

Gluey Love 1281

Chapter 1281

"That's right. He always makes trouble for me." Eden was a little troubled. The children gradually grew up and knew a lot, and they need more company, especially during the period of rebelling.

"By the way, Abby, how is the relationship between Maureen and Jasper now?" Eden asked worriedly.

Abigail was agitated when she heard this, "Who knows? I really don't like Maureen's character. Jasper has compromised, but now she is making a fuss. I called Jasper in the morning. He said Maureen hadn't made up her mind."

"I guess that Jasper will give up again when she decides to keep the child. Jasper is patient to everyone except for Maureen. He and Maureen have known each other since childhood. They are familiar with each other and have no secret."

Abigail felt that she was worrying about Jasper all the time. Ever since Jasper was young, she had been worrying about his life. He hadn't made her live at ease.

In fact, it was all because of money. At that time, their parents went aboard for better development. She and Jasper couldn't stand the life aboard, so they came back.

The only way their parents could comfort them was to give them as much money as possible.

They seldom cared about them.

That was why Jasper was so rebellious in his teens.

She even thought that he would be a good-for-nothing forever. She once went berserk, cursed him harshly, cried in front of him and begged him to conduct himself. She didn't want him to live like a gangster all day long. Everyone had a dream, didn't they?

However, Jasper had been living a superior life. How could he know that it was not easy to make money?

She had argued with him, cried and beaten him, but it was useless.

She didn't expect that Eden would appear in his life and change his life completely.

Eden glanced at the beautiful night scene in the distance. A cold breeze blew over and she shuddered slightly.

She looked at Abigail. It was impossible for people to live in this world as they wished. "Abby, they can only solve the problems by themselves. Don't worry too much. Everything will get better. No matter how terrible it is, I believe they can solve this matter perfectly and the result will be good. Besides, Jasper is a nice and responsible man, and he will solve the problem soon."

"Mm!" Abigail smiled and did not speak. She picked up a shrimp and ate it slowly.

She knew Jasper's personality well. This time, he had finally let go of his affection towards Eden completely.

She knew that he was in pain, but he could start a new life after disentangling himself from the past.

However, Eden did everything for Jasper's own good. She ignored Jasper's love with good intentions.

Sometimes, Abigail felt sorry for Jasper. It was hard to marry an outstanding woman, but he and Eden were not fated.

Clearly, Jasper loved Eden so much. He had loved her for ten years, and he wouldn't be able to forget her for the rest of his life.

He loved her deeply, but she escaped from this fact.

Sure enough, life was like a drama.

Thinking of this, Abigail felt painful in heart. She could not blame anyone, because Jasper and Eden were destined not to be together.

"Hey! Look! Isn't that Mr. Alwynn?"

"It's really him. Why is he hugging another woman?"

On the huge screen on the building across River City Restaurant, a video of Victor hugging a woman was played.

"Ah..." Paula's eyes widened in shock when she saw this.

What was that?

Victor really had a love affair with another women.

She looked around and looked for Eden. Seeing that Eden was not far away and hadn't seen the video, she immediately rushed over, "Eden, look at the big screen over there. Mr. Alwynn... is with another woman."

Only then did Eden and Abigail look at the big screen on the building not far behind them.

It seemed that someone had arranged it deliberately. Originally, the neon lights flashed on the building, but only the video was being played at this moment.

They couldn't tell where Victor and the woman were, and they were lying on a white big bed.

Seeing this, Eden frowned. Her heart ached and a wave of desperation flooded her.

She knew that those people would do something at night, and she thought that they would release some news the next morning. However, they were so cruel and took actions at night.

Moreover, they told her that Victor had been cheating on her in this way.

"Eden." Abigail looked at Eden worriedly.

Eden was expressionless as she stared at the two people on the huge screen.

Abigail immediately took out her phone and called Anson, asking them to come out.

At this time, everyone was looking at Eden.

Especially Paula. She was extremely pleased.

It seemed that Victor only pretended to be affectionate in front of Eden.

Paula lowered her head and looked at Eden. There was a lamp embedded in the flower bed next to her, so she could see Eden's face clearly. At this time, Eden's delicate face darkened to the extreme. It seemed that she was trembling all over, and she looked very sad.

Paula smiled evilly.

"Oh, who the hell did such a heartless thing?" Irene squeezed into the crowd and cursed angrily.

At this time, Victor and the others came out and saw the video. They all widened their eyes and stared at the screen in a daze.

Victor's eyes darkened to the extreme.

Brian and Lucian did not have time to think too much. They immediately headed straight for the building.

Brian told his assistants while running, "Besiege the building immediately!"

"Okay!"

"Who f*cking did this? He is so vicious!" While waiting for the elevator, Brian glanced at Lucian who was silent.

Lucian looked at him indifferently, "Have you found any clues after such a long time of investigation? Why are you slipping?"

Brian looked so wronged.

The elevator came to a halt, and they went in quickly.

"Lucian, forget it. This is so f*cking troublesome. They are acting under cover while we are in the open. Just now, we didn't come to sense until we were tricked."

Lucian did not say a word and just stood there silently. His charming figure always looked a little lonely.

Seeing this, Brian was so distressed that he didn't say anything.

Victor walked to Eden and watched her sitting quietly and looking at the video with a pale face.

"Honey." He squatted in front of Eden and called her with distress.

Eden looked away slowly and lowered down at his handsome face. In the past three years, his face was always so charming and young. It seemed that he would never change, and he was still as noble and proud as he was when she first saw him.

Later, they were together. They never quarrelled, and some people tried to ruin their marriage occasionally, but she didn't think it was a big deal. After all, they loved each other, and nothing could ruin their love.

Chapter 1282

However, at this time, she felt that she and Victor were enveloped by an invisible net, and they were forced to separate.

But this was life. Whether she loved someone or decided to leave someone depended on whether this person was worth it or not.

The answer was that Victor was worth it. He deserved her trust and lifelong love.

In her opinion, she lived for her family and happiness.

But what was the most meaningful thing in her life?

The most meaningful thing was to spend the rest of her life with Victor.

She knew very well how Victor had gone through all these years.

Besides, she knew how hard he had been looking for her in the past.

She pursed her lips slightly and stared at his worried and scared eyes tenderly and quietly. She knew how afraid Victor was to lose her.

She stroked his handsome face lightly with her slightly cold fingers. Under the lights, his forehead, eyebrows and outline were simply perfect, and they looked like a perfect match.

Unconsciously, people around them were all obsessed with them and completely forgot the video on the big screen, though the video was still being played.

Victor did not move but looked at her quietly. Looking at her expression, he knew that there were too many emotions in her eyes, and he was flustered and uneasy.

As for Eden, her heart ached severely when she saw the worry and fear in his eyes.

He remembered all her hobbies when she was a child, and he built a heaven-like glass villa for her. When she lay in the room at night, she could see the bright stars. She had been fond of starry night since she was a child.

He had completed all her dreams. Therefore, she would complete the dream he wanted.

It was weirdly quiet in the hall. Everyone couldn't help holding their breath and nervously looked at Victor and Eden who were staring at each other with deep affection.

A gust of cold wind blew over. Eden blinked her eyes, and she was in a trance. Unconsciously, tears came out of her eyes and fell on Victor's face.

Eden lowered her head slowly and kissed Victor's sexy thin lips gently.

Victor trembled and allowed her to kiss his lips.

At this moment, their hearts seemed to be very closely connected. He clearly felt that Eden was not angry, but distressed. Moreover, her kiss was so affectionate and he could feel her deep love.

Feeling her emotions, Victor took the initiative to kiss her unconsciously. Their world became quiet and they could only see each other.

Seeing this, everyone was shocked, and it was different from what they had imagined.

In Paula's opinion, Eden would quarrel with Victor furiously or give him a hard slap on the face before she left here in a fit of anger.

Not only Paula, but everyone present also thought this way.

But things went beyond everyone's expectations. Of course, Victor was also surprised. Even he himself didn't expect that Eden would do such a shocking thing.

In his heart, Eden was very simple. She became a mother at such a young age and gave birth to three children for him.

She was pure, simple and romantic. He was her first love, and she always belonged to him.

Therefore, he kept his private life as clean as a whistle over the years, because he wanted to be worthy of her when she came back to him.

He never approached any woman, nor did he allow any other woman to get close to him easily. In the past, all he wanted was that this wonderful girl would come back to him one day.

Later, this day finally came, and she appeared in front of him with the purest and most beautiful heart.

He believed in love and eternity.

Besides, he believed that they could spend the rest of their lives together.

Eden panted a little when she finished the kiss, but she was still staring at him.

"Clap..." There was a great round of applause.

Eden, who had been immersed in her own world, came to sense. She blushed and glanced at everyone. Then she lowered her head shyly.

Victor was the closest to her. His smile became tenderer and tenderer as he looked at her bright red face.

Eden pulled him to stand up and let him sit beside her.

With a red face, she looked at the crowd and then took a look at the video not far away. Then she said with a faint and gentle smile, "I'm sorry for what has happened. My husband and I have been unlucky these days. Someone has been trying to separate us secretly. The woman in the video that is being played should be me, but they have edited the video by a computer. If my guess is right, the video was taken when my husband and I were on a trip last time, and then they changed my face into someone else's face. The video has been edited. If I hadn't seen the ring on the woman's finger, I would have thought that my husband has cheated on me."

Saying this, Eden raised her hand, "The ring on my finger is exactly the same as the ring in the video. I designed the ring to thank my husband for having waited for me for so many years."

Everyone looked at the ring on her hand and then looked at the ring in the video. It was really the same.

Eden added, "A lot of people don't know that I am the long-lost daughter of the Clement family. The Clement family and the Alwynn family are old family friends, and they are neighbors. I have been playing with Victor since I was a child."

"When I was six years old, Victor lost me on a rainy night. He had waited for me and looked for me for twenty years because of this. Therefore, I believe that he would betray everyone in the world except for me."

"We were once parted in life and separated by death, and we have bridged over many difficulties together. Our love won't be ruined just because those gossips, a few fake videos or some photos that were taken secretly. Because Victor has used his life to love me."

Originally, she wanted to play with those people and let them see what they wanted, so she argued with Victor and then ran away from home. Later, she thought about it. Why should she make her and Victor so painful because of those people?

Since they wanted to separate her and Victor, she would never let them succeed.

"I believe that he would betray everyone in the world except for me."

There was no doubt that this sentence had reassured Victor.

She didn't know how much he was afraid of losing her just now. He was afraid that she would abandon him in a fit of anger and run away from home.

"Fool, you scared me just now. You don't even know how much I don't want to leave you." Victor suddenly hugged her tightly. He had never shed tears in front of outsiders, but his eyes were brimming with tears at this moment.

His deep love got such a positive response. Subconsciously, he felt that their love was romantic and perfect. In their love, he had always been the one who worried about gain and loss, and he was afraid of losing her all the time.

At this time, he could finally rest assured.

Chapter 1283

Eden hugged him tightly. Victor was the one who loved her the most in the world. How could she bear to hurt him?

He treated her so well, and he wished he could give all the good things in the world to her. Was there any woman who was happier than her?

She had been in a coma in the hospital for more than half a year, and he took care of her every day. In this world, no man was better than him.

Perhaps it was because Abigail was pregnant, and she was so touched that she burst into tears when she saw this. Tears ran down her face and blurred her eyes, and she couldn't see anything clearly.

It turned out that this was the best love in the world. Eden and Victor trusted and humoured each other.

She had been angry with Victor because there were too many gossips about him. She knew that Eden would be sad, but she didn't want Eden to forgive him so quickly.

However, Eden forgave Victor, just because she trusted him.

Eden trusted Victor in the bottom of her heart, and this was the most important.

In addition to Abigail, Irene and the other old employees who had witnessed their love all melted into tears at this moment.

Anson walked to Abigail, bent down and wiped her tears with his fair and slender fingers.

Abigail threw herself into Anson's arms. Seeing Eden and Victor hugging each other, she smiled. She felt very happy because Eden was being loved.

With tears on his small face, Henrick walked over and hugged Eden and Victor gently. His heart broke when he saw Eden crying. Victor had been making Eden angry these days.

In the morning, he was so mad and said to Victor, "Dad, you are really useless!"

Eden raised her head, looked at Ricky and then reached out to wipe the tears on his face tenderly.

"Wow! I didn't expect that our little star is here. Ricky, you're more and more handsome." Irene smiled as she looked at Henrick. Her surprised voice and smiling face brought everyone back to sense.

She hadn't seen Ricky for a long time, and Ricky had grown taller.

Henrick smiled and said, "Nice to meet you, Auntie Poplar!"

"Nice to meet you, too. Ricky, congratulations. Your film will be a huge box-office success." Irene gestured at him to cheer him on.

Henrick smiled, exposing a set of amazingly white teeth. He was growing permanent front tooth, and he looked so lovely when he smiled.

Irene ran over and held Henrick with a smile, "Ricky, take a picture with me. My son likes you so much, and he has always been your number one fan."

"Okay, Auntie Poplar. Bring him here next time, and I can take photos with him." Henrick liked Irene very much, because Irene had been very good to his mother.

Hearing this, Irene smiled even more brightly. After taking a few selfies with Henrick, she nodded quickly, "Ricky, how is this weekend?"

Henrick thought for a while, and he didn't need to act this weekend, "How about this? Auntie Poplar, you can let him come to my house on weekend and play with me for a whole day."

"Okay! I will send him to your house this weekend. However, he doesn't like to talk." Hearing this, Irene was even happier.

Henrick promised with a smile. He spoke neither quickly nor slowly, and his every move was as elegant as Victor's, "Auntie Poplar, don't worry. As long as Gia is there, the atmosphere won't be stiff."

"Then I'm relieved." Smiling, Irene got up and glanced at Eden and Victor.

"Eden, you've done a right thing. You absolutely can't let those b*stards separate you and Victor. The best love is that you two trust each other."

"Yeah!" Eden nodded with a smile. Then she looked at Victor and chuckled.

Victor raised his hand and stroked her face with his slender fingers. He tried his best to make her happy, but he hurt her heart every day.

"Honey, I'm sorry. Tonight, you cried because of me again."

Eden smiled and shook her head, "Victor, in fact, I am so happy!"

"Ha-ha..." Irene smiled and looked at the crowd, "This is a party of our company, so you don't have to be reserved. It's all right now. Guys, continue to eat, drink and have fun. After having a good time, you can go home and have a rest. Keep working hard tomorrow morning."

Irene was in a position of authority. After she said this, everyone left with a smile, and the atmosphere became lively again.

When Eden looked at the big screen again, the video had disappeared.

She was in a much better mood.

She looked up and saw that Abigail was still leaning against Anson's arms with tears in her eyes and looking at her with a smile.

She looked at Abigail with a grin. Abby was delighted, so was she!

Only Paula stood where she was quietly and watched Eden and Victor hug each other. Her heart was filled with jealousy and envy.

It turned out that there was such deep love in this world.

Eden was actually so charming that Victor was willing to spend his whole life loving her.

Why couldn't she meet such a man?

In her life, men she met were only greedy for her beauty.

Whenever she wanted to love a man sincerely, she would find how unbearable he was, and then she would give up and leave him silently.

When she came to herself and looked at Eden and Victor again, Victor was feeding Eden soup with a spoon. After Eden took a few sips of soup, he picked up a shrimp to feed her.

The scene was warm and romantic.

Paula walked away quietly. Looking at luxurious party, she suddenly felt that she didn't belong here.

When she turned around, a picture suddenly flashed through her mind. She remembered that in her senior year of high school, she had a boyfriend. The man's family was not very rich, but he had a car and a house.

She went to the restaurant with him, and Eden happened to work part-time in that restaurant.

At that time, she and the man behaved intimately. She saw Eden and let the man feed her in front of Eden deliberately.

The man did as he was told and fed her.

However, Eden only glanced at her indifferently, and there was no emotion in her calm eyes. She turned around and left. At that time, she looked at Eden's back and had a well-developed sense of her own superiority.

In fact, there was a reason why she bullied Eden at that time. She knew that Eden was very beautiful, but Eden knew how to protect herself. When they were in their senior year of high school, many girls had learned how to dress themselves. But Eden was the only one who had thick fringes. She tried her best to make herself look ugly.

Eden was busy with her part-time job, but she had the best grade, which made her so jealous. Some boys wrote love letters to Eden, including Paula's first love, but Eden was always so disdainful. She never read the love letters and threw them in the trash can directly. Paula had seen it many times.

Time went by. When she saw the same scene, she suddenly felt that her childish behaviour back then was just a joke.

Chapter 1284

Victor treated Eden sincerely.

At that moment, Victor, the proud and noble man, didn't run away, complain or get angry. Instead, he squatted down in front of Eden cautiously and raised his head to look at her with distress. His eyes were filled with worry and fear.

Clearly, he was afraid of losing her.

Thus, Eden was truly happy because she had got Victor's love.

Her childish behavior many years ago was really ridiculous.

Eden said that she was not qualified to give herself airs in front of her, and she was confident to say so.

Eden had a confident heart, because she had worked so hard to live such a good life.

Just now, she heard about Eden's achievements these years by accident. It was really enviable. Her design was very popular every season. If Eden was not capable, how could she have such success?

People often envied of something that they couldn't get.

So did she. She did not have a nice job, nor did she have a good friend.

Eden was inconspicuous, self-contemptuous and timid in high school, but she just pretended to be so.

She was self-contemptuous because she came from the Gienger family, and she was bullied and oppressed by Myra shamelessly.

In fact, she just pretended to be timid, because she kept her feelings hidden fathoms deep and only wanted to study hard.

When they were wasting their youth, Eden was holding a book and studying in a hidden corner.

She saw Eden reading in a corner a few times. At that time, she felt that Eden was ridiculous. She didn't even dare to read in the classroom and had to hide in a corner.

But at this time, she felt that her idea was ridiculous.

Success favored the prepared mind. Everyone who had received education knew about this, so did she. However, she had never studied as hard as Eden. She thought that she could live a good life with her beauty.

She always lived with such an attitude of mind. When she met Eden again, her absurd dream was completely shattered.

Eden succeeded, but she was still at the starting point.

Paula took a deep breath, took some food and hid in the corner to eat slowly.

Half an hour later, Lucian and Brian came back, and they went to the hall.

Brian looked at Eden, "Did someone follow you when you went on a trip last time?"

Eden shook her head slightly and said with a frown, "I don't know. However, there might be a security camera in the glass room I lived."

Victor's eyes suddenly darkened. He looked at Brian and said, "Call the police. A lot of couples and lovers live in those rooms, so the owner of the hotel takes advantage of loopholes inevitably."

Brian nodded, "I've taken some actions after confirming it. They didn't get any useful information. The video was played by a hacker, and it lasts for about one minute."

Eden blushed slightly. She was sure that the woman in the video was her.

Brian looked depressed. It was really weird, and the one who went against them was a computer expert.

Lucian had checked it for twenty minutes, and he was about to success.

"D*mn it!" Brian cursed angrily.

"Lucian almost found out who it was. Unfortunately, there were two hackers. We failed." Brian was a little mad and felt a sense of frustration.

Eden looked at him and smiled, "Brian, don't be angry. Since they've done such a thing, they will definitely take other actions in the future. We have plenty of opportunities to find them out."

Only then did Brian look a little better.

Victor pursed his thin lips tightly. He and Eden were humiliated that night, and he would do unto those people what they did to him.

Victor looked at the time, "It's late. Let's go back to rest and investigate it tomorrow."

He looked at Lucian with concern in eyes, "Lucian, don't drink anymore."

Lucian glanced sideways at him and did not say anything, but he nodded.

Victor went out with Eden and Henrick. After saying goodbye to everyone, they left.

Irene and others would attend other activities later, so Victor and Eden didn't follow them.

When they returned home, Zaiden, Jaida, Kenneth and Giada hadn't slept yet, so they sat down and chatted together.

Henrick invited Irene's son to come over on the weekend. Hearing this, Giada wanted to invite Martin to come over to play as well.

Kenneth had no friends. He just sat quietly and listened to their conversation.

Jaida and Zaiden usually went to bed early. At around ten o'clock at night, they went back to rest.

Kenneth took a look at Victor and said with dissatisfaction in his big eyes, "Dad, you've been very famous recently."

Victor looked embarrassed and smiled unnaturally, "Kenny, it's not my fault. They framed me deliberately."

Kenneth glanced at Eden, "Mom, have you offended anyone recently? Wherever dad goes, the security camera there will be destroyed. That person is very familiar with computers, especially the monitoring equipment."

Eden shook her head slightly, "Kenny, I've been very kind, and I have never offended anyone. I think Melissa is the only one who hates me."

Hearing this, Kenneth felt quite puzzled. He knew that this matter was strange, but it was hard to get evidence since the security camera had been destroyed.

After thinking for a while, he looked at Victor, "Dad, if you have any social activity during this period of time, tell me the address in advance."

Victor knew what he was thinking, "Okay, Kenny, I'll arrange a few social activities on purpose to see what they will do."

"Mm! Mom, I'm going to sleep." After saying that, Kenneth stood up and went upstairs, looking like a grownup.

Victor smiled. Kenny was maturer and maturer.

"Dad, mom, I'm going to rest, too." After saying this, Giada followed Kenneth upstairs.

Seeing this, Henrick didn't want to stay there anymore and wanted to go to bed. Before he could say anything, Eden reached out and pulled him by the ear.

"Ouch... Mom, it hurts! What... are you doing? I did not do anything wrong today." Eden looked at him angrily, and her slightly narrowed eyes were filled with annoyance, "Are you sure that you didn't do anything wrong?"

Victor was confused. Why did Eden lose temper all of a sudden?

Henrick looked up at Eden's mad expression, and he was at a loss, "Mom, I can guarantee that I did nothing wrong today. Besides, I finished my homework early."

Henrick couldn't figure out what he had done wrong.

"Humph! You bullied the little girl in the set, ate up her food and even took liberties with her. Henrick, you are getting bolder and bolder. Why do you have so many bad habits? Who taught you to do that?"

Henrick was stunned. It turned out that Abigail had betrayed him.

Woo-woo...

Abigail didn't love him anymore.

It was the first time that Eden had pulled him by the ear. It was so embarrassing. Eden often spanked him, but she had never had him in the ear before.

Chapter 1285

Victor was surprised and looked at Ricky in confusion. Who on earth was Ricky like? He never took liberties with women.

"Ricky, who did you learn it from?" Eden questioned angrily.

Henrick chuckled, "Mom, do I need to learn from anyone? Don't forget that I've acted in a lot of films about childhood sweethearts. Of course, I know something about love. Although I'm small, I know this."

"Besides, I didn't mean to take liberties with her. She's so delicate that it's troublesome to act with her. It's the first time that she has acted in a film. I can't be tired every day."

"I was so angry but I had no way to vent my anger. I ate her sandwich, but so what? I gave her a pile of bread and four bottles of mineral water. She didn't suffer any loss."

Eden didn't let go of his ear, "Ricky, it's understandable that she can't act well, because she's a new actress. Can't you be more patient and wait for her? Even if you don't have patience, you can't bully her. I have time tomorrow, and I'll go to the set to see you and the little girl at noon. I feel so sorry for her. Her agent has been talking to Abby about this."

Hearing this, Henrick was a little unhappy, "Mom, you can come to see me. Why do you have to meet her? Look at Gia and then look at that girl. Then you will know what I mean."

"She's too delicate and finicky, and she can't bear any hardship. By the way, she's good at crying. As long as I glare at her, she will be on the verge of tears. Ha-ha..." Henrick couldn't help laughing when he thought of this.

"Oh! How can you laugh?" Eden looked at him helplessly.

When she was not by Ricky's side, he was too naughty.

"Ricky, I know your character well, but you're a child, and you can't bully the girl like that." Eden said earnestly.

It was normal for actors in the entertainment circle to be very popular or to lose everything overnight.

Henrick smiled and said in a playful tone, "Mom, it sounds like she is going to be your daughter-in-law. Don't worry. I won't marry such a delicate girl. I'll be with a virtuous and gentle girl, not a wilful and bad-tempered girl."

Eden and Victor were dumbfounded. He was so young, but he had been thinking about what kind of girl he would marry.

"Ahem..." Victor coughed awkwardly, "Ricky, you think too much, don't you?"

Henrick looked at him with confidence, "Dad, when mom was five years old, you were ten. Don't tell me that you had no feelings for mom at that time. If you didn't like her, would you remember her all your life? So, no one can predict what will happen, right?"

Eden glanced at Victor. They were absolutely pure friends at that time, and they didn't think about being together.

Victor smiled and said nothing.

Eden was speechless. What was wrong with his attitude? Couldn't he be more serious in front of Ricky?

Eden let go of Ricky's ear and glared at him.

Henrick only felt a burning sensation in his ear.

Eden really didn't show him any mercy.

"Mom, don't go there tomorrow. I promise you that I won't bully her again. But mom, I really don't like her. She cries all day long and cries for no reason. I haven't even told her agent that it's difficult to act together with her! What's more, I invested in this film with my own money in the name of you, so the shooting can't be delayed."

"She cries and makes a scene, and she doesn't want to bear any hardship. When she stops losing her temper, we have to film again, which is a waste of time. This is a martial art film, and we have to hang from wire most of the time. She has a stand-in."

"If it weren't for the director who kept saying that she was good, I wouldn't have chosen her. There are so many child actresses in Mirth Company."

Eden said, "No, I have told Abby that I will go to the set to see you tomorrow. Go to sleep now."

Henrick did not say anything. He stood up obediently and saluted Eden, "Yes, Madam!"

"Ha-ha..." Seeing him like this, Eden was amused.

Henrick walked while shaking his head and murmuring to himself, "If you don't study for one day, no one will tell the difference. If you don't study for a week, you will become rude. If you don't study for a month, you'll become so stupid. She's so annoying that I want to beat her, but I don't want to make troubles and take the blame... Why am I so lucky? Why do I have to act with such a silly girl..." What a d*mn girl! He was not the kind of person to bear anyone a grudge, because he would take revenge immediately.

Eating her sandwich was a great respect for her.

She vented her anger on his bread when she was mad, didn't she?

If she hadn't gone too far, would he have bullied her?

He was quite generous and gentle to girls.

Henrick walked as he muttered, and Eden could not understand what he was talking about.

Eden shook her head helplessly. What should she do when Ricky grew up?

Would she have to follow him and clean the mess for him?

Eden sighed.

They went back to their room and took a bath. Eden lay on the bed, but she could not fall asleep because of what had happened at night.

Eden turned over and lay with her back to Victor. Opening her eyes, she had to wait to fall asleep. Except for Melissa, she couldn't think of anyone else who wanted to frame her.

Tillie and Paulina were abroad, and Haven was in prison. Who else would go against her and Victor?

Victor knew that she couldn't fall asleep. He reached out, hugged her from behind and kissed her soft hair before comforting her in a low voice, "Eden, don't think about it anymore. We will find out the truth soon."

What had happened also made him feel awful.

Eden thought for a while and turned to look at him, "Victor, ask Brian to check whether Tillie and Paulina have come back from abroad or not."

Victor nodded, "I'll send a message to Brian now."

He turned around, took the phone and sent a message to Brian quickly. Then he put it down and hugged Eden again, "Eden, we'll know it tomorrow."

"Okay!" Eden replied and lay with her back to him again.

In fact, Victor was a little uncertain. He didn't know if Eden had really forgiven him for what had happened at night.

They they stayed alone, she seemed to be very unhappy.

"Honey." He whispered.

"Mm!" Eden answered blandly and did not look back at him.

The more Victor thought about it, the more worried he became. Was she still angry with him?

He looked at her in confusion and caressed her slowly.

Eden's body stiffened, and she immediately turned around to look at him.

However, Victor gave her a gentle smile.

Chapter 1286

"Eden, in fact, you're unhappy, right?" He couldn't help but ask, but he hugged her with more strength.

He enjoyed the feeling so much that he narrowed his eyes. Hugging her made him feel very comfortable and satisfied.

Eden glared at him and patted his big hand, but Victor got more obsessed with her.

He hugged her more tightly.

She rubbed against his arms, and her low voice was full of grievances, "Could I be happy since such a video has been played in public? That person must be insane. She actually played such a video. If it weren't for the ring which was designed by me, do you know how I would feel tonight? No matter how much I trust you, I would fill my mind with nonsense."

A trace of malice flashed through Victor's eyes as he stroked her beautiful hair gently.

"Eden, you are the only woman I love in my life. Don't worry. After finding those people, I won't spare them."

Saying this, Victor lowered his head slightly to kiss her.

Eden dodged and did not allow him to kiss her.

Victor was a bit stunned, "Honey." He called her with grievances.

Eden narrowed her eyes and glanced at him, "Victor, you..." In fact, she wanted to ask if they could just sleep like this.

But she was too embarrassed to say so.

Alas! She felt quite helpless in heart.

Then she looked at him and smiled tenderly, "I can't fall asleep now. Let's chat for a while before... doing what you want."

"Okay!" Victor nodded dotingly. He didn't have to make love. However, if they had sex, she would get tired and have a sound sleep without thinking much.

Seeing that he had agreed, Eden asked with a smile, "Who do you think will be the poster boy of our product this season?"

Victor pinched her cheek and said with a chuckle, "I haven't decided it yet, but I've asked Dean to choose a suitable actor. Now Irene is not in the company, and Dean has come in handy. He knows a lot."

"Yeah!" Eden nodded. She could rest assured since Dean was responsible for it.

Victor looked down at her, "Eden, do we have to talk about work at this time?" At this time, they should talk about their feelings.

Eden frowned and looked at him, "Can we only do what you like when we're lying on bed like this? Can't we talk about something I like?" Her voice was soft, sounding very comfortable and slightly aggrieved.

Victor looked into her eyes, and he could see the compliant in her eyes clearly, "Don't we have to go to work tomorrow? I'm afraid that you can't sleep enough and feel tired."

Eden still looked at him quietly with clear and bright eyes. However, her aggrieved eyes were brimming with tears and glistened. Victor's heart almost melted when he saw her like this.

"Alright. I'll listen to you, okay?" Victor lowered his head and kissed her face, but he was unwilling to let go of her.

Eden did not say anything, and she could hear his strong heartbeats.

However, the more he acted like this, the more disturbed she felt. She didn't know if those people would separate them again.

Victor knew that she was in a bad mood. He drew back a little and saw that she was thinking about something in a daze with her eyes open.

"Eden, why don't we go out for a walk?" Maybe going out for a walk would make her feel better.

Eden thought for a moment and then looked at his handsome face. She shook her head slowly and said, "It's so late, and it's cold outside. Why should we go out? I just feel depressed and uncomfortable in heart."

Victor hugged her tightly and kissed her forehead, "Eden, it's all my fault. Don't think too much."

"It's your fault indeed. You don't know how many women are crazy about your face." Eden glanced at his attractive face and was stunned by his charm.

"Ha-ha..." Victor smiled tenderly, "Eden, tell me. Do you like my face?"

He smiled and looked at her mad face. He couldn't make himself ugly, could he? He maintained his face only because of her.

These years, she became more and more beautiful and charming. He was afraid she would think that he didn't deserve to be with her. In the past, he never cared about his appearance, but he had begun to pay attention to his skin and figure.

Eden glared at him, "What? Are you so proud just because I said that many women were crazy about you?"

"Then tell me what I should do." Victor was at a loss. As long as she was happy, he could do anything.

He could do anything for her.

Eden thought about it and really didn't know what to do. She couldn't wrap up Victor's head to prevent others from looking at him, could she?

"Alas! Forget it. Let's go on a date tomorrow. Order a romantic restaurant and let's have a romantic dinner." Eden said weakly. She didn't know what to do for the time being, and it was really impossible to avoid future troubles.

Was this the worry of a rich and powerful family?

Hearing her words, Victor was more pleased. If Eden was in a good mood, his life would be easier.

"No problem! Eden, I'll think about where to go tomorrow."

"Okay!" Eden did not want to think too much. If Victor would really abandon her, she could do nothing about it, could she?

Many men were interested in a woman for only half a year, but they had been in love for almost three years. Victor was as good to her as always. She was actually very lucky, wasn't she?

But even so, she would fill her mind with nonsense as a woman.

After knowing that she suffered from depression, she had been controlling these jumbled thoughts.

"Let's sleep, Victor." Eden thought for a while, and there was nothing to talk about.

"Okay!" Victor smiled and nodded, but he did not forget what to do. He turned over, held her and had a happy and romantic night.

The next day, Eden was still in the blues.

Victor knew that she didn't sleep well last night, and she didn't eat much this morning.

When he arrived at the company, he was not in a hurry to hold a meeting. Instead, he ordered strawberry juice and bread for her.

Then they entered the conference room.

Paula didn't sleep well last night, either. Perhaps she was influenced by what had happened last night, and she was not in good spirits.

During the meeting, her mind always wandered and Dean kicked her to remind her a few times.

Dean lift his eyebrows and winked as signals to her. If Paula didn't listen carefully, how should she report the work to Eden later?

Paula felt painful and learned a lesson. She only glanced at Dean with compliant and then listened carefully.

Although Eden was listless, she listened to reports of all the departments with concentration.

After everyone finished speaking, the manager of the sales department said, "Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, TS Company has become our strongest competitor this year, and their winter collection is very likely to be similar to ours. Do we need to modify our design?"

Chapter 1287

Victor and Eden glanced at each other.

Eden did not say anything and remained normal. Irene had reminded her of this matter.

Victor glanced at everyone in the conference room. All of a sudden, they all became nervous and did not dare to look into his eyes.

With a cold face, Victor frowned slightly and said, "Do you have any better idea? If you do, you can mention it."

Everyone looked at each other, but no one spoke.

The manager of the sales department said boldly, "Mr. Alwynn, if this is real, we must make a strategy in advance. At present, our products are high-end and the prices are extremely high, and now we have more and more costumers. Moreover, many ordinary office workers are fond of Mrs. Alwynn's design. Compared to last year, if we lower the prices, we'll make more money."

Hearing his words, Eden was a bit unfavourable to the idea. It was not easy for them to build such a price system, and she would not reduce the high prices just because of a competitor, "The winter collection will still be sold at a high price, but I'll adjust the prices of some styles so that it will meet the demand of the ordinary office workers. The prices cannot be reduced any further, because we use the best and the most environmentally friendly fabrics and materials, and we have to guarantee safety and quality. If we lower the prices, everyone will have worked hard in vain."

Eden knew what the sales manager was thinking.

In her opinion, TS Company could not stop her.

The sales manager said, "Mrs. Alwynn, I know what you mean. However, I received a piece of news before attending the meeting. RK Company, a well-known fashion company in M Country, has invested in TS Company. They wanted to help TS Company release the new products before us. They're going against us, and we have to make some preparations."

Victor leaned against the chair lazily, looking steady and calm. He was always so domineering and imposing. He lowered his head slightly, and his expression was as indifferent as ever.

It was very quiet in the office, and everyone was uneasy. Victor asked for their opinions, but they didn't dare to speak rashly.

Victor did not speak. Except for Eden, no one dared to say anything.

Eden asked, "Is the news accurate?"

The sales manager looked at Eden seriously, "Mrs. Alwynn, it's absolutely true. They signed the contract yesterday, and there might be such news at one o'clock in the afternoon."

Eden nodded and glanced at everyone. Her clear eyes were full of confidence as she said, "RK Company is one of the domestic luxury brands, but they cooperate with TS Company, which is really confusing. Since our company majors in high-end luxury products, it is a unique existence. Each of our product is a girl's dream. As for the prices, we don't have to adjust them. Several famous actresses are cooperating with me, and I make high-end clothes for them specially. Therefore, even if TS Company is a strong competitor, we can't make any concession in matters of price."

"If our estimation is correct, TS Company will lower the prices and increase production. In this way, they want to make small profits but quick turnover. But they will lower themselves by doing this. We will stick to our plan, and there will be no change."

Since Melissa came to River City, she had been prepared.

She put in a lot of hard work in her design, and her inspiration came from her careful observation.

She even drew her inspiration from the trip last time. When she went to the sea and the mountain, she had inspiration for the collection of the next season.

Melissa copied her design. This time, she was more confident, and she would not allow Melissa's design to be released before her products appeared on the market.

Furthermore, she owned the copyright on her design. Since Melissa had copied her, she had to bear the consequences.

But the key was that there must be no spy in Alwynn Group.

Hearing this, the sales manager looked at Victor worriedly.

Victor nodded, looked at Eden's confident face and smiled casually, "Let's listen to my wife."

Everyone was speechless. Victor never refuted Eden's opinion, so was there any need for him to ask them? Just now, they were so nervous and didn't dare to move.

Seeing that no one had objection, Victor got up and said, "Since you have no problem with it, the meeting is over now."

Victor walked to Eden, held her hand and went out with her.

Everyone was stunned. After Mr. Alwynn came back, as long as Mrs. Alwynn attended the morning meeting, they had to witness public display affection.

Dean and Paula immediately followed them out.

As soon as Eden returned to the office, she looked listless again.

Seeing that she was in low spirits, Victor said, "Eden, sleep for a while."

Eden shook her head slightly, "I'll sleep later. I have something to tell you now."

Victor glanced at Dean and Paula who had followed him in, and his eyes returned as cold as usual, "Leave here first."

They nodded and turned to leave.

Eden looked at him seriously, "Victor, although we have made arrangements in advance about the collection, RK Company meddles in it all of a sudden, so we have to be on guard. We made secret arrangements before, but we can't guarantee that the information will not be leaked. I am afraid there is a spy in the factory, so you have to check it carefully."

They had arranged it in advance.

Melissa had copied her design in the last season, so she had been prepared.

Therefore, the collection of this season couldn't be leaked again.

"Someone divulged our design in the last two seasons, but I happened to find it out, so we didn't suffer any loss. But we can't be so lucky every time."

"Moreover, in addition to me, there are other designers in our company. We must make sure that their design is unique so that they will do their best to work for Alwynn Group. The benefits are immense this season. Double their salary. It's the best way to keep them working for us."

Victor nodded, "Eden, this is also what I'm worried about. The brands covered by our company are all trustworthy. As for your worry, Brian has been keeping an eye on the factory. I asked them to take turns on duty 24 hours a day, and there should be no problem. If you're worried, I'll let them check the factory carefully."

Eden didn't think it was troublesome at all. She nodded, "Then check it again. We can't let the design be exposed."

"Okay, I'll call Brian later."

Eden smiled, "I'm afraid he's going to be so busy."

Victor smiled, and he believed Brian very much, "Eden, don't underestimate his ability. He is not an ordinary person, and his work efficiency is amazing. Besides, his assistants are all elites."

Chapter 1288

Looking at his shrewd eyes, Eden knew that he had always been confident in doing things. This time, as long as they could keep this matter absolutely secret, they would give Melissa a severe blow. She smiled, "Since you said so, I can rest assured."

Such a thing had happened several times before. Presumably, he was more cautious than her.

"Okay, don't think too much about it. Have a good rest. You'll be listless when you don't have enough sleep. As for the factory, they signed a confidentiality agreement with us, and there will be no problem." Victor stroked her head gently. Looking at her tired face, he was in a bad mood for no reason.

"Rat-a-tat..."

Victor glanced at the door and said, "Come in."

Dean and Paula walked in quickly.

Cold sweat broke out on Dean's forehead. He looked at Victor's charming face and felt that he and Eden had offended someone. Someone tried every means to slander them.

Early in the morning, there were gossips about Eden again.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, there is news online that Mrs. Alwynn stayed with a toy boy last night and they behaved intimately. It is said that you two cheat on each other again. Now everyone is discussing this on the Internet." Dean looked at Victor nervously.

Paula looked at them playfully.

She found it really interesting to work here.

It was more interesting than being an onlooker.

Eden was dumbfounded. Did she stay with a toy boy last night?

"Oh! I did stay with a toy boy last night, but the toy boy is my husband." Eden looked at Victor with a smile.

Victor's face darkened to the extreme.

D*mn Abigail! He really hated to be addressed as a toy boy.

Dean witnessed public display affection and didn't say a word.

His heart was broken because he had no girlfriend.

However, the corner of his lips twitched. Eden actually played a joke just now.

Dean was shocked, and Eden looked at him, "Let me have a look."

Dean immediately handed the i-Pad to her.

Eden took it over and looked down at the photos on the screen. She couldn't help but laugh, "They're quite good at editing photos with a computer. However, they changed Abby's face into a handsome man's, and Abby won't be so mad. But she has a hot temper. I'm afraid she will go berserk when she sees this."

In the photo, Eden and the man leaned against each other and looked so close, just like a couple.

The photos were taken when she had dinner and walked into the hall with Abby. They kicked up a rumpus over the photos.

It seemed that they really wanted her and Victor to break up.

She felt a heart-wrenching pain in the chest. Who could it be?

Eden grabbed the i-Pad more tightly.

Seeing her like this, Victor took the i-Pad from her hand.

Eden suddenly came to sense, and her expression returned to normal.

Dean continued, "Mr. Alwynn, this is the news about the cooperation between RK Company and TS Company. I'm afraid that they will release their new products in advance to seize the market share."

Victor glanced at the news on the i-Pad calmly and then had a look blandly. Then he handed it back to Dean.

He asked neither quickly nor slowly, "Who is the representative of RK Company?"

Dean shook his head slightly, "I heard that the representative is a female designer, but she has never showed up. Her assistant signed the contract on her behalf."

"Oh!" A thought flashed through Victor's mind. Was it because she couldn't show up or didn't dare to show up?

"Check it out. I want to know who she is."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn, I'll investigate it right now." Dean walked out quickly.

Paula stood where she was. She had something to say, but she didn't dare to say it.

Victor glanced at her and asked apathetically, "Is there anything else?"

She smiled at Victor gently and then looked at Eden, "Well... Director, here are the minutes of the meeting and documents sent by the design department."

Eden did not look at her and said in a low voice, "Put them on the desk. I'll read them later."

"Okay." Paula turned around, only to see Dean walking in again.

He walked towards Victor, "Mr. Alwynn, the juice and bread you ordered for Mrs. Alwynn has been delivered."

"I see!" Victor took it, opened the juice for Eden and took out the bread for her.

"Eden, you didn't eat much for breakfast. Now have some bread. It's your favorite flavor."

Saying this, Victor handed the juice to Eden's lips, and Eden took a sip.

"Wow! It tastes good." Eden smiled at him brightly, "By the way, Victor, I will go to see Ricky at noon after finishing my work."

Victor was somewhat unhappy, "Ricky doesn't want you to go there, does he?"

"I have to go there, and I've told Abby about it. By the way, Abby and I may have dinner outside. You go home and take care of the children."

Victor was speechless. The children didn't need him to take care of them.

When they were first-graders, he didn't even worry about them. At this time, they were third-graders, and they had become more sensible.

"Where are you going to have dinner? Anson and I will go there." Victor didn't want to go home, because the three children disliked him.

Kenny said that he was quite famous these days.

Kenny no longer said that he was useless, and his words were not so harsh, but he felt so upset in heart.

If something bad happened to Eden at night, the three children would be more disappointed in him, wouldn't they?

After falling in love with her, he realized that no matter how selfish a man was, he would be willing to do everything for his beloved woman.

He could even lose his self-esteem and go crazy for Eden.

When she got hurt, he was so angry that he wished he could kill those people. In order to protect her, he didn't care about his dignity and gain and loss. Even if he would lose everything, he didn't want his beloved woman to get hurt.

Eden looked at him and didn't know what to say.

"Victor, I'll just go there to see Ricky and ask him not to make troubles or bully that girl. I will go back after dinner. You stay here and solve the problem. Although we know their purpose, gossip will always affect the company's performance."

After finishing her words, Eden looked at Dean and said, "Dean, these photos are obviously fake. Lucian is not here. Clarify the gossips on the official website later. We can not let these things affect our new products. By the way, deal with the video last night and clarify these matters one by one."

Those people had been slandering them without hesitation, and their purpose was not only to separate her and Victor. Thinking about it carefully, she was a little flustered. Perhaps they wanted to prevent their new product from coming on the market or ruin the reputation of Alwynn Group.

Hearing Eden's words, Victor could only nod obediently.

Seeing that Victor had agreed, Eden smiled at him sweetly, picked up the bread and ate it.

Chapter 1289

She didn't eat much in the morning because she was so tired yesterday. At this time, she was in a good mood, so she had a good appetite.

Victor took a look at Eden. At this moment, she was delighted, and her smile was clear and bright. Seeing her like this, he felt better unconsciously and looked at Dean and Paula, "You can go out now."

Only then did Dean and Paula leave.

As soon as Paula walked out of the office, she looked at Dean who was looking down at the i-Pad and asked with a smile, "Dean, do you think Mrs. Alwynn has a toy boy? Why does Mr. Alwynn trust her so much? These pictures are obviously real."

When Dean heard this, he raised his head and looked at Paula's smiling face with brooding eyes unpleasantly. Then he smiled meaningfully, "Paula, you seem to know quite a lot. You can even tell whether it's real or fake with your own eyes. It seems that I've done a great deed and hired an assistant who is as capable as Miss Amelia."

"Miss Amelia has more outstanding computer skills than Mr. Ronen. She is amazing, just like you who can distinguish the photo with your own eyes. How about you dealing with this matter?"

When Paula heard Dean's sarcastic voice, her face became paler and paler.

How could she not understand what Dean meant? He was not praising her, but using Amelia to mock her.

She only knew a little about computers, and she was not a computer expert.

Looking at Paula's pale and embarrassed face, Dean was still mad. He had done a bad job, because he hired a scheming assistant for Eden.

Seeing that Paula did not speak, he continued, "By the way, Miss Amelia dealt with paid Internet trolls in two minutes. With your ability, I think half a minute is enough. When such a thing happen again, I will definitely tell Mrs. Alwynn that it's more appropriate for you to deal with it. I have a lot of things to deal with. Do as you please." After saying that, Dean turned around and left.

Paula was rendered speechless and stood where she was in a daze.

"Dean, you..." Of course, Paula knew that Dean said it on purpose.

She said those words just because she didn't want Eden to live a good life.

Eden once said that she was not qualified to give herself airs in front of her, which really hurt her heart.

Last night, she didn't sleep for a whole night. All she thought about was the scene of Eden and Victor kissing each other.

Paula stamped her feet in anger and turned back to the office.

As soon as she sat down, the phone rang.

"Hello?"

Eden said, "Paula, come to the office."

Paula frowned. Had she made any mistake in work?

Paula hung up the phone, arranged her clothes and then went to the office.

When she arrived at the office, Victor was not there, so she was not so reserved.

Eden put a stack of documents in front of her, "Paula, sort out these documents again. They are all wrong."

"All of them?" Paula didn't believe it and picked them up quickly to have a look. Eden had circled the mistakes in red ink.

Eden looked at her and warned her indifferently, "The mistakes are circled in red ink. What's more, you can only copy onto one side of the paper. Besides, when we had a meeting in the morning, what we talked about was the cooperation between TS Company and RK Company, not TR Company and KS Company. Be careful and don't delay everyone's time."

Paula glanced at her. Eden was reading other documents with her head lowered. Then she said, "This is my first day at work. It's inevitable that I would make some mistakes. I'll be more careful in the future."

"Mm!" Eden did not say anything else.

Just as she was about to ask Paula to leave, Victor suddenly walked in from outside. He stood at the door and panted as he looked at Eden.

Eden looked at him with confusion. Wasn't he going to inspect the factory?

Why did he come back?

Eden looked at him inquiringly with big clear eyes.

However, Victor smiled so happily, "Honey, you can't have dinner with Abigail tonight. Do you forget that? Yesterday night, you told me that we were going on a date. You said it on your own. So, I will come back at three o'clock in the afternoon and then go to pick you up. Honey, I love you. Wait for me to come back."

Victor turned around and left without waiting for Eden to reply.

Eden was stunned. She had really forgotten about it.

Fortunately, she hadn't called Abby.

For a moment, Eden didn't notice Paula and smiled gently.

Seeing this, Paula pouted her red lips. It seemed that Eden was really living a happy life.

"Eden, how did you know Mr. Alwynn?" Paula took the opportunity to get some information.

Eden's smile froze slightly. She glanced at Paula and asked in reply, "Why do you want to know this?"

Paula smiled and said, "I think that you are very lucky. Look! You've married such a good husband, and we're all very envious of you."

Eden laughed, knowing what Paula was thinking.

So many years had passed, but her personality did not change much.

When Paula was in her third year of high school, she and her friends had day dreams and dressed up beautifully every day, hoping to meet their Prince Charming.

She lowered her head slightly and looked out of the window, "What are you envious of? No one will get happiness for no reason. I got my happiness and everything by working hard."

"So, how did you know each other?" Paula looked at her curiously. She didn't want to listen to the process of Eden's success and only wanted to know how she got Victor.

Seeing that Paula was really interested in this, Eden knew what she wanted to do.

She pointed at the chair beside her and let Paula sit down.

Paula really sat down casually and looked at Eden expectantly.

Eden took a sip of the bubble tea on the table before asking with a chuckle, "Paula, you've seen many things happen between me and my husband. You have only worked here for two days, but I've seen your gloating smile several times. Do you want me to break up with my husband?"

After Eden finished her words, she winked at Paula with her big bright eyes and even looked at her with a smile.

Paula was dumbfounded. Although she thought so, she didn't expect Eden to be so straightforward.

"Eden, are you kidding? Why would I think like that?" Paula looked a little awkward. She lowered her head and didn't dare to look at Eden, let alone look into Eden's eyes. Eden looked at her guilty face and laughed.

All her classmates in high school didn't expect that she would have such a happy and rich life, not to mention Paula.

"Ha-ha..." Eden leaned on the chair slightly.

"Paula, we had been classmates for three years. How can I not know your character? You were the most beautiful girl in our class, and you were very proud at that time." When Eden mentioned the past, she had a tightness in the chest.

However, Paula had been challenging her limits.

Chapter 1290

Hearing this, Paula was somewhat embarrassed, "It's meaningless to mention the past. Why do you have to mention it?"

After a pause, she added, "Eden, we are old classmates. Jodie wants to work here. Why don't you help her? We are acquaintances, and it's good for us to work together."

Eden frowned when she heard that. No one could enter Alwynn Group by the back door.

It was impossible for her to make an exception.

Moreover, she didn't think it was good to work together with them. Instead, it would trouble her a lot.

Eden asked her seriously, "How did you get this job?"

Paula smiled awkwardly. She thought of her efforts and hard work over the years. This was the first time she had got a nice job.

"In order to work here, I have prepared for two years and learned a lot."

"So, do you think that I'll let her work here just because I know her? Alwynn Group never keeps idle employees. Do your work well before thinking about helping others. Although you have a three-month probationary period, do you think you can become a permanent employee with such a working attitude? I'm very busy. I not only have to manage this company, but also have to work in the real estate."

"If you are as careless as yesterday and make many mistakes again, you will have to leave here in three months." Eden said ruthlessly. Her expression was serious, and she was not joking at all.

Paula shuddered and looked at Eden in disbelief. Eden actually said these words so heartlessly.

However, before she wanted to work in Alwynn Group, she had known this company completely. Eden was right. Alwynn Group did not keep idle employees and they needed elites. She got this job because of her luck and strength.

Seeing that she didn't speak, Eden said again, "Paula, put aside your little tricks and don't try to seduce Victor, or you will be dealt a severe blow. You can never imagine how dramatic life is. You hate me, but I live better than everyone. In high school, everyone thought that you would live a good life, but you made no progress over the years. I'm talking about you. You don't have to be angry, because I know what you think in your heart."

"It's not easy for me and my husband to get married. Those who once wanted to seduce him all suffered a lot. If you don't believe me, you can have a try. But after having a try, you will know that once you take a wrong step, there will be no turning back for you."

Eden's words made Paula's whole body tremble slightly.

She did not expect that Eden would be so straightforward.

Moreover, her words were so realistic.

"Paula, you treated me badly in high school. Now I don't care about it, but it doesn't mean that I don't mind what you do to me now. I won't be so easy-going. If you want me to be kind to you, the premise is that you're kindhearted. You should feel for others."

"Only when you treat others sincerely will you be respected and appreciated by others. I know that you got this job by hard work, and I hope that you will cherish it. You don't have to speak for others. One should enter Alwynn Group by his own strength. I won't even make an exception for my parents. You can go out."

Hearing these words, Paula was left without a shred of self-esteem.

People always praised her for her beauty. She didn't expect that someone could see her in her true colours.

Paula looked at her with a pale face and asked the question that had puzzled her for many years, "Eden, we bullied you for three years in high school. Why didn't you fight back?"

When Eden heard this, she felt painful in heart and narrowed her eyes. The humiliation was like a sharp knife, cutting her whole body.

She looked at the foggy sky outside the window with dark and gloomy eyes.

Paula did not leave. She had been waiting for her answer.

After a long while, Eden sighed softly, "At that time, I was isolated and lonely. You all knew that I was the adopted daughter of the Gienger family. The Gienger family always wanted to drive me out, and they couldn't tolerate me. When I went to school, the students didn't make friends with me because of Myra." Saying this, Eden looked at Paula and smiled. Her smile was beautiful but bitter.

But she was as strong as ever.

"So, I could only endure it when you bullied me. I knew that with my own ability, there was nothing I could change. But if I studied well, I could change my life. At that time, I had got used to being bullied by you. Myra asked you to find fault with me, because she wanted to see me fight against you. If I made troubles at school, they could have an excuse to drive me out of the Gienger family."

"I was determined to go to college at that time. If I was driven out of the Gienger family, I couldn't even fulfill my last wish. So you don't know how remarkable my endurance was at that time."

Eden looked at the sky outside the window again and said, "I still remember that in a winter, when I went to the first floor, four people poured a basin of cold water on me from the second floor. My whole body was wet, but I kept studying until the school was over. Then, I went back and lay on bed for a few days."

Saying this, Eden looked at Paula with grievances in her eyes, "I didn't go to school for several days. I just want to ask if you felt guilty at that time."

Paula looked at her with a pale face, unable to say a single word.

At that time, they did not feel guilty. Instead, they hoped that Eden would not come to school forever.

"By the way, what is the most terrible thing you have done? You always touched me on my most sensitive spot."

"The Gienger family wouldn't give me extra money. I earned my money by doing part-time jobs. Do you know how low the salary was back then? I could only earn three dollars a day. In such a cold winter, I washed dishes in the restaurant from eight in the morning to six in the afternoon. My hands were frozen and I had chilblains. What I hate most is that when I went to buy food, you took my money to buy snacks and even said shamelessly that it was my treat. The money was my living expenses for a whole week. You all lived a good life. How could you understand my despair at that time? Do you know how I lived that week? I only ate a steamed bun and drank a few cups of water a day. That was how I survived."

"Paula, you did countless of terrible things to me. If I were you, I wouldn't come here in the rest of my life. Go out."

Eden's face was gloomy. She really didn't want to mention what Paula and the other three girls had done to her.

Paula stood up and glanced at Eden. She pursed her lips, but she didn't say anything and turned to leave.
