

Gluey Love 1801

Chapter 1801

Hearing Eden's words, Amelia suddenly calmed down. Yes, she hadn't seen anything. If she thought too much, it meant that she didn't believe Lucian. She had to believe in Lucian's love for her.

She believed that Lucian would not betray her though he was seduced.

Delight Hotel was an ordinary hotel with ordinary decoration. Edith seemed to have arranged someone in the hotel. As soon as they entered, a man in suit walked to them.

"Are you Miss Macdonald?" The man asked stiffly.

Amelia's face turned cold as she nodded.

"Please follow me."

The man walked forward to lead the way.

Amelia was utterly upset. Eden held her hand and followed the man.

The man turned around to look at Eden, "Miss, please stay here."

Eden looked at him coldly, "Okay, I can stay. But can you take full responsibility for it if something bad happens to my friend?"

"You must be joking, Miss. This is a legal society. What can I do to her?" The man smiled arrogantly.

"Even if you won't do anything to her, it doesn't mean that Edith won't hurt her. If something bad really happens, the Alwynn family will interfere in this matter, but do you think the Olsen family will dare to protect you?"

"Well..." The man hesitated. He knew who Victor was. He was Edith's driver, so he naturally knew the relationship between the Ronen family and the Alwynn family.

"What? Hurry up and lead the way. If something really happened between Lucian and Edith, Lucian will ruin the Olsen family completely. You can't get away from the responsibility because you're helping Edith." Eden said in a tough tone. From the man's attitude, she could tell that Lucian was indeed here.

The man stopped talking and went forward to lead the way. The elevator stopped at the ninth floor.

"Which room is it?" Eden's voice was indifferent, and there was no warmth on her face.

"908." Facing Eden, the man was no longer so arrogant.

"Give me the room card." Eden reached out her fair hand to him.

The man handed her the room card reluctantly.

Along the way, he remembered that Eden was Victor's wife. Victor doted on his wife very much. If Eden got hurt, he would not be able to stay in River City anymore.

Eden took the room card and pulled Amelia out of the elevator. Then she walked in a hurry.

It had been forty minutes. No one could guess what had happen in the past forty minutes.

If Lucian was drugged, he might have been out of control.

If he really couldn't control himself and slept with Edith, it could cast a bone between him and Amelia.

"908. It's here." Eden was about to open the door.

Amelia immediately stopped her.

"Eden, I..."

"Amelia, don't be like this. No matter what has happened, you have to face it. The person inside is not someone else, but your husband." Amelia must face this. After opening the room, she might regret it, but there might be a chance.

For some reason, she knew that Lucian would rather die than give in.

Amelia bit her lip and nodded.

Only then did Eden open the door with the room card.

Eden pushed the door open and walked in.

There was a knot of tension in Amelia's stomach.

However, the scene inside made them stunned.

"Bang!" Eden took a step back.

In fact, Eden thought a lot on her way here, and she knew that Lucian might be having sex with Edith.

However, it seemed that her worry was unnecessary.

In the room, Lucian held a lamp in his hand and smashed it at Edith, but he failed and the lamp fell beside Eden's foot.

Lucian was staggering. His white shirt was open, revealing his strong abdominal muscles. His face was ruddy, and his head was dizzy, but he tried to keep a clear head.

Edith looked very awkward. Her black camisole was dishevelled, and her fair chest was exposed. When she saw Eden and Amelia come in, she felt very ashamed.

She didn't expect Lucian to be so strong-willed.

He was so indomitable that she had no way to touch him.

After she called Amelia, Lucian woke up. She only had time to take off his jacket and unbutton his shirt.

"Lucian." Amelia called him gently.

Lucian shivered, and he couldn't hold back his sexual desire anymore.

"Amelia." He couldn't see clearly. He seemed to have seen Amelia and heard her voice, but he knew very clearly that he had been betrayed by his subordinate and Edith drugged him.

Eden took a look at Amelia. Lucian couldn't hold on any longer. "Amelia, go there quickly. I... will guard outside. I won't let anyone disturb you."

Amelia blushed and walked toward Lucian.

"No! Amelia, get out of here! Lucian is mine!" Edith roared at Amelia furiously and shamelessly.

She had planned for a long time and finally got the chance. It was not easy for her to let Lucian drink the drug. She wanted Amelia to come here and see her making love with Lucian. In that way, Amelia would give up completely.

However, she had underestimated Lucian's willpower.

Amelia ignored Edith. She could only see Lucian at this time. Looking at Lucian's blood-shot eyes, she knew that he had reached his limit.

She passed by Edith. Edith wanted to stop her, but Eden grabbed Edith's hand.

"Eden, let go of me!" Edith glared at Eden with hatred.

"No. Go out with me!" Eden pulled her out of the room.

Although Edith was only wearing a camisole, she couldn't care so much.

Amelia had walked to Lucian, "Are you okay?" Her soft voice made Lucian extremely horny. Smelling Amelia's familiar and pleasant smell, Lucian held her and kissed her without hesitation.

Eden didn't look back.

She pulled Edith up from the ground and dragged her out of the door.

Edith grabbed Eden and didn't want to go out.

When she was almost at the door, she heard Lucian tear apart Amelia's clothes.

Eden used more strength and struggled to drag Edith out.

"Bang..." The door was slammed shut, and they couldn't hear any sound anymore.

"Eden, you b*stard! This is none of your business! Why are you here..." Edith was in despair. She beat and scratched Eden crazily.

Her sharp nails scratched the back of Eden's hand, and Eden felt extremely painful.

"Edith, stop it! Can't you tell the fact clearly? How dare you drug Lucian? Aren't you afraid that he'll sue you?" Eden was angry as well. She hated such a dirty trick the most.

Edith was in her prime. She was young and beautiful. Why was she so stubborn?

"It's none of your business!" Edith used up all her strength and sat on the ground feebly. Her long hair was messy and her makeup was ruined. She looked very awkward.

"I don't intend to meddle in your business. In this world, you should do everything with a sense of propriety. Do you think that you can really get Lucian after sleeping with him? You grew up with him. Don't you know his temper?"

Edith was stunned and looked at Eden in fear.

Chapter 1802

Seeing that she was afraid, Eden smiled faintly, "Even if you get Lucian today, you can't be with him. You drugged him, so why should he be responsible for you? Even if you sleep with him and get pregnant with his baby, he won't be responsible for you."

"This is his character. He does what he likes and gives up what he doesn't like without hesitation."

Eden's words echoed in Edith's ears. Eden was right. She knew Lucian very well, but she wanted to make a bet that she was more suitable for him.

Furthermore, she cooperated with others. Eden came here with Amelia, and she couldn't spare Eden. If Amelia hadn't become her assistant, how could Lucian know Amelia?

It was Eden's fault as well!

The room was not very soundproof, and they could hear Amelia groaning.

Eden sighed. Lucian was amazingly strong, and Amelia was going to suffer.

He was very energetic on bed.

Edith was stunned when she heard it. Her face went pale, and she sat on the ground feebly.

"Come and sit over there."

Edith looked at her with a sneer, "You crazy woman. You really want to guard here."

Eden was not annoyed, "Of course I have to keep an eye on you. If you're sent to the police station, what if your mother complain against me?"

"You..." Edith felt that she was not even qualified to speak at the moment. Whatever she said would be wrong.

She didn't want to leave, so Eden dragged her away. She got two stools and wanted to sit in the distance, but Edith would rather sit on the ground.

Eden didn't care whether she felt cold or not. As long as she wouldn't call anyone to disturb Amelia.

Edith sneered and said, "What's the point of guarding here? Can I do anything to them now?"

Eden looked down at her, "I should watch you, shouldn't I? If I leave and you ask someone to come here and separate them, Amelia will be very pitiful, won't she?"

"Ha-ha..." Edith was so angry but she laughed, "Eden, am I so disgusting in your heart? I just want to fight for the person I love and be with him."

Eden listened to her and looked at her awkward expression, but she did not believe her.

"Edith, your way of doing things is really despicable. No matter how much you say, you can't change the fact that you want to ruin Amelia's marriage. You know that they have got the marriage certificate, and they have two lovely babies. They live together so happily, but you want them to break up. Do you think you are pursuing true love?"

"Am I wrong? Many people get married again after divorcing. They have children, but so what? The children can live well without their mother." Edith retorted her with tears.

"Fine. If something like this happened to your children, would you like them to grow up with their stepmother? The premise is that their stepmother did the same thing as you."

Eden's question made Edith speechless.

Eden added, "You couldn't bear to let them grow up with their stepmother, right? You haven't become a mother yet, so you don't know what a mother can do for her own child. If Amelia didn't give birth to the children, she might leave Lucian."

"But you're shameless, because you know that Amelia feels herself inferior and you make use of her. No matter what you do now, she will not leave Lucian. Besides, even if she doesn't have a child, she will not leave Lucian because she loves him so much."

"You want to fight for your own happiness, but Amelia wants to get her happiness as well."

One coin had its two sides. If Edith thought in a simple way, she would make herself be in trouble.

"I just want to think for myself. How can I think for others? I am not a saint." Edith leaned against the wall, and her eyes were somewhat glassy.

"Eden, if Victor didn't lose you when you were a child, he wouldn't be guilty. He's such a proud man. Do you think he would fall in love with you?"

"I'm afraid that even he himself doesn't know if his love for you is just guilt."

Eden narrowed her eyes and looked at her coldly, "What are you trying to say?"

"Ha-ha..." Edith suddenly relaxed. Once Eden had a little doubt in her heart, she would be troubled by it all the time.

Perhaps Eden had never thought about this.

"Eden, don't you understand? Victor married you because he lost you and he is guilty."

"But you are very lucky. You happened to be pregnant with his children. Otherwise, how could you two be together?"

"Although you're the daughter of the Clement family, you had been lost for so many years and had experienced an ordinary life. He's so noble. Do you think he would fall in love with you?"

"Although everyone is open-minded now, there are some things that can't be changed."

"You can't ruin the relationship between Lucian and Amelia, so you want to cast a bone between me and Victor, right?"

She was very clear whether Victor loved her or just thanked her.

Edith's eyes flashed and she did not speak.

Eden added, "In fact, I guess you want to say that I have the same experience as Amelia, and we're both humble, so we don't deserve to be with the men who love us, right?"

Edith sneered, "I don't care what you think." In fact, she did think so. No matter how noble Eden and Amelia were at this time, they could not change their past.

"I know that's what you mean. You are luckier than us. After you were born, you were raised by your parents, so you can touch us on our sensitive spot like this. You only think we're humble, and you'll never know how painful we're."

"Edith, don't judge us by our past. Although we used to be poor and self-abased, we're not as mean and shameless as you."

"You..." Edith trembled with anger.

"You think Lucian should be with someone more his equal, but your family is not rich enough, and you're not qualified to be with him. Why are you so confident to think that you are living like a princess?" Eden looked at her indifferently. Her clear eyes made Edith feel that she had seen her through.

After that, they didn't speak anymore.

They just sat there in silence.

Time passed by bit by bit. Eden had waited for a long time.

Edith was very careless. She actually fell asleep.

Eden looked down at her. Edith hadn't moved for a long time, and it was somewhat cold in the corridor, so she was shivering. Eden wanted to ignore her, but she could not watch her shudder in front of her.

She took a look at her coat. It was too thin to warm Edith.

Eden glanced at the corridor. There was a bed sack that was taken out by the cleaner. She ran over to get it and wrapped Edith with it.

She wanted to call Victor, but she didn't find her phone in the pocket.

Chapter 1803

Eden stood up to look for her phone.

Edith, who was asleep, suddenly opened her eyes and glanced at Eden coldly.

She immediately stood up, went into the opposite room and took out a knife.

Eden searched in the corridor but didn't find her phone.

She turned around, only to find that Edith was nowhere to be seen.

"Edith." Eden called out. She was not in the corridor, so she must be in a room here.

Frowning, Eden wanted to turn around and guard Lucian's room.

As soon as she turned around, the door behind her was opened.

She immediately turned back to have a look. Edith came out with a terrible sneer on her face.

Eden frowned and looked at her vigilantly.

"Edith, you didn't fall asleep."

"Ha-ha..." She sneered, "Eden, sometimes it's stupid to be overly kind. How could I fall asleep in such an environment?" Edith approached Eden step by step.

Eden drew back step by step.

"Eden, you have ruined my plan, so I will not let you go." She suddenly took out a knife from behind her.

Eden's eyes trembled. Edith must be crazy!

Was she trying to kill her or...

Suddenly, Edith pointed the knife at herself, "Eden, I'll die in front of you today."

Eden was stunned. It turned out that she wanted to commit suicide.

Eden looked at her calmly, "Alright, since you have the courage to die, how can I stop you? Do it yourself."

Edith was surprised. She really couldn't understand Eden.

"Okay, then I'll die here. If I die, the three of you should bear the responsibility." As Edith said this, she moved the knife forward, made up her mind and stabbed herself hard.

Eden had been wary of her doing something like this. She went forward in a hurry and held her hand tightly.

"Edith, do you really want to die?"

Edith suddenly smiled and struggled. Then Eden snatched the knife from her hand.

A trace of craftiness flashed through Edith's eyes. While Eden was focusing on her, she took Eden's hand and stabbed the knife at her own shoulder hard.

Half of the knife was stabbed into Edith's shoulder. Even Eden's palm was scratched, and she felt painful all over.

"Ouch... Someone wants to kill me! Hhelp!" Edith shouted desperately.

Eden was dumbfounded. Edith had actually become so crazy.

Therefore, Edith was just putting on an act just now. She wanted to hurt herself with the knife when Eden went forward to snatch the knife. There were Eden's fingerprints on the knife. Although Eden was innocent, she was holding the knife at that time.

"Ha-ha..." Eden looked at her with a sneer, "Edith, you're really out of your head. Do you think you can send me to jail in this way? You are not dead. The knife is so small. Victor is very rich and powerful. I'll just stay in the police station for an hour at most."

Edith looked at her crazily, "Eden, you're charged with wilful murder. Do you think you can be released so easily? If Victor saves you, what will happen to him?"

"Don't forget that more and more people hold the shares of Alwynn Group because Victor wants to expand the company. Since his wife is a murderer, what will the shareholders do? Victor's foundation has not been stabilized yet."

Edith knew Victor very well.

Eden's face suddenly darkened, but she trusted Victor.

Soon, Edith's scream attracted the waiter. He immediately called the police and Edith accused Eden of attempted murder.

The reporters she had arranged in advance made reports on the scene.

Edith was sent to the hospital for treatment, and the police took away Eden for investigation.

Along the way, Eden was surrounded by reporters, and she grabbed her injured hand tightly.

"Mrs. Alwynn, may I ask why you want to kill Miss Olsen? Is there any hatred between you?"

"Mrs. Alwynn, why did you come here to meet Miss Olsen? Mrs. Alwynn, please answer my question."

"Mrs. Alwynn, I heard that rich people like you have a special hobby which is to do something to hurt others for kicks. May I ask if you are such a person?"

Eden looked at the reporter in front of her with sharp eyes. He was at most twenty-five or twenty-six years old, and he wore a pair of black framed glasses. His skin was a little rough, and there were some pimples on his forehead. His hair was very greasy.

Eden followed the police and said casually, "Why do you think I have such a hobby?"

The questions of other reporters were normal, but she felt that this reporter's question was weird.

"A lot of rich people do bad things for kicks." The reporter answered her question seriously.

"Oh! Is that so? This is the first time I've heard such a thing. Why don't you give an example? Which rich man has such a hobby?" Eden looked at him with a smile. Her smile looked very pure and clear under the sun, and she looked upright and confident.

But the male reporter didn't dare to look into her eyes.

"What's wrong? Can't you tell me? Only the perverts support the perverts to do this kind of thing. I think you must have received a lot of money, so you want to make this matter worse."

After saying that, Eden did not wait for the male reporter to speak and sat in the police car with a frank smile.

What happened in Delight Hotel was reported on the spot. Soon, the news about Eden was spread online.

Brian was accompanying Aurora to meet her clients. He had nothing to do, so he played with his phone aside. When he saw the news, he was so startled that his phone fell to the ground.

"Oh my god! What did I see just now?"

Brian picked up his phone in panic. Without explaining to Aurora, he rushed to his computer.

"Mr. Alwynn, bad news! Mrs. Alwynn is accused of killing." Dean and Victor were busy in the company. In the bathroom, Dean took time to look at his phone and saw the news about Eden.

Victor pressed the space between his eyebrows and looked at Dean unhappily.

"Dean, can you make me feel better when I'm working overtime on weekend?"

Dean was about to cry. This was an emergency.

"Mr. Alwynn, look at your phone. It's said that Mrs. Alwynn is a murderer."

Victor said, "Dean, today is not Fool's Day. Such a joke is not funny at all."

Dean was speechless. Why didn't Victor believe him?

"Mr. Alwynn, do you think I dare to joke about this?" He cherished this job so much, and he would never dare to joke about Eden.

Victor frowned and immediately picked up his phone. His pupils trembled when he saw the news. Then he suppressed his anger and finished reading.

"D*mn Edith!" Victor suddenly stood up.

He dialed Brian's number. Brian said on the phone, "I've stopped Delight Hotel from ruining the surveillance video. Go and find Eden immediately. I'll be there soon."

Chapter 1804

Victor grabbed the car key and shouted at the phone angrily while walking, "Brian, I want my wife to go home with me in an hour!"

After that, he hung up the phone.

"Dean, find out which hospital Edith is in right now."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Looking at Victor's gloomy face, Dean knew that the Olsen family was doomed. According to his understanding of Eden, Eden was very kind, and she would never kill someone.

Victor dialed Eden's phone number, but he couldn't get through to her.

The news that Mrs. Alwynn was charged with attempted murder spread throughout the whole city.

Grandma Clement was so angry that she passed out.

Delmont and Adrienne went back, because they were worried that Grandma Clement would be stimulated by the news. However, when they entered the house, they saw Wyatt carrying Grandma Clement out of the house.

"Grandma." Delmont looked at Grandma Clement and felt very worried.

Aisling came out with tears and saw Delmont and Adrienne, "Delmont, it's good that you're here. Take your grandmother to the hospital first. I'll go to the police station to see Eden. She must be so scared now."

"Mom, don't worry. You know Eden's character. She wouldn't do such a thing even if she was mad." Delmont was afraid that Aisling would fall ill as well.

"I know. How can I not know about my own daughter?" Aisling wiped her tears as she said, "Alright, hurry up and send your grandmother to the hospital. Buddy and Zofia will accompany me to the police station."

"Okay!" The Clement family took action separately.

Victor dialed Lucian's phone number, but he could not get through to him.

"Dean, inform the Public Relations Department and let them suppress the news online."

Dean said, "Mr. Alwynn, I've informed them after I came out of the bathroom. They're suppressing the news."

Dean immediately received the news, "Aro said that Edith was sent to the hospital covered by Alwynn Group. He disguised himself and went there to see if Edith would misspeak herself."

Victor smiled brutally, and his voice was extremely apathetic, "Call her attending doctor. You know what to say."

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean immediately called the hospital and went to the parking lot.

Victor drove by himself. It would take forty minutes to get there, but he drove through red lights and arrived in ten minutes.

"Victor." Aisling stood at the door with tears in eyes.

"Mom, why are you here?" Victor walked over quickly.

"How can I not come here? Eden is so scared here." Aisling bowed her head and wiped her tears, "Your grandmother fainted from anger. She has been sent to the hospital."

"What?" Victor clenched his fists and held back the fury in his heart.

"Victor!" Brian called him from a distance.

Victor looked at him, "What's going now?"

Brian stood in front of him and gasped for breath with his head lowered. When his breathing was no longer ragged, he said, "Luckily, I was playing with my phone at that time. As soon as I saw the news, I got the surveillance video in Delight Hotel. I found a big problem. The Olsen family is done for."

"What do you mean?" Victor looked at him.

"Let's go and save Eden first." Brian breathed more easily. He was not late, and he could speak confidently in front of Victor.

"Mr. Alwynn."

When Victor was about to walk in, he was stopped by a middle-aged man.

"Sidney Olsen, how dare you come here! Your daughter actually frames my daughter! My family will fight with you to the end even if we go bankrupt!" Aisling glared at Sidney in an imposing manner, wishing that she could have a fight with him.

Sidney had a receding hairline, and his slightly fat body trembled when he heard her words.

"Mrs. Clement, listen to me first. My daughter absolutely doesn't dare to frame others. She has been talking on the phone mysteriously these days. I thought she was in love, so I didn't care about it."

"I didn't expect such a thing to happen. Please calm down, Mrs. Clement. Let's see what's going on first. Then we can sit down and discuss the solution together."

"What if my daughter is framed by your daughter? I know my own daughter very well. Over the years, she has been doing good things and helping poor people. She has Victor, three children and parents who love her. She is not short of money, and she has a bright future."

"There is no need for her to do such a silly thing." The more Aisling said, the more excited she became.

Victor walked to her and glanced at Sidney coldly, "Mom, let's go in first and see what's going on."

Meeting with Victor's horrible eyes, Sidney trembled in fear, and he had an ominous presentiment.

Thinking about what he had learned from the driver, he became more flustered.

After they went in, they were taken to the interrogation room.

Eden's hands were cuffed. There were blood stains on her white shirt. She sat there quietly, and her hair was a little messy.

The moment she saw Victor and Aisling, she blinked her big eyes with grievances.

"Mom, why are you here?" She didn't know what had happened outside, but she knew that everyone must be talking about her.

She was very worried about Grandma Clement.

"Fool, how can I not come here?" Aisling said and wiped her tears.

"Eden, how are you? Did you get hurt? Why is there so much blood on your body? Huh?" Victor saw the blood on her clothes, squatted beside her and checked her nervously.

Eden shook her head slightly and reached out her hand which was wrapped with gauze, "I'm fine. Only my hand is hurt. They have treated my wound."

When she snatched the knife from Edith's hand, her hand was scratched and bled a little. She had been pressing the wound tightly on the way here. After she arrived, she found that the wound was quite deep.

"Let me see." Victor carefully untied the gauze, only to see that her flesh had been torn, but they just treated her wound with iodine.

He gulped with distress. The cut needed at least six stitches so that she could get better.

"These b*stards! How can they treat you like this?" Victor looked at the policeman in the interrogation room furiously.

"Victor, calm down. I'm fine, aren't I?" Eden's voice was a bit loud.

Victor wanted to beat the policeman but he stopped.

At this time, the officer came in.

"Mr. Alwynn, you're here. Mrs. Alwynn hasn't given any confession yet. She said that she'd wait for you to come. Let's start now."

"Humph! What do you want her to confess?" Victor snorted coldly.

The officer lowered his head. Victor had contributed a lot to River City, and they respected him very much.

Victor looked at Brian and said, "Hurry up."

"I see. Don't worry." Brian sat down at the table and turned on the computer.

Eden began to tell the whole story.

The more Sidney listened, the more he felt that he had raised an idiot.

Sweat was running down his forehead.

Chapter 1805

Eden said everything in one breath. Sidney was so scared that he sat on the ground feebly. Aisling could not help but punch him a few times, "Look at what your daughter has done! She almost ruined my daughter's life!"

"Your wife has such a sharp tongue. Every time we play cards together, she praises your daughter. Do you have anything to say now?"

When they played cards together, Edith's mother and Lucian's mother always looked down upon Eden.

Aisling was very excited. On her way here, she had been wanting to vent her anger. Eden was in trouble, which drove her crazy.

Buddy and Zofia could not arrive soon because of the traffic jam. She was alone and felt more depressed.

Sidney could not say a word.

He didn't want Edith to be like this. She and her mother had ruined the Olsen family for a man.

"Mom, calm down. Don't hurt yourself." Seeing how emotional Aisling was, Eden was very sad.

Edith went crazy, and she was framed by her, which made her mother cry.

Victor helped Aisling sit on the stool aside.

"Brian, show them the video. If we let them get the surveillance video by themselves, I'm afraid that they won't be able to investigate this matter thoroughly in a month." Victor looked at them coldly.

The atmosphere in the interrogation room was getting intenser and intenser because of him.

The officer said apologetically, "Mr. Alwynn, we have sent more people to investigate it. We won't let Mrs. Alwynn be wronged. I have sent someone to the hospital. They said that Miss Olsen was not seriously injured. We've summoned her here."

Victor looked at him indifferently, "Why do you have to summon her here? We have evidence, and this is enough. She wants to be healed, doesn't she? Just let her stay in the hospital!"

Hearing this, the officer looked at Eden for help. Everyone knew that Victor doted on Eden very much, but they had to complete the necessary procedures.

"Victor, don't be like this. Just deal this matter by law. Let Edith come here. Everyone has to pay the price for what he has done."

"Fool, you are just too kind. She wanted to commit suicide. Why did you stop her?" Victor went ballistic. Edith actually dared to frame her.

She wasn't bold enough, but she wanted to frame Eden. She would only bring trouble to herself in the end.

Eden did not say anything. No matter how scheming Edith was, she was a life. How could she watch Edith die before her?

"Mr. Alwynn..."

Victor glared at Sidney fiercely, "Mr. Olsen, you'd better not say anything. Let's watch the video first, or you'll think we wrong your daughter."

Brian had played the video.

At first, two men took Lucian who was unconscious into Delight Hotel.

Edith followed them. She and Lucian did not come out after entering the room.

About forty minutes later, Eden parked her car at the door of the hotel.

She and Amelia got off the car and went straight into the hotel.

Then they went to Edith's room and opened the door.

After a while, Eden dragged out Edith who only wore a camisole. Amelia did not come out. The two of them sat outside and chatted for a while... Everything Edith had done could be seen clearly in the video.

After watching the video, Brian breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he found it in time and stopped the stuff in the hotel from deleting the video.

Otherwise, Victor would definitely hit the ceiling at this time.

After watching the video, Sidney couldn't see anything clearly and almost fainted.

However, he was too frightened, and he didn't dare to faint.

"Mr. Alwynn, this is all my daughter's fault. She is blinded by her feelings, so she did such a wrong thing. Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Clement, Mrs. Alwynn, give her a chance to change herself. I promise that she will never do such a thing again."

"You promise?" Victor looked at him with gloomy eyes, "You have the idea of leaving things to chance, don't you?"

"Well...." Sidney was stunned and stared at Victor in shock.

Victor looked at him with a sneer and said mockingly, "Don't you know what she did before? As her father, you live in the same house every day. Don't tell me you don't know that she wants to seduce

Lucian."

"The reason why she dared to do those things is that you are too indulgent with her. She must pay the price. Since she dares to frame my wife, I won't spare her!" Victor was like a furious lion. He was so vicious that everyone looked at him warily.

"Victor, calm down." Eden moved her hands which were still handcuffed.

Seeing this, the officer was so frightened that he broke out in a cold sweat. He immediately went over and unbolted her handcuffs.

Eden stood up and held Victor's arm. His blood-shot eyes looked very horrible.

Victor was like this. When Eden was in trouble, he would be very irritated and lose control.

"Victor, calm down. I'm all right. Edith will pay the price for this." Eden's tone was gentle. Only then did Victor come to sense and return to normal.

Victor hugged her tightly and kissed her forehead as if no one else was around.

"Don't worry. I won't let you bleed for nothing." Victor glared at Sidney from an angle that Eden couldn't see.

At that moment, Sidney even wanted to die.

"Mom, Eden." Buddy arrived late because of traffic jam. Zofia was taking care of the child in the car.

"Buddy, you're here." Aisling looked at his worried face. He ran over so hurriedly that his lips went pale.

"Yeah." Buddy nodded, "Eden, are you all right?"

"I'm fine. Buddy, don't worry." Eden smiled faintly. She always made them worry about her.

"Are you in the mood to smile? I can't be more anxious." Buddy reached out and wanted to pinch her cheek gently.

However, Victor pushed away his hand, "Can't you see that Eden is injured?"

Victor held Eden in his arms as if she was his rare treasure.

"Which part of your body is hurt?"

"Buddy, don't listen to Victor's nonsense. I'm not badly injured." Eden smiled. In fact, the wound in her palm was very painful, and even her forehead was cold.

She glanced at Sidney. Edith asked for it. She should be responsible for her own mistakes.

Eden knew what Sidney was worried about.

Half an hour later, Edith was brought over. Her mother, Annalise Olsen, came together with her. As soon as she came in, she yelled at Aisling, "Look at what your daughter has done! If anything bad happens to my daughter, I will not let you go!"

Aisling looked at her and sneered, "Yes, I will not let you go!"

"Humph!" Annalise glared at Eden apathetically, "Eden, I did not expect you to be so vicious. You actually wanted to kill Edith." The most important reason was that Eden had ruined Edith's plan.

Lucian had been in charge of the Ronen family, and Edith liked Lucian very much. As long as Edith had sex with Lucian, she had many ways to let Lucian marry Edith.

"Shut up!" Sidney walked over, raised his hand in anger and slapped Annalise in the face ferociously.

Chapter 1806

"Ah..." Annalise's head swam, and she swayed dizzily.

"Dad, what are you doing? How can you beat mom?" Seeing this, Edith had a nasty feeling in heart.

She had asked the driver to ruin the surveillance video. It was impossible for Eden to improve her innocence.

"Why can't I beat her? I not only want to beat her, but also want to give you a lesson! You unfilial daughter!"

"Crack..." He slapped Edith fiercely as well.

"Ah..." Edith looked at him with grievances and fury. She pointed at Eden and said in disbelief, "Dad, I am the victim. Why do you slap me? You should beat Eden! She wanted to kill me. You not only doesn't speak for me, but also bully me and mom in front of them..."

Edith suddenly stopped talking when Brian turned the computer screen to her.

"How... could it be?" Edith opened her eyes wide.

"Why don't you make a scene and roar anymore? Didn't you say that my daughter wanted to kill you? Didn't you say that she was vicious? Take a good look at your own malicious face!" Aisling was so mad that her body trembled violently.

She turned her head and looked at Annalise's shocked face, "Mrs. Olsen, in ordinary times, you think highly of your daughter, saying that she came back from studying abroad and she has a good job. Has she ever worked? Hasn't she been staying at home and living off you and Sidney?"

Usually, she didn't bother to argue with Annalise while playing cards, but she would never admit that Eden was inferior to Edith.

"Well, Aisling..."

"What? It's all Edith's fault! She tried to seduce Lucian and ruin his marriage. Then she pretended to commit suicide so that she could frame Eden. She is really vicious!" Aisling was really happy at the moment. Edith was hoist by her own petard, and she got her retribution so soon.

"No, it's impossible!" Annalise looked at the policeman with excitement, "Sir, this video must be edited by computer. You must check it out. The victim is my daughter."

"Is that so? Can't you even recognize the surveillance video in your own hotel? Just accept the fact." Brian was displeased because Annalise questioned his computer skills.

"It's impossible. It's really fake! Sir, please don't believe them. They're rich and powerful, so it's easy for them to do such a thing." Edith did not believe it. After Eden was taken away, she immediately asked the driver to delete the surveillance video.

It was impossible for them to get the surveillance video in the hotel.

"Ha-ha..." Brian sneered, "Miss Olsen, haven't I made it clear? You want to frame someone else and disassociate yourself from it. How could you be so naive?"

"You are the naive one! Who are you? Are you qualified to speak here?" Edith was out of control. Saying this, she rushed forward to beat Brian.

Victor stepped forward and kicked her to the ground.

"Ah..." Edith looked at Victor in fear.

Annalise held her. Victor was tall and strong. If Edith fought with him, she would definitely suffer.

"Stop!" The officer roared, looking at Edith coldly.

"Miss Olsen, according to our appraisal, the video is true. Please cooperate with our investigation."

"No! I didn't do it! Really! I'm still injured. I was lying in the hospital when you took me here. Do you know the law?" Edith had a nervous breakdown and burst into tears.

She was sure to win, but in the blink of an eye, she was about to be imprisoned. She couldn't accept such a big blow.

The reason why she had studied so hard for so many years was to have a better future. She had not shown her amazing talent yet, and she hadn't got Lucian.

How could she be willing to be sent to jail?

Eden looked at her quietly. Perhaps she had seen too many things like this, and she had no feelings.

She once said that being overly kind was silly.

She wanted to save Edith, but she set her up.

This time, Edith should reflect on her mistakes here.

"Edith, I will make you pay for what you have done!" Victor's cold-blooded voice was penetrating and sharp.

Edith came to sense immediately.

She glanced at Victor and then looked at her old parents.

In an instant, she felt so scared.

"Victor, I did that, and it has nothing to do with my parents. Don't hurt them. Since you hate me, just aim at me! Understand?" Edith punched her own chest.

The wound on her shoulder was torn, and blood was oozing from the wound.

"Ha-ha..." Victor sneered, "I don't have to deal with your family in person. After Lucian wakes up, he will be the first to let you pay the price. Your family has a good relationship with the Ronen family, right? I think you all know Lucian's character very well. Since you've provoked him, he won't care about who you are."

"Ah..." Annalise cried out in despair, "It's all my fault! It was me who instigated my daughter to do this."

"It has nothing to do with her. Just catch me!"

But it was too late.

"Alas!" Sidney shook his head powerlessly.

Victor took Eden out of the police station and immediately sent her to the hospital.

The news that Edith drugged Lucian and framed Eden was spread on the Internet. Eden was whitewashed in only an hour.

The video was posted online. People only felt that the life in wealthy families was too exciting.

"I like watching the game in the rich families. It's really exciting."

"Eden has been framed so many times, but she can still improve her innocence. I'm quite surprised!"

"That's true. A clear conscience laughs at false accusation..."

There were different opinions online. However, Eden was sitting there and receiving treatment with tears.

"It hurts..." Eden held her injured hand tightly. Looking at her pale palm, she was so scared.

"Anton, be gentle! Can't you hear Eden's words?" Victor held Eden's hand as well.

Anton continued to treat the wound with iodine quietly. He was used to seeing Victor being so nervous.

"There's no need to stitch the wound. I have a good ointment. It won't leave a scar after you use it."

"Really?" Eden choked with sobs.

Anton raised his head. Seeing her crying like a child, he couldn't help laughing, "Don't touch water with your hand until the wound is healed."

"Oh!" Eden nodded vigorously.

"Alright, this is the ointment. Thanks to Mr. Alwynn's research funds, I can develop such a good ointment. Use it two times a day. You're recover very soon." After dressing the wound and putting down the ointment, Anton left.

Victor carried her in his arms, "Do you want me to blow on the wound?"

Eden blinked her misty eyes, "I'm not a child."

Chapter 1807

"Didn't you cry because of pain just now?" Victor looked at her with distress.

"Because it hurts! I cried because of pain. Couldn't I cry?" Eden said, and tears ran down her face again.

Victor bowed his head and kissed her tears, "Honey, don't cry. My heart is broken when you cry."

"I am in pain. When I was injured before, I didn't feel so painful. But this time it really hurts. The nerves of the fingertips are linked with the heart, right?" The more Eden said, the more aggrieved she felt. She was quite sad to be wronged that day.

How could she be accused of attempted murder?

At first, she was quite calm. Thinking about it at this time, she didn't understand why she was so careless.

She even spoke to the reporter with a smile.

By the way, the reporter.

"Victor, take a look at the video and asked Brian to investigate the male reporter. I think he's weird."

"Okay, I'll let Brian do it later. You don't have to worry." Victor held her hand gently.

"Alright!" Eden lowered her head and leaned against his arms. After experiencing all these, she was very tired.

She wanted to take a break, but she suddenly thought of Amelia and Lucian.

"By the way, Amelia and Lucian..." Eden said as she looked out of the window. It was getting dark, and she wondered if they had left the hotel.

"They are all right. Dean went to the hotel with bodyguards. Lucian hasn't woken up yet." Saying this, Victor thought that she had guarded Lucian's room in the hotel.

How could she stay outside the room when they were having sex?

"That's good." Eden was relieved.

"Are you hungry?" Victor asked softly. He didn't want to care about others, and he only wanted to take good care of her.

"I'm tired, hungry and sleepy." Eden had closed her eyes. She was drowsy.

Victor smiled dotingly. After she fell asleep, he took out his phone and told Brian what to do.

After that, he asked Dean to buy food in River City Restaurant.

In an elegant courtyard, a man in tunic and trousers stood there respectfully, "Chairman, they failed. Eden has returned home, and Edith has been arrested." Behind the bead curtain, Barrett sat there quietly and drank tea.

"Good-for-nothing!" Barrett growled, but he was not very angry.

"Xzavier Ruiz, I transferred you back from abroad to replace the butler. Don't let me down. You should let Victor's friends be busy from time to time, just like today. Since he has hurt my right-hand men one by one, I'll let him offend all his friends."

A vicious smile appeared on Barrett's face. Although he couldn't defeat Victor, he could play some small tricks on him.

"Chairman, I see." Xzavier stood there quietly.

"Go ahead. Contact the right person and carry out the next plan." Barrett ordered casually.

"Okay, Chairman." After Xzavier left, Dahlia came out.

She sat in Barrett's arms and looked at him with a coquettish smile, "Chairman, we actually failed to frame Eden today. This woman has nothing but good luck."

"Edith has become worthless. What a pity!"

Barrett looked at her with his old and horny eyes, took her hand and stroked it, "It's a good thing, isn't it? The Ronen family and the Olsen family fall out with each other, and we'll benefit from it. You'll know it in the future."

"Yeah!" Dahlia nodded, "What about Irving? I find out that he and you are not of one mind." Since she couldn't get Irving, she would rather ruin him.

Barrett's face suddenly darkened. He questioned coldly, "He's your fiancé! Hasn't you forgotten him? Remember your identity. You're my woman now!"

"Humph!" Klay snorted and smiled, "I have no feelings for him anymore. He does not love me at all. But I won't let others get what I can't get. Irving likes Eden, and you know this. It is because of Eden that he doesn't care about me. I only hate him now. How can I have any feelings for him? Chairman, don't think too much. I am your woman now, and I'll live a good life with you."

Everything that Barrett had given her was enough for her to live comfortably. What she had to do was to disassociate herself from Barrett's plan.

She wanted Victor, Eden and Irving to go to hell.

Eden fell asleep and had a dream. In her dream, many strangers pointed at her and cursed her for being a murderer.

There were knives and a lot of blood.

When Victor stopped the car and unbuckled his seat belt, he saw Eden sleeping very uneasily.

"No, I'm not! I didn't kill anyone..." Eden muttered in a low voice, but Victor heard what she said.

His heart ached so much, and he woke her up softly, "Eden, wake up. We're home."

Eden suddenly opened her eyes and gasped for air, looking around nervously.

When she saw Victor's distressed face, she immediately felt at ease.

It turned out that she had a dream.

"Eden, do you feel better now?" Victor looked at her expression cautiously. What had happened that day had a great impact on her.

Eden shook her head slightly. She still felt very tired. She looked outside and found that they were already home.

It was a very quiet night. The tall buildings not far away were shining brightly, making the dark night full of vitality.

She leaned back wearily.

Victor did not say anything. He got off the car, unfastened her seat belt and carried her into the house.

Dean had been waiting at the door.

Victor carried Eden in his arms. When Eden saw Dean, she smiled awkwardly.

"Dean, thank you!"

Dean smiled shyly, "Mrs. Alwynn, this is what I should do."

Victor opened the door and went in. Dean put the food on the table.

Victor placed Eden on the sofa before saying, "Have you got any news?"

Dean shook his head, "Aro hasn't replied to me, and Mr. Spielberg didn't call me. As for Mr. Ronen and his wife, they haven't wakened up yet. Someone is watching them, so they won't get into trouble."

Victor nodded, "Go back to rest."

"Okay. Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn, see you tomorrow."

Victor poured Eden a glass of water, "Eden, drink some water before eating."

Eden nodded, "Victor, I lost my phone."

"I'll buy you a new one tomorrow."

Victor sat next to her with millet porridge in his hand, "Have some porridge first."

Eden glanced at the chicken and swallowed, "I want to eat the chicken first."

"Okay, sit down, and I'll feed you." Victor put down the porridge and got the chicken.

After finishing the meal, Eden took a shower and lay comfortably on the bed.

Victor came to accompany her. Eden still felt frightened when she thought of what had happened that day.

"Victor, why is Edith so shameless and cruel?"

Chapter 1808

Victor held her in his arms, bowed his head and kissed her forehead, "Honey, since you are tired, just sleep. Don't think about these things."

"But I think it's somewhat strange." Eden looked at him with big eyes and felt wronged again.

Victor couldn't bear to look at her aggrieved eyes.

"Then tell me. What's strange?" His voice became softer and softer.

Eden thought for a moment and said, "Didn't her father say that she always talked on the phone mysteriously?"

"So?" Was Eden suspicious of this?

"So, would she cooperate with Barrett?" Eden spoke the doubt in her mind.

Victor took her words seriously. Since Barrett made a scene in the company, he had become much quieter.

But he knew that Barrett would not stop.

He must be secretly preparing to deal with him.

"I have asked Brian to investigate the relationship between Edith and the Simpson family. We can wait for his answer. Don't think too much now."

"Really? Am I thinking too much? I'm just worried that Barrett will use the people around you to target me, and then you'll aim at them. In this way, you'll offend everyone you know in River City, won't you?"

They had defeated all of Barrett's helpers. Wouldn't Barrett deal with them in the same way?

She was worried that this old fox would ruin Victor's reputation bit by bit.

He would use everything he could make use of to deal with Victor.

"What's more, Paulina has become his lover, hasn't she? She has become smart now. We haven't investigated and affixed her responsibility for stealing the design drafts, because we think it's useful to keep her. But Paulina is very familiar with your contacts. She knows your friends and know how to use them to deal with you. Have you ever thought about this?" Eden was a little worried. After all, Barrett was a cunning man.

Moreover, Paulina was helping him. They wouldn't live in peace recently.

She had been very careful, and she did not want to cause trouble for Victor.

After all, he had been very busy during this period of time, and her heart ached for him.

However, she brought him a lot of trouble every time.

"I've thought about it. Honey, Barrett can't hurt me with such small tricks. Don't worry." As long as she was safe and sound, he would be fearless.

Eden looked at his careless expression, feeling that she had said everything in vain.

Forget it. As long as he knew this.

Eden thought for a while and decided to sleep.

Just as she was about to close her eyes, Edith's words flashed through her mind. She frowned again and said, "Victor, let me ask you a question."

Looking at her frown, Victor was a little nervous and felt that her question had something to do with him.

"Go ahead."

Eden moved her body slightly and looked into his calm eyes, "Was it because of guilt or love that you married me?"

Victor was stunned. He knew it.

But he was so sad because she suspected his love.

Victor suddenly looked very serious, and he said in a deep voice, "Eden, ask your own heart." If she couldn't feel his love for her, he had nothing to say.

Victor looked at her with dark and brooding eyes. His face was solemn.

Eden shrank back. She was really an idiot. How could she ask such a question in such an atmosphere?

However, as a woman, sometimes she felt insecure. She really took Edith's words to heart.

She pondered for a while before answering, "I know you love me very much, but we..."

"Don't doubt me..." Victor interrupted her, and there was anger in his quiet eyes.

"Did someone say anything to you?" He pulled her into his arms, hugged her tightly and stared at her with deep and intense eyes.

His heart ached severely because of her suspicion.

Eden could feel that he was heartbroken, and she felt sorry for him.

"Victor, don't think too much. I... I'm sorry. I can feel that you love me very much." Eden kissed his lips after she said that.

However, Victor dodged her.

Eden was stunned. He was really mad.

"Tell me. Did someone say anything to you?" She would not ask such a question for no reason.

This was a very serious question for him.

Seeing that he insisted, Eden told him what Edith had said in a low voice. Victor was furious.

"Eden, look at me." Victor forced her to look at his eyes.

There was a hint of grievance in Eden's eyes as she looked at him quietly.

Victor suppressed the fury and irritation in his heart, explaining patiently, "I always thought that you might think I'm not good enough, because I'm overbearing. But I was wrong. I haven't given you a sense of security."

He knew that this feeling tortured her heart slowly. In the past, he was afraid of losing her, so he could understand what she meant by asking this question.

"No. Victor, when Edith said those words to me, I didn't doubt you. I can always feel your love."

"I just asked it casually. Don't think too much. I naturally like you when you're overbearing. You don't know that every time you're jealous, my heart is filled with happiness and sweetness." Eden explained immediately and said very quickly.

Only then did Victor feel a little better. He said very seriously, "In the future, if you still have such a question in heart, you can ask me directly. You don't have to know what kind of person I am through others."

"Okay." Eden kept nodding. How could she doubt Victor like this?

Victor said with a smile, "Does the wound hurt?"

Eden immediately shook her head, "It doesn't hurt anymore, especially after you kiss me."

"Ha-ha..." Victor's deep and pleasant laughter echoed in the room.

"Fool, you know what? Every time I see your smile, I feel like I am enjoying a cup of sweet wine. As long as you are happy, I feel that everything I have done is worthwhile."

"At the same time, I feel guilty. Whenever you leave my sight, you get into trouble, and I'm not by your side when you have an accident. You don't know that I actually want to tie you around me."

"Sorry, Victor, I don't want to make trouble for you." She hoped that their life would be peaceful. How could she want such bad things to happen all the time?

"You say such words again." Victor looked at her helplessly.

Eden could only blink her innocent eyes and look at him.

"Just sleep." Victor coaxed her softly.

Eden breathed a sigh of relief and closed her eyes to rest.

Each family had its own problems. Sometimes, the disputes between husband and wife had something to do with others' instigating words. She had to learn a lesson from it.

Eden reflected on herself in heart.

She had to solve all the problems together with Victor.

Seeing that she fell asleep soon, Victor smiled helplessly.

It was four o'clock in the morning when Lucian woke up.

Chapter 1809

He blinked his eyes and looked around the dark room.

His whole body was sore, and his head was dizzy. He shook his head, and memories rushed into his mind.

He remembered that his new assistant gave him a glass of water, and his head spun dizzily as soon as he drank it. Just as he had a bad feeling, he saw Edith who dressed in sexy clothes.

He couldn't remember what happened next.

Moving his hand slightly, he felt that someone was beside him. He was shocked, found the bedside lamp and turned it on without thinking too much.

What he saw was Amelia's pale and bloodless face. Even her breathing was weak.

She was not fully covered by the quilt. The bruises on her body meant that she had been tortured badly on bed.

"Amelia." Lucian's voice was hoarse. He was so scared that he immediately held Amelia in his arms and patted her cold face.

Amelia had no reaction, and her curly eyelashes drooped. She looked so weak.

"Amelia, what's wrong with you? Could you wake up?" Lucian was anxious. He knew that he had been drugged, and the drug was extremely potent. When he woke up, he thought that the woman next to him was Edith. In that case, he would kill her so as to give Amelia an expiation.

However, what he saw was Amelia's pale face. He was excited and scared. Fortunately, it was her.

After making sure that Amelia just passed out, Lucian looked for his phone to call for help. At this time, he heard a voice outside the door.

"Mr. Ronen, we are sent by Mr. Alwynn. What can I do for you?"

Lucian was confused and asked, "Do you have any clothes?"

"Yes, we prepared clothes for you and Mrs. Ronen."

Lucian breathed a sigh of relief and got up to get the clothes. Then he put on the clothes for Amelia quickly and took her to the hospital.

He had no idea what had happened outside.

He went directly to the hospital owned by Alwynn Group, because he did not trust other doctors.

Anton was woken up at night. Wearing pajamas, he wrapped himself in a doctor's coat and went to the VIP ward where Lucian was.

"Anton, hurry up and have a check-up for Amelia." Lucian sat at the bedside and held Amelia's hand tightly. His eyes were very worried and anxious.

Anton glanced at him and did not speak. He checked Amelia's body promptly.

Thinking of the news in the daytime, he was a little embarrassed, "She has passed out. Send her to the gynaecology for a check-up. You were drugged by something extremely potent. Later I will have a check-up for you so that you won't have any sequelae."

"Sequelae?" Lucian glanced at Amelia.

Anton said, "Yes! I will prepare an intravenous drip for Amelia first. You go to my office and take a bath. Then I will give you a check-up."

"But Amelia..."

"Don't you trust me?" Anton interrupted him, "You still need sex in the future. Do you understand what I mean?"

Lucian clenched his fists and nodded. He lowered his head and kissed Amelia's forehead before turning around to leave.

After Amelia had an intravenous drip, Anton asked someone to guard Amelia specially and then went to find Lucian.

Lucian had come out of the bathroom with a bath towel on his body. He kept fit with exercise all year round, and he was tall and straight. He stood by the window. The sky was getting light, and the world was quiet.

The rising sun flamed the eastern sky. A new day was coming.

Hearing the sound of pushing the door, he immediately turned around. Anton came in and gestured him to lie on the sofa.

Lucian did not say anything and lay down. Anton had a careful check-up for him and heaved a sigh of relief.

"Fortunately, Amelia was rescued in time, so she's all right. I will make up a prescription for you. You may not be interested in sex these days, but you will slowly return to normal after taking the medicine."

Lucian grabbed his hand quickly and looked a little awkward. He bit his lower lip and asked nervously, "Will I return to normal?"

"Ha-ha..." Anton laughed, "This is the first time I've seen you so disturbed. Even if you don't believe yourself, you should believe in my medical skills. Mr. Alwynn has invested hundreds of millions of dollars. Of course we have developed some great medicine."

"Don't worry. You and your wife can have sex normally in about a week. Someone is taking care of Amelia now. If you are tired, you can rest here."

"I'm not tired. I'll go back and look after Amelia. I can't rest assured if I can't see her." Lucian got up and put on his clothes.

Looking at him, Anton thought of what had happened yesterday and hesitated for a while. After Lucian came out, he said, "Mrs. Alwynn was injured because of you and Amelia. She was even framed by Edith."

"What happened? Why did Eden get hurt?" Lucian looked at Anton. He didn't know what happened afterward. He seemed to have heard Eden's voice and seen Amelia, but he felt that it was just his dream.

Anton told Lucian the whole story briefly. After hearing it, Lucian was very shocked and mad, "Edith is crazy! I won't spare her."

Anton sighed, "Lucian, this matter has something to do with your mother. You know that after Amelia left, your mom wanted Edith to marry you. If she didn't give Edith any hope, Edith wouldn't have been so desperate."

Lucian clenched his fists. His sleeves were rolled up, and blue veins stood out on his arms.

"But it's not the reason for her to hurt others." After saying that, Lucian left.

Anton could only shake his head helplessly.

The next day, early in the morning, Dean sent Eden a latest phone. Eden downloaded some apps before going downstairs to eat.

Victor had prepared breakfast. As soon as she went downstairs, she received a phone call from Lucian.

Eden was actually a little embarrassed, but she felt better because they were just talking on the phone.

"Eden, thank you for what you did yesterday. Is your hand better now?"

"It's okay. I feel better now. Are you and Amelia... all right?" She was very worried last night, but she couldn't get through to Lucian.

"Yeah, Amelia and I are both in the hospital. We had a check-up, and we're both fine."

Eden and Lucian chatted for a while and then hung up the phone.

Eden thought about it and suddenly had an excuse to go out.

"Eden, come down for breakfast." Victor raised his head and saw her standing on the stairs.

Eden went downstairs with joy, sat down and looked at Victor with a smile, "Victor, you have to work later. I'll go to the hospital to see Amelia."

Victor narrowed his eyes, "No, I'll go with you after finishing my work."

Eden didn't want to go with him. How could she see Edith if he followed her?

"Aren't you busy? I don't want to delay your work." Eden picked up the chopsticks to eat.

Victor looked at her quietly for two seconds. She wanted to do something behind his back.

"I have enough time to work. I can send you to check your wound and visit Adonis by the way." Victor was determined. Eden knew that she had no chance and ate silently.

Chapter 1810

Seeing that she was focused on eating, Victor didn't say anything else. He made steamed fish, shrimps and some vegetables for her that day. She had a good appetite and ate a lot in a short while.

After the meal, Victor took her to the study on the second floor to deal with official business. Eden had nothing to do, so she continued to draw the stickers. These days, she drew some stickers for the children and her parents, and she wrote lines for them according to their daily habits.

Victor looked up at her sometimes. She was absorbed in painting, and both of them were very quiet, but the atmosphere was not cold at all. Instead, it was warm and peaceful.

Victor liked this kind of atmosphere very much.

He stared at her for a while and immediately lowered his head to work. He wanted to finish the work as soon as possible and take her out, because he didn't want her to feel bored.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, Victor raised his head and stretched his body. He looked over casually, only to see that Eden had fallen asleep on the sofa, holding a drawing board in her hands.

Victor packed up the things on the desk, walked to her slowly and took out the drawing board from her arms lightly.

The screen lit up. He lowered his head and saw two cute penguins hugging each other.

"Honey, give me a hug."

"Honey, kiss me."

He could not help smiling, and his eyes were filled with tenderness.

He wanted to bend down and carry her in his arms.

Eden opened her eyes and said in a daze, "What are you doing? Don't disturb my sleep."

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, I'll take you to bed."

Eden was sleepy and didn't know where she was.

"Oh!" She didn't care and continued to sleep in Victor's arms.

But as soon as she closed his eyes, she suddenly remembered that she had to see Amelia.

She opened her eyes, looked at Victor and asked, "What time is it now?"

"Past two o'clock, and it's early. You can sleep for longer." He knew that she was concerned about Amelia.

"I'd better not sleep. I'm going to visit Amelia." Although she couldn't go to the police station, she had to see Amelia.

Victor felt quite helpless and took her back to the room. They changed their clothes and went to the hospital to see Amelia.

Eden knew that Amelia must have passed out. She once experienced such a thing.

Moreover, Victor was particularly energetic after he was drugged, so she fainted on bed.

At the thought of this, Eden blushed and her heart beat faster.

She didn't dare to look at Victor, so she turned her head and looked out of the window.

The flowers on both sides of the road were very beautiful, and the trees were tall and green.

People walked on the road leisurely, talking and laughing. Some were in a hurry to do something, and some were taking a walk aimlessly. Looking at the scenery, Eden forgot what happened just now unconsciously.

But when she thought of Edith, she felt a little uncomfortable in heart.

She didn't even know why Edith hated her.

Why did she frame her like this? It was because she didn't understand this that she wanted to meet Edith.

However, if Victor accompanied her, Edith might not say it so easily.

Oh, was she wrong? In order to be released, Edith would not hide anything anymore.

She suddenly looked back at Victor, "Send me to the prison tomorrow. I want to see Edith."

Victor finally knew her purpose. When she was eating, she said that she wanted to see Amelia, but in fact, she wanted to meet Edith.

If he disagreed with her at this time, she would find a chance to go there secretly. "I'll take you there, and I'll inform the policeman in the prison in advance."

"Thank you, honey!" Seeing the red lights, Eden quickly kissed his cheek.

Victor was in a good mood and reached out to rub her head.

The lights turned green, and he started the car again.

After they arrived at the hospital, they went to the ward. Lucian was sitting on a stool and staring at Amelia with deep affection. Amelia had not woken up yet.

Eden swallowed. Lucian was beyond her imagination.

"You're here." Lucian was calm.

Victor nodded and stood aside with Eden.

"Amelia, she..." Eden pointed at Amelia. Lucian's handsome face suddenly turned red. He had got someone to send him the phone and watched the video. Eden was afraid that Edith would disturb them, so she pulled Edith out and guarded outside.

"She's... fine. We just need to wait for her to wake up." Lucian was too embarrassed to look at Eden. He lowered his head and blushed scarlet.

Eden felt awkward as well and didn't finish her words.

"It's good that she's all right." Eden was relieved. After speaking, she lowered her head.

She stayed there for a while. The atmosphere was really awkward, so she said that she would go to see Candace.

Then, they went up.

Lucian heaved a sigh of relief.

Looking at the backs of Victor and Eden, he smiled though he was embarrassed.

Yeah, he should smile. It was because Eden took Amelia there that Amelia saved him.

He still remembered how scared he was when he woke up.

What came to his mind at first was that Edith had ruined his life.

At this time, everything was fine.

"Ha-ha..." Lucian chuckled. He was unexpectedly rescued from a desperate situation. Those who had never experienced such a feeling wouldn't know how good it was.

He rubbed his sore eyes and continued to look at Amelia. She must be very sad when Edith called her, right?

"Amelia, wake up quickly, okay?" His voice was very low, and only he could hear it.

Eden and Victor went to see Candace. As soon as they got out of the elevator, a male doctor walked past Victor in a hurry. He walked too fast. In order to walk into the elevator as soon as possible, he even hit Victor hard.

"I'm... sorry!" Then he entered the elevator.

Eden frowned and looked at the doctor. He looked unfamiliar. His hair was a little long and he was old, looking a bit greasy. She came here more often than Victor, but she had never seen this doctor before.

"Wait." When the elevator was about to close, Eden reached out to block it.

"Miss, what's the matter?" He lowered his head and didn't dare to look at Eden.

Eden was even more confused, "Are you a new doctor? Why have I never seen you before? The patient here is very special. Someone will look after him specially."

Victor remembered that only Anton and Dr. Conley were Adonis's attending doctors. Two matrons would come here, and Candace took care of Adonis in person.

He arranged this specially to ensure Adonis's safety.

Just as Victor was about to question him, Eden said, "Did Doctor Lewis tell you to come here?"

"Yes, Doctor Lewis asked me to come here."

A hint of coldness flashed through Eden's eyes. Doctor Lewis didn't work here!

Victor was furious and pulled the man out.

The man was stunned. Thinking that he had exposed himself, he pushed Eden with great strength when he came out.

"Eden!" Victor shouted. Eden had fallen heavily to the ground.

"Victor, don't worry about me. Go and get him back! We can't let anything bad happen to Adonis!" Eden endured the pain and said loudly.
