Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4361

Lin Mo swallowed the 1,000-year old Human Shou Wu into his belly.

He, who was still depressed, instantly became full of energy again.

After the Mountain River Slash was swung, he couldn't care less and lingered to check.

In a flash of smoke, he once again darted in the direction of the third district.

Behind him.

The Grand Master of the Five Poison Sect naturally saw the Thousand Year Human Head Crow in Lin Mo's hand.

After smelling the familiar scent of the medicine.

His angry emotions instantly turned into a crazed sizzle.

Thousand year old Human Head Crow!

Prolong your life!

Just these four words alone were enough to drive him mad.

Only just as he was filled with excitement, the scene in front of him instantly changed.

He had just returned to his senses when a sword shadow tens of metres long appeared in front of him.

The aura of a mountain pulling down the sea made his heart palpitate as if he could not help it.

"Pretending to be a god and angry ghost!"

After a cold snort, the Grand Preceptor was about to prepare to raise the sceptre in his hand.

Only in the next second, he almost felt a terrifying gravity that was surging towards him from all directions.

The sceptre, which had been as light as a feather, was now as if it was a huge mountain of 10,000 pounds at the same time.

If it were not for his extraordinary strength, he would not have been able to hold it.

"Give me scatter!"

After roaring out in anger, the aura around the Grand Preceptor instantly surged up.

Under a full burst of power.

Only then did he break free from An's bizarre gravity.

It was also this short blink of an eye delay.

That huge sword shadow had already arrived at his heels.

At this moment, the Grand Preceptor was too late to make a move.

He had no choice but to raise the sceptre in his hand and hold it against his body.

Boom!

Under the violent collision.

The ground instantly exploded into a deep crater several meters deep and dozens of feet wide.

When the patriarchs in the rear arrived, their pupils' could not help but shrink.

The Grand Preceptor had actually been injured.

Without waiting for them to come forward, the Grand Preceptor waved his hand.

"No harm, keep chasing!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, he wiped away the blood from the corner of his mouth and then began to frantically burn his aura.

Without waiting for several people to react, his figure was like a long rainbow as he chased towards the front.

That terrifying speed caused several other sect masters of the Five Poisons Sect to stagger in disbelief.

Although they knew that the Grand Preceptor was very strong.

However, they did not expect the speed of the Grand Preceptor to be so appalling.

Of course, if they were to know the news of the Thousand Year Human Head Crow.

I believe that even if these people burned their life force, they would still have to catch up with Lin Mo. Ahead.

Lin Mo had also bought himself a moment of respite after this sudden attack.

Plus, there were still remnants of the Thousand Year Human Head Crow in his body.

At this moment, his speed was also far faster than usual.

Only, it was still a little bit worse than compared to the Great Sect Master of the Five Poisons Sect.

Several hundred kilometres later, Lin Mo was still caught up by the other side.

"Kid, hand over the Thousand Year Human Head Crow, and I can spare you from death!"

The Grand Preceptor shouted with a suppressed voice.

The voice was neither too heavy nor too soft, just at the point where Lin Mo could hear it.

As soon as these words were spoken, a smile appeared on the corner of Lin Mo's mouth as well.

“Old immortal!”

“Just because you want this Holy Pill? Take a piss and look at yourself!”

“You’re not worthy of it?”

Lin Mo mocked as he ran wildly.

“You” The Grand Preceptor’s face darkened and he was so angry that he directly raised his scepter.

Only the thought occurred to him that if he were to strike out and launch an attack.

It was highly likely that he would also destroy that precious supreme treasure along with it.

So he could only curse a curse and then quietly chase after Lin Mo.

After Lin Mo made this discovery, his heart burst with joy.

It was good to have scruples!

After the distance between the two sides had narrowed to a certain point.

Lin Mo then came to a sharp stop once again.

Immediately afterwards, it was with the same sword move that he unleashed the Mountain River Slash towards the Archbishop behind him.

After one blow, a mouthful of thousand-year-old human head crows.

Running away again.

Crunching excitement!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4362

This day.

People in several districts of the island of death saw a frightening sight.

A long rainbow carried a terrifying aura and chased wildly.

Isn’t it the case that deafening collisions would occur.

Every time it passes by.

The martial artists in the area were as frightened as if they were mice seeing a cat.

They hid in droves.

As for the front of the chasing group.

The Grand Preceptor was already close to being angry out of your internal injuries.

Every time when he was about to catch up.

Lin Mo would always use which bizarre sword move to slow him down.

Having had the previous experience, the Grand Preceptor would no longer be injured as a result though.

But this moment of delay.

The distance that he had managed to close the distance was again pulled straight away.

What hurt the Grand Prelate the most was overwhelming.

That damned Lin Mo had actually chewed up most of the precious and incomparable thousand-year-old Human Head Crow.

The Human Head Crow, which was originally the size of a fist, was now only the size of an egg.

He was also worried that Lin Mo would continue to spoil it and deliberately slowed down a bit.

His mind was frantically projecting the method so that he could take Lin Mo down directly with one blow.

Just like that, the sky slowly clouded over.

Unknowingly, the group had already crossed five large regions.

In the blink of an eye, they arrived at the border of the third district.

The Five Poison Sect clan, already red-eyed from the chase, could not care less.

Plus the Grand Preceptor, who had already been confused by the thousand-year-old Human Head Crow.

“Chase!”

With a wave of his big hand.

Without hesitation, a dozen clan masters stepped into the Zone 3 territory

.....

The other side.

Ji Dutuo was currently relaxing and enjoying a massage from the maids.

On the other hand, the white hair on the other side was unhurriedly reporting all kinds of information, big and small.

“Over at the Shui Xing Clan, we have already released the news of Lin Moji’s decapitation of them.”

“I believe it won’t take long for them to make their move.”

Hearing this, Ji Duto did not react much.

After nodding his head, he asked carelessly.

“Is there anything unusual about the Five Poison Sect over in District Nine?”

The white hair sorted itself out before returning fluidly.

“Two days ago, Lin Mo appeared in District Eight.”

“Then all the branches of the Five Poison Sect were exterminated, and then Lin Mo’s trail disappeared.”

“The most recent information is still on the way

Ji Dutuo was about to answer after rising a lazy back.

It was also at this moment that a figure suddenly burst into the room.

Ji Dutuo was surprised to see the dusty appearance of the visitor.

“Brother Lin, aren’t you still in District 9, why are you suddenly

Before he could finish.

Lin Mo was able to step forward with one hand and stuffed the wooden box into his hand.

“Second Sect Master, I wish to use this thousand year old Human Head Crow to ask you to save my life!”

Hearing these words.

Even the steady Ji Dutuo could not help but be taken aback.

For one thing, this wooden box covered with seals actually contained the presence of a thousand-year-old Human Head Crow.

For two, Lin Mo would actually come to his door and ask for help.

“Brother Lin Mo, you only destroyed a few branches of their Five Poison Sect

Ji Dutuo was about to ask a question with a puzzled look on his face.

Only in the next second, his face was incomparably gloomy.

“Bastards of the Five Poisons Sect, are you impatient to live?”

Clegg said in a deep voice.

“How dare you intrude into our Seven Deadly Sins sphere of influence!”

The words fell.

His figure had then appeared outside the castle.

And one by one, White Hair, Nebula, Tyrant Corpse and even Feng Wu Huo came behind him.

The scene was instantly tense.

The two sides themselves were at odds.

In addition to the Crystal Skull matter, they were competitors with each other.

Right now, the Five Poison Sect suddenly barged into their sphere of influence delineated by the Seven Deadly Sins Flower.

This was undoubtedly a provocation!

The Five Poison Sect's side.

If it was in the past, naturally, they would not dare to be so reckless.

Only now, Lin Mo had destroyed more than ten years of their hard work.

This revenge will never end

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4363

Not surprisingly, Lin Mo expected it.

The Grand Master of the Five Poison Sect, facing Ji Duto's ruthless words, could not see any fear at all.

"Ji Dutuo!"

The Grand Patriarch took a step forward and came directly in front of the Seven Deadly Sins and the others.

"Lin Mo killed three sect masters of my Five Poisons Sect."

"Exterminating my Five Poisons Sect branch!"

"Destroying more than ten years of my sect's hard work."

"Such a great revenge will not end until death!"

Speaking here the Grand Preceptor's slowly narrowed his eyes.

There were a few moments of fierceness in his eyes.

"Ji Dutuo, today you give me face and hand over Lin Mo."

"I, Jiang Xiu Yun, will remember you well and owe you a favour!"

As the information from District Nine had not yet been transmitted back.

Generally speaking, an existence like the Five Poison Sect.

Even if we look at the world, it is still a first-class strength existence.

If not for the emergence of the Mother of Companions, the Five Poisons Sect would have been the sky of the Southern Barbarian Miao border.

Although it has now fallen into disrepair, it does not serve its former glory.

But its heritage is still there.

To be owed a favour by them would be a chance that no ordinary person could ask for.

Unfortunately.

Right now Jiang Xiu Yun was facing the Seven Deadly Sins.

The most promising and one of the most mysterious organisations.

Especially at the moment, both sides were fighting for the Crystal Skull.

In addition, Ji Dutuo himself was not used to the bottomless style of the Five Poisons Sect.

The relationship was naturally cold.

Under such a premise, the Grand Master of the Five Poisons Sect led people to barge into the forces delineated by the Seven Deadly Sins.

How could Ji Dutuo give her a good face.

“Sect Master Jiang, aren’t you a little too proud of yourself!”

“Your face has can be worth a few dollars!”

Once these words were spoken, the aura around Jiang Xiu Yun’s body instantly looked icy cold.

“You’re good!”

“If I give you face, then tear it up!”

After saying this, his aura shook and the scepter in his hand slowly left the ground.

Seeing that Jiang Xiu Yun was ready to make a move.

Behind him, several other elders, their faces changing, hurriedly sent word of persuasion.

“Grand Preceptor, it is not appropriate to make a move at this moment!”

“Our main objective is to take down the Crystal Skull.”

“Please think twice, Grand Preceptor, we can kill Lin Mo at any time, there is no rush to fight the Seven Deadly Sins at this moment!”

It wasn’t that they of the Five Poison Sect were wimps.

It was just that if they were to go to war with the Seven Deadly Sins just to kill Lin Mo for revenge, it would be unnecessary.

After all, the Crystal Skull had not yet arrived!

Jiang Xiu Yun twisted his head and skimmed over the crowd, and his brows couldn’t help but frown.

How could he not know such a truth!

It was only when he thought of that rare sacred medicine that was rarely found in a hundred years that the searing heat in his heart could hardly be quelled.

Especially as his birthday was approaching, he was even more eager for the 1,000 year old Human Shou Wu.

How easy it would be for him to give up at this moment!

At the same time.

Lin Mo, who was watching the battle from not far away, saw the atmosphere of this conflict slowly subsiding.

The corner of his mouth suddenly hooked!

“Second Sect Master, you’ve taken the stuff, but this little life of mine is in your hands!”

When Lin Mo shouted this, everyone present naturally heard it loud and clear.

All eyes naturally converged on Lin Mo’s body as well.

At this moment, Ji Duto also remembered the wooden box that Lin Mo had just slipped to him.

“Brother Lin Mo, is what you said true?”

Ji Dutuo had a twisted feeling in his heart though.

But if what was stored in this wooden box was really a thousand-year-old Human Head Crow.

Let alone having a bad relationship with the Five Poisons Sect, even if they were allies at the moment.

He, Ji Dutuo, would still have to protect Lin Mo!

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders, his face full of carelessness.

“Isn’t your divine doctor of the Seven Deadly Sins right on the side?”

“We’ll know if it’s true or not when we verify it!”

Ji Dutuo also thought it made sense and raised his hand and picked up the seal on top of the wooden box.

Just as he was about to lift the wooden box, just a slit slipped out.

Feng Wu Huo, who was standing by, hurriedly stopped him.

“Doctor Sage Lin, what is contained in here is a thousand year old Human Head Crow”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4364

Feng Wuhuo’s voice was not very loud.

But those present were all Patriarchs.

The key message was instantly captured.

In an instant, Lin Mo and the wooden box in Ji Dutuo’s hand instantly became the focus of everyone’s attention.

“That’s right!”

Receiving Lin Mo's affirmative answer, Feng Wu Huo's face couldn't help but change.

"Once this wooden box is opened, the medicinal spirit of the Thousand Year Human Head Crow will evaporate in large quantities and go to waste."

With these words, Feng Wu Huo was undoubtedly verifying the authenticity of the Thousand Year Human Head Crow.

The Five Poison Sect's group's eyes instantly became scorchingly hot.

Jiang Xiu Yun's face changed, originally he was thinking of enjoying this rare and precious medicine all to himself.

Now that this was the case, his plan had naturally fallen flat.

Of course, the most important thing right now was to seize this Thousand Year Human Head Crow.

"Ji Dutuo this object was stolen by Lin Mo from within our sect, I hope you can return it to its rightful owner!"

Hearing this lame excuse, Ji Dutuo snorted with laughter.

"If you want to steal it, just say so!"

"I despise you for using such an excuse!"

With that he slowly lifted the wooden box in his hand.

"The stuff is right here!"

"Come and get it if you have the guts!"

Jiang Xiu Yun narrowed his eyes, greed written in his gaze.

And when he looked at the other elders behind him, the demeanor of these few people was not far from his.

The previous caution disappeared instantly in front of this thousand-year-old Human Head Crow.

Without too many words, Jiang Xiu Yun already had an answer in his heart when he saw this scene.

"Ji Dutuo, this is what you said!"

"Don't say that there are many of us to bully the few!"

As he pushed his way to the back, all the sectarian's of the Five Poisons Sect were already in a fighting stance.

In an instant, the wind around Lawrence's Castle was instantly howling.

The atmosphere on the scene also became sabre rattling.

At this moment, there was no longer any concern for Lin Mo at the side.

He, who was still the main character of this incident, had now been completely reduced to a spectator.

And he was happy to do so!

After all, the tit-for-tat between the Seven Deadly Sins and the Five Poisons Sect was his plan from the very beginning.

And it was true that Lin Mo had not lied.

The wooden box indeed also contained a thousand-year-old human head crows, but the amount was a bit small, only a small edge.

Above the scene.

Jiang Xiu Yun had already started to work out in his mind how to distribute the Thousand Year Human Head Crow.

The conflict before him had not begun, but it already seemed to him to be over.

His side had sixteen Patriarchs.

Together with himself, who had half a foot about to step into the Saint realm cultivation, those opponents were just a piece of cake.

The only thing we need to consider is the Seven Deadly Sins behind them afterwards.

It was also at this moment that the two Nebula sisters suddenly burst out laughing.

“This is going to be more than a crowd isn’t it?”

“Then we’re not polite.”

The words fell.

Lin Mo, who was watching the show, instantly felt a familiar deadly aura.

The only difference was that the deadly aura in front of him seemed extraordinarily dense.

“Seven kills, now!”

Accompanied by a delicate cry from Sister Cloud.

Seven figures instantly sprang out from Lawrence Castle behind them and gathered in unison beside Yun.

“Corpse Control Technique!”

Lin Mo frowned slightly.

He had always suspected these two sisters before, and now he had finally gotten confirmation of it.

And Lin Mo couldn’t help but be surprised by this little girl’s talent.

One person controlled, at the same time, the corpses of seven Patriarchs.

Such a sky was simply unheard of.

On the other side, the Five Poison Sect and the others also had their jaws dropped by the scene before them.

Yet that was only part of it.

Sister Star raised her hand and gently shook it.

Eight more figures stepped out from the darkness.

And judging from their auras, they were still clan masters solving.

“Elder Jiang Xiu Yun, don’t say that we are too many to bully the few!”

The two sisters held hands and the smiles on their faces became grim.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4365

In the face of this unexpected change.

The crowd of the Five Poison Sect could not help but gulp, looking nervous and scared.

“What should we do, Sect Leader?”

Originally, they were still crushing the other side in numbers.

This was back and forth in less than a minute and the situation was instantly turned around.

Jiang Xiu Yun’s face sank and his eyes wore a fierce light.

“What’s the point of being afraid of them! It’s just operating some dead bodies.”

“So what if they are clan masters, their strength is not even half of what it was when they were alive.”

When Lin Mo heard this, he shook his head repeatedly.

It was right to say so!

But if one were to underestimate these patriarchal corpses because of this, then one would be very wrong.

You know, they are not as strong as they were before they were born.

Yet, they are not afraid of death or injury at all.

In a head-to-head confrontation, there is really no telling who will get the upper hand.

“Kill me!” Jiang Xiu Yun bellowed, and a dozen sect masters from the Five Poison Sect instantly rushed towards Ji Dutuo and the others.

Ji Dutuo’s face was also gloomy at this moment.

“Not a single one will be left behind!”

The strengths of the two sides that disagreed with each other finally exchanged blows at this moment.

Lin Mo though was eager to witness the rise and fall of this battle.

But right now he had more important things to do.

With a stomp of his feet, his figure swept off into the distance like a sharp sword.

On the other side.

Between the mountains and the forest.

All the members of the forces of the three districts have been fighting with the Lawrence family for several days.

With a physical advantage.

District Three has taken quite a lead in this engagement.

After engaging for a long time, Ma Bond ended the Lawrence family's half-step Patriarch with a direct slash.

It was also at this time.

A terrifying crashing sound suddenly sounded in the distance.

As a half-step Patriarch, he instantly heard the commotion, which could only be caused by a Patriarch striking.

Even more terrifying was this terrifying streak of using movement.

A group battle of clan masters?

Ma Bundle thought with a worried look on his face.

Just then, Lin Mo arrived steadily beside him.

"Tell everyone to hurry up and evacuate from here and return to the front line in Zone 3!"

Matters he simply did not have time to explain slowly to the horse gang.

When his words landed, Ma Bangde didn't care about the delay and immediately pulled out the signal grab in his arms.

BANG!

The red ball of light of this word leapt into the sky and then burst forth with the pattern of this word.

At the sight of this object.

The whole battlefield.

But all the powerful members of the three districts stopped their hand movements at the first moment and began to run wildly towards the rear.

"Mr. Lin, aren't you going back with us?"

Ma Bangde asked with a face full of worry when he saw Lin Mo's leaping appearance.

One must know that it was the engagement of a dozen or even hundreds of thousands of clan masters!

After Lin Mo nodded, he directly drew out the Tai Ah at his waist.

"You take Hateless back first, I still have things to take care of."

After saying that, he didn't have time to exchange pleasantries with his disciple directly leaping onto the branches of the tree and swept off towards the distance.

By the time he stopped again, he had already arrived at the Lawrence Family's general command.

Only now the place was quite all over the place.

There was not a living soul in sight any more.

Lin Mo didn't have to walk a few steps before he saw that familiar figure, Clegg!

At this moment, Clegg was cupping Cousins in his hands, gathered high in mid-air.

"I can thank you for that, without you, I wouldn't be here today."

As the words fell to the ground, Clegg simply ignored Cousins' Akuran and crushed his head directly.

After Clegg had easily finished with his former nemesis, his gaze slowly turned to Lin Mo.

"Isn't this Mr. Lin?"

"How come you were allowed to escape before and now you have come to seek death?"

Lin Mo didn't even bother to pay attention to his taunts in the face of him.

As soon as Tai Ah crossed his path, he charged directly towards this fellow.

"Don't know how to live!" Clegg snorted coldly as poisonous Qi erupted around his body.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4366

Lin Mo looked at the terrifying fog around Clegg and without a hint of hesitation in his eyes, he charged straight ahead.

As the two sides staggered again.

The upper half of Lin Mo's body had already been corroded to nothing.

And several wounds were also corroded on his back by this terrifying poisonous mist.

On the other side, Clegg looked down and observed that there was no damage to his body, and his laughter suddenly became more unrestrained.

"What a stupid pig!"

"I forgive you for not daring to move a hair on my head."

With those terrifying poisonous gases in his own body as well as the virus as his base card, he knew that Lin Mo wouldn't dare to kill him at all.

The two sides and not the right situation.

Lin Mo had no choice but to wait for death.

It was also when he was masturbating with glee that a tingling sensation suddenly came from his back.

He was just about to reach out to scratch it when a horrifying scene occurred.

His arm, which he had just raised at the moment, snapped off in a bizarre manner.

Before he knew it, the flesh on his face began to detach.

The sudden change caused Clegg to panic.

As he tried to stop the flesh from falling off his cheek with his palm.

His fingers, surprisingly, also slipped from his palm one after another.

"You what have you done to me"

At the end of the sentence his voice began to fade as well.

No matter how much Clegg struggled, at this point he was like a wax figure thrown into a furnace, melting away at a rapid rate.

In less than half a minute.

The original Clegg, who was unbeatable, had turned into a stench of blood.

And in the middle of this puddle of blood, three syringes with the symbol of the Five Poisons Sect became particularly conspicuous.

Lin Mo looked at the scene in front of him, and his expression also looked a little surprised.

He originally only wanted to try out whether that Professor Qin's research potion was effective or not.

What one did not expect was that the potion was not only effective, but also somewhat frighteningly effective.

As Lin Mo was marvelling, his ears jerked, and the Tai Ah in his hand faced directly towards the front.

"What man? Come out!"

"Young man, I didn't expect to see you so soon!"

The man was not yet seen, but the voice was there first.

Lin Mo raised his eyebrows slightly when he saw the person coming.

"You're lucky, you old man, I didn't expect that you had really succeeded in your research!"

This person was none other than Professor Qin Shou Qin from the laboratory underneath.

And at this moment, he had completely changed his appearance.

The man who had been so old before had suddenly become radiant.

His head was full of silver, but now it was also dark and shiny.

After the two sides met, Qin Shou was not angry with Lin Mo for his previous behaviour.

On the contrary, he was more grateful to Lin Mo at this moment.

“Young man, I have to thank you for this!”

“If it wasn’t for your reminder, I wouldn’t be here today!”

Lin Mo waved his hand and asked sharply with a turn of phrase.

“What are the plans going forward?”

“You won’t have to test me!”

Qin Shou smiled faintly.

“What I am obsessed with is nothing more than research, and I have no interest at all in these name-shaking dark battles.”

“Right now I’m here, but I just want to see, as you put it and fail, the three generations of plague seeds!”

He said a little, a little with a disdainful glance at the plasma on the ground, his face full of disdain.

“Young man, you don’t have to worry, after today I’m going to the World Institute.”

“When the time comes, the sins made before will be handed over to them for judgment!”

Having said this, he seemed to be giving an afterthought as he turned his head and walked slowly towards the night.

Lin Mo squeezed the Tai Ah in his hand.

After much hesitation, he still did not lay his hands on it.

He had already made this Professor Qin whole once.

What was the harm in doing so again?

As for his sins of killing, someone will naturally judge him.

Perhaps for this old man, his whole body has come full circle.

Life and death were not even on his mind.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4367

After Lin Mo had lifted the big hidden problem that was Clegg, the big stone in his heart had fallen to the ground.

Right now, all the people from the three districts had already evacuated the area.

He didn't have to worry that the clan masters would spread to the people of the three districts during the fight.

Lin Mo clapped his hands and twisted his head to look at the battlefield behind him.

Although his heart was curious, he was still determined to rush back towards District Three.

By the time he returned to his residence at the front line in District Three, Ma Bangde had several other power lords already waiting once again.

"Greetings, Mr Lin!"

"It's raining heavily outside, let's talk inside!"

With a wave of Lin Mo's beating hand, several people poured into the room.

Only, when they arrived in the hall, several strangers had already appeared here.

Ma Bangde swept his gaze.

Seeing the uncaring and condescending appearance of these people, his face instantly changed.

"You few, who gave you permission to ooooooooooh!"

He was just about to chastise these few people when Lin Mo, who was on the side, hurriedly covered his mouth!

"You want to die!"

Lin Mo reminded in a small voice in Ma Bangde's ear.

"These are my country, China, the men who stand on top of the mountain!"

After saying this, Lin Mo straightened his coat and bowed with his hands clasped in a fist.

"I, Lin Mo, have met the Fifth Master."

"Greetings senior Nangong!"

"Greetings senior Xuanyuan"

.....

With Lin Mo saluting several people one by one, Ma Bangde, who was on the side, couldn't help but shiver in both feet.

The king of the southern realm, the king of the sea east, the president of the martial arts alliance of China

A Chinese country set top patriarch, now surprisingly do not want money to appear in front of the eyes.

The main thing was that one had just thought of berating them.

Thinking of this, cold sweat broke out on Ma Bangde's back.

Except that his fears were completely superfluous.

The few people present didn't even have a care in the world for him, a small minion.

When Lin Mo met the last two people, he suddenly fell to his knees.

"Disciple, pay my respects to the Master!"

Old Man Bai on the seat laughed and hurriedly stood up to his feet.

"Good disciple get up quickly!"

"I haven't seen you for a while, I didn't expect you to have broken through to Zong Shi."

"Not bad, not bad, not bad!"

The three nice ones in a row were also a vivid display of Elder Bai's pleasant mood at the moment.

He had no regrets in this life, having gained such a good disciple.

Lin Mo grinned: "This is also due to the good teaching of the master!"

After patting his back, he immediately summoned Hatedless to the side.

"Come Wu Hate, this is your master, why don't you hurry up and salute!"

Wuyan wasn't ambiguous either, hearing Lin Mo's words, she immediately knelt in front of Elder Bai without saying a word.

"Apprentice grandson Wu Hate, meet Master Gong!"

She then raised her little head afterwards and heavily kowtowed three times.

As soon as Bai Lai saw this lovely apprentice grandson, he was naturally very fond of her, especially when he saw these three kowtows, his face immediately showed his heart.

"Is this dry, my good disciple!"

Old Bai said as he picked up Wu Huan.

Only the moment she touched the Hate Free, her face changed in shock.

Lin Mo's sharp eyes had also noticed this.

"Master this apprentice grandson of yours has some great talent!"

Elder Bai naturally also felt the majestic aura within Hate Free's body.

"Oh, how is it good?"

Asked here, he deliberately raised his chin with a smug look.

Lin Mo did not answer positively, but merely patted Hate Free's little head.

“Haterless, show your Master Gong your hand!”

The words had not yet fallen.

Before Elder Bai even had time to react, the Hate Free in his arms suddenly disappeared.

When he reappeared, he was already in front of the stone lion at the entrance.

The little fist tapped lightly.

The stone lion, which was nearly several thousand catties, was instantly torn into pieces.

At this moment, several of the bigwigs present could no longer remain calm and rose to their feet.

This was the qi of a clan master!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 4368

At the beginning.

The several great patriarchs in the hall also did not notice anything overpowering about Hatedless.

However, but after seeing this young girl, who was in her early years, had already possessed the power of a Patriarch.

How could these few people still do so.

Such a genius had only been seen in their lives!

If we look at the whole of China, we can't even find a genius like Hated.

At this moment, though, Elder Bai was also amazed.

But more than that, there was an overwhelming surprise in his heart.

“This disciple of yours, Lin Mo, is really good!”

“It can be like the White Gate, it can be the disciple of the old man, hahaha!”

From the moment they met until now, the smile on Old Man Bai's face had never fallen.

Especially now.

After seeing Hate Free's talent, he was smiling even more happily.

Only he was happy instead.

A few other people on the side had indignation on their faces.

It was already a matter of high incense to have taken in a talent like Lin Mo as a disciple.

Now there was another apprentice of a supreme genius.

How could old man Bai take up all the good things in this world?

Thinking of this, Master Xue Wu instantly spoke with a face full of displeasure.

“Alright, we have come this time because Lin Mo has something important to say.”

“No, look at you old man Bai dejected!”

Old Man Bai was not angry at hearing this, and the look of complacency on his face instead became even more intense.

“You can be envious, King of the Southern Realm!”

“You can only blame the old man’s wise eyes.”

At the same time other Namgong Jingliu also snickered.

“King of the Southern Realm, you can’t really blame Old Master Bai for this.”

“This Lin Mo is a member of your South Realm.”

“It’s no good giving you a chance!”

“Otherwise it would be you who would be reporting your apprentice grandson now.”

As soon as the words fell, the whole room burst into laughter.

“You

Master Xue Wu slapped the table and stood up straight to his feet.

Lin Mo watched several people scuffle more and more excited, hurriedly war out.

“Seniors, calm down for a moment!”

“My junior has invited all the seniors to come here from thousands of miles, there is indeed an important matter that I need to discuss with you all.”

These words were spoken.

The scene instantly fell silent.

Master Xue Wu also put away his disguise and slowly sat back down.

The people present were all human beings among human beings.

The fact that Lin Mo had come all the way to invite these big heavyweights here must not be a trivial matter.

Moreover, they had already found out before they boarded the island.

This tiny Island of Death had hidden so many Patriarchs.

This, more than anything else, confirmed to them that this Death Island must not be simple.

Lin Mo cleared his throat before speaking in an unhurried manner.

“On this Death Island, there is the presence of Crystal Skulls!”

lol!

The few Patriarchs present were all long-established Patriarchs.

But after hearing the four words Crystal Skeleton, they could no longer remain calm.

The longer they stayed in the Patriarchate, the more they aspired to break through to the Saint realm.

It was only that after so many years, they had exhausted their energy and still could only hover on the edge of the first realm.

A small step, but like a heavenly philosopher.

Right now, the chance to break through to the Saint realm was right in front of them, so how could they not be moved.

After Lin Mo had scanned around, he had also found two people who were out of place.

One of them was his master, Elder Bai, and at the moment, all his thoughts were on Teeming Hateless.

The Saint Realm or not seemed to have no effect on him at all.

The other person was Master Xue Wu.

After meeting again, Lin Mo noticed that the Fifth Master's words and actions could be described as having changed drastically.

When faced with the news of the Crystal Skull, he had never had a hint of heartfelt feelings from the beginning to the end.

On the contrary, it was the other few people who had a look of anticipation on their faces.

"Lin Mo, do you have any specific news about the Crystal Skull!"

Xuan Yuan Ming asked with an anxious face.

It had been decades since a new Saint Realm powerhouse had been born in today's China.

This was one of the reasons why the neighbouring countries were so foolish.

He wants to be suddenly Saint Realm himself, but more than that, he wants the Kingdom of China to become even more powerful.

Zone 3 front line.

Most of the few people present had begun to lose their composure at the news of the Death Skulls.

Nangong Jingliu stroked the Haidongqing on his shoulder, and his eyes slowly narrowed.

"Hall Master Lin, this Crystal Skeleton seems to have affected many people, right?"

Something involving this legendary treasure could never want to be as simple as it appeared to be.

Lin Mo didn't hide it in the slightest.

"Indeed!"

He replied affirmatively.

"Today's Island of Death, the Seven Deadly Sins in plain sight, the Five Poison Sect, the Shui Xing Clan, and so on."

"In the dark, the various sects are united with each other, so it is simply impossible for me to bring the Crystal Skull out by myself alone."

Hearing the last sentence, many people present directly stood up.

"Are you saying that the Crystal Skull is in your possession?"

Lin Mo nodded, "You could say that too!"

"Specifically, right now, I'm the only one on the entire Death Island who knows where the Crystal Skull is!"

"As for trouble, there are too many people around to keep an eye on me."

"When I make a move, I can't escape their eyes!"

Hearing this, Nangong Jingliu suddenly gave a cold snort.

"Just a bunch of flies!"

"It's as easy as pie to clean them up!"

Several of the people present were all top-level combatants among the clan masters.

Even those experts like Jiang Xiu Yun had to meekly concede before this Nangong Jingliu.

Not to mention the fact that there were so many top-notch combatants gathered in one place.

He, Nangong Jingliu, did have the capital to be arrogant.

"But well"

At this point, he suddenly paused in his words and turned to speak.

"Hall Master Lin, this Crystal Skull matter, shall we discuss it in discussion?"

Both sides were from the same Hong Clan, and Hall Master was merely his alias for Lin Mo.

Lin Mo had no idea where his words were coming from.

He was just trying to determine the ownership of the crystal skull.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo's eyes twinkled and he stated directly.

"Seniors, this crystal skeleton is a small token of appreciation from the junior."

“How to distribute this item, just wait for you seniors to take it and discuss it on your own, the late generation will not be involved in this.”

As for Lin Mo’s last words, on the one hand, it was to show his attitude.

On the other hand, how could it be a reminder to the several bigwigs not to fight internally.

Even if they wanted to fight for the ownership of this Crystal Skull, they should wait until after they had taken it.

When these words came out, Nangong Jingliu and the others looked surprised.

“Old Master Bai, you and your disciple are quite open-minded.”

“Such a precious treasure, to not have a hint of greed, to the point that we, which put us to shame.”

Old Man Bai skimmed Nangong Jingluo, and then he spoke with a smug face.

“Che, you guys don’t even look at my disciple’s talent.”

“The Holy Realm might be harder for us to ascend.”

“But to my disciple Lin Mo, it will only take a little more time.”

Elder Bai did not mince his words in praise.

The others, although their faces showed indignation, could not find a reason to refute it.

And what Elder Bai said was exactly what Lin Mo had in mind.

Lin Mo was indeed disinterested in the Crystal Skeleton.

He had absolute confidence in his own talent, and breaking through to the Saint realm was just a matter of time.

His own disciples would have even less need of it.

Rather, he would give it to these few bigwigs present who were well connected.

If they have this chance to get the chance in the legendary treasure.

It would also be a good opportunity for China to enhance its national power.

This is also the purpose for Lin Mo to suddenly invite these bigwigs present to come all the way to Death Island

Lin Mo watched as several bigwigs ended their tête-à-tête and interjected to add.

“Seniors, the late generation here, now there is another matter that needs to trouble you.”

“As for the owner of that crystal skeleton, I would like seniors to help protect protect protect protect.”

“After all, senior has promised her before that he would protect her!”
