With that, James and Helen left the office angrily.

Liam glanced at Sasha triumphantly as he snickered and said, "Sasha, after our plans succeed, you'll finally understand who is the capable one. You'll thank me for this!"

"James & Helen, don't be mad at Sasha. I'm sure that it was Matthew who told her those lies!"

"Matthew really is low-life! Not only is he a worthless loser, but he's despicable enough to not want others to get rich!" Helen said behind gritted teeth. "He must divorce Sasha no matter what!"

"Forget it. Let's just focus on the project for the time being." James waved his hand and said, "I've looked into the land that Mr. Jones suggested and the location is great. If we manage to purchase it and make it into real estate, the profit will definitely be ten times more than the cost. What do you think?"

However, Helen worriedly mumbled, "But we have to pay 300 million upfront. Isn't that a little too much?"

A dozen men got out of the car and surrounded Matthew aggressively.

Matthew immediately frowned and yelled, "Bart, I don't have time to waste on you right now. Leave and I'll spare you!"

Hearing this, Bart was infuriated. "Have you lost your mind? Look around you! Do you really think that I need you to spare me? Shouldn't you be the one begging for mercy? F*ck! Chop off this b*stard's legs!"

With that, the men roared and charged toward Matthew. A cold expression appeared on Matthew's face before he took a step forward and slammed his right elbow into Bart. It was as if Bart was hit by a truck.

He flew backward and crashed into the van behind him. The force was so strong, the windows of the van shattered into pieces. Then, Bart slowly slumped to the ground and it was obvious that he had broken some bones.

Seeing this, the other men were all dumbfounded. Is his punch that strong?

“Kill him!” The leader of the group yelled. “There’s so many of us, there’s no need to be afraid of him!”

The other men immediately came back to their senses and surrounded Matthew again.

He fought back aggressively and soon knocked all the men onto the ground. Each of them broke at least a few bones and nobody had the energy

After they entered Mr. Jones’s house, James and Helen were once again stunned.

The interior design of the house could only be described as luxurious and they couldn’t stop staring in awe.

James couldn’t help but gasp and say, “Mr. Jones, you truly are a successful businessman. The interior design and style is extraordinary!”

With a smile, Mr. Jones replied, “It’s just a place to stay so I only decorated it simply.”

Hearing this, Liam immediately said, “Mr. Jones has a dozen houses like this in Eastcliff so he doesn’t have time to pay attention to the decorations!”

James and Helen were dumbfounded. A few dozen villas? That would cost a few billion! This guy is a boss!

“Well then, let’s get to business!” Mr. Jones smiled and said, “Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, are you sure you want to invest in my real estate project?”

“Of course!” James hurriedly answered. “Mr. Jones, you have great foresight and being able to do business with you is an honor!”

Mr. Jones chuckled. “Here, I’ve already prepared the contract. After you sign the However, Helen interrupted her and said, “It was Matthew who told you, wasn’t it? That b*stard just can’t bear to see us have a good life!

All he does is bad mouth people behind their backs! Who does he think he is? How dare he call Mr. Jones a con man? What qualifications does he have to say that? Does he have any proof? If he has even a little evidence that Mr. Jones is a con man, I’ll believe him.”

Sasha was so angry that her face was flushing red, but there was nothing she could do.

Just then, Matthew entered the office and he was holding a file in his hand. He looked extremely anxious as he asked, “James and Helen, you didn’t invest any money in Mr. Jones’s projects, did you? I just found out that Mr. Jones is really a con man!”

Hearing this, everyone in the room was shocked and James and Helen instantly turned to look at Liam.

Liam was infuriated and he angrily yelled, “Matthew, what do you mean? Why do you say that my friend lied to us? What makes you qualified to call him a con man? Do you have evidence or witnesses? How dare you accuse him without any proof?”

Matthew glared at Liam and threw the file he was holding onto the table while saying coldly, “You want proof? Here, take a good look at it!”

After James and Helen left, Liam glanced at Matthew mockingly and said, "Matthew, you guaranteed that the evidence is real with your life, right? I will remember it clearly and you better not forget about it either!"

After Liam finished speaking, he strode away triumphantly.

Matthew frowned hard. James and Helen are too prejudiced against me. It's really hard for me to convince them.

Sasha sighed and muttered, "It's obvious that Mr. Jones is a con man but my parents won't listen to me. What should we do now?"

Matthew thought about it for a moment. "The most important thing right now is to not let your parents touch the company's funds. That way, even if they fall into Mr. Jones's trap, they won't lose a lot!"

"Okay. I'll pay extra attention to the company's bank account later."

Not long after Sasha left, she ran back into the office and sobbed as she said, "Matthew, something bad happened. The company... 300 million is gone from the company's bank account!"

Matthew was just about to leave but when he heard this, he jumped in fright.

The members of the Cunningham family seemed to be in a bad mood. After the company was acquired, the whole family was kicked out of Cunningham Pharmaceuticals.

Now that they were only small shareholders of the company, they no longer had the power to do anything they wanted. All of a sudden, Charlie ran into the room excitedly.

"Grandpa, good news!" Charlie yelled in excitement.

"What kind of good news can there be at a time like this?" Jason looked sullen. "Don't disturb your grandfather from having his rest!"

However, Charlie continued yelling. "Dad, I really have good news! Something bad happened to Cunningham Pharmaceuticals!"

Sasha gritted her teeth and was about to admit it. However, just then, Matthew walked forward and said, "This matter has nothing to do with Sasha!"

Everybody turned to look at him while Eric scoffed, "Oh, if it isn't the Cunningham family's useless son-in-law. Are you in charge of protecting Sasha now?"

James got angry out of embarrassment. "Who let this b*stard into the office?! Guards! Where are the security guards? Get him out of here!"

Helen yelled, "Matthew, what are you trying to do? Are you trying to ruin Sasha's father? Once Sasha admits it, her father wouldn't need to go to jail. What evil intentions do you have?"

Matthew was furious. "You're only concerned whether your husband would be imprisoned, but have you ever considered the consequences that Sasha would have to bear? Mr. Jones is a con man and the company was defrauded of 300 million. If Sasha admitted to transferring the money, how many years would she need to stay in jail?"

Helen flared up. "I'll say this one more time—Mr. Jones is not a con man! Once we solve the problem with the shareholders, the company will definitely receive ten times of profit and we'll be rich!"

"Con men like him would usually rent high-end houses to give people an impression that he is highly capable. It is one of the ways they con people!"

Liam anxiously yelled, "But he had 1.5 billion in his bank account! We saw it with our own eyes!"

Captain Cole replied, "With the current advanced technologies, they can create fake bank accounts and input any amount they want."

Liam was dumbfounded. In a trembling voice, he asked, "Is it possible to get our money back?"

Captain Cole shook his head. "The possibility is really low!"

Getting back the 300 million from Mr. Jones was definitely impossible, which was why Matthew had to think of other ways to raise the money.

At that moment, there were three people that Matthew knew who could easily come up with 300 million: Billy Newman, Timothy Wayne, and Stanley Carlson!

Even though Patrick Graham was a capable man, it didn't mean that he was wealthy. However, he was undeniably more powerful than the others! In the end, Matthew chose to seek help from Timothy.

With that, he went to Timothy's company, but before he went upstairs to Timothy's office, he frowned. Even though the company building was under the blazing sun, there was an indescribable eeriness.

The knowledge that Matthew inherited from Christopher Larson not only included medical skills, but also Feng Shui.

During his last meeting with Timothy, he already had a feeling that something was wrong.

His son had been in a terrible car accident but Matthew had an intuition that it was not that simple.

However, Matthew didn't have a close relationship with Timothy and Mrs. Wayne had a bad attitude, so he didn't want to interfere with their business.

This time, in order to raise 300 million, Matthew had no choice but to visit Timothy.

Rory was dumbfounded. They always relied on being a large group when they bullied others and had never lost before.

However, they just lost an eight-to-one fight. How is this possible?

“How dare you beat people up here...” Rory’s voice was trembling as he spoke. “Do you know that you’re at Wayne Group...”

Matthew couldn’t be bothered about him and directly pulled out his phone to dial Timothy’s number. However, nobody answered the phone.

Matthew thought that it was strange. He had made a few calls on the way to Wayne Group and nobody answered. Why is Timothy not answering my calls?

Just then, Mrs. Wayne walked over with a group of people.

she asked, “Mr. Larson, what are you doing here? How dare you come to my office to make with Timothy. Tell him to come and see
