

Gluey Love 1451

Chapter 1451

"Mrs. Church, you're welcome. Let me see Adonis first." Anton looked into the ward.

Lucian said, "I'm going to call Dr. Conley. You can give him a check-up together."

The most authoritative doctor in the hospital was Dr. Conley.

Lucian believed that Adonis had a chance to wake up. With Anton here, he was more confident.

Adonis had an accident because of him. If Adonis could not wake up, he would live in guilt for the rest of his life.

"Okay!" Anton nodded.

Seeing that Lucian, Eden, Victor, Anson and Brian all thought for Adonis, Candace was very grateful.

So many people cared about him and accompanied him, which meant that he was very loyal to his friends in daily life.

Eden accompanied Candace and waited for Anton to finish the check-up.

Victor had invested in a lot of research funds. Many experts were attracted here, and they worked together to save Adonis.

Knowing this, Candace waited for Adonis to wake up at ease.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, Anton told them a piece of good news.

Adonis had always been using the best medicine.

He was in a much better condition.

However, Anton's words made everyone sad. Adonis had a chance to wake up, but they had to wait for one year at least. If he was not lucky, he might wake up three years later.

Candace was very happy to hear this. Some vegetables would be in a coma for about eight or ten years, but Adonis could wake up in three years. She was like over the moon.

No matter how long it would take, she could wait.

Since she had fallen in love with him, she would never change.

After everyone left, Candace sat next to the bed happily, took Adonis's slightly cold hand and gently placed it on her flat belly.

Looking at Adonis who was sleeping quietly, she smiled brightly and charmingly, "Adonis, our baby is in my belly. Will you feel very happy when you know that we have a child?"

"Wake up before our baby is born, okay? I know you don't want me to be tired. You said that I only needed to be responsible for being your pretty girlfriend. Therefore, you must wake up as soon as possible." Candace kept holding Adonis's hand and talked a lot.

She had become a mother, so she was stronger than before....

After Eden left the hospital, she did not leave in a hurry.

To her surprise, Delmont car was still parked at the gate, and he had been sitting in the car.

It was time for dinner. Would he buy dinner for Adrienne?

Eden stood at the corner for a while. Sure enough, she saw Delmont get out of the car.

He walked toward the street not far away.

After waiting for about forty minutes, Eden saw him come back with several food boxes.

He made a call at the door, and then the nurse who sent meals to Adrienne's ward came out with a smile.

Delmont handed two food boxes to the nurse and kept one for himself.

After he thanked the nurse, the nurse smiled and went back to the hospital with the food boxes.

Delmont watched the nurse walk in. Then he got in the car, rolled down the car window and had his dinner.

Eden smiled. Did Delmont stay here all day?

Suddenly, her phone rang.

Eden looked down at the phone number. It was Victor calling her.

"Hello? Victor."

"Honey, where are you? You skip work frequently. Can you respect me a little more?" Victor's tone was full of grievances, and he was as wronged as a wife who had been abandoned.

Eden said, "I skip work, but so what? I am in the hospital. Candace is pregnant."

"Oh!" Victor was a little surprised.

"Adonis is so lucky."

"Yeah, Candace decided to give birth to the child. She is really a rare good girl. Adonis is kind, so God favours him."

Victor said, "Eden, wait for me in the hospital. I'll come and pick you up for dinner."

Eden nodded, "Okay!"

After hanging up the phone, Eden looked at Delmont again.

While he was eating, he kept looking at the entrance of the hospital.

His eyes were filled with happiness and tenderness.

Eden was a bit surprised. She had never seen such a gentle expression on Delmont's face. He doted on her very much, but the gentleness he had towards her was different.

Adrienne seemed to be the sunshine in his heart, and there was warmth and passion in his eyes.

It seemed that Adrienne was Delmont's beloved woman.

But how could he get to be with her since he only cared about her in private?

If they didn't understand each other, they couldn't be in love.

Delmont did these things without letting Adrienne know. It was not wise, was it?

Eden wondered how she could let Adrienne be with Delmont.

Just as Eden was about to leave, she saw Paula appear in front of Delmont's car all of a sudden.

"Well..."

Why was Paula so stubborn and shameless?

"Delmont." Paula was slightly surprised to see Delmont eating in the car.

A hint of anger flashed through Delmont's eyes when he saw Paula.

"Miss Koch, why are you here?" His tone was indifferent and distant.

Paula could sense his indifference, and her expression became unnatural in an instant.

"Delmont, I don't understand why you suddenly became so cold to me. Is it because I used to be Eden's classmate? I know I'm not born in a rich family and I'm not good enough for you, but I fell in love with you the moment I saw you."

Since Paula talked to Eden, she had been extremely flustered. She inquired about Delmont's whereabouts and found out that he had been here in the past few days.

Delmont put down the chopsticks and looked at her apathetically, "Miss Koch, I'm deeply sorry for having troubled you. I hope you will not say such words again."

Paula looked at his aloof face and clenched her fists tightly.

"You did trouble me and let me misunderstand you. Delmont, you gave me hope, but why did you ruin it so ruthlessly? Do you know how cruel it is to me?"

Delmont frowned. He had never met such a shameless woman before.

Paula actually took the initiative to find him. He met such a woman for the first time.

"Miss Koch, I've explained to you that I sent you home late at night because you're my sister's classmate. There's no other reason. This matter might make you misunderstand me, but I've apologized to you."

"Delmont, do you think everything can come to an end just because of your apology? It's just because you sent me home late at night and ate with me that I thought we liked each other. But it turns out that I have thought too much. What do you think I should do? I've fallen in love with you." Paula's eyes were filled with tears, and she looked very pitiful.

Delmont sighed helplessly. He didn't like her indeed.

Eden was about to walk over when she saw the nurse pushing Adrienne to Delmont's car.

Chapter 1452

Eden was stunned. Adrienne was going to misunderstand Delmont!

Adrienne went there all of a sudden, and it would make things complicated.

Paula gritted her teeth. She would not give up, "Delmont, I will not stop loving you. Since you've made me fall in love with you, you must be responsible for me."

Delmont's face suddenly turned cold and he said in an apathetic tone, "Miss Koch, I think you have misunderstood something. What did I do to make you like me?"

"You sent me home late at night, had meals with me and called me by my name affectionately. Couldn't these things prove that you like me?"

"Delmont, I really love you. Would you rather watch me die for you?"

"You..." Delmont looked at her with a frown.

Such a shameless and stubborn woman made him very furious.

"Ha-ha..." A mocking laughter suddenly came from behind Paula.

Paula turned her around and looked at Adrienne, "Who are you? Why do you laugh?"

"I laugh at you because you're left without a shred of self-esteem." Adrienne looked at her expensively painted nails with a mocking smile.

"Adrienne!" Delmont immediately got out of the car. He became more and more nervous because she had seen him and Paula.

Adrienne raised her head and gave him a cold look.

Delmont became uneasier and uneasier.

Seeing that Delmont's expression was strange, Paula immediately held his arm and asked in a gentle tone, "Delmont, who is she? Is she your friend? We've been together for so long. Why have you never mentioned her?"

Delmont's eyes suddenly turned cold. He looked at Adrienne's bland expression and found that there was no change in her smiling eyes.

His heart suddenly sank. Didn't she love him anymore?

Delmont couldn't help but hold Paula's waist.

Seeing this, Adrienne looked down slightly and a trace of disappointment flashed through her eyes.

What a silly man! No wonder he was still single in his thirties! She came out to help him out, but he treated her like this. Her kindness actually gave Paula a reason to pester him.

Looking at what Delmont was doing not far away, Eden was dumbfounded.

Meanwhile, Paula was looking at Adrienne provocatively.

Eden went mad. Why was Delmont so dull? Couldn't he be smarter?

Adrienne glanced at Paula indifferently. What made Paula confident enough to seduce her man?

Soon after, she would be in charge of the business world in River City.

Adrienne looked up at Delmont.

Delmont looked at her as well. She sneered and said in heart, "Delmont, just sharpen your vigilance and don't be fooled by such a woman."

B*stard! She was pissed off.

"Let's go." Adrienne said to the nurse.

Seeing that Adrienne was about to leave without saying a word, Delmont only stared at her back, and there was deep affection in his gaze.

Eden glared at Paula. She had never seen such a shameless and thick-skinned b*tch.

Watching Adrienne leave, Delmont quickly let go of Paula.

Paula immediately realized that Adrienne was Delmont's beloved woman.

Adrienne's clothes were all of famous and expensive brands, and she suddenly felt herself inferior.

Eden ran forward and kicked Delmont's leg.

"Eden." Delmont looked at her mad face and felt puzzled.

Eden looked at him with annoyance, "Don't call me. If you don't chase after her now, you'll really live in regret forever."

"Eden, I..." Delmont's eyes were somewhat expectant.

Eden looked at him with disappointment, "Delmont, what are you thinking about? She came here to help you out, but what did you do? You're forcing her to stay away from you."

Delmont was suddenly enlightened and ran over, "Adrienne!"

"Delmont." Seeing Delmont chasing after Adrienne, Paula was extremely annoyed.

Eden looked at Delmont's back and smiled.

"Eden!" Paula roared at Eden fiercely.

Eden looked at her casually, "Why do you tell so loudly? Delmont doesn't like such a b*tch like you."

"You..."

Paula went off the deep end.

"What? You are just a b*tch." Eden said again.

"Eden, do you have a grudge against me? You are really shameless! Delmont and I..."

"You are the shameless one, and you're a woman utterly without self-knowledge." Eden interrupted her, "Paula, let me tell you. It is not easy to fool Delmont."

Paula said angrily, "Then is it easy to fool me?"

Eden replied, "Has he ever fooled you?"

"Eden, I said that I don't need you to meddle in my affairs." Paula was extremely irritated and stamped her foot.

Eden sneered, "Who do you think you are? Why should I meddle in your affairs?"

Eden turned around and walked to the road. Victor was about come to pick her up.

Paula looked at Eden's back and sneered, "Eden, I'm determined to be your sister-in-law. Can you stop me?"

Paula chased in the direction that Delmont had left.

Delmont caught up with Adrienne and asked the nurse to leave. Then he pushed Adrienne's wheelchair.

Adrienne knew it was him, but she kept a straight face and didn't speak.

Seeing that she remained silent, Delmont wanted to chat with her, "Adrienne, how did your leg get hurt?"

"What does it have to do with you?" Adrienne said with annoyance.

"Adrienne, don't be angry. I'm just concerned about you."

"Why qualification do you have to care about me? We have nothing to do with each other." Adrienne's tone turned more and more apathetic.

"Adrienne, back then, we didn't break up. I'm... still your boyfriend." Delmont thought of Eden's words and said boldly.

Adrienne's expression froze, and she lowered her head. Didn't they break up back then?

"Do you want me to break up with you now?" At that time, she said that she was going to leave, but he never asked her to stay.

Delmont's heart ached. He lowered his head and looked at her with intense eyes, "Adrienne, I hope that you will never say this to me. Although we were separated back then, I respected your decision and never thought about breaking up with you."

Adrienne felt painful in heart. Didn't he know why she left back then?

"Delmont, you're really a b*stard. Tell me. What's the relationship between you and that woman?"

Hearing her jealous voice, Delmont felt very delighted in heart.

"Adrienne, she is my younger sister's classmate. We don't have anything to do with each other. Don't take her to heart. Just now, I ignored you deliberately because you didn't care about me." He must explain this clearly. There had been too many misunderstandings between them.

She had left for six years, and they had never contacted each other in the past six years.

"So did you use her?" Adrienne looked at him with a sneer.

"Delmont, when can you become smarter?"

"I..." Delmont had nothing to say. In her eyes, he seemed to be really silly.

Chapter 1453

"Adrienne, I'm sorry!" Delmont lowered his head.

Hearing his apology again, Adrienne felt even angrier, "You don't have to say sorry to me. You didn't do anything to let me down, did you?"

In the past, when he did something wrong, he always lowered his head and said sorry to her.

He was kind, so he would apologize to her no matter he was right or wrong.

Thinking of this, Adrienne was furious, "Delmont, what else can you say in addition to apologizing?"

"I'm... sorry!" In front of the person he liked, he really didn't know what to say.

He wanted to explain, but he felt that it was his fault.

"Why do you say sorry again? Delmont, can't you say something else? When we were in a relationship, you would say sorry when I got mad and when you were late. However, you even said sorry when I was late. That was clearly my fault. Why did you have to apologize? I hate to hear your apology the most!" Adrienne didn't even want to look at his expression.

She knew that he must look very guilty.

Delmont didn't say anything and pushed her to the hospital.

Adrienne had a lot to say, but she could only sigh with depression.

Loving someone was so difficult.

It was even harder to wait for someone who loved her.

Paula watched Delmont push Adrienne back to the hospital and bit her lower lip tightly. Things progressed faster than she had expected.

Eden said that Delmont had a woman he liked this morning, and she met this woman at night.

Moreover, Adrienne was obviously not simple.

Paula looked so worried. Should she really give up Delmont?

No, she would never give up.

After Eden waited for about ten minutes, Victor parked his car in front of her slowly.

Victor got out of the car and opened the car door for her.

Eden got in. When Victor got in the car, he asked, "Honey, what shall we eat for dinner?"

Eden thought about it, and there was nothing she wanted to eat particularly.

"Victor, let's take the children to KFC."

Victor was surprised.

On one occasion, Kenny suddenly wanted to eat fried chicken, and he was happy to eat that.

"Okay! Let's go back to pick them up first."

.....

The first snow came in River City, and the whole city was snowy.

Alwynn Group had annual sales of about sixteen billion dollars, and it became one of the top ten famous brand all over the world by its outstanding quality, excellent originality and exquisite workmanship.

It finally become one of the top ten luxury and well-known brands in the world.

Eden had got one step closer to her dream.

She was nominated for the annual international designer, but her goal was to become the top designer and own her fashion brand.

She did not want to prove herself to anyone, and she only wanted to live up to her ideal of herself.

This was her lifelong dream.

T.G square had become the most popular shopping mall in River City.

At the same time, the Ronen family officially announced that Lucian would become the heir of Ronen Group.

The matter had received wide coverage in the press.

In a simple rental, Amelia saw the report about Ronen Group. Looking at Lucian's gentle and handsome face, she missed him so much.

She smiled gently.

She knew that he would succeed.

She looked down at her swollen belly with a happy face.

"Baby, your daddy is awesome!" She said softly, but tears ran down her face.

Lucian returned to Alwynn Group and continued to work as Victor's secretary. Nothing had changed except for his doubly increased workload.

He had to deal with the affairs in Alwynn Group and Ronen Group at the same time.

In this winter, no clothing company could compete with Alwynn Group in River City.

Irving, Dahlia and Aidan looked at the data on the big screen. The performance of Alwynn Group this year was amazing, and they all looked depressed.

Irving felt that the distance between him and Victor was getting farther and farther.

Moreover, even if he cooperated with other companies or took over other companies in the shortest time, he might not be able to catch up with Victor.

Victor's way of doing business was realistic, sincere and solid.

He could not find a single weakness of Victor.

In Alwynn Group, Victor let everyone display his talents fully.

He selected the good and the capable to be the managers in the company, discovered able people and put them at suitable posts. This was the key to the operation of a company.

"In the end, we fail." Irving said gloomily.

This year, they did not win Alwynn Group, but suffered great losses.

He lost nearly one hundred million dollars.

It was difficult to turn the table.

Sure enough, Victor was not an ordinary person.

"Mr. Matthews, it's difficult to make a breakthrough in River City." Said Aidan.

He was telling the truth.

Although River City was very big, it was not possible to replace the Alwynn family in a short time.

The situation was clear, and Irving should give up.

Over the years, there were few people who could go against Victor. Anyone who provoked him would suffer a lot.

Starting business in this city was extremely difficult.

If Eden was not here, Irving would not be so persistent.

Irving closed his eyes and did not speak. He believed that he could think of a way.

In Alwynn Group!

Seeing how popular their winter collection was, Victor, Lucian and Dean smiled very happily.

The corner of Dean's lips twitched as he looked at how smug Victor was.

Alwynn Group had become a fearful existence to other companies.

Lucian said blandly, "This year, we made a new breakthrough. Your dream was that Alwynn Group could become one of the top ten luxury brands in this world. I did not expect that the person who realized this dream for you would be your wife. Of course, you made a contribution as well. Your unique business operation is the key to success."

Victor smiled. He did not dare to claim credit. He had Eden's design to thank for his success.

She was a very gifted and outstanding designer.

"Lucian, you are wrong. This is not my dream, but Eden's dream. She is about to realize her dream. Don't forget the original intention of me establishing the clothing company."

Eden became more and more famous. She used to be famous all over the country. At this time, she was well-known all over the world.

They had orders coming in from all over the world. Countless companies wanted to cooperate with Alwynn Group.

Lucian smiled.

"Her dream is just your dream."

He lowered his head, and a hint of disappointment flashed across his eyes.

He couldn't get Amelia's smiling face out of his head.

Victor straightened his body and looked at Lucian, "I want to hold a wedding with Eden at the end of this month."

Lucian looked at him and smiled brightly, "It's winter. Will Eden agree? Abby is going to give birth to the child. Eden won't leave her best friend behind and have a honeymoon with you."

Victor frowned and touched his forehead gracefully. How could he forget this?

"Lucian!" A mad voice came from outside.

Lucian frowned. Why did Edith come here again?

Chapter 1454

Victor looked at him, "Hurry up and send away the vixen! Don't let her ruin the image of our company, especially your image. You are my unique secretary."

Lucian supported his forehead helplessly and asked, "Is there any way to get rid of her forever?"

Dean said, "Yes, Mr. Ronen."

Lucian turned to look at him, "I would like to hear the details."

Dean smiled flatteringly, "Mr. Ronen, if you give her a lesson and let her have no chance to get close to you again, you will not be troubled by her anymore."

Lucian was speechless.

Dean explained again, "She is so clingy and pushes you too hard, so you hate her more and more. Since you hate her so much, you can definitely be ruthless enough to give her a lesson."

Dean instigated him shamelessly.

Lucian laughed wickedly, "I'll give you one million dollars. You give her a lesson on my behalf."

Dean shrank back his shoulders, "Mr. Ronen, one million dollars are too much. It's unreasonable for me to do such a thing. After all, I am a gentleman."

Lucian frowned, "So is it reasonable for me to do it?"

Dean nodded, "Facing such a clingy woman, a man would first be proud. Then he would dislike it and be annoyed. But it's also possible for him to fall in love with her while rejecting her."

Lucian scoffed, "This is the first time I've heard that rejection could produce love."

"No, Mr. Ronen, you have to solve this matter quickly. It is not terrible for women to be clingy, but an extremely clingy woman is the most horrible. They don't know when enough is enough and don't know when to stop. This will drive you crazy. Think about it. You are so handsome, and you can be with any outstanding woman in this world, right? Why do you have to be driven crazy by a woman you don't love?"

Lucian didn't want to talk to him and got up to leave.

Amelia left, and she had taken away his heart.

She loved him purely, and she had no selfish ideas.

Every twinkle and smile of her could move his heart.

Hearing Edith's roar, Victor frowned and looked disgusted.

"Dean, where is my wife?" Victor asked casually.

Dean was speechless. Eden was his life. Why did he ask him about Eden?

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn has an appointment today. She went out with Paula."

"Oh! When will she come back?"

"Mr. Alwynn, I don't know the specific time." Dean lowered his head. Eden was going to meet Jasper.

Moreover, they would meet in a club. Dean didn't know what they would talk about.

Victor looked at Dean who had his head lowered and asked in confusion, "She went out early in the morning. Who will she meet?"

Dean didn't dare to lie, because he didn't want to work overtime any longer. He muttered in heart, "Mrs. Alwynn, I'm sorry!"

"She will meet Mr. Joye."

"Mr. Joye... Jasper?" Victor stood up immediately.

Dean knew he would be like this.

Anyway, it much better than meeting Irving.

"Dean, look. It's snowing heavily outside. What is Jasper thinking about? Why does he have to meet Eden in a club? Isn't he afraid that Eden will get sick? Eden is so weak and she can't catch a cold. Get the car ready and we'll go to the club." Victor picked up the coat beside him and was ready to leave.

Dean said, "Mr. Alwynn, you have to meet some important business partners later, so you can't leave."

Victor said, "Ask Lucian to meet them."

Dean was stunned. How could Victor do this? Didn't he ask Lucian to deal with Edith?

Edith did not give up and pestered Lucian all the time.

Lucian was having a hard time!

"It seems that Mr. Ronen has no time. He has to attend a social activity tonight. Tomorrow, he will go on a business trip to Love Sea. You should remember that Mrs. Alwynn drew her inspiration from Love Sea. There is a specific cooperative partner over there. Mr. Ronen must go there personally."

Victor looked at him with gloomy eyes, "That is something he should do tomorrow. Does it have anything to do with his work today?"

Dean was silent.

Of course it had something to do with Lucian's work that day. Lucian was busy with work, but Victor was busy following Eden.

There was a huge difference between the two matters.

Dean thought for a moment and said, "Mr. Alwynn, why don't I call Mrs. Alwynn and ask when they will come back? Paula followed her there, and nothing bad will happen."

"Okay!" Victor sat down and looked at Dean who was calling Eden.

Dean took out his phone and called Eden. At this time, Eden and Jasper were chatting happily.

Eden's phone suddenly rang. She looked down and saw that it was Dean calling her.

"Hello?"

"Mrs. Alwynn, Mr. Alwynn is looking for you. When will you come back?"

In the morning, Eden had Victor that she had something to do and would not go back to the company that day. Why did he look for her after a short while?

"Tell him that I won't go back to the company. I'll get off work directly."

Dean was rendered speechless and looked very awkward.

Why did he have to call Eden just now?

He should have started the car and driven Victor to the club.

"Okay, Mrs. Alwynn, I will tell Mr. Alwynn about it. But today is a good day, and it's understandable that Mr. Alwynn wants to share the good news with you. If you don't have anything important to do, you could spend a happy day with Mr. Alwynn." Dean tried to persuade Eden.

After all, Eden became much more famous that day. Victor was very delighted, and he would hold a luxurious celebration party for her.

Eden said, "Dean, tell him that I stay with my friend now. If he has nothing to do, ask him to go home earlier to accompany the children."

"I see, Mrs. Alwynn."

Dean hung up the phone and looked at Victor with a flattering face.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn asked you to go home early to accompany the children."

Victor's face darkened to the extreme. Eden would forget him completely when she stayed with Jasper.

"Go to the club!" He said with a firm tone.

Dean immediately persuaded him, "Mr. Alwynn, please give Mrs. Alwynn some private space. She will get angry if you're too clingy." If Eden was mad, Victor would feel wronged again.

Dean had never seen such a clingy husband. Normally, women were clingier than men.

He was really surprised by Victor.

Sure enough, Victor sat down obediently, but he glared at Dean.

Dean could only smile hypocritically.

"Lucian, do you really hate me that much?"

Edith's angry voice came from outside again.

"Do you still want to wait for the woman who has abandoned you? Lucian, does she love you more than I do? I treat you better, don't I?"

"Lucian, to be honest, we grew up together, and we know each other well. We are a perfect match."

"We are not suitable for each other." Lucian's cold voice was full of ruthlessness.

"Why don't you like me? Tell me, and I'll change."

"I don't like you because you like me. Change it."

Chapter 1455

Edith was speechless, and her face turned pale instantly. Anson was a jinx! His words were actually right.

Her heart ached so much.

"Lucian, what's the point of saying this? You're already thirty years old. How long can you wait for her?" If there were a lot of tastes in life, it was because of him that she felt bitter and sweet.

Lucian's expression was indifferent as he said, "This has nothing to do with my age. Whether I can wait for her or not, it's none of your business. But I don't want to see you anymore."

Saying this, Lucian turned around and returned to his office expressionlessly.

Edith looked at his back and said with a smile, "Lucian."

Lucian stopped and turned around to look at her apathetically.

Under the lights, his expression was aloof, like the cold spring. He was charming but distant.

Edith's eyes were full of infatuation as she said confidently, "Auntie said that she wanted me to marry into the Ronen family. After all, our families are well-matched."

"So what? Is equal social status very important? I don't like you. Even if you're the richest person in the world, I wouldn't be moved by you. Don't waste your time on me. If Amelia doesn't come back, I won't get married in the rest of my life."

He knew that Amelia wouldn't marry another man.

Edith was rendered speechless again. Her face darkened to the extreme.

She really lost to Amelia.

Amelia was a gentle and quiet girl. She clearly had no advantage, but Lucian loved her deeply.

"Do you mean that you will stay single forever if she doesn't come back?" His infatuation made her obsessed but jealous.

Yeah, Amelia was really happy to have a man who loved her so much. He could even stay single for her.

She begged Lucian to marry her, but Lucian didn't even want to look at her.

"Lucian, an affectionate man will live a lonely life forever."

Her heart ached for him when she thought about how sad he had been these days.

Lucian said, "It is me who will be lonely, not you!"

Edith gritted her teeth. What a stubborn a*shole!

She adopted every possible means, but he treated her as an idiot.

"B*stard! I will let you marry me willingly one day. Just wait and see! You can't marry any other woman except for me!" She said every word confidently.

Lucian's mother supported her, and it was half the battle.

Moreover, since Lucian had inherited Ronen Group, his father would not let him marry an ordinary woman.

"Don't be so confident until you really get me." After saying this in a cold voice, Lucian turned around without hesitation and stepped into Victor's office.

As soon as he entered the office, Dean and Victor, who were eavesdropping, immediately sat back on the sofa as if nothing had happened, but their expressions were very unnatural.

Lucian looked at them and frowned, "Is it interesting to eavesdrop me?"

Victor looked at him, "Lucian, you are as righteous as a pine, as strong as a red plum, and as generous as a sea. You are a nice man!" Victor gave him a thumbs-up sign.

"Boring!" Lucian looked at Dean, "Have you booked the ticket?"

Dean smiled and nodded, "Yes, Mr. Ronen, but it's really boring to go to Love Sea alone."

Lucian said, "I'm not going on a trip. I'm going to work. It's okay even if I'll feel bored."

Dean said with a smile, "Mr. Ronen, we haven't got any news about Miss Amelia. Maybe she is around Love Sea."

"How do you know that?" Lucian's tone was urgent and a bit hopeful.

Dean said, "That's just what I think. Think about it. Love Sea is a holy place. Miss Amelia is romantic, and she will definitely go there once in life."

Lucian glared at him fiercely, and the joy in his heart immediately disappeared.

"I am going to socialize." Lucian stood up and left.

Victor said, "Let's go together. I have to attend a social activity as well."

Lucian did not speak, and they left the office together.

Victor looked at the snowy city outside the window and felt a little restless.

"Dean, find a very romantic place which is suitable for making a proposal. If I succeed in asking Eden to marry me, I will increase your pay."

Hearing this, Dean was glad to do it.

"Mr. Alwynn, I will definitely inquire about it actively, and I will reply to you as soon as possible." Salary was the best thing in the world.

Lucian said, "Dean, don't count your chickens before they are hatched. I don't think Eden will agree."

The expression in Dean's eyes changed. Making a proposal was a romantic thing. Eden would agree, wouldn't she?

That was Victor. Although he had got married, many women wanted to marry him.

"Mr. Ronen, I should have a try, because I have to save money to get married." Dean smiled flatteringly. It was hard to earn money, so he would not miss any chance. He wanted to buy big houses for himself and his mother. In that case, it would be easier for him to get married.

Lucian smiled blandly, "Good luck to you!"

Victor frowned, "Abigail is going to give birth to her child, but what does it have to do with my proposal?" His voice was extremely depressed, "Eden promised me that she would marry me at the end of this year." The New Year was coming, and he became more and more anxious. Eden seemed to have forgotten this matter.

Lucian said, "She has married you. You have a marriage certificate and now her surname is Alwynn. she's already your wife, and she can't run away. Why are you in such a hurry?"

Victor glanced at him, "Of course I am anxious. A lot of men cast greedy eyes on my wife."

Lucian was speechless. No matter how many men liked Eden, she was his wife.

They couldn't take her away from him.

Neither could Irving.

Of course, Jasper only wanted Eden to be happy.

In V&E Club.

Eden and Jasper had not seen each other for a long time.

Jasper specially arranged to meet Eden here. On one hand, he wanted to celebrate her success. On the other hand, he wanted to say goodbye to Eden. He wanted to leave River City for a period of time and return to Gate City to deal with the affairs in the company.

He would come back the next year.

Jasper didn't have many friends, and Eden was his only confidante.

"Eden, I may come back after the Spring Festival." He was reluctant to leave, but his business developed well this year, and his company was expanding.

Eden looked at him with a smile, "Jasper, no matter how busy you're, you have to come back to celebrate the Spring Festival, or Abby will be sad."

Jasper smiled and nodded. His handsome face was full of gentleness as he said, "Eden, if I could, I would come back. It's a pity that I can't accompany Abby to give birth to the child."

Eden nodded. He looked well, and he was much more energetic these days. "It's indeed a pity, but you don't have to worry about Abby. My mom and I are by her side. Besides, Anson dotes on her very much, and his mother is very kind. I will take good care of Abby. You can work at ease."

"Okay!" Jasper nodded with relief and stared at her with tender eyes, "Eden, you have achieved great success this time. Congratulations! You have been working hard in order to realize your dream."

Chapter 1456

"Jasper, it has been my dream since I was young. If I can't fulfill my dream, I will regret it for the rest of my life. All these years, I have been working hard, and I hope that my efforts will be rewarded." Although it seemed to be very easy for her to come up with new ideas, she drew her inspiration from everything she saw.

Jasper smiled and nodded. Eden was happier and happier, and the expression on her perfect face was no longer melancholic.

He finally let go of his affection to her. Victor was a good husband, and he gave her the best love.

The woman he loved finally got the happiness she wanted.

"Eden, now Love Sea has become very popular among young people. These days, it has been the hottest topic online. Many young men and women go there to travel. Your design made both of Alwynn Group and Love Sea famous."

Eden smiled modestly, "Jasper, I didn't expect it to become so well-known all of a sudden. But it's a beautiful and romantic place. Even if you go there in winter, your heart will be filled with warmth and passion." She liked Love Sea, and it was really lovely in winter.

"By the way, Jasper, I met Maureen in River City Restaurant a period of time ago. She seemed to be in a bad condition."

A hint of anger flashed across Jasper's eyes. He went berserk as soon as he thought of Maureen, "She has nothing to do with me. Whether she is alive or not, it's none of my business."

Hearing this, Eden stopped talking.

For Jasper, Maureen and the child were unforgettable in his life.

Besides, she became the culprit because of Jasper's love.

She had been feeling guilty.

"Jasper, I wish you a safe journey." She knew that he would leave tomorrow.

"Thank you!" He looked at her and sighed in heart. Life was really difficult. Sometimes, he felt sad for no reason, but he couldn't feel happy without a reason.

That day, Eden had been accompanying Jasper.

The two went shopping. Jasper bought Eden a lot of delicious food, and they play games together. They had a good time.

At dinner time, Eden was so full that she couldn't eat anymore.

But they went to eat hot pot.

They sat by the window and waited for the dishes to be served, talking and laughing.

"Eden, I will stay in Gate City for a long time. If you want to eat something, tell me and I will send it to you."

"Okay, I especially want to eat the wax apple in Gate City. When the wax apple goes on market, remember to buy some for me."

"Okay! I will remember."

"Jasper, I want to congratulate you as well. Your design made a great breakthrough this year, and your company is developing better and better. You may be busier in the future."

"That's right! Anyway, you're busier than me. Take chance of this period of time and have a good rest now. You can work hard after the spring Festival. If you ignore the three children, they will be unhappy." Jasper smiled gently. He had been used to reminding her carefully before he left.

"They have been unhappy for a long time. The three children are busier than me. Kenny is busy with his own website. Ricky is busy with his piano lessons and calligraphy examinations. Gia is busy with her painting exhibition. I don't even have time to chat with them." Her three children are fighting for their own dreams, and she was very delighted.

What reason did she have to stop making progress?

"The three children have never let you down." What made him envious was that her three children were very obedient and filial.

While they were chatting, the dishes had been served.

The two ate and chatted.

Not far away, Dahlia sneered when she saw this.

Opposite her sat a young woman who dressed stylishly. They had a nice chat.

She took out her phone and sent a message.

"Eden, my man likes you, so you have to pay the price." She said in heart.

"Miss Scott, I believe that you'll add brilliance to our present splendor after you join RK Group."

Dulcie Scott graduated from a well-known college of clothing design abroad, and she had just completed her own design exhibition not long ago. She was as famous as Eden.

With her participation, RK Group would be strong enough to compete with Alwynn Group.

Dulcie smiled politely, "Miss Grant, thank you for your appreciation. I hope that I will make RK Group have a new breakthrough." It was time for her to show her capabilities, and she would not miss any chance to go beyond herself.

Dahlia pointed at Eden who was not far away, "Miss Scott, what a coincidence. The woman and the man sitting by the window over there are Eden, who has been popular all over the world recently, and her lover, Jasper."

Upon hearing this, Dulcie frowned. Why was Eden so shameless?

"Isn't her husband the president of Alwynn Group? How could he be a cuckold?" Dulcie said in a displeased tone. She hated disloyal women.

Dahlia watched Eden and Jasper's intimate actions. The corner of Eden's mouth was stained with grease. Jasper picked up the tissue and wiped it gently for her. They were on extremely good terms.

A hint of jealousy appeared in her eyes.

Eden was indeed very popular.

A lot of men treated her sincerely.

She sneered, "Who knows? Maybe she is too smart and scheming. I heard it from others, but they really look very intimate."

Dulcie looked over, and Jasper happened to pick up food for Eden with a smile.

As for Eden, she picked up a shrimp ball and put it in Jasper's mouth.

Jasper smiled and ate it. They looked like a couple.

Dulcie, who was strong and principled, regarded Eden as a sl*tty woman when she saw this.

"But this woman is rather talented. The patterns and colours of the clothes designed by her are all fashionable." She said with jealousy. Since she had returned to River City, Eden would not have the chance to be so popular again.

But how could such a shameless woman be so famous?

Looking at Eden from the side, she found that Eden's skin was fair, and she looked very charming when she smiled.

Dahlia smiled and said, "Miss Scott, now that you're in River City, she won't be able to make progress. She can't be lucky forever, can she?"

Dulcie was pleased by her words. She ran her fingers through her beautiful hair, and her delicate features looked charismatic.

The red coat made her look very coquettish and lofty.

"Yeah!" She was very confident.

After Eden said goodbye to Jasper, Jasper left and she went to the bathroom.

When she came out, she washed her hands.

Just as she was about to pull out the tissue and wipe her hands, a man in a suit stepped forward and handed her the tissue.

The man looked gentle and smiled at her tenderly.

It was not proper to treat a polite man rudely. Moreover, the man had handed the tissue to her. She smiled, thanked the man and took the tissue to wipe her hands.

"Miss, you are so beautiful. Could I have your phone number?" The man asked with a courteous smile.

Chapter 1457

Eden did not pay the attention to the man just now. Hearing his words, she raised her head and looked at him carefully. The man's smile was a little evil, and his eyes were somewhat indecent.

Eden's expression turned cold, "Sir, such a way to start a conversation is outdated. Thank you for handing me the tissue just now. I don't think it's unnecessary to give you my phone number."

Saying this, Eden was about to leave.

However, the man did not let her go and stood in front of her, "Miss, I want to make friends with you because you are pretty."

Eden was so angry but she laughed. The reason why he wanted to make friends with her was that she was good-looking. This man was really a scum.

"I'm sorry. Sir, you're too ugly, so I don't want to make friends with you." Eden looked at the man with disdain. He looked gentle, but had a disgusting heart.

"Yo! Miss, did you say that I was ugly?" The man put his hands in his pockets like a hooligan. His eyes became more and more wicked as he looked Eden up and down maliciously.

"Sir, you know yourself quite well. Please get out of my way." Eden's tone was extremely aloof.

"Ha-ha..." The man smiled viciously, "Miss, you are really ruthless. I helped you, but is this how you repay me?"

Ugh...

Eden almost threw up when she heard his frivolous tone.

D*mn! Why were there so many weird people in this world?

She didn't ask him for help.

Eden took out two tissues and smashed them on the man's face, saying coldly and madly, "I've returned your favor. Get out of my way!"

"Ha-ha..." The man did not leave. Instead, he got closer to Eden and stood in front of him. His tall figure looked domineering and oppressive.

Eden immediately took a step back. Feeling a gust of strong perfume on him, she frowned in disgust.

"Sir, if you take one step closer, don't blame me for being impolite." Eden glared the shameless man with sharp eyes and warned him.

"What if I want to get close to you?" Saying this, the man took another step forward and almost touched Eden.

Eden went off the deep end. Just as she was about to beat the man, she heard a sarcastic voice, "Shame on you. You even seduce a man in the bathroom."

Eden turned around and saw a woman in a red coat looking at her with disdain. The woman wore fashionable makeup, and she looked sexy and charming.

Eden frowned. What was wrong with her? This man was bullying her!

"Miss, watch your mouth. Don't insult me before you know the truth."

"Humph!" Dulcie sneered and said disdainfully, "I see it with my own eyes. Don't I know the truth?"

Hearing this, the man smiled evilly, "This lady asked me to go to the hotel with her."

"Crack..." Eden slapped the man's face, "What nonsense are you talking about? Do you think I'm easy to bully?"

Eden was exasperated. Her good mood had been ruined by this man.

"B*tch, how dare you beat me!" The man's eyes were fierce and brutal as he looked at Eden.

Eden sneered, "I'll disable you! Since you dared to take liberties with me and slander me, I will give you a lesson!"

She looked weak indeed, but not everyone could bully her.

"How dare you beat me! I'll kill you!" The man raised his hand quickly and wanted to slap Eden on the face.

Eden had expected that he would do this.

She immediately lifted her foot and kicked the man's belly.

"Ouch..." The man's face twisted in pain, and he could not help but take a few steps back.

Eden did not give up and kicked him again. The man stumbled and fell to the ground.

Eden walked over and kicked him hard several times.

Seeing this, Dulcie despised Eden more. Eden was not only sl*tty, but also very rude.

No man could stand her, right?

"Ah..." Of course, the man couldn't bear such humiliation. He got up and wanted to beat Eden.

However, as soon as he raised his hand, someone grabbed his wrist.

"Who the f*ck dares to meddle in my business?" Looking up at Victor's gloomy face, she shivered.

Victor's eyes were as grim and apathetic as a wild beast's.

The atmosphere turned cold and oppressive.

"Who are you? Let me go." He said timidly.

"Bang..." Victor punched the man in the face fiercely.

"Ouch..." The man's face was burning hot, and the smell of blood in his mouth made him very uncomfortable.

"Brat! How dare you meddle in my affairs? Just wait and see. I will call someone over now. You'll pay the price!" The man picked himself up awkwardly and took out his phone, ready to call someone.

He had never been insulted like this!

Victor didn't even want to look at him. He walked straight to Eden.

He looked her up and down, "Honey, are you okay?"

Eden wondered why he was here.

"I'm fine." She shook her head with a smile.

When Dulcie heard Victor's words, she was shocked. This man was Victor.

She took a careful look at Victor. The dark coat made him look imposing. His facial features were perfect, and he was very appealing and commanding.

Victor was displeased, "Why didn't Jasper send you home after dinner?"

Eden looked at him and explained with annoyance, "Jasper will go back to Gate City tomorrow morning. He met me today because he wanted to say goodbye to me. After dinner, he had something urgent to deal with and left in a hurry. I planned to go back after going to the bathroom, but I didn't expect to meet this scum."

"Sir, don't believe your wife's words. She and that man had an intimate relationship, and they fed each other while eating."

"Just now, she tried to seduce this man and go to the hotel with him. He refused, so she beat him. I saw everything clearly."

Dulcie said with a sneer. She wanted to tell Victor the truth. After all, Victor was a very good man, and she felt that Eden was not good enough for him.

Hearing this, Victor looked down at Eden in his arms, "Why did you feed Jasper?"

Eden was speechless. D*mn it! It seemed that this woman had a grudge against her.

"The shrimp ball he likes."

"Feed me ten shrimp balls when we go home." Victor said jealously.

Eden felt helpless. What was Victor thinking about at this time?

"There is no shrimp ball at home."

"Then feed me in the future." Victor did not give up.

Eden smiled and looked at his childish face, "I can feed you twenty shrimp balls in the future."

"Okay! Is he really going to leave?" He couldn't believe that Jasper was willing to leave this place.

"Yes! After all, his head office is in Gate City. He has to go back, and there are many cooperation projects this year. He must stay there for a period of time. He'll leave tomorrow morning." Eden explained. Victor would no longer be jealous of Jasper.

Chapter 1458

Listening to the conversation between them, Dulcie was confused. Was Victor willing to be a cuckold?

"Who is this woman? Why did she insult you?" Only then did Victor glance at Dulcie indifferently.

Eden looked at Dulcie as well, "How can I know who she is?" Since she tried to cast a bone between them, she couldn't be someone nice.

"Mr. Alwynn, did you hear my words clearly just now? Your wife's words were not real..."

"Shut up! I think you are in cahoots with this b*stard. You have to pay a heavy price for slandering my wife."

He saw everything clearly just now. He had come here a long time ago, and he had seen everything Eden and Jasper did.

Eden and Jasper were not only friends, but also family.

They had been getting along like this these years.

At first, he was indeed very jealous. How could Jasper treat his wife so nicely?

Why did Eden treat him so intimately?

But later he understood that Jasper had no selfish motive. He only wanted Eden to be happy.

"Mr. Alwynn, how can you say this to me? I do this for your own good..."

"You know me?" Victor looked at her doubtfully.

Dulcie smiled and said, "Everyone in River City knows Victor, the president of Alwynn Group. Am I right?"

"Is that so? Why did you slander my wife?" Victor's voice was extremely cold.

Dulcie frowned and looked at him, "I saw it with my own eyes. I didn't slander her, did I?"

"Did you see it with your own eyes?" Eden sneered. Looking at Dulcie's pretty face, she said without hesitation, "Are you blind? Or do you have any malicious intention? Couldn't you see that the b*stard made things difficult for me? What's more, I had a meal with my friend, and you're not qualified to drive a wedge between me and my husband."

"You're so shameless, and you're not distinguished at all! A woman like you is not qualified to be an international designer." Dulcie snorted and said mockingly.

Hearing this, Eden felt that Dulcie knew her, "Miss, do you have some misunderstanding about me? There should be a security camera here, and we can check the surveillance video. Why don't we watch the surveillance video together and see if you are in cahoots with this man?"

At this time, the man had hung up the phone. He was waiting for his cronies in high spirits.

However, his proud expression froze when he heard that Eden wanted to check the surveillance video.

He looked back. How could there be a security camera here?

"Mr. Alwynn, I've got the surveillance video. We can sue this man for harassment." Dean looked at Victor with a flattering smile.

Victor nodded, "Call the police by the way. Ask them to come here and take him away. This lady insults my wife over and over again. Take her away and investigate her as well."

"I see, Mr. Alwynn. I have seen the surveillance video. She and the man entered the bathroom one after the other. They must be accomplices."

Hearing this, Dulcie smiled bitterly and shook her head.

"It turns out that you can't distinguish right from wrong." She stared at Victor with a sneer apathetically.

Victor glared at her, "I saw what happened here just now clearly. This man handed my wife two pieces of tissues and wanted to have her phone number, but she didn't agree. This b*stard took the opportunity to pester her. After you came in, you said that my wife was shameless, and you said that she seduced a man in the bathroom, which made suspect that you are in cahoots with him and you want to ruin my wife's reputation."

Dulcie was stunned. She frowned as she listened to Victor's words.

She did not hear Eden seduce the man. She only heard the man say that Eden asked him to go to the hotel, but that was enough.

Moreover, Dahlia told her that Eden had a lover, which was sufficient to prove that Eden was disloyal to her husband.

Eden looked weak and innocent on the surface, but she had a scheming heart. Dulcie hated such a person the most.

"Mr. Alwynn, you don't know much about your wife, do you?"

Dulcie was very stubborn. Once she believed something, it was hard for her to change her mind.

Victor sneered and asked in reply, "Do you think you know my wife better than I do? Don't judge her from your point of view. You are not her."

"I..."

"Get out! You're not qualified to comment on my wife! Go to the police station later and give the police an explanation." Victor held Eden and walked out.

When the man heard Victor's name, he froze completely.

Victor was the most powerful businessman in River City, and he couldn't afford to provoke him. Paulina had really got him in trouble.

It was extremely difficult for his family to make a fortune. They worked hard to make the first pot of gold and then develop their company bit by bit.

Although their company was not small, it couldn't be compared with Alwynn Group.

His father suffered a lot when he started his business. In order to get a better project, his legs and hands were once broken by his competitors, and it was not easy for the company to be successful. He couldn't ruin the company.

Once the surveillance video was exposed, it would be so easy for Victor to ruin his company.

Looking at Victor and Eden's backs, he immediately chased after them and knelt in front of Victor.

"Mrs. Alwynn, I'm... so sorry. I drank some wine and my head was dizzy, so I had evil intentions when I met you. You look pretty, so I took liberties with you uncontrollably. Mrs. Alwynn, you're magnanimous. Please forgive me!"

Eden frowned and looked down at him, "I only ask you one question. How did you know that I would come to the bathroom? It seemed that you were waiting for me deliberately."

Diego Wales shook his head and said, "No, I met you when I came to the bathroom. I didn't wait for you on purpose."

He couldn't afford to offend Victor nor Irving.

Irving was a ruthless person.

However, Victor was more heartless than him.

Although he didn't like Victor's way of doing things, Victor was much more aboveboard than Irving who liked to play despicable tricks.

Victor was vindictive, but he usually took revenge on the spot, but Irving would hurt others behind their back.

Eden smiled coldly, "I don't believe a single word of yours. I'm the kind of person to bear anyone a grudge, and I hate to be slandered the most. You two chime in with each other and want to ruin my reputation. It seems that you don't want to tell the truth."

A period of time ago, a lot of people rumoured about her, and that kind of feeling was not very good.

Melissa's dirty tricks had greatly affected her mood.

"What's wrong? Can't you admit what you've done?" Others were afraid of Victor, but she was not afraid.

The man was just a coward. He was so afraid of Victor that he could even kneel down.

Chapter 1459

There was no trace of shrewdness in Dulcie's sharp eyes. Instead, she looked straightforward.

Eden turned around and looked at her with brooding eyes.

"I always dare to admit what I have done. What about you? If you dare, go to the police station together. You've framed me, and I'll sue you to the end."

"You don't scare me." Dulcie glanced at the onlookers around her and said with proud eyes.

She didn't believe that Eden could give a false account of the true facts.

Eden said, "Let's go to the police station first. I will not allow myself to be humiliated like this."

Dean smiled and said, "Mrs. Alwynn, I think we should show the video to the people here first. Otherwise, they would gossip about you online again."

Eden thought for a while. Dean was right, but...

Seeing that Eden hesitated, Dulcie thought that she didn't dare to do so.

She sneered, "What's wrong? Don't you dare?" Showing the video in public would let more people know that she was shameless.

Eden looked at her and smiled meaningfully.

"Dean, you can ask the manager to show the video before we go to the police station." Eden raised her eyebrows and glanced at Dulcie.

Since Dulcie wanted to get a slap in the face, she could help her.

"I see, Mrs. Alwynn." Dean went to the manager with a smile.

After a while, Dean did not come back. The video of Diego pestering Eden was played on the big TV on the wall.

People immediately knew the truth.

They heard the conversation between Eden and Diego clearly.

Eden glanced at Dulcie. She clearly had an answer in heart, but she didn't want to admit it, and she had to let Eden be slandered.

"Miss, there is no need for you to apologize. Just go to the police station and explain it to the police." Eden said with an unsympathetic smile.

Dulcie's face darkened to the extreme.

She just wanted to tell Victor the truth, and she did not want to leave a paper trail.

"I misunderstood you. I'm sorry." She apologized stiffly.

But Eden was not so kind at the moment.

Wasn't Dulcie very confident when she slandered her just now?

Why was she scared at this time?

"Is this how you apologize? Honey, let's go." Victor took Eden's hand and left, not caring about the crowd at all.

"Dean, handle this matter properly."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean did not dare to neglect and called the bodyguards who had been protecting them secretly.

"Mr. Alwynn..." Dulcie wanted to chase after Victor, but Dean stopped her.

He smiled brightly, "Miss, tomorrow we'll ask our lawyer to sue you for slandering Mrs. Alwynn. Please tell me your name later."

"B*stard! Get out of my way! I have apologized to her. Don't be ungrateful." Dulcie was angry. She just came to the bathroom. How did she get into such a big trouble?

"Sorry, I really can't get out of your way." Dean tipped the two bodyguards a wink, and the two bodyguards stepped forward to block her way.

Watching what was happening in secret, Dahlia felt very regretful.

It never occurred to her that Victor would come here.

If Irving knew about this, he would definitely scold her.

D*mn Diego! He is simply an a*shole! She asked him to pester Eden when she left here, but he couldn't wait to do it.

What a silly b*stard! No wonder he was not favored by his father.

Soon, Diego and Dulcie were taken away, and Dahlia could only follow them secretly.

Moreover, since she had appeared, Victor would soon suspect her.

Victor got in the car with Eden and drove away.

Eden looked at him, "Victor, why did you come here?"

Victor said calmly, "There is a social activity here. The client happened to want to eat hot pot, so I came here."

Saying this, he turned on the air-conditioner in the car.

"Are you still cold?" He asked.

Eden shook her head and looked at him with a bright smile, "No. You helped me tonight, and I feel very warm."

"I'm always worried about you. Something bad will happen to you as soon as you're not by my side." Victor was depressed. How could such a thing happen all the time?

Eden was a little helpless and pouted with dissatisfaction, "Isn't it just? It doesn't like an accident. It seems that I've been aimed at by someone."

Victor looked sideways at her firm face, and his heart was full of doubts.

He took out his phone and called Dean.

At this time, Dean was dealing with this matter in the police station.

"Mr. Alwynn." Dean's voice was as flattering as usual.

Victor ordered him, "Investigate the identities of the two people."

Dean smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, I knew you would ask me to do this, so I have investigated them. I was about to report it to you. Diego is the second son of the Parma family, and he is Miss Parma's elder brother. The identity of the woman will surprise you a lot. She is Dulcie, a famous designer RK Group hired aboard. The gossip is that they hired her to deal with Mrs. Alwynn."

"Gossip?" Victor frowned, "Is it real?"

"Mr. Alwynn, don't worry. It is absolutely real. I heard that the new products of RK Group just didn't sell, and they had lost a lot of money. Therefore, Irving used his own connections to poach a famous designer abroad and wanted to compete with Alwynn Group." Dean told Victor everything he knew.

He couldn't be franker.

"I see. Don't let them go and ask Irving apologize to me in person. Since they have hurt Eden, I'll let them pay the price."

Dean nodded obediently. That was Victor. He would even seek revenge for the smallest grievance.

However, he had to go on a blind date that night.

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn, but the Parma family does not agree to cooperate with Irving. Diego may have been used by someone. He is very lascivious and can't take his eyes off beautiful women."

"Do you mean that it's wrong for Eden to be pretty?" Victor looked angry. Even if Diego was used, he had assailed Eden with obscenities.

"No, Mr. Alwynn. I mean that the Parma family doesn't want to associate with Irving, so Diego could only be used by someone. Although he is lascivious, he is a coward. He can't stop shivering in the police station. I am really afraid that he will be scared to death."

Victor said coldly, "You are not the one who will be scared to death. What are you worried about? Do what you should do and don't be perfunctory!"

After finishing his words, Victor hung up directly.

Eden knew what had happened when she heard his words.

She narrowed her eyes, "It seems that I was right. I should have slapped the woman in the face and taught her a lesson!"

Seeing that she was still mad, Victor smiled and said, "Honey, let's go back now. You can slap her in the face before going home."

Eden snorted, "Going back now is so silly. Forget it. Since she regards me as an opponent, we will have many opportunities to meet each other in the future."

Eden narrowed her eyes. The competition was fierce at this time. In order to become the most famous designer, she needed a capable competitor.

Chapter 1460

Victor's face was cold and gloomy, "Eden, don't fight in the future. I'll beat the one you hate for you."

"Okay!" Eden nodded slowly. Anyway, it was good to have someone who could take revenge for her.

When they returned home, Jaida was watching TV with the three children.

Eden was a little surprised that Zaiden was not at home. Generally, he would come back before ten o'clock at night.

Moreover, he and Jaida both slept before 11 o'clock at night and got up at six the next morning to take a walk and exercise. They had a healthy habit.

"Mom, where is dad?"

Jaida smiled and said, "Eden, he has something to deal with. There is something wrong with his company. He is still dealing with it, and he will be back soon."

"Oh!" Eden was a little confused. Zaiden had always managed the company well. How could something bad happen so suddenly?

"Mom, it's not something important, right?" She was a little worried. After all, it was the first time she had heard that there was something wrong with Zaiden's company.

Jaida smiled and said, "Eden, don't think too much. Your father always acts with propriety. Everything will be okay."

"Okay, then I'll wait for dad to come back." Eden sat between Gia and Ricky. Gia looked a little unhappy.

She was surprised to see that Kenny was watching TV as well.

"Oh, Kenny actually has no time to stay here with grandma tonight."

Victor sat down beside Eden.

Kenneth smiled, "Mom, I have nothing to do tonight, so I want to chat with grandma."

"Mom, Kenny got a big project today. He wanted to invite us to have midnight snacks, but you came back so late. It seemed that we can't eat the midnight snacks anymore."

Kenneth glanced at Ricky and said in a very unfriendly tone, "You know what the business is, but you mention deliberately."

"Kenny, you speak so harshly. How can I know why you suddenly changed your mind? Grandma can testify for me." Henrick rested his head on Eden's legs and put his hands under his head, lying on the sofa.

He looked casual, but very adorable.

Eden stroked his dark hair gently.

Kenneth said mockingly, "You're already stuffed to the gills. Can you eat now? You acted like a spoiled child, so grandma made a pot of fried chicken for you. You ate half of it and even quarreled with Gia. You're full now. Aren't you ashamed to mention the midnight snacks?"

Victor glanced at Gia. No wonder she looked so unhappy.

It turned out that Ricky had provoked her again.

He rubbed Gia's head tenderly.

Giada sat on the sofa with a gloomy face and didn't say anything.

"Alright, you have to go to school tomorrow. Go to sleep now." Jaida looked at them and said with a smile.

"Good night, grandma!" Kenneth stood up. He had always been obedient.

"Kenny, good night. Remember to treat me to a meal tomorrow." Henrick waved at Kenny.

Kenneth frowned and looked at him, "Don't you want to go upstairs?"

Henrick grinned, "I'll sleep with our baby tonight."

Everyone was stunned.

Kenneth turned around and went upstairs indifferently.

Giada stood up silently and went upstairs as well.

Victor frowned and patted Henrick's head, "It's just your wishful thinking."

Henrick looked up at him, "Victor, mom is my baby. You have occupied her for a few years, and I want to sleep with her night. So, tonight, you go to the second floor, and I'll stay with mom." Henrick said in a very sappy way.

"How dare you call me by my name! You are simply too bold." Victor touched his forehead helplessly.

The three children were really hard to please.

Henrick wrapped his arms around Eden's waist and kept winking at Eden.

Smiling, Eden rubbed his head lightly and pinched his little nose.

"You are so naughty."

"Mom, I'm only naughty in front of you." Henrick rubbed against Eden's arms.

Jaida couldn't help but smile, "Ricky, you are so clingy. You are already at the third grade, but you're still so clingy to your mother. Your father slept alone when he was very young."

"That's because he doesn't love you very much. I love my mother so much." Henrick blinked his big starry eyes, looking so cute.

Victor was dumbfounded. How could Ricky talk nonsense like this?

"Mom, tonight I want to..."

"Don't even think about it." Victor interrupted him.

He looked at Ricky with a gloomy face.

Henrick no longer looked casual and sat up from Eden's arms.

"Dad, as long as you promise me one thing, I won't sleep with mom anymore."

Victor was speechless. Did Ricky think that Eden would agree with him?

Eden was stunned and patted him on the back, "Ricky, you are really more and more wicked. Do you want to force your father to agree to your request in this way?"

Hearing this, Henrick puckered his mouth, "Mom, you don't love me anymore. Am I such a hateful person?"

He looked so aggrieved as if he was about to cry.

Seeing his expression, Eden actually felt painful in heart.

"Alright, tell us your condition first. As long as it's reasonable, your father will promise you."

"Ha-ha. Mom, I'm relieved after hearing your words."

Eden was very helpless. Ricky had actually learned how to trap them.

Victor frowned. That was not a good habit. "Honey, don't spoil him."

Henrick laughed mischievously, "Dad, if you don't promise me, I can guarantee that you'll live in the second floor these days."

Victor gritted his teeth. In Eden's heart, Ricky was more important than him.

When he coaxed and pestered her, she felt that he was childish.

But when the children did the same thing, she felt that they were cute.

Ricky's words really threatened him.

He pretended to be calm and looked at Ricky calmly, "Tell me about it."

"Dad, this matter is just a piece of cake to you. There is a girl named Alma in our class. She is very beautiful. Can you let her be the spokesperson of the children's wear? Her family is quite poor. Many people bully her at school, especially the guy surnamed Meaker. He is scum. I treat Alma well, so he always bullies her."

Victor looked at him with a frown, "People should be down-to-earth. If she earns money so easily, she will go astray."

"Dad, I know, but Alma is a very lovely girl. She won't go astray. Dad, I seldom beg you. Could you promise me?"

Henrick looked at Victor with a pleading face.

He had mentioned this matter to Abigail. However, Abigail said that although Alma was pure and lovely, she was not suitable for acting.

Therefore, he could only place his hope on Victor.

He was still young, and he was unable to start a company. He could not be like Kenny and make a lot of money at home. He earned all his money by hard work. If he gave money to Alma directly, she would really go astray. Besides, if he gave money to her directly, she might not accept it.
