

GLOBAL DUNGEON: MY SUPPORT IS TOO STRONG

Chapter 14

Your Mission Is to Not Embarrass Us!

Soon, it was time for the martial arts assessment.

The martial arts assessment was held in provinces. They would then choose a city as the assessment venue.

This time, it was Green Spirit City.

For this reason, Green Spirit City made a lot of preparations three months ago.

First, they spent a considerable sum of money to prepare a grand welcome ceremony and generous rewards for the students of the various cities.

Moreover, a large number of patrol officers were transferred from another city to ensure the safety of the martial arts assessment.

“Hello everyone, this is Hai Province TV Station!

“I’m the reporter in charge of the martial arts assessment live broadcast. I’m also your friend, Bingbing!”

In order to ensure fairness, the martial arts assessment would be broadcasted live.

Now, Hai Province TV Station’s live-stream helicopter hovered over Green Spirit City.

“Now, everyone can see that the audience seats around the Green Spirit City Stadium are already filled with the parents of the students.

“In another five minutes, every student who has passed the student assessment will appear.”

The camera panned across every corner of the audience.

Every parent was excited and cheered for their child with a support stick. Mr. and Mrs. Lu were also among them.

Especially Mr. Lu, who got a flag from somewhere. On it was engraved “My son, Lu Benwei, has the bearing of a top scholar!”

Of course, it was only to support Lu Benwei.

Mr. Lu did not think that Lu Benwei would achieve good results.

Lu Ziling also waved her little flag and cheered for Lu Benwei.

Not long after, the sweet voice of the Hai Province reporter Bingbing sounded again.

“Alright, now our Hai Province’s future prodigy is about to appear!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the solemn march began. The various students entered one after another.

“This martial arts assessment is also a gathering of all kinds of geniuses.”

Bingbing began to explain to the crowd the information the official handed over.

“The first to enter is Canglong City High School.

“The first place in Canglong City High School’s student assessment is Chen Lei. Chen Lei has awakened the berserk dragon talent and has already successfully changed his class to a warrior.”

“A warrior paired with a berserk dragon talent is invincible!”

“Next up is...”

...

“The second last to enter is Yuntian City High School, and their representative is a girl who has awakened in the assassin class.

“Don’t underestimate her.

“A beautiful girl who has awakened the shadow storm talent. She kills people every ten steps and doesn’t leave anyone behind!”

Bingbing’s face was sinister, making those watching the live broadcast shudder.

Then, the only one left was Green Spirit City High School.

“Next is the host college of this martial arts assessment, Green Spirit City High School.

“The first place in the Green Spirit City High School student assessment is a student named Lu Benwei.

“His class is... Eh? How can he be a supporter?”

Bingbing was shocked by Lu Benwei’s introduction and blurted out the words.

Then, he realized that something had happened to the live broadcast.

At this moment, the noisy stadium was silent.

“A... supporter?”

Everyone in the audience of Green Spirit City was in disbelief.

Meanwhile, the faces of the other city spectators had already turned red.

“Haha! The first place in Green Spirit City is a supporter.”

“In the past years, Green Spirit City’s results were always at the bottom in Hai Province. I’m afraid that they will be the last place this year.”

“That’s true. After all, trash classes are quite compatible with trash cities.”

“The city helped us organize the martial arts assessment and even gave us prizes. Green Spirit City is really selfless!”

On the podium of the stadium, the faces of the leaders of Green Spirit City turned green.

Although the results of every martial arts assessment in Green Spirit City were often unsatisfactory, it was still acceptable overall.

This was the first time he had made such a joke...

Lu Ziling also reminded Mr. Lu softly, “Dad, you should put away the flag... Benwei is now the target of public criticism.”

Mr. Lu had mixed feelings. He really did not expect Lu Benwei to be first place in the Green Spirit City student assessment.

“I’ve really underestimated this brat. No, I have to continue cheering for that brat!” Mr. Lu waved the flag even more wantonly.

Twenty minutes before the assessment officially began, the mayor of Green Spirit City stood up.

“First of all, we welcome the prodigies of the various cities to participate in the annual martial arts assessment! Let me read the rules of this martial arts assessment!”

The mayor of Green Spirit cleared his throat.

“In this assessment, the same academy will form a five-man team. Although individual strength is important, in actual combat, hunting monsters often depends on teamwork!

“Therefore, in the martial arts assessment, there’s a lot of teamwork in the final score!

“This martial arts assessment is fair and open!”

As soon as Chen Xiong finished speaking, four tokens rose into the air and immediately turned into four-dimensional dungeons. From small to big, they were blue, yellow, purple, and red.

The mayor of Green Spirit City said again, "This martial arts assessment is divided into four difficult mystic realms."

"White is simple. The final score will be X1. Red is Purgatory difficulty. The final score will be X2!

"Everyone, take a break. The assessment will officially begin in five minutes!"

After the mayor finished speaking, the stadium was in chaos again.

Lu Benwei found the four teammates assigned to him by the school.

Li Tianran was an assassin, Guo Hao was an archer, Liu Dongqing was a magician, and Zhao Kong, who had been scared witless by Lu Benwei.

These four people had more or less seen Lu Benwei's strength, and all of them recommended him as their captain.

However, just as the four of them were chatting, a burly young man walked toward them.

"You're the top student in Green Spirit City High School, Lu Benwei?"

Lu Benwei recognized him. It was Chen Lei from Canglong City High School.

"How can I help you?"

Chen Lei smiled slyly and suddenly extended a hand, then slowly pointed his thumb down.

"A supporter can actually sit down peacefully. How unlucky!"

When the other high school students saw this, they also chuckled and looked at the Green Spirit High School with disdain.

Seeing this, Li Tianran stood up for Lu Benwei. “Who are you looking down on? Be careful not to be played by our Brother Lu!”

Chen Lei sneered. “Pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger? Just because he’s a supporter?”

“I’ve already been promoted to a warrior. You’re a supporter, are you at level five?”

Lu Benwei said indifferently, “Damn, you make it sound like someone hasn’t changed their class!”

Li Tianran and the others’ eyes lit up. “Brother Lu, you’ve changed your class?”

The corners of Chen Lei’s mouth twitched. This kid had really f*cking fooled him...

“Of course. I changed my class to become a magician!”

Everyone was speechless. “???”

Li Tianran and the others’ faces instantly darkened.

‘Big Brother, it’s better not to say it out loud.’

When the surrounding people heard that Chen Lei had become a magician, they laughed so hard that tears came out of their eyes.

“Magician... Hahaha... Trash among trash!”

At this moment, four-dimensional dungeons suddenly emitted a dazzling light.

Everyone understood that the martial arts assessment had begun.

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, Lu Benwei stepped forward.

“The world is laughing at me for being too crazy. I’m laughing at how others can’t see through me!”

“You guys, I’m afraid I’ll slaughter the monsters too quickly. You have to keep up!”

“What’s this kid trying to show off for?”

“A supporter trash will probably be beaten to death if he goes to the simplest mystic realm, right?”

Lu Benwei’s posture and words were all captured.

However, Lu Benwei crossed the mystic realm and directly jumped into the dungeon that emitted red light.

Purgatory mystic realm!

Everyone was shocked.

“How dare this kid?”

“In the purgatory mystic realm, there might be level 15 to 20 monsters. Even with the secret protection of the invigilator, there’s no way to guarantee his life, right?”

In the corner of the rostrum, the principal of Green Spirit City High School’s heart skipped a beat.

“Child, it doesn’t matter if you embarrass me. Your life is more important!”

Mr. and Mrs. Lu were also shocked speechless.

“Could it be that this child was provoked by Chen Lei and chose the purgatory mystic realm because he felt embarrassed?”

“Dad, Mom, don’t worry. Benwei isn’t an impulsive person!”

Lu Ziling comforted him, but her heart was also clenched.
