

GLOBAL DUNGEON: MY SUPPORT IS TOO STRONG

Chapter 8

Danger? It Doesn't Exist

“Lu Benwei is in danger!”

The teachers outside could no longer be bothered to pay attention to the other students. They directly focused their gazes on Lu Benwei.

Seeing a large number of monsters approaching Lu Benwei, these teachers could not help but worry.

“Principal, terminate the assessment! We'll go in immediately and bring Lu Benwei out!”

“That's right, Principal. Even if the other students can't pass the assessment, as long as there's a genius like Lu Benwei, it's enough to beat the other schools!”

“Principal...”

He could quickly level up after entering the mystic realm for the first time. As a supporter, he could easily defeat more than a hundred students and leave confidently. Such a young genius was from Green Spirit City High School!

This made all the teachers feel honored.

Especially Lu Benwei's form teacher, Mr. Yuan, whose eyes were already red.

“Principal, please open the level restriction of the mystic realm. I'll go in and bring Lu Benwei out immediately!”

The old principal's mouth twitched in response to the teachers' pleas. If he could, he would have slapped them to death.

'Damn it, when your students couldn't level up, all of you make a fuss. Now, it's good. Extend the assessment time and give those people time to level up.

'In the blink of an eye, you want me to end the assessment?

'You really think I'm Tinker Bell?

'You get what you want?'

The old principal took a deep breath and tried his best to suppress his anger. He said in a low voice, "What's the hurry? Let's see the situation first. I just called and applied for an extended assessment time. Now, you want me to end it. What will the higher-ups think of our Green Spirit City High School?"

"Principal, are you out of your mind? With such a peerless genius like Lu Benwei, would the higher-ups still stop us here? And now, Lu Benwei's situation is so dangerous. If we're a step late and cause such a genius to die, the higher-ups might even hold you responsible!"

Mr. Yuan shouted anxiously.

The other teachers were also anxious.

"That's right, Principal. The one surrounding Lu Benwei now is the Ghost Wolf. It's a king-level monster among the low-level monsters. It's born with a speed talent and is a pack-type monster. When this pack of wolves rushes up, even hunters who have reached level 20 will have to avoid them."

"Principal, let's get Mr. Yuan to bring him out before he's surrounded!"

"Alright, alright, alright. Do you really think I want Lu Benwei to die? But you've been teachers for several years. Why are you still so rash?"

The principal said angrily, "Did you notice that when this kid was fighting against the three Cerberus and when he was surrounded by a group of students just now, his way of fighting was to only attack and not defend? Don't you think this is too much for a newbie who hasn't changed his class? Besides, he's a supporter, so his defense is very low..."

"Principal, do you mean that Lu Benwei has an invincible skill?" A teacher did not wait for the principal to finish speaking and immediately asked with a shocked expression. However, he immediately answered his own question.

"That's right, this child must have got an invincible skill to dare to do this. Previously, I noticed that during the battle, he didn't seem to feel many attacks landing on him. It's fine if it's those low-level brats, but those three Cerberus are level 10 monsters. Even hunters might not be able to withstand a scratch from them..."

"That's not right. As far as I know, all the invincible skills seem to be innate skills, right? Could it be that this kid has already awakened his innate skills?"

"No way? Talent skills don't belong to any class, and it's impossible to learn them through skill books. Among the tens of millions of hunters, only the top few geniuses can awaken them, and all of them have been comprehended after countless battles. How old is this kid?"

"Who cares how old he is? This kid just successfully awakened his talent yesterday and faced monsters for the first time today. In the end, he awakened his talent skill? How f*cking ridiculous!"

"I'm done!"

Just as the teachers were discussing excitedly, the old principal spoke again, "Regardless of whether it's a talent skill or any other skill, this is a student's personal privacy. Watch your mouths if you shouldn't be discussing it. Now, all you need to do is watch carefully."

The teachers immediately fell silent.

In the hunter world, it was taboo to inquire about and discuss other people's skills. These teachers also knew this, so after being reminded by the principal, they all chose to shut up.

However, when they looked at Lu Benwei in the holographic projection, their eyes widened, hoping to see any clues.

At this moment.

In the mystic realm, Lu Benwei also sensed that something was wrong.

In his vision, many monsters that looked like wolves but had six ears and were the size of cows were gradually approaching.

However, it was different from the worries of the teachers outside.

Lu Benwei could not see any negative emotions like fear in his eyes.

Some were just eager.

When he fought the Cerberus, perhaps his only shortcoming was that his stamina would be exhausted after using his skills frequently.

However, Lu Benwei solved that problem.

Through constant fighting, he found a way to fight that suited him best.

Boom!

[Heavenly Dog's Fury] was activated instantly. A huge phantom of a heavenly dog appeared behind him, looking dignified.

At the same time, Lu Benwei cast [Minor Healing] on himself before the Ghost Wolf's claws could reach him.

For now, the battle did not consume much of Lu Benwei's stamina.

At first, he used [Minor Healing] to increase his shield value. Then, when he was injured, [Barbarian Bloodline] would automatically trigger and increase his shield value again. With the enhancement of these two, his shield value reached a terrifying value.

As for [Barbarian Bloodline], it was a passive skill. As long as it was damaged, it would automatically trigger. It did not consume any stamina at all.

There was no cool down time yet, so he could basically maintain a high shield the entire time.

This way, Lu Benwei only needed to consume the stamina of [Minor Healing] before he would be invincible.

As for [Heavenly Dog's Fury], it was a status enhancement skill. Every time it was released, the consumption of stamina was minimal.

Thinking of this, Lu Benwei realized that at this stage, he was really an unbeatable existence.

Previously, when he was fighting with the Cerberus, he did not have a clear understanding of his own strength. It was only because he used [Minor Healing] frequently that his stamina was exhausted.

Pfft...

While he was thinking, a Ghost Wolf had already arrived in front of him. Lu Benwei instinctively raised his sword and accurately stabbed it into its body.

[Heavenly Dog Sword] had its own fire attribute attack, and with the enhancement of [Heavenly Dog's Fury], even if it was just an ordinary attack, Lu Benwei's damage was extremely high.

Coupled with his level 10 attack power and the additional attack power of the [Heavenly Dog Sword], the Ghost Wolf did not even have time to scream before it turned into a corpse.

Pop, pop, pop...

Lu Benwei kept swinging the Heavenly Dog Sword. There were Ghost Wolves everywhere, and he did not need to aim at all. One slash and one of them would fall.

The points on his points ranking were also rising crazily.
