Chapter 4231

After the supply channels for the herbs have been established.

Lin Mo will start treating Gongsun Tie together with Xue Lian.

In order to make the preparation of the herbs more convenient and precise, Lin Mo had Feng Wu Huo also play along.

After a careful examination by the two of them.

Gongsun Tie's physical condition was indeed as Lin Mo had said, it was in a dilapidated state.

The combination of years of alcohol and his advanced age had almost depleted all of his body functions.

The condition of his hands was not much better.

The meridians of his hands had been broken and the meridians had withered!

The only reason why this old man Gongsun could still move his arms was purely on the basis of the fact that he was a patriarch since.

"It seems that he still needs to recuperate!"

Lin Mo analysed.

"Master Gongsun's current physical condition is such that he can only slowly warm up."

"If the medicine is too strong, it will only further drag his body down."

Fifty years of unrestrained drinking had already emptied the old master's body.

Right now it could only recover through time.

While the two discussed, Lin Mo took notes of the warming herbs needed for the regimen.

"Senior Feng, you've almost understood the situation."

"These medicinal herbs, I'll trouble you to help raise them!"

After saying that, he handed out the medicine prescription that he had put together.

As for the remuneration or anything else he did not mention anything at all.

He knew that what Feng Wu Huo wanted was a favour from himself.

"No problem!" Feng Wu Huo happily flicked the prescription, and the smile on his face looked extraordinarily bright.

And so it was that Gongsun Tie's initial treatment plan was set.

As his physical condition did not allow it, Lin Mo was in no hurry to take over the tendons and meridians for him again.

Just after a few people walked out of the room.

A swordsman from the Knife Sect rushed over with an anxious look on his face.

“Mr. Lin, Sect Master Ma asked me to ask you to come over immediately .....”

.....

When Lin Mo arrived at the command centre, all the power lords, including Director Qiu, were already present.

An inexplicable sense of tension drifted with the entire venue.

As soon as they met, Wang Changxing stated bluntly.

“Mr. Lin, according to the news sent back by the scouts.”

“The Lawrence family’s civil unrest has been straightened out by their trusted patriarch Cousins.”

“Since this morning, the frequent movements of their squad have begun.”

“All signs indicate that they, the Lawrence, are ready to wage war again!”

Everyone was ready for this day to come.

Only the only thing that worried everyone was this.

The entire front line had just experienced the epidemic and members of the major forces were still in the process of recovering.

At such a juncture, it was more or less impossible to meet the war.

Now Wang Changxing and the others suddenly invited Lin Mo over to ask for his opinion.

After learning all about the situation, Lin Mo did not express any thoughts as usual.

The only instruction he gave was one sentence.

“Give all frontline personnel a day off!”

At such an arrangement, all the power lords in the crowd were puzzled.

“A day off?”

Wang Changxing even thought that he had heard wrong.

Right now was the important period of being prepared for war, and they themselves were extremely tight on time.

Giving everyone a holiday at this time was like adding insult to injury.

Although it is only a short day, it has the potential to shape the entire battle.

“Mr. Lin, right now we have time .....

Wang Changxing was about to analyse the tense situation at hand.

Lin Mo, however, remained as calm as ever and raised his hand to interrupt him.

“Let them go home for a look!”

Ever since the Lawrence family started the war, all the men on the front line had been staying here.

Then there was an outbreak out of a serious epidemic.

More than 200,000 members have died before and after.

“This time, it will probably be the last time many of them will see their families.”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4232

As Lin Mo’s words fell to the ground.

The real scene was instantly quiet, and after the power lords looked at each other, their faces couldn’t help but reveal a look of shame.

They really wanted to win this battle too much.

So much so that it had made them forget that these men of theirs were also men with families.

“I, Mr. Lin, am right!”

The first person to respond to Lin Mo was naturally Ma Bangde.

“If we lose the war because of this one day’s time, then it only means that we are not strong enough.”

This statement was made.

Several people’s originally wavering minds instantly fell to the ground.

“Then let’s take a day off!”

“It just so happens that I’ve been cultivating so hard these past few days, so I’ll take a break as well.”

Amidst the caterwauling of the crowd, the matter was also settled once and for all in this way.

And along with this news came the news.

The real front line exploded.

After shouting the wisdom of the power lords, all the members immediately returned to their respective camps and frantically packed their bags.

“Woo hoo, finally we can go back!”

“Just in time to see my newly-born son!”

“It’s been a long time since I’ve tasted, my mum’s braised hooves, I’m drooling just thinking about it.”

It was only a short day though.

But for these people who have experienced life and death under the epidemic, it has been precious.

It didn’t take long for hordes of frontline members to pour out towards the rear.

“They’re having fun!”

Lin Mo suddenly spoke as he looked at the densely packed backs.

The ones on the side looked at the scene in front of them and nodded in agreement.

“Mr. Lin, why did you suddenly think in letting them go back and take a look?”

“Because it’s still very lively and peaceful back there now!”

Lin Mo shook his head and said.

“This peace was returned by their young lives.”

“All we can do today is to let them spend a short day with their families.”

He had lied after all.

By heart, Lin Mo had never resented this kind of war where countless lives were trying to be fought.

Win or lose, countless families would surely be displaced.

It was a pity that the course of events was not within his grasp.

Ma Bond also felt something in his heart.

“I had overlooked that earlier.”

“It seems that we, the power lords, are not doing a very good job!”

He said with a shameful look on his face and flicked his shirt.

Just as he was about to return to his cultivation, Lin Mo suddenly called out to him.

“Didn’t you damage your greatsword earlier?”

“While there is still time today, conceive the style of your new blade yourself.”

Hearing this, a few looks of joy appeared on Ma Bond’s face.

He had been a little worried before that when the great war broke out, he would not have a weapon that he could use and that would affect his strength.

“Yes, I will send you the sketches as soon as possible!”

With that, the two of them left.

After Lin Mo returned to his residence, his mind was inevitably a little heavier when he thought of the upcoming war.

Xue Lian could see his abnormality at a glance, and asked him with concern.

“What’s wrong, so listless?”

After hesitating for a moment, Lin Mo still recounted the matter of the impending war launched by the Lawrence family.

“The cohesive force of the re-integrated Lawrence Family will definitely be even stronger than before.”

“On our side, there are people who have just experienced the erosion of the epidemic.”

“With this and the other, a lot of people could die in this war!”

Lin Mo said in a heavy tone.

Xue Lian had never faced a brutal large-scale war head-on though.

But once she heard that many people would have to die, her expression could not help but become anxious.

“So Dao, isn’t there another way?”

“Like, for example, what about our patriarchs stepping in?”

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly and told Ji Dutuo about his previous ban on clan masters participating in the war on Death Island proper .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4233

This time, Lin Mo and Xuelian had a long chat.

Almost everything he had done since the moment he landed on Death Island was recounted one by one.

After listening, Xue Lian also fell silent.

At this moment, he also finally understood why Lin Mo had said before that this Death Island was a swamp of chaos.

Surrounded by enemies on all sides, there was simply no way out to meet the battle.

And Xue Lian also began to understand why Lin Mo had been unable to leave.

Not only for the sake of his own power development, but more than that, only he, Lin Mo, stayed.

These people in the three districts could only be safe.

“Let’s go for a walk!”

“Take a break, everything will be better than that!”

Xuelian suddenly suggested.

Just as her words fell to the ground.

No Hate appeared from nowhere.

“Take me with you, I don’t care!”

“No Hate wants to go out and play too!”

Looking at her pouty and scoundrelly appearance, the atmosphere that had been carrying a bit of heaviness also dissipated instantly.

“Okay, let’s go together!”

Lin Mo picked up Hate Free as soon as he could and placed her on the back of his neck.

With that, he quickly ran out.

Behind them, Xue Lian was tempted to warn them to be careful not to fall.

But once she thought of Lin Mo, the strength of this Patriarch, she turned and gave up.

Just as the three of them, cheerfully, left the room shortly afterwards.

Ma Bangde, however, rushed over with great enthusiasm.

“Mr. Lin, I’ve sent you the sketches you asked me to prepare!”

After shouting a few times, he did not receive any response.

As the house Lin Mo was in, there were no other servants or guards present either.

When Ma Bangde saw that no one answered, he simply searched for them.

“Mr. Lin .....

However after he wandered around, Lin Mo’s shadow was nowhere to be found.

Instead, he saw an old man with long hair in the middle of a room with an open door.

“Sorry for disturbing senior.”

After the first few lessons, Ma Bond had learned his lesson.

Plus an old man who could be arranged by Lin Mo again, could he be a simple man!

After the old man turned around, he said with a smile.

“No harm, no foul, you’re here to find Lin Mo!”

“I just saw him go out with his female companion, please sit down, you wait for him first!”

Faced with the old man’s invitation, Ma Bangde politely declined with a hint of formality.

“Since Mr. Lin is no longer, we’re sorry to interrupt!”

“Next time, I’ll treat senior to a drink!”

Just as he was about to leave, Gongsun Tie suddenly saw the sketch in his hand.

“Wait a minute!”

“Little friend, can I borrow the object in your hand for a look?”

Ma Bangde naturally did not refuse and sent it straight over.

After looking at the sketch in his hand, Gongsun Tie’s expression also instantly turned wonderful.

“The sketch of this greatsword is more or less abstract?”

“This is the first time in my lifetime that I have seen such a .....

Speaking here, Gongsun Tie suddenly stopped the words and turned to ask.

“It can’t be that you drew it yourself, little friend, right?”

Er .....

Ma Bangde, good-natured, shook his head hurriedly.

“How can that be?”

“A friend of mine, yes, this was sent over by a friend of mine!”

This statement was made.

Gongsun Tie instantly laughed heartily.

“So that’s how it is, little friend, this friend of yours is also a wonderful person.”

For a moment, Ma Bangde could not help but blush.

He suddenly remembered that the loud voice he had uttered as soon as he entered must have been overheard by the old man in front of him.

Just as he was ashamed, he did not know what to say.

Gongsun Tie suddenly spoke up.

“Little friend on your side, do you have a furnace for forging?”

At these words, the instant eyes of the horse gang glowed.

Combined with the sketch Lin Mo had asked him to prepare to conceive the greatsword.

He instantly had a reaction.

The old man in front of him must be the blacksmith Lin Mo had asked to help him forge the greatsword.

“There is there is there .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4234

Lin Mo and his party did not know at this time that Mabund had come.

When he returned, he found that Gongsun Tie had suddenly disappeared from the area.

He instantly tensed up.

“Haterless, also lead here first, while we go out with Sister Xuelian for a while.”

After Lin Mo settled Haterless down, he and Xue Lian exchanged a glance, and the two of them instantly disappeared from the spot.

As a large number of people returned to the back to talk about their feelings.

Not many people existed on the front line at all at this time.

The lights, dotted with stars, were sparse.

Lin Mo dodged and came to a tent.

The few brothers who were leaning against the whole sheep immediately stood up.

“Greetings, Mr. Lin!”

“Did you find any suspicious people coming in and out just now?”

Lin Mo asked with a low, trying mind.

The few brothers immediately shook their heads after thinking back for a while.

“There isn’t one!”

“But not long ago we did see the Horse Patriarch enter with a strange old man?”

An old man?

Lin Mo instantly caught the key information.

“Where did they go?”

“It seems to be in the direction of the blacksmith shop?”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the Lin Mo in front of the Washi people instantly disappeared.

By the time Lin Mo hurriedly arrived at the blacksmith shop, he immediately heard the sound of talking coming through inside.

“Young man, your back strength is not good!”

“You can’t stand it after just a few strokes?”

“It’s a deficiency, you need to make up for it!”

When Lin Mo heard this familiar voice, his heart, which had been tense, instantly relaxed.

After summoning Snow Lotus, he lifted his steps and went forward.

As he walked into the hot and dry smithy, he was greeted by a bare-chested Ma Bondar.

In one hand he held a huge piece of pig iron and in the other he held a huge hammer.

As for Gongsun Tie, who had suddenly disappeared, he was now instructing him in the art of forging with great interest.

“Senior, I can’t do it anymore!”

“This thing is deadly heavy, who can’t take it!”

Ma Bangde complained under his breath as he wiped away the beads of sweat on his forehead after putting down the hammer.

Even with the strength of a half-step Patriarch, a sledgehammer of a hundred pounds was smashed in a non-stop round.

After a long time, he felt weak.

In less than ten minutes, Ma Bangde’s arm felt sore and swollen.

“If you’re weak, just admit it, old man, at your age, you don’t even take a day’s turn to breathe.”

Gongsun Tie said disdainfully, with a touch of contempt in his eyes.

Ma Bangde’s instant energy of defiance came up.

He said, “How can I be looked down upon by an old man like you?”

“I’ll smash!”

Ma Bangde bellowed a roar and swung his arm again.

As he watched the sledgehammer about to fall, Lin Mo suddenly stepped forward and grabbed his wrist.

“After so many years of martial arts training, have you learnt it all from a dog?”

“Don’t you know how to use force to strike? Don’t you know how to use trickery?”

“Get out of the way!”

After reprimanding Ma Bangde, Lin Mei smoothly took the huge hammer in his hand.

Clang!

Under the loud sound, countless sparks of fire burst out.

Just as the hammer hit the wrought iron and bounced back.

Lin Mo took advantage of this rebounding force and instantly wheeled the hammer up into mid-air.

Immediately afterwards, he dropped down in a smooth manner and once again smashed heavily on top of the reddish wrought iron.

A set of movements flowed smoothly, without a single hint of stagnation.

Gongsun Tie, who was still watching from the sidelines, saw this scene and his face instantly turned complicated.

This set looked simple.

However, there were many tricks in it.

There's also a lot to be said for the way you lift and drop!

And what surprised Gongsun Tie the most was that Lin Mo looked a little rusty at first.

But after a few rounds, Gongsun Tie could clearly feel that Lin Mo's technique was becoming more and more mature.

And his speed was getting faster and faster.

After a few minutes, he could even see the residual shadows created when the hammer was swung.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4235

By the time Lin Mo stopped moving his hands, tiny beads of sweat had previously seeped from his forehead.

Although he was borrowing dexterity for the whole scene.

But the weight of the hammer was there, and swinging it for a long time was extremely physically demanding.

"What's the matter with you guys? What are you looking at me like that for?"

After Lin Mo raised his head, he found Gongsun Tie and Ma Bangde staring at him blankly.

"Mr. Lin, have you learnt blacksmithing before?"

Ma Bangde asked curiously.

Although he did not know how to forge, he had more or less seen the scene of a blacksmith forging.

But in terms of the techniques used, Lin Mo had far surpassed those old blacksmiths.

At this moment, Gongsun Tie also had a curious look on his face.

That was exactly what he wanted to ask!

This is the kind of forging technique that ordinary blacksmiths cannot achieve without more than ten years of hard practice.

Lin Mo shook his head in confusion and said, "No!"

"Isn't this thing very simple?"

“Just use dexterity and borrow strength, is it difficult?”

Originally, he was just because this Ma Bond guy’s technique was just unbearable.

So he moved towards showing him how to control the force by demonstrating it to himself.

Who would have thought that the effect of this demonstration could be so surprising to the duo.

Ma Bond: “.....”

You make me look dumb for saying that!

He understands the reasoning, but whether he can do it or not is another matter.

Especially for Gongsun Tie, a master forger, he knows the doorway best.

A blacksmith of Lin Mo’s maturity would be able to use every inch of his body with precision.

Even back in the days when the Divine Warrior Sect was in its glory, such an existence could basically already be out of the division.

Thinking of this, Gongsun Tie ghosted in.

“Mr. Lin, are you interested in learning forging from me?”

“With this talent of yours, I guarantee that in twenty years, no, in less than ten years you will be able to reach the level of a master.”

Er .....

Lin Mo felt speechless.

It wasn’t that he looked down on this forging skill.

The main reason was that he simply did not have the time to devote to it.

“Senior, we are not in a hurry in this matter, let’s talk about it!”

Gongsun Tie also heard his polite refusal and sighed secretly saying it was a pity.

It was a pity that such a good seedling didn’t beat iron.

Lin Mo was also afraid that Elder Gongsun would not let go of this point, so he hurriedly changed the subject.

“Old Ma, I said how did you abduct the old man to this side?”

At the mention of this matter, Ma Bangde instantly showed bitterness on his face.

Originally, he had thought that this old man was just looking at his sketches, and he had put up with all the mocking remarks.

Who would have thought that when he had informed himself of the location of the forge.

This old man asked to come along and forced him to beat iron to forge the greatsword.

He even said in a beautiful way that only the weapons he forged would be the most handy.

Ma Bangde was forced to obey because he was invited by Lin Mo, so he had no choice but to comply.

Thus, there was the scene just now.

At first, Lin was still a bit angry, after all, the old man's identity was sensitive, plus his health was poor.

If there was an accident, a hundred Ma Bonds would not be enough to pay for it.

When he waited for Ma Bangde to whisper the clear cause and effect of the incident, he repeated it in Lin Mo's ear.

Lin Mo also understood the causes and consequences of the incident.

"Er ..... old man was right!"

"Indeed, the weapons that you build with your own hands are the most comfortable to use."

With that he taught the sledgehammer back into Ma Bangde's hands.

"You have seen clearly what I have just demonstrated!"

"Just so you can learn how to control your body delicately."

"I can kind of give you a little lesson!"

Ma Bangde was in tears.

He was tempted to say could he not learn?

But looking at the bad smile at the corner of Lin Mo's mouth if there was one he instantly gave up the idea .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4236

Ding ding ding ding!

Inside the brightly lit frontline smithy, the sound of iron being beaten has been ringing all night.

After a night of forging.

The red cast iron above the fireplace has now been pounded clean of all impurities.

The carburising step was also completed by Ma Bangde under the guidance of Master Gongsun.

The embryo of a steel sword is now complete.

For the remaining steps, Gongsun Tie had an itch to do the work himself.

As the process did not require much effort, Ma Bangde was responsible for the lifting of the blade.

Lin Mo did not discourage him and left the old man to his own devices.

Poof!

With the old master spitting out a mouthful of tea, the reddish large knife instantly flooded me with countless water vapor.

At this moment, the prototype of the greatsword was then considered completed.

After Gongsun Tie's careful polishing and opening, the original blackened blade immediately became shiny and bright.

Especially at the point of the blade, the gleam of cold light penetrated the heart.

At first glance, it was not sharp.

As for those tattoo carvings, Gongsun Tie did not have the heart to carve them.

He hadn't forged for many years, so he had an itch to do so.

Weapons of this level were not worthy of him, or rather not worthy of him to carve.

No matter how downtrodden he was, the pride in his heart had not been diminished.

"Call it a day, come on you try the sword!" Gongsun Tie said with a slight gasp of breath.

The creased corners of his eyes also indicated his cheerful mood at the moment.

Ma Bangde did not doubt it, and after raising his great sword, he went aside.

With a cold stroke, the half-man-high test stone split in two instantly, without a hitch.

In particular, the place where the test blade stone broke was as flat and smooth as a mirror.

On the contrary, the big knife was indeed intact as before, with no damage visible.

"Good knife!" Ma Bangde shouted excitedly.

Especially when he thought that this blade was made by his own hands, a strong sense of pride was derived from his heart.

It seemed to feel even smoother when he wielded it.

"Thank you, Master, I am very satisfied with this blade!"

Gongsun Tie, on the other hand, waved his hand and said, "No need to be polite!"

"This blade was polished and opened a bit when I was there, and it is mainly your own fault."

Ma Bangde was even happier after receiving the old man's acknowledgement.

The corners of that mouth were almost grinning to the roots of his ears.

Lin Mo could only secretly shake his head when he looked at his silly smile.

If this b*****d knew that Elder Gongsun was not able to look at weapons forged at this level of material.

Only then would he give him all the credit.

I wonder if Ma Bangde would be vomiting blood with anger.

But look, the way the b*****d looks so towards.

Lin Mo eventually chose to conceal his true thoughts.

There was nothing wrong with being simple!

What's even more cruel is this.

Master Gongsun is purely just doing a favor too.

The reason why this greatsword was so sturdily sealed was also entirely most due to Lin Mo's wave of sharp whacks.

Specifically pursuing the matter, Ma Bangde was merely doing the hard work.

Of course for all this, both Lin Mo and Gongsun Tie chose to act as if they didn't know.

"Since this blade was forged by your own hands, you might as well give it a name!"

Ma Bangde blurted out after thinking for a while with a face full of excitement.

"In the future, this sword will be used on the battlefield to kill the heads of thousands of enemies."

"Let's call it the Ten Thousand Heads Great Sword over there!"

Lin Mo: "....."

What a corny name!

Luckily I was only involved a little.

Gongsun Tie: "....."

What an ugly name!

Luckily I didn't just get involved in sanding the start.

Marbond asked when he saw the sudden silence in the room.

"Well, does the name work?"

Lin Mo and Gongsun Tie glanced at each other and immediately returned in unison.

"Good name ....."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4237

In the end, Lin Mo didn't trot out the truth with Ma Bangde about Gongsun Tie's identity.

He simply informed that it would be sufficient to refer to him as a master.

It was not that he did not trust Ma Bangde.

But if one more person knew about it, it would be more dangerous.

When he was given his brand new sword, he didn't care about the severe pain in his arm.

He tested out the nameless slash he had previously learned from the mountain and river.

"Mountain River Slash!"

As he let out a loud shout, a large blade shadow nearly ten metres long instantly surfaced.

Boom!

It was accompanied by a loud crashing sound.

The small hill not far away was instantly cut off at the top.

Perhaps it was because of the Great Blade of Ten Thousand Heads, this blow was significantly stronger than before.

Most of all, this time the greatsword was as solid as ever.

"Hahahaha, Mr. Lin, did you see that?"

"I, Ma, am now as strong as ever ....."

Clang!

Just as he finished his words, his entire body fell straight down head first to the ground.

"This ....." Gongsun Tie spoke up with some concern.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, waved his hand full of concern, signaling that there was no need to worry.

"This one's body has long been exhausted after a night of forging iron."

"Now he still dares to use his big moves so recklessly, he's purely asking for it."

"Master, you don't need to mind him, just let this b*****d sleep!"

In this way, Gongsun Tie did not say any more.

After Lin Mo had ordered his subordinates to carry Ma Bangde down to rest.

News came from Xuelian's side.

The healing herbs that he had previously asked Feng Wu Huo to prepare had arrived.

Back at the residence.

Xue Lian was already waiting for them outside the door with Hate Free.

"These were sent here by order of Feng Wu Huo."

Xue Lian said as she raised her hand and pointed to the hall, where the herbs were piled into small mountains.

“I’ve checked them all, there’s no problem.”

“If the master’s side is ready, we’ll start working on the treatment.”

All three were rather anxious about the treatment.

After briefly discussing one side, Lin Mo then asked Master Gongsun to go and make some preparations first.

As for him and Xue Lian, they went to boil the herbs together.

After two hours of busy work.

A bath full of herbs was delivered to the old man’s room.

“Master, from now on you will soak for an hour every day!”

“Wait until your body has recovered to a normal level, then we will proceed to the next step of treatment according to the situation.”

Gongsun Tie’s though indicated looking unharmed.

However, his internal organs had been eroded to pieces.

Taking the pills internally would only further damage his body.

Although everyone was anxious, at the moment, they could only slowly recover his body through this external healing means.

“In that case, I’ll trouble little brother over there!” Gongsun Tie said politely.

Lin Mo smiled frankly, “It’s all just some small things, no need to be so polite.”

“In the future, when I come to the door to ask for a divine weapon, it would be good if old master charges a little less.”

Gongsun Tie naturally knew that Lin Mo was joking.

The long sword at his waist, which was filled with an ancient charm, was something rarely found in the world.

How could he need to forge it?

“Fine, in future, if you ask, I will forge it for you for free.”

After the joking.

Lin Mo reminded some more of the details that needed to be taken care of after soaking the medicine.

He then took Xuelian and left the place.

“What did you guys do last night?”

Xuelian asked curiously.

After receiving Lin Mo's summons to learn that the old man was just fine, he had gone straight back to his residence to accompany Hate Free.

It was not clear why this old man and young man had stayed at the blacksmith shop all night.

"We, ah, have been watching Old Ma beat iron all night!"

Lin Mo spared him the experience of the night.

"It was fun!"

"You do not know ah, old horse that pair of arms, swollen almost thicker than my thighs ....."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4238

Time pa*ses quietly.

A short day's holiday ends unnoticed.

The members of the Uyghur forces returned to the front line.

Pa*sing by the refurbished performance stage, the eyes of the crowd were also attracted by the Lin Mo.

"That's Mr. Lin, he's so handsome, I'd be happy with a son-in-law like that in my life!"

"Come on, your daughter is so big and thick, she dares to think badly of Mr. Lin. "

"If I were to say so, it is my daughter, Zhang Pazi, who is worthy of Mr. Lin."

"Your daughter is barely ten years old, isn't she?"

"Why can't we wait another eight years?"

.....

It's all a bunch of brown old men, not only spontaneous in nature, but also loud and scary in voice.

Lin Mo was not far away, and the conversation of several people was directly heard by him, and the corners of his eyes could not help but twitch.

The corners of his eyes twitched. Ma Bangde, on the other hand, began to gloat.

"Mr Lin, take a look at your popularity."

"You're alone now anyway, why don't you pick a cheap husband down here?"

After speaking, he was even more b*tchy and raised his eyebrows towards the midst of the crowd.

Lin Mo was likewise wearing a smile, except that within the smile, there was a bit of coldness.

"I say, Old Ma, don't force me to slap you when I'm so happy!"

“Or I’ll make you explode your clothes in front of everyone!”

At these words, Ma Bangde was so scared that the b*tchy smile on his face balefully disappeared.

Instead, it did slowly fawn.

“Hey, hey, I’m just kidding with you!”

Lin Mo was also mindful of this fellow’s face and restrained himself in this large public.

“Don’t be poor!”

“If you are feeling idle and bored, go and help Old King check the personnel of the districts.”

As soon as he heard about this job, Ma Bangde immediately shrank back his neck and muttered softly.

“I’m not going to do a job that boring!”

“What did you say?” Lin Mo asked with a twist of his head.

Ma Bangde was instantly startled by such a question and hurriedly shook his head frantically.

“Did I say anything? No!”

“There were too many people, Mr Lin you might have been hallucinating.”

Lin Mo shook his head, not bothering to bother with this fellow.

And while the two were talking.

Not far away, an old silver-haired woman, supported by her own son, came trembling to the martial stage.

“Is this Lord Lin Mo Lin in the present moment?”

Lin Mo saw this and hurriedly jumped off the martial arts stage.

“Old man, I am it!”

As if he was worried about the old woman’s deaf ears, he deliberately raised his voice a few tones.

After the old woman confirmed her identity, she instantly became excited.

Rough palms like tree bark kept groping over and over.

Lin Mo took one look at the old woman’s gestures and already the lightless eyes knew that she was suffering from an eye disease!

The moment Lin Mo’s hand rose to meet her, the moment the two palms came into contact.

The old woman looked even more agitated and immediately clutched Lin Mo’s arm in a deadly grip.

“Good, finally I get to meet my benefactor!”

Said her trembling hands, which were all shaking even more violently.

Lin Mo exchanged a curious glance with Ma Bangde, his heart full of incomprehension.

It seemed that he himself had never stepped in to help her before.

It was the old woman's son who saw the duo's confusion and explained in pa*sing.

"Greetings, Mr. Lin, my subordinate Li Erniu of the Dou Qing Gang was the one who was the first to be exposed to the contagious disease."

"It was Mr. Lin's antidote that brought back this life."

"When my mother learned of this, she insisted that I bring her here to thank him in person."

Lin Mo did not feel any pride or joy after hearing this reason.

Instead, he frowned deeply and spoke with dissatisfaction.

"Nonsense!"

"Don't you know what kind of place the front line is?"

"Your mother is old and if there is anything but an accident, who can afford it ....."

The old woman stood up immediately after a flurry of excuses.

She said she was about to go outside.

"It's getting late, you two lords go ahead!"

"I still have chickens and ducks waiting to be fed at home, so I'll go back first!"

With that he simply took out the small thumb-thick bamboo pole at his waist and began to light the way.

Lin Mo saw this and immediately stopped the old woman, while his heart was filled with emotion.

He himself was in such a situation, and he was still worried about causing trouble for others.

Just because of this, Lin Mo had to help her heal her eyes today no matter what he said.

"Old man, are you thinking that I am not good at healing and are afraid that I will harm your life?"

Learn now!

The old woman, who was not on top of her words, was instantly struck dumb by Lin Mo's rhetorical question.

Her face was full of anxiety, but she didn't know what to say back.

"Old man, just trust me on this one, don't worry I will definitely let you see the light again."

The old woman let out a long sigh of relief as she was helpless.

“Then I’ll trouble you!”

After a few examinations, he was able to determine the symptoms of the old woman’s eye disease.

It was just glaucoma in her old age.

A trivial matter!

In less than half an hour, Lin Mo retrieved the silver needles from the old woman’s head.

“Old man now, open your eyes and try to see clearly!”

At this moment, the old woman’s mood couldn’t help but be tense.

Although she didn’t like to trouble others, who wouldn’t want to see again!

Being behind both eyes, her vision showed blurred for a while.

Then it slowly cleared up.

“Look ..... can see!”

“Now I finally don’t have to, at last, ask Erma for help with threading a needle and thread!”

At this moment, her happy look is like a child.

Her words were full of excitement at being able to return to farm work and feed the chickens and ducks.

She is a lovely old woman.

And when he calmed down, there was another wave of sincere thanks.

After some prevarication, this time she said she couldn’t stay any longer.

Originally, Lin Mo wanted to let her rest for the night before returning, but he could not resist the old woman’s stubborn nature.

He had no choice but to order Ma Bangde to find someone to send her back.

“It’s really a nice day!”

Lin Mo looked up at the sky and was in an extraordinarily soothing mood.

He didn’t know if it was because he had helped the old woman recover her eyes, or because the weather was really nice.

Taking advantage of this free time, Lin Mo checked Gongsun Tie’s health again afterwards.

The medicinal juice had a very weak effect, but it was better than a mild one.

Master Gongsun’s body was also in the process of slowly recovering.

At the same time, Xue Lian, who had taken Hate Free out to cultivate, also rushed back to her residence.

As soon as she pushed open the door, she spoke excitedly.

“Lin Mo, Hate Free is about to break through to half-step Zong Shi according to this frame .....

Xue Lian had originally come to tell the good news, yet she hadn't even had time to finish her sentence.

The entire person suddenly froze in the doorway.

Along with a shuddering body, a huge eight-leaf white lotus shadow unexpectedly emerged behind her involuntarily.

A dazzling silver light ran through the entire corridor.

At this moment, but everyone who was within fifty metres of it felt an extremely soothing sensation.

It was as if they were breathing easier.

The sudden change caused Lin Mo to be startled.

“What's wrong with you?”

Snow Lotus was also puzzled in her heart after forcibly taking the White Lotus Void back into her body.

“I'm not sure!”

“Usually the white lotus will only riot after I get close to the heavenly herbs.”

“It's the first time I've encountered a situation like this out of control.”

Speaking of this, she asked another puzzled rhetorical question.

“Could it be that there are some extremely precious spirit herbs and medicinal materials around here?”

At these words, Lin Mo instantly thought of something and was filled with disbelief.
