

Gluey Love 1151

Chapter 1151

"Ha-ha..." Brian smiled, "In order to save a girl, he almost died. Adonis, it seems that I have to give you an award when you wake up."

Lucian said, "Since we can't visit him, let's go back first. We'll come here tomorrow morning."

Brain raised his head to look at Victor and Lucian. Seeing the injuries on their faces, he was slightly stunned.

"I can understand that Adonis is impulsive. He has always been a careless person who will take up the cudgels for the injured party."

"But you two are the calmest among us. Why did you fight?"

The expression in Lucian's eyes changed as he said, "It's a long story. I'll send you a message to explain to you. Go back and have a rest."

Eden looked at Candace's nervous face and persuaded her, "Miss Aiken, Adonis is fine. Go back and sleep."

However, Candace looked at Eden with her big bright eyes wide open and shook her head, "Miss Bleu, you go back to rest. I'll stay with him here. I can't fall asleep even if I go back. I'll be more at ease if I stay here."

Speaking of which, she was strangely fated with these people.

The first time she saw Eden, she hit her with a car. The second time she saw Adonis, Adonis was injured in order to save her.

She couldn't explain such a strange destiny.

In addition, she always felt sorry for them.

Seeing that she insisted on staying, Eden was helpless. In fact, she was physically and mentally exhausted, and she only wanted to go back to have a good rest.

Candace insisted on staying, and they could do nothing about it.

When they returned to the hotel, it was well past midnight.

The injuries on Victor and Lucian's faces were not serious. They applied some medicine and went back to their own rooms.

After taking a shower, Eden changed fresh dressing for her wound and lay on the bed with a tired face.

Victor took a bath in another room. When he came out, he saw Eden lying on the bed.

Ever since she left the night market, she had not said anything to him.

He untied the bath towel, lay beside her with his upper body naked and hugged her from behind.

Eden was a little taken aback, but she didn't say a word. He had just taken a shower and there was a slight chill in the air.

The icy cool feeling made her very comfortable.

Eden closed her eyes comfortably and did not say anything.

She was very tired. Maybe it was because she had been influenced by Melissa. In fact, what Melissa had said affected her mood indeed.

Melissa wanted to get Victor so stubbornly. How much did she love him?

To Melissa, how important was Victor in her heart? Eden didn't dare to think about it.

"Eden." Victor's gentle voice came from behind her.

"Mm." Eden replied in a low voice. Her voice was a little gloomy and she did not say anything else.

Victor raised his eyebrows and used some strength, forcing Eden to look at him.

Eden opened her eyes. When she saw his distressed eyes, she looked away calmly and then curled up in his arms like a lovely kitten.

Compared to a few months ago, she could feel that his temperament had changed a lot.

At this time, his eyes were sharper and colder than before, and he looked extremely indifferent. Even she was a little scared, but she felt more distressed for him.

Eden raised her hand unconsciously and stroked his handsome face gently. Her eyes were tender, and such tenderness was special for her.

"Eden, are you angry?" He asked in a low voice, rubbing the wound on her forehead with his slender fingers lightly. She had changed fresh dressing for her wound on her own. He went to another room to take a bath, because he wanted come back early to change the dressing for her.

Eden opened her eyes slowly again and blinked, "I'm not angry. I'm just in a complicated mood. In this world, people will encounter all kinds of troubles, sadness, worry and happiness. Sometimes, people's hearts are like glass. Once it is hurt, it will break into pieces and people will feel painful. This is how I feel right now."

Victor held her more tightly, kissed her hair and whispered in her ear, "Honey, I know what you are thinking. We don't want such a thing to happen, but we have to accept it. We have to face someone we don't like."

"I will deal with this matter. You don't have to worry about it. I don't want you to worry about gains and losses. I am so sad to see you unhappy."

Eden sighed helplessly, "When I saw how stubborn Melissa was, I felt distressed. But when you were not by my side, I felt very sad and grieved as well. To me, the days without you were dark. I seemed to be in the depth of despair everyday, and I couldn't drag myself out of the morass. I was painful and I wanted to find you, but I didn't know where you were."

"Victor, why do we have to bridge over so many difficulties?"

Her tone was very depressed. Various of bad things had happened to them.

Victor's heart ached severely when he heard Eden's question.

He didn't know why they had to suffer so many hardships.

"Eden, no matter how many difficult barriers we have to cross, as long as we love each other, it is enough." As long as they loved each other, nothing could stop them.

Eden smiled and nodded, "I'm sleepy."

Victor didn't want her to sleep. Seeing that she was really sleepy, he didn't bother her and let her sleep.

However, he couldn't fall asleep.

It seemed that Melissa wouldn't give up so easily.

Those who were pitiful must have a cause for having sunk to their lows. He didn't sympathize with Melissa or feel pity for her at all.

He would only give his great tenderness and love to Eden, and he would not love anyone else.

He knew what Eden wanted.

Coffee, fruit sauce and bread was sweet, and their life was sweet as well.

They were soul mates. No matter where they were, they could live in happiness.

Victor smiled gently and kissed Eden's red lips. The atmosphere in the room was warm, as if there were only the two of them in the world.

The next morning, what had happened in the night market was fully reported in the media.

Everyone gossiped that Melissa didn't care about the image of her father's company and tried to take away someone else's husband on the street.

All of a sudden, Melissa became a hot topic in the city. A lot of people scolded her online and the Internet almost paralyzed.

Victor and Lucian had guessed such a result.

After Eden had an anti-inflammatory injection early in the morning, they had breakfast together in the hall. Lucian put down the chopsticks and looked at Victor, "In this way, we don't have to meet Carney anymore. He will come to see us."

Victor nodded.

At this moment, the phone suddenly rang.

Lucian stood up to answer it.

"Hello?"

"Mr. Ronen, Mr. Craig wants to meet Mr. Alwynn now." The receptionist said in a sweet voice.

Chapter 1152

Lucian said, "Tell him to come to the top floor."

Hanging up the phone, he glanced at Victor and said in a cold voice, "Carney has come here."

Victor nodded blandly. Carney came just at the right moment.

He looked at Eden and smiled gently, "Eden, you and Amelia go back to your rooms to rest. We'll go to the hospital after I talk with Mr. Craig."

"Okay!" Eden and Amelia stood up and went back to their rooms to rest.

Victor, Lucian and Brian went to the reception room. Lucian prepared superior Puer Tea.

The reception room was very big, and it was a very comfortable establishment. It was not luxurious, but it would not demean Victor. It was of an artistic European style.

Victor entertain guests here when he came here on a business trip every year.

A few minutes later, Carney came to the reception room with his assistant.

Carney was dressed in a suit. He was just 50 years old, but he looked quite young. He had a square face, thick eyebrows and big eyes. There was shrewdness that only belonged to businessmen in his sharp eyes, and his every move was commanding.

Judging from his appearance, they felt that he was an upright man.

Before Carney came in, Victor had read the information Brian gave him.

Carney was 50 years old this year. He inherited his family business and became the richest businessman in C Country in ten years. His power and strength could not be underestimated.

A successful man had his own goals and pursuit. He had a certain sense of responsibility, and he could take on his own responsibilities for his career, family and children.

Seeing Carney, Victor was not stressed at all.

He stood up and introduced himself in a bland tone, "Mr. Craig, I am Victor. They are my friends, Lucian and Brian."

Carney looked at the three of them and smiled. Then he sat opposite them with his assistant.

Brian squinted at Carney. What a wily old fox! He could even smile at this time. Ha-ha... No wonder he was a successful and experienced businessman.

Carney looked at Victor up and down with shrewd eyes. Before he came here, he had investigated Victor thoroughly.

In the business world, Victor was definitely an excellent and powerful opponent. In terms of love, many women were crazy about him.

He was so outstanding. No wonder Melissa was so obsessed with him.

Carney smiled again, as if the rumour had no effect on him at all.

"Mr. Alwynn, I've heard a lot about you. My daughter had hidden you for half a year, but I didn't even notice it. I'm so sorry for what she did. Please let me apologize to you on her behalf."

"She has been spoiled by me since she was a child, and she thinks that she can get what she wants. That is why she is so domineering and overbearing." His voice was sonorous and powerful, and it was pleasant to hear.

He looked proud and noble, as if he was born to be superior to others.

However, he was not as imposing as Victor. Victor was born to be at the top of the social pyramid.

Victor did not speak. Carney apologized to him so easily, and he knew that it was just a mere formality.

What he was going to say was the highlight.

When Victor was thinking like this, Carney said in a deeper voice, "Mr. Alwynn, my daughter is so infatuated with you. Aren't you touched at all? Or do you think that she is not good enough for you?"

Carney emphasized the last few words, and his eyes were extremely sharp and shrewd, as if Victor was his prey.

Victor still sat there calmly. It was said that a good-tempered rich man who had a lot of free time was the greatest.

However, Victor was different. He was a bad-tempered great man who had no time.

"Mr. Craig, your daughter is very outstanding. I don't deserve to be with her. What's more, I have my wife and children. If I fail to live up to them, you will think that I am a jerk. I am very grateful to Miss Craig because she saved my life, but I will never promise to marry her. I love my wife very much, and I will never break up with her."

Victor said calmly and steadily. He spoke slowly, but his voice was clear and penetrating.

Carney looked at Victor who remained calm. His courage and ability were admirable.

He knew that Eden was a very capable designer. The summer collection of Alwynn Group completely suppressed the development of their company.

Carney narrowed his sharp eyes slightly. A successful businessman loved his wife so much, which was very rare in this world. Their love was enviable, and they even had three smart children.

He knew exactly how hot-tempered and wilful Melissa was. Victor was good enough for her, but she didn't deserve to be with Victor.

"So how do you want to repay her for saving your life?"

Carney asked blandly with a cunning expression in his eyes.

Victor's dark eyes suddenly turned deep and treacherous. He picked up the tea, took a sip and lowered his head slightly, as if he didn't hear Carney's question.

Carney was not in a hurry and didn't urge Victor.

He knew that Victor was famous for his ruthlessness in the business world.

Everyone in the upper class knew Victor.

In A Country, his social status was high and his family background was first-class.

It was understandable that Victor was proud. Carney had experienced a lot, and he admired Victor quite much. He set up his business by illegal fundraising.

But Victor became so successful by his abilities, wisdom and hard work.

Every rich young man was envious and jealous of him.

After a long while, Victor slowly looked up at Carney, "Mr. Craig, give me a few more days, and I will give you a satisfactory answer. As for Miss Craig, I hope that she will not bother me anymore."

Eden minded Melissa's affection towards him very much. Last night, she didn't sleep soundly, which made him feel distressed.

"Okay!" Carney nodded patiently, "By the way, I will hold a party personally tonight. Mr. Alwynn, Mr. Ronen, Mr. Spielberg, come to the party together."

After Carney finished his words, his assistant immediately handed over several expensive and noble invitations to them.

Lucian took it and placed it on the table.

Carney got up, and then they got up as well.

"Mr. Alwynn, I'll wait for your reply." Carney smiled cunningly.

Victor saw his expression clearly, but he did not say much. He nodded slightly, "Goodbye, Mr. Craig."

Carney arranged his suit, glanced at Victor with brooding eyes and left with his assistant.

Brian felt a tightness in the chest and pulled his tie. He was an instinctive detective, and this kind of occasion was really not suitable for him.

Lucian looked at Victor, "Will you attend the party tonight? He may have a conspiracy."

Chapter 1153

The expression in Victor's eyes changed slightly as he smiled wickedly, "Of course! All of us will go there. Let Amelia dress up well. Brian, remember to bring a female companion with you."

"Should I go with you?" Brian looked as if he didn't want to attend the party.

He wouldn't feel at ease at a party, but he would feel comfortable when he sat in front of the computer.

Victor replied, "Yes!"

Brian looked reluctant, "Why should I go there since he has a conspiracy? Who'll save you if you're in danger?"

Victor smiled weirdly, "Can't you guess what Carney wants to do? Make an appointment with the top makeup artists for Amelia and Eden. Carney thinks that his daughter and family background are very outstanding. You'll be impressed by what you see tonight."

Brian was speechless. That was none of his business.

He just wanted to get paid and live a stable life.

These social interactions had nothing to do with him.

"I'm going to... take care of Adonis." Brian made an excuse immediately.

Adonis got injured at the right time.

Brain always made all sorts of excuses, which made Victor very helpless.

"I'll ask a nurse maid to look after him. You don't have to go there."

Brian said, "Can the nurse maid be as careful as me?" Brian smiled. He was just an employee and he was not suitable to attend a party.

Victor glanced at him with his eyes full of disdain, "Can you take care of him? You can't even take good care of yourself."

Brian lowered his head slightly and puckered his mouth, "Why do you have to make it so clear?"

It seemed that he had no way to refuse Victor.

"Fine! I'll bring a female companion and go to the party." Brian narrowed his eyes slightly. He only needed to go there to eat something and play for a while, didn't he? That was not a big deal.

Only then did Victor feel better.

"Let's go to the hospital to see Adonis. We can dress up after three o'clock in the afternoon." Victor walked to the room to call Eden.

They went to the hospital. Adonis had woken up, and he was not infected. He had been transferred to a general ward.

Candace had been staying with him.

When Adonis opened his eyes and saw Candace, he felt very grateful.

Adonis was living in VIP ward, and the environment was very comfortable.

The winds came down with the scents of the lily on the table, and steam came out of a humidifier.

Adonis smiled and looked at Candace's worried face.

She didn't sleep last night, and she was too nervous. At the moment, she looked very haggard. Her face was drained of all colour and animation, and her eyes were listless, and her lips were dry and pale.

"Didn't you sleep all night?" Adonis's voice was somewhat hoarse. He was a little moved.

Candace nodded and forced a faint smile, "Do you feel better now? Your friend hired a nurse maid for you, but I refused. I will take care of you in person." He saved her life, and she should take care of him.

Adonis grinned, "You're not my girlfriend, and you can't wipe my body for me. How can you take care of me?"

"I..." Candace blushed a little, and she didn't know how to answer this question. She only thought about taking care of him and ignored this matter.

"It's... okay. I will look after you, but you can move your hands and feet. You can wipe your body on your own." Candace explained with a red face. Her pale face suddenly turned red, and she looked so adorable.

She seemed to be afraid of communicating with strangers. When she spoke, she didn't dare to look into his eyes.

Looking at her like this, Adonis really doubted if she could have a job.

She was like a little girl who stayed at home and didn't dare to go out.

But it didn't seem to be the case.

However, she insisted on staying here, so he did not refuse.

"Alright, you can look after me here. We can talk, and I won't feel bored."

As soon as Adonis finished speaking, Victor and the others came in.

Candace immediately got up and moved aside, for fear of affecting them.

Seeing that Candace was still here, Eden was really surprised.

Candace was quite kindhearted and righteous. Adonis got hurt because of her, and she did not shirk her responsibility.

Brian glanced at Adonis who had woken up and said with a playful smile, "Adonis, you did a nice thing! You saved her."

Adonis looked at them blandly.

"How heartless you are. None of you stayed here to take care of me, and she stayed up late here alone." After saying this, Adonis glanced at Candace who was standing in a corner, and he frowned slightly.

Lucian stood aside. The sleeves of his shirt were half rolled up. Sunshine flooded in through the window and shone on him. He was like a male character in a comic.

Amelia stood next to him. Seeing him like this, she couldn't help but smile. She was really fascinated by this man.

Lucian said in a bland voice, "The doctor asked us to go back. We couldn't visit you last night, so we'd better go back to rest. We're here to take care of you today."

"Ha-ha..." Adonis laughed mockingly, "Do you take care of me by hiring a nurse maid for me?"

Could a nurse maid take good care of him?

In that case, he would feel depressed all day long.

He had to stay with someone who could talk to him.

He was not afraid of anything except for living in the hospital.

Lucian glanced at him who was in good spirits, "Do you think we're very idle?"

Adonis looked unhappy, "No matter how busy you are, you should take care me. I'm a patient."

Victor said, "How affected you are!"

"Ahem..." Adonis got choked.

"Victor, how can you say so? I am injured now. You should take good care of me. Otherwise, my mother will definitely nag you when you go back."

Victor said, "So we didn't tell Aunt Church about your injury."

Adonis was speechless. They were simply too cunning.

Knowing that his mother was not a person to be trifled with, they did not dare to tell his mother about his injury.

Well...

His mother had a sharp tongue but a tender heart. She was on good terms with their mothers, and no one hated her.

Adonis glanced at Victor, "If my mother knew about it, she would come here last night, and she would have nagged you."

"Well..." Candace said in a low voice, "I... can take care of Mr. Church. He got hurt because of me. I have time, so I will look after him."

She shouldn't have said this, but she couldn't help but speak because she was afraid that they would quarrel with each other.

Eden glanced at her. Seeing that she had a pale face, she said, "Miss Aiken, you haven't slept all night. Why don't you go back and have a rest? You can change your clothes and come here at night. We'll stay with him in the afternoon."

Candace glanced at herself and found that her dress was wrinkled, and it was stained with Adonis's blood. She looked awkward indeed.

She looked at Eden gratefully. In fact, she had a good impression of Eden, "Miss Bleu, I'll be back in two hours. My house is quite close to here. I'll come back after I change my clothes."

After that, she glanced at Adonis.

Adonis looked at her. She smiled at him brightly, "Mr. Church, have a good rest."

Chapter 1154

After saying that, Candace left the ward in a hurry.

Brian was speechless. Why was she so timid?

"Hey, Adonis, what's wrong with her? Why is she so shy?"

Adonis glanced at him, "She's simple and innocent. You know nothing. It's hard to meet such a pure girl like her in this society."

"Ha-ha..." Brian laughed, "I still like sexy women, just like Abigail." He liked that kind of charming, sexy, beautiful and well-shaped women.

Eden and Amelia looked at each other. They were not sexy, but Victor and Lucian liked them.

Adonis was rendered speechless. Since Brain said so, why didn't he have a sexy girlfriend?

He had been single for many years.

Lucian looked at him, "Has the doctor come here?"

Adonis nodded. He had lingering fear when he thought that he almost died yesterday.

"The doctor said that I was not seriously injured. As long as I can rest well, I will recover slowly and I won't die."

Victor said, "Have a good rest in the hospital and don't drink these days. We may have to go back in a few days. Take this chance and rest well. I will ask other people to deal with the affairs in the company."

"Ha-ha..." Hearing this, Adonis was really happy, "Victor, after we set up the company, we can only have a break on Spring Festival, and we really don't have much time to rest in ordinary times. We even have to work on weekends. It seems that I can really have a good rest this time."

Victor looked at him blandly, "If you don't work hard, you won't be able to keep up to date. Only when you have nothing will you try your best to work."

"Although you have been very tired in the past few years, you have earned much more money than others. Do you dare to say that your family could become so rich without me?"

"Ha-ha..." Adonis smiled and did not deny it.

"Go and do your own things. If all of you are idle, who will make money? Living in the hospital cost a lot everyday."

Everyone was helpless.

"Ha-ha..." Eden smiled, "Adonis, even if you are short of money, you can rest for a few days. No matter how miserable a person is, he will be treated sincerely. You'd better have a good rest now. I think Miss Aiken is a good girl. She is gentle and considerate."

Adonis was delighted, and his smile was brighter than the sunshine, "Eden, I feel that there will be good news when I hear your words. You are the president of Alwynn Group, and you have to get my medical expenses paid."

Eden smiled and nodded. They were relieved to see Adonis in high spirits.

"Alright, I'll get the expenses paid." Eden agreed with a smile.

Compared with the money they could earn, his medical expenses were not worth mentioning.

"Eden, you're the best." Adonis looked at Eden with a smile. Although he was injured, he was very satisfied with her comfort.

"Ha-ha..." Eden grinned and glanced at Victor.

Victor looked at her and smiled softly.

Eden saw deep affection and appreciation in his eyes.

She remembered that when she woke up in the morning, Victor said, "Eden, I haven't seen you for a few months. You have changed a lot, and your temperament is different."

When she heard these words, she was slightly stunned.

Has she changed?

She felt that she was still the same.

However, when she washed up in the bathroom, she looked at herself in the mirror and found that she had changed indeed. In the past, she always looked gentle, but she had become maturer and colder. At that time, she finally admitted her changes.

Everyone said that she had changed, but no one asked what she had gone through.

Since she was six years old, her life had never been smooth. At this time, she no longer complained. She would only work harder and become a better person.

Only after working hard did she know that what people needed was not much. As long as she could live healthy and love sincerely, she owned a kind of wealth that others could not have.

Candace came back on time. Two hours later, she arrived at the ward with some daily necessities and the porridge she had cooked.

Adonis watched her come in with several bags in hands. It was very hot outside, and her forehead was covered with a layer of sweat.

He frowned and looked at her, "It's so hot. Why do you have to take so many things with you?"

Candace looked at him and smiled, "These are things that you will use in the hospital. I have brought them all. I asked my family to cook some porridge for you. Drink it when it's no longer hot."

After changing her clothes, Candace put on a simple makeup and looked more energetic.

"Thank you." Adonis smiled happily. She looked clumsy, but very warm.

Candace grinned and didn't say anything.

Amelia whispered in Eden's ear, "Eden, I feel that they are a good match."

Eden nodded with a smile and didn't speak.

Victor looked at the time and then glanced at Adonis, "There's a party tonight. We have to go there now."

Then he looked at Candace, "Miss Aiken, thank you for taking care of Adonis here."

Candace shook her head with a smile, "This is what I should do. However, are you going to attend Mr. Craig's private party?"

Victor nodded.

"Oh! I know it. It will be held in the hanging garden in Dragon Hotel. That is a nice place. It is the most luxurious hotel here, and it belongs to Mr. Craig."

Saying this, Candace took out a room card and handed it to Eden.

"Miss Bleu, you can enter the lounge in the hotel by this. I'm a VIP customer there, but I've never been there. Why don't you enjoy the service on my behalf this time?"

Eden smiled, took the card with both hands and said, "Thank you, Miss Aiken!"

It seemed that Candace wasn't an ordinary person.

After they left, Lucian took them to a beauty salon for make-up.

Brian went to pick up his female companion.

Eden and Amelia went to a top luxury store to pick out dresses.

The manager knew that the people who came here were either rich or noble. She received Eden and Amelia personally and introduced the dresses to them enthusiastically.

Amelia looked at the beautiful dresses with her eyes full of excitement. She had worn evening dresses before, but they were not as noble and luxurious as the dresses here.

Eden took fancy to a black dress. The style was simple and generous, and she liked such elegant design all the time.

"Amelia, I want this one. I'll try it on. You can continue to choose the one you like."

"Okay!" Amelia smiled. After picking out carefully for a while, she chose a white dress and went to the fitting room.

A few minutes later, Eden and Amelia came out together.

Victor and Lucian happened to come here. Looking at Eden and Amelia in the dresses, they held their breath.

Victor stared at Eden, and Lucian fixed his eyes on Amelia.

Eden looked at herself in the mirror. The black dress set off her fair skin, making her so charming.

Chapter 1155

The dress was backless, and her slightly curly soft hair covered her back. Her snow-white skin was partly hidden and partly visible. The close-fitting dress completely flattered her perfect figure and slim waist. Victor was completely obsessed with her.

There was a faint smile on Eden's delicate face. She curved her lips with satisfaction. She no longer looked innocent and tender in this dress. Instead, she looked elegant and mature.

Victor walked to her, held her slender waist and kissed her ear intimately. Then he whispered, "You're so beautiful. Why don't we go back?"

If she wore the eternal heart, she would be the most beautiful and eye-catching woman at the party.

Eden was stunned and then smiled. She glared at him coquettishly and looked at Amelia beside her.

The white dress was very suitable for Amelia. The collar was decorated with precious crystal, and the style was simple and elegant. The dress was short, exposing her slender legs. Her skin was crystal clear and fair. Wearing a pair of silver high heels, she looked perfect and gorgeous.

Lucian frowned slightly. Her beauty was holy and pure, but he asked, "Isn't the dress too short?"

Her dress left nothing to the imagination, and she looked pretty no matter what she wore.

She would be extremely charming if she dressed up.

Even such an ascetic man like him was obsessed with her, let alone other men... No, he was furious as long as he thought of the way other men would look at her.

Eden and Victor were speechless. Was the dress... short?

Amelia looked down at her dress. Then she glanced at Lucian with confusion, "It's not short. If it is longer, it will be ugly. I think it's just right." She liked this gown very much, and it suited her very well. This was the first time she had worn such an expensive gown.

She was even a bit shy in the dress.

However, Eden smiled and said, "Amelia, don't you know the implication of Lucian's words? He doesn't want you to dress like this."

Amelia was dumbfounded. Was there anything wrong with her dress?

Lucian glanced at Eden casually, "Eden, we're friends, but you expose me."

Eden grinned, "Amelia is your girlfriend now. The weather is hot, and she will feel suffocated if you ask her to wear too much. Moreover, since she is so pretty, she shouldn't camouflage her nice shape."

Lucian said, "Alright, just wear this one."

Amelia pursed her lips, but she was quite happy because he cared about her so much.

She smiled faintly, and her pink lips looked so attractive.

Lucian lowered his head and chuckled. He felt that he had truly changed. He had become more overbearing.

When he was in college, some girls wore sexy clothes and walked past him, and they were even sexier than Amelia, but he didn't have any special feelings.

Amelia was his girlfriend. Seeing her dress like this, he wanted to hide her.

Victor paid the bill and said, "Let's go."

He held Eden's hand and walked out.

Lucian held Amelia's hand, and they went out as well.

Seeing that her high heels were higher than usual, he frowned and asked, "Are you comfortable wearing the shoes?"

Amelia said, "Even if I don't feel comfortable, I have to wear it. Women can do anything to be beautiful."

Lucian was speechless. Staying beautiful was really suffering.

When they gathered under Dragon Hotel, it was getting dark.

Brian brought a sexy woman in red. She put on heavy makeup and looked bewitching. Her features were strongly defined and perfect. The red dress set off her charm, and she was very charismatic. The dress was slit to the thigh, and she looked incredibly sexy.

Seeing her, Eden knew that she was Brian's type.

Victor and Lucian were stunned. They didn't expect that Brian would like such a hot woman.

Brian introduced her with a smile, "This is my friend, Chloe Craig."

Chloe looked at them and smiled charmingly, "Nice to meet you."

They nodded with a smile.

After getting to know each other, they went to the party together.

As Candace had said, the party was held in a luxurious hanging garden. As soon as they walked in, they felt the hot atmosphere.

Beside the swimming pool, young men and women were dancing in sexy dresses. Rock music livened things up.

Eden frowned slightly. She was not used to such a noisy environment.

Along the way, those people cheered and danced, and the atmosphere was lively and noisy.

None of Lucian, Victor, and Amelia and Eden liked such a party.

Lucian said, "Mr. Craig is really different from ordinary people."

As soon as Lucian finished speaking, the crowd suddenly became quiet.

"Yo! Mr. Alwynn, you're here." Carney said in a slightly deep voice with a smile.

Victor looked up and saw Carney and Melissa walking towards them side by side.

Many people knew Victor because of what Melissa had done that night.

Holding red wine in their hands, they stood aside and watched the show.

Some whispered about the relationship between Victor and Melissa.

Melissa was dressed up that night. Eden liked simple and graceful styles, while she liked luxurious and eye-catching princess dresses. Her red princess dress was short and bell-shaped, trimming with lace.

At first glance, Eden thought she had seen a red swan.

Meanwhile, Melissa stared at Victor all the time.

It was hot, so he didn't wear a jacket. Dressed in a white shirt and black trousers, he looked as noble as ever, neat and charming.

He held Eden's hand. He had always been indifferent to her, but his eyes were filled with tenderness when he looked at Eden.

"Hello, Mr. Craig." Victor said apathetically.

He held Eden's hand more tightly. That night, he would stay with Eden all the time.

Carney smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, let's go there and have a talk. Let young people play here."

Victor nodded, held Eden's hand and walked forward.

Only then did Carney notice Eden. She looked more attractive than in the photo. No wonder Victor loved her so much.

"Mr. Alwynn, she must be Mrs. Alwynn."

Hearing the word "Mrs. Alwynn", Melissa look at Carney with displeasure.

"Dad!" She said angrily.

Carney glanced at her helplessly. Compared with Eden, he felt that Melissa was much inferior.

When Melissa decided to chase after Victor, she had lost. She pursued her love bravely, which was not something wrong. But she shouldn't have fallen in love with someone who would never love her.

Caleb was a nice man. But the relationship between their families had been ruined by Melissa.

All the celebrities and famous businessmen in this city would attend the party, so he didn't want to embarrass anyone.

Victor introduced Eden solemnly, "Mr. Craig, this is my wife, Eden."

Chapter 1156

Carney smiled, "Mrs. Alwynn, I've heard a lot about you. In the past one year, I often heard about your design. Your design is the most popular and fashionable nowadays."

Eden smiled faintly. Her smile was elegant, and her expression was calm and her every move was so steady, "Nice to meet you, Mr. Craig. I heard my aunt mention you before."

"Who is your aunt?" Carney looked at her doubtfully.

Eden smiled, "You know her, too."

Eden didn't make it clear, but she knew that Carney would not get to the bottom of it.

Melissa didn't like her aunt. Mentioning her name would only make Melissa hate her more.

As expected, Eden did not finish her words, and Carney did not ask further.

Eden's beauty was unique. Her appearance attracted the attention of all the guests.

She dressed up in a simple way. Her dress was not the most eye-catching, but she was the most appealing.

Her faint smile was very pleasant to the eye.

The surrounding guests whispered to each other, "Mrs. Alwynn is even prettier than in the photos online. Melissa has lost to her."

"Of course. She keeps a low profile, but Melissa has been arrogant and wilful. I thought she would marry Caleb and hold a grand wedding, but she betrayed him and fell in love with a married man. Now she can't even marry into the Arogon family."

"Ha-ha... It's her own fault. She asked for it."

"Yeah, look at her. She has been looking at Victor with infatuation. Victor deserves to be the most handsome man in River City. If I can have something to do with him, I will be as crazy as Melissa."

"Tut-tut, you are a real lady in ordinary times, but you become a man crazy when you see a handsome man. It seemed that I've underestimated you."

"Humph, I just said it casually."

Their voices were neither loud nor low, and Melissa could hear them clearly. With fierce and vicious eyes, she glanced at those women who were speaking ill of her.

They immediately shut up, but they didn't leave. Instead, they looked at Melissa and smiled maliciously.

Melissa naturally knew how thick-skinned they were. Most of them were brought here by men as their temporary female companions. Some of them were here to hunt for rich men. Once they left here, no one would remember who they were.

Carney's face darkened a little. He glanced at Eden, "Mrs. Alwynn, why don't you chat with your friends here? I'm going to play cards with Mr. Alwynn. You may feel bored if you go with us."

When Eden heard this, she knew that Carney wanted to send her away deliberately.

She gave Victor a reassuring look.

Victor was worried about her. He looked up and wanted to refuse Carney.

However, Eden spoke first, "Victor, go ahead. Amelia and Chloe are here with me. You don't have to worry."

Looking at her with brooding eyes, Victor bit back what he would like to have said.

He reached out, stroked her red lips with slender finger and whispered to her in a gentle tone, "Enjoy yourself and be careful."

"Okay!" Eden smiled lightly. Victor's eyes grew darker and he let her go reluctantly.

Victor's actions were extremely ambiguous. He seemed to be using his actions to tell everyone that Eden only belonged to him.

Everyone was envious and admired their love.

Seeing this, Melissa was so mad that her face turned livid.

She had been prepared, and Victor wouldn't be able to escape from here. She not only wanted to get Victor, but also wanted to ruin Eden.

Victor, Lucian and Brian left with Carney after reminding Eden, Amelia and Chloe.

Even Melissa left with them.

Before leaving, she glanced at Eden provocatively.

Eden did not care. She believed that Victor would be more vigilant and would not fall into their trap easily.

Moreover, people gathered here were all famous and noble in the upper class. How could the Craig family disgrace themselves?

"Let's go over there. I've been here before. There is a garden, a swimming pool and delicacies there, and there are not so many people. We'll feel more comfortable."

Chloe looked at Eden and Amelia and said.

Amelia couldn't help asking, "Miss Craig, your surname is Craig. Do you have anything to do with the Craig family?" She would rather be more careful than be framed.

Chloe crossed her arms slightly, looking more charismatic. She smiled and said, "Miss Macdonald, my surname is Craig, but I have nothing to do with the Craig family in this city. I'm from River City, and I just work here. We're from the same city."

Hearing her words, Amelia relaxed her vigilance, "Since we're all from River City, you don't have to be polite. Just call me by my name."

"Just call me Eden." Eden said with a smile.

Chloe said, "Then I won't stand on ceremony. You can treat me as your friend and call me by the name."

They became good friends after brief contact, and then walked toward the place that Chloe had mentioned.

Along the way, the waiters were busy. There was wine and snacks on the tables on both sides of the road, including many special food in this city. The guests could choose whatever they wanted to eat.

No matter which industry one worked in, as long as he could succeed and make great achievement, the door to his house would be crowded with visitors.

In this city, the Craig family was in the highest status.

There were so many guests, which was beyond Eden's imagination.

However, Eden suddenly felt that her father kept a low profile all the time. In fact, Zaiden's property was no less than that of the Craig family.

Zaiden started his real estate business in the early years, and he had owned countless houses and shops at this time.

However, he was not arrogant or impetuous, and he didn't spend extravagantly nor show off his wealth. He just lived the same life as ordinary people.

She preferred Zaiden's character and conduct.

The core of moral standing was integrity and magnanimity.

Zaiden and Wyatt were such people.

She was not in a close relationship with Ashton. Since Bethany had an accident, she had never seen him.

"Eden, do you want some snacks?" Amelia held a plate and took sushi and a strawberry cupcake.

Eden shook her head slightly, "No, Amelia, I want to eat shrimps."

Chloe said, "The shrimps are in the front. Those are imported Mediterranean red shrimps. They are very fresh."

"Oh!" Eden was interested when she heard that.

She liked shrimps.

They went forward happily.

Four or five women followed them secretly with malicious smiles on their faces.

The three of them took the food they liked and ate next to the swimming pool.

Just as Chloe had said, this place was a bit remote, and there were very few people here. Occasionally, a few people would pass by, but they would not stop. It was not noisy and very quiet.

"Wow! This red shrimp is really fresh and sweet." Eden ate one and praised it.

Chapter 1157

Chloe smiled and looked at the shrimps on her plate, "It seems that you really like shrimps. It's right to eat shrimps here at this season. The shrimps here are meaty, sweet and fresh."

Eden nodded with a smile. She wore disposable gloves and ate a few shrimps quickly. When she stayed with the people she knew, she would not eat in a graceful way. If she had to be restricted while eating, she wouldn't be able to stand such a life.

In front of Victor, she could do everything as she pleased. She was very happy because he humoured her a lot.

Although Eden was Victor's wife, she didn't put on airs, and she was gentle and easy-going, which made Chloe relaxed a lot.

Amelia ate the dessert with joy and kept smiling.

"Eden, you eat so much, but why do you never put on weight?"

Eden ate much, and she would have midnight snacks everyday, but she kept a good shape. Moreover, she had given birth to three children. In ordinary times, Amelia didn't eat much because she was afraid that she would grow fatter. Sometimes, she was very upset when she put on weight.

Other people wouldn't put on weight by eating three meals everyday, but she would. During the Spring Festival, she had nothing to do and studied recipes at home, so she became fatter. These days, she had a diet and had lost some weight.

Eden looked up at the dessert on her plate and smiled, "Amelia, I don't like sweet food, and I prefer white corn. In fact, it's easy for me to get fat, but I used to run and exercise every day. I train regularly on weekends, so I can be well-shaped all the time."

When she lived in Gate City with Jasper and Abby, she was fatter.

No matter how late Jasper got off work, he would buy delicious food for her. She couldn't help eating so much and put on weight.

Thinking of this, Eden suddenly remembered that Jasper was also here.

She stopped eating the shrimp.

Glancing at Amelia and Chloe, she said, "Have your meals here. I'll make a phone call."

Eden got up, walked aside and called Jasper.

It was relatively quiet in a luxurious hall.

The light music made people feel at ease.

Only the pungent smells of cigarettes, wine and perfume were unpleasant.

There were a few tables. Victor, Carney, Brian and a businessman were playing mahjong on one table.

The four of them sat round the table.

Every man had a female companion except for Lucian and Brian.

Sometimes, the waiters came here to pour tea for them.

Melissa sat very close to Victor. Victor sat there with no expression on his face, and his eyes were full of impatience. As soon as Melissa approached him, he moved away a little.

"Victor, drink some wine. The cocktail mixed by the bartender here is nice." Melissa handed a glass of cocktail to Victor.

Brian squinted at Melissa's movements and cursed Carney in heart. The reason why he sent Eden away was that he wanted to create a chance for Melissa.

Had the wine been drugged?

Victor couldn't have an accident again. If anything bad happened to him, Eden would die.

In the past few months, they had been worried about Eden. They were afraid that she would commit suicide in deep sorrow.

Victor acted as if he didn't hear Melissa's words. He held a tile in his hand and played with it.

He pursed his thin lips slightly and stared at the tile Carney had discarded. Then he discarded a bamboo tile and pushed all the tiles, "Mr. Craig, I win."

"Oh!" Carney smiled, narrowed his eyes and looked at Victor, "Mr. Alwynn, you're quite lucky. I haven't claimed a tile to win, but you have won for three times."

Carney paid the money. The winner could get ten of thousands of dollars, and Victor had won hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Brian sneered. Victor was lucky, and he was so good at playing mahjong. He could guess what tile the others would discard so correctly.

In this era, few young people liked to played mahjong.

They liked to play other games.

Only these old men liked playing mahjong.

Victor didn't say anything. With an indifferent expression, he leaned back elegantly.

The automatic mahjong machine began to shuffle the tiles, and Melissa put the wine back in front of herself. She was very embarrassed and looked unhappy.

Victor didn't even look at her.

He acted as if she didn't exist.

After the tiles were shuffled, Victor had a look of his tiles. He was about to win again.

He exhaled with depression, glanced at the watch on his wrist and felt a little worried. He didn't know if Eden had been bullied.

When she was not by his side, he was always worried about her.

The more Victor thought about it, the more irritated he became. Then he moved his uncomfortable body.

However, at this moment, Melissa approached him with the wine again.

When she called him by the name, Victor reached out to take a tile and the wine in her hand was knocked over. The wine was splashed on Victor's body.

The wine splattered on Victor's face and lips.

"Oh! Victor, I'm sorry. Are you okay?" Melissa took out a tissue and was about to wipe his clothes.

Victor immediately got up as if he had seen something dirty.

Melissa was stunned. She felt heartbroken as she looked at Victor.

"Miss Craig, except for my wife, I don't like any woman to touch me."

He said in a warning and ruthless tone.

Looking at the wine on Victor's face, Brian was somewhat worried. The skin on his face that had been spattered by wine was a little red.

"Bang!" Brian hit the table with a tile impulsively.

His movement attracted everyone's attention.

Victor glanced at him.

Carney's face was a bit gloomy. In this city, everyone had to show him respect. Brian was too arrogant.

"Melissa, what did you put in the wine?" Brian questioned her angrily.

Victor felt a burning sensation on his face. He felt that the wine was strange, but he didn't doubt Melissa.

The expression in Melissa's eyes changed a little. Looking at the empty wine glass, she was in a very bad mood.

"Nothing. It's just a glass of wine." Her tone was very harsh. Since the wine had been splashed, they would have no evidence to prove what she had done.

Victor glanced at her with no emotions in his brooding eyes.

He felt abnormally hot on face, and his eyes turned apathetic all of a sudden. The atmosphere in the hall became oppressive and tense, and everyone felt suffocated.

Melissa's heart skipped a beat. Victor looked so cold-blooded that she felt frightened in heart. She suddenly turned to look at Victor's furious face and couldn't help but take a step back.

Carney and the businessman were experienced, and they knew there was something wrong with the wine indeed.

Carney glanced at Melissa with disappointment. She was really out of head. She actually did such a thing and disgraced him a lot.

Lucian got up from another table and walked to Victor, "I'll send you back to change your clothes."

When they came here, they booked a room in case there would be an accident.

Brian said, "I'm going to find Chloe, Amelia and Eden."

Brian took a cold look at Carney, turned around and left without saying anything.

Chapter 1158

Brian walked to the door, but he didn't want to leave like this and turned back. Then he took away the wine glass in which there were a few drops of wine left.

Melissa's heart beat so wildly as she watched Brian's movements.

She couldn't help but look at Victor, only to see him glance at her with horrible and brooding eyes. In an instant, she felt that her heart beat faster, and she was totally panicked.

The atmosphere was terrifyingly oppressive, and Melissa couldn't stand it. She snorted angrily and walked outside.

Carney shook his head helplessly.

Lucian glanced at Carney, "Mr. Craig, we'll leave first."

Lucian picked up the bag and filled it with the money Victor had won. Without waiting for Carney to reply to him, he went out with Victor.

The businessman shook his head with disappointment, "I heard that Victor has made great achievements in the real estate industry in River City, and he has a close relationship with Mr. Calder. Originally, I wanted to take this opportunity to get to know him and lay a foundation for my development, but such an accident happened."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Carney and said earnestly, "Carney, you can't spoil your daughter like this. She will be taught a lesson sooner or later. I know you only have one daughter, and you give her whatever she wants, but you are not helping her. You're hurting her in this way. We all know what she has put in the wine. Once Victor drinks it, his family will be ruined."

After saying these words, the businessman stood up and left.

Carney had been sitting there quietly and did not speak.

His face darkened to the extreme, and he was very mad.

Melissa was indeed arrogant, but he didn't expect her to be so crazy.

Her mother passed away when she was young, and she got sick because of her mother's death. He always felt guilty, so he had been tolerant of her and allowed her to spend extravagantly.

Thinking of what Melissa had done these days, he was worried that she would suffer schizophrenia again.

He asked his assistant to greet the guests here, and then got up to look for Melissa.

Melissa walked out angrily. The swimming pool was in the area next to the hall, and Eden was there.

Eden came out to call Jasper. Jasper was still in this city.

Eden was very happy to hear that and kept chatting with Jasper.

They hadn't met each other after Eden had a car accident. Eden stayed with Victor these days and almost forgot Jasper. She felt very sorry for him, so she wanted to chat with him for longer.

Eden stood by the deep end of the swimming pool. Her nice shape was reflected in the clear water.

Jasper was in a bad mood these days. After finishing his work, he knew that Eden was in this city, so he had no intention to go back.

He had been waiting for her to call him, wondering if she would forget him because Victor had come back.

When he was about to give up, she suddenly called him.

Moreover, she was right in front of him.

Jasper leaned against the big tree and looked at Eden who was talking to him on the phone. He smiled tenderly, and the atmosphere was lovely.

"Jasper, let's talk when we meet. I've been out for a long while."

"Okay! Eden, have a good time." Jasper nodded with a smile and hung up the phone.

That night, Eden was really beautiful.

Jasper turned on the camera and focused it on Eden.

Eden hung up the phone. Just as she was about to turn around and leave, she bumped into Melissa coming the other way.

Melissa had stood behind Eden for quite a while. Hearing Eden talking on the phone happily, she was in a very bad mood. Why was Eden so happy but she felt so sad?

They both fell in love with Victor, but Victor didn't even want to look at her.

"Except for my wife, I don't like any woman to touch me."

Ha-ha...

What a nice excuse!

She did not believe that a man could be so loyal to a woman.

Eden's family background was not as good as hers, and Eden was no prettier than her.

What qualification did Eden have to win Victor's heart?

Her affection towards Victor was unrequited, and she couldn't get him no matter how hard she tried.

Eden stood still and didn't move. She knew that she would meet Melissa.

Although she didn't know why Carney sent her away, she knew she would definitely meet Melissa.

Melissa glanced behind her. As soon as Eden entered here, she had been watched by her friends.

"Eden, are you still unwilling to divorce Victor?"

Melissa approached Eden step by step and said in an aggressive tone.

Eden glanced at the swimming pool behind her and felt somewhat nervous.

She looked at Melissa with a smile in her eyes, but her expression was very indifferent, "Even if I divorce Victor and let him be with you, can you win his heart? Will he love you? Miss Craig, do you only want him to live with you?"

Just as Melissa was about to speak, Eden said again, "What's more, Victor won't divorce me, and I won't give him up. Miss Craig, you should let go of your love for him. If you are obsessed with the love you can't get, you will get hurt in the end."

"Ha-ha..." Melissa laughed sorrowfully. Eden was a little frightened when she saw her crazy expression.

Melissa looked into Eden's eyes. Her eyes were very beautiful, starry and bright, just like the shining stars.

Victor always liked to look at Eden's eyes when he talked to her. Her eyes were eloquent, and Melissa could see her love for Victor in her eyes.

She said word by word viciously, "Eden, since I can't get Victor, I would rather ruin you than let you live a happy life with him. I'm gambling my life on it. I will ruin you and let you be scolded by the whole world."

After Melissa finished speaking, she suddenly jumped into the swimming pool, which shocked Eden a lot.

"Bang..." The water was splashed on Eden's body, and she took a few steps back subconsciously.

"Miss..."

"Help! Eden wants to kill Melissa!"

Before Eden could call Melissa by the name, a woman screamed loudly behind her.

Once again, Eden realized that she had been framed by Melissa.

In this country, whoever wanted to murder someone would be sent to jail.

Eden couldn't help but recall the words Melissa had said before she jumped down. "I'm gambling my life on it. I will ruin you and let you be scolded by the whole world."

Yeah, Melissa jumped into the water and she had a witness. No matter how she explained, no one would believe her.

"Help... I can't swim!" Melissa struggled in the water painfully.

Melissa didn't know how to swim. She was afraid of water, and she didn't like water since she was a child. Only by doing this could she let Carney trust her.

When she jumped down, she suddenly thought of Carney, and she knew that Carney would not let Eden go.

Hearing Melissa's words, Eden came to sense.

The women behind her were still screaming in terror, "Eden has pushed Melissa into the water!"

Chapter 1159

There was no one around. Besides, those women only screamed and didn't come here to save Melissa.

Eden shook her head slightly. No matter how vicious Melissa was, she was a life. Although she didn't like Melissa, she couldn't stand by and watch her die.

She jumped into the water to save Melissa.

Seeing this, those women were so surprised and they immediately stopped screaming.

"Ahem..." Melissa was choked by water and her head was dizzy. She had no idea who was saving her.

At this time, she only wanted to go ashore immediately. She hated such a suffocating feeling.

Eden pulled her forcefully and swam towards the terrace.

Melissa was much heavier than her. She was thin, and it was hard for her to swim while dragging Melissa.

With great effort, Eden dragged Melissa to the terrace. She was exhausted and gasped for air.

She wiped the water from her face. Two security guards rushed over and drag Melissa together.

However, no one cared about Eden. Everyone gathered around Melissa.

Eden held the handrail and had a rest. Hearing that Melissa was fine, she was relieved. She rested for a while and got out of the swimming pool when she had enough strength.

She was drenched all over and felt extremely uncomfortable.

"Ahem..." Melissa kept coughing.

A lot of people asked her with great concern.

Brian had been looking for them, but he didn't see them in the hall. Instead, he heard a loud noise here. Then he heard someone yelling that Eden had pushed Melissa into the water. He had a nasty feeling and immediately rushed here.

"Eden, are you all right?" Brian looked nervously at Eden who was sitting on the ground feebly.

Eden shook her head slightly and wrung out the hem of her dress.

"I'm... fine." The temperatures were very different during the day and at night, and the water was cold. At this time, Eden felt so cold that she kept shivering.

Brian only wore a white shirt, and he could do nothing to make Eden feel warmer. He took out his phone and called Victor.

"We saw it with our own eyes. Eden pushed Melissa into the water. They had a quarrel next to the swimming pool. We don't know why, but Eden suddenly pushed Melissa into the water."

Seeing that more and more people gathered here, a woman pointed at Eden and said harshly.

Eden sneered in heart. Did she really see it with her own eyes?

It seemed that there was something wrong with her eyes, and her heart was too malicious. Even if she was a heartless woman, she couldn't watch Melissa die in front of her.

Everyone looked at Eden angrily. Eden and Melissa had been in a bad relationship because of Victor, and they all knew about it.

Melissa kept provoking Eden, so it was understandable that Eden would lose her mind and hurt Melissa.

"Woo..." At this moment, Melissa cried with grievances.

"Eden, I know that I shouldn't have fallen in love with Victor and you hate me, but you don't have to kill me." Melissa felt refreshed. Tears streamed down her face as she made a complaint against Eden.

Eden only sneered when she heard that. She did not say anything and did not defend herself.

After hanging up the phone, Brian heard Melissa's words and couldn't stand her anymore. He hated such a scheming woman very much, "Melissa, since it was Eden who pushed you into the water, why did she have to save you?"

Melissa was stunned. She pushed her way through the crowd and looked at Eden. Seeing that Eden was wet all over, she was shocked.

The person who had saved her was Eden.

Why didn't her friends save her?

"Maybe she regretted it after pushing me into the water. After all, she would be imprisoned if she murdered me." Melissa glared at Eden and said. She didn't expect Eden to save her.

Was Eden so kindhearted?

Wouldn't she be happy if she died?

Melissa couldn't swim, and she only wanted to ruin Eden by doing this.

"Ha-ha..." Eden sneered, slowly got up from the ground and looked at Melissa. Drips of water rolled down the hem of her dress.

She looked at Melissa carefully, "Melissa, since you dared to jump into the swimming pool, why don't you dare to jump off the building? Even if I am detained, I will be released soon. But I guess I will be imprisoned forever if you jump off the building."

"What do you mean? You were the one who pushed me into the swimming pool!" At this time, Melissa was not dizzy at all and listened to Eden's words carefully.

Eden pointed at the woman who screamed just now and asked, "You said that I pushed Melissa into the swimming pool after quarrelling with her. Then tell me. What did Melissa and I say?"

Hearing this, the woman glared at Eden, "How would I know what you were arguing about? Anyway, I saw you push Melissa with my own eyes."

The woman raised her head proudly and looked at Eden.

Eden smiled, "Providing false evidence will be punished in this country, right? There should be a security camera here. Whether I pushed Melissa or not, you will know it after you check the surveillance video."

The security guard glared at Eden fiercely, "The security camera is out of order. We haven't repaired it."

"Oh, what a coincidence! I fell into the water as well. Melissa pushed me down and I dragged her when I fell down." Eden said with a smile. She looked awkward, but she was extremely confident and said every word clearly and coldly.

Melissa was speechless.

Everyone was stunned.

Even Brian looked somewhat dumbfounded.

The woman was taken aback for a moment. Then she roared subconsciously, "Eden, it was you who pushed Melissa into the water!"

Eden looked at her and sneered. Her clear eyes suddenly turned indifferent as she shot the woman a harsh glance.

"Is that so? Did you really see it with your own eyes? You're with your friends. They didn't say anything, but you saw it alone. Tell me more about the details. How did I push her down?"

"It was Melissa..." The woman almost told the truth and immediately bit back the words she would like to have said, "No, it was you who pushed Melissa into the swimming pool."

"Eden, it's no use defending yourself. I have evidence and a witness. You were trying to murder me. I have to call the police." Melissa looked at Eden apathetically.

At this moment, her eyes were full of provocation as she looked at Eden.

"Oh, do you mean that she is the witness? You two are friends. Who knows if you two have colluded to frame me?"

Eden was not timid and cowardly. Although she didn't have evidence, she wouldn't allow anyone to frame her.

"What's going on?" Carney's serious voice was heard.

Melissa immediately burst into tears with grievances, "Dad, hurry up and call the police. Eden pushed me into the water. She wanted to kill me."

These days, the bad relationship between Eden and Melissa had provoked much discussion among people. Everyone would believe that it was Eden who pushed Melissa into the swimming pool.

Carney frowned and glanced at Eden, finding that her dress was also wet.

"Eden!" Victor squeezed through the crowd.

He and Lucian ran to Eden. Seeing that she was wet all over, Victor took off the thin coat he had just put on and wore it for her.

Chapter 1160

"What happened? Are you hurt?" Victor looked at her worriedly. After receiving Brian's phone call, he immediately rushed over. When he saw Eden stand in the crowd and shudder with cold, he wished that he could kill Melissa.

Eden shook her head slightly and smiled at him brightly, "I'm fine."

Seeing her like this, Victor felt more distressed. He endured his discomfort and had a check-up for her. When he was sure that there was no wound on her body, he was finally relieved.

"Victor, why don't you ask me if I'm all right? Eden wanted to kill me! You actually care about such a vicious woman so much." Melissa was so jealous and mad that she cried.

Victor glanced at her with malice and harshness.

Melissa was stunned. Seeing the terrifying look in Victor's eyes, she couldn't help but feel frightened.

She was afraid of him, but she loved him and didn't want to give up.

"Melissa, I have warned you not to go too far, but you hurt Eden again and again. Although you saved me, now I don't feel grateful anymore, and I won't show you any mercy." Victor said every word in an apathetic and penetrating voice, and everyone heard his words clearly.

Anyone who knew Victor knew that he was a man of his words, and he would really let Melissa pay the price.

Carney glanced at Victor with brooding eyes.

He had investigated Victor thoroughly and knew that he could do anything for Eden.

"Hey, Victor, you can't say that. When I came here to look for Eden, I received a phone call from my friend. She didn't save you. It was someone else who saved you. She bribed that person and then brought you here."

"She happened to pass by and see you being rescued. Then she took you here. We've found the one who saved you. She had hidden you for half a year, which was illegal imprisonment."

"What?" Eden was dealt a severe blow when she heard the news. She fell forward and almost sat on the ground.

In the past few months, she suffered every day and night because of Melissa, the selfish woman.

She almost couldn't hold on and once thought about dying together with Victor.

"Eden." Victor immediately pulled her and held her tightly in his arms.

He knew how much she had suffered in the past few months and how she had managed to survive.

Melissa instantly stopped crying when she heard Brian's words.

She was very flustered, and her lips kept quivering.

Her body trembled slightly. She felt only felt cold all over, but also felt panicked and scared.

She knew that Victor's assistants were very capable, but she didn't expect them to find out the truth so quickly.

Seeing Melissa's expression, Brian finally felt much better. They had been having a tough time of it lately.

In order to find Victor, he had lost a lot of weight.

He couldn't even sleep and eat well. Most of the time, he ate instant noodles and takeout.

Ha-ha...

Fortunately, he didn't suffer all these in vain.

He looked at Melissa's terrified face with a mocking smile. She grabbed Carney's hand tightly and looked at him nervously.

Brian was kindhearted, but he was extremely malicious to bad people.

"Melissa, your family is the richest in this city. Only you can afford to give him five million dollars to keep his mouth shut. He got the money and didn't tell us he had saved Victor, though we searched for Victor on the sea everyday. If we didn't meet Victor here, I'm afraid we wouldn't have been able to find him forever."

"Five million dollars! That is a huge amount of money!"

"Yeah, how could that person go fishing again since he had got so much money?"

"She has proved herself to be the daughter of the Craig family. She's really generous."

"The clothes she wears are of limited edition. Her clothes are enough for an ordinary family to buy a small house. She has the qualification to be generous."

Hearing Brian's words, the people around whispered to each other.

Carney glanced at Melissa in his arms and closed his eyes helplessly. Originally, he wanted to pin down Victor with this matter, but he did not expect that Melissa was not the one who had saved Victor.

At this time, tears ran down Melissa's face. She didn't say a word or explain.

"Didn't you say you were going to call the police? Why don't you call the police anymore?" An angry and clear voice came from behind.

Hearing Jasper's voice, Eden was stunned. She looked up from Victor's arms and looked at Jasper's dark and deep eyes.

"Jasper." Why was he here?

Jasper walked to her step by step and stared at her all the time.

He saw what had happened clearly.

"Jasper..."

"Are you stupid?" Jasper interrupted her. It was the first time he had been so mad with her.

"Jasper, I..."

"Since she wanted to die, just let her die! The water is so cold, but you jumped down to save her. When you jumped down, did you think about us? What should we do if you had an accident?" Jasper interrupted her angrily again.

Eden was shocked. Jasper had seen what had happened just now.

She opened her eyes wide. Looking at Jasper's furious face, she moved her lips but bit back the words she would like to have said.

She knew that Jasper was really exasperated at this time.

She bit her lower lip with great strength and the corner of her mouth turned pale.

Seeing her like this, Jasper was helpless and sad.

Knowing that she would come here at night, he asked a friend to get an invitation for him and wanted to see her.

He was very happy to see her here, and he had been keeping her company nearby.

To his surprise, he received a phone call from her. He was in a very good mood at that time, but he was afraid that Victor would be unhappy if he went out to meet Eden, so he had been secretly watching her.

Victor looked at Eden, "Is what he said true?"

Eden nodded slightly. She could feel that his body was very hot. She was very cold, and he shouldn't be so hot.

"Victor, you..." Victor looked at her with discomfort. The coldness on her body made him feel a little better.

The drug was highly potent. The wine only spilled on his lips, but he felt so uncomfortable.

Lucian looked at Victor with intense eyes and said, "Eden, go back with Victor first. Brian and I will deal with the things here."

Eden had realized what was going on.

She looked at Victor helplessly, "Why were you so careless?"

Victor didn't know what to say and just looked at her with guilt.

Jasper looked at Victor's abnormal face and frowned. His heart ached severely for Eden.

"Melissa, aren't you going to call the police? If you don't call the police, I'll do it for you!" Jasper picked up his phone and was about to make a call.

Being roared at by Jasper, Melissa became much more clear-headed.

"Alright! Just call the police. Eden pushed me indeed." She was hopeless, so she decided to act recklessly.

Seeing Victor like this, she knew that she had miscalculated.
