Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4291

The top of a mountain peak.

Lin Mo watched after meditating here and observing the whole night.

And his main purpose was not so much to observe the battlefield.

It was more to detect the surroundings.

In just one night, he had spotted several hidden auras peeking surreptitiously towards this side.

Without thinking, he knew that those must be the clerics hiding in death.

Of course, as long as they didn't stir up trouble, Lin Mo was too lazy to bother with them.

After moving his muscles and bones a bit, he really had to leave the mountain top.

Only before he could move, someone blocked the way in front of him.

"Brother Lin Mo, is this uneasy about your own men?"

The person who came was none other than Ji Dutuo and his group.

Lin Mo frowned and slightly turned his body sideways.

"Or else!"

"Don't you care?"

This Ji Dutuo in front of him was now the manager behind the Second District.

The entire Lawrence family was ostensibly under the command of Kuis.

But in time, all actions are at Ji Dutuo's disposal.

The only thing that Lin Mo did not expect was that Ji Dutuo did not give a D*mn about the death or survival of the Lawrence family.

"Gryphons are just ants, what's there to care about!"

Ji Dutuo said with a calm expression.

"It's just a casual arrangement in my leisure time, what does their death or survival have to do with me!"

Lin Mo shook his head, not dwelling on this topic.

"Second Patriarch, is there something wrong?"

Lin Mo asked as he changed the subject.

Through Ji Dutuo's words and actions, one could tell that this person did not have the slightest respect for life at all.

The life and death of others was just like grass and trees in his eyes.

Words are not enough!

Fundamentally, the two sides have completely different philosophies.

Ji Dutuo naturally saw the impatience in Lin Mo's tone, but he didn't care much about it.

Instead, he said with great interest.

"I heard that your body has recovered and your strength has increased greatly, and I was curious."

"I then thought I could have Brother Lin Mo and spar."

Hearing this, Lin Mo's brow furrowed even deeper.

A sparring session was a lie, a test was the real thing, right!

And through Ji Dutuo's words, Lin Mo could be completely certain at this moment.

The person who had manipulated the corpse of the Grand Elder of the Shui Xing Clan must have been one of the two Nebula sisters in front of him.

Thinking of this, the corners of Lin Mo's mouth hooked.

"Did these two sisters not tell you the geometry of my strength?"

These words came out.

Ji Duto was dumbfounded.

He hadn't expected Lin Mo to be so perceptive.

In just a few words, he had deduced the truth.

"Oh, it's still different when you haven't experienced it first hand, pouring the ground."

Although he was exposed, he did not look the least bit embarrassed.

On the contrary, he was more interested.

This time Lin Mo did not give him face and refused outright.

"It's not necessary, I don't have time!"

"If Second Sect Master wants to see my Lin Mo's sword blade, wait patiently over there for a while!"

"This sword decapitates the head, very smoothly!"

Since the time when the other side manipulated the patriarch's corpse and came to spy on the three districts.

Lin Mo knew it was a declaration of war.

As such, both sides did not give any more good looks.

“You .....

The white hair face sank, and was about to step forward to scold.

Only to be stopped directly by Ji Dutuo.

“Stand down!”

After saying that, he turned his head again and looked at Lin Mo with a smiling face.

“Little brother, it seems that we can only meet on the battlefield.”

“But before that, aren’t you really going to spar with me?”

Lin Mo did not reply.

He walked straight past.

Only when he was close to the tyrant’s side, he immediately took out a ton of ammunition from his arms.

“This elixir will help you replenish the heart blood you lost earlier.”

“Last time, thanks for coming to the rescue.”

Among the entire Ji Duto team, only this tyrant corpse could make Lin Mo feel slightly better.

It was this tyrannical corpse that had sacrificed its heart blood that had saved Hate Free who was on the verge of death.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4292

Look back.

Lin Mo was helped quite a lot by Ji Dutuo though.

But every time this man offered his help, he did so with an ulterior motive.

In order to get Hatedless to join them in the Seven Deadly Sins.

Now that the debt of gratitude has been repaid, all that remains for both sides is perhaps hatred.

He himself had killed the two sect masters of the Seven Deadly Sins.

As for this Ji Dutuo, he had already set up more than once, trying to push himself to his death.

But this tyrant corpse was different, this person was simple-minded.

To be honest, he only has the mind of a five or six year old child.

He helped out of pure heart and nothing else.

Right now, after receiving the potion, the tyrant froze in his tracks.

Then he asked in a dumbfounded manner.

“For food?”

Er .....

This question almost put Lin Mo out of his mind.

After returning to his senses, he smiled faintly.

“Yes, food!”

Hearing these words, the elixir was thrown directly into the mouth by the tyrant corpse.

At the same time, Lin Mo also disappeared in place between a few vertical movements.

Previously, there had been no suitable compensation gift to thank him, but now he had the Thousand Year Human Head Crow.

It was time to return this favour.

And with his disappearance.

The white haired face in the same place was extremely gloomy.

“Sect Leader, this Lin Mo is so ungrateful that he dares to refute your face, why don’t I teach him a little lesson?”

He said discontentedly.

Ji Duto’s eyes skimmed over, and then he asked.

“Can you take him in a solo fight?”

Without thinking, White Hair returned directly, “That’s natural!”

“Preceptor, I will take him down right now!”

With that he leapt to his feet.

It was also at this moment that Yun, who was on the side, slightly picked at him and then slapped the back of White Hair’s head with a slap.

“Have you been eating too much foam lately, so floaty!”

“That stunning sword of the Lin Mo idol, even Lord Ji Dutuo might not be able to catch it.”

At these words, White Hair couldn’t help but freeze in disbelief, a look of disbelief written all over his face.

He hadn’t been with Ji Dutuo for a short time.

Along the way, he had seen even more patriarchs.

But none of them was a match for Ji Dutuo.

Now, hearing that this Lin Mo, who was only about his own age, had a masterpiece that Ji Dutuo was afraid of.

How could he not be shocked by this?

“Ahem!”

Ji Duto on the side listened to the two of them talking and couldn’t help but cough lightly in embarra*sment a few times.

“You little girl, can you consider the feelings of me, the person in question, when making up others.”

Yun also realised that he seemed to have said the wrong thing.

Subconsciously, she spat out her tongue and ducked to the side.

“Am I weak?”

Ji Dutuo grumbled a little indignantly.

“So Lin Mo has a bottom card again, and I don’t?”

“Once the seal of my Seventh Gate is opened, there is no match for me under a saint!”

After speaking, he straightened his back, his expression carrying a bit of arrogance.

It was obvious that he was extremely dissatisfied with Yun’s disparaging words just now.

It was Star, who was at the side, who clearly had more eyesight.

Immediately, he stepped forward and said, “The strength of the sect master is naturally unquestionable.”

“How else would we have produced two sisters as good as us!”

“Lin Mo idol, if you want to match the sect master, cultivate for a few decades before you say so!”

It was only at this point that the smile on Ji Dutuo’s face, brightened up.

“It’s still Xing who knows what’s right!”

Only as he smiled, his face changed to suddenly stiffen.

“Wait, why do I get the impression that you’re complimenting yourself!”

Star snorted, “Which is not?”

“I was complimenting the godfather on his extraordinary strength!”

“We two sisters are only doing it to set you off!”

How could Ji Dutuo still believe her at this moment.

“You two little girls, when did you learn to be bad?”

“Bah, you taught both of us, don’t you know that in your heart?” Sister Yun replied mischievously.

Ji Dutuo made a fake face, “Good, how dare you talk back .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4293

Between the mountains and the forest.

Under heavy rain.

The white hair just watched in silence as the two sisters fought with their lord Ji Dutuo.

There were a few hints of envy in his eyes.

He himself was also treated to a uniform time with the two sisters by Ji Dutuo’s side.

But the treatment they received was very different.

Although he had done his best, he had never been treated in the same way as the two sisters.

There were even times when they had to be punished for doing and saying the wrong thing.

Just as the thoughts were running through White Hair’s mind, there was a sudden wave of rage coming from beside him.

Turning his head, he looked.

Only to see the tyrannical corpse, whose mouth had never stopped feeding, standing frozen in place at that moment.

Half a roast beef in his hand was just held silently in the air.

However, the aura around its body began to riot continuously.

Such a movement naturally also caused Ji Duto to stir.

“Riotous corpse!”

After calling out, there was no response.

At this moment, it was as if the tyrannical corpse had been under a fixation spell.

“It couldn’t be that Lin Mo had given him some kind of poison, could it?”

Sister Cloud guessed.

But Ji Dutuo shook his head straight away and denied it.

“Impossible, Lin Mo is a man of the world, there’s no way he would do that!”

With that he was about to go forward to check the condition of the storm corpse.

Only when Ji Dutuo had just gotten close, the tyrant corpse suddenly trembled.

Then a violent hissing sound resounded through the mountain forest.

“It’s not good, he’s going to go berserk!”

Ji Dutuo saw this and hurriedly greeted him.

For a moment, the two Nebula sisters also put away their playful thoughts’ and dodged to come directly behind the tyrannical corpse.

As for the white hair, he was also anxious to help at this moment.

The four of them were in four directions, blocking all the routes of the tyrant corpse.

“Give me the town!”

After Ji Duto lightly shouted, the four of them raised their hands in tacit agreement, their ten fingers flying to form seals.

In the blink of an eye, the four directions of the southeast and northwest suddenly glowed with silver light.

The tyrant corpse also seemed to have noticed that something was wrong and ran directly towards the clouds, holding its huge body.

As one step fell, the ground instantly sunken.

Only a foot of more than a foot appeared in front of him.

At the same time, the surrounding ground trembled slightly, as if a small earthquake had occurred.

The tremendous force made the four of them feel frightened.

Fortunately, just as the tyrant corpse arrived in front of Sister Cloud and was about to swing his fist.

A bowl-shaped circle of light glowing with silver light instantly appeared from the bottom of the tyrannical corpse’s feet.

In the blink of an eye, it completely enveloped him in it.

Dang!

With that, a fist the size of a human head landed heavily on top of the light shield.

Again, it caused an earthquake.

Only the seemingly slim light shield shifted only slightly for a while, and then stabilised.

The private and skilled appearance also reflected that this was not the first time the tyrant corpse had gone on a rampage.

Only then did Yun let out a slight sigh of relief.

Even she could not help but feel her heart palpitating at the sudden aura of the storm corpse just now.

Now it was simply under control.

“What the hell is going on with this big fat guy?”

“Suddenly he’s gone berserk?”

Cloud grumbled disgruntledly.

After mulling it over for a while, Ma Bond’s originally furrowed brow suddenly and slowly loosened.

Soon, a smile appeared on his face.

“It seems that the problem indeed lies in that pill given by Lin Mo.”

“And if I didn’t guess wrong, the efficacy of this elixir is amazing for a change.”

“It actually directly repaired the heart blood that the tyrannical corpse had lost before.”

“Only that excess aura washed away the seal in the tyrannical corpse’s dantian.”

As soon as these words were spoken, the other three’s faces instantly changed.

The importance of heart blood was something that was recognized in the world of martial arts.

And the difficulty of its restoration was equally daunting.

Although there are also top quality elixirs that can repair it.

But they can also be counted on one hand.

Right now they were actually witnessing this near-legendary elixir.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4294

With the help of the formation set up by the four men, Ji Duto re-sealed the corpse.

After returning to normal, it was clear that the corpse could not remember what it had done.

When he saw the half of the roast ox that had fallen from the ground, his eyes showed some regret.

But this did not affect his appetite.

He bent down to pick it up and then gobbled it up again.

As for the two angry sisters beside him, the tyrant did not react to the punches and kicks he received.

“Come on, stop it! We’ve got business to attend to next!”

Upon hearing this, the two sisters then stopped.

Only Yun was really angry, so she stopped or viciously kicked towards the tyrant corpse.

Although not hurt the tyrant corpse half dead half, but the fire is eliminated a lot .....

The foot of the mountain.

Lin Mo heard the sound of violent roars coming from behind him, and the corners of his mouth were slightly hooked.

The mid-air was sufficient.

It seemed that the heart blood had been restored.

This is a relief to understand a matter of the heart.

Yet just as he was about to rush back to his quarters.

Two unfamiliar figures once again appeared in front of him.

After Lin Mo took a glance and confirmed that the other party was not someone he knew, he opened his mouth to ask.

"The two of you are?"

However all he got back was a cold snort from the other party.

"Good boy, you killed the Grand Elder of our Shui Xing Clan, and you still don't know us!"

"Can't the phase play dumb?"

Lin Mo frowned slightly, glancing at the embroidered pattern that while the duo had a few familiar eyes, coupled with their words.

He could also probably confirm the identity of the other party.

"I think you have misunderstood, the Grand Elder of your Shui Xing Clan was not killed by me!"

He had only met with that Grand Elder twice before and after.

Even the second time the other party had been a puppet that had been manipulated.

When had he ever killed anyone himself.

Only his explanation didn't convince the other side.

"I'll ask you, did our Grand Elder cross paths with you a few days ago?"

Lin Mo did not deny it and spoke truthfully.

"Indeed, but it was because he was spying on our three districts that I stopped him."

"And when we exchanged blows, I found out that your Great Elder had been dead for many days."

"That was Tiger's he was just a corpse puppet that had been manipulated!"

Lin Mo explained so vigorously, just wanting to fight against the opposite, but of course but not in fear either.

Only, on the one hand, the whole of their three districts were engaged with Lawrence at the moment.

He needed to look after the whole battlefield.

On the other hand, it was a bit silly to fight each other over a misunderstanding.

But the tree wants to be still but the wind will not stop.

Hearing Lin Mo's explanation, the duo on the opposite side merely smiled coldly.

"Kid, with such a lame excuse do you think we'll believe back?"

"Besides, how are you going to prove what you said yourself!"

At these words Lin Mo was instantly speechless.

Prove it? How could you prove it?

The corpse had already disappeared.

Truly dead and unproven.

And although Lin Mo knew that the manipulators behind the scenes were the two Nebula sisters.

But how could he prove it?

It was hard not to ask people to put on a show!

Thinking of this, a light suddenly flashed in Lin Mo's brain.

It seemed that his previous speculation was still too superficial.

From luring himself in and chasing after the Grand Elder of the Shui Xing Sect.

All the way to Ji Dutuo and the others appearing here now.

Everything was a chain of traps.

But now he has stepped into it.

One could not say that one had been careless, one could only say that this Ji Duto was being cunning.

Just as Lin Mo's contemplative appearance was a sign of weakness in the hearts of the two people opposite the card.

"What? Now there is nothing to say!"

Lin Mo raised his head and met his eyes, his heart was full of helplessness.

There was simply no way to explain the left and right cross.

Since this was the case, Lin Mo simply said baldly.

"How do you want to ....."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4295

The two brothers, the Water Walkers, glanced at each other before glaring at each other with fierce eyes.

“Pay for what you owe, pay for what you kill.”

“I need you to give us an explanation for our Shui Hang Clan.”

By this time, Lin Mo also knew that this battle was unavoidable.

Since that was the case, then we would have to see the real thing underhand.

“Want to give an account, do you!”

“Come with me!”

After saying that, Lin Mo’s feet swept directly towards the beginning of the month with a stomp.

This place was not far from the battlefield.

Once he made his move, there was a chance that it would ripple through to the people in the three districts.

Considering this, Lin Mo then planned to shift the battlefield.

Seeing this, the two brothers from the Shui Xing Sect immediately followed suit.

Forty kilometres away.

When Lin Mo stopped in his tracks, the two brothers followed close behind.

The two were holding lances, one left and one right, sandwiching Lin Mo’s in the middle.

“Before I make a move, I still have to reiterate.”

Lin Mo said while his palm was already pressed against the hilt of his sword.

“Your Grand Elder really wasn’t killed by me.”

This was a matter of principle.

Whether the other party believed it or not, he should still insist on finishing what he had to say.

Da Long’s gaze was awe-inspiring, and his eyebrows were filled with hostility.

“Do you think you’re doing it without knowing it?”

“You’re afraid you don’t know that while you were fighting, there were already countless pairs of eyes staring at you.”

“And give is witnessed you beheading our Grand Elder.”

Lin Mo sighed and stressed again.

“But he was just a corpse that was manipulated, so what’s the point of decapitating?”

Little Dragon spat darkly and bellowed in anger.

“Big brother this kid is planning to die without admitting it.”

“Let’s just send him down to slyly argue with the Grand Elder!”

At these words, the Great Dragon also nodded slightly.

In the next second, the two of them stopped talking nonsense and shook their hands with force.

The long spear in their hands instantly spun up at speed.

Bringing the rainwater to coalesce into a pillar of water that clamped down towards Lin Mo.

“Eh, these days, no one believes the truth even if you tell it!”

Lin Mo sighed before slowly drawing out his Tai Ah.

Ding ding!

Under two crisp sounds.

The twin spears were instantly swung away.

The pincer attack was also broken by Lin Mo with ease.

As for the two brothers, they were undeterred.

This move was just a test.

“This kid is not weak, let’s fight quickly!”

The duo exchanged a low voice before neatly raising the lances in their hands.

Roar!

With a vague dragon roar, a faint dragon shadow gossiped out behind each of the two brothers.

“Kill!”

A furious bellow.

The dragon shadow instantly lingered on the lance.

In a matter of moments, the rainwater coalesced into two long pale blue dead dragons.

Pale in terms of aura.

Lin Mo could sense that the killing power of this move was not small.

But it could only be limited to that.

And there were still people behind him who were fighting in the three districts that he needed to look after.

This battle was not to last.

Naturally, Lin Mo would not hold back, and the moment he struck, he used the sword technique he had just learnt.

“Break the Mountain River!”

After shouting out the name of the stance.

Lin Mo somehow inexplicably felt a pang of shame.

At first he thought that Ma Bangde had acquired a middle-class name, but now he was actually shouting it with a bit of smoothness.

As Tai Ah swung out.

Within a thousand-metre radius, the rain that was pouring down came to a strange halt in mid-air.

Even the water dragons that the two brothers had condensed seemed to have been toppled, frozen in mid-air.

What a terrifying sword technique.

The two brothers marvelled in tacit agreement before preparing to pull away.

They were only here to take revenge, not to send them to their deaths.

After sensing the haunting aura of the sword, they directly chose to dodge.

Yet right at this moment.

The brothers, both of them, instantly changed their faces.

They couldn't even move!

At this moment, it was as if a thousand mountains and rivers were pressing down on their shoulders, unable to move their bodies even half an inch.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4296

What shocked the Shui Hang Clan brothers was not only the strange “body fixation” technique

An endless dead silence fell around them.

Not only did everything stand still in mid-air.

Even the sounds dissipated together.

It was truly frightening!

Just as they were trying to move their bodies, an even more terrifying scene occurred.

The green blade, which was still only three feet, had directly enlarged several hundred times.

In the midst of the duo's realisation.

There was only a sword blade of nearly a hundred metres swinging and slashing towards the two.

The water dragon in front of them had no resistance whatsoever when it came into contact with this sword mane.

In just one glance, it was directly vaporised.

Not even a single drop of water was left behind.

For a moment, the two brothers only felt the infinite fear in their hearts begin to spread wildly.

There was also only one thought in their minds.

As long as this sword hit them, they would definitely die.

As they watched, the sword was close.

The two brothers were in despair.

It was over!

Revenge has failed and they've become the ones to give away their heads.

They just couldn't figure it out until this moment.

How could the gap be so wide when they were both clan masters?

And this was still a two against one situation, how could they not even be able to block one move from the other side.

Just when the two brothers were ready to meet their deaths.

Your huge sword mane unexpectedly stopped suddenly.

Without waiting for the duo to react, the sword mane instantly disappeared.

The next second.

All the rainwater around them also gained their original freedom and fell heavily on top of the ground.

At the same time, the sound of swishing rain reached the brothers' ears.

Saved?

After a heart-stopping glance at each other, they both saw a look of panic in each other's eyes that had not yet dissipated.

And their backs were also waterlogged.

It wasn't rain.

Rather, it was the cold sweat from the shock of having just faced death.

It was then that the movement of the longsword returning to its sheath brought the two brothers back to their senses.

Looking up, they only saw that Lin Mo, whom the two of them had tried to kill, was already walking backwards.

“Wait!”

Lin Mo stopped dead in his tracks when he heard a sound.

“Why can’t you find death?”

He didn’t kill at the last moment, purely because he didn’t feel the need to bury two Patriarchs here because of a misunderstanding.

Leaving these two brothers alive was already a great deal of forgiveness on his part.

Of course, if they persisted, Lin Mo could only satisfy their desire to die.

After the two brothers looked at each other, they were instantly frightened by the biting gaze.

“I ..... just want to know, why don’t you kill us?”

The younger brother, Xiaolong, asked with an afterthought on his face.

“I’ve already said that I didn’t kill your Grand Elder!”

Lin Mo returned with a frown.

“Cultivation is not easy, and you two aren’t even a few years older than me.”

“Let’s walk and cherish, I don’t want a misunderstanding to stop you two here.”

Said Lin Mo as he leapt and disappeared into the forest.

In the same place, the two brothers looked at each other.

“Big brother, could it be that what this kid said is true?”

“Our Grand Elder really isn’t being told what they say?”

Although this was something he didn’t quite believe even as he said it himself.

After all, they were people who had seen Lin Mo strike and kill their Grand Elder with his own eyes under his sword.

Da Long shook his head, confusion flashing across his eyes.

“I don’t know either!”

If Lin Mo’s very much the murderer, there was absolutely no need to go to such lengths with them.

With such strength, it would have been easy to kill the two of them.

“Forget it, let’s go back and report this matter to the elders first!”

With that, the two brothers got up and were about to leave.

Only they had just reached the halfway point.

A silver-haired young man suddenly appeared in front of them and blocked the way.

“What’s that?”

The duo raised their lances directly after shouting angrily.

It was also at that moment that a ghostly sound came from the forest reaching out.

“The two of you have good talent, this little girl of mine has her eye on it.”

As soon as the words fell, more than ten figures suddenly surrounded the two brothers in a group .....

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4297

Between the mountains and the forest.

Under the heavy rain, the mountains are filled with water and mist.

Although it is daylight, the dark clouds make the mountains appear extraordinarily dim.

Between the swaying shadows of people, the battle between the clan masters was over.

“The natural talent is not bad, it’s just a pity that the strength is not as good.”

Ji Dutuo said with a few moments of emotion.

On the side, the two Nebula sisters were all excited.

“I didn’t think that the Moving Water Sect had developed well in the past few years, producing such outstanding young patriarchs for us.”

The words fell.

Only to see Sister Cloud gently raise her white palm.

At the same time, the two to figures behind her also slightly arched their bodies.

Only, their faces were expressionless, and not a trace of life could be seen around them.

Their eyes were blank.

Of course, if one looked closely, one could see that these two were the two Shui Xing Clan brothers who had just finished fighting with Lin Mo not long ago.

“Sect Leader, do we hi yo continue to hunt those rats next?”

Xing said with intent.

There was a strong look of anticipation written on her lovely face.

Clearly she was extraordinarily interested in such an action.

However, Ji Duto refused.

“Although nine out of ten of those patriarchs who are hiding have already been found by us to follow.”

“But there are quite a few of them, and once they are alerted, we won’t be able to handle them well when the time comes.”

“It’s better to wait a little longer!”

Hearing this, a look of disappointment flashed across Yun’s eyes.

“It’s just a bunch of cowardly rats.”

“Do we have to be so cautious?”

For her, taking down all the clansmen as early as possible and finally making a move on Lin Mo was the most anticipated thing.

Ji Duto shook his head slightly.

“Understand, many ants can still kill an elephant.”

“Not to mention these patriarchs, be careful, it’s always right!”

He said with a turn of phrase.

“Besides, we have to lend them a hand to help us deal with Lin Mo!”

Out of scorn for China.

Ji Dutuo naturally did not dare to personally lay hands on Lin Mo.

The only way to kill him was by borrowing a knife.

Yun reluctantly flattened this mouth and returned resentfully.

“Alright then!”

Ji Dutuo smiled and raised his hand to flick her forehead together.

“You can’t learn from your sister, you have no patience at all.”

When he said that, Yun’s mouth flattened even more.

Straight away, he twisted his face in the other direction.

“Alright, no more fooling around!” Ji Duto said with a smile.

Between the two of them, they spoke.

White Hair also returned with his men.

“This on, all the traces on this side, we’ve taken care of them all.”

“Good!” Ji Dutuo let out a big smile.

“Right now our move has been laid, now we’re just waiting for the fish to take the bait.”

“I hope this Shui Xing Clan’s won’t let us down .....

.....

The other side.

After Lin Mo returned to the premises, the first thing he did was to find the ghost servant.

At this moment, he hadn’t realised.

He had unknowingly fallen into Ji Duto’s trap.

“Mr. Lin, you’ve come just in time, we’ve solved the problem of stagnant water in this place.”

As soon as they met, the ghost servant led Lin Mo to the depression where the water had previously accumulated into a lake.

One had to admit it.

Although this White Graveyard was slightly inferior in combat power, this ability to drill mountains and open rocks was indeed a masterpiece.

In just one night’s time.

Six potholes were opened up around the depression.

As for the one-person-deep water in them, they had by now been drained clean.

“Very good!”

Lin Mo said in satisfaction.

“Hard work guys!”

The ghost servant returned politely and modestly since.

“By the way, Mr. Lin, I looked at Chief Commander Wang earlier, and it seemed like he was going around, and judging from his appearance he seemed to be in a hurry!”

Hmm?

Could it be that there was a problem with the war?

With this thought in mind, Lin Mo turned around and approached Wang Changxing.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4298

“Old Wang, what’s the situation, what kind of difficulty have you encountered here?”

Lin Mo asked directly as soon as he entered the tent.

Inside, Wang Changxing here was sitting at the table, looking at the documents in front of him with a headache.

It was only after seeing Lin Mo that his brows relaxed a little.

“Mr. Lin, you are finally here.”

“It wouldn’t be some trouble on the battlefield again, would it?” Lin Mo asked with a raised eyebrow.

Wang Changxing gave an awkward smile.

“It’s not really about the battlefield!”

“Rather, a few things have come up at the rear that have hurt my head and I need your help to think of a solution, Mr. Lin!”

There was a ghostly old man sitting in the residential area, and there was Xue Lian looking after the rear front.

It stood to reason that they would not encounter any troublesome matters.

Lin Mo frowned slightly, “Tell me about it!”

When he finished, Wang Changxing went a letter out.

“Proximal Time District Four seems to be in big trouble and is thinking of asking us for help.”

“This is a letter of request for help sent to us quietly by someone from District Four!”

“Mr Lin, take a look at it first and we’ll continue.”

Lin Mo opened it with a curious face before reading it quickly with a single glance.

All the way until after reading the entire letter, he also probably understood the reason for the matter.

It turned out that District Four was also being watched right now.

And pressure was already being exerted.

The administrators of District 4 are also motivated by a situation where there is no way out.

And so this letter of request for help came about.

But it is only logical.

With Lin Mo and Ji Dutuo around, there would not normally be a patriarch in the fourth district to come and touch the tiger’s whiskers.

After all, even if they had the ability to take over, they would at the same time be targeted by Lin Mo or Ji Dutuo.

Even if they could take over, they would be targeted by Lin Mo or Ji Dutuo, and they would lose their lives here.

Therefore, the development of the fourth district is completely more than worth the loss for many hidden clan masters.

But even so, there are still people who have their eyes on this area.

This was something that filled Lin Mo with puzzlement.

That was a head delivery?

As soon as this thought came to him, Lin Mo hurriedly dispelled it.

Since the other party dared to do it, they must have something to fall back on.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo asked directly.

“Do you know the other party’s clan master’s heel?”

Wang Changxing shook his head, “Their four districts just always come with this one letter.”

“Other things, seeing that we were at war, we didn’t say much more.”

“Mr. Lin, what do you think about this matter?”

Lin Mo was going to take off and sit back and watch.

Now that the whole of Lawrence in the third district was at war, it was too busy to support anyone else.

But on second thought, if District 4 was taken, they would be facing a back-and-forth attack in District 3.

Right now, they are at war again.

To be attacked from behind is a great taboo for soldiers.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo spoke up.

“I’ll aid District Four!”

Wang Changxing’s face changed, his face showing a few moments of worry.

“Mr. Lin, if you go ahead and go to District 4, we won’t have no one on our side to preside over the big picture.”

Hearing these words, Lin Mo’s brows could not help but tighten.

“Matters on the battlefield will naturally be left to you.”

“I authorised the general command with you, on the one hand because of the professional ability to command combat.”

“On the other hand, it is to develop your ability to hold your own.”

For that matter, he actually found a twist.

Since he had started to oversee these three districts himself since then.

The power lords of these three districts, when they encountered matters large or small, would always subconsciously seek their own solutions.

Over time, it seems to have become a habit.

This, if not corrected in time, will sooner or later cause them to lose the ability to think independently.

At these words, Wang Changxing instantly woke up with a wet behind.

At this moment, he also reacted abruptly.

This commander-in-chief of his own army of millions had unknowingly become completely dependent on Lin Mo.

After understanding this, Wang Changxing could not help but be red in the face .....

“Mr. Lin, I know I’m wrong!”

Wang Changxing, who had come to his senses, was like a child who had done something wrong.

With a face full of shame, he shouldn’t have raised his head.

“It’s not too late to know!”

Lin Mo said with a calm expression.

“We’ll split up next, and leave the battlefield to you.”

“If there is something you cannot resolve, crush this object and I will naturally know.”

After Lin Mo handed out the talisman, he spoke again with a serious expression.

“The lives of millions of brothers are now in your hands.”

“I’m not putting pressure on you, but as the commander-in-chief, you have to understand your duties.”

“When I return, I hope to hear good news, not another anxious look from you.”

With that Lin Mo turned around and walked straight out.

Inside the tent.

Wang Changxing’s face was green one moment and red the next.

After a while, he raised his hand and slapped himself violently.

“To be the town marshal and degenerate to such a state, shame on you.”

After cursing himself angrily, he clenched his big teeth and straightened his back.

Now that the two armies were at war, it was not the time for him to repent himself.

Wang Changxing, who had sobered up, immediately summoned his lieutenants.

“Send your seconds back to the hill map and send it to me immediately.”

“Also, check all the passages at the back, but clear up any hidden areas in time.”

“Don’t stop for the latest battlefield situation, send it directly to my side .....

.....

A flurry of orders town the deputy’s brain buzzing.

“What are you still standing there for?”

Wang Changxing saw that he was actually still frothing, and his face sank as he loudly scolded.

“If you delay the battle, I will directly chop you alive.”

The fierce look of his anger directly scared the deputy.

“My subordinate will go and make arrangements.”

With that he hurriedly fled out of the tent, not daring to delay a moment longer.

What no one noticed was this.

Not far from the tent, Lin Mo was standing quietly in the rain.

All the time after hearing the many orders given by Wang Changxing.

Only then did Lin Mo feel at ease.

This was what a marshal should look like.

Of course if this Wang Changxing still persisted in his obsession.

Before Lin Mo left, he would have to transfer Director Qiu back and change his post with this Wang Changxing.

Right now, Wang Changxing had come to his senses just in time.

In this way, he himself could go to District Four without fear.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo then completely disappeared from the premises, ready to go and get the trouble in District Four sorted out.

Only before that, he made a special trip to find Xue Lian.

“What? You’re going to District Four?”

Xue Lian looked as worried as she could after learning this news.

“Every move you make now is being watched.”

“At a time like this, aren’t you giving them a chance to strike when you go out?”

Right now, the whole Death Island could be described as a dark tide.

Those clerics who were hiding before had already started to move.

The threat of breaking away from the three districts at this time is naturally not small.

“There’s no way out, we’re in a very passive position.”

Lin Mo explained with a faint sigh.

“Someone has already started to attack District Four now, we can’t just ignore it!”

District Four’s overall strength was only moderate at best among the thirteen districts of Death Island.

But right now this time was ambiguous.

Once District Four struck, they simply could not spare enough men from District Three to resist.

After hearing this, Xue Lian understood Lin Mo’s intentions in general.

It was just that she was still uneasy.

“Why don’t I go with you!”

“One more person, and one more to look after!”

Before the words left his mouth, Lin Mo spoke directly to refuse.

“No, we still need someone to look after this side of the third district.”

“We have to prevent some of the patriarchs from secretly striking.”

Patriarchs cannot strike openly.

But again, no one can guarantee dirty tricks in the dark .....

“You’ve got the ghostly old man at the back, and you’re looking after this side! That’s how I can rest assured.”

Lin Mo deliberately emphasized in order to dissuade Xue Lian from accompanying him.

“I’m just going to solve the trouble in District Four, I’ll save it soon, you don’t need to worry.”

He said with a serious expression and pointed to the first floor.

“And this Gongsun senpai’s also needs someone to look after it at all times.”

This was the number one priority.

Right now, Gongsun Tie was still in the recovery stage and needed to be nourished by refining medicine every day.

If he were to fall, the previous treatment would be lost.

Under his persuasion, Xue Lian could only give up in the end.

“All right then! Go early and return early!”

“If there are any accidents, remember to inform me!”

Lin Mo took the messenger with a faint smile, “Don’t worry, I’m not stupid, I won’t die for nothing.”

“Then I’ll set off first!”

After saying that he disappeared from sight with a few leaps .....

.....

Mountain and forest battlefield.

The brightness of the gunfire has been uninterrupted since.

It was far away or near, intertwined.

Inside the overgrown woods.

Hu Quan lies quietly between the layers of dense gra*s.

And around him are several brothers from Tomb I.

The rain lapped at them, but they did not move.

The long hours of hard physical exercise had honed their willpower.

Even when snakes and insects burrowed into their collars, they remained unmoved, like rocks in this place.

After a long time.

The silence was broken by the sound of a clear bird’s song.

After Hu Quan and the others heard the movement, their calm gazes instantly turned fierce.

After joining the battlefield, they had finally encountered an enemy.

It was also at this time that the gra*s layer not far away suddenly appeared to shake.

Within a moment, two to figures appeared in sight.

They were dressed in ink-coloured mackintoshes and blended in almost perfectly with their surroundings.

Plus their movements were extremely small.

If one did not look closely, it would be difficult to spot them at all.

As the duo appeared, Tomb One gave a wink towards Hu Quan.

On Hu Quan's side, he simply closed his eyes.

The meaning was clear, it was not the right moment to make a move.

Receiving this message, Tomb One could only shrink back resentfully.

Nowadays, although he was fortunate enough to have broken through to half-step Patriarch.

However, Lin Mo had already ordered before the battle that all actions of their ten brothers had to follow Hu Quan's arrangements.

In this way, Tomb One could only watch as the enemy slipped past his eyes.

Secretly, he was depressed.

The duo in front of him were clearly enemy scouts.

As long as Hu Quan nodded his head, Tomb a wow fury that had the confidence that he could completely leave the duo behind in a second.

I wonder what Hu Quan was thinking.

Surprisingly, he allowed these two to slip past under his nose, unmoved.

After a while, the scouts also slowly walked away.

Tomb One could only frown in dismay.

At that moment, however, an insect chirp suddenly sounded next to his ears.

This feeling was extremely familiar.

After all, it was through this imitation of animal chirping that their ten brothers transmitted their signals.

In this way, the tomb reacted with repeated stupidity.

The two scouts were, at the same time, eyes to scout ahead and bait at the same time.

And so it was.

The sound of insects fell.

Suddenly there was movement again in the gra*s not far away.

Fix your eyes on it.

Only to see four sword and shield soldiers strutting out.

Apparently they had received a signal from the scouts ahead.

And behind them, there were six guards with guns, two by two, forming a triangle with each other.

In the event of a situation, they could both cover each other and attack without any dead ends.

There are also swordsmen and shields in front of them for cover.

Seeing this scene.

Tomb One couldn't help but sweat coldly.

If he had just made a move in a moment of haste.

He would have fallen into the trap of the place.

Thinking of this, he could not help but blush...
