Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4191

After Feng Wu Huo finished speaking, a big stone fell from his heart.

He had been following and sticking to Lin Mo for no other reason than to feel out Lin Mo's character.

After spending a short time together, the more he saw Lin Mo, the more satisfied he felt.

His talent and understanding, and his ability, were the best.

It could be said that he was the most satisfied among all the selectors he had seen in Feng Wu Huo.

The Seven Deadly Sins had become increasingly chaotic and would most likely fall apart in the long run.

If they were to act in this manner, they would need a capable person to save the day.

After Feng Wu Huo had extended the invitation, his mind was generally clear.

Naturally, he had no intention of staying on.

However, just as Feng Wu Huo was about to leave, Lin Mo called out to him.

"Elder Feng stay, there is one more thing I would like to enquire about."

"Speak up!" Feng Wu Huo said back.

With that, Lin Mo asked the question that had been lurking in his heart for a long time.

"Do you know much about the two Nebula sisters?"

He, Ji Dutuo, would eventually cross paths one day.

And as for the power of the duo of Tyrannical Corpse and Ji Dutuo, Lin Mo already had a basic understanding.

The only thing that worried him was the two sisters.

Although they were not very old, they gave people a very strange feeling.

Especially when he was close to the two sisters, Lin Mo always felt an inexplicable palpitation.

That was the body's instinctive reaction to danger.

This made Lin Mo extraordinarily attentive to the two sisters.

When Feng Wu Huo heard this question, he raised his eyebrows instantly.

There were a few hints of gossip in his eyes.

"Unfortunately, these two sisters, in the strictest sense, are not from our Seven Deadly Sins!"

“From what I heard from the people in the organisation, these two little girls were brought back by Ji Dutuo when he was out on a mission once.”

“And have always stayed by their side to train them!”

Speaking of this, he poked his head in.

After looking around and seeing no one around, he then lowered his voice and whispered.

“There are also people who say privately that these two sisters are Ji Dutuo’s illegitimate daughters outside!”

“And that Ji Dutuo, these two sisters are also overly spoiled!”

After saying that, his eyes narrowed, revealing a “you know” smile.

Hearing this, Lin Mo instantly became interested.

I didn’t expect to find out such a big melon!

The ghostly old man at the side also involuntarily turned sideways, wanting to hear more clearly.

“Isn’t it always said that a daughter is like her father?”

Lin Mo asked curiously.

“But I see that these two sisters and Ji Dutuo don’t want to!”

The ghostly old man raised an eyebrow, “Is it possible that the two sisters look like their mother!”

“Genetically speaking, it’s not out of the question!”

Lin Mo stroked his chin with interest.

“Could it be that the genetics of this second quarterto is not so good .....”

Meanwhile, Ji Dutuo, who was far away from Lawrence Castle, inexplicably sneezed several times in a row.

“Achoo, Achoo!”

“Instructor Ji Duo, you’re not catching a cold, are you!”

“What are you thinking, have you ever seen a patriarch who has caught a cold, Ah Qiu!”

Said Ji Dutuo head of confusion, unknown he could only rub his nose, and then continue to work on said on.

And he did not know.

At this moment the front line of the three districts, Lin Mo three people have been chatting hot fire on the head.

The original should be the topic of prying information, with Feng Wu Huo burst out a big melon after.

The three people instantly started, nature full of chatting up gossip.

Not even Xue Lian noticed when she approached this side.

“What are you guys talking about cuckoldry or not?”

A sudden sound came, instantly breaking up the fun conversation.

“Nothing, huh!”

Feng Wu Huo instantly withdrew his b*tchy expression and smoothly stroked a hand through his long beard.

The ghostly old man, on the other hand, had nothing better to do than to lean his back against a large tree and slowly bump .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4192

An embarra*sing scene!

The only one who was a bit at a loss for words was an embarra*sed Lin Mo.

“Oh, nothing, it was just a conversation about hats!”

“These two old men, they must say the green ones look good!”

“Don’t they?”

Lin Mo then gave a secret wink towards the two old men.

This gossip about a human couple having been born behind their backs was suddenly caught.

Lin Mo couldn’t help but feel embarra*sed.

Fortunately, the two of them reacted promptly, and after they understood, they hurriedly said yes one after another.

“Yes, older!”

“Just like a bit of vibrancy, we like green!”

Said Feng Wu Huo then secretly got to poke the ghostly old man.

The latter immediately took over, “Yes, yes, yes, old age, just like the angry eyes.”

Xue Lian was not stupid, and seeing the three men’s words and actions in this scene, she knew that there must be something fishy going on.

It was just that she did not want to look into it.

“No hate, we ignore your master!”

“Sister will teach you our Dunhuang’s best body technique today!”

Haterless nodded good-naturedly before making a face towards Lin Mo!

The three of them looked at Xue Lian's back and looked at each other for a while.

It was only when the ghostly old man spoke up and lamented that the silence was broken.

"Holy Maiden Xue Lian, that's really generous!"

"Dunhuang Sanctuary Body Technique said to teach wine teaching it!"

Originally, this was just a thoughtless remark he made, but before he could finish.

On the side, Feng Wu Huo shot a desperate glance towards her.

In the next second, the ghostly old man also immediately reacted and hurriedly explained.

"Mr. Lin, I didn't mean anything else!"

Ever since Lin Mo had had Tracey as a disciple under him.

The outside world had barely seen Lin Mo teach any more kung fu techniques or anything like that.

Yet ever since this Dunhuang Saintess came to, Death Island.

She completely treated Hatedless like her own daughter, taking him with her everywhere she went.

She also never hesitated to teach him martial arts and body techniques, and had no qualms about doing so.

The contrast between the two was evident.

Lin Mo did not care much about this.

"It doesn't matter, what I teach, you just haven't seen it!"

What he cared more about than martial arts was, Hatedless's mental state.

The cold and heartless little maid at the beginning had now become a lively and cheerful little girl.

This was what Lin Mo was most pleased about.

Moreover, he had already pa*sed on the top-tier Heart Creation Technique as well as the Free and Easy Technique to Hatedless.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo opened his mouth and said.

"It's not like you guys don't know about Haterless' situation!"

"Just his bizarre black mist has surpa*sed an unknown number of top martial arts!"

"This thing, I don't even know exactly what it is?"

It wasn't that they hadn't tried to understand Hatedless' bizarre black mist.

Yet after consulting a great deal of information, they were still baffled.

At the mention of this, the three of them could not help but look pensive.

“Elder Feng, you’ve seen a lot, do you know what’s going on with Miss Wuzhen’s situation?”

The ghostly old man asked curiously.

Lin Mo also shifted his gaze at his words, he naturally wanted to understand the situation of Haterless, too.

Feng Wu Huo, however, also shook his head with a helpless expression.

“Similar means I’ve turned out to be quite a few!”

“Without exception, they are all cultivated with some kind of gongfu, or produced through some kind of medium.”

“But like Miss Hateless, she merely cultivated a low-level gong technique, thus evolving a black mist.”

“This kind of situation is also unheard of by old me!”

This was also the case with Lin Mo.

He had also seen this means of controlling black fog during the Martial Union Conference back then.

But it was indeed completely different from the case of Hatedless.

That Japanese woman had sacrificed her faith in exchange for the evil power!

Whereas No Hate derived this from purely practising the Ghostly Claw Technique.

Both are similar on the surface, but different in essence!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4193

After exchanging words for a while, the three of them saw that nothing was going to come of it and simply ended the conversation.

Now that Feng Wu Huo had already extended an invitation, he did not intend to stick around for Lin Mo.

As for the plan to invite Xue Lian to join them, it was also shelved by Feng Wu Huo.

He knew that if he got Lin Mo’s consent to join him, would Xue Lian be able to do so?

It was good to be young!

Feng Wu Huo lamented before skimming his gaze over Xue Lian in the distance.

The corners of his mouth were slightly hooked!

“Doctor Sage Lin, I’ve disturbed you much these past few days.”

Only before he said goodbye, he suddenly thought of something else and reminded.

“Although I’m not too sure, the two Nebula sisters, but you must be careful .....

After thinking for a while, Feng Wu Huo said with an uncertain tone.

“I also heard about this matter from the gossip of one of the elders!”

“It is said that these two sisters were ambushed by six clan masters once when they went out alone!”

“But when our support arrived, the two sisters were unharmed!”

He said and his tone became heavy and serious.

“And the six clan masters who ambushed them disappeared without a trace!”

“The rumours of this matter are now bigger, but no wind is too strong, so you should be more careful, Medical Sage Lin!”

After leaving a paragraph of caution, Feng Wu Huo then left with that too.

The original place.

The ghostly old man had a worried look on his face at this time.

One Ji Dutuo was already enough of a headache for him.

Now there are two more girls with superior strength!

If Feng Wu Huo’s rumours are true.

Then the two Nebula sisters’ power must have surpa*sed that of Ji Dutuo.

“Mr. Lin .....”

Lin Mo raised his hand to interrupt him.

“Don’t worry!”

Said Lin Mo with a grin, his palm gently resting on the hilt of his sword.

“It’s just a matter of soldiers coming to the rescue!”

“To think that back in the day, when my entire strength was nullified, so many people wanted to lay hands on me!”

“But I’m still safe and sound now!”

“Especially someone who was scared away by my tiger’s body!”

Ghosts: “???”

Someone?

Are you polite?

Why don’t you just give me my ID!

Originally, the ghostly old man was still full of worry, but after being taunted by Lin Mo like this, he instantly lost all heart.

I'm going to f*ck you!

Lin Mo slowly narrowed his eyes when he saw that his expression was worse than eating a fly.

"I say, old devil, are you secretly cursing me in your mind?"

Naturally, the ghostly old man could not admit it, "No, how could I possibly curse you!"

With that he flashed that standard old man smile.

"But Mr. Lin, are you really not worried about Ji Dutuo's group?"

"Once they make their move, I'm afraid it will be fatal!"

For the Seven Deadly Sins, he was completely the kind of person who was afraid to his bones.

Especially Ji Dutuo!

Before, it was because this man had come to the Third District to observe Hatedless' injuries.

The ghostly old man was directly frightened to the point that he did not dare to go out for several days.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, continued to look as if he didn't care.

"What's there to be afraid of?"

"Just put your heart in your stomach!"

"This Ji Dutuo person has many concerns, it's unlikely that he would personally kill me, and he doesn't think about what kind of power I have behind me!"

The ghostly old man associated with, that terrifying country of China, his heart was then filled with courage.

Only that he was still more or less uneasy.

"What if, I mean what if!"

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly.

No wonder this old ghost, at first, had been scared away by his seriously injured self.

"I say, old ghost, isn't this guts of yours too small!"

"So what if they had struck?"

"Now that I have greatly improved my strength, once I wait until my heart blood is restored, what else is there to fear!"

He said as he raised his hand and pointed at Snow Lotus.

"With such strong reinforcements in place, this is the bottom line!"

"When the time comes, the three of us ....."

When he said this, Lin Mo suddenly stopped his words and turned to change his tone.

“Two and a half!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4194

The ghostly old man was a little puzzled when he first heard the half-word.

Yet on second thought, he instantly understood.

I nyah!

I’m too weak, I can only be considered a half-Zong Shi!

What a bully!

“I’ll go and see how they’re doing in their training.”

After making a random excuse, the ghostly old man left the place with quick steps.

Behind him, Lin Mo was still wailing and shouting.

“Old ghost, is this angry?”

“How dare you be weak in strength and still be careful!”

Hearing these words, the ghostly old man stumbled on his feet.

He almost fell to the ground!

After stabilising himself, he straightened his faster pace and did not reply.

Mostly he was afraid that if he opened his mouth he would spit out the fen.

And when Lin Mo returned to the martial arts stage, where was the figure of the ghostly old man in this place?

Without waiting for him to ask, Xuelian leaned over and asked in confusion.

“What did you just do to make that Ghostly Old Man so angry that his beard was sticking up?”

“He’s human now!”

“After saying something to me about being physically ill, he went back in a huff.”

Lin Mo rubbed his chin: “It’s true that he is weak in strength and still cautious!”

Xue Lian puffed out a laugh, this moment she had probably understood the reason why Ghost Sou was angry.

He was a sect master and was also a handful of years old.

Anyone who was mocked like that by a junior would be furious.

“How can you say that about someone?”

“It’s alright, this old man, he’s all fancy day in and day out, if he’s not cured sooner or later he’ll go to heaven!”

Lin Mo said indifferently.

Xue Lian knew that being able to be joked about people like him was basically already considered accepted by Lin Mo.

“By the way, what did you guys just fall down to talk about again?”

“One of them was laughing b*tchily!”

After scratching his head, Lin Mo didn’t tell the truth.

After stalling for a few words, he changed the topic.

“Xue Lian, there’s something else I need to trouble you with!”

He said directly, regardless of whether Xue Lian answered or not.

“This heart blood of mine needs to be replenished back as soon as possible!”

“Can you please, help me go back over and collect some herbs!”

Said Lin Mo, and handed over the prescription.

Xue Lian was a little shocked at first, after all, the preciousness of Heart Head Blood was recognized throughout the martial world.

And did the starting recovery was also recognized.

Unless one had heavenly treasures, it was generally extremely difficult to recover in a short period of time.

Never did he expect that Lin Mo would have such a prescription in his hand.

However, when he received it, his face instantly changed.

“The Crystal Flower of the Far North!”

“The Hundred Poison Gra*s of the Miaojiang Companions!”

“The Void Abyss .....

The more she read, Xue Lian’s face and turned more and more ugly.

These herbs were completely east and west.

The vast majority of them were even herbs that they didn’t even stock in Dunhuang.

If they wanted to collect them, it would be impossible to gather them all without a month or two.

Thinking of this, Xue Lian’s eyes took on a deep meaning.

“I said why have you suddenly changed your nature today, and your speech is no longer as squirming as before.”

“So it was purely a desire to sidetrack me!”

Hearing these words, Lin Mo felt his scalp tingle.

“You’re thinking too much! How could I possibly do such a thing!”

“Then explain this!”

Said Xuelian, raising her finger and pointing at the prescription.

“Can’t this Hundred Poison Gra*s be replaced by our Dunhuang’s Reddish Gra*s!”

“Right oh!” Lin Mo slapped his head “Why didn’t I think of that!”

However, this clumsy acting technique could not fool Xue Lian at all.

“Pretend, you continue to pretend!”

“The medicinal properties of the Ebony Vine are similar to the Crystal Flower, and it wouldn’t want the other herbs on this prescription!”

“Lin Mo do you think that my medical skills have long been too low and so easy to deceive!”

At the end of the sentence, Lin Mo also clearly felt that the situation was not right.

Seeing that Xue Lian had become angry, he hurriedly explained.

“I .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4195

Lin Mo watched as Xuelian was about to get angry at his lie.

He hurriedly and anxiously explained.

“Actually, I .....

Before he could say anything more, the originally angry Xuelian suddenly looked up and asked.

“Is someone getting ready to make a move on you?”

At this moment, his tone also softened, and worry was written between his expressions.

“That’s not true!”

Lin Mo answered truthfully.

He hadn’t expected that Xue Lian had seen through his calculations with a single glance.

But since he had already been torn apart, Lin Mo spoke straightforwardly.

“Why don’t you just go back, this place, Death Island, has become increasingly chaotic.”

“If you stay any longer with me, I’m afraid you’ll get more and more dangerous!”

Xuelian ruffled her sideburns and smiled calmly.

“With my status as the Dunhuang Holy Maiden, no one would dare to touch me!”

In order to reas*sure Lin Mo, she posed her anti-identity in an extremely rare manner.

Only, Lin Mo was frowning.

“If it was a normal time, they naturally wouldn’t dare to make a move against you.”

“But you shouldn’t forget that there is this Crystal Skull on Death Island!”

“Faced with such great interests, they would do anything.”

This was not to the point that Lin Mo was deliberately exaggerating.

Think of those individual clerics who could lurk on Death Island for the Crystal Skull for over twenty yet.

What else would they not dare to do!

To this point, Xue Lian did not retort.

All the same, she had no intention of worrying.

“Just scatter so, so you think I’m too weak?”

“That it would hold you back?”

Hearing these words, Lin Mo was instantly dumbfounded.

Neither was nodding his head, nor was shaking his head.

He could only secretly exclaim in his heart that he was a good guy.

I’m afraid this is where the two old men, the ghostly old man and Feng Wu Huo, have learned their skills.

After a moment of silence, Lin Mo was still patient and persuasive.

“I was desperate before, so I looked towards you to help me if you could come over and save my Hate Free.”

“From the bottom of my heart, I don’t want you to get involved in this mess on Si Death Island as well.”

“Go back, or else Elder Xuan Hei will definitely rush over to beat me up when he finds out about this!”

It turned out that what Lin Mo had just said to the ghostly old man was simply to fool this old man.

Ever since he had heard about the two Nebula sisters, the speculation of their strength.

The first thing that came to his mind was for Xue Lian’s to leave Death Island as soon as possible.

To prevent unnecessary accidents.

Naive Xue Lian, despite her quiet and gentle nature.

But her mind is equally intelligent.

With only her knowledge of herself and a prescription for medicine, she recognized her own ploy.

Xuelian guffawed.

“But I’m already here aren’t I?”

“And if I were in danger, wouldn’t you still be there?”

At these words, both of them froze in place at the same time.

Xuelian instantly realised that she had said the wrong thing.

Immediately, she closed her mouth and said no more.

For a moment, the scene fell into an eerie quiet silence.

Lin Mo’s gaze also hurriedly shifted to once more.

At this moment, the two of them did not dare to look at each other at all.

The only sound coming from their ears was the breeze driving the leaves of the trees, sending sparse sounds.

Thankfully, such an awkward scene was broken with the arrival of No Hate.

“Sister Xue Lian, I seem to have learnt the body technique you gave me!”

With that he gloated and secured Xue Lian’s thigh, his little face filled with joy.

In this way, Xue Lian also found the excuse to come to break the awkward atmosphere of the scene.

“Really?”

“Go, let sister see, how is your cultivation!”

Surprised, Xue Lian couldn’t help but breathe a secret sigh of relief.

As for Lin Mo, he also took the opportunity and hurried to Ma Bangde and the others.

His eyes squinted behind him, forcibly suppressing the inexplicable feeling he felt inside.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4196

December 20, 2022

The time came once again in the afternoon.

By the time a few of the power lords opened their eyes, the sun was about to set.

Feeling inside their bodies, the surging aura.

The crowd instantly showed a look of great joy.

“As expected of Mr. Lin, with this set of special training coming, I don’t think it will take me long to break through!”

“I didn’t expect that, at my average age, my realm would still be able to go up one more notch!”

Under the successive exclams of amazement.

The crowd had completely forgotten about the pain caused by the long journey.

The only one who looked at them was Hu Quan, whose eyes revealed a look of envy.

“When will I, reach half-step Zong Shi!”

Not for the other few people.

Only Hu Quan himself knows.

After that special training set yesterday, his own realm hadn’t grown much at all.

Instead, he was almost half-exhausted.

Especially when he thought that he was over twenty years old and had completely missed the best sticky connection for cultivation, he instantly became frustrated.

However, at this moment, there was a sudden sound from behind.

“Excuse me, are you going to be Hu Quan Hu’s leader?”

Hu Quan turned around.

Appearing before his eyes was a group of, sixteen or seventeen year olds.

“May I ask who you are?”

Hearing this, Tomb One immediately gave his own as well as his companions’ names.

His entire attitude had completely changed after the lesson he had learned yesterday.

Although he had seen Hu Quan at a glance, his qualifications were extremely poor.

But he also forcibly suppressed his inner disdain and replied respectfully.

“Lord Lin Mo has asked the ten of us brothers to follow you in cultivation in the future!”

Hu Quan was also baffled.

“Follow me in cultivation?”

He was naturally clear about how much weight he had, but not more.

These young men in front of him were four or five years younger than himself, but their cultivation realm was indeed far beyond his own.

What was the point of asking himself to bring a few talented youngsters to cultivate?

Just as he was doubting himself, Tombstone nodded seriously.

“That’s right!”

“Lord Lin Mo’s original words were just that!”

“From now on, whatever you do, the few of us will just follow!”

He wasn’t sure why Lin Mo had made such an arrangement.

This person in front of him was a complete cultivation scrapper.

His talent was extremely poor, and his realm was even more disastrous!

According to his previous character, he didn’t even want to waste a bit of breath with him at all.

However, at the moment, in order to gain Lin Mo’s acceptance, he had to communicate with Hu Quan in a calm manner.

After all, the word had been given by the ghostly old man to take them in.

If Lin Mo did not accept them, in future, theirs would also be abandoned by the ghostly old man.

Whether it was to prove themselves, or to pursue a higher level of martial arts.

Tomb One and the others had already made up their minds ruthlessly!

They must pass Lin Mo’s test.

Hu Quan saw that several people had a firm gaze, and he didn’t ask anything more.

“Since that’s the case, then you all should follow me for now and cultivate together!”

Although he had a thousand questions, once he thought that it was Lin Mo’s arrangement.

Hu Quan also stopped thinking nonsense and reluctantly agreed to do so.

Once again, he looked together at the other power lords who were cheering lustily not far away.

He sat down directly on the ground, and then began to continue his cultivation.

Mu and a few people glanced at each other for a while, nodded each other, and then immediately sat down on the floor.

What they didn’t know was that they would be in for an extremely painful ordeal.

After several other forces dominated the third district, they all looked towards Hu Quan.

There was curiosity in their hearts.

But could not stand the tired body and the sore legs.

After a brief greeting, they dispersed.

By the time the time came late in the evening.

Tomb I finally couldn’t resist the stirring of mosquitoes around him in his ears.

However, when he opened his eyes, he saw that Hu Quan was still sitting unmoved in the same place. His calm cheeks were already filled with determination.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4197

Early morning.

The sun has just risen.

In front of the ruins of the martial arts stage, there came the sound of heart-rending screams.

“Hurry up and give me a hand, I can’t stand up!”

“Me too, my legs are numb!”

“I can’t even sense the presence of my legs!”

“Ouch, slow down, slow down, it hurts, it hurts!”

The noisy voices also forced Hu Quan out of his cultivation.

Seeing a few people tomb a few people in pain, he was concerned to.

“Are you guys alright!”

“Do you need it, I’ll call the physician from the front line over for you!”

As soon as Tomb and the others heard this, their bodies shook and they immediately froze with pained expressions.

Forcibly holding back the intense discomfort in the lower half of their bodies, they stubbornly replied.

“It’s okay, no need!”

“Fine!”

After Hu Quan had sorted himself out to come, he stood up with difficulty with his hands on the ground.

Obviously keeping up this cultivation action all night was not easy for him in itself either.

“I’m going to continue my training, do you guys want to follow?”

How could Tomb One be convinced: “Come on, together!”

After saying this his feet went limp.

If not for the quick eyes of his companion at the side.

He would have fallen straight down.

With this momentary delay, Hu Quan had slowly run out.

“Boss, should we follow along?”

Right now the lower half of several people's bodies didn't feel like their own.

If they still had to follow the run, it would be fatal.

After gritting his teeth, Tomb One said fiercely.

"Follow, why not!"

"Is it hard to say that we can't match this Hudu with our faces?"

He said and stomped his feet hard.

Calculated numbness and pain instantly swept through his body.

The soreness even brought tears to Tombstone's eyes.

If he hadn't been holding back, he would have been in tears at this moment.

So, the group of people started the long run together, screaming in pain and following Hu Quan.

"It doesn't seem to be hopeless!"

From afar, Lin Mo looked at the group of people wailing and screaming, and a few moments of relief appeared in his eyes.

And today, he didn't gather, several power lords, in a devil training session.

After a separate demonstration for his own sake, of the martial skills in their respective hands.

Lin then began the release mode.

They were left to their own devices and came back to him for advice when they did not know something.

It was a sort of day off for Ma Bangde and the others!

After all, this kind of pressurised special training method would allow them to improve their realm in a short period of time though.

But if they didn't take care of their rest.

It will hurt their fundamentals all the same.

As for Lin Mo himself, he was healing this heart blood and familiarizing himself with his latest comprehension of the rhythm of the sword dao.

In this way, the front line returned to calm once again.

Except for the martial arts arena, which needed to be rebuilt, there were noises of yelling from time to time.

The others were not healing their bodies.

Everyone else was scrambling to get ready for the great battle that was about to restart.

Time passes.

It was noon.

There was a sudden knock on Lin Mo's room door.

The visitor was none other than the team of physicians from District Five who had come to support District Three.

When Lin Mo opened the door, he couldn't help but be taken aback.

"You're Zhang Hongyun?"

After not seeing each other for a few days, these people were a completely different person.

The aura of wealth and nobility from before had disappeared without a trace.

Right now, they looked like refugees, not only haggard, but also dirty and dishevelled in their clothes.

Only, Zhang Hongyun was indeed full of care.

After wiping his black palms on his face, he reported back excitedly.

"Mr. Lin, the God Nourishing Pill that you asked us to prepare, as well as the Body Nourishing Liquid, is now ready."

"It can be handed over to them for use at any time!"

Lin Mo stared in amazement after being flabbergasted for a moment.

"So soon?"

According to his projections, trying to refine the medicine for these millions of people.

It would take at least two or three more days.

I didn't expect Zhang Hongyun, a group of physicians, to be so efficient .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4198

Lin Mo looked at the faces of several people covered in soot, as well as a look of exhaustion, and instantly associated with something.

"You guys haven't slept all this time, have you?"

Zhang Hongyun shook his head calmly.

"Slept, sometimes for a while in the pill refining room!"

He said and waved his hand, full of concern.

"Compared to saving the lives of millions of people, this little thing we do is nothing!"

"Right, Mr. Lin, do you still need us to refine anything else?"

After Lin Mo froze for a moment, he immediately shook his head.

“For the time being, there is no need!”

“You guys have a good day’s rest first!”

After Zhang Hongyun heard this, his originally tense nerves relaxed.

“Mr. Lin, can I borrow this corridor of yours for a while?”

Lin Mo nodded with some uncertainty.

The next second, under his shocked gaze.

Zhang Hongyun waved his hand widely, “All senior brothers, let’s rest where we are!”

Snap!

With these words!

Several of the physicians who had come with him at all immediately leaned against the wall and slowly slid down.

By the time their bottoms touched the floor of the corridor, Lin Mo hadn’t even had the chance to speak.

This group of people then fell into a deep sleep.

The movements were heartbreakingly skilled.

The other room.

Snowdrop heard the commotion and came out ready to check on the situation as well.

When she saw this sprawling Zhang Hongyun and the others on the walkway, she was stunned for a moment.

“What’s wrong with them?”

Lin Mo smiled awkwardly, “This must be, what Old Ma did!”

“Someone, call him over to me!”

Not a moment later, Ma Bangde heard Lin Mo’s summons and thought that he was about to be given a small talk.

Immediately after stopping that cultivation, he rushed over with great enthusiasm.

Only as soon as the two sides met, Lin Mo would give a head-bashing questioning.

“What’s going on with them?”

“Did you do this again?”

Mabundle rushed to shake his head.

“It wasn’t me! I didn’t! Don’t talk nonsense!”

Denial trifecta!

However Lin Mo didn’t believe his bullsh*t at all.

He narrowed his eyes, and his gaze held a few hints of danger.

“Really?”

“If I come up short and this has something to do with you, I’ll show you why the flowers are so red!”

“It’s really not mine!”

Ma Bond denied again with a strong attitude.

“I merely had my men’s go around their even medicine grounds and howl a few times over the last few days!”

“Didn’t do anything else really!”

At this moment, Lin Mo couldn’t help but resonate with the scene where Ma Bangde had almost lame this Hong Yun before.

“Your men, are they the ones with the corpse?”

“Uhhh! How do they howl if they don’t bring so!”

Snap!

Ma Bundle didn’t even have time to finish his sentence.

Lin Mo was the one who kicked him, sending him flying straight out.

No wonder!

In just a few days’ time, Zhang Hongyun and the others would have changed with such a great extent.

It turned out that it was this Ma Bangde who was responsible for this.

This group of District 5’s team of physicians were a little arrogant and restless though.

But the medical ethics that should be there are still pulled full circle.

With this inappropriate human operation of Ma Bangde, how could they possibly sleep!

And so, they worked day and night to make the two flavours of pills that Lin Mo had ordered.

“Mr. Lin, what’s wrong!”

Ma Bangde asked in a complaining tone as he got up and patted the dust on his body for fear.

“And you have the nerve to ask me what’s wrong?”

Lin Mo frowned.

“You really stall them a*ses!”

“And even donkeys have a rest time!”

Ma Bond, however, said with a look of disbelief and, on the contrary, some aggravation.

“Aren’t I doing this to exercise their willpower?”

Speaking of this he instantly came to life as well.

“Mr. Lin, but you don’t know how they’ve changed in the past few days.”

“After I he a wave of operation, to ensure that in the future, they will not be so impatient .....

Lin Mo’s head was full of black lines.

Yes! Right now, this group of physicians really did not have the bad mindset they had when they first arrived.

But this tactic was also too inappropriate.

What kind of stonewalling keeps fooling around!

And is this to help remove their fickleness of mind?

If we keep this up, these healers are going to break!

“Tell your people to hurry up and pull back and stop making a scene!”

Too much is not enough.

At this rate of this tossing and turning, I am only afraid that I have not been able to break over the nature of this group of physicians.

They might even lose their lives to them.

“I’m just doing this for their own good!”

Ma Bangde muttered, and when he saw that Lin Mo’s face had darkened, he hurriedly took several steps back.

“Why are you hiding so far away?”

Lin Mo frowned slightly.

“Is it hard to believe that I would lead you to do it?”

Ma Bangde directly nodded his head frantically, that jaw was like a chicken pecking at rice.

Lin Mo narrowed his eyes, the corners of his mouth slightly hooked, “So you don’t trust me?”

Ma Bangde still nodded his head.

After being beaten up so many times, he had completely learned his lesson.

Lin Mo smashed his mouth when he saw that the b*****d wasn't taking the bait.

"Forget it, I won't tease you, hurry up and leave them down for a few days of rest."

"If you keep going like this sooner or later, you're going to kill them all suddenly!"

Ma Bangde looked at the corridor, Zhang Hongyun and others, who were crying out in sleep, and also absolutely seemed to have gone a bit too far.

"Okay, Mr. Lilin, I'll go get someone!"

With that he was about to turn around and leave.

However, just at that moment, a human figure suddenly came behind him.

"No martial virtue, you sneak attacked ..... ah!"

Ma Bangde only managed to shout one sentence, and then he was kicked straight out.

"Little brat, fight with me!"

Lin Mo smiled smugly and clapped his hands, just as he turned around.

Behind him, Xue Lian was looking at her with a helpless expression .

"You're already a master, why are you still so childish!"

Lin Mo scratched his head and gave a heated smile, "Men are teenagers until they die!"

"Childish b*****d!"

Xue Lian said after spitting out a sentence.

"I'll continue to teach Hateless Body Technique!"

Lin Mo hadn't even had the chance to reply before

The door had already closed at this moment.

At the same time, Ma Bangde, who had gone and returned, suddenly came running over in a hurry.

"Mr. Lin, hurry over and take a look!"

"An old man has suddenly arrived on our side, evil as hell!"

"Evil?" Lin Mo asked rhetorically.

Ma Bangde's face was eager, "I can't explain it clearly for a while!"

"You'll know if you come over with me and take a look!"

Lin Mo saw how anxious he looked, so he followed along.

He came to the martial arts stage that was being rebuilt.

At this moment, it was already filled with members of various forces.

“This godly man, how much does he want to open up, and he still plans to come to our three districts!”

“Good judge of yin and yang, breaking life and death, what a big mouth!”

“Why don’t I go and try!”

By the time Lin Mo passed through the crowd, he saw an old man in ragged clothes.

There was no telling how many patches had been put on top of the old long coat.

A pair of cloth shoes were so worn that you could see the backs of the blackened feet.

The only thing that attracts attention is the tattered and torn cloth on his hand.

On the left half of it is written, “Money falls to the ground to judge yin and yang.

On the right side, it reads, “The golden streamer whips through to break life and death!

Just as Lin Mo was observing the old man’s divine appearance, Ma Bangde, who was at the side, hurriedly said.

“Mr. Lin, it’s this old fellow .....

Without waiting for him to finish, Lin Mo immediately chided.

“Shut up! No rudeness to the old man!”

After saying this, he stepped forward with a respectful demeanour, arching his hand and cupping his fist.

“I, Lin Mo, have met the old gentleman!”

Only at this moment did this old fortune teller slowly open his eyes!

At the same time, Lin Mo couldn’t help but tremble as his heart grew jealous.

He had a feeling of being looked at cleanly after just one glance with this old man.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4200

That feeling of being completely seen through and through comes and goes quickly.

By the time Lin Mo returned to his senses and observed again.

That eerie feeling had already disappeared.

The old man in front of him was still plain and unassuming.

“Hahahaha, not bad, not bad for a young descendant!”

“Much more knowledgeable than this brainless reckless man!”

Ma Bangde’s face darkened, “Who are you calling brainless?”

With that he directly lifted up his sleeves, ready to step forward and fight.

Lin Mo was quick with his eyes and pulled him back with one hand.

“Old Ma, don’t be rude!”

Turning his cheek, he gave another dark wink.

Ma Bond reacted and turned straight around.

“All right, everyone, let’s go back and get well!”

“There’s nothing to see over here, let’s all disperse!”

The crowd was originally just trying to have a good time.

Now that they had seen Ma Bangde drive them away, they had no desire to join in the fun.

They dispersed in pairs and groups.

Only when there were no more people around did Lin Mo speak up.

“Dare I ask what the old gentleman’s name is?”

“Old man Ding Daoren, the people of the jianghu give face and call me Ding Shenxian!”

With that he reached out and stroked a handful of his nearly one metre long silver and white beard.

“Cut!” Ma Bangde laughed disdainfully.

“That’s all you need to be a god? Can’t the gods even afford a decent set of clothes these days?”

“I’m laughing my a*s off, Mr. Lin, don’t you think so .....”

Just as he turned his head and looked at Lin Mo, he immediately shut his mouth!

“If you keep talking so much, you should not stay here anymore!”

Lin Mo said with a gloomy face, while inwardly he was foolishly blinded.

Was this simpleton a bull?

He was so desperate to save himself, but he was so mad to die.

Can’t you see that he is treating this old man with respect?

Lin Mo spat out his apologies while respectfully apologising.

“Taoist Master Ding, sorry, this simpleton has this personality!”

“This simpleton doesn’t think through his words, so if there’s anything after he’s offended, don’t take it to heart yet!”

Saying that, he gave a direct wink.

Although Ma Bangde was straightforward, he was not stupid either.

Seeing such a perverse move by Lin Mo, he also realised something.

Especially after seeing Lin Mo's eyes gesturing, he hurriedly followed and bent down.

"Seniors, please forgive me!"

"Hahaha, no harm, no foul!"

After Daoist Ding gave a laugh, there was little anger on his face to.

"Those who eat our bowl of rice have long been used to seeing this."

When Lin Mo saw this, he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

The momentary exchange of eyes just now had already shown him the terror of this Ding Daoist.

This man, seemingly scruffy and unimaginative.

But between his hands and feet, he always gave the impression of a crowd of rebuttals to the truth.

Subtle in the extreme!

Such an existence, it is better to try not to offend if you can.

"Old God Atmosphere!"

After flattering him, Lin Mo followed up with an invitation.

"Old man, it's inconvenient to talk here, why don't you move and I'll have someone prepare some wine?"

"Don't bother!"

Daoist Ding refused outright.

"Just prepare a little water for me if you bother?"

With that, he untied the large gourd at his waist.

Ma Bonder had learned his lesson and immediately stepped forward to take it.

"Old God, wait for a moment, I'll fill it up for you!"

With that he rushed out in a frenzy.

Lin Mo, who remained in place, then began to find something to talk about.

"Old God, where is this intended to go?"

"Wandering in the clouds, no goal!"

Ding Daoist returned the meeting and then suddenly asked rhetorically.

"How has the Chinese country been these past few years? Has anything big happened?"

Lin Mo recalled for a moment before recounting what he knew one by one.

After listening, Daoist Ding showed interest.

“The younger generation is fearsome, that old man Sai Hua Tuo has someone to take over from him!”

“Not bad!”
