Chapter 661

Being hugged by a woman who had a great figure and who was most importantly, naked, made Matthew lay awake with his heart pounding. However, he quickly calmed himself down.

No! I have a wife!

After taking a deep breath, Matthew turned to the side and covered Crystal with the blanket. Then, he got up, rolled Crystal up with the blanket, and left her on the bed.

Crystal screamed in surprise. "What are you doing? Let me go this instant!"

Matthew glanced at her and saw that Crystal's cheeks were blushing. Her gaze was charming and her hair was messy. If any other man saw her like this, they most probably would have lost control. Matthew didn't dare to take another look as he was a man full of vigor after all.

"Miss Harrison, I'm married!" Matthew yelled to emphasize again. Crystal replied, "I already told you, I don't mind. I like you. Whether or not you have a wife doesn't matter. I still like you and want to be together with you. Is that wrong?"

With a frown, Matthew said, "Sorry, but I love my wife very much."

The next morning, Matthew left the room first. When Crystal woke up from her sleep, she saw that Matthew was gone and felt a little dismayed. However, she soon cheered herself back up, put on some clothes and went downstairs.

When Crystal saw Matthew, she wasn't embarrassed at all. Instead, she chatted and joked around, as if nothing had happened the night before.

The black market officially opened today. Matthew and Crystal entered the black market together and went straight for the things that Matthew had his eyes on yesterday.

They were all relatively rare medicinal materials and Matthew bought them all to keep them for future use. The price of these medicinal materials was not low and he spent almost 1 million to buy seven of them. However, for a life-saving medicine, money was not important. As for the furnace, Matthew had asked around and found out that precious items were to be left for the auction at the end of the market.

The two of them didn't notice that when they were shopping around, a few people were secretly watching them from a distance. This group of people was none other than Zanya and her friends who were taught a lesson last night. What happened last night made them mad.

They couldn't do anything to Crystal. After all, she was from the Harrison family, so they didn't dare to hurt her. However, they weren't willing to let Matthew get away so easily.

In their eyes, Matthew was a boy toy who leeches off Crystal and relies on the Harrison Family's power to do whatever he wanted. We can accept being taught a lesson by Crystal but what right does Matthew have to order us around?

Other people didn't know the value of the only existing copy of the 'Three Gathered Suns Acupuncture Techniques'. In fact, there weren't many people who were willing to bid for it, which was why everyone was shocked when Leonard directly offered such a high price.

Norris, Roman, and Richard, who were sitting at the side, glanced at each other. In the end, none of them bade.

For one thing, they didn't know the value of the 'Three Gathered Suns Acupuncture Techniques' book. Secondly, Leonard had no conflict of interest with them so there was no need for them to go against Leonard.

It was better to be a good friend. After all, it may be useful someday. In the end, Leonard won the bidding. As he held the book, Leonard looked extremely excited, as if he had found a treasure. He even specially prepared a box beforehand and he placed the book in it.

Later, the auction continued and soon, it reached the last auction item. It was the pill furnace that Matthew wanted. After the pill furnace was placed on stage, the introduction of the item was somewhat different.

The introduction on the screen showed that this was a magical artifact which possessed extreme power that could ward off all evil. Not only that, by being around this magical artifact all year round, the person would also be nourished by the power inside the artifact so as to achieve life-prolonging effects and better health.

Sitting among the audience, Matthew couldn't help but feel amused.

This was only a pill furnace but before getting close to it, Matthew could already sense the power inside the furnace. The feeling of being nourished that was said in the introduction was in fact the remaining medicinal vapor that was left from previous use. It indeed could help get rid of some illnesses but the real effect was not as powerful as the auctioneer described.

When everybody saw Matthew, they were shocked and they started questioning each other who he was. Meanwhile, Ambrose frowned slightly. He thought Matthew was just Crystal's friend. Even though he didn't look ordinary, Ambrose wasn't bothered. After all, he had never heard of Matthew's name before.

Ambrose didn't expect Matthew to be bold enough to bid with three big shots in this situation. As for Roman, he glanced at Matthew and didn't recognize him. However, he didn't dare to be careless.

Roman raised his hands and said, "Hey sir, I have an important use for this magical artifact. If you're willing to let it go, I'll be extremely grateful!"

It was a show of respect for a big shot like Roman to speak to Matthew in such a friendly tone.

The people around were envious. After all, having Roman owe a favor was a great deal. However, Matthew directly shook his head and said, "This magical artifact will be useless if you take it."

A cold expression instantly appeared on Roman's face. In a solemn tone, he asked, "Does that mean that you want to go against me? I forgot to ask you your name!"

Ambrose's expression instantly changed and he immediately gave Horton a look, signalling him to not act rashly. At the same time, Ambrose walked over and asked, "Mr. Leonard, do you and Matthew know each other?"

Hearing this, Leonard chuckled and replied, "Not only do we know each other, Mr. Larson is..."

He originally wanted to say that Matthew had the best medical skills he had ever seen. However, he recalled that Matthew had said that he didn't want to disclose his medical skills to the outside world, which was why he changed his words in time. "Mr. Larson is a good friend of mine. Besides that, he and Billy Newman from Eastcliff are also close friends!"

As soon as this statement came out, the audience was in an uproar. Roman, Richard, and Norris all turned pale. Although Herman had commented that they were more powerful than Billy, the three of them knew that they were no match for Billy at all!

Matthew is Billy Newman's friend? Then he definitely has the right to bid!

Ambrose was also stunned and he couldn't help but take another look at Matthew. Is Crystal's current boyfriend really so powerful?

At that moment, Zanya, who was behind them, anxiously said, "Mr. Leonard, have you mistaken him for someone else? I know that man. He's just a live-in son-in-law! He lives in Eastcliff and his family is extremely poor. He also has a sister who almost died of illness because they didn't have money to bring her to the doctor. For 100,000, he became a live-in son-in-law and leeches off his wife for a living. How is it possible that he's friends with Billy Newman? Have you mistaken him for someone else? I think the man you're talking about is just someone that looks like him."

With a cold expression, Leonard solemnly said, "Are you saying that there is something wrong with my eyesight? How can I ever not recognize Mr. Larson? I know about the things you said. However, Mr. Larson and Miss Cunningham are truly in love. No

Shocked, Zanya asked, "Another way? What other way?"

Don slowly replied, "By fighting in the ring!"

Hearing this, Zanya was stunned. "Fighting in the ring? But why? This can be solved with bidding. Why do they want to go through the trouble?"

Don glanced at her and asked, "What does a girl like you know? If Ambrose wants his market to be successful, the most important thing is not the profits. Instead, it is to attract more customers. Those who come here are big shots and wealthy men and they won't be willing to give up. If they keep bidding, the price of that item will sky rocket! To put it simply, when two big shots have their eyes on a painting and both are not willing to give up, they will use money to fight each other. As a result, the price of the painting will be doubled for more than ten times. No matter who buys it in the end, after he heads home and thinks about it, he will feel that he has spent too much money on something that isn't worth it. In that case, who is going to come back to this auction?"

After Herman heard this, he nodded and said, "That point is true. By not letting the price increase too much, the people who buy the items will not feel like it was a loss and will come back again in the future. Making money without being greedy is the secret to having a successful business."

"What did you mean when they have to win by competing strength! If a few big shots want the same thing but the price has reached the highest price set by Ambrose, these big shots can only win by competing strength. Each party will send one person into the ring to battle it out. In that case, the person who wins will naturally feel triumphant. As for those who lose, they will feel unconvinced and after they return home, they will find another fighter to gain back their reputation. As a result,

Ambrose glanced at Crystal. If they were in different circumstances, Matthew would be suitable for Crystal and he wouldn't mind helping Matthew. However, Matthew was a married man but he still hooked up with Crystal. This made Ambrose feel deep disgust for him. In these circumstances, why would Ambrose want to help him?

“Crystal, stop making trouble. I’m the owner of this place. How can I personally get into the fight? Go and tell him that if he doesn’t want to fight, he can choose not to enter the ring!”

Crystal started to panic. “If he doesn’t get in the ring, doesn’t that mean he won’t be able to get that magical artifact?”

Hearing this, Ambrose slowly replied, “If he doesn’t have the ability, he has no right to have this magical artifact! This has always been Woodside’s rules!”

Crystal instantly felt helpless. Just then, a short man next to Roman stepped into the ring.

that struck Arlo to the ground. His eyes instantly widened and he stared at Matthew in disbelief. The sentence ‘encountering an enemy is like being surrounded by flames’ and ‘if you fight forcefully, you will expose yourself to danger’ that Matthew just said was written

The way Arlo spoke to Matthew was already considered polite. Just then, Morin, who was sitting in a distance, sneered, “Mr. Flemming, there’s no need to be so polite to a guy like him! That b*stard is a loser who leeches off of women so he is best at deceiving people. I’ve met plenty of people like him. They’re just really good at words. If you really let him into the ring, won’t that be suicidal?”

As soon as Morin made this remark, the audience instantly burst into laughter. No matter what, many people still regarded Matthew with disdain because of his identity as a live-in son-in-law.

Which was why the audience was unconvinced by Matthew’s advice.

You're just a useless loser. What qualifications do you have to advise people?

Crystal was infuriated. Pointing at Morin, she yelled, "What did you just say? Do you think you have a right to speak? Didn't I say that I'll kill you if I see you again? Do you have a death wish? Matthew, just ignore him!"

Hearing this, Herman slowly said, "Miss Harrison, let me give you some advice. Boy toys have no conscience. You're a lady from a reputational family but you're being fooled by a boy toy like him, and you use your family's money on him. If word about this got out, not only will you embarrass yourself, but your family will be ashamed too. Why are you putting them in that position?"

After hearing Matthew's words, Herman and the others, who were sitting some distance away, roared with laughter. At first, they were worried that Ambrose would help Matthew. However, at that moment, it seemed that Ambrose treated Matthew with disdain. Seeing this, they knew they had nothing to be afraid of.

"Hey, pretty boy, there's no need to be so desperate! Isn't life living off of women enjoyable? Mr. Fleming, please be merciful and don't hurt his face. He depends on his face to make a living after all!"

Amongst the laughter, Matthew walked up to Arlo. At that moment, Crystal was extremely worried.

"Matthew, don't fight him. It's just a magical artifact. I'll buy it for you, even if it means I have to search around the country for it! Don't listen to them. They are deliberately trying to provoke you!"

Matthew waved his hand at her before he looked at Arlo calmly and said, "I advise that you don't go all out!"

Hearing this, Arlo's expression turned cold. Matthew's attitude made him feel as if he was being looked down upon.

“There’s no such thing as not going all out with the Form-Intention Fist! If you can still stand after one punch from me, I’ll consider you the winner!”

Then, Arlo roared as he slightly bent his body, curled his right hand to a fist and placed it next to his waist. Immediately afterward, he lifted his right leg and took half a step forward. His right foot landed hard on the ground and the ring shook as if an earthquake had just hit them. As he extended his right foot, Arlo punched his right fist hard and aimed it at Matthew’s chest before he charged at him like lightning.

With a face as white as a sheet, Arlo spurted out more blood. He could barely nod while he said in a trembling voice, “I concede defeat from the bottom of my heart!” It was rare for a martial practitioner to surrender in such a manner even if they were defeated. Arlo must have genuinely conceded defeat.

Matthew didn’t even spare a glance at him and just looked at Roman. “Now, do you still want this magical artifact?”

Utterly shocked, Roman gaped at him. Arlo was an expert he borrowed from the Wayne Family in order to compete for that magical artifact. Unexpectedly, even the expert from that family was conquered by Matthew with a punch. In this situation, how could he still qualify to compete against Matthew? Therefore, Roman bowed his head in dejection and shook his head.

Then, Matthew averted his gaze to the side where Richard and Norris stood. Norris’s face was ghastly pale because he knew that he wasn’t a match for Matthew at all since the martial practitioner that he brought was even weaker than Arlo.

On the other hand, Richard sneered and said haughtily, "Why should I be afraid of a mere Wing Chun Boxing? I'll show you the strongest martial arts skill in the ring today. Since I'm here today, don't you think about getting this magical artifact!"
