

Gluey Love 2191

Chapter 2191

Alice smiled sadly and looked straight at the man in front of her. She said word by word, "Yes, I framed you. Are you satisfied with this answer? If so, please don't appear in front of me casually in the future."

Henrick was stunned. He didn't expect her to admit it so readily.

At that time, he had always thought that the woman had framed him. Later, when he learned that the woman was Alice, his thoughts became more and more intense.

Because of her pestering, he felt very annoyed.

She thought that he just needed an answer and she could just give it to him.

She didn't see who the girl who helped him go upstairs was. Her eyes were too focused on him. She wasn't drunk at that time, but she was framed. Otherwise, she wouldn't have lost her innocence.

In order to relieve his pain, she also suffered a lot, and this man, with the first sentence he spoke to her, sent her to hell.

He left, dejected.

She admitted it in person, giving him an indescribable feeling.

Alice had never expected that she would be defeated again after meeting Henrick.

Because he didn't care about her, and because he didn't love her, he easily judged a person's crime.

She was in a bad state. Before the others came to work, she left the company again.

When she left, she was crying.

He happened to see her running into the elevator. When the elevator doors closed, he saw her face full of tears.

He was stunned for a moment and did not know that he would hurt her so deeply.

Looking at her tears, he felt that he was an inhumane b*stard.

In the next few days, he never saw her again.

Half a month passed, but she did not show up in the company. Even Brenden did not come to the company. Only the two assistants often sent scripts to Dwayne, the director, for review.

Additionally, filming was also set to start because the script had been changed very well.

On this day, Henrick met Alice's assistant, Kylie. He couldn't help asking about Alice's situation. "Miss Ratliff."

When Kylie saw the big movie star talking to her, she was so excited that she became shy.

Everyone was used to calling him 'Mr. Henrick', so she also called him in the same manner, "Mr. Henrick, what's the matter?" She lowered her eyes shyly.

He nodded lightly. "Where are Alice and Brenden? Why haven't I seen them come to the company recently?"

He couldn't forget the scene of Alice running out with tears streaming down her face.

He wanted to make a phone call to ask about her situation, but he found that he didn't have her phone number.

In the company, after asking Dwayne for her phone number, he looked at the phone number for a long time. She still used the same number as she did before. Only then did he realize that he did not care about anything concerning Alice.

He was too ashamed to fight back.

"Mr. Henrick, Brenden modified the script at Alice's home. I just sent it to the director for review."

"What? Brenden is at Alice's home?" His expression suddenly darkened.

"Yes, Brenden likes Alice. Everyone around knows that they have been getting along with each other, and their relationship has improved a lot. We will go there only if we need them, so we will not disturb them easily," Kylie honestly told her idol.

Henrick returned to her office with a terrible expression.

Alma had witnessed what had just happened.

Henrick had been in a bad mood recently. She had asked him out several times, but he had refused.

He really cared about Alice.

In the past, he only had eyes for her.

However, that was not the case now.

She twisted her ankle when she wore her high heels the day before, but he didn't care about her. Instead, he asked his assistant to take her home.

If it was in the past, he would definitely send her home.

Looking at his lonely back, she bit her lower lip. That woman could actually affect his mood. It seemed that she had to speed up.

Alice and Brenden's abilities had always been recognized by everyone in the industry.

Dwayne was very satisfied. The start time was set to be three days later. In order to memorize the script, Henrick did not have time to verify what had happened back then.

In fact, with his current relationship with Alice, even if he found out the truth, it would still be a stalemate.

Anson also did his best in order to make everyone happy.

On the night before the opening day, all the crew members were invited to the top floor of the River City Hotel's restaurant.

Alice, Brenden, and their assistants were also invited.

Alice couldn't avoid this kind of thing. She couldn't just stay away from Henrick for the rest of her life.

"Do I still have a long way to go?" She thought.

It was impossible for her to hide at home forever because of him.

On this day, she got up early and went to find Eden to pick out a beautiful black diamond dress. The Clarke family was not short of money, so she could eat and dress according to her preferences.

Despite this, Eden didn't accept the money, but gave her the dress.

Alice didn't like Henrick, but she liked Eden very much. She liked her gentle and virtuous temperament and her smile that could mend people's hearts.

She stayed with Eden and Giada for the whole afternoon before going home to take a shower.

After she was ready, she applied delicate makeup and put on the dress. After receiving the news from Brenden, she went out.

When Brenden saw her coming down, his eyes were full of amazement.

"Wow! Miss Klein, you will definitely surpass everyone tonight." He elegantly opened the door of the passenger seat and Alice got in with a smile.

"Am I not usually beautiful?" She looked at him and smiled.

His heart trembled slightly, and his heart beat so fast that it was almost impossible to suppress.

His tone was seductive and as gentle as water. "Beautiful, very beautiful. Miss Klein, you are always very beautiful!"

"Haha." She smiled, like a flower blooming. She was beautiful and charming. "Well, get in the car quickly. Don't be late."

"Yes! As your male companion, I'm honored to be here tonight!" He looked at her with a gentle smile and then went around the car and got in the driver's seat.

On the top floor of a big restaurant in River City.

After Anson left for a while, he wanted to go back to accompany his wife and daughter.

"I'm leaving. Watch out here."

Henrick was speechless. He smiled evilly and said, "Uncle Anson, you have a son yourself. You don't care about a son like me, do you?"

"Well, it's my wife's fault for caring about your family. You old thing, calling my wife 'mommy', but you don't call me 'dad'. I can't take advantage of this? You are very bad!"

"My heart has been hurt by you. I'm going back to find my little Jacqueline and ask her to heal my wounded heart," Anson said and slipped away.

Henrick smiled silently, and Alma, who was standing by the side, looked envious. For people who were born into good families, their beginning was the end of other people's stories.

As for her, she had to be careful.

Chapter 2192

"Alma, go and eat something to fill your stomach first."

"Okay, Henrick, come with me." Alma smiled and stood next to him gently.

She was the only woman who was qualified to stand beside him that night.

She could feel the envious eyes of the women present, and the spotlight belonged only to her.

Just as they were about to leave, they heard an uproar.

"Who is that? Alice?"

"Yes! I heard that her family is very wealthy. Look at her diamond-studded dress. It's very expensive."

"It's so beautiful on her."

Hendrick also looked over. Alice was tall, and she stood out among the crowd. At a glance, he could see that she was wearing a black dress. At first glance, she looked exquisite and gorgeous, and her fair and smooth collarbone and back were perfectly exposed, looking soft and charming.

She wore a diamond butterfly necklace, a bracelet, a ring, and a dress that matched her perfectly. In an instant, she was more beautiful than anyone else.

She and Brenden stood together, and they were greeting Dwayne.

She seemed very happy and kept smiling.

Henrick looked at her quietly, but he stood where he was, not moving at all.

Alice was indeed very popular that night.

Many of the female celebrities present were overshadowed by her. However, Alice was not a part of the entertainment industry. Even if she was beautiful, it would not have much of an impact on them.

Everyone was very friendly to her.

"Oh, Alice, if you enter the entertainment industry, you will definitely become famous," Dwayne said jokingly.

"Mr. Kline, as a screenwriter, I am technically in the entertainment circle." She smiled. The diamond necklace made her smile appear even brighter.

Henrick blinked his dark eyes. He had never looked at Alice seriously before. It turned out that she was so beautiful!

Alma raised her eyes and saw the infatuated look in his eyes. She bit her lips secretly. After quickly calming down, she smiled faintly.

"Henrick, let's go over and say hello to the screenwriter. We still have a long time to get along with each other in the future."

He came back to her senses and glanced at her without saying anything.

After a while, he said, "No need."

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard the director calling.

"Mr. Henrick, come here."

Henrick pursed her lips and walked over with Alma.

"Mr. Henrick, filming will start tomorrow. You can have a good chat tonight. In the first scene tomorrow, Alice and Brenden will follow you, and they will be responsible for the script writing."

Dwayne took a step back after he finished speaking.

"Alice, Brenden, nice to meet you. I'm Alma, the lead actress of this drama," Alma greeted them with a smile.

Alice's eyes fell on her. The pink dress she wore was well-cut. The pattern and color on the dress were very light and elegant. There was a wavy design on the V-neck collar which added to her innocence and romance.

Alma was very beautiful, pure and romantic.

She was the dream lover of many men.

Compared to an independent girl like her, men preferred Alma's soft beauty.

"Hello, Miss Palma!" Alice greeted her with a graceful smile but did not look at Henrick.

Her free and easy smile made it seem like she had completely forgotten about him.

"Alice, you and Brenden are a perfect match." Alma pretended to be envious.

Brenden looked at the beautiful Alice beside him with a smile, and then looked at her and Henrick. He had seen them in the elevator that day.

Mr. Henrick liked the little star beside him.

They were a good match standing together.

He said with a smile, "Miss Palma, you and Mr. Henrick are also a good match."

Henrick's expression darkened. He wanted to retort, but when she saw Alice's indifferent expression, he swallowed the words that were about to come out of his mouth.

Alma smiled shyly and lowered her head without saying anything.

After chatting with each other, they went to have dinner in groups of twos and threes.

Although there was always a smile on his handsome face, Henrick was distant and indifferent.

It seemed that he was very easy to get along with, but there were not many people who could truly get close to him.

Everyone also went through the process. After greeting him, they went their separate ways. With Alma beside the movie star, everyone was very sensible and didn't want to disturb them.

What's more, there had been news that the two of them had gone to dinner together. Seeing how good Henrick was to Alma, anyone could tell that he liked her.

Alice was much calmer than before when he saw her this time.

The most painful time had passed, and now, she really didn't have to be as sad as before.

Was there anything more painful than before?

No?

Alice took a plate and went to get her favorite food.

She went to pick up some lobster, and there were also some vegetables beside it.

Her plate collided with another person's.

When they looked up and saw the other party, their gazes trembled.

Alice quickly took back her plate and went to pick up some clams next to him.

Looking at her, who didn't even want to look at him, and coupled with his worries over the past few days, Henrick held back his anger.

He couldn't help but stop her. "Alice."

"What are you doing?" She looked at him fiercely.

"Hey! Why are you so aggressive?" He looked at her childish expression, and there was a smile in her eyes.

"Get lost! Henrick, don't mess with me. I'm much fiercer than you think." She glared at him and then continued to look for the food she liked.

That b*stard actually took the initiative to talk to her; it was going to be a bloodbath if he continued.

He followed her and glanced at Brenden, who was walking over. His expression suddenly darkened. "You and Brenden work under the same roof?"

As soon as he said that, Henrick regretted it. Why did he ask such a question? It made him look like he was jealous.

Alice looked back at him and said, "Henrick, why are you so thick-skinned? Why are you following me? It's none of your business who I am with."

She said in a low voice. Seeing Alma coming over, she warned him, "Your dream woman is coming. Don't get too close to me, lest others misunderstand you."

After saying that, she turned around and left.

"She..."

"Henrick." Alma's gentle voice sounded behind him. He had wanted to explain, but when he thought about it, they were not even friends. What was there to explain?

"What's wrong?" He looked at her.

"Nothing. I came here to get something. I came here as soon as I saw you." She picked up a plate and took the lobster that Alice and Henrick had just touched as if nothing had happened.

That was because only the last one would show up.

This time, Henrick did not go back with Alma. Instead, he walked towards Alice and Brenden.

The two of them sat in front of each other. No one knew what Brenden had said, but Alice almost choked with laughter when she heard it.

Chapter 2193

Brenden quickly handed her a glass of water. Alice took a sip of water and said, "Brenden, can you stop joking when I'm eating? I almost laugh to death every time."

"Well, well, it's my fault. I just want to share with you that it's funny to get married now. Isn't the new man funny?"

She was about to burst into tears, but she kept suppressing it.

"It's funny, but the bride is also very happy. All she needs is a kiss and some money. The groom dotes on the bride in this way, and he himself has also received a lot of benefits. It's not a loss."

"But I think this groom is quite talented. His best man is even more talented. I'll tell you when you're not eating." He looked at her and smiled meaningfully.

"Really? When you get married, do you want to follow suit?" She asked with a smile.

Both of them were so happy that they didn't notice Henrick.

Henrick watched as Alice dipped the lobster into water.

He looked at the mustard on the side and gently placed a little on her lobster meat.

Brenden didn't have time to stop him. She moved quickly, and so did Henrick. Everything happened in an instant.

Alice never ate mustard, and the mustard on the table was for Brenden.

In an instant, her ears were blocked and her mind went blank. Tears flowed out of her eyes from the pain.

"Ahem..." She bent down and spat out the lobster meat in her mouth.

Henrick was speechless. He just felt that it would taste better if it was eaten with mustard. Who knew that she couldn't eat mustard.

Brenden frowned and glanced at him. He stood up and walked up to her, asking, "Alice, how are you feeling?"

Buzz buzz buzz... Alice felt like something was buzzing in her ear.

She couldn't say anything and closed her eyes to ease her discomfort.

It wasn't until the dazedness in her mind had passed that she straightened up and looked at the culprit with a pair of watery eyes.

Seeing this, Henrick's heart began to ache.

He explained hesitantly, "Alice, I... I just thought that it's better to put some mustard on it."

Brenden looked at him with a frown. "Mr. Henrick, I hope you won't make such a joke in the future. Alice cannot eat mustard."

"I..."

"Henrick, you did it on purpose, didn't you?" Alice wiped away her tears. Her eyes were red as she glared at him.

"If I said I didn't do it on purpose, would you believe me?"

"Who would believe you? Stay away from me!" She shouted angrily, picked up her bag and left.

"Hey, I..."

"Mr. Henrick, we're leaving," Brenden interrupted him and chased after Alice.

Henrick was speechless. What the hell was he chasing after them for?

Alma looked at him. "Did he just want Alice to think that it's delicious or was it a prank?" She thought to herself.

She always felt that the relationship between the two of them was unusual.

However, she didn't know what was unusual.

Although Henrick was sometimes very mischievous, she knew that the man in front of her was very kind.

Sometimes, he liked to play pranks, but he would not go too far.

That night, he had paid too much attention to Alice.

"Henrick, you're so mischievous. People who can't eat mustard will be choked to tears as long as they touch it."

"I really didn't do it on purpose. I usually like eating lobster like this. You know, I just want to put some mustard on it for her so that it would taste better."

"Oh, you like it, but it doesn't mean that others like it!" Alma found it funny, but she felt that Henrick had changed so fast that his eyes were attracted to Alice.

As a woman, her intuition had always been very accurate.

Filming would start from the following and it would be a love story between a powerful CEO and Cinderella.

She was Cinderella and Henrick was the CEO.

This film seemed to be tailored for her and she had to do it well.

He nodded. "That's right. It's my fault."

The people around him watched this scene with interest.

The people in the circle immediately exposed Alice's identity.

In other people's eyes, this was Henrick's prank, but in Alice's view, it was he who deliberately played a trick on her.

When Alice saw Henrick the next day, she glared at him with hatred.

He could only rub his nose resentfully. It was his fault, and he was too ashamed to say anything.

The opening ceremony was enthusiastically held by everyone. The director said a lot of nice words before it ended.

The shooting site was River City, so it was convenient for Alice and Brenden to go back and forth.

That day's play had been discussed with the director. There was not much to be modified.

The first shot was the first meeting between the couple.

Henrick had already read the script the night before, so he had memorized all the lines.

However, the director changed his mind at the last moment. There would be a kissing scene in the first round.

In an instant, Henrick felt that Alice was making trouble for him.

"Director, why do you want to add a kiss scene? Didn't I read that there wasn't one in the script last night?" Henrick looked at Dwayne with a frown.

"Well, I felt better after I added the kiss scene. I've already discussed it with Alice. She also said that this would be better too. Isn't the original one like this as well? You two met each other in the swimming pool. After Laurel fell into the water, you saved her. The two of them passed by like a dragonfly skimming the water. Won't that feel better?" The director said as he fantasized.

Henrick was at a loss for words. He never filmed kissing scenes, and it felt wrong to do so.

Moreover, it was with Alma this time.

He wouldn't do anything worse than a beast until he was sure of his own feelings.

He had had Alice before, so he couldn't make any mistakes now.

Besides, Alma seemed to like him too, but he was not sure about his own heart.

Even if he was acting, he didn't agree to it. He had hurt Alice before and he couldn't hurt Alma anymore.

Alma was originally very happy, but when she heard his words, she immediately felt sad.

"I'll go find Alice."

He immediately took the script to her.

Dwayne was speechless. What did Henrick take him for?

The weather was hot, and Alice and Brenden were working alone in the office.

She was discussing the details with him.

The two of them were standing very close to each other, so Henrick was very angry when he saw them.

"Alice!" He roared.

She was stunned. "This b*stard, he doesn't get along well with me everyday."

"What are you doing? I know it's hot. If you're angry, jump into the river. Don't come here to make a scene."

Henrick threw the script in front of her. "Why is there a kissing scene?"

She was speechless.

"Speak!" For some reason, he was very angry.

She used to be his woman, and she liked him very much. Could she stand watching him kiss another woman?

Chapter 2194

No, why did he care about her opinion?

He was going crazy everyday.

Henrick took a deep breath. These days, he felt that he was really going crazy.

"Alice, I disagree with this." He was overbearing to the extreme.

Alice looked at him calmly and said with a smile, "Henrick, you should be grateful to me. Don't you like Miss Palma very much? Why are you refusing now that I have arranged such a nice scene for you?"

"Alice, you... did it on purpose." He was so angry that he wanted to scold her.

When did he say that he liked Alma?

He just felt that Alma was trying hard to improve and would occasionally help her.

"Henrick, you're wrong. I didn't do it on purpose. With my professional ethics, I wouldn't do such a thing. Mr. Kline asked me to arrange it because it's necessary. As a screenwriter, I cooperate with you. Since you don't want to shoot a kissing scene, you can go to the director."

After saying that, she turned around and didn't want to talk to him anymore.

Henrick glared at her back, turned around, and strode away.

When Alice heard the sound of footsteps leaving, she turned around and rubbed the space between her eyebrows tiredly. She really didn't know what was going on with him.

As an actor, he was not professional at all.

"Alice, are you okay?" Brenden looked at her worriedly.

Through the past few days of getting along, he could tell that the relationship between Alice and Mr. Henrick was very stiff.

Alice smiled and said, "I'm fine. Let's continue..."

"Alice."

Before she could finish her words, she heard Henrick standing at the door calling out to her.

"What are you doing?" She was also angry. The weather was getting hotter and hotter, so it was easy for tempers to flare.

"Come out and tell me how to perform here."

She looked straight at the man who had won countless awards and who was also a movie star.

The first scene was very simple for him. For him, who had played all kinds of roles, it was much easier.

"What are you doing? Hurry up!" Henrick roared aggressively.

Alice looked at Brenden. "Brenden, tell me, how did he get the awards?"

He smiled and responded, "Alice, I feel that he has not grown up yet, but he was born into a rich family. This kind of character that has not grown up can be understood."

She nodded in agreement. She crossed her arms and squinted at the man with hazy facial features standing at the door. "I think so too. I haven't grown up yet."

"Hey, hey, hey, you two. How dare you speak ill of me in front of me!"

Henrick also felt that his actions were very childish, but he didn't expect them to think that he hadn't grown up.

He was utterly furious!

How could he, who was usually so rational, become a child in front of Alice?

"Hurry up!" After finishing her words, Henrick walked out, and it could even be seen from his back that he was infuriated.

In order not to delay everyone's time, Alice had to go out to have a talk.

At the swimming pool, Dwayne's expression was not very good. Seeing that Mr. Henrick was in a bad mood, the effect of the film was not very good either.

As far as he was concerned, Henrick liked Alma. Thus, why didn't he want to shoot a kiss scene with her?

The assistant director whispered in Dwayne's ear, "Director, is Mr. Henrick putting on airs?"

Dwayne smiled cunningly. "He's not putting on airs. He's a black sheep and he's filming in Alwynn Group. We don't have to worry about funding at all."

The assistant director was speechless. "That's true!"

When Alma saw Alice coming over, she bit the corner of her lips gently. The first scene was like this for a long time, and there were many intimate scenes after that. What should she do?

Originally, Henrick acted very well, and the director said that he was not bad. However, Henrick was not satisfied, and part of the kissing scene was filmed.

Alice stood in front of Henrick.

She was slightly taller than Alma. Standing together with him, who was 1.8 meters tall, they were a perfect match.

She was very close to him, so he could smell her faint fragrance. He remembered this kind of fragrance. It was not perfume, but her body scent. It was very comfortable to smell.

He looked straight at her, waiting for her to see him.

Alice explained everything very conscientiously.

In the first scene, Lewis Morris, who was the CEO, passed by the swimming pool and met Laurel Hess, who fell into the water.

He was ruthless and didn't want to save people. As the hero, he had a tragic childhood and had no sympathy for anyone.

When he was about to leave, Laurel suddenly came out of the water and called out to him for help.

Lewis just gave her a ruthless look. When he was about to leave, he suddenly thought of something. He stared at her pure and beautiful face for a few seconds, and then dove into the water to save her without hesitation.

After Alice explained his actions and his gaze, she looked at Henrick and found that he was staring at her in a daze.

"Mr. Henrick, do you understand?" Her voice was a little loud.

He came back to her senses in an instant. He nodded gently and replied, "I think I understand."

Alice shouted to Dwayne, "Director, he understands."

"Okay! Everyone, go ahead." Dwayne's expression became solemn and his tone was very serious.

Alice didn't go in anymore. She stood behind the director and looked at Henrick, who was at the other end.

There, Henrick came out with a white bath towel, revealing his strong and sexy abdominal muscles.

He looked indifferent, and his expression was full of disgust. His every move was domineering and noble, and he was an overbearing CEO.

Alice looked at his strong and sexy body that looked sensuous, powerful and domineering. Unconsciously, she remembered the night seven years ago when she was almost tortured to death.

However, in the next moment, she heard Dwayne's angry voice.

"Cut! Mr. Henrick, you are the overbearing CEO, not a hooligan."

"Get ready. Come here."

"Cut! Mr. Henrick, you are the overbearing CEO, not a gentle lover."

"Cut! Mr. Henrick, you are the overbearing CEO, not a weak primary school student."

In the first scene, Dwayne felt like he was having a heart attack.

Henrick's lack of ability stunned everyone.

That was especially true for his assistant, Josue. He had known Henrick for a long time, so he was well aware of his excellent acting skills. Yet, he had never seen Henrick acting like this.

Had he returned to primary school after resting for a few months?

It didn't make sense!

Impossible!

The most miserable one was Alma. She couldn't keep up with her physical strength. She jumped into the water again and again, and the skin on her body was wrinkled.

Others might not be able to see it, but Alice could. He was definitely doing it on purpose. She already knew what his acting was like many years ago.

Dwayne was furious, and the assistant director helped him to calm down.

"Mr. Kline, don't be angry. Don't kill this before the filming is complete. No, I can't take your class if you die, nor can I."

"Shut up!" Dwayne's vision went dark. That was only the first filming session and yet, he was already going to be crippled.

Chapter 2195

Alma was very tired, but she didn't dare to show it in front of everyone.

Her assistant took a bath towel and put it over her. She said in surprise, "Alma, your skin is wrinkled." Her voice was neither too loud nor too soft, and it was spoken just in time for Henrick to hear it.

Alma frowned and glanced at her assistant. "Ellie, keep your voice down."

Henrick looked at Alma with an apologetic expression.

"Alma, I'm sorry. I promise I'll do well in the next round."

Without waiting for her reply, he suddenly looked at Alice.

Alice suddenly felt nervous.

Henrick seemed to have seen through her nervousness. He smiled evilly and said, "Alice, please come over. I'm not in my best condition today. Could you please explain to me?"

She strode over in a hurry. Those familiar with her all knew that she was angry at the moment.

What the hell was this b*stard doing?

The moment Alice got close to him, she whispered to him, "Isn't she the woman you want to marry, yet you're torturing her like this? Can't you see that she's tired?"

"What's more, you are a professional actor. From childhood to adulthood, your acting skills just now are really questionable."

He looked down at her. She was very close to him, and the faint fragrance lingered around him. He instantly felt comfortable.

Her beautiful and three-dimensional facial features were tinged with a faint pink because of the hot weather. Compared with Alma's pure and innocent face, her face was indeed more beautiful, no matter the angle.

He said with an evil smile, "Are you worried that I can't get a wife? Don't worry, even if there's no one else in the world to marry, I won't marry you."

She felt a suffocating pain in her heart, but she also looked up at him with a beautiful smile and said, "Don't worry. I'd rather marry a beggar than marry you."

He narrowed his eyes. Thus, in her heart, was he worse than a beggar?

Seeing the people around them looking at them, Henrick spoke normally again. "Alice, could you please tell me again? I will definitely be able to perform well next time."

Alice gave him a fierce look and seriously explained things to him. No matter what, she couldn't let him question her professional standards. Otherwise, she had to find something else to do.

Alma looked at the two people who were next to each other. She was so jealous that she went crazy. She had fallen into the water many times and was almost choked to death. Her skin was pale and wrinkled. He didn't care about her at all. He had really changed.

Not far away, Abigail had been watching for quite a while.

After Alice finished her explanation, she walked over.

"Mommy, why are you here?" Henrick looked at Abigail nervously. Others could not see his tricks, but she could.

Abigail turned to look at Alma, who was sitting not far away. She glanced at him and asked, "Is the female lead Alma?"

"That's right, Mommy. Alma is indeed the female lead. As my manager, how could you not know?" Henrick looked at her in confusion.

Abigail looked at him. "I've been busy recently, so I haven't paid much attention to the company's affairs."

"What are you doing? Do you want to get sick? Film well for me. If you can't do it in the next scene, you can go home and think about it."

He smiled and held her arm in a coquettish manner. "Mommy, I promise I'll do my best in the future."

She patted him on the arm with a doting smile. "Baby, you don't know what's good for you. Be more careful while drinking and eating."

After saying that, she glanced at Alma and turned to leave.

He was baffled. Why did Mommy say something like that to him?

Moreover, why did she keep looking in the direction of Alma?

Alma bit her lips and did not dare to look straight into Abigail's eyes.

In the following shoot, Henrick did his best. Dwayne was very amazed and he clapped his hands!

On the contrary, Alma was in a bad state and was scolded badly by the director.

By the time they finished their work in the evening, they were all already exhausted.

They all stayed in hotels in River City for the film shoot.

After dinner, they went back to rest.

As soon as Alice returned to the hotel room, she laid on the bed and rested.

She was mentally and physically tired, so she wanted to complete this cooperation as soon as possible.

In this cooperation, her father signed the contract without telling her. The shooting had begun, otherwise, she really wanted to go back.

However, when she thought of her father's affection and love for her, she gave up this idea. Her father was different from the fathers in other families, who valued men more than women. Instead, he loved her more.

He could not wait to give her all the best things in life.

Thinking of this, she steeled herself again.

After lying down for a while, she got up and went to take a bath. She changed into a white casual suit, found the herbal tea she brought, and made a pot of tea, ready to enjoy it.

Health care was very important. She cared about her health very much. There were two little babies at home to take care of. She always took good care of herself and did not let herself get sick.

On the other side, Henrick felt sorry for Alma. After the shoot, he invited her to have dinner together.

In a high-end restaurant.

The atmosphere was very comfortable.

It was also very suitable for dating!

Alma was really tired that day, and she had been scolded by the director. She was already in a bad mood. Fortunately, Henrick invited her to dinner, which made up for the little jealousy in her heart.

Other people ate the work meal provided by the crew, and it was already the best treatment for her to come to the high-end restaurant with Henrick.

She couldn't let go of this opportunity. This time, she had to make him fall in love with her sincerely.

"Henrick, why aren't you willing to film a kiss with me? You've seen through my feelings for you over the years, haven't you?" She put down the knife and fork in her hand and looked at him with a disappointed expression.

She knew that she was no longer the only focus in his eyes.

The two of them had known each other since they were young. This was also the first time that she had expressed her feelings for him.

His grip on the knife and fork tightened. Although he was eating with Alma, his mind was filled with the pain in Alice's eyes during the day.

When he said, "No one will marry you in this lifetime", he clearly caught a trace of pain in her eyes, and her stunning face instantly turned pale.

Boris once said that there were many people in the world, but almost no one really cherished him.

His parents had too many things to do, so it was impossible for them to put all their thoughts on him, let alone friends. When he thought of it, they were friends, and few of them really cared about him.

It wasn't that he hadn't experienced these things in the past few years.

Alice had been greeting him and caring for him for more than ten years, but he turned a blind eye to it all.

For her, his perfunctoriness and indifference hurt her deeply.

It also hurt her heart that had initially been full of enthusiasm and hope.

Chapter 2196

Henrick looked at Alma apologetically.

"Alma, I'm sorry!" He couldn't hurt her. He had to refuse her when he had to.

Hearing the apology, she clenched her fists tightly on her knees.

She knew that he would not really like her. All these years, he had followed her because he pitied her.

"Henrick, I understand." She smiled gently and did not blame him.

His heart was in a mess. He seemed to have hurt a girl's heart again.

"I'm sorry, Alma!" He apologized again solemnly.

He wouldn't do it again if he became a b*stard once.

He would never give a girl he didn't like a chance.

However, Alma had always been different. Over the years, she had been special to him.

In those years, when Alice sent him a message, he would compare her with Alma, who was always gentle and sensible.

At that moment, his heart was cut by a knife, and he didn't know who he was distressed for.

Henrick and Alma returned to the hotel together.

As soon as they reached the elevator, they met Alice, who went downstairs to buy medicine.

She didn't know what she ate that night, but her stomach felt very uncomfortable.

Her face was pale and there was a thin layer of sweat on her forehead.

Henrick looked at her and frowned slightly.

Alice nodded at them and said nothing.

"Alice, are you going out?" Alma's voice was gentle and always likable.

"Yes!" Alice lowered her head and hummed in agreement, not allowing them to see what was wrong with her.

She lowered her head and walked past them.

Alma entered the elevator first. Seeing that Henrick was still standing where she was, she shouted, "Henrick, come in."

He looked at her and said, "Alma, you go up first. I've eaten too much. I'm going to go out for a walk."

Her expression suddenly changed. "B*stard, are you going to leave me alone like this?" She thought.

Alice didn't look well. He was afraid that she was feeling ill.

Before the elevator doors could close, Henrick turned and ran out of the hotel lobby.

Alma reached out to block the elevator, and the elevator door opened again.

She followed suit.

Alice walked towards the mall opposite the hotel, where there was a pharmacy.

However, the more she walked, the more pain her stomach felt.

She bent slightly, looked up, and saw that the pharmacy was still some distance away from her.

It was too painful. She held onto the wall and stopped to rest. Sweat was dripping from her forehead and her face was as pale as snow.

When Henrick caught up with her, he saw that she was in so much pain that she couldn't even walk.

"Alice, are you not feeling well?" He supported her.

Alice seemed to have heard a hallucination. When she was in pain, she actually heard Henrick's voice.

Just like when she was giving birth to the children, the pain almost swallowed her whole, but she endured it desperately.

At that time, she saw that all the women around her had husbands who loved her dearly, but she was single. Her mother and father were by her side.

At that time, she thought that if she and Henrick fell in love, it might be a different scene.

Just like that, she finally got through it.

The most painful time had passed. What was the pain now?

Alice came to her senses in an instant.

Looking over, a trace of worry flashed across the man's delicate facial features. He looked at her calmly with his dark eyes.

His hand that was holding her arm was very warm. She could feel the heat in his hand through her clothes, and she could really feel his existence.

His aura made her feel at ease. She really wanted to lean against him, but she knew that she couldn't. This embrace didn't belong to her.

She suddenly shook off his hand and said in a cold voice, "Go away, it's none of your business!"

There was no one else here, and there was no need for them to pretend to be friendly.

She shook her head, and the pain eased a lot. Then, she went to the pharmacy not far away.

She was going to take the medicine and then go to the hospital, but her assistant had something to do that night and went back to the city.

Brenden also went to find his sister because she was studying in college in River City. She couldn't reach Kylie, so she came down to buy medicine herself.

Looking at the stubborn Alice, Henrick frowned. She couldn't go on like this; she could barely even walk, much less get to the hospital."

He chased after her again and helped her up. "Alice, you can't even walk through the pain. Do you still have to be so stubborn?"

She really didn't know how annoying he was. Didn't she ask him to get lost?

Why did he follow her again?

There was a sneer on her pale face. "Henrick, aren't you afraid that I'll plot against you again? Huh?"

He was stunned. Looking at the cold smile on her face, he felt as if his heart had been poked by something.

She took the opportunity to remove his hand. "Henrick, as you said, I won't appear in front of you again. I also said that after filming ends and I return to Lemmon City, we will never be in contact. I, Alice, will do what I said. Just like seven years ago, you told me not to appear in front of you, so I disappeared from your sight."

"Thus, Henrick, I've already let you go. Please let me go, too, okay?"

His words ruined her enthusiasm and love for more than ten years.

With a single sentence, he had sent her to hell.

Wasn't that enough?

When Henrick heard the last sentence, he suddenly let go of her hand powerlessly.

Alice glanced at his hand from the corner of her eye and continued to walk forward with disappointment and pain.

He just stood there quietly and looked at her lonely and stubborn back.

He suddenly remembered a line. "When I care about you, you are like treasure in my hand. I'm stingy because I love you, and angry because I care too much about you. When I give you up, you are nothing in my heart. It has nothing to do with me who you are with!"

That was the line of the female lead in the last movie he acted in. It was not a classic, but it was very heart-wrenching.

In the end, he was still worried. Watching Alice enter the pharmacy, he stayed outside.

Alice told the pharmacist about her situation. The pharmacist said that she might have acute stomach pain and asked her to go to the hospital. There was a hospital five hundred meters ahead.

However, Alice still bought some medicine and asked the shop assistant to give her a cup of hot water. After taking the medicine, she left the pharmacy and went to the hospital.

Henrick saw that she left the pharmacy, but did not intend to return to the hotel. Instead, she continued forward

He followed her again.

After Alice took the medicine, she still didn't feel better. She was in pain and her stomach felt swollen. She hated pain and felt uncomfortable. She would think of all the grievances she had suffered in the past.

She went straight to the emergency room and was put on a drip.

The final diagnosis was acute gastritis.

The moment she laid on the bed and after the nurse left, Alice couldn't help but burst into tears.

She didn't know why she was crying. Anyway, she felt very wronged right then.

Chapter 2197

She just wanted to cry, especially when she was sick, and when there was no one to take care of her.

Now that she had met Henrick, her mental endurance had reached its limit.

She felt pain in her heart. It was so painful!

It was so painful that it was hard for her to breathe, and she thought about the children. She felt uncomfortable, and she couldn't help but shed tears.

When Henrick walked to the door of the ward, he saw her crying on her side.

She was in a community hospital, and there were not many people around. Now that it was night, there were even fewer people.

She sobbed very softly and tried her best to suppress her sobs.

However, he could hear that she was very sad. She was very sad. At this moment, she couldn't wait to vent all the pain.

He didn't know why she was so miserable. He just felt that she was very pitiful!

He didn't dare to go in and disturb her, so he just stood at the door and waited.

Why?

When she pestered him, he was annoyed. Now, she no longer pestered him. He felt a little scared that she would completely disappear from his world.

It was as if this person was born to exist in his own life. If she left, his world would be dark.

At that moment, he had such an idea.

Seven years ago, when she suddenly disappeared, he also felt a little different, but at that time, he was really too busy. Once he was busy, many things would be forgotten.

He had even completely forgotten about her.

They met again seven years later and he knew that she was the woman from seven years ago. He didn't know why he wanted to see her, but he was also afraid.

Alice cried for an unknown period of time. She only fell asleep when the first IV drip was about to be finished.

Only then did Henrick relax and call the nurse.

He sat on the other bed and watched Alice.

He saw that she was asleep with tears on her face. Her eyes were swollen and she was still sobbing in her sleep.

He didn't know why she was sad. He only thought that her crying must have something to do with himself.

Alma followed him to the hospital and saw Henrick standing at the door for a long time.

When he entered the ward again, his eyes were fixed on Alice, who was lying on the hospital bed. His eyes were filled with pain, regret, and many mixed emotions.

She didn't know when he had met Alice, and she had never heard him mention her before.

She didn't know that there was such a girl beside him.

As a star, he had always been clean of scandals and had never had any romantic entanglements. Some time ago, she deliberately invited him to dinner. It was not easy for her to get on the hot search, but he secretly suppressed the news before it became popular.

As the second young master of Alwynn Group, no one dared to casually write any news about him. Unless he was willing, no one dared to easily report his news.

He lived in River City and could come and go at will. He was not afraid of being surrounded by reporters.

After watching for a long time, a nurse came to ask Alma if she needed anything. She shook her head and turned away silently.

"Henrick, for so many years, I've always been the only woman by your side. I'll be the only one in the future," she thought.

No matter who Alice was, she couldn't stop Alma from becoming the second young lady of the Alwynn family.

Alma had known since she was a child that her family was poor and she had to rely on herself for everything.

It was too difficult to rely on herself. All these years, because of her relationship with Henrick, her career as an actress was much smoother.

Over the years, she had bought a house herself. Now, her only hope was to be the daughter-in-law of the Alwynn family.

However, Alice's sudden appearance ruined all her plans and opportunities.

Alma walked back slowly with a look of helplessness on his face. Her assistant, Ellie, knew what she was thinking and often made opportunities for her and Henrick.

The neon light shone on her lonely figure. She lowered her head slightly and was very depressed. She was afraid that she would need Ellie's help this time.

After walking for a while, the phone in her hand rang. She picked it up and looked at it. She frowned slightly. It was Jaime.

That man had been chasing after her, and she had already promised him.

Although Henrick was her best choice, for her, she was not the best choice for him.

Ellie was right. All your eggs could not be placed in the same basket.

After a while, she answered the phone.

"Alma, where are you? Why are you only answering my call now?" A happy voice came from the other side.

She calmed down and answered him in a sweet voice, "Jaime, I'm filming outside..."

They chatted for a long time before she hung up.

"Alma."

When Alma heard the cold voice, her body trembled slightly.

She turned around and saw Amiyah walking over with her manager, Heidi.

Alma lowered her head and clicked on her phone. She quickly sent a message to Ellie.

"Miss Howe, Heidi," she greeted them with a smile.

Amiyah was the second female lead in the drama. She was a model, just like her. However, the two of them had never gotten along. Amiyah's facial features were beautiful and sexy, and her appearance was flamboyant. She was now a little famous.

She arrogantly looked at Alma, who was a few centimeters shorter than her.

"Alma, you stole my role as the female lead. I thought you were very capable. It turns out that it's still the same as before; you have good luck all because of Mr. Henrick."

"You didn't watch your performance today, did you? It's really terrible. Mr. Kline is also a famous director. Why would he want you to act as the heroine?"

"Except for your face, you really don't have anything else to use."

Amiyah's words were extremely sarcastic.

Alma gritted her teeth. She knew that she was born into a poor family, and her mother had raised her up alone. Her mother remarried a few years ago to a well-off man. At least, she could live a stable life.

However, compared with people with better family backgrounds, their family was still ordinary.

"Miss Howe, Mr. Kline is interested in my face, because it is more suitable for the image of the female lead. Mr. Kline also said that my face was basically born for the female lead," Alma said with a smile. Over the years, she had been in contact with many people and knew how to deal with them. She could not get any benefits from them. No one protected her, so she could only protect herself.

She would not easily clash with anyone unless that person had gone too far.

"Haha..." Amiyah sneered. She had never seen such a shameless person.

"Alma, this time you got the female lead with the help of Mr. Henrick. I don't know if you will be so lucky in the future." She smiled and reached out to push Alma.

Alma didn't dodge. She fell heavily on the ground, and there was a sharp pain in her ankle.

"Amiyah, you..." Her face was as pale as snow and her ankle was in great pain.

"Hmph! Stop pretending. I'm not Mr. Henrick. You don't have to pretend to be innocent and pitiful in front of me. We've known each other for many years. I know what kind of person you are." Amiyah looked down at her.

Then, she left with her assistant.

Chapter 2198

When Ellie came over, she saw the scene. She took a picture hidden in the dark and then went over to help Alma up.

"Alma, how are you feeling?" Looking at her pale face, Ellie was a little worried.

Alma had sent her a message. When she met Amiyah, she knew that something would happen. She went out as fast as she could, and she managed to photograph Amiyah pushing Alma.

This point could directly crush Amiyah and this drama could completely turn Alma upside down.

Because of Henrick, Alma had gradually become famous over the years. After this TV series, she would definitely be famous, and she could also make a lot of money.

Alma stepped on the ground and found that her ankle hurt a little.

"Ellie, I should be fine. It won't hurt too much if I walk a little slower."

Ellie was worried. She looked at the place not far away and said, "Alma, let's go to the hospital."

As soon as Alma thought that Henrick was also in the hospital, she nodded.

After they arrived at the hospital and went into the emergency room, Alma took a photo.

After taking the X-ray, the two of them went up to the second floor and waited for the results. Alma knew that Henrick was also on the second floor.

There were not many patients in the hospital. In this place where she was sitting, as long as she spoke, Henrick would be able to hear her.

Ellie looked around the hospital and suddenly saw Henrick sitting in a ward not far away.

She frowned and took a look, then quickly turned back to Alma.

"Alma, why is Mr. Henrick here?"

Alma pretended to be surprised and shook her head.

Ellie turned her eyes slightly and said, "Alma, wait for me here."

As she spoke, she got up and walked over. That was an excellent opportunity.

The corners of Alma's lips lifted slightly. Everything was within her plan.

"Mr. Henrick, why are you here?" Ellie stood at the door and looked at him.

Hearing the voice, Henrick frowned unhappily.

"Why are you here?" There was obvious displeasure in his voice, and he even deliberately lowered his voice.

Ellie glanced at the person lying on the hospital bed. It was actually Alice.

She was also shocked when she felt his displeasure. Was he unhappy because of Alice?

She was instantly shocked. Why were Alice and Mr. Henrick here?

She quietly shifted her eyes away and looked at him with a grim expression.

"Mr. Henrick, Alma had something to do. She didn't expect to meet Amiyah, who pushed her to the ground, her ankle was sprained. I took her to the hospital and we're waiting for the results. When I stood up to find the doctor, I accidentally saw you, so I came over to say hello."

Hearing that, he asked, "Is it serious?"

She shook her head slightly. "I don't know yet. We're still waiting for the results."

He got up and glanced at the sleeping Alice. He pursed his lips and walked out.

"I'll go take a look."

Hearing that, Ellie stepped forward and led the way.

Alma was resting on a chair not far from the reception desk on the second floor. When she saw Henrick, she was very surprised and asked with concern, "Henrick, why are you in the hospital? Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?"

He did not answer her question. Instead, he looked at her slightly reddened ankle and asked, "Is your foot okay?"

Alma lowered her head and looked at her foot. It was slightly red and she had twisted her ankle. Other than that, she should be fine.

Her eyes were a little dim and she whispered, " I should be fine. Amiyah always thought that I got the female lead because of you. When she saw me, she brought it up. Just now, she was a little emotional and pushed me in a hurry."

"It's just a sprained ankle. I think it should be okay?"

"It's good that you're fine. I'll handle this matter. Amiyah won't dare to make trouble for you in the future." Henrick's tone was faint, but it was very threatening.

"Henrick, thank you, but Amiyah didn't do it on purpose. If she's angry, she'll do things on impulse. You don't have to deal with these trivial things for me." Alma looked at him gratefully.

Although she refused him, he was still very concerned about her.

"It's okay, I'll handle it." After saying that, he looked up and saw Alice, who was not far away.

Their eyes met; one in pain, and one nervous.

What made Alice suffer was that he accompanied Alma to the hospital.

What made him nervous was that he was afraid that Alice would misunderstand.

Alice nodded at them and left in a hurry.

Alma sprained her ankle, and he sent her to the hospital.

He was not a heartless person. He was just ruthless to her.

Alma looked at Alice's retreating figure with a faint smile in her eyes.

"Alice, I won't give you a chance to get close to Henrick."

Alice quickly escaped from the hospital and returned to the hotel. Her stomach was no longer in pain.

Not long after she laid down, she couldn't help but burst into tears again.

Sometimes, she was just like that. She had promised to give up, but when she saw that person, she still felt pain!

Phew... Alice took a deep breath to ease her heartache, and her tears stopped flowing.

Why was she still so sad? Was it because she loved him too much? Or was it because Henrick was only sweet and tender to other women? Was it because she couldn't get it?

If it was really that reason, she felt so wronged because she had never gotten it.

She had never been loved by that man!

"Baby is calling..." The phone rang.

Alice was shocked and picked up the phone on the bedside table. She smiled and took a deep breath before answering the phone. "Marlon, what's wrong?"

Marlon said with grievance, "Mom, I miss you."

Alice's heart ached and she said with a smile, "It won't be long before the holidays. When Grandma brings you and your sister here, I'll try my best to find time to accompany you."

Marlon complained unhappily, "But there are still a few days left, right? Mom, how are you doing in River City?"

Alice blinked her eyes. Her eyelashes were still wet.

"I'm fine. I'm very busy everyday. At night, I really want to live a peaceful and quiet life. I wanted to cry just now," Alice said in a choked voice. She laughed again and burst into tears.

"Haha... I'm the same as my mother. I miss her so much that I want to cry." Marlon laughed. His mother was crying, so he didn't feel embarrassed.

"Mom, don't cry. I miss you so much. I also want to cry."

Alice felt much better when she heard her son comforting her.

"Marlon, I love you. Where is your sister?"

"Juliet is chatting with Grandpa. Grandpa said that he will take us to the buffet tomorrow, and he is arguing with her about which one is delicious."

"Mom, what's there to argue about? Of course, the more expensive it is, the better it will be. Juliet said that it's not true. She likes to go to the restaurant where we ate last time as she said that the shrimps there were very fresh."

Alice laughed happily. Her baby could really cure her wounds. "Really? I'll take you to eat delicious food when I come back."

Chapter 2199

"Okay, Mom, I want to eat roasted chicken. I haven't eaten it for a long time and I really want to eat it." Marlon's voice was soft and cute, which melted Alice's heart.

"Okay, okay. You don't have to wait for me to go back. When you come to River City, I'll take you to eat, okay?" Her voice was soft.

On the other side, Marlon was fascinated by her words and he rolled around on the bed. Holding the quilt, he giggled happily.

"Good night, Mom. Dream of me, your handsome son!" He said and hung up the phone.

Her heart softened. Although her stomach didn't hurt much, she didn't dare to be careless. She got up and poured herself some hot water to take her medicine.

She rarely came to River City, and the climate and food here were different from that of Lemmon City.

Many dishes in River City were spicy. The dishes in Lemmon City were light, and most of them were also lightly spiced.

The meat she ate that night was a little tough, and she also had some refreshing pickles. During this period of time, her moods fluctuated a lot, which led to her stomach pain.

After taking the medicine, she went to take a bath and rest.

There was a filming session the next morning. Alice went to the scene early in the morning and asked Lane to buy some oatmeal for her. In the next few days, she would eat some oatmeal to soothe her stomach. She really hated pain.

Knock, Knock...

"Come in." Alice lowered her head and read the script.

She didn't notice who was coming.

She hadn't changed her clothes yet. She was wearing a red sexy silk nightdress, and her curly, auburn hair hung down her back. Under the sun, her hair was fiery, and her red pajamas made her skin look as white as snow. She was so beautiful that she was soul-stirring. Her moon-like eyes were slightly lowered, and she was seriously reading the script on the table.

As soon as Henrick entered the room, he saw a seductive scene.

He stopped breathing. In private, she was casual and sexy, but more charming.

Alice didn't even raise her head and said, "Lane, you eat first. I'll be there soon."

"Come and have breakfast first. It's not good for your stomach if you eat the food when it gets cold," Henrick said guiltily. The previous night, she suffered from acute gastritis and cried.

She was stunned. She blinked her beautiful eyes to make sure that she had just heard Henrick's voice. Her body tensed up and she slowly raised her head. What caught her eyes was the man's strong figure standing against the light. He was very tall, with a perfect figure. He wore a white shirt and a pair of black trousers. The classic combination made him look noble and mischievous.

He held a lunch box in his hand, walked slowly to the table, and put the breakfast on the table.

Out of the corner of his eye, he saw that her slender, sexy long legs under the red pajamas and his blood seemed to roar in an instant; it made the passionate images in his mind flash frame by frame.

When their eyes met, the two of them looked at each other with complicated emotions in their eyes, especially Henrick. There was an unknown emotion in his dark eyes.

The complicated emotions in Alice's eyes gradually became angry. She suddenly stood up and was about to make a move.

"Lane had something to attend to and she asked me to help bring you breakfast. Remember to eat. I'm leaving," he said. Without waiting for her reply, he left the room without looking back.

Her aggressive expression suddenly relaxed.

Phew... She felt that she was on fire early in the morning.

She was really shocked as she didn't believe that he would be so kind as to bring her breakfast.

Wasn't she avoiding him like a snake or a scorpion?

Even so, she still had to eat, because she felt uncomfortable in her stomach. After breakfast, she had to take medicine. Work was very important, but so was her health. She would not hurt herself for a man who hurt her.

She sat down, opened the oatmeal, and smelled the fragrance. It was very familiar. She seemed to have eaten it somewhere.

She took a bite. It was very fragrant. There were some fruits inside, but they were so soft that they were very easy to eat; it was very fragrant.

Alice was in a good mood because there was delicious food. After finishing the oatmeal and taking the medicine, she went to the bathroom to change her clothes and went out with the script.

At the elevator entrance, she ran into Alma and Henrick, who were on their way to join the crew. They were still inseparable from each other.

In the end, Alice believed what he had said. It was impossible to avoid an enemy!

She nodded at them and greeted, "Good morning!"

She stood behind her and waited for the elevator.

However, Alma looked back at her. She was wearing a white shirt with a black belt inlaid with crystals. She had slim black pants, a slender waist and long legs, and her long hair was draped over her shoulders. The simplest combination could also make her look very feminine.

She smiled and asked, "Alice, were you not feeling well last night? I saw you at the hospital."

Alice smiled and answered, "I'm not used to living here and I had some stomach pains."

"Really? Alice, you should pay more attention to what you eat. The food in River City is quite heavy and many outsiders are not used to it."

"Thank you. I'll be careful." Alice looked indifferent. She didn't want to have too much contact with them.

Henrick listened from the side, but he just slightly lowered his eyes and did not speak.

"Alice." Brenden's voice suddenly sounded behind her.

Alice felt as if she had been saved. She looked back at him and asked, "Brenden, did you come back last night?"

"Yes, I knocked on your door when I came back, but no one answered. You must have fallen asleep. I had brought you some food, but since you fell asleep, Kylie ate it all." Brenden stood beside her with a smile.

He also greeted Henrick and Alma.

The four of them took the elevator together. Brenden had a lot to say. He had been chasing after Alice all these years and had never given up.

The Knapp family had a reputation in Lemmon City. He was going home to inherit the family business, but he liked Alice, so he worked with her.

"Alice, there is a new movie tonight. Filming will end early tonight. Shall we go to the cinema together? I've already checked and I saw that the cinema is not far from here."

As soon as Brenden finished speaking, Alice nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, I haven't watched a movie for a long time. Let's go to the cinema together tonight."

Hearing this, Henrick's eyes darkened. She was not feeling well, and yet she agreed so readily?

"Thank you, Alice. Finally, you agreed to watch a movie with me." Brenden was very happy. "You were very busy before. It's not easy for you to have time so I can't miss it."

Alice smiled. After this film, she would no longer be a screenwriter. In the future, she would help her father take care of the company's affairs and raise the children.

"Wow! Brenden, Alice, are you in a relationship?" Alma asked with a surprised smile.

Henrick's mood instantly reached an indescribable level!

Brenden scratched his head, turned around, and said with some embarrassment, "No, Miss Palma, Alice and I are college classmates. We often have meals together." He spoke very vaguely. Alice knew that he liked her, but he didn't know why she kept avoiding him.

Chapter 2200

Alice lowered her head. She understood Brenden's feelings for her, but her heart had long been dead; it would not be revived for any man.

She and Brenden had been good friends for many years. She could not bear to hurt him. She also turned a blind eye to his feelings for her and got along with him as a friend.

When they arrived at the set, Dwayne had already arrived. That day, they would meet the second female lead. She liked the male lead and went to the company to meet him, but something unpleasant happened.

There were a lot of people watching the TV series, which was popular on the Internet. The heroine was also very popular.

Fans of the book were also looking forward to the TV series being shot soon.

The Internet was also filled with supportive comments and encouragement.

Amiyah and her agent, Heidi, also came over early in the morning.

Seeing Alma, Amiyah's eyes were full of hatred. Early in the morning, she had received a warning from Henrick, so she had to film alone.

Alma looked into her eyes and smiled faintly. She turned her head to look at Henrick and spoke to him gently.

There were not many shots that day. After Alice and Brenden arrived, they discussed the plot with Dwayne who had no objections. The two of them spoke to the actors who had shown up that day and then filming began.

Alice followed them all the way.

There were no incidents in the morning, and the shooting went smoothly. During lunch, Henrick suddenly invited everyone to lunch.

Moreover, delicious food from one of the big restaurants in River City was ordered. The director and the others smiled happily. Henrick was good at acting, and he was generous. Who didn't like him like this?

Everyone said that the reason why Henrick did this was because Alma had been filming there.

In order to ensure that she ate and drank well, he asked the staff of the restaurant to specially send food to her.

When Alice went to the bathroom, she heard several actors talking about it at the sink area.

She listened with no expression on her face. She had to learn how to be indifferent when it came to Henrick. Otherwise, she would be even more hurt.

When they saw Alice, they all greeted her.

Another girl was more curious about Alma's identity and asked with a smile, "Alice, I heard that Henrick has been very kind to Miss Palma since she was a child. Will they get married after this cooperation?"

Alice was stunned. She didn't expect the girl to ask such a question, which caught her off guard.

Before Alice could think of an answer, the other party continued, "I heard that the reason why Henrick ordered the meal today was to let Miss Palma have a good meal?"

Alice shook her head and smiled. "I'm not familiar with them, so I don't know much."

After that, she strode away.

Henrick also came out of the bathroom. When he saw Alice's back and thought of what she had said, he frowned, lowered his head, and strode forward.

A few actors couldn't help but look excitedly at his back.

"Wow! His back is so handsome."

"Yes, but he's so cold. When Henrick passed by us just now, I felt cold behind us."

The girls were so excited that they couldn't hold back their excitement, and they chattered along the way.

Everyone ate since Henrick was treating them. If Alice ordered takeout alone, it would be a joke.

To everyone's surprise, all the dishes that day were light without any chilis.

Dwayne was speechless. For the past few days, he didn't seem to have been angry, so there was no need for him to eat such light food.

The assistant director was also lost for words. "Director, I remember that the dishes from this restaurant are not so light. Spicy dishes are like the soul of a meal. I thought there would be some, but why is there none?"

Dwayne agreed, "It's good to have some. Would you like to order takeout?"

The assistant director said, "Hey, how can takeout compare with the renowned dishes of the most famous restaurant in River City? Look at this fried shrimp; it's so big. It's good to occasionally eat light food, and our stomachs are also comfortable."

After saying that, he ate happily.

The director ate some fish, which was really delicious.

With Alma in the crew, the food had been upgraded to a high level.

Alice, Brenden, Kylie, and Lane sat together to eat.

She served herself a bowl of seafood soup. The fish was very light, so she took a few more bites.

The person sitting next to Henrick was naturally Alma. In fact, she knew very well that that day's lunch was arranged for Alice. Alice felt uncomfortable, so for her sake, he took care of the whole crew and arranged light food for everyone.

However, Alma was the only one who knew about this matter. When others said that it was for her, she could only smile bitterly. If it was really for her, then she would definitely be very happy.

Unfortunately, that wasn't the case. It was all because of Alice.

She was very curious about the relationship between the two of them.

From what had happened that day as well as the night before, she knew that things were not as simple as they looked.

She had to find out about their relationship.

Seeing that Alice ate happily and ate half of the seafood soup, Henrick couldn't help smiling.

Alma caught his expression and felt as uncomfortable, as if she had eaten something disgusting. Usually, she liked to eat food from that restaurant, but that day, she had no appetite at all.

In the afternoon, Henrick's acting was astonishing.

The previous day, Dwayne felt that Henrick had returned to normal. There was nothing to say about his acting as he was good at it.

However, Dwayne almost had a heart attack that day.

He roared, "Lewis, you're acting as the CEO. You haven't found your love interest yet. You're cold to everyone, but you're not a hooligan."

"Okay, Director. I still don't quite understand. Why don't you ask Alice to explain to me?" Henrick looked at her with a teasing look.

Dwayne was speechless. He could tell that Henrick was just making things difficult for Alice. Otherwise, why would he keep making trouble for her?

Of course, Alice could tell that Henrick was doing it on purpose. He just didn't want to see her and make things difficult so that she would leave the set.

However, before her job was completed, she would never leave.

She had to endure it even if she couldn't see him again.

She walked over calmly to tell Henrick about the show. She knew what he was going to do, but every time, she would explain it to him seriously.

She was tired of doing it over and over again.

It was already past five o'clock.

Dwayne felt that he had sacrificed himself for this drama before he finished filming.

"Alice, how should Lewis and Georgina hug together? You can demonstrate it to him," he shouted at her helplessly.

Amiyah was acting as the second female lead. She even doubted her acting skills after being eliminated over and over again. What made her even more suspicious was Henrick's acting skills.

Why was he even worse than he was the day before?
