Chapter 911 Don't You Trust Us?

Sasha took a deep breath before she spoke in a somber tone. "I'm asking you guys a question, Mom, Dad! Did you just use the construction company's money or not?"

Both James and Helen's hearts skipped a beat as they both responded angrily. "Bullsh*t! What nonsense! How could we possibly use the construction company's money? What would we do with it? We're your parents! Don't you trust us?" they said.

Sasha was left speechless. "It's not that I don't trust you, it's just that... The construction company's expenditure is way too high. I have to figure out where all the money went. Things can't go on like this. If the company continues to spend like this, we won't be able to profit from the project at all!"

However, James and Helen couldn't care less about that. What mattered more was that they weren't exposed for their wrongdoings. Both of them protested once more, and Sasha had no choice but to give up since she couldn't get to the bottom of things.

Once they returned to their rooms, James and Helen immediately called Liam to go over to theirs. "What's going on, Liam? Why did the construction company spend so much?" James asked worriedly.

James pursed his lips disdainfully. "Sasha will never be as filial as Demi!"

However, Helen shot him a look of disagreement. "Sasha used to be really filial too. She only changed after she went off with Matthew—Matthew's the one who changed her. Matthew's really no good!" James immediately nodded before he added a few of his criticisms about Matthew.

After a while, James changed the topic to something he had been curious about. "By the way, Liam, I saw that you transferred 10 million to Helen. What was that for?"

Helen felt her heart thumping against her chest. James ended up asking about that 10 million in the end. Liam stared at Helen fearfully for he didn't dare to answer James's question. After hesitating for a moment, Helen abruptly recalled something she had noticed earlier. "What did you do with the 20 million that Liam transferred to you?"

James was tongue-tied for a moment. He quickly responded with a dismissive wave. "I... I made some tiny investments..."

Helen quickly replied with the same answer. "I invested some money as well..." Both of them stared at each other without speaking, and they ended up dropping the topic. They both had things to hide, after all.

Helen's eyeballs looked like they were about to pop out of her sockets. "10 million? Didn't you guys lose the 10 million to some scammer?"

Chloe let out a loud cry the moment she heard what Helen said. "It was you! It was you, after all! You were the one who gave him the money! Return my son to me unscathed, Helen!"

"Calm down, Chloe!" Helen cried. "Explain yourself, Minerva! Didn't you say that your boyfriend scammed you and took the 10 million away? W-Were you lying to me? Did you not give him the money at all?"

Minerva lowered her head once more. "I didn't lie to you, Aunt Helen. H-He took 7 million from me! I had 3 million left, and I figured that 3 million wouldn't be of much help to your pharmacy, so... I didn't return the money to you."

Chapter 914 A Horrendous Accident

Minerva glared at Helen indignantly. "I don't think it's right of you to say that, Aunt Helen. When did we ever scam you of your money? You were the one who gave it to us willingly. You gave us the money, so it makes sense to consider the bike as something you bought. Since it's your bike, why aren't you taking responsibility now that Tate has gotten involved in an accident?"

Helen was speechless. "What you're saying is complete nonsense!" Minerva was about to continue talking when the doors to the operating theatre opened. Someone was rolled out on a gurney, and the person on it was covered with a white cloth. There was no doubt that the person was dead. Chloe immediately threw herself toward the body as she began to shout and wail. "My son..."

The nurse shot her a glare. "This isn't your son. Your son is in the other operating theatre!"

Chloe froze for a second. "Who is this, then?"

"This is the girl who was with your son while he was drag-racing with others. We couldn't save her in the end." the nurse uttered. In an instant, Chloe let go of the corpse before staring at it with terror-filled eyes. "W-What about my son?" Chloe whispered in a shaky voice.

The group of people immediately rushed over to surround Helen, who looked at them dazedly. "Wh-What are you guys trying to do? I wasn't the one who bought the bike!"

"You were the one who paid for it. How could you say that you weren't the one who bought it? Hmph! You rich people are so shameless. You guys probably have billions worth of savings, yet you're trying to shun responsibilities now that you've encountered an issue! Why can't you put yourself into someone else's shoes? They just lost their daughter. Don't you have any empathy?"

The group of people widened their eyes the moment they heard Minerva's speech. They didn't care who the bike belonged to or who the bike rider was—all that mattered then was Helen's billions worth of savings!

There was only one reason the group of people was creating such a huge scene—they wanted compensation from the other family. During such situations, it would only make sense for them to target the richest person in the room. The deceased's family members surrounded Helen once more while they shouted and called for her to compensate for their losses.

one heard a word she said. The group of people kept her surrounded and insisted that she paid them. Helen was on the verge of losing her mind, and she finally decided to give Liam a call because she didn't know who else to call. She had to ask him to come over and help her deal with

Well, I dare you to kill me right now! I trust in the law of the land! Come here and kill me if you think you can get away with it..." The rest of Trina's family members were starting to shout and scream as well. A few

Chapter 916 The Patient Needs an Amputation

Liam was utterly dumbfounded. He had only intended to scare the people a little, and he hadn't expected himself to accidentally shove an 80-year-old lady onto the ground. Things just got a lot more complicated! He hastily spoke up before someone called the cops. "Hey! C-Calm down! I didn't do it on purpose. It was an accident..."

"Stop bullsh*tting us!" Trina's brother shouted. "An accident? Look at the state my grandmother's in! How dare you say it was an accident? It looks more like you were beating my grandmother on purpose!"

His words made Liam nervous. "Y-You need evidence to back your words up! How could you say that I hit her on purpose? Furthermore, it was those women who were hitting me earlier... I was just defending myself!"

"There are surveillance cameras everywhere, so we have tons of evidence. Did you say that the women were hitting you? Hmph! How much damage could an 80-year-old lady do to you? You, on the other hand, are a young and strong man. How dare you call this self-defense when you hurt my grandmother so badly?!" Trina's brother howled.

Liam was left speechless. It would've been easier for him to speak up for himself if he had hit a young person, but he couldn't say much since he had struck an old lady. At that moment, the doors to the operating theatre opened before a doctor's shout came from inside. "Can I know where Tate's family members are?"

Jonah wore a bewildered look on his face. "H-How am I supposed to contact Dr. York then?"

The doctor threw his hands up in the air. "How should I know? Didn't I just tell you that Dr. York doesn't provide consultation and treatment anymore? If you would like to get help, I suggest contacting Mr. Harrison. It'll be easier to reach him—anyone from Carlson Pharmacy can get to him!"

Of course I'm aware of the fact that anyone from Carlson Pharmacy can contact Mr. Harrison, Jonah thought as his face turned pale. The issue here is that we can't ask Mr. Harrison for help! Previously, things had turned out really ugly between our families, so how can I possibly ask Mr. Harrison for help now?

"Alright. I have to go check on the patient now. You guys need to consider your options and make a decision as soon as possible. The patient's condition isn't getting any better!" The doctor left for the operating theatre after that. Meanwhile, Jonah and his family stood around in complete silence. All of their faces were as white as a sheet.

"Wh-why don't I contact my friends to ask if they have Dr. York's number?" Minerva muttered. Jonah nodded instantly. "You're right. Let's contact the people we know to see if we can find anyone who's related to Dr. York. I'll contact Lucia as well. She has been in Cathay for a long time, so I'm sure she'll find a way."

Chloe exchanged glances with Minerva. Minerva's words had given her the support and courage she needed. After taking a deep breath, Chloe strode toward Helen. "Helen... I-I need your help."

Before Helen could say anything, Demi interrupted Chloe. "What tricks are you trying to pull this time, Aunt Chloe? Your son used stolen money to buy a bike, and you guys put all of the blame on my mom when he got into an accident. What are you trying to do now? Are you expecting my mom to exchange her life with your son's?"

Chloe's face was flushed as she spoke softly. "Helen, can I have a private conversation with you? Don't you remember how close we used to be when we were children?"

Helen couldn't help but sigh when she recalled her earlier days. "Just spit it out, Chloe!" What do you want to say?" Chloe hastily told her sister about the situation. She was crying by the end of the story. "This is your nephew we're talking about, Helen!" she wailed. "You don't want to see him in a wheelchair for the rest of your life, right? Please contact Matthew and get him to bring Mr. Harrison over to help us out, okay? I'll get on my knees..." Chloe actually began to kneel and cry on the floor as she spoke.

After ending the call, Matthew dialed Sasha's number to discuss this matter with her first. Sasha was close to cursing at Matthew after she heard what he said. "How dare they ask you to contact Mr. Harrison after what they did? They didn't just embarrass themselves the last time, they even made us look bad! How do they expect us to contact Mr. Harrison right now? Matthew, how could you get yourself involved in such a thing?"

"I know what you mean," Matthew uttered with a sigh. "However, I can already foresee what might happen if we don't do anything now. Judging by your Aunt Chloe's personality, she'll definitely hold a grudge against us forever. Furthermore, your mother's relationship with Aunt Chloe would only worsen in the future—they would be arguing with each other all the time. We're talking about your cousin's life now, anyway. We shouldn't watch him get an amputation if we're capable of doing something to stop it!"

Sasha didn't know what to say after hearing Matthew's words. She was silent for a while before she let out a sigh. "I know you're doing all of this for me, Matthew, but it's unfair for us to expect so much from you."

He chuckled. "How is it unfair toward me? I'll do what I'm capable of doing. Anyway, I just wanted to tell you about this because I wanted to ask you to go to the hospital with me. Your mother sounded rather hesitant as she was speaking earlier. My guess is that the situation isn't as simple as it sounds."

She was quiet for a while. "Did she get into trouble again? Ah, forget it. I'll follow you to the hospital later."

Everyone wore the same, astounded looks on their faces as they watched the old man walk into the operating theatre. Minerva muttered to herself puzzledly, “What is that guy doing? That’s my brother in there. Why did he go in?”

The dean of the hospital immediately beamed once he heard Minerva’s words. “Ah! So, Dr. York is here for your brother, huh? Why didn’t you tell me about this earlier, young woman? I didn’t know that you guys had connections with Dr. York. I would’ve dropped by to handle your case if I knew. Dr. York is my mentor!”

Everyone gasped in surprise. That old man is actually Dr. York? Dr. York is known as Divine Doctor York—he’s so much more famous than Mr. Harrison!

Jonah, Chloe, and Minerva’s expressions changed as they let out cries of shock. “T-That was Dr. York? Is Dr. York here to treat my son?” Chloe was crying tears of relief. “Tate... Someone’s finally going to save you...”

Minerva had tears running down her cheeks as well. “Why would Dr. York show up all of a sudden?”
