

Gluey Love 101

Chapter 101

It made sense that his company could rise to become the number one company in River City within three years. This company was extremely demanding in terms of the quality of its products and hired competent people.

Its efficiency was also very high. People could enjoy their work in such a company.

After confirming the smashes, Eden took a picture of it.

It was for later confirmation.

"What a careful woman." Riley wondered.

Eden was not just being careful. She did it so that she wouldn't be framed.

When she was new to the field, she had suffered a lot.

She always learned from her mistakes!

It had something to do with her childhood experiences. In fact, it was a good habit!

She always pursued what she wanted, stuck to her preferred lifestyle, and paid little attention to the criticism of others. This took extraordinary courage!

Instead of complaining and being confused all day, she forced herself to take action and stick to what she loved.

Fashion design was her lifelong passion.

At five o'clock, Eden got off work on time.

When she walked out of the office with Riley, she ran into Lucian.

He had his hand in his pocket. There was a charming smile on his handsome face. His eyes fell on Eden. "Director Bleu, Mr. Alwynn wants to talk to you." His voice was calm, deep, and hoarse.

Hearing this, Riley, who was on the side, became jealous.

It was off duty now, so it would not be about business.

Eden glanced at Lucian and wondered Victor's purpose.

Under the gentle gaze of Lucian, she smiled and nodded. Then, to the jealous eyes of Riley, she elegantly walked towards the president's office on eight-centimeter high heels.

"Thump, thump!" Eden knocked on the door.

"Come in!" Victor's voice was calm.

Eden became nervous when she heard this. She took a deep breath and pushed the door open. Then, she calmly walked in.

Victor was working. He looked serious and charming, and his movements were elegant and smooth.

The setting sun coming in through the floor-to-ceiling windows cast a faint golden glow over his body, making him look like a god.

He lowered his head slightly. The outline of his handsome face was as sharp as a knife. He looked cold, but people couldn't help trying to approach him.

He seemed to have noticed Eden's gaze. He suddenly raised his head and instantly looked into her eyes. She was slightly shocked.

His smile gradually widened, making him look like a devil. He said in a rare gentle voice, "Eden, sit down!"

His address made Eden a little angry.

They were in the company, and they were not familiar with each other. Why did he call her by her name?

Victor turned a blind eye to Eden's anger, but he swore an overbearing oath in his heart.

"Eden, if it is really you, then you are mine. No one can take you away from me!"

After getting along with her for a few days, he found that she was really attractive.

Eden did not say anything. She walked to the leather sofa and sat down, quietly waiting for Victor to finish his work.

Victor glanced at her from the corner of his eye, pursed his lips and smiled. He accelerated his work.

Five minutes later, he gracefully closed the documents.

He looked up at Eden with a smile. At this moment, Eden was not as cold as usual. She was more like a quiet girl.

Chapter 102

Eden also looked at him. Her eyes were calm, but she was very nervous. Victor's smile made her feel very strange.

She smiled politely and asked, "Mr. Alwynn, what can I do for you?" She had an appointment with Jasper!

"Well." Victor got up and walked to the table. He picked up the two cups of coffee he had prepared. Instead of placing them in front of Eden, he directly handed her a cup of coffee.

Eden smiled and took the coffee. It was at just the right temperature but she didn't like coffee. She took a sip and put it on the table.

Victor glanced at her without leaving a trace. He sat opposite her elegantly and took a sip of coffee. The taste of coffee didn't change. It was his favorite coffee, not too sweet or bitter.

Victor didn't say a word. His strong aura made her feel a little uncomfortable.

She was still waiting for him to speak.

However, after waiting for a long time, Victor didn't say anything. She looked up subconsciously and saw him looking her up and down, as if he wanted to see through her.

Her heart skipped a beat. Why was he looking at her like that?

Victor gave her an inexplicable feeling.

Was there anything dirty on her face?

Eden knew herself well. She didn't think that Victor was attracted by her beauty.

Victor lowered his voice and smiled elegantly. "Eden, I haven't thanked you for saving me. Shall I treat you to dinner tonight?"

Eden did not expect him to say that.

Moreover, the way he addressed her gave her a very strange feeling.

Eden said apologetically, "Mr. Alwynn, I'm sorry. I have an appointment tonight. I saved your life, but it's not a big deal. If I didn't do it, someone else would have!"

"What a pity!" There was disappointment in Victor's eyes.

Suddenly, he remembered Eden had received a call at noon. Was it from Jasper?

At the thought of this, Victor suddenly felt unhappy.

His eyes flashed lightly and fell on Eden's pretty face. He picked up the golden invitation card on the table and passed it to Eden. He said, "Eden, there is a party tomorrow night at Amenity Hotel. Be my date." His voice was soft, but with a hint of dominance.

Eden suddenly looked at him. She asked in surprise, "Amenity Hotel? Your date?"

At the mention of Amenity Hotel, Eden's heart ached instantly.

If it wasn't for the banquet seven years ago, she wouldn't have known the true colors of Bethany and Myra.

"Yes!" Victor couldn't help but feel distressed when he saw the pain and anxiety in her eyes.

She was the woman he met at Amenity Hotel that night. He was sure.

Anson had already used Victor and Ricky's hair for a paternity test. Soon, Victor would know the results.

Eden blinked her eyes and took a deep breath. She lowered her head and did not look at Victor. She said, "But it doesn't seem to be part of my job."

She did not like social interactions. The Gienger family would never bring her along to those parties. They would choose Myra and Antony.

Chapter 103

She was not very good at socializing.

Victor seemed to know that she would say that. He smiled calmly and said, "Eden, you can't say no. You are the design director of Alwynn Group. Our partners will be at the banquet tomorrow night."

Victor's words made Eden speechless.

She looked petite sitting in front of him. She was slender and had long, wavy, soft hair. Her eyes were pitch-black, and she stared at Victor in confusion.

Victor also looked at her quietly.

One was calm, and the other was confused.

Eden silently looked away. Did she have the right to say no?

She replied in a low voice, "Okay! I will go with you."

After Eden finished her words, she stood up with an indifferent look, as if she had been forced.

For Eden, Victor did force her.

For Victor, he did it on purpose.

Bringing a date to a banquet?!

What a joke!

He had attended all kinds of banquets before and had never had a date.

This time, he suddenly wanted to bring Eden with him. That hotel was the place where they first had sex. She might hate this place very much. However, it meant a lot to him.

He admitted that this idea was cruel, but his heart told him that she was the woman he had been looking for all the time.

"Mr. Alwynn, see you tomorrow!" Eden looked at Victor, who was deep in thought. Then, she turned around and left.

When Eden turned around, Victor raised his eyes elegantly and looked at her back, with an evil smile in his eyes.

He would never give up on the woman he wanted.

"Eden, Eden." Victor called her inside, feeling extremely happy.

He got up, took his coat and walked out gracefully.

Lucian was waiting for him outside.

Seeing Victor coming out, Lucian glanced at him indifferently and took his briefcase on the table.

"Go home? Or go to dinner?" Lucian asked in his usual indifferent tone.

Lucian knew very well that Victor would not go back.

He failed to ask Eden out tonight.

It was the first time for Victor to be rejected by a woman.

Seeing that Victor did not speak, Lucian raised the corner of his mouth. He suddenly said with great interest, "It's hard to be rejected by a woman, isn't it?"

Victor stood next to the elevator, stretched out to press the button, and looked at him lazily. "Why are you so nosy today?"

However, Lucian was right. This was the first time Victor had taken the initiative to ask a woman out, but he was rejected.

Lucian laughed but his voice was still very calm. "I'm rarely interested in what other people do, but I'm interested in what you do. Mr. Alwynn, who has never been close to a woman, suddenly invited a woman to have dinner together. This is really big news!"

Victor didn't get angry. Instead, he smiled and said, "Lucian, I read a quote in a book. I don't expect life to go smoothly, but I hope that when I hit a rough patch, I can be its opponent! My opponent has appeared!"

"Oh!" Lucian said softly, "Your so-called opponent is Eden?"

Since Victor said so, she must be no ordinary woman!

Chapter 104

"If it's her, then she's my strongest opponent. I, Victor Alwynn, want to conquer her. I want her to be Mrs. Alwynn!" Victor said proudly. He was even imagining his wedding.

Lucian looked at him deeply and exhaled before saying, "Victor, it's been so many years. Haven't you given up yet?"

If Eden was still alive, she would have been found a long time ago.

He hadn't found her for so many years. It meant that she had passed away.

Victor did not take his words seriously. He lowered his head and said, "Lucian, even in the most illusory and fantasy world, people struggle to find something real out of it, so as to give themselves a glimmer of hope. What I am looking for may be close to me."

Lucian smiled and said, "Victor, from the moment she disappeared, you've been living in a fantasy world. For others, they have a lot of things to do. For you, she's everything.

"Some people are lost in the forest, while you're hugging a tree and refusing to let go."

When the elevator door opened, the two of them walked in gracefully.

The moment the elevator door closed, Riley, who did not leave, came out from the dark.

Upon hearing their conversation, Riley was shocked!

Victor had not been married for so many years, nor had he had a girlfriend. He didn't even have a scandal. It turned out that he was waiting for the man he loved.

Who was that woman?

Because of the distance, she couldn't hear the entire conversation.

She quickly took out the phone and walked to the elevator while making a phone call.

"Hello! Rara, I know why Victor is single." Riley squinted her eyes and said.

"Why? Tell me!" Myra's excited voice sounded from the other end of the phone.

"Victor is waiting for the woman he loves!" Riley sounded really jealous.

"What? He's waiting for someone?" Myra clearly didn't believe it.

"Yes, Rara. I have never seen him so happy." Riley was a bit disappointed. Victor was such an outstanding man. If only she could marry him!

Riley recalled the first time she saw Victor. He was tall, handsome, and elegant, but he looked indifferent. His every move was fascinating.

He had her at hello. Gradually, her love for him became indescribably deep.

She was so caught up in her memories that she didn't pay attention to what Myra was saying.

Riley looked downcast as she recalled everything that had happened between her and Victor.

Victor was iridescent. He made her feel warm.

Victor walked out of the elevator and waited for Lucian to get his car. His shadow was long at sunset.

He put one of his hands in his pocket. His every move was casual and elegant.

He swept his deep gaze over his surroundings and suddenly saw a familiar figure.

His lips curled up slightly. Just as he was about to walk over, a motorcycle suddenly stopped in front of Eden.

Victor stopped in his tracks. His eyes were dark and deep. He saw Eden getting on Jasper's motorcycle and leaving.

The person who Eden had an appointment with was really Jasper.

Looking at the two people's backs, Victor felt extremely upset.

Chapter 105

Victor had a sudden feeling of being out of love. He felt empty inside and it made his whole body feel sick all over.

He took a deep breath and lowered his head. The temperature of the surrounding area seemed to drop. It was more like something inside him was about to burst out of its cocoon and shrank back in frustration.

The streets were crowded with people and cars. Car lights and neon lights brightened the night.

Victor was completely immersed in his own world. Everything around him had nothing to do with him.

That pair of unfathomable eyes was a bit chilling.

His sexy thin lips, which were slightly pursed, revealed a superior indifference and nobleness.

All of a sudden, Victor's cell phone rang. The harsh ringing of the phone saved him from disappointment.

"What's up!" The deep and cold voice was extremely magnetic.

"Victor, good news! You're going to be thrilled..." "Get to the point!" Victor, who was in a bad mood, roared.

"It's really boring to chat with you." Anson sounded disappointed. "Based on the DNA report, Ricky is your son."

Anson seemed to be happier than Victor, and his tone was so excited.

Victor, who was holding the phone, suddenly became excited.

The person who was originally lost was cheered up in an instant.

"Great!" Victor's low voice trembled.

"Anson, immediately investigate Eden's background. Don't tell anyone about Ricky's identity, not even Lucian and Adonis." Victor could not hide his excitement.

"Got it. Isn't there an old witch in your family? She has harmed you for years. You must protect your son!"

"Okay! Goodbye!" Victor hung up the phone.

The next moment, he saw Lucian's car.

He walked over gracefully and happily as he said with an evil smile, "Lucian, drive to the Szechuan restaurant in the square. Order the dishes and I'll be there soon."

Lucian looked at him curiously and asked, "You're not taking my car?" "No!" Victor threw the jacket into the car.

Lucian did not ask any more questions. He turned the steering wheel and left.

Victor was immersed in joy, and he clenched his fists slightly.

There was a cunning light in his deep and cold eyes. The smile on the corner of his lips changed from delightful to evil. "Woman, there is a price to pay for having my son."

What was the scariest thing? Man's determination.

He waited so earnestly for Eden to return. Eden would definitely come back to his side.

Finally, a light shone in his dark world.

Victor was too excited to calm down. He ran around Alwynn Group's building a few times. Until he was sweating and exhausted, he calmed down.

At this moment, Anson's words were still echoing in his mind. "Ricky is your son!"

"Ricky is your son!"

Such a sentence echoed in his ears more than a hundred times.

He, Victor, had a son.

"Haha!" Victor laughed happily. It was the first time in his life that he had laughed so heartily!

He went back to his office. After showering, he changed his clothes and went downstairs. He took a taxi and went straight to the square.

Eden and Jasper also came to this Szechuan Restaurant.

Both of them liked this Restaurant.

After ordering the dishes, the two chatted and waited.

Suddenly, Jasper's phone rang.

Chapter 106

Jasper looked at the caller ID and his face darkened slightly. When he looked at Eden, he said gently, "Eden, excuse me."

Eden smiled and nodded. "Go ahead!"

Jasper stood up. Under the soft orange light, he looked more charming.

Out of the door, Jasper picked up the phone and said, "Hello!" His tone was much more calm than usual.

"Mr. Joye, someone is investigating Miss Bleu!"

Jasper's face became gloomy in an instant.

"Who is it?"

"I don't know yet. We're working on it. Once I know it, I'll tell you immediately."

Jasper's handsome face was dark, and his voice was surprisingly cold. "Hide all her information, including her school and address. Never let anyone find out her previous identity." Jasper ordered and quickly hung up the phone.

He turned back and looked at the woman who was sitting by the window and smiling at him. Her gloomy face suddenly became soft.

"Eden, I won't let you leave me. No one can take you away!" He said in his heart.

She was the most attractive woman he had ever met. In his eyes, she was the most beautiful and talented woman in the world.

Her smile was always so clean and pure, and everything about her was so charming.

When she was working, she was serious and committed. Her every move made him feel comfortable.

She meant the whole world to him!

There was a gentle smile on his handsome face. He smiled gently at Eden and walked back.

Eden also looked at Jasper, who was walking towards her.

Lucian pushed open the door at this moment.

When he saw Eden, he suddenly understood the purpose of Victor.

It turned out that Eden was here.

He raised his eyes and found that booths were separated from each other by a screen.

There was a booth next to Eden.

Lucian curled his lips slightly and walked over slowly.

He lowered his head slightly so that Eden couldn't see him.

After sitting down, he took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Victor.

Victor, who was in the taxi, read this message with a charming smile.

They were indeed there!

"Since she is the mother of my child, she should behave herself."

"From now on, the only man sitting across from you will be me!"

Victor couldn't help thinking so in his heart.

This was the first time that he had the idea of marrying a woman. It was also because that woman was his Eden.

Victor looked out of the car window, and the orange sunset shone on his side face.

He looked rarely gentle. The corners of his mouth were raised, which made him more charming.

In the restaurant.

Jasper handed over a document to Eden and said, "Eden, look, I bought the shares for you. It's not much, but we can take our time. Under Antony's management, the Gienger family has lost a lot of money. We'll get another chance."

Eden took the document and read it. She smiled gratefully and said, "Jasper, thank you so much."
"Idiot! Don't talk nonsense. You should thank yourself. You've been working hard for seven years. No one knows this better than I do." Jasper's tone was somewhat reproachful as he looked at her.

Chapter 107

Eden looked at him and smiled sweetly, "Anyway, you and Abby have been helping me. That means a lot."

Eden generally would not hide her true feelings in front of Jasper and Abigail.

She was pure, kind, gentle, and understanding.

In a society where money was king, Jasper had seen too many women who admired vanity.

And Eden was different from those women.

It made Jasper feel that she was the one.

He knew what had happened to Eden. When Eden had decided to give birth to her children, he didn't stop her. Instead, he supported her and accompanied her.

Home had always been Eden's dream.

He always believed that what he had been striving for was the right direction.

The waiter served the dishes. There were four dishes and one soup, but the two of them were keen on the spicy crayfish.

Jasper smiled, picked up the tea on the table and took a sip. He looked at Eden and said with a smile,

"Eden, if you really want to thank me, can you treat me to dinner tomorrow night?"

Victor, who had just sat down, just heard this.

Eden smiled and raised her eyebrow. She said, "Jasper, I make slender income."

"Fine, then I'll treat you. You just have to eat with me!" Jasper glared at her. He knew that she didn't like owing him favors.

As soon as he thought of it, he felt unhappy!

He put the fish in her bowl.

He urged, "Hurry up. I'll take you to the house later. It's very nice. As long as you refurbish it, you can move in before Ricky starts school."

"Okay, but I have to go back to Gate City next week. Gia has a painting exhibition. Last time I lost the handkerchief she gave me. If she knew that, she would be very unhappy."

Eden suddenly thought of Victor's bloody face.

She sighed in her heart. She probably wouldn't be able to find it back.

Jasper smiled and said, "Let me go with you. Gia will definitely win the first place this time."

"I hope so! Kenny said that she had put in a lot of effort during this period of time. She paints in her room every day." Eden couldn't help but smile when she mentioned her daughter.

Eden stared at Jasper with her big clear eyes for a while and said, "Jasper, you should go back. You don't really want to stay in River City, do you?"

Jasper picked up a piece of fish. After he ate it, he said with a smile, "Eden, I've said it before. I'll be wherever you are. If you're in River City, I'll stay here!"

His words were calm but firm.

Eden was slightly stunned, and a strong sense of gratitude arose from the bottom of her heart. "Jasper, if you're staying for me, I'll blame myself.!"

They told each other everything. She had never given Jasper hope. She was a mother of three children, so she didn't want to slow him down.

Jasper understood what she meant and his heart ached. She had always been rejecting him. She didn't want to accept him.

He knew what she was worried about. He also knew what she was thinking.

But so what? She still rejected him.

Chapter 108

She looked weak and needed to be protected, but only he knew how strong she was.

Jasper looked down at Eden who was eating. He smiled slightly and said mockingly, "Eden, are you thinking too much? I stay here for work, not you. Who do you think you are?"

Eden looked up and ate while looking at his smiling eyes. It seemed that she wanted to see if what he said was true.

However, there was nothing but a smile in his eyes.

In the end, she nodded. Only then did she smile and say, "That's a relief!"

Jasper's hand paused as he picked up food. He looked at her and could not help but ask, "Eden, will I put a lot of pressure on you if I stay here?" His tone was serious, as if he was an injured little beast and his entire world was in darkness.

Even if he loved someone who didn't love him, he could still get a better version of himself in the end.

For Jasper, he was willingly giving to her.

Eden looked at him seriously. His eyes were crystal clear, allowing his inner feelings to come out naturally.

"Jasper, you know, I didn't mean that. Hurry up. We're going to check the house!"

Every time this issue came up, the atmosphere between the two of them became awkward.

Jasper's hand, which was holding the chopsticks, clenched slightly. After he released the chopsticks, his face also became a little softer. "Alright! Don't be anxious, the house is yours. No one is going to compete with you."

Eden,

She was speechless for a moment. Was she anxious?

She obviously ate very elegantly.

Eden joked, "Really? Don't you always like to compete with me for crawfish?"

As Eden spoke, she put on a pair of disposable gloves, looking as if she wanted to enjoy the food.

Jasper also quickly took the disposable gloves. He did not like to compete with her for food. He just enjoyed being with her.

Bullying her once in a while would make him happy for a long time.

Eden peeled a crawfish and put it in her mouth, saying, "Jasper, you're so rich and powerful, but I can only afford to buy you crawfish. Are you very depressed?"

"Yes!" Jasper forcibly peeled the shrimp shell and answered deliberately. However, the smile on the corner of his mouth was as warm as sunshine.

Eden could not help but smile when she saw how hard he was. "Tsk! Even a shell can make you work that hard?"

"Yes. This crawfish is quite big. I'm sure it tastes good!" Jasper said.

He finally shelled the crawfish, but handed her the meat.

"What are you doing?" Eden was slightly nervous when she saw the peeled crawfish in front of her!

It seemed that they were a couple in love.

However, this was the way Eden, Jasper and Abigail always got along.

"Hey! Are you being shy? I remember the sun didn't rise in the west today, did it?" Jasper teased, but looked at her with bright eyes.

Eden did not say anything else. She lowered her head and ate the meat.

"I'm not! I like that!"

"Haha!" Jasper looked at her cute face and suddenly couldn't help smiling.

He really loved spending time with her.

Chapter 109

The waiter had already served Victor the food, but he did not eat at all.

Lucian was eating elegantly. Occasionally, he would play with his phone, as if Victor, who was sitting across from him, was transparent.

Through the hollowed-out screen, Victor clearly saw what Eden and Jasper were doing. His face was gloomy.

It was as if someone had robbed his beloved treasure.

"Hurry up and eat! Anger is useless." Lucian said slowly.

Victor came to his senses and looked at Lucian calmly. What Lucian said reminded him. He smiled evilly and stood up elegantly. Then, he walked towards Eden.

Eden and Jasper were chatting happily.

Suddenly, a man came to Eden and she suddenly raised her head. Under the warm light, she saw Victor's perfect face and slight smile. His eyes were deep and dark. He raised the corner of his mouth slightly, adding to his charm and evilness.

"Mr. Alwynn!" There was a bit of surprise in Eden's voice. Why was he here?

"Eden, what a coincidence!" Victor said in a low voice. He glanced at Jasper out of the corner of his eye. When he saw that Jasper's face suddenly darkened, he felt a slight thrill of revenge.

However, Victor knew in his heart that it was because he called Eden by her name so intimately.

"Is Mr. Alwynn also here for dinner?" Eden asked with a polite smile.

Victor could see that her smile towards him was different from her smile towards Jasper.

She smiled at Jasper more sincerely.

At this thought, Victor's perfect lips curved into a cold smile.

She refused his invitation to go out with Jasper.

"Eden, we agreed to have dinner together. Why didn't you wait for me?" His tone was very calm, but it sounded meaningful!

He looked deeply into Eden's calm eyes. His unrestrained temperament was in full bloom.

Eden's eyes widened. When did she agree to have dinner with him?

Eden was about to say something, but Victor interrupted her, "Eden, sorry, I've been so busy that I just forgot it was supposed to be tomorrow night."

After Victor finished his words, he sat next to Eden elegantly and intimately.

The sofa was very long. After Victor sat down, the slender Eden looked small and delicate.

Seeing this, Jasper's eyes suddenly turned cold.

"Eden, he is..." Jasper said in a cold tone, looking at Victor with sharp eyes.

He knew that he was Victor, but he didn't know what Victor wanted from Eden.

Eden's face darkened slightly, and she kept a little distance from Victor.

Seeing this, Victor glanced at Eden's panic-stricken face without a trace.

Eden looked up at Jasper and introduced, "Jasper, this is Mr. Alwynn of Alwynn Group, Mr. Alwynn, this is Jasper Joye."

"Eden, I know him. He is the richest man in Gate City and the president of Joye Group. Nice to meet you, Mr. Joye!" Victor looked at Jasper with a smile in his deep dark eyes. But this smile was cold.

"Mr. Alwynn, nice to meet you!" Jasper held out his hand. His long fingers looked slightly fair under the light, as transparent as pure jade.

Victor unhurriedly reached out his well-defined hand and shook hands with Jasper gently with a smile.

Chapter 110

They looked at each other, but the same light shone in their eyes. It was arrogant and calm. It seemed that there were invisible sparks in the air.

Both of them seemed to be filled with rage!

The atmosphere instantly became oppressive and strange!

Victor took back his hand and looked at Eden with a deep gaze. He asked with a smile, "Eden, you seem to have a good relationship with Mr. Joye. Have you known each other for a long time?"

His tone was very relaxed, as if he had a closer relationship with Eden.

Eden's black and clear eyes were shining. She looked at Victor with confusion.

Why did Victor suddenly become so strange?

Eden looked calm on the surface, but she was sensitive, so she was on the alert.

Jasper was extremely angry with Victor's intimate tone. He elegantly glanced at Eden's expressionless face and suddenly looked at Victor, who was smiling.

He spoke in a deep voice before Eden, "Mr. Alwynn, Eden and I have known each other for a long time. She is my girlfriend!"

Jasper's words made Eden's and Victor's faces change greatly.

Eden looked at Jasper in shock.

Victor's face was full of anger and coldness.

His appearance made Jasper, who had always been calm, say that.

Victor suddenly felt that what he was a little impulsive. His impulsiveness helped Jasper.

But he couldn't control himself. After he knew that this woman was his son's mother, and she was very likely to be his Eden, he arrogantly believed that she could not have intimate relations with other men.

Jasper looked at Victor's face, and felt a tinge of revenge. No one could take Eden away from him.

Victor seldom approached women, and yet he was suddenly so concerned about Eden.

Any smart person could see that Eden was a dazzling jewel.

Jasper smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, my girlfriend is shy." After saying that, he looked meaningfully at the distance between the two of them.

Anger filled Jasper's heart. He knew that Victor was serious.

Eden looked at Jasper again, but Jasper was smiling and looking at Victor.

It seemed that he wouldn't let it go if Victor didn't stay away from her.

Though Jasper was gentle, compared with Victor, his aura was not weak at all.

The atmosphere seemed to be a little awkward. Even Lucian, who was sitting next door, suddenly became a little nervous.

Victor, the calm man, was really annoyed!

Victor raised his eyes slightly. His deep eyes were much more clear and bright, and he looked pleasant, which made Lucian a little surprised.

Victor said slowly, "Eden, so he is your boyfriend. I thought he was Ricky's..."

Victor deliberately stopped. He deliberately emphasized the word "boyfriend".

Of course, what he didn't say shocked Jasper.

Jasper was too impulsive. Ricky was a model of his company.

Now that he said this, wasn't it the same as telling Victor that Eden didn't have a husband?

Jasper was extremely annoyed!

What's done is done.

The two men met for the first time. Jasper had thought that he would win, but he was wrong.
