

Gluey Love 1821

Chapter 1821

Giada smiled and said, "Don't worry. I'm busy with painting and I'm not in the mood to date any of my schoolmates. The boys in my class used to give me gifts, but Henrick stopped them all. Therefore, those boys are all keeping a distance from me now when they see me.

I just want to know if Henrick did something that I don't know behind my back?"

Victor was very pleased when he heard this. Henrick always made it look like that he and Giada didn't get along at all, but he was actually protecting her all the time.

"Ricky wouldn't do anything behind your back. This is not his fault at all." Victor was naturally on his son's side.

Giada was totally speechless.

So was Eden.

"Anyway, I'm going to leave you and mom for your dinner now." Giada felt like she didn't want to talk anymore.

"Okay, okay. Baby, don't be angry. I'll tell your brother off later."

Eden couldn't help but roll her eyes. She knew he couldn't win Henrick if they started arguing.

After hanging up the phone, Victor soon received the phone number from his daughter. Then he started the car and left.

He didn't call the number immediately.

40 minutes later, Victor stopped the car at a very remote place in the urban area. Eden looked around and see many traditional-style buildings around them. After getting off the car, Victor took her along the small path. There were rockeries on both sides of the road, fruit trees, man-made lakes, and rows of ginkgo trees.

Eden looked at the ginkgo trees, thinking that they would look very beautiful in autumn.

After walking for a while, a waiter in local clothing came to them and indicated them to follow him.

Victor had already booked a private room in advance, so they were taken to the room directly.

The decoration in the private room was also the traditional style. There was a vivid picture of a peacock and three pretty girls hanging on the wall. The three girls in the picture were wearing high buns and carrying water buckets on their shoulders in traditional costumes.

On the small table not far away, there were corn sticks and chilies.

Eden liked this place very much. "Victor, how did you find this place? I really like it here."

"I'm so glad you like it. I asked Dean to find it. He thought the food tasted good and they have all the types of food you like. So that's why I brought you here."

Eden sat next to him and looked him up and down with narrowed eyes. "Did you even ask Dean to try the food before bringing me here? I always like to try traditional food from different places, but I have never got a chance."

Victor nodded slightly and poured her a cup of tea gracefully. "Yes, I asked Dean to attend most of the social meals anyway, so I asked him to pay attention to all the good places so that I can take you there as well if they are good."

Eden was very touched. He had put in a lot of effort to make her happy.

"Let's check out the menu first. what do you want to eat?" Victor put the menu in front of her.

Eden smiled and started to look at the menu happily. She really enjoyed spending time with him.

She ordered five dishes and one soup. The pineapple rice on the menu looked very delicious. She had heard about this dish a long time ago.

But unfortunately, she was also slightly allergic to pineapple, so she had to give it up.

All the other dishes looked very delicious on the menu, so she couldn't wait and ordered some quickly.

When the dishes were served, she picked the chicken up directly, but it was too spicy. But she still looked at Victor with her watery eyes and said she loved it.

Victor's heart had melted for her. During this period of time, she was always injured and did not eat anything too spicy or sour, so he thought about bringing her here today to try the spicy food.

However, even though it was too spicy for her, she still wanted to finish it.

He didn't want to stop her from having the dishes she liked, so he could only order some sweet drinks to make her feel a little better.

Soon, Eden started getting full. "Victor, I'll go out for a while and come back soon. Can you order one more beef to take back home? I really like it."

After thinking for a moment, she said again, "And this chicken as well. Can you order two more portions? I want to bring some for Abby. I know she would like it."

She would never forget about her best friend.

Amelia and Candace were breastfeeding now, so they couldn't eat the spicy food at the moment.

"Okay, I got it. Don't leave for too long." Victor looked at her and smiled, then asked the waiters to sort out the takeaway.

Eden went to the restroom. She still felt her lips were burning because of the chili. However, she really enjoyed all the food tonight. She hadn't had spicy food for a long time, so she was a little worried that her body couldn't handle it anymore.

When she walked past the dining hall, she saw there were even fish in the pond near the rockery, as well as a fake banana tree. She couldn't help but stop for a while before she returned to their room.

But as soon as she turned around, her face suddenly sank, and the smile on her face gradually disappeared.

"Eden, I didn't expect to meet you here." Eloise looked at Eden with a smile.

She seemed to be waiting for Eden here.

"What a coincidence," Eden said coldly, and then was about to leave, but Eloise stepped forward and stood in her way.

Eden frowned, looking a little annoyed.

But Eloise didn't seem to care. She said as if nothing had happened, "Eden, let's talk. If you don't want to chat on the phone, neither do you want to reply to my messages, then we can only meet up and talk."

"I have nothing to talk to you." Eden refused her very straightforwardly.

She really didn't like such a fake person.

But how could Eloise be here? Was it just a coincidence?

Eloise smiled and said, "How do you know that you have nothing to talk to me if you don't know what I am going to talk about? Jasper is here too. Don't you want to see him?"

"Is Jasper here too?" Eden looked around and picked up her phone to call Jasper.

"Yes, he is here to discuss business, so you'd better not interrupt him." Eden stopped when she heard her words.

"What business?" Eden looked at Eloise warily. She knew that Jasper was cautious, but it would be different if someone was trying to frame him.

Eloise definitely was not a simple person.

She asked Aro to investigate Eloise before. Eloise had been living abroad for many years until she came back to River City half a year ago to work at a cosmetic company.

"It's a cosmetics business. You've tried our products. Jasper has planned to invest in our products before and is now negotiating cooperation with our company's president." Eloise's tone was calm, but there was still a hint of flaunting.

"What about you? What do you want to talk to me about?" Knowing that Eloise would not give up, Eden decided to listen to her and see what she wanted to say.

Chapter 1822

Eloise looked around and smiled. "This place is not suitable for talking. Why don't we go somewhere else?"

Eden nodded and followed Eloise.

Eloise seemed to be very familiar with this place and took her all the way to the backyard.

"Where are you taking me?" Eden was a little cautious.

Eloise didn't stop. "Why? Are you scared?"

"I do feel scared. I don't trust you at all." Eden was not joking. She didn't want to take any risk with her life.

"Haha... you are thinking too much." Eloise turned around and smiled at her before continuing to walk forward.

The smile made Eden a little uncomfortable.

She didn't know why that her smile made her have goosebumps.

After walking for a while, Victor called Eden.

"Hoeny, why are you still not back?"

"I met Miss Dawson. She wanted to talk about something with me and asked me to go somewhere with her." Eden told the truth.

Eloise stopped and turned her face to Eden, looking a little unhappy.

"Where are you?" Victor asked in a serious voice.

"We went through the backyard." After saying that, Eden hung up the phone.

"It's just a small thing. Do you have to report it to Mr. Alwynn?" Eloise said sarcastically as if Eden was a coward.

"Victor is my husband. There is no secret between me and him. Why can't I tell him? I'm more curious about what are you going to tell me." Eden looked at Eloise with a calm face.

Eloise glanced at the private room behind her and said softly, "You will find out soon."

She needed Eden's help if she wanted to get Jasper.

Eden looked at her warily after hearing her words.

Eloise slowly walked closer to her and smiled, then she suddenly tore her top open, revealing her fair skin.

Eden was completely shocked. on

She really couldn't understand what she was up to.

This was so weird.

She was also a woman, so why did she rip open her top in front of her?

"Eden, you have to help me to get Jasper. You don't want to see Jasper end up being alone all his life, do you? He has already been through a lot."

Seeing that she was moving closer, Eden took a quick step back. "I would rather Jasper live on his own for the rest of his life than let him marry a woman like you. Besides, there are plenty of good women in the world. As long as you don't try to ruin everything for him, he will definitely meet the right person for him."

"How can you say that? How do you know that I'm not the right person for him."

After saying this, Eloise suddenly grabbed Eden's hand and pass a blue bottle in her hand. Then she held Eden's hand and poured the liquid in the blue bottle on her neck. She fell to the ground and started shouting, "Help, help! She is going to kill me..."

Eden was shocked again. Now she understood why Eloise ripped her own top off. It was because she didn't want the liquid to get splashed on her face.

Everyone in the private rooms around them heard the noise and all came out to have a look.

Eden was still holding the blue bottle in her hand, and the skin on Eloise's neck was making a horrible sizzling sound.

And Eloise was already lying on the ground and crying her eyes out.

She successfully made it look like Eden was trying to hurt her.

Eden was actually a little scared by the wound on her neck. This woman was even more vicious than Edith.

"Eden, why are you doing this to me? I... I do like Jasper. You already have nothing to do with him, don't you? Why are you still not happy with me and hurt me like this?"

Eloise shouted and then fell to the ground in pain.

"Eden, why are you here? Are you alright?" At this time, Jasper came out and saw Eden straightaway.

"Jasper, it hurts. It hurts so much."

Before Jasper walked to Eden's side, Eloise held his legs with her arms.

She looked up and looked at Jasper with tears in her eyes. "Jasper, don't blame Eden. She... she didn't mean it."

Eden was totally speechless. How shameless and horrible could this woman be?

She was really good at acting.

"Eloise, what... what happened to you?" Another woman rushed out from the crowd and shouted. Seeing the place where her neck was corroded, her heart trembled a bit.

The woman suddenly raised her head and glared at Eden. "Why did you do this to Eloise? What has she done to make you treat her like this?"

"Don't say that. It's all my fault. It's my fault. I shouldn't have meddled in her and Jasper's affairs. But I love Jasper so much that I can't bear to leave him."

Eloise's words were ambiguous. It sounded as if she was hurt by Eden because she tried to interfere with other people's business.

Although she was also wrong, no one should have treated anyone else like this.

"Eloise, you are too kind. How can you still speak up for her after what she has done to you? Mr. Joye, we should send Eloise to the hospital now," the woman looked at Jasper and said.

Eden glanced at the bottle in her hand. She only wanted to know what liquid could be this powerful.

She shook it and found there was still a little bit left.

If Eloise dared to splash it on herself, it should not be too dangerous.

Everyone moved back with fear when they saw Eden was shaking the bottle, didn't seem to care about what had just happened at all.

Eden looked at everyone and smiled. Were they really that scared?

"Look, she is still laughing. What a psycho!"

"Indeed. But why does she look so familiar?"

"I agree. I've seen her somewhere before I think."

The wound on Eloise's neck was indeed very painful. Her face was pale, and sweat flowed down her cheeks, which made her feel even worse.

However, to her surprise, Jasper didn't seem to worry about her at all. He was standing there quietly, didn't seem to believe her. This was not what she expected.

She always remembered that Jasper was a very kind guy who liked to help others.

"Aren't you the wife of the president of Alwynn Group?" The woman said to Eden.

Everyone who felt Eden looked familiar suddenly realized where they had seen her before.

"No wonder I feel she looks so familiar. She is Mrs. Alwynn."

"There have been all kinds of rumors about her recently. But everything in the end just turns out that someone tried to frame her."

"I have also seen the news. But it is said that she is a good person. I have a relative working in Alwynn Group and he said She is very kind to others. Was she being framed again?"

"Well, it's hard to say."

Eden looked at Jasper and asked with a smile, "Jasper, do you... believe me?"

"Yes." Jasper nodded without hesitation.

Eden smiled. No wonder they were good friends for so many years.

Chapter 1823

"Jasper, it hurts. Send me to the hospital first." Eloise was really in pain. In order to achieve her goal at once, she was really cruel to herself this time.

Jasper came here tonight only for business, not for her. She already knew that Eden would come here, that was why she suggested her manager come here. She had been here twice since the opening of the restaurant. The dishes here were delicious and she liked them very much. After she came here, she had been paying attention to Eden so that she could make sure that everything was under her control.

Jasper looked down at her and said, "I can take you to the hospital, but I have to solve the problem here first. We'd better figure out who is lying first." His handsome face looked so cold. He would not allow anyone to hurt Eden.

"Jasper, you..." Eloise looked at him in surprise. Was this still the Jasper she knew?

How could he become so ruthless?

"Mr. Joye, it's already very clear. Mrs. Alwynn used such a horrible thing on Eloise. She wanted to ruin her face! How vicious she could be!" Finley glared at Eden angrily.

Eden finally understood why she kept pointing everything to her. It turned out that they were acting on this show together.

"Eden, what happened?" At this time, Victor walked over with a package box in his hand.

He frowned slightly when he saw Jasper and the woman sitting on the ground.

Eden glanced at him and finally felt a little relieved. "Victor, you're here."

Looking at her upset face, Victor guessed that someone must have bullied her again.

Jasper looked at the waiter not far away and asked, "Is there a CCTV camera here?"

Eloise's heart suddenly sank.

However, the waiter shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, sir. We've just opened not long ago, so the CCTV system isn't fully ready yet."

Eloise breathed a sigh of relief. She had already made sure that there were no cameras, that was why she chose here.

"Mr. Alwynn, look at what your wife has done to me! I just wanted to talk to her about Jasper's past. I know we never have a good relationship with each other, but she wants to totally destroy me now." Eloise took the opportunity to slander Eden.

Victor looked at her with his sharp and cold eyes, and said in a sarcastic tone, "Is there any need for my wife to destroy you for this? Would she be this stupid to send herself to prison?"

"Mr. Alwynn....."

"You said that my wife wants to destroy you, but who can prove that?" Victor interrupted her.

He remembered seeing her in River City Restaurant last night.

And she was the one who made Eden unhappy.

Eloise looked at Eden's indifferent expression and panicked a little. How could this woman be so calm?

Where did she get her confidence from?

"The bottle is still in her hands!" Eloise calmly pointed at the blue bottle in Eden's hand.

Eden looked at Victor and blinked her innocent eyes, making Victor feel so guilty that he wasn't here to protect her earlier.

He walked over and put his arm around her shoulders.

Everyone was looking at them and said nothing.

Victor looked down at the bottle in Eden's hand and explained slowly, "She put it into my hand. And I was also shocked when she tore off her own clothes. Because I was thinking I am a woman too, so it would be ridiculous if she wanted to make it look like I did something to her.

Then when she put the bottle in my hands, I finally understood what she was going to do. She didn't dare to pour it on her face, so she could only do it on her collarbone.

Victor and Jasper, I've never seen anything like this. But why do I feel this is what Edith would do?"

"That's only your words. No one would trust you!" Eloise was a little anxious.

"Then why don't you tell everyone what you told me before? And why would I do this to you?

Moreover, I am not stupid. I wouldn't do anything illegal. You are not worth it."

Eloise said hurriedly, "You... you warned me to stay away from Jasper..."

But Eden interrupted her again. "Ah, I already forgot that this is actually the warning you gave me before. Yes, you warned me to stay away from Jasper outside the bathroom in the River City Restaurant. Then you even messaged me and wanted to meet up. When I refused you, you started sending really rude words to me.

And today, you even found this place to lead such an exciting show. In order to make Jasper hate me and ruin my reputation, you really put a lot of effort into it."

Eden handed the bottle to Victor. "Take this back and give it to Anton to test. See what exactly it is in it."

"Okay." Victor took it over and held it carefully.

"Eden, you... you're slinging mud at me." Eloise was already in pain, so her tears welled up in her eyes instantly at this time.

"Eden wasn't trying to sling mud at you. I heard what you warned her the other day as well." Jasper's cold and ruthless voice sounded.

Eden sneered, "Eloise, this might work if you do it on any other man. But it wouldn't work on Jasper. He is not stupid.

Now let's see who is lying and who is the vicious one.

Do you know why I picked up the call from Victor earlier? I just wanted you to let your guard down."

Eden smiled and took out her phone, then pressed the play button.

It was a recording. Eloise's mocking voice sounded. "It's just a small thing. Do you have to report it to Mr. Alwynn?"

"Eden, you have to help me to get Jasper. You don't want to see Jasper end up being alone all his life, do you? He has already been through a lot."

Their whole conversation was recorded.

Eden smiled, "Well, do you still remember what you said? When I came in with you, I already realized that there were no cameras in this newly renovated restaurant.

I have been framed too many times, so I'm getting smarter and smarter. Especially in the place where there are no cameras."

"Do you think you can clean up everything just with your recording?" Eloise panicked and was still trying to argue. She didn't expect that Eden would record everything.

"The evidence is conclusive," Eden looked at her with a smile. "This is what I would do if I really wanted to do something to you..."

While saying this, Eden walked up with her cold gaze and pulled Eloise up from the ground in front of everyone, then, she pushed her back to the ground and slapped hard in her face.

The loud sound echoed in the air.

Eden looked at Eloise, who was totally shocked, and said, "Did you see that? I would never be bothered to plan anything if I want to bully anyone. I'm not as shameless as you are.

If I would help you get Jasper, I really don't deserve to be Jasper's friend." After saying that, Eden stood up slowly and shook her hand slightly.

Everyone was shocked.

Victor looked at Eden with a smile. This was the first time he had seen her like this.

Jasper also looked at her in surprise. She had not been like this for years.

Chapter 1824

Why would she let others frame her without fighting back?

She used to just endure it and thought that everything would be fine in the end.

But now, she had already had enough of putting up with it.

These women would never stop pushing their luck.

At this time, Eloise started crying loudly as she finally came back to her senses.

She just wanted to make Jasper feel sorry for her earlier, but now, she was truly crying in pain.

But Eden didn't seem to care at all. She turned around and picked up the woman named Finley and quickly slapped her in the face too.

"What... what are you doing?" Finley was also stunned. Eden didn't care about rumors at all.

"I'm not a celebrity anyway, so justice is more important than fame to me.

I already felt that things are not this simple. You two planned this together, right? This is not the first time I have encountered such a situation."

Then Eden turned to Victor and said, "Ask Dean to come and find out who this woman is." She sounded like she was the boss.

Victor nodded with a smile and called Dean immediately.

Jasper also smiled. "Eden, there is no need to be angry with such a person. If they did it together, I will teach her a lesson for you." Everything happened because of him, so he could not just step away from it.

Eden did not let go of Finley, instead, she said to her slowly, "You'd better think about it carefully. The two of them have always kept their promises. Do you want to continue to cover for her or are you still willing to stay in River City?" Eden's voice could only be heard by the two of them.

Jaida's whole body trembled a little. She turned her head to look at Eloise who was crying on the ground and carefully thought about it in her heart. The money Eloise gave her was only one month's salary. If she offended these people, what would she do in the future?

And what about her parents?

She trusted Eloise, but Eden was much smarter than they thought. Now she definitely could not rely on Eloise anymore, but she didn't want to go down with her at least.

"Mrs. Alwynn, I'm sorry. I was just doing what Eloise told me to do. Please forgive me."

Hearing this, Eden finally let her go.

"Finley." Eloise did not expect that she would betray her.

"Finley, don't talk nonsense. Did Eden threaten you? Don't be afraid. This is Eden's fault. She wanted to ruin me." Eloise looked at Finley and reminded her not to be rash.

Eden looked at her and said, "Eloise, I'm looking forward to seeing how you would turn the tables. We will soon find out who you are and why you want to do this to me. In fact, I'm more interested in finding out the reasons why you did this."

Eloise was stunned. Was everything just fate?

The girl named Finley looked at Eden with fear. "Mrs. and Mr. Alwynn, Miss Joye, this really has nothing to do with me. Eloise gave me a month's salary and asked me to cooperate with her to act and blame everything on Mrs. Alwynn. That was everything I needed to do. It really has nothing to do with me."

Eden took a look at the bottle in Victor's hand. "So what is it that she poured on her body? Since she dared to pour it on her, it surely is not something too bad. After medical treatment, I guess there won't be any scars on her body either, right?"

Finley nodded. She knew what Victor was capable of, so she didn't dare to lie anymore. "This is a kind of corrosive reagent which is developed by our company recently. It won't do any harm to the deep skin."

"Finley, how dare you..."

"Eloise, I'm sorry!" Finley interrupted her immediately. She didn't dare to go against Alwynn Group. She couldn't bear the consequences.

Victor called the police. Soon, Dean and the police arrived. After learning the whole story, Eloise was sent to the hospital before she was interrogated.

Finley told everything to the police, plus Eden's recording, Eloise would not get away with it anymore.

Victor was worried that Eloise would run away, so he asked someone to watch her near the hospital.

Jasper did not leave with Eden and Victor. After chatting with Eden for a while, he watched Victor take her away and then turned back to the hospital.

There were two policemen on duty at the door of the ward. After Jasper explained why he was here, they let him in.

Eloise was lying on the bed. Her body was curled up, maybe she was still in pain.

Seeing Jasper come in, she looked at him with hatred.

"Jasper, if it weren't for you, how could I have become like this?" She gritted her teeth and said.

She thought that Jasper would protect her if she was injured. However, she was totally wrong. She didn't want to believe how cold he was to her.

Upon hearing her words, Jasper's last bit of sympathy vanished.

"Eloise, I always thought you were a kind-hearted girl. In fact, I did have a good impression of you, but I didn't expect you to have such thoughts." Jasper told the truth.

"Also, it has nothing to do with Eden that I haven't married yet. It's all my decision. Do you know how guilty she would feel after you said that to her?" He said and looked at Eloise with no expression on his face.

"Jasper, are you a fool? Is it worth it to wait for a person who doesn't love you? Do you know what I have learned abroad over the years? I have learned a lot of things. My friends have used all kinds of methods to tempt rich people. They carry designer bags and wear limited edition clothes. Every one of them has their own way to get the life they want.

However, what I want is just you."

"So it's alright for you to hurt others?" Jasper looked at her sarcastically. He felt so ashamed that he had a good impression of such a woman and even brought her to see his sister.

"Haha..." Eloise laughed and burst into tears. "Jasper, it's nothing wrong for people who wants to get what they want, no matter what method they use. Let me tell you, don't get too close to Eden, or you will be in danger. If something happens to me, there still will be other people who want to take Eden down. Do you believe me?"

"What are you talking about?" Jasper instantly turned furious.

"Why you are like Edith now?" Edith also tried to frame Eden by hurting herself.

"Do you know Edith?" Jasper narrowed his eyes and asked.

"Of course. We are a team. As long as we take Victor and Eden, or any of their friends down, we can get 100 million. 100 million! I haven't even dreamed about it."

Eloise sounded a bit crazy.

"So, you got close to me just to hurt Eden?" Jasper felt that he could hardly control his anger anymore.

"You are right. But my biggest dream is to marry you. I know your family background. If I can get the 100 million, I will be a good match for you. But Jasper, why don't you love me?" Eloise said and burst into tears.

Chapter 1825

How did things turn out like this?

She should have been the winner.

"Who?" Jasper asked again.

Eloise didn't say anything more. She lay there with her eyes closed, and all hope was in vain.

No matter what Jasper said, she never spoke again.

So Jasper could only leave.

When Eden received Jasper's call, she and Victor had already arrived home.

"Jasper, haven't you gone home yet?" Eden took her clothes and was ready to take a bath.

"I am on my way home now. Eloise said they have a team trying to take you down. As long as they did it, they can get 100 million."

"What?" Eden was so angry that she threw the clothes in her hands on the ground.

"Listen to me, Eden. Don't be angry. It's not worth it. You must be more careful when you go out in the future. Such things may happen again."

"No, no, no, Jasper, I'm really angry right. Tell me, is my life only worth 100 million?" Eden paced back and forth in anger.

She kicked the clothes she threw on the floor and walked back and forth in her bare feet.

Victor came in and saw this, then he frowned, picked her up, and put her on the bed.

"Okay, okay. Don't be angry. It's really not worth it to be angry with this kind of a*sholes." Jasper said with a smile, trying to comfort her.

"Isn't it, Jasper? Those a*sholes are really annoying. I want to show them that I would not be defeated so easily!" Eden puffed her cheeks in anger.

"Jasper, don't worry about me. I'll be fine. Trust me."

"Got it. I know you are the best!"

Victor pinched her cheek gently. He had been listening to her patiently. A few minutes later, she finally hung up the phone with joy.

"What happened?" He put her mobile phone aside and asked.

Eden looked at him and was still very angry. "The person behind Eloise must be from the Simpson family. Only their family could afford to pay 100 million for my life."

A hint of coldness flashed in Victor's eyes. "Who said that?"

"Eloise."

Victor nodded and said nothing.

"Don't be angry. Go take a bath first. I'll help you dry your hair when you come out." He said softly.

Eden nodded and got up to take a clean nightgown and went to take a bath.

When Victor heard the sound of water, he picked up his phone and called Brian, and told everything Eden just said to him.

Brian said, "I still think that everything would be sorted once we find the person who is familiar with Eden's daily schedule."

Victor narrowed his eyes. "I'm looking for the person too. Do you have any ideas?"

Brian said, "It must be someone who is close to you. I'm thinking that it's more likely to be someone in your company."

Victor said, "I will pay attention to it. I will ask Eden and find out if she had told anyone else that we were going to that restaurant."

"Okay. By the way, I've found the news about Barrett's new housekeeper. Guess who it is?"

Hearing this, Victor asked, "Is it someone I know?"

Brian smiled and said, "I don't know if you know him or not, but the old chairman must know him. It is Hassan Walters."

"Hassan?"

"That's right, did you recall anything?" Brian asked.

Victor shook his head slightly and said, "It's kind of familiar, but I can't remember who it is."

"If I remembered it right, he was the boss of a clothing factory in River City, which was closed down because of your father."

Victor sneered, "He hadn't done any good things to me in his life, but he indeed had pulled a lot of enemies for me."

Brian laughed and said, "It's because your family is a famous family. It's inevitable to offend people. Barrett is really good at using his enemy's enemy to deal with his enemy, therefore, he would get what he wants without even doing anything himself."

Victor could hear the sound of typing on the keyboard on the phone.

After a while, Brian smiled and said, "I found everything about Eloise. I looked through her background, and it turns out that she is Hassan's niece. She is his sister's daughter. His sister married the Craig family and lived an ordinary life. So Eloise's father is a teacher, and her mother is an ordinary worker in a factory.

However, Eloise worked very hard when she was young and got into a good university. Now she is working in a cosmetic company.

It seems that she is destroyed by money and love. She and Jasper know each other, and she likes Jasper I think.

I've checked her social media account, and there are photos of her and Jasper, as well as some ambiguous words."

Victor said, "She has been arrested already, so there is no point to check up on her. We need to know how many people are involved."

"Okay, I'll go and see if I can get any news from her tomorrow."

"Okay, don't miss anything."

After Victor hung up the phone, Eden came out of the bathroom.

He put down his phone and got up to help her dry her hair.

Seeing that Eden was still unhappy, he said with a smile, "Are you still not happy? You've done the right thing tonight. If there is something like this happens again in the future, you should always do the same. Do not worry about anything else. I will back you up."

Eden was amused by him. "Who do you think you are? I still can't do whatever I want even though I got you. I was so angry tonight. If Eloise wanted to humiliate herself, I will just help her."

However, it really relieved her anger.

Victor justified himself and said, "You can do whatever you want."

"Alright, I'm not angry anymore, so stop it. By the way, how're things going with Gia?"

Victor nodded. "I've already contacted their teacher, and her teacher said that as long as the other party doesn't put pressure on her, there won't be any problems."

Now Mr. Evans has cooperated with Alwynn Group, so no one dares to offend him. He said that he will solve it and let Gia's painting exhibition be carried out smoothly."

Speaking of this, Victor felt extremely proud of his daughter.

He picked up the hair care oil next to him and rubbed it on Eden's hair.

"Victor, I want to get my hair cut tomorrow. I want it to be a little shorter," Eden looked at the long hair in the mirror and said.

"Okay, I'll go with you tomorrow. I will ask Sean to do it for you. Last time I said I would take you there, but I never got any free time."

"Okay, I'm more relieved if you go with me. Just like tonight, I only dared to hit her when you were there." She turned around and threw herself into his arms.

Victor looked down at her with a smile. "If you want to fight in the future, let me do it for you. I don't want you to hurt your hand?"

Then he smiled again. He was really satisfied with what Eden did tonight.

"Let's go and rest." Victor took her to bed.

Eden leaned into his arms quietly and smiled happily.

Chapter 1826

At the Simpson family house.

The housekeeper hurriedly went upstairs.

Barrett was going to rest, but before he could finish his tea, he saw Devin, the housekeeper, come in a hurry. He frowned and looked at him, "What's wrong? You failed again?"

Devin nodded and looked a little nervous. "Yes. She was so stupid. She did exactly what Edith did before, so she was caught straight away."

"Useless! All of them are useless." Barrett's rough voice sounded terrifying in the night.

"They can't even take Eden down, how can I expect them to deal with Victor? I planned everything two years ago. I took down the Craig family and helped the Williams family who has a good relationship with Victor, however, Irving, that little b*stard, suddenly withdrew his funds. I was almost there, but everything just went wrong one after another. Now, my whole family is about to be destroyed by Victor!"

Barrett felt mentally and physically exhausted.

Was it because he was too old or because Victor was too powerful?

He felt there was really no way out for him anymore.

The housekeeper said, "Sir, Victor has a group of people investigating everything secretly. They are really good at computer technology as well. There is a person working in the dark and that's why we failed everything. Our informers said that Victor relied everything on that person. No matter what happened, he will be able to solve it quickly with just a phone call."

"Who is that person?" Barrett glared at the housekeeper.

Now, his company had been taken away by Victor, his children had betrayed him, his reputation had been damaged, he had lost the support of the Woods family, and now even the Eliseo Group have joined Victor.

Victor had almost cut off all his paths.

"Sir, we haven't found it out yet."

"Useless!" Barrett got up and sat on the sofa angrily. He thought he had come up with a perfect plan all these years, but everything seemed to be so wrong now.

He just couldn't break through Victor's defense at all.

"What's so good about Eden? Irving, that little b*stard, even gave up his whole business because of her. What I regret most is cooperating with him." Barrett's hands started trembling with anger.

Devin thought for a moment and said, "Sir, I heard that the illegitimate daughter of the Parma family works in Alwynn Group, maybe we can break through from here. Her name is Aurora Parma. I heard that she is in the wedding dress designing department. She is doing a quite good job there.

And it seems like their company really likes her."

Barrett shook his head, then took a sip of tea and said, "You just came back from abroad, so there are some things you don't understand. The Parma family doesn't care about this daughter at all, and that's why she is very grateful to Victor when he helped her. So how can she work for you?

Besides, they will find out what we were doing. It would be better to cooperate with the Parma family directly anyway. No matter how powerful Victor is in River City, he still couldn't do anything on his own.

I heard that Mr. Parma is in River City recently, and I also heard that he likes the land in Locust Grove and is bidding now."

"Oh!" The housekeeper narrowed his eyes and thought for a while. This project sounded very familiar to him.

"By the way, sir, I remember now the biggest bid is probably Hayden Booth now. He had previously cooperated with Victor's wife and had earned a lot of money. I heard that they will continue to cooperate this time on this project."

"Haha..." Barrett laughed coldly. "This woman is not simple. She is very ambitious. Speaking of real estate, we have to think about the Symantec Group. Zaiden, the president of Symantec Group, is a legend in real estate. His family is also as powerful as the Simpson family.

However, Zaiden always keeps a low profile, so few people know him.

I heard that he adopted a daughter a few years ago. Many people are trying to find out who this girl is, but still, no one knows who she is.

He has long planned his assets. He will give one part of them to charity, and the rest will be passed down to his daughter."

Devin's face was full of envy. Some people might not be able to buy a house in their lifetime, but Zaiden's adopted daughter was indeed lucky.

"Sir, I've heard that Mr. Calder is doing business in River City and Gate City. Now..."

"Don't you know?" Barrett shook his head. "No one knows his whereabouts. As soon as I returned to River City, I sent people to look for him, but they didn't find him.

But it doesn't matter whether he is, as long as we understand that we shouldn't waste our time and effort to try to take him down."

"I see. I will negotiate with the Parma family," Devin said.

"And there is another thing. It's alright if my daughter really wants to marry the son of the Clement family, but without my permission, they can't do anything. Take her back." Barrett was full of rage. He had to make sure that he made full use of his daughters.

"Sure." Then Devin turned and left.

Barrett looked at Devin's back and said, "Devin, remember not to rush anything. We have to be patient."

Devin stopped instantly. After thinking about his words, he slightly nodded and then left.

The next day, Victor didn't have much to do in the company, so after breakfast, he took Eden to Sean to get her hair done.

It was going to take around six hours to finish the whole procedure, so Victor asked Sean to look after Eden, and then went to meet Eloise with Brian.

After a whole night's treatment, Eloise was much better and more energetic.

Seeing Victor come in, she was stunned for a moment, and then said sarcastically, "Mr. Alwynn, you really wouldn't let me get away with it."

Victor looked at her coldly, and Brian moved a stool for Victor to sit down.

After Victor sat down gracefully, he looked at Eloise with his harsh gaze.

"Miss Dawson, I heard that Devin Hopper, who is the housekeeper of Barrett Simpson, is your uncle?"

Eloise was stunned. How did he find out?

"So what?" She tried to be calm, as she did not know what Victor was up to.

"Nothing. I heard that your father is a teacher in a school which is invested by Alwynn Group. So I guess it wouldn't be a hard thing if I want your father to lose his job."

"Victor, don't do anything to my father. I'm the one who offended you, not my father." Eloise was getting worried. Her father and mother were innocent, and she couldn't let them get hurt.

Chapter 1827

Victor smiled, gently touched his smooth chin with two fingers, and said sarcastically, "I am not a good person. I will leave you all to be the good people, as you are so kind, righteous, and moral. I was born a bad person. Except for my wife, I never cared about anyone else's lives."

"You..." Eloise didn't know what to say.

She had never been wanting to be with Jasper like this before. Jasper was rich and had power, and he was also very handsome, so she felt that he would be the perfect guy for her.

But unfortunately...

She suddenly looked at Victor and said directly, "What do you want to ask?"

"Miss Dawson, it wouldn't have taken us so much time if you were so smart earlier." Victor slightly sat up, looking at Eloise with his sharp eyes.

"How many people are involved in your group who are going to kill my wife for a hundred million?" This was the only reason that he came here today.

Eloise shook her head and said, "I really don't know. It was my uncle who told me this. I did not just do this for the money. I really like Jasper and I want to be with him, and that's why I wanted to do this to Eden."

She looked at Victor with her pale face and continued, "Mr. Alwynn, what I did has nothing to do with my parents. I have told you everything I know, so please leave my parents alone."

Eloise was really scared at the moment. With what she had done, she could easily get out of it soon. At least she still could go abroad afterward.

Even though it would be harder for her to get by with a criminal record, it still would be better than living in River City.

She could also come back after her parents both retired.

However, now that Victor got involved, she felt that things would not be as easy as before anymore.

Victor snorted, and his eyes were sharp and cold. "Did you really tell me everything you know? You'd better tell the truth when I ask you, otherwise, I will make sure that you won't be able to get out so easily." His cold words were full of threats.

Eloise's body trembled with fear. She knew who Victor was and what he was capable of.

So she believed that he was not joking.

"Mr. Alwynn...", she said with her trebled voice. "I am telling the truth. I don't know exactly how many people are involved. Anyway, as long as there are people who can be used around you, they will use them, including people around my uncle. I don't know why my uncle agreed to help that person, but what he offered to me was exactly what I need. That's why I made such a big mistake."

People like her would find it harder to find a good job with a criminal record, and her previous company would not let her go back either.

She had ruined her own future, so she was actually very regretful.

She had done a lot for this job.

She had been thinking about this for a whole night. She really wished that she hadn't done this stupid thing, but there was nothing she could do anymore.

Brian looked at her thoughtfully. It seemed that she did not lie. The group was doing everything in dark, and there were so many people totally lost themselves in it even before they met the boss.

The man in the hospital was also like this.

"Victor, it seems that we can't get anything more from her now," Brian said.

"Let's go back," Victor got up and said.

"Mr. Alwynn, please..."

Before Eloise finished her words, Victor turned around and looked at her coldly, then said, "I just want to tell you, no one could just get away with it after hurting my wife."

After that, he tidied his coat and then walked out of the door.

Brian followed him out.

"Please... I have told you what you want to know. Why are you still doing this to me..." Eloise cried out loudly, looking at the door in despair. However, she was the only one who could pay for what she had done.

Victor sat in the car and pulled his tie irritably. The anger could be clearly seen in his eyes.

Brian looked at him from the mirror and said carefully, "Don't worry too much about it. We need to be patient."

"I'm just thinking about how I can solve this problem as quickly as possible. We bought the Stone Group, so he totally hid away now, and it made us in a very bad position." Victor sounded a little angry. That man's existence constantly threatened Eden's life.

Brian smiled and said, "You have utterly destroyed him this time, so he would become crueler and crueler now. However, I am worried about another thing. Do you think that he will let Adrienne off so easily?"

"I'll have to remind Delmont later. Although he never comes across with that scheming man, he still needs to be more careful." Victor said it and took out his phone to send a message to Delmont.

At this moment, Delmont was cleaning up in his new villa. Ever since he married Adrienne, they had been living a happy life together.

When he received Victor's message, he was mopping the floor.

The gray loungewear made him look much younger.

He let his younger brother take over most of the family business just because he wanted to have more time to enjoy his life and do whatever he wanted to do.

He didn't care much about money. What he cared about was the life he wanted. Now, he was running the supermarket, so he didn't need to put too much effort into it, therefore, he would be able to spend more time with his loved ones.

He replied to Victor's message. "I got it. I will pay attention to it. Is Eden okay?"

Eden's incident last night had not been posted online yet.

Victor already asked Dean to deal with it in advance, so no media dared to say anything right now.

He always hated it when people talked about his wife online.

Dean was very good at dealing with this kind of thing, so there was no one who said anything yet.

After all, no one wanted to offend Victor Alwynn.

"Delmont, what are you doing?" Adrienne said and came over to hold his arm. She was wearing a pink sweater and a pair of white sweatpants, looking very young and adorable.

She felt she had never lived such a happy life before. Now she could stay with Delmont day and night, didn't need to worry about anything else anymore. This was the life she always wanted.

Delmont did not intend to hide anything from her. She had the right to know about everything anyway.

He put the mop away, put his hands around her waist, and said softly, "Honey, Victor told me that we need to keep an eye on your father."

Chapter 1828

Adrienne nodded slightly. After thinking for a while, she said, "I know, you don't have to worry about this. I know he has been looking for me. There is a servant in my family that we can trust. She has been telling me everything that happened there recently. She said that there is a new housekeeper who has come to the house, and he is not a simple person."

"Do you know who he is?" Delmont was a little worried. After all, they had been targeting Victor and his sister.

Adrienne nodded and said, "He is also someone who was forced to leave River City by old Mr. Alwynn, just like my father."

"It's the old generation's thing again," Delmont said helplessly. He took her hand and sat on the sofa.

"Well, the Alwynn family is a family with a long history, so it's inevitable for them to have several enemies. The business field is like a battlefield anyway, and it's easy to offend someone. Some people just won't accept failure." Delmont sighed in his heart. He had been thinking about this matter for a long time.

Since they were married, he would have to face it sooner or later.

"With your father's personality, what do you think he would ask me to do in order to accept me as his son-in-law?" He asked seriously.

He had been watching Glenn growing up day by day, and he really wanted a child that belonged to them.

That would be the perfect family he wanted.

Adrienne looked at him and smiled.

"You are so silly. Haven't you forgotten that I am your wife already?" She leaned in his arms and put her hand in his big palm.

"It doesn't matter whether he agrees or not. We have been together for a long time. The only thing I worry about is that he would hurt the Clement family." This was what worried her most.

She knew what her father was capable of. He tried so hard to maintain a good image of their family.

However, the Simpson family was already falling apart.

She also knew that he had a mistress because he couldn't resist the temptation at all.

Dahlia used her beauty and got the shares and the villa from him straightaway.

Those assets were worth much more than the money she could earn by herself in her whole life, no matter how smart and hard-working she was.

Adrienne had already told Leilani about what happened between Dahlia and her father.

At least Leilani was still his wife, so she believed that she wouldn't just let this happen in front of her eyes.

Delmont smiled. "That's true. You're already my wife now."

He put his arms around her and hugged her tightly, and then rested his head on her shoulder.

"We have been living together for several months now, but I still feel like everything is a dream." He tilted his head and kissed her on her cheek.

He was so worried, but he didn't know what he could do to stop Barrett from hurting her.

Before Barrett came to them, what could he do to make him decide to let her go?

He knew he wasn't a smart person himself, and he almost lost her once.

Both of them fell into silence.

Adrienne had already done so much for Delmont, so this time, he knew he had to sort this out for her.

.....

Victor went back to Sean's studio, and Eden was almost done.

Sean was drying her hair when Victor came in. He smiled and said to Victor, "Come and have a look. Your wife is so beautiful. I don't think you are good enough for her anymore."

Victor glared at him.

He was forever the best match for his wife!

Thinking of this, he walked over and took a look at the girl in the mirror who was smiling brightly with her shoulder-length hair falling in perfect waves around her pretty face.

Looking at her gentle smile, Victor felt as if the spring breeze had just brushed across his face.

He felt she looked even prettier and younger in shorter hair.

"No wonder I fell in love with you," he said with a smile.

Eden took a look at him from the mirror and asked, "Where have you been? I thought you said you didn't have any work today?"

When he wasn't here, Sean wouldn't even let her go to the washroom on her own, as if something bad would happen to her as soon as he left.

"I just walked around her and bought you some juice." Victor put a straw in the bottle and handed it to her.

At this time, Sean also finished drying her hair. He looked at her from the mirror and put on a satisfied smile.

"Anyway, I will leave you two on your own. I don't want to be the third wheel." After saying this, Sean cleaned up and went out.

Victor was a little surprised and said to Eden who was drinking juice, "He never used to leave so quickly. What's wrong with him today?"

Eden tugged her hair behind her ear with her hand. Her hair was dyed brown, making her skin look even fairer.

"He is getting married the day after tomorrow, so he surely has no time to joke around with you."

"What?" Victor was totally lost.

Eden looked up at him, wondering how he felt about this shocking news at the moment.

"He and Margery are getting married in three days. I got the wedding invitation earlier. He said that Margery doesn't have a big family, so there won't be a lot of people. He didn't want to make a big deal of it anyway, so they just invited close family and friends."

"In three days? Was he joking? That's not really fair for Margery." Victor still couldn't believe what he had just heard, and at the same time, he was very jealous of him.

How come he was getting married so soon?

Eden shook her head and laughed. "It already took him four years to finally be with Margery now. Of course, he wanted to marry her as soon as possible.

And it was Margery's idea anyway, so why do you think it's unfair? They both have their own career now, so it's very normal for them to think about getting married."

Hearing this, Victor took a step forward and held her hand suddenly. "We must have our wedding this year." He felt so jealous now. He was the one who got a girlfriend first, but why did everyone else get married before him?

"I know. We will do it this year. Anyway, Let's go home now." She was very tired already after waiting for so long to get her hair done.

Sean had used the best product on her hair, so it didn't smell much. Now that her hair got cut shorter, she felt so much refreshed.

Victor checked the time and said, "Let's go have dinner first. We have nothing at home now. Let's go to the supermarket after dinner."

Eden nodded slightly. "By the way, I want to go abroad in a few days."

Hearing this, Victor's whole body tightened instantly.

"Where are you going?" His voice didn't sound very pleasant.

"I want to visit my parents and our children. Gia will be participating in the painting exhibition soon, so I want to be there for her. This is a very important moment in her life, and I'm her mom, so I can't miss it." She dreamed of her daughter last night, and her daughter's little face was very unhappy. She dreamed of her saying "I miss you" and then disappeared straightaway.

She felt so sad after she woke up.

So she came up with this idea when she was getting her hair done. She had to be there.

"Then I'll go with you."

"Don't you need to work?" Eden looked at him with a smile, picked up her bag and phone, and walked out.

Chapter 1829

"You're about to abandon me! How can I still have the mood to work?" Victor said.

If Sean could get married, why couldn't he?

It was so frustrating!

Victor really wanted to shout it out.

This was one of the things that he wanted to do for her. So as long as it was not sorted, he would not be able to relax.

He wanted to stay with her forever and gave his vow to her.

Eden stopped and smiled at him. She knew that he wasn't happy because of the shocking news. But before she could say anything, he said again, "I can't miss the important moment of my daughter either."

Hearing this, Eden really felt that she had nothing else to say.

"Alright then, let's go together and give everyone a surprise. But you have to erase our records of going abroad. I don't think it would be a problem for you, right?" She was still a little worried that the Simpson family would find out about it.

Victor finally smiled and took her hand, "Of course, it won't be a problem at all. Let's go for dinner now. I'm hungry."

They got in the car and soon disappeared on the crowded road.

Eden was sitting in the car and thinking about what had happened recently, and she still found everything hard to believe.

Those who framed her were all educated, but why did they still do it? They surely would know that it was illegal.

"Victor, do you believe in magic? I can understand that the man in the hospital, who is a drug addict, would do such a thing, but why did Edith and Eloise also join them? They are both educated and even studied abroad."

She actually felt sorry for them. Why couldn't they think about the consequences before they did it?

Victor turned to look at her pretty face and then turned back to watch the road. "They did it for money and love, this is the biggest weakness of human nature. Whether it is a man or woman, as long as it involves love and money, it is easy to make mistakes."

Victor smiled because he knew that he was no exception either. Eden was the biggest weakness of his life.

Eden sighed. Everything that happened recently made her feel so exhausted.

"We seem to have forgotten something," she blinked her beautiful eyes and then said.

Victor said with a faint smile on his face, "I haven't forgotten that Adonis's family is coming to our house tomorrow."

"Right, that's what I have forgotten. Let's buy more fruit and vegetables later in the supermarket. I remember that Adonis likes beef, so let's make some braised sirloin for him. I heard that he recovered very well recently, so he can eat what he likes now.

Let's get some seafood as well. As for Harrison and Azariah, how about making some braised pork shoulder?"

Victor had never heard of this dish.

So he felt quite curious.

He smiled and asked, "I don't know how to make this dish."

Eden knew that he didn't know how to make it, and she only had this idea just now.

She knew the older generation should have been more familiar with this dish.

"When I was a child, my neighbor used to have it. It wasn't easy to have pork at that time.

I remember the older lady next door used to love this dish. Her son cooked for her once, and I was so lucky that I had a chance to try it as well. I haven't had it for a long time either, but I think I can make it. I will buy the ingredients later."

Victor listened to her story with a smile and then stroked her hair gently.

"Is there anything that you can't do?"

Eden could not help but smile when she heard his praise.

They stopped at a local restaurant and had a simple dinner. After that, they went straight to Clement's family's supermarket.

Delmont had always been a hard-working person, so he managed the supermarket very well.

As soon as they entered the supermarket, Victor received a phone call from Delmont.

"Hello?"

"Victor, where are you? I need to talk to you," Delmont said.

"I'm in the supermarket now. You can talk to me directly on the phone."

"No, we need to meet up," Delmont said quickly.

"Okay, where shall we meet? I'm in the supermarket on Kirkby Road."

"Really? Then come to the office. I'm right here. Oh, don't let Eden come here. I don't want her to be worried."

Victor glanced at Eden who was picking seasonings and said, "Eden, I'm going to the washroom."

Eden nodded, "I will meet you in the food area later. I'm going to buy the ingredients. I thought about it, and I think we should ask dad, mom, and grandma to come together tomorrow."

"Okay!" Victor bowed his head and kissed her on the forehead, then turned and left.

There were a lot of people in the supermarket. Eden liked to buy things in the supermarket, but she did not pay attention to where Victor exactly went.

She felt she could forget about all the troubles when she was concentrating on finding what she needed.

Delmont was waiting for Victor at the entrance of the office. When he saw him coming, he immediately waved to him.

Victor walked over quickly with his hands in his trouser pockets.

"What's the matter? I can't stay for long." Victor said.

"Is Eden here as well?"

"Yes." Victor nodded.

"Come to my office first."

Delmont turned around and walked to his office.

Victor suddenly felt that he knew why Delmont asked to see him.

"Have you found something of the Simpson family?"

"How do you know?" Delmont handed him a glass of warm milk.

Victor did not refuse, and it was good to drink a glass of warm milk at night.

"I sent you the message during the day, but you came to me in the evening. What's wrong? Are you afraid that you can't sleep?" Victor took a sip of milk and licked his lips slightly, looking very sexy.

Delmont couldn't help but smile.

"Of course I can't sleep. If someone wanted to kill your wife, can you sleep soundly at night?"

Victor didn't say anything. There was actually someone wanting to kill his wife, but as long as he held her in his arms, he could always sleep soundly.

He looked at Delmont and said, "What's your plan?"

Delmont pursed his lips slightly and said, "Adrienne said that Barrett has been looking for her. She secretly sold the company because she wanted to take back what belonged to her. But her father didn't think like this. He will never let her go because she did it without his permission.

If we want to live a normal life with her, we will have to face her father.

And if I want to win her father's trust, I will have to return what she took from him. However, she would never return it because that was what her mother tried to protect with her life. That's why I wanted to see you. I need some ideas."

Chapter 1830

Victor finished the milk and threw the paper cup into the trash can. He sat on the leather sofa and looked up at Delmont.

Then he said seriously, "You don't know Barrett at all, but Adrienne does. Don't do anything stupid now, otherwise, you would push Adrienne, as well as your entire family, to hell."

"Really?" Delmont frowned. He wouldn't be bothered to pay everything he had if he could win Barrett's trust, however, Buddy had taken over their family business now. Their family business had already experienced heavy losses ever since what happened to Haven. Now that Buddy took it over, although it wasn't as great as before, it was getting better and better.

Buddy was very good at doing business, so sooner or later, their family would get back to their feet again.

They all had assets in Lemmon City as well, so they had fully utilized them.

Recently, he had expanded the project there, so he had to go to Lemmon City recently. He also needed to finish the renovation of the supermarket that Eden gave to him, so he would be very busy at the end of this year.

Seeing that he was deep in thought, Victor couldn't help but sigh in his heart. It seemed that Delmont was indeed an innocent person.

"Delmont, I heard that you have a project in Lemmon City recently?"

Delmont looked up at him, thinking that he was indeed well-informed.

It must be Brian.

"Why don't you go to Lemmon City with Adrienne?" Victor had to worry about Eden now, so he didn't have time to keep an eye on Adrienne as well.

They had gotten married, so Adrienne was his sister-in-law now.

But he really had no extra energy to take care of them.

Delmont didn't really agree with this idea. He thought for a while and explained, "Victor, you don't understand what I mean. There are so many things that Adrienne hasn't told me for my safety. She chose to cooperate with you so that she could make sure that I am safe.

So this time, I want to do something for her. We still have to hold a wedding ceremony after this thing is sorted. I am the older brother, so if I haven't finished my wedding, do you think my grandma will let you and Eden have your wedding?"

What he said exactly hit Victor's nerve.

So he gave him a vicious look.

Victor didn't want to admit it but he really got him.

He didn't want to go against grandma Clement at all.

"Are you threatening me?" Victor gritted his teeth.

Delmont smiled and said, "Well, you left me with no other options. And you are the only person who can help now."

"You don't need to flatter me." Victor folded his legs slowly. Delmont had a Ph.D. degree, but it seemed that he just didn't have any common sense.

Delmont didn't want to joke about it anymore. "Victor, I'm serious this time."

Victor stood up and looked at him lazily. "The best thing for you to do now is to do nothing. Just listen to me and go to Lemmon City tomorrow. I will take care of everything here. To tell you the truth, Barrett has offered 100 million for people to kill me and Eden. If anything happened to you and Adrienne now, I don't think I would be able to take care of you as well.

When you get to Lemmon City, you should move places often. I'll handle everything as soon as possible here. Do you know why I choose to cooperate with Adrienne and bought the Simpson Group?"

Delmont shook his head. He really had no idea why Victor did it.

Victor had hardly been wrong since he was a child. The only thing Delmont was better than him was that he always had a slightly better grade.

Victor said, "That's because Eden already knew that you would not marry anyone else other than Adrienne, and Adrienne did not want to give up on you either. In order not to let Eden worry about you, I decided to take care of Adrienne's matters. I spent twenty billion on Simpson Group this time, and it will take many years for me to earn this amount of money back.

I don't want to see all my efforts go in vain. The Simpson family will eventually be defeated by me. But this is a long-term job. I need time. Do you understand what I mean now?"

Delmont shook his head slightly again.

This time, Victor totally lost his words.

Delmont said in surprise, "Victor, the only thing I can understand is that you are so rich. It took me 15 years to save the ten million for Eden."

Victor was silent again.

Of course, it would take longer for him.

"I'm leaving now." Victor knew that Delmont would figure it out tonight, and there was no point to waste time anymore.

"Wait!" Delmont suddenly stopped him.

Victor turned back. "I've already made myself very clear. Tell Adrienne that I want you to go to Lemmon City, and she will understand."

Delmont was a little anxious. "Why do you know my wife so well?"

Victor sneered, "Don't worry. I only love my wife. I know your wife because she is smarter than you."

Delmont didn't know what to say anymore.

Victor turned around and left. He kicked the trash can when he left to relieve his anger.

Delmont was smart enough to do business and study, but why didn't he have any common sense? He had been spoiled too much by his parents when he was young, so he literally had no ability to survive on his own.

He had missed a lot of opportunities to learn things in his life because his mother had protected him too well. But fortunately, he didn't turn into a bad person.

His mother always solved everything for him, so he did not need to think deeply about anything.

Even when Buddy was born, nothing could change the feeling that their mother had for the firstborn.

Thinking of this, Victor took a deep breath and went straight to the supermarket food area to find Eden.

He was actually quite jealous of Delmont. Being a fool was not a bad thing sometimes.

He hardly needed to worry about anything in his life, even after he got married.

From a distance, he could see Eden chatting with a woman.

Victor frowned. It was Maureen Moore. Why was she here?

Eden was also surprised when she saw Maureen.

They were both getting some milk when they saw each other.

Eden glanced at Maureen's belly, and it seemed that she was pregnant.

The man standing behind her was a foreigner who had dark blue eyes. He was wearing a pair of blue pants and a dark short-sleeved shirt, looking very handsome. He smiled at Eden friendly.

"Maureen, are you married?" Eden looked at her belly in surprise.

This was a little too fast.

They hadn't seen her since the last time they met in River City Restaurant.

"Yes, this is my husband. We met when I went abroad to visit my parents. We really liked each other at first sight, and both of our partners are very happy about it, so we got married. And now we are having our baby soon."

Maureen said gently with joy.

"Congratulations!" Eden said excitedly. She really felt happy for them, no matter what happened in the past.
