

Gluey Love 231

Chapter 231

Aisling had always been able to distinguish between friendship and love. What had happened to her during this period of time?

Aisling took a deep breath. Even though Eden was dressed in cheap clothes, she didn't lose her pride. Her every move revealed her innate pride!

Aisling had always admired such a woman but she was very resistant when she saw such a woman during this period of time.

Her good temper was never reserved for those who went overboard. What was Eden's relationship with Victor?

She felt even more conflicted when she was uncertain of the matter.

Haven glanced at Aisling angrily before she went upstairs.

She smiled slightly when she looked at the luxurious and dazzling room. Money could cure her heart and heal her inferiority. Therefore, Eden absolutely could not return to this home.

Fortunately, Eden Bleu was not Eden Clement.

Otherwise, she would definitely kill her. She would never allow anybody to possess what she couldn't get.

She was born to be part of the Clement family.

Haven's mood became better when she thought of that.

"Buddy, you are in a bad mood these few days. Is Zofia still bothering you?"

Haven heard Delmont's voice when she passed Buddy's room.

"No. She called me once two days ago and stopped calling after that. She probably won't call me again." Buddy's disappointed voice was filled with pain.

When Haven heard that, she suddenly understood that Buddy was in a bad mood all this while because of his girlfriend.

She frowned slightly. The name Zofia sounded familiar.

"It's best if she doesn't call you and stop bothering you. Mom does not agree to this marriage. You don't need to pay much attention to it. If Zofia continues to pester you, I'll go and talk to her on your behalf."

"Enough. It is not what you think it is. Delmont, why are you also like Mom?" Buddy's roar echoed in the room.

Even Haven, who was standing outside the door, was shocked.

"Buddy..."

"Get out!" Buddy's cold voice was shocking.

Haven turned around and left when she heard heavy footsteps approaching.

She went downstairs quickly and saw that Aisling was no longer in the living room.

She left the house quickly and made a phone call asking for Zofia's address. After that, she took the car from the garage and headed straight to the Rivera family's food stall.

Buddy suffered because of Zofia and he didn't give Haven a good time because of that. She remembered she tried to care for Buddy that night but he coldly replied, "Mind your own business."

Buddy had always doted on her and rarely spoke harshly to her. However, he had been talking to her in an odd manner because of Zofia.

Haven drove the car and stopped opposite the Rivera family's food stall.

Victor, Eden, and Kenneth reached the place at the same time.

The sound of Haven closing the car door forcefully attracted Eden's attention.

She looked at Haven and glanced at the Rivera family's food stall opposite. She suddenly had a bad feeling in her heart.

She glanced at Victor and Kenneth and said, "Kenny, we will eat at the food stall opposite. It's already open. You and Uncle Victor can go to the supermarket across the street to buy some drinks. I want to drink herbal tea. I'll go and order food first."

Kenneth nodded and looked at Victor.

Victor smiled and nodded. "Okay! Eden, we will be back soon."

Chapter 232

"Great!" Eden smiled and nodded. She was thinking of Zofia at the moment.

As soon as Victor and Kenneth turned around, she immediately went after Haven.

After walking for a while, Victor and Kenneth stopped at the same time. They looked back and saw Eden crossing the road in a hurry.

Victor looked at Kenneth with a smile and asked, "Kenny, why did you stop?"

Kenneth glanced at Victor, who seemed to be aware of everything and smiled. "Uncle Victor, didn't you stop too?"

Victor smiled wickedly and said, "It's obvious that your mother was trying to draw us away."

"That's right! There would usually be drinks at ordinary food stalls. We don't need to buy them in the supermarket. Why don't we follow my mother and see what she had actually seen?" Eden looked very anxious and worried just now.

Victor heard Kenneth's words and nodded approvingly. He said, "Kenny, I was thinking the same. Let's go!"

He held Kenneth's little hand and walked elegantly.

His innate noble temperament made the passers-by look at them.

When they were about to cross the road, Kenneth suddenly stopped and looked at Victor with his arms crossed.

Victor looked at Kenneth who was standing in front of him and said with a smile, "Kenny, what are you doing?"

Kenneth frowned slightly and said in a sultry tone, "Uncle Victor, why do I feel you're here to steal a woman from me?" He only came to his senses after walking with Victor for half a day.

Victor was speechless.

"Kenny, what do you mean?" Victor was a little anxious. How was Eden Kenny's woman?

Kenneth said calmly, "You want to pursue my mother. Aren't you trying to steal my woman from me? She is the most precious woman in my family. What right do you have to pursue her?" Kenneth was very eloquent.

Victor suddenly felt as though his chest was struck by a hammer, and he almost couldn't breathe.

Kenny had agreed that Victor could pursue Eden previously. How could he go back on his words.

"Kenny, you are not being fair if you go back on your words. What kind of sons would be unwilling to let their mother go?"

Also, don't you want to have a father?"

Victor's last sentence was a little harsh.

"No. It's enough that we have Mom and Grandma. Besides, we don't know who our father is. Why should we find him?"

Victor was slightly stunned. Kenny and his siblings had never thought about finding their father...

Victor felt uncomfortable all of a sudden.

He wanted to tell Kenneth that he was their father!

However, it would only backfire if he told Kenneth at the wrong timing.

Victor took a deep breath and maintained a gentle smile. He said, "Kenny, let's not talk about this. You can't go back on what you have promised!"

He didn't believe that he, the high-spirited and well-known CEO of the Alwynn Group, would not be able to handle his own son.

Kenneth smiled and said, "I am a man of my word but why do I feel that you have bad intentions towards my mother?"

"Bad intentions?" Victor was helpless. Were the words written on his face?

How could Kenny tell that he had bad intentions?

Victor couldn't calm down and there was an indescribable sense of uneasiness in his heart.

He felt miserable. Was there anything more miserable than being treated as a bad guy by his own son?

"That's right! Mom is right. Why are you pestering a married woman?" Kenny looked at Victor seriously.

Chapter 233

Victor suddenly smiled and said, "Kenny, didn't you mention that you don't know where your father is? Your mother is a single mother but she is not a married woman."

The corners of Kenneth's mouth twitched slightly. Victor was really straightforward. Kenneth had already forgotten about the matter.

"Anyway, I still need to think about what you've said." After saying this, Kenneth walked forward.

As for his father...

Who knew where his father was?

Victor looked at Kenneth who was standing in front of him and didn't know what to do. He had never thought that Kenny would go back on his word.

Victor followed Kenny reluctantly.

Eden followed Haven into an alley. She glanced at the place and realized that it was the backdoor of the Rivera family.

She took out her phone and wanted to call Zofia.

However, she saw Zofia appearing from the corner suddenly and standing in front of Haven. She stopped quickly and looked at the two people in front of her.

Haven crossed her arms around her chest and looked at Zofia fiercely.

Eden clicked on her phone to record a video. Haven came with bad intentions. Eden wanted to record the whole incident and keep as evidence!

"Who are you?" Zofia looked at Haven. She did not know Haven at all.

"You don't have to care who I am. I'm here to warn you. Stop pestering Buddy or don't blame me for being rude to you!"

"Buddy?" Zofia frowned slightly and felt a sudden pain in her heart. She sneered and said, "Are you Buddy's younger sister?"

"That's right. Buddy asked me to come here and tell you this. If you still pester him, don't blame the Clement family for being heartless." Haven's gaze was contemptuous when she looked at Zofia's poverty-stricken appearance.

Zofia felt sorrowful when she heard that. She had stopped calling Buddy and was adamant not to pester him anymore.

"Don't worry. We've cut ties with each other long ago. It won't affect the Clement family's reputation. You can leave now."

Zofia looked sad. She was about to turn around when Haven suddenly raised her hand and slapped Zofia in the face.

Eden widened her eyes. She wanted to rush over but was stopped by Victor.

Eden frowned and looked at him in confusion. Why was he here?

"Why did you stop me?"

Victor looked at her and said, "Eden, things will get worse if you go over now."

Eden sneered in a low voice, "Mr. Alwynn's fiancée is indeed virtuous!"

A hint of disgust flashed across Victor's eyes when he heard Eden's words. "Who told you she was my fiancée?"

"Haven said that she is your future wife on my first day at work. Isn't she your fiancée?" Eden rolled her eyes at Victor. Didn't she ask him and Kenny to buy drinks?

Why did they follow her?

"She can say what she wants but I didn't acknowledge that." Victor felt very aggrieved.

"Why did you hit me? I've already told you that I've stopped bothering Buddy. You've gone too far." Zofia's angry voice caused Victor and Eden to look at her again.

Kenneth stood behind Eden and Victor with his arms crossed. He never liked to butt in, let alone to poke his nose into other people's business.

"If I don't hit you, can you remember? Remember, someone like you does not have the right to cling on to the Clement family. You'd better abandon this idea completely. I will not spare you if you continue to harass Buddy.

This is my first warning. If I discover that you call Buddy and make my parents sad, I will make your life difficult." Haven had a vicious smile on her face and she spoke in a harsh and mean tone.

Chapter 234

Eden looked at Haven. Haven was completely different from her gentle self when Eden first met her.

She acted gently and sweet in front of others but she was actually vicious and cruel!

"I've told you that I won't bother Buddy anymore. You can leave now. I don't want to see anyone from the Clement family." Zofia turned to leave when she finished speaking.

Haven's voice sounded behind her again, "Wait!"

Zofia stopped and turned to look at her. Her eyes were red and she was trying very hard to suppress her tears.

She had accepted the facts and faced the situation openly now that things had turned out this way. She did not want to shed any more tears for anyone, including Buddy, the man she loved the most.

"What else do you want?" She asked sternly.

Haven took ten thousand dollars out of her limited edition bag and waved her hand with a smile.

"This is ten thousand dollars. Consider it a breakup fee for you and Buddy! Hehe..."

Haven's sneer seemed to be telling Zofia that her love for Buddy was worth ten thousand dollars.

Zofia looked at the ten thousand dollars. The humiliation made her heart ache to the core.

However, she reminded herself that she was now a mother and she must protect her child.

She sneered and said, "Well, I'll accept your kindness but I don't want anything from the Clement family because I find it dirty.

I'll give back the ten thousand dollars to you so that you can buy some snacks to eat! Remember to eat some bean curd and fish. You will have bad breath if you eat fish and meat all the time."

After Zofia had finished speaking, she smiled confidently and turned around. She straightened her back and left with confidence.

"Yeah!" Eden stood at the same spot. She looked at Zofia's confident back and made a yay gesture.

"Zofia, good job!" As long as she learned how to fight back, others could no longer hurt her.

Haven stood at the same spot angrily. She looked at Zofia's confident back. She didn't know what to do but she felt very angry.

She came here to humiliate Zofia but she didn't expect to be severely humiliated by Zofia instead.

"B*tch..." Haven sneered while she stood at the same spot. She would definitely take her revenge on Zofia in the future.

"Zofia, just you wait." With that, she turned around and left.

Eden smiled when she saw that Haven was speechless. She looked up and suddenly saw Victor's bright and smiling eyes.

He had unknowingly gotten very close to her. Eden was overwhelmed by his compelling aura and her heart was in a turmoil.

She glanced at Victor seriously. He exuded a noble temperament.

There was a complicated and indescribable emotion in Victor's eyes when he watched Eden's smile broaden.

The smile at the corner of Eden's mouth froze. She had forgotten that Victor was just beside her.

She felt embarrassed when she thought of her behavior just now.

Victor's moderate lips curved upwards slightly. That was Eden's nature. When she was happy, she would gesticulate in joy and her innocent and charming smile would infect others.

"Mom, do you know that woman?" Kenneth asked at the side.

Eden nodded slightly and looked at Haven who was walking towards them.

"Let's go, Kenny. Let's get out of here." She quickly turned around, pulled Victor and Kenneth and headed deeper into the alley.

Chapter 235

Who knew what Haven would do if she saw Eden and Victor together?

Victor looked at his hand that was clenched by Eden and smiled happily.

"Victor, Eden is taking you to bask in the sun. The weather is warm today. You are sulky all day. Your body will be warm when you bask in the sun and you will be in a good mood."

The scene where Eden's tiny figure pulled him to the top of the roof flashed across Victor's mind.

She would still pull him hard even if he didn't want to go.

Eden stopped when they entered an alley and watched Haven leave angrily.

Only then did she realize that she had unconsciously grabbed Victor's hand.

She blushed and let go of Victor's hand immediately. She explained, "Mr. Alwynn, I was in a hurry just now.

I hope you don't mind."

Victor looked at Eden's blushing face and said with a meaningful smile, "Eden, are you interested in me? Otherwise, you wouldn't pull my hand unconsciously."

Kenneth was speechless.

Victor was here to steal Eden from him.

Eden was speechless too.

She was a little confused and she suddenly felt that she had met a self-conceited madman!

"Hehe..." She couldn't help laughing. "Victor, have you always been so arrogant? Do you think that all the women around you are interested in you? I'm sorry but I'm not interested in you."

Victor looked at Eden's exasperated face and smiled faintly. He lowered his head slightly and he moved his lips close to her ear. He spoke in a deep, pleasant, and alluring tone, "Eden, what do you mean by that?"

Eden widened her eyes and glared at him.

"What an egomaniac! Kenny, let's go!"

She was about to move her feet when Victor suddenly pressed his long arm against the wall, blocked her way, and stared deeply at her.

Eden quickly took a step back and looked at Victor cautiously.

Kenneth frowned unhappily when he saw that. "Uncle Victor, are you bullying my mother?" There was a strong threat in his immature tone.

Victor's expression changed instantly. He quickly took back his hand, bowed his head and looked at Kenneth with a smile. "Kenny, you are wrong about me. I just feel that your mother and I are very congenial."

"Congenial..." Eden looked at him in disgust.

"Victor, we are not congenial. Let's leave quickly. I'm hungry." Eden said unhappily and pulled Kenneth out of the alley.

Victor followed her with a smile. He looked at his hand that was being held by her. It still had her warmth.

He looked at the thin and tall woman in front of him and smiled. His Eden had really grown up. She was very beautiful and adorable, just as he had imagined!

It was a pity that they had missed eighteen years together.

How wonderful it would have been if they hadn't missed so many years together!

Haven had already driven away when Victor, Eden and Kenneth walked out of the alley.

They went to the food stall. Zofia was there to help. She smiled happily when she saw Eden.

"Eden, why are you here?" She asked with a smile. Her face was still red and slightly swelling from the slap a while ago.

Eden narrowed her eyes. Haven really slapped Zofia hard!

"I came because I wanted to eat the food from your stall. This is my eldest son, Kenny." Eden pulled Kenneth to step forward.

Chapter 236

"Kenny, greet Aunt Zofia!"

"Hello, Aunt Zofia!" Kenneth greeted Zofia politely.

"Hello, Kenny!" Zofia looked at the handsome Kenneth with an envious look.

"Kenny, you are really handsome!" At that moment, she was especially looking forward to the birth of her child.

She regretted having foolish thoughts previously. Fortunately, the child in her womb was fine, otherwise, she would never forgive herself for the rest of her life.

"Thank you for your compliment, Aunt Zofia!" Kenneth smiled faintly. He normally had a gentle attitude towards Eden's friends.

Zofia looked at Kenneth carefully and suddenly felt he was familiar. She looked at Eden and asked, "Eden, Kenny looks familiar. I feel like I have seen him somewhere before." Zofia looked at Kenneth thoughtfully.

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, my second son is Henrick. He is a child star and he is now in Gate City." "Oh! That's right. He often appears on televisions, bus stops and the big screen of the malls. He is very handsome. Many children were envious and jealous of him in the last six months. He also won first place in a piano competition some time ago. His song caused my mother to cry." Zofia said in surprise. Her eyes were still fixed on Kenneth's handsome face.

Although Victor was ignored, he was still very happy when he heard other people praising his son.

Eden smiled proudly and said, "Ricky has loved to play the piano and act since he was a child so he naturally embarked on this path."

Zofia nodded admiringly. "Ricky is really amazing!"

Eden smiled proudly when she mentioned her son, "Ricky is filming Little Boxing King at the moment. It may take some time for him to come to River City."

"That's great. My baby will have brothers to play with when he is born."

Zofia smiled happily. She really liked the strong-willed Eden. Furthermore, Eden had saved her child and her life. She would never forget her kindness for the rest of her life.

"Great! The child will have companions when he grows up." Eden said with a smile. Her heart ached for Zofia when she looked at her swollen face. Zofia still had a smile on her face even though she was humiliated a while ago. She was actually very strong.

"That's right! Take a seat. I'll ask my mother to prepare her best dishes for you." As Zofia spoke, she nodded to Victor and greeted him.

Kenneth smiled and said, "Aunt Zofia, please make me a bowl of rice noodles. I heard that the rice noodles in River City are very delicious. I want to try them."

Kenneth was aware that rice noodles were very famous in River City. He had to try it since he was here.

"Okay! Kenny, the rice noodles of the Rivera family are well-known from afar. I will bring them over in a moment." As Zofia spoke, she got them seated in a better environment before she turned and went to the kitchen.

Victor looked at Zofia's slim figure and frowned slightly. Zofia was actually pregnant with Buddy's child.

But why did Buddy abandon her?

Buddy had a great character and he would never do something as cruel as this.

Eden saw Victor's thoughtful expression when she withdrew her gaze from Zofia.

She thought for a moment and said, "Mr. Alwynn, can you not tell the Clement family about what you saw today?"

"Zofia committed suicide because of this matter a few days ago. If the Clement family makes things difficult for Zofia again, I am afraid that she would not be able to withstand the blow and would think of committing suicide again."

Chapter 237

Victor nodded his head comprehensively and looked at Eden wickedly. "Eden, I can keep it a secret for you but what will you give me back in return?"

Eden frowned and looked at him in disbelief.

"You're really a treacherous businessman. You won't let go of any interests you could get." Eden said the words unceremoniously.

Victor laughed wickedly and said, "Eden, businessmen have to rely on their capitals to make money. As a businessman, I have to make everything profitable."

"You're a treacherous businessman who is profit-oriented and likes to take advantage of the situation." Eden glared at him angrily. Wasn't she only asking him to keep a secret?

He actually made use of that and tried to gain benefits from her.

"Hehe..." Victor laughed heartily and glanced around the food stall. There were more and more customers. Many people looked at them from time to time.

He slowly withdrew his gaze and looked at Eden's angry face. He smiled and said, "Eden, when you do business, you can control the investment but you cannot control the results. You will gain money if you place the right bet. You will have a wonderful life if you are together with the right person!"

Eden somewhat agreed with him. A person without knowledge would suffer slightly but one who did not know the right people would suffer for the rest of his life.

However, she was still angry. "Hmph! You know the great principles of life but why can't you be a good person?"

Kenneth looked at Eden's changing emotions. Victor had the ability to drive her crazy.

The high and mighty Victor suddenly became innocent. "Eden, I just wanted you to treat me to a meal for keeping your secret. I had no intention of asking you to do anything else."

Eden was speechless.

"Why didn't you say that earlier?" Eden could promise to have a meal with Victor.

Victor smiled innocently. "Eden, you didn't give me a chance to speak and you scolded me."

Eden gritted her teeth and glared at him. She realized that she was losing her patience and temper day by day.

The way he talked was indeed unique.

"Okay. I'll treat you to a meal. Don't tell the Clement family what you saw today!" Eden had saved Zofia from committing suicide and she didn't want to waste her efforts.

Sometimes, the toughest choice that one had ever made would end up as the best decision.

Eden had decided not to live under other people's impression when she left River City seven years ago. She wanted to control her own life.

"Okay! I'll set the time." Victor took advantage of the situation.

Eden knew that she was set up by Victor again. She knew that it was coming but she unwittingly allowed it to happen.

Kenneth shook his head slightly. Eden did not have much experience and she was no match for Victor.

Victor smiled when she saw that Eden was angry again. He said, "Eden, you have to manage your emotions. You will get old fast if you get angry easily."

When Eden heard that, she really wanted to slap him in the face and let the cars on the road crush him to death. She would be able to relieve her anger then.

She said furiously, "I don't need to control my emotions. You just need to control yourself and don't make me angry!"

Although Victor was handsome and an eye candy, he still couldn't simply ruin other people's mood as he liked.

Victor laughed and said, "Eden, I didn't do anything to make you angry. I was just offering the terms that are beneficial to me."

Eden still looked adorable when she was angry.

Chapter 238

Sigh!!

Victor really wanted to take Eden home as soon as possible. He would definitely be in a good mood if he bickered with her like this every day.

Eden was furious when she heard Victor's words. She yelled in a low voice, "Shut up. If you don't speak, other people might still have fantasies about you. Once you speak, their fantasies will be shattered."

"Haha..." Victor laughed happily.

He approached Eden suddenly and said wickedly, "Eden, so you actually have fantasies about me?"

"Do I have fantasies about you? The beauties in this world would not be prominent if people like you do not exist." Eden said sarcastically.

Victor was not angry even though he heard the sarcasm in Eden's words. Even though he had a bad temper, he had never been angry with the woman who was sitting in front of him.

To him, Eden was the person that he cherished the most in his life.

"Eden, Kenny, your dishes are here. These seafood are all the freshest. It's my treat today. You can eat as much as you like."

Zofia spoke with a smile as she brought a tray of dishes over to their table.

Eden looked at Zofia and said worriedly, "Zofia, you are pregnant now. It's not good to be so busy. You should rest more."

Zofia shook her head and said with a smile, "Eden, you don't have to worry about me. In our hometown, pregnant women still go to work and their babies still remain healthy at birth. Besides, my work is quite easy. It's good to exercise a little so that I can sleep better at night."

Eden smiled and said, "You should be careful then!"

She got up, took the food from the tray and put them on the table.

Eden wasn't idle when she was pregnant. She would work hard and design clothes every day to earn money. At that time, when her stomach was uncomfortable, she would still try to find inspiration.

After that, she successfully gave birth to three children.

"I will. Eden, you eat first. There are still three bowls of rice noodles. I will go back and bring them here." Zofia turned around and left after she finished speaking. Her footsteps were very light and she seemed very happy.

Victor glanced at Eden before he bowed his head and smiled faintly.

Eden was actually concerned about a stranger.

She would definitely feel very distressed if she knew that the child in Zofia's womb was her nephew.

"Mom, eat quickly. Let's go home after eating. I'm a little tired." Kenny picked up a prawn and ate it. He was really tired after a day of shopping.

"Alright! Kenny, eat more. I will help you peel anything you like to eat." Eden smiled as she looked at Kenny. Her heart ached for him when she saw his tired face.

Kenneth shook his head and said, "No need. Mom, look at my figure now. I will become fat if I eat more. Mom, you have to take care of yourself. You don't need to take care of me. I have grown up now and I can eat properly on my own." Kenneth said seriously.

Eden was worried that Kenneth and his two siblings did not have enough to eat and wear.

"Okay!" Eden nodded and ate her food sulkily.

Victor looked at Eden and Kenneth with a smile. His heart ached when he saw that they were so concerned about each other.

On the other hand, Bethany who had been waiting at home for the whole day, didn't receive any call from her secretary.

She could not wait any longer and made a call to her secretary.

"Hello! Arturo, have you found anything yet?" Her disgruntled voice filled the entire room.

"Madam, we have checked for a long time but we couldn't find the address of this number and we don't know where the number comes from."

Chapter 239

"What? How is that possible?" Bethany didn't believe that her secretary couldn't even find the address.

"Madam, we have used many methods but we really can't find the address."

"Okay!" Bethany hung up the phone angrily.

The light in the room was not switched on but the outline of all the items there could still be seen.

Bethany stood up from the sofa and walked back and forth restlessly.

Who sent the message?

Could it be Eden?

Bethany thought for a while and suddenly went downstairs.

Myra was sitting on the sofa in the living room downstairs. She was playing PUBG with her friends.

When she heard the sound of footsteps downstairs, she looked up and asked casually, "Mom, Abby said that you were not feeling well and you didn't come down to eat. Are you feeling better now?"

Bethany glared at her and said, "You didn't even come upstairs to bring me a glass of water when I'm not feeling well. You only know how to play games every day but not reading books." "Mom, there you go again. You nag non-stop every day. I'm working in Alwynn Group now. That should be enough to prove my ability. What are you worried about?" Myra spoke unhappily without looking at Bethany.

Bethany was angry when she heard Myra's words. "Don't forget the method you used to get into the Alwynn Group or our cooperation. You have to keep an eye on the people in the company, especially Eden. The company values the products that she designed.

Since you are already working there, you have to report to me about Eden's every move, including her phone calls. You have to keep an eye on her all the time and tell me everything when you come back."

Myra listened to Bethany's words as she played the game. She was suddenly knocked down in the game. Her teammate was too late to save her and the game was over.

She tossed her phone onto the sofa and looked at Bethany in dismay. "Mom, didn't you say that Eden is not Cyan? Why do you want to pay attention to her every move now? Are you hiding something from me?"

Bethany frowned and looked at Myra unhappily. Her daughter was not stupid when she should be stupid and not smart when she should be smart.

"I didn't say that she is Cyan but I appreciate her ability. She is someone whom Victor admires and she must have a bright future.

We would not be inferior to other companies if we have good designers and could get our company listed on the market. If we have our own design products that are unique, the Gienger family would not be in such a dilemma."

Bethany was angry. Myra was a designer but her designs could not be used at all. It was impossible to expect her to bring interests to the company.

"Mom, the clothes I designed two days ago are very lovely but they didn't catch your eye. You are thinking about other designers now. What's going on, mom?

Why do you always think about other people's designs?

Our products can be unique as long as we use all kinds of commercial means, make use of e-commerce, advertisements and magazines to promote the clothes I designed. However, you don't like my work so I can only go out to work."

Myra's tone was sarcastic. How dare Bethany say that all her years of studying were in vain?

"Kara, don't always ask me why. Why don't you ask yourself?

Is there any difference between the clothes you designed and the ones in the current market?"
Bethany initially had no intention to dampen Myra's enthusiasm.

Chapter 240

When Bethany saw Myra's arrogant manner, she really didn't know how she could live like that for the rest of her life.

"Mom, everyone's pursuits are different. I don't need to deliberately compare myself to others. I just want to make my own style." Myra looked at Bethany angrily. She had already told Bethany this many times before and she did not want to continue this topic anymore.

Bethany had discouraged her every time!

"Make your own style? Hehe..." Bethany sneered and looked at Myra sarcastically.

Myra's good mood sank to the bottom when she realized that Bethany was going to ridicule her again. She was about to lose her temper when Bethany spoke suddenly.

"Myra, take a good look at your own style. Doesn't your so-called style imitate the style of those famous foreign designers? That's the luxury version that you like.

Not everyone's receptivity is as strong as yours. Do you know what will happen if that kind of design appears in our company? I have been working in this industry for decades. How can I not see through what you are thinking?"

Myra's red lips opened slightly when she heard that. She looked at Bethany in disbelief.

Bethany had already seen through her. She had spent the whole night drawing and the whole day revising her drawing but she still copied someone else's design.

She sneered and said, "Mom, as long as we change the style slightly, it can become our own product. It will only bring benefits to our company. How can it be harmful?"

Myra didn't understand Bethany's thoughts. There were countless imitations on the market, so what was wrong if she imitated other people's designs!

"Forget it. I don't want to talk about this anymore. I will find a good family for you to marry so that you can live a carefree life." After saying that, Bethany got up and went upstairs with a gloomy face.

Myra looked at Bethany's back unhappily. She was angry that Bethany had never approved her designs.

Right now, Bethany was going to find someone to marry her. Myra would agree immediately if Bethany let her marry a man like Victor!

Myra looked at Bethany, who was about to disappear at the stairway and said with a smile,

"Mom, I'm fine if you want me to marry someone. I want to marry Victor."

Bethany stopped when she heard that. She turned around and looked at Myra with an odd smile on her face. She said, "Kara, aren't you working in his company now? You should understand that you will have an advantage if you get close to a person who has power, right?"

However, you have to change your temper and learn to be smart. Haven also works at the company. With her there, it's already considered good for you if you don't suffer losses."

Bethany turned and went upstairs when she finished speaking.

Her heart sank suddenly when she looked at the darkroom. Brody would not be back again tonight.

Victor didn't send Eden and Kenneth back after he had dinner with them because he had something else to do.

That was what Eden had wished for. She was very full from the dinner and she and Kenny strolled back home.

She held Kenny's hand as they walked on the sidewalk. The neon lights elongated their shadows.

Eden smiled gently and asked, "Kenny, did you have a good time today?"

"Yes!" Kenneth nodded and did not deny.

He really did have a good time today.

"I'm glad you're happy!" Eden looked at the smile on Kenny's face and smiled.

She still couldn't replace his father and give them a complete home.
