. Lin, that these clan masters of theirs can't directly interfere in the battlefield."

"Old Wang I'm not in fear of just competing for commanding combat abilities alone!"

"And if I can use this to defeat the patriarchs, it will surely be the greatest achievement of my life, Wang."

The thought of being able to play against a patriarch on the battlefield day after day.

His whole body could not help but tremble

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4166

Lin Mo was clear that the reason why this Wang Changxing was behaving like this.

It didn't seem to be because of fear, it was pure excitement!

He hadn't seen in his usual life that these three people in front of him were actually militants as well.

Even though they would soon be fighting against the forces commanded by the Patriarch, they did not show the slightest bit of cowardice.

On the contrary, the three were already filled with anticipation and excitement at the moment.

After Wang Changxing had withdrawn his gaze from the map, he hurriedly asked.

“Mr. Lin Mo, how many more experts are we currently at the Zong Shi level in the three regions?”

Although Ji Dutuo had explicitly forbidden it.

But there were still some things that had to be guarded against.

After all, dogs would jump over walls when they were desperate!

Not to mention those Zong Shi experts.

Lin Mo replied, “We can’t be sure yet!”

Not certain?

Wang Changxing had a puzzled look on his face.

“I’ll give you the answer tomorrow!”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he discussed some more with a few people about the arrangements for the front line.

It was only after the meal time that the crowd dispersed.

As for Lin Mo, after leaving Hateless in the care of Xuelian, he arrived at the White Cemetery’s quarters alone.

As Ma Bangde had already accepted the entire White Cemetery, the place was much cooler.

As soon as Lin Mo approached, the ghostly old man suddenly appeared in front of him.

“How is senior’s injury?”

Lin Mo asked with a raised eyebrow.

Earlier, this old man had tried to intercept him halfway due to greed.

It just didn’t occur to him that Lin Mo’s had shaded him, so much so that this this head had been struck by the Snow Lotus’ eight-grade lotus.

The internal injuries still haven’t recovered by now.

The ghostly old man smiled resentfully, “I’m sorry for Mr. Lin’s concern, this injury of the old man has almost healed.”

“Do you know what is important for Mr. Lin to come here?”

If he had a choice, the last person he would want to see in his life would be this young man in front of him.

However, after revealing his identity, there was no place for him on Death Island.

Once he stepped out of the third district, he might face the siege of countless clan masters.

After all, an exposed Patriarch.

There was only one Crystal Skull, and one less Patriarch was one less competitor.

This was something that the ghostly old man still saw clearly.

Lin Mo replied with a joking intent.

“Why old master, can’t I come and have a drink and a chat with you if I have nothing to do here?”

The ghostly old man did not know Lin Mo’s intention, so naturally he did not dare to refuse, and could only welcome him with a smile.

“You are most welcome, come Mr. Lin please come inside.”

Once the two of them were seated, the subordinates quickly prepared a full banquet.

The ghostly old man obediently lifted his gla*s of wine straight away.

“What happened before was a momentary ghostly mistake on the part of the old man.”

“This cup is considered to be an apology from the old man, and I ask that Mr. Lin not take it to heart.”

He said as he tilted his head and drank it all.

Only, when he had made amends, Lin Mo no longer had any reaction and just looked at him quietly.

That scrutinising gaze saw the ghostly old man’s body shiver.

He couldn’t help but open his mouth and ask.

“Mr. Lin, is there anything wrong with my meter for a few days?”

Only after these words were spoken did Lin Mo withdraw his gaze, and then similarly lifted his wine cup.

“Senior Ghost Southerner, I wonder what plans you have for the future?”

“This

The ghostly old man was instantly dumbfounded in the face of this sudden up question.

What plans?

He himself hadn’t considered it!

Ever since he was injured, Ghost Sou had been on tenterhooks.

Just afraid that Lin Mokong will come to seek revenge on him when he strikes.

That was until after Ma Bangde came and took in his Qing Turbine Gang.

Not only did Ghost Sou not feel any discontent, but on the contrary, there was a hint of gratitude.

He knew that Lin Mo would not kill him at the very least.

It was just that he had been in fear this whole process.

How could he have the heart to think about his future plans!

Now that he had been asked such a question by Lin Mo, he naturally did not know how to answer.

On the contrary, Lin Mo grinned.

“Senior, it might be a good idea for junior to give you an opinion”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4167

The ghostly old man was confronted with Lin Mo’s smirking look.

For a moment, he did not know how to reply, and his expression looked a bit dull.

Lin Mo looked at his demeanour and couldn’t help but feel emotion in his heart.

Before, he originally had a chance to take himself down.

It was only that he had been bluffed by himself at that time, so that he had missed the opportunity.

Since then, this old man had walked step by step into the trap he had laid.

All the way to the present, this ghostly old man had become a completely trapped beast.

He could not move in or out.

Thinking of this, the corner of Lin Mo’s mouth hooked as he opened his mouth to persuade.

“Senior, your current situation is most clear to yourself.”

“I won’t be alarmed!”

He said as he turned his words around and his tone then became more serious.

“I can forgive you for anything you did before with your heart in the right place.”

“But from now on, you have to do things for me!”

At this moment, Lin Mo no longer covered up and directly offered his conditions.

This was also the purpose of him keeping this old man alive.

As soon as the ghostly old man heard this condition, his face instantly turned gloomy.

“I’ve been a member of the jianghu for decades, but if I were to submit to you, a junior, wouldn’t that make people laugh!”

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders and returned with a bashful expression.

“But you were injured by a junior young lady, if I hadn’t had a warning, you might have been killed.”

As the saying goes, exposing someone without revealing their shortcomings and hitting them in the face.

Lin Mo’s words were like a resounding slap on the face of the ghostly old man.

It also caused the old man’s face to become even more ugly.

“That was a moment of carelessness on the part of the old man, think of the time when the old man assisted the sect master in founding the Noah’s Five Tombs Sect.”

“You’re still a cell!”

“But you were injured by a little girl!” Lin Mo repeated calmly.

The ghostly old man’s aura dropped, and he gritted his teeth and said.

“It has been more than thirty years since I broke the realm of Zongshi.”

“You’ve only just stepped into a sect master for a short time, how can you have the virtue to mock me?”

Lin Mo looked up at the angry ghostly old man who had already risen to his feet, and replied word for word.

“You were seriously injured by a little girl!”

鬼嬰: “.....”

“Can you not just say that one!”

He growled hysterically.

Lin Mo nodded and agreed to his suggestion.

The next second, Lin Mo took a deep breath.

“You’re too frightened by a wounded backwoodsman to make a move.”

“You were counted out by a backwoodsman and exposed your identity!”

“You were badly injured and almost killed by a young girl who had just recently stepped into the realm of Zongshi!”

“You were cowardly and afraid of death, hiding and trembling within the sphere of influence of a backwoodsman!”

After a frenzied output ended.

At this moment, the ghostly old man as well as being furious was trembling all over.

“You”

He raised his hand trembling and pointed at Lin Mo, shivering and unable to utter a complete sentence.

Plus the previous him was himself wounded.

In a moment of anxiety and fire, he couldn’t help but spurt out a large mouthful of blood.

Luckily, Lin Mo was very quick and dodged aside at the first opportunity.

He managed to avoid the blood from splashing onto himself.

“Old-timer, can we just have a nice chat?”

“This fuming and vomiting of blood is ruining a good table for nothing!”

He said as he looked at the wine and food on the table and shook his head with a tsk.

The ghostly old man’s eyes glared, and he only felt the blood in his internal organs surge.

At this moment, he also finally realised.

This kid in front of him was not only unbelievably qualified and talented.

That mouth was even more invincible!

Thinking of this, he immediately closed his eyes, suppressing the anger within his body.

After a long time, the ghostly old man felt that his emotions had been calmed, in before he opened his eyes again to look at Lin Mo.

“If I promise you, what are you going to do?”

Lin Mo smiled and shook his head with a tsk, then pulled over a clean chair

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4168

Lin Mo replied with a face full of sincerity after settling down again.

“Although before, you took advantage of my injury to plot against me!”

“And later you tried to kill me halfway!”

“But

A simple pause caused the ghostly old man’s heart to twitch.

“But senior you know my character, I’m a person who remembers old feelings the most!”

“Before, you White Cemetery helped us dig through the tunnels on the front line before, and robbed so many guns.”

“Even if you didn’t get credit for it, you did get credit for it!”

He said with a grin.

Only this smile did seem extraordinarily ominous to Ghost Sou.

Lin Mo then continued to speak.

“Remembering the merits of your White Graveyard, I can let go of any blame for senior’s heart.”

“And even if senior does not agree to work for me, it is still possible!”

The ghostly old man did not know why Lin Mo was suddenly so generous.

However, he would never believe that Lin Mo would let himself off so easily.

“If I don’t agree, what will you do to me.”

The ghostly old man asked sensibly.

Lin Mo waved his hand.

“Eh, what disposal!”

“We’re all our own people, what’s the point of talking so hard!”

At this point in the conversation, he suddenly changed his tone.

“Only, given all of senior’s previous performances.”

“Even if I allow you to continue hiding in District Three, the members of the Ten Great Powers will not allow your existence!”

“So please also, senior, leave our three districts.”

After saying that, he smiled graciously, and that frank look was very atmospheric.

Even if you, Ghost Sou, had tried to backstab me many times.

But I, Lin Mo, am just that generous and will not be blamed in the past.

“Hehehe, senior I am open and generous enough, right?”

When the ghostly old man heard this question, he couldn’t help but roll his white eyes.

f*ck your generosity!

You’re so open!

If I could walk out, I would have left the three districts long ago.

It’s not your turn to expel me!

After roaring in his heart, the ghostly old man did not dare to say anything in the end.

The longer he lived, the more he feared death!

Now that Lin Mo had given his choice, there was no way out for him.

If he fell into Lin Mo’s hands, he would at most be a subordinate.

If he left the three districts, he would be a corpse in no time.

Thinking about this, the ghostly old man let out a long sigh in his heart.

But his face was beaming with a smile.

“I am grateful to Mr. Lin, for looking up to me and not minding me, an old man, being old and weak.”

“From now on, I, the ghostly old man, will take Mr. Lin as my respect and head!”

With that, he got up and bowed towards Lin Mo.

“Eh eh eh!”

Lin Mo hurriedly got up.

“Old sir, please don’t, please don’t!”

“You are the only one who is a senior, where is the respect or disrespect!”

“I can only say, point out to oh us youngsters!”

With a handful of beautiful words.

The ghostly old man also finally has a step down, at this moment his face this just look a little better!

“Mr. Lin, you are young and talented, I can’t say I can give you any guidance!”

After a commercial exchange of praise between the two sides, the ghostly old man was also considered to have been taken under Lin Mo’s name.

After exchanging pleasantries for a while.

Lin Mo also took out a medicine box.

“Senior, this little girl Xuelian doesn’t know any better and doesn’t have a light touch.”

“This is a gift she asked me to bring to make amends, I hope senior won’t take it personally.”

The ghostly old man took the pill and then swallowed it straight away.

The situation he was in today was already causing him to be terrified.

Adding this internal injury to his body, he was constantly on edge.

Now that he saw the healing elixir, the ghostly old man naturally did not hesitate.

As the pill entered his stomach, a warm current instantly ran through his entire body.

The white lotus aura that had been attached to his body disappeared with the warmth.

The ghostly old man felt his slowly healing body, and his face gradually looked better.

Most of all, the elixir not only made his inner mountain dissipate quickly.

His ageing blood veins were all showing signs of rejuvenation as well

The ghostly old man felt the amazing changes within his body.

His face, which had been slightly pale, gradually emerged with a rosy colour.

After spitting out a mouthful of bruised blood, he only felt a sense of relief.

“Thank you, Mr. Lin, for the gift of medicine!”

Lin Mo waved his hand with carelessness.

“We are all our own people, no need to be so polite.”

He added special accent to the words “one of our own”.

The ghostly old man naturally understood the meaning of this, and nodded his head repeatedly in acknowledgement.

“Senior, since your internal injuries have healed, take a good rest over there!”

“I won’t bother you much!”

Lin Mo saw that the purpose of this trip had been achieved, and he did not intend to stay here.

After some unsuccessful attempts to stay, Ghost Souther sent Lin Mo out of the White Cemetery’s premises.

As Ghost Sou looked at that back, his mind could not help but change a little.

It seemed that it was not a bad thing to follow such a young genius with unbelievable qualifications and wisdom, who was excellent in both medicine and martial arts.

After another period of calculation, he was seriously injured by Xue Lian.

The more the ghostly old man felt that he had grown old.

“This heaven and earth still belongs to the young after all!”

After lamenting, he took out a whistle directly from his waist.

An inaudible sound of a whistle and flute rang out.

Several figures instantly arrived in front of him.

“Greetings, Mr. Ghost Sou!”

Ghost Sou looked at exactly ten teenagers of Lin Mo’s age in front of him, and waved his hand with a somewhat unimpressed expression.

“Take this token and give it to Lin Mo.”

“From now on, Lin Mo is your Mr. Ghost Sou, and all things are at his command!”

This was a teenager, that is, he had been secretly cultivating forces over the years.

Originally, Ghost Sou was somewhat complacent about such a talented group of teenagers.

The most gifted of them had already touched the threshold of a half-step Patriarch.

However, these people, when placed in front of Lin Mo and the Dunhuang Holy Maiden Xue Lian, thoroughly looked dim.

Right now, he had already surrendered to Lin Mo’s banner.

There was no point in keeping these youth groups.

Instead, they should be sent to Lin Mo as a sign of loyalty, and perhaps in exchange for greater benefits in the future.

The leader = a teenager, hearing this order, frowned instantly.

Only that it was an order from the ghostly old man, and he did not dare to refuse.

With full emotions, he he still resulted in the token, and then led his companion out of here.

.....

On the other side.

After Lin Mo returned to his room, he summoned Wang Changxing again.

“Earlier you asked me about the number of Patriarchs, now is when you can be sure.”

“Three in total!”

Hearing this answer, a trace of doubt flashed across Wang Changxing’s face at once.

He had instead learned from Ma Bangde’s mouth about the Snow Lotus Patriarch realm.

Together with Lin Mo, there were only two of them, and this extra one, he was unable to think of.

Lin Mo saw this look on his face and spoke directly.

“Alright, there’s no need for you to guess more.”

“Ghost Sou is the third Grandmaster expert, who has now come under my command.”

What the hell?

Wang Changxing’s eyes instantly widened.

“That old guy who has half of his feet in the coffin is actually a Patriarch?”

As he said that, his mind couldn’t help but conjure up the trembling figure of the ghostly old man walking.

With that body, a little wind could have taken him away.

So, he was even more incredulous.

“Mr. Lin, you’re not kidding!”

“What do you think! I have such a lot of time on my hands!”

Lin Mo explained.

“This old man, that weak look he usually has, is all a disguise.”

“The next time we meet, you should keep your mouth shut!”

“Beware of misfortune coming out of your mouth!”

Seeing Lin Mo looking so solemn.

Only then did Wang Changxing accept the truth that Ghostly Old Man was a Patriarch.

But this was good, one more Patriarch would give them one more point of hidden strength in the three districts.

The follow-up plan would also be better arranged

Lin Mo gave almost all of the information known so far.

The purpose was to allow Wang Changxing to make the follow-up arrangements.

Wait until the Lawrence family had been tidied up.

Another war will break out between the two districts.

This is inevitable.

Just as the two talked directly, Xuelian also returned to the room after leading Hate Free to play.

Only this time, there were several more young figures behind them.

“And these are?”

Xuelian moved out of the way and explained.

“I just met them when I was taking Hate Free, out for a swim.”

“Seems to be here to see you!”

Lin Mo froze in his tracks.

After scanning once again since, he was completely sure that he didn't know these people.

“You guys are here to find me?”

The teenager at the head of the group glared with dissatisfaction.

“You're Lin Mo?”

“We, Mr. Ghostly Old Man, Mr. Ghostly Old Man, told us to come and assist you!”

With that he threw the token in his hand onto the table in front of him.

There was no sign of Lin Mo in those lofty eyes.

“How dare you!”

Wang Changxing couldn't help but frown.

With this uncaring aura, there was nothing like coming to serve.

“How dare you disrespect Mr. Lin, who gave you the guts!”

However when he finished his rebuke.

The teenager at the head of the group just gave him a disdainful glance, and then mocked.

“All at this age, I can’t believe you haven’t broken through to half-step Zong Shi yet.”

“And you’re worthy of shouting in front of me! What a laugh!”

Wang Changxing’s face sank, “Kid, arrogant!”

He had never thought that he would be mocked by a hairy boy when he was the head of a gang.

After giving a rebuke, he raised his hand to teach this kid a lesson.

But just as he reached out to grab his opponent’s collar.

The youngster instantly made a side turn, dodging Wang Changxing’s palm at the same time.

A fist smashed heavily on the latter’s shoulder.

Wang Changxing was also too gullible for a moment, coupled with carelessness, to dodge in time.

He was directly smashed back several steps by this punch of his opponent.

Being attacked by a brat in full view of the public instantly made Wang Changxing’s face unbearable.

“Come again!”

After moving his tingling shoulder a few times, he struck again.

He was holding his breath to prevent another disgrace.

The teenager opposite him, however, was no slouch either.

He easily dodged the iron fist coming from the shade.

And as he dodged, the teenager took advantage of the gap in Wang Changxing’s attack and snapped two punches, smashing him on the chest.

Wang Changxing’s face turned red and he took several steps back.

It was only when Lin Mo dragged him by the back that he was able to stabilise himself.

When the young man saw his victory, his expression became even more arrogant.

“With that kind of skill, all these decades have been considered a waste of training!”

When he mocked him, Wang Changxing’s face turned red, while his heart was filled with anger.

“You

Just as he was about to strike again to find his way back, Lin Mo behind him suddenly pulled him back.

“There’s something!”

Lin Mo said as he slowly narrowed his eyes.

When the young man heard this, his chin also rose higher.

“I don’t just have a little something!”

“How about you try it too?”

He didn’t know, though, why the ghostly man wanted him to be in allegiance to the young man in front of him, who was about his own age.

But at the bottom of his heart he was ten thousand times reluctant.

He thought he could only learn more under Ghosts!

Wouldn’t it be a waste of time to be loyal to someone else?

At these words, the companions behind him instantly rose to their feet as well.

“Yes, why don’t you also fight with our boss!”

“Since you want our allegiance, you have to show some ability!”

Lin Mo saw how arrogant they looked.

He couldn’t help but secretly shake his head.

Their qualifications were not bad, but they were too high-minded and arrogant.

Even if he were willing to work under him, he would have to be polished first.
