Chapter 2001: Closure (2)

“That’s not it,” said Little Fire in a low voice. “I can’t control the fire elements well. I’m afraid that the invasion of the dark elements will interfere with my rationality. If I hurt Master...’

“So, you hid far away? Are you not going to see me?” Yun Feng raised her brows. The Fire Cloud Wolf’s ears moved. “If there’s really a day when I lose my mind, I’d rather die alone in an empty corner.”

Yun Feng was slightly startled. She finally understood what this Fire Cloud Wolf was thinking in its mind. She had to admit that she ignored Little Fire’s feelings. It had been in pain alone. If she hadn’t met it here today, it was very likely that the two of them would have been separated.

“Is that the reason why you’re with Qingqing? You’re only allowed to be with her for a while because you’ve decided to die alone?”

Little Fire smiled wryly. “Master, you’re right about everything. That girl. That’s indeed what I think. If I had such a period of time, I wouldn’t have any regrets even if I died just like that.”

“Brother Fire, you’re too stupid.” Lan Yi’s voice sounded. Then, the remaining few beasts all spoke.

“Little boy, it’s not that I want to scold you, but you’re too self-centered. How can Little Yun Feng leave you alone?”

“Brother Little Fire, don’t be disappointed. You must pull yourself together!

Xiao Feng will help you! We’ll help you too!”

“F*ck, I didn’t expect you to be so wishy-washy. What do you mean by finding a corner where there’s no one? Wouldn’t you feel suffocated? If that’s the case, I’ll definitely laugh you to death!”

Yun Feng remained silent, but there was a smile in her mind. Little Fire deserved a beating on its head. What was it thinking? She really couldn't accept it. The Fire Cloud Wolf listened quietly at first. In the end, it couldn't stand it anymore and finally shouted in a low voice, "Are you done? Don't think you can keep scolding me just because I don't say anything!"

Yun Feng smiled. Right, this was Little Fire. That short-tempered and extremely cute little boy in the past was his original appearance.

"Hey, the little boy is enraged!" Sister Hua smiled extremely happily. The Fire Cloud Wolf looked embarrassed. If these few people came out, a ball of fire would probably spout over just like that.

"F*ck, you're still angry? I thought you would keep pretending." Er Lei was very disdainful. Little Fire looked even more embarrassed. Lan Yi and Yaoyao were more generous. "Brother Fire, you've finally returned to normal."

"Brother Little Fire has finally recovered. If you don't, Xiao Feng will be worried!"

Little Fire was extremely embarrassed. "That's enough! I know I was wrong this time. Stop talking!"

"Alright, stop talking. Little Fire knows that you're all doing this out of kindness." Yun Feng quickly said and finally stopped the few Magic Beasts from talking. Little Fire raised its black eyes and glanced at Yun Feng. "Master,

"I know that you'd rather destroy yourself than hurt me at all. However, get rid of this thought from your mind from now on. Even if our contract disappears, I can still contract with you again! Of course, don't play tricks on me like you did the first time, or I won't hold back."

Little Fire's heart trembled fiercely. It suddenly widened its wolf mouth and chuckled. "Yes, even if the contract disappears, we can still establish a new one.

Master! Come on my back!"

Hearing that Little Fire became cheerful again, Yun Feng also laughed loudly and jumped onto the back of the Fire Cloud Wolf. The Fire Cloud Wolf spread its wings and tapped its four feet. Its dark red body had already jumped into the sky with red marks.

"Between me and Qingqing, I'll give Master a clear explanation. I won't hurt her," said Little Fire in a low voice. Yun Feng nodded and patted her neck with her hand. "It's not that I don't know your feelings for her. If it's really possible between a Magic Beast and a human being, I won't object to you, as long as you can be happy."

Little Fire smiled wryly. It stopped in the sky and looked at a certain place with its black eyes. "If there's such a possibility between Magic Beasts and humans, how can there be such a clear boundary difference? There's a huge difference between Magic Beasts and humans. Not to mention that the two parties have hated each other since ancient times, even without these, the foreigners wouldn't De ame to stay ana would De completely expenea In tne ena.'

"You mean...?" Yun Feng frowned. She kind of understood what Little Fire was thinking in its mind. It was thinking for Qingqing. How could a human stand among the Magic Beasts?

Little Fire took a deep breath and was about to say something, when a voice suddenly sounded. "It's time to tell me what you think of me."

Yun Feng was stunned. A figure suddenly appeared in front of her. It was Xia Qing with a complicated look!

"Qingqing!" Yun Feng jumped off Little Fire's back. Xia Qing managed a smile.

"I was happy to see you, but it turns out I can't smile no matter what."

Yun Feng was silent. Little Fire didn't hide anything at all, as if it wanted to explain everything at this moment. "It's good that you're here. There are indeed some things I should tell you."

Xia Qing smiled wryly. "I knew it. You were so gentle and good to me. It's just an illusion after all. It's not real at all."

"I've been avoiding you and myself in the past, but I have to tell you now that I like you, Xia Qing. Such a girl broke into my heart a long time ago. At that time, I didn't know what human feelings were, but I knew very well later that this girl taught me what liking and caring were. These things can't be experienced in the cold bloodline of Magic Beasts."

"Brother Little Fire..." Xia Qing's eyes were wet. She really wanted to hear his affirmation. She really wanted to hear this confession of love! However, why was her heart so painful right now?

"I like you, Xia Qing. I won't avoid my feelings for you anymore, but at the same time, from this second, I'll let you leave my world forever. I won't like you anymore, not at all."

Xia Qing suddenly turned pale and clenched her fists tightly. Yun Feng pursed her lips on the side and knew that it wasn't time for her to talk.

“Why? Is it really so insurmountable between Magic Beasts and humans? I don’t believe it!” Xia Qing roared, as if she was using all her strength to roar.. She was unwilling, angry and the waves of pain in the depths of her heart!

Chapter 2002: Beaten Up (1)

“You don’t believe it? That’s the difference between Magic Beasts and humans! The Fire Cloud Wolf has never been alone. How can a human survive in the Fire

Cloud Wolf’s group? Xia Qing, tell me!”

All of Xia Qing’s voice disappeared. She just watched in a daze with her black eyes. What Little Fire said kept echoing in her mind... She bit her lips hard. “Even so, I won’t give up easily! You didn’t let me try. How would you know that this won’t work?”

“Qingqing!” Yun Feng finally couldn’t help but say, but Little Fire burst into laughter and stepped in the air with a glint of darkness in its wolf eyes.

“Humans are so arrogant. Xia Qing, you’re no exception.”

Hearing what Little Fire said, Xia Qing’s pupils shrank fiercely. She knew that he would definitely say such a heartless thing. This wasn’t the first time she heard such a thing! Little Fire put on a cruel smile. This was a smile unique to Magic Beasts. “Xia Qing, I’ll never live in the human world. This doesn’t match the nature of Magic Beasts. Magic Beasts are selfish by nature. Even if you’re willing, my race won’t accommodate you.”

Xia Qing remained silent. Little Fire continued, “Xia Qing, as a human being, how can you give birth for Magic Beasts? It’s a humiliation in the eyes of Magic Beasts to have children between Magic Beasts and humans. You can tolerate this, but what about your descendants?”

Xia Qing couldn’t help but clench her fists even tighter. The Fire Cloud Wolf raised its head. “Besides, with my strength, it’s not difficult for me to become the leader of the race. By then, if you follow me, you’ll be my only stain!”

“Little Fire!” Yun Feng had to scold him. The wolf’s eyes glittered and he didn’t say anything else. Xia Qing suddenly smiled and raised her little face, her black eyes deep. “Don’t insult my feelings. You don’t have to continue saying such demeaning words. I understand what you mean. From today onwards, I won’t pester you anymore, let alone waste any of my feelings on you!” After saying that, Xia Qing looked at Yun Feng. “Master, let me leave first.” After saying that, Xia Qing turned around and left quickly.

Yun Feng wanted to say something, but she didn’t know what to say. She could only watch Xia Qing leave. The Fire Cloud Wolf stood aside quietly and didn’t say a word.

“Why do you have to be so ruthless? How can Qingqing not understand the difference between you? If she wants to be with you, why do you have to reject her so cruelly?”

“If I had told her this earlier, I wouldn’t have had to do this today. I’m responsible for everything.” Little Fire whispered. It raised its wolf head and closed its eyes. “For her, this is the best ending. There shouldn’t be any feelings between Magic Beasts and humans. Even if there are, there won’t be any result.”

“Little Fire...” Yun Feng said. The Fire Cloud Wolf shook its head. “It’s good that she understands what I said just then. It’s impossible for a human to survive among the Magic Beasts. Even if she can, she’ll have to suffer unimaginable humiliation.”

Yun Feng fell silent. If that was the case, she couldn’t bear to see Qingqing suffer like that. If it were Little Fire... it certainly wouldn’t. If that girl was given a glimmer of hope, she would definitely do her best and carry such humiliation forward. The result might not be good.

“Got it. This is indeed the best result,” said Yun Feng. Little Fire chuckled. “I’ve never said the word ‘like’ to her until now... I’ve finally said it now, but... it means that it’s over forever.”

Relations were sometimes so contradictory. They clearly loved each other, but they couldn’t be together. They could be together, but they might not be able to stay together for the rest of their lives. How lucky and how happy was it to be able to stay with the person one loved for the rest of one’s life?

The next day, what shocked Yun Feng was that Xia Qing was the one who came to the Yun family early in the morning. Xia Qing came over happily when she saw Yun Feng with a bright smile on her face. “Master, I’m here.”

Yun Feng smiled lightly. She was still a bit worried in her mind, but she also knew that she shouldn’t touch this wound. It wouldn’t be bad to let it heal slowly. “Yes.” Yun Feng walked over and touched the top of Xia Qing’s head. Xia Qing was a head shorter than Yun Feng. Her face was still young and she still looked like an inexperienced child.

“Why are you here? Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“I couldn’t think of anyone else when the Zen Master-level potion appeared. It must be Master’s doing! Right?” Xia Qing was extremely happy with pride in her eyes and heart. Yun Feng smiled helplessly. If the world thought she did it, so be it. Her master didn’t want to be disturbed, so she certainly had to take care of everything.

“Master has reached the level of a Zen Master in the field of pharmaceuticals. That’s great! Nobody else in the pharmaceutical world right now can beat you!”

Yun Feng smiled helplessly. “Kid, if only you were willing to work harder on potions.”

Xia Qing smiled helplessly. "I'm not as talented as you, teacher, let alone reach such a level at your age."

Yun Feng smiled. "Tell me how you've been cultivating these days."

Xia Qing chuckled. The master and disciple chatted for a while in the short sunlight. At this moment, a few figures outside the Yun family's old house came. They stood in front of the Yun family's door for a long time and finally knocked. "Is anyone here?"

Hearing the knock on the door, Yun Feng and Xia Qing were both puzzled. Xia Qing frowned. "Did someone come to ask you to give them the potion in private?"

Yun Feng frowned. No matter who it was, let's see why they came. She twisted her wrist and the Thousand Shadows Mask completely changed Yun Feng's appearance. She got up and walked out. She wanted to see who this uninvited person was.

The old butler immediately went to answer the door and opened it. Three serious young men stood outside. Before the old butler could say anything, the three young men had already said, "Is Yun Feng here?" There wasn't much politeness in their words, as if Yun Feng was just so-so in their eyes.

The old butler was stunned for a moment. Then, he chuckled softly. "Young Lady hasn't been back to the old mansion for a long time. If you want to find her, you should go to the headquarters of the Yun family."

The three young people frowned and glanced at the old butler very rudely. "The potion auction is in Chunfeng Town. How can she not be here? We'll know if she's here or not when we go in." The three young people were about to enter by force. Seeing that, the old butler quickly blocked them with his body.

"What's the meaning of this? How can you break into the Yun family?"

"So what if it's the Yun family? Get out of my way!" One of the young people immediately reached out and pushed the old butler. The old butler's body immediately flew to the side with such strength that an ordinary person wouldn't have a chance to live at all!

A gust of wind blew over and wrapped around the old butler's body, landing gently on the ground. The black eyes of the three young people immediately darkened when they saw this. Two young women walked out in their sight. One of them was ordinary-looking and the other was a bit beautiful.

"If you're here to find someone, shouldn't you be more polite?" The ordinary-looking woman said. The faces of the three young people darkened.. "You're Yun Feng?"

Chapter 2003: Beaten Up (2)

The ordinary-looking woman burst into laughter. "I can't compare to Yun Feng's appearance. Why are you looking for Yun Feng? I can relay the message for you."

The three young people looked at each other. One of them said coldly, "I'm only looking for her for one thing. Give us that bottle of Zen Master Potion! I'll definitely give Yun Feng a satisfactory price."

The ordinary-looking woman chuckled. "This request is too much. Everyone knows that the potions are to be auctioned publicly. The news has already spread. If we make a deal in private, the East and West Alliance will probably be in a difficult position. Yun Feng is the same."

"We don't care about that! If she's willing, make a condition! If she doesn't agree, don't blame us for being rude." The three young people looked fierce. Xia Qing said, "If you say no, are you going to steal it by force?"

"As long as we can get the potion, it doesn't matter what we do! Yun Feng can't make a Zen Master-level potion. If she's willing to tell us who made the potion, we can consider letting her go."

Yun Feng sneered in her mind. What an arrogant attitude. What three arrogant kids! If they really thought they could come out and show off with their strength, they were too inexperienced!

"You three are quite bold. It seems that you won't lose to Yun Feng and the others. "

"You don't need to know that. You just need to deliver the message. Give her three days. If she refuses, we'll certainly take action." After saying that, the young man turned around and was about to leave. Yun Feng was cold, thinking that they were stupid enough. They were unreasonable in her family and even attacked her house. They wanted to leave after saying such arrogant words.

"Bang!" A stream of mental strength smashed fiercely and landed at the feet of the three young people. The three young people immediately turned around with a gloomy look. Yun Feng smiled. "Yun Feng asked me to guard here. This is her home. If you're so arrogant and I let you go so easily, it won't make sense for me to stay here."

"If you piss us off, think carefully about the consequences! Even Yun Feng might not be our match, let alone you!"

Yun Feng laughed loudly. "Really?" She clasped her hands fiercely and the fusion of elements was instantly completed. The energy of many elements slowly spread out. Xia Qing's jaw dropped in shock. Her teacher's strength had improved a lot again!

The three young people also raised their hands and fighting energy surged out, as if they wanted to attack from three directions. However, before they did anything, Yun Feng had already thrown the elemental fusion over and detonated it instantly!

The three of them widened their eyes in shock! “What move is that?” In the explosion, the three of them retreated in panic. No matter how fast they were, they were still affected. Before the three of them could catch their breath, a figure had already attacked!

“Bang, bang, bang!” A few heavy punches hit these three young people in a row, immediately making them cry out in pain! In the end, the three of them fell on the ground without the power to fight back at all, looking extremely messy!

Yun Feng walked over step by step and the three young people all stepped back desperately. Yun Feng walked in front of the three of them and looked down at them from above. She slowly narrowed her black eyes and said coldly, “You’re quite strong. If you hadn’t underestimated the enemy, I would have had to work hard.”

“W-Who are you?” The three young people looked at Yun Feng with a bit of panic in their eyes. Yun Feng narrowed her black eyes again. “Who am I? I can tell from your tone and language that you don’t know anything about Yun Feng, which is why you’re so rude. On this continent, all the powerhouses know that element fusion is Yun Feng’s forte.”

“Fusion of elements? You, you, you’re Yun Feng!”

Yun Feng slowly lowered her body and looked at the three young men whose faces were full of shock. She whispered coldly, “Who... are you?”

“We... We...” The three young men on the ground looked at each other and couldn’t help but take a few steps back on the ground. “You don’t have to care who we are! As long as you’re willing to give us this bottle of potion, you’ll certainly get benefits! If you’re unwilling to hand over the potion, just tell me who the pharmacist that makes the potion is!”

“Benefits? I want to hear what benefits you’ll give me.” Yun Feng said calmly as she stood straight. Seeing that Yun Feng was a bit further away from them, the three young men finally got up from the ground in a sorry state. They patted the gravel and dust on their clothes and said, “What do you want? Ultimate ores? Or ultimate Magic Beasts?”

“How arrogant.” Xia Qing walked over. Yun Feng waved her hand and asked Xia Qing not to say anything. She raised her brows and asked, “Do you think you can convince me with these things? I have these things. You don’t have to give them to me.”

The three young men looked a bit embarrassed. One of them said, “We’re from the Alliance of Killers.”

The Alliance of Killers? Yun Feng frowned. Xia Qing was also puzzled. "I've never heard of such an organization. The Alliance of Killers?"

"You've certainly never heard of it. The Alliance of Killers has never appeared in the eyes of the world and has always been in a secretive and low-profile state. If the Alliance Master weren't attracted by the Zen Master-level potion, the Alliance of Killers wouldn't have done anything."

"If your Alliance Master wants it, why doesn't he say it himself? It's too disrespectful to send the three of you here," said Yun Feng as she waved her hand. "Go back. If you want something, you must show some sincerity. Your Alliance Master obviously doesn't have this understanding."

"How dare you talk about the Alliance Master!" A young man couldn't help but feel angry and his face immediately darkened. The other two young men quickly stopped him. The young man in the lead said coldly, "Do you know the identity of our Alliance Master?"

Identity? Yun Feng raised her brows as coldness flashed through her eyes. "What identity? Is he some old antique who doesn't come out?"

The three young men were immediately enraged in their minds. They also understood that things had come to this point today. Yun Feng in front of them obviously wouldn't surrender. They would return empty-handed this time. "Yun Feng, if you anger the Alliance Master with such an attitude, the consequences won't be good."

Yun Feng laughed loudly! She turned around. "I don't care who he is. What does his anger have to do with me?"

The three young men gritted their teeth and turned around to leave with resentment on their faces. At this moment, the old butler, who was hiding on the side, walked out. Looking at the dilapidated ground and the old house, he frowned. "Young Lady... What should we do now?"

Yun Feng smiled lightly. "I was thinking that the old house should be renovated. This is an opportunity. Butler, please arrange everything." After saying that, Yun Feng turned around and walked into the house. Xia Qing followed behind a bit worriedly.. "Master, did those three people make up an organization to get that bottle of potion? I've never heard of the Alliance of Killers...

Chapter 2004: A Strange Auction (1)

“What the three of them said should be true. Those who want to make things up to get potions are all villains. Those three boys are quite strong. I can tell that they’ve received tough training. Besides, their words and behavior are very systematic. This world is larger than you think. There are too many powerhouses who don’t come out into the world. Naturally, there are also extremely low-profile organizations. No matter how many of them we see, they’re just a small part.”

Xia Qing frowned and pondered. There was a deep meaning in what her teacher said. “You mean... everything we know right now isn’t everything?”

Yun Feng smiled lightly and touched the top of Xia Qings head. “What we know is just the inside of a circle. What we don’t know is the vast world outside of the circle. Compared to the part we don’t know, what we know is very little.”

Xia Qing was very surprised. Yun Feng patted Xia Qing’s shoulder. “So, there’s no limit to learning. There’s too much to learn.”

“Although I don’t quite understand, I more or less know what you mean, teacher. There’s no limit to learning. Even you have too many things to learn.”

Yun Feng nodded in satisfaction as she thought about it. The Alliance of Killers had appeared. She would wait and see what else would appear during this auction.

The East and West Alliance was very efficient. Chunfeng Town, which originally didn’t have an Auction House, had built one in a short period of time. Even though it hadn’t officially joined the system of the Auction Houses yet, the most important auction would be held here.

The Auction House was formed. The East and West Alliance soon sent well-trained staff here. The most popular place was this newly established Auction House. Even though nobody was allowed to enter, this place was surrounded every day. Everyone was waiting for the latest news about the potion.

At least a few hundred people came to ask about the potion auction every day, but the East and West Alliance were very tight-lipped. As long as Yan Ming didn’t allow it, no news would leak out easily. This invisibly added a lot of mystery to the potion auction, making these people even more itchy.

The renovation of the Yun family’s old house was also very eye-catching. The Mei family had sent someone here a few times, but the old butler brushed them off with a few words. In the eyes of the public, it was normal for the Yun family’s old house to be renovated. There was nothing strange about it.

Ever since the East and West Alliance announced that the potion auction was held in Chunfeng Town, more than ten days had passed. The East and West Alliance seemed to have been suppressing the news to create momentum, which made these audiences itch, let alone those who really wanted to bid for it. The three young people hadn't been here again since they left that day and the members of the Alliance of Killers didn't show up. Yun Feng didn't care much. She believed that they would definitely appear again on the day the auction was held.

Seeing that more and more people were flooding into Chunfeng Town, if they continued to suppress the news, this town would probably explode. When Yun Feng was about to look for Yan Ming, Yan Ming came uninvited. Yun Feng chuckled when she saw him. "I was thinking of looking for you. I didn't expect you to come."

Yan Ming chuckled and sat down without hesitation. "I was thinking that it's time for you to find me. I'm here to discuss the potion auction with you."

"Haven't you prepared everything?" Yun Feng chuckled. Yan Ming shook his head with a helpless smile. "Even so, you're still the master of this potion. There are some things I need to tell you." Yan Ming raised his brows. "Has someone already looked for you?"

"You know. It seems that you've been approached too."

Yan Ming nodded. "Although they're not the real deal, a few groups of people have already come."

"A few groups of people?" Yun Feng raised her brows. Yan Ming looked up.

"More people expressed their interest in this pharmacist and came to ask me about the situation of the pharmacists. I certainly could only keep my mouth shut and make them unhappy."

Yun Feng frowned. She knew that Yan Ming must be in a lot of trouble. "It's been hard on you."

"That doesn't matter. I can completely tell them that I don't know. Even though they're angry in their minds, they can't attack me, but I'm afraid this potion auction will be a bit troublesome."

"It's fine. I don't care who the potion goes to. I only care who can recognize this map."

Soon, there was finally concrete news after more than ten days of high emotions at the potion auction. The General Manager of the East and West Alliance, Yan Ming, finally released the latest news. The auction would be held in three days. By then, buyers would be welcome.

Once the news spread, Chunfeng Town was stirred again. The enthusiasm that had been accumulating for an unknown period of time finally burst out one day. The people gathered at the Auction House even swarmed forward. They were in full swing. Everyone wanted to get the admission ticket to this auction ahead of others. Even if they didn't have the wealth to participate, it would be an unforgettable experience to see it with their own eyes.

"Xiao Fengfeng, I'm exhausted." Qu Lanyi walked into the door of the Yun family with a gloomy face. He walked over unsteadily and leaned against Yun Feng with his slender body. He extended his arm and stopped Yun Feng. He buried his head in Yun Feng's black hair and heaved a tired sigh. "Yan Ming is definitely taking revenge for his own interests!"

Yun Feng chuckled. As the news was released, the Auction House would definitely be extremely busy. Even Qingqing went over to help. She originally wanted to go, but Yan Ming rejected her righteously. She could only sit here and be an idle person, watching them busy.

Yun Feng smiled and let Qu Lanyi lean against her. She knew that he wasn't really tired. She said, "Thank you for your hard work, Lanyi. Thank you for your help with the Auction House during this period of time."

The man held Yun Feng even tighter with his arm. "What do you mean? I'm just complaining to Yan Ming. I'm willing to work for my wife."

Yun Feng curled her lips and suddenly remembered that when he was in the Masang School of Magic, he was also leaning against her while he was still in women's clothes. It was just that he made her a bit uncomfortable at that time. Thinking of this, Yun Feng couldn't help but laugh.

"Tell me what you're thinking." Qu Lanyi held Yun Feng and swayed her gently.

Yun Feng whispered, "You've been leaning against me like this since the Masang School of Magic."

Qu Lanyi held her even tighter with a smile. He raised her chin and covered it gently with his lips. After a gentle kiss, the man's eyes were full of teasing light. "I couldn't do this to you back then, even though I really wanted to do it.."

Chapter 2005: A Strange Auction (2)

Yun Feng was helpless. If he had been so bold back then, she would probably have slapped him and sworn that she wouldn't let him get close to her again.

"I heard from Yan Ming that there will be a lot of people at this auction. They all have powerful backgrounds." Qu Lanyi said deeply. Yun Feng looked up. "Are you very interested in this?"

Qu Lanyi lowered his eyes. "Of course. Even though the four families are the oldest among humans, as time passes, the older things are more likely to decline. However, individual power can still exist in the current of time. Compared to the four families, these hidden old guys are the most curious."

Yun Feng had the same thought in her mind. The hidden experts knew what the pros and cons were. It was precisely because of this that they chose to hide and not continue fighting for power in this world. In fact, Yun Feng had the same mentality. After everything was decided, she would also retreat from the world and stay away from all conflicts.

Three days later, the auction officially began and all the highlights would begin today!

When the first ray of light appeared in the sky and shone on Chunfeng Town, the door of the Auction House slowly opened at this moment. A young man in a suit walked out and smiled at the people who had been waiting outside for an unknown period of time. "Sorry for making you wait. From now on, buyers who have got the auction qualification, please turn right and examine the qualification. After that, someone will bring the buyers into the auction." The young man bowed respectfully and then moved aside. People who got the qualification rushed inside with excitement and joy on their faces. Those who didn't get the qualification could only stand outside helplessly and watch the fun.

"What about those who aren't qualified? We want to see too!"

"That's right! A Zen Master-level potion! It's also something ordinary people like us can enjoy! Hasn't the East and West Alliance always treated us equally? Why is it different at this moment?"

The young man chuckled. "You don't have to be anxious if you don't have the qualification certificate. You can enter the spectator area specially prepared for you by the East and West Alliance. You can watch the entire auction without any regrets, but the seats are limited."

"Then what are we waiting for? Let's go!" The crowd that didn't get the qualification certificate all surged over. The young man stood at the door with a smile and continued with his work. Luckily, General Manager Yan was thoughtful, or these people who were purely here to watch the drama would cause a huge trouble.

The auction venue was a heated mess. If it weren't for Yan Ming's thorough consideration, there would really be a lot of trouble. Everything was in order. Yun Feng had already come to the inside of the auction venue. There was a very huge auction hall inside the auction venue built in Chunfeng Town that was prepared for this auction. It was a round ball. The auction platform was in the middle and surrounded by seats. There was definitely no blind spot. The buyer's vision wouldn't be affected no matter where they were. They could see the auction items clearly.

Of course, the seats in the ring were also divided into several levels. There was a layer of hidden auction rooms on the top of these seats, just like those Yun Feng had been to before. One of the walls was transparent and she could see the situation below clearly. If she wanted to participate in the auction, she only needed to press a button to spread the sound. Other people couldn't see who was participating in the auction, so it could be considered a way to protect the buyer's privacy.

However, someone who could enter such a room must have a high status and strength. The qualification to enter this place was given by Yan Ming himself. Nothing would happen.

At this moment, Yun Feng, Qu Lanyi and Xia Qing were sitting in such a room. They could see the situation in the hall below through the transparent wall. It had only been a short time, but the main hall below was already more than half full! The auction had just started for more than ten minutes!

Yan Ming wasn't here. There were a lot of things that he still had to do. Yun Feng looked at the situation in the hall below and remained silent. Xia Qing couldn't help but say, "As expected of a Zen Master-level potion. It attracted so many people. I'm afraid no auction can compare to today's scale!"

Qu Lanyi chuckled. "Most of them are here to watch the drama. I'm afraid we can't even see the faces of those who can really take action."

Yun Feng sat there and looked at the hall below quietly with her black eyes.

Many people still came in one after another and slowly filled the entire hall. Many people were whispering and discussing. They all had a strong curiosity about the Zen Master Level potions.

"Master, how do you choose who can get the potions?" Xia Qing looked at Yun

Feng. Yun Feng curled her lips and didn't say anything. Qu Lanyi touched Xia Qing's head. "You don't have to worry about that. Your teacher has already thought of everything. It's absolutely impossible for anyone to take advantage of the situation."

"That's good." Xia Qing smiled foolishly. "This bottle of potion must've cost you a lot of money and effort. You can't let anyone take advantage of you easily."

After a while, the hall was already full. All the buyers who got the qualification certificate had already arrived. They weren't late at all. The door was pushed open and Yan Ming walked in. "Everything is ready."

Yun Feng nodded and followed Yan Ming out. Qu Lanyi and Xia Qing stayed here. The two of them walked all the way to the hall below. "Have you thought of a countermeasure?" Yan Ming said in a low voice. Yun Feng chuckled. "Of course. "

"That's good. It's up to you how you choose. You must pay attention to all the buyers and consider carefully." Yan Ming couldn't help but remind her. Yun Feng was a bit helpless. He was truly afraid that she would be deceived. Her master made such a precious potion for her, so she certainly had to be careful. If she was really deceived by accident, she wouldn't let it go.

'Who's the auctioneer this time? You've never mentioned it to me." Yun Feng asked. Yan Ming curled his lips and raised his thick eyebrows. "I thought you had already guessed it."

Yun Feng couldn't help but look up at Yan Ming. "Yan Ming, are you going to do it in person?"

"Why not? You're the seller of such a high-level potion. There's no reason for me not to participate, right?" There was a smile at the corners of Yan Ming's mouth. "Why? Are you afraid that I'll make you lose money?"

"Of course not." Yun Feng shook her head. "I just didn't know you had experience in auctions. I really didn't expect that."

"I know a lot of things. I've learned a lot from the Hall Master. There's almost nothing I haven't done.."

Chapter 2006: A Strange Auction (3)

The two of them came to the side of the hall. There was also a room like the one just then. Yan Ming opened the door. "I'll tell you the conditions you gave later. Choose carefully. If you have a decision, press the button."

"Got it." Yun Feng nodded. Yan Ming pushed the door open and walked out, slowly stepping into the middle of the hall. The originally noisy hall instantly quieted down after Yan Ming appeared. There was a professional smile on Yan Ming's face, as if he wasn't unfamiliar with auctions.

"Guys, I think you've been waiting for this auction for a long time." Yan Ming glanced around and said indifferently, "Most people might already have the idea of the Zen Master Level, but let me explain again. The so-called Zen Master Level potion is a potion that surpasses the Grandmaster Level. Whether it's the preciousness of the potion or its effect, it's not something the Grandmaster Level potion can compare to. The preciousness of the Zen Master Level potion can be seen from the number of times it appears. As far as I know, this is the first time the Zen Master Level potion has appeared on this continent, and perhaps the only time.”

What he said made the atmosphere at the scene much higher. Yan Ming continued, “Nobody knows the effect of the Zen Master Level potion yet, but it’s obvious how powerful it is. It’s certainly a dream for powerhouses.”

Yan Ming paused for a moment and continued, “I claimed to the outside world that the potion was given to me by an expert. In fact, this expert asked me to auction it. Unfortunately, this pharmacist isn’t the Zen Master-level pharmacist everyone thinks they are. They didn’t make this bottle of potion. They just got it by chance.”

People in the hall started discussing again. It was hard to tell if what he said was true or not, but did a pharmacist at the Zen Master Level really exist?

“What expert... It’s obviously Yun Feng!” In a room, Dan Qing couldn’t help but curse with a smile. Dansu nodded solemnly on the side and completely agreed with Dan Qing. “However, it’s good to keep a low profile. Otherwise, such a conspicuous identity will cause trouble for that girl sooner or later. Sometimes, it’s not a good thing to be famous.” Dan Qing couldn’t help but sigh. Dansu nodded silently on the side again. “You’re right.”

“The preciousness of the Zen Master-level potion can’t be measured with money at all. The request of the expert who entrusted me is as follows. There’s a specific requirement for the auction this time. As long as the buyer can satisfy this expert’s request, they can get this bottle of potion. Of course, since it’s an auction, we must prepare some chips. Buyers, if you think you have the ability to participate in the auction this time, tell me your chips. This expert is also at the auction. If they’re satisfied, you’re qualified to meet this seller.

Whether you can win this bottle of potion depends on the seller.”

“What request does this expert have? Why don’t you tell us first so that we can be more confident?” Someone shouted. Yan Ming chuckled. “Buyers, the seller’s request can only be known by the buyers who enter the second round. This is the seller’s own wish. If you want to know, tell us what you think is the highest bargaining chip to win the seller’s favor. We’ll certainly have a chance to know.”

The venue suddenly fell into silence. Such an auction rule was truly strange.

This expert really didn’t find it troublesome! However, it was a Zen Master-level potion after all. It would be too simple to get it at a simple auction. The corresponding value of such a potion must be very high. Without a certain identity and strength, people wouldn’t dare to bid for it easily.

Everyone was thinking about what could satisfy this seller. Someone shouted,

“I offer a hundred thousand gold!”

Yan Ming chuckled. “Buyer, didn’t I say it clearly just then? The auction this time can’t be measured with gold coins.”

“Then... Then I’ll offer a thousand ultimate ores!” As soon as this person shouted, the hall immediately burst into laughter.

“He must be a rich man. I can tell at a glance that he doesn’t know how precious this potion is. Only these people, who don’t know anything, dare to make such a bid with a thousand ultimate ores.”

“If you can get a Zen Master-level potion like this, this potion won’t be worth anything.”

Discussions rose again. Everyone’s laughter made the person who made the bid very embarrassed. “I’m a local tycoon! If you have the ability, your price should be higher than mine!”

Perhaps because of this, the emotions of everyone in the hall were immediately ignited. The voices of bidders rose and fell, one higher than the other. In the end, they had already completely left the range of ores. Such a potion couldn’t even be measured by ultimate ores!

“Buyers, you must be careful. If the seller is satisfied with your bid, you must take them out. The East and West Alliance won’t let you go easily if you bid randomly,” said Yan Ming casually. The hall suddenly became a bit colder. The bids they shouted this time only satisfied the seller, but not completely. To put it bluntly, the seller had to confirm if they were qualified to get this potion. There was no lack of empty words. If they spouted nonsense, it would definitely be chaotic.

The hall suddenly fell silent. Someone stood up. “Nobody else is bidding? Hm! I’ll do it! A Golden Cauldron Tree! Anyone with some common sense should know what this Golden Cauldron Tree is for!”

The hall immediately became lively again. The appearance of the Golden Cauldron Tree could be said to be the first climax. “The Golden Cauldron Tree is a magic treasure that can increase one’s strength quickly. How many powerhouses dream of it?”

“That’s right. I heard that it’s also very useful in potions. It can double the effect of potions!”

“This thing should be very rare. It should be qualified to enter the eyes of this seller.”

The person who shouted the Golden Cauldron Tree sat down proudly with a determined look. Yun Feng, who was sitting in the room, was indifferent. Speaking of the Golden Cauldron Tree, she had more than one in her hand!

Besides, at her level, the help of the Golden Cauldron Fluid was useless. The Golden Cauldron Tree couldn't interest her at all.

While everyone in the hall was surprised by the appearance of the Golden Cauldron Tree, a cold voice came. "It's just a Golden Cauldron Tree. Do you really think it's something rare? That seller probably won't take it seriously. They're just smiling in disdain."

This person was so arrogant! He didn't even care about the Golden Cauldron

Tree! The person who shouted the Golden Cauldron Tree immediately blushed.

"Who are you? If you have the ability, bid a higher price than me!"

"Humph!" He grunted coldly and then said again, "Golden Dragon's Blood."

What? Golden Dragon's blood! Everyone in the hall was even more surprised! The person who shouted the Golden Cauldron Tree just then was completely stunned! Golden Dragon's blood! That was even more impossible to get than the Golden Cauldron Tree! That was the Golden Dragon's blood!

Even though Yan Ming was surprised in his mind, he still didn't show it on his face. He just looked at Yun Feng. Everyone knew about the friendship between Ao Jin and her. And now, someone took out the Golden Dragon's Blood. She must be enraged in her mind.

Yun Feng was indeed angry. How exactly did this person get the Golden Dragon's blood? Was he someone who attacked Uncle Flirtatious? Yun Feng pressed the button. No matter what happened, she had to meet the person who shouted the Golden Dragon's blood!

Seeing the signal given by Yun Feng, Yan Ming smiled lightly. "The Golden Dragon's Blood is indeed a good chip. The seller is very satisfied. Congratulations to this buyer for being able to enter the second round. There's no limit to the number of spots to enter the second round. Other buyers can continue."

The hall fell silent again. The Golden Cauldron Tree was originally very rare, but the Golden Dragon's Blood was dozens of times rarer than the Golden Cauldron Tree! For a moment, nobody said anything again, but soon, another voice sounded. "If the Golden Dragon's Blood can be nominated, I'm sure the bargaining chip I propose won't be too bad."

There was an uproar in the hall.. Everyone understood that the highlight of the auction was about to begin!

Chapter 2007: Hidden Expert (1)

“The Golden Dragon’s blood is already precious enough, but you’re offering a bargaining chip that’s even higher?”

“I really can’t compare! This auction has truly broadened my horizons. It’s truly a high-level auction!”

People in the hall discussed one after another. These people couldn’t say anything about the auction between masters anymore and could only be pure spectators. Such a huge bargaining chip wasn’t something ordinary people could bid for. Even people with a certain status couldn’t have it!

“Why don’t you tell me your bargaining chip for the seller to hear?” The voice of the person who bid the Golden Dragon’s blood came with extreme disdain. In his opinion, there was probably nothing more precious than the Golden Dragon’s blood. After all, it was definitely not ordinary for the Golden Dragons to produce this blood. Even the supreme powerhouses might not be able to get it.

“The Golden Dragon’s Blood is indeed precious, but it’s not impossible to get it. After all, there are still Golden Dragons in this world. If there’s something that doesn’t exist in this world anymore, you won’t be able to get it even if you want it, right?”

“Something that doesn’t exist in the world?” There were exclamations in the hall. They were all guessing what this thing that didn’t exist was!

“Humph! You make it sound so easy. Something that doesn’t exist? If it’s something that doesn’t exist anymore, how can you get it?”

A burst of laughter was deep and powerful. “It’s too ostentatious to say it right now. If the seller is interested, give an answer!”

There was another round of noise in the hall. This person was very smart. He said such tempting words, but he still had a card up his sleeve in the end. Yun Feng sat there with a smile at the corners of her mouth. This person was very confident when he spoke. He didn’t seem to be lying. Was there something that didn’t exist in this world? If the man could have it, he would definitely know something else. She might as well keep him in the second ground. Yun Feng reached out and pressed the button. Yan Ming couldn’t help but frown slightly when he saw that.

“This buyer is indeed good at guessing what the seller is thinking. The seller has already agreed, but with all due respect, don’t say such words a second time. All parties in the auction have to put their chips on the table. If there’s a similar situation again, you don’t have to say anything.”

“Secret Gold Rootless Grass.” Another voice came from the sky. It was very young. These words suddenly made the hall fall into silence. Then, discussions suddenly sounded. “Kid, you’re here to join in the fun? Which family’s child is this?”

“Which family is this kid from? Don’t come here to cause trouble!” Someone in the hall shouted loudly. Yan Ming was also puzzled. This was obviously the voice of a kid. Which kid was really here to cause trouble?

“Secret Gold Rootless Grass? What’s this? I’ve never heard of it.” The discussion in the hall continued. “That’s right. This kid casually made up something and thinks it can scare people?”

“Why would the East and West Alliance let a kid in to cause trouble? What’s going on?”

There was a clamor in the hall. Yun Feng was also a bit stunned. This voice sounded like the voice of a ten-year-old kid, but the thing this voice was talking about wasn’t made up. It was something ordinary people or most people wouldn’t see at all! The Secret Gold Rootless Grass was a necessary herb for a Zen Master-level potion! It could be said that it was impossible for a Zen Master-level potion to be made without this Secret Gold Rootless Grass!

Yun Feng wasn’t surprised that the person who spoke was a kid, but she was surprised that such a kid knew about the Secret Gold Rootless Grass!

Yan Ming frowned slightly. This voice came from the hidden private room. How could there be a kid who could enter the private room? Did someone come to cause trouble on purpose? He was about to say something when Yan Ming saw the signal Yun Feng gave him. Passed? Yan Ming raised his brows in surprise. Even though he was extremely puzzled in his mind, Yun Feng was the seller. If she said he passed, he would.

“The buyer who made a bid with the Secret Gold Rootless Grass, congratulations. The seller agrees to let you enter the second round.” Yan Ming knocked the hammer in his hand gently. It could be said that he made the final decision. The discussion at the scene immediately burst out!

“Someone is obviously here to cause trouble! This is obviously a kid!”

“That’s right. What’s the Secret Gold Rootless Grass? I’ve never heard of it. The seller must have good taste.”

“Everyone, be quiet.” Yan Ming glanced around coldly. “If you suffer any losses, the East and West Alliance will be the ones to compensate you. You don’t have to worry about it. The auction needs silence. Who else wants to make a bid?”

What Yan Ming said made the audience more or less calm down, but some people were still indignant and felt that they had been fooled. The auction continued, but almost nobody was more outstanding than these three people. Yun Feng didn’t press the button again.

“There are truly crouching tigers and hidden dragons.” Qu Lanyi, who was on the second floor, looked down and chuckled. Xia Qing was puzzled. “It’s understandable that the first two passed, but the third one... That’s clearly a child...”

“The voice doesn’t mean anything. Even if it’s appearance, what does it mean?” said Qu Lanyi. “Even if it’s really a child, it can only prove that this child isn’t simple.” He had always believed in his wife’s level. Letting the third person pass must mean something.

“You’re right, but... I keep feeling that the third one isn’t reliable.” Xia Qing frowned. Qu Lanyi chuckled. “There certainly won’t be any mistake with the person your teacher chose. Even though I’ve never heard of this thing, Xiao Feng should know.”

“Master certainly knows a lot, but... a kid is bidding. He’s truly bold. I feel like he’s fooling around with this auction.”

Qu Lanyi sighed and shook his head. “Kid, aren’t you thinking too much?”

Xia Qing raised the corners of her mouth. “Master has always been at the center of the storm. No matter how low-profile she is, there are still people who talk about her. I just don’t want to hear others talk about her. What does it have to do with them? Why do they have to gossip? They’re very noisy!”

Qu Lanyi smiled helplessly. This was unavoidable. Once a person reached a certain height, they would attract a lot of attention even if they didn’t want to. Naturally, people would pay attention to their every move. Even if they didn’t do anything, others would treat them as a topic of conversation. For example, no matter how low-profile Yun Feng was right now, some people would think that Yun Feng was bad. Yun Feng herself knew that. She would at most smile. She didn’t have to feel upset because of this. No matter what others said, it was their own business. As long as she lived up to her conscience, she wouldn’t feel guilty..

Only by being calm could she be peaceful for a long time.

This huge auction only lasted for half a day. The real highlight was the second round and the follow-up process. The others couldn't see it with their own eyes. There were only three people who entered the second round, which was a number Yun Feng was satisfied with. However, nobody could predict who would win this potion.

In the entire auction, the Zen Master Level potion didn't appear. This couldn't help but make those people who came to see the beauty of the potion a bit disappointed and anxious.

"You're all here to see the glory of the potion. The East and West Alliance won't let you down." Yan Ming smiled lightly and clapped his hands gently. Someone came up with a rather exquisite box with gloves. Yan Ming took the box and slowly opened it, as if a glint of splendor oozed out of it. It was instantly beautiful!

"Is that the Zen Master Level potion..." Someone couldn't help but mutter. He craned his neck and looked forward, hoping to see more clearly.

The lid of the exquisite box was completely opened. Yan Ming took out the exquisite bottle carefully. There was a faint glimmer in the liquid, as if it could penetrate Yan Ming's finger. It kept jumping. The color of the liquid couldn't be described with any words. Just looking at it, he could clearly feel an energy fluctuation surging out of the potion, not to mention a clearer intuition. The energy emitted by the potion rippled and spread slowly like a tide.

The eyes of everyone were burning and there was a faint glint of greed surging in them. Yan Ming pointed his finger quickly. "Pa!" The crisp sound of the box closing instantly broke this curse and the energy waves were also cut off in an instant. Everything they felt just then seemed to be a dream and a bit unrealistic.

Everyone looked a bit dazed. This was the charm of the Zen Master Level potion. Just looking at it could confuse people. If they took it, it was impossible to imagine how effective it would be!

"The auction this time will end here. Thank you for your enthusiastic support, buyers. Please wait patiently for the second round. I'll send someone to tell you the details later. There will be other auctions in the next few days. If you're interested, I welcome you to come again."

As expected of the smart and cunning General Manager. Yan Ming certainly couldn't let go of the profits this time. So many people had gathered. The potion auction was the highlight, but it wasn't just one. It would be good if he could get more money.

Yan Ming turned around and left with the potion in his hand. The people in the hall were still unsatisfied. After the auction this time, only the nominees would know what happened next. However, everyone had the same thought. It was definitely worth it to see the Zen Master Level potion with their own eyes.

Everyone in the hall left one after another. In the next few days, Chunfeng Town would still be lively. The potion auction this time wasn't something ordinary people could afford, but the next few auctions wouldn't be like this.

Yan Ming walked in through the secret door with the potion. As soon as he came in, Yun Feng said with a smile, "As expected of the butler. You won't let go of any business opportunity."

Yan Ming chuckled and handed the potion to Yun Feng. "Alliance Master, maintaining such a huge alliance will cost a lot of money. I can't just sit back and do nothing, can I?"

Yun Feng raised her brows. "If you need it, just tell me. I have a lot of ultimate ores that I don't need. Why don't..."

"No need." Yan Ming shook his head with a smile. "There are profits in many aspects from investments. If I really encounter difficulties, do you think you can escape? I'll certainly ask you."

Yun Feng nodded. She was the one who stuffed the East and West Alliance to Yan Ming back then. If the East and West Alliance didn't ask her for help when they were in trouble, she really wouldn't be able to explain this.

"Don't you have any questions about the last of the three people who passed?" Yan Ming raised his brows. "The Secret Gold Rootless Grass... What exactly is that? Do you know?"

Yun Feng chuckled. "I wouldn't let him pass unless I'm confident. The Secret Gold Rootless Grass does exist. In terms of preciousness.. perhaps even the Golden Dragon's Blood can't compare to it."

"Really?" Yan Ming was surprised. Yun Feng nodded. When she was with her master, he taught her a lot of things, especially a lot of general knowledge about Zen Master-level potions. Zen Master-level potions were different from other potions. No matter which formula it was, it must have the Secret Gold Rootless Grass as the foundation, or... it would definitely fail!

"Have you seen the Secret Gold Rootless Grass?" Yan Ming was still a bit worried. Yun Feng chuckled. "Don't worry. I've seen it." She had seen the Secret Gold Rootless Grass with her own eyes among the precious herbs left by her master. She wouldn't be deceived.

"It's good that you've seen it. I can truly be at ease," said Yan Ming. At this moment, someone outside the door said, "General Manager!"

"Those three people are already here." Yan Ming stood up. Yun Feng nodded.

The potions were on the table in front of her. Yun Feng didn't intend to move. Yan Ming opened the door. "Guys, please come in. The seller is waiting for you inside."

Yan Ming moved aside and a tall and sturdy middle-aged man walked in. He was so tall that he had to lower his head slightly. After he walked in, he looked at Yun Feng with his eagle-like eyes and then fixed his gaze on the potion on the table.

"Sit." Yun Feng sat there calmly and didn't intend to get up to welcome him. The Thousand Shadows Mask hid her original appearance, showing an unfamiliar face.

The tall man raised his brows and sat down without hesitation. When he sat down, a stream of air condensed into wind. The next person to walk in was a man with fair skin. He looked like he was in his early thirties. There was a faint frown on his face and a faint smile on his facial features. "Are you the seller?"

You seem quite young."

"You flatter me." Yun Feng replied with a smile. The middle-aged man, who had just sat down, looked slightly cold and glanced over without hesitation.

"Are you that mysterious guy?"

The man chuckled. "You're the buyer who offered the Golden Dragon's Blood?"

You're indeed rich."

The middle-aged man's eyes immediately turned cold after hearing that. The man was still smiling gently, as if he wasn't afraid of angering this person. Yun Feng, on the other hand, continued to look at the door. A figure slowly walked in.. Yun Feng was immediately startled when she saw this!

Chapter 2009: Hidden Expert (3)

"Are you kidding me?" The middle-aged man suddenly slapped his hand down. The man in his early thirties was also stunned. Wasn't this a real child who walked in? He definitely didn't look older than ten years old! Young facial features, young height, and a young body!

Yan Ming couldn't help but feel stunned. When exactly did this kid... sneak in? Was he the one who bid the Secret Gold Rootless Grass?

"I thought it would be a hidden master, but it seems... I was really thinking too much." The man in his early thirties whispered and then said, "Kid, you're quite The child who walked in rolled his black eyes and looked extremely lively. He directly looked at the potion on the table and his black eyes brightened. He said, "Not bad. It's really a Zen Master-level potion. I didn't come for nothing." His voice was soft and didn't have any uniqueness. His behavior was also like that of a child, but his words were astonishing!

Yun Feng raised her brows and couldn't help but say, "How are you sure that this potion is at the level of a Zen Master? If it's not a pharmacist at the level of a Zen Master, it's impossible for them to tell the authenticity." The kid raised his brows. "I certainly have my ways to appraise it."

"Kid, you're quite bold!" The tall and sturdy man said in a deep voice with an impatient look. As far as powerhouses were concerned, it would truly be embarrassing if such a kid appeared among the competitors as an opponent!

"Sit down," said Yun Feng. The boy looked around and chose a spacious place to sit down. His legs were hanging in the air and couldn't touch the ground at all. He was truly a kid with curiosity in his eyes.

"Since you've already provided the bargaining chips, it should be time for me to verify it." Yun Feng said. The tall and sturdy man flipped his wrist and a bottle appeared in his wide hand. There was a kind of golden liquid inside. Yun Feng recognized at a glance that it was indeed the Golden Dragon's blood, but it seemed to be very sticky.

"Where did you get the Golden Dragon's blood?" Yun Feng asked in a low voice. She had seen Uncle Flirtatious' blood before. It wasn't as sticky as this. If the blood didn't come from Uncle Flirtatious, it must come from another Golden Dragon!

"Why are you asking so many questions?" The tall and sturdy man raised his brows. Yan Ming couldn't help but say, "It's natural for the seller to ask clearly.

If you want to get the potion, you should answer."

The tall and sturdy man snorted in disdain. "My ancestor got it by chance and kept it until now."

Yun Feng understood. No wonder it was so sticky. She must have got it by chance a long time ago. After all, there was very little blood.

"What about you? You're so mysterious. Take out something real," said the tall and sturdy man provocatively. The man in his early thirties chuckled and said unhurriedly, "Since I've said so, I'll definitely take it out. I wonder if the seller has heard of the Flowing Wind Plant?"

Yun Feng raised her brows. "I've never heard of that."

The man in his early thirties chuckled. "It's normal that you've never heard of it, because there's no Flowing Wind Plant in this world anymore. However, I got one by chance and it's been preserved until now. It can be said to be the only one in the world."

"Flowing Wind Plant? What's that? It doesn't sound very useful," said the tall and sturdy man in his early thirties in disdain. The man in his early thirties chuckled. "Those who are newly rich certainly haven't seen truly rare things. The Flowing Wind Plant can be said to be another kind of Golden Cauldron Fluid, but it corresponds to high-level strength. In the eyes of outsiders, the Golden Cauldron Fluid is a magic treasure that increases the speed of one's strength, but when one's strength reaches a certain level, the effect of the Golden Cauldron Fluid is very limited and isn't even obvious. If you want to increase your strength faster, you should change it to the Flowing Wind Plant."

Yun Feng pondered in her mind. She had already encountered such a bottleneck right now. If she could get this Flowing Wind Plant, the speed of her strength improvement would become faster and she would be able to solve the bottleneck she had always had. For her right now, the most important thing was to improve her strength!

"Is it really as amazing as you said? You didn't make it up, did you?" The tall and sturdy man still didn't believe it. The man in his early thirties raised his brows. "If you don't believe me, you can try. You'll be lucky." After saying that, he flipped his wrist and a small box appeared. He opened the box on the spot and a very ordinary plant appeared. There was a halo around its root. The man in his early thirties whispered, "Enter cultivation mode and feel it."

Yun Feng closed her eyes gently. Before she mobilized the elemental power in her body, she had already felt the obvious commotion in her spiritual space.

"Pa!" The lid was closed and the ease she had just then immediately disappeared. Yun Feng opened her eyes. What this person said was indeed true.

"Tsk!" The tall and sturdy man curled his lips coldly. He finally believed it. The man in his early thirties chuckled softly. "The seller also wants this thing? Even though this is just a bargaining chip for entering the second round, it's not impossible for the seller to buy it."

Yun Feng curled her lips. "Your condition?"

The man in his early thirties slowly said, "I'll give it to the seller for three bottles of Zen Master Level potions. How about that?"

"Three bottles of Zen Master Potions in exchange for the weed in your hand. You're really greedy." A young voice sounded, which surprised Yun Feng. The little boy, who had been ignored, sat there and looked at the man in his early thirties with his black eyes. He kicked the air with his little legs. "That's not a Flowing Wind plant at all."

"You're saying it's not? You're just a kid. What do you know? What right do you have to say that it's not?"

The boy tilted his head slightly and blinked. "I've seen it. Does it count?"

The man in his early thirties immediately looked gloomy. "It's just a kid's words. If the seller is smart, you shouldn't take it seriously. You've seen the effect just then with your own eyes. What I have in my hand is a real Flowing Wind Plant!"

"You're holding a weed in your hand. The Flowing Wind Plant doesn't look like this. Stop fooling people! The effect just then was only because there was a root of the Flowing Wind Plant on the grass." The little boy said with an innocent look as he looked at the man in his early thirties with his extremely pure black eyes. "Besides, the Flowing Wind Plant hasn't disappeared from this world at all like you said. I've seen a lot!"

The man in his early thirties looked pale and red. "You're just a kid. Have you seen Flowing Wind Plant? Where did you see it? You said my plant is a weed. Tell me, what does Flowing Wind Plant look like?"

"I don't know, but it's not the one in your hand. As for where I've seen it, why should I tell you?" The little boy's tone was young and full of childishness. The man in his early thirties sneered. "Kid, I won't argue with you on account that you're a kid. If you say anything to slander me again, I won't let you go even if you're a kid!"

The little boy immediately stood on the ground and raised his little face. "You're holding a weed! I'm right!"

"You...!" The man in his early thirties was immediately enraged. Yun Feng said, "You said that he has a weed in his hand. It's hard to say if that's true for now."

Did you bring the Secret Gold Rootless Grass you mentioned?"

The little boy nodded as he flipped his little wrist and a transparent bottle appeared. Yun Feng knew at a glance that it was indeed the Secret Gold Rootless Grass. It was exactly the same. This little boy seemed to have a certain background.

"This is the Secret Gold Rootless Grass." The little boy handed the bottle forward. Yun Feng nodded. He was just a kid. He had a dimension container and the Secret Gold Rootless Grass. Who exactly was he? Where did he come from?

"Now that you've seen it, tell me your conditions quickly," said the tall and sturdy man impatiently. Yun Feng chuckled and flipped her wrist. A piece of paper appeared in her hand. It was the map of the Lightning Element Seed. "If you recognize where this location is, you can take the potion away."

The tall and sturdy man looked over carefully and frowned. "This doesn't seem to be the current map, does it?"

Yun Feng said, "That's right. There's an ancient terrain drawn on it. I want to know where it is right now."

"What's the background of this map? Why is it drawn with such an ancient terrain?" The black eyes of the man in his early thirties glittered as he asked. Yun Feng curled her lips. "I won't answer anything else, and you don't have to ask anymore."

The man in his early thirties was a bit embarrassed. The little boy stood on his tiptoes. "I can't see!"

Yun Feng chuckled. She got up and brought the map to the little boy. "Can you see it clearly?"

The little boy nodded. He looked around the map with his big eyes and tilted his head again. "Why does the thing drawn on this map look a bit familiar?"

Familiar? Yun Feng raised her brows. Was the key to everything still on this kid?

"Kid, you're getting more and more arrogant. This is an ancient terrain. How can you be familiar with it at your age?"

The little boy said, "I'm familiar because I think I've seen it somewhere... Where is it... Let me think..." The little boy frowned and realized something! "Ah! I remember. It's on Master's tattered book!"

"Master?" Yun Feng was surprised. The little boy nodded and smiled very proudly. "My master is an impressive and powerful person!"

Yun Feng also understood a bit. It seemed that this master should be the one who was truly capable. However, this little boy had already seen such precious things at such a young age, which showed that this master must be a hidden expert. Still, there was another map of the Element Seed?

"Who... is your master?" Yun Feng whispered. The little boy suddenly smiled. "Master said that if the seller asks such a question, tell the seller. Do you want to know? If you do, come and see in person."

Yun Feng was surprised, but then smiled. The two people on the side looked inexplicable.. Would they lose to such a kid just like that?

Chapter 2010: The Child's Master (1)

"The seller of the potion is willing to believe what this kid says. You're not taking this potion seriously at all." The man in his early thirties said with a gloomy face. The stalwart man on the side was the same. The two of them looked at the little boy with a gloomy gaze. If such a child got it, they would really lose face.

"It's not up to you to decide who to give this bottle of potion to." The little boy was very unconvinced. The other two people were even more enraged after hearing that, but they couldn't flare up here. The little boy raised his brows.

"Do you know the place drawn on this map?"

The other two people frowned. The little boy chuckled when he saw this. "You two don't know, but my master does. This bottle of potion certainly belongs to my master!"

Yan Ming didn't say anything on the side, but he also frowned. This little boy was truly a child. He spoke so rudely. Wasn't he afraid that he would cause trouble in the future? So what if he got this bottle of potion? Once he left Chunfeng Town, he might be killed by someone else.

Yun Feng sat down. Among the three of them, the other two didn't know the terrain drawn on the map. Only the so-called master this little boy mentioned knew. It seemed that she only had one choice.

"As I said just then, whoever knows where the terrain on the map is will have the potion. The result is already out."

What Yun Feng said made the other two people's faces darken. "Seller, can you consider bartering with me?" The man in his early thirties said. "If the seller is willing, I'd rather suffer a loss and exchange the Flowing Wind Plant in my hand for it. How about that?"

"It's clearly weeds..." The little boy was about to say something again. Yun Feng waved her hand and asked him not to say anything. If this continued, he would probably be surrounded and stopped by people once he left the Auction House.

"The Flowing Wind Plant is indeed rare. Even if the one in your hand is real, I still value the information on the map more." Yun Feng already had a clear answer. The two men, who failed the bid, immediately got up with a bit of anger in their minds.

"Buyers, all transactions are decided by the seller. Whether or not you can get it depends on the seller. The seller's condition is the map information. Even though you've brushed past the potion, there are still more good stuff."

Welcome again.”

“Humph!” The tall and sturdy man grunted coldly and strode out. The man in his early thirties also sneered and looked at the little boy coldly as he put away the Flowing Wind Plant in his hand. “If the seller changes her mind, send someone to find me. I’ll still stay in Chunfeng Town for a while.”

“Got it,” replied Yun Feng. The man in his early thirties walked out and stopped again. “Let me warn the seller. You can’t believe what a kid says. You have to consider everything carefully. Goodbye.”

The man walked out quickly. Yan Ming stood there thoughtfully and glanced at the little boy with his black eyes. Then, he looked at Yun Feng. “Is your result

Yun Feng chuckled. “I don’t know if what his master said is true, but it’s better than those two who don’t know at all. Even though I need the Flowing Wind Plant very much... I need the map information more.”

“As I said, that person is holding weeds in his hand, ” said the little boy in disdain and unwillingness to admit defeat. “That’s not a Flowing Wind Plant. A Flowing Wind Plant doesn’t look like that.”

Yan Ming walked over and smiled lightly. “From what you said, your master seems to have a lot of rare herbs? The Flowing Wind Plant, the Secret Gold Rootless Grass. You seem to see them all the time.”

“Of course. There are a lot of strange herbs in Master’s yard. I casually took out the Secret Gold Rootless Grass,” said the little boy proudly as he blinked his black eyes. “So, I won this potion?”

Yan Ming said, “That’s not the case. The potion can only be given to you after we know the information of the map.”

“I see... That’s very simple. Just go back with me to find my master. That’s what my master said.” The little boy grinned. Yun Feng frowned. “If your master has so many precious herbs, shouldn’t he also be a pharmacist? His level shouldn’t be low. Zen Master-level potions might not be difficult for him.”

Yan Ming frowned. That was indeed the case. With so many precious herbs, how bad could his attainments in pharmaceuticals be?

“Master isn’t a pharmacist. He’s just very good at herbs. What Master often says is that it’s truly a pity if he doesn’t see a Zen Master-level potion in his life.” The little boy pretended to talk like an adult, looking very funny.

The man wasn't a pharmacist, but he was very proficient in herbs. What kind of person was he?

"Your master has thought it through. He knows that you might not be able to walk out of Chunfeng Town after this auction, so he asked the seller to go back with you and act as a bodyguard on the way. Without you, I certainly wouldn't know where your master is. However, I'm curious. If your master is so eager to see this bottle of potion, why didn't he come in person?" Yan Ming said as he looked at the little boy with his black eyes. The little boy frowned tightly. "Master is very powerful. The reason why he didn't come is to take care of his precious herbs. Those herbs that Master valued like his life."

"Your master is truly special," said Yun Feng. "Right now, I only have one clue, which is your master. If your master is lying to me, he must be mentally prepared."

"Master won't lie!" The little boy said loudly. "Besides, I've seen that picture. Master must know what it is."

"I hope so." Yan Ming said in a low voice as he stood up. "I'll go deal with the follow-up auctions. As for what happens next, talk to him slowly." Yan Ming turned around and left after saying that. Only Yun Feng and the little boy were left in the room. Yun Feng said, "When are you going to get up and find your master?"

The little boy sat there and swung his legs a few times. "There's no rush.

Master asked me to buy something. I haven't bought everything yet."

Yun Feng raised her brows and chuckled in the end. "Sure. I'll only wait for you for three days. If you're still not ready to move by then, I'll give this opportunity to someone else." Yun Feng put away the potion on the table and got up to leave. The little boy quickly jumped down.. "Wait!"

Chapter 2011: The Child 's Master (2)

"Anything else?"

The boy rolled his black eyes. "Master said that if the seller wants to get what she wants, she must protect me."

Yun Feng curled her lips. "Don't worry. You'll be safe in Chunfeng Town. I'll follow you after we get out of Chunfeng Town."

The little boy nodded and extended his little hand. He took out the Secret Gold Rootless Grass and handed it to Yun Feng. Yun Feng raised her brows. "Is this for me?"

The boy nodded. "Master asked me to do this. He said it's... a gift for our first meeting."

Yun Feng was surprised. The Secret Gold Rootless Grass wasn't an ordinary thing. This "master" was quite generous to give it away so easily. Since it was a meeting gift, she might as well accept it. This was a necessary ingredient for a Zen Master-level potion. Thinking back, her master didn't have many of them. After this bottle of potion, there wasn't even one left right now.

The boy chuckled as she took the Secret Gold Rootless Grass. He pushed the door open and walked out briskly, looking very happy. Yun Feng looked at the Secret Gold Rootless Grass in her hand and the corners of her mouth curled up. She would be interested to meet this "master" who was very proficient in herbs but didn't know anything about making medicine at all.

After the auction ended, the Zen Master Level potion was finally obtained by a kid. Such news spread throughout Chunfeng Town like bamboo shoots after the rain, which made many people's jaws drop! A kid won the Zen Master Level potion. Was there a mistake with this news?

That was a Zen Master-level potion! What was the use of a kid getting it?

The result of the auction was unexpected. Discussions surged like a tide. People were all curious about what kind of mentality the seller had and who the child that won the final bidding would be!

"The herb store... The herb store..." The smart and cute kid walked on the street with very lively black eyes. He tapped his chubby cheek with his index finger and searched around the street with his eyes. "Ah! Found it!" The little boy walked into the herb store happily and didn't notice that someone was already following him, and there was more than one wave.

"My lord, a kid doesn't deserve the Zen Master Level potion at all. Why don't we find an opportunity to finish him off?" In a hidden corner, a man in his early thirties stared at the little boy in the herb store with a gloomy face. Hearing what his subordinate next to him said, he couldn't help but sneer. "Do you think this is the Alliance of Killers? You can do whatever you want?"

"It's just Chunfeng Town and the Yun family! Even the East and West Alliance might not be our match!"

The man in his early thirties looked gloomy. "I didn't know anything about the East and West Alliance before. I've found out everything in the past few days. The East and West Alliance can't be underestimated. Yun Feng of the Yun family is the same. Haven't those three people taught you a lesson?"

"My lord, there are more than one group of people following him. If they take advantage of him at this moment..."

He sneered. "It doesn't matter if they get a bargain. The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind."

After a while, the little boy came out of the herb store. He seemed to be very dissatisfied with the herbs he bought in his hand. He frowned and shook his head. "Why... They're all ordinary herbs. Why do you need them, Master?"

The boy frowned and walked forward. He still didn't notice the situation behind him. After turning a corner, the boy walked forward by himself. He went deeper and deeper into the alley and a few figures appeared.

"Kid, hand over the Zen Master Level potion you got obediently!" The three figures blocked the boy's way. The boy looked up in surprise. "Potion? I don't have any potion."

The three of them smiled viciously. "No? Aren't you the one who won the potion in the end? It's useless to pretend to be stupid! We don't bother to attack a child. If you're willing to hand it over obediently, we'll spare your life!

Otherwise... don't blame us for showing no mercy!"

The boy blinked a few times and finally understood. "You're robbers!"

The three of them looked at each other. They didn't have the patience to talk nonsense with a kid. "Kid! Are you handing it over or not? Stop talking nonsense!"

"I don't have the potion you're talking about at all. How can I hand it over?" The little boy kept stepping back and holding the bag of herbs in his hand tightly with his little hand. "That potion is still in the hands of the seller!"

"Who would believe that? You were the one who won the bidding in the end! How can the seller still keep it? Kid, it seems that you're unwilling to hand it over obediently!"

The little boy frowned. "As I said, I really didn't..."

"There's no need to talk nonsense with him! Just kill him and take the potion! Nobody will notice if a kid dies!" Someone shouted in a low voice. The little boy suddenly turned around and started running crazily. The three of them immediately burst into laughter when they saw that. In their eyes, he was just a kid. How far could he go? They could take his life before he ran a few steps!

After laughing, the muscles all over their bodies tightened and they rushed forward at an extremely high speed. The little boy was panting from running. Hearing the sound of the wind behind him, he turned around slightly and saw that the three people behind him had already caught up! The little boy widened his black eyes! His legs were even faster. He gritted his teeth and ran towards the entrance of the alley! The ferocious and smiling voices of the three people came from behind. "Kid, you can't get away!"

"Swish, swish, swish, swish...!" Three streams of powerful fighting energy came from behind, like three sharp swords that were about to pierce into the little boy's body! The three of them indeed wanted to kill him!

"Oh no!" The little boy didn't even dare to look back when he saw this. He just kept rushing forward. He was going to die!

"Bang...!" There was a muffled sound, followed by the sound of fighting energy being forcibly crushed! A gust of wind blew and the expected death didn't come. The little boy stopped and finally dared to look back. He saw a tall figure standing behind him. The man had probably blocked all the attacks just then, but... who was he?

The three people who were completely stopped couldn't help but feel shocked.

This unexpected man ruined their business! The three of them frowned.

"Where did you come from? Are you also interested in the potion?"

The handsome man standing there didn't say anything. He only said one word with a cold face, "Get lost."

The three people who attacked were immediately enraged.. "Then I'll take care of you too!" The three of them roared and attacked together!

Chapter 2012: Who's Robbing Whom (1)

The handsome man's eyebrows moved slightly. He didn't even dodge. He stood there steadily and looked at the three attacks of fighting energy coming at him. He clenched his fists fiercely and a dazzling green light spread from his fingers. The little boy was immediately shocked when he saw this. "A mage?"

"Swish...!" A green wind blade came out of the man's hand and jumped in the air at an extremely high speed, cutting the fighting energy attacks of the three of them in half!

The three of them widened their mouths in shock when they saw this. The handsome man looked up. "Why aren't you getting lost?"

The hearts of the three of them immediately tightened! This person was obviously stronger than the three of them! It seemed that he was also someone who cared about the potion. With him here, they definitely wouldn't have a chance!

"Let's go!" The three of them could only say angrily as they turned around and left at an extremely high speed. The deep alley returned to peace again. The man turned around and looked at the little boy with his light blue eyes. The little boy took half a step back slightly. "You're here for the potion too? I really don't have any on me."

The man frowned slightly and said in a low voice, "I'm here on orders to protect you. I'm not interested in the potion you mentioned."

The boy was extremely surprised. "You're here on orders? Whose orders? That seller?"

The man didn't answer. He looked around to make sure that he was fine. "There's no need to tell you. Don't step into an alley like this casually. You're already delicious food in the eyes of the wolves right now. Even if the potion isn't with you, you won't be able to escape."

The boy nodded as if he understood. "Although I don't quite understand what you're saying, I know... The people here are too fierce... It's better to leave as soon as possible."

The man raised his brows. "It's indeed not bad to have such a thought." Then, his body flashed and he disappeared from the spot. The little boy was immediately a bit flustered. "Where are you? You're gone? What if someone attacks me again?"

"I'm right here with you. Don't panic. Do your thing as soon as possible and set off quickly." The man's deep voice came. The little boy heaved a sigh of relief. "Got it. After doing what Master asked me to do, I'll leave immediately!" He looked around with his black eyes and the little boy quickly walked out of the alley, hiding in the crowd.

"My lord, that was...!" The voice was full of surprise. "It seems that it's not easy to get the potion!"

The man in his early thirties looked extremely gloomy and even colder than before. After hearing what his subordinate said, he said, "The person who attacked just then... was a Magic Beast."

"A Magic Beast?!" The subordinate was extremely shocked. "My lord, a Magic Beast is following that kid! Who exactly sent a Magic Beast?"

The man in his early thirties had coldness in his black eyes. "No matter who it is, they must be related to summoners to be able to control a Magic Beast like that. "

"If they're really a summoner, wouldn't they be quite tricky?"

The man in his early thirties frowned. "When exactly did this kid have a connection with a summoner? Judging from the strength of that Magic Beast just then, it's quite strong! This summoner is also quite strong. Is he a master hired by that seller?"

"My lord, I think that's the only possibility."

"Humph! Having taken a kid's words seriously, that seller is just so-so. We must get the Zen Master-level potion for the Alliance Master! If she doesn't agree to the conditions we made earlier, we can only use force!"

In the Yun house, Yun Feng was sitting in the main hall and thinking. Lan Yi's voice came. "Master, someone had already attacked just then. As Master thought, this little boy became everyone's target, but the person who attacked wasn't what Master said."

"Yes, got it." Yun Feng sent a telepathic message. "Protect him well. With your ability, he should be fine."

"Yes, Master!"

After cutting off the connection, Yun Feng's black eyes darkened slightly. She had already expected that someone would attack. The news spread on purpose. Those two people were the only ones who could spread the news. She thought they would attack first, but it was someone else. It seemed that the journey with the little boy wouldn't be safe.

"What's wrong? You look a bit gloomy." Qu Lanyi walked in and touched Yun Feng's cheek. Yun Feng smiled gently. "Nothing. It's just that my buyer seems to be in some trouble."

"That kid?" Qu Lanyi raised his brows. "The news spread so quickly. Someone must be unable to hold back and will attack him sooner or later."

"So, it gives me a headache." Yun Feng curled her lips. Qu Lanyi smiled. "Didn't you send Lan Yi there? With Lan Yi's strength, nothing will happen."

Yun Feng nodded. Luckily, she was a summoner, or it would really be a headache. She couldn't be someone's personal bodyguard all day, could she? "I got some information from Master about the so-called master that that little boy mentioned."

"What did Senior Feng say?"

“I asked Master if there’s such a person in this world who’s extremely proficient in herbs and can grow a lot of precious herbs, but doesn’t know anything about making medicine. Master told me clearly that it makes sense if the guy grows herbs. After all, being proficient in herbs is just accumulation of knowledge, but many precious herbs can’t be cultivated manually. They can only be nurtured by nature. In this world, no matter how long ago it was, nobody could grow precious herbs manually.”

“So, is that kid lying?”

Yun Feng frowned and raised her black eyes. “Not necessarily. Master said that nobody among humans can do it, but... there’s a Magic Beast that can.”

“Magic Beast?” Qu Lanyi was surprised. Yun Feng sighed. “To be honest, I don’t believe it either. Even if Master said so, I still have some doubts. Even though Magic Beasts and humans are from two completely different races, they’re all life forms after all.”

“There are too many differences between Magic Beasts and humans, and there are huge differences in terms of souls. Besides, Magic Beasts aren’t like humans. They live in a natural and primitive environment. Their understanding of nature should be better than that of humans. A Magic Beast’s physical fitness far exceeds that of humans. This might be the training of nature.” Qu Lanyi raised his brows. “Did Senior Feng say what kind of Magic Beast it is?”

Yun Feng chuckled and said, “Stonemother..”

Chapter 2013: Who’s Robbing Whom (2)

“Stonemother?” Qu Lanyi raised his brows. “What kind of Magic Beast is this? There are a lot of books about Magic Beasts in the Naxi family, including some special species. However, there’s really no record of this Stonemother.”

“Master said that the so-called Stonemother is called the Mother of the Earth and has huge natural elemental energy in her body. However... this is also an existence that Master heard about. It’s almost a legend.”

“A legend?” Qu Lanyi frowned. “Even though it’s a legend, it must be based on reality. Didn’t Senior Feng say that just because you don’t know doesn’t mean it doesn’t exist?”

Yun Feng nodded. “Even though I have doubts in my mind, I can’t deny it easily, so I must go with this kid this time. I’ll have an answer when I meet this so-called master.”

“If the Stonemother really exists... and has huge elemental energy, will it..”

affect the Element Seed?" A glint of light suddenly flashed through Qu Lanyi's black eyes. "Xiao Fengfeng, maybe we can... this time!"

"That's right. If the Stonemother really exists..." Yun Feng clenched her fists. "Maybe we can know the secret of the Element Seed and... know how to absorb the power of the Element Seed!"

Three days passed in a blink. Early in the morning of the fourth day, Yun Feng was waiting for the little boy in the Auction House. Today was the day they set off. Qu Lanyi would definitely go with them this time, while Xia Qing said goodbye to Yun Feng and threw herself into the other affairs of the East and West Alliance. Yan Ming was even more straightforward. He directly said that he was busy and wouldn't come to see Yun Feng off. He hoped that Yun Feng would have a smooth journey.

"Am I late?" The door was pushed open and the little boy ran in, panting. His little face was full of sweat. He was obviously stunned when he saw the two people in front of him. "Who are you? Where's the seller?"

Yun Feng curled her lips. She had already taken off the Thousand Shadows Mask and showed her original appearance. "I'm the seller." After saying that, she took out the potion and the suspicion in the boy's eyes was finally eliminated. "So, this is your original appearance."

"Hurry up. Let's go." Yun Feng got up, pushed open a secret door, and entered it. Seeing that the little boy didn't react, Qu Lanyi couldn't help but say, "Why aren't you following us? Are you still thinking of walking out of Chunfeng Town swaggering?"

The boy's expression changed a bit after hearing that. He walked in without another word. The three of them entered through the secret door and walked a long distance. When they came out, they were already in a hidden corner of Chunfeng Town. There was no one around.

"Lan Yi." Yun Feng whispered as the handsome man appeared. "Thank you," said Yun Feng. Wings appeared on Lan Yi's back. After a dazzling green light, the huge Magic Beast form of the Griffin appeared and stopped in the sky.

The little boy opened his mouth with surprise all over his face. Yun Feng grabbed him and tapped her feet. She had already jumped into the sky and landed on the Griffin's wide back. Qu Lanyi then followed her. The three of them sat down on the Griffin's back. Lan Yi flapped his wings and soared in the sky. After a few swings, Chunfeng Town had already been left behind.

"So, it's your Magic Beast! Are you a summoner?" The little boy turned his little head and touched everything curiously. He looked at Yun Feng with anticipation in his eyes. Yun Feng whispered, "It's my Magic Beast. I'm a summoner. "

“You’re a summoner! That’s great!” The little boy shouted. “I want such a magnificent Magic Beast too, but unfortunately...”

Yun Feng looked at the little boy’s excited state and whispered casually, “What kind of person is your master? Did he plant those precious herbs you saw himself?”

The little boy was still curious. He touched it with his little hand. “I’m not sure either. I just know that there are a lot of strange herbs in Master’s garden.

Master usually doesn’t let me touch them. He’s so petty.”

“Does your master have a name?” asked Qu Lanyi. The little boy glanced at him.

“I just call him master. He doesn’t have a name.”

Qu Lanyi was a bit speechless. Yun Feng said, “Where do you and your master live? We should have a direction.’

The boy frowned. “Master never told me where we live...”

“Then how did you come to Chunfeng Town?” asked Qu Lanyi, who had a headache. The little boy chuckled and said innocently, “I walked here.”

Yun Feng also had a headache right now. “Did your master tell you how to go back? Or is there anything to guide you?”

The little boy exclaimed, “Yes! I remember. Master gave me a road sign!”

Chapter 2014: Invitation (1)

A fat and shiny brown rat appeared in the little boy’s hand. The little boy patted the rat’s head and the rat immediately narrowed its eyes. Its nose trembled slightly in the air. It opened its eyes and cried softly in one direction.

“Go that way,” said the little boy casually without any doubts. Qu Lanyi and Yun Feng looked at the fat rat in his hand. Both of them couldn’t help but express their doubts. In the end, Yun Feng chuckled. Since it was given by that master, it couldn’t be a simple rat. Did it rely on its sense of smell to go home? Its sense of smell was truly wide!

According to the direction provided by the fat rat in the boy’s hand, Lan Yi moved forward at a high speed. Griffins were extremely fast. After a while, they had already left the territory of the Fengyun Empire. The boy was still curious. The fat rat lay on his knee and sniffed from time to time, as if it was trying to determine the direction.

Yun Feng looked at this fat rat. Could its sense of smell extend to such a wide range? It could follow the smell all the way back? If the journey was long, wouldn't this rat's nose... be too magical?

"Did your master raise this rat?" asked Qu Lanyi. The little boy chuckled. "Yes, my master did, but he doesn't like it very much." The little boy touched the shiny fur on the rat's body. This rat looked more like... a mink.

"Squeak, squeak!" After flying for half a day, the fat rat on the boy's knee suddenly stood up and let out a sharp cry, jumping up and down on the boy's knee. It was very restless. The boy quickly pressed its body with his hand and frowned fiercely. "Why are you running around? No wonder Master doesn't like you. I don't like you anymore."

"It didn't make such a sound on purpose." Yun Feng frowned. Animals were the most sensitive, especially their ability to predict danger and uneasiness. Yun Feng stood up and sneered at the sound of the wind. "They've waited for so long. It's time for them to make a move."

"What... do you mean?" The little boy looked confused. The fat rat that was pressed on his knee suddenly started struggling crazily. Seeing that, Qu Lanyi said, "You should put it away quickly, or you won't be able to go back if you lose it."

The little boy nodded and quickly stuffed the completely panicked rat into the dimension container. As soon as he did that, Lan Yi's body suddenly tilted greatly. Qu Lanyi grabbed the little boy quickly and an attack slid past the Griffin's body!

"Master, the other party is attacking very fiercely. It seems that they're forcing us to retreat." Lan Yi's voice came. Yun Feng sneered and pointed in a certain direction. She suddenly raised her hand and a wind blade roared. "Boom!" The wind element collided fiercely with some kind of force, making a loud noise!

"Swish, swish, swish, swish!" A few figures broke through the air and directly stopped Lan Yi, forming a triangle. Lan Yi's direction of movement was completely blocked for a moment. His wings shook and his huge body stopped in the sky. He looked at the three people in front of him coldly with his eagle eyes and couldn't slack off at all.

Yun Feng stood on Lan Yi's back. She knew one of the three people in front of her. It was one of the three people who were nominated for the second round of the auction!

"It seems that you're the seller's escort for the potion? You're quite capable as a summoner." The person in the lead was the man in his early thirties that day. He stared at the little boy and sneered. "Hand over the potion and I won't make things difficult for you."

“As I said, I don’t have any potions at all.” The little boy mumbled in dissatisfaction, while Yun Feng raised her brows. “You want to steal it if you can’t get it?”

“How can a kid get a Zen Master-level potion? Even if he gets it, he doesn’t know the value of such a potion at all! It’ll be a waste if he takes it! Rather than that, it’s better to give it to someone who can make the best use of the potion.” The face of the man in his early thirties darkened. “So, don’t make me say it again. Hand it over!”

Yun Feng frowned and looked at the two people standing next to the man. The uniform they were wearing left a deep impression on Yun Feng!

“You’re from the Alliance of Killers?” Yun Feng raised her brows. The expression of the man in his early thirties changed drastically! ‘You know about the existence of the Alliance of Killers? Perhaps... you’re Yun Feng!’ The man in his early thirties came to a realization and his face turned cold. He thought for a moment and knew the cause and effect. “You came to escort the potion in person. Did you really make that bottle of potion?”

Yun Feng was silent. The man in his early thirties suddenly frowned. Compared to a bottle of Zen Master Level potion, the Zen Master Level pharmacist was certainly more precious! She was more useful!

What kind of organization was the Alliance of Killers? Qu Lanyi pondered in his mind. He had never heard of this name. The battle between the East and West Alliance and the Blood Souls didn’t expose the Alliance of Killers, but it was revealed at the potion auction this time. Was it hidden so well?

“If you’re really a Zen Master-level pharmacist who made the potion, the Alliance of Killers will definitely treat you differently. This continent is in turmoil right now. If you’re willing to agree to our conditions, the Alliance of Killers will help you.”

Yun Feng raised her brows. As expected, pharmacists were more charming than potions. This person was quite strong and could be said to be on par with her. If they fought head-on, it would be disadvantageous for the East and West Alliance if the Alliance of Killers was implicated at this moment. It wouldn’t be bad if she could solve the problem peacefully. It would be a good thing if the Alliance of Killers could provide help to the East and West Alliance.

“What’s your condition?”

The man in his early thirties also heaved an inexplicable sigh of relief in his mind when he heard this. It was better not to become enemies with the pharmacists. He would get more benefits if he became friends with the pharmacists. The man thought carefully. If he wanted to rope in the pharmacists, he must make conditions that truly satisfied her, but he couldn’t suffer too much loss.

“Five years. If you’re willing to make potions for the Alliance of Killers unconditionally in five years, the Alliance of Killers will promise to send help to support the East and West Alliance until you win.”

“Five years?” said Qu Lanyi.. “Do you really think that time is nothing? Wouldn’t it be a loss for a Zen Master-level pharmacist to make potions for the Alliance of Killers unconditionally in five years?”

Chapter 2015: Invitation (2)

“Loss? The Alliance of Killers itself will lose. It’s just that the Alliance of Killers needs Zen Master-level potions in five years. How many bottles of Zen Master-level potions can she make in five years? We have to keep working hard. Who exactly will lose?”

Yun Feng pondered. She wasn’t a pharmacist at the Zen Master Level yet, but the conditions offered by the Alliance of Killers were indeed very tempting. It couldn’t be better if the East and West Alliance fought the Blood Souls with external help. The more power they had to fight the Blood Souls, the better! An organization like the Alliance of Killers that didn’t appear in the world was quite powerful. It couldn’t be better if they could join the East and West Alliance! Five years was indeed not a loss. As he said, the success rate of making Zen Master Level potions in five years was very low. She couldn’t make a few bottles at all.

Her master could make the potion successfully in a short period of time because of the accumulation of potions over the years. With the accumulation of time, it wouldn’t be difficult for him to succeed in a short period of time.

“Five years is fine, but I can’t stay in the Alliance of Killers. If you need it, you can just ask. I’ll make it and you can take it away. As for the herbs I need, you’ll be responsible for them,” said Yun Feng. She simply made the conditions clear. If they couldn’t reach an agreement... there was nothing she could do.

‘You really don’t want to suffer any loss. You don’t have to gather the herbs. We’ll certainly take responsibility for them. We won’t force you to stay in the Alliance of Killers.’

Yun Feng raised her brows. “So, we’ve reached an agreement?”

“Not yet.” The man in his early thirties said as he glanced at Yun Feng directly without hesitation. “What we did was just a verbal agreement. It’s not impossible for you to go back on your words in the future.”

“What are you suggesting?”

“Both parties will leave a token for each other as proof of this negotiation. The token you’re going to give me is that bottle of Zen Master Level potion! ”

Yun Feng frowned. After all, he was still targeting the potion. The little boy was immediately unhappy after hearing that. “That won’t do! This potion belongs to me! How can I give it to you halfway?”

“Whether you give it or not depends on you.” The middle-aged man threw the question to Yun Feng. Yun Feng frowned and said, “He’s already won that bottle of potion. It’s indeed inappropriate for me to give it to someone else halfway.

Can I exchange it with something else?”

“Unless you can take out another bottle of Zen Master Level potion.”

Qu Lanyi sneered. “One bottle of the Zen Master Level potion is already very precious. How can there be a second bottle?”

“It really has to be potions?” Yun Feng said. The man in his early thirties nodded. “That’s right. It has to be Zen Master-level potions!”

“No! This is for my master!” The little boy kept shaking his head. Yun Feng frowned. In the current situation... If they reached an agreement, the East and West Alliance would gain extra help and they would have a higher chance of resisting the Blood Souls. On the other hand, if they failed to reach an agreement, they might have a grudge against the Alliance of Killers. She wasn’t 100% confident about the Element Seed...

The potion was in Yun Feng’s hands. If she gave it to someone else, the little boy wouldn’t do anything to her. There were times when she went back on her words. Yun Feng was silent. Qu Lanyi said, “If the deal doesn’t work, are you going to start robbing?”

The man suddenly frowned. He didn’t dare to do anything right now. If he accidentally injured a Zen Master-level pharmacist, wouldn’t the Alliance Master skin him alive if he knew? He just didn’t want to return empty-handed. He didn’t want to be unable to explain.

“If you insist on not changing the condition, we won’t be able to reach this agreement,” said Yun Feng. She could only choose one of the two. Since the boy had already got the potion, she, as the seller, had no reason to take it back halfway.

“If you want to steal it, I can only fight back and become enemies with you.” Yun Feng said with deep calmness. The middle-aged man, on the other hand, was stunned and put in a difficult position, turning into a situation where he couldn’t back down.

The little boy heaved a sigh of relief. This person was not bad.

“Are you certain that I won’t attack you?” The eyes of the man in his early thirties were burning with anger. Qu Lanyi chuckled. “That’s not the case. You insisted on getting the potion because you didn’t want to return empty-handed. This should be the first time a Zen Master-level potion has appeared in this world, or you wouldn’t have emerged in the world. If you hurt a Zen Master-level pharmacist, I’m afraid you can forget about the Zen Master-level potion.”

The middle-aged man felt cold. What this kid said was right. He couldn’t refute him.

Seeing this, Qu Lanyi immediately said, “An agreement with a pharmacist is more precious than potions. If you beat a pharmacist for a bottle of potion, your Alliance Master will probably be enraged if he knows, right?”

“Hm, even so, words are useless!”

Yun Feng was silent for a moment and said, “Your promise is also just words. Besides, you’re not the Alliance Master. The conditions you made for me just then were only relative. If anything happens to the Alliance Master, what should we do?”

The middle-aged man was immediately speechless. Qu Lanyi raised his brows. “Why don’t we do this? When the second bottle of Zen Master Level is released, we’ll inform the Alliance of Killers immediately. In exchange, the Alliance of Killers will send reinforcements to the East and West Alliance immediately.

The agreement between us will take effect. How about that?”

The middle-aged man frowned and pondered. This might be the best solution... It was fine if he couldn’t get the first bottle of potion, but once the second bottle of potion appeared, it would belong to the Alliance of Killers! The third and fourth bottles would also be owned by the Alliance of Killers! Compared to just one bottle of potion, more potions would certainly be more valuable in the future!

“Yun Feng, this name has left a lot of legends on this continent. It’ll truly be a pity if it’s tainted because of this,” said the middle-aged man. Yun Feng chuckled. “I’ll certainly do what I said and I won’t go back on my words.”

The middle-aged man’s eyebrows jumped slightly. It seemed that this was the only way. In order to make it easier to contact her, the Alliance of Killers gave Yun Feng a special communication jade pendant. Once the potion was out, she would inform the Alliance of Killers immediately. Otherwise, if the potion was taken by someone else, the Alliance of Killers would definitely not let it go.

After reaching an agreement, the middle-aged man left. Even though he was still a bit upset in his mind, there was nothing he could do. They sent this group of people away without using any force. Yun Feng was also relieved in her mind. Lan Yi set off again and sped forward. The little boy chuckled at Yun Feng. "You're a good person. You keep your promise.."

Chapter 2016: Invitation (3)

Yun Feng curled her lips and didn't say anything. The little boy took out the fat rat again. The rat was much calmer and continued to show the way. Qu Lanyi said, "What kind of organization is the Alliance of Killers? I've never heard of it! However, judging from that person's tone just then, he seems to be very confident."

"It was just a coincidence that I knew about it. A few days ago, three young people of the Alliance of Killers came to the Yun family and asked me to transfer the potion to the Alliance of Killers in private."

"So arrogant?" Qu Lanyi raised his brows. "Did anyone in the Yun family get hurt?"

"I'm fine. The old butler was slightly injured and has already recovered. Even though those three young people are arrogant, they're indeed quite strong. With their reckless personality and style of doing things, they're obviously a group of low-level people from the Alliance of Killers."

"The strength of low-level people has already reached a certain level. It seems that this Alliance of Killers... is indeed interesting."

"I wonder who founded this organization, the Alliance of Killers... This name sounds like it's stained with a lot of blood."

"Maybe we'll know when we meet this Alliance Master the next day," said Qu Lanyi. Yun Feng nodded with a smile. The little boy sat aside and focused on touching the big rat on his knee, not listening to Yun Feng's conversation. After that, everything was peaceful and nothing happened again.

Following the rat's instructions, Lan Yi changed his direction a few times along the way. Since he was in the sky, they couldn't see everything below clearly and they couldn't confirm where they were on the continent right now. There were thick clouds under her. Yun Feng wasn't worried that she would get lost.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed. In the seven days, the rat had been sniffing and changing the direction. Even Yun Feng was a bit confused. With Lan Yi's speed, seven days was enough for him to circle the entire continent. They hadn't arrived yet!

"Is this... rat pointing in the right direction?" asked Qu Lanyi tentatively. He looked around at the whiteness. "We can circle this continent a few times in seven days!"

The boy chuckled and squeezed the rat's belly. "I don't know about that, but... Master accepted it as a road sign. It won't be wrong."

"You listen to your master very obediently. You'll do whatever he says," said Yun Feng with a smile in her words. The little boy immediately nodded seriously. "Of course! Master is the most powerful person. He'll definitely be right!"

"Then... we can only continue circling patiently right now?" Qu Lanyi raised his brows and was very upset. The little boy patted the big rat's head. The big rat immediately sniffed a few times and squeaked in a certain direction. Yun Feng said calmly, "Lan Yi, change your direction."

"Swish...!" Above the white clouds, a huge Griffin changed its direction and flapped its white wings fiercely. The clouds around it were dispersed like smoke and wrapped around the Griffin, flying far away.

Another three days passed. Even Yun Feng's patience was worn out bit by bit. In the blink of an eye, ten days had passed. Even if the place where the hidden expert lived was completely lost, they should be here after all the turns!

The moment Yun Feng's patience was about to run out, the rat on the boy's knee suddenly stood up and shouted ahead! The sudden cry shocked Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi. The boy immediately smiled happily and grabbed the rat, shouting loudly, "Master! I'm back! Master!"

Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi's eyes brightened. Master? So, they had finally arrived at where this expert lived?

"Lan Yi, descend!" Once the order was given, Lan Yi immediately swooped down at an extremely high speed! It seemed that he had been tortured crazily by the constant circling these few days.

"Whoosh, whoosh...!" The rapid sound of the wind blew past their ears and the thick clouds left her side. The blurry vision below quickly became clear and a quiet valley appeared in front of Yun Feng's eyes. It was green around and the air was fresh. A small house stood safely in the center of the valley, looking so isolated.

As the Griffin descended faster and faster, the smell of herbs became stronger and stronger. Lan Yi flapped his wings fiercely, creating a strong wind. Some herbs were directly blown up and scattered on Yun Feng's body. Yun Feng looked carefully and saw that the herbs that fell on her body were all very expensive herbs!

Looking at the herbs that fell on her body, Yun Feng was a bit dumbfounded. This should be a casual rumor... They were all so precious... The so-called master the boy mentioned was truly not simple!

“Who exactly came so recklessly?” A voice came from the cabin with a hint of anger. The little boy jumped off the Griffin’s back and ran towards the cabin. “Master, it’s me! I’m back!”

A beam of green light flashed and Yun Feng directly retracted Lan Yi. Looking at the herbs in her hand, Yun Feng’s black eyes darkened. Qu Lanyi walked over. “Where is this place? Do you remember? We’ve explored a lot of places on this continent. I... don’t remember this place at all.”

Yun Feng frowned and handed the herbs in her hand to Qu Lanyi. “These are all high-level herbs. Lanyi, look at the herbs planted next to this cabin... They’re all high-level herbs!”

“High-level herbs?” Qu Lanyi was also surprised. Yun Feng nodded. “These herbs are all very precious. They can’t be found easily. There aren’t even many of them. However, here... it completely subverts my understanding of herbs!”

“You know a lot of things.” The voice came from the cabin again. “Were you the one who broke my herbs?”

Yun Feng stepped forward and said loudly, “I didn’t do it on purpose. I just didn’t expect there to be so many herbs here... I was too reckless.”

“Xiao Feng...” Qu Lanyi was surprised. Yun Feng looked at the cabin respectfully and pursed her lips. “Senior... Are you the Stonemother?”

Silence, silence. There was no sound from the cabin. Yun Feng held her breath and waited. After coming here and seeing the situation of the herbs here with her own eyes, she was certain of what her master said in her mind. Different kinds of high-level herbs appeared in this valley in harmony and there were a lot of them. Humans definitely didn’t have the ability to do this! Only the Mother of Earth could do this!

“...Human, tell me your name. Which one will be the first Zen Master-level pharmacist?”

Qu Lanyi widened his black eyes. Yun Feng held her breath. Her master’s guess was right!

Yun Feng clenched her fists and took a deep breath. “I have something to tell you. Senior, please understand that I wasn’t the one who made this bottle of potion, but someone else. I’m not a pharmacist at the Zen Master Level.”

As a matter of fact, Yun Feng knew that her pharmaceutical skills should be completely transparent in front of such... a Magic Beast. If she wanted to hide anything, she would really be showing off in front of an expert.

“Hm, you’re quite honest.”

Qu Lanyi's black eyes glittered. That guy could see through the pharmaceutical level. How did she do it? The bottom line of strength could be seen through, but this pharmaceuticals... shouldn't be able to!

"Human, if you dare to lie to me, I might let you live for the sake of the potion, but I won't let you have a good life. Since you've told the truth, it proves that you're not bad. Come in."

The door of the cabin was opened just like that.. Yun Feng couldn't see the situation in the cabin clearly, but this invitation made her entire heart suddenly burn!

Chapter 2017: New Breakthrough (1)

"Bang, bang, bang." This was Yun Feng's own heartbeat, as if she had never been so nervous before. Looking at the door that was pushed open slightly, Yun Feng took a deep breath gently and only felt that her organs were so transparent, as if they were filled with cold air.

Qu Lanyi patted Yun Feng's shoulder gently. Yun Feng looked back and smiled. She walked forward step by step, but her steps were even slower than she expected. It was only a hundred meters, but it was very difficult for her to walk.

"Why? Are you afraid in your mind?" The voice came from the room again. Yun Feng curled her lips and smiled. "Whether I'm afraid in my mind depends on whether Senior exerts pressure or not."

There was silence in the room. Then, a low laugh came. A clear air current flowed out of the room, instantly relieving all Yun Feng's discomfort. "Come up and let me see who you are."

Yun Feng straightened her back. The weight just then had already disappeared. Her feet immediately became much lighter. She stepped into the room and didn't flinch at all. There was only the momentum of moving forward. Stepping into the door, Yun Feng only felt like she had entered another world!

There was grass under her feet. Looking around, it was just a fantasy land! Herbs that were even more precious than those outside grew here. There were even more species that Yun Feng had never seen before! Yun Feng was shocked when she saw this. She couldn't help but take a few steps forward and look at the herbs growing on her feet. She mumbled, "This is... the Secret Gold Rootless Grass... This area is full of the Secret Gold Rootless Grass!"

This was absolutely impossible in common sense. The Secret Gold Rootless Grass grew sparsely and slowly. How could it appear here in groups? Yun Feng opened her mouth slightly in shock and quickly looked around. There was no one here!

“Senior!” Yun Feng shouted loudly. Her voice echoed in this area full of herbs, which seemed extremely empty. A wind blew from time to time, mixing the smell of all kinds of herbs and pouncing on her. “Senior, I can’t thank you enough if you’re willing to show up!” Yun Feng said loudly again. She searched in other directions carefully with her black eyes, but there was still no response! Gone? Yun Feng was puzzled. She turned around and wanted to walk out, only to find that the entrance she walked in had already disappeared!

She was trapped here! Yun Feng finally understood. Her mental strength instantly surged out of her body and spread in all directions. When it reached the border of the grassland, it was all bounced back!

Such a powerful spatial barrier! Yun Feng was shocked. Her mental strength had been completely bounced back. Unless that Senior was willing to let her go, she would be trapped here forever! How could she do that? Even if it was useless this time, she couldn’t be trapped here!

“Senior, please forgive me if I offended you in any way! I don’t have any ulterior motive! If you’re unhappy, you can kick me out! I’ll never disturb you again! I can’t be trapped here!”

Yun Feng shouted loudly as her voice echoed around her. There was still no response. She couldn’t help but grit her teeth fiercely. Yun Feng moved quickly and soon arrived at the border. Looking at the invisible space barrier in front of her, Yun Feng whispered, “I have no choice. Sorry!”

“Bang!” The heavy fist that gathered power hit the space barrier fiercely and the entire space shook invisibly!

“Buzz...!” An ear-piercing buzzing sound came. Seeing that the space barrier didn’t change at all, Yun Feng wasn’t discouraged. She punched it fiercely one after another!

“Bang, bang, bang!”

“Buzz!”

The sound of fists hitting and the trembling of the space barrier rose and fell.

The strength of the space barrier was far beyond Yun Feng’s imagination. Under the continuous heavy blows, Yun Feng didn’t get anything. The space barrier wasn’t damaged at all!

Yun Feng turned around and looked at the precious herbs on the ground with her black eyes. She gritted her teeth fiercely and flipped her hand. A ball of fire suddenly jumped on it!

“I have a reason why I can’t be trapped here. If Senior doubts this, I’ll burn this area!” The fire in her palm increased greatly, showing a roaring momentum! She couldn’t break the space barrier, but she still had the ability to burn this place down!

“Buzz, buzz...!” The space suddenly trembled slightly at this moment. Yun Feng immediately glanced over and saw the little boy appear out of nowhere, walking over with an unhappy look. ‘Why are you so impatient? If you burn this place down, you’ll probably never be able to get out for the rest of your life.’

“Let me out.” Yun Feng put away the fire and looked at the little boy in front of her. “If you don’t let me out, I’ll do what I say.”

The little boy couldn’t help but shake his head. “It’s useless even if you’re anxious. If you anger Master recklessly, you’ll really be locked here forever. Are you willing to do this?”

Yun Feng frowned. “What does Senior mean?”

The little boy chuckled. “I don’t know what Master means either, but it seems that since Master allowed you to walk in here, he won’t do anything to you. Don’t worry about that.”

Yun Feng frowned. “I can’t stay here for long. There are still a lot of things for me to do!”

“It’s useless for you to be anxious right now. You might as well take things as they come.” The little boy shrugged. “All the herbs here are precious and rare for pharmacists like you. This can be said to be your paradise. You can grab a few handfuls of expensive herbs casually. Why don’t you take some when Master isn’t paying attention?” The little boy chuckled mischievously. Yun Feng raised her brows. “No matter how expensive they are, they still have an owner. What’s the difference between doing this and stealing?”

The little boy was stunned. “...I was, I was just saying...” The little boy walked a few steps and stretched his body. He then said, “Before Master gives you any instructions, you should stay here obediently. It’s not a bad thing for you.” The little boy walked a few steps and pointed at a corner on the side. “There are Flowing Wind Plants growing there. You’ll know if what I said that day is true or not when you walk over.”

“Master won’t do anything to him.” The little boy waved his hand. “Master doesn’t have the bad habit of killing people for no reason. Master is quite easy-going. Alright, I’m going back. Just stay here.” The little boy waved his hand and ran in a certain direction extremely quickly.. Before Yun Feng came back to herself, he had already disappeared!

Chapter 2018: New Breakthrough (2)

“That speed...” Yun Feng frowned and looked around. This was indeed a paradise for pharmacists. Many herbs could only be chanced upon by luck in the outside world. They were like cabbages here.

Looking at the corner the little boy was pointing at, Yun Feng frowned and pondered for a while as she walked over. The closer she got, the more she found that the corner was emitting a faint glimmer. Yun Feng walked over and saw a few transparent plants that were emitting light growing together. They were surrounded by light from head to toe. A faint halo shone around them, looking extremely beautiful.

Yun Feng didn’t need to enter cultivation mode to determine if the boy was telling the truth. This was the real Flowing Wind Plant. What the man of the Alliance of Killers took that day was indeed as he said... a weed. He probably didn’t know what the real Flowing Wind Plant looked like.

Just by standing here and not entering cultivation mode, Yun Feng felt waves of power surging into her from the outside world, pushing the circulation of the power in her body. Yun Feng sat down and looked at the silent and empty scenery around her. She slowly closed her black eyes. Since she couldn’t do anything for the time being, she might as well take this opportunity to increase her strength. With the help of the Flowing Wind Plant, she would definitely get something.

“This human called Yun Feng knows her limits.” Somewhere, a pair of eyes was looking at Yun Feng, who was focused on cultivation. “There are herbs all over the ground that can make people drool, but she didn’t take them. She’s quite calm.”

“Master, do you know the map she mentioned?”

“That’s the map of the Element Seed. She’s here for that information. It seems that the Element Seed has already appeared again.”

“What’s an Element Seed? The seed of herbs?”

“That’s not a seed of herbs. That’s... a seed of elemental power.”

“I still don’t quite understand, but she’s not bad.” The little boy looked at Yun Feng. “Hm? Why is there a five-color wheel next to her? Why is it spinning so quickly?”

“A five-color wheel?!” The voice was full of surprise. The eyes then glanced over. “She’s a five-element summoner!”

“A five-element summoner!” The little boy immediately opened his mouth wide. “How does the power of five elements balance in her body?”

“She’s a five-element summoner... I really didn’t expect her to have already reached the Grandmaster Level. Her strength is also extraordinary! She’s so young and has such high achievements. I’m truly surprised!”

“...She’s really impressive,” mumbled the little boy.

The person looked at Yun Feng for a while and whispered slowly, “She still has a lot of room for development. Whether it’s making medicine or strength, as long as she’s willing to work hard and have some opportunities, it’s expected that she’ll have more achievements. This Yun Feng... Is she really human?” “There’s still room? So, she’ll be even more powerful!”

..That’s indeed the case. I saw it clearly. The elemental energy in her body is like the sea! It’s extremely huge! This is something I’ve never seen before!”

“Master, why do you sound so happy?” The little boy turned around suspiciously and glanced at a certain someone with a smile in his eyes. “Any old guy would snicker when they meet such a good seedling.”

“Master, you mean... Could it be...”

“Hehehehehe.” There was a soft laugh. Then, a glint of light suddenly flashed through the eyes. “I cant miss such a good seedling, especially among humans.”

“Master, you’re so biased.” The little boy pouted in dissatisfaction and a hand slapped him. “If you had some talent in pharmaceuticals, would I still need to beg others? Go get her bottle of Zen Master Level potion. I want to study it.”

“Tsk.” The little boy raised the corners of his mouth. “There’s a condition for that bottle of potion. If you don’t tell her about the map, she’ll definitely not give it to you. She’s very smart.”

“That’s easy. Give this to her.” A slightly tattered book was thrown over. The little boy quickly caught it. “Master, you don’t want this thing anymore?” “It’s useless for me to keep it. Give it to her.”

The little boy nodded and looked at the tattered book in his hand. He flipped through it and a few pages almost fell out. The little boy glanced at the corners and flashed out, going straight to Yun Feng. Yun Feng, who was focused on resting, noticed that someone was approaching. She instantly opened her black eyes and a fierce light flashed. She saw clearly that it was that little boy.

“This is for you. Give me the potion.” The little boy handed over a tattered book. Yun Feng took it suspiciously. She remembered that the little boy mentioned seeing a map in the tattered book earlier. Was this the one?

Opening the tattered book, Yun Feng’s pupils shrank! This was...

“Potion.” The little boy extended his little hand. Yun Feng looked at him, then took out the potion and handed it over. “When will Senior show up? There’s something... I want to ask.”

The little boy tilted his head and pondered for a while. Thinking of what his master said to him just then, he nodded. “When your pharmaceuticals reach the level of a Zen Master and your strength accomplishes a new breakthrough, my master will be able to come out to see you.”

Yun Feng was completely stunned! What kind of request was that? “What... do you mean?”

“That should be what Master meant. You can use whatever herbs you want here. They’ll grow again after you use them up anyway.” The little boy said casually. Then, he turned around and jumped, disappearing again. Yun Feng was a bit stunned. It seemed that this Stonemother wanted to train her? But Why?

After thinking for a while, Yun Feng still couldn’t figure out what this Stonemother meant. In the end, Yun Feng decided not to think about it anymore. Such a good opportunity, such a good environment and the master here wanted her to do this, so she certainly didn’t have to be polite.

Looking at the herbs all around here, Yun Feng chuckled. It would certainly be great if her pharmaceuticals could reach the level of a Zen Master as soon as possible. This place was undoubtedly the best opportunity! It was the same for the growth of her strength! “This is the so-called opportunity... I certainly can’t let such an opportunity slip away casually!” Yun Feng made up her mind. She, who hadn’t improved for a long time, had to grow here!

Once she made up her mind, Yun Feng immediately took action. She had to do both pharmaceuticals and cultivation of strength. Yun Feng’s pharmaceutical method was different. All the troublesome steps could be omitted. She had an absolute advantage in time. If she wanted to reach the level of a Zen Master, she had to consolidate her grandmaster-level pharmaceutical skills first and wait for an opportunity..

Chapter 2019: New Breakthrough (3)

With herbs all around her, Yun Feng didn't have to worry about materials at all.

Even though there were a lot of herbs, Yun Feng didn't want to waste them.

Her pharmaceutical skills had already been unimpeded at the Grandmaster Level right now. If she wanted to enter the Zen Master Level, she could only wait for opportunities. Opportunities had always been given to people who were prepared. Accumulation was also a prerequisite for success.

Yun Feng picked herbs and refined them. In the end, the potions were formed. She made high-difficulty three-star grandmaster potions again and again every day. She didn't fail once after making those potions. Her results were quite remarkable, but Yun Feng felt that she still hadn't touched the level of a Zen Master. Instead, she was getting further and further away.

"I have to think carefully. If I want to reach the level of a Zen Master, there must be some opportunity that I must catch." After the repetitive pharmaceutical process for a while, Yun Feng entered the meditative stage. She couldn't just do things. When she realized that she made a mistake, she had to stop and examine herself before she set off again.

Her master told her a lot of things about the level of a Zen Master. Even though Yun Feng couldn't empathize with him, she remembered them all in her mind. This was her master's precious experience and the precious information she learned.

"The potions at the Zen Master Level all came from the pharmacists themselves. The pharmacists figured it out themselves. No formula is the same. Every formula is unique."

What Feng Qingxuan said echoed in Yun Feng's mind. The potion formulas of the Zen Master Level were so different. The pharmacists figured it out themselves. Why did the potion formulas have to be comprehended by themselves to reach the Zen Master Level? What did it mean?

Yun Feng sat on the ground quietly and looked at the herbs in front of her in a daze. Questions circled in her mind. Self-comprehension...

"Creation... This is the true meaning of the Zen Master Level. Rather than self-comprehension, the potion formulas of the Zen Master Level are all created by the pharmacists themselves! And the key to reaching the Zen Master Level... should be creation!"

The road that had been blocked suddenly became clear! If she wanted to reach the level of a Zen Master, she had to abandon all the potion formulas in the past and create something that belonged to her according to her understanding of elemental energy!

This was the key to entering the level of a Zen Master and also the problem of crossing the level of a Zen Master!

How would a high-achieving pharmacist, especially one who had reached the peak of the grandmaster level, be willing to give up what they had always insisted on so easily? They would never give up the potion formulas they were familiar with and everything they were used to to explore completely unknown areas! Crossing meant giving up and starting over!

This was just so-so for Yun Feng!

Yun Feng already represented starting over. Along the way, starting over was a must!

In the days after that, Yun Feng tried to forget all the potion formulas she was already familiar with and tried to return to her original state. This wasn't easy. She had to try to forget them and it took time. Pursuing the idea of self-creation in her mind, Yun Feng found that her understanding of the world, especially the power of elements, had a completely different feeling. Everything was formed by elements and everything was circulated by elements!

This might be what her master said. The mentality and vision of a Zen Master were completely different. Yun Feng pondered in her mind. For every herb, she wasn't picking and using them as easily as before. Instead, she used her heart and her own power to sense the elemental energy contained in these herbs!

"Yun Feng is quite smart. I thought she would take longer to figure it out... I didn't expect..." A compliment came. A certain someone's eyes couldn't help but be full of surprise. The little boy next to the person said, "Such a fast speed..

She doesn't seem to be unfamiliar with the level of a Zen Master, Master."

"You're right. She must've been taught by a pharmacist at the Zen Master Level. This bottle of potion was also made by that pharmacist." The person gently turned the potion with one hand. The potion in the bottle was colorful and emitted a very beautiful light.

"She's quite lucky. Zen Master-level pharmacists... are rare."

"They're not just rare. We're already lucky to have one." The person held the potion tightly and said again, "It's just a pity that we can't see that pharmacist. However... it's not bad to be able to witness the birth of a new Zen Master."

The little boy couldn't help but turn around. "Master, you still say you're not biased? After all, Yun Feng has nothing to do with you, right?"

The person chuckled and touched the boy's head with one hand. "Nothing to do? That's hard to say."

Ever since Yun Feng walked into that cabin, she hadn't shown up for a while. It would be a lie if Qu Lanyi, who was waiting outside, said that he wasn't in a hurry. From the initial silence, to the anxious pacing after that, to the raging fire in his heart right now, he couldn't wait to rush in. It was very torturous.

It had been so long since Xiao Feng went in. She should be out! Qu Lanyi couldn't wait anymore. If the woman he loved was suffering unimaginable pain inside, he couldn't wait outside like this! He got up and strode towards the cabin. As soon as he took a step, a little figure pushed the door open and walked out, waving at Qu Lanyi. "You can't come in."

"I won't go in. Just tell me if Yun Feng is fine." Qu Lanyi frowned with coldness in his words. The little boy was stunned. "She's very good, even better than you think. "

"If I don't see her with my own eyes, I wouldn't be at ease," said Qu Lanyi. He strode forward and was about to rush in. The little boy quickly pushed him. "You can't come in without Master's permission! She's really fine. If you don't believe me, look!" The little boy flipped his hand and a beautiful bead appeared. The bead was completely transparent.

"Look, isn't she fine?" The little boy moved the bead forward, so that Qu Lanyi could see it more carefully. Qu Lanyi stared at it for a long time and was still a bit suspicious. What if it was all an illusion?

"It won't be good if you break in and make Master unhappy," said the little boy. "Master is very good to Yun Feng and gave her a chance. If you come to cause trouble and make her lose the opportunity, you'll feel bad in your mind, won't you?"

Qu Lanyi was silent. He raised his brows. "It's beneficial to her. I certainly won't interfere.. If it's harmful to her, I won't let it go!"

Chapter 2020: New Breakthrough (4)

"Human kid, you know how to protect her." The voice suddenly sounded again.

Qu Lanyi raised his head and looked straight at the cabin without hesitation.

"It's always been like this. I'm willing to do anything for her!"

"You're being too serious. Master didn't do anything at all and treated her very well." The little boy was a bit unhappy. Qu Lanyi was stunned. Was that really the case? Xiao Feng had never interacted with this Senior before. Why did the person treat her so differently?

“How reckless. It’s my fault.” Qu Lanyi lowered his head. He was just worried about Yun Feng. He was relieved to know that she was fine.

“For your heart, I won’t argue with you. You’re quite strong. Why didn’t you achieve anything in the field of medicine?”

Qu Lanyi curled his lips. “I’m not interested in making medicine at all.”

The little boy curled his lips, but his voice inexplicably smiled. “How rare. If you’re not interested in making medicine, I won’t say anything. Just wait here at ease.”

“I can’t wait to become a pharmacist, but you’re not interested?” The little boy was very depressed. He turned around and approached the cabin, disappearing again. Qu Lanyi looked at the cabin thoughtfully. In the end, he simply sat cross-legged on the ground. Since he had to wait, he shouldn’t waste a lot of time! Xiao Feng would definitely get something inside. He couldn’t be left too far behind.

Another few days passed. Yun Feng followed the philosophy in her mind and continued to explore the field of pharmaceuticals. Self-creation was more difficult than Yun Feng thought. Even so, Yun Feng finally had an idea with her own exploration and testing. Everything in the world was formed by the power of elements. Life forms were like this, matter was like this, and plants were even more so! Every herb could contain multiple elemental energies or just one. What Yun Feng needed to do at this stage was to recognize the elemental composition of all the herbs here!

In Yun Feng’s past pharmaceutical process, she used this principle. She recognized the elements in the potion and finally rearranged these elements perfectly, forming a perfect-quality potion. However, the higher the level of the herbs, the lower the recognition. This was a situation Yun Feng needed to overcome.

The herbs she saw in this area weren’t of a low level at all! If she could identify all these herbs clearly, Yun Feng would gain a lot!

As time passed, Yun Feng’s recognition wasn’t as convenient as before. Right now, she had already identified almost half of the herbs and had a new understanding of the power of elements. All kinds of elemental forces formed everything in the world. The starting point of everything in the world came from the power of elements! Yun Feng gradually understood the real meaning behind the power of the Element Seed.

“It’s time to begin the next step.” Yun Feng whispered. She sat on the ground and a ball of fire appeared in her palm. She casually grabbed a herb and threw it in. The fire instantly swallowed the herb and the herb rolled up and down in the fire. Yun Feng closed her black eyes at the same time. Multiple elemental forces appeared in front of her eyes, just like every time she made medicine.

The power of many elements formed small spots that swam in Yun Feng's world. Yun Feng reached out and grabbed another herb from the side, throwing it directly into the fire. Instantly, more elemental spots appeared. Yun Feng didn't do anything immediately. Instead, she paid close attention to the trajectory of the elemental spots. They collided, swam and innovated on their own. It was the reassembly of the power of elements. Such a combination didn't follow the requirements of any formula in the past. It completely relied on the will of the pharmacist!

Yun Feng took a deep breath. There was no pattern to the medicine-making this time. There were no principles to follow. It was completely unknown. Her mental strength slowly penetrated the fire and the reassembly of the elements began !

Time passed. The fire jumped in Yun Feng's palm and everything passed in silence. The fire suddenly rose and a ball of black smoke came out of the fire. Yun Feng opened her eyes and the fire in her hand disappeared. A ball of charred liquid fell from the fire and was put into the bottle by Yun Feng.

"Master, she failed." The little boy couldn't help but click his tongue when he saw this scene. The person next to him said calmly, "It's impossible to succeed in one try."

"Didn't Master say that she's extremely talented? How can she fail?"

"Do you think it's so easy to reach the Zen Master Level? If she really succeeds on the first try, there might be trouble. Failure isn't a bad thing."

Yun Feng looked at the burnt liquid in front of her and smiled wryly. She also knew that it was impossible to succeed in one try and she had also made full preparations for failure. If she succeeded so easily, she would be too lucky. Looking at the burnt liquid, Yun Feng pondered quietly where the problem was and which segment she needed to pay more attention to.

"After failure, learning from experience is the most precious thing," said a certain someone as while looking at Yun Feng in satisfaction. "Every failure means that she's one step closer to success. Yun Feng has a good mentality, so I said that the Zen Master Level is only a matter of time for her."

The boy nodded as if he understood. "What Master said is too deep, but she can succeed in the end, right?"

"Hehehe." The person touched the boy's head with his big hand. "I didn't say that. "

Another period of time passed. Yun Feng had already failed dozens of times in a row! Every time she tried, every time she summarized, she was even more careful. However, the result every time was failure, without exception.

“What exactly went wrong?” Yun Feng frowned and pondered carefully about the last few times she failed. She was already extremely careful in the places she thought she should pay attention to. Why did she fail in the end?

“Phew...!” Yun Feng heaved a long sigh of relief. She lay on the grass a bit tiredly and looked at the blue sky above her head. Her master said that she had to explore the Zen Master Level on her own and nobody could guide her. It seemed that exploration wasn’t easy either. If she wanted to reach the Zen Master Level, she must be patient.

“Again!” Pulling herself together, Yun Feng threw herself into the new pharmaceutical process again. It didn’t matter if she failed. It didn’t matter if she failed many times. It didn’t matter if she was about to fail! As long as she had faith and confidence in herself, there was nothing that couldn’t be defeated!

“Bang!” A ball of burnt gray smoke appeared again. This time, it directly sprayed on Yun Feng’s cheek and a ball of black mist hung on Yun Feng’s face, looking a bit funny..

Chapter 2021: New Breakthrough (5)

“Again!”

“Bang!” Another failure! “Again!”

“Bang!” Another failure!

She clenched her fists. “Again!”

The person who refused to admit defeat kept persevering. The failures didn’t crush Yun Feng’s confidence. Instead, it made her face failure more courageously! Again! Again! As long as she still had a chance, as long as she could try again, she would never give up!

“Master, she’s already failed a hundred times. Why isn’t she giving up?” The little boy was very puzzled when he saw Yun Feng’s blackened cheeks and messy hair at this moment. Logically speaking, anyone should have given up after failing a hundred times.

“If she gives up so easily, how can she reach the Zen Master Level?” The voice sounded extremely serious. “Can’t you see? Every time she fails, she’s moving forward. It won’t be long before she understands the true meaning of the Zen Master Level.’

“Can she really reach the level of a Zen Master?”

“This human, Yun Feng, is talented and smart. What’s even rarer is that she has longer perseverance and a humbler mind than ordinary people. This also makes me very curious. How can she keep so many characteristics at her current level? Perhaps it’s because of these characteristics that she can reach her current height. This human... surprises me too much.”

The boy didn’t understand. He looked at his master in confusion. When he was about to say something, he heard a hearty laugh. “Hahahahaha!”

The boy quickly glanced over, and so did his master next to him. He saw a woman with a black face smiling and holding a bottle in her hand. The liquid flowing in the bottle wasn’t charred anymore, but an almost transparent liquid that was emitting dazzling light!

“It really worked!” The little boy opened his mouth in shock and was dumbfounded!

“She’s much earlier than I thought.” There was approval in the voice as the person looked at Yun Feng with admiration in the eyes. This human... was truly extraordinary!

After laughing, Yun Feng looked at the liquid in her hand with relief in her eyes. Hard work paid off. After so many failures, she finally succeeded! The Zen Master Level potion, her original potion formula!

“Not bad. You’re more outstanding than I thought.” The voice suddenly sounded. Yun Feng glanced around with her black eyes, but she still didn’t see anyone. Her heart was full of gratitude. Yun Feng said loudly, “Thank you for your help, Senior. I couldn’t have reached such a level without your help.”

“This is just a small matter. It’s also a kind of comfort for me to watch the birth of the Zen Master Level with my own eyes.”

“Thank you for your help, Senior!” Yun Feng knew very well that if it weren’t for such a unique environment, she would have waited a long time until she reached the level of a Zen Master. “If there’s anything I can do, Senior, just tell me. I’ll definitely not reject you!”

The voice chuckled. “Yun Feng, what you have to do right now isn’t over yet. Your pharmaceutical skills have reached a new level, but what about your strength?”

Yun Feng was stunned. She had been immersed in making medicine these days. At first, the two of them went side by side, but in the end, she completely devoted herself to making medicine and forgot about the advancement of her strength. Was this Senior serious? Was he only willing to let her out after her strength made a breakthrough?

“I don’t know you, Senior. Why are you taking care of me?” Yun Feng was puzzled. She had never interacted with Stonemother before and this was the first time she heard this name from her master. However, Stonemother was helping her so much. Why exactly? Perhaps... “Senior, do you know someone from the Yun family?” This was Yun Feng’s only guess. Being able to deal with

Magic Beasts and being taken care of like this, it was very likely that Stonemother had interacted with someone from the Yun family in the past.

There was another burst of laughter. “You don’t have to worry about that. Now that you’ve reached the Zen Master Level, you’ve gained a new understanding of the power of elements. You must have completely understood the importance of the Element Seed.”

“Indeed. The power of elements... can be said to be the source of everything in the world. The Element Seed is even the source of this source! Such a powerful force can’t be taken and used by someone with evil intentions!”

“When your strength reaches a new height, I’ll certainly let you out. I can tell you the map information you need. If you have any doubts, ask me after you come out.”

“Senior...” Yun Feng called out, but nobody replied anymore. She took out the tattered book the boy gave her and looked at the things recorded on it. Yun Feng frowned. She got up and came to the middle of the Flowing Wind Plant.

She slowly closed her black eyes. The five-color wheel then floated around Yun Feng and started spinning.

What she had to do right now was to wait for time to pass quietly, for the accumulation of power, for the moment when she broke out of the cocoon again!

“Master, how long do you think it will take for her to break through this time? Will it take longer than the breakthrough of potions?” The little boy said very excitedly. He was very excited to make guesses about Yun Feng, because she always surprised people.

“That’s hard to say. With her current strength, even with the help of the Flowing Wind Plant, she won’t be able to break through in a short period of time.”

“One year... Ten years? Decades?” The little boy tilted his head, but a certain someone next to him frowned. “Decades? If it really takes so long, I’m afraid it’ll be too late.”

“Too late for what?” The little boy was puzzled. “Right, Master, and that person outside. How is he?”

“Even though that human isn’t like Yun Feng, he’s also very special. There’s something very impressive in his body.”

“What could it be? I can only see how powerful his light element is.”

The person chuckled. “He has the Light Element Seed in his body. However, who exactly put this light element seed into a human’s body and how did they do it? How can this human still live safely until now?”

“Master, according to what you said, these two are both powerful people?”

The little boy raised the corners of his mouth. “Yun Feng is quite like a creature. She spins a cocoon like a silkworm and wraps herself thickly. When she breaks out of the cocoon, she’ll become a butterfly.”

Another round of laughter came. A certain someone shook his head. “The thing that will break out of the cocoon isn’t a butterfly.”

“If it’s not a butterfly, what is it?”

A certain someone’s eyes darkened and said in a low voice, “What comes out of the cocoon is hope, a miracle.”

The little boy frowned and didn’t understand at all. A certain someone’s black eyes were deep while whispering slowly, “For that promise in the past, I have to help her. Then, I’ll be able to repay what I owed in the past..”

Chapter 2022: Waking Up (1)

In a dark valley that was isolated from the world, all kinds of precious herbs were everywhere in the dark green. The fragrance of grass drifted slowly with the breeze, as if there was a faint warm current in the air. In the faint glimmer, a slender figure sat cross-legged peacefully with an indifferent expression. Her black eyes were closed tightly and the five-color wheel around her turned from the initial high speed to its current slow and stable state. Under the effect of the light gathered around, the power of the five elements became thicker and thicker, like five ribbons, coiling around her and lingering slowly.

This place was extremely quiet. There was only the sound of the wind blowing slowly. Even the sound of breathing was very difficult to notice if one didn't listen carefully. The slender figure sitting upright didn't do anything at all. She was as quiet as a statue, waiting quietly for a mature opportunity.

"Whoosh...!" A gust of wind blew and the fragrance of the medicine filled the entire space. It lifted a trace of black hair and jumped in the air. Her slender body was surrounded by the fragrance of the medicine. Her soft hair caressed her face and her closed black eyes and eyelashes trembled slightly. The next second, she opened her black eyes and a glint of light flashed through them. An invisible aura shot out of her body. The fragrance of the medicine that filled the sky spun and suddenly spread in all directions like a whirlpool!

"Master! She opened her eyes!" Seeing Yun Feng open her eyes, the little boy couldn't help but shout. "I thought she was going to turn into a statue just like that." The little boy pursed his lips. "Master, you... smiled!" The little boy turned around and couldn't help but widen his eyes when he saw the smile at the corners of someone's mouth. His master was smiling so happily! This... had never happened before!

"Alright! Even though it's been a long time, it took her much less time than I thought to make a breakthrough from the God Emperor Level! This Yun Feng... indeed has potential!"

"Master, you've never praised me like this." The little boy was a bit upset. A certain someone patted the little boy's head gently. "Bring Yun Feng to me."

"Yes, yes, yes. Got it." The little boy pouted as he pushed the door open and walked out. He was still mumbling softly in his mouth. A certain someone stood right there and looked at Yun Feng, who was cultivating. The corners of his mouth curled up unconsciously again. This Yun Feng... surprised him too much.

Yun Feng opened her eyes and looked at the scene in front of her quietly. For a moment, she didn't do anything. She took a deep breath and closed her eyes again. Everything in the world seemed to be transparent. In her eyes, everything in the world had a unique second form. All kinds of elements jumped in her eyes, so obvious.

"This is the God Venerable Level?" Yun Feng mumbled as she lowered her head and looked at her hand. Her pupils shrank slightly. Her hand turned into the power of five elements and she watched the five colors jump in her body. For Yun Feng, this was a new sight and experience.

"The God Venerable Realm's perception of the world is indeed extraordinary.

Everything in the world is extremely clear in the eyes of the God Venerable. Even the amount of the power is clear." Yun Feng looked around and the corners of her mouth curled up. No wonder her master said that the God Venerable Realm was different. If that was the case, being able to reach the God Venerable Realm meant that she had a new understanding of the origin of this world and a new vision of everything in the world.

A series of light footsteps came into Yun Feng's ears. Yun Feng looked over with her black eyes and waited for a while before a figure finally approached. The little boy walked over from afar. Yun Feng stood up and was a bit surprised that her vision and hearing seemed to have increased a lot.

"Come with me. Master wants to see you." The little boy walked over and said.

Yun Feng nodded. "How's my companion?"

"Very good. Don't worry." The little boy whispered with a slightly unhappy tone. Yun Feng chuckled after hearing that. "Why? Are you hostile to me? I don't remember provoking you."

The little boy looked awkward, as if he had been caught. "You didn't provoke me, but Master likes you very much. He treats you better than he treats me."

Yun Feng even smiled after hearing that. After all, the boy was a kid and would care more. She chuckled a few times in a low voice and didn't say anything. She followed the little boy all the way in. Yun Feng looked at the world that had already changed into a new one in fascination. She looked at it seriously and attentively. She seemed to have found a way of balance among these elements, which made her extremely calm.

"We're here. Let's go in." The little boy stopped. A simple cabin appeared in front of Yun Feng. It was very simple. The little boy pushed the door open and entered. Yun Feng thought for a moment and also pushed the door open. As soon as she stepped in, a warmth spread from her feet to her entire body. It was very comfortable.

"You're here." A voice sounded. Yun Feng only felt a dazzling light coming in front of her eyes. She quickly narrowed her eyes and slowly opened them after adapting. The furnishings in the room were even simpler. There wasn't even a bed. A figure stood with her back facing her and slowly turned around. Even though her face was no different from that of a human being, there were still tiny traces that couldn't be hidden. Those were cracks that belonged to rocks.

In Yun Feng's eyes, this was a collection of all kinds of elements. The power of elements began to extend in all directions from her body, as if it was endless.

"Stonemother..." Yun Feng asked tentatively. She couldn't tell the gender of the master in front of her at all from her appearance. Yun Feng could only call him by her name.

"Haha, even though I showed up as a human being, it doesn't seem to be perfect enough.” The person in front of her smiled gently. There were glimmers on her cheeks that were unusually smooth. Yun Feng glanced at the exposed skin elsewhere. The patterns of the rocks were very obvious.

“It’s perfect, but in my eyes, Senior has a different appearance.” Yun Feng smiled gently. The person in front of her chuckled. “A different appearance? Now that you’ve reached the God Venerable Level, your vision is certainly different. ”

“Senior, you can see my strength level?” Yun Feng was a bit surprised. “It’s not that I doubt your strength, but the God Venerable Level...”

The person in front of him chuckled. “I don’t have any strength to speak of, but the world in my eyes should be the same as the other appearance in your eyes. After all, I’m the Mother of the Earth. You can see the elemental energy in my body very clearly, right?”

Yun Feng nodded. “Forgive me for being blunt. All the elemental energy has been gathered in Senior’s body and the power keeps spreading out. Is this the reason why all the precious herbs growing here are gathered together?”

“You saw it very clearly. That’s indeed the case. The elemental power in my body keeps nourishing this area, so these herbs appear and grow. The power of the elements is truly astonishing. As a pharmacist, you should be able to understand the different effects contained in these herbs and plants..”

Chapter 2023: Waking Up (2)

Yun Feng was silent for a moment and then said, “Senior... Why do you take such care of me? Senior... We’ve never met before, have we?”

The person in front of her chuckled again. “You don’t have to know this. I have conditions for helping you.”

Yun Feng bowed. “Senior, please tell me. I’ll definitely do what I can.”

Stonemother’s face darkened slightly and she said in a low voice, “Have you read the book I gave you?”

Yun Feng straightened her body and looked straight at the person with her black eyes. “Yes.”

“Don’t you have any doubts about the content?”

Yun Feng frowned slightly. “I indeed have doubts in my mind. Senior, are you willing to answer my questions?”

Stonemother raised her brows slightly. “That depends on what question you’re asking. Tell me your doubts first. It’s my business whether I answer or not.”

Yun Feng frowned. Since Stonemother said so, she certainly couldn’t hold back. After reading that book, the doubts in Yun Feng’s mind had been there. Even though she didn’t know if Stonemother would answer, she would feel uncomfortable if she didn’t ask.

“The original appearance of the map of elements was recorded in that book. To be honest, I collected these map fragments and pieced them together to make the map that’s exactly the same as the one you have. It can be seen that the map in Senior’s hand is the original, and what I collected... should be a copy.”

Stonemother didn’t say anything and listened quietly. Yun Feng took a deep breath and said again, “Although I’ve come into contact with the power of the Element Seed before, I’ve never really understood it. After reaching the God Venerable Level, I finally understood how powerful the power of the elements was and also understood what kind of consequences it would cause if someone with evil intentions got the power of the Element Seeds. That book records the source and original form of the seven Element Seeds.”

Yun Feng’s black eyes glittered. “The seven-element Fantastical Beasts... are actually the companion beasts of the seven Element Seeds. Their duty is to protect the Element Seeds from birth to death. The Element Seed gives the Fantastical Beast power, and the Fantastical Beast uses this power to protect it. And Na Xie...” Yun Feng held her breath and her pupils shrank slightly. “It’s the key to balance everything.”

Yun Feng raised her black eyes and whispered slowly, “Senior, who is the Sage?”

Stonemother’s pupils shrank fiercely and the corners of her mouth curled up. “That’s your only question?”

Yun Feng was silent. She still had a lot of questions, but this was the one that had been bothering her in her mind. Sage... The only title that appeared in that tattered book that looked like a human being. There was another identity behind it, which was Na Xie’s master!

Na Xie’s remaining memories were right. He was indeed someone’s follower. This person was the so-called Sage!

Seeing Yun Feng’s gaze, Stonemother said in a low voice, “The so-called Sage is the person in charge of balancing everything and controlling everything in this world.”

Yun Feng was surprised. “Controlling everything? The so-called... Creator?”

Stonemother shook her head. "He's not the Creator. Everything in this world is born from nature. Even the so-called Sage was born from the power of elements. He only has responsibilities on his shoulders. Even I am the same. The power of elements nurtured me and I return this power to this world."

"Now... Does the Sage still exist?"

Stonemother was startled. Then, she whispered, "The Sage already disappeared from this world a long time ago. Na Xie also disappeared with the Sage. To be exact... it was sealed by the Sage."

"He sealed it with his own hands! Why? Isn't Na Xie his follower?"

"Without the Sage, Na Xie will get rid of the restraints sooner or later and cause trouble in the world."

"How can that be?" Yun Feng shook her head. How would Na Xie's personality cause trouble in the world? It wouldn't do that at all!

"Yun Feng, do you know what Na Xie is?" Stonemother looked at Yun Feng. "Na Xie was created by the Sage. It gathered the power of seven elements with the power of the Sage himself. At the same time, it was also infused with the decisiveness of the Sage. Otherwise, how would it become the key to balancing everything? Just like the moon, there's certainly a dark side when there's light."

Yun Feng was stunned! Na Xie had the ability to kill cruelly. Two sides... Na Xie had two opposite sides to begin with!

One was cruel and the other was gentle!

"As time passes, in the process of maintaining the balance of this world, the Sage discovered Na Xie's two sides. Another soul was born in its body, a soul that only knows how to kill cruelly."

Yun Feng's breath tightened! A thought gradually formed in her mind!

"The two souls couldn't coexist in the same body at all, so the Sage separated them. The moment they were about to be separated successfully, the power of elements rioted. The Sage sorted out everything and was exhausted. The soul that was about to be cut apart wanted to escape. The Sage used his last strength to seal it and die at the same time."

"Where was the soul sealed?" asked Yun Feng. Stonemother frowned. "Why? Are you going to investigate? If you accidentally undo the seal, you'll probably be unable to escape."

Yun Feng's face darkened. "No, I think the seal has already been removed!"

"That's impossible!" Stonemother denied firmly. "The Sage sealed it with his own power. How can it escape so easily?"

"Don't underestimate the power of time. It can change a lot of things drastically. Even if it's the power of the Sage, so what? As time passes, it'll slowly weaken. It's already been so long. No matter how powerful it is, there will be a moment when it declines!"

"Yun Feng, you don't know how powerful the Sage was at all!"

Yun Feng's black eyes were burning. "Senior, if you keep staying in the world of the past, how can you see the current world clearly? Senior, if you're here, can you understand what the current world is like?"

Stonemother was stunned. Yun Feng said, "The Blood Souls is an organization that does strange and cruel things. They collect human souls and Beast Souls, search for all kinds of special bloodlines, and have Fantastical Beasts and darkness Element Seed. Killing and bloodshed are their specialty.. Even though we don't know their purpose, the war has already begun!"

Chapter 2024: Waking Up (3)

"Blood Souls..." Stonemother mumbled. "If the power of elements goes into chaos again, I'm afraid this world will suffer another disaster."

"Senior, I've been looking for power that can defeat the Blood Souls in one go. The Blood Souls are also collecting Element Seeds. The darkness seed has been used by them. If the other six elements fall into the hands of the Blood Souls, they'll be the same. By then... even the Sage won't be able to resist."

"There's someone among the Blood Souls who can refine the Element Seed?" Stonemother frowned. "That's impossible! Humans can't do this at all. Even Na Xie can't do it! Not to mention the other Magic Beasts!"

"Senior, believe it or not, it's already the truth."

Stonemother immediately looked awful. She looked at Yun Feng with an extremely complicated expression. "Nobody can control the Element Seed, except for one person, the Sage himself!"

Yun Feng was completely stunned! Only the Sage could control the Element Seed! The darkness seed of the Blood Souls could be used. Perhaps... the Soul Master of the Blood Souls was...

"The Sage died a long time ago. It's impossible for him to become the mastermind of such an organization," said Stonemother with a deep expression. Yun Feng frowned and suddenly felt like a huge rock was pressing on her heart. If that was the case, her final enemy would be this Sage, Na Xie's original master. What were her chances of winning?

"Is it possible for the Sage to be reborn?" asked Yun Feng. If the Sage could be reborn, there might be a change. There might even be an accident in the process. The Blood Souls had the power to use the Element Seed. Only the Sage could have such control!

"Rebirth... I don't know about that, but there's one thing I'm sure of. If Na Xie is reborn, the Sage will be the same. However, Na Xie hasn't appeared since it was sealed. The Sage..."

"No, Na Xie has already been reborn." Yun Feng whispered with a gloomy look. Na Xie was in her body right now and the other soul he was separated from earlier should be Red-Eyed!

"Na Xie has been reborn? It..." Stonemother was shocked. Yun Feng said, "It's absolutely true. Na Xie is indeed reborn. There's another soul of his in my body."

Stonemother's pupils shrank fiercely! What did Yun Feng say? Na Xie was in her body? How was that possible? "That's impossible..."

"Senior, there are a lot of things I still don't know right now, but Na Xie is indeed in my body. It's absolutely true." Yun Feng said in a deep voice. "Na Xie's power and memories are sealed, but as time passes, he vaguely returns some. He's stored his power in my body right now. Senior, if you don't believe me, you can investigate."

Stonemother looked at Yun Feng in shock. After examining her, Stonemother was even more surprised! How was that possible... Everything Yun Feng said was true!

"I must stop the Blood Souls, even if the Soul Master is really the reborn Sage!" Yun Feng whispered. The Blood Souls' enthusiasm for the bloodline of the Yun family gave Yun Feng reason to believe that the Blood Souls must be involved in the Yun family's sudden demise! This Soul Master was even more so! He could do it so cleanly without leaving any clues. Who else could it be other than the Blood Souls? Had they already targeted the Yun family so long ago?

“With your current strength, even if you’re a God Venerable, you’ll still be destroyed by the Sage,” said Stonemother. “The Sage has the power to control the Element Seed. How can you compare? Even if you have unique talent, it’s still... difficult for you to resist the Sage.”

“So, I’m looking for a way to make myself stronger. If the Sage can control the Element Seed, I can certainly compete with him if I can do the same!”

“The Sage was born from the power of elements, which allows him to control the Element Seed. You have a human being. The power of the Element Seed is too great for you!”

“I have Na Xie’s power in my body. Can’t I use Na Xie’s power?”

Stonemother was stunned again and looked at Yun Feng in shock. She knew how powerful the Sage was, but she still had to do this. She was just a human being. How could she have... such a persistent faith? Wasn’t she afraid of death?

“Yun Feng, even if you can control the Element Seed, even if you succeed, the Sage is Na Xie’s real master after all. If everything changes, have you thought about what will happen to you?”

Yun Feng was silent. Stonemother continued, “Even though your soul won’t be destroyed after you die, once your soul is wiped out, you won’t have any chance of rebirth. Is it worth it? This world can’t be saved by yourself. Your chance of winning against the Sage is almost zero! Whether you win or not can’t stop the Sage at all. This world will eventually go in a fixed direction!”

Yun Feng curled her lips. “What’s so scary about dying? It’s not that I’ve never experienced death. It’s not that I’ve never experienced rebirth! I have to protect the people I love. I didn’t come to this world to watch this world go to ruin! So what if I’m alone? I’m not fighting alone. Everyone is working hard. I’m not moving forward alone!”

Stonemother fell silent. Then, she heaved a long sigh. “Humans are weak in my eyes. Their bodies and minds are weak. However, on you, it completely subverts my opinion. I’m afraid there’s a reason why Na Xie is attracted to you.” Stonemother’s expression changed and her tone became serious. “The power of elements is disrupted. I don’t want to see such a situation. Since you have this belief, I’ll definitely help you. The Sage is the guardian and balancer of this world. If he goes the wrong way, he should be destroyed.”

“Senior, I can’t thank you enough if you’re willing to help!”

Stonemother said with an even more serious expression. “Even if you have Na

Xie's power in your body, your body is still weak against the power of the Element Seed. If you really want to control the power of the Element Seed, you'll very likely face the abyss of death. Are you aware of that?"

Yun Feng clenched her fists hard and her nails sank into the flesh of her palms. Death... As she said, she had already experienced it and was already fearless!

Qu Lanyi, who had been cultivating quietly outside, suddenly opened his black eyes. His heart raced just then, making him panic. Qu Lanyi was no longer in the mood to cultivate. Looking at the cabin with the door closed in front of him, he felt a bit uneasy..

2025 Waking Up (4)

Counting the days, it had been a long time since Xiao Feng went in. There was no news from inside at all. Even though Xiao Feng wouldn't be in danger, why was he so anxious right now? Qu Lanyi frowned. Pacing on the spot, his heart raced and the uneasiness became stronger and stronger!

"Ugh!" Suddenly, pain came from his chest. Qu Lanyi immediately pulled his clothes open. The blood-red gears in his heart had already appeared and were slowly spinning on their own!

I didn't control it. Why did it appear on its own? Qu Lanyi immediately checked in surprise and found that the power left by the Red-Eyed in his body was causing trouble in the dark!

"What exactly happened?!" Qu Lanyi endured the pain in his chest and was powerless to stop the blood-red gears from spinning. Why did the power of the Red-Eyed suddenly activate? Wasn't it fine in his body just then? Perhaps... something happened to Xiao Feng!

"Xiao Fengfeng... be fine!" Another strong pain came. Qu Lanyi's lips were slightly pale and there was sweat on his forehead. Red dark patterns began to spread from the center of the blood-red gear to his cheeks!

"Red-Eyed, how can I lose to your remaining power?" A smile appeared on his handsome face and his black eyes were completely stained with blood!

Red patterns were still spreading on Qu Lanyi's cheeks, looking a bit shocking. He slowly closed his blood-red eyes and the power of light and darkness in his body started a tug-of-war. Light and darkness elements slowly spread out of Qu Lanyi's body, like two ferocious beasts confronting each other, waiting to kill each other!

"Master, can they succeed?" asked the little boy curiously. Stonemother next to her looked at Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi solemnly and frowned. "I don't know if they can succeed or not. They might not know themselves, but... I believe in the choice of elemental power."

"Master, what does this mean?"

Stonemother looked at the two figures who were also sitting with their eyes closed and whispered slowly, "It's not a coincidence that they were chosen. The elements themselves have vitality. The people they chose can't be wrong."

"You still haven't contacted Feng?" In the Yun family, Yun Qi roared at the Sound Transmission Jade with a sullen face. He frowned hard and almost crushed the Sound Transmission Jade completely with the force of his hand!

"Brother, don't be anxious. Even though my father and I haven't contacted Feng yet, she'll be fine!" Yun Sheng's voice came from the jade pendant. Even though he was comforting him, his tone was not soothing. Yun Qi frowned hard again. "Brother, you can't contact Naxi Lanyi either?"

"Father and I have already asked the leader of the Naxi family to contact him. Similarly... he can't contact him."

"Pa!" The Sound Transmission Jade was instantly crushed by Yun Qi!

"Brother... Brother..." Yun Sheng's voice came from the Sound Transmission Jade intermittently. It was extremely broken and finally disappeared completely.

"Yun Qi, Yun Feng will be fine." Gong Tianqing couldn't help but say when she saw this. The muscles all over Yun Qi's body were completely tightened. His originally sunny handsome face was full of stubble at this moment and he looked a bit haggard.

"It's already been three years! Feng only went to auction the potion. The auction has already ended. How can she not come back? In these three years, even if something happens to Feng, how can she not reply when I contact her with the Sound Transmission Jade? And that kid from the Naxi family is the same!"

Gong Tianqing bit her lips and didn't say anything. For three years, Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi seemed to have disappeared from the world. The East and West Alliance sent out forces to almost search the entire continent, but they couldn't find anything! They didn't find anything on the three continents or the Endless Ocean! Even if it was somewhere else, the Sound Transmission Jade should be able to connect to them!

Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi's disappearance caused all kinds of guesses. The war between the East and West Alliance and the Blood Souls continued in the past three years, and Yun Feng and Qu Lanyi's disappearance caused quite a commotion in the East and West Alliance. Yun Feng had been gone for a long time in the past, but the situation was different now. As the soul of the East and West Alliance, Yun Feng's disappearance could be said to be a huge blow.

There were all kinds of theories. The people of the East and West Alliance were disorganized. Luckily, Yan Ming moved quickly and swept away all kinds of theories, stabilizing the disorganized people of the East and West Alliance. However, Yun Feng's disappearance was still a shadow in people's minds.

The East and West Alliance searched everywhere, but to no avail. The situation finally stabilized, and the rumors rose again. This time, even Yan Ming had a headache. Yun Feng didn't show up, and he couldn't find her. If this continued, it would probably be bad.

"There's still no news?" Yan Ming frowned. There was almost a small mountain between his brows. The person in front of him said, "No, there's no news from the Yun family. It's the same with the leader of the Naxi family. We've contacted all the people related to Yun Feng, but we can't contact her. General Manager, what should we do next?"

Yan Ming raised his head with a gloomy face. "Continue contacting them, of course. Continue sending people to find them!"

"Yes, sir!"

The person quickly left. Yan Ming wasn't in a good mood. He put his hand down on the desk in front of him fiercely. "Yun Feng! Where exactly are you?"

"No! I'm going to find Feng!" In the Yun family, a figure couldn't sit still anymore and rushed out. Gong Tianqing quickly stopped him. "You don't have any idea at all. How can you find her?"

"Even so, I can't wait here!" Blue veins appeared on Yun Qi's forehead and he clenched his fists tightly. His only precious sister was missing. Even if Feng was strong and she still had a lot of Magic Beasts with her, Feng would be in danger if she met the masters of the Blood Souls! Besides, he couldn't contact that kid of the Naxi family. He didn't even dare to think about the reason why the two of them disappeared together!

"Yun Qi! Calm down! Don't you trust Yun Feng's ability? Besides, the East and West Alliance has already searched the place you're going to more than four or five times! You should think more calmly right now. Is there any place we missed? Don't run out so blindly!"

What Gong Tianqing said stunned Yun Qi. Right, Tianqing was right. He had no idea where to go. The East and West Alliance had searched all the places he could go to, but they still couldn't find her! It was time to calm down and think carefully about where Feng could go. They missed her!

2026 Waking Up (5)

"Calm down. Yun Feng will be fine," said Gong Tianqing as she held Yun Qi's hand. Yun Qi's black eyes darkened. Feng, where exactly are you?

In the headquarters of the East and West Alliance, Yan Ming was at a loss. Another period of time had passed, but there was still no news from Yun Feng. His mind was about to crack. He couldn't figure out how she could disappear for a reason! Did she go to a place that the Sound Transmission Jade couldn't reach? However, it had already been three years. Wasn't she away for a bit too long?

"General Manager, I've found it." A person walked in in a hurry. Yan Ming's black eyes brightened. "Tell me."

"After the auction, Master Yun Feng disappeared from Chunfeng Town with the bidder. It's very likely that Master Yun Feng went with the bidder."

Yan Ming's face darkened. That little boy was the winner. What Yun Feng wanted wasn't with the little boy, so she would definitely go back with the little boy. She would definitely expect someone to interfere on the way. So, if calculated...

"Go and investigate the three people who made the final bid that day," said Yan Ming. The person immediately left. Yan Ming sat there with a frown and tapped the smooth table with his finger. This was the only clue he could find at the moment. He hoped that there would be a result.

A few days had passed. Yan Ming didn't expect everything to be futile after all. "What? You can't find anything!" After hearing the report of the person, Yan Ming roared. The person said intermittently, "General Manager, we indeed can't find anything. These three people don't seem to have shown up on the continent before the auction this time. This auction is the only time these three people show up!"

The clues were gone just like that... Yan Ming frowned. Suddenly, someone pushed the door open and entered, sounding very anxious. "General Manager Yan, there's another commotion on the West Continent. We don't seem to be able to suppress them with what we said earlier."

"Where... did the commotion on the West Continent first happen?"

"It's the Ancestral Forest Hall. I heard that a lot of people have already quit the East and West Alliance there. There are even a lot of false rumors circulating. They say... Master Yun Feng is already gone..."

Yan Ming looked completely gloomy. "It's indeed the most restless place. It was like this in the past and it's even more so now. It seems that if we don't deal with it completely, such a commotion will spread to the entire East and West Alliance sooner or later."

"My lord, do you need me to deal with it?" A graceful figure walked in. Yan Ming shook his head. "You can't suppress it at all. If I'm right, the Ancestral Forest Hall and the Thousand Snow Hall are going to do something this time. One rat poop can ruin a pot of soup, let alone two!"

"No matter how you deal with it, my lord, you can only postpone the situation. The real solution is for Yun Feng to come out!"

Yan Ming's black eyes were gloomy and fierce. "You think I don't know? There's nowhere for me to find her right now. She spent a lot of effort building the East Continent and the West Continent Alliance. If it's shaken because of this and the Blood Souls take advantage of the situation, none of us will be able to survive."

Yan Ming got up. "Make some changes to what we said earlier. I'll go to the West Continent. Tell the elders of the Yun family and the leader of the Naxi family that they'll have to take care of the matters of the East and West Alliance for now."

"My lord..." The graceful figure still wanted to say something, but Yan Ming waved his hand. "Go spread the news. You must let the Blood Souls know."

"My lord, what's the news?"

Yan Ming sneered. "They guessed that Yun Feng was the Zen Master Level pharmacist who made that bottle of potion."

"My lord, what... does this mean?"

Yan Ming turned around. "We have to divert the attention of the Blood Souls. A Zen Master Level pharmacist is quite tempting to the Blood Souls. If we can't find Yun Feng, let someone else help."

In the valley, the two figures were immersed in the passage of time safely. They didn't even open their eyes. They let time pass quietly and everything in the outside world changed. The two of them were immersed in an absolute silence just like that. All sound in the outside world was cut off.

"Master, it's been so long, but there's still no movement?" The little boy was bored. He blinked his big eyes a few times and looked at the two motionless wooden figures. He couldn't help but yawn, looking very lethargic.

Stonemother didn't say anything. She glanced at the two young people. "This is a long process. They..." Stonemother suddenly stopped talking and stared at the two motionless young people. After staring at them for a long time, Stonemother suddenly put on a smile. "It seems that I was wrong about them again."

The boy didn't understand. He glanced around and his entire body bounced up! He pointed at the two people in the picture and widened his eyes. "Master! Master! They..."

The two people, who didn't move like stone statues, had already opened their eyes completely at this moment! The two young people, who seemed to have been asleep for a long time, were completely awake at this moment!

Chapter 2027: Return (1)

"Haha." A low laugh came out of Stonemother's mouth with unconcealable relief and praise. The little boy's opened mouth still hadn't closed. He looked at the two of them carefully with his big eyes. "The two of them haven't changed much. I can't see any results."

"Some changes can't be measured with the naked eye. You must look at them with your heart." Stonemother patted the little boy's head. "Tell Yun Feng what I told you. Then, you can let those two people leave."

"Master, are you going to let them go just like that? Don't you like that Yun Feng very much? Why don't you keep her here?"

Stonemother shook her head. "There are some things that only she can do. Even if I force her to stay, she'll think of a way to leave. Rather than that, it's better to let her walk freely. There are many possibilities that we can look forward to."

"Master, what you said is getting more and more mysterious. I don't understand at all." The little boy frowned. What his master said was too difficult for him to understand.

"It'll be strange if you understand. Go out quickly," said Stonemother as she pushed the little boy gently. The little boy shook his little head and pushed the door open, walking out. His little body soon disappeared.

Yun Feng, who opened her eyes, sat quietly and didn't do anything. The process of absorbing the Element Seed was very strange. There was no lack of hardships, but in the last moment of success, she experienced another kind of complete relief and detachment. The powerful natural energy nurtured by the Element Seed represented the original meaning of this world. Any life would have a beginning and an end, originating from the power of elements. The moment its life ended, the energy of the Element Seed would return.

It was like an endless cycle. The power of elements couldn't be completely controlled. All they could do was borrow it. They could borrow the power of elements to strengthen themselves. This power didn't belong to them to begin with. Even if they lost it one day, they wouldn't have any regrets.

"Gain or lose... Is it so simple?" Yun Feng mumbled. What she learned wasn't to absorb the energy of the Element Seed. What she learned was to resonate with the Element Seed and borrow its power. One day, she would have to return it exactly.

"Yun Feng, I'm surprised that you can understand this level." Na Xie's voice slowly sounded in her mind. Yun Feng had been borrowing Na Xie's power constantly during this period of time. Na Xie had also come into contact with the Element Seed directly and accumulated a lot of energy. It was a huge benefit for Na Xie.

Yun Feng curled her lips. The water element seed she had already found existed safely in her body right now. The crystal clear blue bead floated in Yun Feng's spiritual space. Na Xie's power slowly enveloped the bead, which was completely isolated from Yun Feng's elemental power. The two of them had reached a perfect state of coexistence.

"I benefited a lot from it. Stonemother... taught me a lot of things." Yun Feng whispered. Na Xie chuckled. "Thanks to you, with the help of the Element Seed, I'll be able to reappear much closer."

Yun Feng frowned. She didn't know if she should tell Na Xie about the Sage. If it knew that the final enemy it was about to face would be its former master, what would Na Xie think? Would it be swayed?

"About Red-Eyed, it can be said to be your other half. What do you plan to do?

Devour it completely?"

Na Xie was silent for a while. Then, his deep voice sounded. "Devour... I can't do this. He can be said to be the second me. His strength is comparable to mine.

The only thing I can do is to suppress him and not let him appear again. As my strength increases, the effect of suppressing him will be even better. However, Yun Feng... When I come out of your body, Red-Eyed won't be suppressed by me at all. He might also struggle out of your body. By then..."

"If that is the case, the fate of the Red -Eyed wouldn't change. I will do what was done in the past."

"In the past...?" Na Xie was puzzled. His memories of a long time ago still hadn't recovered. Yun Feng smiled lightly. "Nothing. You don't have to worry about that. I'm no longer that little girl back then. Even if Red-Eyed appears, I won't lose to him!" Yun Feng stood up and patted her clothes. "I should thank Stonemother properly."

"There's no need. Master said you can leave." The little boy walked out of nowhere and looked at Yun Feng with his little face. "Master asked me to tell you that since you've succeeded, you can leave."

Yun Feng raised her brows. How could she be someone who would leave without saying thank you? "Senior! No matter what, let me thank you in front of you!" Yun Feng said loudly. Her voice spread throughout this area. After a while, a voice came slowly. "You don't have to do this. I'm not the reason why you've made achievements. If you didn't work hard, you wouldn't have accomplished this. We just met by chance. You can leave."

"But Senior..." Yun Feng still wanted to say something, but the little boy was a bit impatient. "Master asked you to leave. Just go!"

Yun Feng's black eyes darkened. Looking at the little guy whose face said "Go quickly", she couldn't help but chuckle. "I know you hate me. I'll indeed leave this place, but before that, does the Senior have anything else to say to me?"

The boy pursed his lips. "No."

Yun Feng raised her brows. This kid was obviously lying. He was a kid after all and couldn't hide secrets at all.

"Really? If not, why don't I wait a while longer? Perhaps Senior wants to tell me in person."

"Yes! Yes!" The little boy quickly said when he heard that Yun Feng was going to stay. His cheeks were a bit red. "Master asked me to tell you that the terrain drawn on the map is a place called the Thousand Mysteries Mountain Range on the West Continent right now. You can go there to find it."

"Thank you for telling me, Senior!" Yun Feng bowed respectfully in an unknown direction. "In that case, I'll take my leave."

The little boy was quite happy to hear that. "This way. I'll take you out." He hopped all the way forward. Yun Feng followed behind with a low laugh and looked at the precious herbs everywhere. After all, they belonged to Stonemother. Even though she needed them very much, she still didn't say anything.

"Wait." Stonemother's voice came. The little boy's body suddenly froze. Yun

Feng was a bit surprised.. "Senior, is there anything else?"

Chapter 2028: Return (2)

The little boy stood there with his little head lowered. Stonemother's voice sounded. "This isn't the only thing I wanted you to say."

"Master..." The little boy mumbled reluctantly. Yun Feng frowned. Was there anything else? "Senior, just tell me what you need! I won't decline!"

"Kid..." Stonemother sighed helplessly. "You still have to let me say it myself. Yun Feng, you can take all the herbs here. For a Zen Master Level pharmacist, the herbs here can only be chanced upon by luck. It's very difficult for you to find them in the outside world."

Yun Feng was shocked. Looking around, there were at least a thousand herbs in this huge area. Did she have to take them all away? "This... is too much!"

Besides, if I take them all away..." Yun Feng felt bad. Stonemother chuckled. "With me here, they'll break out of the ground again one day. You don't have to worry about anything else."

Yun Feng was quite relieved after hearing that. She indeed needed these herbs. No matter what formula the Zen Master Level potion was, the herbs she needed couldn't be bought with money! Besides, for the most basic Secret Gold Rootless Grass, her master had already used it up. If she made the Zen Master Level potion, it would be a necessity!

"Thank you for your gift, Stonemother! I... will only take what I need!" Yun Feng didn't argue. Since Stonemother was willing to give it to her, it would be too fake if she rejected the offer again. She might as well accept this kindness obediently. There were still things she might need in the future. Yun Feng picked a hundred different kinds of herbs, but there weren't many of them. According to Yun Feng's estimation, she could make five bottles of potions with the herbs. Of course, this included the probability of failure.

Even though there weren't many of each herb, there were a lot of different types. Together, they weren't a small number and were quite magnificent in dimension containers.

"You only picked so few?" Stonemother was puzzled. Yun Feng had only picked less than 1% of the total amount. Any pharmacist wouldn't let go of such a large treasure vault of herbs, not to mention that all of them were precious!

"They're enough. It's useless to be greedy," said Yun Feng. "Besides, I've just reached the Zen Master Level. I still need an opportunity to understand the potion formula. There are so many herbs that I can't finish in a hundred years."

“If you say so, so be it.”

Yun Feng looked up. “I have to say something else. If you have any request, Senior, I’ll definitely not reject it! I’ve received so many favors from you. I should repay you!”

Stonemother chuckled. “I certainly have something for you to do. Let this kid follow you.”

Yun Feng was stunned after hearing that! The little boy quickly raised his little head. “Master! You don’t want me anymore!”

“Senior... There’s nothing wrong with this kid being here. Senior, what do you mean... you want me to take care of him?” Yun Feng didn’t understand. Stonemother treated this little boy very well. Why did she ask this kid to follow her now? Her journey in the future would be extremely dangerous. It might be a bit inappropriate for this kid to follow her...

“You’ve been noisy all day and made me frustrated. Now that I have a chance, I certainly have to kick you out.” Stonemother’s smiling words came. The little boy’s eyes immediately turned red and tears welled up in his eyes. Yun Feng was a bit at a loss when she saw this. She quickly squatted down and wiped the rolling tears with her hand.

“Boohoo... Master, I’ve made Master hate me. Master doesn’t want me anymore... Boohoo...” The little boy cried sadly as tears kept rolling down. Yun Feng was at a loss. “Senior, what do you mean? I don’t understand. It’s not appropriate for me to bring a child with me in the future. Besides, leaving this place is full of danger for him, who doesn’t have the strength to even truss a chicken. Why don’t you...”

“Doesn’t have the strength to even truss a chicken?” Stonemother’s voice gave Yun Feng an epiphany. Perhaps... this kid was also someone who hid himself well? Looking at the crying child in front of her and his previous appearances, Yun Feng found it very difficult to associate him with a powerhouse...

“This kid will help you,” said Stonemother. “Can’t you see through what you couldn’t in the Dast now? Take a good look at this kid.’

Stonemother’s voice was like a guidepost. Something she couldn’t see through in the past, but could... Yun Feng was enlightened! Her pupils changed wonderfully and the world in front of her eyes turned into beautiful colors, including the little boy in front of her!

“This is...” Yun Feng was shocked. She looked at the child in front of her and remained silent for a long time!

“That’s right. This kid... is the Wind Element Seed.” What Stonemother said made Yun Feng’s heart tremble fiercely! In her vision, there was a kind of element composition all over this kid’s body, which was the wind element that was as green as jade! A jade bead was spinning slowly and constantly floated in the air in front of his chest like a heart. Endless wind element energy was emitted from this bead, which was the wind element seed!

“I gave him such a form, but I didn’t expect him to have all the emotions of humans. I’m really surprised.” Stonemother said with admiration in her words. Yun Feng’s pupils shrank and her vision returned to normal. The little boy in front of her continued to shed tears. She had already seen the fact that the Element Seed could have different forms. Wasn’t the Fire Element Seed the best example? Now, the Wind Seed had advanced another level. How was it different from a living creature?

“Master, you don’t want me anymore!” The little boy roared aggrievedly with grievance and pain written all over his little face. Yun Feng held his little hand. The little boy was stunned. He raised his head and looked at her in a daze. Yun Feng then found that the color in this kid’s eyes was dark green light.

“It’s not that she doesn’t want you. You’re just leaving for the time being. You’ll come back here one day.” Yun Feng said softly with a voice as gentle as the wind. The boy’s tears stopped. “Really?”

Yun Feng nodded with a smile. “It’s true. This is where you’ll return in the end. Senior will also wait for you here.”

The little boy raised his little face and shouted loudly after hearing that,

“Master! Is she telling the truth?”

The voice floated around in the empty space. The little boy waited with a tense face and couldn’t help but hold Yun Feng’s hand even tighter. The strength was far beyond Yun Feng’s expectation. Yun Feng almost cried out in pain accidentally and could only grit her teeth and endure it.

“Of course.” Stonemother’s words came with a sense of floating. The little boy immediately shouted again, “Master! Master!” However, no matter how many times he called out, nobody replied..

Chapter 2029: Return (3)

The little boy looked around in confusion with a slightly lonely expression. Yun Feng, who finally eased the pain in her hand, raised the corners of her mouth.

“If Senior says so, you’ll definitely come back here.”

The little boy grunted and finally found that he was holding Yun Feng’s hand. He quickly shook off his hand and walked forward stubbornly. Yun Feng frowned. That wouldn’t do. Even though the Wind Seed had transformed into a human being, it obviously had the mind of a child. If something went wrong... she had to tie him to her.

“Stonemother said in private that you can only come back under my guidance. Otherwise, you won’t be able to come back here.” Yun Feng followed behind and said casually. The little boy turned around. “You’re lying!”

Yun Feng chuckled. As expected, even though his real form was the Wind Element Seed, he was no different from a kid right now. He was easily confused and easily... deceived.

“If you don’t believe me, you can stay away from me after leaving this place and try to come back.” Yun Feng said casually. The little boy suddenly clenched his fists in front of her and didn’t say anything. Yun Feng curled her lips secretly. Kids wouldn’t know how to turn back if they didn’t hit the wall.

The two of them pushed open a door and left the place of herbs. Yun Feng stepped out of this door and found that she walked out of the original room. The man with an unshaven beard standing outside was Lanyi!

“Xiao Fengfeng!” Qu Lanyi quickly ran over and pulled Yun Feng into his arms, hugging her fiercely. His arms wrapped around her so tightly. His slightly heavy breathing echoed in Yun Feng’s ears and his scorching heartbeat pressed against her chest.

“Lanyi...” Yun Feng let him hug her and only mumbled his name. The man tightened his arms, as if he didn’t want to let go at all. He buried his head in her long hair and his stubble brushed against Yun Feng’s neck, making Yun Feng feel a slight pain and itch. Yun Feng couldn’t help but move her body.

“Don’t move.” The man’s deep voice came with a slight hoarseness. Yun Feng’s heart ached when she heard that. She was focused on cultivation inside, which almost made her forget the passage of time. She thought only a while had passed, but it had actually been too long.

The two of them hugged each other and remained silent. A little figure suddenly opened the door and rushed in. He thought he could go back again, but he could only stand there in disappointment. Looking at the room in front of him, the little boy couldn’t help but tear up again. Master really didn’t want him anymore...

After standing there quietly for a while, the boy suddenly wiped his tears with the back of his hand and ran out with his legs, saying loudly, “Can you really guide me back to Master?”

The man and woman in each other's arms finally moved. The man let go of his arm slightly and looked at the kid in front of him in confusion with his black eyes. Yun Feng said, "Of course. Do you trust me?"

"If you dare to lie to me, I won't let you go!" The little boy said angrily. Yun Feng chuckled. "Of course I won't lie to you."

The little boy looked at Yun Feng. "Then, do you... have a place where you can put me? I don't want to... be a lackey."

"This kid wants to follow you?" Qu Lanyi whispered in confusion. Why did Xiao Fengfeng want such a kid to follow her?

Yun Feng smiled gently. "Got it." A beam of light flew over and enveloped the little boy's body, then disappeared. Yun Feng had planned to put him into the Dragon Palace. She wouldn't expose such a wind seed with the mind of a child no matter what.

"Why are you taking him with you?" Qu Lanyi frowned. Yun Feng was about to explain, but looking at the handsome face full of stubble in front of her, she was a bit speechless. She could only look at him quietly and see every bit of vicissitude on his face.

"What's wrong?" Qu Lanyi asked softly when he saw that Yun Feng was only staring at him and not saying anything. Yun Feng raised her arm and slowly touched his handsome face. There was a rough feeling under her fingers.

Qu Lanyi touched his chin and found stubble. He couldn't help but chuckle. "Why? Do I look very haggard?"

Yun Feng shook her head. "No, you're still handsome."

Qu Lanyi curled his lips. "It seems that my wife is very satisfied with my current appearance, but in my eyes, even though you have an ashen face, you're still extremely stunning."

Yun Feng was stunned. She belatedly saw her reflection in the eyes of the man in front of her. Wasn't her face just like a cat's? A few black lines spread on her face. Yun Feng finally remembered that she must have been in a sorry state when she made the medicine. She forgot about it afterwards.

In front of the men they loved, women all wanted to show their best side. Yun Feng suddenly blushed and wanted to turn around in embarrassment, but Qu Lanyi held her firmly.

"I'm so ugly... Let go of me quickly." Yun Feng lowered her head and wanted to hide herself, but Qu Lanyi shook his head and wrapped his arm around Yun Feng fiercely.

He raised her face with his other hand. "You're not ugly. In my eyes, Xiao Feng isn't ugly in any way."

"Nonsense." Yun Feng whispered. She wanted to turn her face to the side, but she couldn't. The man chuckled in joy and exerted strength with his fingers, lifting Yun Feng's lower forehead forcefully again. He pressed his lips down without letting her say anything. Hot temperature began to spread from his lips. Yun Feng only felt embarrassed and anxious.

They kissed passionately, mixed with their intertwined breaths. Yun Feng's cheeks were red and her body went limp as she leaned in the man's arms. Qu Lanyi picked Yun Feng up by her waist and strode forward.

"Lanyi, where are we going?"

Qu Lanyi laughed and soared into the sky with the beauty in his arms. After a while, he landed again and came to a hot spring! Steam spread out of the lake, making people's hearts warm. Qu Lanyi put Yun Feng down with glittering black eyes. "Even if we don't despise each other's messy look, we can't go out just like that. There happens to be a hot spring here. Wouldn't it be a pity if we don't use it?"

"But..." Yun Feng looked at the man who was taking off his clothes in front of her. He had already taken off his coat and the outline of his strong body could be vaguely seen. Yun Feng completely blushed.. This was outside... If someone saw her...

Chapter 2030: Return (4)

"Haha!" Qu Lanyi burst into laughter and looked at Yun Feng, who was blushing, teasingly. "Don't worry. There won't be anyone else here except you and me. Even if there is, they won't be able to see anything outside my barrier."

"Swish!" The last piece of clothing landed on the ground and the man's perfect body appeared in front of Yun Feng without any cover. Yun Feng was so embarrassed that she didn't know where to look. "Get down quickly!"

With a chuckle, the man's body didn't leave. Instead, he leaned over. Yun Feng wanted to step back, but the man pulled her over with his hand and locked her in his arms. Yun Feng didn't know where to put her hand. His scorching skin was everywhere. There was no blockage at all. They were intimate!

"Lanyi, let go of me quickly!" Yun Feng wanted to push him away, but she didn't dare to move. The scorching heat she felt under her body became more and more obvious and Yun Feng's face also became redder and redder. "Aren't you cold just like that?" Yun Feng said in a low voice. The man held her even tighter. He pressed his scorching hand on her waist and exerted strength fiercely. Their bodies were pressed against each other again.

“Do you think I’ll be cold?” The slightly hoarse voice was sexy. Yun Feng only felt a fire spreading from his body, so she certainly wouldn’t be cold.

His scorching hand rubbed her back, causing waves of electricity to spread throughout her body. Yun Feng’s body could only tremble helplessly. At this moment, she wasn’t that powerful savior anymore, but an extremely ordinary woman waiting for the man she loved to pity her.

“Xiao Fengfeng, if I don’t get off, you’ll probably be burnt to death,” whispered Qu Lanyi as he suddenly let go of Yun Feng. Yun Feng’s face became even redder. She accidentally looked down and exclaimed. Qu Lanyi chuckled and jumped into the hot spring. “Which part of my body haven’t you seen?”

The water floated on the man’s chest, covering his strong belly and long legs in the water, but the exposed chest was even more tempting. After his messy short hair was soaked in water, it stuck to his back, revealing his incomparably handsome facial features. Even if he had stubble, it only added to his sexiness.

“You’re still not coming down? It seems that you want me to carry you down?” Qu Lanyi looked at Yun Feng, who was still unwilling to go into the water, with a smile. He swam over and half of his body was above the water. Water drops fell mischievously along his chest and sank below his waist.

“I’ll go down after you’re done.” Yun Feng turned around with a red face, but there were tempting images in her mind. Yun Feng only felt that her mind was in chaos. She tried her best to think of something else, but that handsome face and that perfect body kept lingering in her mind.

The man in the hot spring looked at Yun Feng’s back as she turned around. His black eyes darkened and he suddenly raised his hand. He exerted strength and an invisible mental strength directly wrapped around Yun Feng. He moved his hand and Yun Feng was directly pulled into the warm water!

“Crash!” A huge splash rose. Yun Feng wanted to get out, but she was locked by a pair of scorching arms again. Her clothes had already been soaked and the curves of her already mature body were undoubtedly exposed. The man held her in his arms from behind. Yun Feng clearly felt that there was a fire behind her, an extremely scorching huge fire.

“Do you want me to take off your clothes for you?” Her slender fingers wandered along the curves and pressed and bounced on her soft skin happily. Yun Feng blushed and bit her lips, mumbling, “I’ll do it myself...”

With a chuckle, Qu Lanyi let go of his arm, but flipped it and turned Yun Feng around. He locked her with his arms again, leaving her no room to escape at all.

Yun Feng blushed. Wasn't this taking off her clothes in front of him? The man's gaze was extremely scorching. Yun Feng only felt that a small fire was burning where he looked at on the surface of her body. She grabbed her clothes with her slightly trembling fingers. Yun Feng didn't have the courage. Even if she exerted strength with her fingers again, she felt that she didn't have any strength at all.

"Let me help you..." Qu Lanyi mumbled. He grabbed the sides of her clothes with his slender fingers and pulled hard. The clothes were torn and a beautiful body bloomed in front of his eyes. The man was so focused that spots of dark redness gradually appeared in his eyes and kept rolling.

The warm water kept splashing on their bodies. Their tattered clothes had already been thrown away. The two of them leaned against each other in a warm corner. Qu Lanyi carefully washed Yun Feng's face with his hand and smiled. "How beautiful."

After getting rid of her initial shyness, Yun Feng glared at him. The hot spring was very comfortable. Her cheeks were flushed from the steam and she looked very beautiful.

She unconsciously slapped the water around her with her hand, causing splashes. It was quiet around her. There was white mist in front of her eyes, which made everything around her seem like a hazy illusion. "What's wrong?" Qu Lanyi leaned over and enveloped Yun Feng with his body. Yun Feng burst into laughter. "Nothing. I just feel that... such a time has never happened before."

"Is that so?" Qu Lanyi held her tightly and pressed his thick chest against her smooth back. Yun Feng suddenly thought of something. Yun Feng suddenly turned around. "Lanyi, your strength seems to have increased."

Qu Lanyi curled his lips and leaned against the wall of the hot spring. "I've been worried about your safety, but it seems that the kid is right. Xiao Fengfeng has benefited a lot. You've gained much more than I have these days. Aren't you going to share it with me?"

Yun Feng smiled gently. She had indeed gained a lot. She briefly explained what happened. Qu Lanyi was quite shocked after hearing that. "So, your strength has already broken through to the God Venerable Level!"

Yun Feng nodded. Qu Lanyi continued, "Zen Master Level pharmacist, God Venerable. It seems that I'm far behind you."

"No, my strength can increase quickly because of the Flowing Wind Plant.

Thanks to Stonemother's generosity. I picked a lot of Flowing Wind Plants.

With the help of these herbs, your strength will increase quickly.”

Qu Lanyi chuckled. “It’s fine. It doesn’t matter what I do. As long as you’re well, Xiao Feng.”

Yun Feng said, “Right! How’s the light Element Seed in your body? This time, I didn’t just get strength.. I found something new about the Element Seed! Lanyi, this way, you can...”
