Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4321

With the Black Tiger present.

The crowd that was watching was directly frightened and backed away.

Unable to, the terrifying image of these two brothers had fallen deeply into the minds of the South Street crowd.

Although Black Tiger was not as perverted as his brother, the one who did it was cruel to the extreme.

But anyone who was targeted by him either had his head chopped off or was lazily split in two.

He was also a half-step master, which made the residents of South Street fearful.

It was only after the crowd came to a distance where they felt safe that the crowd stopped moving.

Countless pairs of eyes once again shifted to Lin Mo's body.

Surprisingly, Lin Mo did not kill him in the end.

Compared to death, living as a complete cripple would be the best lesson for this deacon.

"From now on, you will become a cripple in District 8!"

"Don't worry, those who have been persecuted by you will take good care of you!"

In the darkness.

The deacon's ears rang with Lin Mo's cold voice.

Before he could understand what it meant, he suddenly felt a pain in his abdomen.

This was followed by a sensation of soaring.

As the crowd watched from afar, a feeling of pleasure rose in their hearts as they watched the figure being kicked away.

It was at this moment that the crowd watched.

The man with the gla*ses shone brightly and hurriedly shouted.

"Hurry up and stop his bleeding!"

After saying this he saw the dumbfounded looks of the crowd and hurriedly explained.

"Let this cripple live for the rest of his life!"

Because he was afraid of being heard by Black Tiger's people, the man with gla*ses pressed this remark particularly low.

Only a few people around him could hear it everywhere.

After reacting, the crowd also instantly realized.

Right, wouldn't it be worse to let this cripple live than to kill him?

Having thought of this, the crowd got their hands dirty.

Lest this Black Tiger's brother bleed to death!

"I have bandages here!"

"I have stitches here."

"All go away and give him my wheelchair to use"

At once, the passers-by who were still watching immediately opened up to rescue Black Tiger's brother.

Those who could risk coming here more or less had a bit of hatred with this Five Poison Sect.

Seeing that there was a slight chance, how could they let it go.

On the contrary, Black Tiger's side thought that this group of onlookers were only sincere in rescuing his brother.

And at the moment his own brother was already out of the way.

The scruples in his heart dissipated.

There was only endless anger in the eyes.

"Kid, this is the first time I've met a young man who is not afraid of death like you!"

"What you did to my brother, I will get back on you a hundred times over."

With these words he then slung the great sword with the ringed head in his hand over his shoulder.

"What are you waiting for, why don't you hurry and get my brother back."

"This bunch of untouchables have some eyesight, just beat them half to death!"

"Let's kill them first!"

With a jolt, his men rushed off towards the distance.

Just as they were passing by Lin Mo, a sudden sound like a rushing sound came out of their ears.

"This road is impassable!"

As the words fell to the ground, these ten or so people suddenly stopped in their tracks.

Through inertia, the ten or so men took a few stiff steps forward.

Feeling the coldness coming from their necks, they subconsciously reached out to cover the blood that continued to spill from their necks.

Unfortunately, it was only a futile attempt.

In just three to five seconds, their pupils were filled with incomprehension, and they collapsed helplessly.

Even before they died, they hadn't figured out how they had actually died.

Behind them, Black Tiger, who was originally furious, could not help but have his pupils constricted at this moment.

What a fast sword!

Even though he was already a half-step Grandmaster, he could only see an extremely faint cold aura.

Seeing this glimpse, Black Tiger also began to get serious

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4322

When the two first met.

When Black Tiger saw Lin Mo's young appearance, he could not help but have a few moments of contempt in his heart.

Even if he had some strength, his age was still there.

How much stronger could he be.

Until I saw this amazing sword!

Black Tiger had finally begun to take Lin Mo's strength seriously.

"What exactly are you?"

He asked somewhat underhandedly.

Lin Mo turned his gaze and said indifferently, "A man who sees injustice in the road."

"Besides, there's no point in you knowing so much as a person who is about to die!"

lol!

At these words, a crowd of the Five Poison Sect's men burst out in an uproar.

"Kid, seeking death!"

"How dare you speak out against our Hall Master, today I will make your life worse than death."

"Hall Master, let the subordinates go and see this yellow-haired kid's head off and use it as a ball to kick."

"Let me go, I'll just scrap him!"

Under the seven mouths, this group of people had violent anger on their faces.

As soon as Black Tiger let go, they swarmed on him.

However, Black Tiger shook his head in an uncharacteristic manner.

He could see that Lin Mo was an extraordinary fighter from the stunning sword just now.

“You guys are no match for him, it’s better to let me do it!”

With these words, the men who were still arguing instantly quietened down.

Even if they had more discontent in their hearts, they did not dare to question Black Tiger’s words.

After Black Tiger finished speaking, his shoulders shrugged.

The cloak coat on his body instantly slipped off.

While the quick-eyed junior behind him picked up the coat, Black Tiger drove his steps towards Lin Mo.

“Genius, I’ve seen quite a few!”

“People like you always think that if you learn a little bit of fur, you’re invincible.”

Said his tsking and shaking his head.

“Unfortunately, there are countless such geniuses who have died under my fall.”

“And you are among them.”

Lin Mo raised his head and locked eyes with him, and then slowly raised the Tai Ah in his hand.

“I hope your strength is as strong as your ability to talk nonsense.”

Black Tiger’s face instantly sank when he heard Lin Mo’s arrogant words.

“Kid, don’t think that with just a few points of strength, you dare to see no one in sight.”

“Today I I will teach you what it means to have people outside of you!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, the floor beneath Black Tiger’s feet instantly split in pieces.

As for him, he had already transformed into a residual shadow.

“Give me death!”

With a furious shout, Black Tiger leapt into the mid-air, and the nearly 100 catties ring-headed great sword in his hand fell heavily.

The blade slashed through.

The air around him began to whimper.

“Watch out!”

There was no shortage of cultivating martial artists within the crowd of spectators.

Although the strength might be a little less.

But this did not prevent them from feeling the terrifying power of this slash.

Once they were hit, there was no chance of survival.

Many people seemed to have seen the bloody scene and closed their eyes in fear at once.

On the other hand, on the side of the Five Poison Cultists, many of them had already started to applaud.

"It's an honour for this boy to die at this move of the Hall Master."

"Later on, I will chop this yellow-haired kid's body into mush and take it to the backyard to feed to the dogs!"

"This is good, this is good!"

Just as the crowd was shouting loudly about what to do with Lin Mo.

One of them had his pupils instantly shrink.

Following his line of sight, he looked.

Only to see that Black Tiger's poised strike was easily caught between the fingers of that strange young man.

What kind of monster was this?

Seeing this, Black Tiger could not help but rush to his scalp.

He had to know that this slash was a ten-by-ten full power strike of his.

But even so!

The great sword with the ringed head in his hand not only failed to hurt the young man in front of him even a little bit.

On the contrary, the blade in his hand was caught dead between the gap between his two fingers.

"Get up for me!"

With a face full of amazement, Black Tiger roared furiously.

It was only a pity that even though he exerted all his strength.

The ring-headed sword remained motionless

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4323

The two sides wrestle with each other.

The scene also slowly became bizarre.

The nearly two-metre tall Panther was now clenching his teeth and firing wildly.

Above his thigh-thick arms, the shocking muscles bulged directly into a small mountain.

The meridians protruded out even more like tree roots.

On the contrary, on Lin Mo's side.

Although he was a head shorter than the black tiger.

The stature was even more than the average of the other side.

Yet it was such a huge contrast in front of him.

Black Tiger had used all his strength but was still unable to draw back his blade.

With the stalemate, the anger and resentment in Black Tiger's heart gradually subsided.

When he regained his senses, a flash of fear passed through his eyes.

Such a strong monstrous power already spoke volumes.

"You're a clan master?"

Black Tiger lifted his head and stared at the young man in front of him with a face full of disbelief.

He himself felt a little absurd about this guess.

In his world off. A young man in his twenties, no matter how genius he was, could not have reached such a cultivation level.

But the truth was not in front of his eyes.

He could not believe it.

At this moment, the corner of Lin Mo's mouth hooked.

The cold words reached the black tiger's ears.

"You guessed it, but there's no answer."

The words hadn't even fallen.

A despairingly terrifying aura had already surged around Lin Mo's body.

For a moment, Black Tiger only felt a sinking feeling under his feet.

His whole body was like being pressed down by a ten-thousand-pound boulder.

Even the simplest task of standing up straight had become a luxury at this moment.

"Impossible, this is absolutely impossible!"

Black Tiger stared at this eyes wide open and muttered with a manic expression.

Of course what was before his eyes would not change depending on whether he believed or disbelieved.

It was also at the moment when he was in a frenzy that Lin Mo's five fingers slightly arched.

The nearly hundred pound ring-headed greatsword trembled violently.

Before anyone could reflect, dense cracks had already appeared on the blade's body.

All that could be heard was the sound of clanking and clattering.

Countless pieces of iron then appeared on the ground.

The large swords that had previously dared people to stand, had now become a pile of scrap iron.

After destroying his opponent's blade, Lin Mo raised his hand towards his body and gently pressed it down.

The iron tower-like Black Tiger's feet couldn't stop swaying.

Without any resistance, he directly fell to his knees on the ground.

Ka-ching!

The bones cracked above once again.

Looking at the blood flowing out from underneath Kuroto, anyone with a discerning eye could see it.

This Black Tiger's legs were by and large as ruined as his brother's.

Faced with such a disparity in strength.

Even if Black Tiger thought it was unbelievable, he could not help but not believe it.

At this moment, his frenzied eyes also slowly cleared up.

In just a moment, the change was filled with dense fear again.

Faced with such a terrifying patriarch, he had no power of resistance at all.

Even his body, he could not even dominate it by himself.

In this instant, he was finally experiencing his brother's despair.

It was also at this moment that Lin Mo's cold voice slowly rang out.

"Feel the fear?"

Black Tiger's body trembled, and under the fear that filled his heart, his face had turned a fierce white.

"I beg the Sovereign Master to spare my life!"

Lin Mo laughed disdainfully, "Spare your life?"

"Have you spared the lives of those innocent people?"

He didn't expect Black Tiger to answer, and just continued to speak to himself.

"Those innocent people who were brutalised by your Five Poison Sect were also experiencing the same despair as the others."

"Have also begged for mercy, and you have given them a chance?"

Black Tiger's pupils instantly began to dilate continuously when he heard the words.

He was trembling under the danger of facing death.

Just when he was about to say something.

Suddenly he felt a great pain in the small of his back.

Looking down, the direct longsword had penetrated his dantian directly.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4324

“Ah, you shall not die!”

Black Tiger looked down at his pierced dantian and broke down emotionally straight away.

At this moment, he could already clearly sense that the aura in his body was dissipating at a rapid pace.

It was only a matter of a few seconds.

He had been completely reduced from a towering Half-step Grandmaster to a ruined man.

No longer could he sense a single trace of aura.

“Live well, there are good days waiting for you in the future!”

Lin Mo patted Black Tiger’s shoulder with his hand, and then he lifted his steps to leave.

Not far away.

A group of the Five Poison Sect’s men were already jaw-dropping at this moment.

Originally, they had thought that they would surely die Lin Mo, but he had just scrapped Black Tiger so lightly.

As they watched, Lin Mo slowly walked towards this side.

Many people had already started to beat a retreat.

It was just that given the long-standing fear given to the black tiger, they did not dare to turn around and run away.

“What should we do?”

The hundred or so men had completely lost the arrogance that had flaunted them in the past.

Not even the half-step Zong Master’s Hall Master was a match for Lin Mo.

There was even less to say about these hundred or so men of their own.

They looked at each other directly, neither fleeing nor staying.

Although Lin Mo’s footsteps did not make any sound, each step seemed to be stepping on top of their hearts.

When Lin Mo was less than ten metres away from them, someone finally broke down.

"f*ck the black tiger, stay and you're bound to die, hurry up and escape and there's still a chance of survival."

"I don't care!"

With the first person leading the way, the whole group was instantly in chaos.

"Hurry up and run for your lives!"

In a matter of moments, everyone rolled and started to flee.

What they hadn't noticed was that a clear wind had kicked up around them at the moment.

The gently swaying leaves around them suddenly split in two.

At the same time, more than a hundred members of the Five Poison Sect flung themselves to the ground in unison.

Bringing them back to look.

Only to see the lower half of their bodies still lingering behind them.

"No, I don't want to die!"

With a frantic desire to live, many began to pick at their already dripping intestines, desperately trying to stuff them into their stomachs.

And this futile action only lasted for a second or two, while stopping their movements.

Their pupils also completely darkened, and eventually there was no trace of life.

"All all dead?"

The passersby watching from afar were completely frozen in place at this moment.

Although they had seen it with their own eyes, they still couldn't believe it all.

All the way to the point where some people couldn't help their stomachs from churning and began to vomit furiously.

Only then did the people around them and others slowly come back to their senses.

Within a few moments, the sounds of vomiting in this place rang out one after another.

"This man is in your hands!"

Lin Mo glanced at Black Tiger before continuing to walk to the branch hall here.

Since he had already come, he had no intention of leaving anyone alive.

With a casual flip of Lin Mo's hand.

The drop of red blood above the sword body slowly slid down.

A perfect demonstration of what a soldier is without blood.

The man with the gla*s'es would get over it and organise the crowd again.

“We finally have a chance for revenge!”

“Let’s follow this expert and destroy this branch together.”

Thinking of all the evil deeds of that Five Poison Sect in the past.

Plus the people around them were suffering from its aggression.

The eyes of the crowd also began to turn red.

“Destroy them!”

With a single response, the crowd immediately surged towards Lin Mo’s direction.

When they pa*sed by the Black Tiger, everyone was originally a little worried.

Only when the man with gla*s'es kicked him over, the crowd settled down and stepped over the black tiger.

The crowd dispersed.

The unbeatable Black Tiger was now covered in bruises.

His face was even densely covered with shoe marks.

The last few men in the group went up and probed his mouth and nose and found that he was still breathing.

“Bah, beast you have your day too!”

The words fell to the ground as a dense stream of punches and kicks landed on Black Tiger’s body.

District 8, South Street.

Branch Church of the Five Poisons.

When the man with the gla*s'es rushed in with the crowd, he found that there was no longer any movement in the place.

As far as the eye could see, apart from the corpses on the ground, there were no more living people to be seen.

All the way through the long corridor.

Only then did the crowd see Lin Mo’s back.

However, just as the crowd was about to go up to him to thank him for removing the danger from the Southern District.

Suddenly they were met with a scene inside the room.

The large room was filled with a variety of beautiful women.

Not only were their faces outstanding, but their bodies were even better.

Only, these earthly lusciousnesses are no longer any longer alive.

The naked bodies are covered with shocking scars.

It was clear from their painful grooming what agony these women had suffered before their bodies.

In the midst of this furious atmosphere, someone suddenly screamed out in agony.

“Yuan’er, my Yuan’er!”

A heart-rending cry remained as an old man suddenly squeezed out of the crowd.

“Yuan’er, wake up, father is here to save you!”

At the rest of this painful wail, more and more people recognised their daughters in their homes.

In a flash, the whole room was filled with the sound of crying in the corners.

At this moment, Lin Mo could only let out a long sigh of helplessness.

Even if he slaughtered all the people in this branch, he still could not save the lives of these youths.

Although he showed that he was calm, the palm of his hand that was clutching Tai Ah was trembling continuously.

He had not been so angry for a long, long time!

The only way to quench this anger is to kill!

Under the pull of this sad atmosphere, everyone present was silently left in tears.

Lin Mo took a deep breath and controlled his rioting emotions.

He then took his outer off.

He then gently covered the unclaimed corpses.

“My people have avenged you, go well!”

Having said this, he tremblingly stretched out his palms to close his eyes for this.

The girl, who should have been a flower-like beauty, had now died an innocent and tragic death at the hands of the Five Poison Sect.

It was in this atmosphere of grief and anger.

There was a commotion from outside.

“So it’s you untouchables!”

“How dare you dare our Five Poison Sect’s branch and kill my men!”

“You guys are tired of living!”

With a furious shout, the crowd turned their heads in unison.

The person who came was none other than Sixth Brother!

And here was his room.

“That’s the beast, that’s him!”

“bd, give my daughter back her life!”

Immediately upon seeing the murderer, some people rushed up.

Sixth Brother’s gaze was cold, his face showing disdain.

Just this kind of trash, even if there were a hundred more, they would not be his opponents.

Just as Six was about to hammer the old man’s head in front of him, he suddenly felt a stabbing pain under his armpit.

The next second he realised that he could not move.

Before he knew it, the old man who had lost his daughter threw him to the ground.

“bd, you traded my daughter’s life!”

With grief and anguish, the old man bit down hard on top of six cheeks.

It was accompanied by a miserable scream.

The old man’s mouth was already covered with blood.

And there was an extra piece of bloody flesh in his mouth!

Then more and more people followed suit.

And behind those six, the few accomplices who were planning to fight back were toppled without exception.

Without a pair of moments, several people were surrounded by the group.

Lin Mo hooked his hand, and after retrieving the silver needles, he stopped engaging.

Whether it was the two Black Tiger brothers or this inhuman Sixth Brother in front of him, flowing into the hands of this group of people would definitely not end well.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo turned around and left the place.

He hadn’t killed enough people, and his anger was hard to quell.

Behind him, there was already a continuous stream of screams.

The news of the destruction of the South Street branch of the Five Poisons Sect soon spread.

The residents of South Street completely cheered.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4326

Zone 9.

Five Poison Cult Headquarters.

Stopped with a rush of footsteps.

The door to the study was rudely pushed open.

“Elder An, there is an emergency!”

An Qingshan, who was meditating and cultivating, slowly opened his eyes.

“What is it?”

“The four branches of my sect in the eighth district have been wiped out.”

When An Qingshan heard this news, his face couldn’t help but sink.

“Do you know who did it?”

The subordinate shook his head, “It’s not clear yet, the Grand Preceptor asked me to summon you to hurry over.”

“I know!”

After An Qingshan answered, he directly got up and walked out of the study.

After coming to the council chamber.

The atmosphere in this place also seemed extraordinarily gloomy.

Although their Five Poison Sect had been lurking after coming to Death Island.

But this was the first time this kind of thing had happened where four branch chapters had been wiped out by a group of people.

Such news naturally alarmed all the administrators of the Five Poisons Sect.

An Qingshan frowned and arrived without any nonsense, going straight to the point.

“Have you traced any news?”

At these words, the man above the head seat, surrounded by wide robes, returned with a hoarse voice.

“From the information fed back, this person is young in appearance and wields a long sword!”

“In his twenties, he is already at the Sovereign realm.”

As soon as this news came out, all the administrators present, immediately glanced at each other in silence.

After piecing together this news, it was not difficult to guess the identity of this person.

Lin Mo!

In this instant, all of An Qingshan's anger instantly dissipated.

Instead, there was endless ecstasy.

"Good boy, there is a way out of heaven, but you chose to throw yourself into hell."

"Serves us right, Five Poison Sect, for taking down the news of the Crystal Skull."

For Lin Mo, their Five Poison Sect had long been coveting for a long time.

It was only due to their fear of Ji Duto of the Seven Deadly Sins that they did not dare to go near the three districts.

Right now, one would never have expected that Lin Mo would obediently deliver to their door.

"Grand Preceptor, let me bring this brat back!"

An Qingshan said bluntly.

Compared to the others, he was even more eager to take down Lin Mo.

It wasn't just because it was previously rumoured that Lin Mo knew all the secrets of the Crystal Skull.

More importantly, he, An Qingshan, coveted the Hated One.

If he could plant the sub-centipede inside the supreme genius, he would undoubtedly be quite taking down a future Saint Realm expert.

As long as she was given enough time.

Not to mention taking down the head of the Five Poison Sect, even if it was the Seven Deadly Sins he would not be afraid in the slightest.

It was because of this that An Qingshan had never mentioned the news of Hate Free to anyone else.

This was also considered a big trouble left for Lin Mo.

The scene.

The Grand Elder Master who was not seen in his true form did not agree to An Qingshan's offer.

Instead, he asked towards the golden toad on the side.

"You have fought with this Lin Mo before, you should have some understanding of his strength."

"It's just right to talk to everyone right now!"

After shaking his teeth, the golden toad slowly rose to his feet.

At the moment, the upper half of his body was completely naked.

Traces of blood could still be seen among the thick bandages on his chest.

Obviously, when he was in District Four earlier, he had dodged a fatal blow from Lin Mo though.

However, he was still left with a serious injury.

“Only one sword!”

“That terrifying sword directly decimated my second and third brothers!”

At the mention of this, the Golden Toad’s face couldn’t help but look sad and angry.

These words came out.

Several clan masters on the scene could not help but whisper.

This Toad Three Brothers, although not strong.

But they were still clan masters!

With just one sword, they had decapitated two Zong Masters and seriously injured the Golden Toad.

With such strength, several people present thought they could not do it.

After hearing this, the Grand Elder silently nodded his head.

He did not have much of a reaction after learning about Lin Mo’s strength.

He just turned his head towards the person behind him, also wrapped in black robes, and said.

“All of his Lin Mo’s bottom cards are not coming out!”

“It’s the master!”

Accompanied by a hoarse voice.

With a click of his foot, this man invited to drift out of the scene.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4327

North Street, District 8.

“Fried noodles with a bowl of wontons!”

“Okay, you wait a moment!”

After a day of running around, Lin Mo finally stopped in his tracks.

Only he hadn’t sat down for long.

The two people at the adjacent table started whispering.

“Have you heard? All of our Five Poison Sect branches in our eighth district have been wiped out.”

“Crap, is it really true? If you dare to talk nonsense, be careful of the beast looking for you.”

“Cut, that’s still fake, I’ve been there with my own eyes.”

“Hahahahaha, good!”

As soon as this news came out, the customers on the opposite side instantly burst out laughing.

“Good, finally a righteous man has stepped in to teach this brute of an organisation a lesson, good death!”

“Boss, I’ll pay for all the spending of everyone present today.”

The calm noodle shop instantly came to life amidst this man’s loud laughter.

“Old He, are you asking for a little wife? So generous today!”

“f*ck you, this is much more enjoyable than marrying a young wife.”

“Good news, we all have to share together, that harmful amount of five poison sect

Lin Mo saw this scene, to also came a little bit of interest.

Anyway, all have to wait for the food to be served.

He listened quietly as a spectator to the bill-payer, Lao He, as he boasted.

The scene couldn’t help but cheer along after hearing that all the Five Poison Sect branches in District 8 had been wiped out.

“The heavens have eyes, my youngest son was killed alive by those brutes.”

“How nice, those bds just because my nephew gave way and didn’t remember, they broke both legs.”

“O daughter, those brutes are finally dead, someone has avenged you

Within the lively noodle shop, some people laughed out loud, while others shed tears of relief as they laughed.

Those Five Poison Sects have not been stationed in District 8 for very long though.

But the poison they had inflicted on the local residents was not shallow.

The reaction of the customers can show the image of the Five Poisons Sect in the eyes of the ordinary people.

“I want to erect a tablet of long life for this righteous man.”

“Go with it, go with it!”

In twos and threes, they left in pairs.

“Hello here’s your noodles and ravioli!”

Just at the moment when Lin Mo was looking at the backs of the other customers, the boss brought up the fried noodles!

“Thank you!”

But just as Lin Mo picked up his chopsticks and was about to start eating, his brows couldn't help but shrink.

"Wait a minute!"

"What is it? Do you need anything else, guest?"

Lin Mo pointed to his noodles and then to the back of the kitchen.

"Has anyone else been in the back kitchen other than yourself?"

The owner shook his head with a puzzled face.

"It's unlikely that an unusual customer would go to our back kitchen!"

"What's wrong with that?"

Lin Mo put down his chopsticks and returned unhurriedly.

"This side has been tampered with!"

Hearing these words, Boss Cotton Pipe's face instantly sank.

Right now all the bills in the shop had already been paid by someone.

Then he looked at Lin Mo's cloudy and breezy appearance.

It was unlikely that he was a bully!

But this kind of thing is most taboo in catering.

"Guest, if you don't feel satisfied, I can give you a different bowl."

"But if you want to blackmail money from me, it's simply not possible!"

Lin Mo shook his head with a bitter smile.

It seemed that he had been misunderstood!

"Forget it, I'll just do it myself!"

Said Lin Mo as he raised his hand and pointed.

In the next second, the sound of clanking cutlery came from the back kitchen.

When the commotion subsided, a human figure slowly walked out.

Covered in black robes, his face could not be seen at all.

"As expected of Mr. Lin! This kind of colourless and odourless poison could even be discovered by you."

Lin Mo did not reply, but only smiled coldly.

"Your Five Poison Sect is really as shameless as ever!"

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4328

What?

The Five Venoms?

Waiting for Lin Mo's sarcasm to finish with the black robe in front of him.

The few people present couldn't help but tremble in their bodies.

Turning their heads to look, they indeed saw the conspicuous logo on the chest of the black robe.

"Help!"

In a flash, all the customers, including the owner, darted away from the place.

The three words of the Five Poison Sect had become an indelible nightmare for them.

Across the way, the black robe in didn't bother with these people at all.

"Mr. Lin, it's been a long time!"

The hoarseness was like metal rubbing across gla*s, making it extraordinarily hard to bear.

He said as he slowly walked over and unceremoniously sat down on his butt.

Lin Mo snorted coldly, his face disdainful.

"I don't remember that I've ever known the scum of the Five Poison Sect!"

As the words fell to the ground, his palm was already resting on the hilt of his sword.

Ready to strike at any moment.

Only what puzzled him was that the black robe's voice sounded familiar.

For a while, he could not recall.

The black robe was uncharacteristically calm in the face of such sarcasm.

"Mr. Lin is just too noble to forget!"

With that he took off the hat on top of his head.

What caught his eye was a face so ugly that it was disgusting.

The features were barely distinguishable from the distorted cheeks.

The skin was puffy and pale, and it was still spilling out.

With just one glance, Lin Mo couldn't help but feel a wave of nausea.

"Ugly, isn't it?" The black-robed man laughed to himself.

"I actually feel the same way myself!"

As he said this he started at the dagger in his hand as he reflected his disgusting features.

With just one glance, the dagger split directly in two.

Lin Mo had no desire to spend any more time with this man and spoke directly.

“Since you don’t make a move, it means you have other intentions!”

“Speak up! You won’t have a chance later!”

At this moment, sword qi began to slowly drift in the middle of the empty noodle shop.

The black cannon man naturally realised Lin Mo’s impatience and directly pulled out a square iron plate from his pocket.

“This item, does Mr. Lin still recognize it?”

Lin Mo’s eyebrows knitted, “What exactly are you?”

“Why is the Lawrence family’s family head token on your person.”

For a moment, Lin Mo couldn’t even see what the other party’s purpose was!

The black-robed man shook his head and asked rhetorically with a hoarse voice.

“Since this object is on me, as to what I have, why should Mr. Lin ask knowingly.”

With these words, Lin Mo also asked the speculation in his heart.

“You are Clegg?”

“That’s right!”

Clegg nodded.

And to confirm his identity, he spoke again.

“Mr. Lim remembers that Joe Wood!”

As soon as the words fell, endless killing machines rose up from the ground.

Rampaging sword Qi destroyed everything that could be seen in the noodle shop.

At the same time the sword was already at Clegg’s throat.

Lin Mo would never forget the name Qiao Mu in his life.

It was because of this man that the front line in the third district was infested with infectious diseases.

Tens of thousands of lives fell under this perceived plague.

And the man responsible for all this was Joe Wood and the man behind it, Clegg!

And this Clegg was also the last enemy that his own disciple, No Hate, had to kill.

“Mr. Lin, since I am here, I am not afraid that you will kill me!”

After Clegg finished speaking calmly, a light green gas began to emerge from its surroundings.

The floor beneath its feet only just came into contact with this gas before it began to n*zzle.

In the blink of an eye, a large hole had been eroded out of the floor.

"I'm not going to lie, I'm now a walking gas bomb!"

"As soon as I die, the poisonous gas changes inside me instantly gush out in all directions!"

"In addition, I carry hundreds of viruses, as soon as I release my control."

With that said, Clegg slowly and leisurely stood up.

"They will all be buried with me."

At the moment Clegg is completely emboldened.

Although the face is so distorted that it is impossible to read the expression.

But Lin Mo could just think of the smugness in this man's heart.

It was a pity.

Lin Mo knew that the Clegg in front of him did not lie with.

Even after he opened his six senses, he found that not only did the other party not lie to him, but he was even a little "modest".

The gas that was released in front of his eyes was indifferent.

Once the noodle shop was dispatched, even after the dilution of the air, the people around the noodle shop would definitely die.

The most frightening thing is.

This little bit of green poison gas is only the tip of the iceberg that this Clegg has revealed.

Not to mention the hundreds of horrific germs in his body.

A random selection of them would be no less dangerous than the epidemics on the front lines of the three districts.

For a moment, Lin Mo's couldn't help but clench his fists.

Even though there were countless thoughts in his mind to kill this person.

But as a medical saint, Lin Mo forced others to know better.

Without complete preparation, killing this Clegg would mean that the entire Island of Death would have to be buried with him.

And that was just without considering the spread of the virus outside of Death Island.

All in all, it was easy to kill Clegg, it just depended on whether one could bear the cost.

In desperation, Lin Mo eventually withdrew his Tai Ah and suppressed the killing urge within him.

“Tell me, what exactly is it that you have sought me out for!”

Lin Mo said with a gloomy expression.

Returning to the subject, Clegg also stated his intentions directly.

“Mr. Lin, I hope we can work together for once!”

Hearing this, Lin Mo directly refused.

“Impossible!”

If he hadn't been worried that the cost of killing Clegg would be too high, he would have already made the kill.

And cooperate?

Think what the f*ck to eat.

Clegg seemed to anticipate this answer as well.

Despite the rejection, not only was he not the least bit upset, but on the contrary, he laughed out loud.

“Mr. Lin, I admit that you are strong, but can you be stronger than the Seven Deadly Sins?”

“To be honest with you, our Grand Elder is already infinitely close to which level. ”

“Our Five Poison Sect has a dozen Patriarchs, too.”

“There are even more countless outside sect masters.”

“Lin Mo, even if you are strong, there will be a time when you will be exhausted!”

As he was relishing in analysing the mood of the entire Death Island.

Lin Mo impatiently interrupted him.

“Don't talk to me about such uselessness!”

“It's good enough that I don't cut you to death by a thousand cuts, and still let me work with you.”

“Clegg, you're not brain-damaged!”

If Lin Mo hadn't done his best to suppress the killing intent inside him, the death knell would have ended this scum of the earth in one go.

Not family members do not enter a family.

Although Lin Mo will not to this Clegg is how to join the five poisonous sect.

But they were both equally heartless.

This Clegg, in particular, had directly made himself unlike a man and a ghost.

Lin Mo thought to himself, unless he had lost his mind.

Otherwise, he would never be able to join forces with such a person!

On the contrary, Kleck gave up completely without Lin Mo's refusal.

"Mr. Lin, you might as well listen to my terms."

"Speak!" Lin Mo said back impatiently.

He wanted to see what else the beast could turn up.

Clegg first cleared his throat, then slowly gave his conditions.

"Before coming, I have ordered a thoroughly sealed coffin of meteorite iron to be prepared!"

"And have also dug a cavern a hundred metres deep."

"As long as you help me kill Ji Dutuo and destroy the Five Poison Sect I will self-determine the meteorite iron coffin and bury it in the cavern."

"At that time, Mr. Lin, you won't have to worry."

It wasn't for a good way to deal with this body of Clegg's today.

Only Lin Mo's focus at the moment was not on that.

"Kill Ji Dutuo? Destroy the Five Poison Sect?"

Lin Mo had already anticipated the fact that the Five Poison Sect had sent people against him.

Only what he had not expected was that the person who came was Clegg.

What he hadn't expected was that the originally unbeatable Clegg had turned into this inhuman and inhuman appearance.

Lin Mo saw that there was no way to deal with Clegg, who was covered in virus and poison gas, and was about to leave.

But he was stopped in his tracks by Clegg's words.

Kill Ji Dutuo and destroy the Five Poison Sect.

If the two were split up, Lin Mo could understand.

But combining the two together, Lin Mo couldn't help but be curious.

Clegg also seemed to have read Lin Mo's mind, and without waiting for him to ask, he told him the story.

"From the very beginning, it was Ji Dutuo who encouraged me and forced me to start a war between the Laurens family and your Second District."

Lin Mo interrupted him directly.

"Don't be too busy shaking off the pot just yet!"

"Your Clegg family didn't have good intentions in the first place!"

When Lin Mo first came to District 3, he didn't know how many of their Clegg family's spies were lurking around.

The purpose was nothing more than to feel out the bottom of District Three, while intensifying the conflicts between the various forces.

The intention was to pave the way for the Lawrence family to quietly take over District Three.

Kraig was not embarrassed when his mind was revealed.

Even if there had been, his twisted face would not have shown it.

"Well, that's something I don't deny."

"But that Ji Duto's catalytic role in it cannot be denied just the same."

"At first he promised me personally that he would support our Lawrence family to become the overlord of Death Island in the future."

"And then, he was the one who eventually abandoned me!"

When Lin Mo heard this, he had already lazily poked at this bd's mouth full of lies.

Even if Ji Dutuo had made such a promise, it was still directed at the Lawrence family.

You, Clegg, are nothing!

And if Clegg hadn't been a demon himself, opening that Pandora Grind and unleashing that horrible contagion.

How could Ji Dutuo have acquiesced to Cousins' usurpation.

A thousand times over, it was Clegg's own fault.

There was a preference for dumping.

"And what do you have against the Poison-Free Cult!"

Lin Mo interjected curiously and asked.

At the mention of this, Clegg's entire person suddenly couldn't stop trembling slightly.

"This Five Poison Sect's people are not even human!"

"After they rescued me from Cousins' prison, they began to lure me into eating the plague seed!"

“After that, they began to perform inhumane experiments on me.”

“Although I fought through it and broke through to become a Patriarch.”

“But I will remember that inhuman torture for the rest of my life.”

“And I’m in this state now because of their experiments!”

After saying this, tears seeped from his soybean-sized eyes.

But that look was not only unsympathetic.

On the contrary, the tears mixed with white pus were even more f*cking disgusting!

Even Lin Mo found it unbearable to look at, and directly turned his head away.

This bd was also absolute.

Call him unlucky!

First, he had the support of the Seven Deadly Sins’ white clad military Ji Dutuo, and then he had the help of the Five Poison Sect to break through to the Patriarch.

Call him lucky.

He was abandoned by Ji Dutuo and then tortured by the Five Poison Sect.

It was a life that seemed extraordinarily exciting.

And Lin Mo did hear something he had never seen before from this fellow.

“What is this plague seed again?”

He asked, puzzled.

Clegg didn’t explain directly, but just carefully took a wooden box out of his pocket.

When it was opened, directly inside lay simply a ball of flesh the size of a baby’s fist.

Upon closer inspection, one could see that not only was the ball of flesh smouldering with black air all the time, but it was also constantly rubbing.

When Lin Mo looked at this object, he didn’t know why his heart had created a touch of longing for it.

In particular, there was a voice in his head that was constantly guiding him
