

Gluey Love 181

Chapter 181

Lucian and Eden saw Haven, Myra and another woman walking towards them. All three of them were dressed fashionably.

Lucian's expression turned grim instantly.

The three of them couldn't be the ones who got the job positions yesterday, could they?

The company would be very lively in the future if that was the case.

"Secretary Ronen." Haven smiled gently at Lucian. She did not look at Eden who was beside Lucian.

"You..." Lucian looked at the three of them in confusion.

Haven smiled sweetly. "Secretary Ronen, we are here to report." Only then, she looked at Eden provocatively.

With her here in the future, she would not let Eden have a good time.

Lucian's handsome eyes narrowed slightly. The three of them were the ones who actually got the positions.

His handsome face was overflowed with a wry thought and he spoke in a cold tone. "This is Director Bleu. The positions that you applied for are under her department. You can report to her."

Haven and Myra looked at each other. Neither of them greeted Eden.

The long-haired woman behind Haven and Myra was wearing a white dress. She looked pure and adorable and her large eyes were filled with innocence. She walked up to Eden and said with a smile, "Hello, Director Bleu! I am Amelia. I am in charge of the fabrics."

Eden looked at Amelia and was reminded of the years when she was in the Gienger family. The look in her eyes were the same as hers back then.

Even the smile on her face was so careful.

Eden also smiled and said, "Hello, Miss Macdonald."

She looked at Lucian and said with a smile, "Secretary Ronen, I'll head for the meeting first."

After that, Eden looked at Amelia and said, "Go to the conference room on the 23rd floor. We'll have a meeting."

After saying that, Eden walked to her office.

Haven and Myra looked at Eden's back with strange expressions in their eyes.

"Miss Clement, Miss Gienger, don't simply come here unless you have urgent matters." Lucian warned them.

Haven smiled and nodded. "Lucian..." "Secretary Ronen." Lucian corrected him with a cold face.

Haven's expression stiffened and she pinched the black shoulder bag in her hand tightly.

"Secretary Ronen, I will definitely abide by the company's rules." It was difficult for Haven to say these words. Lucian actually did not give face to her.

Eden entered the office and saw Riley playing with her mobile phone at her desk.

When Riley saw Eden coming in, she immediately put her phone away and looked at Eden nervously.

Eden looked at her with a sullen face and then at her own office table that was empty.

She got angry instantly but she held back her anger and asked with a smile, "Riley, have you prepared the materials for the meeting today?"

Riley looked a little evasive upon hearing that. "Director Bleu, I forgot to bring the documents back after work last night, so..."

"So, you haven't prepared the materials?" Eden interrupted her without losing her temper.

"That's right!" Riley nodded.

Eden took a deep breath and gently bit her lower lip.

She glanced at the time. There were only five minutes left before the meeting started.

She quickly walked to her computer, turned it on and quickly browsed the topics she was going to cover for the meeting.

Riley looked at Eden who was concentrating. She felt uneasy when Eden did not reprimand her. She had done it on purpose.

She had prepared a lot of excuses to deal with Eden but Eden did not blame her.

She thought that Eden would definitely yell at her.

How did Eden manage to become the director so smoothly?

Chapter 182

Riley had worked hard in this company for several years. She finally had a chance to become a director when Marianne left the company. However, Eden came back from the branch and was smoothly promoted to director.

Riley had been holding in all of this for a while now.

Eden quickly browsed the information she needed and sorted out all the details in her mind. She turned off the computer when she was sure that there weren't any problems. After that, she went out of the office without looking at Riley.

Riley couldn't stay calm when she saw this. She quickly walked out of the desk and followed behind Eden.

"Director Bleu..."

Eden, who had just walked out of the door, turned around immediately with a cold expression on her face. She looked at Riley and knew that she had done it on purpose.

The corners of her mouth twitched coldly and she said firmly, "Riley, remember, you are not helping me, but the Alwynn Group.

You are responsible to do your job. Before I got off work yesterday, I have told you strictly to prepare the contents of the meeting for this morning. However, you just told me you have forgotten about it. Remember, you are getting your salary from the Alwynn Group."

After saying that, Eden went straight to the elevator. Her slender back was straight and unwavering.

Riley stood at the same spot. She looked at Eden's determined back, not knowing what to do.

den was right. She had made a very low-level mistake today.

Lucian, who was across the room saw the whole incident.

Amelia quickly followed Eden.

Haven and Myra were still standing at the same spot.

Lucian retracted his gaze and glanced at Haven and Myra before he said coldly, "You two, your director has gone to the conference room. Do you want to be late on your first day at work?"

"Hmph! What's the big deal? She's just a director, isn't she? She has less power than you, Secretary Ronen." Myra could not stand Eden's indifferent and calm manner.

She spoke without thinking when she saw Eden left in such a way.

Lucian frowned slightly when he heard Myra's words. He said sarcastically, "I dare not. She's the design director. My job and salary depend on her new products. Also, if you don't want to work," Lucian pointed to the position of the elevator and said, "You can get into the elevator and leave immediately. Don't let me see your disgusting face here."

"Secretary Ronen, you..." Myra looked at Lucian and felt humiliated. D*mned this cold-blooded man. Why was he so stubborn?

She was no worse than Eden. She had a good face, a good figure and a good family background. She was not inferior to Eden at all.

Why did Lucian dislike her? She felt an unprecedented humiliation from him every time she met him.

Without a word, Haven turned and walked to the elevator.

She could not get into trouble right now.

Lucian only walked up to Riley after that. He was in charge of this place when Victor was not around.

"What's going on? You're Director Bleu's assistant. What are you doing here when she's attending a meeting?" Lucian's tone was deep and cold and he narrowed his eyes slightly, making his facial features appear to have deeper contours.

"I..." Riley wanted to speak but stopped herself. Her mind was whirling as she looked at Lucian with an aggrieved expression. She tried to defend herself, "Secretary Ronen, I didn't prepare the materials for the meeting that Director Bleu requested. She was vague yesterday and I didn't understand what she meant... so..."

Chapter 183

"So, you didn't prepare for the materials for the meeting this morning?" Lucian interrupted her coldly.

Riley nodded her head nervously and her hands were clasped tightly together.

Lucian paused for a moment before he said, "Director Bleu is right. You're taking the salary of the Alwynn Group."

After finished speaking, Lucian turned and went back to his own seat. After that, he took out his mobile and informed Victor about what had happened this morning.

His phone rang immediately. He frowned slightly at the sight of Victor's phone number. Was he clear enough?

"Hello!" Lucian spoke lazily as he leaned against the back of the chair elegantly.

Victor's angry voice came from the other end of the phone. "Go and investigate this. Haven majors in design. There is not much problem with the position she had applied for. The personnel department might be aware of my relationship with her family so they let her off easily. As for Myra, someone must have told her what to do. As for Riley, tell her to get lost if she doesn't want to work."

"Okay." Lucian replied with an indifferent tone. Being a cold person, he did not want to say one more word.

After that, he hung up the phone.

He glanced at the opposite office, picked up the internal telephone and dialed the number.

"Hello! Secretary Ronen!" Riley picked up the phone nervously.

"Get lost if you don't want to work. These are Mr. Alwynn's original words." When the cold voice reached Riley's ears, she was shocked.

Victor actually asked her to get lost for such a trivial matter.

Based on the incident with the Gerard family and from today's events, Victor really treated Eden differently.

It was not easy for Riley to finally become the director's assistant. She did everything just to get close to Victor.

However, Eden came after Marianne left. Her distance between Victor was cut off once again.

No. She could not leave.

She said immediately, "Secretary Ronen, I'm sorry. I won't do this again in the future." "This is your last chance. You have touched Mr. Alwynn's bottom line."

The phone on Riley's hand fell to the ground when Lucian hung up the phone. Her face was extremely pale.

The sentence "You have touched Mr. Alwynn's bottom line." Reminded her of what kind of person Victor was.

The benefits from the Alwynn Group were very good. On the contrary, one's work had to match up with his efforts to get the benefits.

It did not matter if the employee was new or old. Victor would not hesitate to fire an employee that did not adhere to his duty and his work was slack that it affected the progress.

This was because the company would not raise good-for-nothings!

Riley picked up the laptop on the desk quickly and wanted to rush to the conference room.

However, Eden had already come back when Riley opened the door of the office.

The meeting only lasted for ten minutes. Eden did not delay everyone's time. She tried to talk about the key points in a brief manner. Everyone was very approving of her working attitude.

Every department cooperated with her actively.

During the meeting, Myra had refuted Eden a few times but she was debunked by Irene, the manager from the marketing department.

Coincidentally, the works were distributed and assigned based on everyone's major and Myra was assigned to Irene's department. Irene's on Eden was very good. She also knew about Myra's background.

She hated fastidious but incompetent girls like Myra the most. Based on Irene's personality, she would definitely refute Myra.

Chapter 184

Haven was assigned to work in the public relations department. Both Myra and Haven were fine with their jobs.

This had saved Eden a lot of trouble.

Eden walked to the door of the office and saw that Riley was standing at the door looking at her. Riley's face was pale, as if she had just experienced death.

Eden was not angry. She said indifferently, "Riley, please give way. I still have a lot of things to do."

She had to go to the airport before 5 p.m. to pick up Kenny.

Riley looked at Eden and bit her lower lip. She apologized in a low voice, "Director Bleu, I'm sorry! This will be the last time. I will complete the tasks that are assigned by you in the future, Director Bleu."

Lucian immediately told Victor about what had happened. Victor trusted Lucian very much.

It could be Lucian was Victor's spy in the Alwynn Group.

"Okay!" Eden nodded and did not say anything more. She understood human nature and she knew that Riley would not change.

After all, old habits died hard.

Moreover, Riley was a pawn of the Gienger family.

Riley returned to the office after that and let Eden enter.

There were no clouds in the skies. The plane flew above the clouds which were white as snow. It was like an endless sea with endless waves.

Victor and Anson were sitting in the first-class cabin. During the period, Anson felt bored so he went to the economy cabin to exercise his muscles. He had sat down for too long and he wanted to improve his blood circulation.

As he walked in the economy cabin, he suddenly found a child sitting by the window who resembled Hendrick. However, when Anson looked at him carefully, he could see a slight difference.

Kenneth was wearing a white T-shirt with a pair of blue jeans. He had a child's sunglasses on his face. He leaned back in his seat as though he was resting with his eyes closed.

Anson stared at Kenneth for a long time but Kenneth didn't respond.

Anson suddenly thought of Abigail's charming figure and he felt secretly happy.

He could finally meet her again. However, he could not see Abigail after looking around. He started to feel slightly confused again.

No way. Abigail was Henrick's agent. She should be here if Henrick was here too.

He looked at the crowd carefully again. There was no sign of Abigail.

e frowned. He glanced at Kenneth and ran back to the first-class cabin.

A stewardess was handing a cup of coffee to Victor with a smile in the first-class cabin.

Victor was very tired because he didn't sleep for the whole day. He leaned back lazily and accepted the coffee from the stewardess' hand. He then took a sip elegantly.

"Victor, I saw Ricky at the economic cabin."

A trace of doubt flashed across Victor's eyes when he heard Anson's words. Would Ricky sit at the economic cabin with his current popularity?

Or, did Anson notice a beauty and wanted him to go over and take a look?

No. Based on Anson's character, he would not come over to inform him if he had found a beauty. Anson's presence would be diminished if Victor went over.

The beauty would immediately cast her eyes on Victor instead of Anson. Such things often happened.

While Victor was thinking narcissistically, Anson had already walked up to him.

"Victor, I am talking to you. Didn't you hear me?" Anson felt that it was extremely difficult to communicate with Victor.

Sometimes, Victor would not even bother to lift his eyelids, let alone answer his questions.

However, Ricky was his precious son. By right, he shouldn't be so calm.

That was his son!

Even Anson was envious about it.

Chapter 185

Victor looked up and glanced at Anson with his deep eyes. He said impatiently, "Could you have made a mistake? If Ricky is on the plane, how could we not know about it?"

Anson was confused. He also thought that he had mistaken initially. However, Henrick had become very popular in the last six months and he appeared in many big screens, magazines and the airport TV. Anson should not have mistaken.

He pulled Victor up and said, "Let's go. The plane is about to land. You can go and have a look yourself if you don't believe me. Otherwise, I will suspect that I am blind."

Victor looked at him with displeasure and broke free of Anson's grip forcefully. He used his cold gaze to signal Anson to lead the way.

Anson tugged the corner of his mouth. He felt that his life was hard to have to follow such a cold person all day long.

It was a f*cking miracle that he didn't go crazy!

Anson and Victor soon arrived at the economy cabin. Anson widened his eyes as he saw the empty seat.

Was he really blind? Or was he hallucinating? Where was Ricky?

Where did the kid go? He was still sitting there a while ago!

Victor looked at Anson coldly and said sarcastically, "Anson, I think you are really blind!"

After that, Victor turned to leave angrily.

Victor and Anson were extraordinarily handsome and both of them had outstanding temperaments. Their presence led to small murmurs from the women around them.

Some of them even smiled brightly at Victor.

Victor hated such occasions the most.

He had just taken a step when Anson grabbed his hand.

"Anson, are you done?" Victor's face was livid and he started to get impatient.

"No!" Anson turned around and roared at him impatiently.

Under Victor's angry gaze, Anson pointed at the little figure who was coming over.

After Anson left, Kenneth got up and went to the bathroom. Kenneth just came back from the bathroom.

Kenneth had already taken off his sunglasses at the moment. He was asleep when Anson came over just now.

He got up and went to the toilet when he saw that the plane was about to land.

Victor was dumbfounded when he saw Kenneth.

The boy resembled Ricky very much but on closer look, Victor could tell that he was not Ricky.

The boy in front of him appeared calm and collected and his big clear eyes had a composure that did not match his age.

On the other hand, Ricky always had a faint smile on this face that was elegant and calm.

He looked mischievous at first glance.

The boy in front of Victor had a different character from Ricky. His every move exuded an imposing aura.

Victor was shocked when he saw the boy have such an imposing aura.

Kenneth glanced at Victor and Anson who were standing next to his seat.

He said in a young but cold tone, "Uncles, please give way to me!"

Victor and Anson were shocked. The boy in front of them who looked like Henrick did not recognize them. Victor and Anson took a step back.

Kenneth slowly got back to his seat and began to pack his things. He slowly put his sunglasses and books into a black children's bag. The bag was jet black, just like his deep and dark character.

Victor was sure that the boy in front of him was not Ricky at first glance but he looked exactly the same as Ricky. Victor's heart beat wildly all of a sudden

Chapter 186

Victor's gaze grew deeper and he couldn't suppress the ecstasy in his heart.

Could it be that the boy and Ricky were twins?

Victor had accompanied Eden to buy the children's daily necessities the night before. Could it be possible that another child was coming over?

"Ricky, don't you know me?" Victor asked tentatively. He couldn't suppress the tremor in his voice.

Kenneth looked up and noticed that Victor's tone was odd. He glanced at Victor suspiciously with his indifferent eyes and said in a low voice, "Uncle, you've mistaken me for someone else."

The simple sentence seemed capable of separating both of them into two different worlds.

Victor frowned slightly. This boy was remorseless!

Just like him!

The boy reminded Victor of him when he was a child. He was cold and vigilant to his surroundings.

"You and Ricky..."

"Sir, the plane is about to land. Please go back to your seats and fasten your seat belts." A flight attendant approached Victor and Anson and interrupted Victor's words with a gentle smile on her face.

Victor and Anson looked at each other and at the indifferent Kenneth. They went back to the first-class cabin reluctantly.

Victor turned back and looked at Kenneth occasionally.

Kenneth watched Victor and Anson leave.

He wondered why Victor and Anson would look at him so strangely.

After Victor and Anson left, Kenneth took out a financial magazine from his bag. Victor, who was a business tycoon, was on the cover page.

His handsome face was flawless and his facial features were deep and noble. There was a touch of pride on his smile and his dark eyes were cold and heroic. Although it was only a portrait of him, the aura he exuded was extremely imposing.

Kenneth and his siblings had facial features that were similar to Victor. Kenneth tugged his lips unnoticeably.

He narrowed his eyes slightly and he casually put the financial magazine back into his bag. The expression on his face did not resemble that of a child. But still, he was only six years old.

He had the calmness that did not match his age.

He sat back slightly and waited for the plane to land slowly.

The plane slowly landed. Kenneth said goodbye to the beautiful stewardess. He wore his sunglasses, carried his backpack and pulled his children's suitcase. He lowered his head and gracefully walked out of the exit.

A lot of people came to pick up their friends and family. Everyone was holding a sign. It was very lively.

Kenneth swept through the crowd carefully with his big eyes.

His pink lips curled up gently, and his deep eyes brightened suddenly.

Eden was waving happily to Kenneth in the crowd.

Kenneth walked towards Eden who was standing at the side.

Victor and Anson had been searching for Kenneth when they got off the plane. After finding Kenneth, they followed him.

Victor's heartbeat rapidly when he saw Kenneth walking towards Eden. He was even in a bit of a trance.

Time seemed to freeze at that moment. All Victor could see was only a pure smile in the crowd and a little boy not far away. Eden's smile was pure, beautiful, and breath-taking.

"Mom, I miss you so much." Kenneth dropped his suitcase and threw himself into Eden's arms. Eden was the only one in the world who could make Kenneth to have such a gentle expression on his face.

Eden smiled and rubbed Kenneth's head happily. "Kenny, I miss you too. Are you tired after such a long flight?"

Chapter 187

Kenneth shook his head and looked behind Eden. Seeing that Eden was alone, he asked doubtfully, "Mom, Uncle Jasper didn't come with you?"

Eden smiled and said, "He has something to do today. He promised to treat you to dinner tomorrow night."

"Okay. Mom, let's go." Kenneth smiled. He seemed very happy to see Eden.

"Let's go. I'll bring you to eat something delicious!" Eden took the suitcase from his hand. With Kenny by her side, she would not feel lonely in the future.

"Kenny, how is Grandma doing?"

Kenneth raised his head and said, "Mom, she's doing fine. Grandma would smile happily everyday whenever Gia and I are by her side."

"That's great." Eden smiled with relief. She was very happy at the moment.

Anson glanced at Victor when he saw that Eden and Kenneth had already left. Victor was still staring at Eden and Kenneth's backs.

"Victor..."

Anson called twice but Victor didn't respond.

"Victor, come back." Anson gave him a push.

Only then did Victor look at Anson excitedly. "Anson, pinch me quickly." He was afraid that he was dreaming.

Anson said, "Errr..."

Anson smiled slyly. It was a good opportunity.

He gritted his teeth and pinched the sore muscles on Victor's thigh.

"Ah..." Victor cried out in pain.

His cry caused the people around him to look at him strangely.

The excruciating pain made Victor realize that he was not dreaming.

He quickly ran after Eden and Kenneth.

Anson laughed hard. He wanted to tell the world about this vengeful and relieving pleasure.

He trotted over and followed Victor.

"Eden."

An excited and clear voice came from behind Eden suddenly. The voice was low and it seemed as though the person was deliberately suppressing some kind of emotion.

When Eden heard the familiar voice, she slowly turned around to have a look.

She was surprised when she saw Victor and Anson. She said with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, Manager Skye, what a coincidence."

"Yes! What a coincidence." Victor looked at her with a smile. He pointed at Kenneth and said, "Eden, he looks exactly the same as Ricky."

Eden lowered her head and glanced at Kenneth with a smile before he introduced him to Victor.
"Mr. Alwynn, this is Kenny, Ricky's eldest brother."

Victor's speculations had turned into reality. He tried his best to suppress the excitement in his heart and he looked tensed and nervous.

Anson, who was standing at the side, looked at Victor with envy and jealousy.

What kind of life did Victor have? He actually had twins.

Purr...

This was too much of a blow to Anson. He did not know where his future wife was.

The woman he was interested in had a boyfriend. Anson felt that his life was dark at the moment.

Eden went on to introduce Victor to Kenny. "Kenny, this is Mr. Alwynn, the president of my company and Manager Skye."

"Hello, uncles!" Kenneth's tone and expression turned indifferent suddenly.

The word "uncle" made Victor, who was excited to come back to his senses. He smiled at Kenneth stiffly.

"Hello, Kenny." Victor said with a smile. His voice was low and mellow and he tried hard to suppress the excitement in his heart.

He actually had two sons that were both outstanding. Haha... Victor laughed wildly and excitedly in his heart.

Moreover, they were Eden's and his children. How could he not be happy?

He was so happy that he wanted to tell the whole world about it.

Chapter 188

Although the paternity test was delayed, Victor had long been sure that she was Eden. That was the first time that he had experienced such a strong feeling.

Victor glanced at Anson and said, "Anson, go and drive over. Eden and Kenny will come with us."

Anson looked at him and smiled. There was an unconcealable envy in his eyes. He nodded his head, turned around and headed to the parking lot.

Eden said, "Mr. Alwynn, no need to bother you. Kenny and I will take a taxi back."

"Eden, it's no trouble at all. We live not far from each other. Besides, it's dinner time. Why don't we go and eat first? Kenny is here too. We can take him with us to eat delicious food."

Victor's voice was gentle and firm. There was a gentle smile on his handsome face.

Eden looked at Victor who was behaving oddly and felt that it was hard to guess his thoughts.

Kenneth's handsome eyes were fixed on Victor. Victor was different from the rumors. At least, he treated Eden very well.

Eden was in a dilemma. She didn't want to have too many interactions with Victor. She just wanted to stay away from him other than working with him as an employee.

Kenneth seemed to understand Eden's difficulties.

He took the opportunity and said, "Mom, I want to go back to rest. I'm tired."

Eden lowered her head and looked at Kenny with concern. "Kenny, I'll send you back to rest first then."

After that, she looked at Victor and said apologetically, "Mr. Alwynn, I'm sorry. I'm afraid I will have to let you down. Kenny is tired. I will take him home to rest first."

Victor was disappointed instantly. He looked at Kenny and tried to soften his cold expression as much as possible. "Kenny, is tomorrow night okay then?"

His tone was surprisingly cautious unlike his usual speaking tone.

As a father, Victor wanted to maintain a good relationship with Kenny and Ricky.

Kenneth was puzzled when he saw the frenzy and complicated emotions in Victor's eyes when he looked at Eden and him.

He shook his head slightly and said, "Uncle, I can't make it tomorrow night. We've already agreed to have dinner with Uncle Jasper."

Kenneth preferred Jasper over Victor. Jasper and Abigail were the people who treated them the best in the world.

Victor turned cold when he heard that Jasper was involved again.

He frowned. He knew that he was no match for Jasper in Ricky and Kenney's hearts.

However, he was just getting started. He could do whatever Jasper could do.

"Let's do it the night after tomorrow then!" Victor did not give up. He would be better acquainted with them if he spent more time together with them.

Eden was slightly stunned. She didn't understand why Victor insisted persistently.

"Mr. Alwynn, let's talk about it when we have time. You are very busy and Kenny is just a child. Mr. Alwynn, you don't have to do this." Eden said euphemistically.

The beautiful sunset landed on Eden's side face, causing her to look very gentle and beautiful. Her good figure was elongated by the sunset and her wavy hair was sparkling. She also looked cold and arrogant.

There was a hint of surprise in Victor's eyes when he saw Eden like this.

A faint smile appeared on Victor's handsome face, revealing his noble temperament. "Eden, I have plenty of time. It's decided to be on the night after tomorrow then. I'll accompany you to pick up Kenny after work."

"Mom, the day after tomorrow is Saturday." Kenneth reminded Eden when he noticed that she seemed to have forgotten about the matter.

Eden should have her weekends off in the company she was working at.

Chapter 189

"Oh!" Eden smiled when she realized that. "Mr.

Alwynn, I've forgotten. I don't work on Saturday."

Victor also laughed and said, "I also forgot that too. There is more time during the weekend. Let's fix in on Saturday night then!"

Eden could not find a reason to reject him.

Kenny had already help her once but why did he choose this timing which she could not reject?

Why was it Saturday?

"Alright then!" Eden could only accept her fate and she nodded her head.

Anson had driven over at the moment.

"Victor, Director Bleu, Kenny, get in the car!"

Victor took the suitcase from Eden's hand and walked to the trunk.

Eden noticed that Victor was very different from the rumors. At least, he treated her well.

If Eden was aware of Victor's ruthlessness, she would not have imagined that he would have such a gentlemanly side.

Victor only showed his gentlemanly behavior to Eden.

When they got in the car, Victor didn't sit in the front but sat at the back with Eden and Kenneth.

Anson looked at the rear view mirror and saw that Victor was smiling.

Even Anson was shocked by Victor's behavior. It seemed as though Victor had been reborn.

Anson thought to himself that Eden's charm was really great.

Victor was different from other people. All he could see was Eden.

He would crazily call Eden's name when he was drunk at night. Anson couldn't bear to look at the pain on Victor's face.

There were some nights when Victor would be haunted by nightmares. He appeared to return to that night when he had lost Eden. It was hard to wake Victor up when that happened.

He would only wake up when the nightmare was over. He would be painfully tired and he would blame himself even more when he woke up.

She had to be Eden!

Victor could only survive this way.

That was because Eden was the biggest obstacle in Victor's heart.

Every problem in the world can be solved. However, a broken heart made it impossible to wake Victor up.

"Where are we going to eat?" Seeing that nobody spoke and that the atmosphere was a little oppressive, Anson spoke up.

Victor said with a poker face, "Send Eden and Kenny back first. Kenny is tired."

"You're not going to eat?" Anson's voice was a little out of control as he was dying of hunger.

Anson couldn't eat and sleep well most of the time when he went on a business trip with Victor.

Eden was aware of how Anson felt when she heard his tone. She said apologetically, "I'm sorry, Manager Skye. We can take a taxi back after we reach the city so both of you can go and have dinner first."

Victor glanced at Anson sharply. What was Anson doing?

Anson was slightly startled by Victor's cold gaze. He smiled and said, "Director Bleu, you must be joking. I'm just surprised that you're not eating with us. I'll send both of you home safely. Besides, I'm not hungry." Anson said something that was against his will.

He was starving to death!

Victor would definitely kill him if he asked Eden and Kenny to get off the car halfway.

"Thank you!" Eden knew that Anson was hungry. She could tell that he was unhappy judging from his tone.

However, there was no other way. She had already gotten in his car.

Eden had said the words out of courtesy just now. It would be really troublesome if Anson ask her to get off and take a taxi back.

Kenneth glanced at Eden. He was not actually tired. He only said so because he could tell that Eden didn't want to have dinner together with Victor.

Chapter 190

No one spoke a word along the way.

Anson was driving the car seriously.

Victor was trying to figure out what he should do to make Eden accept him as soon as possible.

He also wanted his two children to accept him.

Eden ignored Victor's existence and whispered a few words to Kenny occasionally. At the same time, she was thinking about Kenny's meal for tonight.

Dumplings, or something else?

An idea flashed through Eden's mind suddenly. She thought of the food stall that she and Jasper went last time. Although she met Aisling there the other day, she was sure she wouldn't meet her there every time.

Eden heaved a sigh of relief after she had settled everything.

An hour later, Anson parked the car in front of Eden's apartment.

Eden smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, Manager Skye, sorry to trouble you. You should go back and rest early." After saying that, Eden got off the car with Kenneth.

Victor also got out of the car and took Kenneth's suitcase out of the trunk.

Kenneth started to have a good impression of Victor from his actions.

"Thank you, uncle!" This time, his tone was not as indifferent as before and he had a slight smile on his face.

Victor rubbed Kenneth's head gently and said, "No problem. Be obedient to your mother."

After Victor finished his words, he looked up at Eden.

A trace of disappointment flashed across Victor's handsome face when he saw Eden looking down at her phone.

Victor turned to get into the car and Anson drove off.

Eden was checking the directions to the Gerard family's food stall with her head lowered. When she looked up, she found that Victor and Anson had already left.

She looked at Kenneth who was looking at her and asked, "Kenny, what's wrong? Why are you looking at me like this?" She knew Kenneth very well. It was clear that he had something to say from the look in his eyes.

Kenneth smiled and said, "Mom, don't you think Mr.

Alwynn is different from the rumors about him?"

Eden smiled. Her confident and beautiful temperament made her special. "Kenny, the rumors are not credible. Your eyes can even deceive yourself sometimes.

Victor is the leader in the business circle. People got to know about him through gossip from the magazines.

Come on, let's go home first. I will go out later to buy you something delicious."

"Okay!" Kenneth looked at the direction Victor left and narrowed his eyes slightly. He was surprised that Eden didn't notice that he and Ricky resembled Victor.

Was it because Eden did not know the identity of their father?

Eden had been hurt previously. Kenny, Ricky and Gia had never mentioned their father in front of Eden.

They were accustomed to not having a father over the years so they did not look deeper into this issue.

Kenneth deliberately learned about Victor when Ricky told him about his encounter with Victor. Kenneth was a little shocked when he saw Victor in the magazine and in person. They really looked alike.

What was even weirder was that Kenneth found a cardboard box filled with Victor's magazine and some gossip news under the bed of his grandmother's room. Before Kenneth came, he had casually taken a financial magazine and carried it with him to study on the plane.

Kenneth felt that he and Victor looked even more alike when he met Victor in person today.

Perhaps subconsciously, Eden didn't want to find their biological father.

Since Eden refuse to find his father, Kenneth could only look for him secretly.

At least he needed to know who his father was.

Kenneth had mixed emotions. He would not recognize his father even if he found him. He had always known what Eden was worried about.
