

Ghost Doctor 711

Chapter 711: Have you heard of the Ghost Doctor?

His words made all the people's hearts heavy. When they saw the aura of death enveloping Teacher Lu, the atmosphere inside the teaching office became very solemn. All of them were silent and speechless. They did not know what to say.

Although Teacher Lu was not dead yet, he was not far away from perishing. All the immortal cultivators present could see the aura of death. His spiritual power was weakening just like a flame drenched in the rain, it gradually becoming smaller and smaller...

There were many immortal cultivators in this world as well as alchemists and pharmacists, but there were only a few doctors. In the eyes of immortal cultivators, doctors' status was far lower than that of the alchemists and pharmacist since most doctors could only cure mortals. Those immortal cultivators' body rarely had any problems.

Because of this, there were even fewer doctors who were trusted and revered for their expertise in the field of medicine. After all, there were very few real experts in the arts of healing. At least, it's impossible for them to appear in the sixth-grade countries.

"I wonder if you've heard of the Ghost Doctor?"

A doctor suddenly spoke, looking at the crowd. "If you can find Ghost Doctor, I think Teacher Lu should be saved. But Ghost Doctor's whereabouts are mysterious. It's very difficult to find him. Plus, we only got six hours. Consider it too late, then."

After uttering these words, he sighed, shook his head and walked out. It's the same as if he didn't say anything. How could he find Ghost Doctor in six hours?

In his view, perhaps Teacher Lu had no way to be cured. If it's a wound injury, there were some life-saving medicinal pills and elixirs for immortal cultivators like them. But, this disease...it's indeed deadly.

"Even though the distinguished name of Ghost Doctor is known to everybody in Green Gallop Country, only a few people have seen him. However, he has a good relationship with the Black Market. He has appeared in Green Gallop Country before. Maybe the Black Market people know where he is now." The headmaster pondered and gave the deputy headmaster an order. "Old Guan, go and ask the Black Market for help with my warrant."

"This... will this work? The Black Market is so powerful that we have to pay them respects. I'm afraid that they will not disclose it even if they know."

"Whether it's possible or not, we still have to make the trip. Go! The Black Market Chief and I have some friendships. If he knows the whereabouts of Ghost Doctor, he should be able to help." The headmaster handed out his order and motioned with his hand, indicating the deputy headmaster to make haste.

“Alright, then. I’m going.” Old Guan took the headmaster’s identity token and hurried to the black market.

“Mo Chen, is there any way to extend his life? Perhaps not even a day, several hours are okay, too.”

Looking at Teacher Lu lying on the bed, the headmaster sighed. “I recruited Old Lu myself. He’s been teaching in Nebula for more than ten years. He’s always been a rigorous and earnest tutor. I really don’t want him to be like this...”

“I can use my spirit force to seal his body’s vitality, stop all the blood vessels and meridians, and let him fall into a state of suspended animation. But I can only maintain this condition for four hours. After four hours, he will still have six hours left.” Mo Chen said indifferently, glancing at Teacher Lu on the bed. To him, he was just a stranger. If not for the headmaster’s repeated requests, he would never open his mouth.

“Four hours?” The headmaster was stunned for a moment. Without any hesitation, he asserted, “Four hours is also time. Life or death, it all depends on his luck.”

Chapter 712: Go, bring Feng Jiu here

Without saying anything, Mo Chen walked forwards and came to the bedside. He lifted his palms and one could see the energy that came out of them. Quick as lightning, he sealed off major pressure points on Teacher Lu’s body. At this point, Teacher Lu’s body was devoid of any movement and he stopped breathing.

Before anyone could open their mouths to ask him a question, Mo Chen had lifted his arm and turned around to walk out of the room. As he walked out, he only said one sentence in a cool voice.

“At this point in time, don’t be messing about with him.”

As everyone watched him disappear, they all turned to look at the headmaster. The headmaster’s eyes lit up with excitement as he observed at Teacher Lu up and down. Spiritual energy had sealed the major pressure points of his body. Other than requiring to know the precise position of the pressure points, one also have to possess strong spiritual energy. Just a couple of hours of maintaining Teacher Lu in a vegetative state would have used up a major amount of Mo Chen’s spiritual energy.

The headmaster sighed as he stared at the comatose Teacher Lu on the bed: “Cultivators have never feared getting injured. What’s horrifying is to be sick but not even know it. He has taken so gravely ill so suddenly with no warning, and this illness could claim his life at any moment!”

The headmaster spoke those words out of lament. However, it shook the hearts of the bystanders like thunderstruck. Suddenly, they remembered something that had happened two days earlier....

As he thought back to what happened two days ago, then thought about what had just happened, Teacher Lu wiped the sweat off his forehead, his expression a look of disbelief.

“Teacher Lu, what’s the matter?” The headmaster noticed that he didn’t seem himself and asked in concern.

Teacher Lu swallowed his saliva and answered: "Head, headmaster, I suddenly remembered something important that had happened."

"What is it?"

"Well, two, two days ago I had summoned Feng Jiu and Ye Jing to the teacher's office to discuss Bai Ruofei smearing Ye Jing's name. That day, Teacher Lu was screaming at the two of them and then, and then...."

"And then what happened next?" The headmaster asked in a calm voice.

"Oh, I remember now, Feng Jiu told him off and said he was sick." Another teacher replied.

Another person shook his head and said: "No, no, he didn't tell him off, his tone was more like a friendly reminder."

"Yes, we didn't pay attention at that time, nor remember it. It was just when the headmaster said those things that I recalled what Feng Jiu had said to Teacher Lu. She said : Teacher Lu, you are sick and need treatment." Teacher Lu swallowed his saliva as he paused, then continued speaking: "Because the atmosphere was so tense at that time, we thought that he had said that in a fit of anger. But I have just remembered now, Feng Jiu had said that he will collapse in less than three days."

When he heard this, the headmasters heart sank and his eyes narrowed: "What you mean to say is that three days ago, he could already tell that Teacher Lu was ill?"

"Yes, that's what I think too. I also wonder, since he is studying alchemy, maybe he is also versed in medicine?" Teacher Lu looked at the headmaster questioningly, but he didn't think it was at all possible.

Feng Jiu was the only student in the Alchemy Division, and also a Sky Rank Student in the Academy. If he was also well versed in medicine, then this boy was really too good to be true!

"Where is Feng Jiu right now?" The headmaster asked.

"If he is not at the Spirit Division, then he would be at the Alchemy Division." Teacher Lu replied.

The headmaster waved his hand as he instructed: "Go, send someone to bring him here."

Chapter 713: Enchantment

"Yes, I will send someone to bring him here immediately." Teacher Lu replied and went outside to instruct two Spirit Division students to to to the Alchemy Division to bring Feng Jiu back.

Once the news of Teacher Lu being taken ill and was in a comatose state, tethering between life and death, students and teachers from the Spirit Division, Mystical Division had come over to see if they could be of any help. Even the Pharmacy Division mountain peak's Medical teachers had rushed over.

In the nearby closed off Alchemy Division, separated by a few mountains, above the mountain peak where Feng Jiu's cave dwelling was situated, she was inside fast asleep, oblivious to what was going on outside.

Guan Xilin and Ye Jing were sat outside the cave dwelling chatting as they waited for Feng Jiu to wake up from her slumber. Because there were enchantments around the cave dwelling, they were unable to enter, nor could they be heard. Therefore, they could only sit outside and wait.

Because the both of them had came over early in the morning, they hadn't heard the news that spread to the Spirit Division and Mystical Division about Teacher Lu fighting for his life.

When they saw two students from the Spirit Division arriving on flying cranes, they were startled and went over immediately to find out what had happened.

"Senior Sister Ye Jing"

The two men called out as their eyes fell on the man dressed in Mystical Division robes. One of the men then walked to the entrance of cave dwelling and shouted: "Feng Jiu, Feng Jiu come out quick! Teacher Lu is looking for you!"

When they heard this, Ye Jing and Guan Xilin looked at each other in shock. Ye Jing asked: "What's happened now? Why are you looking for Feng Jiu again?"

"Feng Jiu, Feng Jiu come out quick! Teacher Lu is looking for you!"

The student shouted loudly, his voice infused with spiritual energy. However, because Feng Jiu had put up a soundproof enchantment around the cave dwelling, no matter how loudly anyone shouted, the person asleep on the inside heard nothing.

When the two students saw that there was no movement inside the cave dwelling, they turned around and asked Ye Jing: "Senior Sister Ye Jing, Teacher Lu would like Feng Jiu to go to his quarters immediately. Is he inside? Or has he gone out? Why is there no answer at all?"

"He is inside the cave dwelling. However, he has put up a soundproof enchantment. He won't be able to hear anything from the outside. According to his beasts, he went to bed very late last night, so it would be at least noon before he wakes up."

"Noon?" The expressions of the two students changed: "That's not good, this can't wait!"

"What can't wait?" Guan Xilin asked, eyebrows raised as he looked at the two students.

"Teacher Lu can't wait! Teacher Lu is nearly dead! Teacher Lu said that only Feng Jiu can save him and asked us to bring him there immediately."

Although the two students had said it, but they didn't really believe that Feng Jiu could save Teacher Lu. After all, he was only a new student, so how could he save him when Alchemists and Medical doctors couldn't do anything? Teacher Lu must have decided that it was better than doing nothing at all and worth a shot at trying.

They were outside the teacher's quarters when the headmaster and Teacher Lu were speaking. They had overheard them talking and wanted Feng Jiu to go over because she had said two days ago that Teacher Lu was sick and needed treatment. They didn't know why they had been asked to bring Feng Jiu back. Who knew that when they arrived, that she had put up a soundproof enchantment and was fast asleep inside her cave dwelling. How ridiculous!

“Teacher Lu’s life is in danger? How did this happen?” Ye Jing’s expression changed when she heard the news.

Chapter 714: President Gong, Your Help Is Needed

“He collapsed during a lecture, in the midst of screaming and a student. Teachers from the Mountain Peak Pharmacy and Medical Division have been to see him, and even Master Mo Chen. They have all said there is no saving him.”

A student spoke hurriedly: “Teacher Lu have asked us to go look for Feng Jiu immediately. But he has put up a soundproof enchantment, so what shall we do?”

“Feng Jiu has no medical knowledge, so it’s useless asking for her help anyway. Haven’t the headmaster and deputy headmaster had any suggestions? With their connections, they should be able to find a highly skilled doctor in Green Gallop Country. Why bother to look for Feng Jiu at all?”

Ye Jing frowned in worry as she thought about Teacher Lu fighting for his life and said to Guan Xilin: “Teacher Lu is my teacher after all and has imparted much knowledge to me. I better go back to see him.” She turned and left hurriedly before Guan Xilin could respond.

Guan Xilin watched Ye Jing leave and turned to the two anxious looking students and said: “Even the teachers from the Mountain Peak Pharmacy and Medical Division are unable to save Teacher Lu, why come to look for Feng Jiu?” Little Jiu’s Ghost Doctor shouldn’t be known to anyone at the academy.

“The other day Feng Jiu said that Teacher Lu would collapse within three days. Who knew that it would actually happen? So that’s why Teacher Lu asked us to bring him back.” One of the students replied, and seeing that there was no point waiting here, he turned and went back to report the situation.

Teaching Office.

“What? You didn’t even see him? You couldn’t enter the cave?” Teacher Lu glared and continued scolding: “Well if you couldn’t enter the cave, could you not have shouted? What good is it having a mouth if you don’t use it?”

The two students replied quickly: “We shouted, but that guy put up a soundproof enchantment when he sleeps. No matter how loud we shouted, no sound penetrated the cave dwelling!”

When he heard this, Teacher Lu was stunned, even the other teachers who had come out opened their eyes in surprise: “What’s up with Feng Jiu? Why would he put up a soundproof enchantment when he sleeps? Why, why is his habit so different from other people?”

“I’ve heard him mention that he has a really bad temper if he hasn’t gotten enough sleep when he wakes up in the morning. He would have gone to bed really late last night and didn’t want to be disturbed this morning, that’s probably why he put up the soundproof enchantment. He probably didn’t expect Teacher Lu to fall ill.”

Ye Jing informed everyone as she walked over. She had just been to visit Teacher Lu and the headmaster said that he would be stable for the next few hours. But after that, no one would be able to save him, and the inevitable would happen....

"I will go and have a look." Teacher Lu decided that he would make a trip himself to check it out. He asked the two students to lead the way and they hurried off towards Feng Jiu's cave dwelling.

At the same time, the deputy headmaster had arrived at the Black Market. The moment he stepped through the doors, his atmosphere was in upheaval. He handed in the headmaster's token and was invited inside. Not too long afterwards, the President of the Black Market came to greet him.

"Deputy headmaster, to what do I owe the pleasure of your visit?" With a wave of his hand, he commanded his servants to serve them tea.

Once Old Guan calmed his atmosphere, he spoke: "President Gong, please forgive my unexpected visit. There is something I need your help with."

"Oh? You need my help? Hahaha! You really know how to crack a joke Deputy Headmaster Guan. Why would the powerful Nebula Academy need my help?" President Gong chuckled deeply and took a sip of his tea.

"No, it's really a matter of life and death that I have come to seek help about. Under the command of Headmaster Feng, I have come to seek the whereabouts of the Ghost Doctor. Hopefully President Gong can provide the information."

Chapter 715: Feng Jiu The Bastard!

Upon hearing this, President Gong's stopped drinking his tea, a look of surprise flashed through his eyes. He looked at Deputy Headmaster Guan and asked: "Deputy Headmaster Guan, why are you looking for the Ghost Doctor?"

"I'll be frank with you President Gong. There is a teacher in the academy who has taken ill suddenly and is currently on the brink of death. None of the medical experts in the academy are able to treat him. We heard that the Ghost Doctor is able to bring people back from the dead. Headmaster has no choice but to ask me to locate the whereabouts of the Ghost Doctor. If he is in Nebula City, then maybe he would be able to save the life of the teacher."

"Ah, the Black Market does indeed have a special relationship with the Ghost Doctor. However, he has instructed us to not ever disclose his whereabouts to anyone. I'm sorry, but I won't be able to help you." He shook his head and continued: "Besides he can't save someone so far away. You are better off looking for another doctor!"

"President Gong, this is someone's life we're talking about, please help!" Deputy Headmaster stood up and bowed.

President Gong sighed and replied: "It's not that I don't want to help you, but I can't help you. I am the President of the Black Market and so I have a responsibility to it. His position in the Black Market is so prestigious that even I don't dare offend him."

"You don't know the Ghost Doctor, he saves people out through preference. So what if you find him? You're just wasting your time. Besides, our superiors have instructed that his whereabouts is to be kept a secret."

“President Gong....”

President had started to walk out of the room when he stopped and turned back to look at Deputy Headmaster Guan. He looked thoughtful as he said: “To save him, why look further afield and not closeby?”

Deputy Headmaster Guan was startled when he heard those words and thought about what President Guan had said. He muttered to himself: “To save him, why look further afield and not closeby? Closeby.... What did he mean by that? Closeby..... closeby..... Close”

A thought flashed across his mind and he exclaimed: “Could it be that he is in our academy?” That would make sense.

However, many people have already tried to save him. Was it possible there someone else whose ability hadn’t been tested?

Although he was not sure, he hadn’t dared cause any delay and rushed back to the academy.

President Gong watched as he walked out of the Black Market gate and smiled. A voice next to him asked: “President, why did you reveal the whereabouts of the Ghost Doctor to him?” An old gentleman appeared next to him.

“I only gave him a riddle. It’s up to him to guess the answer to it.” He smiled and continued: “I just find it interesting that he doesn’t know that the Ghost Doctor is one of the students in the academy. It’s funny that he has come to the Black Market looking for him.”

At the same time, Teacher Lu was outside Feng Jiu’s cave dwelling. He was attacking the enchantment with spiritual energy but to no avail. He was embarrassed at his failure and gritted his teeth as he shouted: “Feng Jiu The bastard! Not only has he put up a soundproof enchantment, but he has also strengthened the enchantment on the outside! Is he keeping out a thief or an assassin?!!”

Chapter 716: Does He Have Medical Knowledge?

The cave dwellings in the Alchemy Division were well protected by enchantments, but they weren’t this strong! Even him, a Golden Core stage teacher was unable to open it. That really annoyed him!

In addition to the two students who led the way here, a few more students from the Spirit Division had come along as well. They looked on in shock when they saw that Teacher Lu was unable to break open the enchantment.

Feng Jiu had the ability to strengthen the cave dwelling enchantment to this degree? Even the Golden Core stage Teacher Lu was unable to break it open? Their mouths twitched as they also wanted to ask: Is he keeping out a thief or an assassin?

In actual fact, Feng Jiu only strengthened the enchantment because she was afraid that there would be too much noise from her refining pills. As for the soundproof enchantment, she had just wanted a good night’s sleep. Who knew there would be so many people looking for her early in the morning?

“Bang bang bang!”

The impact sound of Teacher Lu attempting to penetrate the enchantment sounded from time to time. Seeing that Teacher Lu was drenched in sweat, one of the students approached tentatively.

“Teacher, Teacher Lu?”

Unable to break through the enchantment, and the thought of Teacher Lu’s life slipping away, he couldn’t help but explode in anger when he saw the student approach. He shouted: “What?”

The student hunched in fear and replied: “Teacher Lu, shall we ask the Headmaster to come over?”

Teacher Lu’s face was red as he looked back unwillingly at the cave and replied: “I will go!” He rushed back to the teacher’s office without delay.

Guan Xilin who was sat by the tree nearby with Little Black and Old white stared after the figure of the departing teacher, deep in thought.

Teacher Lu had arrived back at the teacher’s office and found the Headmaster: “Headmaster, that bastard not only put up a soundproof enchantment to sleep, but he also strengthened the enchantment outside the cave dwelling. I, I can’t break through the enchantments.”

The Headmaster was in shock: “He strengthened the enchantments? And even you can’t break through them?”

He was shocked to the core of his heart. How could a student have such a great ability?

Teacher Lu was a Golden Core cultivator, and he couldn’t even break through a student’s enchantment, this...

“I will go and take a look. You take charge here.” The Headmaster instructed and set off to Feng Jiu’s cave dwelling with the students leading the way.

When he arrived at the cave dwelling, his eyes swept across the students from the Spirit Division and the Mystical Division and landed on the nearby tree where the big black bear and queer horse were. These were Feng Jiu’s beasts?

As he stared at the queer horse, the horse suddenly opened its mouth and smiled at him, flashing its big horse teeth.

His gaze then landed on the student dressed in Mystical Division robes and he walked over towards him.

“You must be Guan Xilin, Feng Jiu’s older brother.” The Headmaster spoke with confidence and smiled at him.

Guan Xilin looked at the Headmaster and stood up to bow politely: “Pleased to meet you Headmaster.”

“Since you are Feng Jiu’s elder brother, you must know, does he have medical knowledge?” The Headmaster looked at him questioningly.

Guan Xilin looked at the Headmaster in silence.

Chapter 717: Surprise, It’s Him!

On a hilltop not too faraway, Mo Chen was making his way to Feng Jiu's cave dwelling. He had already left, but when he heard the news about the strengthened enchantment and soundproof enchantment, he had to come and take a look for himself.

He was surprised to see that the Headmaster had also come over.

His gaze moved across to the student in Mystical Division robes. Was this the young boy's sworn elder brother Guan Xilin?

As he heard the Headmaster's question, he listened on quietly. Since he was the boy's sworn brother, he would know whether he had medical knowledge. If he said he didn't, then there was no need to break through the enchantments.

However, even if he had medical knowledge, Teacher Lu's condition was dire, he was just a young boy, what could he possibly do to help?

Under the tree, the Headmaster waited patiently for Guan Xilin's reply.

Guan Xilin looked at him. After a long silence, he finally spoke: "Instead of asking whether he has medical knowledge, I think Headmaster should be asking.... Will he save him? Or will he not save him?"

Upon hearing this, the Headmaster's heart skipped a beat as he pondered on the meaning of what he had just said.

He understood.

Instead of asking whether Feng Jiu had any medical knowledge, he should ask whether Feng Jiu would save Teacher Lu. If he were to save Teacher Lu, it meant that he had medical knowledge. If he didn't want to save him, he need only say he didn't know any medical knowledge.

Right from the start, they had only focused on the fact that Feng Jiu predicted that Teacher Lu would fall ill. They had sent students to bring him back, and then Teacher Lu went to try to break through the enchantments. Now he had come over personally....

They had all took for granted that they need only give Feng Jiu a command and he would obey...

He finally understood that even if they broke through the enchantments and woke Feng Jiu up, he might not necessarily save Teacher Lu.

He looked deeply at Guan Xilin and took a bow: "Thank you."

He thanked him for his insight.

Guan Xilin looked at the Headmaster and bowed slightly: "You're welcome."

All the bystanders were shocked to see that the Headmaster had bowed to the student. This was just too unreal.

From the nearby hill, Mo Chen looked on at the two people in conversation. He stared at the cave dwelling but didn't leave and then stared quietly at the Headmaster.

At this time, the Deputy Headmaster had arrived back at the teacher's office and got the updates from Teacher Lu. Thoughts flashed through his head and he was in shock as he remembered the rumours about the Ghost Doctor.

Ghost Doctor, dressed in red, a handsome young boy....

Then he thought about the Black Market President's words: "To save him, why look further afield and not closeby...."

The Deputy Headmaster felt his head go bang as realisation hit him.

"It's him! It's him! It's actually him!"

He was so excited he could barely contain himself. After he shouted in excitement, he ran off towards the direction of Feng Jiu's cave dwelling.

Chapter 718: What Happened?

All the students were looking at the Headmaster and wondered why he hadn't broken through the enchantments and called for Feng Jiu. Just then, a surprised shout from nearby was heard.

"Headmaster! Headmaster, I know now! It's him, it's him!"

The Deputy Headmaster's body moved quick as a flash and he was stood in front of the Headmaster in no time at all. He was about to continue speaking when he saw that the Headmaster put up a soundproof enchantment.

"What do you mean by it's him? Didn't I send you to the Black Market to locate the whereabouts of the Ghost Doctor? Have you got any news?" The Headmaster questioned. No one else, other than Guan Xilin who stood next to him, could hear their conversation because of the soundproof enchantment he had put up.

When Guan Xilin heard this, he looked from the Headmaster to the Deputy Headmaster, and his eyes narrowed.

"It's him, it's Feng Jiu! He is the Ghost Doctor!"

The Deputy Headmaster said excitedly as he grabbed the Headmaster's sleeve: "Haven't I told you before, he's complicated. Not only his spiritual energy is superb, but his alchemy skills are also outstanding. But most importantly, he is the Ghost Doctor! The Ghost Doctor is a pharmacist! I heard that his alchemy standard has reached the sacred level. Right now, this talented boy is a student in our academy. How did this blessing fall happen to us at Nebula Academy?"

As he continued speaking, it was obvious that he was so excited he had become slightly incoherent. There was only one thought in his head, Feng Jiu, that young boy in red clothes that he had spotted was actually the famous Ghost Doctor!

The Headmaster was shocked when he heard this news, and he looked at Guan Xilin. When he saw how calm he was, he knew that the news was true.

He hadn't needed to ask or confirm it with anyone, he only needed to look at Guan Xiliin's reaction.

He was Feng Jiu's elder brother, so naturally he would know everything there was to know about him. Besides, after his earlier reminder, he didn't need to ask anymore questions and he knew that Feng Jiu was definitely the Ghost Doctor!

However, he hadn't expected the person he was seeking was actually within the academy. Nor had he expected that the student who always had a mischievous smile on his face, and gave people the impression that he was lazy and mediocre, was actually the famous Ghost Doctor!

No one knew how shocked he was at this point in time, nor how much this impacted his mood.

He finally understood Guan Xilin's earlier reminder. If he was just a regular student, then he wouldn't have cared. But if he was the Ghost Doctor... then the consequences wouldn't be trivial!

When the excited Deputy Headmaster saw the Headmaster's shocked expression, he shouted: "Headmaster? Headmaster? Did you hear what I said?"

The Headmaster recovered from his shock and looked at the Deputy Headmaster in the eye: "Old Guan, you're not young anymore, you need to think about the consequences of your actions. How do you think it looked to the teachers and students when you came running over screaming and shouting like an excited child?"

"I wasn't excited..."

"You can be excited to an extent, you need to watch your actions." The Headmaster said in a calm voice.

The Deputy Headmaster calmed down as he listened to the deep calm voice of the Headmaster. He was too excited earlier to notice anything amiss, but now that he had calmed down, he realised something was wrong.

He took one look at Guan Xiling and asked: "Headmaster, didn't you come to look for Feng Jiu? Why are you standing here?"

Chapter 719: Almost

After he heard his question, the Headmaster took a deep breath, his gaze moved over to the cave entrance and he said slowly: "I am waiting here."

"Waiting?"

The Deputy Headmaster replied in shock: "We can wait, however, I don't think Teacher Lu can wait! How about this, I will go and call for him. This is a matter of life and death, not just any matter. We can't wait."

He turned and was about to step out when the Headmaster shouted: "I said we are waiting, so we will wait! Whether he survives or not, it's up to Teacher Lu now."

"But....."

The Deputy Headmaster turned back and looked at the determined face of the Headmaster, and the expressionless face of Guan Xilin, but he couldn't understand why they had to wait.

Seeing this, the Headmaster said: "Old Guan, who did you say he was?"

"The Ghost Doctor! Feng Jiu is the Ghost Doctor!"

His eyes lit up as he replied and he seemed to have thought of something as his expression changed from excitement to calmness. At this moment, he finally understood what the Headmaster meant.

Yes, Feng Jiu is the Ghost Doctor, and the Ghost Doctor doesn't do as he was told, even if he was a student of the academy. From what he heard, the Ghost Doctor was eccentric and followed his heart in everything he did. If he didn't want to save him, then he wouldn't no matter what they did.

If they wanted his help to save Teacher Lu, then they couldn't treat him like a regular student. They had to treat him with respect, otherwise, anything else they did would be counterproductive.

Another thing to consider was that since he had entered their academy as a student, that meant that he hadn't wanted his status as the Ghost Doctor to be revealed. If they revealed his identity, then.....

When he thought about his excited screams and shouts earlier, he broke out in cold sweat.

He had experienced Feng Jiu's eccentric moods first hand, it was tricky to deal with.....

After he had calmed down, he looked at the Headmaster, then at the quiet Guan Xilin and smiled at him as he spoke: "Xilin! Is Feng Jiu sleeping inside?"

Guan Xilin glanced at him and nodded: "Yes."

"Oh, I see! How long does he usually sleep for?" Teacher Lu only had a few hours left, and if Feng Jiu slept for much longer, he was afraid.....

"I can't say for sure." He shook his head and said nothing else.

"Then let's wait!" He sighed and stood next to the Headmaster, his eyes on the entrance of the cave dwelling.

When the students and teachers saw the Deputy Headmaster stood there waiting as well, they were dumbfounded. Weren't they here to call for Feng Jiu? Why hadn't the Headmaster and Deputy Headmaster break through the enchantments and call for him?

What happened?

Ye Jing had also arrived. When she saw the situation, she found it strange.

After an hour, the Headmaster and Deputy Headmaster continued to wait patiently. Then two hours had passed, and no one moved. Everyone was confused and started to discuss the situation between themselves.

At this point, they only had two more hours left. Even though the Deputy Headmaster felt anxious, there was nothing he could do. He could only hope that Feng Jiu would wake up soon.

Guan Xilin who had been silent the whole time and decided it was almost time. He looked at the Headmaster and finally spoke: "Deputy Headmaster, there is something I need your help with."

Chapter 720: How He Woke Up

At this point, the Deputy Headmaster was too worried to take much notice and replied half-heartedly: "What is it? Tell me."

"Can I borrow your Deputy Headmaster's token?" Guan Xilin looked at him and asked.

The Deputy Headmaster was shocked as he looked back at him. He then looked at the Headmaster and when he saw him nod his head, he took his token out and passed it to him. At the same time, he asked: "What do you need it for?"

Guan Xilin took the token without saying anything. He smiled at them and took his leave with Ye Jing after he bowed to them.

"What does he think he is doing?" The Deputy Headmaster frowned as watched as the two people walked off.

"Just watch and you will find out."

The Headmaster returned his gaze to the cave dwelling entrance and his heart sank a little as he thought, Feng Jiu really could sleep.

After about half an hour, Guan Xilin and Ye Jing returned with something in their hands. They were followed by a few more students from the Spirit Division who were helping to carry things.

With everyone looking on with uncertainty, Guan Xilin ordered the students to place everything in front of the entrance of the cave dwelling's enchantment. There was a stove with a pot of spirit chicken ginseng soup being warmed up.

When the lids of everything else were opened up, the onlookers eyes widened in shock when they saw steamed meat buns, roast spirit chicken, more soup, and even a big leg of roast spirit pork being grilled on the fire rack. They looked on with drool dripping out of their mouths.

"What is he doing? Is he hungry? How did he manage to get all the food from the kitchen? This food is only given to the teachers, how did he manage to bring it here?"

"That's right. And given the current situation, is it appropriate to be having a feast here?"

The students continued their discussion, and some of the teachers looked on in anger. However, the Headmaster and the Deputy Headmaster hadn't said anything, so they couldn't say anything either. They saw the Deputy Headmaster give Guan Xilin his token. He wouldn't have been able to bring all this food over otherwise.

Mo Chen who was stood nearby watched on as he saw Guan Xilin had brought the feast to the cave dwelling entrance and couldn't help but smile.

So that was it.

The Headmaster and Deputy Headmaster looked on in silence as Guan Xilin used a fan to blow the delicious aromas into the cave dwelling. Their eyes lit up as they realised what he was doing.

So that was it! He was using the delicious aromas to wake Feng Jiu up. Could this really work?

They couldn't help but have doubts.

However, their doubts were replaced by surprise in the next moment.

Feng Jiu was woken up by the delicious aromas, her stomach groaning in hunger as she rolled around in bed lazily. She smiled as the smell of meat woke her up.

"Smells delicious..."

She thought she was dreaming, because it was not possible to have such delicious aromas of food in her cave dwelling or anywhere nearby.

So she turned over again, facing the outside and drifted off to sleep smelling the delicious aromas of meat.

However, the aromas of the food got stronger to the point she could name the dishes of the foods. Her stomach had started groaning in hunger again.

She opened her eyes and took a deep breath. She paused for a moment, then jumped out of bed. Her hair messy as she slipped on her robe quickly before she rushed outside.

"Who? Who is using delicious foods to entice me?"
