

Gluey Love 151

Chapter 151

Eden smiled and said, "Mom, I am fine with that.

Kenny is very sensible. He will be very good at home by himself when I go to work."

"Alright. I'll let you know the date when Kenny has decided. Eden, go back home early and drink less wine. You have to take care of yourself since I am not by your side."

"OK! Mom!"

Eden hung up the phone after that. She was very happy that Kenny was going to come over and keep her company.

Eden was about to wander around when someone spilled a glass of wine on her without warning.

"Ah!" Adonis, who was not far away widened his eyes suddenly.

The person who had spilled the wine on Eden was Mr. King's daughter, who had always been arrogant and domineering. Was she trying to cause trouble?

Eden turned her head and looked at the woman who was dressed up enchantingly. She had wavy curls and a delicate makeup. She was looking at Eden disdainfully at the moment!

"Miss, why did you spill the wine on me?" Eden's eyes were cold and her eyebrows were knitted tightly. There was a hint of anger in her eyes.

A few women who were in fashionable outfits from the side approached them slowly.

Myra was among them and she looked at Eden gloatingly.

Zaiden, who was not far away, also got up and walked towards Eden when he saw the scene.

Kelly sneered sarcastically, "I just spilled wine on a b*tch who seduced Mr. Alwynn. Don't you see what kind of person you are?"

Eden smiled coldly when she heard that. She got into trouble because of Victor again.

She turned sideways slightly and looked at Kelly. Her eyes were cold and her tone was more sarcastic than Kelly's, "What kind of person are you then? How dare you humiliate others indiscriminately in front of so many people? That's all you can be."

"You..." Kelly blushed. She was angry and embarrassed at the same time.

How dare the woman in front of her with no background humiliate her in return?

"I am warning you. You'd better be careful or I'll get you into trouble." Kelly became more and more arrogant. Just wait, she would give Eden a hard time.

"First of all, I didn't break the law. Secondly, I didn't offend you but you spilled the wine on me.

Miss, why don't you tell me what I did wrong in front of everyone?" Eden was not afraid although she knew that Kelly's came from a family with decent background.

"Hmph! Shame on you. You seduced Mr. Alwynn. What right does such a cheap woman like you have to be with him?" Kelly raised her chin high as warned Eden arrogantly.

"Hehe..." Eden laughed suddenly and something odd flashed across her eyes.

She smiled and asked, "Miss, you are qualified but I am not, why don't you stand next to him then?"

However, you have humiliated the director of Alwynn Group and Mr. Alwynn in front of everyone. Is that a really good move?" Eden's tone was not loud but it was audible enough for everyone to hear.

She involved Victor in her speech because she knew that he would help her.

Kelly's expression changed. She frowned and looked puzzled before she asked angrily, "When did I humiliate Mr. Alwynn? Don't be a b*tch and simply pin it on me."

"Really? As the Design Director of Alwynn Group, it is perfectly normal for me to attend the banquet with

Mr. Alwynn.

Besides, everyone in River City knew Mr. Alwynn. How could he be easily seduced by me?

Miss, think about the consequences first before you speak." Eden said coldly. Every word she had said was able to pierce through Kelly's heart.

Chapter 152

"i... "

"Oh my! It's so interesting. Miss Gerard, you have humiliated the design director of Alwynn Group and also Victor. I wonder if the business collaboration between Victor and the Gerard family will still continue if I show this video to Victor?" Adonis said while he recorded the whole incident with his mobile phone.

Kelly was scared when she heard what Adonis said.

Eden was slightly surprised when she heard that. This person was even more vicious. He had even recorded a video.

Kelly hurriedly explained, "Mr Church, I didn't mean it." She just wanted to teach Eden a lesson.

"I bet you did in on purpose." Adonis retorted with a smile while recording the video.

Why did she have to provoke Victor's woman? Moreover, she did it in front of so many people.

Moreover, she was the woman he was responsible for protecting.

Adonis was not afraid that Victor would be mad at him with the video he recorded.

Kelly had always been mindless. She couldn't restrain her violent temper whenever someone ridiculed her.

"No, Mr. Church, I..." Kelly couldn't find an excuse to refute him.

Eden frowned when she saw that Adonis had recorded the video. Why did he do that?

She could solve the problem on her own.

Other people would despise her more now.

Adonis glanced at Eden and saw that her clothes were stained with wine. He frowned and said, "Miss Bleu, go back to your room and change your clothes first. Don't mind what this woman had said. You are the Design Director of the Alwynn Group. Some people are just jealous of you. I will inform Mr. Alwynn about this matter and let him deal with it personally!"

Eden glanced at Kelly, who was anxious and didn't know what to do. She nodded coldly at Adonis before she left casually.

Adonis was the one who wanted to take the lead, so Eden was free.

Zaiden felt relieved when he saw what had happened.

"What's wrong? Are you worried about her?" Darlene had already walked up to Zaiden's side and she asked with a smile.

Zaiden smiled and said, "Of course I'm worried. She does not have an easy life."

"Oh! Mr. Calder has learned how to care for others?" Darlene smiled but she felt very odd. Zaiden was cold to others and he seldom meddled in other people's business except for doing business to earn money.

"Darlene, people will change slowly. She is very hard working. You would know how capable she is if you had more contact with her." Zaiden motioned her to the side to speak after that.

Adonis only looked away from Zaiden and Darlene after they left

He was actually interested in Zaiden's acquaintance with Eden.

He looked at Kelly who was looking at him with a blank face and smile mischievously. "Miss Gerard, I will be shy if you keep looking at me like this!"

The crowd was in chaos when they heard this.

Even the eldest young master from the Church family, who was a playboy, would be embarrassed?

Adonis could not even believe what he had just said!

"You!" Kelly was angry!

"Kelly, that's enough! You are such a disgrace!

Quickly apologize to Mr. Church." Kelly's father, Rupert, came over angrily. He glared at Kelly as he yelled sternly.

"Dad, I..."

"Look at you. Don't you feel ashamed? Quickly apologize to Mr. Church!" Rupert's face was livid as he interrupted Kelly. Was Kelly dumb? How could she say whatever she wanted in front of everyone?

Kelly was scared when she looked at Rupert's livid face. She turned to look at Adonis who was half smiling and said gently, "Mr. Church, I'm sorry!"

Adonis quickly waved his hands. He looked at Kelly and said with a sneer, "Miss King, you don't need to apologize to me but to Miss Bleu. You spilled wine on her for no reason.

As the director of the company, wasn't she just accompanying Mr. Alwynn to socialize? Yet you still accused her of seducing Mr. Alwynn.

I would like to ask you something. Did you see with your own eyes that Eden seduced Mr. Alwynn?"

"I... No!" Kelly lowered her head. She dared not be arrogant in front of Rupert.

She used to bully people the same way, but nobody would interfere like Adonis did.

Adonis sneered, "You didn't see with your own eyes but why would you want to ruin other people's reputation by accusing them? Miss Gerard was well disciplined by her family. I have seen it with my own eyes today."

Adonis's voice was gentle and sarcastic at the same time, but he still maintained the demeanor of a gentleman.

Rupert felt ashamed when he heard that.

"Mr. Church..."

"Alright. All of you can continue with what you were doing. I'm leaving." Adonis interrupted Rupert before he could finish his words. He turned around and left without giving him face.

"Alas! Mr. Church, don't leave yet. Do you want to have a drink before you go?" Rupert, who was middle-age became anxious when he saw that Adonis was about to leave.

It was not easy for him to get this far after all!

He couldn't let his life's work be ruined by his daughter's words.

"Dad, he is already gone. Why are you doing this?" Kelly was unrepentant and she still had a condescending look on her face.

"Hehe..." Rupert smiled coldly. He looked at his condescending daughter and said coldly, "That's right, he already left with the video. The majority of our company's business is supported by the Alwynn Group. If Mr. Alwynn is unhappy, he could put us out of business.

You will lose everything you have now if that is the case. You won't be able to buy designer bags or the things that you want." After saying that, Rupert turned and left angrily without looking back.

Kelly was dumbfounded and she remained rooted to the spot.

Kelly didn't expect that she would cause such a big issue when she only wanted to teach Eden a lesson.

Her whole body began to tremble. How could she survive in the future without any money?

Rupert walked to the side of the table, picked up a glass of wine and drank it up. She was very worried because Victor was famous for his ruthlessness in the business world.

Eden was Victor's first female companion whom he brought along ever since Rupert met him.

Rebecca came over with Phillip at the moment. She caught sight of everything that had happened a while ago.

She took Phillip's arm intimately and said charmingly, "Hubby, accompany me to change my clothes. You can also take this opportunity to rest. Since many people had already toasted you, you would be drunk again after another round tonight."

Phillip nodded and said with a slightly far-fetched smile. "Okay!"

Eden bumped into Mrs. Clement when she stepped out of the elevator.

Mrs. Clement seemed to be waiting for her on purpose.

Eden felt a piercing pain in her heart when she saw the ridicule on Mrs. Clement's face!

She smiled politely, "Mrs. Clement."

She was going to leave after that

Mrs. Clement crossed her arms in front of her chest and stared at Eden with contempt. "Look, someone before me had already dealt with you. I am telling you this. You will never be able to survive in this circle if you do not have someone to back you up.

Even if you have Victor to back you up, how long can he protect you? Huh?"

Aisling's mocking expression and sneer had deeply pierced through Eden's heart.

An invisible pain enveloped her whole body.

How could a well-educated person speak in such a mean way?

Eden had no idea why the pain she felt after hearing Aisling's words was worse than what she had suffered seven years ago.

Eden stopped about three steps away from Aisling. When she looked up, the pain in her beautiful eyes had vanished.

She looked at the rich and powerful Aisling fearlessly and said, "Mrs. Clement, I think you misunderstood. I do not have anything to do with Victor..."

"Hehe..." Aisling suddenly sneered and interrupted her.

"Eden, your words are pleasant to the ears. Why would he introduce Darlene to you if you have nothing to do with him? What about Zaiden?"

Seems like Miss Bleu is very sociable." She looked at Eden with narrowed eyes and there was a hidden meaning in her words.

Zaiden was a real estate kingpin in both River City and Gate City. It was difficult for Aisling to even meet him.

Eden felt that Aisling was unreasonable when she heard her words.

She sneered and twitched the corners of her mouth before she said with a smile, "Ordinary people would not have understood Mrs. Clement's reasoning. In your eyes, should people without status live in poverty?"

"They don't even have the right to get to know the wealthy people?"

Instead of stopping me to ridicule me and tell me not to mess with Victor, why not go back and teach your daughter how to make a man stay?" Eden glanced at Aisling sharply after she finished her words. After that, she turned around and left angrily.

Did she look weak and easily to be bullied? Everyone liked to bully her.

Eden would take action and showed them that she was not someone that can be easily intimidated.

She had learned a lot of things in the past seven years and had good relationship with people in the industry.

The fast living pace and the great strain of accountability made her live a tiring and frugal life.

Her best friend and her beloved mother were the ones that had been helping her all the while.

She knew that she could only rely on herself the moment she became successful. Only with her own capability, could she have a better life.

She didn't have much money but she would find a way to earn it. She would also work hard in order to afford a house and a car. However, she would have to endure the pain and fatigue on her own.

She would be very grateful if someone offered her help.

She take the opportunity to make her life more comfortable.

Eden rarely complained about the unfairness of fate. She reminded herself that if she was strong enough, she would be able to solve any problem, no matter how difficult it was.

She had to rely on herself to become successful no matter how much hardship awaited her.

"Eden, stop." Aisling caught up with Eden in a few steps and blocked her way.

Aisling was so angry that her entire body trembled when she looked at Eden's back. It took her a while to speak, especially the last sentence. She was so angry that she could hardly breathe.

"Eden, Victor is not an ordinary person. He grew up together with Haven and their relationship is good. Their relationship had been gradually affected since your arrival."

Eden, I am begging you to let go of Victor. Let him be together with Haven. Haven cried the whole day today, and she..."

"Mrs. Clement!" Eden quickly interrupted her.

Chapter 155

Eden looked at Aisling for a while before she said, "Mrs. Clement, don't go too far. Why do you keep thinking that Victor and I are together? You even asked me to let Victor go. Hehe..." Eden sneered.

She said sarcastically as she looked at the speechless Aisling, "Mrs. Clement, you have watched Victor grow up. Is he the kind of man that I can control?"

Mrs. Clement, I'm telling you one last time. There's nothing between Victor and I.

Please don't involve me and Victor together in the future." After saying that, Eden turned and left.

This time, Aisling was at a loss for words because she was refuted by Eden. She could only watch Eden's back slowly fade away.

How could that be?

Even if Eden didn't have anything to do with Victor, Victor's attitude towards her was still odd.

Aisling had never seen Victor care so much about a woman.

Eden was indeed the first one.

Aisling stood at the same spot. She lowered her head and fell into deep thought.

Haven was getting more and more restless in the room. Her entire body was hot and dry, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

Why did this happen? Was it because she was too nervous?

She laid on the big soft bed in the dimly lit room and tossed and turned restlessly.

Victor would have to marry her after tonight. It would be best if she was pregnant. That way, she would be able to keep Victor in check.

Victor would have no choice but to marry her under the pressure from his aristocratic family.

Someone opened the door suddenly. Haven steadied her hot body and forced herself back to her senses.

"Vic, Victor..." She called out delicately.

Two dark figures were supporting a man. They felt sick when they heard Haven's delicate voice.

They dropped the man on the bed and got out of the room quickly.

The two figures in the dimly lit room entwined with each other instantly. They seemed to be able to fulfil their lust and desires together.

The deep and heavy voices echoing in the room would make people blush.

Victor's tall figure stood outside the door. He exuded a charming aura and his face was terrifyingly dark.

He smiled coldly as he listened to the sounds from the two people in the room.

Victor wanted Haven to know how terrible the consequence would be when she schemed against him!

Victor wanted Vincent to know that once he retaliated, there was nothing that Vincent could do.

Lucian and Anson walked to Victor's side.

Lucian patted his head in disgust.

Anson couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth. Lucian really had mysophobia.

Anson kicked at his back a few times.

Only then did he look at Victor with a weird smile. "Victor, everything is ready! The show has begun."

Victor glanced at Anson coldly and said with an evil smile, "Alright, well give Rebecca a big surprise now! Go and prepare!"

Anson glanced at Lucian, patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile, "Genius, it's up to you now. It depends on you whether the surprise is going to be wonderful or not!"

Lucian glanced at Victor and Anson with his gentle eyes.

He turned around and looked at the TV hanging at the corridor. He took out a remote control and pressed a button gently. The shampoo advertisement suddenly turned into a scene where two figures were intertwining with each other. It was so explicit that it was unbearable to watch.

Victor asked with a sullen face, "Lucian, are you sure that you can also provide live broadcast at the banquet?"

He wanted to teach Rebecca a painful lesson with the good show.

Chapter 156

Lucian glanced at Victor coldly and asked in a deep voice, "Don't you trust me?"

Victor pursed his lips coldly. It was not that he did not trust Lucian, but he was extremely angry with what had happened today.

"Let's go!" Victor turned around and headed to the elevator after he finished speaking.

Victor, Anson and Lucian left quickly. There would be reporters coming after a while.

Vincent had arranged everything for himself. It would be very interesting!

He would have a taste of his own medicine!

Phillip and Rebecca came out of the elevator just as Victor, Anson and Lucian got into the elevator.

Philip and Rebecca headed to the room which had been arranged by her.

As for Victor and the others, they bumped into Adonis when they got out of the elevator.

Victor looked at Adonis coldly and raised his voice, "Adonis, didn't I tell you to keep an eye on Eden? Why are you here?"

Adonis waved his mobile phone in front of him and smiled smugly. "I did keep an eye on her. Someone caused trouble for her because of you. They accused her of seducing you.

"Well, I have recorded a video for you, the chief culprit. You can't blame me because I have evidence."

Victor glanced at the phone in Adonis' hand and his expression was inscrutable.

He said coldly, "What happened? Where is Eden?"

"Eden..." Adonis looked at Victor meaningfully.

"Victor, don't tell me that is really the case." Adonis had always interested in gossips. He was particularly curious about Victor's affairs.

Victor frowned impatiently and he exuded an oppressing aura instantly.

When Anson saw that, he quickly walked over and patted Adonis on the shoulder before he said coldly, "Adonis, since when did you become so vulgar? Is Victor the kind of person who can be easily seduced by others? Do you even have a brain? Did you graduate from a famous university for nothing?"

Adonis was about to speak when he saw Aisling walking out from another elevator.

"Ah..."

Aisling stopped suddenly when she heard a delicate voice. She looked at the scene on the TV in shock.

Victor also saw Aisling.

Victor and the others quickly headed to the other side of the hotel.

At the same time, the big silver screen at the banquet that broadcasted various business information from the financial channel suddenly changed to an explicit scene.

Everyone was taken aback!

They looked at the scene in front of them in shock.

Even though the scene on the screen was dark, everyone could still tell what the two people were doing.

Some people who were close with Vincent and Haven were quick to recognize them.

"Look, isn't that Vincent? Who is that woman?" The lights in the room were very dim and Haven's face could not be seen clearly.

"Is that really Vincent?"

"What's happening? Is it a live broadcast?"

"That is too shameless!"

Everyone was discussing about the scene with each other!

Buddy and Delmont glanced at the screen. They knew that the woman was Haven although they couldn't see her face clearly.

They were able to recognize her voice because they had been living under the same roof.

They put down their glasses instantly and rushed to the hotel

Rebecca and Phillip also stopped to look at the scene on the TV in front of them in disbelief.

Rebecca was particularly stunned. That man should be Victor. How could it be Vin?

Her entire body began to tremble instantly!

Phillip's face was livid as he bellowed angrily, "W-what is going on?"

Chapter 157

"I, I have no idea either." Rebecca frowned and said in a hurtful tone.

She didn't know what was going on either.

Everything had been arranged. Why would such a thing happen?"

D*mn it!

Who was actually behind this?

"Where's the room? Go and find it! That brat! The Alwynn family is indebted to the Clement family in the first place. We don't even know what will happen to our family because of this!" Phillip roared angrily as he walked forward quickly.

He could tell that it was Haven's voice.

"Hubby... wait for me!" Rebecca was a little nervous. Would the Clement family keep quiet if it was Victor?

However, since Vincent was the person involved, the Clement family would not let him off so easily.

A group of reporters broke into the dark room suddenly.

"Click..." Someone turned on the lights in the room.

The flash from the cameras captured Vincent and

Haven who were in a daze.

"Get out. All of you get out." Aisling ran in and pushed all the reporters out of the room.

She then closed the door with a bang.

Her cold gaze swept across the reporters holding their cameras and she said coldly, "If you dare to report what happened tonight, don't blame the Clement family for taking action."

One of the male reporters sneered and said, "Mrs.

Clement, it's not up to you to decide. Even if we don't report, the people at the banquet will also spread the news."

"That's right. Mrs. Clement, are those people in the room Haven and Vincent? Are they in love with each other? Isn't Haven Victor's fiancée? How come she is with Vincent?" A female reporter asked sharply.

Aisling closed her eyes with a headache. How could things get to this point?

Haven said that she wanted to go back to her room to change her clothes. She saw Eden bullied by Kelly when she went to the bathroom. She wanted to wait for Eden to come out so that she could taunt her.

Just as she was about to go back, she heard her daughter's voice from the TV. The Clement family had lost face completely this time.

"Mrs. Clement, please answer the questions I just asked." The female reporter looked sharply at Aisling as she urged her to answer.

It would be major and popular news.

There had always been rumors about the marriage between the Clement and Alwynn families. It was Victor and Haven who were rumored.

However, Vincent were seen together with Haven.

The reporters were still able to get a controversial piece of news although they were a little disappointed.

"What are you doing?" Phillip, who had rushed over let out an imposing roar, causing all the reporters to turn and look at him.

Several reporters stopped taking photos and turned to look at Phillip.

"Mr. Alwynn, we are just doing our jobs..."

"Shut up. What happens tonight is the Alwynn family's business. If you dare to report it, I will put an end to your media companies and you will lose your jobs."

Phillip threatened the reporters in an aggressive manner. With the position of the Alwynn family in River City, he had the ability to shut down all the media companies.

The reporters looked at each other. They only came because they were given the room number and were told that they would obtain some major news here.

Every reporter's wish was to obtain explosive news.

Philip's serious face became more terrifying when he saw that the reporters did not speak.

His aura was so strong that the reporters lowered their heads slightly and take a few steps back involuntarily.

Chapter 158

Philip shouted, "Delete everything. You can only leave after you have deleted everything. I would shut down the media company that dares to report this incident tomorrow morning."

After that, he picked up his phone and called his secretary.

His secretary, Jaxon arrived with two people very soon.

Buddy, who was not far away, cut off the power and the explicit scene no longer appeared on the screen.

Aisling heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that.

However, in her heart, she knew it was impossible to silence the crowd. The people at the banquet would not simply spread the news as long as the media company did not make the news public because no one dared to offend the Alywnn and Clement families.

Moreover, she didn't recognize that Haven was the woman in the clip. She only knew that it was Haven when she heard the voice.

She was too anxious just now. If she hadn't come over, nobody would be able to tell it was Haven in that dimly lit room.

Jaxon brought the reporters to another room.

Only then did Aisling sit down on the ground weakly. Her face was pale and her entire body was weak.

Buddy came over and immediately help her up.

"Mom, are you all right?" Buddy's voice was very cold and it was filled with uncontrollable rage.

He did not look at Phillip and Rebecca. He only helped Aisling to the room that he had booked.

Delmont and his father, Wyatt, followed him.

Phillip looked at Wyatt guiltily.

"Wyatt..."

Wyatt waved his hands with a livid face and said in a deep voice, "Let's talk when we get back to the room."

Haven would be doomed for the rest of her life if their conversation was heard by others.

Wyatt did not like Haven very much but Haven had the same surname as the Clement family. He still treated Haven as his daughter even if she was not his biological daughter.

Phillip nodded and he and Rebecca followed Wyatt to leave.

Rebecca glanced at the door of the room before she left. There was still a harsh sound coming from the room. Her face was sullen and her veins were evident on her fair forehead.

What actually happened?

Where did Victor go?

Rebecca was a little distraught. She was not afraid of anything but she feared being set up by Victor.

Victor was a ruthless person.

Rebecca thought as she walked. She suddenly felt devastated when she thought of something. Would Victor take advantage of tonight's incident to free himself from Haven?

But how did Victor know about her plan?

Rebecca couldn't figure it out.

Back in the room, Wyatt and his family sat on the sofa and the atmosphere was terrifyingly oppressive.

Rebecca and Phillip were sitting opposite them.

The bright light illuminated everyone's expression

Everyone looked extremely solemn with their heads lowered. No one spoke a single word.

The party involved was not there, so it was futile for them to say anything.

Everyone lowered their heads in anger and didn't speak.

Victor, Anson, Lucian, and Adonis returned to the other room. Eden had changed her clothes and came out of the restroom.

She suddenly realized the presence of the four men.

She was slightly surprised and asked, "Mr. Alwynn, is it time to go back?"

She glanced at her phone. It was still early.

She wanted to go back early if she could. She was very tired after the whole day.

Victor realized that Eden had changed into another dress. The dress was slightly longer than the one she wore a while ago, but it fitted her body more.

He raised the corner of his mouth with satisfaction.

Eden smiled and looked charming in the dress.

"Eden, wait for a while. You can go back soon." His tone was calm and he was much more restrained in front of the others.

Chapter 159

Eden nodded. "Now..."

"Eden, go back to the room and rest for a while. I will come and call you when it's time to leave." Victor said as he opened the door of the room with his muscular arms.

Eden glanced at him with no expression on her face before she turned and went back to her room.

Victor smiled gently as he watched her enter the room.

He closed the door and glanced at Lucian.

Lucian nodded and walked towards another room.

The three other men followed Lucian to the room.

Lucian turned on his laptop and the explicit scene appeared again.

Lucian laughed coldly. He turned the volume down and clicked away the disgusting scene.

Anson smiled and said, "They thought that it would be fine if they cut the power supply. Unfortunately, they underestimated Secretary Ronald because he is actually a computer expert."

Victor sat on the sofa with an extremely sullen expression on his face.

"It's a pity that the angle was a bit off and Haven's face can't be seen clearly." Victor's tone was extremely cold.

Adonis pursed his lips in fear. "Victor, are you taking revenge on everyone?"

Anson knocked on Adonis's head and scolded, "Adonis, are you an idiot? Rebecca and Vincent tried to set Victor up. Victor was just retaliating. Which side are you on? Who are you speaking for?"

Adonis had a look of grievance on his face as he rubbed his head that was hit by Anson.

He just came back not long ago. How would he know the details of the situation?

Victor glanced at him coldly and pointed at the phone in Adonis' hand with his slender fingers.

Adonis understood what Victor meant. He quickly clicked open the video and handed the phone to Victor.

Victor accepted the phone and looked at the video sullenly.

Anson also tilted his head to watch the video. He was startled by what he saw. "Is Kelly trying to ruin the Gerard family?"

The longer Victor looked at the video, the colder his expression became. His thin lips were tightly pursed and his eyes were burning with rage. He exuded a dangerous aura.

Anson and Adonis glanced at each other. The cold atmosphere caused the room to become oppressive.

The first thing that crossed Anson's mind was that the Gerard family had come to an end.

Victor looked at the video very seriously. He stared at Eden's confident and calm face when she refuted Kelly.

Eden exuded a strong and unyielding aura.

Victor's eyes darkened when he saw the people who were gloating at the side. He was so angry that his hand that was holding the phone trembled.

He knew how cold people were.

Eden was very precious to him. No one was willing to help her when the incident happened. Everybody just stood and watched.

"Lucian, cancel all the collaborations with the Gerard family starting from tomorrow." Victor's tone was cold and deep.

Anson and Adonis looked at each other. It was just what they had expected.

Victor lived up to his reputation as a ruthless person.

"Got it!" Lucian answered nonchalantly.

Anson glanced at Lucian who was expressionless. "Tsk, tsk, tsk. There is no one more suitable than Lucian to be Victor's secretary."

He had such a charming face. How could he be so compliant?

The four of them were very handsome but they were all single.

Chapter 160

Alas!

The Gerard family was considered unlucky since they had offended Victor's beloved woman.

Victor was the overlord of River City and a reputable wealthy man on the list of the A country.

It was a piece of cake for Victor to get rid of a small company.

Adonis was confused. Why did Victor suddenly become so interested in Eden's affairs?

He wanted answers. He glanced at Victor's extremely sullen face.

He wanted to ask Victor but no words came out from his mouth.

This was because Adonis was afraid of the cold aura exuded by Victor.

"It's done!" Lucian said lightly and his thin lips curled into a derisive smile.

Victor got up, and his tall figure exuded a cold and oppressive aura.

"Keep the USB. I'll go pick up Eden." He strode out of the room after that.

Only then did Adonis feel the atmosphere became soothing and he no longer felt oppressed.

"Anson, tell me why Victor had undergone such a drastic change in just half a month? Why was he so angry that his face turned red tonight?"

Anson smiled wickedly and patted Adonis's shoulder. "Adonis, you've not performed very well recently. You should not ask further questions regarding this matter. You'll know in the future. Let's go back. The show is over. We can go back and sleep."

When Adonis heard this, he looked at Anson's back with displeasure. "Anson, is that the way to make friends? Also, I'm not going to watch the grand finale."

Lucian walked past him and said with a smile, "Adonis, let's go! It's normal to have friends like this.

I will not watch the finale too. It's disgusting."

"Hmph!" Adonis snorted coldly and said, "Lucian, quickly explain the whole situation to me. I'm almost driven mad. Can you tell me please?" Adonis begged Lucian with a sobbing face.

He would like to interrogate Victor.

That fellow was simply too hard to please!

Lucian looked at him and smiled faintly. "Adonis, don't you know my character?"

After that, he walked out gracefully with one hand in his trouser pocket. His move was particularly eye-catching among the others.

Adonis's handsome face twisted in anger.

"Hmph! How are you even considered my brothers? Nobody would treat their brother like this." He growled angrily and left with the others reluctantly.

Eden sat on the sofa in the room and looked quietly at the large bed not far away with mixed feelings.

This place...

Eden was deep in her thoughts when the sound of the door opening brought her back to her senses.

She became nervous instantly when she heard the sound of the door opening. Her entire body was tensed as she stared at the door.

She became even more nervous when she realized it was Victor who had entered the room.

This was the place that ruined her life. However, it was also the place where she found the truth.

She looked at the man who was walking towards her. The crystal lamp shone on his face, revealing his well-defined facial features. His every move was calm and restrained.

Victor raised his eyes to look at Eden but she quickly lowered her head.

His expression became gentle when he saw Eden. He stood and inadvertently glanced at the large bed not far away. He could still feel her beauty that night even though he was under the effect of the drug.
