

Ghost Doctor 2501

Chapter 2501: It's that person

Patriarch Xie looked at Patriarch Shi with a smile. "I didn't expect the medicine to be so helpful when they went out this time."

While the people here were conversing, Qiao Yinuo arrived in the courtyard with the items his family had prepared for Guan Xilin. He moved forward when he noticed they were drinking tea.

"Brother Guan, Miss Ye, I prepared some dry food for you on the way." He placed the items on the table.

Guan Xilin smiled. "Thank you, then."

"You're very welcome. These are small things."

Guan Xilin motioned to Ye Jing to put things away before standing up and saying, "We must depart early. You don't need to send us off."

"My father is in the front hall with the patriarchs. He is unable to leave temporarily. I'll send you on your way!" Qiao Yinuo said. "It is impolite if the host does not send off his guests." He made an inviting gesture.

Guan Xilin gave Ye Jing a sidelong glance. They exchanged glances before relenting and allowing him to take them outside.

'When Qiao Yinuo returned home after seeing them off, he noticed his father sending a group of patriarchs.

"Eh? Are those the two who rescued you?" Patriarch Shi inquired. His gaze was drawn to the two figures who had departed. When he saw the man turn slightly to talk to the woman beside him, he had a vague feeling that the man was familiar.

"That's right, it's them." Qiao Yinuo spoke up. "They are in a hurry, so they don't stay in the mansion for long."

Several other patriarchs nodded, cupped their fists in salute, and exited, while Patriarch Shi had been meditating for quite some time when he suddenly patted his head. "I remember."

He turned to face Patriarch Qiao. "Do you recognize the figure of that young master? Is his surname Guan? A year ago, I was in Hundred Rivers City and happened to see him from a distance. Isn't this man Ghost Doctor's brother, Guan Xilin?"

'When the Qiao father and son heard this, they looked at each other, slightly surprised. "Did you recognize him?" Patriarch Qiao inquired.

“There are seven or eight points that are similar.” He said this thoughtfully as he looked at Qiao’s father and son. “Are you sure you don’t know who he is?”

Qiao Yinuo was silent, while Patriarch Qiao smiled and said, “Isn’t he gone now? Whether you know it or not, it’s now meaningless.”

Patriarch Shi was moved and laughed as he heard the words. “That’s right, it doesn’t make sense to say this right now.” With that, he cupped his fists, “Then I’m leaving now. Goodbye.”

Patriarch Qiao returned the salute and stood there watching him walk away.

“Go in! Prepare yourself and leave tomorrow.” Patriarch Qiao said to his son.

“Yes.” Qiao Yinuo replied, and walked into the mansion with him.

Feng Jiu and Xuanyuan Mo Ze, on the other hand, were discussing the demon clan with the sect master and peak masters of the Nebula Immortal Sect. They stood up once they completed talking about the overall picture.

“Let’s follow through on what we just talked about! We might just stay for a few more days and then leave.” Feng Jiu said, looking at the sect master and others.

“They stood up as well. “Alright, please be at ease. I believe the demon clan’s vitality has been sapped this time. They will not come out in a hasty manner again.”

“Let’s go!” Xuanyuan Mo Ze took Feng Jiu’s hand and walked out without even looking at the people behind him.

The sect master flicked his hand as he watched them leave.. “Let us disperse!”

Chapter 2502: When to get married

Xuanyuan Mo Ze led Feng Jiu to walk slowly down the hill. While admiring the scenery on both sides of the path, Xuanyuan Mo Ze inquired, “Are you not sending word home that Feng Ye is still alive and telling the old patriarch?”

“It isn’t a pressing matter. When we return, we’ll surprise Grandfather.” She smiled as she looked towards the field at the base of the mountain where the sect was located.

Several contract beasts and Feng Ye were playing there. She said, “They had always assumed that Feng Ye had died. It is expected that if someone sent a message back unexpectedly, they will be unable to sit at home. It’s best if we tell them when we return.”

There was nothing going on here right now, so they could take advantage of the opportunity to return.

“Now that we’ll be back, do you want to look after our affairs as well?” He clasped her hand in his and gazed deeply at her.

“Looking after our affairs?” With a smile, Feng Jiu lifted her brows and curved up the corners of her lips slightly. “Are you in a hurry?” She asked with a smile.

“Mm, it’s urgent.” He said it solemnly. Feng Jiu chuckled at the way he looked when he stated that.

“But I don’t want to marry just yet! Tell me, the path to immortality is limitless, we are still young, and in comparison to those old monsters, we are inexperienced. So, why are we marrying so young? It would be difficult for me to go outside if I had a baby.” She didn’t want to be locked away at such a young age. She desired to go out and see the world.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s eyes brightened and a small light crossed his eyes as she mentioned children. “If we have children, we may either send them to your parents to raise or leave them with Leng Shuang. If not, even if we have children, I can accompany you to your destination while also caring for our children.”

“Hehe, that’s not an option.” She smirked at him and flatly refused.

Seeing this, he asked, “Then, when are you going to marry me?”

“This matter must be thoroughly considered. It doesn’t have to be that early.”

“It’s fine if we get married first and have the baby a few years later.” He tried to persuade her. A man would be unable to bear holding such a person in his embrace every day.

“I’m going to play with Feng Ye.” She chuckled and tiptoed, the red figure swept from the mountain’s waist like a flame and whirled down Xuanyuan Mo Ze let out a helpless sigh and shook his head. This woman, it seemed, had no intention of arranging their marriage ahead of time. What should he do? He had to come up with a solution.

“Little Jiu Jiu, come quickly. I’ve recently learnt a new set of footwork. Come take a look.” Feng Ye beckoned Feng Jiu enthusiastically. He’d gotten to know her very well over the course of two days. He’d changed from calling her niece to Little Jiu Jiu. His childlike innocence had also been revealed during his stay with Feng Jiu. One might say that he had been playing crazily in the sect for the last two days.

“Really? Then run, I’ll catch you and see if you can avoid me.” She smiled and raised her voice, allowing him to take the lead.

“What? Don’t you bully people? How can I outrun you when I’m so young and not as tall as you?” Feng Ye yelled, unconvinced.

“I’m not going to use my spirit energy breath or mystical energy in my body. To chase you, I only use a martial arts move. If I can’t catch you, I’ll have something good for you later.” She laughed, tossing her red robe on the ground near him.

When he heard that there was something good, Feng Ye’s eyes brightened. “Really? Alright then, you can’t cheat.”

Chapter 2503: To Personally Teach

“I am not going to cheat.” She chuckled.

“Then you must first allow me to run. Count to ten before chasing me.” He yelled as he took a step back.

“Fine.” Feng Jiu capitulated. Her brows narrowed in amusement and the corners of her mouth twisted up as she watched him count and move back at the same time.

“Seven... nine... ten... alright...”

The sound faded in and out until it was no longer audible. When Feng Jiu noticed the small figure fleeing into the woods behind the sect, she also made a move and pursued him.

“I am going as well.” Old White yelled, kicking its hooves and galloping alongside Feng Jiu.

The Cloud Devouring Beast, Fire Phoenix, and Little White Tiger did not participate. They remained still, their eyes half closed as they lay on the ground leisurely.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze walked slowly down until he arrived at a pavilion below and sat down, waiting for Feng Jiu to return.

Feng Ye, who had gone to the back of the mountain, was using his newly learned footwork. His small figure moved through the woods, occasionally looking back to see if Feng Jiu had caught up with him. When he turned around and saw the red figure approaching him, he let out a terrified yell and broke into a run.

Feng Jiu pursued him through the forest, shooting at Feng Ye in front with leaves as her concealed weapon.

“Whoosh!”

Feng Ye couldn't help but look back and exclaim as the leaves zipped by, “Why did you use the concealed weapon? It's not fair!” He didn't dare to slow down for fear of being caught.

“There is no rule that prohibits the use of hidden weapons.” Feng Jiu spoke leisurely behind him, occasionally shooting out a leaf. “I can't take care of you if you can't avoid and get hurt.”

“Ughhh! You tricked me!” Little Feng Ye bolted. His footwork, which was initially shaky, improved over time. His speed gradually increased as well. He was able to avoid the concealed weapon shot from behind while skimming quickly.

Although he knew that Feng Jiu's concealed weapon didn't shoot at him, but just rubbed around him, he didn't want to be looked down upon by her. As a result, he did everything he could to avoid being touched by the concealed weapon behind him.

He was moving even faster. When he looked behind him, he noticed that the distance between Feng Jiu and him had shrunk again. He couldn't help but worry at this point, and there was a lot of sweat on his brow.

Feng Jiu followed leisurely behind, neither too far nor too close. As she noticed Feng Ye's footwork improving, she set up a formation array in this area, ready to test his adaptability.

Feng Ye in front wiped off his sweat and looked back, but he saw that there was no shadow of Feng Jiu behind him. He came to a halt and said with surprise, "Where did she go? She was clearly there at the time."

He looked around carefully. His heart skipped a beat when the person who should have been behind him emerged not far in front of him. "Aah!" He bolted from the scene.

Feng Jiu smiled. She followed behind, luring him into the array she had just prepared.

Feng Ye, who was preoccupied with evading Feng Jiu, had no idea that the road he had just walked would suddenly have an array set up. Furthermore, because he was still young, he had not learned about formation arrays and naturally, he was unaware of it.

As a result, he was stunned and stood still as soon as he inadvertently entered the array.. He blinked his eyes shut and yelled anxiously, "Little Jiu Jiu!"

Chapter 2504: I'm Back!

"Little Jiu Jiu? Where are you? Why can't I see you?" He stepped forward, looking at the quickly rising smoke that clouded his vision, but he couldn't get out. He turned around and ran into the tree once more.

"Is this an array?" His delicate face was filled with astonishment.

"It is, indeed." Feng Jiu's voice could be heard outside the array. She was lying on a tree at the time, holding a wine jar in her hand. "You probably haven't learned the array, have you? I'll teach you today. If you can break the array, you'll be out in no time. If you can't, you will spend the night here."

"Ah? But, since you stated that I haven't learned the array, how can I break it? You basically duped me into going to the back mountain. You've set it up a long time ago." He sat on the ground with his little mouth puckered up and looked around helplessly.

Feng Jiu chuckled and sipped the wine. "All right, don't talk nonsense; instead, pay attention to the array's formula..."

Feng Jiu, dressed in red, leaned against a tree, relaxed, drinking wine with a gourd in her hand, appearing comfortable and easy. But at the time, after the little man wrote down the formula taught by Feng Jiu, he was busy deducing the method of breaking the array. One was idling, the other was serious, and for a brief moment, Feng Ye forgot about the person outside.

Guan Xilin, who had taken Ye Jing to the Nebula Immortal Sect's boundary in the evening, was surprised to see that the land was protected by a boundary barrier. As he was about to move forward, he noticed several sect disciples on their flying swords descending in front of them.

"Who are you? What are you doing here!"

Those few people appeared to be fierce and imposing, and their voices were full of reprimand. They kept a close eye on Guan Xilin and Ye Jing. Because matters within the sect were still unresolved, they did not want outsiders to come, so as not to fish in troubled waters and do something they could not predict.

“My name is Guan Xilin. I’ve come to see my sister Feng Jiu.” Guan Xilin’s sharp eyes focused on the people in front of him after reporting his name.

Those men were taken aback after hearing Guan Xilin’s words. “Are you Guan Xilin?” They couldn’t stop themselves from whispering and staring at him.

“Exactly.” Guan Xilin responded. “Feng Jiu should still be in your sect?” he asked after a brief glance at them.

“She is still here. She hasn’t gone anywhere.” In response, a disciple stepped forward and opened the boundary corner to let Guan Xilin in.

“People from the Demon Clan have just left. Please don’t take offence if our guard is a little strict.” A disciple saluted with his fists cupped.

“T won’t.” Guan Xilin saluted as well and led Ye Jing in.

“Ghost Doctor is in the sect now. Young Master Guan, please come with me.” One of the disciples personally guided them.

“appreciate your help, sorry to trouble you.” Guan Xilin nodded and motioned for Ye Qing to follow the disciple to the sect gate.

The journey was calm and uneventful thanks to the disciple leading the way. The disciple was about to take Guan Xilin to where Feng Jiu lived after entering the sect gate, but Guan Xilin noticed several contract beasts lying on the ground in front of him, as well as several familiar people.

“Brother, they’re there. Go ahead and go back to your duty! I can go there myself.” Guan Xilin said, asking the disciple to attend to his business first and then escorted Ye Jing to Bai Xiao and others.

“Everyone, I’m back!” He shouted towards them. When they heard him, they immediately turned and looked at him..

Chapter 2505: Get together

“Brother Guan has returned!”

“Brother Guan!”

Ning Lang and others greeted him warmly and strode towards him, while Fire Phoenix and Cloud Devouring Beast only gave Guan Xilin a sidelong glance. “I’ll tell Master to come back!” Fire Phoenix said with excitement, flapping its wings away.

“Brother Guan, you’ve returned! Feng Jiu is worried about you!” Ning Lang looked at him with a smile on his face. “Brother Guan, who is this?” he inquired, looking at the elegant woman dressed in white beside him.

Guan Xilin smiled as he patted him on the shoulder. “I was delayed for a while on the way back. I assumed Little Jiu would be waiting for me here, so I came straight here.”

He then turned to Ye Jing and said to several of them, “Come over, let me introduce you, this is…” Old White rushed over before he could finish his sentence.

“Beauty! Old White misses you terribly!” Guan Xilin stepped in front of Old White as it stretched out its head to rub against Ye Qing’s face.

“Old White, move over.”

Guan Xilin said this while shielding Ye Jing, who was smiling at his side. “Her name is Ye Jing. She’s a friend of Little Jiu’s and my fiancé “Fiancée? When did you get engaged to Beauty?” Old White gaped and exclaimed in disbelief.

Song Ming and others were surprised. After all, he had never mentioned a fiancée or sweetheart, but after seeing Ye Jing’s good appearance and demeanor, which matched Guan Xilin’s, they all smiled.

“You did an excellent job of concealing it! If you don’t tell us about it, we won’t know. Remember to invite us to your wedding when you get married in the future!”

“Hahaha, that’s for sure.” He smiled, took a look around, and inquired, “How come it’s just several of you? Where is Little Jiu?”

“Oh, she chased Feng Ye all the way to the back mountain.” Ning Lang responded. “You may not know that Feng Ye and Zhao Yang are still alive,” he remarked, casting a quick glance at Guan Xilin.

“They’re still alive?” Guan Xilin was astonished. He excitedly grabbed Ning Lang’s hand. “Is it true?”

Several of them smiled. “It’s true, they are still alive. They were rescued, but they continued to cultivate in the mountains. We didn’t realize they were still alive.”

Guan Xilin couldn’t hide his delight when he heard this. “Great! Father and Grandfather would be overjoyed if they heard the news! By the way, did Little Jiu ask that the news be brought back to them?”

“Theard Feng Jiu say that when you return, you will all go to Heavenly Pill Tower together. Once everything has been taken care of, you all will depart for home. So she didn’t tell them about it in case they became concerned and rushed over.” Song Ming answered with a smile.

“Now that you’ve arrived, let’s get some rest, and then we’ll set out to return to Heavenly Pill Tower!” Xuanyuan Mo Ze approached, his hands clasped behind his back. He cast a glance at Guan Xilin and Ye Jing before returning his gaze to Guan Xilin.

“It seems that your strength has improved once more.”

“How is it possible that my strength hasn’t increased after being imprisoned in a place like the Demon Clan?” He grinned. “While I was on the road, I heard you had returned. It’s a good thing you’re back, because fighting the Demon Lord could be dangerous for Little Jiu.”

Xuanyuan Mo Ze nodded, a faint smile on his face. “You are capable of escaping the Devil Clan on your own. You’re not weak either.”

Chapter 2506: Heading to Sycamore Mountain

“Hahaha, it’s rare to hear you give a compliment!” Guan Xilin burst out laughing.

Several of them were chatting here when Feng Jiu, dressed in red, returned with Little Feng Ye.

“Big Brother!” Feng Jiu waved and shouted to him from afar.

Feng Ye trailed behind her. Seeing the strong man wielding a big sword in hand, Feng Ye blinked and recognized him.

He recognized him despite the fact that he hadn’t seen him in a long time, but he didn’t know the woman next to him.

Guan Xilin smiled as she approached quickly.

“Ye Jing? What brings you here?” Feng Jiu was surprised. She had not expected to see Ye Jing standing next to her big brother. Wasn’t she on the Lower Continent? When did she arrive?

“I came looking for you, but I ran into some difficulties on the way. I later met him and we both came here.” Ye Jing elaborated. She stepped forward and took Feng Jiu’s hand in hers. “It’s been a long time since we’ve seen each other.”

“It certainly is! I haven’t seen you in quite some time. Don’t leave this time.” She smiled and took her hand in hers. “I was waiting for my big brother, but I had no idea he would bring you.”

“Master, when did Beauty become the fiancée of your brother?” On the side, Old White inquired softly.

Feng Jiu raised her eyebrows and looked at Guan Xilin when she heard this.

“I go to the Ye household to send the betrothal gifts as soon as I come home.” Guan Xilin stated. He smiled as he asked Feng Ye, “Little Feng Ye, do you remember me?”

“I remember.” Feng Ye nodded with a distressed look. “However, what shall I call you?”

Guan Xilin was taken aback, but then responded with a smile, “Although you are still young, you are my senior; thus, address me by name.”

“Let’s not just stand here; let’s get moving! Let’s go back and have a chat. Aren’t you exhausted from your lengthy journey? I’ll get some food prepared and find you a place to stay. Have a restful day today.” Ning Lang said and motioned for them to follow. He went ahead and made the necessary arrangements.

Due to the arrival of Guan Xilin and Ye Jing today, they set up several tables outside the cave-dwelling, prepared food and drinks, and talked all day, not separating until late at night

Feng Jiu was ready to leave with Xuanyuan Mo Ze the next day after saying goodbye to Sage Hun Yuan. To her surprise, Ning Lang, Song Ming, and others also stated that they would accompany her to Heavenly Pill Tower. Since they joined in, their return trip had become more lively.

The Sect Master and the Peak Masters all came out to see them off. They walked back after watching them leave.

While the people on the airship were drinking and chatting, Guan Xilin inquired after inspecting the flight path. "This does not appear to be the way to Hundred Rivers City. Where are we going?"

"I'd like to make the journey to Sycamore Mountain to express my gratitude to Feng Ye's master while also taking Feng Ye and Zhao Yang home. This time, the two of them snuck down the mountain, so I have to go tell them." Feng Jiu explained while looking at Feng Ye and Zhao Yang.

She shook her head and smiled when she saw the former sitting at the small table, his mouth bulging, like a little squirrel stealing food. On the other hand, the latter sat cross-legged in the airship's corner, as if he didn't hear the sounds of laughter here and was instead focused on his cultivation.

"Sunny." She called out. The child had been cultivating inside the cave-dwelling since yesterday.

Chapter 2507: Heavenly Taoist Master

It distressed her that such a little kid was not as lively as he should be at his age. She recalled the circumstance when she first met him to this day. The boy was young, but he had experienced a lot. She sincerely hoped that if she could, she would be able to protect them so that they might grow up freely.

Zhao Yang, who had been cultivating with his eyes closed, opened his eyes and looked at Feng Jiu. "Sister Feng?"

"Come over and grab a bite. Don't just cultivate for the entire day. Come here." She motioned for him to come.

Zhao Yang paused for a moment, then stood up and walked towards her.

Feng Jiu placed some small spirit fruits in his hand. "Try some and see if they're sweet."

"Thank you very much, Sister Feng." He sat next to her, picked up a piece of fruit and ate it.

"Sunny, you are still young, and your strength has now reached the Golden Core, which is out of reach for many. Don't you know, Ning Lang and the others did not receive the same training as you did at your age." She cast a glance over at Ning Lang on the other side.

Ning Lang grinned and his eyes narrowed into a line when he heard her words. "Exactly. We didn't have much strength when we met you. We didn't have Sunny's strength when we were his age. However, he, he, our ability to cause havoc is top-notch; otherwise, could the academy invite you to instruct us?"

They all burst out laughing. Feng Ye listened intently and inquired as they talked about the past. They were constantly chatting and laughing until they arrived at Sycamore Mountain.

"We can't fly in the mountains. We must walk up." Feng Ye said and asked Feng Jiu to stop the airship.

As a result, Feng Jiu stopped the airship at the foot of the mountain and the group followed Feng Ye and Zhao Yang into the mountain. However, an old man appeared in the middle of the journey.

"Please excuse our impoliteness when the distinguished guests arrive."

The elderly man bowed to Xuanyuan Mo Ze and Feng Jiu. He turned to face them and said, "I'm the steward of the Heavenly Taoist Master. When Taoist Master learned of the distinguished guests' arrival, he specifically requested that I meet you. Please follow me."

After he made a gesture of invitation, he looked at Feng Ye and Zhao Yang. As soon as Feng Ye saw him, he couldn't help smiling sheepishly and hid behind Feng Jiu.

'When Feng Jiu noticed this, she cast a glance behind her at Feng Ye, nodded slightly to Xuanyuan Mo Ze, and then followed the old man to the mountain.

Feng Ye was much better behaved after entering the mountains, especially after the old man led the way. He obediently followed alongside Feng Jiu.

He slowed down and approached Zhao Yang after walking for a while and getting near the mountain palace. "Sunny," he inquired, "Do you think Master will be angry with us?" he was concerned.

"I'm not sure." Zhao Yang said this with a calm expression on his face.

"Tell me, what if Master is displeased with us? Master told us not to go down the mountain, but we went anyway. Even if Little Jiu Jiu brought us here, I'm afraid Master will be furious!" He was concerned because he knew Master was very kind to them, but this time they were disobedient and sneaked down the mountain.

"Sister Feng is here," Zhao Yang said, looking ahead. "Even if Master is angry, he will not punish us out of respect for her."

Feng Ye took a deep breath and slowly exhaled. "I'm relieved now." He stated again, "We have to apologize to Master later."

Chapter 2508: Admitting mistakes

"Mm," Zhao Yang replied, calmly following him all the way to the mountain palace.

The old man invited them in, saying, "The Taoist Master is waiting for you inside; please come in."

Xuanyuan Mo Ze crossed the threshold and walked in, holding Feng Jiu's hand. The others followed while Feng Ye and Zhao Yang walked at the very end. Feng Ye saluted the old man meekly after seeing them enter. "Uncle Liu, we've returned."

Although the old man was the steward, this palace was sparsely populated. Apart from them, there was only Steward Liu and a few disciples who ran errands. They were close to Uncle Liu because he took such good care of them. They felt guilty when they saw him this time.

It's because they drugged Uncle Liu before slipping down the mountain "Go in! Your master is waiting for you inside!" Uncle Liu looked at them sternly and motioned for them to enter.

He was relieved to see the boys safe and sound, These two lads were still dripping wet behind the ears. Such young children dared to descend the mountain, taking advantage of the Demon Clan's wreaking havoc to do so, which worried him for a long time. When he saw them again, his anxiety had finally subsided.

"Uncle Liu, we brought you some good wine. We'll send you a copy later." Feng Ye smiled with his eyes narrowed, speaking cheerfully. He then led Zhao Yang inside.

"Little brats!" The old man shook his head and chastised them in a good-natured manner. He also went in, but he did not stay close to them and instead stood in the back.

After Xuanyuan Mo Ze and Feng Jiu entered, their gazes were drawn to the old man on the main seat, who appeared serene with his cultivation hidden. They couldn't help but nod inwardly.

The man with a calm demeanor turned out to be the Heavenly Taoist Master. It would be beneficial for Feng Ye and Zhao Yang to revere him as their teacher.

"Feng Jiu bows to the Taoist Master." She stepped forward and saluted in a natural and respectful manner.

"Greetings to Heavenly Taoist Master." Guan Xilin and others saluted one by one as well, but Xuanyuan Mo Ze stood by with his hands clasped behind his back and did not salute.

The Heavenly Taoist Master, who sat in the main seat, looked at Feng Jiu, then at the man who stood with his hands clasped behind his back, dressed in a black robe, and bearing the demeanor of a sovereign descending the world. He gave an inward nod.

He averted his gaze and said to everyone, "There's no need to be overly polite. Please take a seat."

"Disciples bow to the Master."

Feng Ye and Zhao Yang came forward and bowed respectfully to the old man. The two boys knelt on the ground, their foreheads pressed against the ground. They raised their heads and looked at the old man after kowtowing, Their excitement and apprehension could be heard in their childish voice.

"Master, the disciples have returned."

"Naughty disciples." The Taoist Master shook his head and looked at them. "I asked you to cultivate in the mountains, but you descended the mountain in secret. Do you recognize your mistakes?"

They both admitted their errors and kowtowed once more. "Master, your disciples are aware of their mistakes."

Feng Jiu simply smiled when she saw this. After they admitted their mistakes, she looked at Taoist Master. "Taoist Master, Feng Ye is my Little Uncle. I wonder if you're aware of it?"

Heavenly Taoist Master stroked his beard and nodded. "I am aware of it."

Feng Jiu advanced and bowed again. "The two of them came down the mountain to find me, Taoist Master. I brought them back this time for two reasons: one, to let them admit their mistakes, and two, to express gratitude to you.."

Chapter 2509: What's the reason

She was about to make another solemn salute when the Taoist Master stopped her with a wave of his hand. "Wait a moment."

The Heavenly Taoist Master turned to face Feng Jiu. "Ghost Doctor, they are my disciples. Despite the fact that they returned to admit their mistakes after descending the mountain without permission, they should be punished. The old man will punish them personally. Regarding Ghost Doctor's gratitude, the old man already knows what you're thankful for, so your thanks are unnecessary."

He stood up, walked down slowly, and said, "The fate of Master and disciple is shared by the old man and both of them. Because of this fate, I was able to save them in the first place. As a result, regardless of who they are, they share the fate of Master and apprentice with the old man. Since they were in trouble, the old man naturally came to their aid. Even if you are a close relative, you are not required to thank the old man."

Feng Jiu didn't expect to hear this from him. She gave the Heavenly Taoist Master a deep look before smiling. "Since Taoist Master said so, Feng Jiu obeyed." She took a few steps back and sat down again.

The Heavenly Taoist Master turned around to face the two boys kneeling on the ground. "You two disobeyed Master's orders and descended the mountain without permission," he said. "Do you believe you deserve to be punished?"

Feng Ye's mouth flattened as he blinked at his Master. "Are you really going to punish both of us, Master?"

"Tell me! Do you think you deserve to be punished?" In a calm tone, the Heavenly Taoist Master asked.

'When he saw his Master's stern expression, Feng Ye shrank and bowed his head. Along with Zhao Yang, he responded. "We are deserving of punishment." After that, he added. "Although we should be punished, please deal with us leniently, Master."

Hearing this, the people sitting on both sides almost burst out laughing.

Feng Jiu was amused as well. As for Xuanyuan Mo Ze, the corners of his mouth slightly curved up as he glanced at Feng Ye.

'When he heard Feng Ye's response, the Heavenly Taoist Master's eyebrows shook. He looked at him as he stroked his beard. "I will punish you both by obligating you to cultivate for ten years on Sycamore Mountain, and you will not be allowed to descend the mountain again during that time!"

"Ah? We can't go down the mountain for ten years? Master..." Feng Ye was about to say something, but he abruptly stopped when he noticed his Master staring at him.

Feng Jiu was surprised. "Taoist Master, we have another thing to tell you at this time," she said, looking at the Heavenly Taoist Master.

"What is it about?" The Heavenly Taoist Master inquired, his gaze falling on Feng Jiu.

"We all assumed Feng Ye and Zhao Yang were no longer alive. As a result, my family was devastated. My grandfather, in particular, was distraught and blamed himself."

She stood up as she spoke. "I was surprised to see Feng Ye this time. I came specifically to thank Taoist Master for saving his life. The next thing I wanted to do was take them home so they could meet their relatives."

When the Heavenly Taoist Master heard this, he told the old man who was waiting behind him, "Elder Liu, take them outside."

"Yes." The old man replied, motioning for Feng Ye and Zhao Yang to follow him.

After a brief glance at Feng Jiu, the two stood up and followed the old man.

Feng Jiu looked at the two who were leaving. She glanced at the Heavenly Taoist Master, her feelings stirred.

After watching Feng Ye and Zhao Yang follow the old man out of the hall and disappeared from sight, the Heavenly Taoist Master looked at Feng Jiu and asked slowly, "Do you know why they share the fate as a Master and disciples with me? Why did I appear and save them both at that precise moment?"

Feng Jiu shook her head in surprise. "I don't know. Kindly inform me, Taoist Master."

Chapter 2510: Gifts

"Feng Ye has a weak fate of kinship with his parents. If he stays with his parents, it will be difficult for him to live until he reaches fifteen or sixteen years old. Zhao Yang's relatives, I believe, have already passed away."

The Heavenly Taoist Master went on to explain. He continued despite Feng Jiu's frown. "I have yet to complete the master relationship with the two of them, They shouldn't have come down the mountain at all, let alone want to take him home."

"Is Taoist Master saying that if they stay with their parents, they will probably not live to be fifteen or sixteen years old?" Feng Jiu asked, surprised.

"Correct." While stroking his beard, the Heavenly Taoist Master responded.

She looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze and thought it was inconceivable. When Guan Xilin and others heard this, they couldn't help but look solemn.

"If we take both of them home this time, we'll be responsible for keeping an eye on them and making sure they're not in any danger."

Xuanyuan Mo Ze spoke, his gaze fixed on the Heavenly Taoist Master. "I will return them to Taoist Master after they have met their loved ones. In this manner, I believe there should be no problem."

Feng Jiu seized his words and declared, "Taoist Master, we'll take them back to see their families and then return them to you. Please rest assured, they will be alright with our protection. They will cultivate with Taoist Master after meeting their relatives. My grandfather will not object."

'When the Heavenly Taoist Master saw this, he glanced at them, strolled slowly while stroking his beard, and then spoke after a while. "Now that you've said so, take them down the mountain. They must not descend the mountain after you bring them back. You must also not go up the mountain to visit them again."

"Knowing that they are cultivating here and are safe, we will not come to distract them. You can rest assured!" Feng Jiu said with a smile.

The Heavenly Taoist Master nodded. "Please rest here tonight! I'll ask my followers to arrange it for you." With that, he called out with a voice imbued with powerful spirit energy and two errand disciples came into the room.

"We salute you, Taoist Master." The two bowed.

"Take the guests to rest." He said gently.

"Yes." The two errand disciples responded respectfully and motioned for Feng Jiu and others to follow. Feng Jiu and others bowed to the Heavenly Taoist Master before leaving with the two disciples.

"They are definitely the Emperor and the Phoenix Sovereign," the Heavenly Taoist Master murmured as he watched them leave. "They are, indeed, giants among men, with the appearance of celestial beings..."

Feng Ye took the wine from the space ring and handed it to the old man in the mountain courtyard.

"Uncle Liu, have a look at this fine wine I purchased for you."

The old man accepted it, and his taut face finally cracked into a smile. He patted their heads and said, "Don't think that just because you bring me wine means I won't chastise you. On weekdays, I take care of you a lot, but you are so good that you set me up and let me worry about you all the time."

"Hehe, Uncle Liu, we know you're the best, so I took something special from my niece just for you. This, you see, is a good thing for you." He took a medicine bottle from his space and handed it to him

"Sunny and I are both aware that Uncle Liu has previously been injured, so your strength has been stagnant and unable to advance. This medicinal pill is beneficial. It is guaranteed that if you take it, no matter how old your injuries are, you will be healed."

Chapter 2511: The Pills Are A Gift

Upon hearing this, the old man was surprised: "This is the Ghost Doctor's medicinal pills?" The reputation of the Ghost Doctor was so great that even though he lived far up in Sycamore Mountain, he had also heard of her. Naturally, he knew that all her medicinal pills had Heaven-defying effects, and that each one was very precious. He hadn't expected that these two children would have begged for a medicinal pill for him to treat his internal injuries.

"Well, this medicinal pill is refined by my niece. Pour it out and take a look, it's a sixth grade internal alchemy pill! You can see the sixth grade pill marks on it." Feng Ye nodded with a smile.

Elder Liu poured out the suspicious medicinal pills and looked at them. Sure enough, he saw the sixth grade pill marks floating on the pills, and judging by the looks of the pills, these were indeed top quality sixth grade medicinal pills!

"This, this is too precious, how can I accept it?" He put the medicinal pills back into the bottle and handed it back to him: "Keep it for yourself! These medicinal pills are too precious, I have done nothing to deserve them, I cannot accept such a precious item."

"Uncle Liu, it's useless even if you give it back to me! I don't need it!"

Feng Ye pushed the bottle back to him and said: "I told Little Jiu that Uncle Liu has always taken good care of Sunny and I, and when I spoke of Uncle Liu's old injury, she gave me this. She said that as long as you take these medicinal pills, your internal injuries will gradually heal."

"But, these medicinal pills..." Although he was moved, he knew how precious these medicinal pills were.

"Uncle Liu, take it!" Feng Ye said with a smile, then he shoved the bottle at him and jumped away:

"Uncle Liu, let me tell you, when we went out this time we encountered danger several times! Fortunately we were fine. Uncle Liu, you don't know this but there are so many interesting things outside. There are so many things on the market street, many things that we don't have on the mountain."

He told him happily about everything he had seen outside. When Elder Liu saw this, he looked at the two children, then he put away the bottle of medicinal pills and said with a smile: "You two are very bold, your Master clearly instructed that you are not allowed to go down the mountain. Fortunately, you have returned safely."

"Uncle Liu, we have to leave again. Little Jiujiu wants to take me home to see my Father and Mother. Uncle Liu, I haven't seen my Father and Mother for a long time. I miss them so much. I want to go back to see them." Feng Ye jumped about in the courtyard and said, then he ran to his own room and ran back out again.

“Uncle Liu, my room is so clean. Did you tell them to clean it for us while we weren’t here on the mountain?” He asked the old man with a smile.

“Oh? You are leaving again? So, you are going back with the Ghost Doctor to see your Father and Mother?” The old man asked in surprise. He hadn’t expected them to leave after they had only just returned.

“Yes, Elder Sister Feng said that she will take us back.” Zhao Yang who was standing at the side said. He glanced at Feng Ye, who was standing on tiptoes and had jumped up onto the branch and crawled on it as he played.

“Uncle Liu, my niece is very powerful. I want to become as powerful as her in the future.” Feng Ye talked while he was on the tree. Suddenly, he looked outside and saw the group of them had already come up, so he jumped down from the tree quickly: “Little Jiujiu and the others are here.” Having said that, he ran out.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze held Feng Jiu’s hand and walked slowly while the rest of them walked behind them and chatted. When they saw Feng Ye had rushed out in front of them, everyone stopped.

“Little Jiujiu, this is where Sunny and I live. Let me show you around!” He squeezed in between the two of them and smiled at them, his face innocent, but he pulled apart Xuanyuan Mo Ze and Feng Jiu’s hands.

Chapter 2512: Arrival At Hundred Rivers City

Upon seeing this, Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s eyebrows raised, but he didn’t say anything. Instead, he let go of Feng Jiu’s hand and let her follow Feng Ye forward.

Feng Jiu smiled and glanced at Xuanyuan Mo Ze, then she followed Feng Ye and said with a smile: “Alright, since your Master doesn’t agree with you coming down the mountain with us, we might as well take a look at where you live first. You have to practice hard here in the future!”

Upon hearing this, Feng Ye’s face froze. He looked back at her in shock and said hurriedly: “Ah? Master doesn’t agree with me going home with you? How come? Then, what about me and Sunny? We really want to go home!”

“It doesn’t matter, just stay here and practice well. I will tell Grandpa that you are still alive. I think that as long as they know you are still alive, it doesn’t matter if you don’t see each other.” She held back her smile and teased him seriously.

“Ah? I don’t want to, I don’t want to, we want to go back too.” He hugged her thigh directly, afraid to be left behind.

“Little rascal, let go of your hand.” Xuanyuan Mo Zo stepped forward and grabbed his collar and lifted him up.

"I'm not a little rascal, I'm an Elder." Little Feng Ye said. However, when he met Xuanyuan Mo Ze's eyes, he was startled and whispered in a low voice: "That's the truth anyway, Little Jiujiu has to call me Little Uncle based on seniority! If you marry her you will be less senior than me too."

"Is that so?"

Xuanyuan Mo Ze gave him a cool look, his eyes moved from his face to his small hands that were still around Feng Jiu's thighs. His deep eyes narrowed and a dangerous light flashed across his eyes.

You automatically looked upon Sunny eyes Ye innocent pitifully his this, at really "Little Feng Jiujiu... seeing and will Jiu: you?" Feng me won't behind retraced hands His leave

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu smiled lightly, then she reached out and touched his head: "I'm just teasing you. Don't worry, your Master has agreed to let you and Sunny come down the mountain with us. It's just that after you return home, you still have to come back here to practice."

"That's great!" He smiled happily immediately. He felt the hands on his collar and he couldn't help but look up at Xuanyuan Mo Ze with a pleasing look.

On this day, Feng Ye and Zhao Yang showed them around, then they took them to the guest rooms to rest. After the Heavenly Taoist Master had left instructions, he also didn't go out again.

After a night of rest, they had originally wanted to bid farewell to the Taoist Master. However, Elder Liu informed them that he had already gone into seclusion. Therefore, they left on the airship and headed towards Heavenly Pill Tower in Hundred Rivers City lots of when Hundred landed few airship later, the Rivers it attracted days outside A City, onlookers.

Chapter 2513: Welcome

When they saw the people coming down from the airship, the curious bystanders outside the city said happily: "It's the Ghost Doctor! The Ghost Doctor is back!"

The news spread quickly, all the people from the influential families in the city rushed out to greet Feng Jiu when they learnt that she had returned.

They had already learned about the battle between the Ghost Doctor and the Demon Lord. Now that the Ghost Doctor had returned, naturally they had to go and welcome her. However, though their news had travelled fast, the news had travelled even faster to the Feng Guard in Heavenly Pill Tower.

They had come to the outside of the city one step before everyone else to welcome Feng Jiu and the others and escort them back to Heavenly Pill Tower. In addition to the Feng Guard, Cang Qing and other powerful cultivators were also there. They were dressed in black clothes led by Cang Qing and were lined up side by side in a row from the outside of the city gate to the front of Heavenly Pill Tower.

“Welcome Master!”

Their low voices were loud and clear, each voice had the clear coercion of a strong exponent. Almost as soon as their voices rang out, the entire Hundred Rivers City reverberated with clear, loud, respectful voices. It was also because of the clear, loud voices that everyone in Hundred Rivers City knew that the Ghost Doctor had returned!

Even if the people of the influential families wanted to step forward, they were unable to squeeze in. After all, with such a powerful team clearing the way and isolating the path, if they didn't have Feng Jiu's permission, how would they be able to squeeze in under such circumstances?

After Feng Jiu had put away the airship, she was led forwards by Xuanyuan Mo Ze and the two of them walked in front. Guan Xilin and Ye Jing walked behind her, followed by Feng Ye, Zhao Yang and the others, and finally Ning Lang and the rest.

Ever since Bai Xiao had become proficient in controlling beasts, Feng Jiu didn't call upon him to appear anymore, hence, he also seldom showed up to help. It was rare that he was following her this time. Therefore, when he saw this formation of combat forces, his heart couldn't help but skip a beat.

Ye Jing hadn't expected to see so many strong exponents as soon as they arrived. Under the coercion of so many strong exponents, she couldn't help but feel a little nervous, hence, she held Guan Xilin's hand tightly.

As if he had sensed her nervousness, Guan Xilin patted her hand and whispered: “Relax, they are our own people.”

It was no wonder she had felt like this, her strength was the lowest amongst all these people. There were so many strong exponents together at the same time, their momentum was breathtaking, It would be strange if she had been able to remain calm.

Everyone walked along the path under the eyes of everyone around them. As they gradually approached Heavenly Pill Tower, the cultivators behind them followed closely, their footsteps orderly and their teams well-trained. The eyes of the people from the influential families glowed and their hearts were excited as they watched on.

Chapter 2514: Where Is My Son

At Heavenly Pill Tower, when everyone had learnt about the return of their Master, Du Fan and Leng Hua led them out to the front of the building to greet her..

They couldn't help but smile when they saw the figure in black and the dazzling red figure walking together, leading the group.

"Look! My Master is back too!" Gray Wolf who was standing at the front of the building with Shadow One said excitedly. When they saw that their Master whom they hadn't seen in a long time had also returned, they couldn't help but show excitement.

When they learnt that their Master had returned from beyond the seas and defeated the Demon Lord, they had been waiting here for his return.

Shadow One stood quietly. Although his face was expressionless, the joy in his eyes was obvious to others that he was also happy and excited at this time.

"Master." Leng Hua, Du Fan, the Feng Guard and the others bowed respectfully to Feng Jiu.

Feng Jiu looked at them and said with a smile: "Who arranged this formation? You've made such a big deal, as if you're afraid that others won't know that I'm back."

"Master, I arranged it."

Cang Qing who was at the side spoke, he looked at her and said: "Everyone in this continent knows that Master and Hell's Lord have defeated the Demon Lord. They want to see the glorious return of the both of you, so when I heard of Master's return, I asked them to prepare for it."

"Yes." He responded, then made a gesture. The cultivators jumped up into the clouds in the sky and left only a few cultivators guarding Heavenly Pill Tower.

“Little Feng Ye, Yangyang, it’s your first time here, let Leng Hua show you around.” Feng Jiu beckoned to the two of them to come forward and said to Leng Hua: “Show the two of them around, then take them to the streets and see if they need anything. If they do, buy it for them.”

Du Fan looked at Guan Xilin who was sitting and drinking tea. He said with a smile: “Xilin, I didn’t expect you to come back with Master. Ever since you disappeared, we have been searching everywhere for you. We were unable to find any news of your whereabouts until we heard that you were captured by the Demon Clan. ## Chapter 2515 What Son

When Guan Xilin and the others heard Feng Jiu’s words, they were also stunned and didn’t respond for a while.

Her son? When did she have a son? How did they not know this?

All of a sudden, all eyes turned to Xuanyuan Mo Ze.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s hand tapped the table lightly making a light knocking sound. He looked at Feng Jiu with deep eyes and asked playfully: “When did you have a son? How did | not know this?”

The others were slightly startled when they heard this. They looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze, then back at Feng Jiu, as if they were still registering what Feng Jiu had just

The corners of Xuanyuan Mo Ze's lips curled slightly. He looked at her and said: "Ah Jiu, I didn't even know you wanted a child so much. In that case, let's get married while we're back this time!"

'ad? Or even asked her out loud where her son had come from?

Feng Jiu's mouth twitched slightly. What was he talking about? When this guy heard that she had a son, couldn't he have given her a look of disbelief in

Or, he clearly knew that other than him, she wouldn't have borne a child with another man, hence knowing that this child must have had nothing to do with them.

Sure enough, it was no fun dealing with extremely smart people. As soon as your tail moved, they would know what you were up to.

She put her cheek to her hand, then glanced at the others and said: "I went out with the old man some time ago and picked up a child. He's fair and plump, and very cute. He's very pleasing to my eyes, so I brought him back."

Having said that, she smiled and looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze squinting and said: "By the way, I've named our son Xuanyuan Hao

"Xuanyuan Hao?"

When Xuanyuan Mo Ze heard the name, he couldn't help but show a smile: "I didn't expect to have a son before | even got married."

"The child is very cute, I think you will like him very much when you see him." Feng Jiu said. She looked at Du Fan: "Did Leng Shuang not come over? Is she in the Manor?"

"Yes, I didn't notify Leng Shuang to come over. She is at the Manor looking after Little Master." Du Fan said with a smile. He couldn't help but feel amused when he saw everyone's startled expression:

Feng Jiu nodded and said: "In that case, let's go back to the Manor first!"

"Well, I also want to see this child that you have claimed as your son." Xuanyuan Mo Ze stood up and said.

Upon seeing this, Feng Jiu smiled and said to Du Fan: "You stay here and settle everything here. Go and get Leng Hua to come down so that I can bring Feng Ye and Sunny back with us."

"Yes." Du Fan responded and left.

‘They chatted for a while then got up as Leng Hua came down with the children. ‘The group then went to Feng Manor together.

When she heard that her Master had returned, although Leng Shuang hadn’t left the Manor, she had been waiting in the Manor.

Zhuo Junyue had been accompanying his younger brother Zhuo Junyang practising walking in the courtyard. Ever since Feng Jiu had helped in his treatment, coupled with his recuperation, from not having been able to stand up, he was finally able to stand up and walk, albeit trembling and he was still not able to walk for too long.

“Elder Brother, I heard that Elder Sister Feng has returned.” Zhuo Junyang looked at his elder brother and asked while he was supporting him.

“Yes, they’ve entered the city. They should be in Heavenly Pill Tower now.” Zhuo Junyue replied

Chapter 2516 Amused

He helped him over to the wheelchair and said: “Rest for a while, don’t walk for too long.”

“Elder Brother, I might be able to walk on my own after a while.” When he spoke about this, he was unable to hide his joy: “When Elder Sister Feng returns to the Manor, take me to see her!”

“Alright.” Zhuo Junyue responded.

At the front, Feng Jiu led Xuanyuan Mo Ze into the Manor. Guan Xilin and the others had also come to the Manor while Gray Wolf returned to Ling Manor first, and only Shadow One followed Xuanyuan Mo Ze.

“Master, Hell’s Lord.” Leng Shuang greeted them and bowed to them.

“Leng Shuang, bring my son out to show them at once.” Feng Jiu said with a smile and motioned for her to bring the child out.

“Yes.” Leng Shuang responded and turned back towards the courtyard.

Everyone went to the front courtyard and sat down and chatted. After a while, Leng Shuang came back with a child in her arms.

Feng Jiu took the child into her arms and teased him: “Little Hao’er, Mother is back, come, come and meet your Father.” She smiled and brought the child to Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s side: “Look at him.”

When Xuanyuan Mo Ze saw the doting look between her eyebrows, he couldn’t help but was curious about the child. As she held the child close to him, he glanced over and saw that the child was just a small lump, but it was very fair-skinned and adorable. Although it was still a baby, his facial features were outstanding.

“Well, he is quite good looking.” He reached out and touched the child’s head.

“Let me take a look, let me take a look.” Ning Lang and the others gathered around.

“Yes! He’s really adorable.”

“This child has such outstanding features, he will definitely grow into a very handsome man in the future.”

“Ah Jing, come and carry the child.” Guan Xilin took the child from Feng Jiu’s arms and handed him to Ye Jing. He smiled and said: “After we get married, we will also have a few chubby boys like that.”

Ye Jing couldn’t help but blushed when he spoke such words in front of everyone and gave him an angry look: “What nonsense are you talking about?”

“Hahaha, I’m not talking nonsense.” Guan Xilin smiled happily.

“Where is he? I want to see him too, I want to see him too.” The small and short Little Feng Ye was pushed out by everyone and couldn’t see the child at all. Therefore, he pushed aside everyone and squeezed forward and shouted: “I want to see too, I want to see too.”

“Alright alright, come and have a look.” Feng Jiu smiled lightly and reached out and carried him up.

Feng Ye hadn’t expected that she would have carried him up and felt a little embarrassed. His delicate little face blushed: “I am a man and an Elder, how can I let you carry me? Little Jiujiu, let me go.”

There were so many people and he felt embarrassed.

“You’re embarrassed? What’s wrong with me carrying you? So this little one knows how to be shy?” Feng Jiu teased him and instead of letting him go, she continued to hold him in her arms and said with a smile: “When you were little like Hao’er I used to carry you and I even kissed you! I’ve even seen you naked!”

“Ah! That was when I was younger, it’s not the same.” As soon as he heard her say that she had seen him naked, he was so embarrassed that he covered his blushing face with his little hands.

He knew that he was delivered by Little Jiujiu, it was said that his Mother had difficulty during labour and they nearly lost both of them at childbirth! If it hadn’t been for Little Jiujiu, neither him nor his Mother would have survived.

“Ah Jiu, stop teasing him. Look, he’s so embarrassed already.” Ye Jing couldn’t help but laugh. She walked forward with the child in her arms and said to Feng Ye: “Here, take a look at him.”.

Chapter 2517 Will It Be Too Crowded

Feng Ye peeled away his little hand that had been covering his face and looked at the child. When he saw that the little guy was even smaller than him, he blinked and couldn't stop looking at him. His heart skipped a beat and he stretched his hand out and carefully poked his face.

"He's so small, he's even smaller than me."

He looked at the baby with interest and just as he was about to poke him again, he saw that the baby had burst into tears. The baby's cry was extremely loud and it had startled him.

"I only poked him lightly, really." Feng Ye said quickly for fear that the baby had cried because he had poked him too hard.

Feng Jiu smiled lightly and put him down, then she stretched out her hand and pinched his nose: "I know, he just doesn't really like people touching his face. He will cry when his face is touched."

"Ah? Is that so? It frightened me to death." Little Feng Ye exhaled softly and patted his chest. His reaction made everyone chuckle softly.

"Here, let me hold him." Feng Jiu took the child from Ye Jing's arms then said to them: "I intend to bring Hao'er back with me this time, I'll keep him by my side and teach him personally in the future."

"Where is the child's family? Are they all gone? Have you sent anyone to investigate his background?" Song Ming asked. Although it wasn't a big deal that Feng Jiu was adopting a child, what if the child still had relatives? Wouldn't they be saddened by his disappearance?

Feng Jiu brought the child over to the table and sat down, then she said to them: "You don't know this, but this child's background is a bit mysterious and a bit complicated.

Although I said that I had found him, in actual fact, the child was rescued from the jaws of death."

Upon hearing this, everyone was slightly surprised and couldn't help but look at each other. They hadn't expected to hear this.

"After I came back, I sent someone to investigate but it was impossible to find out anything." She lowered her head and teased the child in her arms: "So I think that Hao'er's identity is not that simple. I will keep him by my side for now, maybe one day in the future before Hao'er becomes an adult, his family will come to him."

Upon hearing this, Ning Lang asked: "Then if his family comes for him in the future, will you return him to them?"

"Yes! If he can be reunited with his relatives then of course he should go back to his family!" She said as a matter-of-factly.

“But, can you bear to give him up? After all, you’ve kept him by your side all this time, if he were to leave in the future, won’t you miss him?” Ning Lang couldn’t understand her thoughts but he could tell that Feng Jiu was very fond of this child.

“Even if I can’t bear to give him up, I still have to let him go home to find his family!” She smiled:

“Besides, even if he goes home, it’s not like he will forget us. They are two different matters and there is no conflict.”

Everyone chatted in the courtyard, and after a while, Guan Xilin said: “We haven’t had much rest along the way, since we are home now, let’s go and rest first. We can talk more tomorrow.” Having said that, he left with Ye Jing.

Upon seeing this, Feng Jiu joked about the two of them leaving: “Elder Brother, do you need me to ask Leng Shuang to arrange another courtyard for Ye Jing? Will it be too crowded for the both of you sharing one courtyard?”

Ning Lang and the others couldn’t help laughing when they heard this, even Ye Jing turned back with a blushing face: “Ah Jiu!”

“No, because Ah Jiu won’t let me sleep in the same room as her, hahahaha...” Guan Xilin also turned back and said with a smile, then he held Ye Jing, who was blushing, and walked away from everyone’s watchful eyes. .

Chapter 2518 Internal Heatiness

“Alright, we won’t disturb your family reunion. We will go and take a bath first then have a good rest.” Song Ming said with a smile, then he turned around and walked out.

“Feng Jiu, we are leaving first.”

Ning Lang and the others also followed suit. After a while, only Feng Jiu, Xuanyuan Mo Ze, Feng Ye and Zhao Yang were left. Shadow One was waiting in the shadows, and Leng Shuang and Leng Hua were standing outside the courtyard.

When the two children Feng Ye and Zhao Yang looked around and saw that they were the only ones left in the courtyard, they looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze with widened eyes, then at Feng Jiu. Finally, Feng Ye tugged Zhao Yang’s sleeve and said: “I’m going to look for Leng Hua and have him show us around the Manor.” Having said that, he

“Shadow One, leave.” Xuanyuan Mo Ze ordered Shadow One who was waiting in the shadows to retreat.

“Yes.” Shadow One responded and left quietly.

When Leng Shuang, who was outside the courtyard, saw him leave, he also retreated quietly. The entire courtyard was left with only Xuanyuan Mo Ze and Feng Jiu, as well as Hao'er who was in Feng Jiu's arms.

While in Feng Jiu's arms, the child didn't cry or fuss, he only blinked at her with his clear eyes.

"Ah Jiu, don't you think that Leng Shuang should take the child away?" Xuanyuan Mo Ze sat down beside her. As he looked at her playing with the child and paid no attention to him, he made up his mind silently.

It seemed that he shouldn't be too gentlemanly. He should find an opportunity to finish what he had started. No matter how bad it was, it was still a good thing to be able to conquer. He was busy with his thoughts about finding an opportunity to finish what he had started and conquering that he hadn't noticed that Feng Jiu was staring at him after she heard his words.

When the two of them had decided last time to finish what they had started, their plans were thwarted by others. This time, if he were to really hold back, even if she didn't doubt whether he was a man, he would also start doubting himself.

But, what method should he use? A woman's heart was like a needle in the bottom of the sea, no one could figure it out. She didn't object to getting married last time, but now she wasn't in a hurry?

Even if she wasn't in a hurry, he was!

His fingers tapped on the table unconsciously as his mind was already filled with scenes of them enjoying love-making. When he thought about the fragrant and enchanting scene that no one else had seen before, two drops of warm blood fell from his nose suddenly...

"What on earth are you thinking of? You can actually get a nosebleed from it?"

Feng Jiu looked at him dumbfounded. When she saw his face, his changing expression, she didn't know what he was thinking about at all. Till finally his face had a look of desire and longing, then the corners of her mouth twitched.

She was certain that he was thinking of something appropriate.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze glanced at her calmly, then he took a handkerchief out from space and wiped the blood from his nose. As he suppressed his passion for her, he said in a calm and magnetic voice: "I wasn't thinking of anything. It's just a little internal heatiness."

He just suffered from a little internal heatiness and he needed to release it.

Upon hearing this, the corners of Feng Jiu's mouth curled and she said unsmilingly: "Oh? Internal heatiness? That's simple, I will prescribe some medicine and tell Leng Shuang to boil it for you to drink. It will release the heatiness and you won't suffer from any heatiness at all."

"Don't bother, I have even better medicine." His deep eyes fell on her. Though his words were not clear, his meaning was very clear. .

Chapter 2519 Thoughts

"I see! That's fine!" Feng Jiu shrugged her shoulders as if she didn't care.

"When are we going back?" Xuanyuan Mo Ze asked in a steady voice as he suppressed the images in his head.

"Well, in addition to treating Zhuo Junyang's injuries, my elder brother said that there are also people from the Qiao Family who have come to seek medical treatment. So, I think we can only leave after I have dealt with this matter."

She replied, then she thought for a while and said: "Probably about half a month or so! It's just the right timing as we can use this time to take a good rest, recuperate our health and then go home with refreshed minds."

"I heard from Ren Xiang that you sent someone over to Qingfeng Inn?"

"Oh? He mentioned that to you? That fast?"

"Gray Wolf and Shadow One have connections with him, that's how I know."

It hadn't been long since he had returned, and he hadn't seen Ren Xiang yet, so naturally he didn't know about the matters on his side. However, Gray Wolf and Shadow One knew every little and major thing and had told him along the way.

They only told him that he was an outstanding young man, but they didn't know the identity of the man.

"Do you remember the Shadow Night Palace? That person is the Palace Master of Shadow Night Palace. I don't know what he was up to but he followed me." She paused, then continued: "There were many things going on before, so I didn't have time for him. Hence, I sent him to Ren Xiang."

When she spoke of this, she couldn't help but laugh out loud: "When you get to that place you have to suffer. After Gray Wolf went to Ren Xiang's at the beginning, he became a much more honest person when he returned.”

Upon hearing this, Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s eyes flickered slightly. His eyes fell on Feng Jiu’s beautiful face, who was beside him wearing a red dress. No matter when it was, she was always so dazzling, like the stars in the sky exuding a dazzling light.

Coupled with her abilities and free and wanton temperament, anyone who had spent time with her would find it difficult not to fall for her. She had a boundless charm and she was the only person who didn’t know how attractive she was.

The Shadow Night Palace Palace Master was probably attracted to her, that’s why he tried his best to get close to her.

But, hey! He dared to perv at his woman? He dared to have ideas about his woman, he would make him suffer!

“Leng Shuang.” Feng Jiu, who was playing with the child, called out suddenly. Her voice carried her spiritual breath, though her voice was not loud, it had clearly transmitted to outside of the courtyard.

Although Leng Shuang had retreated, she hadn’t gone far. She walked back inside upon hearing Feng Jiu’s voice.

“Master.”

“Leng Shuang, Hao’er has been sucking on his fingers, he might be hungry. Go and warm up some goat’s milk and bring it here so I can feed him.” Feng Jiu instructed.

“Yes.” Leng Shuang responded, then turned and left.

Upon seeing this, Xuanyuan Mo Ze stood up and said: “I just remembered something I have to deal with. Feed the baby first! I will be back later.”

“Alright.” She nodded. After she watched him leave, she continued to play with the child.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze who had returned to the Ling Manor was in the study reading the documents on the table. After a while, he put the documents down, then he spread out some paper and prepared some ink. Having done that, he picked up a writing brush and wrote something on the paper and instructed at the same time: “Shadow One, get Gray Wolf for me.”

“Yes.” Shadow One who was in the shadows responded and left quietly.

After a while, Gray Wolf came in from outside: “Master, you’re looking for me?”

At this time, he had just put down the writing brush in his hand. He raised his head and glanced at Gray Wolf. .

Chapter 2520 Instructions

“Take this to Ren Xiang.” He had folded the piece of paper and handed it to Gray Wolf.

Upon hearing that it was for Ren Xiang, Gray Wolf asked hurriedly: “Master, shall I take it now? Or shall I take it tomorrow?” He didn’t know what the instructions inside the letter were and whether they were urgent.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze’s deep voice came out slowly. He leaned back in his chair and said: “Tell him to do as I have instructed. If there is any mistake I will hold him accountable.”

“Yes!” Gray Wolf responded quickly. He was curious but he didn’t dare to ask anymore. Instead, he bowed and retreated.

After having been away for such a long time, Xuanyuan Mo Ze stayed at the Ling Manor and handled some affairs. He was so busy that the sky had darkened while he worked.

Shadow One watched in the shadows. When he saw that he didn’t seem to have any intention of stopping, he came out of the shadows and asked: “Master, the Ghost Doctor sent Leng Shuang over to ask when will Master be finished. The Ghost Doctor is waiting for you to have dinner.”

Upon hearing this, Xuanyuan Mo Ze stopped what he was doing, he raised his head and looked outside: “It’s so late?” He stood up and flicked his robes: “Tidy the documents on the table.”

“Yes.” Shadow One responded and beckoned for someone to come and tidy the table.

Over at the Feng Manor, Zhuo Junyue had pushed Zhuo Junyang to the front courtyard to have a chat with Feng Jiu.

“I have been doing everything you have told me to do this whole time. Junyang has recovered very fast, he can already walk on his own, just not for too long.”

Zhuo Junyue told her about his brother’s legs, then he asked: “I heard the old man is injured? Is he seriously injured? Did he come back with you this time?”

“Take your time with Junyang’s legs. Don’t worry, it will recover.” She smiled at the two of them, then her eyes fell on Zhuo Junyue, and she said: “As for the old man, he was quite badly injured. When I came back, he was still in his cave dwelling recuperating. I don’t think he will come down the mountain for a while.”

“Junyang, I will change your prescription tomorrow. Continue to use it, don’t worry. We will be going home at some point, but you can continue to stay here, you don’t have to rush home.” She patted Zhuo Junyue who was sitting in the wheelchair and said.

Upon hearing this, Zhuo Junyang nodded and said: “Alright. Thank you Elder Sister Feng.”

Zhuo Junyue caught a glimpse of the figure that was walking towards them from the corner of his eye and said to Feng Jiu: "We won't disturb you." Having said that, he cupped his hands and stepped back.

As he pushed Junyang past Xuanyuan Mo Ze, he nodded.

"You're here? Are you done?" She chuckled lightly and looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze who had walked in.

"Yes." He nodded in response, then he said to Leng Shuang who was waiting beside him: "Bring the food and wine!" Then he sat down beside Feng Jiu.

When he saw Feng Jiu looking at him with her cheeks resting in her hands, he asked: "Where's the child?"

"Asleep." She looked at him with a smile: "You want to hold him?"

"No." He replied simply. He wasn't his flesh and blood, so he wasn't interested.

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu couldn't help but smile: "Oh? So you don't like children? Are we going to have children in the future?"

"It's different when it's my own flesh and blood." He looked at her: "If he is yours and my child, I will like him very much." Although Hao'er was very adorable, he wasn't their child after all, so it wasn't the same. .
