

Gluey Love 2051

Chapter 2051

At eight o'clock in the evening, Lyric slowly woke up.

She felt warm and comfortable all over.

She opened her eyes slowly. Only a bedside lamp was on.

She looked around and didn't see anyone else in the room.

She sat up slowly and looked out of the window. What had happened in the morning suddenly came to her mind. She stared out of the window mechanically.

In the morning, the cold wind chilled her to the bone, but she felt so warm at this time. When she was asleep, she dreamed that she fell into an ice cave.

She was very cold and kept calling for help. Her voice had turned hoarse, but no one came to save her.

In the dream, she breathed in the frosty air, and her body was as cold as ice. She was desperate and scared.

When she was about to faint, a light suddenly appeared in front of her. In the light, she saw a tall figure walking toward her. He bent slightly and gently held her in his arms.

His deep and low voice was reassuring. "Don't be afraid. I'm by your side."

Then, she woke up.

She moved slightly, and there was a sore pain in her arm. If it weren't for the pain and the warm room, she would have an illusion that everything that had happened in the morning was her dream.

Lyric put on her slippers slowly and wanted to go to the bathroom.

Looking at the white medical adhesive plaster on the back of her hand, she wondered if she had had an intravenous drip. No wonder the dizzy feeling didn't last long.

"Phew..." The feeling of surviving a disaster was particularly good.

"It's so good to be alive!" She muttered.

Sounds came from outside from time to time. She smiled and walked to the door. Her legs were still limp, but she could walk slowly.

When she reached the living room, she saw Jasper washing and cutting food in the open kitchen, and she smiled gently. With him here, the house had been warm.

When Jasper heard the light footsteps, he immediately looked back.

Seeing that Lyric had got up, he took a towel to wipe his hands and strode to her.

"Why did you get up? Are you hungry?" His voice was hoarse, deep and dry. It seemed that he had not spoken for a long time. His eyes were full of concern.

Seeing the nervousness and concern in his eyes, Lyric smiled shyly. She lowered her head and said in a low voice, "I'm hungry, and I just can't sleep. My waist hurts. I've slept for too long."

Jasper lowered his head, smiled and helped her sit on the sofa, "Sit here and wait for a while. Dinner will be ready soon."

Lyric looked at him eagerly, "Can I have hotpot?"

Jasper smiled and nodded, "Yeah, I'm just preparing your favorite hot pot. You can have a soup pot, and it will be ready soon."

Jasper got up and walked to the kitchen.

He cut the lettuce into two pieces and placed them on a plate. Then, the soup was boiled and he put the dishes that were not easy to cook into it. After that, he took the induction stove and placed it on the table.

Lyric watched as he did all these, and her eyes lit up. Jasper was a very nice man. If only he could become her boyfriend.

She couldn't miss such a good man.

If she missed him, she could never be with him again.

Lyric was very excited. She liked Jasper, and she wanted to tell him about it.

"Lyric, just be brave!" She encouraged herself.

Lyric couldn't wait to sit down at the table. Jasper had served the dishes.

After cooking all the food, Jasper handed her a glass of hot water, "Drink some hot water to warm your body."

"Oh!" Lyric picked up the glass obediently and took a few sips.

Only then did Jasper hand the chopsticks to her and place the sesame sauce in her front.

Lyric liked spicy food, but she chose to eat light food because she had had an intravenous drip.

She picked up a fish ball and dipped it in sesame sauce. After taking a bite, she looked at Jasper with satisfaction.

"Mr. Joye, your cooking skills have become better and better."

Jasper looked at her with a smile and did not say anything.

He picked up some chicken for her and placed it in her bowl. All the food was cooked in the chicken soup. The soup had a rich fragrance, and the dishes were particularly delicious.

"Jasper, thank you. If it weren't for you, I would have died." It was the first time that she had called him by his name.

She wanted to get closer to him by getting along with him as his friend. She would gradually change herself.

However, she had to confess her feelings before she became more outstanding.

Jasper was in a good mood when he heard that. He looked at her and laughed, "It's no bother. Eat your meal!"

"Oh!" Lyric lowered her head and ate obediently.

Jasper looked at her for a while before lowering his head to eat.

At this moment, he was very satisfied.

But she was easy to be shy. What should he do?

She was eating with satisfaction. It seemed that she could be pleased just by a hot pot.

Was he going to wait for such a shy girl to confess her love to him? In that case, he needed to wait for a long time.

Jasper's eyes darkened. When could he be in love?

If he continued to wait, he would become old, but Lyric was still in the prime of her life.

It was not easy to get married. Although he was a rich president, she might not marry him. He thought that he had a good character, and it depended on whether she liked him or not.

Those who fell in love with him easily liked his money. But some girls didn't like him, because they didn't know if he had a good character.

Of course, he was a rich man of excellent character.

They finished their dinner with something on their minds. Jasper cleaned up the dishes.

Lyric sat on the sofa and googled how should a woman confessed her love to a man she liked.

"If I give you a chance to be my boyfriend, will you say yes?"

If the man's answer was yes, she could say.

"I'm serious. Since you've promised me, you have to be a good boyfriend."

If he didn't want it, she could say, "I was just joking, ha-ha."

Lyric thought about it and agreed.

Everyone could make jokes. No, who would make such an ambiguous joke?

"You look like my next boyfriend."

Lyric was upset. She had never had a boyfriend.

"What do you think of me?"

If he said that she was a good girl, she could say.

"How about me being your girlfriend?"

Lyric read a lot of strategies, but none of them was suitable for her.

Jasper had come out of the kitchen after washing the dishes. He sat opposite Lyric slowly.

Jasper's eyes were good-looking. He had straight nose and clear jawline. He was wearing a white casual suit, and his every move was full of charm.

She really loved Jasper so much!

Jasper found that Lyric had been looking at him with keen and bright eyes. He smiled and asked, "Why do you look at me like this?"

Lyric immediately looked away and blinked her beautiful eyes. She was still thinking about the strategies online, so she couldn't help but ask casually, "Jasper, I like you. Can you be my boyfriend?"

Chapter 2052

"Ah..." Jasper stared at Lyric blankly. She confessed her feelings so suddenly that he was caught off guard.

She said, "Jasper, I like you. Can you be my boyfriend?"

Jasper felt that his face was burning hot. His heart was excited, and every cell in his body was dancing with joy.

Lyric was stunned as well. She couldn't control herself and said those words while thinking.

It was too embarrassing to confess her love in such a situation.

She was not prepared, and she didn't even dress herself up. How could she confess her love like this?

Lyric was dumbfounded. She looked at Jasper in a daze, not knowing what to do.

When Jasper came to sense and found that Lyric was more surprised than him, he smiled gently.

He appreciated her stunned face before asking with a smile, "Lyric, what did you say just now? I didn't hear you clearly. Say it again."

Jasper suddenly felt that he was a little evil, but he wanted to hear her say those words again.

"Ah..." Lyric reacted and kept shaking her head, "I didn't say anything."

He dared to ask, but she did not dare to say it again.

Jasper's face gradually darkened. Didn't she admit it anymore?

However, seeing that her cheeks had turned redder, he couldn't help smiling again.

He got up, moved closer and sat beside her.

His fragrance was familiar, and she even felt that he was a little aggressive. Lyric felt as if her heart was about to jump out of her chest.

"Lyric, I didn't hear you clearly. Say it again." His voice was deep and his smile was charming, touching Lyric's heart.

Lyric sat there stiffly. She wished she could slap herself a few times. Why... did she speak her mind suddenly?

Originally, she wanted to confess her love in a romantic place when the atmosphere was just all right.

There was no turning back!

She should break through the barrier in her heart and break the deadlock.

If she kept silent, she couldn't get him. Only when she became brave could she live a happy life with him.

Oh... No, she should think twice before taking actions.

Lyric felt like she was on the verge of a breakdown.

She was hesitating.

However, she did not know that Jasper, who was sitting next to her, had seen all the expressions on her face.

Her delicate and fair face blushed a little. Her lips were red, and her eyebrows were curved. Her expressions were so lovely that he wanted to lower his head to kiss her hard.

"Ha-ha..." Jasper chuckled.

Lyric was even more embarrassed.

"Lyric, I'm willing to be your boyfriend."

Since she had taken the first step, he would like to do the rest things.

"Ah..." Lyric opened her eyes wide and looked at him in surprise. She clenched her fists and covered her mouth as she looked at him.

It... was her illusion. Yeah, it must be.

Just now, Jasper said that he was willing to be her boyfriend.

She really wanted to scream excitedly.

Seeing that she couldn't react, Jasper couldn't help but smile again.

"Lyric." Jasper looked at her quietly.

Lyric looked at him seriously. He couldn't go back on his words!

"Yeah!" She answered him nervously.

Jasper's face was full of tenderness as he said with a smile, "Lyric, listen carefully. I'm willing to be your boyfriend. But I once fell in love with Eden and lived with Maureen. Do you mind it?"

He had told her about these things, because he was afraid that she couldn't accept his past on such a day.

He told her about his past because he wanted to be with her honestly.

Lyric looked at him with excitement and burst into tears. She was so delighted that she could not speak.

After a while, Jasper added, "Lyric, I love you wholeheartedly. I can give you the most sincere love. I'll protect you well and be gentle to you. A year ago, I disentangled myself from the past. Eden and I are more like family members now."

"I love you, and I'll try my best to make you live a happy life."

Jasper spoke his mind.

"Woo-woo..." Lyric cried out in excitement, and her heart was beating crazily.

However, Jasper panicked. Did he say anything wrong? Why was she crying so sadly?

This was the first time he had confessed his love to someone.

"Lyric... I..."

Before he could finish his words, Lyric threw herself into his arms.

"Jasper, I like you very much. In fact, I wanted to make myself better before confessing my love to you."

"But after what happened in the morning, I suddenly realized that life is very fragile. Sometimes, unexpected accidents would happen before we had time to do what we wanted. But when I was hung outside the window, I told myself that if I survived, I must confess my love to you."

"Jasper, ever since you told me about your past, I've been loving you wholeheartedly. I don't care about your past. I like Eden, too."

Lyric raised her head and looked at him with tears in eyes. Her tearful eyes were starry and bright, "Jasper, but I'm not good enough. My family background is not good, and I'm from a single-parent family. Don't you care about these?"

Since they had made it clear, she could speak her mind freely.

Jasper wiped away her tears with a gentle smile, "I only care about you, and my love for you has nothing to do with other things. In my heart, you are excellent. You're gentle, capable, kind and lovely. What's more, you're very sincere to people. This is how I think of you. It has nothing to do with money or family background. You're precious, and I love you." Her tone was gentle and sincere!

Ah...

Lyric screamed in her heart. His gentle tone was so pleasant to hear. The man she thought about day and night was telling her that he loved her.

This moment couldn't be more wonderful.

She sniffed and tried to calm herself down. Then she said with happy tears, "Jasper, you missed the sunset glow, but now you've seen the stars all over the sky, haven't you? I will love you and become the brightest star in your galaxy."

She was confident that she could give him a happy life.

Jasper smiled tenderly. He slowly lowered his head and gently wrapped his arms around her waist. He pulled her with a little strength and she sat in his arms. He smiled and kissed her red lips affectionately.

His kiss was light, but he didn't seem to be dissatisfied. He gradually became overbearing and possessive.

After confessing their feelings, they were eager to get closer to each other and express their love. Their sleeping souls seem to be awakened.

There was no doubt that for Jasper, the sex was the most intoxicating and enjoyable. He forgot everything, including the time and place, and he just wanted to feel the tenderness in his arms.

.....

Early the next morning, Abigail was woken up by the ringtone.

Chapter 2053

"Hello? Jasper, I can finally sleep late today. Why did you wake me up?" Abigail complained.

"Ha-ha..." Jasper smiled happily, "Abby, I'll bring my wife to see you later."

"Ah..." Abigail was completely awakened by his words.

"Sweetheart, what did you say?" Abigail sat up, and Ayman woke up with a start.

Ayman glanced at her with complaint, turned over and continued to sleep.

Looking at his disgusted face, Abigail was speechless.

"Abby, I said that I would bring my wife back later." Jasper smiled and repeated patiently.

"Well, that's great. Come back quickly. I'll cook for you. No, I can't cook. I don't know if Anson will come back later. Let's go outside..."

"No, we won't eat outside on such an important day. It's too cold. I'll ask Eden to cook something delicious."

"Okay, I'll hang up and then go to the supermarket. Take your time."

Abigail hung up the phone and threw it away. Then she immediately ran into the bathroom.

Jasper finally had a girlfriend. How could she not be excited?

Abigail was so happy that she hummed while washing up.

Lyric was eating the delicious crab bread. Hearing Jasper talking on the phone, she blushed, and even the delicious crab bread seemed to have become dry.

"Mr. Joye, we were in a relationship yesterday, but you'll take me home to see your family. Isn't it too fast?"

Although she had met Abigail once, it was too fast.

Jasper looked at her and didn't agree with her, "No, but why do you still call me like that? Yesterday, you called me by my name smoothly, didn't you?"

Lyric blushed and argued, "That's... because..." She didn't know what to say, because she had been dizzy since last night.

Last night, she had the most wonderful dream in her life, and she was still immersed in it.

Looking at her stunned face, Jasper was amused, "Alright, eat quickly. Just call me by my name in the future. I don't like my beloved woman to be so polite to me."

"Oh!" Lyric felt that it was better for her to stop talking. The more she said, the more mistakes she would make.

Jasper looked around Lyric's house, thought for a moment and said, "Lyric, do you want to live in Windsor Villa?"

"Ah..." Lyric was stunned for a moment, "Why should I live there? Isn't it good to live here?"

Well, why were they talking about moving?

"Lyric, the villa there is very big, and you'll own a courtyard. Those villas all belong to Victor. My sister and Amelia live there. I was thinking about buying a villa there before, but it was so big for me to live, so I have been living here."

"Let's go get our marriage certificate later. After that, we'll go to Abby's house and see the villa at noon."

"Ahem..." Lyric coughed in shock after hearing Jasper's words.

"Jasper, we only confirmed our relationship last night, but are we going to get our marriage certificate today? This is too fast! Why do I feel that I've been tricked by you?"

Although she really loved him, it was really too fast.

Jasper handed her another piece of crab bread, "Since you've been tricked by me, accept the fact with joy."

Jasper smiled wickedly. For him, it was a good day to get the marriage certificate.

He had a warm winter.

In the end, Lyric could only call her mother. Her mother was very satisfied with Jasper and agreed to let them get married.

"Mom, it's the first time you've seen him. How can you agree with him so quickly?"

Looking at her mother, Lyric couldn't believe what she had heard. Her mother had agreed.

Lyric's mother was very young, and she was a fashion designer. Dressed in a fashionable red dress, she looked capable and charming with curly hair.

She smiled, "I've heard about Mr. Joye in M Country. I really didn't expect you two to be so fated. Over the years, I have never stopped you from having a boyfriend. I trust Mr. Joye. With the marriage certificate, you two can live together legally, and I can be relieved."

Jasper stood next to Lyric, and he was very happy to hear that, "Mom, you are too polite. Call me Jasper in the future." Jasper didn't stand on ceremony. He loved Lyric, so he wanted to do that.

Lyric looked at Jasper, "We... haven't registered our marriage yet... This is my..." Lyric felt that she was too affected. Forget it! Anyway, she loved him, didn't she?

She deserved it!

After hanging up the video call, they went out and got the marriage certificate in the Civil Affairs Bureau very quickly. Twenty minutes later, they came out with marriage certificate.

After putting away the marriage certificate, Jasper took a photo of it and shared it online.

Jadiel would see it, and he would give up his feelings for Lyric as soon as possible.

Lyric was his wife.

Ha-ha... He was so excited!

He had never been so joyful before.

Lyric could only watch him silently.

After getting in the car, Lyric suddenly realized what she had missed.

"Jasper, why don't I even have a wedding ring? You didn't even make a proposal, did you? Why did I marry you so stupidly?" Lyric regretted it, but it was too late.

Jasper looked in the direction of the shopping mall, "Who said you didn't have a ring? I'll take you to buy it. Then I'll make a proposal to you. You're not stupid at all. Now you're very clear-headed, aren't you?" Jasper said reasonably.

But Lyric didn't agree with him.

Soon, Jasper brought Lyric to a famous jewelry counter on the first floor of the mall.

"Sir, what can I do for you?" The shop assistant asked with a sweet smile.

Jasper nodded slightly, "Please show me the exclusive proposal ring here."

"Okay, sir. Please sit here and wait for a moment!"

Jasper took Lyric to the rest area and sat down.

Lyric was a little nervous and excited, "Hey, is it really good for you to get the marriage certificate before buying me a ring?"

Jasper took her hand and blinked at her gently, "Of course! Is there any difference between being my wife now and being my wife in a few days?"

"It's different!"

"Why? Tell me the difference, and I'll listen!" Jasper looked at her with a faint smile.

Lyric was speechless. Could she make it clear?

While they were picking out the rings, there was a heated discussion in the group chat of Joye Group.

When Jadiel saw the marriage certificate, he was in a trance.

It turned out that he had lost.

Chapter 2054

Jasper won.

He smiled self-mockingly. Jasper was much richer than him, and he was in the beginning of his career. Lyric could only suffer if she became his girlfriend.

It was a good ending, but he just couldn't bear to leave her. Why couldn't he be with such a good girl?

It seemed that he couldn't do anything but wish them happiness.

Jadiel commented, "Congratulations, Mr. Joye. I hope you can be happy for the rest of your life and live up to each other's expectations!"

When Jasper saw Jadiel's comment, he couldn't help but smile. He was even happier because Jadiel had seen the photo.

Some other employees commented, "F*ck, that's incredible! We've been chasing after Mr. Joye for so long, but he has actually married Lyric."

"Tut-tut! Lyric is quite clever. I've been working here for three years, but Mr. Joye doesn't even remember my name. They got married so quickly. I really get a slap in my face."

"Lyric is such a simple girl. How could she be tricked by Mr. Joye?"

"Oh! Watch your mouth! Mr. Joye is a great man, okay?"

....

"Honey." Victor, who was about to go to Abigail's house, suddenly stopped Eden.

Eden had walked to the door. Hearing his voice, she looked back at him and asked, "What's wrong?"

Victor looked at the marriage certificate that Jasper had shared online, and he was stunned. Among them, Jasper was the most cunning. He got married so soon.

"Eden, look! This is Jasper and Lyric's marriage certificate!"

"Ah..." Eden couldn't react, "What?"

"Jasper and Lyric's marriage certificate. They got married today."

"Oh my god!" Eden opened her mouth wide, "Really? So fast?"

Victor walked to her and showed her the photo, "Look, Jasper is smart. He married Lyric so quickly. We really didn't have to worry about him before. He just didn't meet the right person."

Eden looked at the marriage certificate and smiled with understanding. She was so moved that she almost burst into tears.

"Jasper really gave us a big surprise early in the morning."

Victor sneered, "No wonder Abigail asked you to cook delicious food in her house early in the morning. It turned out that Jasper will come back with his wife."

Eden elbowed him lightly, "What are you talking about? Let's go. It's such a beautiful day. Of course, we should cook something delicious to celebrate it in the cold winter."

"Okay, I see." Victor gently rubbed her head, "Let's go, or we'll be late for lunch."

Victor took her hand and walked out. He was very happy because Jasper had married his beloved woman.

In the future, he would no longer feel guilty.

In the end, Lyric chose a diamond ring that weighed two carats.

Jasper was very dissatisfied, "Why do you have to choose such a small diamond? Don't you women like big diamond very much?"

Lyric looked at his displeased face and said with a smile, "That's what they like, and I don't like it. I only want the diamond I like. It doesn't matter how big the diamond is. As long as it's suitable for me. What's the use of an exclusive ring? The suitable one is the best."

"But it's too small." Jasper looked at the ring on her finger carefully. It wouldn't look ugly even if it was slightly bigger.

Jasper looked at the pairs of diamond rings in front of him and bought a pair of diamond rings that weighed ten carats in the end. The rings were high-end, and the color was very beautiful. The two rings were worth about eight million dollars.

Seeing the price, Lyric immediately returned the diamond rings to the shop assistant.

Jasper was speechless.

Lyric pointed to the diamond ring on her finger, "I like this one. It suits my hand very much, and the male ring is very suitable for you. That ring is too big. If you have money to buy that ring, you might as well buy something else for me."

"Well..."

"Jasper, I'm your wife now. You have to listen to me." Lyric said reasonably.

That was too expensive!

She had never seen so much money before.

Moreover, the diamond was so big, and it didn't suit her.

Her fingers were slender. A big diamond ring would make people jealous, and it wouldn't look beautiful.

Upon hearing the word "wife", Jasper grinned from ear to ear, "Fine, I'll listen to my wife."

Jasper paid the bill and pulled Lyric to the street. It was a circular road. Although it was covered with heavy snow, the scenery was particularly lovely.

They stopped. Jasper stood in front of her, knelt on one knee and took out the diamond ring, looking at her gently.

Lyric looked at him excitedly, "How can you make a proposal on the street?"

Jasper looked around, and the scenery was not bad, "Lyric, I want this winter to remember our love. There is no flower or romance, and there is only holy snow. But our love is the warmest. Lyric, do you want to marry me?"

He held the ring and looked at Lyric with a tender smile.

Lyric was so happy that her eyes blurred with tears. She smiled and burst into tears again, "I've married you, haven't I? Jasper, listen carefully. I do. I'll love you and our family from now on."

With a gentle smile, Jasper put the ring on her finger and kissed her hand gently.

He got up and hugged her tightly, "Lyric, I love you!"

It was love!

He heard his own affectionate voice. He felt very comfortable while getting along with her. This was love!

They had a tacit understanding in life. It was love!

"Jasper, is it true love?" Lyric asked with tears.

"Yes, it is!" Jasper took a step back and looked at her with a gentle smile, wiping the tears on her face with his slender fingers.

"Don't cry, or others will think that I am bullying you."

Lyric felt like she was dreaming, and she couldn't hold back the excitement and joy in her heart.

"Jasper, thank you for loving me when I have a crush on you. I love you!"

Lyric threw herself into his arms.

Jasper hugged her tightly.

The sun shone through the clouds and shone warmly on them, casting a glow over the white snow.

Jasper raised his head and smiled. This was a blessing from the sun.

"Lyric, we'll hold a wedding the next spring, okay?"

"Okay, I'll listen to you."

She had never stopped loving him, so she was willing to get the marriage certificate with him!

Jasper took her hand and walked to the car. In just a few hours, he had a happy home.

In just a few hours, he got the love of his life.

He had a crush when they first met, and he gradually fell in love with her while getting along with her. He would spend the rest of his life with her.

Lyric said, "I finally got married on a snowy day."

Jasper said, "I got a wife."

Lyric said, "Congratulations to me!"

Jasper said, "Congratulations, my dear wife!"

Chapter 2055

Finally, it was the international design competition.

Zaiden and Jaida came back.

They wanted Eden to get to the final.

Victor and Eden went to the airport to pick them up.

They hadn't seen each other for a long time. That night, they went to River City Restaurant and had a reunion dinner with the Clement family.

Taking part in the design competition and getting awards were the best way for designers to build their reputation and raise their profile.

The authority and amount of awards won by a designer was often the standard to measure the value of his design.

Participating in the design competition was a way to communicate with their counterparts and the designers overseas. Designers could know the fashion trend, use the experience of other designers for reference, reflect on themselves and improve themselves.

It was a great experience in life, and it would make their careers more wonderful.

The international design competition had been held for fifteen times, and each champion could become the fashion queen.

River City was a clothing city, so many authoritative and international competitions would be held here.

This year, the theme of the international women's wear design competition was graceful life.

The competition had attracted a lot of attention. Famous and outstanding designers from more than twenty countries participated in it, and nearly twenty thousand design drafts were received.

After the primary and semi-final periods, forty design drafts got to the final. Twenty-five designers came from abroad, and fifteen designers were from M Country.

These creative and unique women's wear would be shown on the stage that day.

Eden, Jasper, Rachel and Dulcie got to the final successfully.

Only Danielle was eliminated.

She was unwilling to give up, but she had to accept the fact.

That day, it was the final.

Eden, Victor, Zaiden, Jaida, Jasper, Lyric and the staff in the company all arrived early.

They sat together, talking and laughing.

Ever since Lyric and Jasper got married, they stayed together everyday. Jasper had bought a house at Windsor Villa. Victor sold it to him at half price.

When Jasper paid the bill, he saw Victor's bitter smile and felt so proud.

Speaking of which, Victor was really generous to his friends.

Recently, Victor had been treating Jasper with his face darkened.

They were all very rich, but they tried their best to profit at his expense. How could he not be angry?

What was more annoying was that he actually agreed to sell it at half price.

He had a lot of houses, so this villa was not important to him. However, every time he saw Jasper's smug face, he was very displeased.

Of course, Jasper knew why Victor looked so gloomy.

However, he just wanted to show off, and he wanted to laugh when he saw Victor.

Victor said, "Stop laughing. You laugh as soon as you see me, and your face is full of wrinkles."

Jasper smiled casually, "Victor, don't worry. I won't take advantage of you."

Victor was speechless. He had taken advantage of him, okay?

"When the three children get married, I will give them a lot of money as gifts."

Victor scolded him in heart. That was the money Jasper saved from the villa.

Victor did not look at him.

Jasper couldn't help laughing again.

Lyric knew why he was laughing.

She elbowed Jasper gently.

"Don't laugh. You should thank Victor. How can you be so mean?" Lyric lowered her voice and watched Eden chatting with Jaida and Aisling not far away.

Jasper put his hands around her waist and said in a low voice, "Dear, you don't know that I can't help laughing when I see Victor. He has been treating me with a cold face for several years. I guess I'll have to laugh at him for several years."

Lyric didn't know what to say. Why were men so narrow-minded? It was so boring.

Jasper smiled and said, "Lyric, I have nothing to do after the competition. Let me take you abroad to see my parents. They want to see you very much. We won't come back this year and we'll celebrate the new year with them abroad. On the fifth day of the lunar year, we'll go to see your mother." He had made a plan.

As for work, he could deal with his business wherever he was.

"Ah..." Lyric looked at him and thought for a moment, "Won't we be very busy at the end of the year? We'll be away for more than a month. I want to attend Eden's wedding ceremony."

Jasper glanced at Victor and lowered his voice, "They haven't fixed a date, and it's hard to say when they'll hold a wedding. I don't think he'll be able to hold a wedding the next year. Eden wants to hold a wedding on the lawn. It depends on when the snow will melt. I don't think it's possible for them to hold a wedding this year."

Lyric pointed outside, "What's wrong with your eyes? The snow is not heavy this year. Last year, the city was covered by snow at this time. But now, the snow in many places have melted. I feel that even the God is helping Eden. There will be enough time for her to hold a wedding before the Spring Festival."

Jasper said, "Why don't we plan for the wedding as well? We can hold a wedding before the new year."

Lyric punched his arm, "Why do you have to add trouble to them? Do you want to hold a wedding together with them? I'm not pregnant."

Hearing this, Jasper glanced at Lyric's belly. They had been together for a long time. Could it be that she had been pregnant?

Lyric felt his gaze and moved her body slightly. Her face blushed scarlet.

Seeing her like this, Jasper smiled. Why was she so cute?

He hadn't said anything, but she was so shy.

Jasper was about to speak when Victor kicked him. He turned his head to look at Victor's gloomy but handsome face. Victor had been so charming.

"Why do you kick me?"

Victor said with his face darkened, "You know why."

Jasper was speechless. He spoke in such a low voice just now, but Victor actually heard him.

"Jasper, if I can't hold a wedding this year, you'll take the blame."

Jasper was stunned for a moment. Victor had really heard it.

"Well, you can definitely hold a wedding." Jasper smiled and didn't want to get into trouble. No one could stop Victor when he was mad.

Victor wanted to teach him a lesson, but he saw Barrett walking toward them.

Therefore, he didn't say anything.

"Yo! Mr. Alwynn, Mr. Joye, we meet again." Barrett greeted them with a smile, followed by a group of people.

Jasper and Victor nodded calmly and did not want to talk more.

Paulina glanced at Eden who was next to Victor and smiled.

Eden happened to look at her. When their eyes met, Paulina sneered weirdly.

Eden frowned, and she had a nasty feeling again.

She didn't mean to think too much, but this bad feeling was very familiar.

Dulcie looked at Eden and smiled. She was in a particularly good mood because she had got to the final.

She always believed that she could do everything with money. Becoming more and more famous really made her happy. This year, she would definitely become the fashion queen.

Chapter 2056

Eden also took a look at Dulcie. She was wearing a dark blue dress. The clever tailoring flattered her nice figure. With curly hair, she looked elegant and young.

Dulcie's eyes were provocative, but Eden only glanced at her blandly.

Dulcie sneered with disdain. There was going to be a good show.

Eden looked around and did not see Darlene.

Darlene said that she would come, so she had been paying attention to the whole hall. The competition was about to start, but she hadn't seen Darlene.

Zaiden had something to do, so he would come in a while.

"Eden, what's wrong?" Looking at her uneasy face, Victor was a little worried.

Eden shook her head slightly, "I'm fine. I just think it's noisy because there are so many people here."

Victor raised his hand and glanced at the watch on his wrist, "The competition is about to start."

"Yeah!" Eden nodded slightly.

The judges had taken their seats, and Eden saw Tiana.

Tiana seemed to have sensed her gaze and suddenly smiled at her.

Eden had a nastier feeling in heart.

Sounds of voices and commotion could be heard. The advertisements of various fashion brands and fashion shows were played on the big TV.

The cameras in the reporter's hands clicked away, giving out dazzling light.

The noisy environment made Eden a little upset and vexed. She felt a tightness in the chest, and she was not as relaxed and joyful as she was when she first came here.

She had to get some fresh air.

"Victor, I'll go backstage." She was a little disturbed.

Victor said, "I'll go with you."

"Good."

After Eden told Jaida and Aisling about it, she went backstage with Victor.

Sean and Margery were busy.

At the same time, the model of the first group had stepped onto the stage.

The exciting music sounded with the appearance of the models.

"Mr. Alwynn, Director Bleu, you're here." Alyssa greeted them.

Victor glanced at her with sharp eyes and did not speak.

Eden nodded slightly, "Is everything ready?"

Alyssa smiled and nodded, "The models are ready. Mr. Oakley is touching up their foundation. We're in group forty-two."

Eden asked, "What about Z.S. Company?"

"Group forty-one."

Eden frowned slightly. How could it be so coincidental? Why was Alwynn Group behind Z.S. Company?

"What's wrong? Director Bleu, you don't look well." Alyssa asked worriedly and glanced at Danielle beside her. Danielle lowered her head and did not speak.

"It's okay. Just do your own work." Eden looked at her and smiled. Looking at the busy backstage, she felt a little agitated.

These days, she always felt suffocated, as if there was a tightness in her chest. Sometimes, she would break out in cold sweat. She knew that it was because she had been too busy.

Victor looked at her, and her face was really pale.

He said softly, "Eden, you don't look well. Are you not feeling well?"

Eden frowned slightly and looked at him, "Maybe I've been too busy recently, and I don't have a good rest. I'll have a rest. Call me when our models go on the stage."

Eden felt that she had to calm down. She felt very uncomfortable in heart.

"I'll go with you." Victor was worried.

Looking at him, Eden shook her head slightly. She let him bend down and whispered a few words in his ear.

Victor frowned in disbelief.

"Eden... you..."

Eden said, "My intuition has always been accurate."

Victor's eyes became serious, "Don't worry. Lucian has arranged everything." It was time to catch them all.

"Okay!" Eden knew about his plan, and she was relieved.

Victor sent her to the lounge and left.

Eden sat alone in the lounge. Drinking the hot water prepared by Victor, she felt much better.

Thinking of Dulcie's provocative smile and Tiana, she was very annoyed.

"Rat-a-tat..."

Eden glanced at the door. Who would come at this time?

She said, "Come in."

Danielle pushed the door open and walked in. She looked at Eden, smiled and gently closed the door.

Looking at Danielle who was dressed in expensive clothes, Eden felt a little disgusted.

"Why are you here?" Eden lowered her head and took another sip of hot water. She wanted to stay alone.

"Director Bleu, I'm here to congratulate you." Danielle said with a smile, "Congratulations, you've got to the final."

In the end, she lost to Eden.

She suffered a stunning defeat. She thought that her work was unique, but she was too naive.

"Thank you! But now we don't know who'll win the competition. The fashion queen is the real winner." Eden's tone was indifferent as she looked at Danielle, "You're not here to thank me, are you? Is there anything else?"

Danielle nodded with a smile, "I came here because I want to thank you for letting me work in the company and giving me a stable life. Thank you!"

Danielle thanked her with a smile, but Eden couldn't see any sincerity in her eyes.

"In order to meet me by chance, you put in a lot of effort, didn't you?" Eden looked at her quietly. At that time, Danielle's jeans were whitish from much washing, and her white shirt and shoes were cheap. But at this time, she was wearing stylish clothes and expensive high heels. She had really changed.

Danielle looked extremely embarrassed and looked at Eden nervously.

Eden came straight to the point, which made her somewhat nervous.

"Director Bleu, what did you say? I..."

"Don't you understand?" Eden interrupted her. The khaki coat slipped out of her shoulders. She wrapped herself with it more tightly, trying to feel warmer. At the same time, she saw Danielle's awkward expression.

Eden leaned back to make herself feel more comfortable, "Danielle, I thought you would benefit from them, but I didn't expect that you couldn't get to the final."

Danielle gritted her teeth and lowered her head without saying anything.

"I can understand a poor person, but I don't know much about someone who is left without a shred of self-esteem." Hearing Eden's words, Danielle suddenly look up at her.

Eden sat there lazily with her hands in her coat.

Although she looked innocent and gentle, Danielle felt awkward and depressed.

"Director Bleu, just say what you mean." Danielle didn't want to be humiliated by her, and she wanted to salvage her pride.

"Okay, I'll get straight to the point. Since you came here to say those words to me, it means that you're ready to quit the job, right?"

Danielle was stunned and nodded. She was too ashamed to stay in the company, and something terrible would happen later... She had to leave.

Before she left, she came here for no reason, and she wanted to see Eden.

She knew that no matter how hard she tried, Victor would not be attracted by her. She could only leave like this. She did not want to gain nothing in the end, just like those stupid women.

She had no courage. The money she had earned was enough for her to live a good life in the future.

But at this moment, she regretted coming to see Eden.

Chapter 2057

Seeing her nod, Eden smiled sarcastically.

Danielle wanted to leave after getting enough money. How could she leave so easily? She hadn't got even with her.

Danielle was very smart. She would not easily get herself involved, and she wasn't greedy. She felt that it was about time to leave, but it was too late. She was greedier than she thought.

"Sit down first!" Eden pointed to the sofa opposite her. Victor was the sponsor, so she had this lounge. There was everything she needed in the lounge, and the heat was on. Staying here was quite comfortable.

"No, I have something to do when I go out later. I came here to congratulate you." Danielle didn't want to stay anymore. Eden's words made her very uneasy.

She was in a hurry to leave, but could Eden let her go so easily?

"Miss Clark, if you leave like this, your supporter will have to face everyone alone. You're really disloyal."

Eden's words successfully stopped Danielle.

She suddenly looked back at Eden's smiling face and said in confusion, "Director Bleu, I don't quite understand what you mean."

Eden looked at her quietly with a bright smile.

It was easy for Danielle to confuse people with such an innocent face.

Eden's smile was easy-going and beautiful, but Danielle felt a chill on her back.

She didn't know whether to leave or sit, feeling very uncomfortable!

This kind of uneasy feeling made it hard for her to breathe, and she felt a knot of fear in her throat.

"Danielle, when you seduced my husband for the first time, I suspected your motive."

Hearing Eden's bland voice, Danielle look at her in disbelief.

Eden was very casual, but Danielle felt as if she was standing naked and being humiliated by others. She was extremely embarrassed.

"Director Bleu, I..."

"Do you want to explain? I can give you a chance to defend yourself." Eden lay on the sofa lazily and looked at her.

"No... I..."

However, Eden smiled and pursed her lips. Looking at Danielle's nervous and scared eyes, she scolded herself for being stupid. How could she help such an ingrate back then?

"You know the truth very well. After your drugged my husband, I didn't kick you out of the company. You tampered with my dress and let me make a fool of myself on the stage, but you still work in the company. Have you thought about why Victor punished everyone except for you?"

"Why do you think what you have done can be flawless and no one can find you out?"

Danielle was shocked and looked at Eden in horror.

"So, have you been setting up a trap for me?" Danielle's hands and feet went limp. She couldn't believe what she had heard.

She had always been glad that Victor failed to find her out again and again.

At this time, Eden's calm eyes finally turned furious. She glanced at Danielle coldly, "Do you remember that the design drafts of the children's clothes were once leaked?"

Danielle suddenly clenched her fists, lowered her head and didn't say anything. It turned out that her every move was under their control.

"Director Bleu, what on earth do you want to say?" At this time, she didn't want to pretend anymore.

Her eyes were full of the flames of evil fury.

"You were the one who gave the design drafts to Paulina, weren't you?" Eden looked at her with amusement, but her eyes were totally apathetic.

"I..."

"Do you want to deny it?" Eden interrupted her with a smile again, but she pressed the recording button secretly.

"I won't wrong anyone without evidence."

In an instant, their eyes were full of hostility as they looked at each other.

"Evidence? What evidence do you have?" Danielle did not believe that Eden would have evidence. She did everything secretly.

"If you want it, I can show it to you after the competition is over."

"I'm afraid that you can't win." Danielle suddenly sneered and looked at the time on the phone. Paulina should be ready.

They had been in a stalemate for so long, and she had stalled a lot of time for Paulina.

"I know. I saw the provocative smiles of Paulina and Dulcie, and I know that some of the judges hate me. I knew this matter wouldn't be so simple. You came to me as soon as I arrived at the lounge."

"I'm not feeling well indeed, but my main purpose is to give you and another person a chance." Eden said calmly. Although it was a pity that she could not get the fashion award, she had tried her best. After the international competition was over, she would inherit Symantec Group so that Zaiden could travel around the world with Jaida.

This was their wish.

It was Zaiden's lifelong wish. He and Jaida had missed each other for so many years. She wanted them to live happily in the rest of their lives.

"Did you know that I would follow you here?" Danielle was very surprised. Why was Eden so sure that she would come to her?

Moreover, who was the other person she had mentioned?

Eden hesitated for a moment, looked at her with her clear eyes and said with a smile, "Because you think that you have won. If you left secretly, you would never have a chance to show off your victory before me. Therefore, you would definitely come to greet me or congratulate me, or say something to embarrass me. Only then will you feel proud while leaving."

Danielle's heart skipped a beat. Eden could actually guess what she was thinking!

Indeed, she was unwilling to leave like this, so she came to see her.

"Tell me. What's your plan? Do you want the judges to put me in trouble deliberately or something else?"

"In fact, I'm quite confident in my own design. Spring is a time of renewal. My design is an unusual combination of traditional elements and fashionable elements, and it's the most satisfactory work I've ever made over the years." Eden was very calm. Participating in the competition had made her very satisfied.

Although it was a pity that she couldn't win, she could accept the fact. As long as she knew the whole story clearly.

"Eden, you are too naive. Now it should be the time for your models to go on the stage. I guess that the hall is in a mess now. Their plan is to ruin you and Alwynn Group completely, not to stop you from winning the competition."

Hearing Danielle's words, Eden suddenly stand up, "What do you mean?"

"Ha-ha..." Seeing Eden's flustered face, Danielle finally felt that she had turned the table.

"You will soon understand what I mean." Danielle's smile became brilliant. Later, she would immediately leave here and go straight to the airport. She was not afraid at all.

Victor and Eden would be busy dealing with the problems. How could they have time to look for her?

"Tell me. What do you want to do?" Eden went berserk.

Chapter 2058

"Ha-ha..." Danielle could tell that Eden was nervous. She stood aside, appreciating Eden's uneasy and scared face carefully.

In the past, she was once very frightened as well.

Eden was rich and powerful. However, she had never been arrogant, and she kept a low profile.

She treated the employees very well, and she wouldn't put on airs just because she was Victor's wife. She was friendly to everyone, but Danielle looked down on her.

Victor's family was respectable and influential, and his identity and status could not be underestimated.

His wife should be a noble and generous woman.

But Eden only lived an ordinary life.

"Mr. Alwynn really has a bad taste." Danielle smiled, her eyes full of disdain and jealousy.

Hearing this, Eden suddenly smiled brightly.

"Yes, his taste is really bad, because he fell in love with me." Eden looked at her jealous face with amusement.

Such a jealous face really looked ferocious.

Human nature was truly terrifying!

Danielle pursed her lips, but she couldn't refute Eden's words. Victor would never dote on her and love her.

Last time, the drug was highly potent, but Victor was still indifferent to her. It was so humiliating that she wanted to hide whenever she saw Victor.

If she became Mrs. Alwynn, she would get everything. Why did she have to work so hard?

"Danielle, do you know that I spoke with evidence just now?"

Danielle looked at her with a slight frown. At this time, Eden's plain and pure face was somewhat cold.

She was so jealous of Eden, and she wanted to ruin her beautiful face!

If Eden's face was disfigured, how could Victor still love her?

Looking at the malicious expression on Danielle's face, Eden immediately became alert.

Danielle sneered and said, "Eden, you know what? In this world, many women want you to die."

Eden could not help but smile, "Yes, because you're very vicious."

"It's because of you that I've become so vicious! Why can you live a good life without working hard? No matter how hard I try, I can't make any progress. If I was born to be as rich as you, I wouldn't have to live miserably at the bottom of society. It's all your fault!" Danielle suddenly became very excited.

"Eden, you know what? When I knew about the story of you and Mr. Alwynn, I was very jealous of you. You are not good-looking, and you have suffered so much. You had experienced many hardships before you got Victor's love."

"Even you can be with him. Why can't I get him?"

"Ha-ha." Eden couldn't help laughing after hearing her words.

She laughed at Danielle's ignorance and silly dream.

"Danielle, since you like to daydream so much, why do you have to come out to work? Isn't it good to lay on the bed and sleep for a lifetime? You will get everything in your dreams."

"Humph." Before Danielle could finish her words, the door was suddenly pushed open.

"Director Bleu, bad news! Something happened on the stage!" Alyssa ran in with an anxious expression.

Eden was not surprised. "What's the matter?" She asked calmly.

Danielle sneered. It finally happened.

At the same time, her phone rang and she lowered her head slightly. She had received the money.

"Dulcie and Tillie said that you copied their design. The clothes worn by our models are exactly the same as theirs. Moreover, their models went on the stage earlier. It's hard to explain it now."

"Mr. Alwynn and the judges are very angry. They have been confronting each other, and no one wants to give in. After the news was leaked, the shares of Alwynn Group have dived in just a few minutes." Alyssa was very anxious. Looking at Danielle, she frowned slightly. At the same time, the phone in her hand vibrated.

Eden instantly understood what Danielle had said.

She sat down unhurriedly and wrapped herself with the coat, looking very elegant.

She took another sip of hot water and looked at Danielle with a bright smile, "Is this the plan you mentioned? I have always been puzzled. You seemed to be sent by Paulina, but you don't often contact her. We have found a lot of things. You always place overseas calls. After investigating it again and again, we finally confirmed that you are sent by Tillie."

"You've been scheming for so long just to give me and Victor a severe blow. What a good show!"

Danielle's expression froze, and her face was drained of all colour and animation. Eden had even found out about this.

Standing aside, Alyssa looked at Eden in surprise.

At this time, Eden looked at her coldly, "As for you, Alyssa, you have been good at pretending, and your means are quite clever."

Alyssa frowned and asked in surprise, "Director Bleu, what are you talking about? I don't understand what you mean."

"Don't you understand?" Eden laughed. She leaned against the sofa and looked up at her with a smile.

What was the point of acting dumb at this time?

"If you don't understand, I can explain it to you slowly."

Alyssa stared at her. Her tensed body revealed her nervousness.

"Alyssa, in fact, I had never doubted you. If it weren't for the fact that you're close to Danielle, I wouldn't have suspected you. You've been working in the company for three years, and you've been keeping in touch with Tillie."

"Later, after investigation, I found out that you also lived in Windsor Villa. You installed bugs in my desk and my house, so you know my whereabouts very well. That's why I had a lot of accidents."

"Tillie left with hatred that year. She asked for it."

"Of course, you can't do these things alone. I found another secret."

She figured out these things when she seemed to be particularly busy in the company.

They had almost arranged everything behind her back, so it was not easy for them to expose themselves, but she knew they would carry out their plan that day.

Eden gently turned the button on her coat, aiming it at Danielle and Alyssa.

She wanted to give them a good show.

Therefore, before she came here, she whispered to Victor about the uneasiness in her heart.

"Ha-ha..." Alyssa smiled and looked at Eden with gloomy eyes, "Director Bleu, I really don't understand what you are talking about."

"You know it very well. On the surface, you seem to be working for Tillie, but in fact, you are not. The real person behind you is Barrett, your biological father."

"With your own ability, you can't have enough money to buy a villa there. We were very surprised to find out this secret after a thorough investigation. It turns out that you entered the company when Victor had a car accident and fell into the sea."

"At that time, you stayed in Alwynn Group as the most inconspicuous designer. Miss Simpson, am I right?" Eden looked at her with a smile.

Victor suspected Alyssa first, so he asked Aro to investigate her. Then they learned about these things.

Chapter 2059

At this time, the audience burst into an uproar because of the plagiarism.

This matter had received wide coverage in the press.

A lot of people were watching the live broadcast online, and many of them scolded Eden.

Tillie and Dulcie went to the stage and questioned Victor reasonably.

The shares of Alwynn Group kept falling.

The share prices plummeted to an all-time low, and Dean felt that it was too abnormal.

"Mr. Alwynn, the shares have dived. If it goes on like this, the company will be in danger." Dean handed the i-Pad to Victor, but Victor didn't even look at it.

Dean was speechless. Why was he so relaxed?

Jaida and Aisling were very anxious.

They trusted Eden absolutely. However, looking at Tillie's aggressive face, they wanted to give her a lesson.

Jaida took out her phone and called Zaiden. She couldn't let Eden be bullied.

Aisling immediately called Wyatt and asked him to come.

"Mr. Alwynn, where is Mrs. Alwynn? Why don't you let her come out and clarify this matter? If things go on like this, your company will go bankrupt. Now the shares of Alwynn Group are plummeting." Tillie looked at Victor with an extremely arrogant smile. She had endured for many years just for this moment.

Victor glanced at her and withdrew his gaze slowly.

Dulcie said mockingly, "Mr. Alwynn, doesn't Mrs. Alwynn dare to come out? I worked so hard to draw the design drafts, but she actually copied my design. This is horrible."

"Dear judges, plagiarism is something intolerable in the industry. Please be fair and expel Eden from the design circle." Dulcie looked righteous. This time, she could defeat Eden completely.

Under the stage, Barrett and Paulina looked at this with smiles.

"Chairman, are you ready?" Paulina looked at Barrett.

Barrett laughed and looked at Victor with his eyes narrowed. He had finally vented his hatred. "Don't worry. I've arranged everything. We'll soon be able to acquire Alwynn Group."

Paulina smiled elegantly. This was exactly what she wanted.

Tiana smiled as well, "Eden copied the design of others, and her dishonest behaviors have affected the reputation of the design circle. After discussing about it, we decide to expel Eden from the design circle."

"What's more, I'd like to announce that Miss Elliott will won the gold award."

"The fashion award belongs to the new designer, Miss Scott."

"The bronze award goes to the president of Joye Group, Mr. Joye."

However, Jasper could not smile. He believed that Eden would not do copy the design of others.

As soon as Tiana finished speaking, Dean found that the shares of Alwynn Group had plummeted more.

D*mn! If things went on like this, Alwynn Group would go bankrupt.

Victor glanced at Tiana with disdain.

Tillie and Dulcie were extremely proud.

As for Tiana, she looked at Victor provocatively.

For a moment, Alwynn Group was hated by everyone.

A lot of people cursed Victor and Eden, and the shares reached new lows.

"How can you do that? You want to expel Director Bleu before you figure out the truth. Don't you think you're too rash?" Dean couldn't help but speak for Eden.

Tiana looked at him with cautious eyes, "But, where is Director Bleu? Such a thing has happened, but she doesn't even dare to come out."

"Humph! The truth is that Dulcie and Tillie have copied the design of Alwynn Group! We have evidence." Dean roared furiously. He believed that Eden would never do such a thing.

"Ha-ha..." Tiana laughed. She looked at Dean and said provocatively, "Then why don't you show me the evidence?"

"I..." Dean was rendered speechless. By the way, where was Lucian?

He glanced at Victor who looked very calm.

He rubbed his nose in dismay. He was extremely anxious, but Victor was not worried at all.

Seeing this, Paulina smiled very happily. However, before she could stop smiling, Danielle and Alyssa suddenly appeared on the big screen on the stage.

"Director Bleu, I really don't understand what you are talking about."

The conversation between Eden and Alyssa was shown on the big screen, and people could see it online.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Dean was shocked. He didn't expect that Eden would be so well-prepared, and he couldn't be more restless just now.

He patted his chest.

Barrett went ballistic.

It never occurred to Paulina that this would happen.

Eden addressed Alyssa as Miss Simpson, which made her confused. She suddenly turned to look at Barrett.

Barrett's eyes flashed. How could Eden know such a secret?

When he went back to M Country back then, he met Alyssa's mother. A week later, he left. Soon, Alyssa's mother called him and said that she was pregnant.

He had enough money to raise her and her child. He hoped that she could give birth to a son, but she had a daughter in the end.

But Alyssa was very obedient, and she didn't fight for anything. He liked her very much, so he tried his best to give her whatever she wanted.

However, he had never dreamed that Victor would find it out.

He didn't tell anyone about this, because he wanted Alyssa and her mother to live a peaceful life.

Seeing Barrett's expression, Paulina knew that it was true.

She sneered. What an unfaithful man!

Tillie and Dulcie were dumbfounded. They were going to succeed! How could such a thing happen?

Eden's voice sounded again.

"Alyssa, am I right?"

Alyssa stared at her without saying a word.

Eden smiled and looked at Danielle, "Miss Clark, you must have heard what Alyssa said just now. Speak of plagiarism, you won't forget that you're very good at copying other people's design."

"Do you remember that I once showed you my design drafts on purpose? Later, my computer broke down and all my design drafts were gone. But you remembered all the design drafts and gave me a copy the next day. You did a good job. However, I have a habit. The detail of my design draft is not something others can copy."

"The one you copied might look the same, but I am more careful than you. I could tell the difference."

"I know that you two have always been in touch with Paulina. Now she is Barrett's lover, so she has countless of money. It's just because you're greedy that she can make good use of you."

"Just now, your phones vibrated at the same time. If I'm not wrong, she has transferred the money to you, right?"

Danielle and Alyssa looked at Eden in a daze.

Eden looked so innocent and weak on the surface, and she was liked by many people, but it turned out that she was so careful and scheming.

It was too horrible!

"Miss Clark, although you gave my design drafts to Tillie and Dulcie, they can't make the clothes come on stage by themselves. If my guess is right, you have bribed Tiana, right?"

Chapter 2060

"I had a grudge against her before, and she was the one who copied the clothes of Alwynn Group. Last time, she easily avoided the investigation of the government department concerned. But this time, we have enough evidence to prove the illegal things she has done."

Eden finished her words casually. In fact, she was very curious to know how those people felt when they saw the video.

However, Alyssa was here. She had to break the barrier in Danielle's heart first so that she could tell everyone the truth.

"Miss Clark, you are too stupid. They are all making use of you. Alyssa is Barrett's daughter. Even if she leaves Alwynn Group, she can have a good life, and those who use you can still live comfortably. You are the only one who has no family background and no support. No matter where you go, you will live the humble life that you used to have."

"Do you think the money they gave you is enough for you to live for a lifetime?"

"Danielle, don't listen to her nonsense." Alyssa gave Danielle a warning look.

Either she or Danielle would be the scapegoat. Of course, Danielle should take all the blame.

Danielle couldn't remain calm anymore. Yes, they had everything. Moreover, after she used up the money, she had to live a humble life again. Perhaps she couldn't even get a new job in River City.

Thinking like this, she regretted what she had done so much.

She looked at Eden all of a sudden, "No way! How can you know these things? It's impossible for you to know these!"

She yelled out of control.

"In order to help Dulcie and Tillie frame you, Tiana gave me a sum of money after making use of me. She wants to shut my mouth..."

"Danielle, don't be so excited. Now everyone knows that Eden has copied the design of others. Although you really gave Eden's design drafts to Dulcie and Tillie, they can't hurt you without evidence. Don't be impulsive, and don't fall into her trap." Alyssa persuaded her.

However, Danielle pushed her hard.

She looked at Alyssa coldly, feeling so disappointed. She had always regarded Alyssa as her friend.

"Alyssa, don't put it so nicely. You approached me deliberately and asked me to help you on the 25th floor. But you just wanted to give me a chance to steal Eden's design drafts, didn't you?"

"You reminded me to seduce Mr. Alwynn on purpose. In fact, you want to take me as your stepping stone. After we succeed in framing Eden today, you can leave Alwynn Group and disassociate yourself from this matter. How scheming you are!"

"No, Danielle, don't think too much. You will be safe and sound. It's in a mess outside. After you get out of here, you can leave by plane immediately. The money is enough for you to live a carefree life." Alyssa knew that Danielle was used to being poor. What she cared about most was the money she had saved.

"Ha-ha..." Danielle cried and laughed, staring at Eden who looked calm and controlled the overall situation.

"It's too late. Alyssa, you can't escape, either. They have found everything out. The reason why Eden can sit here so calmly is that she is waiting for us to fall into her trap."

"They know the plot of Dahlia and Tiana. Barrett bribed the judges with money. They can even find out that you are Barrett's daughter, not to mention these things!"

Eden looked at Alyssa and nodded with a smile, "Alyssa, Danielle, I think that your lives have never been so eye-catching before. Now your conversation is going out live."

Eden pointed to the camera on the button of her coat.

Danielle and Alyssa looked at her in astonishment.

At this time, everyone on the stage looked at the screen in shock.

Those noisy people all looked at the big screen in surprise.

Dulcie and Tillie's faces were ashen.

Tiana went deathly pale.

Paulina's eyes were blazing with the flames of fury.

Barrett was so angry that he couldn't breathe or see anything clearly.

Jasper, Lyric, Jaida and Aisling smiled very happily.

"Ha-ha!" Dean, who was standing on the stage, could no longer hold back convulsive laughter.

Such a reversal cheered him greatly.

He couldn't help but say.

"Today is really a good day! Ha-ha!"

Victor was rendered speechless. How embarrassing it was! Dean was too excited.

"Oh my God! My belly hurts and my face is convulsing." Dean couldn't help but look at Tillie and Dulcie.

"Miss Scott, Miss Elliott, did Mrs. Alwynn really copy your work?"

"Miss Elliott, if you forget it, I might as well help you recall why you left River City back then. It was because your company copied the design of Alwynn Group that you went abroad in dismay. To my surprise, you didn't change yourself and you are still thinking about how to take revenge on Mrs. Alwynn."

"Ha-ha." After saying that, he couldn't help laughing again.

Jasper stood not far away, and he was speechless.

At this time, Victor said, "Ladies and gentlemen, we have prepared the evidence. My secretary, Lucian, will send it to the law-enforcing departments."

After Victor finished speaking, he turned to look at the judges, "We have the evidence of the deal between Barrett and some of the judges. The association will deal with this matter."

Victor took out a flash drive and handed it to Dean.

Dean walked to the head of the association with it happily.

Tiana watched Dean walk to him. She had been arrogant for many years. It never occurred to her that she would suffer a setback here.

Such a reversal stunned everyone.

"D*mn! This is the truth! Eden has been framed again. We can't believe the rumours about Alwynn Group so easily, because we'll always get a slap in the face."

"The two designers on the stage are too disgusting! They stole the fruits of Eden's labor. How hateful they are!"

"That's right. They have disgraced the design circle!"

"Yeah, I knew that such a kind person like Eden wouldn't do such a thing."

"It was so hateful that Barrett suddenly came back here and disturbed the financial market. When he was rich, he lived an arrogant life abroad. After he used up his money, he came back here to earn money and tricked the investors. How despicable he is!"

"Oh, this is the trick of the rich. He is willful because he has lots of money."

"Anyway, I support Alwynn Group."

"We have to support Alwynn Group. Every year, Victor donates a lot of money to charity. The facilities in the housing estate I live in are provided by him. Old men sing and old ladies dance together every day. Thanks to Victor, they live a happy life."

"You're right!"

"I'll be the fan of Alwynn Group forever!"

There was a heated discussion on the Internet.

The police arrived and took away Alyssa and Danielle. Later, accompanied by Aro, Eden came out of lounge.

She went straight to the stage and stood facing Dulcie and Tillie.
