

Global Towers: Starting With The SSS-Rank Talent, God-Tier Extraction

Chapter 12: Using Divine Extraction on the Pack of Huge Rodents, Obtain the Divine Debuff Skill [Fog]

[Congratulations on winning the battle. Obtain: 200 EXP!]

1

Seeing the notification, Liu Yan was delighted. He hadn't expected the mutated huge rodent leader to be able to provide so much EXP.

Liu Yan remembered that he could obtain 10~20 EXP from normal level 1 beasts, 40~60 EXP from level 2 beasts, and 80~120 EXP from level 3 beasts.

2

Yet he had now gained 200 EXP in one go from the level 3 mutated huge rodent leader!

Liu Yan guessed that it was probably because the huge rodent leader had become relatively strong due to the mutation, which was why he was able to gain so much EXP.

The surrounding level 1 huge rodents were all shocked when they saw that their leader had actually been killed in one hit. They stared at Liu Yan with some fear, not daring to go forward for a moment.

Liu Yan didn't put think much of the level 1 huge rodents at all. His strength had increased a lot, making it extremely easy to deal with level 1 beasts. Even if they were in large numbers, they wouldn't be able to cause any harm to him.

1

Liu Yan didn't bother with the huge rodents. Instead, he went to the corpse of the mutant huge rodent leader and used Divine Extraction.

[Divine Extraction of elite mutated huge rodent leader has been successful. Obtained: strength +12, vitality +13, adaptability +8, Miasma (C-grade), Poison (E-grade), Paralysis (D-grade), Delay (C-grade)!]

3

[Miasma, Poison, Paralysis, and Delay have successfully fused. Obtained: Fog (B-grade)!]

1

[Fog]

[Grade: B]

[Effect: AOE Skill. Upon activation, fog will be produced in the surrounding 50 meters (radius of effect will increase with the increase of the user's strength), which will unilaterally block the enemy's line of sight. The fog also has the negative effects of miasma, poison, paralysis, delay, and others.]

5

When Liu Yan saw these notifications, his face was instantly filled with ecstasy.

2

From the mutated huge rodent leader's corpse, not only did Liu Yan obtain a large number of attribute points which had improved his strength greatly, but he had also obtained so many skills, which in the end even fused into a powerful AOE offensive control skill!

3

Liu Yan looked at the surrounding huge rodents.

At this moment, they were extremely fearful of Liu Yan and were already slowly retreating. To think they didn't dare to make a move against Liu Yan and wanted to escape instead.

However, Liu Yan wasn't willing to let them just leave.

Although these level 1 huge rodents weren't strong, they were all treasure boxes of EXP. They were beasts that could make him stronger.

1

Most importantly, Liu Yan had just obtained the powerful B-grade skill, Fog. It just so happened that he wanted to find some beasts to test out the strength of the skill. These huge rodents were undoubtedly a good choice!

Liu Yan immediately activated [Fog]!

Instantly, a 50-meter radius around him was instantly shrouded in white fog. One couldn't even see one's fingers before oneself.

Although Liu Yan himself was also in the middle of the fog and couldn't see clearly, he could somehow clearly sense all the details within the white fog.

He did not even need to open his eyes to look, yet he could "see" things even more clearly than before.

It was as if the white fog was a part of Liu Yan's body. At this moment, he was touching everything within a fifty-meter radius, enabling him to clearly see everything within the range!

4

So this was the meaning of unilaterally blocking the other party's line of sight? Liu Yan was secretly surprised. The actual effects were more than the description. It even enhanced Liu Yan's perception of the surroundings!

Liu Yan could imagine that in future battles, as long as he used Fog, even though he would not be able to see anything clearly, he would be able to perceive everything around him with even greater precision.

The skill Fog was extremely powerful. Moreover, it was a rare AOE offensive control skill.

Liu Yan felt that the B-grade Fog was not the slightest bit weaker than the ordinary A-grade skills!

4

At this moment, enveloped by the fog, multiple effects had been added to the huge rodents.

Their bodies were poisoned, paralyzed, and sluggish. It was impossible for them to escape.

1

As the poison spread, the huge rodents quickly fell to the ground, unable to get up. They looked like they were on the verge of death.

With just the activation of Fog, these huge rodents had all been heavily injured!

Liu Yan raised his dagger and moved freely within the white fog.

He didn't even need to look to know clearly what was around him.

Liu Yan came to the front of one huge rodent after another and stabbed at their weak spots.

Meanwhile, these huge rodents lay on the ground, suffering endlessly. They did not have the slightest strength to resist or escape Liu Yan's attack.

Soon, the more than ten level 1 huge rodents were all killed by Liu Yan.

After stopping the skill, the fog slowly faded away. Liu Yan's clothes were disheveled, but there was not much blood on him.

[Congratulations on winning the battle. Obtained +13 EXP!]

[Congratulations on winning the battle. Obtained +16 EXP!]

[Congratulations on winning the battle. Obtained +14 EXP!]

...

[Congratulations on your level increase. You have reached level 3.]

A series of notifications rang out, and Liu Yan had reached level 3.

His face was filled with ecstasy as he quickly checked his attribute panel.

[Liu Yan]

[Level: 3 (12/500)]

[HP: 800/800]

[Effect: Agility +30]

The effect of the E-grade equipment was quite good.

However, Liu Yan had the SSS-grade Divine Extraction, so he used it.

7

With that, a white light enveloped the boots, and soon, a notification appeared.

[Divine Extraction of the Cloud-treading Boots (E-grade) has been successful. Obtained: Cloud-treading Boots (D-grade)!]

Liu Yan tried using Divine Extraction again but failed to do so.

Currently, it seemed that Divine Extraction could only upgrade his equipment by one grade. He wondered if he would be able to upgrade his equipment even more after he leveled up and slowly developed his talent.

4

That being said, just being able to upgrade his equipment by one grade was already very powerful. Any equipment would be worlds apart from its previous state after being upgraded by a grade.

Liu Yan then took the bow and arrow that he had taken from Wang Qing down from his back. At that time, the situation had been urgent, so he had not been able to upgrade it.

[Divine Extraction of Federation Standard Beginner's Bow and Arrow has been successful. Obtained: Federation Standard Beginner Bow and Arrow (E-grade)!]

1

Following this, Liu Yan checked the stats of the two pieces of equipment.

[Cloud-treading Boots]

[Grade: D]

[Effect: Agility +80, increases jumping ability. The specific effect depends on the user's agility.]

[Federation Standard Beginner's Bow and Arrow]

[Grade: E]

[Effect: Arrow speed +30, attack power +30]

1

The effect of the bow and arrow was as what Liu Yan had guessed, which was about the same as the other two E-grade equipment on him.

However, the D-grade Cloud-treading Boots surprised Liu Yan. He did not expect D-grade equipment to be so powerful.

First of all, it added a lot of agility. The agility the boots provided even directly surpassed Liu Yan's current agility.

1

One had to know that Liu Yan was already a level 3 Awakened. Moreover, because he had Divine Extraction, his attributes were quite heaven-defying. His agility was not even the slightest bit lower than that of an ordinary level 4 Awakened.

3

Yet, the D-grade Cloud-treading Boots could instantly increase his agility which would make him akin to a level 4 Awakened. It was truly powerful!

In particular, after its upgrade to the D-grade, there was actually an additional effect that could increase his jumping ability!

Liu Yan hurriedly put on the Cloud-treading Boots.

The D-grade Cloud-treading Boots would automatically shrink or expand according to the size of the wearer's feet. After putting it on, it would be extremely fitting, making it extremely convenient to move around.

The minute he put it on, Liu Yan felt as if he was walking on clouds. Walking was extremely easy. He could cross three to four meters with one step, and his speed was abnormally terrifying!

1

Immediately after, Liu Yan tried out the jumping ability.

1

"Wow!" Liu Yan cried out in surprise. With a light jump, he had directly jumped onto a towering tree at the side that was more than ten meters high!

2

And this was even when he had not used his full strength yet.

Liu Yan felt that with his current agility, if he used his full strength, he could probably jump up to thirty meters high in a go. It was abnormally terrifying!

1

If he was still on Blue Planet, he probably would not have imagined that he could easily jump up to the height of ten floors with the help of the Cloud-treading Boots not long after he had just entered the Tower world. He was practically a monster.

Liu Yan was satisfied after going through his gains.

When he had reached level 3, the CD of Liu Yan's Divine Extraction had been reset, and he had a total of twenty times.

Later on, he had used his talent on the corpses of more than a dozen huge rodents as well as two pieces of equipment. As such, he currently only had one more chance.

3

On the other hand, it had currently become difficult for Liu Yan to obtain any improvements from hunting beasts on level one of the Tower.

Seeing that it was getting late, Liu Yan immediately rushed to the beginner's camp as marked on his smart wristband. He had to travel there to enter level two of the Tower.

On the other side, the two Awakened who had been with Wang Qing earlier didn't know that Wang Qing was already dead because they had been hurrying to escape. They thought that they had just been separated from Wang Qing, so they simply headed to the beginner's camp to wait for Wang Qing.

1

Hearing the notification that had been broadcasted on the smart wristband, the location of the Awakened who did the deed seemed to be the place where they had met the huge rodents previously.

The two immediately thought that Wang Qing had killed the huge rodent leader and completed the first kill of an elite beast.

2

As such, the two instantly felt incomparably proud. Wang Qing was their big brother. Now that Wang Qing had become stronger, they could benefit from being on good terms with him since he could gain more now.

"Did you hear that? Our big brother Wang Qing has already killed an elite beast."

1

"He's got B-grade talent and has killed an elite beast. Our big brother Wang Qing is probably the strongest existence in this batch of Awakened!"

The two Awakened bragged to the others who had rushed to the beginner's camp. When the others heard this, they were instantly filled with envy.

"Really? Is Wang Qing so powerful? Zou Yu and Zhou Peng, you two are really lucky to be able to have a big brother like Wang Qing!"

"Yeah, it's a pity that my talent is only at the E-grade. Big brother Wang Qing doesn't want me at all."

"The reward for the first kill is a silver treasure chest. I wonder what treasures will be inside."

"No matter what it is, it must be very powerful!"

The group of Awakened were discussing when Liu Yan rushed into the camp at this time.

Although he had killed many beasts and reaped huge rewards, Liu Yan's body was covered in blood because he had killed too many beasts. As such, he appeared to be in a rather sorry state.

Zou Yu and Zhou Peng recognized Liu Yan. He was the guy who had rejected Wang Qing when he had invited him to join the team.

The two of them looked at Liu Yan, who was in a miserable state. He was covered in blood and there was nothing else on him other than a dagger. Even his backpack was gone.

3

Immediately, the two of them laughed.

"Hey kid, are you running for your life because you got nothing?"

"Hahaha, even if a person like you can survive, what's the use? If you can't improve your strength, you'll still die later."

1

"Our big brother Wang Qing invited you out of kindness, yet you didn't know how to appreciate his kindness and refused. What a joke!"

"Are you regretting it now? Our big brother Wang Qing has obtained a silver treasure chest as a reward for achieving the first kill of an elite beast, but you didn't get anything. You even lost your own backpack. What a joke!"

When the other Awakened heard this, they all looked over at Liu Yan. Seeing that he was in a sorry state and there was nothing on him at all, all of them felt that this lone ranger was a little too arrogant.

Although they were also in a sorry state and hadn't gotten much either, at least they still had some gains and their strength had increased a little.

When Liu Yan heard this, he was baffled. He looked at himself and finally understood.

Because he had the storage ring, Liu Yan naturally put all the food, equipment, herbs, and other things owned into the storage ring. This was much more convenient, so he threw his backpack away.

3

Other than keeping the dagger at his waist because it was more convenient that way, Liu Yan didn't have anything else on him, which was why his situation had been misunderstood and he was being ridiculed.

1

However, in the face of the misunderstanding and ridicule, Liu Yan couldn't be bothered to explain. His gain in a day was probably several times more than all of them combined.

It was fine as long as he was clear about his gains and that he was becoming stronger. There was no need to explain anything.

As for the matter of Wang Qing's death, these two obviously did not know about it. Therefore, Liu Yan could not be bothered by such a misunderstanding.

8

Soon after, Liu Yan entered the beginner's camp. He hurriedly washed up and changed into clean clothes. It was somewhat uncomfortable to be covered in blood all the time.

When it was dark, all of the Awakened's smart wristbands started broadcasting the same notification.

[Thus far, more than half of the Awakened who have entered the Tower have died. The Awakened who have died are: Yan Yuanzhi, Song Yu, Wang Qing...]

7

When they heard the first announcement from the smart wristband, Zou Yu and Zhou Peng immediately panicked.

They did not expect Wang Qing to have died.

The grade of their talents was not low. Having reached D-grade, they could be considered above average.

2

However, during this period of time of following Wang Qing, the two of them had not improved their strength much.

Originally, they were thinking that since Wang Qing had improved a lot, they could just follow him and use his powerful strength to smoothly enter level two, then leave the Tower alive.

They had never thought that Wang Qing would actually die..

Instantly, both of them fell into despair.

At the same time, the other Awakened were also confused, fearful, and even panicked.

Only one last day was left, and there wasn't much time left for them.

4

For a moment, the many Awakened in the beginner's camp all became nervous.

As for Liu Yan, he had just taken a bath and was lying down to rest with a leisurely expression.

He still needed to wait a day? So troublesome. If only he could enter level two now, Liu Yan secretly complained.
