

Gluey Love 1901

Chapter 1901

Abigail looked over.

Wearing a black shirt and a pair of black trousers, Victor was tall and straight, and he looked very eye-catching in the crowd.

There was a woman in a pink dress in his arms. She had short hair and bangs, looking very delicate and pure. At this time, she was holding Victor's arm intimately.

Abigail immediately understood what was going on. D*mn it! Victor had cheated on Eden!

She really wanted to give this b*stard a lesson!

But at this time, Eden's feelings were more important.

The elevator behind them happened to be open, so Abigail took Eden into the elevator.

"Eden." Victor was stunned when he saw Eden. He came to sense immediately and chased after her.

However, Bryanna Norton fell to the ground because he pushed her away with great strength.

"Ouch! Victor, it hurts." Bryanna cried out in pain and looked at Victor with tears in eyes.

Victor turned around and helped her up.

At the moment the elevator door closed, Eden saw this.

Victor really took actions.

She did not expect that Victor would really meet Bryanna. Even if he met her, she could do nothing about it. But she did not expect things to become like this. They stood together intimately, and Bryanna seemed to match him better.

"Victor, what's wrong with you?" Bryanna looked at him nervously in pain.

"Let go of me!" Victor turned to look at her hand that was holding his arm, warning her in a deep and low voice.

Looking into his gloomy and cold eyes, Bryanna let go of him reluctantly.

"Did you do it on purpose?" Victor looked at her indifferently with hostility in his eyes.

Bryanna was close to Adonis when they were in university. She was different from the other women, and she was very considerate towards others.

He had seen her help others for many times.

Adonis regarded her as his younger sister, and she played with them sometimes.

Although Victor did not have a deep impression of Bryanna, he remembered who she was.

Moreover, Bryanna seemed to be the distant relative of his grandfather.

He couldn't find Eden that day, and he had been walking around in the mall.

Just a few minutes ago, he suddenly met Bryanna at the elevator door.

He couldn't pretend that he didn't see her. He chose to look for Eden and Abigail during the meal time.

He waited for them at the elevator entrance, because he knew that there were restaurants upstairs, and they would definitely come back here to eat something.

The restaurants were newly opened, which were absolutely attractive to them.

He really saw them. The moment the elevator door opened, Bryanna sprained her foot and fell directly into his arms.

Moreover, Eden happened to see this scene.

Bryanna looked at Victor in shock, "Victor..."

"Don't call me by my name..." Victor interrupted her coldly.

Bryanna was so wronged. She lowered her head and said sadly, "Victor, what are you talking about? What did I do to make you lose your temper at me? We haven't seen each other for several years."

Bryanna was so angry, and she looked at Victor frankly with her big eyes.

She looked dejected.

Victor's expression was ruthless and apathetic. He looked at her honest eyes coldly and clenched his fists. Thinking of Eden's sad eyes, he chased after her without hesitation.

"Victor, how can you leave like this? I want to meet your father!" Bryanna shouted loudly.

Soon, Victor's straight figure was nowhere to be seen.

Tears ran down her cheeks. She looked down at her red and swollen ankle and bit her lower lip tightly.

But soon, she smiled triumphantly.

She took out her phone, typed quickly and sent a message.

Abigail pulled Eden into the car, and Eden had been silent.

The phone in her hand vibrated slightly.

She clicked the text message that was sent by a stranger.

"He loves me very much. Thank you for taking care of him for me these years."

"I forgot to tell you that Victor won't go back tonight. He has been with me all day."

Eden's heart trembled violently after reading it. She felt as if her heart had been stabbed by a knife. She didn't speak, and her face was drained of all colour and animation.

It happened so suddenly that she did not know how to face it.

Abigail was so angry that she couldn't say a word. Eden quickly turned off the screen. If Abby saw it, she would be even madder.

The woman's provocation made her have an impulse to escape. She was too tired, and she didn't want to face these things all day long.

Seeing that Eden remained silent, Abigail didn't dare to say a word, because she was afraid that Eden would have a nervous breakdown as soon as she spoke.

Women were always the weakest in love.

"Misses, where are you going?" The taxi driver asked again.

Eden looked at Abigail and smiled, "Abby, I'm going home. Don't worry. That's Victor's friend. It's not a big deal."

Abigail was speechless. Seeing Eden's forced smile, she felt so sorry for her.

"Eden, I'll be worried if you go back alone." She was really uneasy.

"I'm okay. It's getting dark. Hurry up and go back to accompany Ayman. He will look for you when it's dark, right? I have experienced a lot of things. Such a little thing can't knock me down."

Abigail frowned uneasily. She really could not leave Eden at this time.

"Relax. I will be fine." Eden gave her a comforting smile.

No matter how stable a relationship was, it couldn't stand up to the test of time.

Perhaps it was because her road to love was too smooth. She wanted to escape whenever she met with setbacks.

Although it was something she had to experience in marriage, she was exhausted!

"Eden..."

"Abby, it's really okay. Anyway, I have to face it, right? You don't have to worry about me. I'll be all right."

After saying that, Eden asked the driver to park by the roadside.

"Eden, you must call me if anything happens." Abigail grabbed her hand.

She looked at her with worried eyes.

Eden smiled and comforted her, "It's okay. Just rest assured. I believe Victor. He won't betray me."

Abigail had nothing to say. Eden believed in Victor, so she wouldn't listen to her no matter how much she said.

She let go of Eden. Eden smiled and closed the door, watching as Abigail left.

The smile on her face gradually froze. Looking at the message, she held the phone with more strength.

This city was so prosperous, but where should she go?

Which place could make her feel better?

The phone rang again. Eden took it out and saw a picture.

In the photo, Victor was still young. Her long bangs covered his forehead, but he looked energetic and handsome.

In front of him, there was a pretty girl, and she was exactly the woman Eden saw that day.

Both of them smiled very brightly.

Eden took a deep breath. She would never be pissed off and leave Victor.

The woman just wanted to anger her deliberately and drive her away, didn't she?

Even if she would leave, she had to wait until she solved the problems between her and Victor.

Eden stopped a taxi and went back to the villa.

Chapter 1902

After Victor came out of the mall, he did not see Eden and Abigail anymore.

He took out his phone and called Anson.

"Victor, why do you call me again? I really don't know where Abby is. She hasn't returned home yet. I am very anxious."

Without waiting for Victor to speak, Anson said dejectedly and desperately.

"Find her. we must find Abigail. She escaped with Eden. Moreover, Bryanna has come back. Why don't you know that?" Victor asked.

"Who?" Anson didn't hear him clearly and asked again.

"Bryanna!" Victor roared angrily.

"Oh, Adonis talked about it a few days ago, but I didn't care. Anyway, she won't look for me. She wants to see you. You know that she became an actress without hesitation when you asked her to work in the entertainment circle. Now she's very famous aboard. It's reasonable for her to come back. What's more, except for you, everyone knows that she likes you very much." Anson said jokingly.

"You can't find your wife now, but you're in the mood to laugh!" Victor said in a serious tone. He was so mad that he wanted to kill Bryanna.

Anson said, "Abby won't run away. She'll be back before nine o'clock at night. She can't bear to see Ayman cry."

Victor looked at the time. It was still early.

He hung up the phone, thinking that he couldn't look for Eden so aimlessly like this.

He suddenly thought of Aro.

Then he dialed Aro's number.

"Mr. Alwynn." Aro's voice was very deep.

"Where's Eden?" Victor asked directly. Aro had been protecting Eden in secret, so he must know where Eden was.

"Miss has returned to the villa."

"Okay, I see." Victor hung up the phone, went back to the mall and drove home.

When Eden got home, she was very uneasy to see that it was dark in the villa.

Her heart trembled violently.

She took a deep breath, opened the door and went in.

Lyric knew that there was a new shopping mall here. Although the mall was not very big, she was attracted by the new restaurants.

She parked the car in the underground parking lot.

The elevator hadn't come, and she frowned. She was impatient and walked to the fire exit directly.

Everything in the corridor was new. The smell was pleasant, and it was clean, making her feel quite good.

When she reached the third floor, she heard a strange voice while looking for the exit.

"Do you know what to do now? He has returned to the parking lot. Be sure to be very fierce later."

It was a woman's voice, and she was at the corner in the fire exit.

Hearing the voice, Lyric knew that she was going to do something bad.

She took out her phone and took a video of it.

Everything could be seen clearly in the video. This woman was beautiful. She had fair skin and long legs.

Looking at those fierce men, Lyric frowned. Ansley met such men as well when she plotted against her.

They walked out, and Lyric immediately turned around and went downstairs.

She was very glad that she was wearing sneakers, otherwise, the sound of the high heels would definitely attract their attention.

Victor arrived at the parking lot. Just as he was about to open the car door, he sensed something strange. The parking lot was weirdly quiet.

"Victor, you walk so fast. My foot is swollen." A complaining voice sounded in the quiet space abruptly.

Victor frowned. Why did Bryanna follow him again?

He was in a hurry to go home, so he ignored Bryanna. As soon as he opened the door, a dark figure rushed out from the dark.

"Oh! Victor, watch out!" Bryanna cried out in horror.

Victor kept vigilant. He pushed Bryanna to his back, turned around nimbly and dodged. His eyes were sharp, and he was like a fierce beast in the dark. He kicked the man in black, and the man immediately groaned in pain.

However, at this time, a few more men rushed towards him.

Victor's heart sank. Who were they? Would Eden be in danger? He made up his mind and used more and more strength. A man was kicked to the ground by him fiercely and couldn't even get up.

"Stop... I... have called the police, and I have shot a video. He is alone! How can you bully him? It's lawless!" Lyric stood not far away, holding her phone and looking at those people vigilantly.

The men who were about to hit Victor with sticks stopped instantly.

Bryanna was stunned.

"Victor, I'm afraid. Victor, don't leave me. You promised me that you would keep me company tonight." Bryanna hugged Victor tightly.

Lyric was speechless. How could this woman flirt with him at such a critical moment?

Hearing Lyric's words, the men immediately threw away the sticks, turned around and ran away.

Victor was surprised.

It seemed that these people were not sent by Barrett. Generally, those sent by Barrett would not give up so easily.

From a distance came the siren sound. Victor glanced at the girl opposite him. She was scared, but she stood there bravely. Moreover, she had really called the police.

Although the other men had escaped, there were two men lying on the ground. They couldn't get up.

"B*tch, how dare you ruin my plan! I'll kill you!" The man tried his best to stand up and rushed toward Lyric.

"Ah... Help!" Lyric turned around and ran. She was thin and weak, and she was no match for this strong man.

Victor wanted to save Lyric, but he heard a cry of pain, and Bryanna hugged him from behind.

"Victor, be careful! Ah..." Bryanna's voice trembled with pain.

Victor looked back, only to see that her arm was bleeding, and the other man had run away.

"Victor, it hurts!" With a pale and painful face, Bryanna leaned against Victor feebly.

Victor knew that she had blocked the knife for him, "I'll call the ambulance. Go to the hospital for treatment first."

Victor was worried about the girl he saw just now.

"Victor, don't go. I want you to send me to the hospital." Bryanna gradually fell to the ground.

Victor quickly helped her up.

He reached out to dial a number, "Brian, investigate what has happened in the underground parking lot in M Mall immediately."

After hanging up the phone, he helped Bryanna to sit in the car. Then he went to the trunk to take the medicine chest and stopped her bleeding first.

At the same time, the man kept chasing after Lyric.

Lyric ran out. There were many people outside, so the man stopped. Lyric looked back and did not notice the steps in front of her. As a result, she missed her footing and rolled down the stairs.

"Ah..." Lyric wanted to cry. This was the consequence of meddling in other people's business.

Rolling down seven steps, she felt a sharp pain all over.

Fortunately, she had the phone in her hand.

She looked through the address book and saw Eden's number at first glance.

She called Eden without hesitation.

"Eden, help me!" Lyric cried out.

Eden said in a hurry, "Lyric, don't cry. Tell me where you are."

Seeing that the man no longer chased after her, Lyric felt a little more relieved.

"Eden, I was chased after by a bad guy. I rolled down the steps and sprained my ankle. It hurts. Eden, I can't ask for anyone else's help..."

"Alright, don't cry. I'll go there right away." Eden comforted Lyric as she put on a pair of soft white leather shoes. Then, she picked up her charger and bag from the cabinet and walked out.

Chapter 1903

Walking out of the door, Eden went to the garage and went to M Mall at the fastest speed.

Lyric was sitting on the ground nervously.

Someone wanted to help her, but she refused.

If a stranger helped her, she could not return him the favor. But if someone she was familiar with helped her, she could repay the kindness.

She liked to get someone she knew to help her.

Jasper went on a business trip. Although he would come back at night, she was not sure if he had come back. Therefore, she did not call him.

Eden parked the car at the side of the road. As soon as she got off the car, she saw Lyric sitting on the ground.

Eden was a little helpless. Lyric was stubborn. She asked her to go to the hospital first, but she had to wait for her.

"Lyric, how do you feel?" Eden helped her up. It was cold on the ground, and her hands were icy cold. She still looked frightened.

She looked at Lyric carefully. There were some bloodstains and a lot of bruises on her hands.

"Eden, I'm fine. Let's leave here quickly, or those people will catch up with us." Thinking about it, Lyric was scared.

Eden smiled. She helped her to walk to the car carefully, "Why weren't you afraid when you helped others in danger? Did you see their faces clearly?"

Lyric said gloomily, "No, it was dark in the underground parking lot. It seems that someone turned off the lights deliberately. The man is with a woman, and I don't know if they're safe now. Anyway, I have called the police, and the police have gone to the parking lot, but I guess they can't catch anyone. Those men ran away when they heard that I had called the police."

After getting on the car, Lyric took a look at her swollen feet.

She couldn't go to work the next day.

Eden did not think much, "Hold on. I will send you to the hospital now."

Lyric looked at her, "Eden, thank you. My mother and I have no relatives here, and I like to stay at home. I don't have many friends, and I didn't know whom to ask for help, so I called you."

Eden started the car and went to the hospital, saying with a smile, "I am very happy that you can treat me as your friend. Even if you called me in the middle of the night, I would come."

"But next time when you want to help others, you must ensure your own safety first."

"Okay..." Lyric answered, "Eden, why are there so many bad people nowadays?"

This world was really too complicated. Those killers should be paid by the woman in the video.

However, she did not dare to say anything about this, because she didn't want Eden to worry about her more.

Eden took Lyric to the nearest hospital and went straight to the emergency room to register.

After that, Lyric dealt with the wounds on her hands first. The newly-built stone steps were very sharp, and some of the wounds were very deep.

Then Eden sent her to the Department of Orthopedics to taken an X-ray.

They would get the X-ray two hours later.

Therefore, Eden pushed Lyric to the emergency room to have an intravenous drip.

This hospital was very large, and there were three or four beds in an emergency room.

There were three beds in this room, and there were patients on them.

The second bed was separated by pink curtain, and Eden didn't see the patient.

"Lyric, be careful. I'll help you to bed."

"Okay. Eden, put the wheelchair against the hospital bed. It should not be difficult for me to climb into bed with hands and feet.

"Alright, slow down." Eden held her cautiously.

Lyric sat on the bed carefully, and then Eden helped her lie down.

The beds were close to each other. Looking at the pink curtain, Eden didn't want to disturb the other patient.

She hung up the bottle lightly.

All of a sudden, someone pulled back the curtain.

Eden turned around, only to see a pair of brooding eyes.

It was Victor. Why was he here?

She looked down slightly and saw a woman lying on the bed, wearing a mask.

Victor heard Eden's voice just now, but he thought that it was his delusion. Then he heard someone calling her name. He confirmed that it was really Eden.

He just couldn't believe that she would come to the hospital at this time.

Eden looked away indifferently, not wanting to talk to Victor.

"Victor, it hurts. Don't leave me, okay?" Bryanna took Victor's hand gently, her voice full of pleading.

Eden looked sideways and turned her head immediately.

She looked at Lyric, "Do you want some water?"

"Eden, I'm hungry!" Lyric rubbed her belly and said like a spoiled child.

Eden smiled and said, "Okay. Just lie here. I'll buy something for you to eat."

"I want to eat seafood porridge. Eden, thank you for taking care of me this time. I will look after you when you need me in the future." Lyric did not notice the stiff atmosphere between Victor and Eden.

Eden smiled and looked at her, "You'd better pray that you won't have such a chance. I'll buy you some porridge, and I'll be back soon."

"Alright. You will be healthy forever!" Lyric nodded.

Victor looked at Lyric and felt that her voice was a little familiar. It was dark in the underground parking lot, and the girl covered her face with her phone. Could she be that girl?

Eden ignored Victor and walked out.

Victor immediately stopped her.

Lyric was stunned.

"Hey! What's wrong with you? Your action just now was very rude. How dare you pester Eden! You... let go of her!" Lyric struggled to get up and looked at Victor fiercely.

"She is my..."

"Well, Lyric, lie down. It's okay." Eden wanted to get rid of Victor, but he grabbed her hand very tightly.

"Victor, my wound is bleeding. It hurts." Bryanna pinched her own wound severely.

Blood oozed out of the white gauze.

"Shut up!" Victor turned around and roared at her furiously.

Bryanna looked at him with grievances and didn't dare to speak.

"Eden..."

"Let go of me! Didn't you hear that? She's bleeding. Call the doctor over first." Eden struggled forcefully.

But she couldn't break free.

"Eden, don't you believe me?" Victor looked at her with intense eyes.

Between husband and wife, the most important thing was trust.

"Let go of me." Eden looked at him coldly.

Victor's heart sank. She was just like a stranger at this time.

Victor suddenly let go of her.

Eden smiled self-mockingly. Had he really let go of her like this?

She lowered her head and walked out.

Lyric was taken aback.

"You... How can you pester Eden? She has got married." Lyric looked at Victor with annoyance.

Victor didn't pay attention to her and chased after Eden.

Lyric was dumbfounded. He actually dared to chase after Eden.

Bryanna looked at Victor's back with a gloomy face.

She was injured, but he still left her!

After Eden came out, she was not in a bad mood. Perhaps it was because she was in a peaceful state of mind. She was not as sad as she was during the day.

Not long after Victor came out, he saw Eden and ran to her quickly.

Chapter 1904

"Eden." Victor caught up with her and stood in front of her. His tall figure looked commanding and aggressive.

Eden lowered her head and realized that she was obsessed with his temperament. She didn't look at him and moved to the left, but Victor moved as well and blocked her way.

She moved three times, but Victor stopped her again and again.

Only then did Eden look up at him.

The colorful lights were dazzling in the buildings far away.

Victor stood in the light. His tall and straight figure looked charming.

"Get out of my way. I'm in a bad mood now. I don't want to talk to you." Eden's voice was still indifferent.

"Eden, listen to me. What you have seen are all coincidences." Victor was very helpless. How could things become like this?

Before he went to the bathroom, they were deep in love. However, everything had changed after he came out. She was so apathetic. How could he not be worried?

Moreover, she happened to see everything.

He really didn't do anything that let her down.

"Coincidences?" Eden sneered, "I saw you in the hospital. Was this also a coincidence?"

Victor explained, "Her name is Bryanna. Something happened tonight, and she got hurt in order to save me, so I brought her to the hospital."

Eden's eyes flashed. He was in danger that night.

"Did you meet someone sent by Barrett?" Eden was anxious, and she asked worriedly.

Victor smiled unconsciously. She was still worried about him.

"Yeah, but two of them were taken away by the police. We'll know the result tomorrow."

"She saved you. What are you going to do? Marry her?" Eden asked again.

"Eden, I will give her some compensation. You are my wife, and I only love you." Victor said with determination. In fact, it was useless to say such words at this time, but he had to say it.

He felt helpless and wronged. Although he was happy to see her get jealous, it was too agonizing.

"Ha-ha..." Eden laughed. Thinking of the messages Bryanna sent her, her eyes were listless as she said, "Victor, I didn't expect you to be so childish at this age. Ha-ha..."

Eden laughed and burst into tears.

Bryanna saved him. As a man, he would be guilty, so Bryanna would use this matter to get close to him forever.

"I am so tired, and I don't want to get involved in anything. I will go and buy some food first. You can go back now." Saying this, Eden was about to leave.

Victor did not let her go. He held her in his arms and whispered, "Honey, don't be mad at me, okay? I'm worried about you."

"You don't have to worry about me. I have experienced a lot of things, haven't I? I can understand such a coincidence. Go back and take care of her. I have to buy some porridge for Lyric."

No matter what, she had never let Victor down. She loved him wholeheartedly, and she had a clear conscience.

But, at this time...

Bryanna had saved Victor, so this was quite a different matter. They couldn't be as affectionate as before.

Maybe she had thought too much, but women liked to fill their minds with nonsense by nature.

Hearing her words, Victor knew that she had not forgiven him yet.

He took a small step back, "Eden, don't you believe me?"

Eden lowered her head and did not look at his sad eyes. She believed him, but she did not believe the complicated thoughts in Bryanna's heart.

"I believe you, but I have something else to do." Eden moved around him and walked forward.

"Eden..." Victor did not give up and chased after her.

Eden ignored him and went straight to the porridge shop.

In the group chat.

"Victor has cheated on Eden. Do you believe that?" After hearing Abigail's words, Anson was totally shocked.

He believed that Victor was the last man who would have a love affair in this world.

Adonis said, "F*ck! This b*stard actually ceases to be faithful! It's all right. My mother knows a lot of successful men. Soon, Eden will marry a better man."

Anson was stunned. How bold Adonis was!

Lucian asked, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

Anson replied to him, "It's real! Victor has really cheated on Eden. Abby and Eden saw it with their own eyes. Brian is in the police station now. I heard that the woman was stabbed by a knife in order to save Victor."

Seeing this, Lucian knew that this matter was serious.

"Anson, it is no joke."

Anson said, "If you don't believe me, you can call Brian. I've called him to confirm it."

Lucian asked, "Where is Victor now?"

Anson said, "He's in the hospital to accompany the woman. Abby is so mad that she almost goes crazy."

Lucian glanced at Amelia who was playing with the children. Then he stood up and went out to call Brian.

"Hello? Lucian, don't tell me that you want me to do something now. I am very busy."

Lucian asked, "Is that real?"

"What?"

"Anson said Victor has cheated on Eden."

"Hey! I didn't know this shocking news!"

Lucian frowned, "Aren't you dealing with things in the police station now?"

"Yes, I'm indeed solving the problems. You know that woman, Bryanna. She got stabbed in order to save Victor. Now she is in the hospital, and Victor stays there with her. The man has been caught. But no matter how we interrogated him, he refuses to confess anything."

"He said that he wanted to rob Victor, but no one asked Victor to take out his money at that time. So that was not robbery. Someone wanted to hurt Victor deliberately."

Lucian frowned hard. He thought for a while and said, "I remember Bryanna. She was very close to Adonis in college, but she liked Victor very much. After graduation, she worked in the entertainment circle. Later, she went abroad. Why did she come back all of a sudden? She even made such a scene as soon as she came back."

"Did she dare to do such a dangerous thing to save Victor?"

Brian smiled, "I don't know. Since you all know each other, it's hard to say."

Lucian said, "I see. Investigate this matter more carefully."

After Lucian hung up the phone, he clicked the group chat again. Victor did not say anything, but he couldn't come to a conclusion rashly.

He called Victor, but no one answered the phone.

"Lucian, what are you doing? Cecilla pooped." Amelia said in the room, and Lucian immediately went back.

Victor followed Eden all the way, but Eden didn't speak to him.

On the way back to the ward, they were both silent.

"Lyric, here's your porridge." Eden placed the porridge on the cabinet beside the bed.

However, Lyric looked at Victor vigilantly, "Eden, who is he? Why does he follow you all the time?"

Chapter 1905

Eden said, "Lyric, he's my husband."

"Ah..." Lyric was shocked, "Eden, your husband has cheated on you." Lyric glanced at the woman lying on the bed next to her.

Victor was speechless. Everyone said that he had betrayed Eden. That was nonsense!

He didn't do anything to cheat on Eden, did he?

Eden said, "My husband loves me very much, and he won't cheat on me." In front of others, Eden showed Victor respect.

She did believe Victor in her heart, but her heart was broken by those text messages and Victor's attitude.

"Ah..." Lyric was stunned. Victor was in the hospital with another woman. Couldn't Eden figure out the truth?

Was this the marriage in a wealthy family? Although her husband cheated on her, she had to endure it.

Lyric filled her mind with nonsense.

"Eden, I know you have your own reasons, but you can't bear it like this. Eden... Let me tell you... We women can't swallow insult and humiliation silently... Especially in the face of such a jerk and b*tch!" Lyric was so distressed.

Victor and that woman must have something to do with each other. Why couldn't Eden figure it out?

Victor's eyes were sharp and apathetic. Looking at Lyric who kept chattering, he really wished that she could shut up.

As Lyric spoke, she saw Victor warning and hostile eyes, and he looked so fierce and aggressive, so she immediately stopped talking.

Bryanna kept clenching her hands under the quilt. Had Victor and Eden become reconciled?

"Victor, she is..."

"My wife." Victor interrupted Bryanna and held Eden in his arms. He looked very affectionate.

"Eden, she is Bryanna Norton, a friend I knew a few years ago." Victor introduced. His lips were close to Eden's face. Feeling his hot breathing, Eden trembled slightly, but she tried her best to stay calm.

She really wanted to slap Victor in the face.

"Miss Norton, nice to meet you. Thank you for saving my husband tonight." Eden looked at Bryanna with a smile.

Although she did not know why Bryanna covered her face, she was very clear that the text messages were sent by her.

She did not know if Bryanna was paid by Barrett. If she was, she would naturally not let her get what she wanted.

Bryanna pursed her lips gently. With smiling eyes, she looked at Eden, "You're welcome. I have known Victor for many years. Thank you for taking good care of him these years." Her words were deliberately ambiguous.

Victor frowned as he listened to her meaningful words, and he looked annoyed.

Hearing Bryanna's words, Lyric glared at her. Bryanna was simply too sinister!

Eden looked at Bryanna quietly. Their eyes were all filled with apathy and hostility.

Eden knew how scheming Bryanna was. She would not back off. She could not suspect Victor who had protected her for many years just because of Bryanna.

Eden looked back at Victor and smiled gently, "Victor, hire a nurse maid for Miss Norton. Don't slight her. She saved you, so we have to repay her kindness."

Victor looked at her bright smile. She was no longer as indifferent as she was just now, and he was not sure what she wanted to do.

"Honey, I've arranged it. A nurse maid will come here soon." He was very disgusted with Bryanna and did not want to see her anymore.

"Victor, I..." Bryanna was about to say something but stopped on second thought. Her eyes were brimming with tears as she said, "Could you stay with me? We haven't seen each other for a long time. I want you to talk to me."

Eden said, "I'm sorry, Miss Norton. My husband has something to do later and I'm afraid he can't accompany you. If you just want to talk to someone, you can talk to me."

Lyric glared at Victor madly.

Victor was speechless. It seemed that she hated him quite much.

Bryanna was very angry, but she couldn't show her anger obviously.

"There's no need. I only want Victor to accompany me." Bryanna smiled and refused.

"Oh, I can't stand it anymore! We are all adults. Eden, how can she make such an unreasonable request in front of you? How despicable she is! You must be careful in the future." Lyric could not help but say angrily.

Eden looked at her gratefully. She had spoken her mind.

Bryanna did not expect Lyric to speak so straightforwardly, and she felt so ashamed.

"Victor, she misunderstands me. I just want to talk to you. In addition, my wound is very deep, and it hurts when I move..."

Lyric interrupted her with irritation and said sarcastically, "Look! Eden, now she wants to use this matter to make your husband feel guilty. Why are you so unlucky? You married such a useless husband. You're framed very often, and this woman even wants to bully you now."

"Ha-ha..." Eden couldn't help laughing. Was Lyric too straightforward? Or was she taking revenge for her?

Seeing her smile, Victor was relieved.

This meant that she was no longer so angry.

Bryanna looked at Lyric with an embarrassed face, saying in an arrogant and provocative tone, "You don't understand the affection between me and Victor. Please don't judge me like this."

"Ha-ha..." Lyric was so furious and sneered. She said mockingly again, "I think you really have some evil intentions. How can you say such shameless words in front of Eden? You are ruining their relationship. Do you think Victor loves you more than Eden? You get too big for your boots! We can see that you just want to seduce Eden's husband."

Bryanna was stunned. Lyric was too...

"Hey..."

"Shut up! I'm not interested in talking to you now." After Lyric finished speaking, she took the porridge and ate it. "Wait for me. I'll continue when I'm full."

Eden was amused.

Bryanna's face suddenly darkened. She didn't look at Lyric, but stared at Victor.

However, Victor was looking at Eden.

"Where did you go today?" He asked softly.

Eden took a look at him and then looked at Bryanna, "Well, I just played with Abby for a whole day."

"Then sit here for a while. I'll arrange for someone to get a nurse maid. I'll take you back to rest later." Victor helped her sit on a stool.

"Eden." Hearing this, Lyric looked at Eden pitifully.

Eden felt that Lyric really knew her so well. Knowing that she didn't want to face Victor, Lyric pretended to be so pitiful, and even her heart ached for her.

"Alright, I will not leave. I will accompany you." Eden laughed and said.

"No, you must go back and rest." Victor did not let her stay.

Lyric stopped eating and looked at Victor, "Ha-ha, do you want Eden to go back to rest so that you can flirt with this woman?"

Chapter 1906

Victor's eyes were filled with intense apathy. He looked at Lyric and warned her, "Don't think that I can't do anything to you just because Eden protects you. Why are you so ready to believe the worst about people?"

Victor was furious. How did Eden know such a sharp-tongued girl? She even protected Eden so much.

He was happy that Eden had a sincere friend, but this girl was even more annoying than Abigail!

"But you have to be a good husband. Victor, I don't want you to go. I want you to accompany me." Lyric imitated Bryanna's tone extremely well.

Victor was stunned.

Bryanna didn't know what to say.

"She even said those words to you. Should I regard you as a good man? I haven't been in a relationship before, but even I can tell that her words are meaningful."

Victor was so anxious that he looked down at Eden, "Honey, who is she? She has been trying to cast a bone between us."

"Hey, Mr. Alwynn, can you speak with your conscience? I am speaking for Eden, and you are the one who ruins your relationship." Lyric immediately defended herself.

"Miss, you're not qualified to meddle in their business, are you?" Bryanna could not help but say.

Lyric retorted coldly, "So what about you? I can't meddle in their relationship, but Eden once saved me. I just don't want her to be wronged. What's wrong?"

Lyric was straightforward. She cared about Eden, so she would protect her stubbornly.

"You..." Bryanna's face was extremely pale. It never occurred to her that such a sharp-tongued woman would ruin her plan.

Originally, she wanted Victor to stay in the hospital that night. In this way, Eden would think that Victor was with her, and she would take the first step on the road to success.

"Humph!" Lyric snorted coldly, lowered her head and continued to drink the porridge.

Eden kept silent. On the one hand, she was tired. On the other hand, Lyric had spoken her mind.

Only then did Victor remember that Eden and Abigail were about to have dinner when they saw him and Bryanna in the elevator. Perhaps she went back without eating.

Victor squatted in front of Eden and looked up at her tired face, "Honey, are you hungry? I'll go buy dinner for you."

Eden shook her head slightly. Although she was hungry, she had no appetite, "I'm not hungry."

"How could you not be hungry? You didn't eat anything tonight, did you?" Victor looked at her worriedly. She looked calm at this time, but he was afraid that she would not talk to him when they went back.

"It's okay. I'm not hungry." Eden shook her head slightly.

Lyric said, "Eden, didn't you buy two bowls of porridge?"

Eden suddenly remembered this and got up, "I forgot it. I bought this for Miss Norton. The temperature should be just right."

Obviously, Bryanna was taken aback, "Thank you. I'm really hungry, but my hand..."

She looked at Victor for help.

Victor lowered his head and did not look at her.

Eden naturally knew what Bryanna meant. Lyric was right. All Bryanna wanted was to seduce Victor.

"Oh! What a b*tch. This hand is injured, and your other hand is fine, isn't it? Do you want Mr. Alwynn to feed you?" Lyric said mockingly.

Bryanna was pissed off.

This woman was really bold!

She dared to say everything.

She smiled and said, "Of course Victor can feed me. We are friends."

Lyric was speechless. She had never seen such a shameless woman.

Victor said, "Eat it yourself. I have to accompany my wife."

Bryanna's face turned paler and paler. She was injured because of him, but didn't he care about her at all.

Eden looked at her expression and smiled, "Miss Norton, this is the way he is. You've known him for a long time, so you must know him, right? How about me feeding you?"

"Besides, I should take care of him these years. You don't have to thank me. He is my husband. Who else could I take care of except for him?"

Bryanna was really pissed off. The girl on bed and Eden were both sharp-tongued. Moreover, Eden was very smart, and she didn't expose her directly.

She was determined to get Victor. When she was in college, she thought that she was not good enough for him. But at this time, she deserved to be with him.

Bryanna grinned, "Well, if I didn't go aboard back then, I would have been with Victor now."

Victor said, "What nonsense are you talking about? You're too shameless. I only have Eden in my heart. How could I be with you?"

"Back then, you and Adonis were very close to each other. Even if you were in a relationship, you would have been with him. How could it have anything to do with me?"

"Moreover, tell Eden what happened at the elevator door. You sprained your ankle, and I helped you. What's more, I didn't know that you would wait for me in the underground parking lot."

Bryanna looked at Eden and explained ambiguously, "I was careless at that time. Don't... mind."

Eden smiled, showing that she understood her.

"Wait, parking lot..." Lyric seemed to have heard the key word.

Victor nodded slightly.

"Ha-ha... So you were the b*tch and the scum I saw."

Victor really wanted to give her a lesson.

"Eden, I'm sure that they have an abnormal relationship. They flirted with each other in the parking lot. She said that Mr. Alwynn promised to accompany her tonight. Eden, I know you'll be sad, but I don't want you to be cheated. I feel sorry for you." Lyric looked at Eden with distress.

Victor was speechless.

Eden was dumbfounded.

"You... Shut up! Tell me your parents' phone numbers. I'll call them right away." Victor was so angry that his voice turned extremely gloomy. If she hadn't called the police in the underground parking lot, he would have thrown her out.

"Humph! They won't come here even if I give you their phone numbers. Eden is so kind, and she can't be cheated by you two b*stards. I will call Jasper and ask him to come here. You've gone too far!"

"Lyric, don't do that." Eden immediately stopped her. Jasper would more worried if he knew this.

"Fine! Anyway, I have sent him a message and told him what has happened tonight. He will arrive soon." After Lyric said this, she looked at Victor proudly.

Victor gritted his teeth with hatred.

Eden was very helpless.

Why did things become like this?

While arguing, Bryanna had had an intravenous drip. The doctor let her go to the inpatient department for treatment.

"Victor, send Miss Norton to the inpatient department."

Victor looked at her with a sullen face, "Dean will be here soon. He has hired a nurse maid. I'll stay with you."

Bryanna's expectant face became disappointed.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn." Dean arrived in time. He walked in with a smile.

Victor said, "I've told you what has happened. You know what to do, don't you?"

Chapter 1907

"Mr. Alwynn, I know. The nurse maid is here. She's waiting outside."

Dean walked over and smiled very politely, "Mrs. Alwynn, you have a hard day. I brought you your favorite strawberry yogurt and milk tea, as well as your favorite strawberry cake."

Eden looked at him suspiciously. It was late at night. Where did he buy these?

"Thank you, Dean."

"This is what I should do."

Dean smiled. It was Victor's order, and he just brought them on his way.

He lowered his head and looked at Bryanna.

"Hello, Miss Norton, I'm Dean. If you need anything, just tell me."

"Thank you." Bryanna looked at Victor's indifferent face. At least he was willing to let his assistant take care of her, and she had plenty of chances.

Dean asked the nurse maid to accompany Bryanna to go upstairs, while he went to complete the formalities.

Lyric always felt that Bryanna's clothes were familiar.

"Hey... Wait a minute."

Lyric picked up her phone in a hurry.

Eden was a little helpless about her actions. She smiled and said, "Even the wounds on your body can't stop you from being impulsive."

"Oh my god! Eden, perhaps I have misunderstood Victor."

Victor was stunned.

However, he could forgive her if she could clarify the misunderstanding.

Lyric clicked the video and showed it to Eden.

"Eden, look at the woman in the video. She is wearing exactly the same as that woman. Moreover, the man who chased after me can be seen in the video. I was scared silly. Now I I finally realize that this is just the woman's conspiracy."

Eden watched the video. The woman in the video was indeed Bryanna.

As for the others, she had never seen them before.

Hearing her words, Bryanna was overwhelmed by fear.

No! She had just started to carry out her plan! How could she be exposed so soon?

Victor took the phone from Lyric's hand and looked at it. He instantly understood everything.

"Bryanna, how dare you!" He said every word coldly and furiously.

"No, Victor, I can explain... I..."

Eden said, "You are the one who sent me the text messages, aren't you?" It was time to have a showdown.

"What text messages?" Victor immediately looked at Eden.

Eden took out her phone and showed Bryanna the text messages.

Bryanna went deathly pale. No! Things shouldn't have developed like this.

"Dean, give Brian the evidence and do what you should do. Since she plots against me, I won't let her go!" Victor trembled with anger. Thinking that he had been wronged for a whole day because of Bryanna, he went ballistic.

"Okay, Mr. Alwynn." Dean immediately sent a message to Brian.

Victor winked at Dean, "Take her away."

Dean's heart skipped a beat. He knew what Victor meant.

He meant that he wanted to handle this matter in person, but they could not let Eden know it.

"Victor, listen to my explanation. You misunderstand me..."

When Jasper came in, he heard Bryanna yelling anxiously.

He looked at Victor with a frown.

Lyric immediately explained, "Mr. Joye, it's a misunderstanding... I'll explain it to you later."

Jasper bit back the words he would like to have said.

"Eden, are you all right? You look very tired. I will take care of Lyric. You can go back and rest first." Jasper did not want to talk to Victor.

He always put Eden in danger.

Eden looked at Lyric.

Lyric smiled and said, "Eden, thank you. You look really tired. Go back and have a rest. I'm fine."

Lyric looked at Victor and said as if they were familiar with each other, "Victor, I'm sorry. I misunderstood you."

Jasper was stunned. Lyric had clearly sent messages to him to scold Victor.

Victor said with amusement, "Since the misunderstanding has been clarified, I won't take it to heart. I am very happy that you can trust me again."

Victor smiled. He was so relaxed after the misunderstanding was rectified.

Eden chatted with Lyric for a while, explained to Jasper and sent a message to Abigail. Then she went home together with Victor.

It was cold in the late autumn night. Eden got on Victor's car and shrank her neck.

Fastening the seat belt, she wanted to take a short break. She was really weary and hungry.

As soon as she closed her eyes, Victor kissed her.

Eden put her hands against his chest and kept dodging, but he didn't let go of her.

"Oh..." Eden felt that she was dying and patted Victor's arm hard.

Only then did Victor let go of her reluctantly.

Victor gently rubbed her head, "I was so scared by you today."

Eden glared at him, "This is all your fault. She loves you three thousand times, but I only love you once in my life. How can I be compared with her?"

Victor was stunned, and then he reacted, "You left after seeing the text messages."

"What do you expect?" Eden avoided his affectionate gaze.

Victor sighed helplessly and lowered his head to kiss her forehead lovingly, "Fool, you are so stupid. Don't you believe me?"

Eden lowered her voice and said in a somewhat humble tone, "Which woman would be in a good mood when she faced with such a thing?"

"So, you must be very sad today." Victor felt even more distressed.

He was almost driven crazy.

"Yes!" Eden nodded lightly.

Victor sighed in heart, started the car and took her back.

Back home, he cooked dinner. After having a shower together, they lay on the bed. Feeling the familiar smell of her, he finally felt at ease.

"Honey."

"Uh-huh."

"Honey."

Eden turned to look at him, "Aren't you tired?"

Victor turned sideways and stared at her.

Victor stretched out his big hand and stroked her red lips with his slender fingers, "Honey, I'm not tired. If such a thing happens again in the future, you must tell me, and you can't speculate my mind alone."

Eden opened her mouth but didn't say anything. Sometimes, women liked to take unnecessary pains to study an insignificant problem.

So did she.

"You two met in college, and her words were so ambiguous. How could I not take your relationship seriously?" Eden didn't hide her true feelings. After confessing it, she felt much more relaxed in heart.

Victor was happy that she cared about him, but his heart ached because she was sad.

Chapter 1908

"You're not allowed to suspect me again, and you can't leave silently like that. I have been in panic all day long. If you really leave me, what should I do?" Victor took her into his arms and held her tightly. Getting her love again, he was so happy that he didn't want to let go of her.

"Okay. In fact, I trust you in my heart. However, I still felt very sad, so I wanted to go out for a walk." Eden looked at him with a resentful expression.

This day was truly agonizing.

"Could it be that she is sent by Barrett?" Eden suddenly asked.

Victor shook his head slightly, "I'm not sure now. Brian will investigate it. You don't have to worry. We'll know the truth tomorrow."

Victor kissed her forehead, saying in a low, hoarse and attractive voice, "Can't you really fall asleep?"

Eden was stunned and punched him.

"It's so late. Are you crazy?" Although she was mad, she didn't look fierce at all. Instead, she was like a spoiled child.

"Ha-ha... Yep, I almost went crazy today." Victor put his forehead against hers.

A shadow of a smile touched Eden's mouth.

"You didn't dodge her, did you? I happened to see everything. How could I not be sad?" Eden punched his shoulder gently.

Victor laughed and said, "I looked for you for a whole day. When I finally saw you, I was so excited. But she suddenly threw herself to me. I only cared about you at that time, and I couldn't care about anything else."

"Is that so? Was it really because you were excited that you didn't push her away?" Eden looked at him in disbelief.

When she saw him in the hospital, she almost lost her temper. If it weren't for the fact that she was worried about Lyric, she would have turned around and left.

"Fool, you don't believe me again." Victor was somewhat helpless.

Eden looked at his helpless face and laughed, "Then why don't you do something to make me trust you? Do you know what I was thinking when I saw you in the hospital?"

Eden looked at him quietly.

Victor stared at her with brooding eyes and pursed his lips together without saying a word.

Eden said, "If you really cared about that woman, I would divorce you without hesitation and leave."

Victor was shocked. She actually thought of divorce!

Victor was extremely shocked and scared. At the same time, he was mad.

His face was full of intense indifference, and his eyes were gloomy and apathetic. He looked very dissatisfied and annoyed.

Eden looked at him and suddenly realized that he was furious at this moment.

Perhaps the word "divorce" had deeply angered him.

As Eden thought like this, Victor had approached and pinned her against the bed. Her hands were lifted over her head, and they were sticking to each other.

Eden looked at him with grievance. Her face was slightly red and her breathing was rapid. For some unknown reason, she felt somewhat delighted.

Yes, looking at his mad face, she was glad. In the afternoon, she thought he didn't care about her, but at this time, she knew that he only belonged to her.

His breathing was hot, and Eden felt a burning sensation in her face. She was overwhelmed by his gentleness and warmth.

"What's wrong? Are you going to beat me?" He looked so seductive that Eden was a bit nervous. She felt very uneasy and looked at him vigilantly.

How could Victor bear to beat her?

He just couldn't help but want to be more intimate with her.

Victor's eyes became more and more brooding. He kissed her lips and warned her in a low voice, "In the rest of my life, I don't want to hear this world anymore, or I'll give you a lesson while bedtime." His tone was calm, but terrifyingly threatening.

Eden was a little unhappy, "Can't you punish me in another way?"

Victor sneered and warned her, "No, you can only learn a lesson in this way. I don't want to hear this world anymore."

Before Eden could speak, he had kissed her red lips. It was a sleepless night, and Eden was exhausted.

When Eden woke up again, it was four o'clock in the afternoon the next day.

She moved her sore body.

"Ouch..." Indeed, he gave her a lesson. She had never felt so uncomfortable before.

Eden got up unhappily, wishing that she could kick Victor out of the house.

It was clearly his fault. Why did he punish her in the end? Why should she accept such punishment?

Eden got up and looked around, but she didn't see Victor.

Humph!

This b*stard ran away after torturing her!

She would leave as well. When he came back, he would be alone.

Eden left home after taking a bath.

After she walked out, she got on Aro's car and took out her phone to take a look. There were a few missed calls from Abigail. She sent Abigail some messages and chatted with her for a while. Only then did Abigail rest assured.

After asking Jasper which ward Lyric lived in, she turned off the phone.

"Aro, if Victor asks where I am, don't tell him."

"Sure." Aro smiled.

Eden nodded with satisfaction. She was angry. Then she got out of the car, carried the things and went to the hospital.

Lyric was transferred to the Department of Orthopedics. Her leg was broken and she had to be hospitalized for a few days.

The ward was on the fifth floor. Abigail arranged a VIP ward for Lyric specially. When Eden came in, Jasper was sleeping on the sling chair.

Lyric was lying on her side. Eden found that Lyric was looking at Jasper.

Lyric was in a good mood. A smile touched the corners of her mouth, and her eyes were filled with affection. Even her ears were slightly red.

The atmosphere was unusually warm. Eden stood at the door and suddenly could not bear to go in and disturb the lovely scene.

She smiled and walked out lightly. Sitting on the bench in the corridor, she wanted to go in after Jasper woke up.

Eden put aside the things gently, turned on her phone and browsed TikTok.

In a dark room.

Victor, Lucian, Anson, Adonis, Brian and Dean sat on the sofa. A woman sat on the ground feebly, shivering. She was Bryanna.

Bryanna had been here since Dean brought her here last night.

Bryanna looked at Victor's handsome face. At this moment, he looked so horrible.

He sat there casually, and he was as arrogant as always.

Since she was brought here last night, she had been very afraid. She didn't know what Victor would do to her.

However, Adonis came here as well. Adonis was a very stupid person. It was because of Adonis's stupidity that she got close to them back then.

"Victor, it's really a misunderstanding. Could you trust me?" Bryanna didn't want to give up like this, and her voice was pleading.

She had known that Eden was his wife. But how could such an ordinary woman deserve to be with him?

Chapter 1909

When she was abroad, she had been paying attention to Victor's life.

She regretted going abroad back then. No matter how much money a woman could earn, she would feel lonely if she did not have a shoulder to rely on.

At that time, most people chose to go abroad after graduating from college, but River City developed better than those foreign cities. Moreover, Victor was a business genius, and he had become the most powerful man in River City. How could she give up?

She was no longer young, and she could only play the supporting roles in movies. Therefore, she felt that acting was no longer interesting.

In the past few years, she transferred her property and wanted to develop her career here.

"That's right. Victor, did you make a mistake? Bryanna used to be a very kind girl." Adonis couldn't help but plead for her.

Bryanna knew that Adonis would speak for her.

She had never expected for Lucian and Anson's help. They were as hardhearted as Victor.

"Adonis, this is really a misunderstanding. I don't know how the girl shot the video. She framed me." Bryanna gave Adonis a sweet smile, but the faint lines at the corner of her eyes made her smile look weird.

Candace was lovely and delicate. Adonis saw her adorable smiles everyday, so he felt that Bryanna's smile was somewhat hypocritical.

Victor glanced at him coldly, "As you said, she just used to be kind."

Adonis was speechless. After experiencing so many things, he knew how scheming people could be. He was so kind that he was always used by others. Therefore, he'd better stop talking.

After all, Victor never took advantage of his power to bully people.

He wouldn't treat someone like this unless he had irrefutable evidence.

"Alright, it's up to you. If she really did something to ruin your relationship with Eden, I will not let her go. These years, Eden has suffered a lot because of you. You can't let her down again." Adonis immediately took a clearcut stand.

Bryanna was stunned. When did Adonis become smart?

Lucian had known the whole story. In fact, he was very curious. Why did Bryanna know where Victor and Eden would go so clearly?

"Miss Norton, I really want to know how you knew that Eden would appear in the elevator? You even sprained your ankle at that time. Moreover, how did you know Eden's phone number? You sent her text messages to tell her that you and Victor were in love and wanted to ruin their marriage."

"A few years ago, did you use Adonis's stupidity to get close to Victor?"

"What?" Adonis was shocked, " Lucian, you think I'm stupid?" Adonis was so agitated that he wanted to beat him.

Lucian glanced at him and said with a sneer, "Do you think you're smart in Miss Norton's eyes? Why don't you think about how you met her back then?"

Bryanna's heart suddenly skipped a beat when she heard this. In her eyes, Lucian was more horrible than Victor. Victor would deal with everything directly by himself.

Lucian would conceal his real feelings. He knew what kind of person she was, but he wouldn't expose her and only looked at her with gloomy eyes sometimes. He was too scary and apathetic.

Adonis naturally would not forget this matter, "I hit her with my car by accident. After I sent her to the hospital, we exchanged our phone numbers. Then we got familiar with each other through text messages."

Lucian frowned. Even Adonis himself didn't know how many times he had been tricked by women.

Forget it. It had been a long time, and he didn't want to mention the past history. It was better to solve this problem first. He had to go back to work. His daughter would learn a lot in the future, so it was more important to make money.

Victor had known the answers to Lucian's questions.

When Brian called him, he knew everything.

Barrett registered Fly Media for Bryanna.

Bryanna was not sent by Barrett, but she worked for Barrett.

"What's your relationship with Barrett? Why does he help you?" Victor asked indifferently.

"F*ck!" Adonis went berserk when he heard this.

Hearing Barrett's name, he couldn't control his temper. It was because of Barrett that his daughter and Eden almost had an accident.

Thinking about it, he was still scared.

"My daughter was almost killed by that b*stard. Every time I see Ari, I feel very glad. If it weren't for Eden, I would..." Adonis was so excited that he could not speak.

People who didn't experience the thrilling moment wouldn't know how frightened and uneasy he was.

Bryanna was stunned. How did they find her relationship with Barrett?

"Tell me! Do you own Fly Media? What's the relationship between you and Barrett?" Victor's eyes were full of intense apathy.

Being roared at by him, Bryanna was dumbfounded. After she came to sense, she looked at him with grievances.

"Victor, I met him in M Country. He likes the TV series I play and supports me all the time. I wanted to return home, so he registered Fly Media for me. There was no other special relationship between us. Over the years, I want to contact you because I want to give you a surprise."

Adonis said, "It's an unpleasant surprise, isn't it? You want to cast a bone between Eden and Victor as soon as you're back."

Bryanna was at a loss.

"Adonis, how can you misunderstand me? I just like Victor so much. A few years ago, I left here all of a sudden and did not have a chance to confess my love. I don't want to live with regret, so..."

"So you try to ruin his marriage. I didn't say anything wrong." Adonis glared at her with indifferent eyes.

Anson patted Adonis's shoulder and said while yawning, "Bro, you finally become smarter."

He was driven crazy by Abigail last night. At this time, he only wanted to go back to rest, and he didn't want to think about these annoying things.

He looked at Victor, "Hurry up. How are you going to deal with her? You made Eden feel sad, so Abby vented her anger on me. I want to go back to sleep now." Anson yawned again.

Victor said, "Dean, expose what she has done."

Bryanna's face suddenly turned pale, and the wound on her arm ached.

"Victor, do you have to be so cruel?"

"Humph!" Victor sat up straight and squinted at her with aloofness, "You have to feel lucky because this is a legal society. Otherwise, you would have been killed! Eden was sad all day long because of your text messages and scheme. You really deserve to die!" Victor said word by word with anger. Thinking that Eden wanted to divorce him, he wanted to tear Bryanna apart.

"I won't let Fly Media exist in River City. As for the relationship between Barrett and you, I can find it out even if you don't say it."

"No! Victor, you can't do this to me. Fly Media is everything I have. It has just been established. That's my dream! Don't you know that?" Bryanna was so excited that her eyes turned red. She had underestimated Eden's importance to Victor.

Chapter 1910

Every successful man had several beautiful women around him. When Barrett was abroad, he had many mistresses.

This was the way many rich men lived.

Moreover, she had ambiguous relationships with a lot of men. They took what they needed from each other. Therefore, she thought that she could win Victor's heart.

Men liked pleasant surprises. The reason why she suddenly came to him was that she wanted to give him a pleasant surprise.

Barrett had arranged many spies for her secretly, so she could know exactly where Victor and Eden were.

That was why Victor and Eden were estranged from each other. But she was so unlucky. That d*mn woman shot a video. With evidence, Victor found everything out.

If Fly Media was ruined, she would be finished. That was the fruit of painstaking labour of her whole lifetime.

She did not want to lose everything. It was not easy for her to own so much.

"Humph!" Victor snorted coldly, and his expression was extremely evil, "Those who have schemed against me and Eden will come to no good end. Didn't Barrett tell you this?"

Bryanna was stunned, and she was truly afraid.

Originally, she thought that Victor wouldn't hurt her even if he knew that she had done something bad, because they had known each other for a long time. However, she was wrong.

Victor was very heartless.

"Victor, what should I do to make you spare me?" She was really scared. Fly Media was her everything.

Victor sneered, "Do you think you are qualified to bargain now?"

Bryanna trembled, feeling more and more powerless.

"But I was injured because of you. Victor, please let me go for the sake of this." Bryanna begged in a low voice.

"Ha-ha..." Victor was so angry but he laughed. His eyes turned more apathetic.

The longer Bryanna looked at him, the more frightened she became.

Adonis could not help but say, "Bryanna, that's ridiculous. It was you who asked someone to hurt yourself. Why should Victor be responsible for it?"

Bryanna glared at him. When she wanted Adonis to speak for her, he went against her. When she wished that he could shut up, he even spoke more harshly.

He was too straightforward, so sometimes he spoke without thinking.

She really didn't understand why his wife would marry him.

"Adonis, even you want to treat me so badly?" Bryanna looked at him sadly and said pitifully.

She placed all her hope on Adonis.

The expressions in the eyes of Lucian and Anson turned cold.

"Hey! I'm not very familiar with you. Back then, I hit you accidentally, but you were all right, weren't you? You only had a superficial wound, but I gave you ten thousand dollars! I don't owe you anything."

"Just stick to this issue. Since you've done something wrong, you have to take the responsibility. You're not a child who has no judgement."

Bryanna was stunned. Adonis had become different.

"Oh, you're so long-winded. I didn't sleep all night." Brian was angry. If Adonis was to handle this matter, he would not be able to return home within two hours.

Dean looked haggard. He was also very tired!

Everyday, his work made him exhausted.

Brian said, "Victor, let her go. You've known each other for a few years. It's cruel of you to ruin her life."

Of course, he had another purpose. He had reached an agreement with Victor.

Bryanna was taken aback. She did not expect this man to plead for her.

Victor said, "Bryanna, this is your last chance. If you dare to do anything to hurt Eden again, I will throw you on the ship. You know what I mean, right?"

Bryanna trembled all over. He was actually so ruthless.

Everyone there knew that it was hell.

"Victor, thank you. I won't do it again," Bryanna said obediently.

"Dean, send her to the branch of Chaosfield Society before releasing her. Otherwise, she won't learn a lesson." Victor's evil smile made Bryanna have a nasty feeling.

Dean sighed in heart. He knew that Victor was not that kind.

"Mr. Alwynn, Mr. Spielberg and I will go there right away."

"Ah..." Brian shouted crazily, patting his chest hard like a gorilla.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

He said, "Let me vent my anger! I haven't seen my girlfriend for half a month!"

The others didn't speak.

Brian roared at them, "You all have wives, and you've gone too far!"

"Hey! You can't get married, but why are you mad at us? The work is yours. If you dare, just quit the job and go home to accompany your girlfriend."

Brian looked sad, "My life is so hard. If I lose my job, what if my girlfriend dislikes me?"

Everyone was speechless.

Victor said, "You can get out of here now. Dean will replace you for a few days. Have a rest."

"Wow! Baby, you know my heart so well!" Brian rushed over and wanted to hug Victor.

Hearing his words, Victor got goose bumps all over. Seeing Brian running towards him, he immediately jumped up from the sofa and sat in Lucian's arms.

Lucian was taken aback.

Brian's excited face gradually froze, "Hey! Are you so disgusted with my arms? I just want to thank you. I seldom have a day off all year round, but you suddenly let me rest for a few days. I'm so touched!"

Victor had never seen Brian so coquettish.

"Get out!" Victor roared madly.

"Okay." Brian was very happy, "Dean, let's go. Our good days are on the way."

Dean glanced at him jealously, "You're the one who'll have good days, not me."

Brian patted him on the shoulder with sympathy, "Bro, in order to have a good future, we have to endure it. The work is tiring, but we'll get richly rewarded."

Victor was stunned. Did he give them a lot of work?

Dean nodded in agreement and asked someone to take away Bryanna. Then he and Brian left.

"Why are you still in my arms?" Lucian's voice suddenly became sharp and aggressive.

Victor stood up in panic, and his handsome face looked so unnatural.

"Go back, all of you." Saying this, he strode away.

"Ha-ha..." Anson laughed out loud. Seeing Victor's actions, he was no longer drowsy.

Lucian frowned as he looked at Anson who was laughing loudly. He got up slowly and wanted to leave.

Adonis suddenly said, "In the past, both of you and Victor had no girlfriend, so Anson and I thought you would be together."

Lucian almost fell to the ground when he heard these words.

When did he say that he didn't like women? He just didn't meet a woman he liked.

Fine, he didn't want to wander from the subject, and he chose to remain silent smartly.
