

Gluey Love 1491

Chapter 1491

"Wow! Mom, you've changed." Henrick looked at his mother in disbelief.

He didn't want to believe that his mother was totally on his father's side now.

Eden said elatedly, "Well, he is my husband who will spend the rest of his life with me, of course, I will speak up for him."

Henrick put on a sad face and looked at her mother with his big eyes. "It seems that your husband is much more important than your son."

Eden couldn't help but laugh.

After the two children had lunch, Eden sent them downstairs, and only went back to her office after she watched them get on the car and left.

When she got back, Paula followed her into the office.

"Director Bleu, this is the information you asked for."

Eden looked up at her. "Put it on the desk first. I'll look at it later."

"Can you read it now if you are not busy so that I can change it straight away if there is anything that you want me to add in?" She had to meet Carolyn and Belinda after work.

It was all because of them who wanted to ruin Eden's reputation that she had to sort everything out in the end.

"Are you in a rush? Alright, I'll have a look now." Eden unfolded the file and took a quick look. After glancing through a few pages, she already found some problems.

She pointed at the sales department's accounting, "Paula, take a good look at these two parts. Everything is correct above, but the total number is calculated wrong. Such a small mistake would ruin the whole report."

Paula took a quick look and her face went pale instantly. She already read everything through very carefully, but why it still happened?

How come she made such a stupid mistake?

She put on a smile and said, "Director Bleu, you read it so carefully. I feel that I just couldn't do anything right anymore after I met you."

Eden also smiled. "So are you saying it is my fault?"

"I wouldn't have been so anxious if you didn't make it so awkward for me this morning so that I wouldn't have made such a mistake," Paula argued back.

Eden raised her eyes and quietly stared at her for a while. Then, she argued back, "Well, you haven't done everything perfectly right even once in the past few months since you started working here even when no one put any pressure on you."

A look of great anger swept across Paula's face, but she got nothing to say because Eden was completely right.

Eden continued with a smile, "I really don't think this job is suitable for you. Now that you have met someone you like, you should let him know as soon as possible. It doesn't matter even though you are neither smart nor pretty, because the other party probably doesn't care about it at all."

"What...what did you just say? How dare you? Let's wait and see. There will be one day that you regret it." Paula was so angry that her face went so red.

She couldn't wait for that day to come when she could take Eden down and spat onto her face.

Eden crossed her arms in front of her chest and leaned back in the chair casually. "It's not that easy to make me regret."

"I know you are looking down on me, but I want you to remember that I will be in the same position as you one day and take you down."

Eden leaned forward and looked at her with a smile. "I'm waiting for that day to come."

"Cyan, don't push me too hard. You will regret it one day." Paula already balled her fingers to a fist, looking really furious.

Eden looked at her and said meaningfully, "So, a person doesn't need to be cruel and merciless if they want to murder someone. Everyone could do it every though they are stupid."

"What do you mean?" Paula's heart tightened. Seeing her smile, her heart inexplicably tensed up.

"I'm only saying. It doesn't mean anything. However, my poor brother probably won't be able to stand up anymore, and I will definitely catch the person who is behind it. I will make sure she regrets living in this world." A sad look flash crossed Eden's face. Fortunately, the car did not hit her brother directly. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

After several days of treatment, her brother was already much better.

Paula lowered her head, did not dare to look directly into Eden's eyes. "I'm going now. I will re-read these documents."

She picked up the documents on the table and was about to leave, but Eden quickly stopped her. Eden felt slightly cold when her fingertips touched Paula's watch when she grabbed her wrist, so she looked over.

Then she frowned and smiled in disbelief, "The limited edition watch from G.C. Paula, it looks like you really found a rich guy. These things on your body are almost worth tens of millions."

Paula smiled very happily. "Of course. He's not like your brother who would only take me out to the small restaurants for meals. He is very generous."

She looked at Eden proudly. At this moment, she felt that she finally had something that could make her feel better about herself.

She never felt confident in front of Eden.

"Really? You are living a life you want now, but you are asking for it. Go out now." Eden waved to her.

She was not very happy to hear Paula talk about her brother like that.

She felt Paula didn't even know him.

Her brother was a very generous person.

Hearing her words, Paula turned around and left with an angry face.

At this moment, Eden received a message from Aro.

"Mrs. Alwynn, a few days ago, Paula met Dahlia, Carolyn, and Belinda in a bar. Then she sold a diamond ring the next day, and now she is looking for an apartment to move in."

Eden was a little shocked when she read this message.

She thought Paula really found a rich guy.

But it seemed that she was wrong.

Eden found a photo of Paula's watch and sent it to Aro.

Aro was a talented man. He was such an expert in IT. Her father really found a good helper for her.

And his father knew so many amazing people.

She just believed that a kind person would always have good luck.

"Aro, this is a customized edition. Can you find out who bought this watch?"

"Yes, Madam."

Eden held her phone in her hand, but she didn't feel relieved at all.

It seemed that Paula was ready to fight with her to the end, so she should not show any mercy to her anymore.

Before Eden finished work, she received Aro's message.

She glanced at the list and there were only six people who bought this edition all over the world. There were two people in River City. One was Carolyn Meaker, but she didn't recognize the other one's name.

Everything seemed to be very clear now.

Carolyn was the one who gave Pauls the watch.

Eden sent another message. "How is the investigation of my brother's car accident going?"

Aro replied very quickly. "We're still looking into it. I will look into the other party's contact records carefully. The two of them have never met before, so this is a little difficult."

Chapter 1492

After getting off work, Eden went home and took her children out for dinner.

She also asked her father and Jaida, but Zaiden insisted not to go because he worried about her safety.

"You should go with your kids. Jaida and I will have hotpot at home." Zaiden looked at his wife who was still buying doing housework. No matter how much she did every day, she never complained at all. She seemed so happy every day.

He would not let those people break this peace and happiness he had right now.

"Hotpot? That sounds like a good idea."

Then she glanced at her mother.

Jaida also look at her and smiled.

"Your dad likes hotpot on such a snowy day. You guys can go out and have a hotpot as well. It would be good for such a cold day." Jaida suggested with a smile.

Henrick looked at his grandfather and said, "Grandpa, it's my treat today. Are you really not going? Mary isn't here today, so there will be a lot of work for grandma to do."

Henrick looked at his grandmother's rough hands, looking a little sad. His grandmother never needed to do any housework when she was young, but she had never complained about it at all even though her life completely changed.

She would like to try everything and still be very positive every day.

"Haha, it's not easy to have you treat everyone. Thank you, but I prefer to stay at home tonight. I believe there will be more chances in the future. Your grandma and I will have to rely on you in the future."

"Ricky, if you really want to, you can bring some food back for us."

"Sound good. I will bring something back for you." Henrick blushed a little. He never knew that everyone thought he was tight.

He looked at his mother quickly. He felt his mother was the tightest person at home. Since when did everyone start to think that he was the tightest one?

"Also, Grandpa, Grandma, I won't leave you even when I grow up. I will buy a big house and live with you all together so that you won't be lonely." He wanted to be there with his grandparents forever.

Because in his mind, they were the best grandparents in the world.

"Really? You are making me so happy now. I feel I'm the luckiest man in the world." Zaiden smiled and stroked Henrick's head.

He loved these three children so much. They were all really great kids.

"Grandpa, me too. When I grow up, even if I'm married, I'll come back and stay with you and grandma." Giada also promised with a smile.

"Haha..." Zaiden laughed happily. "You are almost making me cry. Anyway, go ahead. Don't come back too late."

"Goodbye, grandpa and grandma!" The three children laughed and ran out.

Eden looked at her father and put on a cheeky smile. "Enjoy your hotpot."

"Why are you looking at me like that? Do you think we are still young?" Zaiden looked at his daughter's cheeky smile, guessing that she must be thinking too much.

Eden smiled and waved her hand, running after her children.

At this moment, Jaida also took all the dishes out.

Zaiden got up to help. He looked at her with a smile. "Did Victor ask you anything?"

Jaida shook her head. "He has been so busy every day. Why would there be anything that he needs to ask me?"

Zaiden looked as if nothing had happened and did not say anything anymore.

Without experiencing the ups and downs, how could Victor stand at the top of the world and make sure that his daughter could live a good life?

The previous issues were nothing to him.

Only when he met Barrett, the strong and unscrupulous person, could he really grow up.

"Zaiden, what's wrong? You look like there is something on your mind." Jaida could tell that something was not right.

Why didn't he ask something so strange and then fell silent?

Zaiden looked at her and smiled. "Nothing is wrong. I thought Victor would talk to you about the wedding as he said that he would marry my daughter this year."

He found a good excuse so that Jaida would not think too much about it.

She had already suffered a lot, so he wouldn't want her to worry about anything else anymore.

"Ah!" Jaida cried out in surprise. "I totally forgot about it. I will talk to him when he comes back from his business trip. He will have to give her a perfect wedding even though they are legally registered now. I know what women want, so I will not let Eden and the Clement family down."

Zaiden nodded with a smile. Then he took her cold hand and said, "And you, I will give you a perfect wedding as well."

Jaida looked at him and smiled gently. "We are too old for that. Forget it. I am happy enough to live a peaceful and happy life with you. The only pity is that I can't have a child with you."

If she was brave enough when she was young, everything probably would be different.

Everything was fate!

"Silly. Eden is our daughter, isn't she? She is no different from a biological daughter.

How many young people would like to live with their parents-in-law after they got married? But Eden has never complained. Instead, she feels very happy. We are a true family."

He didn't care about the blood tie at all. He loved Eden the same as how he would love his own daughter.

He had always felt the same since he first met Eden. After hearing her experience, he insisted on adopting her as his daughter. And now that he was with Jaida, so he not only had a daughter but also a son and three grandchildren. He felt there was nothing else he wanted anymore in his life.

"You are right. I feel that I'm more close to Eden than Graciella. I am very glad that you think this way."

"Anyway, let's start eating. We can take a walk after dinner, and then the kids will come back."

Jaida asked Zaiden to sit down and then went to the kitchen to take the pot.

Zaiden smiled with pleasure.

Eden took the children to the most famous hotpot restaurant in River City.

They booked a private room.

Henrick ordered a lot of dishes.

The four of them really enjoyed their dinner.

"Mom, I want some orange juice. It's a little spicy." Giada glanced at the orange juice in front of her mother.

Then she looked at Henrick.

Her look made Henrick's heart skipped a beat. He said quickly before Giada could say anything, "Don't tell me that it's spicy. You ordered the pot. And you ordered the most expensive one."

Chapter 1493

Giada instantly choked on her words.

It was her own fault that she asked for it.

Now she couldn't even find a good reason to argue back.

"If you knew it's spicy, why didn't you stop me?" She blushed a little but still said it back.

Henrick suddenly smiled. "If you feel you are clever, why don't you ask someone else to treat you for dinner, instead of your own family?"

"I don't like to take advantage of others."

She only liked teasing him, but he had always been so harsh to her.

"Henrick, it's your honor that I take advantage of you. Why are you always so stingy?" Giada knew she was wrong, but she still argued back.

Henrick was speechless. "Why should I be honored? Do you think I should applaud for myself that I spend money for you?"

Then he snorted.

He didn't know why she was being so irritating today.

Maybe it was because he took Alma to attend the audition today. Giada never liked her.

Instead, she liked Alice, who was so chattery and could never stop messaging him on the phone every day.

He found Alice so annoying, and sometimes he really wished that he could blacklist her.

Giada angrily rolled her eyes at him and said, "Do whatever you want."

Henrick really didn't know what to say.

She only dared to argue with her own family.

"Will you two stop it? It's not easy for us to come out for dinner together. Why do you have to argue with each other all the time?" Kenneth frowned and looked at them.

He felt they were really irritating.

They could never stop fighting no matter where they were.

Giada got up and took a sip of the juice Eden poured for her and then started walking out angrily.

"I'm going to the restroom."

Then she closed the door behind her angrily with a loud bang.

Eden shook her head helplessly. The two of them could never get along.

"Mom, I didn't mean to do it. She must be angry with me because of Alma." Henrick looked at her mother's helpless face and felt very guilty.

Eden knew that they would be fine soon.

"It's alright. But why can't you just let her win? You clearly know your sister's temper."

"Okay, I got it," Henrick answered sullenly. Why it always had to be him who let her win?

His mother was on his sister's side.

His father was on his sister's side.

Even his brother was also on his sister's side.

Hum!

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. It seemed that everyone in his family was on his sister's side.

But he never had a chance to say it out.

Eden looked at Kenny and said to him with a smile, "By the way, Kenny, mom has something to discuss with you. You have time on winter vacation, don't you? How about going to Brian's office to work for a few days? He really likes you."

Kenneth frowned, however, looking at his mother's expectant eyes, he felt he could not say no.

Brian had contacted him several times, but he did not agree. It seemed that he had talked to his mother secretly.

He must know that no one would refuse his mother in his family.

And he never said no to any of his mother's requests.

"Okay, Mom. I'll contact him later."

Hearing her son's promise, Eden smiled brightly. "Sound good! You are still young, so you'd better learn more from Brian no matter how good you think you are. He is very experienced in this industry, so you can learn a lot from him. When you graduate from junior high school, if necessary, I want you to go study abroad."

"I know, mom. I will learn more from him." As for going abroad, he had never thought about it in his mind. I always felt that the best thing was to have his loved ones with him, no matter it was family or lovers.

Eden nodded with pleasure.

"Let's eat now. It tastes so good and is not very spicy. I have already finished a bowl of rice." Eden felt the time with her children was the happiest moment in her life.

Kenneth and Henrick also nodded happily.

After eating for a while, Eden glanced at the time on her phone and felt a little uneasy. "Gia has been out for five minutes. Why hasn't she come back yet?"

"Mom, she's still angry, so she won't come back so soon. Let's eat." Henrick knew how stubborn his sister was, so he was not really worried.

However, after another while, Gia still did not come back.

Eden could not sit still anymore.

"You two sit here and wait for me. I will go find Gia."

"Mom, don't worry. I will go with you." Kenneth stood up and walked to Eden's side.

Henrick frowned and couldn't sit still either. "Let's all go together. I am full anyway."

Although they never really got along with each other, he still cared about his sister very much.

The three of them came out together, but they hadn't seen Giada anywhere.

Eden followed the sign to the ladies' room but still couldn't see her.

"Gia, Gia!" Eden looked everywhere again, starting to get worried.

She hurried out of the ladies' room, "Gia is not in there. Let's go out and have a look."

She was a little scared now. This was not the first time they had been here, so Gia shouldn't have got lost.

The three of them went out and searched around, but there was still no sign of her at all.

Eden stopped her steps.

She glanced at the hotpot restaurant, where there were a lot of people.

All the waitresses and waiters came in and out, all with a gentle smile on their faces.

However, there was still no sign of her daughter.

Gia had a bad temper, but she would never make her mother worry about her.

She was a very sensible child.

Eden immediately returned to the hotpot restaurant and went to the cashier at the front desk.

"Hi, my daughter is missing. Could you show us the footage?"

The waitress who was dressed in a red work suit was not being helpful at all. She looked at Eden with disdain and said in a strange tone, "You should go to the police if your daughter is missing. Why do you want to see the CCTV? We can't help you find her."

Eden frowned when she heard this.

Kenneth and Henrick also looked at the waitress angrily.

"My daughter has disappeared from your restaurant. Do you want me to call the police over and search your restaurant?" Eden's tone was cold, and she looked at her with her sharp eyes.

The waiter sneered disdainfully and said with sarcasm, "So what? As a mother, you should have looked after your own daughter. How could you be so shameless and yelling at me here? We can't show everyone the CCTV footage. If you want to see it, you'd better find the right person here."

Chapter 1494

"Who do you think you are? How dare to talk to my mother like this? I will make you pay for that." Henrick said to the waitress furiously.

He wished that he could tear this woman apart.

Fear flashed in the woman's eyes quickly.

But so what? She got someone to protect her anyway.

"Wow! I'm so scared." She looked at Henrick's angry face and sneered.

"Your kid really has no manner at all. I'd like to see what you can do to me."

The other two cashiers also looked at Eden and her sons with contempt.

"You"

"Ricky, stop it." Eden glanced at her son.

Looking at the woman's attitude, she felt things must not be so simple.

The waitress looked so arrogant, so there must be someone behind her.

Otherwise, she wouldn't dare to be like this.

"I'll ask you again. Will you show me the CCTV footage? My daughter went missing in your restaurant. If something happens to my daughter, I will not let you get away with it." Eden said every word with a determined tone.

Her children were everything in her life.

"Or, maybe you could get your manager here."

"Who do you think you are? Do you think anyone could see our manager? I won't show you the CCTV footage. Let's see what you can do to me." The waitress still didn't give up, and she smiled at Eden arrogantly.

"Mom, don't worry. I know what to do." Kenneth quickly took out the small laptop from his backpack and turned it on.

Eden also took out her phone and made a phone call.

"Aro, Gia is missing. Can you help me to check it up?"

"Sure. I will look into it right away."

Eden hung up the phone and called Brian straight away.

"Hey, Eden. I am on a date. Let's cut the long story short. You can't ruin my date, can you?" Brian didn't seem to be joking. Eden felt a little guilty, but her daughter's matter was her first priority.

"I'm sorry, Brian. I'll introduce a new beautiful girl to you one day. Gia is missing. She's not found at the hotpot restaurant. Can you help me to check it out?"

"What? Okay, Eden, don't worry. I'll check it now."

After saying "thank you", Eden hung up quickly.

"Madam." The two bodyguards, who were arranged by Victor, also came in at this time.

Eden looked at them and said sternly, "Go and find their manager. If he doesn't come out, drag him out."

"How dare you? Do you know who our manager is? He is having fun in the room now. If you disturbed him, you will get into real trouble."

After she finished her words, Eden lifted her hand and slapped in her face hard. "It's my daughter who is missing. How dare you say this to me now?"

"You...you are crazy. You hit me..." The waitress obviously did not expect that Eden could do this.

"Go get the manager out. I'd tear this place down and find my daughter if he doesn't come out." Eden shouted angrily, and her face totally changed. After staying with Victor for a long time, she felt she was more and more like him.

The waitress wanted to say something else, but she stopped immediately when she saw Eden's angry face.

The two other waitresses beside her also covered their mouths in surprise. They looked at Eden and tried to guess who she actually was.

The two bodyguards went out immediately.

There was a door between them and the lobby, so they did not disturb any customers inside.

"Mom, I got it. It seems that after Gia went to the restroom, she never came out again." Kenneth said and pointed to a cleaning lady who followed Gia in on the screen, and she had a big trash can in her hand.

She went to the restroom right after Gia.

She looked very tall and strong, didn't look like a woman at all.

Kenneth's heart skipped a beat. It seemed that something really happened to Gia.

Less than two minutes later, the woman pulled the trash can and came out again.

Eden's heart almost jumped out of her throat. She had looked everywhere in the restroom and did not see her daughter at all.

If Gia had never come out, she must be kidnapped in the restroom.

And this person who dragged the trash can there would be the most suspicious person.

This person came out in less than two minutes, this made it even more suspicious.

Eden took the laptop from Kenny's hand and pointed to the cleaner who went into the bathroom and asked, "Where is she?"

The waitress who was slapped by Eden earlier did not even look at her.

"How do I know where she is? Go and find her yourself," she said arrogantly.

"What did you say?" Henrick grabbed the humidifier on the counter and threw it at her angrily.

"Ah..." The waitress fell to the ground in pain.

A lot of things on the bar counter fell to the ground, making a loud sound.

It attracted the attention of the customers.

Some nosy customers even walked over to look at them.

Henrick, who was already as tall as where Eden's shoulders were, had been practicing Taekwondo, so he was getting stronger and stronger.

He wouldn't lose his temper so easily normally, but he would not let anyone bully his own family.

"You hit me!" The waitress's face was full of blood, and she looked at Henrick in horror.

Eden ignored her and called the police.

As soon as she hung up the phone, Victor called.

He had just got off the plane.

Eden answered the phone quickly.

"Honey, I'm back."

"Victor, Gia is missing." Eden briefly told him what happened.

"Don't worry, I'll be right there."

Victor hung up the phone and went straight to the parking lot with Dean.

At the same time, a fat man who was half naked was carried down by the bodyguards.

"Let go of me. Do you know who I am? I won't let you get out of here in one piece tonight!"

The man shouted arrogantly.

The two bodyguards kept silent and threw him in front of Eden.

"Sir, this woman is crazy. Her daughter has gone missing in our restaurant. If we can't find her, she swore that she would smash our restaurant. You have to uphold justice for me. I was beaten like this by her son.

You have to teach her a lesson and let her know what this place is." The waitress saw her manager coming, so she became more confident as she got a backer.

The manager looked at Eden's beautiful face, all of a sudden, he felt his body heated up.

"My pretty lady, smashing my restaurant is not gonna do any good to you." He looked at Eden with a lewd smile on his face.

Chapter 1495

Eden looked at his face and felt very disgusted, "If my daughter's accident has something to do with your shop, I will let you pay the price."

"Your daughter? Bah! Let me tell you. Even if your daughter was lost in my shop, I will not let you go. You smashed my shop, and it's easy to solve this matter. Sleep with me obediently, serve me for three days and three nights and then compensate me with hundreds of thousands of dollars. Then I will let you go."

"Crack..." Kenneth sent the video to Brian as fast as he could.

Then he slapped the fat man's face fiercely.

His handsome face was full of rage, "In River City, you are the first person who dares to insult my mom."

"Ah..." The man looked at Kenneth's overbearing face in a daze. He was actually beaten by a child.

"You brat! How dare you beat me!"

"Crack..." Kenneth slapped him again all of a sudden, "I beat you, but so what?"

"You..." Just as the man was about to move, he was stopped by two bodyguards.

He struggled a few times, but he not only could not break free, but also made himself exhausted.

"Alright, you want to make trouble in my territory, don't you? Let go of me if you dare. I'll call someone to kill you right now!" The man looked at the two bodyguards fiercely.

He had never been treated so rudely.

Eden glanced at the two bodyguards, "Let go of him and let him make a phone call. We can catch them all later."

"Mrs. Alwynn, our helpers haven't arrived yet..."

"It doesn't matter." Eden interrupted the bodyguard, "They kidnapped my daughter, and I'll get even with them."

Hearing this, the people around were all shocked.

"I've long heard that the manager of this hot pot restaurant is arrogant. He bullies men and flirts with women. It turns out that he's really so lawless."

"That's right. Who dares to eat here in the future? I remember that last time, a customer was drunk and made troubles here, but they threw him directly on the road, and the man was almost crashed by a truck. What's more, the man's girlfriend was taken away by this beast. The couple had no money and power, so he gave them tens of thousands of dollars to solve this matter."

"He's so f*cking cruel. I wonder if the food here is cooked by gutter oil."

"Who knows? Since the police are here, let's watch the fun and see if the food is clean."

The people around whispered to each other.

The manager, who was about to make a phone call, was extremely angry when he heard these words.

Who spread these things?

"You came here to make trouble on purpose. Do you know whose territory this is? You think too much of yourself!"

After that, he went out and dialed the number without hesitation.

Eden's phone rang as well.

"Hello? Brian."

"Eden, I saw the video sent by Kenny. Judging from the shape of the person who pushed the trash can, I think he's a man. He left from the kitchen and pulled the trash can into an alley. I have sent the video to the police. Don't worry and wait there. The police have taken actions, and they will find Gia soon. I will be there in a few minutes."

"By the way, the hotpot restaurant is owned by the Meaker family. The manager there is Charlie's younger brother, Denny Meaker. He is compulsive gambler, and he always goes whoring and fights with others. You should be careful. I've sent someone to protect you."

"Alright! Brian, thank you." Eden finally relaxed a little.

"Mom, how is it?" Henrick asked anxiously.

Eden said, "They've found out the man. There will be news about Gia soon."

Eden took a step forward and looked at Denny coldly. The Meaker family had a brush with Alwynn Group in business recently, but things were not severe enough to make them kidnap Gia.

"What a loser! You could have had a bright future, but you had to break the law." Eden said every word with a frenzy of rage.

"B*tch, don't slander me! " Denny looked at Eden ferociously and maliciously.

"Crack..." A bodyguard slapped him in the face viciously.

Everyone was startled.

"How dare you insult Mrs. Alwynn!"

"Ah..." Denny looked at the bodyguard with a painful face. He felt dizzy and his eyesight dimmed.

Since he was born, it was the first time that he had been slapped in the face again and again.

Even the three women at the bar counter were dumbfounded.

Had their manager ever suffered like this?

Normally, no one dared to make trouble here.

Who on earth was this woman?

"Just wait and see, all of you. My bodyguards will be here soon. I'll sure that you can't walk out of here tonight!"

"Buena, ask those who don't want to die to leave here!" Denny was so wronged. He had never suffered such humiliation.

The woman who had been beaten was called Buena. She nodded with tears and persuaded the customers to leave, but she had a nasty feeling in heart.

If it was in ordinary times, she would watch the show at ease. However, why was she not in the mood that night?

Hearing Denny's roar, the customers who didn't want to be implicated left the hotpot restaurant while whispering.

In less than five minutes, all the customers left.

Only they and Eden were left.

Denny looked at Eden with a cold and fierce smile, "B*tch..."

"Crack... "

"Ouch..." Before Denny could finish his words, the bodyguard slapped him viciously again.

"B*stard! You've slapped me four times! I'll cut down your hands and feet and used them to stew soup!" Denny's angry and humiliated voice echoed throughout the entire hall.

"Ha-ha..." Kenneth crossed his arms and smiled evilly as he looked at Denny's fat body.

"Speaking of soup, your fat body can make a big pot of soup, but I am afraid that no one can eat it because you're too greasy."

"You... You little brat! You're simply too bold! Just... wait and see!" Denny was so angry that he panted and couldn't even speak fluently.

"Ha-ha..." Kenneth laughed arrogantly, "I am waiting here, aren't I? I'd like to see what you can do to me tonight."

At this time, the door was suddenly pushed open.

Cyril roared very madly, "Who the f*ck dares to bully my friend?"

Hearing Cyril's voice, Eden turned around and looked at him. He was dressed in black, and there was a terrifying pattern of skull on his T-shirt. He wore golden necklace and golden chains, and there was a dragon tattoo on his arm.

He looked like the leader of a gang.

More than twenty people followed him, and they all came in fiercely.

It turned out that he was Cyril, the labour contractor who made trouble in Victor's construction site.

"Cyril, this woman and her child bully me." Denny looked at Eden with sinister eyes. He could force her to sleep with him at night.

Although she was a mother, she was really well-shaped.

Chapter 1496

Cyril looked at Eden, and his face which was full of acne turned so pleasantly surprised, "I seem to have seen her before. She's so gorgeous. Denny, you're quite lucky to sleep with her tonight."

"Ha-ha... You can sleep with her first, and then she'll belong to me."

Seeing this scene, the other waiters were all gloating.

No one could get out safely after making trouble here.

To put it bluntly, the Meaker family was the most powerful on this street.

Eden knew what they meant. They were too shameless.

They were simply scums. Such words were a kind of insult to kenny's ears.

Kenny's immature heart would be affected by them.

"Crack..." Eden slapped Denny in the face with all her strength.

"Ah..." Denny didn't expect that Eden would still dare to slap him at this time.

"I'll kill you, b*tch!" His face was burning hot. Anger was growing and bubbling up inside him.

Seeing how hot-tempered Eden was, Cyril smiled evilly and said, "What a fierce woman. I like such a woman the most. She should be very attractive on bed."

"B*stard!" Henrick went berserk. Eden had never been insulted like this.

He jumped up quickly, spun and kicked on Cyril's fat face hard.

"Ouch..." Cyril took a few steps back in pain. He had never thought that a child could kick his face.

"Ah..." When Denny saw how deft Henrick was, his heart trembled in fear.

Seeing that Henrick had become stronger and nimbler, Eden was relieved.

Henrick always acted in action movies, so he had been practicing martial arts.

On weekends, he went to the Taekwondo school on his own. He had become more and more agile.

"Beat him!" Cyril was in pain, and his eyes were blazing with the flames of fury.

Seeing this, the two bodyguards tipped each other a wink.

A bodyguard immediately grabbed Denny by his neck.

"Ah..." Denny's face turned red in pain instantly.

"If anyone dares to move, I'll disable him right now!" The bodyguard looked at Cyril angrily and said harshly.

Those who were going to catch Henrick stopped hurriedly.

"Ha-ha..." Henrick looked at Cyril who was slightly surprised with a wicked smile, "It seems that you can only bully the weak."

"Remember to disable him so that no girl will be bullied by him again." He said to the bodyguards.

"Okay, Young Master." The two bodyguards looked at Denny with evil eyes.

Being grabbed by them, Denny heard Henrick's words, and his heart trembled in fear.

Looking at their calm and relaxed expressions, he suddenly had a nasty feeling.

If someone else encountered such a thing, he would have been scared out of his wits and knelt down to beg for mercy. How could they make fun of him so calmly?

However, he couldn't bear the humiliation no matter what.

"Cyril... Kill them! They go too far and look down their noses at me. I've been slapped for five times. It's too much!"

Everyone was stunned.

"Oh..." As soon as he spoke, the bodyguard grabbed his neck with more strength. He felt that he was about to die.

Hearing the way the bodyguard addressed Henrick, Cyril was puzzled.

It seemed that they were not ordinary people.

"Look at how arrogant you are. Tell me your name." Cyril looked at Henrick with his eyes narrowed and asked.

It was a special time. Although he was trying to go against Victor, Victor hadn't been hurt yet. He was afraid that these people had something to do with Victor.

Then the loss would outweigh the gain.

"Are you qualified to know it?" Henrick glanced at him with disdain. Seeing that his face was full of acne, he was extremely disgusted.

"You..." Cyril glanced at his bodyguards behind him. He couldn't lose face in front of them, otherwise, he would be too ashamed to lead him in the future.

"Tie up this brat first. I will teach him a lesson after raping this woman!" After that, he glanced at Eden evilly.

"Who dares to hurt my wife and children?" A furious voice which was as horrible as the rough sea sounded. Everyone broke out in a cold sweat in fear.

Moreover, Victor's temperament was like a majestic mountain pressing on everyone's shoulders, making them suffocate.

Cyril looked back in disbelief, only to see Victor who dressed in a black suit and looked aggressive. He pursed his lips tightly, and his brooding and deep eyes looked so cold-blooded and brutal.

Cyril was sure that the person who came in was Victor, and he shivered instantly.

"Mr. Alwynn... You're finally here... No, Mr. Alwynn, why are you here?" Cyril looked at Victor with a smile.

Thinking of what had happened on the construction site, he became bold immediately and suppressed the fear deep down his heart.

Victor was followed by bodyguards who dressed in the same dark suits.

They all stood behind Victor domineeringly.

Looking at Cyril's fearless expression, Dean couldn't help shaking his head.

Alas!

It seemed that Cyril would no longer have freedom in the future.

"Crack..." Victor slapped Cyril in the face hard.

"How dare you take liberties with my wife? How dare you catch my son? How dare you make trouble on my construction site?"

"How dare you!"

"Crack..." After Victor finished speaking, he slapped him in the face fiercely again.

"Victor... Don't be too arrogant!" Cyril's head was dizzy, and he was no longer afraid of Victor.

"I have always been so proud." Victor looked extremely overbearing and commanding, and everyone was scared by him.

Victor walked to Eden in a few steps, reached out and held her in his arms. Then he pushed back the hair from her face to her ear.

"Honey, are you okay?" He said in a light tone. There were so many people in the restaurant, and he didn't know if she was frightened.

"I'm fine. Have you got any news about Gia?" She only wanted to find Gia as soon as possible.

"Yes, Brian and the police have gone there. We can bring her back soon. You don't have to worry."

"Are you hurt?"

She looked at him and smiled, "No, our sons and two bodyguards are by my side. How could I get hurt?"

"Dad, do you still care about us?" Henrick said with complaints. Since Victor came in, he had never looked at them.

He only cared about Eden, which was too hateful.

He took their mother away from them. What a detestable hypocrite.

Victor glanced at him, "Go move a stool for your mother. Don't you know that her leg was once injured and she can't stand for too long?"

Chapter 1497

Henrick looked at Eden and nodded, "Mom, sorry, I forgot about it. I'll get a stool for you right away."

"Young Master, let me do it. How could you do such a thing?" Dean smiled and ran to move a stool for Eden.

Eden looked at them and pursed her lips. They were all dramatic.

Dean was more observant than Ricky.

"Mrs. Alwynn, please sit down!" Dean looked at Eden with a smile.

"Thank you!" Eden didn't stand on ceremony and sat down.

Seeing this, the waitresses were envious and jealous.

But they were no longer arrogant and overweening.

When Denny saw Victor, he was shocked.

Was the lost girl his daughter?

D*mn! If that was the case, he would really be doomed.

What d*mn thing did his sister-in-law ask him to do?

Did she want to get him into trouble as well?

She could kill Victor's daughter and got him involved. In this case, she and Charlie could get all the property of the Meaker family.

Even Charlie didn't dare to offend Victor. How could he bear the consequences?

Oh!

He was really in trouble.

"Mr. Alwynn... I didn't know that she's your wife. You're a generous man. Please forgive me."
Denny immediately became cowardly and begged for mercy in a low voice.

"Yo! Who asked my mother to accompany him for three days and three nights just now? Who said that we couldn't get out of here today?" Henrick looked at Denny's scared face wickedly.

Victor's face suddenly darkened. He looked extremely indifferent and cold-blooded.

Denny's nerves were tense as he looked at Henrick. A chill ran down his spine, and he felt as if he was in an ice house.

"Young... Master, I just said it casually. Don't take it seriously." He smiled flatteringly, and he was no longer as determined as just now.

Where there was life, there was hope!

"Denny, you idiot! You coward! You asked me to come here, but you give in first. Let me tell you. Victor and I haven't solved the matter on the construction site."

"Stop acting like a coward and losing my face!"

Cyril narrowed his terrifying eyes as he stared at Denny.

What a good-for-nothing. He became so frightened as soon as he saw Victor.

Anyway, he and Victor had quarreled with each other, and he had nothing to be afraid of.

He might as well go against Victor openly.

In that case, he would get twenty million dollars, and he believed that he could get a job somewhere else.

Victor had to finish the buildings before the end of this year. Without him, Victor couldn't finish the construction on time, and he had to beg him.

He managed nearly a thousand workers.

They were all excellent workers.

No matter how capable Victor was, he could do nothing if no one could work for him.

How dared Denny say a word? It was more important to save his life. Everyone in River City knew that people who offended Victor would suffer a lot.

"Humph!" Victor looked at Cyril coldly.

"Cyril, if you don't give me an explanation for what happened on the construction site, I'll kill you tonight."

"Ha-ha... Mr. Alwynn, are you willing to compromise now?" Hearing that Victor cared about this matter, Cyril became fearless.

Victor didn't look at him, but looked at Kenneth, "Kenny, show me the video."

Kenneth handed his laptop to him.

Victor saw a video of Buena insulting Eden at first, and then he saw the bathroom where Gia had an accident.

Victor took a sharp look at Buena with his eyes full of hostility.

"Dean, send Mrs. Alwynn and the children back. Mrs. Alwynn is tired."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean knew that these people were going to suffer, but Victor didn't want Eden to see how brutal and heartless he was.

"Victor." Eden stood up, "I'm not going back. I'm going to find Gia." Since he was here, she was not worried anymore. After all, these bodyguards were all skilled.

Victor looked at her and nodded with a smile, "Then I'll let Dean take you to Gia."

Eden glanced at Dean. Dean was his right-hand man.

"Dean, you don't have to send me back. Stay here and help Victor. I'd like to see who kidnapped Gia, and I'll send him to jail."

Her three children were her bottom line.

"Well, Mrs. Alwynn..."

"Don't worry about me. I will meet Brian with Kenny and Ricky. After picking up Gia, we'll go home directly. You must be responsible for Victor's safety."

After Eden finished her words, she went out with the children before Victor could speak.

"Alas! Mrs. Alwynn, if you just leave like this, there will be no good show tonight. I want you to accompany me at night." Cyril smiled evilly and blocked Eden's way.

He looked Eden's attractive figure up and down lecherously.

Eden frowned and was about to speak.

All of a sudden, someone ran past her with the suddenness of thunder bolt.

"Ah..." the next moment, a miserable scream sounded. Eden looked over and saw that Victor punched Cyril in the face mercilessly.

Cyril took a few steps back. In the end, he lost his balance and fell to the ground.

Victor's speed was extremely fast as he stepped on his face with great strength.

"Ouch..." Cyril's face twisted in pain.

The workers he brought all looked at Victor's imposing face in fear.

He was so strong and nimble that they could not afford to provoke him.

Standing aside, Denny even felt sorry for Cyril.

Everyone in River City knew that to Victor, Eden was as important as his life.

Cyril actually dared to say such words in front of Victor, and he really admired his courage.

He had been plotted against by his sister-in-law.

He must give her a lesson after he went out!

With apathetic and vicious eyes, Victor glared at Cyril, who was panting slightly.

"Say what you said just now again, and then I'll send you to hell." He said word by word in a harsh and tepid tone.

"Victor... Just kill me if you can!" He didn't believe that Victor was lawless.

Victor looked at Eden, "Honey, leave with the children. I'll be there right away."

Eden was afraid that he would be really impulsive...

"Don't worry. I know what I'm doing."

Victor seemed to know what she was thinking and said with a smile.

Only then did Eden leave with the children. This time, no one dared to stop them.

Seeing Eden and the children get in the car, Victor used more strength, and blood came out of Cyril's mouth.

"Tell me. How do you want to die? Drown? Hit by a car or jump off a building?"

Cyril was stunned. He didn't want to die, and he wanted to survive.

"Victor, do you dare to do that in front of so many people?"

"Don't forget that you can't finish the buildings on time without us."

"Why do you have to kill me because of the incident tonight? As long as you apologize to me, I'll let the workers continue to work tomorrow." Cyril threatened him.

Chapter 1498

Dean mourned for Cyril for three seconds in heart. Hadn't Cyril realized what was happening?

"Mr. Alwynn, why don't we turn hostility into friendship? What do you think?" Cyril was sure that Victor didn't dare to hurt him.

"You really regard yourself as somebody. Get out of Alwynn Group with your workers. From now on, I'm sure that no one will dare to hire you and your workers."

"By the way, I forgot to remind you that many of your workers had accidents on the construction sites."

"You used violent tactics to get compensation. Last year, one worker died, and he received a compensatory payment of five hundred thousand dollars, but his family only got one hundred thousand dollars."

"What's more, a few loyal workers have been fooled by you. You obviously got paid, but you didn't pay them and pocketed the money."

"Besides, you bully men and take liberties with women. A worker's wife is very beautiful. You not only raped her, but also broke her husband's leg."

"You did a lot of evil things. Do you want me to tell you one by one?"

"But that will disgust myself. You'd better keep it and explain to the police at the police station."

Listening to his crimes, Cyril went deathly pale.

"How... do you... know these things?" He hid the facts very cautiously. Besides him, only a few people knew about it.

"Humph!" Victor took his feet off his face.

Dean moved the stool that Eden had sat on behind Victor.

"Mr. Alwynn, you must be tired all the way. Please take a rest."

Victor sat down and looked at Cyril who was lying on the ground like a dog.

His workers were obviously influenced by Victor's words.

"Cyril, is Mr. Alwynn telling the truth? I know that Camilla has a love affair with you. It turns out that you forced her."

A worker asked indignantly.

Cyril knew that Victor wanted to ruin him.

With these evidence, he could really bring ruin and everlasting infamy upon him.

"Cyril, Jack died, and the company paid him five hundred thousand dollars, but you only gave his old parents one hundred thousand dollars. His parents were old and sick, and their only son died. You actually pocketed his money. How can you be so heartless?"

"Since you got the payment, why didn't you give us the salary? Our family members rely on our salary to live every month..."

"Cyril, we trusted you so much. It turns out that you have skimmed off our money. We made the money by hard work!"

Being questioned by them, Cyril panicked.

He didn't expect that he would be ruined by Victor.

Victor looked at such a scene with a sneer. Originally, he planned to go to the construction site the next day. If he could solve it at night, things would be much easier.

Since Cyril knew the Meaker family, the reason why he went against him was obvious.

What Cyril had done must have something to do with the Meaker family.

Cyril glanced at Victor's relaxed face, wishing that he could kill him.

"Hey, listen to me. These things are not real. Victor said those words in order to drive a wedge between us."

"Really? We have the evidence. After the police save my daughter and come here, I will give the evidence to them. At that time, you can explain to them with the evidence."

"Victor, you...." Cyril was flustered.

Victor turned around and looked at Denny, "I'll give you two minutes to tell me why you kidnapped my daughter."

"Mr. Alwynn, it is totally a misunderstanding. I should not have listened to my elder sister-in-law and gotten involved in this matter."

"Mr. Alwynn, my elder sister-in-law and nephew came here for dinner tonight, and my nephew suddenly saw your daughter. He said that she offended him and asked me to teach her a lesson. As his uncle, I feel distressed for him, so I asked a bodyguard to disguise himself as a cleaner and follow her into the bathroom."

"Then he put her in the trash can and took her away. It's none of my business. I was used by others, especially my vicious elder sister-in-law."

Denny tried his best to disassociate himself from this matter.

Hearing the words "trash can", Victor was so angry that he wanted to throw Denny into the sea to feed the sharks.

He said slowly, "Where did you take my daughter?"

At this time, Denny dared not to hide anything, "A hotel not far from here. My nephew and elder sister-in-law waited there, and they wanted to teach her a lesson."

Victor went off the deep end.

Denny explained quickly, "They said so, and this is not what I want."

"Dean, call Brian." Victor tried his best to hold back his anger.

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn."

Dean dialed Brian's number hurriedly and put him on speakerphone.

"Brian, have you found Gia?"

"Yeah, I was almost late. There must be something wrong with the little beast. He is precocious and actually wanted to act indecently towards Gia."

Dean hung up quickly.

"A*shole!" Victor suddenly stood up and kicked the stool to Denny.

Denny didn't dare to dodge and endured the pain.

"Oh..." He gave a grunt. They were going to be doomed.

The entire Meaker family had been ruined by his stupid sister-in-law.

"Dean, take them all to the police station. Give the evidence to the police and let them get punished."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn.."

Victor pointed at Buena, "Send her to the casino."

"Ah..." Hearing this, Buena was so frightened that she fell on the ground feebly.

She looked at Denny and asked for help, "Manager Meaker, we're from the same family. You can't just stand by and do nothing. I offended Mrs. Alwynn because of you."

"You can't let me be sent to hell without doing anything."

Denny didn't even look at her. Even he was in danger. How could he save others? If he was right, the shares price of Meaker Group would fall sharply the next morning, and they would go bankrupt.

Even if they wouldn't go bankrupt, they would suffer a lot.

Besides, Buena knew a lot of dirty things they had done, so it was good for her to be taken away.

Victor glanced at everyone coldly and did not stay. He asked Dean to deal with the things there and drove to the hotel that Denny had mentioned.

When Eden went there, Brian had carried Gia out of the hotel. Gia was unconscious.

Her clothes were torn apart, and Brian wrapped her with his coat.

When Eden saw her like this, her eyes trembled, "Gia, she..."

Brian said angrily, "Eden, Gia is fine. That little beast didn't succeed."

Eden's eyes turned blood-shot. Although he did not succeed, this matter would cast a shadow on Gia's heart forever.

It was her fault. She didn't take good care of Gia.

"Who is it?" Henrick looked at Brian exasperatedly.

Brian said, "Your classmate, Troy Meaker."

"D*mn it, I'm going to kill that b*stard!" Henrick rushed in recklessly.

Chapter 1499

"Ricky, come back!" Eden shouted at his back.

Kenneth said, "Mom, let him go. Let's take Gia to the hospital first."

He would beat that b*stard as well.

But at this time, the most important thing was to save Gia.

Brian nodded, "Eden, I have called an ambulance, and it has arrived. Take Gia to the hospital first. I will deal with the things here."

Eden nodded and said worriedly, "Keep an eye on Ricky and don't let him do stupid things."

"Don't worry. I'm here."

Brian sent Gia to the ambulance. After Eden and Kenny left, he immediately rushed back to the lobby.

Ricky looked so angry, so he was afraid that he would kill Troy.

Ricky had practiced martial arts for several years, and he was quite skilled.

In the hall, Henrick saw Troy who was being protected by a fat lady.

A devil-like smile appeared on his handsome face, and he looked so horrible.

"Troy!" He roared angrily.

Seeing Henrick, Troy became uneasier and uneasier. He shrank his neck in fear and hid in his mother's arms.

"Mom, help me. He is very strong and fierce." Having been taught lessons by Henrick a few times, Troy was very afraid of him.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have asked Denny to catch Giada and bullied her.

His mother, Rita Meaker, looked at Henrick's mad face calmly. She had always been arrogant, and she wouldn't be afraid of a child.

"Troy, I'm here with you. If he dares to hurt you, I'll let him pay the price!

Henrick heard Rita's words very clearly.

"How arrogant you are! Let's wait and see who'll pay the price. Troy, you'd better come here obediently."

"What... do you want to do?" Troy held Rita's arm in fear. Henrick would beat him severely if he went there, wouldn't he?

Seeing how cowardly he was, Henrick walked over quickly without saying anything and punched his face all of a sudden.

Rita didn't even have time to react.

"Woo-woo..." Troy felt so painful that he could not open his eyes. He burst into tears timidly, "Mom, it hurts so much! I can't open my eyes."

"You little beast! How dare you beat my son!" Rita flew into a rage and looked at Henrick's wicked smile foreciously.

Henrick still looked at Troy who had bullied Gia viciously.

"Troy, when Gia wakes up, you'd better go to the hospital and kneel down to apologize to her. Otherwise, your family will be ruined."

"Ha-ha..." Rita sneered mockingly and looked at Henrick with contempt, "Brat, watch your mouth! Who do you think you are?"

"Do you have the ability to make my family go bankrupt?"

"You'd better inquire about the Meaker family in this city. Can you afford to offend us?"

Henrick looked at her fat face. She wore a heavy makeup, and her lips were bright red.

What was the wrong with this family? Why were they so fat?

"Didn't your son tell you who I am?"

He sneered and glanced at Troy who didn't dare to look at him.

Gia was the princess of the Alwynn family. There were two reasons why he quarreled with her every day. On the one hand, life was too boring. On the other hand, they bore some grudges against each other indeed.

But it didn't mean that he didn't love Gia.

"Brat, I don't care who you are. In this city, no one can leave safely after beating my son."

"You're not qualified to act recklessly here! This place belongs to the Meaker family. Be smart and get out of here with those people. Otherwise, you will suffer!"

"Creak..." A car screeched to a halt outside the hall.

Henrick knew that Victor was here. When Rita was in a daze, he punched Troy in the face again.

"Ah..." Brian rushed in and shuddered when he heard Troy's miserable scream.

"Troy..." Rita screamed. Apparently, she did not expect that Henrick would do this.

"Brat, I'll kill you!"

Rita was about to push Henrick with her fat arms.

Henrick was agile, and he dodged with ease.

"You fat b*tch, stop!" Charlie, who had rushed over after hearing the news, even wanted to die when he saw this.

Behind him were Victor and Brian who looked gloomy.

"Why are you yelling at me? Can't you see that our son is being bullied? Look at how swollen his face is!" Rita pulled Troy's hand, and everyone saw his red and swollen face clearly. Troy was crying loudly.

"Crack..." Charlie slapped Rita in the face.

"You're even reasonable! How dare you kidnap Mr. Alwynn's daughter? Just wait to be imprisoned!"

They were doomed. At this time, even Irving had no ability to save the Meaker family.

Moreover, Cyril was involved. He was going to fail before getting an opportunity.

Eden and her children were Victor's bottom line.

When he was not paying attention, this son of b*tch brought such trouble on him.

"Oh, you b*stard! Now you even dare to beat me! Whether you believe it or not, I'll kill your mistresses and then let you die with me!" Charlie had always been afraid of Rita, and she didn't expect him to beat her.

She was so angry that she stamped her feet and said sternly.

"Shut up! Since you two have made a big mistake, bear the consequences by yourselves!" Charlie looked at his stupid son with disappointment.

When Denny called him, he knew that Victor wouldn't let them go.

"What big mistake? In River City, only those who have offended my family should get into trouble!" Rita became more and more impudent.

"Oh, why did I marry such a jinx like you?" Charlie turned around and looked at Victor.

In fact, he was satisfied with what had happened that night, because he would be reasonable enough to abandon this old woman.

He smiled flatteringly, bowed and said in a humble tone, "Mr. Alwynn, they kidnapped Miss Alwynn tonight, and it has nothing to do with me. It's all this b*tch's fault. Please don't vent your anger on Meaker Group. She should take all the blame."

Brian looked at him with disdain.

"Mr. Meaker, if a son is uneducated, his father is to blame. Do you dare to say that you have no responsibility at all?" Brian said coldly.

"Oh! Sir, my child has always been educated by his mother. He has no good judgment, but his mother acts recklessly as well. This is his mother's fault."

"Send his mother to prison." Charlie looked ruthless at this time.

Rita was frightened when she heard that.

"Charlie, we have been married for more than ten years. How can you treat me like this?"

"Shut up! You did a stupid thing, didn't you? Do you know who you kidnapped? She is the daughter of Mr. Alwynn!"

Rita opened her eyes wide and took a few steps back in disbelief.

Chapter 1500

"How could it be?" She couldn't believe that the girl she kidnapped was really Victor's daughter.

"Humph!" She looked at Victor and roared fearlessly.

"Charlie, you coward! Now that we have a backer. Why should we be afraid of him?"

"You..." Charlie was totally speechless. This reckless woman had got him into big trouble.

Brian sneered and glanced at Victor, "What are you going to do? Gia was badly scared. Eden and Kenny have sent her to the hospital."

Victor said with his face darkened, "The Meaker family and the Kline family are just stepping stones for Irving to get a firm foothold. Without the two stepping stones, Irving will suffer a lot."

Brian smiled, "You're right. This is your territory. However, I've learned that the Simpson family will come back to River City in a week, but I haven't found out where they'll live."

"Ha-ha..." Victor laughed coldly, "This evil wolf suddenly comes back, which really makes me worried."

"Isn't it just? Although you have connections with both of the gang and the police, you are not as experienced as Barrett. He is obviously more ruthless than you."

"If I'm not wrong, many things were arranged by Barrett before, including Dahlia's relationship with Irving. Irving's father forced Irving to be her fiance."

"But you avoided a lot of distastes accidentally."

"Let's finish the things here first, and then we'll think of a countermeasure."

Victor glanced at Rita. The backer she mentioned just now was Irving.

"Mr. Meaker, do you think that Irving can help you? Tomorrow morning, I will let you see how I take over Meaker Group with your own eyes."

"As for your son, I hope he won't appear in front of my daughter again." He said word by word and sentenced the death penalty of the Meaker family.

Victor couldn't do it three years ago. But at this time, the Alwynn Group was almost as rich as the Simpson family, the richest family in A Country.

If he surpassed the Simpson family at the end of the year, he would expand his business world-wildly.

"Ah..." Charlie was so frightened that he fell to the ground.

"No, Mr. Alwynn, please don't do this. It's not easy for me to develop Meaker Group. In the past few years, under the suppression of Alwynn Group, we had a hard time."

"Mr. Alwynn, tomorrow I will let my son kneel in front of Miss Alwynn and apologize to her. Please let go of my company."

The Charlie folded his hands and begged for mercy, looking terrified.

Rita was completely dumbfounded. She should not have made trouble with Troy that night.

If the Meaker family went bankrupt, how could she enjoy a rich life?

She would not only lose all her glory and wealth, but would also be abandoned by this ruthless man.

"Mr. Alwynn, I'm so sorry. I beg you. I will never do it again. I really didn't know that she is your daughter. If I knew it, I wouldn't dare to provoke her no matter how bold I was."

Rita knelt down in front of Victor.

Victor's eyes were brooding and gloomy as he said, "Charlie, do you really think it's because she kidnapped my daughter? Don't you know what you've done?"

"Do you want me to remind you what Cyril has done?"

He glanced at Charlie apathetically.

Charlie's body trembled. He didn't expect that Victor would find him out so quickly.

"Mr. Alwynn, it's really a misunderstanding. Although I arranged Cyril to do that, I didn't give him the money. Irving gave the money to me, and then I gave it to Cyril and let him take the lead to make trouble."

"Last time, you got Irving's land, and he was unwilling to accept the fact, so he wanted to get you into trouble."

He couldn't even protect himself, so there was no need to hide anything.

Only when Victor and Irving went against each other could he have a chance to survive.

He knew how powerful Victor was, and Irving was indeed inferior to him.

However, Irving was a tough character. During this period of time, he had taken over a few small companies that were about to go bankrupt to strengthen his own company.

He decided to cooperate with Irving after he knew this, but he brought disaster to himself in just a few months.

Even if he wanted to get Irving involved, he did not have the ability.

Irving would only contact him when he was successful, and he wouldn't help him in danger.

He had such a feeling when he first met Irving.

Before he came here, he had called Irving.

But Irving asked him to solve the problem on his own.

Hearing that, he knew that he was doomed.

They had signed a contract, and Irving would gain a lot by doing nothing.

Charlie smiled miserably. He had ruined the Meaker family like this.

"Brian, hand over the law-breaking records of Meaker Group to the police tomorrow morning. Don't let go of any criminal who kidnapped my daughter and the man behind the scene."

"I'll go to the hospital first." His tone was full of arrogance and determination.

Brian nodded, "Go ahead. Leave the rest to me."

It was particularly silent in the hall. Victor's words had determined the fate of the Meaker family. They even breathed cautiously.

Victor was indeed powerful enough to do so.

Victor took Henrick's hand and left, heading directly to the hospital.

When they arrived, Giada was having an intravenous drip, and she hadn't woken up yet.

Victor walked into the ward and saw Eden's thin back next to the bed. Looking at Gia who was lying there, he had a heart-wrenching pain.

He always failed to protect them, and such a feeling tortured his heart at any time.

"Eden, how is Gia?" He asked softly.

Eden looked up at him with no expression on her face. Then slowly lowered her head and said, "She has been drugged, and she won't wake up in a while."

Victor trembled violently and regretted not beating Troy fiercely.

His eyes were full of intense hostility and malice. Only by becoming the most powerful and dealing with all the scums could his beloved family be safe and sound.

He pulled over a chair and sat next to Eden, staying with Gia together with her.

Henrick and Kenneth went to the ward next door to accompany Delmont.

Eden looked at him with distress, "Victor, go back and have a rest. It's tiring to go on a business trip. I'll look after Gia. Doctor West said that she will wake up tomorrow morning."

Victor took her hand, "Eden, I'm not tired. Gia was frightened. When she wakes up and sees that we are both here, she will feel at ease. Later, I'll ask Master Wong to send Kenny and Ricky home."

"Alright!" Eden leaned against his chest and looked at Gia's pale face. She slept very uneasily and frowned from time to time. Sometimes, she even whispered in her dream.

Gia must be very scared at that time, but she did not save her in time.

She trusted Aro and Brian. Fortunately, Gia was fine, or she would regret it for the rest of her life.
