

Ghost Doctor 2561

Chapter 2561 Hunting for food

The old man heard the noise, he opened his eyes and looked out at the sea. He shook his head and closed his eyes after seeing the girl's head pop out of the water, her wet hair on her face.

Feng Jiu emerged from the sea, dragging her wet clothes behind her, and sat down by the shore. She rummaged through the space, looking for something, and finally took out a pearl after a long time.

"Found it."

She smiled as she took the pearl, then jumped up again towards the sea. She dove to a deeper part of the water this time. When she was having trouble breathing, she injected her spirit energy into the pearl and tossed it into the water.

The sea rose on both sides in the blink of an eye, and as the pearl, the water below separated to the right and to the left, the spirit energy swirled, and the water surged majestically.

"Huh?"

When the old man stood up to take a look, he couldn't help but take a step forward to watch as the water surged up, followed by the swirl of the spirit energy breath. He stroked his beard and looked out at the sea, deep in thought. After a while, he remarked, "Water repelling pearl? She even has this treasure? Ha ha, she's incredible."

Feng Jiu arrived at the bottom of the sea and discovered a variety of corals and seaweed, as well as some seafood hidden beneath the silt. She began collecting them with a smile.

"Is this a sea urchin? The crab looks fat. Well, the shrimp is big enough for me to eat," she murmured as she put the seafood into a cosmos sack. When she felt she was almost done, she kept the water repelling pearl by her side and was ready to return.

At this moment, a hissing roar came from where the sea parted on both sides and it was getting closer and closer to her. When she heard the sound, she looked around to see what it was, but all she could see was that it was very large.

"A sea monster?"

She cocked her brow, tied the cosmos sack around her waist, and held a dagger. A feeler the size of an arm sprang out of nowhere, resembling an octopus tentacle with suction holes.

The feeler wrapped itself around her feet and attempted to drag her away, but she made no attempt to evade it. She was caught and dragged into the sea. After being submerged in the sea, she discovered that the so-called sea monster was in fact a massive octopus. Its tentacles swirled in the waves, grasped her feet, and attempted to shove her into its mouth.

Wow, the delicious food delivered itself to her door!

She smiled as she narrowed her eyes and thought to herself, "This octopus is so big, it must taste delicious if it's roasted." She raised the knife in her hand and slashed the tentacle that had coiled itself around her feet.

The octopus screamed as its tentacle was severed, and the other dancing tentacles attacked her at breakneck speed. She couldn't swim swiftly in the sea, so she utilised her divine sense to command the water-repellent pearl to come to her side.

The shoreline disappeared on both sides in an instant and the octopus dropped right onto the silt at the sea's bottom. Its tentacled claws wriggled in the sand in an attempt to escape.

"Do you want to escape?" The corners of Feng Jiu's mouth curved up. The octopus was captured and dragged into the massive net that she suddenly cast. At the same time, she lifted her vital energy and leapt to the sea's surface, holding the water repelling pearl in one hand.

Chapter 2562 Get to work

The old man standing by the sea was stunned for a moment and looked intently when the thunderous sound of water came with a strange roar, but a large object had been thrown over before he could see it clearly.

"What exactly is it?" He instinctively took a few steps back to avoid it, only to discover that the object had continued to move after being thrown to the ground.

"Hiss! You actually caught a sea monster?" The old man stared strangely at Feng Jiu, who was removing water stains with her spirit energy breath.

The spirit energy breath swept along her body and her previously soaked clothes dried in an instant. Even the water in her hair had drained away, leaving her beautiful, silky hair hung loosely across her back.

Feng Jiu cast a glance at the old man. She was putting on her coat while tying her hair with a ribbon. She didn't wear her boots, preferring to leave them on the ground and walk on the fine sand with her white jade-like feet.

"Would you like some seafood, Uncle?" She smiled and appeared to be a young lady from an aristocratic family. However, when he gazed at her, the old man's eyelids twitched.

A proper young lady from a noble family would not go soaking wet in order to capture sea monsters. Not to mention proper young ladies, even after all these years, he had never seen anyone go into the sea to capture the sea monster.

"This sea monster is not edible. What are you catching it for?" The old man remarked, touching the silver-like net at the same time and was taken aback. "This is a treasure."

"Mm. This is a magic artifact." Feng Jiu replied, staring at the octopus monster scurrying around inside the silver net on the sand. "This thing is delicious and can only be found near the sea. At other places, even if I want to eat it, I won't be able to find it."

She looked around. When she saw the old man, she had an idea and asked with a smile, "Uncle, do you want to eat seafood? I make delicious food."

With a scowl on his face, the old man asked. "Tell me plainly. I'm a straightforward person who despises hemming and hawing the most." Despite the fact that this girl was not at all coy.

Then she smiled and told him directly. "Get some twigs, Uncle. I'll prepare a good meal."

The old man choked. "Did you just ask me to collect twigs?"

"Uncle, didn't you say I should be forthright? I've said everything. Do you refuse to lend a hand?" She cast a glance at him and inquired, "Do you prefer to deal with the octopus monster as well as some fish, shrimp, and crabs? Let me clarify something first. Eating my food without contributing? This isn't going to work."

"Your food isn't tasty; I don't want to eat it." The old man stated before returning to sit on the sand

"Alright, then! I'll have to do it myself now that Uncle has said so." She shrugged her shoulders and appeared unconcerned.

"Come out, Cloud Devouring Beast, Little White." She called out. Two rays of light flashed out of the space. In front of her, the Cloud Devouring Beast and the Little White Tiger appeared.

"Master." The two beasts called out. Little White was more affectionate and approached Feng Jiu for a rub.

When he saw that she still had two contract beasts, the old man couldn't stop staring at her.

"Go. You two go to the woods to collect some twigs. Later, I'll prepare some delicious food for you." Feng Jiu stroked Little White Tiger's head and gave orders to both of them.

Chapter 2563 Exchange

The two beasts responded in unison, breaking into a run to get the twigs. They had to go back and forth between the mountain forest and the sea numerous times since they could only carry the twigs in their mouths.

Feng Jiu gathered some stones to make a simple stove, lit the twigs, took out a large pot from the space and filled it with water from the space, and then boiled the crabs stored inside her cosmos sack while dealing with some fish and shrimp.

After cooking the crab, she killed the octopus monster, roasted its tentacles on a hot iron plate, and sprinkled them with spices. The sea wind carried a strong aroma of meat. When the old man caught a whiff of the aroma, he couldn't help but open one eye. To his surprise, she had sectioned and roasted the tentacles on the hot iron pan. His stomach growled as he smelled the aroma.

When Feng Jiu heard his rumbling stomach, she looked up, smiled, and told Cloud Devouring Beast and Little White Tiger, "Alright, we've had plenty. Just wait a minute, you'll be able to eat soon."

She served the grilled meat to Cloud Devouring Beast and Little White Tiger on a large platter. She ate a crab after she finished eating some slices of the tentacles. "The place is good, and the seafood is especially tasty." She thoroughly enjoyed the delicacy. She looked at the roasted tentacles on the hot iron plate as she ate. When she noticed that Cloud Devouring Beast and Little White Tiger ate quickly, she added large slices of meat and increased the flame, giving them all of the octopus monster's meat to eat.

When he smelled the aroma, the old man couldn't help but gulp. When he realised that Feng Jiu had not called him up to eat, he couldn't help but mutter to himself, "This girl is not at all cute. How can she be so disrespectful of the old and unloving of the young?"

He considered going over, but he felt he couldn't risk losing face. However, if he didn't go there, he would only be able to swallow his saliva while smelling the aroma. Finally, he stood up and approached her with an awkward laugh. "What are you grilling, Miss? What gives it such a pleasant aroma? I've never seen anyone eat like this before! What spice is it seasoned with?"

"It's a closely guarded secret recipe." Feng Jiu replied, shoving a large piece of meat in front of Cloud Devouring Beast. "Eat quickly. It's not good when it gets cold."

The old man swallowed, inhaled the strong aroma of meat, and said, "I was wrong, Miss. I should have helped. So, could you please give me some? I've never had these before and would like to try them."

Feng Jiu stopped moving her hands and looked at him sideways, surprised, "So you want to eat for free?"

"Ah? Free? Eating for free?" The old man flushed. Who did she think he was, a freeloader of other people's food? "No, I'm not going to eat your food for free. I'm going to give you money," he said right away.

"No. Feng Jiu shook her head and flatly refused. "I have money. I don't want it."

"What exactly do you want?" The old man queried but she simply smiled and said nothing. He observed her peeling a prawn the size of three or four catty and roasting its meat with spices. He couldn't help but be moved when he smelled the peculiar aroma.

"I have a lot of good things. Why don't I give this to you?" He shook his body and quickly pulled out a small boat as he spoke.

"If you're going to cross the sea, you're going to need a boat! I can tell you that flying ships are pointless; all you need is my boat." He stated proudly.

Chapter 2564 Stay away from me

Feng Jiu took a look at the boat before reaching out to take it. "Alright! Please take a seat. The grilled prawn is for you."

The old man was overjoyed. "I knew you weren't an unreasonable girl."

Feng Jiu laughed and handed him roasted tentacles and a cooked crab. The old man ate happily, but his gaze was fixed on the still-baked prawns until Feng Jiu placed the prawns on his plate and he began to grin.

"This is the first time I've seen this way of eating. Miss, your talent is outstanding!" While eating the meat, he praised. He inquired once more. "Why do you want to go to sea, Miss? Do you know how many people are unable to return after going out to sea? You know, not just anyone gets to go in there."

ea

Feng Jiu then dealt with the sea urchins after putting the satiated Cloud Devouring Beast and Little White Tiger back into her space. She was busy working with her hands while conversing with the old man. After a while, she handed the processed sea urchin to the old man.

d

“Well, give this a try. This thing is good; it will help to strengthen your body.”

“This is raw. Are you sure it’s edible?” The old man glanced at Feng Jiu in astonishment.

“Yes, it is.”

The old man tried it with scepticism. The taste was fresh and sweet when it entered his mouth, so he ate all of the sea urchins. But, after consuming them, he had a sudden thought. “I just ate some cooked food followed by some raw food. Will I have diarrhoea?”

“Haha.” Feng Jiu burst out laughing. “That could happen, I suppose. But you most likely will not!” Although she stated such, her look was quite the opposite.

The old man was about to say something in response when his face turned pale. He rose to his feet, one hand covering his stomach. “Oh, no. I didn’t feel it just now, but I now have a stomachache. I have to relieve myself right away.” As he spoke, he dashed into the woods, his legs clamped together.

Feng Jiu chuckled and examined the boat in her hand. She saw that it was indeed a rare magical artifact, so she put it away and prepared to rest before heading out to sea.

However, as she lay down on the sand to rest, she became aware of a pair of eyes staring at her. She opened her eyes to see a cultivator descended from midair on his flying sword and standing not far away, staring at her.

The other party’s eyes on her made her feel uneasy, especially when she noticed the man’s gaze fall on her bare feet.

“You are so rude!” She chided in a cold voice and stood up from the sand.

“How come you’re here by yourself, Miss?”

The cultivator went slowly, his gaze still fixed on Feng Jiu. However, this time he was glancing at her face and then down to her fair-as-snow neck. His gaze was arrogant and impolite as if he regarded her with contempt.

Feng Jiu’s breath was restrained at this time. Most people couldn’t see her cultivation strength. The man in front of her, a cultivator at the Immortal Sacred Peak, would dare to be so pompous since he couldn’t see her cultivation strength.

Feng Jiu turned around and walked over to her boots, ready to put them on. However, the cultivator approached her in an instant.

“Miss, it is rumoured that this location has a sea guardian. I wonder if you have seen him?”

She scowled at the man in front of her and yelled coldly, "Stay away from me!" She flicked her sleeves and a stream of air came out to attack

Chapter 2565 Parting

The cultivator was caught off guard. He took a few hasty steps back before finally coming to a halt. With a squint, he looked at the cold-faced beauty in front of him and laughed with surprise. "Miss, you've got good skill."

Feng Jiu gave him an icy look before turning away to remove the sand under her feet and put on her boots.

At the very least, the cultivator had seen the world. With his Immortal Sacred Peak cultivation, he would naturally not lose his reason and rush forward like a pervert whenever he saw a beautiful woman. After the other party's sleeve flicked out, he began to act even more cautiously.

If he had previously considered pursuing a woman, he now suppressed that thought and re-examined the beautiful woman in red in front of him.

Was this person's cultivation strength concealed?

To him, the idea was unfathomable. This woman was young and her bone age was clearly visible in front of him. Was it possible that such a young woman's strength had turned against the sky? That was not a statement he would believe.

It's simply that, as a result of this, he no longer had any thoughts about her.

She headed to the seashore after putting on her boots. With a flip of her hand, the boat appeared in her palm. After piercing her finger with a silver needle and dripping her blood on the boat to identify the master, she tossed the boat into the sea.

The boat expanded in size as it floated on the sea's surface, rising and falling with the waves. The old man's voice came in a hurry, just as she tiptoed to jump into the boat.

"Miss, Miss, are you leaving now?" The old man quickly stepped out of the woods. He couldn't help but feel reluctant when he saw Feng Jiu standing by the sea and the small boat floating in the water.

It would be difficult for him to eat these delectable foods after she was gone.

"I have to leave, Uncle. You get all of the food that's left! Please take care of yourself, goodbye!" She cupped his fists and jumped into the small boat on tiptoe.

The cultivator's eyes flashed slightly, and his gaze was drawn to the boat. "Are you the sea guardian?" he asked as he returned his gaze to the old man.

The old man cast a glance at the cultivator and made no attempt to speak with him. Instead, he proceeded to the small kitchen, examined those items, and then looked at the figure that had faded away from view. He couldn't help but feel an inexplicable emotion.

No one had ever cooked food for him in all the years he had been guarding the sea. This girl was the only one who did.

When this thought occurred to him, he turned his gaze to the disappearing boat and the figure in red. He immediately used his divine sense to transmit his voice to her.

“Miss, Peng Lai Immortal Island is in this area of the sea, but it appears to be a mirage. It’s shrouded in mist as if it doesn’t belong in this world. As far as I know, this Peng Lai Immortal Island will appear once every half-month. There are only a few days left since the last time it appeared, so take advantage of the opportunity. What’s more, sea monsters in these waters will attack small boats, so stay vigilant.”

Surprised, she stood on the boat and looked back toward the shore. She couldn’t help smiling when she saw the old man standing on the beach watching her.

She held out her hand, waved to the old man and shouted, “Uncle, when I return, I’ll treat you to delicious food.”

The old man couldn’t stop himself from laughing

The cultivator hastened to the seashore, lifted his vital energy and leapt, eager to catch up with Feng Jiu’s boat.

Chapter 2566 Night Sky

However, the old man who saw this scoffed and tossed something from his palm that reflected a brilliant light in the sun. As if sensing this, the cultivator turned back to see the blinding light emanating an odd pulling force. It seemed as if he had lost his centre of gravity and was pulled into a whirlpool the next second.

From a distance, Feng Jiu noticed the scene and the old man waving his hand at her. She turned to sit on the boat, smiling. What about the cultivator? That was not what she should be interested in.

The boat swayed on the sea and sailed deep into it, steered by her spirit energy breath. Feng Jiu entered the boat’s cabin after she could no longer see the coast, changed out of her red dress, bound her chest, and put on a red men’s robe.

When she changed her clothes, she shed her feminine charm and allure and became a little more devilish and charismatic. She walked out of the cabin, her eyes flashing slightly as she looked out at the sea.

Nothing could be seen because the surroundings were obscured by clouds and fog. The boat was pushed higher by the waves. When she saw the layers of spray pushed out by the waves, she thought about the Peng Lai Immortal Island in her heart.

She was a little curious and expectant about that unknown destination. What kind of world would that be?

She was slightly lost in thought when the boat was violently struck by something. The waves roared and the boat jerked. She instantly regained her wits and took a look around the boat.

Va

As usual, the sea was a clear sky blue and the waves glinted in the sun. There appeared to be nothing in the vicinity of the boat. However, the boat was struck again after a while, and this time she felt it so strongly that she knew it was beneath it.

This small boat was an immortal artifact. She wasn't scared of it getting broken or anything, but what sort of sea monster would dare to ram her boat?

The creature was hidden beneath her boat, and she couldn't see it if she tried. She pulled out her Blue Edge Sword, and her spirit energy breath burst forth. The Blue Edge Sword swooped into the water, passing beneath the boat.

She used her spirit energy to control the sword. The sea monster that had hit the boat seemed to have escaped when the Blue Edge Sword had pierced through the bottom of the water. The boat had regained its calm. She no longer pursued it, but instead retrieved the sword and sat on the bow, watching.

When she reached the farthest reaches of the sea, the boat drifted on the water and was carried along by the currents, no longer requiring her spirit energy to navigate.

She reclined in the bow, leisurely listening to the sound of the waves. She took food from the space to satisfy her hunger, and wine and water from the space to quench her thirst. She was carefree and laidback.

She spent the entire day at sea. Nothing else happened except for the salty sea breeze and the occasional sea monster that bumped the boat. As the day progressed and the sun moved westward, she used her hands as a cushion behind her head and gazed at the magnificent surroundings. When the sky gradually darkened and everything turned dark, the atmosphere gradually changed.

While floating in this boundless sea and drifting with the current, there was a profound sense of abandonment from the mundane world.

She mumbled softly, as it was too dark for her liking. She then took a night pearl from her space. It was as if a star in the sky had fallen into the sea, gleaming like a beacon in the dark night.

Bang!

Suddenly, a powerful blow struck, nearly knocking her off the boat as she lay on the bow.

Chapter 2567 Manifest

As she regained her balance, she stood and examined the dozen or so sea monsters of various sizes that had appeared in the darkness around the boat. A burst of light appeared as the Blue Edge Sword manifested in her hand.

"How dare insignificant sea demons provoke me!" She let out a snort. The fierce sword intent emerged with a sharp sound as she flipped the sword. As soon as the sword was drawn, the sea demons plunged to the surface of the ocean and began attacking from beneath the boat, as if attempting to knock it over.

"Bang!"

“Bang! Bang bang bang!”

The smashing sound came from the bottom of the boat with such force that it shook Feng Jiu, who was standing atop the boat. The boat swung violently, almost knocking Feng Jiu from the boat.

She discovered, with the aid of the night pearl’s light, that the sea demons that appeared to assault the boat were not so-called fish monsters or anything else, but rather creatures between humans and demons. Several sea demons appeared to have hands and feet, resembling water ghosts in the sea. Several rushed forward and attempted to clamber aboard the boat, while others sat on the boat’s side and pushed it deep into the sea.

Sensing the boat’s movement and seeing the sea demons attempting to climb aboard, she swiftly turned her palm. With a whizzing sound, a flame shot forth and surged up towards the sea demons perched on the boat.

“Hiss! Aah!”

Screams and shouts erupted. The sea demons slid instinctively into the water beneath the blazing fire and did not dare to rise. The sea was calm for a while, just as those little sea demons vanished.

However, a massive force suddenly struck from the bottom of the sea and knocked the boat over. When the boat capsized, she immediately lifted her head and yelled in a low voice, “Reclaim!” The upturned boat shrank and fell into her palm as she sat on the flying feather and watched the sea demon emerge from the sea.

The sea demons emerged from the water, baring their teeth and brandishing their claws, their mouths letting out unpleasant neighing sounds. The sea demon’s body was a dark blue colour that was extremely unsightly. She jumped down from the flying feather with a frown, slashing with the Blue Edge Sword.

“Whoosh!”

With a violent roar, the fierce airflow carried by the fierce sword intent slashed over and cut a crescent moon-shaped swath across the sea. It happened so quickly that the sea demons on the surface had no chance to submerge. The sea demons’ heads were severed by the sword intent and sank into the depths of the sea.

“Hiss!”

The sound of hissing immediately erupted, piercing and harsh. Just one or two surviving sea demons looked on in amazement and hastily ran to the sea upon seeing that spectacle.

“Hmph!”

Feng Jiu snorted and tossed the small boat into the sea once more. She jumped back into the boat and continued to rest...

As if that blow had been too intimidating, the sea demons did not reappear in the following two days. Feng Jiu, who was adrift on the sea, was both calm and bored.

A few days later, the sun shone brightly at noon. There was a faint light of the sun reflected on the sea after the mist that pervaded the sea evaporated. For no apparent reason, a busy and bustling scene on the vacant sea appeared.

Her eyes widened as she watched the sight, her heart raced, and she leapt to her feet.

“It’s the Peng Lai Immortal Island!”

Chapter 2568 Registration

She stood there transfixed as the sight fluctuated until a faint flight of steps appeared on the sea’s surface. She stowed the boat and took a graceful leap toward the stairs on her toes.

As she approaches the sight, it’s as if she’s crossed a boundary barrier and become cut off from the sea. She climbed the stairs without much thought. As she progressed up the stairs, they became fainter and fainter behind her until they vanished completely. It was the same with the sight, which faded gradually until it vanished into thin air as if it had never existed.

She followed the path all the way to the end, arriving just outside of a city. Her eyes widened slightly in surprise as she gazed at the massive gate and its eight guards.

Could this be the Peng Lai Immortal Island? The eight guards at the gate were all Immortal Sacred cultivators, making her feel unfathomable.

Why did Strong Exponents at the Immortal Sacred rank merely become gatekeepers?

She suppressed her surprise and made her way forward slowly, but she was stopped at the gate.

“Register your information and submit any of the materials listed above as the pass fee.” A guard pointed to the inscription on the wall.

Feng Jiu looked over it; it stated that anyone entering the city must register and obtain a gate pass token. To obtain the gate pass token, one had to hand over a fourth-rank or higher medicinal pill or magical artifact as a fee.

“Why not use gold coins instead of requiring those items?” She inquired, her gaze cast doubtfully on the guard.

“Gold coins? We do not accept gold coins here.” The guard responded. He inquired about Feng Jiu’s information as he took out a thick book to register her name.

“What’s your name?”

“Feng Jiu,” she said after taking a look at the registration book.

She noticed that the book mostly contained registered names, with the rest being blank. After the guard finished registering her, he instructed her to place a drop of her blood on the gate pass token, which he then handed to her.

“Alright, you can go in!” The guard said. He motioned for Feng Jiu to enter without even looking at her.

Feng Jiu took the pass and looked at it as she walked into the city. She discovered that there were still boundary barriers and arrays inside the city after entering it. She also became aware that there were some world rules that put pressure below, causing her to feel uneasy once she entered.

However, much to her surprise, it was different from other places. The cultivators were bartering goods on the ground.

Perhaps because few people came here, her appearance drew the attention of many people in the city. Their perplexing stares made her feel strange; as if she were a monkey being watched by a crowd.

“Look, it’s a young man. He appears to be quite handsome.” An Immortal Sacred Peak who sat on the ground said to the person next to him.

“Mm, judging by his bone age, he is still quite young. It’s surprising that he’s able to come here.” An old man next to him followed suit to talk.

“It’s unclear how he got here.”

“Those who can come here are not ordinary people.” Another person said, raising his hand and shouting to Feng Jiu, who was dressed in dazzling red. “Young friend, I have a lot of good things in this stall. Do you want to come and take a look?”

Hearing his call, Feng Jiu turned her gaze over there...

Chapter 2569 Chaos

When she saw the precious medicinal herbs strewn about the stall, she couldn’t help but take a step forward in utter disbelief. “Isn’t this a Three Leaf Purple Violet Heart Orchid? Hiss! This is a thousand-year-old Ink-edged Jade Ganoderma Lucidum!”

She couldn’t stop gasping when she saw these rare spirit herbs outside. Such precious and rare things could only be seen here. She might not be able to collect them even if she went outside.

“How do you sell these?” She asked, pointing to the two spirit herbs while her gaze was drawn to the other spirit herbs. She could tell they were thousands of years old, but they were so casually placed on the stall that her heart skipped a beat.

How reckless! That such a good thing would be placed so casually and not in a presentable box left her speechless.

“Sell? Haha, we don’t take gold coins here, only barter.” He said this while pointing to the words on one side.

Feng Jiu was stunned for a moment as she read the words above. “What kind of things do you need to trade for items like these?”

The person next to him laughed as soon as she uttered these words, even before the cultivator opened his lips to respond. “As a newcomer, you’d be wise not to exchange those items just yet. Come, I have some internal injury medication. Carry two bottles with you just in case!”

Feng Jiu raised her eyebrows. “What do you mean? Am I going to get beaten up in here?”

“No, but there is someone who is well-known for challenging others. Because you’re new here, you’re certain to be unable to flee.” The cultivator laughed and shook a medicine bottle in his hand.

Feng Jiu chuckled with disapproval. “How about I trade these two spirit herbs for a bottle of sixth-rank medicinal pill?”

“Sixth-rank medicinal pill? No, that won’t do. At least seventh-rank.” The cultivator replied while waving his hand.

“Seventh-rank?”

Feng Jiu’s lips twitched as she stared at the cultivator. “Do you know how many precious spirit herbs it takes to make seventh-rank medicinal pills? Even though the two spirit herbs are precious, they are not any more expensive than the spirit herbs required for the seventh-rank medicinal pills.”

Read the next chapter on our vjpNovel.com

“I don’t want it unless it’s a seventh-rank.”

The cultivator was about to say something when he suddenly acted as if something had gone wrong. He gathered the items from the stall, wrapped all of the spirit herbs in a large piece of cloth, and fled.

Feng Jiu squatted there in a daze, staring at the figure that vanished in the blink of an eye, unsure what was going on.

“Run, the son of the City Lord is here again!” With a loud cry, everyone in the stalls around them put their belongings away and fled. For a while, their eyes were filled with confusion and chaos.

Feng Jiu rose to her feet and turned her head. She noticed a man in a sedan chair lifted by eight people ambling down the street. The sedan chair was completely open on all sides, revealing the man wielding a whip in his hand.

When each whip was thrown out and dropped into the air, a snapping sound was made, and the man locked his gaze on the fleeing crowd, seemingly relishing their terror of him. After a few moments, his gaze shifted to the dazzling Feng Jiu clad in red.

“Stop.” At the command, the sedan chair stopped.

The man leaned on the sedan chair and looked at Feng Jiu who was dressed in red, with a glimmer of light in his eyes...

Chapter 2570: Ling Tianyu

The other person looked at her presumptuously. After looking at her repeatedly, clearly unsure if she was a male or a woman, the man eventually glanced away. She also averted her look and started to leave.

This place was somewhat baffling. It was an island with a city on it. Thus, where was the immortal ascending ladder mentioned by Old Man Tianji? It seemed that she had to ask someone.

“Stop.”

A harsh shout was heard as she turned to leave. Over a dozen Immortal Sacred rank guards quickly surrounded her.

When she looked at those Immortal Sacred cultivators, she had an odd expression on her face. An Immortal Sacred Strong Exponent in the Lower Continent was a rare sight, whereas, in the Upper Continent, an Immortal Sacred Strong Exponent could transform his family into a top-tier noble clan. In a place called Peng Lai Immortal Island, on the other hand, Immortal Sacred Strong Exponents were as common as Chinese cabbages.

Fortunately, she was already an Immortal Emperor Strong Exponent. Otherwise, these people would truly beat her to death.

Were these people born with this kind of strength? Or did they acquire their abilities through other means? This had really piqued her interest!

She looked at the dozen Immortal Sacred guards, turned slightly sideways, and asked the man in the sedan chair, "What's the matter?"

"You don't appear to be familiar. Have you just got here?" The man leaned back in his sedan seat, a pair of sharp eyes squinting at Feng Jiu.

"Yes." She responded.

"Where are you from? What exactly are you doing here?"

When she heard this, Feng Jiu raised her brows and said, "What exactly am I doing here? Do I really need to tell you?"

When they heard Feng Jiu's response, the people around them gasped. "Is this kid an idiot? How dare he speak to the young City Lord in such a manner? He has no idea what the young City Lord's method is."

"He's a newcomer to the area, how would he know? How could he talk like that unless he knows nothing about what's going on here?"

"What's your name?" The man in the sedan chair asked again as if he had not heard what Feng Jiu had just said.

Feng Jiu turned and walked forward, not intending to respond. However, when the guards noticed this, they blocked her way. Feng Jiu flicked her sleeve, and a burst of spirit energy breath attacked, scaring those men away.

The man's eyes narrowed as he observed the scene. A guard who registered names at the city gate quickly approached the sedan chair and whispered, "Young City Lord, the name of the person who has just entered the city is Feng Jiu."

Nobody on Peng Lai Immortal Island had ever heard of or been acquainted with Feng Jiu, the name of Ghost Doctor.

Thus, the man stepped out of the sedan chair, locked his gaze on the man fighting the guard, and stated in a deep voice, "I, Ling Tianyu, would like to challenge you, Feng Jiu! You must become my slave if you lose!" As soon as he said this, an object flew out of his hand and attacked Feng Jiu.

Feng Jiu heard this and beat back those people. When she turned around and saw the object approaching, she reached out instinctively to catch it. However, she was taken aback when she saw the card bearing the word 'Battle.' "What is this?"

When he saw that he had caught the card, the young City Lord couldn't help but smile. He swished the whip in his hand and said to a guard nearby, "You, first on the left, tell him about the rules."

"Yes," the man said.

A handsome man dressed in a black fitting attire responded and approached Feng Jiu.

Chapter 2571 The Rules Of Heaven And Earth

"Anyone here can initiate the cultivators to a challenge or a duel subject to the acceptance of the battle card. What you have in your hand is the battle card that my Master has given to you. Since you have already accepted the battle card, there is no room for regrets."

The surrounding people watched this scene, all of them stared at Feng Jiu. That was a battle card! He actually accepted it just like that, this time, even if he doesn't want to fight, he would still have to fight.

"Battle card?" Feng Jiu glanced at the thing in her hand and sneered: "Boring!"

She raised her hand and threw the thing back. When she turned around and was about to leave, she saw that clouds had suddenly gathered in the sky. Muffled thunder sounded and the word 'battle' that had been condensed with powerful spirit energy fell from the sky and instantly formed a boundary barrier that trapped her in the middle and made it impossible for her to leave.

"Boom!"

As soon as the boundary barrier appeared, a loud bang was heard. The breath of spirit energy that was visible to the naked eye surged from the boundary barrier, and a powerful airflow struck out causing the surrounding people to take a few steps back involuntarily.

The appearance of this boundary barrier trapped Feng Jiu and the Young City Lord together. The guards who were originally also within the boundary barrier were bounced away by the power in the boundary barrier and left only the two of them in the entire boundary barrier.

"Psst! It's appeared! Told you that he has to fight even if he doesn't want to."

"That's right, who asked him to accept the battle card! You know, this Young City Lord has used this trick to trap a lot of people who have just arrived."

"Then that's unlucky for him to have met the Young City Lord when he's only just arrived here. Too bad he caught the eyes of the Young City Lord, everyone knows that the Young City Lord likes this kind of young handsome man as his slave and guard. Once you've been targeted by him, there is no escape."

As she listened to the whispers of the surrounding people, Feng Jiu's eyes moved slightly. She raised her eyes and looked at the boundary barrier that had appeared suddenly, then at the man who was also in the boundary barrier and asked: "How did this boundary barrier appear?"

“Peng Lai Immortal Island is a world of its own, and in this world, there are the Rules of Heaven and Earth. This boundary barrier was generated by the Rules of Heaven and Earth after I challenged you and you accepted my battle card.”

The man’s voice was very casual. As he approached Feng Jiu, he stroked the whip in his hand, and said: “However, don’t worry. This is not a boundary barrier that can only be broken by the death of one of us. As long as the winner is determined, the boundary barrier will dissipate. With the Rules of Heaven and Earth, this challenge will be very fair.”

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu, who vaguely knew some things, stared at the man with an eccentric expression: “So because I have accepted your battle card, I have to fight?”

“That’s right.” The man seemed to be in a good mood, as if he knew that he would win this challenge.

“Then should both sides make it clear the requirements of victory or defeat before the challenge?” She asked again, looking a little confused.

“That’s right.” The man responded in a good mood.

“If I lose, you want me to be your slave?” She raised her eyebrows and stared at the man who looked to be about twenty five years old with an evil look on his face.

“Yes.” He stared at Feng Jiu’s stunning face and responded.

“What if I win, can I also make you my slave?”

The man laughed when he heard this: “Ha!” He paused, then he glanced at Feng Jiu and said with contempt: “Do you think you can defeat me?”

Chapter 2572 Who Cheated Who

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu smiled slightly: “Regardless of whether I can win or not, since it is a challenge, of course we must state the terms in advance, am I right? Also, I don’t know about the Rules of Heaven and Earth, so if I just fight with you in confusion, that’s not very fair is it?”

“With your strength, if I want to win, it will be too easy.”

Ling Tianyu sneered. His sleeve moved and a book was thrown out: “Take it and read it! This book contains the information on the Rules of Heaven and Earth indicated on Peng Lai Immortal Island. If I want to win, I will make sure that you will admit defeat!”

Feng Jiu took the book. Her eyes flickered slightly when she read the words ‘Rules of Heaven and Earth’ on the cover of the book. She opened the book page by page and memorised all the content of the book in her mind. After the time it took to burn an incense stick, she closed the book in her hand, then she closed her eyes and went through everything she had just read in her mind. After a long time, she opened her eyes.

When Ling Tianyu saw this, his deep eyes flashed and he asked with a little doubt: “You can remember everything you’ve just read?”

“Just about everything!” Feng Jiu smiled and threw the book back at him and said: “Since we are competing, we should have a written contract. Isn’t this stated in the Rules of Heaven and Earth?”

As soon as she had spoken, she raised her hand and injected spirit energy into her fingers, then she wrote the contract onto the boundary barrier.

With the movement of her fingers, the words appeared in the air along with the spirit energy visible to the naked eye. The contract roughly stated that the loser of the challenge would become the slave of the winner, and finally, she wrote her name and condensed a drop of fresh blood.

When he saw this, Ling Tianyu couldn’t help but hesitate. How could this person stand up to the challenge so readily? Could it be that he wasn’t afraid of losing to him? For a time, his eyes fell on Feng Jiu again who was dressed in red. When he saw that his opponent’s strength was only at the Immortal Sacred level, while he was already at the peak level of the Immortal Sacred level, he suppressed the hesitation in his heart and let out a light breath.

Like Feng Jiu, he wrote his name at the end of the contract and condensed a fresh drop of his blood. After the drop of his blood had been condensed, those words that had been written out of thin air were rolled up automatically as if someone had done so.

“When I first arrived here, the thought of finding myself a slave hadn’t actually crossed my mind. But since it’s been delivered to my door, then I will accept it!” Feng Jiu showed a harmless smile and the moment when Ling Tianyu saw that smile, his heart sank.

“What do you mean by that?” He frowned, he felt that the breath of this person had changed suddenly and it made him a little incomprehensible.

When he first saw him from the sedan chair, it was undeniable that this person dressed in dazzling red clothes with an outstanding appearance made him have the urge to bring him under his wings. And he had also accepted his challenge unprepared.

He had thought that this was a sure-win challenge, he thought that he would show panic and be flustered. But ever since the Rules of Heaven and Earth had appeared and trapped the both of them inside the boundary barrier, there had never been a trace of panic or confusion on that person’s face.

On the contrary, it had made him feel like he had dug a deep hole and jumped into it.

“Has this person been so shocked that he’s become stupid? How could he say such ironic words?”

“Don’t you think that this person called Feng Jiu isn’t speaking ironically but rather exuding with confidence?”

Chapter 2573: Delivered To The Door

“Confidence?” The people around looked at each other, then laughed softly: “I didn’t sense confidence, only foolishness.”

The people outside the boundary barrier were watching, laughing and discussing. The atmosphere inside the boundary barrier seemed a little tense, especially Ling Tianyu, staring at Feng Jiu who suddenly revealed a sinister smile. His eyes widened and he took a step back.

Why did this person's sinister smile make the goosebumps on his body stand? How could such a sinister smile appear on such a handsome person?

He suppressed the shock and inexplicable unease in his heart, he held the whip in his hand and gritted his teeth: "Then let's have at it! Let's see what abilities you have!" As soon as he had spoken, he shifted his pace and rushed forward. He flicked the whip in his hand and attacked Feng Jiu in front of him swiftly.

The fierce airflow entrained by the long whip swiped through the air. The onlookers felt that the man in red would definitely be ripped apart as the whip struck down like a dragon.

However, what surprised everyone was that when the long whip fell, the red figure flashed at a ghostly speed and avoided Ling Tianyu's attack. At the same time, when the figure in red flashed forward, he stepped on the whip that had landed on the ground. His pace shifted and the figure in red approached Ling Tianyu step by step and forced Ling Tianyu to abandon the long whip in his hand and retreat.

"You are not an Immortal Sacred level cultivator!" He said with a dark face gnashing his teeth. It was only a simple fight but he knew that his opponent's level was not at the level of an Immortal Sacred but stronger than him!

Damn it! This person actually hid his strength! His strength was actually above his! When he thought about the fact that he had initiated this challenge and that the loser would become a slave, his expression was ghastly.

Feng Jiu kicked up the abandoned whip and played with it: "When did I say I am an Immortal Sacred cultivator? You never asked me!"

She smiled lightly and watched the expression on his face turn ghastly: "It's your challenge. I didn't even want to fight with you, but since you want to fight with me, what can I do?"

As soon as she had spoken, she swung the whip in her hand. The long whip flew out and landed on his arm with a precise snap.

"Sss!"

Ling Tianyu took a deep breath and almost jumped up. Damn it! He had clearly seen the long whip approaching and had already avoided it, why did the whip still hit him?

"Sss!"

Updates by . com

When they saw the Young City Lord being whipped inside the boundary barrier, the people outside couldn't help but gasp and stared incredulously.

"God! Did I see that wrongly? The person actually whipped the Young City Lord?"

“The Young City Lord is actually standing there and not hiding? Has he lost his mind from being beaten up?”

“You’re the stupid one! Can you not see that the strength of the one in the red clothes is above the Young City Lord?”

“Ah? Surely not? Then didn’t the Young City Lord just send the sheep into the tiger’s mouth? And he even delivered it to the door himself?”

“Hey! The Young City Lord is a sheep? Don’t the cultivators usually call him the devil?”

“Hehe, the devil also has a nemesis, that’s great! It’s best to let this one in red clothes teach the Young City Lord a good lesson!”

“That’s right, that’s right! Ah, if he loses, he will become the opponent’s slave!” A cultivator whispered, as if he had remembered something important. As soon as those words were spoken, the surroundings suddenly became silent.

Chapter 2574: Win Or Lose

“The Young City Lord will become a slave if he loses? Do you think that’s possible? If the City Lord finds out about this, he will be very mad.”

“I haven’t encountered this situation before, but the young City Lord is doomed for this time.”

“I don’t think it’s a good thing even if the one in red clothes wins.” A cultivator said in a low voice.

“Why not?” Another asked.

“What do you think? City Lord Ling is the Lord of the city, and he is an Immortal Emperor strong exponent, how can he allow his son to become a slave to someone else? I think that if the one in red clothes wins, it won’t be long before he is killed by the City Lord.”

Everyone was silent when they heard this and felt that it made sense. For a time, they stared at Feng Jiu inside the boundary barrier and felt that whether he won or lost, he wouldn’t be thankful about it.

But Feng Jiu inside the boundary barrier didn’t care so much. The whip in her hand swiped towards Ling Tianyu like a monkey, and each whip hit him precisely, each whip was filled with spirit energy and internal energy, when each whip struck down, a bloodstain appeared.

“Sss! Ah!”

He was whipped several times in a row, as if he was trying to get close to him with each attack but unable to. Every whip he felt on his body was so painful and hot that it was uncomfortable to bear.

“Young Master!”

“Young Master!”

When the guards outside saw this scene, they paced around anxiously. Of course, no one outside the boundary barrier could enter, nor could the people inside the boundary barrier leave.

“Feng Jiu, you dare to treat me like this, I won’t let you off!” Ling Tianyu growled lowly, his eyes burning as he stared at Feng Jiu.

Feng Jiu glanced at him casually and smiled lightly: (Search newn0vel.Org on google)“What? You can’t stand it already? If you can’t stand it, admit defeat! As long as you admit defeat, the boundary barrier will be broken, and I will not beat you again.”

Updates by . com

“You want me to admit defeat? No way!”

He gritted his teeth and took out an object from space, then slammed it between the two of them, only to see a thick plume of smoke blowing out and blurred her vision in an instant.

As she looked through the thick smoke that spread out, she squinted her eyes. Her vision was blocked, so she released her spirit intent. At this moment, she felt a cold air with murderous intent approaching her and she avoided it immediately. Her spirit intent swept out but she was unable to locate Ling Tianyu. Her heart moved slightly as she knew what magic artefact her opponent had used.

Therefore, she braced herself and dealt with it carefully to prevent herself from being attacked secretly.

“Swish!”

The blade slashed out and the fierce cold aura followed. She felt the blade rub against her robe and slashed through her robe, but it didn’t hurt her flesh.

“You don’t even dare to show yourself? Do you plan on hiding and sneaking up on me to win?” Feng Jiu chuckled lightly, her ears paying attention to the movements around her.

“It doesn’t matter how I win, the important thing is that I win in the end!”

Ling Tianyu’s icy voice spread through the boundary barrier. He had never met an opponent on par with him before, but this time he had played into Feng Jiu’s hands. It didn’t matter what mentality he had gone into this challenge with, it was unacceptable that he would become his opponent’s slave if he lost!

Of course, although his voice had been diffused, there were still movements that Feng Jiu noticed. She walked in the thick smoke and slowed down deliberately making a sound.

Just when Ling Tianyu thought that it was an opportunity and attacked Feng Jiu with a knife, her hand stretched out suddenly and clasped his hand that was holding the knife and snapped it down...

Chapter 2575: I Admit Defeat

“Crack! Crash!”

“Hey!”

The sound of broken bones resounded crisply, accompanied by the screams of his gasp and the clanging sound of the dagger falling from his hand. Because his hand was clasped on to, he couldn’t escape, let alone make other attacks. His whole body had bowed down because of his twisted arm and he half-squatted on the ground.

Feng Jiu flicked her sleeves and a stream of air rushed out blowing the thick smoke away, gradually revealing Ling Tianyu's distorted face.

"Let go!" He shouted angrily. He struggled to fight back because his arm was twisted and he was unable to get up to attack.

Feng Jiu sneered, with a kick and a push of her hand, she kicked him forward. After he hit the boundary barrier, he bounced back and fell to the ground.

"Umph!"

As the pain travelled, he groaned and looked even more embarrassed. When he saw the pointing eyes of the people outside, he felt humiliated and his face was red hot.

"Do you admit defeat?" Feng Jiu asked. She walked slowly forward with the whip in her hand.

"You want me to admit defeat? Impossible!"

He gritted his teeth and a few ice blades shot out from his palm towards Feng Jiu. At the same time, his sleeve moved and a dagger slipped out from his sleeve and fell into his hand. With a quick movement, he swept forward.

"Swish!"

When she saw the ice blades shooting out, Feng Jiu raised her eyebrows, and with a flick of the whip in her hand, she smashed the ice blades with a snap. When she saw that the man held another dagger in his hand, she raised her eyebrows and chuckled: "I couldn't tell, you have quite a lot of daggers."

As soon as she had spoken, she stepped on her toes and kicked up the crescent moon dagger that Ling Tianyu had dropped on the ground. The palm of her hand condensed the breath of her spirit energy and she attacked with the crescent moon dagger.

The dagger came towards him with murderous aura, and no matter how good he was, he couldn't help but be startled at this time. He avoided the attack of the crescent moon dagger, but he was still scratched on his cheek by the airflow of the knife potent.

He let out a pained cry instinctively and covered his face that had been cut by the knife potent, only to feel blood dripping from his cheeks, seeping through the seams of his hands and staining his hands red.

"You disfigured me!" His eyes were red as he stared at Feng Jiu like he had gone insane.

"Did I? My intention was for the blade to go to your neck, who knew you would avoid it? In that case, why don't we move to another place?" She revealed a weird smile and controlled the crescent moon dagger in her hand. The dagger changed direction and shot out towards his crotch.

"Hey! This person is crazy!"

When the onlookers outside the boundary barrier saw this scene, they exclaimed in fright. City Lord Ling only had one son, if he really did leave him without descendents, he would surely not be able to leave here alive!

When the guard saw this scene, his legs weakened with fright. Some people hurried back to report the matter to the City Lord while the others stood outside and shouted: “Young City Lord, quickly dodge it!”

When he saw the dagger coming towards his crotch, Ling Tianyu’s face paled and he exclaimed: “Feng Jiu! Stop it! Stop it! Damn it!”

As he shouted, he jumped to avoid it. When the dagger pierced through his trousers, the icy aura of the dagger seeped through the hole it had cut in his trousers and caused him to shiver involuntarily.

Beads of cold sweat seeped out of his forehead, his legs softened and he fell to the ground. When he saw the blade turning towards his crotch, his face turned pale and he exclaimed: “I admit defeat!”

Chapter 2576: Mark

Almost as soon as he had spoken, the crescent moon dagger that was attacking his crotch stopped. With a flick of Feng Jiu’s hand, the dagger was thrown to the side. At the same time, the boundary barrier that had trapped the two of them was also broken as a ray of light shot into Ling Tianyu’s forehead.

“Young Master!” The guards hurried forward and helped him up.

“If you had admitted defeat earlier you wouldn’t have had to endure so much.” Feng Jiu glanced at the man who was sitting on the ground surrounded by a group of guards. She chuckled lightly, then turned around and walked away.

When he saw him turn around and leave, Ling Tianyu couldn’t help but froze for a while. As he watched the figure leaving step by step and disappeared from his sight, he couldn’t help but feel a little puzzled.

Did this person forget that the loser was supposed to be the opponent’s slave?

“Master, you’re just letting him go?” A man next to him asked.

Upon hearing this, his face darkened and he asked angrily: “What then? Shall we let your Master become his slave and do his bidding?”

“Subordinate didn’t mean it like that.” The man said quickly and lowered his head.

At the City Lord’s Manor, when the City Lord learnt the news, he stared at the guard and asked in a calm voice: “You mean Lingyu challenged others and lost?”

“Yes, subordinate rushed back to report the matter. Young Master was powerless to fight back under that person’s attack.” The guard lowered his head. He hesitated for a while, then he looked at the City Lord cautiously and finally said: “Furthermore, the Young Master pledged the Rules of Heaven and Earth with the person, and the loser will become the slave of the winner.”

Upon hearing this, the City Lord’s face sank: “Absurd! Take me there immediately!”

“Yes!” The guard responded quickly and led the way.

However, just as they were about to rush out, they encountered a group of people who had returned in shame on the street outside the City Lord’s Manor.

When he saw that his son had returned full of injuries, especially with the mark in the center between his eyebrows, his heart sank and he asked: "You lost?"

Ling Tianyu's eyes flickered slightly when he heard this, he replied with a sullen face: "Yes." His eyes swept to the guard by his side, his eyes filled with shame and anger.

When he saw his angry eyes, the guard lowered his head and said in a low voice: "Young Master, subordinate rushed back to report the matter to the City Lord because we were worried about Young Master."

"You acted of your own accord! Leave!" He shouted with a sullen face, and stared at the guard with an unpleasant look.

Upon seeing this, the guard backed away quietly.

"You still have the cheek to tell others off? You spend your time outside causing trouble all the time, now you've finally brought trouble upon yourself." City Lord Ling stared at him in exasperation and asked: "Where is the person who beat you?"

Ling Tianyu didn't look at his father, but turned his head to the side and said: "He's left."

Upon hearing this, he felt his anger rise and shouted angrily: "Left? You just let this person leave? Didn't you see the mark between your eyebrows?"

"Mark?"

Ling Tianyu was stunned. As if he had suddenly remembered something, he stroked his forehead. Yes, the loser was going to be a slave. Both of them had condensed a drop of blood at that time, and the Rules of Heaven and Earth would imprint the mark on the loser.

When he saw his dumbstruck son standing there, a fire burned in his heart and he shouted at him immediately: "Get lost!"

Chapter 2577: Search

After he returned to his senses and saw the anger on his father's face, he stepped inside.

The dark-faced City Lord took a deep breath after he entered and instructed the guards: "You've seen that person, go! Bring some people with you and after you find that person, invite him to the City Lord Manor. Remember, invite him politely, don't be rude to him."

"Yes." Everyone responded and left quickly.

The City Lord walked inside with his hands behind his back and frowned tightly. He felt that this matter was a little troublesome. Slave? To think that he could have thought of that! It was one thing for him to act recklessly usually, today he had actually dug a pit for himself. The dignified Young City Lord to be used as a slave? Even if he had no shame, he still had to take into account his reputation.

At the same time, Feng Jiu was walking in an alley and looking at stalls that had moved from the streets outside to this alley to sell their goods. Because of that battle, everyone in the neighbourhood recognised her. So, when they saw her coming in, some greeted her with a smile, some praised her for being so powerful, and some told her that it was better for her to leave quickly.

She stopped at the spirit herbs stall that she had seen earlier and stared at the spirit herbs on display. She asked the cultivator: "How about I exchange these quartz stones with you for these?"

"Quartz stones?" The cultivator was stunned for a moment, then he shook his head: "I don't want the quartz stones. I want to exchange something specific for this, I want a fourth grade internal alchemy pill."

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu was also stunned for a moment: "Fourth grade internal alchemy pill?" She searched in space for a bit, and finally took out a bottle and said: "I don't have any fourth grade left, I only have sixth grade inner alchemy pills."

"What? Sixth sixth sixth grade internal alchemy pills?" The cultivator who had been sitting down jumped up and stared at the bottle in Feng Jiu's hands with wide eyes.

"Yes, sixth grade." She poured out the contents of the bottle and put it in the centre of her hand. When the cultivator reached out to take it, she retracted her hand and kept the sixth grade internal alchemy pills.

"I'll exchange it, I'll exchange this spirit herb with you!" The cultivator grinned and hurriedly handed over the spirit herb to Feng Jiu while staring at the bottle in Feng Jiu's hand.

"It's not too much if you use these spirit herbs to exchange for a fourth grade internal alchemy pill. However, if you want to exchange for a sixth grade internal alchemy pill, I'm afraid you will have to give me a dozen or so of all the spirit herbs that you have placed here in exchange." The corners of Feng Jiu's lips curled slightly and her eyes narrowed.

"All? This..."

He hesitated as he looked at the spirit herbs at his stall, then he looked at the bottle Feng Jiu was holding in his hand and finally gritted his teeth and said: "Alright! I will give them to you!"

Upon seeing this, Feng Jiu threw the medicine bottle at him and at the same time, with a flick with her sleeve, she collected the dozen or so spirit herbs into space.

The cultivator held the medicine bottle like it was a treasure, then he grinned and asked: "Young Master, if you want spirit herbs in the future, you can come to me. I come here every half a month to set up my stall. All the spirit herbs that I bring with me are well aged medicines. No one on these streets can compare to mine."

Feng Jiu smiled when she heard this and said: "Alright, I will look for you when I get a chance in the future." She paused, then asked: "By the way, I have something to ask you."

"What is it?" The cultivator was so excited when he received the bottle of sixth grade internal alchemy pills, therefore, he didn't just leave.

Feng Jiu glanced at him, then said: "I would like to ask, where is the Immortal Ascension Ladder on this Peng Lai Immortal Island? Why is there a city on this island? What's the difference of this island?"

Chapter 2578: Invitation

“Oh? You don’t know?”

The cultivator was slightly surprised when he heard this and looked at her up and down, then said: “I see that you can defeat the Young City Lord, so you should have come from extraordinary origins. How can you not know anything about Peng Lai Immortal Island?”

His voice paused, as if he hadn’t expected Feng Jiu to say anything, and said: “Let me tell you this! This place is a world of its own. Therefore, in addition to the Rules of Heaven and Earth that you have seen, Peng Lai Immortal Island is divided into four cities. The City Lord of each city is at the level of Immortal Emperor strong exponents or above. As for the Immortal Ascension Ladder that you mentioned, no one has seen it before.”

“No one has seen it? How can that be?” Feng Jiu was slightly surprised.

“It’s true that no one has seen it before. Peng Lai Immortal Island is said to be an island, but no one knows how big the island is. Even the geographical area where the four cities are located is only a corner of the island. The strange thing about Peng Lai Immortal Island is that in some places there are no one and no roads. However, if you were to walk there, it’s a long way to go.”

“No one has been to the other places. Most people live and cultivate in these four cities. As for the Immortal Ascension Ladder, yes, it’s true that it has been said to be in the Peng Lai Immortal Island. But as for its exact location, I really don’t know.”

Upon hearing this, “Search newNovel.Org on google”Feng Jiu frowned: “Is there no one in this city that knows anything about it? No one has seen it?”

“Not necessarily.” The cultivator grinned and said: “I don’t know about others, but the father of the Young City Lord you defeated earlier should know something.”

“I see.” She nodded, then turned to leave.

After strolling around in the city, she exchanged many items with medicinal pills. She found that there seemed to be very few alchemists here and sixth grade medicinal pills were rare.

Just as she was about to find a place to rest, she saw a team of guards surrounding her.

“Young Master Feng, our City Lord has an invitation.” One of them said to her.

“City Lord?” Feng Jiu’s eyes flashed slightly, then she smiled: “Lead the way!” The son of the City Lord had lost to her, the City Lord would definitely have to come forward. She would see what he wanted to do.

Those people hadn’t expected Feng Jiu to be so accommodating. They hesitated for a moment before reacting: “Please come with us.” One of them said, and gestured, then they led her to the City Lord Manor.

Updates by . com

Feng Jiu followed them, but she wasn't worried. The City Lord's son had become her slave. She remembered when the boundary barrier had broken, a ray of light had shot into his forehead and left a mark. Therefore, his life was already in her hands.

With his son's life in her hands, how could he use force against her? She must be treated with courtesy and tact.

When she thought of this, the corners of her lips curled slightly, until she followed those people to the main hall of the City Lord's Manor.

Ling Tianyu, who was applying medicine in the courtyard, stood up abruptly and said in a low voice when he heard this: "What? My Father invited him? Feng Jiu actually dared to come? He must be tired of living."

Zuo Yi, who was applying medicine next to him, said in a low voice: "Young Master, the City Lord has invited Feng Jiu over, presumably to remove the mark on your forehead. The City Lord had sent word earlier for Young Master to go to the main hall when he had finished applying medicine."

Ling Tianyu frowned and stared outside with an unsightly expression. He didn't speak for a while, and no one knew what he was thinking of.

Up ahead, in the main hall...

Chapter 2579: City Lord Manor

Feng Jiu, who was sitting in the main hall drinking tea, allowed the guards and maids to look at her. It just so happened it was meal time and she hadn't eaten yet. She was hungry, so she said to the guard standing nearby: "Bring me something to eat, I am getting hungry."

She said it very naturally, as if she were in her own home, without any restraint or tension. The guard was stunned for a moment, then he retreated.

She drank tea while she waited. She had already finished two cups of tea but the City Lord still hadn't appeared. It was obvious that the other party wanted to show her who was superior.

After Feng Jiu had drank two cups of tea, the snacks were served. While Feng Jiu ate the snacks, the Young City Lord arrived before the City Lord.

As soon as he entered the main hall and saw the man in red eating snacks, he asked with a dark face: "Didn't you leave? Why did you come back?"

Feng Jiu glanced at him: "Who said I wanted to come back? It was your Father who invited me over." Having said that, the corners of her mouth twitched and revealed a sinister smile: "You are my slave now. Well? Doesn't a slave need to salute his Master when he sees his Master?"

Ling Tianyu's face changed when he heard this. He couldn't help but take a step back and stared at Feng Jiu defensively: "This is my home! Don't take things too far!"

"Too far? I don't think so." She chuckled, then picked up a snack and ate it and said: "Come over and pour some wine for me."

Almost as soon as Feng Jiu's words had come out, Ling Tianyu walked over involuntarily. He resisted in his heart, he felt as though a thousand knives were drilling between his eyebrows. The discomfort was so maddening.

"What are you standing there for? Bring the wine!" He shouted at a guard next to him in a deep voice.

When the guard saw this, he hurriedly ordered someone to bring the wine. After the wine had been brought over, Ling Tianyu poured the wine for Feng Jiu himself and stood aside like a waiting child.

The City Lord who had heard the news strode into the main hall. When he saw the scene, he nearly fainted. He took a deep breath before he stepped forward. His sharp eyes scrutinised the red-clothed man with the free and easy manner.

This was the man who defeated his son?

His eyes swept over his body with his spirit intent. He saw that this person's strength was at the level of the Immortal Emperor and his breath was restrained. It wasn't so simple, so it seemed that it was justified that his son had lost to him.

Updates by

While he looked at Feng Jiu, Feng Jiu was also sizing him up. With a faint glance, she saw the superior strength of the opponent, and he hadn't restrained his breath when he entered. It was obvious to shock her, but she was Feng Jiu, she wasn't anyone else. Under the breath of the opponent's superior strength, she remained the same as before and the expression on her face didn't change at all.

"This must be Young Master Feng Jiu?" The City Lord stepped in and asked at the same time.

"Yes." Feng Jiu bowed and said: "I wonder, why did the City Lord invite me over?"

Hmph! He knew exactly why!

Ling Tianyu at the side snorted coldly. Although he lamented in his heart, he didn't dare to speak or express his anger. Who told him to lose to Feng Jiu? Even if he didn't want to, he could only stand there and pour wine for her.

When the City Lord heard Feng Jiu's words, he was stunned for a moment, then he said with a smile: "Well, I hope that Young Master Feng can release the contract of slavery with my son."

Chapter 2579: City Lord Manor

Translator: Misty Cloud Translations Editor: Misty Cloud Translations

Feng Jiu, who was sitting in the main hall drinking tea, allowed the guards and maids to look at her. It just so happened it was meal time and she hadn't eaten yet. She was hungry, so she said to the guard standing nearby: "Bring me something to eat, I am getting hungry."

She said it very naturally, as if she were in her own home, without any restraint or tension. The guard was stunned for a moment, then he retreated.

She drank tea while she waited. She had already finished two cups of tea but the City Lord still hadn't appeared. It was obvious that the other party wanted to show her who was superior.

After Feng Jiu had drunk two cups of tea, the snacks were served. While Feng Jiu ate the snacks, the Young City Lord arrived before the City Lord.

As soon as he entered the main hall and saw the man in red eating snacks, he asked with a dark face: "Didn't you leave? Why did you come back?"

Feng Jiu glanced at him: "Who said I wanted to come back? It was your Father who invited me over." Having said that, the corners of her mouth twitched and revealed a sinister smile: "You are my slave now. Well? Doesn't a slave need to salute his Master when he sees his Master?"

Ling Tianyu's face changed when he heard this. He couldn't help but take a step back and stared at Feng Jiu defensively: "This is my home! Don't take things too far!"

"Too far? I don't think so." She chuckled, then picked up a snack and ate it and said: "Come over and pour some wine for me."

Almost as soon as Feng Jiu's words had come out, Ling Tianyu walked over involuntarily. He resisted in his heart, he felt as though a thousand knives were drilling between his eyebrows. The discomfort was so maddening.

"What are you standing there for? Bring the wine!" He shouted at a guard next to him in a deep voice.

When the guard saw this, he hurriedly ordered someone to bring the wine. After the wine had been brought over, Ling Tianyu poured the wine for Feng Jiu himself and stood aside like a waiting child.

The City Lord who had heard the news strode into the main hall. When he saw the scene, he nearly fainted. He took a deep breath before he stepped forward. His sharp eyes scrutinised the red-clothed man with the free and easy manner.

This was the man who defeated his son?

His eyes swept over his body with his spirit intent. He saw that this person's strength was at the level of the Immortal Emperor and his breath was restrained. It wasn't so simple, so it seemed that it was justified that his son had lost to him.

While he looked at Feng Jiu, Feng Jiu was also sizing him up. With a faint glance, she saw the superior strength of the opponent, and he hadn't restrained his breath when he entered. It was obvious to shock her, but she was Feng Jiu, she wasn't anyone else. Under the breath of the opponent's superior strength, she remained the same as before and the expression on her face didn't change at all.

"This must be Young Master Feng Jiu?" The City Lord stepped in and asked at the same time.

"Yes." Feng Jiu bowed and said: "I wonder, why did the City Lord invite me over?"

Hmph! He knew exactly why!

Ling Tianyu at the side snorted coldly. Although he lamented in his heart, he didn't dare to speak or express his anger. Who told him to lose to Feng Jiu? Even if he didn't want to, he could only stand there and pour wine for her.

When they City Lord heard Feng Jiu's words, he was stunned for a moment, then he said with a smile: "Well, I hope that Young Master Feng can release the contract of slavery with my son."

Chapter 2580: Can Be Released

"You want me to break his slavery contract? I see, so the City Lord already knows that he is already my slave." Feng Jiu glanced at the City Lord with a half smile.

Upon hearing this, the City Lord glanced at his son whose head was lowered, and said to Feng Jiu: "Today's matter was absurd on my child's part. I ask Young Master Feng to not dispute this with him over this. After all, he is my son, if he becomes Young Master's slave and it spread outside, wouldn't that be a mockery of me? Therefore, I ask Young Master Feng to be the bigger person and as long as Young Master Feng is willing to release him from the contract, I will definitely compensate Young Master Feng."

Feng Jiu smiled lightly: "How can I believe that the City Lord won't have me killed after I release him from the contract?"

Upon hearing this, the City Lord's expression changed slightly. He gave Feng Jiu a deep look and said: "Young Master Feng, rest assured, as long as my child's slavery contract is broken, I am in charge and the matter will end here. I will definitely not make things difficult for Young Master Feng."

Feng Jiu smiled and shook her head: "No, that's not enough. I don't dare to break his contract just like that." She smiled and stood up and said: "This place has the Rules of Heaven and Earth. If you want me to break his contract, it's not impossible. I can break the contract if the City Lord promises that you won't cause me any problems."

She paused slightly, then she glanced at Ling Tianyu on the other side and said to the City Lord: "However, before that, I have something I would like to ask the City Lord and hope that he will tell me what he knows."

Upon hearing this, the City Lord frowned slightly. He looked at Feng Jiu for a while, then he finally asked: "What does Young Master Feng want to know? Do ask me."

Feng Jiu stood up and walked over slowly and came in front of him: "I want to know where the Immortal Ascension Ladder in Peng Lai Immortal Island is."

The City Lord was startled, his expression was dumbstruck: "What? Immortal Ascension Ladder?"

His eyes moved slightly and he stared at Feng Jiu for a long time before asking: "Why does Young Master Feng want to find the Immortal Ascension Ladder?"

"City Lord only needs to tell me where I can find the Immortal Ascension Ladder." She replied slowly.

Upon hearing this, the City Lord smiled and said: "Actually, the Immortal Ascension Ladder is said to be in Peng Lai Immortal Island, but almost no one here has seen it."

He paused and smiled: "It is said that the Immortal Ascension Ladder is a bridge leading to another world. It is also a place to verify a person's strength. But I have been here so long and I have never seen the Immortal Ascension Ladder, let alone know where the Immortal Ascension Ladder is on Peng Lai Immortal Island."

“Even the City Lord doesn’t know where the Immortal Ascension Ladder is?” She was a little unconvinced.

“Hehe, it’s not that I don’t want to tell Young Master Feng, but I really don’t know. I’ve only heard that the Immortal Ascension Ladder can lead to another world. I also know that there are many tests on the Immortal Ascension Ladder, if you’re a little careless at all, your cultivation will become invalid.”

He looked at Feng Jiu with an inexplicable meaning in his eyes: “I heard that Young Master Feng has only just arrived in the city. How do you know that Peng Lai Immortal Island has the Immortal Ascension Ladder? Could you have been guided by an expert? If that is the case, then did that expert not tell Young Master Feng where the Immortal Ascension Ladder is?”

When she saw that his expression wasn’t fake, Feng Jiu couldn’t help but think: Could it be that he doesn’t even know where the Immortal Ascension Ladder is? If the City Lord doesn’t even know, how did Old Man Tianji know about it? And he had asked her to come all the way here to find the Immortal Ascension Ladder. Now that she had asked around, no one seemed to know where it was located. How was she going to find it?