Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4221

The other side.

Residential area in Zone 3!

The wind of the epidemic has now passed.

The members of the Sea Waves gang who were responsible for the quarantine have also retreated early.

After several days of not being able to leave the house, the streets instead seem more lively.

People were coming and going, shoulders rubbing together.

The streets are lined with the sounds of hawking.

Lin Mo also brought his disciples along with Xue Lian to the downtown area.

And this was also the first time that Hate Free had come to this kind of downtown area since, well, opening up his heart.

After just one look, her big eyes spread the same light.

Again, it was when she saw the candy shop that she broke away from Xuelian's baby straight away.

Braving her feet, she ran wildly over to it.

"Be careful, don't fall over!"

Snow Lotus at the back warned with concern.

On the contrary, Lin Mo on the side said with brutal care, "Don't you know what strength this little girl is?"

"To be able to fall down, how big a stone must she kick?"

Although there was nothing wrong with the words, what Xue Lian responded to him was only a blank stare.

"Are you allergic to the cozy atmosphere?"

A word of dislike instantly rendered him speechless.

The next second, he felt a pain in the back of his foot as he reacted.

Xuelian had already run away.

In the same place Lin Mo could only shake his head with a bitter smile.

This girl, although she was about the same age as himself, her mind was still full of childish innocence.

After playing around for a while.

The three of them then strolled slowly along the long street.

Only halfway down the street.

Lin Mo's hands, or should I say arms, were already hung with bags of all sizes.

"These are two new sets of clothes for Hate Free, carry them well but don't lose them!"

With that, the two bags were delivered straight over.

Lin Mo nodded bitterly and took them helplessly.

Sloppy!

Originally, he had thought that a girl like Xue Lian would be interested in such a lowly activity as shopping.

Yet never in a million years did he expect that.

Xuelian was after all addicted to it and was more crazy than any other girl.

She had already bought no less than six sets of clothes alone for her and No Hate.

And looking at the situation, there was no intention to stop.

Had he known this, Lin Mo had let Ma Bangde shoot a few of his men to him.

These piles and piles of bags were already on the verge of overwhelming his head.

Just when he was full of depression but couldn't say much.

Suddenly he heard someone calling out to him.

"Mr. Lin?"

After Lin Mo turned around with difficulty, he only saw a small bearded man with a hand with an armband that was leading his little brother, coming towards him at a fast pace

"Mr. Lin it's really you, just now from a distance, I thought I was mistaken for someone else!"

Faced with this person's sudden enthusiasm.

Lin Mo was a little confused: "You are?"

The other party hurriedly explained upon hearing this.

"Mr. Lin, I'm the captain of the Sea Wave Gang's subordinate, Wang Dabao."

"Previously, in this area, when the quarantine was imposed, my unwatchful men had a little scuffle with you."

After saying that, he pulled out his men behind him.

After Lin Mo saw this person, he then remembered the identity of the other party.

"I didn't expect such a coincidence!"

Wang Dabao was not ambiguous when he saw this and twisted his head and made a wink.

The few men behind him immediately enthusiastically stepped forward and picked up the large bags in Lin Mo's hands.

"Mr. Lin, this is a small matter, just let them do it!"

As he said this, he intentionally or unintentionally glanced at the stunningly beautiful face inside the shop, and then hurriedly withdrew his gaze.

With just one glance, Wang Dabao also guessed Lin Mo's purpose for coming here.

"Mr. Lin, I was incompetent in my discipline regarding the last incident."

"I hope Mr. Lin will not take it to heart!"

Lin Mo hadn't taken the previous incident to heart, plus the other party had such an upper hand.

Naturally, his attitude was also much gentler.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4222

With a group of men like Wang Dabao.

Lin Mo was also finally relieved.

Shaking off his sore arms, he asked curiously.

"Why are you guys over here, and what's the deal with this red armband on your hands?"

Wang Dabao immediately explained.

"Ever since our Sea Wave Gang left before you, our temple master seems to have evaporated into thin air."

"We haven't seen him for quite some time either, and the assistant he had been delivering messages to has also disappeared."

"Later, when Director Qiu saw that we had no leader and nothing to do, he arranged for us to maintain law and order over here."

Hearing this, Lin Mo's brows could not help but frown slightly.

Was this Sea Wolf King that afraid of this Ji Dutuo?

The last time they met.

Lin Mo only leaked the news that Ji Dutuo had boarded the island.

This Sea Wolf King simply disappeared into hiding, and even took his assistant with him this time.

"Before the Sea Wolf King disappeared, did he leave any instructions?"

Wang Dabao shook his head straight away after thinking back for a while.

“No, it just disappeared so suddenly.”

Hearing this, Lin Mo could basically be sure already.

This Sea Wolf King was planning to completely hide this time.

However, no matter where he hid, as long as he had Lan Dieyi with him, he would not be able to escape from his own tracking.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo didn't dwell on it any further.

Turning to his thoughts, he asked again.

“On this side of the third district, are there any forgers who are skilled in their craft?”

The Lawrence side of the family counted the time, and it was basically about time to rectify the work of the clan.

It wouldn't be long before the Great War of the Two Districts would surely restart.

It is true that now that the great sword of Mabond has been destroyed, it is also true that a new one needs to be arranged as soon as possible.

After Wang Dabao recalled it, the expression on his face revealed a few oddities.

“There is naturally!”

“But that old man has a strange temper!”

Lin Mo's curiosity was piqued and his face asked, “How strange?”

“If he intends to open a forge, he strikes out even if an ordinary farmer comes to his door.”

Said Wang Dabao with a turn of phrase.

“But if you meet this old man who doesn't want to strike, even if you hold a knife to his neck.”

“He's not likely to help you forge it!”

“It's not just me our side, several other district power lords have come to our door before.”

“But it never seems to work out!”

Hearing this.

Lin Mo continued to pursue the question.

“Since no one has ever succeeded, how do you all know that he is skilled in his craft.”

Wang Dabao explained, “Because of a pig-killing knife!”

“Once this old man, helped a butcher build a butcher's knife.”

At the mention of this, his eyes could not help but glow.

“It was then discovered that the butcher’s knife was incredibly sharp.”

“All the blades that clashed with it were the result of fractures, and then after a bloody fight.”

“The pig-killing knife was nowhere to be found, and the old man’s reputation was spread

After hearing this Lin Mo was suddenly interested in the old man.

I didn’t expect this little death island to be a place where dragons and tigers were hidden.

However, after mentioning this old man, Lin Mo’s heart could not help but have doubts.

“Why is it that I’ve never heard of this matter from Ma Bangde and the others?”

The time one had been in District Three was not long, to say the least, but not short either.

But Ma Bond and the others had never told themselves about this old man.

Wang Dabao was also a man of understanding, and as soon as Lin Mo had asked he answered in a gee-whiz manner.

“Although this old man is known for his forging skills, that foul temper is even more famous.”

“Sect Master Ma and the others should have been worried that this old man’s words would contradict Mr. Lin, that’s why they didn’t mention it on purpose!”

Lin Mo thought about it and it made some sense.

This was indeed the style of Ma Bangde, Director Qiu and the others.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4223

“OK, I’ve got the situation!”

Lin Mo said with interest.

“You lead the way ahead, I’d like to see just how much this person is capable of.”

When Wang Dabao heard this, his expression instantly drooped.

“Ah? You really want to go over there, Mr. Lin?”

“Why don’t we just forget about it, this old man is so tongue-tied that if he rushes you, things won’t be pretty.”

Between the words, there seemed to be a million reluctance for Lin Mo to go there.

However, how could his little thought be hidden from Lin Mo?

“I’m just thinking of going over to give it a try, if things don’t work out, I can’t beat a different forge shop.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll lose face or something because of it.”

“I’m not that pretentious yet.”

It was only when he heard this that Wang Dabao gave up the idea of blocking it.

Since Lin Mo didn’t even care about saving face or not saving face.

Wang Dabao would not only worry about it.

After Lin Mo informed Xuelian, the two women were obviously less interested in the matter of forging than in the immediate shopping.

So, the two sides began to split up.

After leaving this Wang Dabao’s men behind to carry things for Xue Lian and Hatedless.

Lin Mo then followed Wang Dabao to an out-of-the-way alcove.

After approaching.

What caught his eyes was not the kind of clanking blacksmith shop.

Instead, it looks more like an abandoned thatched cottage.

Just as he approached, Lin Mo could already smell the sour stench.

After the door was pushed, Lin Mo even frowned directly.

In a small room of less than twenty square metres, there were bottles of wine scattered all over the floor.

All sorts of rubbish were even found everywhere.

If it wasn’t for Wang Dabao leading the way, Lin Miao’s body would have suspected that he had come to a refuse dump.

It was even brighter overhead.

At first Lin Mo thought it was filled with gla*s, after a closer look.

Only then was he surprised to find that the large and small hollows were really just crumbling roofs.

If it was a rainy day, even an umbrella would be reliable to hide in this room.

Just as Lin Mo was observing the situation around him.

There was a sudden movement from the rubbish pile in one corner of the room.

Turning his head to look, he only saw an old man who was unkempt to the extreme slowly climbing up.

Clumps of hair and a beard had completely covered his cheeks.

There was no way to see the man’s face.

The clothes on his body were also covered in a thick layer of oil stains.

Although Lin Mo had always adhered to the notion that people could not look like each other.

But after seeing this old man, he couldn't help but be swayed.

Right at this moment, the old man opposite suddenly spoke.

"Send food, just leave the stuff!"

"If you want to find me building something, go out and turn right!"

After saying that, he staggered around the room and rummaged through it.

Looking at the stance, he was planning to find a bit of liquor from among these wine jars.

But there was nothing in the empty wine jars at all.

The old man also simply came to another rubbish heap, tilted his head and fell straight down.

In no time at all, there was the sound of snorting!

Wang Dabao shrugged his shoulders helplessly.

"As you can see, Mr. Lin, this old friend has such a personality!"

"As long as it's something he doesn't want, you wouldn't move a muscle even if you chopped off his head right now!"

"Let's just go!"

After saying that, he was about to lead Lin Mo outside.

Just standing in place Lin Mo didn't move.

If this Wang Dabao hadn't lied to him, this old man must have had his own merits.

Just what on earth could make a forger degenerate to such a state?

This was something that Lin Mo was extremely curious about.

Six senses to the sky, open!

A brilliant light suddenly flashed in Lin Mo's eyes.

In the next second, a smile of deep meaning appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Wang Dabao, will you go and buy a little something for me?"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4224

Inside the ramshackle straw hut.

The old man just fell into a deep sleep, snoring from his mouth and nose.

He had never cared about Lin Mo, an outsider, from the beginning to the end.

It seemed that after sleeping on the drink there was only two things to do: sleep.

Not long after, Wang Dabao, who had gone and returned, came here again.

And in his hands were two more jars of white wine.

“Mr. Lin, I’ve bought what you want!”

And also kindly reminded, “This method has still been tried by many people before.”

“But this old man is a complete white-eyed wolf, no matter how much wine you send him, he won’t take you up on it.”

Lin Mo only smiled faintly and didn’t say anything back to explain.

He took it and then laid it out on the ground.

With the moment that the wine altar was opened.

The old man, who was still in a deep sleep, sprang to his feet.

Scanning around, his gaze finally settled on Lin Mo’s side.

He then arrived at the heels with large strides.

Only just as he was about to reach out and pick up the wine altar.

But Lin Mo took a step ahead of him and placed a wine jar behind himself.

Such an action directly baffled Wang Dabao at the side.

This would only make the old man even more fake angry!

As expected, after the old man froze for a while, he spoke with an unkind tone.

“Bring it!”

With that stance, if he didn’t deliver the wine to him, he was going to get violent straight away.

But Lin Mo was still unmoved, instead he smiled with deep meaning.

“Old man, if you can stop drinking now, there is still a slight chance of salvation!”

“But if you continue to damage your body with alcohol, this one of your hands will be completely ruined.”

At these words, the pimply-faced old man’s body shuddered.

“Who are you?”

At this moment, his tone had taken on a murderous tone.

“I am the newly promoted Medical Saint of China, Lin Mo!”

“Old man, now I wonder if we can sit down and talk about your hands?”

After hesitating for a moment, the old man finally nodded his head.

“Yes!”

Seeing this scene, Wang Dabao was directly stunned.

Ever since he had heard of this old man’s reputation, it was the first time he had seen him being able to communicate so calmly with outsiders.

And from that tone of voice, it seemed as if he was even carrying a compromising intention.

Worthy of being Mr. Lin Mo!

Wang Dabao worshipfully glanced at Lin Mo’s back afterwards.

He also knew that it was not appropriate for him to be beside himself in such a scene.

He then wisely withdrew from the room and went outside the door to let the wind in.

At this same time, the old man spoke up.

“Is it true what you just said?”

“If you lie to me, I will make you pay a heavy price!”

With such threatening words, Lin Mo merely just laughed disdainfully.

“Old man, I hope you can understand one thing.”

“Although I am two rounds behind you in terms of seniority, it doesn’t mean that I am asking to help you with your treatment.”

“If you continue to be presumptuous, let’s stop talking here!”

He stood up straight away.

“Save the drink for when you continue to mutilate yourself!”

“I’ll leave you to it! Farewell!”

After saying that Lin Mo made a gesture to leave.

For the old man regardless of his status, he had always communicated with him in a low respectful manner.

But also right now, this old man, who was nearly crippled, had a superior and self-righteous posture that really displeased him.

It was only a fault to forge a great sword for Mabundle.

It wasn’t like it was some divine weapon.

Why should we grovel and be threatened?

No more!

Just as he was about to leave this place.

The old man behind him suddenly called out to him!

“Wait!”

Lin Mo felt that faint oppressive force and a disdainful smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

“What, old man, is this a plan to start a fight?”

“With your strength that is suppressed by the seal, you can’t stop me if I want to leave

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4225

Inside the ramshackle room.

After the scruffy old man heard Lin Mo reveal the secret of his body in one word.

His expression suddenly changed.

At first, he didn’t believe it!

It was only thought that Lin Mo was the same as the others, all intending to get his out by means of a swindle.

But as the secrets were revealed one after another by the young man in front of him.

He finally realised a glance.

The young backwoodsman in front of him, who was so good-looking, might really have the means to restore himself.

After thinking of this, his breathing could not help but become rapid.

“Little sir, please stay!”

“Just now, it was my mouth that was uncalled for, so please don’t take it personally, little sir!”

He said as he clasped his hands’ fists and bent down towards the waist.

Only at this moment did Lin Mo’s face look slightly better.

“How good it was to be like this earlier, why bother making such an embarra*sment?”

“Little sir has taught you a lesson, it’s because I don’t know what’s good for me!”

After the old man saw hope, his attitude instantly took a hundred and eighty degree turn.

“Please don’t take it to heart yet, save the old man!”

After Lin Mo put him in his proper posture, too could no longer be embarra*sed and spoke directly.

“Your current physical condition, you yourself know best!”

“Originally, there was no major problem!”

Said Lin Mo, faintly frowning.

“But you’ve been frantically numbing yourself with alcohol for so many years.”

“This has also led to further damage to your broken tendons, adding injury to injury, and now the tendons in your hands have been eroded.”

The old man’s heart shrank when he heard this.

“May I ask, young sir, is there any hope of saving these hands of mine?”

At this moment, he was already incredibly nervous, and regret could not help but derive from his heart.

Had he known this, he would never have said anything and drunk so recklessly and wildly.

Otherwise, he could have had a little more hope.

Lin Mo frowned and pondered for a while before speaking.

“It’s not that there’s no hope!”

“It’s just that the results will only be available after further examination.”

“Also the sealed dantian is a big problem!”

“Not only does it not provide nourishment for your body, but on the contrary it absorbs your body’s vitality every single day.”

“Step by step, it’s dragging you down!”

Hear this.

The old man instantly became more convinced of Lin Mo.

“Little sir, you really are a god!”

The condition of his own body was only known to him, apart from himself, in that enemy of his.

And if Lin Mo was someone from his enemy’s family, he would have directly killed him, how could he still be talking nonsense with himself.

“After so many years away from China, I never thought that such a heavenly talent like you would come out!”

Accompanied by this exclamation from him.

Lin Mo also hurriedly asked.

“Old man, you are also from the country of China?”

At this moment, the old man didn’t hide anything and directly identified himself.

“Old man Gongsun Tie!”

As soon as Lin Mo heard this name, his entire person directly collapsed.

“You you are actually Gongsun Tie, you are not already dead

Halfway through his words, he suddenly stopped speaking.

The identity of this person could not help but shock him.

In recent times, nine out of ten of China’s legendary divine weapons had come from the hand of Ouyangzi, the God of Craftsmanship.

The man in front of him was the favourite disciple of Ouyangzi, and his forging skills were also of the highest level.

Ouyang Zi even said in public that Gongsun Tie was the only one who could surpa*s him in the art of forging.

Unfortunately, soon after Ouyangzi’s death, Gongsun Tie, who was in the prime of his life, was also rumoured to have died.

This caused quite a shock at the time.

After all, the departure of two forging masters was a great loss to the entire martial world.

What Lin Mo had never expected was this.

Surprisingly, he had met here, this Forging Grandmaster who had been dead for over fifty years.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4226

After a long period of shock, Lin Mo still asked uncertainly.

“Old senior, are you really Master Gongsun Tie?”

This matter also by had to be doubted.

After all, a person who has been dead for over fifty years is suddenly standing in front of you.

No one would believe it!

Without much ado, Gongsun Tie directly pulled out a wooden box carefully from his arms.

He took out the ink-coloured forged seal inside and gave it a heavy slap on the ground.

Pop!

The originally hard stone block instantly split in pieces, leaving only a thumb-sized laughing square.

On it were clearly printed the three words Gongsun Tie.

After Lin Mo felt the biting aura coming from above that strange script.

The look on his face suddenly became wonderful.

This kind of forging seal was exclusive to every forging master.

It is also a symbol of status.

It cannot be used by outsiders other than the person himself, and can only be used as a piece of scrap iron.

Lin Mo instantly ascertained that this old man in front of him was actually the top forging master who had returned from the dead, Gongsun Tie.

“Junior Lin Mo has met the master, it was junior who was rude before!”

At this moment, Lin Mo also reacted.

Why was it that when the two of them met.

Why was this scruffy old man, so arrogant and superior looking.

As one of the top forging masters in China, and indeed the world, it is not too much to ask to stand on the table and talk.

Gongsun Tie also stood up at this moment.

“Little sir, don’t mock, in my current condition, I am still considered a master!”

When he said this, he also took on a bit of a downcast look in its midst.

Once a master with a gateway to the city and unrivalled in the world, now as reduced to a scruffy old man.

How can one not be saddened by this?

Lin Mo also rushed to persuade, “Master Gongsun, don’t worry!”

“My junior will cure your hands even if I have to risk my own life.”

At this moment, he was already excited inside.

This was a total treasure!

After listening to this, Gongsun Tie could not help but bring a little bit of relief to his heart.

“Little sir has spoken highly of you, I am but a man with half a foot in a coffin.”

“You young people are the future!”

However, Lin Mo did not think so at all.

Once Gongsun Tie reopened his forge, there would definitely be a steady stream of divine weapons flowing into the martial world of China in the future.

Once a Grandmaster was equipped with a weapon that he could use, his strength would increase exponentially.

For example, it was because of his own Tai Ah that his strength was so strong.

“Master Gongsun, you are too modest!”

“If you are cured, it will be a blessing for our entire Chinese nation!”

“The importance of you, Grandmaster, cannot be compared to even a hundred or ten of me, Lin Mo!”

Lin Mo said truthfully Su.

The divine weapons forged by Gongsun Tie only flowed out, especially into the Martial Union.

Then China’s national power would also see a huge wave of growth.

And this growth is still continuous.

As long as Gongsun Tie exists, it will not stop.

This is the influence of a top-level master forger.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo became even more determined to definitely heal, Master Gongsun’s hands.

The two men boasted to each other after a while.

Lin Mo also asked his inner doubts.

“The late generation is disrespectful and dares to ask a question!”

“Master Gongsun, back then, didn’t your Divine Warrior Sect claim to the public that you were deceased?”

“And made a big show of mourning for you, why was that?”

As soon as this matter was mentioned.

Lin Mo instantly felt the dense murderous energy around Gongsun Tie’s body.

“Back then, when my master Ouyangzi pa*sed away, he had already set his will.”

“That I would take over the position of the Divine Armament Sect’s Sect Master!”

“However, I never expected that my senior brother would do this to me out of jealousy

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4227

With Gongsun Tie’s righteous indignation after the retelling.

Lin Mo also gradually understood some of the past events back then.

Tao Hongjing, the current master of the Divine Warrior Sect, had been a top-notch forging talent when he was young.

Tragically, he was born in the same era as Gongsun Tie, and from the same family.

Whether it was talent or fame.

Tao Hongjing was deadly suppressed by Gongsun Tie in every aspect.

Living under the shadow of this all year round, Tao Hongjing's mentality became more and more deformed.

It was only after their master, Ouyangzi, had passed away.

After learning that the position of Sect Master had been given to Gongsun Tie, he was able to find out that he had been given the position of Sect Master.

Tao Hongjing went completely mad.

He united with a group of his inner circle and drugged Gongsun Tie.

"At that time, that senior brother of mine was concerned about my prestige within the Divine Warrior Sect and did not dare to directly lay a deadly hand on me."

Gongsun Tie's voice was hoarse as he said.

"So then, he cruelly broke my hand tendons and abolished the meridians in both my arms."

"And also sealed my dantian, intending to use to imprison me in a dungeon!"

"Fortunately, I secretly escaped from the Divine Warrior Sect under the cover of my servants!"

"Until now!"

Both hands were ruined, which meant that the art of forging, which he was so proud of, was completely gone.

Then later, Gongsun Tie could not bear such a blow and was never recovered.

All the way to the present!

After hearing this, Lin Mo also sighed a little.

A fellow disciple betrayed and his talent was destroyed.

Such a situation would be an incomparably painful ordeal for any genius.

And such a life had been tormented for over fifty years for Gongsun Tie.

Just when Lin Mo was about to open his mouth to express his comfort.

But Gongsun Tie waved his hand expansively.

"After so many years, I've already gotten used to everything!"

He would have been ready to die of old age if he had not been aroused by the already dead hope in his heart by Lin Mo now.

"By the way, how are the divine soldiers doing now?"

"That senior brother of mine, has he ever developed them?"

Even after all this inhuman torture and torment.

His greatest concern remained the situation of his division.

Only when Lin Mo heard this question, he was instantly dumbfounded.

For a moment, he actually did not know how to speak.

Gongsun Tie also seemed to have guessed the bad outcome and said calmly.

“Go ahead, don’t be too formal, I can still carry it!”

Lin Mo then nodded his head and told.

“Ever since the news of Master Ouyangzi and your death spread, the Divine Warrior Sect has started to amass a large amount of money!”

“As for that you a senior brother Tao Hongjing

Speaking here, Lin Mo stopped his words and secretly observed Gongsun Tie’s reaction.

Seeing that he was in a calm mood, only then did he continue.

“Ever since Tao Hongjing became the Divine Warrior Sect’s Sect Master, he has come to be the one who spends his days and nights drinking.”

“The matter of forging, moreover, has never been touched again!”

“Nowadays, there are less than a hundred people in the Divine Warrior Sect, and in the past fifty years, the Divine Warrior Sect has not produced any fine products!”

Hearing these words.

Gongsun Tie, who had been maintaining his calmness, could no longer suppress the anger within him.

Raising his hand, he directly smashed the empty wine altar on the side.

“Senior brother, you deserve to die for your sins!”

Thinking back to the time when Master Ouyangzi was alive, there could be thousands of disciples under his disciples.

And these disciples were all good in the forging world.

There was an endless stream of masters, and even a number of Saint Realm masters came to the door.

The house has become unparalleled!

Now it is in such a state!

It can be said that Tao Hongjing has directly destroyed the Divine Warrior Sect.

This made how could Gongsun Tie not be grief-stricken.

Thinking of this, he could not bear to worry again and asked.

“Surprisingly, if the Divine Warrior Sect has fallen, what about the weapons supply of the Martial Union?”

During the glory days of the Divine Armament Sect, the work of forging cold weapons for the Martial Union could be given to the Divine Armament Sect.

When this matter was mentioned, Lin Mo let out a long sigh

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4228

Since Tao Hongjing forced his way to the top in name only.

The entire Divine Warrior Sect has become disorganised.

In addition, Tao Hongjing spent his days in the company of alcohol and sex and did not manage the Divine Warrior Sect at all.

As time went by, more and more members of the clan broke away.

They have set up their own clans!

“Nowadays, there are countless forging clans in China, and they can barely supply the cold weapon needs of the Martial Union!”

“But masters who want to be at the clan master level can only go to other countries to seek a suitable weapon for themselves at sky-high prices.”

When Lin Mo said this, the scene also suddenly calmed down.

Both of them knew.

Zong Shi level weapons were generally not available in their own countries.

How could it be possible to forge them for people from other countries!

In this way, the decline of the Divine Warrior Sect has invariably pulled down a part of the overall strength of the Chinese nation, too.

The more Gongsun Tie understood the current situation of the forging world in China.

The more desperate he became to heal his hands.

“Master Lin Mo, I’ll trouble you with these hands next!”

He said as he made a salute with both hands and bent down deeply.

Seeing this, Lin Mo hurriedly stopped him.

“Master is no more than that, your early recovery will also be a boon to our country of China.”

“Nowadays, the forging world in China is in chaos and the quality varies, there is an urgent need for you, Grandmaster, to step in and consolidate it.”

This is something Gongsun Tie deeply believes.

“Little sir we two this master come, master go, very awkward.”

“From now on, how about we call each other by our lives?”

Under his forceful attitude, Lin Mo could only agree.

“Everything will be arranged by senior Gongsun!”

After some pleasantries.

Lin Mo did not intend to delay here either.

Now he had received such a national treasure for China.

Treating his hands early was the top priority.

Outside the door.

Wang Dabao, who had been waiting for a long time, finally saw the dilapidated door open.

What staggered him, however, was this.

Lin Mo had actually walked out together with this old man.

Just as he was astonished, Lin Mo frowned.

“Everything you saw today is forbidden to be mentioned to everyone, got it?”

Gongsun Tie was undoubtedly a gem to the country of China.

But to other neighbouring countries it was indeed a thorn in the flesh.

Once his identity is known to outsiders, it is likely that the entire nation will be mobilised to carry out the a*sa*sination.

This was something Lin Mo had to guard against!

Wang Dabao though still did not understand what was happening.

But seeing Lin Mo look so serious, he immediately nodded his head and said with a serious expression.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Lin, if I say a word about today’s matter to anyone else.”

“Let me die a good death!”

Lin Mo naturally knew that only the dead were the best means of keeping secrets.

But for innocent people, how could he possibly lay his hands on them.

And most importantly.

Up to now, only the two of them knew the identity of Gongsun Tie.

Cautioning Wang Dabao was just a precautionary measure to prevent accidents.

After explaining all this, Lin Mo asked Wang Dabao to secretly arrange for a hotel.

Gongsun's old man was thoroughly cleaned up inside and out.

On the one hand, Gongsun Tie's look was simply too striking.

On the other hand, this has to be an image that is really not worthy of the status of a top forging master.

"Little brother!"

Lin Mo, who was waiting in, turned his head when he heard the movement.

Behind him, the old man unexpectedly dressed in a long coat stood close by.

"You are senior Gongsun?"

No wonder Lin Mo was so surprised.

The main reason was that after this Gongsun Tie had cleaned up and dressed up a bit, he was a completely different person.

No matter what, Lin Mo could not combine this spirited old man in front of him with the image of the vagrant from before.

There was no need to mention the external image.

This aura was a complete sea change.

Gongsun Tie's face was also full of emotion after he shook off some clothes.

"I didn't expect that after fifty years, I myself would barely recognise my own self."

The period of vigour was the time of his prime, and the period of despondency has been more than fifty years.

So many years have passed, enough to change a lot.

The top forging master, who was headless and measureless back then, now has wrinkles all over his face.

The years of alcohol that he had spent on his body had made his face look incomparably dull.

Lin Mo still planned to disguise him to ensure accidents.

"Senior, offended!"

Along with a few silver needles falling on the acupuncture point, plus the disguise pills Lin Mo had been carrying around.

After a few minutes had passed, Gongsun Tie had completely changed into a different person.

Even when he looked at himself in the mirror, he couldn't help but marvel.

"Little brother, this technique of yours is truly superb!"

With this, Lin Mo was quite relieved and led him directly to the two women of Snow Lotus.

"How about it, have you had a good time shopping?"

Only after Xue Lian looked around did she nod contentedly.

Behind him, Wang Dabao's seven men had their arms full of shopping bags, large and small, at the moment.

Lin Mo couldn't help but admire her insane purchasing power.

It was in the middle of the duo's conversation.

Xue Lian had also noticed, this strange old man who had suddenly appeared.

As he cast a questioning glance towards Lin Mo.

Lin Mo secretly shook his head.

This was clearly not the place to talk.

The group then wandered around for a while longer, buying some essential household items for Gongsun Tie before preparing to return to the front line.

Before heading back, Lin Mo again summoned Wang Dabao to his side.

"It's been a hard day for you!"

Wang Dabao was flattered and hurried to be polite.

"It's an honor to serve Mr. Lin."

Halfway through his words, he again remained talking.

"And I'm just helping Lin presently carry objects, it's all a small matter, I'll turn my head and forget about it."

For his part, he deliberately avoided the matter of leading the way.

And it was also hinted that he would absolutely rot about the day's events.

These words instantly made Lin Mo feel that this man was, well, on the up and up.

The main thing was that he was smart and had an eye for things.

"Not bad!"

"A little captain, a bit condescending indeed!"

"How about this, don't the Sea Wolf Hall have many vacancies?"

“From now on, you will take over the position of Flag Master, I have agreed with Director Qiu on this matter!”

Nowadays, the Sea Wolf Temple was already considered to exist in name only.

After the Sea Wolf King disappeared, he basically let Director Qiu take over the management.

The members of the Sea Wolf Temple had long been dissatisfied with the Sea Wolf King, and the current situation was something they were happy to see.

After all, the members of the other major powers were frantically killing the enemy and making merit on the front line.

They had envied the Sea Wolf Temple.

Once Wang Dabao heard Lin Mo’s arrangement, he was instantly overjoyed.

Excitedly, he said.

“Many thanks to Mr. Lin for the promotion!”

If it was a big crowd right now, he would have knelt down and kowtowed.

The twelve banners of the Sea Wolf Hall had 20,000 members under each flag.

From a small captain with a dozen people, he leapt to become a banner master managing 10,000 people.

How could Wang Dabao not be excited.

“You deserve this!” Lin Mo returned with a smile.

It was because of this Wang Dabao that he had found Gongsun Tie, the great treasure of China.

This reward was completely deserved by Wang Dabao.

“I will have Director Qiu implement the appointment as soon as possible!”

“The stability of the rear is dependent on you!”

“Do a good job, the flag lord is not your priority!”

Lin Mo was not painting a big picture when he said this.

In the near future, the Lawrence family would certainly wage war.

As the only fully-formed force in the rear, this group of people from the Sea Wolf Temple played a decisive role in the stability of the rear.

If this Wang Dabao, performs well enough.

Lin Mo did not mind promoting him up.

After the explanation, the group went back to the front line.

Zone 3 front line.

“Master Gongsun Tie?”

After Lin Mo had informed Gongsun Tie of his identity, Xue Lian even covered her mouth in surprise.

However, there was no one who was a local martial artist in China who would not know this name.

Especially after the master and disciple had perished back and forth.

The entire upper echelons of the Chinese nation’s divine weaponry fell directly into a period of darkness.

Even many newly promoted clerics, who had been using the same weapons as before for the past ten years and decades, had no ranking to speak of.

Battle power has even fallen by a large margin.

As a result, Gongsun Tie’s “death” was all the more lamented and remembered.

“I am ashamed of myself!” Gongsun Tie said with an arch of his hand as he got up.

Xue Lian also immediately responded, “Master Gongsun, this matter is not your fault!”

“For today’s sake, we should let you heal as soon as possible is the top priority.”

After some conversation, Lin Mo gave a wink towards Xue Lian.

“Senior, you rest for a while, Xue Lian and I will go and discuss the treatment plan!”

After the two of them had walked away.

Lin Mo pondered for a long time before finally speaking.

“Perhaps we still need Feng Wu Huo’s help in this matter!”

Xue Lian’s face was astonished, “Why?”

In terms of medical skills, both of them were a cut above this Feng Wu Huo.

In terms of medicinal herbs, the Dunhuang Sanctuary and the Hundred Herb Valley were collectively known as the twin repositories of medicinal herbs in China.

No matter which point one considers, there is no need to involve Feng Wu Huo.

Lin Mo slowly explained, “I’m worried about exposure!”

The thing he was currently most worried about was that Elder Gongsun’s identity had been exposed.

Death Island was already chaotic enough.

Add to that the matter of the old man.

When the time comes, there will really be nothing left to do.

“The condition of Elder Gongsun’s body, I’ve checked it briefly before.”

At the mention of this matter, Lin Mo’s face’s also became heavy.

“How can I put it, it’s troublesome!”

“To heal must not happen overnight.”

“And during this healing process, we need to follow the old man’s physical condition and constantly adjust the treatment plan.”

In this way, it leads to a very problematic issue.

Before treatment, the herbs needed are not fixed.

The whole process of healing must require people, step by step, to collect and provide the various herbs.

And the Dunhuang Sanctuary has too many eyes on it.

Not an ideal place to provide medicinal herbs.

Conversely, the Seven Deadly Sins are the complete opposite, and the line of secrecy is something they specialise in.

After listening to the explanation, Xuelian also felt that this was indeed the case.

After the two of them hit it off, Lin Mo approached Feng Wu Huo who was still in District 3.

“Greetings, Elder Feng!”

After the experience of copying books before, Feng Wu Huo had learned his lesson.

When he saw Lin Mo taking the initiative to come to the door in an uncharacteristic manner, he instantly had an extra eye.

First, he asked Lin Mo the reason for his visit.

“Doctor Lin Mo, what wind has blown you here!”

Lin Mo didn’t hesitate to say so.

“I have a patient on my side that needs to be treated, and now I would like to ask Senior Feng to help”

This time it was Feng Wu Huo’s turn to be confused.

He knew how much he weighed and how little he had, and in the Seven Deadly Sins others respected him as a divine doctor.

But in front of Lin Mo and Xue Lian, this point of his medical skills was not worth mentioning at all.

With such a state of mind, he asked curiously.

“Medical Saint Lin, you’re not here to amuse old me, are you?”

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders, “Senior do you think I have such leisure?”

“In today’s situation, we do need your help in providing medicinal herbs!”

Hearing these words, Feng Wu Huo glanced at Xue Lian with deep meaning in his eyes.

Although he was unclear as to why Lin Mo had not used his status as the Dunhuang Saintess and had come to ask for his help.

However, he still smilingly agreed to do so straight away.

“This is naturally no problem!”

He was not afraid of Lin Mo opening his mouth, but he was afraid that Lin Mo would be familiar with it.

Once you owe too much, you won’t be able to pay it back.

Thinking of this, Feng Wu Huo smiled even more brightly
