

Gluey Love 2061

Chapter 2061

She glanced at their pale faces with no expression and walked to Victor.

Tillie hated her so much, and her eyes turned bloodshot.

Dulcie was about to faint!

Victor took Eden's hand with a smile and kissed her on the forehead, "Honey, I'm sorry that you've been wronged!"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Victor showed off his love again! Had he ever considered how they single people felt?

Everyone knew how much he cared about Eden.

Half an hour later, the clothing association figured out the truth.

Four judges and Tiana were arrested for bribery.

Lucian arrived and announced the fact that Danielle had stolen the design drafts of Alwynn Group.

It proved that Tillie and Dulcie had copied Eden's design.

Tillie and Dulcie couldn't say a word at this moment. They only felt that they were doomed.

Tillie was especially unwilling to give up. She had prepared for so many years, but she failed again when she was about to succeed.

Seeing the evidence, she fainted completely.

The judges apologized to Eden one by one. Eden's design was the most eye-catching in the competition.

The judges and the audience voted again.

The whole progress was evenhanded.

In the end, Eden got the fashion award, and everyone congratulated her.

Eden stood on the most dazzling stage and held the fashion award in her hand. She was the fifteen fashion queen.

Jasper won the silver award.

The bronze award belonged to a foreign designer.

Eden was wearing a blue diamond dress. She had shoulder-length hair, and the expensive sapphire necklace and the shining tassels diamond earrings made her collarbone look more beautiful. At this moment, she was noble and charming, just like a queen.

Standing in the bright light, she only smiled faintly. She was not very happy because of what had happened.

She just looked at everything with a smile and accepted her success calmly.

Winning the fashion award had been her dream.

In the end, the host let Eden give a acceptance speech.

Eden held the microphone, and Victor gave her beautiful roses. After hugging her, Victor did not leave but stood beside her.

Only then did Eden face the crowd and say slowly, "Thank you for supporting Alwynn Group. Every year, we use ten percent of annual profits to give back and help those in need."

"Without your support, Alwynn Group can't be so successful. In the end, I want to tell you that as long as you are willing to work hard, you can meet the best people. As long as you are willing to make an effort, you will have unexpected luck and pleasant surprise. As long as you are willing to do your best, you can live up to the ideal of yourself no matter what kind of life you choose."

Her speech won prolonged applause.

Jasper smiled very happily. He looked sideways at Lyric, "Eden's lifelong dream is to be a famous designer."

Lyric nodded excitedly, "She is really awesome, so are you! I love you, baby!" Lyric was very joyful.

Jasper was stunned. His heart beat violently because of her touching words.

When the applause had died down, Eden continued, "Becoming the fashion queen has always been my dream. I can't fulfill my dream without the support of my family and my husband. They're always by my side, and I am very grateful to them."

As soon as Eden finished speaking, Zaiden walked to her.

"Dad." Eden turned around and hugged him.

What she said shocked the whole country.

At the same, Wyatt slowly got on the stage and sat with Zaiden.

"Eden." He smiled lovingly.

"Dad." Eden threw herself into Wyatt's arms.

"Eden, congratulations!" Wyatt was very delighted. Eden had been diligent since she was a child.

"Thank you, dad!" Eden's eyes blurred with tears.

Zaiden took her hand and stood between her and Wyatt. He took the microphone in Eden's hand and smiled at everyone.

"Hello, everyone. I am Zaiden. On such a wonderful day, I want to announce a piece of good news. My daughter, Eden, will inherit Symantec Group and become the next president of Symantec Group. I hope that she can grow better under the care of me and Wyatt, and I wish that she could make greater progress and breakthrough."

Eden knew that he would say so.

It seemed that he really didn't want to manage the company anymore.

Everyone was shocked.

Applause, exclamation and excited cries sounded at the same time.

What shocking news!

Their jaws dropped!

No one could find out who Zaiden's daughter was. It turned out that his daughter was Eden!

Barrett and Paulina were about to be taken away for investigation, and they were stunned when they heard the news.

No wonder they couldn't find out anything about Zaiden's daughter. It was actually Eden!

"Oh Jesus! Eden can't be luckier! Let me tell you how rich Symantec Group is. It owns myriads of money, and every building built by them can be sold at good price."

"Oh my god. Does Eden really need to work hard?"

"I'm so jealous. She's so rich, but she works so hard. How can I be lazy?"

The fact that Eden was Zaiden's daughter caused a stir throughout the country.

There was saturation coverage of the event by the media.

Irving was sitting in front of the TV and watching the live broadcast. He was so shocked that he couldn't speak.

It turned out that Eden was Zaiden's daughter.

He smiled, and his heart became calmer and calmer.

He picked up his phone and sent a message to Eden.

"Congratulations, Eden!"

Then, he got up and walked out slowly with a faint and relaxed smile. Dressed in a white casual suit, he looked handsome and appealing.

When Eden came down from the stage, Victor brought her backstage.

Victor held her excitedly and did a twirl, "Honey, congratulations!"

Eden's eyes were brimming with tears. She was in a bad mood just now, so she was not particularly excited. At this time, she finally came to sense. Getting the award had always been her goal.

"Victor, thank you!" Eden choked with sobs and hugged him tightly.

"Ha-ha..." Victor held her tightly and kissed her on the head.

He looked into the distance, and the scene of his childhood came back to his mind again.

"Victor, is my princess dress beautiful?"

"Yeah."

"Victor, the person who can design such a beautiful dress must be very pretty. I will be a designer when I grow up." When Eden talked about her dream, her eyes were particularly bright. She was always so stubborn, and she would never admit defeat.

She did it. Winning the international design competition was the dream of all the designers.

"By the way, honey, where are we going to celebrate tonight?" Victor was very excited.

Eden's dream had been realized. It was time to achieve his dream.

Chapter 2062

Eden looked at the stage. Jasper was standing on the stage and making an acceptance speech. She always knew how capable he was.

Under the brilliant light, Jasper was dressed in a white suit. His back was straight and elegant.

After the applause, she heard some of Jasper's words.

"Dreams never choose people. It's a magical pen that God gives to everyone to build a future map. As long as you have dreams in your hearts and try your best, the whole universe will unite to help you realize your dreams..."

Eden smiled. At this moment, she felt very relaxed.

"Victor, I hope that our life in the future will be simple and pure, and we can spend the rest of our lives in the way we like."

There was no need to prove anything to the world. Living a better life was to love themselves.

Victor hugged her from behind gently, and his voice was hoarse and magnetic, "Okay!"

Victor took Eden to another place. They had to meet someone.

As soon as Barrett was taken out, he saw his trusted follower standing beside him.

The man was his subordinate in his new company, and he had always been obedient to him.

"How did you get here?" Barrett looked at him.

Royce Moore said, "Chairman, bad news! We found evidence that Miss Grant and Devin have transferred away half of your property."

Paulina was stunned. How could he know this?

Barrett knew that Royce would not say something like this without any evidence.

He looked at Paulina with sharp eyes, "Is what Royce said true?"

Paulina's eyebrows twitched. Things were completely out of her control. She thought that she could get Barrett's new company in a month after defeating Victor. Then she would immediately go abroad to live the life she wanted. She didn't have to live in River City. However, she failed.

At this time, Barrett had known about this. What should she do?

"Chairman, don't listen to his nonsense. I didn't do that." They were just cooperating with the investigation. When she came out of the police station, she would leave immediately. Barrett couldn't do anything to her.

Royce said, "Chairman, it's true. But what's strange is that the property that has been transferred away was signed by you in person."

Barrett narrowed his cunning eyes and looked at Paulina sharply and gloomily, "Well, I've been wondering why you stayed with me in the courtyard for so long. Every night when you were with me, you asked me to sign something. You drugged me, right? Otherwise, how could I listen to you obediently?" Barrett was so angry that his face turned livid. Being tricked by a woman made him feel extremely humiliated.

"How scheming you are! You colluded with Devin and swindled me of most of my property. However, do you think you can take it away? I'm afraid you've forgotten something. I'm much wiser than you."

Barrett looked at Royce, "Bring back all the property that I signed. Her ID card is in my yard. What's more, Devin may have run away. You know what to do when you find him, don't you?"

"As for this vicious woman, let her stay in prison for the rest of her life."

Paulina was taken aback. She didn't expect him to do this.

"Chairman, you can't do this to me." Paulina was scared.

"Humph! You're just like a snake that wants to swallow an elephant. I have given you a villa and shares. As long as you can be with me meekly, you will live better than other women. But you actually plot against me. Even if I die, you have to go to hell together with me!

Royce nodded slightly, "I see, but there is a bigger problem at present. There is something wrong with the shares of Alwynn Group..."

"Mr. Simpson."

Victor's voice sounded behind him, interrupting Royce's words.

Lucian was in charge of everything in Alwynn Group. Naturally, Victor had his own considerations.

Barrett suddenly turned around and looked at Victor who was in high spirits. He was so angry that he couldn't see anything clearly. He staggered a few steps and almost fell to the ground.

"It seems that you're really old. You can't even stand still." Victor held Eden in his arms and looked at him.

"Victor, you..."

"Barrett, although the shares of Alwynn Group have declined a lot, it won't affect Alwynn Group. Your little scheme is not enough to beat Alwynn Group. From this year on, you won't be the richest man in the country, because I'll be the richest." Victor always kept a low profile, but this time, he wouldn't keep his head down anymore.

"What did you do?" Barrett seemed to be a dozen years older all of a sudden, and even his voice became hoarse and pitiful.

"It doesn't matter what I did. What matters is that you and your mistress will be under investigation. I have given all the evidence to the police. I believe they are happy to investigate you two."

Victor looked at Paulina coldly, "Paulina, I'll let you pay dearly for what you've done to Eden. The people on your list have been arrested. What's more, now your company is just a shell. From tomorrow on, Simpson Group will disappear in River City completely."

"Victor, you little b*stard..." Barrett was so excited that he wanted to beat Victor, but the policeman stopped him quickly.

Paulina looked at Eden's cheerful face and smiled bitterly, "Eden, you win."

She had lost, but she was unwilling to accept the fact!

Obviously, she was the one who controlled the overall situation, but she was the one who sustained the worst losses in the end.

"Paulina, people will change, but they will never go back to the past. I remember that when I saw you for the first time, you were very beautiful and confident. After knowing your identity, I respected you. I thought that your work was amazing, and I believed that you would have a brighter future. However, I didn't expect that the end would be so sad." Eden looked at her quietly. People couldn't be with the ones they liked, which was a normal thing, but pestering those they liked was crazy.

Eden laughed self-mockingly. The past could never be changed, could it?

Paulina was too obsessed with Victor and could not let it go. In the end, it became a tragedy.

Since Victor didn't like her, why did she have to try desperately to get him?

Paulina was stunned. Over the years, in order to get money, she had long forgotten her original intention.

Being exposed by Eden, she had more and more complicated feelings.

"Eden, Victor, if we have a life hereafter, I don't want to meet you again. You are simply devils." Paulina seemed to have realized the reality. She would stay in jail until she died. She knew clearly what she had done.

Victor said, "You are wrong. You are the devil in the whole story."

Chapter 2063

Paulina's pupils quivered. She felt as if her heart had been hit by a blunt weapon.

Victor said, "Those who are used by you have ruined their own lives. Aren't you a devil?"

Paulina could not refute his words.

Yes, she had ruined her own life, as well as the lives of many people.

She couldn't be more vicious.

Paulina looked at her hands. Although she didn't kill anyone, she felt that her hands were stained with blood.

"Ha-ha..." She laughed in pain and looked at Victor with unfocused eyes.

"Victor, you are the devil. You are the biggest demon in my heart. I shouldn't have fallen in love with you back then. I lost myself and my original intention because I fell in love with you."

"I loved you humbly. No, I didn't love you, but your money. Therefore, I hate the fact that many things can be measured by money in this world. So you are the biggest devil in this matter."

Tears streamed down Paulina's face. She was enlightened by Victor and Eden, and her heart was tortured by guilty and pain. This was how horrible Victor was.

If she had always been ignorant and proud, she could still live in this world with her last shred of self-esteem angrily.

However, after being enlightened by Victor, she would live in hell every day.

In just a few years, she had changed from a confident and beautiful girl to a woman who had fallen for money.

During this period of time, she had been lying to herself, telling herself that only money could satisfy her.

As a result, she missed the chance to take care of her parents when they were old.

She couldn't grow old with them. Those who had been used by her suffered the same. Their parents hoped that they could have successful careers, but they ruined themselves.

"Woo..." Crying with regret, Paulina was taken away.

Eden watched her and Barrett get on the police car expressionlessly.

.....

Three days later, Eden heard the news that Barrett killed Paulina. Paulina did a lot of things that made Barrett angry. She took away half of Barrett's property and ruined his youngest son. Moreover, Barrett found that she had really drugged him. Barrett's dignity did not allow him to be tricked by a woman like this. Before Paulina was sent to jail, Barrett killed her in person to vent his hatred.

On TV, she saw Paulina's dead body, and her aged parents were crying bitterly.

Devin had run to the airport, but he was caught as well.

Barrett's two other wives were about to be sent back to their homeland.

Victor didn't do anything to them. He didn't hurt anyone who was innocent.

Eden watched the news in a daze. Everything had been settled, but she was not as happy as she had imagined.

After watching the news, Eden wrapped herself with the coat, put on her furry slippers and went out.

They've become safe,so they moved back to Windsor Villa.

Zaiden and Jaida went to visit Grandma Clement early in the morning.

The lake had frozen. The snowy world was extremely beautiful.

Victor did not see Eden in the living room, so he knew that she had gone out. As soon as he went out, he saw her in the snow.

He smiled and looked at the annoying snow. It had almost melted a few days ago, but it snowed heavily again last night.

He walked over and hugged her from behind.

Eden smiled and looked into the distance, "Paulina is dead."

"I know." Victor's voice was very soft.

The cold wind was blowing, and he hugged her tightly.

"The real life is cruel. People are divided into various grades and ranks. Some people are born in noble families, while others are born in poor families. But everyone has the same purpose. We all struggle to survive and make money. In fact, we make money to live a better life, but some people are so greedy that they ruin their own lives because of money."

"Honey, money is just a number. My career is important, but I care about my family and you the most." Everyone had different opinions, so their endings were not the same.

There was no free thing in this world. People might think that something was free, but that was because they didn't know that they would pay for it sooner or later .

Eden turned around and looked at him, "Victor, thank you!"

Eden suddenly felt very grateful.

Victor looked at her with a smile and rubbed her red face gently, "Thank me for what?"

Eden looked up at him tenderly, "For everything you gave me and your companion."

She threw herself into his arms and closed her eyes happily.

Victor lowered his head and looked at her hair. He smiled softly, and his eyes were full of tenderness and deep affection. He looked at her seriously and said, "Eden, before I found you, my life had been bitter. The fact that you'll stay with me for the rest of my life makes me so delighted!"

Ten days later, Zaiden chose a lucky day and let Eden be the president of Symantec Group in front of many reporters. From then on, he would no longer be in charge of the company, and he had a relaxed smile. Seeing him like this, Eden was very helpless.

Her hard days seemed to have just begun.

This news shocked the whole real estate market in River City.

Eden didn't want to let him down, so she took over the company resolutely.

There was a celebration party in the evening, and Eden held it in River City Restaurant.

All her relatives and friends came to congratulate her. Eden had become a new star in the real estate market. A lot of businessmen came to the party.

Victor and Eden greeted them one by one, but they did not see Zaiden and Jaida.

"Eden, what's wrong?" Victor stared at her. She was very eye-catching that night.

Eden looked around, "Do you see dad and mom?"

Victor shook his head slightly.

Just as Eden was about to call Zaiden, Zaiden called her.

Eden smiled and said, "Dad, where are you and mom? Victor and I want to have dinner with you."

Zaiden laughed, "Eden, your mother and I are at the airport. Thank you for managing the company for me in the future. Your mother and I will go skating first, and then we will go to M Country in a week. Someone is taking care of Gia and Ricky. You don't have to worry."

"We're about to board the plane. Have a good time. When we arrive, I will call you." Zaiden hung up the phone after saying that. It seemed that he was afraid that Eden would persuade him to go back.

Eden was speechless as she looked at the phone.

"Victor, dad and mom are at the airport. Dad is really in a hurry to leave, isn't he?" Eden felt that she had been tricked.

"Ha-ha..." Victor looked at her and smiled, "You look as if you have been cheated. In fact, Dad has long wanted to hand over the company to you."

Chapter 2064

Eden couldn't help but smile. She picked up the champagne and took a sip, "I have fulfilled his wish. I just want to have a meal with them and chat with them on such a happy day. But they've left. I haven't said anything to them."

She wanted to chat with them. The happiest thing was to stay with her family and have a small talk. She wanted to act like a spoiled child before Jaida and talk about work with Zaiden.

But they had left.

Eden was a little depressed and didn't want to drink the champagne anymore. She put the glass on the table.

That day, she wore a champagne-colored dress. With a delicate makeup, her face looked fair, and her lips were rosy and attractive.

She lowered her head and looked at her toes, her long eyelashes fluttering gently.

Victor was a little absent-minded. He bent down and kissed her red lips.

Eden reacted immediately and glared at him shyly, "There are so many people here. Restrain yourself."

She blinked her pure and clear eyes. When she raised her head slightly, she saw Lyric and Jasper standing not far away and looking at them.

Eden pursed her lips and lowered her head shyly.

"Ha-ha..." Victor chuckled and walked toward Jasper and Lyric with her in his arms.

Lyric said shyly, "Victor, you really dote on Eden."

Upon hearing this, Jasper was unhappy, "Dear, don't I dote on you?"

"Ah..." Lyric always reacted slowly, "Yes!" She couldn't say something against her will, could she?

Jasper wasn't as perfect as he looked on the surface. He was extremely wicked.

Every night, after they had sex, he would ask her a lot of questions about it, which made her blush scarlet. This was the way he doted on her.

Others were envious of her, but only she knew how tired she was.

Only then did Jasper look better.

Victor had been showing off his love in front of him, and he would show off his love, too.

"Eden, let's have dinner together." Lyric wanted to take away Eden so that they could eat together with Abigail.

She didn't come to such a party often, and she didn't like it.

Eden nodded. She had greeted her business partners, and she wanted to eat something.

She looked at Lyric. Since she married Jasper, she had become gentler and prettier. Her gentle and graceful temperament was natural.

Although she was not gorgeous, she was always easy on the eye.

Eden liked to chat with her so much.

"Let's go. Your men can talk here. Don't disturb us." After saying this, Eden left with Lyric.

Victor looked at Abigail with dissatisfaction, "What's wrong with you and Abigail? In the past, you two often made demands on Eden's time. Now you have a wife, and even your wife always wants to stay with her. These days, I'm too busy to chat with Eden for a while."

Jasper smiled, "Then there's nothing I can do. You're not charming enough, so Eden doesn't want to talk to you. How can you blame us?"

Victor was speechless. He did not admit that he was less charming.

Jasper took a glass of champagne from the waiter's tray and raised it to Victor, "When are you going to visit the master? I'll go with you."

Victor didn't want to talk to him, but that was his dream.

"I don't know. It depends on Eden." He thought for a while. He had time the next day, but he was depressed as he looked at the foggy night outside.

"Will it snow tomorrow?"

Jasper knew that Victor had suffered lots of setbacks. He didn't want to upset him, but it was really going to snow the next day. "Yeah, there's a cold blue warning. You'd better not go out. What's more, it's windy."

Victor drank the red wine in his glass gloomily, "Let's go play cards in the private box. Adonis and Anson are over there."

"Let's go. I'll earn some pocket money for Lyric." Jasper said proudly.

Victor glanced at him, "Hey, are you short of money? Besides, you should say that to a single man."

Victor pointed to Brian who had walked to his front.

Brian was speechless. Victor touched him on his most sensitive spot.

Had Jasper been infected by Victor? He liked to show off his love as well.

Brian glared at them fiercely and ignored them. What was so great about having a wife? He was about to get married, wasn't he?

He would never admit that he envied them.

Watching him leave angrily, Victor stopped and said to him, "What are you going to do?"

"I'm going to date with my future wife. What's wrong?"

Victor laughed, "How can a stupid man like you get married? Now Miss Parma is chatting with Eden and having dinner. They're having a good time. She will be annoyed if you disturb her, won't she? Let's go. I'll take you to play cards. You can win some pocket money for your future wife."

Brian suddenly looked at Victor vigilantly, "How can you be so kind?"

Victor pointed to himself, "Don't you know me? Do I look like a liar?"

Could a liar look as handsome as him?

"But whenever I play cards with you, I lose. I suspect that the reason why you want to play cards with me is that you want to earn pocket money for Eden."

Victor was speechless. Hey, why did Brian suddenly become smart?

"Alright, since you want her to be annoyed, I can't stop you. Go ahead." Victor said and walked forward.

Brian thought for a moment and walked back. He looked like an abandoned little puppy, begging for its master's mercy.

Jasper looked at him and wanted to laugh. Victor was very good at fooling people, especially single people.

He looked at Brian sympathetically.

Brian said, "Mr. Joye, I don't need your sympathy."

Jasper rubbed his nose in dismay. Did he look that compassionate?

Brian was taken aback. Although they laughed at him, he had to remain elegant. He didn't want to argue with Jasper and Victor.

It seemed that it was not easy to get married. He had to study it carefully.

In the whole winter, it was snowing heavily in River City.

Eden was very busy. The new year was coming. She had to deal with the affairs in two companies, so she became busier and busier.

The new assistant was introduced by Irene. Her name was Allie Sutton. Allie had got married, and she had children. She was quite capable and could deal with her work well.

With the help of Dawson, Eden managed to run the company well.

Eden was very busy, but she always felt a tremendous pressure on the chest, and she was sleepy.

She knew that she was in poor health because she was too busy.

Victor couldn't be more depressed. The heavy snow could not melt, so he had no way to hold a wedding.

Every day, he looked at the heavy snow in a daze. Dean felt that he was about to suffer from depression.

"Mr. Alwynn, you've been looking out of the window quietly for half an hour." Dean reminded him.

Eden went out, and she would return to the company at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Victor blinked his dry eyes and looked at him, "Dean, when do you think the snow will melt?"

Chapter 2065

Dean didn't want to upset him, but he had to tell the truth, "Mr. Alwynn, it may be the next year."

"Should I wait until the next year?" Victor said slowly with an extremely aggrieved expression.

Dean replied, "Yeah, Mr. Alwynn. The snow is quite heavy this year. It's not a good choice to hold a wedding at this time. It's too cold. Mrs. Alwynn won't be happy if she can't wear a wedding dress. Mr. Alwynn, don't feel too aggrieved. You've got married with Mrs. Alwynn."

Victor glared at him. How could he understand his mood?

Dean lowered his head innocently.

Eden was very busy. How could she have time to hold a wedding with Victor?

"Dean, what does it feel like to be a groom?" Victor asked again.

When Dean heard this, he was instantly in high spirits, and he couldn't stop laughing.

Victor felt that his smile was annoying, but he was so f*cking envious.

"Mr. Alwynn, on the wedding, I felt that I wouldn't be lonely anymore, and I finally had a warm home. I became a husband, and I was no longer single..." Recalling his feelings at that time, Dean said with joy.

He closed his eyes and said with happiness, which made Victor jealous.

"Alright, you can go." Victor couldn't stand it anymore. He was depressing himself.

"Ha-ha..." Dean smiled proudly. It was so good to have a wife and a child.

"Mr. Alwynn, I won't disturb you anymore. Mr. Ronen and I will attend the dinner party tonight. It's not a big deal."

"Okay!" Victor nodded slightly.

After Dean left, Victor's phone rang.

"Hello? Allie!"

"Mr. Alwynn, bad news! Director Bleu fainted. She's in the hospital now."

"What's going on? Which hospital are you in?" Victor immediately got up, took his coat and car key and rushed out.

"Okay, I'll be right there."

Victor rushed out and drove to the hospital as fast as he could.

Allie was waiting outside the ward. Seeing Victor running to her breathlessly, she smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, don't worry. Mrs. Alwynn is fine. You can go to the doctor's office first."

"Is she really all right?" Victor was very nervous, so he didn't notice that he was in the obstetrics and gynecology department.

"Yeah, it's a piece of good news. The doctor is waiting for you. Go and have a look. Mrs. Alwynn is resting now. We can't disturb her." Allie said with a smile.

"Oh!" Victor walked into the doctor's office with doubt.

"Hello, doctor. I'm Eden's husband."

The doctor was a middle-aged woman in her fifties. When she saw Victor, she smiled and said, "Congratulations, sir. Your wife is pregnant with three children, but now she's in poor health."

"Ah... What?" Victor couldn't believe what he had heard.

His heart was beating fast, and he could even hear his own heartbeat.

The doctor said that Eden was pregnant!

The doctor said that she was pregnant with three babies!

Ha-ha...

Victor laughed wildly in heart. He was really amazing! She was pregnant with three babies again!

Seeing that he was too excited to speak, the doctor smiled, "Sir, don't get excited, but what's wrong with you? Your wife has been pregnant for almost fifty seven days, and she's too tired. She has early signs of miscarriage..."

"Doctor, is it serious?" Before Victor could calm down, the doctor's words woke him up like a basin of cold water.

Seeing his nervous face, the doctor couldn't help but smile again, "Don't be nervous. It's not serious."

After the doctor finished speaking, she picked up report and showed it to him.

"Look, the three babies are very healthy, but she has to rest in bed this month. She should be in a good good, and she can't get excited. Make sure that she has enough sleep and don't let her stay up late. What's more, increase her intake of folic acid. If she doesn't feel well, take her to the hospital for check-up in time."

"Okay. Thank you, doctor! I'll keep it in mind." Victor was so excited that he almost burst into tears.

In the ward, Eden woke up slowly. Smelling the faint smell of disinfectant, she felt sick again.

"Honey."

Hearing Victor's nervous voice, Eden looked at him.

Victor sat by the bed and held her hand tightly. His eyes were brimming with tears.

"What's wrong? Why are you crying? Am I seriously ill?" Eden smiled. Recently, she always felt weak and suffocated. She thought that she didn't have a good rest, but she passed out that day.

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Victor's tone was full of reproach.

"Fool, you're pregnant!"

"Really?" Eden was so excited that she wanted to sit up.

Victor immediately stopped her, "Don't move. Just lie down."

Eden was very uneasy, "No! I bled. How's the baby?" She thought that she was in her period, but it was not. It was a sign of miscarriage.

In the past half one month, she had been very busy, so she completely forgot about her period.

Thinking about it carefully, she didn't seem to have a period last month.

At noon, when she went to the bathroom, she saw some blood, and she thought that she had a period. But she fainted as soon as she went out of the bathroom.

"Eden, don't be excited. The doctor said that you can't suffer from mood swings now. Our babies are fine. They are very healthy." Victor said so, but he was actually more excited than Eden. He was so happy that he almost cried.

Hearing Victor's words, Eden was stunned, "What do you mean? Babies?" She only wanted a baby.

"Ha-ha." Victor giggled, "Honey, congratulations. You're going to be a mother of six children. Honey, hurry up and congratulate me. I'm so glad." Victor was as childish as a three-year-old baby in kindergarten. His tone was so coquettish that Eden's heart melted.

Eden was speechless.

How could it be?

How could she be pregnant with three babies?

"Victor, are you sure?" Eden still didn't believe it. She stared at him with her eyes wide open. The babies were small, so the doctor might have made a mistake.

Back then, she was very surprised when she knew that she was pregnant with three babies.

"Honey, it's true." Victor picked up report and showed it to her.

"Honey, look! The doctor said that the three babies are healthy. Although you have early signs of miscarriage, it's not serious. From this moment on, you must lie in bed and rest. You have to listen to me until you give birth to the babies." Victor's tone was very serious, and he put down the report very carefully. Looking at the three small round dots on the report, he was even more cautious.

"But why are there three babies in my belly?" Eden wanted to cry. She just wanted one more daughter.

"Honey, don't you like them?" Victor looked at her very nervously.

Eden looked at him and burst into laughter, "How could I not like them? I'm just very surprised. It's very tiring to be pregnant with three babies. Besides..." Forget it. He would be worried if she said too much.

"Victor, don't think too much. I like them very much."

Chapter 2066

"Honey, thank you so much." Victor caressed her forehead with distress.

Eden smiled happily.

However, Victor only wanted to share the good news with the whole world. Only then could he calm down a little.

He posted the photo of the report online.

"Although I haven't seen my three babies, I love you so much!"

Then he showed off in the group chat.

In the elite school, the brown walls looked stately. Even the facilities in the school were brown, and the atmosphere was solemn.

Kenneth sat on the balcony and looked at his phone. He missed Eden.

Studying here was harder than he had thought, and the life here was quite simple and boring.

He was the first one who saw the photo that Victor had posted. Looking at the three dots on the report, he was so excited that he almost couldn't hold his phone firmly.

"Mom." He couldn't help but scream, and he called Eden immediately.

Eden was at home. At this time, she was lying in bed to rest.

She was very happy to receive a call from Kenneth, "Hello? Kenny."

"Mom, is that true? Am I going to have three younger brothers or three younger sisters?" Kenny was very excited.

Eden smiled and said in a soft tone, "Kenny, it's true. I've just come back from the hospital. In the future, you'll have to bear a lot of responsibilities." As the eldest son, Kenny would be tireder than other children.

"Mom, I won't feel tired. I will study harder." Kenny's eyes blurred with tears. His family would become livelier and livelier.

He was very happy to be the eldest brother.

"Kenny, can you get used to the life in school? Have you made new friends?" Eden was worried that he would not get used to living alone, so she asked him like this every time they talked on the phone.

"Mom, don't worry about me. I've gotten used to the life here, and I've made new friends. I'm living a good life." He was really living well, but he missed his family so much.

"Okay, remember to call me every day." Eden was worried. She couldn't fall asleep soundly unless she heard Kenny's voice every day.

"I see, mom. I will remember to call you every day. Have a good rest."

After hanging up the phone, Eden lay quietly on her side, not daring to move.

Suddenly, the phone vibrated non-stop.

Eden took the phone again to have a look.

Abigail said, "D*mn! Eden, don't tell me that what Victor has posted online is true!"

Eden was puzzled. Did Victor post something online?

She thought that Kenny knew it because Victor had called him.

Amelia said, "Eden, you are awesome!"

Candace said, "Eden, I'm so envious of you!"

Lyric said, "Eden, I'm too excited. I wish that I can get pregnant, too!"

Abigail asked, "Lyric, are you pregnant?"

Abigail held the phone and looked at the message sent by Lyric. She was so excited that she almost called her parents immediately.

"I don't know. Perhaps I'm not pregnant, but I hope that I could be pregnant. I like more children. I can take care of them."

Abigail couldn't be more delighted. Lyric was such a good girl. Many girls were afraid of giving birth to children, but she actually wanted to give birth to a lot of children for Jasper. How could she not be excited?

"Lyric, my sweetheart, thank you, but you should pay attention to your health."

Lyric replied to her shyly, "Okay!"

Eden was speechless.

Abigail said, "Eden, your husband is showing off that you're pregnant with three babies everywhere."

Eden didn't know what to say.

She got out of bed slowly, put on her slippers and went downstairs.

On the stairs, she heard Victor's proud voice.

It turned out that Victor was calling his friends one by one. He didn't only want to share his joy online.

"Lucian, are you still busy?"

In fact, Lucian didn't have time to check the messages in the group chat, so he was a little confused when he heard Victor's voice.

"What's wrong? Do you want to give me a vacation because you think I'm too tired?" Lucian's voice was as cold as ever.

Victor smiled, "You should exercise and smile more. In this case, maybe Amelia will be pregnant with three babies as well."

Lucian frowned, "What do you mean?"

Victor said, "Well, Eden is pregnant with three children. Amelia used to be pregnant with twins. Spend more time resting. Perhaps she will get pregnant with three babies the next time."

Lucian was speechless. For the first time, he envied Victor.

"I don't know you."

"Ha-ha." Victor laughed proudly, "Lucian, I know you're jealous of me. I'll hang up."

After hanging up the phone, Victor dialed Anson's number.

"Anson, what are you doing?" Victor's voice was as smug as ever.

Hearing Victor's voice, Anson knew what he wanted to say, "Victor, don't tell me that you call me to show off Eden's pregnancy."

"It seems that you've known it. I just want to tell you that I have three more babies. Don't flirt with the actresses in your company all day long. Take good care of yourself. Maybe you'll have three more babies as well."

Anson glanced at Abigail and wished he could give Victor a lesson. He could show off, but why did he have to frame him? When did he flirt with the actresses in the company?

He hung up the phone silently, ready to be scolded by Abigail.

Abigail looked him up and down, "You look so guilty. Was Victor telling the truth?"

"No, dear, don't listen to his nonsense. Victor is out of his head." Thinking that Victor would show off as long as he saw them, he felt upset.

Although Anson hung up the phone, Victor was not angry. He searched for Adonis's phone number.

However, Adonis had called him before he dialed the number.

"Adonis."

"Victor, are you really something!" Adonis was particularly excited. It seemed that he was more cheerful than Victor.

However, many years later, when Victor's fourth child married his daughter, he really wanted to give him a lesson.

Victor called his friends one by one. When he called Brian, Brian didn't even answer the phone.

Why? Because he was with Lucian, and he knew what Victor wanted to say.

Therefore, he completely ignored the vibration of his phone!

He could only roar in heart, "Why am I single?"

Victor didn't get through to Brian, but he was not mad. He called Buddy and Delmont and told them about the good news. Then he called Aisling and Wyatt.

In the end, he called Zaiden and Jaida.

After calling everyone, Victor smiled with satisfaction.

When he turned around and saw Eden on the stairs, he immediately jumped up, "Honey, don't move!"

Eden was very helpless.

"Dear, let me hold you." Victor ran to the stairs, carried her in his arms carefully and walked into the room.

Eden couldn't bear to upset him when she saw his excited face.

However, she roared unhappily, "Victor, how can you show off like this?"

Chapter 2067

Seeing that she was mad, Victor coaxed her worriedly, "Honey, don't be angry. I won't show off again."

Eden glared at him. He had almost called everyone he knew. Who else could he show off to?

In the three children's group chat.

Giada said, "We have three younger brothers or sisters. I'm no longer the youngest. I've finally become an elder sister.]

Henrick said, "Congratulations, but don't forget that I'm elder than you."

"So what?"

The corner of Henrick's mouth twitched. Gia had been so arrogant.

Kenneth said, "I called mom just now. She is very happy. You should pay attention to her mood and call her often. I searched on the Internet. It's said that pregnant women are easy to get emotional."

Henrick replied to him, "Kenny, I will remember to care about mom every day."

Giada said, "I will remember to call mom every day. What's more, you should respect me in front of the babies in the future."

Henrick said, "Don't think about it!"

Giada gritted her teeth in anger.

It was a great thing to have younger sisters or brothers.

Finally, she was no longer the youngest.

She made up her mind that she would care about her younger sisters or brothers so much.

She was so excited!

Henrick said, "Giada, calm down. I know that you like small babies."

Giada was stunned. As her brother, Henrick really knew her so well.

.....

Three months later, the babies in Eden's belly were in good conditions. In fact, she once thought that the doctor had made a mistake. But when she went for a check-up half a month later, it was confirmed that she was pregnant with three babies. At the same time, her belly became as big as a rubber ball.

Victor didn't allow her to go to the company. He worked at home, and Dean sent the documents to him every day.

He took good care of Eden wholeheartedly at home.

However, Eden finally realized how overbearing Victor was.

She sat on the sofa and watched TV. She was thirsty and wanted to pour herself a glass of water. Before she could move her feet, Victor shouted.

"Dear, let me do it."

When Eden was going to the bathroom, he would say, "Honey, let me do it."

Eden said, "I'm going to the toilet."

Victor said, "I'll help you."

He took great care of Eden.

Aisling couldn't take good care of Eden when Eden was pregnant with Kenny, Gia and Ricky, so she wanted to look after her. However, Victor refused her and said that he wanted to take care of Eden in person.

After all, Zofia was pregnant as well, so Victor made an excuse. Aisling would send some delicious food to Eden every few days.

Sometimes, Eden's friends would to see her.

But Victor asked them to stay one meter away from Eden.

Lyric was somewhat careless. Whenever she came here, Victor would stare at her and stop her from getting close to Eden. Lyric felt so wronged. She wanted to touch Eden's belly, but she couldn't.

Abigail always looked at Victor with disdain.

Victor gave her a proud look every time, which made her so angry that she hit him with a pillow.

Although Victor was hit, he laughed happily.

Eden's belly was getting bigger and bigger day by day. Eden knew that she would give birth to the babies earlier. She gave birth to Kenny, Ricky and Gia when they were thirty-six weeks old.

She hoped that the three babies could stay in her belly for thirty-six weeks.

When the babies were thirty-four weeks old, Eden almost couldn't turn over on her own. Her waist hurt so much in the middle of the night. She had to get up and sit for more than an hour before she could lie down and sleep.

Seeing her suffer like this, Victor was very guilty.

When the babies were thirty-five weeks old, the doctor suggested that Eden should be hospitalized. The three little babies were lack of oxygen in her belly.

Eden inhaled oxygen on time every day. She wanted to give birth to the babies as soon as possible, because she was really tired. On the one hand, she would have a cesarean section again. Her belly looked so big, and she was a little scared when she looked at it.

On the other hand, it was hard for her to do everything. She couldn't even see where her shoes were when she wore them.

If it weren't for Victor, she would have a nervous breakdown.

When the babies were thirty-six weeks old, her belly suddenly ached. Then she was pushed to the operating room.

Zaiden and Jaida rushed back. Aisling and Wyatt came to the hospital as fast as they could.

Eden's friends came here, too.

Lyric had been pregnant for three months, so Jasper followed closely behind her.

Abigail was so excited that she kept nagging that Jasper should take good care of Lyric.

Everyone was waiting nervously outside the operating room, especially Victor.

He was so uneasy that his hands and feet turned cold. He kept looking at the operating room, feeling restless.

Seeing how high-strung he was, Jaida comforted him with a smile, "Victor, don't worry. Now it's very normal to have a cesarean section. Just rest assured. Back then, Eden suffered a lot when she gave birth to Kenny, Ricky and Gia. Now the medical science is developed, but Eden will still be tired. After all, she has to give birth to three children."

"Mom, I know." Victor didn't know what to say. He only hoped to see Eden as soon as possible.

Thirty minutes later, a baby's cry came from the operating room.

Victor was stunned and looked at Jaida in pleasant surprise, "Mom, the babies are born!" The joy of being a father was really special.

Jaida smiled and said very excitedly, "Yeah! Look at how lucky you are!"

Everyone smiled happily. They looked at each other and felt so delighted.

After waiting for more than twenty minutes, the three children were carried out.

Victor stood at the door. Instead of rushing to see the children, he looked at the doctor who held the children.

"Where's my wife? Why hasn't she come out yet?" Victor was very anxious. Even his voice was trembling. He stretched his head and looked inside.

The doctor smiled, "Mr. Alwynn, Mrs. Alwynn's cut needs to be stitched. She will come out soon. She and the children are safe. Congratulations, Mr. Alwynn. You have three sons."

Victor was speechless.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Those who had sons were all waiting to see Victor's daughter. But he actually had three sons!

Abigail was extremely disappointed, "Dear, we've lost our daughter-in-law."

Anson said, "Dear, it doesn't matter. We can have a daughter on our own."

Abigail glared at him angrily.

"Who wants to have a daughter with you?"

"Ha-ha..." Anson chuckled. He knew that Abigail was hard-tongued and softhearted. He loved her so much.

Adonis and Lucian stood silently and accompanied their wives.

Jasper said, "Darling, if we have a daughter, we must protect her."

Lyric nodded, "That's right. We must protect her. She can't marry a man casually, just like me."

Jasper was speechless. He felt as if he had got a slap in the face.

"Doctor, did you make a mistake? Three sons? Shouldn't I have three daughters?"

Eden had been looking forward to having three daughters.

"Mr. Alwynn, I didn't make any mistake. Mrs. Alwynn has known about it. Now the three babies are too weak, so they have to live in the incubator."

Only then did Victor look down at the three children. Their faces were wrinkled and their skin was red, but their facial features were very similar to his.

Chapter 2068

He smiled gently and touched the faces of the three babies lightly.

The three little guys soon fell asleep, and their little red faces returned to normal slowly.

Although they were boys, he could have one more daughter in a few years.

Thinking like this, Victor felt better.

Everyone had a look at the babies, and then they were sent to the incubator.

When Eden opened her eyes, it was already dark outside.

"Honey, you're awake." Victor held Eden's hand excitedly.

Eden blinked her beautiful eyes slightly, and her wound ached a little.

But she was very hungry and thirsty.

Victor immediately put a straw into the warm water and let her drink it.

After drinking the water, Eden felt much more comfortable.

Before the catheter was pulled out, the wound wouldn't hurt too much. She would feel very painful when she had an injection to help with uterine contraction the next day.

Eden looked around but did not see the babies. She was a little flustered.

When the first baby was born, the doctor told her that the three babies might have to stay in the incubator for a few days.

"Where are the babies?" She asked. She hadn't seen the babies yet. Although she had kissed them, she didn't see their faces. The three little guys cried quite loudly.

"Eden, don't worry. The babies are fine. I went to see them an hour ago. They were sleeping very soundly. However, they look exactly the same. I can't tell which one is the eldest."

Eden was relieved when she heard that.

"What are you talking about? Kenny is the eldest." Eden felt a little regretful. Although she failed to have a daughter, as long as the babies were healthy.

"Victor, I'm hungry." Eden's voice was hoarse, soft and weak.

"Eden, you can only have liquids now. Mom cooked porridge for you." Victor opened the thermos as he said.

Eden smiled. It was so good to have mom by her side!

Eden ate some and stopped, because going to the bathroom would be troublesome.

"Victor, have you named the babies?"

When she was pregnant, Victor was busy taking care of her all the time, and he didn't think about the babies's names.

Victor shook his head slightly, "Dear, let's name the three brats after we take them home. Or we can let dad name them."

He had only thought about the names of girls, and they were useless.

Eden nodded slightly, "Okay."

"Honey, thank you for letting me experience the joy of being a father. When I heard the first cry of the baby, no words could describe how I felt." Victor held her hand tightly, bowed his head and kissed the corner of her mouth.

Eden smiled faintly and said nothing, but a wave of happiness flooded her.

.....

Oscar Alwynn, Adriel Alwynn and Harriet Alwynn were three years old...

Victor could finally fulfill his wish and hold a wedding with his beloved wife.

Although the wedding was not the focus of world attention, it was the most romantic.

During the past three years, Victor's friends would hold weddings every half a year. All of them had their own sons and daughters, and they lived a happy life.

Jasper and Lyric held a wedding when their daughter was one year old. At this time, Lyric was pregnant with their second child.

Brian tried his best and finally won Aurora's heart in the next spring. Later, they held a grand wedding.

On the day before Victor and Eden held the wedding, Victor successfully became the richest man in the land.

He led Alwynn Group into a brand new era.

The spring weather was no longer chilly. The sun blazed down from a clear blue sky, shining on the green grass. The surrounding trees were verdant, and the air was filled with the fragrance of grass and trees. The blooming flowers swayed in the wind, and the wedding song was pleasant and intoxicating.

White clouds floated in the blue sky, and the flowers mingled together.

The one-meter-tall stage was built with solemn columns. There was a red carpet in the middle. There were petal archways every few meters, and the guests were sitting on both sides.

This was Eden's favorite style.

Eden was dressed in a white wedding dress. The soft dress was light and charming. What amazed people the most was that the dress was decorated with nine hundred and ninety-nine diamonds. Under the sun, the diamonds were shining brilliantly, representing their eternal happiness and love.

Eden was led by her two fathers. Under the gaze of her friends and relatives, she walked to the other end of the red carpet slowly.

Behind them were three ring bearers. They were Eden's three little sons. They were wearing suits, white shirts and bows. Their hair was kept with wax. The three little guys were very handsome. They followed behind Eden.

Behind them were two handsome young men and Giada who looked so pretty.

They looked at each other and smiled. Hendrick said casually, "Dad has finally waited for this day."

Kenneth said, "He has suffered a lot. In order to hold a wedding with mom, he has put in a lot of effort."

Giada said, "It's really not easy. Although dad is still very handsome now, I feel sorry for him!"

Adriel turned around, pouted with confusion and looked at them. Why was it so difficult for their father to hold a wedding?

Obviously, their father was very happy every day, but he always wanted to stay with their mother alone, which made him very unhappy.

Kenneth looked at him with a doting smile, "Adriel, watch the way. Keep walking. Don't step on mom's wedding dress."

Although he had video calls with the three little guys every day, they were still unfamiliar with him.

But blood relationship was so magical. On the first day he returned home, his three younger brothers became clingy to him.

On the other side, Victor was wearing a high-end custom-made black suit. It was very formal. He was as handsome as before. At this moment, he was cheerful and high-spirited, and his face was full of happiness. As he watched Eden walk to him slowly, his eyes turned affectionate and tender.

It was his first time to be a groom. He was very nervous, but he was more expectant and delighted.

The best men were his three friends, and the bridesmaids were their wives.

They were Anson, Adonis, Lucian, Abigail, Candace and Amelia.

Anson looked at Victor's uneasy back and said with a smile, "Victor is very nervous."

Adonis said, "He's the only one who hasn't held a wedding. Let's play tricks on him on his wedding night."

Lucian asked, "Do you dare to do that?"

Adonis asked, "Why don't I dare?"

Anson said, "I'm looking forward to your performance tonight."

Adonis patted his chest and promised, "Just wait!"

Candace suddenly kicked him.

Adonis looked aggrieved, "Dear, I..."

"Shut up. Don't you see that the beautiful bride is almost by the groom's side?" Ann stared at him excitedly.

"Oh!" Adonis didn't dare to make a sound. He stood there obediently with grievances.

Anson and Lucian were speechless. They'd better behave themselves.

Chapter 2069

"Eden is really beautiful!" Candace looked at Eden with admiration.

Abigail looked envious and wistful, "Eden is so happy, because she has two fathers. But I can't bear to see this. Why does she get married so soon?"

Anson was speechless. Abigail's sadness was unnecessary.

Amelia looked at her, "Abby, shouldn't she feel happy because she has married a good husband?"

Abigail looked depressed, "I really don't want to see Victor marry Eden. Victor can't get along with me well. We're at odds with each other."

Amelia was helpless. If Victor was suitable for Abigail, what should Anson do?

Seeing her eyes, Abigail knew that she had thought too much.

She knocked on Amelia's forehead, "What are you thinking about? Even I will be misled by your weird expression."

Amelia didn't know what to say.

Zaiden and Wyatt took Eden's hands and walked to Victor.

Victor felt that it was a really long way.

He looked at Eden attentively. That day, she was really beautiful!

Zaiden said with a smile, "Victor, I'll give Eden to you. I only have one request, which is that you have to make her happy every day!" His daughter must live in happiness every day.

"Dad, don't worry. I will make Eden happy every day." He often said these words, but he was particularly serious that day.

With a smile, Zaiden put Eden's hand in Victor's.

He looked at Eden with tears in his eyes. Eden gave him the happiness of being a father. At this moment, he was really delighted.

"Dad." Eden looked at him and smiled.

Zaiden wiped his tears gently and smiled at her.

Wyatt's eyes were blurred with tears as well. He looked at Victor, "Today, I will give Eden's hand to you. If one day you don't love her, please don't hurt her. You must tell her honestly, and I will take her away. She has four parents, and we'll give her the greatest happiness."

Victor immediately became nervous and promised, "Dad, you can rest assured. I won't give you such a chance."

Wyatt and Zaiden looked at each other and smiled. After giving Eden's hands to Victor, they sat down side by side.

Victor held Eden's hand and said in a gentle and loving tone, "Honey, I can finally marry you."

The host stood beside them and felt so helpless, "Mr. Alwynn, I'm still here, and I... have something to say."

The six children stood behind Victor.

Kenneth reminded him, "Dad, don't get too excited. Pa attention to your image."

Victor took a step forward. He looked at Kenny, Ricky and Gia, and then glanced at the three little boys. He had been so busy in the past three years.

In order to take care of the three little boys, he felt that he was really old.

He lowered his voice, "Listen. Your mother and I will go for our honeymoon tonight. You have to take care of your younger brothers." He had to order them first, or he might have to come back after getting off the plane.

Hendrick looked at him with embarrassment. He had only been back for three times since he went abroad, and he was not familiar with his younger brothers. How could he take care of them?

The host had to say something to officiate at the marriage.

He held the microphone tightly and said in a sonorous voice, "Ah... Ha-ha... Ladies and gentleman, this is the wedding ceremony of Mr. Alwynn and Mrs. Alwynn. I'm the host, Tony."

Victor had to walk back.

"When we were young, we would always have passionate love. Today, Mr. Alwynn will fulfill his promise with his practical actions..."

As soon as Tony finished speaking, the videos of bits and pieces of their past were played on the background wall not far away.

"Let's watch some videos together. These are the photos of Mr. Alwynn and Mrs. Alwynn when they were children."

The photos were shown on the screen. The wedding planner collected all the photos and made a video attentively.

Eden was very lovely when she was a child. Her big eyes were very bright, and she looked at Victor with concentrated attention.

Most of the photos were taken when Victor held Eden.

He seldom smiled, but his smiles in the photos were brilliant.

There was a video of what happened between them after they grew up. It was a record of their romantic and sincere love.

Their wedding received wide coverage in the press.

All of a sudden, the details of Victor getting along with Eden in their office and house were shown. Lucian edited the video carefully.

Their love was sweet and romantic, and they were still in deep love when Eden gave birth to the babies. Bits and pieces of their love story were touching. It was just like a romantic movie, and every scene made people envious.

Victor had put in a lot of effort in this wedding.

In the video, Victor said, "Eden, the moment you were born, you came to my life like a beam of light, illuminating my heart."

"I watched you grow up little by little and prepared a piece of candy for you every day. When you could speak, the first person you call me was me."

"Your soft voice made me happy for several days."

"It was me who fed you the first strawberry. Before you turned six, I grew up with you every day."

"However, I lost you when you were six years old, and I lost my only love at the same time."

"I had looked for you for more than ten years before I found you. The moment I recognized you, I seemed to get the whole world again."

"I don't like to smile, nor do I know how to be romantic. Moreover, I'm very overbearing. But you stay with me, tolerate me and love me!"

"Eden, with you by my side, my world is colorful. I promise that I will spend the rest of my life loving you and giving you the happiest life. We'll live in harmony and mutual respect and grow old together."

Some unnecessary formalities were omitted.

When the video was over, Victor was on the verge of tears.

Eden lowered her head, and tears ran down her face. She had never known that he had prepared these things. Those videos were very ordinary but warm, just like him. Although his words were simple, she was extremely touched.

Victor had prepared for the wedding for many years. If it weren't for the three little boys, he would have held the wedding for a long time.

After the video was played, there was a great round of applause.

The host was so excited that he burst into tears.

"Ah... The d*mn romance. I'm so jealous." Abigail said very happily with tears in her eyes.

Anson hugged her with a smile.

Amelia said, "I'm jealous, too. I want to hold a wedding again."

Lucian said, "Honey, I'll marry you in my next life!"

"Okay!" Amelia's eyes misted with tears. They had all got their happiness.

Lyric glanced at Jasper, and they smiled at each other.

The love story of Victor and Eden was more exciting than a novel. They had bridged over lots of difficulties before getting married.

Surrounded by family and friends, they wore rings for each other.

The moment Victor put on the ring for Eden, he kissed her affectionately.

"Clap..."

There was a warm round of applause.

Victor stared at Eden passionately. Her eyes were as bright and clear as ever. That day, she was so pretty that he could not take his eyes off her. In his life, he would give the best things to his wife and children and give them the best love within his reach.

He whispered in her ear affectionately, "Eden, I love you!"

To be continued...

Chapter 2070

In River City, after the exhibition was over, Giada changed into a black off-the-shoulder dress, revealing her delicate collarbones. The color set off her perfect and beautiful facial features, and the tight-fitting tailoring flattered her nice figure.

She stopped a taxi on the side of the road and left directly.

The sun in the early summer was particularly comfortable. She looked out of the window with a faint smile in her starry eyes. Gia inherited Victor's temperament and Eden's charm. She could be either commanding or gentle.

Being busy preparing for the exhibition, she was a little tired. In the taxi, she closed her beautiful eyes and wanted to take a nap. Not long after she closed her eyes, the annoying ringtone sounded.

Seeing the caller ID, she was a little annoyed as she answered it, "Boris, do you have to call me at this time?"

"Gia, didn't you ask me to pick you up? Where are you?" On the phone, Boris's tone was very unhappy. Giada actually stood him up.

Feeling a little guilty, Giada stuck out her tongue and said, "Boris, I'm sorry. I'm going to River City Restaurant to get dinner for Frank Hernandez."

"Ha-ha... It's because of that dissolute man again. I've told you many times that he doesn't really love you..."

"Shut up, Boris. Don't ruin my fantasy of love. Bye!" Giada hung up decisively.

After she arrived at River City Restaurant and paid the bill, she walked forward happily and got the prepared food. Just as she about to call Frank, she saw a man and a woman walking toward the corner intimately.

She could not be more familiar with the man's back. It was Frank, her boyfriend whom she had been dating for three months.

It was very lively on the first floor. It seemed that someone was holding a party here.

Giada asked the receptionist, "Is there a party inside the room?"

The receptionist replied respectfully, "Yes, Miss Alwynn!"

Giada nodded slightly and followed them.

At the same time, the elevator door opened.

A tall man came out. He paused slightly when he saw Giada's beautiful back.

The assistant behind him was stunned, "President, what's wrong?"

"Wait for me here." There was no emotion in his clear voice.

Then, he walked over gracefully.

When Giada entered the room, a group of cheering men and women were drinking. The pungent smell of smoke made her frown unhappily.

In the middle of the dance floor, a man and a woman were hugging each other intimately and dancing. Beside them, a few girls were screaming and asking them to kiss each other.

The man really smiled and kissed the girl on the face.

Giada frowned. This was Frank, whom she had known for six months and dated for three months.

Frank looked gentle and refined, and his facial features were good-looking. When he smiled, he looked tenderer.

When he raised his head, he saw Giada staring at him with a cold expression.

"Gia, why are you here?" He looked at Giada in panic.

"Ha-ha..." Giada sneered, "Why are you here? Who is she?"

Giada looked at the girl in his arms. She had an oval face and brown curly hair. Wearing a white miniskirt, she looked very sexy.

She had actually lost to such a woman.

Boris was really a jinx!

She really wanted to give him a lesson!

"Gia, she..."

"I'm his girlfriend. Who are you?" Marlee Leblanc looked at Giada with indifferent eyes.

"Really?" Giada looked at Frank and asked.

The whole room became quiet. Everyone liked to see such a dramatic scene.

Marlee looked at Giada with a victorious smile and said arrogantly, "I know you, but Frank likes me more. My father knows the managers in Alwynn Group, and he can help Frank become successful in a very short time. As for you, you're just a lesser-known art teacher. You can't give him anything."

Giada was stunned for a moment. Her heart ached when she heard such an answer. She laughed self-mockingly. How silly she was!

She apologized to herself for being so stupid.

In order to get sincere love, she never mentioned her family background in front of others. But she didn't expect that this was why she lost.

She looked at Frank quietly, "Frank, is she telling the truth?"

Although the fact was right in front of her, she could not help but ask him.

Frank's eyes flashed, and he did not dare to look at her, "Gia, I'm sorry. Marlee's father can give me a bright future."

This cruel truth shattered Giada's longing for love.

"Ha-ha." She couldn't help but laugh. Only then did she realize how stupid she was.

"Frank, you really have a bad taste. She actually brings you a meal with a thermos. What a bumpkin!" Marlee looked at the thermos in Giada's hand and said very sarcastically.

Her friends chimed with her.

"Hey, how much can an art teacher earn a month? If she doesn't save money, how could she be qualified to be in a relationship?"

"That's right. The dress she is wearing is pretty good, and she's nice-shaped, but I think the dress must be cheap."

"Ha-ha, such a humble woman only deserves to wear cheap clothes. She actually dares to steal Marlee's boyfriend! She'll soon lose her job!"

"Marlee, this is River City Restaurant. Such trash like her is not allowed to come in. Hurry up and drive her out. Don't dirty this place."

Hearing her friends' words, Marlee looked at Giada proudly.

Giada looked at them and smiled, "Indeed, you're not qualified to come in. Get out right now!"

Giada was furious. She had never been bullied like this since she was a child.

"Ha-ha... Who do you think you are? Why should we listen to you?" Everyone laughed.

"Gia, why don't you go back first?" Frank liked Giada, and he was sad to see her being laughed at by these people, but he had just graduated from college and had no wide range of contacts. It was difficult for him to succeed.

"Frank, I really misjudged you. If you don't like me, you can tell me clearly. I don't care who you love after we break up, but you have betrayed me. You just want to have a wide range of contacts, don't you? As long as I'm in River City, you can never settle down here. This is what you'll suffer after betraying me."

"Oh! You are really boasting! Who do you think you are?" Marlee held Frank's hand intimately.

Giada looked at Frank and sneered. She would ruin his dream in person.

She took out her phone and dialed the manager's number.

"Come to Hibiscus Hall."

After that, she hung up the phone and looked at Frank quietly.

Being stared at by her, Frank was a little flustered, "Gia, I beg you, go back first. This is not somewhere you can come. I..."

However, before he could finish his words, a middle-aged man rushed in with several bodyguards.

Marlee gave a weird smile and pointed at Giada, "Toby, you come at the right time. This woman has ruined my birthday party. Drive her out."
