

Gluey Love 221

Chapter 221

However...

Victor shook his head quickly. "Eden, I don't think it's boring at all. I haven't gone shopping for a long time. It's a good idea to accompany Kenny to shop."

Eden narrowed her eyes and looked at Victor.

B*stard, what did he want?

Why would a rich person like him be pestering her, a mother of three children?

"Let's go, Kenny." Victor saw the reluctance on Eden's face but it was not up to her to decide.

He only wanted to marry her in this life.

She was still kind and adorable as she was when she was a child.

His Eden was finally back.

If he wanted to win Eden's heart, he had to make his two sons side with him first.

This was what he had discussed with Anson last night.

"Oh!" Kenneth could not do anything even if he was reluctant.

Eden was working in Victor's company. Kenneth was afraid that Victor might make things difficult for Eden if they offended him.

Thus, Kenneth could only put up with the clingy Victor.

In the end, Victor chatted with Kenny all the way.

Victor was very talkative and he would patiently tell Kenneth everything he wanted to know.

Eden who was following behind them realized for the first time that Kenny could be so talkative too.

It was not that Kenny didn't like to talk but she didn't know much about her son.

She was usually very busy and Kenny was very obedient. Had she normally neglected Kenny's feelings?

She was aware that a silent child needed more care so she would communicate with Kenny whenever she was free. However, Kenny had never talked to her so freely.

On the contrary, Ricky and Gia were like chattering birds. She would hear their happy voices all the time.

Eden, Victor, and Kenneth said they were going to shop but they were actually walking along the river. They reached the bridge where Zofia had jumped into the river and Victor took Kenny across. Eden did not say a word all the way.

She just followed behind quietly but there was something strange about that feeling.

They went to the bustling Bellow Street.

Victor looked at the time as he walked. He had pushed everything aside in order to accompany Eden and Kenny today.

Victor glanced at his phone when they reached Bellow Street. It was almost eleven o'clock and it was time for lunch.

He felt that time had passed very quickly for the first time.

He turned around and glanced at Eden who was sulking behind him. She had been lowering her head and following behind quietly.

That was Eden and her personality hadn't changed much.

She would listen quietly and would not interrupt others.

Her happy smile was contagious and it would cause the people around her to be happy like her too.

He said, "Eden, let's go for lunch."

Eden raised her head and looked bitterly at him. Her gaze seemed to indicate that Victor had snatched away her precious time with her son.

"Can I refuse?" She asked in a low voice.

Victor smiled and said, "No!" "Let's go then! Why wouldn't I eat when someone is here to treat us?" Eden pouted.

Victor looked at her and smiled gently. He wanted to knock her forehead like he did when he was a child and told her to stop pouting.

"I'll make the decision then. I'll bring you guys to eat delicious food." Victor turned around and looked at his surroundings.

He came here frequently. He had decided to go to his favorite place. He believed Eden would love the dishes there!

Victor brought Eden and Kenny to a high-end restaurant for Western food. They went straight to a private room.

The restaurant had a nice and quiet environment. The popular and soft music was comfortable and soothing.

After ordering their food, Eden got up and went to the restroom.

Chapter 222

Eden could still hear Victor's joyful voice from the room when she walked out of the room.

She knew that Victor was very dangerous when she first saw him. However, he was now taking the initiative to provoke her.

Eden suddenly regretted coming to River City. Her plan was half a year later.

However, there would always be a lot of unexpected events in life.

Eden took a deep breath and smiled confidently. It was fine to encounter unforeseen events.

Her life was filled with many unforeseen circumstances.

She looked at the sign and went to the restroom.

In the room, after Eden left.

Kenneth suddenly looked at Victor gloomily and asked, "Mr. Alwynn, what exactly do you want from my mother? You even used me as an excuse. Mr. Alwynn, you had owed a kid like me a favor."

Victor was secretly shocked when he saw Kenneth's sudden change of expression. He had been acting all this while just to reassure Eden.

He looked at Kenny's little face that resembled his. He suddenly realized that Kenneth's personality was similar to his.

"Kenny, don't worry. I won't hurt you and your mom. Even if I have to hurt everyone else in the world, I still would not hurt her. You can be rest assured about that."

Victor promised Kenny with a solemn face.

"Are you pursuing my mom?" Kenneth had been longing to ask this question.

Victor smiled wickedly and said mysteriously, "Kenny, it's indeed easier to talk to men like us."

Kenneth knew the answer when he heard that.

He sneered and said, "If you want to be our father, you must be the one who loves my mom the most in this world."

"For example, Uncle Jasper..."

"Stop, Kenny!" Victor quickly interrupted him.

He didn't want to hear Kenny say that they wanted Jasper to be their father. His heart would shatter into pieces if that was the case.

He, Victor Alwynn, was their father!

He took a deep breath and maintained a perfect smile. "Kenny, I will do better than Jasper. You and Ricky can keep an eye on me."

"No problem. You're handsome and rich but will your family allow you to marry a woman with children?"

Kenneth's tone was so deep that he sounded like an adult.

Victor was slightly stunned and he asked incredulously, "Kenny, you don't have to worry about this matter!"

He felt secretly pleased when he looked at Kenneth's handsome face. How could he be so wild that he could make his woman pregnant with twins?

Both his children were very smart too.

No way. He would be too excited to calm down every time he thought of this.

"Mr. Alwynn, you'd better think carefully if you want to chase after my mom. You'd have to pay the most tragic price if you hurt my mom."

Kenneth warned Victor coldly. At that moment, Victor could sense Kenny's ruthlessness.

Kenny resembled Victor a lot. He would become a future leader in the business world if Victor trained him to be his successor.

Victor said seriously, "Kenny, you can keep supervising me until you are satisfied. However, you have to help me to meet your mother frequently."

Kenneth smiled wickedly. His evil face made him look like a little devil.

"As I said previously, you have to be sincere and work hard on your own if you want to pursue my mom. My mom is the best and most gentle mother in the world.

Not everyone is blessed to have my mom."

Chapter 223

Kenny would not allow other people to treat Eden badly, even if the person was his biological father.

Victor's handsome eyes flickered weirdly. Kenny was stubborn.

However, he was on cloud nine to be able to talk to his son face to face at the moment.

He felt really happy!

Eden came out of the restroom. At the same time, Wyatt, who had also gone there to eat, happened to come to the restroom. He was dressed in a suit and tie. When he reached the door, he suddenly slipped and fell to the ground.

"Ouch!" Wyatt cried out in pain.

Eden happened to witness the incident. She quickened her pace and walked over.

Wyatt felt a sharp pain coming from his waist. He struggled with a painful expression on his face but he could not get up.

Eden quickly walked over and helped him to his feet. She asked, "Sir, are you alright? Did you hurt yourself?"

Wyatt straightened his waist and shook his head in pain. He froze suddenly when he saw Eden.

He was stunned when he saw the familiar big bright eyes. Why did the her eyes look so much like Eden's?

He was familiar with the delicate facial features and eyebrows too.

He quickly smiled and said, "Thank you. I'm fine! Miss, may I know your name?"

Eden looked at his sincere gaze. She smiled and said, "Sir, I'm glad you're alright! I have something else to do. I'll take my leave first."

She looked at Wyatt and nodded politely. She turned around and left without answering his question.

"Miss, don't go first."

Eden still did not turn around.

Wyatt wanted to chase after her to clear his doubts. However, he could only stop when he felt that his waist still felt painful after taking a few steps. He looked at the culprit that made him slip. It was actually half a banana skin.

He quickly took out his phone and called Buddy.

"Hello! Dad." The call was answered quickly.

"Buddy, come quickly to the restroom. I think I saw your sister. I fell and hurt my waist. Quickly come here and chase after her."

Buddy was confused when he received Wyatt's call but he still ran to the restroom as fast as he could.

"Dad, are you alright?" Buddy asked with concern.

Wyatt anxiously pointed to the direction in which Eden left and said, "Buddy, chase after her quickly. The girl who is dressed in grey casual clothes looks like your younger sister. Quickly, chase after her."

Buddy touched his forehead helplessly. His face was pale and gaunt. He was in a bad mood these days and he got drunk every night. He felt irritable when he saw Wyatt behaving like that.

He said helplessly, "Dad, don't be like this. You thought you met Eden every five or six times a month but none of them is really her."

"You have done so many paternity tests before. It's been more than ten years. Dad, Eden is..."

"Shut up. Eden will be fine. She is your biological sister. As her brother, do you wish for her to die so badly?" Wyatt roared angrily. He limped forward when Buddy did not chase after Eden.

He would try to find his daughter as long as there was a glimmer of hope.

Otherwise, he would regret it for the rest of his life!

"Dad! Don't be like that, okay?" Buddy was upset these few days.

His mood was no better today.

He ran over in annoyance and pulled Wyatt. He said helplessly, "Dad, listen, I also hope that Eden can come back but we had lost Eden for more than a decade. We will never find her.

Why couldn't you accept reality, Dad? Mom had already escaped the trauma associated with Eden."

Chapter 224

"Have you escaped the trauma? Didn't Eden bring happiness to you and Delmont?

She is smart and beautiful, and she knows how to make people happy. She will be fine." Wyatt did not believe that his daughter was gone. He would find her back eventually.

Buddy bit his lower lip so hard that it turned pale instantly. His face was filled with pain.

He also wanted to find Eden if she was still alive.

That was the sister he had loved since young.

Victor had used all his connections but he was still unable to find her.

Buddy took a deep breath and said, "Dad, I'll take you to the hospital first."

"Okay!" Wyatt could only nod his head. It would be useless to chase after the woman because she would be gone already.

"Alas!" He sighed deeply.

"It's been so many years. I don't know if your sister is well or not. Our family is living a comfortable life. I feel guilty when I pick up the bowl every day because I don't know if your sister has suffered or not."

Buddy also sighed deeply when he heard that.

His family wouldn't have lived such a painful life if Eden was not lost.

Haven's arrival did not ease his family's longing for Eden.

He felt even more troubled when he looked at Haven.

"Dad, if Eden is still alive, she will come back to us one day. It's useless to worry every day." He and Delmont liked to call her Eden.

Buddy nodded and didn't say anything.

He had been waiting for Eden to come back so long that he had aged. He didn't know how long he would still have to wait.

Wyatt's heart was filled with sorrow!

The Clement family had been a powerful and wealthy family. Aisling gave birth to two sons. When she gave birth to a daughter a few years later, the whole family could not contain their happiness.

Wyatt had always favored his daughter the moment she was born.

To him, daughters were more attentive than sons.

What's the use of having two sons? They were always so busy outside that they had no time to have dinner with him.

On the contrary, daughters were different. No matter how busy they were, they would still think of their parents!

His sister was an example. He was always busy and had no time to accompany his parents. On the contrary, his sister was different as she would come back and talk with his parents no matter how busy she was.

Wyatt shook his head painfully to keep himself from thinking too much.

The girl he met today was very familiar to him.

Buddy supported Wyatt. His back was lonely and a little fragile.

Eden returned to the private room. She didn't pay much attention to what had happened and she ate happily with Kenneth.

Victor felt relieved when he looked at Eden and Kenneth.

He and Kenny had made a pack. He had asked Kenny to give him a chance to pursue Eden.

Kenny actually agreed to it.

In fact, he felt that Kenny was more profound than he seemed!

He was very smart. He was like a cunning little fox when he did not reveal his intelligence.

Victor only felt like he owned the world when he was together with Eden.

He would finally have a home after waiting for so many years.

Anson's words reminded him that Eden had already grown up. Apart from that, she had lost her memories and was no longer the Eden from the past.

She was so outstanding that every man would want to pursue her. Eden might not fall in love with him even if he told her about his identity.

He was well aware of this. At the moment, he could only take one step at a time and use his own method to get her affection.

Victor was too excited. He finally came to his senses after he was scolded harshly by Anson the night before.

"Victor, you don't have much experience in relationships. Why would you rush to commit yourself?

In a relationship, the person who commits first would be the one to suffer more. It would be useless to love someone deeply if the person cannot feel your love. Therefore, you must take practical actions to let Eden know that you are a good person and the only man in the world who can make her feel safe."

His words were like a basin of cold water that was splashed on his fevered brain to make him conscious.

"Mom, I'm full. Don't just focus on me. You eat too!" Kenneth looked at Eden helplessly. She would always eat only after she had made sure that they were full.

No matter how busy she was, she would still take good care of Kenneth and his siblings.

Eden smiled. "Are you full? Kenny, you've only finished one bowl of rice!"

Kenneth shook her head and said with a smile, "Mom, you forgot that we had breakfast this morning."

Eden smiled and nodded. "Okay, wait for me. I'll finish my food soon."

Victor looked at her and said, "Eden, no rush. Eat slowly!"

Eden nodded and didn't say anything.

Buddy sent Wyatt to the hospital. After a thorough examination, Wyatt was fine.

He had strained his ligaments and he would be fine after he took a rest.

Buddy drove him home to rest after that.

Wyatt had a sullen expression on his face and he did not say anything all the way back.

He felt that the girl he met today resembled his daughter very much and his feeling was stronger than ever before.

He looked at Buddy who was sitting beside him. He was afraid that Buddy would be too lazy to investigate even if he asked him.

He had encountered this kind of situation many times and done numerous paternity tests. Buddy and Delmont almost suspected that he had gone crazy.

Forget it. He'd better investigate the matter on his own some other day.

He was very close to the manager of that restaurant. He would check the surveillance footage to see the girl before he planned his next move.

"By the way, Buddy, did something happen to you recently? You are indifferent to your mother. You drink wine to drown your sorrows at night and you are not energetic during the day. Tell me the truth, did something happen?"

Wyatt's words had hit Buddy's sore spot.

Buddy said with a sullen face, "Nothing happened."

It would be useless if he told Wyatt his troubles.

Wyatt couldn't win an argument with Aisling. If Aisling didn't agree to a matter, Wyatt couldn't do anything about it.

Buddy had truly experienced Aisling's dominant attitude. She could even abandon her own grandchildren.

As for him, he couldn't even protect his child and woman. What kind of man was he?

Buddy smiled coldly and his heart was filled with bitterness.

Zofia should probably have carried out an abortion because Aisling had made a scene at her house and he was heartless to her.

She should have no more feelings for him.

Her heart should be full of pain.

She was the only girl he had fallen in love with over the past twenty years.

She was modest, kind-hearted, down to earth and cheerful. He was happy and at ease when he was with her. His exhaustion would disappear instantly when he saw her after returning from work.

No woman in the world could make him feel like that.

However, Aisling wanted his partner to come from a family of equal social status. Buddy did not expect that he would be the victim of this ridiculous idea and heart-breaking practice.

Haha...

Buddy laughed coldly from the bottom of his heart.

Without Zofia, he would never marry another woman in his life. Aisling could not do anything if he did not want to get married.

Chapter 226

Victor offered to bring Kenny to the shopping mall after they had lunch. Eden wanted to refuse but she could not come up with a justifiable reason.

That was because Victor was the one who took the lead the entire time.

Eden simply had no room for rebuttal.

She wanted to turn and leave but she couldn't do so because Kenny was present.

She had to set a good example for him.

They reached the shopping mall at Bellow Street. The shopping mall had toys and clothes for children.

The third and fourth floors were filled with fashionable women's clothing. The shopping mall was full of people and the business was very good!

Victor took Kenny to choose some toys in the toy department.

Eden stood at the side in boredom and looked at the two of them.

They seemed to be on good terms with each other and they chatted happily all the time.

On the contrary, she was left alone and did not have a chance to say a word.

She looked at Victor. He was tall and slender and his black hair was short and neat. His facial features were well-defined and he looked elegant and handsome when he smiled.

His presence added glitters to the mall and many women secretly turned in his direction to look at him.

Eden pursed her lips slightly and said, "Kenny, I'm going to the restroom!" She suddenly realized that she had said those words the most today.

"Okay! Mom, well wait for you here." Kenny replied without turning his head.

Eden nodded and glanced at Victor. At the same time, Victor looked up and smiled gently at her.

Alas!

Eden averted her gaze slowly and turned to leave carelessly.

"Eden, why are you here?"

Haven's voice came from Eden's left side suddenly.

Eden looked sideways and saw that Haven and Aisling were carrying big bags in their hands.

Eden thought to herself, "Enemies do bump into each other all the time."

She would run into Haven and Aisling whenever she went.

She must have a long history with them.

Eden narrowed her eyes and removed the warmth in her heart. Her eyes were extremely cold when she looked up.

She asked, "Why? Can't I come here?"

Haven was stunned for a moment and looked around coldly. Victor was not in the villa today. Could he be with Eden?

"This is a place for rich people. You are only a director. What are you doing here?" Aisling's sarcastic tone made Eden to glance at her involuntarily.

When Eden saw Aisling's arrogant behavior, she instantly thought of Zofia, who tried to drown herself in the river.

Anger welled up in her heart suddenly. She knew that Aisling was hostile to her because Victor was protecting her.

However, she found Aisling's hostility inexplicable.

She thought of Zofia. It was indeed rare to meet a person like Aisling. She didn't even want her own grandson.

Eden raised her eyes and she looked at Aisling coldly. The corners of her lips curved into a cold smile. Aisling could feel the terrifying coldness from Eden's smile.

"Mrs. Clement, I'm not sure if my understanding is wrong or if rich people really behave in such a way. It is said that aristocrats are well educated and possess good qualities. However, after meeting Mrs. Clement and your beloved daughter several times, I have truly learned the qualities of wealthy aristocrats like you.

This is indeed a place where only rich people would visit but there are no rules or signs at the gate saying that poor people are not allowed to enter. Is that right, Mrs. Clement?" Eden's voice was cool, light and soothing!

Chapter 227

Aisling looked at the eloquent Eden with a frown.

Eden's clear and bright eyes seemed like they could see through people's thoughts.

Haven's long eyelashes trembled slightly when he saw that Eden was different from other people.

On the other hand, Aisling felt as though there was a burning sensation on her cheeks.

She felt like she had been slapped by Eden even though her words were not vulgar.

Haven saw Aisling's darkened face and advised her, "Mom, don't bother arguing with this type of person. People like her who live at the bottom of the hierarchy could only get what they want by dirty means apart from having a sharp tongue."

Eden did not wait for Aisling to speak. She asked coldly, "Haven, what do you mean by this type of person? Does it refer to people like you who take advantage of your power to bully others? Or does it refer to women like you who would take revenge on others when you can't get what you want? Is this what you mean by this type of person?"

The Clement family is indeed rich but I will not be envious or jealous, nor would I rely on the Clement family to earn a living. If you want to show off, you can go to the TV station and do so in front of the citizens in the country. They would be envious and jealous."

Eden didn't leave when she finished speaking. She felt a sense of laziness envelope her body instead.

She stood at the same spot and watched the interesting and complex expressions on Haven's and Aisling's faces.

Her eyes were crystal clear, as if there was nothing in the world that could pollute them. Her cherry lips were delicate.

She exuded a pure and clean aura.

"Clap clap..."

Suddenly, a clapping sound came from the door of the elevator.

Eden, Aisling and Haven turned to look at the direction of the sound.

It was Lucian. His tall figure was dressed in a slim, casual, and well-cut suit that outlined the curves of his body perfectly. He exuded a noble and dazzling aura.

He looked at Eden with a gentle smile. It was the first time he saw Eden like that. It was really eyecatching.

"Secretary Ronen..." Haven's face suddenly turned pale.

Lucian did not look at Haven or Aisling. He walked straight towards Eden instead.

"What a coincidence. Eden, are you also here to shop?" His tone was gentle and affectionate.

He stared into her beautiful eyes that deeply reflected his figure. Her eyes were sparkling, as if they were embedded with obsidian.

Eden smiled and nodded. "Yes! Secretary Ronen, I have nothing to do during the weekend, so I came out for a stroll and also to familiarize myself with River City."

"Eden, you can call me Lucian when you are not at work!"

He never forgot about her bright eyes and faint smile when he first met her.

"Well, I don't think it's appropriate!" Eden tried to imply that they were not familiar with each other.

Eden and Lucian chatted and they seemed to have forgotten about Haven and Aisling who were standing at the side.

Haven was very jealous when she saw that Eden had a good relationship with the men.

She had initially thought that Eden would be insulted by Aisling's words but they were slapped hard by her clap back.

The most embarrassing part was Lucian had witnessed the incident.

In the eyes of outsiders, she was gentle and lovely.

However, her actions today made her feel that her many years of disguise were in vain.

Victor, Anson, Adonis, and Lucian were all good buddies. Today's incident would definitely reach Victor and Anson's ears.

Chapter 228

Aisling roared, "Lucian, have you also been deluded by this woman? Don't forget that your mother is strict about you finding a girlfriend. Such a woman..."

"What type of woman?" Lucian suddenly turned around and interrupted her. He looked at her with sharp and disdainful eyes.

Aisling, who came from a good background, had always been flattered by others ever since she was young. She had never been looked down by others. The anger in her heart rose instantly.

"Lucian, how can you speak to me like that? What's that look for?" Aisling's eyes were stung by Lucian's disdainful and cold gaze and she raised her voice.

These kids had always been respectful towards her. She also knew their parents.

She had also watched them grow up.

However, all of them were against her because of Eden. What was so good about Eden?

Eden was simply a vixen.

Lucian smiled coldly. He was completely different from his usual gentle self. He leaned closer to Aisling and his tall figure towered over her.

Aisling instantly felt a sense of oppression coming from Lucian.

"Mrs. Clement, I've always thought that you are a sensible person. However, your actions today were an eye opener for me.

Eden is the director of my company. I met her by accident and greeted her. Are my actions so unsightly to you, Mrs. Clement? Had Eden done something wrong?

Mrs. Clement, not only rich people have feelings. Ordinary people like us have feelings too!"
Lucian's tone was flat and emotionless.

Every word that Lucian said was heart-wrenching to Aisling.

He was right. All humans had hearts made of flesh. Why couldn't she hold back the anger in her heart just now?

She was well educated and had the traditional etiquette of a young lady from a respectable family!

However, she couldn't hold back her anger when she saw Eden who had snatched away Victor from Haven.

She even lost her manners because of that!

"Secretary Ronen, how can you speak to my mother with such an attitude? Our mothers are gambling partners and also close friends in private. You should have basic respect for my mother."
Haven gritted her teeth and looked at Lucian.

She could not stand Lucian long ago.

He had been against her ever since he became Victor's secretary.

He would not allow her to enter Victor's office. The worst part was he would report to Victor about trivial things.

Lucian guffawed and the corners of his mouth curled upwards sarcastically. He said, "Haven, if you want to be respected by others, you should learn to respect others first."

"Lucian..."

"Haven, if there's nothing else, we'll leave first." Lucian did not want to hear anything else from Haven.

Haven's tricks seemed soft but were actually vicious

The reason he disliked Haven was simple.

He remembered that Haven broke his family's antique collection at his family banquet where all his mother's best friends were invited.

However, she put the blame on his cousin.

She had been on his blacklist since that incident.

A person could be shameless but not without limits.

Everybody had only a chance to live their lives freely.

Lucian hated those who tested his limits, regardless of their identities.

Chapter 229

"Lucian, I will call your mother later and tell her about this..."

"You can do whatever you like, Mrs. Clement. My mother is a reasonable person. She is not like some people who would twist the facts because of jealousy."

Lucian's last sentence was the truth.

"Lucian, you..." Aisling was so angry that her entire body trembled. She glared at Eden viciously before she pulled Haven's hand and left.

Lucian glanced at Eden and his attitude changed instantly. He smiled gently and said, "Eden, where are you going?"

Eden smiled apologetically. "Secretary Ronen, I am going to the restroom. I'm sorry!"

After finishing her words, Eden left.

Lucian smiled faintly and looked at Eden's back. He narrowed his eyes slightly.

One would be more stable if he kept a low profile of himself. On the other hand, he would be more remarkable if he did things in a high profile.

Eden was the kind of person who would keep a low profile of herself but do things in a high profile.

She could still smile calmly and confidently fight back even when she was being looked down upon. She was living an incredible life!

Lucian had something else to do today.

He glanced in the direction where Eden had left and smiled. After that, he turned around and left elegantly.

Victor and Kenneth came over when Lucian left.

They didn't meet!

Eden didn't see Lucian when she came out of the restroom.

She got to know a different side of Lucian today.

Over the years, she had formed a habit of enriching herself more than pleasing others. As long as she was powerful enough, she could talk confidently.

Lucian had actually smiled today.

It was really rare!

Mom, so she and Victor went to see her."Mom, you have gone to the restroom for a long time." Kenneth had been waiting for Eden for so long. In the end, he and Victor decided to come to find her.

Victor looked at her with a faint smile.

His expression seemed to ask if Eden had constipation problems.

Eden looked at his gaze and touched her forehead slightly.

She said, "Sorry, I ran into a small matter just now and it took up some of my time."

"What happened?" Victor asked with a frown.

He and Kenny were focusing on the toys just now. They only realized that Eden was not back yet after they bought the toys.

"Nothing much! Mr. Alwynn, let's go back first!" Eden felt a little guilty. She couldn't get rid of Victor so she could only avoid him.

When Victor heard that, he glanced outside with a bizarre look on his face. Who did she meet just now?

"No way. Eden, you've promised to let Kenny have dinner with me. You can go back after we have dinner!" His tone was domineering and stern.

He lazily looked at her slightly stunned face with his deep eyes.

No matter who Eden met just now, he would still have dinner together with Kenneth and her.

He realized that he felt very happy spending the whole day with them and he wanted to share his feelings with them.

He had lost his mother and indirectly lost Eden previously because of Rebecca's intervention.

However, Eden had returned and she even brought him a big surprise!

Eden looked at him helplessly and asked, "Mr.

Alwynn, I don't know why you are so interested in a married woman but today, we..."

"Eden, it's just dinner. You think too much." Victor suddenly laughed wickedly and interrupted her. A married woman?

Haha...

Eden was indeed very naive! Would a man like him be interested in a married woman?

Of course, if the married woman was Eden, he did not mind snatching her away!

But only if it was her!

He would never let anyone lay their hands on the things that belonged to him.

Chapter 230

Eden was speechless when she heard Victor's words. He just wanted to have a meal with her. What was she thinking about?

She argued with a red face, "I did not think too much. I just don't understand Mr. Alwynn's doings."

Victor looked at her with his glowing black eyes and smiled wryly. "Eden, you said that you didn't think too much but you are thinking too much again. As I said before, it's just a meal!"

Eden was speechless.

D*mn Victor. She didn't think too much.

She just couldn't figure out what he was trying to do.

No president would pester a woman with children, like Victor.

How could she not doubt his intentions?

Kenneth glanced at Eden. He was also very curious about Victor's behavior.

Victor treated him very well. He seemed to be trying to get closer to them.

Kenneth smiled and said, "Mom, Uncle Victor is right. It's just dinner. We can go back after dinner."

"Kenny!" Eden looked at her son incredulously.

Kenny actually wanted to stay and have dinner with Victor?

"Eden, it's just dinner." Victor spoke as he looked deeply at her with a smile.

However, Eden felt that he had bad intentions, judging from his smile.

Eden took out her mobile phone to check the time. After a day of shopping, it was almost three o'clock. Zofia's family probably opened their stall at four o'clock.

She could visit Zofia if she had dinner there.

She looked at Victor and said, "I'll bring you to the food stalls then. Mr. Alwynn, your treat!"

Victor frowned when he heard Eden's words. He said, "Eden, are you sure you want to go to a food stall instead of ripping me off hard when it's my treat?"

Eden raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, I don't dare to do that because I'm afraid that you will take revenge on me. Let's go, let's walk this way."

After that, she went forward to lead the way. She never mentioned that she was heading in the direction of her newly bought house.

Jasper had been busy finding someone to help her with the transfer procedure the past few days but she did not want Victor to know about it!

For some reasons, she didn't want him to know about it.

Who knew what Victor was up to?

Victor and Kenneth looked at each other and smiled. Victor felt relieved when Eden did not refuse to have dinner with him. He laughed and chatted with Kenny as he followed Eden.

On the other hand, Haven had already sent an angry Aisling home.

Aisling was so furious that she didn't say a word all the way home. She wanted to call Lucian's mother but she was so angry that she had forgotten about it.

The villa of the Clement family was luxuriously decorated. The lavish and cozy decorations were in the European style. All the furniture was made of sapele wood.

The villa was decorated with precious marbles, Roman pillars, relief sculptures and golden luxurious decorations. The decorations were exquisite, elegant and opulent.

Aisling buried herself deeply in the distinct pale yellow luxury sofa and closed her eyes. She felt extremely irritated.

"Mom, drink some water. Don't be angry. It's all Eden's fault. Nothing good will happen when she is around." Haven spoke as she handed the glass of water to Aisling.

Aisling accepted the glass of water and said coldly, "Alright, I know who is right and who is wrong deep in my heart. Go upstairs and have a rest. I want to be alone."

Aisling did not look at Haven when she finished speaking. After taking a sip of water, she put the glass on the table and continued to rest with her eyes closed!
