Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4311

Feng Jiu continued to repeat the story.

“Originally I thought that they left and that was the end of the matter.”

“Unexpectedly, a few days ago, these few patriarchs showed up.”

“Compared to those black-robed men, these three brothers don’t give a single choice in how they act.”

“After they summoned the administrators of our three families, their words told us to return to the fold.”

“And to come again five days later.”

“You know what happened after that, Mr. Lin.”

After some explanation from Feng Jiu.

Lin Mo also roughly understood the methods of their Five Poison Sect.

He also asked the black-robed men underneath to take a field trip.

A reverse scouting of the local distribution of strength.

On the other hand, it is to confirm whether there is a patriarch behind that go.

Once this is confirmed, they will send the patriarchs to start their operations.

Of course many hidden masters use basically the same formula.

Only these people would not be like the Five Poison Sects, who disregarded the rules set by Ji Dutuo.

They would strike without any fear!

What enraged Lin Mo the most was that these three brothers, Gold, Silver and Copper, were completely heartless to the extreme.

It was not enough to kill people, they even fed on babies.

This was unforgivable!

Thinking of this, Lin Mo could not help but think of the words and actions of Old Man Huang and Old Man Pan.

These two accomplices were equally unforgivable.

“How does the strength of your Feng family compare to the Huang and Pan families?”

Feng Jiu froze for a moment before his eyes suddenly lit up.

“The Pan family has been developing for the longest number of years and is the strongest.”

"Our Feng family is not too far behind the Huang family, but it is indeed quite inferior compared to the Pan family."

"If it weren't for the fear of our two families joining forces, that Pan surname would have struck out against my Feng family long ago."

She was smart, although she had already vaguely guessed Lin Mo's intentions in her mind.

But it was also entirely her answer to whatever Lin Mo asked.

Not a word of superfluous nonsense.

Lin Mo's side had just finished understanding the situation when the sound of hurried footsteps came from the stairway on one side.

Not long after, a panting Old Man Pan appeared in front of him.

Behind him was Huang Laosan, who was being carried by his men.

When the two saw Lin Mo, they didn't say much and knelt down straight away.

The smooth movements were as if they were specialized in kneeling activities, without the slightest hint of dragging.

"I, Pan Jinde, have met Your Excellency."

"Old man Huang, thank you for saving my lord's life."

Said the two men as they hurriedly crouched to the ground and kowtowed.

After witnessing with their own eyes the terrifying sword skill of Lin Mo just now.

They had already made up their minds that they would definitely report this one thigh.

"My lord, it's windy on this rooftop, don't let us go downstairs to rest and rest!"

"Old man has already prepared some wine and food."

He said as he looked up and subtly winked towards Lin Mo.

"Also in our fourth district, several young beauties have been worshipping Your Excellency for a long time."

"How about Your Excellency giving them a chance to meet each other?"

In his opinion.

The reason why Lin Mo had stepped in to save Feng Jiu was purely out of his salivation over Feng Jiu's windy beauty.

After all, young people, their resistance to beautiful women was almost nil.

It was because of this that Old Man Pan had made such an arrangement.

He intended to offer a beautiful woman as a way to climb up Lin Mo's lap.

The three people present were all family managers.

How could they not know what this old man was planning to do?

As soon as Feng Jiu heard this, his face turned gloomy, while a hint of anxiety flashed across his gaze.

If Lin Mo were to be set up by this old man and fall into a tender place.

Not only would their two Feng Huang families suffer.

The entire Fourth District would not fare well.

The Pan family's aim has never been to manage and develop the four districts well.

In their eyes, all the people are nothing more than helpers and stumbling blocks to the Pan family's development.

Apart from exploitation and oppression, ordinary people are completely useless in their eyes.

It was also at this moment that Lin Mo's faint frown suddenly stretched out.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4312

Just when Feng Jiu was filled with anxiety.

Lin Mo suddenly spoke up and asked.

"Clan Master Feng Jiu, do you think that if this old man of the Pan family, suddenly died a violent death, would their Pan family be in great chaos?"

As soon as these words were spoken, Old Man Pan's face instantly changed drastically.

At this moment, he had already sensed the murderous aura emanating from Lin Mo's body, which was slowly surging towards him.

An invisible chilliness, like the tip of a needle, pierced viciously into his bone marrow.

With just a glance, Old Man Pan felt that his breathing had become difficult.

His pale body could not help but begin to tremble.

With such a change, Old Man Pan could not help but doubt himself.

Compared to those ferocious and rampaging three brothers, this young man in front of him was clearly more terrifying.

Quickly recalling all sorts of details.

Old man Pan was wondering what exactly he had done to displease this great god in front of him.

But right now was not the time to dwell on this, saving his life was the top priority.

After coming back to his senses, Old Man Pan immediately kowtowed and begged for forgiveness.

“My lord, if I have done anything wrong, please tell me.”

“Old man will definitely change his ways!”

Lin Mo glanced at him with an icy gaze.

“Change, you can change, but it will be in another life!”

The old man looked harmless and harmless.

In reality, his heart was more malicious than anyone else’s.

Just now, when the three toad brothers, who had spoken out, asked Huang Laosan to prepare three hundred babies.

This old thing did not hesitate to raise the number to one thousand in order to climb up with the three brothers.

One must know that these were living, breathing little beings.

If not for the presence.

The miserable treatment of these thousand little beings can be imagined.

It was also due to this that Lin Mo would never have let the old thing live.

However, due to Ji Duto’s previous rules, he could not afford to kill him directly.

He could only pretend to use Feng Jiu’s hand.

However, this b*tch obviously did not react.

By the time she had finished speaking, she was actually still frozen in frowning thought.

“What are you still staring at?”

“Waiting for the Pan family to swallow up your Feng family?”

Only when this Lin Mo made such a point did Feng Jiu wake up in shock.

At this moment, her heart that was originally hanging in the air was completely released.

Fortunately, Lin Mo had not been seduced by this old man’s beauty ploy.

However, at this moment she hesitated.

Feng Jiu naturally understood what Lin Mo meant when he asked himself to do something to kill Old Man Pan.

It was just that there were still concerns in her heart.

Once Pan Lao died in his own hands, the Pan family would never be able to rest in peace.

When the time came, the two families would clash.

The entire Fourth District would definitely be in chaos.

The main thing is that even with the death of Pan Lao, the strength of the Pan family is still not comparable to their Feng family.

When Lin Mo saw her in such a state, he could not help but secretly shake his head.

Although this woman was fierce, she was also able to stick to the bottom line.

But she was too indecisive.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo twisted his head, just as he was about to speak.

Huang Laosan, who had been seriously injured, suddenly sprang to his feet.

Poof!

The sharp dagger pierced Old Man Pan's chest directly through the heart.

Lin Mo hadn't expected that this Feng Jiu didn't dare to make a move, but was actually replaced by this Old Man Huang.

"You dog thing, the Pan family will not let you go!"

With a face full of resentment, Old Man Pan glared viciously at Old Man Huang.

Only after dropping a vicious sentence, Old Man Pan could only collapse helplessly.

"Old thing, when you robbed me of my chance before, did you ever think that this day would come."

After Old Man Huang spat towards the corpse with a fierce expression.

His face was immediately replaced with a flattering smile.

"My lord, please forgive me!"

"This old immortal dared to tempt you with his beauty, I just couldn't help it."

He said and also heaved a few kowtows.

His heart was overjoyed.

Originally, he was still worried about how to please Lin Mo, but he didn't expect this old man Pan to give him the chance straight away.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4313

Lin Mo looked at Pan's corpse in front of him, but his face did not change much.

It was a man who was bound to die anyway.

The only difference was in whose hands they died.

"See?"

Lin Mo said towards Feng Jiu.

“That’s the situation you’re in right now.”

“Either you kill others, or others kill you!”

“With your forward-thinking personality, you can still be the head of a family.”

“I also don’t know how exactly your Feng family chooses its people.”

From the bottom of his heart, this Feng Jiu performance made him very dissatisfied.

If he didn’t have the time to take his time to select and cultivate, he wouldn’t even bother wasting his words with Feng Jiu here.

Compared to and, and Huang Lao San was clearly more suitable for commanding the whole four districts.

Only, this person did not have the slightest bottom line to speak of and was hardly much different from Old Man Pan of District Four.

He is also a man who deserves to die!

Feng Jiu was rebuked by Lin Mo in such a way that her face turned red and she couldn’t help but lower her head.

At this moment, she was naturally aware of her own character flaws.

Lin Mo did not have the time to wait around for her to wake up and understand.

“Right now there’s another opportunity in front of you!”

“Kill this one, and from now on the four districts will be led by your Feng family!”

“Otherwise, I’ll find someone else!”

An extraordinary time to do an extraordinary thing.

Lin Mo had lost his patience.

If this Feng Jiu was still squirming, Lin Mo was already ready to discard.

If not, he could secretly support a suitable person, which would only waste some time.

As Lin Mo’s words fell.

Feng Jiu’s delicate body visibly trembled for a moment.

The four big words, Feng Family as the head, reverberated more than just in her mind.

Not long afterwards she finally raised her head and her gaze became firm and fierce.

“Feng Jiu what to do, please also ask Mr. Lin to teach me!”

“Very well, this one you strike to understand him!” Lin Mo said with a cold expression.

The moment this statement was made.

Old Man Huang instantly changed his face and was terrified in his heart.

He had never thought that what he had done would not integrate Lin Mo's heart?

Why would he still want to kill me!

"Wait, my lord and others!"

"Please, Your Excellency, tell me what I, Huang Laosan, have done wrong!"

"Or let me die in peace!"

He asked loudly, intending to buy himself one last chance at life.

"To sacrifice hundreds and thousands of babies of your own power for your own selfish desires, do you think you deserve to die?"

Lin Mo returned in an icy tone.

After receiving this answer, Huang Laosan's face instantly turned pale and his heart was ashen.

So that's how it was!

From the very beginning, himself and Old Man Pan were already bound to die.

It was funny that he thought he could climb on a stronger leg!

"Hahahaha!"

"If your lordship wants to kill me, why don't you ask yourself to do it?"

"Although I, Huang Lao San, am not strong, I am still the head of a family."

"Can I be allowed to die under the patriarch with some dignity?"

The corner of Lin Mo's mouth curled, "You are very clever!"

"Guessing that I can't make a move to kill you!"

"It's just a pity that it's too late!"

He said with a cold gaze, turning towards Feng Jiu.

"What are you still standing there for? Waiting for him to kill you back?"

Feng Jiu had already figured it out at this moment, and she had the same deep obsession for developing her family.

She gripped the dagger in her hand tightly and walked towards Huang Laosan step by step.

As for the two guards of this Huang family, just as they were about to step forward to stop them, they were easily wiped by Feng Jiu's neck.

Seeing that she was getting closer and closer, Huang Laosan hurriedly spoke.

"Feng Jiu, Feng Jiu, wait a moment!"

“You just heard it, he can’t kill me himself!”

“As long as you let me go, I can lead our Huang family to come under your Feng family.”

“By then, you can also happen to be in District Four together, can’t you?”

Just as he was desperately begging for mercy, Feng Jiu had already walked up to him.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4314

The deeply wounded Huang Lao San had no power to resist at all.

He could only watch as the dagger stabbed into his chest.

With a feeling of weakness running through his body, Huang Lao San knew that his time was up.

“Why? What could we have done?”

He asked reluctantly.

Feng Jiu shook her head, her face as cold as ice.

“You’re too stupid!”

“You think there’s anything that can stop a sect master from having a certain death wish for a mole like you.”

Feng Jiu was smart.

The moment she learned that Lin Mo couldn’t lay a hand on Huang Laosan.

She had already guessed that there might be some kind of agreement between the levels of the Patriarchs that she could not access.

It was just that, as a Patriarch, there were countless ways to kill a person unknowingly.

It was just a matter of wanting to or not wanting to.

“And, you absolutely if you don’t have a powerful patriarch behind you.”

“Even if you let your Wang family together four districts you can hold on for a few days?”

Before there was contact with the patriarchs.

Feng Jiu still had a little bit of confidence, however after seeing the power of the Patriarchs.

She had completely understood.

Before absolute strength, numbers were nothing more than a number.

As Huang Lao-san was dying, his face gradually became more and more open when he heard this.

After all, he had been too naive.

It is a pity that if I had guessed all this earlier.

I wouldn't have had to come and die so idiotically.

At the very least, I wouldn't have had to die here.

As he thought about it, his consciousness gradually blurred, and he eventually closed his eyes completely.

After disposing of this man.

Feng Jiu stood up straight and retreated to the side without saying a word, waiting quietly.

It was only at this moment that Lin Mo nodded with slight relief.

"Not bad, it's still salvageable!"

This b*tch was uncommonly talented and pure-minded.

Her indecisive personality has been corrected and she can be used.

It was not a waste of my time and words.

"In the next few days, you need to unify the four districts as soon as possible."

"Although I can't make a move, there is still a town guarding the borders of my three districts!"

"If you need manpower support, you can give this to the highest administrator of their township borders!"

After saying this, he handed over Director Qiu's token.

As for Feng Jiu's loyalty, Lin Mo didn't worry much about it.

The greatest advantage of communicating with a smart person was that she knew what she should and should not do.

After all, there were countless ways for a sect master to kill a person unknowingly.

It's just a matter of wanting to or not wanting to.

"Thank you, Mr. Lin!"

After Feng Jiu accepted the token, the last trace of concern completely dissipated.

Although there were not many people guarding the borders in the three districts, it could only be a hundred thousand or so.

However, as the three districts with the strongest average strength, the members of the major forces in the four districts were all good fighters who could take one for ten.

With these people as her backup, she had nothing to worry about when dealing with the Pan and Huang families.

But when he thought of this, he couldn't help but feel irritated.

If she had known this, she would not have squirmed and provoked Mr. Lin's displeasure.

To redeem her impression.

She then said seriously.

"Lin presently, our Feng family will remain at Mr. Lin's disposal from now on."

"Ten thousand deaths!"

The situation on Death Island right now was already obvious.

There were countless zongshi!

Sooner or later, they would have to be taken in anyway, so why not find a powerful backer like Lin Mo.

Moreover, before he wrote his plea for help, he had more or less scouted out something about Lin Mo's character.

"It's not necessary to drive or anything!"

Lin Mo shook his head and said.

"As long as you cooperate with me properly!"

"In the future, your Feng family will definitely have a place on this Death Island."

After saying this he leapt and disappeared straight into sight again.

In situ, Feng Jiu's gaze was already flickering with a yearning sizzling light.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4315

Two months earlier.

District 9 was still an obscure area.

There were no features and the overall strength was only moderate.

Not many people would pay attention to it at all.

It wasn't until after the trail of patriarchs slowly began to appear on Death Island.

The ninth district also became active.

By the time everyone was attracted to the frequent activity in the region.

District Nine had been declared a complete va*sal power of the Five Poisons Sect.

At the same time, all the previous scouts in the area had seemingly evaporated overnight.

There was no more news.

Gradually, the others discovered that almost half of the members of the Five Poison Sect had taken over the entire Ninth District.

In particular, the half-step sect masters everywhere scared the neighbouring Districts 8 and 10 into coming straight to their doors.

In less than two days, the eight, nine and thirteen districts had become the sphere of influence of the Five Poisons Sect.

The sudden change not only left the administrators of the districts at a loss for words.

Even the clerics who had gone into hiding did not dare to hesitate any longer.

Messages of alliance were passed from one to another.

It was also under the stimulus of this Five Poison Sect that more and more Patriarchs revealed themselves from behind the curtain.

While rejecting their mutual caution, they began to form alliances of all sizes.

In short, it was just a temporary union of interests.

This is why the Five Poison Sects no longer dare to be as reckless as they were before.

The expansion of its power has come to a halt.

Of course, everyone knew that.

All this was just the calm before the storm.

The tit-for-tat of a large number of Patriarchs united together was no longer something that a single island of death could withstand.

The next time conflict erupts, scenes of blood flowing for thousands of miles can already be foreseen.

Beyond the eighth district.

An unfamiliar voice followed the flow of people into the main city.

Between the rubbing of shoulders, a number of passers-by with special badges pinned to their chests could already be seen.

The badges, in turn, were engraved with different designs.

Toads, poisonous snakes, centipedes, etc.

Anyone who is careful can see that these designs are the five poisons.

And they all have one thing in common!

Arrogance, arrogance!

Those nostrils raised high as if to show off their towering status.

Arrogant to the core!

The pa*sers-by around them dodged as if they were mice seeing a cat.

But wherever he went, a vacuum would appear.

Even if there are countless people around.

“Worthy of being our Grand Elder.”

“If he hadn’t led us out of the desert, how could we have experienced this earthly dash!”

A few men with badges on their chests wandered recklessly through the streets.

When they saw a woman of good looks, they reached out and touched her sensitive parts like nobody’s business.

After a scream, they laughed even more.

“Sixth Brother, that woman just now is not bad!”

“Wouldn’t you consider thinking about just taking it?”

The leader who was called Sixth Brother shook his head with a disdainful face.

“It’s only average, the stunning beauty I’ve enjoyed in my time is far from this kind of goods!”

Seemingly recalling the image of that time, a lascivious smile could not help but flash across his face.

The juniors behind him started to raise their voices.

“Sixth Brother, this is unseemly of you!”

“You just kill such a good commodity when you’re done with it, and you don’t leave us brothers a mouthful of soup!”

“Yes, but I’m dying of hunger!”

At the mention of the killing, several people’s voices were not only not lowered in the slightest.

On the contrary, they could have raised their voices a few pitches and

It was as if they were bragging about something remarkable.

The people who pa*sed by had anger in their eyes, but they dared not speak out.

They could only keep their heads down and walk away from this group of scum.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4316

Sixth Brother and the others were naturally watching the reactions of the people around them.

Only the more the pa*sers-by did so, the more pleased Six felt.

This feeling of being on high, giving life and death, made him extremely enjoyable.

“Hahahaha, what my Sixth Brother’s used, no one else can touch.”

” It’s just a few good-looking pussies.”

“Later on Sixth Brother will then you go and find some better ones.”

With that he laughed and went forward to the cheers of several of his men.

The pa*sers-by around him heard this, although they were sad and angry.

But they only secretly sighed.

Someone else was going to suffer at the hands of these scum!

One of the men with gla*ses had by now clenched his fists together in a deadly grip.

Probably because of the excessive force, his body was trembling.

The red gaze was even more full of anger.

“D*mn it, I’ll fight with this group of scum!”

As he was about to be chased by Six and the others, the pa*serby beside him stopped him and pulled him down.

“Young man you don’t want to die!”

“With that little body of yours, it’s not enough for a slap on the wrist!”

“Bear with it, it’s not like you haven’t seen the consequences of offending their Five Poisons Sect!”

“Yes, young man, calm down, even if you don’t think of yourself you should think of your family.”

From their words, one could hear the fear of the residents of District 8 towards the Five Poisons Sect.

Although they had anger, they did not have the strength to resist this.

Under the persuasion of the pa*sers-by, the man with gla*ses seemed to have thought of something too.

Snap!

With a full of anger he scraped a hard slap directly at himself.

Mostly in anger at his own incompetence!

It was the only way to vent it!

And the crowd seemed to have seen this kind of behaviour from the man with the gla*ses.

They shook their heads and sighed as they dispersed in all directions.

The man’s teeth were already gritting as he stayed in place.

It was also at this moment that he suddenly sensed someone tapping him on the arm.

“Older brother, can I have a word?”

The man with the gla*ses frowned and twisted his head to look at the stranger beside him, who was a few years younger than himself.

“Let’s just say what’s going on here!”

At the moment he was holding a fury in his heart, so naturally he wasn’t going to look good again!

Not opening his mouth to heckle directly was already a deliberate effort on his part to suppress the force.

And this young man was none other than Lin Mo.

After arranging Feng Jiu’s task, he came straight to this place after resting for a while.

He had just seen everything in his eyes.

“Is what these people just said true?”

“That’s not true, these scum are simply heartless!” The man with the gla*ses said back angrily.

After saying that, he suddenly turned back to his senses.

“You’re not from our 8th district?”

The bad deeds of the members of the Five Poison Sect were already unknown to everyone in the entire District 8.

Lin Mo truthfully replied, “Not bad!”

“I originally thought of visiting this place for a bit of fun, but I never thought I would come across such a scene!”

The man with gla*ses first took a breath and calmed down before he said seriously.

“Take my advice, if you want to have fun, you should go to another district!”

“District 8, District 9 and District 10 are no longer places where people can live!”

He said and let out a long sigh.

Lin Mo looked at his helpless look and had a few good thoughts in his heart.

Although this man was impulsive and irritable, at least his heart was still good.

Lin Mo thought as he continued to ask.

“I’m curious about this place for the first time.”

“Why don’t you tell me the inside story, I’ll leave after I understand it!”

Although the man with gla*ses was a little impatient, he also wanted Lin Mo to leave this place of right and wrong as soon as possible.

“That’s a deal, after I tell you, you’ll leave!”

“That’s a must!” Lin Mo smiled and said back.

“This matter, I guess, is mainly to blame for the incompetence of our District 8 administrators

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4317

Streets of the 8th district.

The man with gla*s'es led Lin Mo to a teahouse.

Slowly, he recounted the whole incident in full.

The original administrator of their eighth and tenth districts was also a soft-headed person.

As soon as they saw how powerful the Five Poison Sect was, without saying a word they simply groveled and knelt at their door.

And they even took the initiative to invite people from the Five Poisons Sect to help them manage.

To be honest, in order to save their lives, they directly sent District 8 and District 10 into the hands of the Five Poisons Sect.

And this was the beginning of the disaster for the two districts.

“These people bully men and women and forget about it!”

“We, the people, are completely beasts in the eyes of their Five Poison Sect.”

“Once someone P*s'ses them off, they are lightly beaten half to death.”

“The unlucky ones die a tragic death at their hands straight away.”

Speaking of this, blood once again appeared between the gla*s'es man's eyes.

“The most abominable thing is that whenever a girl is taken in by these scum, she is plundered in the street with a gla*s of wine.”

“But whenever family members are around to block the way, they are often the result of a knife?”

Hearing this, Lin Mo also couldn't help but frown.

The Five Poison Sect was rotten to the core.

Such a force was scum to any person.

“By the way, I saw you trying to step up to the plate earlier.”

“What did it mean when the bystanders advised you to consider your family?”

The man with the gla*s'es spat before slapping his large hand hard on top of the table.

“What else could it mean!”

"It's just someone who's not used to the way the group is acting or has spoken out against them a few times."

"These beasts killed the person straight away and sought out his family and slaughtered them all together."

"The most annoying thing is that even then they were still not satisfied."

"They even had the family skinned and hung out to dry in front of their f*cking compound."

As the words fell to the ground, the teahouse owner seemed to have overheard the little report from the service staff.

He rushed over as quickly as he could.

"My goodness eh!"

"Ancestors, please spare me, if they hear me, I'll lose my teahouse and my husband!"

"I'll pay for today's consumption, so be kind and discuss it somewhere else!"

The elderly teahouse owner raised his hand and started to drive people away.

At this moment, he instantly turned pale with fear.

The man with the gla*ses also blushed.

He had said this on impulse, and if the Five Poison Sect's people knew about this.

Not only would he suffer himself, but the teahouse would also suffer as well.

"I'm sorry!"

With that he hastily slapped the money on the table and hurried towards Lin Mo.

"I've told you everything I know too, hurry up and leave!"

In front of the tea table.

Lin Mo did not reply positively, but only said with a serious expression.

"Take me to their quarters!"

Underneath the icy tone, a thick murderous intent had turned up.

For a moment, the temperature in the entire teahouse couldn't help but drop a few degrees.

If Ma Bangde had been there again, he would have noticed.

Lin Mo was in such a state that he was about to kill someone!

The man with the gla*ses, however, was a little discontented at the moment.

It was clear that he had already said before that he would leave after understanding.

This moment, there was actually an intention to go to the Five Poison Sect branch's premises.

Was that place something they could go to?

Once they found out, they would definitely die!

“I say you

Just as the man with the gla*ses, Pigweed, was refusing than.

Inadvertently, he locked eyes with Lin Mo.

That pair of icy gaze was as if it could freeze a person’s soul.

With just one glance, the man with gla*ses felt an endless chill sweep through his body.

“Didn’t you want to kill them?”

Lin Mo said indifferently.

“You help me show the way, I’ll help you kill!”

Hearing these words the eyes breathed a sigh of relief.

It was at this moment that he suddenly reacted.

The current Death Island was in chaos.

If he hadn’t had some strength, he would have died in the wilderness.

“Okay, I’ll take you there!”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4318

Under the terrified gaze of the teahouse owner.

Lin Mo left the place along with the man with gla*ses.

“Sins are made!”

“Even with this little body, he dares to provoke the Five Poison Sect, he’s really tired of living!”

Muttered a sentence only the boss shook his head while returning to the back pipe all over again.

In his heart, he prayed that he would not be implicated by these two rash people.

As for the other customers within the teahouse, they naturally heard the exchange between the two.

In the blink of an eye, the teahouse was instantly empty.

Soon after.

The news that someone was planning to challenge the Five Poisons Sect spread.

District 8, South Street.

The man with the guiding gla*ses had by now vaguely begun to regret it a little.

He had just given his word.

On the contrary, he thought that the young man behind him might have a few points of strength.

On the one hand, it was out of anger at the Five Poison Sect.

However, after calming down now, he became worried.

If this young man was not defeated, would he not suffer along with him?

Most of all, his family might be implicated.

Thinking about all this, the man with gla*ses could not help but beat a retreat.

"This little brother, it's just around the corner!"

"I won't see you off!"

Lin Mo didn't say anything more!

"Yes!"

This eyed man might not be afraid of death, but he couldn't help but think about his family.

It's human nature!

After the two men parted.

Lin Mo then continued to walk towards the front alone.

However, when he walked past the corner.

The scene in front of him instantly made him look hideous.

The middle of the square.

Dozens of wooden stakes were fixed side by side.

And at the top of these stakes is a corpse of this word hanging.

The man with the gla*ses was right when he said that these people had actually had their skin removed
.....

The most piercing thing was that there were several children among them.

The blood that kept falling low gradually washed away what was left of Lin Mo's sanity.

Originally, he had thought that the man with gla*ses' words were nothing more than exaggeration.

He had never imagined that the people of this Five Poison Sect would be so heartless as to go to such an extent.

At the same time.

The members of the Five Poison Sect around this place had also discovered Lin Mo, who was alone.

“Where did that rash youngster come from, don’t you know our rules? How dare you come close.”

“Eh, isn’t this a good thing, we happen to have many empty spaces to fill at this stake.”

“Look how marked this lad is growing, it must be something else to pluck off.”

Said the two men, glancing at each other.

Although their faces were laced with smiles, those smiles did leak a strong sense of evil.

The two chatted over and over again as they walked up to Lin Mo’s heels.

“Kid, seeing as you’ve taken the initiative to send us to the door, we’ll strike a little faster later.”

“Try to make you perceive no pain!”

He said and licked his tongue excitedly.

At this moment, the crowds of people who had come from afar to hear about the scene in front of them had their hearts in their throats.

“Hurry up and run, what are you still waiting for?”

“This group of animals simply won’t be human, young man hurry up and run!”

Just as a few people were loudly reminded, the duo from the Five Poison Sect also looked over.

With just one look, the crowd was instantly scared to speak.

They could only look at Lin Mo’s back with anxious eyes.

The Five Poison Sect duo exchanged words with each other after withdrawing their gazes.

“Why don’t I go and grab a few more people over, to save them from being so talkative?”

“No need!”

“I need an audience for my artistry, so just let them watch!”

With that, one of them pulled out a sharp dagger and gently pressed it against Lin Mo’s cheek.

“Such a nice skin, I don’t even know where to start!”

Lin Mo smiled coldly, “How about I teach you?”

As his words fell, the two people opposite clearly froze for a moment.

The next second.

Blood splattered up.

Screams of misery resound all around!

“My God, how dare he?”

Seeing Lin Mo strike, the people watching from afar were filled with disbelief.

“This is the outer sect deacon of the Five Poisons Sect, the hall master’s own brother.”

“After injuring this man, there is absolutely no way that Black Tiger will let this youngster go.”

Listening to the chattering voices of the surrounding people.

The regret in the heart of the man with the eyes who had brought Lin Mo to this place grew even stronger.

The South Street Hall Master, Heido, was a half-step Zong Shi expert.

A pair of rock-shattering palms didn’t know how many good fighters they had smashed in District 8.

On the contrary, Lin Mo, who looked so young.

How much stronger could he be?

Out of sight.

Deacon of the Outer Sect of the Five Poisons Sect.

At this moment, the cheeks on either side of his mouth had been completely pierced.

Scarlet blood gushed out.

“Ummmm boy you’re dead, I’m going to break you into pieces.”

“And also your family, none of your friends!”

“All must die!”

The voice that spoke Soren had stammered.

But at this moment, he was already blinded by hatred.

Tough words came one after another.

For as long as he had been in District 8, he had never let anyone die if he wanted them to.

Right now, someone even dared to hurt himself.

“What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and shake someone to kill him for me!”

The henchman at the side, who heard the words, first froze for a moment, and after coming back to his senses he hurriedly blew the piccolo in his hand.

Lin Mo just watched quietly and didn’t make a move to stop it.

Come on!

He had exactly the right amount of anger in his stomach!

It'll be hard to quell it without killing some scum!

He waited until the piercing piccolo fell, and only then did Lin Mo make his move.

The flying flash of cold light was instantly at the minion's throat.

"Finished blowing?"

The minion swallowed, his heart overwhelmed with fear.

If he saw the longsword send one more stroke forward, his life would surely be lost.

"Well blow blow done!"

Facing the fear of death, he did not dare to have any mind.

"How many people will come?"

"I don't know, but all the members of the nearby Five Poison Sect will be here!"

"Very well!"

The minion's heart heaved with relief as he watched the longsword fall.

This little life was saved.

But just as he was rejoicing, he suddenly felt the sky spinning.

The deacon at the side had obviously not expected that the seemingly weak young man in front of him would be so ruthless.

Especially when his man's head fell into his arms.

This deacon was instantly frightened and his face turned pale.

He could really kill!

As this thought surfaced in the deacon's mind, his originally arrogant expression then turned into a deep fear.

Although he was fierce and acted with a ruthless heart.

But he was also more afraid of death.

"You can't kill me!"

"I am the hall master's own brother, if you touch me, my brother will not spare you!"

The previous reckless shouting had now turned into a warning.

Lin Mo crouched down behind him and smiled faintly.

Only this smile looked a little seeping.

"Don't worry, I won't kill you!"

Hearing this, the outer sect deacon thought that Lin Mo was afraid of his brother, and the fear in his heart completely dissipated.

But as much as to his own gills that had been penetrated.

The deacon had already secretly given Lin Mo a death sentence in his heart.

“Kid, when my people come, I will make your life worse than death!”

With this vicious thought in his mind, his gaze also became fierce.

However, at that moment, Lin Mo suddenly raised his hand.

“What are you doing?”

As the deacon watched Lin Mo place his hand on top of the dagger grip on his cheek, he instantly had a bad feeling in his heart.

“Did all these people come from your hands?”

Lin Mo raised his finger and pointed at the tree stumps on the incoming square, his gaze gradually showing bitterness.

When he noticed that the man’s eyes began to flicker, he instantly had an answer in his heart.

“Ah!”

The miserable scream rang out again.

The outer door deacon lay on the ground with his hands covering his cheeks and rolling continuously.

At this moment, the dagger that was originally on his cheek had been pulled out hard by Lin Mo.

And this process, Lin Mo had deliberately slowed down his movements.

In this way, the cutting pain was directly magnified several times.

“bd, I’ll get you to death!”

“I’ll make life worse than death!”

Lin Mo still had that seeping smile in the face of this deacon’s shouting.

Stepping forward and lifting his foot!

Snap!

The crisp sound of cracking bones was heard clearly even by pa*sers-by watching from a distance.

This kick went down.

This Outer Sect Deacon’s leg was completely ruined.

As the matter had come to this stage, the onlookers had completely reacted.

This South Street Branch and the young man in front of him were already in a deadly situation.

“What a cruel attack!”

“Ruthless, that’s the same for such a brute!”

“Killing him outright instead would be a waste of time, it would be better to torture him until he is worse than dead.”

Someone gritted his teeth and said.

And this remark also drew several people around him to nod their heads uncontrollably, with a look of approval.

From this, one could see how much the Five Poison Sect was hated, especially by the Outer Sect Deacon.

On the other side.

The outer sect deacon’s eyes were filled with fear as he looked at Lin Mo, who was walking towards him step by step.

At this moment, he couldn’t care less about the injuries on his face.

As he screamed miserably, he crawled towards the distance.

“I was wrong, I was wrong, spare me ah!”

CLICK!

He didn’t even have time to finish his sentence before he let out another heart-breaking scream.

At this moment, both of this Outer Sect Deacon’s legs had already been ruined.

Beneath the blood and flesh, one could even see the broken and crushed leg bones.

Even so, Lin Mo still didn’t stop without stopping.

This kind of beast, a single sword to settle it would only be cheaper for him.

Approach!

Lin Mo raised his hand and waved.

Before the deacon could even reflect, his left shoulder had turned empty.

The four splashes of blood deeply pierced his mental defences.

Perhaps this was the moment when he finally experienced the despair of being left to his own devices.

“Ah, please, I, spare my life”

The piercing of his mouth, coupled with the massive loss of blood.

At the moment he was slurring his words.

It was also at this moment that the sound of dense footsteps in the distance suddenly came.

The leader was a strong man with dark skin, coupled with that tall body.

It was like a tower of iron.

A few scars on his hideous face added to the chilling effect.

This man is Black Tiger, the hall master who has scared the people of South Street.

“Brother save me!”

The outer door deacon also saw hope at this moment.

With his last ounce of strength, he shouted out.

At this moment, when Black Tiger saw that his brother had been tortured so badly, his fierce gaze was suddenly as wide as a big bell.

“D*mn it, how dare you do such a cruel thing to my brother!”

“I want your whole family to die, the men as pig slaves and the women”

Just as he let out his vicious words loudly, Lin Mo only looked up and gave him a cold look.

In the next second, the sword mane slashed through once again.

To this point.

This outside deacon had lost all his limbs.

“You continue!” Lin Mo said indifferently.

“You”

With just one word, the deacon’s eyes went black.

Both eyes were glued with bright red blood.

Lin Mo still had that cold look on his face as he spoke slowly.

“Keep talking!”

With such a tactic, it made the opposite Black Tiger shut his mouth.

As for the group of Five Poison Sect disciples behind him, they were also shocked speechless.

Having followed Hall Master Black Tiger for so many years, this was the first time I had seen someone hit so hard.

And he had directly suppressed Black Tiger.

For a while, the scene also fell into an eerie silence.

The only thing that could be heard was the sound of Black Tiger’s heavy breathing.
