

Gluey Love 1571

Chapter 1571

"Bang..." Immediately afterwards, another loud noise came from the door.

Barrett came with some people. He kicked the door angrily, and the noise was deafening.

Everyone was startled.

"You b*stard!" Barrett walked over angrily and slapped Baylee in the face hard.

Baylee was dumbfounded. After she came to sense, she burst into tears and leaned against Chelsea's arms with grievances.

"Uncle, I am the one who has been suffered. Why do you slap me?" At this time, she did not know that everything she did had been seen by others.

"You deserve it! Look at what you've done! Now everyone knows about it! Why do I have such a niece like you?" Barrett looked at Baylee exasperatedly.

The Simpson family had become a laughing stock in River City.

"Chelsea, what's going on?" Baylee felt that things were so strange. Why did they all come to this room? Moreover, Barrett looked so furious.

Hearing this, Dean sneered, "Miss Simpson, you plotted against Mrs. Alwynn and even tried to broadcast it live. We've called the police."

"What? How could it be?" Baylee asked in disbelief.

She plotted against Eden indeed, but she couldn't figure out why she had fallen into her own trap.

Her expression changed dramatically, "Are you blind? I am the victim now. Where is Eden? She must be the one who schemed everything. Ask her to come here! I'll kill her!"

Baylee was extremely anxious and said without thinking.

The reporters shoot everything secretly.

Looking at her crazy face, Dean had no sympathy for her at all.

"If you were the victim, Mrs. Alwynn would be wronged. You have a relationship with your own subordinate, and you try to framed Mrs. Alwynn, but you even want to shift the blame onto her. Oh, the Simpson family's way of doing things is really shameless!"

"Do you think you can do whatever you want and ruin someone else's life just because you're rich?"

"But this world is fair. You've got your retribution, and you ask for it."

Dean's tone sounded very sarcastic.

Barrett's face darkened to the extreme.

"You're just a lackey, and you're not qualified to teach her a lesson!" He went off the deep end.

He was really pissed off after he came back to this city.

Dean's face turned serious. He was not angry but smiled, "Chairman Simpson, although I'm just an assistant and you can look down on me, you have no right to stop my work. I'll deal with this matter on behalf of Mr. Alwynn, and I'll get to the bottom of it and improve Mrs. Alwynn's innocence."

"Humph! Who do you think you're? Whoever dares to take away Baylee will go against me!" Barrett looked at Dean with contempt.

If what happened at night was spread in this city, the Simpson family would really be disgraced.

Several policemen came in, and they had seen the video just now.

Two policemen checked the room and returned with half of a stick of incense. Then he handed it to the slightly fat policeman.

One of the policemen looked at Baylee, "Miss Simpson, you framed Mrs. Alwynn and used illegal incense. You're under investigation now. Please cooperate with our work."

Two policemen immediately rushed forward and caught Baylee.

"Let go of me! I didn't do that. It was Eden's trick. It has nothing to do with me! I am the victim. You've caught the wrong person." Baylee didn't expect that things would become like this, and she was truly flustered and shocked.

"Wait! Sir, she's from the Simpson family!" Seeing that the policemen caught Baylee in front of him, Barrett became more and more furious.

The policeman stopped and looked at Barrett angrily, "Even if you have money and power, you must abide by the law. No matter who you are, you have to be punished by law once you do something illegal! Take her away."

Barrett did not expect that the police wouldn't show him any respect. His face immediately darkened, and he could only watch Baylee being taken away.

"Chelsea, save me! Uncle, help! I don't want to be imprisoned..." Baylee's voice could no longer be heard, and the whole room suddenly fell into a dead silence.

The two bald men and another woman were taken away for investigation.

When Chelsea saw such a result, she was completely desperate.

Victor brought Eden home as quickly as he could.

He wanted to go to the hotel, but Eden did not agree and she wanted to go home.

She could bear it. After all, she did not inhale much fragrance.

Victor was afraid that it would harm her health, so he drove as fast as he could.

Eden made it to the end. Her face became redder and redder, and she kept rubbing against Victor's body.

Seeing that they had arrived, Victor finally breathed a sigh of relief.

As soon as the remote control door was opened, he pressed down hard on the gas pedal.

The car stopped in the garden.

He looked at Eden who was next to him. She was in a trance, and words couldn't describe how charming she was.

"Eden, we're home." His voice was hoarse.

Eden did not look at him. She closed her eyes and groaned softly.

Victor's nerves were tense, and he immediately got sexually aroused.

He quickly got off the car and carried Eden back to their room. He didn't even have time to turn on the lights before he started to kiss her...

Early the next morning.

The fact that Barrett lost his temper in the room and what Baylee had done became hot topics online.

Everyone discussed about it.

The Simpson family had become a laughing stock overnight.

When Barrett got up early in the morning and saw the news, he flew into a rage.

The atmosphere in the Simpson family was stiff to the extreme.

No one dared to provoke Barrett who was furious. They all stayed far away from him, and even Leilani didn't dare to approach him.

"Bang..." The fine porcelain vases in the room were smashed into pieces.

Looking at the abuse on the Internet, Barrett felt that he was in a miserable situation for the first time.

Seeing this scene outside the door, Leilani felt so distressed.

Each of the porcelain vases was worth millions of dollars.

She chose them carefully after she moved in.

Adrienne stood on the balcony on the third floor. Looking at the news on her phone and listening to the movements downstairs, she smiled playfully.

It had been a long time since she saw Barrett so irritated.

Chelsea and Leilani were ruining their own chances.

It seemed that Eden was indeed a suitable partner.

She must get back what the Simpson family owed her and her mother.

What Barrett did that year completely disappointed her mother.

The rumours outside did not affect Victor and Eden.

Neither of them went to the company.

It was almost noon when Victor woke up.

Seeing that Eden was still asleep, he smiled. When he thought of her horny performance last night, his eyes turned softer and softer.

He lowered his head and kissed her forehead.

He chuckled and said, "Fool, loving you for a lifetime is too short. I'll love you forever."

Chapter 1572

But thinking of what had happened last night, he flew off the handle.

He tucked Eden in and got up to take a bath.

After coming out, he put on his clothes. His tall and straight figure looked so charismatic. He buttoned his shirt while walking to the kitchen to make lunch.

Along the way, he looked down at his phone and saw the news about the Simpson family. He was very satisfied with the way Dean dealt with this matter.

He opened the refrigerator to see what food ingredients he could cook. Then he took out some vegetables and beef and was about to cook.

After he cut all the food ingredients, Dean called him.

"Mr. Alwynn, Chelsea wants to meet you."

Victor said in a deep voice, "No. I'll go to the company later. Let's talk about it when I get there. Don't call me again."

"I see, Mr. Alwynn. You must be very tired last night, right? Have a good rest." After saying this with a smile, Dean hung up the phone immediately.

Victor frowned. Was he very tired last night?

He stretched out his powerful arms. He was very energetic at this time.

"Dean, do you down on me that much?" Victor narrowed his eyes, feeling extremely depressed.

The tired one should be Eden. What was he worried about?

When the lunch was ready, Eden woke up.

Eden was wearing pink woollen pajamas. It was a little loose and wrapped her slim figure, making her look casual and cute. After washing up, she sat on the sofa in the living room lazily.

Her head was a little dizzy, and her face was pale. She leaned on the sofa and had a rest with her eyes narrowed.

While washing up, she recalled what happened last night and realized why she was so tired.

She looked at the time. It was twelve o'clock at noon.

Time went by so quickly!

"Eden, come here for lunch." Seeing that she had got up, Victor said to her with a smile.

Eden turned her head slowly to look at him. His eyes were full of smiles, and his handsome face looked so attractive.

Eden got up slowly to eat, and she did not say a word.

Victor picked up some food for her, but she didn't speak, either.

Looking at her, Victor was not sure whether she was angry or not.

"Eden..."

"Bang..." The more Eden thought about it, the angrier she became. She slammed her chopsticks on the table with great strength.

Victor was stunned.

He said in a cautious tone.

"Eden, why are you so mad? You'll get sick because of it."

Victor thought for a while. Was she so annoyed because he made her tired last night?

"Humph! Baylee is really vicious! If I was not prepared last night, my life would have been ruined by her!" Eden knocked on the table furiously and said.

Hearing this, Victor instantly breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, it was not his fault.

"Eden, don't worry. She won't do it again." This time, even if he didn't kill her, he had to make her suffer a lot.

"Of course. I wonder how many innocent girls have been hurt by such a vicious woman." Eden was so irritated that her face turned red. As soon as she thought of what had happened last night, she flew off the handle.

The wicked thing Baylee had done was really hateful and disgusting.

However, this was exactly the result she wanted.

What would Chelsea do next? She was looking forward to it.

No matter how powerful the Simpson family was, she could ruin it step by step.

"Alright, honey, don't be angry. If you want to lose temper, you have to fill your stomach first."
Victor handed the chopsticks back to her.

Eden picked up her chopsticks with annoyance and continued to eat.

After lunch, they went to the company.

Downstairs the company, they were stopped by Chelsea.

Chelsea wore a black overcoat, a black tight-fitting dress and a pair of black long boots, looking very charming and coquettish.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, can we have a talk?" Chelsea's tone was amiable and friendly. The most important thing was to save Baylee.

"What do you want to talk about? Miss Simpson, in the face of someone who wants to ruin me, what do you think I can talk about?" Eden looked at her mockingly.

Why hadn't they thought about the consequences when they wanted to frame her?

Chelsea smiled awkwardly. Looking at Eden's angry face, she really didn't want to talk to her.

But she would go down considerably in Barrett's estimation if she couldn't solve this matter.

The Simpson family was related to the future of her and Stephen.

She had to solve this matter by herself.

"Mrs. Alwynn, this is a misunderstanding..."

"Chelsea, what's the point of talking like this again?" Victor interrupted her coldly.

He looked at her playfully and said in a teasing tone, "If I ask someone to rape you and then tell you that this is a misunderstanding, will you suppress your indignation?"

"You plot against my wife again and again. How dare you challenge me and hurt my wife!" Blue veins stood out on his forehead. He gritted his teeth and said every word with great strength, and his deep and low voice made Chelsea tremble in fear.

It was said that Victor was not someone to be trifled with, but she didn't believe it. At this time, she finally realized that she couldn't bear to offend him.

Even Carlotta immediately turned against her when she heard that she wanted to frame Victor and Eden.

When Carlotta left, she only said one sentence to her.

"You think too much of yourselves."

At that time, she thought that Carlotta was cowardly and timid, but it seemed that she was wrong. Carlotta was the one who knew the situation best.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn is all right now, isn't she?" Chelsea glanced at Eden.

"If anything bad happened to my wife, do you think you could stand in front of me safely?" Victor was so furious, and Chelsea made his anger overflow again.

Chelsea had always been arrogant, and she felt that she was richer and nobler than Eden and Victor. Therefore, her attitude gradually became tough when she heard Victor's unfriendly tone.

"Mr. Alwynn, it has happened, and I think everything is negotiable. As long as you and Mrs. Alwynn can forgive Baylee, my family will definitely thank you two very much." Her tone was a bit threatening. She was sure that Victor would be afraid, because the Simpson family was very powerful and wealthy.

"Thank us?" Victor looked at her with sharp and hostile eyes, "I think you're threatening us! Have you forgotten the old and new grudges between your family and my family so soon?"

"If you want to thank me, show me your sincerity. Don't make a scene downstairs my company like a mad dog. Get out of here!"

This matter was just the beginning.

He would deal with the following matters in person.

"Victor, you..." He actually said that she was a mad dog! How annoying he was!

She smiled proudly, "Victor, I don't believe that you can be more powerful than me. Without your help, I can save Baylee as well."

Victor smiled cruelly, "You can have a try. Without my permission, no one will dare to show the Simpson family any respect."

Chapter 1573

"Humph! Victor, I don't believe that you can throw weight around here." Chelsea did not believe that he had the final say in the police station. The Simpson family was also powerful.

"Victor, I came to meet you today because I want to solve the problems between our families in peace, but your attitude really makes me disappointed. Friendliness is conducive to business success, but you..."

"My way of doing things is none of your business. I only know that since you've hurt my sweetheart, you have to pay the corresponding price. Get out of here! Don't dirty my territory!" Victor said coldly and angrily. Then, he walked into the company with Eden.

Chelsea was so mad that her chest heaved violently. She had never seen such an ungrateful person.

"Victor, you will regret it." She roared at Victor's back.

Victor did not stop, but there was a weird eyes on his face.

"Victor, I've done unto them what they did to me. You don't have to do anything else."

Victor's methods were brutal. Although Baylee asked for it, she didn't want her to suffer much.

Victor looked at her. When she was having lunch, she was indignant. Only an hour had passed, but she had forgiven them.

He did not say anything and only nodded.

Paula knew that something unexpected had happened last night.

Hearing the elevator door open, she looked at Eden secretly in her own office. Eden wore a white shirt, tight trousers and a black wool coat. Her hair was swept back in a ponytail, and she looked young and energetic.

"How could she be so lucky? What went wrong?" Paula muttered.

Seeing that Eden and Victor entered the office, she sat there listlessly, thinking about how to help Dahlia destroy Alwynn Group.

Since she couldn't get Delmont, no one would get him.

He loved Adrienne, but so what? She was not afraid.

"Alas! But what should I do?" Paula thought of various methods.

After Chelsea came out of Alwynn Group, she went straight to the police station.

She called several powerful officers, but they all refused her euphemistically when she mentioned Baylee's case.

Then she went to the police station and tried to threaten the policemen with her identity, but they didn't take her seriously and didn't show her respect at all. They drove her out directly.

Standing outside the police station, she shivered in the cold wind.

Only then did she realize that what Victor said was actually true. Without his permission, Baylee wouldn't be released.

The Simpson family spent a lot of money to suppress the news this morning.

At this time, Baylee's father wouldn't let them go unless they saved Baylee.

Otherwise, Baylee's mother would make a scene in their house like a shrew.

At this moment, her phone rang. It was Stephen calling her.

"Hello? Stephen."

"Chelsea, how's it going?"

"Stephen, it's bad! The policemen refuse to release Baylee. I called some officers, but they all fobbed me off with all kinds of excuses. We really underestimated Victor's connections."

Mentioning this matter, Chelsea was so angry that her whole body trembled.

"Okay, I see. We have to solve this problem as soon as possible. Dad is so irritated."

"However, I heard some rumors. The person you wanted to hurt was his wife. His wife is very kind. As long as you can persuade her, Baylee will be released."

"Victor won't listen to anyone's words or advice except for his wife."

Hearing this, Chelsea was in a dilemma.

"Stephen, you want me to meet Eden? I'm too ashamed to do that. What's so good about her? Victor can even offend our family because of her."

"Chelsea, why are you so stupid? When a man loves a woman deeply, he can even die for her."

"Haven't you heard about it after you came to River City? Victor is obsessed with his wife."

"He and Eden are childhood sweethearts. When Eden was six years old, she got lost. In the following years, he had been looking for Eden."

"After finding Eden, he has been doting on her to the extreme. His guilt and love for her are beyond ordinary people's understanding."

"Ha-ha..." Chelsea sneered, "Stephen, since when did you understand love so well? How is your relationship with Karlee now?"

"Not good. It's not the time to talk about me now. You should save Baylee first. Otherwise, Adrienne and Morgan will definitely think of ways to cast a bone between us and dad."

"They don't love dad at all. They stay in our family just to keep the shares of their mother. Don't make trouble anymore. Otherwise, our situation will become very passive."

Chelsea knew these things, "Stephen, don't worry. I'll go find Eden later."

"Okay! Solve the problem as soon as possible so that mom can rest assured."

After hanging up, Chelsea suddenly thought of Paula.

She immediately called Paula.

"Hello? Miss Simpson." Paula was quite surprised to receive a call from Chelsea all of a sudden.

"Miss Koch, I hope you can do me a favor. I want to meet Eden."

"Ah... "

"What? Can't you do it? I've given you so much money. Don't tell me that you can't even do such a small thing for me! Then how are we going to cooperate with each other in the future?" Chelsea's tone was full of ridicule. She met different kinds of women all day long, and she knew such a woman like Paula so well.

"Miss Simpson, calm down. I'll take a look at her schedule to see where she'll go. I'll send you a message later. Our dooms are closely linked. Of course I'll help you." Paula played with the pen in her hand and smiled maliciously.

"Good! I'll wait for your good news."

After Chelsea hung up the phone, she had more expectation in heart.

She did not understand this matter very clearly before meeting Victor.

"Victor, just wait and see!" She said in heart.

Chelsea got in the car and the driver drove away.

Paula glanced at Eden's schedule. Eden came to work late that day, so her schedule had been postponed.

But she didn't meet Miss Cooper yesterday, and this was the only thing Eden needed to solve.

She picked up the phone and called Eden.

"Hello?"

"Director Bleu, we haven't negotiated with the film and television company yet. Should we meet Miss Cooper today?"

"No. I'll send her a message. She has sent me the styles she wants. I'll design the clothes for the leading actress in person. There's no need to meet her."

After finishing her words, Eden hung up the phone.

"Beep..." Paula's mood was indescribable as she listened to beeping sound on the phone.

Chapter 1574

"D*mn Eden!" Paula hung up with a frenzy of rage.

Eden's attitude towards her became worse and worse recently.

Perhaps it was because of Delmont.

Paula bit her lip and wanted to go to Eden's office to have a look. However, thinking that Victor was inside, she didn't dare to go there.

She lowered her head and thought about it. The next day was the weekend, and Eden wouldn't come to work.

Seth had been doing a good job, and Eden never worried about her work.

Paula didn't know what to do.

"It seems that I can only wait until Monday. She has a lot of things to do on Monday, and there will always be some opportunities."

Paula thought for a moment, and this was the only way. She was in a humble position, and her words were of little effect. She could do nothing to persuade Eden.

However, Eden was scrupulous in separating public from private interests, which was something she admired of.

Paula sent a message to Chelsea, telling her that Eden would only go out to deal with things on Monday.

How could Chelsea be patient enough to wait?

Baylee was suffering in the police station.

If Baylee couldn't stand it anymore, she would confess and betray her. In that case, she would have to go to jail, and she didn't want it.

But there was no other way. Even if she waited for Eden downstairs Alwynn Group, she could do nothing because Victor was by Eden's side.

Anyway, she had to persuade Eden.

In the office!

Dean walked in with some documents and reported what had happened last night to Victor.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn." Dean maintained his obsequious smile.

Victor looked at him with a poker face, "How's the investigation going?"

He was more and more satisfied with Dean's efficiency.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, Baylee refused to admit it. However, the two bald men have admitted what they did. They were all ordered by Baylee. That woman has admitted that it was Baylee who asked her to bump against Mrs. Alwynn, dirt her clothes and take her to the room on purpose. Then those things happened."

"Oh..." Victor narrowed his sharp eyes slightly. He was not very satisfied with this result.

Baylee refused to confess the truth, and Chelsea was very crafty.

"They're so close to each other. Since Baylee refused to expose Chelsea, deal with this matter according to official principles. We'll live a more peaceful life after she receives a prison sentence." He would never treat these vicious people with mercy.

Eden sighed, "She's a smart person. Why is she willing to be used by others?"

She knew that Baylee wouldn't dare to hurt her without Chelsea's protection.

Although they were both from the Simpson family, Baylee was not as rich as Chelsea.

They had been very close to each other since they were young, and they were sisters.

After Baylee got into trouble, Chelsea tried every mean to save her, and Baylee would feel relieved more or less.

"Mrs. Alwynn, you're right. However, Chelsea has been in a good relationship with Baylee. To put it bluntly, they are birds of a feather, and they are both vicious people."

"Mrs. Alwynn, I know some gossips. Do you want to hear them?" Dean asked with a gossipy face.

Hearing this, Victor glared at Dean.

Was he trying to lead Eden astray?

"Why do you have to tell her about those disgusting things? Just go out to work! Are you very idle?" Victor went berserk and glanced at him coldly.

Dean shut up in an instant.

Eden was interested in the gossips, but she immediately gave up such a thought when she saw Victor's angry eyes.

Just as Dean was about to leave, Victor asked, "Have you found out who sent the dead cat here?"

Dean's heart skipped a beat. He really had not found it out.

"Ha-ha..." He turned around and smiled at Victor.

"Mr. Alwynn, I'm sorry. I'm afraid that we'll never know who that person is. I checked the surveillance video, and that was not a real courier, but someone who wore the uniform of a courier, so I can't know who he is."

Hearing this, Eden knew that there would be no result.

"Go out." Victor also knew that this matter would be unsettled, but it was better to investigate it.

Dean was stunned. He thought he would be scolded, but Victor actually let him leave like this.

Alas! The less trouble, the better. He'd better get out of here quickly.

He had to deal with Baylee's case carefully. Otherwise, they wouldn't live in peace.

Victor looked at Eden's listless face and smiled, "Eden, are you disappointed because we don't know the truth?"

Eden shook her head, "The result met my expectations."

Victor nodded, "They will betray themselves sooner or later. You don't have to worry too much."

"Okay!" Eden straightened up slowly and leaned on the chair lazily.

"Victor, tomorrow is the weekend. What are we going to do?"

Victor got up and walked to her. Then he took her hand and looked at her with a gentle smile, "You can go anywhere you want. I will accompany you."

Eden was touched by his gentleness and leaned on his arm tenderly.

"Forget it. I don't want to go anywhere. The three children, mom and dad are not at home. Let's go back to the Clement family tomorrow." Thinking about it, she decided to accompany her parents and grandmother more during this period of time.

"Okay!" Victor listened to her.

On weekend, they went to the Clement family.

Seeing that Glenn was growing up day by day, Eden suddenly realized that she hadn't got pregnant.

She always wanted to take time to have a physical examination, but she was too busy.

It had been four years since she got pregnant last time. She and Cheng did not take any precautions. Logically speaking, she should have had a baby.

But she didn't get pregnant.

On weekend, everyone in the Clement family was at home.

"Auntie..." Glenn's soft and lovely voice was very pleasant to hear.

He was very happy to see Eden and smiled very cutely.

Eden smiled and picked him up. His face was round, and his big eyes were as bright as stars. He looked so adorable and handsome.

"Oh! Our Glenn has grown up a lot." Eden kissed his tender face.

Seeing this, Victor was extremely depressed. Moreover, Glenn turned a blind eye to him, which made him more dejectedly, "Glenn, can't you see me?"

Glenn glanced at him with big eyes, puckered his mouth and said, "Uncle, you're so bad!"

Victor was speechless.

"Ha-ha..." Everyone laughed out loud.

"Victor, look. Even Glenn dislikes your straight face." Grandma Clement said jokingly.

Victor walked inside gloomily. Did he keep a straight face?

He looked at Buddy who was smiling brightly and teased him, "Buddy, why does your son look the same as you were when you were a child? I guess he'll look apathetic as well when he grows up."

Buddy smiled and said, "It's normal for a son to look like his father! Kenny looks like you, doesn't he?"

Victor was taken aback. Forget it!

Chapter 1575

Eden looked at Buddy and Zofia, "Glenn has inherited all of your advantages. He is getting more and more adorable."

"That's right. Eden has great discernment." Delmont looked at Eden with doting eyes.

Zofia looked at Eden with worry. She always felt that Eden was schemed against all day long.

"Eden, we saw the news this morning. Are you all right?"

Aisling and Wyatt looked at Eden with concern as well.

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, dad, mom, don't worry. The problem has been solved."

Last night, something bad happened to her and it was reported by the media, so Aisling and Wyatt were worried about her.

Delmont looked at her and felt very distressed, "Eden, you must be careful when you meet someone from the Simpson family again. Most of them are vicious." He didn't know what happened on the banquet held by the Simpson family until Adrienne told him about it the next day.

Knowing what Eden had done, he felt that she had finally become strong.

If those people got what they wanted, they would become more rampant and bully those who were weaker than them.

Sometimes they even wanted to hurt Adrienne.

Eden sat on the sofa with Glenn in her arms and looked at Delmont with a teasing smile.

"Delmont, how did you know about it?"

Delmont smiled and hid the emotions in his eyes, "Do you see the news today? Barrett used his power to bully people. He even treated the police so arrogantly, not to mention others." Delmont concocted an excuse.

Eden did not expose him.

Wyatt and Aisling looked at each other. Their eyes were full of worry, but they did not say anything.

Grandma Clement raised her head and looked at Victor. Seeing that Victor was calm, she was not very worried, and she just wanted to remind him.

"Victor, if you really have no way to deal with the Simpson family, you can ask the Howard family for help."

Victor was stunned. He did not expect Grandma Clement to know about this.

"Grandma, why should I contact the Howard family?" He knew that the Howard family was the root of the problem.

However, the Howard family had retired from public life for many years, and they were living a normal life. He did not want to disturb their peaceful life.

He knew that all connections were based on the exchange of value. Only by making himself stronger could he have the opportunity to exchange for more important things.

However, the Howard family had lost their daughter. How could he bear to touch them on the raw?

Since Barrett came back here in such a high profile, the Howard family must know about it.

"Grandma, I will handle this matter properly. Don't worry." Victor gave grandma Clement a reassuring smile.

Grandma Clement smiled, "Victor, I'm not asking you to go to their house right now. If you can't really handle it in the future, you can ask for their help."

Hearing Grandma Clement's meaningful words, Victor was more confused, but he nodded.

Aisling did not want to talk about these annoying things at home. Eden finally had time to accompany them, and she wanted her to have a happy time.

"Eden, go to the market with me later. Let's make spicy Hot Pot for dinner tonight."

"Okay, mom. Let's go to the supermarket nearby to buy some food ingredients." Eden smiled and said. She especially liked this kind of warm atmosphere.

On Saturday, Eden and Victor stayed in the Clement family for a whole day.

They went to Abigail's house on Sunday.

They had nothing to do and had a very relaxing time.

However, there was a worry in Eden's heart. The fact that she hadn't got pregnant became a knot in her heart.

She planned to go to the hospital on Monday.

On Monday, Eden went to work. She asked Paula to put off all her appointments and drove to the hospital. Paula didn't know where she was going.

She had no choice but to call Chelsea, telling her that Eden did not come to work that day and asking her to wait.

Victor didn't know about this matter.

As soon as he arrived at the company, he went to the meeting with Dean and Lucian.

Eden arrived at the hospital and went straight to the department of gynaecology and obstetrics.

She often came to the hospital, and she was familiar with the obstetrician here.

She went to Jade Lewis, the obstetrician who had been responsible for having examinations for Abigail.

She was a very nice obstetrician, and she was the director of the department.

Eden had a special identity, so she got the VIP treatment and Jade and finished all the examinations in an hour.

Jade was about fifty years old. She looked amiable, and her smile was very kind.

She looked at Eden's report and said with a smile, "Mrs. Alwynn, from your report, you're very healthy. Maybe you haven't got pregnant because you're under too much pressure. We'll get other reports tomorrow. When I get the results, I will call you."

Hearing this, Eden was relieved, "Thank you, Doctor Lewis. Now I'm relieved. I just want to have another baby. When I gave birth to the three children, Victor was not with me. Now he's by my side, and I want him to experience the feeling of welcoming his child."

Jade was stunned by her idea.

"I really didn't expect that you want to get pregnant because of this. Just now, a girl knew that she was pregnant, but her boyfriend didn't want to be responsible for her. She called him and kept crying. Later, her boyfriend came here, but he didn't say anything and only asked her to have a check-up."

Eden smiled. Sometimes, the more she wanted something, the harder she could get it.

She was afraid that she would recover with aftereffect after the accident, and she had been worried. After having the examinations, she felt more relieved.

"Yeah, getting pregnant depended on fate. I have been wanting to have another baby all these years, but I can't. A baby is the best gift from God, and it's the best comfort for our hearts."

She really liked children very much.

"Alas! Nowadays, very few girls think like this. They like to play but they don't take any precautions. Among the pregnant women we receive every day, most of them want to abort their babies. It is very harmful to their health." Jade said earnestly and put Eden's medical records in the drawer.

Eden did not say anything. After saying goodbye to Jade, she planned to go back to the company.

She walked out of Jade's office and raised her head. Seeing the girl coming toward her, she was slightly stunned. It was actually the girl who talked on the phone in the corridor that day.

She lowered her head and looked at report with a faint smile in her eyes.

Eden looked at her carefully. It seemed that she was looking forward to this baby's birth.

"Karlee." The girl suddenly stopped and looked at Stephen in pleasant surprise.

"Stephen, we can see the baby's shape clearly. Look, it's so cute." Karlee handed the report to Stephen happily.

Eden glanced at the man who named Stephen and frowned. Stephen's information flashed through her mind.

Stephen was the second son of the Simpson family, and Leilani was his mother.

Eden learned that he was a dandy who liked to be with innocent, lovely and pure girls. After sleeping with a girl, he would abandon her.

Chapter 1576

"Karlee, are you sure this child is mine?" Stephen looked at Karlee with a playful smile.

Karlee was stunned. It took her quite a while to come to sense. Her eyes misted with tears, and her lips trembled as she said urgently and angrily, "Stephen, you're so shameless. I got pregnant after sleeping with you, but you actually say that the child is not yours! How can you be so heartless?"

"Is there any woman who would joke about such a thing?"

Karlee looked at Stephen who didn't care about her at all, and she was dealt a severe blow.

She thought that he would be very happy after knowing this, but he was so indifferent.

"My father and I went to the banquet, but why didn't you mention our marriage? Don't you want to say it until my belly becomes big? In that case, I'll disgrace my family."

Being questioned by her, Stephen sneered.

He did not want to marry her.

There were so many beautiful girls in the world. Why did he have to be with Karlee?

These days, he had fallen in love with another woman, and he was trying his best to win her heart.

Carlotta was a special and charming woman. He liked her very much.

"Karlee, we've only slept together twice. How could you get pregnant?" He was very cautious when he was with every girl. He would not let them get pregnant, nor would he get married just because his girlfriend was pregnant.

No woman could control his life.

"Stephen, how could you be so shameless? You refuse to admit what you've done. I knew you were a playboy, but I thought I was special in your heart. After all, I have a good family background, and your parents want us to be together. But I didn't expect you to be so mean. You don't even dare to admit that this is your own child."

"I even thought about marrying you. It seems that it's only my wishful thinking."

"You coaxed me before just because of my identity, right?"

Tears streamed down Karlee's face. She stared at Stephen with tears in her eyes. He was so untouched and indifferent. After he knew that she was pregnant, he was not happy at all. Instead, he suspected that the child was not his.

Pregnant women were emotional. At this moment, she had all kinds of bad ideas in her mind.

The most terrible thing was that they would become strangers after being together.

But they were about to become strangers.

Being exposed by her, Stephen smiled awkwardly, "Karlee, how can you think like this? Our families are equal in social status. As long as we want to get married, our parents will agree. But now, as you can see, we are not suitable for getting married."

"Even if this child is mine, you can't give birth to it."

He was still young and did not want to get married so early.

"What did you say?" Karlee took a step back in disbelief and looked at him madly.

She was pregnant, which was a good thing for him and the Simpson family.

But he actually said that he didn't want this child.

When she knew that she was pregnant, she was really excited. This was the best gift given by God.

She had fallen in love with him since the first time she saw him. Although he was a famous playboy, she thought that he would change once he met his true love.

It seemed that she was wrong.

"Karlee, we really can't get married. Just wait for several years. When I become the president of the company, I will definitely marry you. I have no achievement now, and I'm just a rich second generation. What could I give you even if you marry me?"

Hearing his words, she understood what he meant very well.

"Ha-ha..." Karlee smiled sadly. At this moment, she finally realized how sombre it was to be abandoned by someone. He just pretended to be gentle and affectionate to her, and he was just an indifferent and heartless man.

She was a smart girl, and she knew what Stephen meant by saying that.

She immediately wiped the tears on her face and stopped crying, looking at Stephen with apathetic eyes.

She said coldly word by word, "Stephen, remember what you did to me today. I'll let you pay the price in the future. You can get out of my world now!"

Stephen's face darkened instantly. As the son of the richest man in A Country, lots of women tried their best to flatter him. No woman dared to speak to him so rudely.

However, going against the Woods family so early wouldn't do him any good.

He persuaded her with a good temper, "Karlee, don't be angry. We are still young, and we will have another child in the future. You can rest assured that I will be responsible for you. We just can't get married for the time being."

"Get out of here! I don't want to see you anymore!" Karlee said sternly and choked with sobs. Many patients looked at her.

She was not a fool. Stephen's words were obviously perfunctory. She was really silly. How could she believe this jerk's words back then?

Stephen tried his best to pursue her. After he got to be with her and slept with her, he became much more indifferent to her.

"Karlee..." Karlee turned around and walked to the doctor's office.

Stephen was a little dispirited. Karlee was hard to deal with. When he thought of the child in her belly, a trace of harshness flashed across his eyes.

Among all the girls he had dated, she was the only one who got pregnant.

When Karlee passed by Eden, Eden took a picture of her secretly and sent it to Aro.

If her guess was right, Karlee was the daughter of the Woods family.

The Simpson family and the Woods family were old family friends.

Eden thought about it and watched Stephen leave. She was not in a hurry to leave.

Instead, she waited outside Doctor Lewis's office.

A few minutes later, Karlee came out.

As soon as she came out, she looked down at the report on her hand and burst into tears.

Eden looked at her sympathetically.

When a man loved a woman, she could be fearless and reckless. However, once she was abandoned, she would be extremely downhearted.

"Alas!" Eden sighed softly.

Stephen was well-known as a playboy. Since Karlee knew it, why did she have to be with him?

When Eden raised her head, Karlee had left.

She got up and was about to go back.

She was going to visit Candace, but Candace should be busy writing at this time, so she didn't disturb her.

A gust of cold wind blew over. Eden sniffed habitually, "It's so cold."

She walked towards her car.

However, she saw Karlee walking in front of her. It seemed that she was going to cross the road.

"Boom..." A sports car roared and rushed over.

Eden's nerves tensed up when she saw this.

Perhaps it was because she had experienced the danger several times, her subconsciousness told her that it was dangerous and her eyes immediately turned cold.

She ran towards Karlee.

Chapter 1577

Sure enough, the sports car rushed toward Karlee without slowing down.

"Watch out!" Eden pulled Karlee back with great strength.

"Boom..." The sports car zoomed by very close to them.

The two of them fell to the ground. Eden protected Karlee, and Karlee fell on her body.

The moment she looked up, the sports car was nowhere to be seen.

Karlee saw the number plate vaguely. She was shocked and instantly felt as if she had fallen into a very cold ice cave.

It was actually Stephen!

He wanted to kill her!

"Ouch..." Eden let out a muffled groan. Her arm was grazed, and the wound ached a lot.

Only then Karlee realize that someone had saved her.

She came to herself, stood up quickly and helped Eden to her feet in a hurry.

"Miss, are you okay? Thank you for saving me!" If Eden didn't pull her back, both of her and her child would have been killed.

Eden shook her head and smiled, "I'm fine. Only my arm is grazed. Are you all right?"

Eden was worried about the baby in her belly.

Karlee shook her head gratefully, "Fortunately, you pulled me back and protected me. But your clothes have been torn, and your arm is injured. Let me accompany you to the hospital."

Eden looked down at her wound. It was not a big deal.

"It's okay. My clothes are thick, and this is just an abrasion. I'll go back and apply some medicine." She checked the wound carefully. There was no need to go back to the hospital.

Karlee handed her card to Eden and said, "Miss, this is my card. Could you give me your number? I'll contact you and thank you when I have time."

Eden smiled and took the card from her hand, "You're too polite. It's really no bother. You don't have to thank me. I'll leave first."

Eden turned back to her car and drove away.

When she started the car, she saw Karlee stand where she was through the rearview mirror. She was dejected and looked very pitiful.

Eden made a bold guess that the driver of the sports car should be Stephen.

Otherwise, Karlee would not be so shocked.

When Eden returned to the company and parked the car, she received Aro's message.

Karlee was indeed the eldest daughter of the Woods family.

Eden smiled. It was such a coincidence.

Although the abrasion on her arm ached a lot, what happened that day would definitely help her in the future.

She took out a tissue and gently wiped the blood on the wound. It was so painful that she burst into tears.

She got off the car quickly, took the special elevator and went straight to her office.

When Victor came back from the meeting, he didn't see Eden in the office.

Just as he was about to call her, he saw her open the door and come in.

As she approached, he suddenly smelled the smell of blood.

He frowned and walked to her, "Eden, what happened to you?"

Seeing that her nice woolen overcoat was sliced, he immediately pulled her arm to have a look.

"Ouch..." The clothes rubbed the wound, and Eden gulped in pain.

"Victor, be gentle. It hurts!"

"It seems that you know how painful it is! Where did you go?" His tone was fierce, but his heart ached a lot for her.

He had a meeting this morning, and he was in a bad mood. When he saw that she was injured, he felt even worse.

She was working when he left. Why did she get hurt when he came back?

Eden looked at him with compliant, "You know my painful I am, but you yell at me."

Victor glanced at her with annoyance and found a medical kit to treat her abrasion.

Victor was very angry, but his actions were very gentle.

However, no matter how tender he was, Eden could not stop withdrawing her hand when the iodine landed on her wound.

Victor looked at her with distress and held her hand tightly. She had to endure it no matter how painful it was. He couldn't apply the medicine to her until the wound was disinfected.

Ten minutes later, Victor bandaged her wound.

Eden looked at him with tears in eyes.

Although she looked delicate and pitiful, Victor was extremely angry, "Tell me. What stupid things have you done again?" His tone was full of fury.

Eden lowered her head in fear and said in a low voice, "I didn't do anything stupid. I saved someone."

"What?" Victor looked at her doubtfully.

She didn't seem to be lying.

"Weren't you in the office? Why did you go out to save someone?" He had a long meeting that day. Something went wrong with the children's clothing.

It had not been solved yet.

Eden raised her head and looked at him cautiously. She knew that he would get angry because she was injured. But she didn't expect that even his eyes would be so horrible and brutal.

She was very aggrieved, wasn't she?

She couldn't watch Karlee die with the child in her belly.

At that time, the car drove very fast. If she didn't have those car accidents, she would not have known that the car was rushing towards Karlee.

"You make me worried all the time. Tell me what happened." Victor did not give up and stared at her with dark eyes.

Eden had to tell Victor that she went to the hospital.

Hearing that, Victor was so mad that he wanted to give her a lesson.

"Fool, I told you that we should let nature take its course, didn't I? We have three children now. As long as you are fine, I am the happiest man in the world."

"But why didn't you let me accompany you since you went to the hospital for an examination?"

"Moreover, how could you do such a dangerous thing? When you did that, did you think about my feelings? You know what? I can't lose you!"

Victor's voice was louder and louder. Anger was growing and bubbling up inside him. Sometimes, people could really be selfish. He did not want her to get hurt for someone else.

As he raised his voice, Eden shivered in fear.

Eden knew that he would be angry, but she didn't expect him to be so furious. She looked at his irritated face cautiously and immediately lowered her head timidly.

"Victor, I'm sorry. I will never do that again."

Eden's voice was soft and adorable. She knew deep down that this matter had caused him to be very worried, and it affected his mood a lot.

When Victor heard her soft voice, he felt as if he had beaten the soft cotton with great strength, and he was very helpless.

Seeing that she was honest, he was no longer so angry.

"In the future, you are not allowed to go out alone. I will accompany you wherever you go." His tone was domineering and overbearing.

"Oh!" Eden nodded. She knew that it was impossible.

How could he stay with her all the time?

But at this time, she had to be obedient. Otherwise, he would be even madder.

Victor stroked her face tenderly with his slender fingers, "Eden, listen to me and don't go out anymore. Something is wrong with the children's clothing. I'll handle it, and I'll be back soon."

Chapter 1578

Hearing this, Eden asked anxiously, "What happened?"

"It's okay. Grace Fulton's design drafts were stolen. The new product on the market is Grace's design. We were just about to release the new product, but they released their new product one day earlier. We have suffered great losses." Victor was extremely depressed at the thought of this.

Since the company was established, such a thing had never happened.

In the past, some people tried to steal their design drafts several times, but they solved the problems smoothly.

Moreover, Eden could always sense the crisis at the right time.

"Why did such a thing happen?" Eden was a little surprised. It was hard to avoid such a thing, but they avoided all the troubles in the past.

Victor nodded, "Do you know who released the new product?"

Victor's eyes darkened, and he pursed his thin lips.

Eden shook her head and looked at him teasingly. She did not expect that he would suffer such losses.

"How could I know about it? I'm only responsible for women's wear."

Victor took her to the sofa and sat down before saying, "R. K Group."

"What? Is Irving so despicable?" Eden's face was full of anger. However, it was something Irving could do. After all, he was evil.

Victor looked at her madly, "Was he not despicable in your heart?"

Seeing that he got jealous again, Eden was particularly speechless.

He could be jealous at any time, and he didn't about her feelings at all.

"Of course I always think that he's despicable. Victor, I haven't expressed my opinion, but you conjectured me wildly. Why are you so shameless?"

Victor was stunned. He always spoke his mind readily in front of her, didn't he?

"Humph! He likes you very much. He buys you a bunch of roses everyday. Can I really turn a blind eye to it?" Victor's face darkened to the extreme.

Eden glared at him and quickly punched his chest, "I didn't ask him to buy the roses for me."

"If you hate it, just turn a blind eye to it."

"He sends the roses here everyday. Can I turn a blind eye to it?" Victor was exasperated.

Irving could only play so many tricks behind his back. The trap he set was enough to make Irving suffer a lot.

The expression in Victor's eyes became cunning as he smiled. He pulled Eden to sit in his arms, "Eden, the diamond ring will be auctioned in a few days. I will definitely get it. I will use it as our wedding ring."

Eden was speechless. Couldn't he be more mysterious? She was a woman.

Victor really did not understand women.

Only she was willing to love him.

However, it was difficult for her not to love him, because he was so romantic.

However...

Eden couldn't bear to spend so much money on a ring.

"Victor, it's so expensive. Why do you have to spend so much money?"

Victor's heart trembled.

He held her tightly with his long arms, and his eyes were brooding as he said in a hoarse voice, "Eden, do you know what I hate you the most?"

Eden was shocked and looked at him. She said in surprise, "Victor, do you hate me?"

Victor nodded honestly.

Eden was dumbfounded.

"What?" Eden was a little nervous. Victor really was really annoying. He actually said he hated her.

She felt that she was cute. How could she be hateful.

Victor smiled at her and said nothing.

Look at how anxious she was!

"Eden, what I hate most is that you call me in such a gentle voice but refuse my kindness. You clearly know that." Victor looked at her with grievance.

Eden was stunned. She thought that he really hated her.

She glared at him.

"Alright, don't talk nonsense. I know your character well, don't I? Hurry up and solve this matter so that we can go home early." Eden moved her painful arm and frowned slightly. Her eyes flashed when she thought of what happened that day.

"Okay, promise me that you won't go out again." Victor was very helpless. When she left him, she would always get hurt.

Eden nodded with a smile and said happily, "Where can I go now? Although my arm is not seriously injured, I feel so painful."

"I'll be here waiting for you to go home together. Hurry up and deal with it."

"This matter has brought a great loss to the company. We can't let it go so easily. Find the betrayer and teach him a lesson as a warning to others. In the future, no one will dare to leak the secrets of the company."

In fact, doing this wouldn't work. Human nature could not withstand the temptation and test of money.

They and Irving understood this very well.

Victor's face suddenly darkened. He nodded, "I'll be back in two hours. If you're sleepy, go to sleep. I'll tell them not to come in and disturb you."

"Okay!" Eden took the initiative to kiss his lips to comfort him.

Only then did Victor leave with a satisfied smile.

When the door was closed, a thought suddenly flashed through Eden's mind.

The expression in her calm and bright eyes suddenly changed. She was a maelstrom of churning emotions inside, and she no longer looked gentle.

She took out her phone and dialed Aro's number.

"Hello? Mrs. Alwynn."

Aro always answered her phone call immediately.

"Aro, pay attention to Stephen's whereabouts and see where he likes to go. Find out his habits and call me."

"I see."

After hanging up the phone, Eden dialed Thalia's number.

"Mrs. Alwynn."

"Thalia, keep an eye on all Karlee closely."

"Mrs. Alwynn, I've been trying to track her."

Eden nodded and hung up the phone.

Eden lowered her head and thought for a while. Everything was developing according to her plan.

She only needed to wait for Chelsea to come to her.

As for Paula, she played a crucial role.

She would not go out on weekends.

Therefore, she would know what had happened on Monday.

Eden opened the official website of R. K Group. Sure enough, she saw Grace's design being sold on the website, and the price was even higher than the price they set.

Seeing this, Eden went berserk.

In the past, some people plagiarized her design.

But she had never been so irritated before.

She immediately dialed Irving's phone number.

Irving was very happy when he received a phone call from Eden.

"Eden, you rarely call me on your own initiative." Irving's voice was soft and pleasantly surprised.

Eden sneered, "Irving, don't stick to a difficult thing for too long, or you will feel painful and tired. In fact, in the end, you will only get yourself in trouble."

"Oh. Eden, did you call me to warn me?" Irving's voice sounded calm and relaxed.

Chapter 1579

Eden asked, "What are you laughing at?"

Irving smiled and said, "Eden, I once read some sentences in your diary: What you can't get may not be the best. What is lost is not necessarily the most valuable either. What you have now may not be what you dreamed of, but it is truly yours. I look forward to tomorrow, that is really all my own.

In fact, at that time, I knew that you were eager for a warm home, but you refused everyone's kindness to you and put all your focus on the Gienger family. That's why you was alone without anyone company.

I've dreamed of making you happy and of making you less lonely. But you only care about the Gienger family.

No matter how I try to get your attention around you, you always ignore me. Everything I did to you only got you a nod and your pure smile, but I was already satisfied."

Eden was slightly stunned. It turned out that Irving had been paying attention to her at that time.

However, at that time she had no self-confidence and would only be inferior to cater to Gienger family due to that longing for home.

People who have not been alone would never understand how strong the longing for home was.

However, it was too late now.

"Irving, thank you for your concern and care for me. But today I called you because of something else."

Deep down, she was very grateful for everything Irving did for her.

But he couldn't rely on his previous favors to hurt them.

"Irving, I have to say what your company has done in business is too despicable." Eden said bluntly.

Irving laughed softly.

"Eden, am I a bad person in your eyes?"

"Irving, good people may not always be good, and bad people aren't always that bad. Bad people who do one good thing seem to be forgiven. And good people who do one bad thing often mean losing their reputation. That's the reality. It's a fact that our company's designs were stolen by your company."

"Eden, if I do a good thing, will you forgive me? I also just found out about the matter of children's clothing design. However, like you just said, in business, the business world is like a battlefield. I'm sure you understand very well that such things happen very often.

"Eden, I have nothing to say about your accusation. This matter has been handled by Dahlia."

Eden frowned when she heard this. Paulina?

Humph!

That despicable woman!

Irving thought she was his fiancée, but he didn't know that this elegant flower was actually very poisonous. That woman wasn't just mentally ill herself, she was also hurting the people around her.

"She is your fiancée. How could you not know what she did?" Eden said angrily.

She hated such despicable acts the most.

"Eden, she is just my nominal fiancée. I have no feelings for her." Irving explained anxiously.

But for Eden, it had nothing to do with her.

"Irving, you don't have to explain to me about your relationship. I'm calling you because I'm too angry. If you want to bring down the Alwynn Group, play fair and don't do these despicable things in secret." Eden finished and hung up the phone in a huff.

Then she threw her phone on the sofa.

In the office, Irving slowly put down his phone.

He looked at the sales volume on the official website, and his dark eyes slightly narrowed like he was thinking about something.

Alwynn Group really had a galaxy of talents.

Every designer's design was outstanding.

No wonder the Alwynn Group was trying to surpass A Country's richest man these years.

It could be imagined how much the Simpson family feared Victor.

"Knock knock..." The ringing of high heels was crisp and elegant.

Irving looked up and saw that Dahlia was wearing a woolen winter suit and a delicate makeup. She looked domineering and capable.

Seeing Irving looking at her, she gently flipped her sexy and charming curly hair.

"Irving." She smiled charmingly.

After the new company opened, the sales performance of children's clothing was outstanding.

Their company originally sold fashionable women's clothing, but in order to combat the Alwynn Group, their company now sold items similar to the Alwynn Group.

Irving sneered with a contemptuous gaze and said in a cold tone. "Do you only know how to steal? I thought you were very capable and could design your own unique original work. Last time you didn't succeed in plagiarizing. Congratulations on your success this time."

May's smile froze, and her expression was to slowly become awkward.

"Irving, what do you mean?"

Did he know that so soon?

"What do I mean?" Irving got up from the black leather chair. His sneer was particularly harsh.

Dahlia felt bad.

She did this for the sake of the company.

Their company had lost hundreds of millions of dollars plus hundreds of millions of dollars worth of land. She was so angry that she wanted the Alwynn Group to lose some money too.

"Irving, I did this for the sake of the company." She smiled charmingly, not at all ashamed of what she had done.

"For the sake of the company?" Irving still sneered.

He liked some despicable means, but he had never used them publicly.

He only played dirty in secret.

And in public, he was a polite and refined president.

He could also be a demon behind the scenes.

However, it was the first time that he had been questioned and ridiculed by his beloved woman today.

He was angry, extremely angry.

"Irving..."

"Shut up." Irving interrupted him angrily.

Dahlia stopped talking.

She frowned and stared at him. By rights, he shouldn't be this angry after making Victor suffer a big loss.

What had gone wrong?

Irving suddenly looked at her with a gloomy face. "You'd better pray that Victor won't find any clues. Otherwise, I can't protect you. With his efficiency, there will be results soon."

At the mention of Victor, Dahlia felt a little fear.

"Irving, how can you do this? I did this for the good of the company. Victor took that land by that means before, and I just want to do something for the company.

Also, don't worry. The person who betrayed Alwynn Group was someone working in his own company. It has nothing to do with us. We just took advantage of the situation."

"Well. You're right that we just took advantage of the situation. I'm also very happy that Victor was enraged this time, but..." Eden thought that he was a bad guy, which made him very dissatisfied.

"But what?" Dahlia stared at him inquiringly.

Her intuition told her that his anger was related to what he was about to say.

Chapter 1580

Irving looked at her with indifferent eyes. "Nothing. You can go out first. Since you have done this, don't regret it. No matter how angry Victor is, he dares not come here to make trouble."

At present, his company has carried out a number of cooperation. Since this matter has already been done, he would see what Victor would do next.

Dahlia's expression was a little heavy. Her intuition told her that this matter was related to Eden.

However, she would not take the initiative to mention Eden in front of this man.

She smiled, "Irving, I just came over to remind you that we have a dinner date with Miss Simpson tonight and talk about our cooperation."

Irving smiled and said, "Don't worry. I won't forget it."

"Great!" She smiled gently, then turned around and left gracefully.

When she turned around, her heavy expression turned into a triumphant smile.

Eden, I finally won you once. No matter what means I used, it was my greatest wish to win.

At the children's clothing department of the Alwynn Group.

The leak of the design drawing caused a severe loss to the company.

Not only did these employees have to suffer from the law, but also from Victor's anger.

At this moment, except for Grace, the other employees were all worried.

Victor and Dean were checking the surveillance video in the surveillance room.

After a careful examination, they found nothing wrong.

Dean was fully engaged in the surveillance video.

After a while, he finally found a doubtful point.

Children's wear by the Alwynn Group was a luxury item aimed at the upper classes.

Every piece of clothing they designed was patented.

Especially the limited edition clothes.

He frowned, vaguely feeling that this matter was a little strange.

"Mr. Alwynn, I checked the styles sold by R.K. They are all clothes that we didn't have time to apply for patents. The person who leaked the design should be familiar with Mrs. Clark's work. "

Victor also kept his eyes on the the surveillance video.

Except for Grace and her assistant, everyone else basically could only enter Grace's office when she was present.

Once he heard Dean's words, Victor's cold face looked thoughtful. After sitting for a while, he got up and walked out while saying, "There is no need to continue the investigation. I already know who it is."

Dean quickly followed him.

"Mr. Alwynn, it can't be ....." Dean said with some disbelief.

Someone had her fingers in the till!

Well...

That was a good analogy.

"Humph!" Victor snorted and strode to Grace's office.

When everyone there saw Victor coming in, they all lowered their heads and dared not to breathe.

None of them could have imagined that this would happen in the children's clothing department.

"Mr. Alwynn, any results yet?" Grace asked with a sullen face. Her fists were clenched out of anger.

Victor glanced at her.

She had a delicate face and was dressed in a beige overcoat and a pair of high black boots on her slender legs. She looked young, beautiful, and fashionable just like a few years ago.

However, the expression on her face was no longer as innocent as it was a few years ago.

His deep and sharp gaze slowly met the woman's angry gaze. "Grace, every perfect tactic has its flaws. What's more, yours isn't perfect."

Grace frowned and looked at Victor with a puzzled face. "Mr. Alwynn, what do you mean? I can't understand what you're saying."

"You don't understand?" Victor spoke slowly while sitting on a chair at the side casually.

His indifferent look showed his gloomy mood at the moment.

Dean couldn't help but wonder how Grace managed to stay calm now.

He couldn't help but wonder how she could still be so calm when she saw such an expression on Mr. Alwynn's face.

Grace stepped forward and looked down at Victor. Seeing his gloomy face, she was a little worried inside. She smiled, "Mr. Alwynn, I don't quite understand what you mean."

Victor didn't say anything. He just sat there quietly, and his slightly narrowed eyes were disturbing.

At this time, the atmosphere in the office was unusually tense.

Dean kept his head down. He had been around Victor often enough to know that Victor was really angry at the moment.

Since Alwynn Group was listed in the market, such a thing had never happened in the company.

Victor was furious, really furious!

"Mr. Alwynn." Grace had to speak up first. She managed to smile. "Can you make it clearer who actually stole my design?"

Victor casually looked up at her, then slowly looked out of the window. He said, "Grace, I remember that you are introduced to Alwynn Group by Marianne, right?"

Grace nodded and said, "We were college classmates. We got along quite well and have always been good friends. I came to work here also because she introduced me. She chose the fashion creation department, so I chose the children's clothing department."

"I remember that you were very satisfied with my work at the time, which is why I was valued by the company and worked here for so long."

Grace gave a vivid description of the past.

She has been working here for many years, but in the end, she didn't get as much fame as Eden.

Although the children's clothes she designed were very popular and sold well.

She never made a name for herself.

In Alwynn Group, when it came to designers, everyone only knew Eden. No one knew the name "Grace".

All these years, she had worked very hard, but she had not been as lucky as Eden.

Victor would only promote Eden, and they, the other designers, were nothing.

"So, you admit that the company has never treated you badly over the years, right?" Victor said carelessly, while suddenly glaring at Grace with a cold gaze.

Grace was about to speak, but at the moment she saw Victor's icy gaze, she froze.

Why did Victor look at her like that?

"Mr. Alwynn, the company has never treated me shabbily." Grace admitted it. Victor was always generous with the annual bonus.

It was fair to distribute rewards according to their performance, and it also proved her ability.

However, that year-end bonus was still too little for her.

Human Nature is that the more you get, the more you want.

She wanted to set up her own studio and didn't want to work for Alwynn Group anymore.

"So, the Alwynn Group has been treading you fairly these past few years, right?" Victor asked again. His indifferent tone made Grace feel that something was wrong.

She could only nod.

She did not understand why Victor asked this question.

Weren't they discussing the design leaks now?
