

Gluey Love 2341

Chapter 2341

Magnolia was shocked by his sudden anger.

Faith paused in shock.

Raelynn remained silent as she waited for the drama to unfold.

Magnolia turned to Raelynn and demanded angrily, "Raelynn, didn't I ask you to send it over? Why didn't you do it?"

Raelynn looked at her calmly. "Sorry, I've already refused you, you were the one who forced it upon me. I didn't have the time, so I returned it to your desk."

Magnolia was furious. This b*tch actually had the guts to do this.

"You..."

"Enough!" Kenneth roared.

Magnolia had a bad feeling. She lowered her head and did not dare to look at him.

Kenneth suddenly stood up and turned to Magnolia. "Why did you ask Miss Edwards to do your job?"

Magnolia was anxious. It was not an easy task to enter the Alwynn Group. She knew that upon Kenneth's return, he had been making amendments to the organization. Not long ago, many people were fired.

Moreover, he was still continuing to do that. Any job that could be accomplished with machines, would never be assigned to a human.

Artificial intelligence would never make any errors nor betray the organization. Kenneth loved this level of control very much.

"I'm sorry! Mr. Kenneth, Miss Edwards is a newcomer, so I wanted to help familiarize her with how things worked. I never expected her not to do her job!" Magnolia pushed all of the responsibility onto Raelynn.

Kenneth wouldn't care for her anyway, Faith was the one whom he thought of as the best designer.

How could she, a newcomer, compare to Faith?

"Miss Oakley, I've familiarized myself with everything before I took on the job," Raelynn returned.

When Faith saw that things were going south, she quickly apologized, "I'm sorry, Mr. Kenneth, it was my fault for not handling things well."

Kenneth gazed at her deeply. "Miss Mason, what are you talking about? She is your assistant, and her attitude towards her job is the problem here. She's the one taking advantage of newcomers, isn't that obvious enough?"

Raelynn was secretly thankful for his words.

At this moment, she thought that he was the best in the whole wide world.

"Mr. Kenneth, I'm sorry. I'll do it myself now." Faith picked up the file on the table and turned to leave.

Magnolia didn't dare to stay and left quickly with Faith.

Kenneth glanced at Raelynn. "You've made amendments?"

Raelynn nodded. "Yes, please take a look, Mr. Kenneth."

"Okay!" Kenneth was a man of few words.

He headed over to his laptop.

Raelynn handed him the USB flash drive. The design that had been amended looked much better than the original.

In the elevator, Magnolia was trembling with anger, but there was nothing she could do.

"I'm sorry! Faith, I'm sorry to have dragged this down with you," she said apologetically. She would definitely hold this grudge against Raelynn, that b*tch!

Faith's expression faltered. She had always been outstanding at her own job, and this was the first mistake that she had ever made.

"Enough, I was careless. I should have confirmed it before I went to his office."

Raelynn was not someone to be trifled with, that was something that could be observed from this incident.

Women should behave themselves, especially in front of a man like Kenneth.

Kenneth's type must be a woman who would make a good wife and a good mother.

"No, it was Raelynn's fault. She dared to frame us. I won't let it go like this." Magnolia said through gritted teeth. No one had ever dared to do something like this to her.

Upon hearing this, Faith smiled in satisfaction. With Magnolia around, there was no need for her to make a move.

In Kenneth's office, Raelynn looked at his expression nervously.

His lips were tightly pursed as his gaze was focused on the screen.

After some time, he finally nodded in satisfaction. He had seen her designs before, and he thought that she definitely had potential. With the right guidance she would definitely become a diamond that shone bright.

On the other hand, he wasn't that satisfied with Faith's design. It was old and repetitive, while Raelynn's was creative and innovative.

Kenneth finally said, "This is fine. During the meeting tomorrow morning..."

He then paused. "Tomorrow is the weekend."

"Yes, Mr. Kenneth," Raelynn replied. This was also a benefit of working in the Alwynn Group. The higher-ups usually had double rest days during the weekends.

Kenneth looked at Luke and said, "When Faith returns, gather the design department for an urgent meeting. Miss Edward's design will be the prototype."

"Yes, Mr. Kenneth." Luke smiled.

He looked at Raelynn and said, "Congratulations, Miss Edwards!"

"Thank you, Mr. Parma!" Raelynn was in a good mood!

"Thank you, Mr. Kenneth. I will do my best!" Raelynn bowed deeply. There was nothing more exciting than having her work be recognized and acknowledged.

Kenneth took a deep look at her and didn't say anything. He just nodded slightly.

Raelynn's lips curled up into a smile as she left Kenneth's office happily.

Luke gave Faith a call.

She felt like she had been slapped in the face.

She paused in her tracks, almost losing grip of the file in her hands.

Raelynn was indeed something else.

"What's wrong, Faith?"

Magnolia looked concerned as she was worried that Kenneth would fire them. That would be humiliating.

Faith turned to her and said, "Raelynn's designs have been approved by Mr. Kenneth. There will be a meeting later."

Magnolia couldn't believe it. "How is that possible?"

"Magnolia, don't judge a book by its cover!"

Faith knew that Magnolia only had the stupid courage with no brains to back it up!

Her quick temper would only ruin things for Faith.

Even though Faith had a crush on Kenneth, she had always kept it a secret. Magnolia, on the other hand, had told everyone about it, making it clear that she wanted him.

She knew very well that someone like Kenneth was loyal.

On the contrary, if she were to try and get in his good favors, she might get herself into trouble instead.

The best way was to make use of other people's abilities to get along with Kenneth, thereby obtaining the chance to be with him more and more often.

After thinking about this, Faith was in a better mood.

In Kenneth's office!

Luke couldn't help but gossip. "Mr. Kenneth, this Miss Edwards is really good. She's putting Magnolia on the spot. I heard that Magnolia's family is very well-off, but she has a strong desire for revenge. She'll probably try to do something to Miss Edwards's shoes."

Upon hearing this, Kenneth frowned slightly. He hated a team that couldn't work well together.

This was only human nature, but he was deeply against it.

Kenneth narrowed his eyes slightly and said, "Luke, please watch over Raelynn. She's our dark horse, her designs are really something else."

Luke instantly understood what Kenneth was trying to say.

Chapter 2342

Luke had followed Kenneth all around the world, and he had a good grasp of what his character was like. It seemed that Kenneth really did value Raelynn's talents.

"Mr. Kenneth, I've got it. I'll get someone to keep an eye on her."

Not everyone in the design department were bad people. They also planted their men in it and knew that there was a lot going on in that department.

It was common for people to plagiarize and sell the company's designs.

During the meeting in the afternoon, Raelynn's work was publicly acknowledged. She was overjoyed.

As soon as she got off work, she was the first to rush out of the company.

Ryder was waiting for her outside.

"Rae, I didn't expect you to work for the Alwynn Group. You're amazing!" Ryder was very excited. The existence of the Alwynn Group was known by all of Asia.

"Ryder, I studied design abroad. After I came back, I found a major in the industry. I didn't expect to be accepted by the Alwynn Group either."

She thought that she was both lucky and talented enough to be accepted into the Alwynn Group. Back then, she had only applied with low hopes.

In the past, she had worked for small companies. This was her first time applying to a big company, and she had been extremely anxious but also excited.

One would never know the results if they did not try at all.

It was Ryder's off day, so he was clad in casual white clothes. He was quite tall and handsome, with an amazing physique. He was extremely pleasing to the eyes.

It was slightly cool in the summer evenings.

The both of them walked in the last rays of the sunset.

"Rae, I've brought my motorbike here. I'll take you to the new house, which takes around half an hour's ride from here. In the Future, I'll buy you a motorbike as well, so it'll be easier for you to go to work!"

Raelynn sat behind her brother and put on her helmet. "Sure!"

They slowly entered the flow of traffic, and coincidentally, Kenneth just so happened to catch sight of this. His expression immediately fell.

She had a boyfriend!

When he realized this, his chest felt so stuffy that it felt like a huge rock was pressing down on it, making it difficult for him to breathe!

Luke, who was following behind him, immediately sensed Kenneth's emotions.

What happened to him?

Luke looked left and right. There was no one!

He looked up at the horizon and saw a large mass of dark clouds gradually rushing over. Luke finally realized that it was because it was going to rain soon.

No wonder Kenneth was in a bad mood!

Ryder took Raelynn to the real estate agency, which was a small company. The girl who received them was a little girl with glasses.

Raelynn went over and chatted with her for a little while. Then she took Raelynn and Ryder to visit the house again.

The location of this residential area was decent, and there were seven floors in total. The windows and doors were all the same. The owner was in urgent need of money, so the price was much lower than the going price in the market. This was the only reason why Raelynn could afford it.

The room was very small. It could only fit a bed that was around one meter long, and it couldn't even fit a closet.

However, the kitchen was separated and the other two rooms were slightly larger.

The living room was next to the courtyard, and the yard next to theirs was already filled with plants and flowers that even crawled onto the walls. The living conditions were decent, and they could also fit a washing machine in the washroom.

Raelynn loved this place.

The real estate agent commented, "Miss, this place is much more worth it than the ones nearby, and you can also sell it for more than twice its current price in the future. This is really a good buy!"

"It has only been half a year since it was newly renovated, so there's no need for that. You can just move in and live here, apart from the fridge and beds, its already furnished."

"The sofa is also made of real leather. The original landlord's family is well-off, but because of the bankruptcy of his family, he was forced to sell this below the market price. It was initially meant for his children to live in, but they went to work in another city, so this place had been deserted since then."

Raelynn also knew that this place had only been renovated recently.

Raelynn looked at Ryder and said, "Ryder, why not let's settle here? We'll make the deal on Monday."

Ryder smiled. He liked this place as well, and it was close to his workplace too.

It was also close to his sister's office!

Her mother could cook in her own kitchen, so it was convenient for her to clean it up.

"Yes, I also like this place very much."

Raelynn looked at the real estate agent and asked, "Miss Verrill, are you sure there are no problems with the estate? If I pay the full amount, can we make the deal on Monday?"

"Yes, tomorrow is the weekend, so I'll ask the owner out tonight for a meeting. There are no problems with the estate. After confirming everything, you'll sign a contract, and everything can be settled on Monday within an hour."

Raelynn nodded.

Thus, they had decided on a place, and the owner was easygoing as well. He even lowered the price by ten thousand, and she immediately stopped worrying about buying the beds.

She would furnish the house slowly in the future.

On the way back, Raelynn smiled brightly.

"Ryder, after you receive the key on Monday, you and your mother can move here first. I have 10,000 yuan left. It should not be a problem to buy three beds. We can buy the other little things slowly."

Upon hearing this, Ryder was a little anxious. "Raelynn, how can I let you pay for everything alone? I have also saved some money from work in the past few years..."

"Ryder." Raelynn interrupted him with a smile.

"I know what you're thinking, but your money can be used to make more money, then you can find a girlfriend, get married, and have children. This is a big deal. I have enough money for now. If you want to do something, you can buy the rest of the furniture."

"All right!" Ryder felt that it was amazing to have an elder sister.

"Rae, thank you so much. Ever since you've returned, I feel like our family has hope again." He knew that she did not live a happy life with the Edwards family, and yet when she returned to her own family, she still had to worry about the house and other financial problems.

He was a physical laborer, and only managed to save up a little over 10 thousand after two years of hard work. It was all due to his efforts, where he had taken on odd jobs here and there in his free time.

Moreover, he had kept his money very carefully and securely. Rory had been eyeing it in the past as well.

He and Rory had never been close ever since he was a child.

Ryder sent Raelynn back to the hotel and then hurried home to tell his mother the good news.

Chapter 2343

It was the weekend, and Raelynn had not returned for a long time. She planned to go shopping and take a walk around.

Clara was taking a break today. She had also invited Clara out for a walk to familiarize herself with her surroundings. Since Raelynn had decided to stay here in River City, she ought to familiarize herself with the environment.

Clara was a foodie, so she knew many fun places and delicious restaurants around.

They agreed to meet at Dalon Times Square.

"Rae, I'm here."

Clara waved her hand at Raelynn. Her long hair was draped over her shoulders and she was wearing a blue checkered shirt paired with jeans and white sneakers. She looked innocent and cute.

Raelynn walked over with a smile. Since she was on a break, she too wore casual clothes. She had on a white tee, a pair of jeans and white sneakers. Her hair was in a ponytail, and she looked gorgeous.

"Wow! Rae, you're finally back. I haven't seen you dressed like this for a long time, you look just like a college student." Clara held Raelynn's hand as she smiled at her.

Raelynn smiled and replied proudly, "That's right. I have just graduated not long ago."

"Oh, the most beautiful girl in our school has finally become self-aware." Clara then dragged her to look for delicious food.

The most important thing on a day out was to have a delicious meal. Only with a full stomach could they have fun.

Raelynn looked at the square nearby. She remembered that before she left, this was a very lively downtown area. Unexpectedly, after a few years, this place had completely changed. There were tall buildings and shopping malls here, and there were many people around.

Since it was the weekend, many families were out for quality time. There were a lot of beautiful girls around, and it looked to be a fun day ahead!

There were a few basketball courts not far ahead.

The courts were surrounded by blue iron railings, and there were a lot of people playing basketball there. It seemed very lively.

Raelynn felt that it was definitely better to be back in her own country.

"Rae, let's go have some delicious food, then we can go shopping."

"The clothes in the mall are very beautiful, but one single piece of clothing costs me a month's salary. I can only enjoy them with my eyes, but I wouldn't dare to buy them."

"Hey, hey... why would you buy such expensive clothes? When we go shopping later, you can look around for your preferred style and I'll make one for you! Don't forget that I'm a designer myself, I can design anything for you."

"Wow!" Clara was so excited that she forgot about this fact.

"Rae, then I'll wait for you to design a beautiful dress for me. Although I also majored in designing, becoming a designer is still a distant dream. I'm fine with being a designer's assistant. I've already submitted my resume. I don't know if I'll be accepted. I was very nervous last night and didn't sleep well."

Raelynn knew her character. She was very nervous about every exam, but her grades were always good.

"If you're accepted, won't you become even more excited that you can't fall asleep?"

Clara thought for a moment. "I should be so excited that I wouldn't be able to sleep for a few days, nor eat anything."

"You've always been so cute."

The two of them walked along the edge of the basketball court. There was a fountain in the middle of the square. Opposite the fountain was a shopping mall. Both the sixth and seventh floors were food courts.

"Rae, there's a popular seafood bar here. Why don't we dine there?"

"Okay!"

"Ah..." The back of her head was suddenly hit heavily by something. Raelynn's vision went black and she fell to the ground as she lost her balance.

A basketball slowly rolled away from Raelynn.

"Ah... Rae, how are you feeling?" Clara helped her sit on the ground.

Clara looked at the basketball angrily. Just how strong the person throwing this basketball was?

He had knocked someone out.

"Rae, can you hear me?" Clara shook her body gently.

"Oh, d*mn it, which one of you was it?" Clara grumbled as she rummaged through her bag for her phone to make an emergency call.

"Hey! Who the hell is the one filled with so much rage this early in the morning? You managed to knock someone out!"

As Andrew looked at Raelynn, who was in Clara's arms, he was filled with concern.

His brother had been in a bad mood ever since he went out last night.

When he woke up this morning, they came to play basketball together, but he didn't say a word.

All morning, he had been treating others like they were invisible, playing by himself and hoarding the basketball.

Kenneth's brows were tightly knit together as he walked up to the two girls. When he got closer, he realized that the girl who looked a little familiar was Raelynn.

He quickly walked over and hugged her. "Raelynn, how are you feeling?"

He never thought that the person who had been hit by the basketball would be her.

Clara, who was just about to make a call, fell speechless. She had met the man of her dreams, wasn't this the infamous Henrick Alwynn?

"D*mn!"

Her Prince Charming was only 20 centimeters away from her. She was ecstatic.

"Raelynn, Raelynn, wake up, wake up!" Kenneth gently patted her face.

Oh! He knew Raelynn, she could get his signature!

Upon Kenneth's appearance, she had completely forgotten about Raelynn.

Raelynn felt dizzy. When she heard Kenneth's voice, she was confused.

She did not open her eyes, and she felt extremely dizzy, like she was in a dream. She started mumbling to herself, "Clara! I think I'm hallucinating from being hit in the head. I'm hearing voices, and it's my cold and distant boss! But he smells so familiar, like the man from that night!"

Kenneth's entire body tensed up. His hands, which were holding her head, were motionless.

Clara fell speechless. She knew every word that Raelynn was saying, but could not understand them.

What did she mean by "the man from that night"?

Clara suddenly looked at Kenneth and asked in surprise, "My Prince Charming, do you know Rae?"

It was only then that Kenneth came to his senses. Of course, he knew that she had mistaken him for Ricky.

"Yes." He spat out two words coldly.

"Ah..." Clara was taken aback. Why was he being so cold?

Raelynn slowly regained her strength and suddenly opened her eyes. The sunlight was a little dazzling, and half of a handsome face came into view with relatively clear edges and corners. On the other side, hidden in the light, he was wearing a blue vest and shorts. His muscle lines were smooth and powerful, and he was no longer wearing a noble and elegant suit. At this time, he had a little more humanity and less of a sense of restraint.

"Mr. Kenneth!" Raelynn cried out involuntarily.

Thinking of what she had just said to herself, she almost scrambled out of his arms.

The Alwynn triplets were stunned.

Clara fell speechless.

Kenneth, who had been rejected, also fell speechless.

Raelynn looked at him in confusion. "Why are you here, Mr. Kenneth?"

Chapter 2344

"I brought my brothers to play basketball nearby. Sorry, it was I who hit you just now."

"Ah..." Raelynn touched the back of her head, which was still throbbing in pain.

Looking at the big court, just how much force did he use to be able to smash it onto her head from such a long distance?

"I'm fine. Mr. Kenneth, you don't have to worry about me," Raelynn said with a smile. Her hand was still touching the place where she had been hit, and her smile looked a little silly.

In the sunshine, Kenneth's forehead was still sweating, and his strong body was emitting pheromones.

He was rich and handsome, he would be loved by everyone wherever he went.

Kenneth was still a little worried. She had fainted just now.

"Shall we go to the hospital and have a look?"

Raelynn shook her head. "No, I'm really fine."

Clara looked at the two of them and felt that something was amiss.

Unfortunately, it was Mr. Alwynn, not her Prince Charming.

After her Prince Charming had gotten married, he seemed to be living with his wife and children in Lemmon City.

"Sigh..." Clara sighed regretfully.

The atmosphere seemed to have reached a deadlock.

Andrew then smiled and apologized, "I'm sorry. My brother is very strong. He accidentally threw the ball out of the basket. How about this, I'll ask my brother to treat you to a delicious meal. It's almost time for lunch. We're hungry, so let's have a meal together."

Andrew knew that Kenenth was still single, and with his cold temper, who knew when he would finally marry.

Henrick's child was already in primary school, and he video called them every day. They were very adorable.

Moments ago, Kenneth had taken the initiative to take this girl into his arms. That meant that she was important to him, at least.

Sigh!

He thought that he was such a good younger brother, worrying about Kenneth's love life while having to take care of his own studies.

Kenneth glanced at Andrew. He actually wanted to suggest that, but he was afraid that it would be too abrupt.

His tone was cold and hard. "Miss Edwards, let's have a meal together if you're free."

"Ah..." Raelynn looked at him in shock.

It seemed to be a very good thing to have a meal with Kenneth.

Hehe...

Raelynn giggled in her heart.

She and Clara were also about to go eat delicious food.

Alan added, "Yes, why don't you come with us for breakfast?" Kenneth didn't like to talk, and he was very serious when he was having his meal.

Seeing that there were women who were willing to approach him, they hoped that he would find a wife to marry soon. Ever since Henrick had gotten married, he had changed a lot!

The people of the Alwynn family were all fools for love. Once Kenneth falls in love with someone, he would definitely become a gentler person.

He wanted to see a different Kenneth.

Raelynn looked at the three identical handsome boys in front of her and was stunned. "Oh my god, are the genes of the Alwynn family so powerful?" she wondered.

These three brothers would definitely grow up to become heartbreakers.

"Then let's have a meal together." Raelynn smiled, her smile as bright as the sun.

Kenneth's eyes flashed. "Then wait here for us."

Raelynn nodded. "Okay!"

Kenneth took his brothers to get changed.

Clara immediately took Raelynn's hand and asked, "Rae, you were knocked out just now. Are you really okay?"

Raelynn shook her head and pressed the place where she had been hit. Although it was a little painful, it was not too much.

"Clara, I'm fine!"

After hearing that, Clara was relieved.

She smiled mysteriously and said, "Rae, Mr. Alwynn is very powerful. Do you want to..."

"What are you talking about? It's impossible for us. Although I like capable men very much, I still have to look at myself. The Alwynn family is a truly wealthy family, and I..." Raelynn thought for a moment, and realized that there was a natural gap between them.

"Hey! You can't say that. I heard that the Alwynn family doesn't care about that, and the mother is supposedly easygoing! When my idol was dating, I did a lot of research!"

Raelynn looked at her with a smile and was very surprised. "You've been a fan of Henrick for all these years!"

She still remembered that when she was a child, she had watched a TV series where Henrick acted in.

If Henrick was very handsome when he was a child, Kenneth was probably the same as well.

"Of course. I grew up with him. I heard that my Prince Charming dotes on his wife very much." Clara crossed her hands on her chest as if she was the one being doted on.

Raelynn shook her head with a smile. "You will probably be a fan for the rest of your life."

"That's right. I'm a true fan!" Clara was very proud. It was already very impressive for a person to be able to stick to one thing for this long.

The two of them chatted for a while before Kenneth finally returned with his brothers.

The triplets had all changed into the same blue casual wear.

Only Kenneth was clad in black sportswear, which accentuated his fair skin and made him appear even more handsome.

Kenneth looked at her and asked, "What would you like to eat?" His tone was cold and distant.

When the brothers heard this, they began to worry that the two girls would be so frightened that they wouldn't want to have lunch with them anymore.

"Kenneth, you step back!" Andrew pushed him back.

Kenneth looked at him speechlessly. Did he say something wrong?

"Do you guys want to have some seafood? It's located on the seventh floor, and it's gone viral recently. We'll order a huge portion and share it amongst ourselves."

Andrew suggested enthusiastically.

In an instant, Kenneth began to understand the gap between the two of them.

"Wow! That's great. Rae and I were going to head there anyway." Clara was so happy. Although he was not her Prince Charming, he looked exactly like him.

It was almost the same thing anyway.

"Then let's go. You are...?" Kenneth turned to Clara.

"My best friend, Clara Hansen," Raelynn introduced.

Kenneth greeted, "Hello, Miss Hansen!"

Clara was flattered. "Hello, Mr. Kenneth. I've already sent in my resume to the Alwynn Group. I hope to work there."

Raelynn was speechless. What was Clara trying to do?

Kenneth replied, "As long as you have the capabilities, Alwynn Group welcomes you."

"Hehe... Thank you, Mr. Kenneth. I will work hard." Clara was so excited that she was about to cry. Her idol was giving her words of encouragement.

Oh my!

She would probably be so excited that she couldn't fall asleep at night.

They took the elevator to the seventh floor.

The Alwynn triplets had a lot of topics to talk about, so the atmosphere in the elevator was not tense.

On the contrary, Kenneth's mind was still filled with the words that Raelynn had said. He was like the man from that night.

So she did remember him.

"Kenneth, Cecilla asked you, do you want to go to their house for dinner tonight?" Andrew suddenly received a message from Cecilia.

Ever since Kenneth was young, he had always liked the beautiful Cecilia and treated her like a younger sister.

Kenneth nodded. "Sure! Tell Cecilla that we'll be there in a while, and we'll pick out the gifts for Uncle Lucian's children."

Chapter 2345

"Got it. We'll go pick them up after lunch. You can go with Raelynn and Clara." Andrew was busy creating opportunities for Kenneth.

After all, he had never seen Kenneth approach any woman voluntarily.

Moreover, this designer whom Kenneth did not seem to dislike was working in the same company that he was! Things would probably work out.

Kenneth nodded.

Raelynn was stunned. He had actually agreed.

She had just returned to the country, so she was not completely unfamiliar with River City.

However, it seemed a little awkward to let Kenneth take them shopping.

To her knowledge, men didn't like to go shopping with girls.

They arrived at the restaurant. It was the weekend, so there were a lot of people. Kenneth asked for a private room.

The interior of the room was simple and basic, but the environment was great. It was not crowded to accommodate them.

"Kenneth, Miss Hansen, there's milk tea next door. Why don't we go and buy some?" Andrew suggested.

Kenneth looked at Andrew and raised an eyebrow. "Are all four of you going to buy six cups of milk tea? Is the milk tea too heavy for you to carry?"

Raelynn also looked at them in confusion as well.

Andrew answered with a smile "Well, the three of us will select which flavors we like, but we don't know what Miss Hansen and Miss Edwards like, so we will ask her and see if there's anything else we'd like. I want to give mom a call as well, and then we'd probably have too much to carry."

Kenneth fell silent. It was obvious that Andrew was trying to create opportunities for him.

Clara could tell that something was amiss, so she stood up and followed the three handsome boys out to buy some milk tea.

Raelynn fell speechless as well. What were they doing?

No, she didn't even tell them which milk tea she liked. She wanted grass jelly.

She also wanted pudding!

If they were going to pretend to buy her milk tea, they should at least buy her what she liked.

Raelynn then turned to Kenneth and noticed that he was looking at himself as well.

Their gazes met. One was nervous, and the other was deep.

Raelynn nervously pursed her lips and smiled. She tried to find another topic to talk about. "Mr. Kenneth, do you like to play basketball every weekend?"

According to the size of the Alwynn Group, he should be busy every day.

Kenneth didn't expect her to take the initiative to talk to him. Many girls who approached him would be too frightened by his coldness and ruthlessness that they wouldn't dare to say a word.

He seemed to be in the mood to talk. "I came to accompany my brothers. My parents went on a trip, so it's only the four of us here."

Raelynn nodded. "I see."

Kenneth then pursed his lips, and his dark eyes were filled with curiosity. "Don't you spend the weekend with your boyfriend?"

Raelynn paused before she replied with a smile, "I... don't have a boyfriend yet."

"I... don't have a boyfriend yet." These few words instantly calmed him down, and the anger that he had been keeping to himself was instantly gone.

It was a new feeling for him, but he didn't know how to share them with anyone.

He had never liked any girl since he was a child. Had he even been in a relationship before?

In elite colleges, there were many boys, but very few girls.

He didn't have many opportunities to get in touch with girls.

Kenneth picked up the tea and filled some for Raelynn.

However, there was still nothing to talk about.

On the contrary, Raelynn felt that although Kenneth was very cold, he had a lovely side. He would care about others' feelings. He didn't talk much, but he gave people the best respect.

"Mr. Kenneth, I heard that you graduated from an elite university?" She had always been curious about this.

Kenneth replied, "Yes!"

Raelynn looked at him with admiration. "Mr. Kenneth, when I was young, I heard my classmate talk about you. I heard that you are very powerful!"

Kenneth blushed a little because of her compliment. His face was expressionless, but his ears quickly turned red.

His tone was a little nonchalant. "Just so-so!"

Looking at his reserved look, Raelynn knew that he rarely got along with women. She smiled as she continued, "It's said that the one who doesn't like to talk is the most powerful one. Sure enough, I can see that from you," she added.

This compliment stunned him again. He had never thought that she was so good at complimenting people, but he was quite happy in his heart.

In fact, he wanted to know who the man who came to pick her up yesterday was.

"Is it true that she doesn't have a boyfriend?" he wondered.

Kenneth was stunned. Why did he have to ask this question when they were together?

Kenneth looked at her and asked, "What did you see?"

Raelynn smiled charmingly and replied, "Your ability! When I was abroad, I saw that you have been leading the Alwynn Group to develop rapidly. I wanted to enter the Alwynn Group as well. It's very important to follow in the lead of a good president. As long as I can contribute to the company, it will be a great honor. I think so."

"When I went to work yesterday, I felt very shocked. Everyone was so serious when they work. In such a professional environment, it can help people grow up quickly."

Kenneth was stunned. It turned out that she had come to the Alwynn Group for this reason. How honored he was!

"Kenneth, we're back! Here, the strawberry milk tea you like." Kenneth placed his milk tea in front of him.

Kenneth's expression fell. Why was it strawberry milk tea?

"Rae, this is the grass jelly drink you like." Clara placed Raelynn's drink on the table.

"Wow! Clara knows me best." Raelynn took a sip of her drink and took a bite of the pudding as well. She was so happy that her eyes curled into two crescents.

Even Kenneth was happy as he gazed at her.

On the other hand, Raelynn looked at the strawberry milk tea in his hand. She felt that Kenneth looked very cute!

After lunch, something suddenly came up for Kenneth, so he could only leave.

He first sent his brothers home and then headed over to the company.

On the way home, Andrew suddenly said, "I really wanna be twenty five years old now!"

Adriel asked, "Why do you suddenly want to grow up so quickly? Mom said that there are many troubles when you grow up."

Andrew answered, "Because Miss Edwards is very beautiful. She looks very beautiful when she smiles. If I were 25 years old this year, I would definitely pursue her."

The other two younger brothers fell speechless.

Kenneth fell silent as well.

He smirked. "Unfortunately, you weren't born ten years earlier."

Andrew sighed. "That's why I'm so depressed. There's a saying that goes.. when the one I want was born, I wasn't; when I was born, the one I wanted was already too old... and then what was it again?"

"They hate me for being born late, I hate them for being born too early!" Adriel continued.

Andrew nodded regretfully. "Yeah, that's the saying. I don't know if Miss Edwards would wait for me..."

Kenneth suddenly stepped on the emergency brake, and the car came to a stop in front of the red light.

"Ah..." The triplets were shocked.

"Kenneth, what... what are you doing?" Adriel was so scared that his heart almost jumped out of his mouth.

Kenneth glanced at Andrew through the rearview mirror. "Sober up from your lovesick brain."

The three of them were speechless. Was this truly their elder brother, Kenneth? He was terrifying.

Chapter 2346

"Kenneth, we were just having a discussion. How was I being lovesick?" Andrew patted his chest, where his heart was still beating wildly. When he stopped the car just now, he felt that his heart had flown out of his chest.

Kenneth's gaze was cold as he stated, "If you can't achieve full marks on the exam this month, all of you should go to the company and train there. Your allowances will be deducted fully as well."

Andrew smiled as he relaxed. "If you don't give us our allowances, our parents and grandparents will. Oh, and our other relatives will, too."

Alan, Andrew and Adriel had lived a good life.

Kenneth looked at him and smirked. "I'll call them one by one and ask them not to give you anything. I'll take care of your pocket money from now on."

"Ah..."

"Ah..."

The triplets shouted in unison and looked at Kenneth in disbelief.

"Kenneth, what have I done to offend you? Can't I change it?"

Adriel replied, "Oh, it's all because of you. Why did you say you were going after Miss Edwards?"

Alan added on as well, "Can't you see that Kenneth is interested in Miss Edwards..."

"Ah..."

Another three terrified voices rang out.

Alan's words seemed to have poked into Kenneth's heart. He stepped on the accelerator fully, and they instantly leaned forward.

On the way, Kenneth began driving very fast.

When they arrived at the door, they were completely dizzy.

"Ugh..."

As soon as Andrew got off the car, he started vomiting.

He lay on the ground and could not get up.

He was so sick that he started crying.

Looking at Kenneth, who remained calm, he said through gritted teeth, "I will tell mom that you bullied us... Ugh..." Before he could even finish, he started vomiting again.

Kenneth glanced at him. "How childish!"

After asking the servants to help them in, he drove to the company to deal with official business.

On the other side, Raelynn and Clara strolled around the mall. Both of them were very happy.

After leaving the mall, they went into the supermarket again.

"Rae, what are we going to do in the supermarket?"

Raelynn answered, "Clara, let's take a look at the bowls and utensils. There are electronics sold downstairs as well, I wanted to see if the prices fit into my budget. After buying the house, I don't really have much left, so I've been budgeting a lot."

Clara's heart ached when she heard that. Other people might not know how Raelynn had survived all these years, but she knew.

The Edwards Family was wealthy, but they were also stingy. They valued men more than women!

Rae did not live a good life with them.

However, it was also because of their actions that Raelynn had become extremely hardworking.

"Rae, if you don't have enough money, I'll lend you 20,000 yuan first. I've been working in the past few years and saved up 20,000 yuan." Her salary wasn't much, and she had managed to save that up through budgeting as well. Women should at least be able to depend on themselves.

Ever since she went to work, she saved everywhere she could.

Raelynn smiled gratefully. "Clara there's no need. It's not easy for you to save that money. I'll be fine next month. And Ryder, he will pay for the furniture. This way, everything will be solved. We will work even harder and buy an even bigger house in the future!"

Raelynn's blueprint for the future looked amazing in her mind.

She gazed at the blue sky. There were no obstacles that couldn't be overcome, and she had gone through a lot ever since she was a child.

As long as she was willing to work hard, doors of opportunities would open for her.

"Hehe..." Clara could not help but chuckle. With a look of admiration on her face, she said, "Rae, you've always been ambitious and capable. Women have to be independent. No matter what, as long as you work hard, you'll be able to save up. A tiny bit goes a long way, and in the future, you'd be able to save up a lot! Someone like me would probably save less, but you're really talented! Who knows if you'd become rich one day."

Raelynn was very happy to hear that. She glanced at her and replied, "Clara, I hope to become wealthy in two years under your blessings."

In the Alwynn Group, as long as one was talented enough, they could definitely earn money.

"Okay, I'll wait for you to be rich and then depend on you, hehe..." Clara leaned her head against her shoulder and laughed happily.

The two of them walked around until eight o'clock in the evening, and then went to the food court for dinner. After that, they headed home.

Back at the hotel, Raelynn sat on the bed, feeling extremely tired.

After resting a while, she got up and poured herself a cup of water. She loved tea, and enjoyed a good cup after having a heavy meal.

However, she didn't have tea, so she could only gulp down plain water. After that, she changed and laid down on the bed lazily. As she thought about her life that had been like a rollercoaster ride, she felt melancholy.

Although she knew that it was inevitable for her to have a rough life, she was still very sad when she actually had to go through so many things.

If the nurse hadn't messed it up, she would've been able to grow up by her mother's side.

The Edwards Family valued men more than women, so she had no status in the family at all. When she thought of her brother, James, who was pampered, she thought that their parents would definitely suffer in the future.

Raelynn closed her eyes. Now, she had nothing to do with that family.

For her, it was a relief. There was still a long way to go in the future. She was still young, and things would definitely get better.

Everything would pass, right?

"Raelynn, good luck!" Raelynn smiled as she cheered herself on.

When she remembered that she hadn't live-streamed in a month, she got up and went to clean herself up. She then put on some lipstick and changed into a pair of jeans with a white tee.

She found a clean background in the room and hung the whiteboard on. After setting her camera up, she started live-streaming.

It had been a year since she started doing this. Although she did not have many fans, the people who attended these English classes were all eager to learn.

Her income was enough to cover her daily expenses.

Ever since she was in junior high school, she had been very self-disciplined and cultivated her interest in English.

She overcame her flaws, and one of them was that she was too introverted and hated going out.

She was gradually improving this.

She studied hard everyday and lived in a positive way.

Most of her content revolved around knowledge from back when she was in high school, and most of it was very useful.

Some of the attendees were children, so she took great care of making sure that she adhered to the proper dress code.

There were many children who asked her questions, and most of them were about why she had stopped her classes for a month.

After Raelynn replied to the messages, she began to give a lecture.

Chapter 2347

Raelynn's lectures usually lasted for an hour, and her content would be related to her last lecture. She would answer all questions patiently as well.

Therefore, her patience had attracted a lot of audience.

Her voice was lively and her pronunciations were clear. There were a lot of comments.

'Elf' commented, "Wow, the beautiful teacher is back again! I can learn English now."

Someone else commented, "I grew up in the mountains, and only started learning English when I was nine. Thanks to your lessons, I scored a total of 95 marks out of 100 on my exams. I came in first place in my class!"

"Me too. I stumbled across this livestream by chance and have been attending her lectures consistently. Her voice is very soothing, I love it."

"As soon as I received the notification for the livestream, I immediately attended!"

Raelynn focused on the lecture and did not pay attention to the comments.

Occasionally, there were some who would pay her through rewards in the livestream as their children's grades had improved.

An hour passed by quickly.

She looked into the camera and smiled. "Boys and girls, have you learned it? If there is anything you don't understand, you can leave a message for me."

"Goodnight. Bye."

Then, she turned off the broadcast.

"Oh no! Please don't leave, I haven't had enough."

"She always does this, but it's okay with me. I have some questions about tenses, so I'll leave a comment here."

After that, she started working on other things. She would get to their comments when she had the time.

Tomorrow night would be her mathematics lecture. As long as she did not work overtime, she would be consistent with this.

That night, in the V&E Club.

When Kenneth arrived, his two good friends along with Luke were already there.

He was dressed in an all-black tailor-made suit. As soon as he entered, the atmosphere grew slightly tense.

"Yo! Seven is here." Nathaniel's tone was teasing. As he looked at Kenneth, who came across as domineering and cold, he smiled brightly.

Nathaniel was a friend whom Kenneth had met abroad. They were both in the same major, and his computer skills were excellent. At the same time, he was also his master's disciple.

Kenneth nodded at him.

Carson looked at him. "You look good. Looks like you've been doing well recently."

Kenneth sat next to Austin with a straight face.

Austin, the CEO of a foreign communications company.

He was here in Z Country to expand his business, and his first choice of a business partner was Kenneth from the Alwynn Group.

They were truly the frontiers of many industries.

They had made an appointment there that night.

They were all talents from the Elite Academy. They were all handsome as well.

Kenneth's expression was not very good. "Why do you want to talk business on the weekend?"

He hated working overtime on weekends.

After so many years of busy work, he wanted to have a good rest on the weekend.

Nathaniel smiled and teased, "Seven, your Alwynn family has plenty of money and doesn't care about this cooperation. But Seven, who would complain about making more money?"

Austin was dressed in a white suit. He looked handsome and elegant.

Nathaniel's was the same too. As the saying goes, birds of a feather flock together. That was how they became friends.

Among the four of them, Kenneth and Carson appeared to be more mature and steady, and the two of them looked a little more handsome.

Kenneth leaned against the sofa. Under the light, his handsome face looked a little tired.

"What were you guys thinking? Don't dote on your children. If you do, they would never learn to walk on their own."

"Now the best technology is in our hands. Do we still have to work overtime on weekends?"

Kenneth was a little annoyed. He didn't know what could appease his restless heart.

Seeing that he was quite tired, Austin asked, "Didn't you sleep well last night?"

Kenneth sighed. "No!"

Luke handed him a cup of coffee for him to feel more energized.

He sat up straight, picked up his cup of coffee, and tasted it gently. The faint bitterness sobered him up a lot.

He loved the faint bitterness of coffee.

"Tell me, what do you want to talk about? You guys only want to have fun on weekends, and talking about business was just a trifle."

When Austin heard this, he smiled. "Seven, you are the one who knows us better. We discovered that there is a big boss hiding in River City."

Kenneth frowned and suddenly remembered that on Friday morning, the company's system had suddenly been hacked.

Austin continued, "I found out that this person was aiming for the Alwynn Group, but I haven't found out his address yet. He's an expert among experts."

Upon hearing that, Nathaniel looked at Kenneth with narrowed eyes. "Who can be better than our Seven when it comes to this? When we were five years old, we started to get to know about this already. Now 20 years have passed, and he has reached the pinnacle of perfection. He's amazing."

Kenneth narrowed his eyes slightly. The person he had offended was from M Country.

After he graduated, a very secret organization came to him and asked him to stay.

However, he refused. He had to go back to the Alwynn family. This was what he had promised his parents. He was the eldest son of the Alwynn family, and he also had a responsibility to let his family live a happy life.

Someone who was talented would most likely be targeted!

There was a saying that said that one would rather destroy something they couldn't get.

He looked at Austin and said, "Austin, go back and investigate the XL Group."

Austin frowned slightly and was somewhat surprised. "Seven, do you suspect that it is the XL Group?"

Nathaniel was also shocked. "This group seemed to have looked for you when you returned?"

Kenneth nodded slightly. "They not only looked for me, but also requested for the new mobile phone released on the market. At that time, they wanted it, but I didn't give it to them. Such a good product is naturally better in my hands. I gave this project to my brother-in-law, Martin. He is doing very well now."

"Tsk." Nathaniel was a little unhappy. "Seven, how could we not know about something like this?"

Kenneth's cold gaze swept past Austin and Nathaniel. His cold voice was filled with mockery as he replied, "Back then, when I talked to the two of you, weren't you guys very busy? You weren't interested in listening to me. Since we were friends, the first ones I thought of were you guys, but apparently you didn't trust your friend enough."

The two of them blushed instantly.

Nathaniel, in particular, touched his nose unnaturally.

"Seven, you should've made it clear then. It cost me a few billion." Nathaniel clutched at his chest.

Kenneth's project had always been worth hundreds of millions of dollars. How could he have the courage to refuse?

Austin paused in regret. "Oh, I remember now. When you called me, you told me your sister and her husband were going to visit you. I was in Layne City with my girlfriend, and in the end, I lost the opportunity to earn money, and also lost my girlfriend." As he recounted the past, he felt so angry that he took a large gulp of the alcohol.

Chapter 2348

"Pfft...!" Carson couldn't help but burst out laughing.

He looked at Austin and teased, "Why haven't I heard of you having a girlfriend?"

Austin's expression was filled with pain as he answered, "You were always staying in the research lab. If I didn't go looking for you, you would've probably been dead after ten days. You d*mned introvert, you're probably gonna stay single for a long time."

Huo Jingyu said, "Hehe... You don't have to worry about that. I already have someone I like. I'm waiting for her to grow up."

Austin was shocked. "What?!"

Carson's expression fell. "What? I'm only ten years older."

After he said that, he felt slightly guilty as he turned to steal a glance at Kenneth carefully.

Kenneth frowned, he was in shock as well. "Carson, you're serious?"

"Yes!" He nodded. There was a touch of tenderness on his expression now, and he appeared to be more gentle.

Nathaniel and Austin turned to Kenneth at the same time.

Nathaniel asked, "Seven, who do you think it is?"

Kenneth answered in a low voice, "It's my uncle's daughter."

"Ah..." Nathaniel felt envious.

"Hey, Seven, how many daughters does your uncle have?" Austin asked.

Kenneth nodded. "There are quite a few, but they're all underaged!"

Nathaniel and Austin both fell speechless.

It was too frustrating!

Austin was unwilling to give up. "What about the little girl that Lucian likes?"

Kenneth replied, "She'll turn eighteen next year."

Austin choked on his drink as he stole a glance at Carson. He really was going for someone younger than him.

Her parents might not agree.

Therefore, he was instantly not envious of him anymore.

Whether or not he could win her over still depended on Carson himself. He was a man of few words, and nowadays, girls dislike that.

Moreover, he was such a boring man.

With this thought in mind, Austin instantly stopped being jealous.

Nathaniel tilted his head to look at Carson and asked with a smile, "Why didn't I know about your strange little interest before? She must be very pretty for someone as superficial as you to like her. Otherwise, you would not have said that."

Carson's eyes were shining as he answered, "Nathaniel, have you ever seen the sun in the early mornings in March? Isn't it very beautiful?"

Nathaniel thought about it and realized that no, he did not take note of that before.

Carson didn't really care. He only knew that every time she video calls with Kenneth, she gave him this feeling of basking in the warm sunlight.

However, the next moment, he was given a rude awakening.

"Carson, stop daydreaming. Uncle Lucian dotes on his two daughters the most, especially Cecilia. He did not even care about the company's rules and brought her baby powder to work when she was still a baby. Now that she's grown up to be a beautiful girl, he is even more protective of her."

"Really? Before I came, we were on a call. She's off to a piano lesson now, I'll be fetching her home later," Carson replied.

Kenneth fell speechless.

Was Carson not afraid that his legs would be cut off?

They had agreed to go to Cecilia's house for dinner tonight, but something came up instead.

Carson and Kenneth used to live together in the same dorm, and he knew most of his friends and family.

Naturally, he had Cecilia's number as well.

He wanted to watch over that little girl as she grew up.

Everyone was speechless.

Austin looked at Carson in disbelief. His friend liked underaged girls!

He asked, "Do you have any photos?"

Carson answered with an eyebrow raised. "Even if I did, I wouldn't show it to you."

"Whatever, our types are different anyway."

Nathaniel then suggested, "Why don't we change the location. I've been deeply hurt by this piece of news tonight. Someone as boring as Carson had managed to find a girl he likes before all of us?"

Upon hearing this, Carson turned to him and retorted, "Do you think you're better than me? You change girls like you change clothes, why can't I be loyal to me one and only?"

Austin noticed that the atmosphere was a little tense and said with a smile, "Hey, enough, we're all friends and we were just joking around. Let's change the place, shall we?"

Austin also wanted to shout loudly and release his stress.

Carson replied, "I didn't take offense like you guys would. The girl I like has the most beautiful smile, all of you will be envious of me forever."

The few of them smiled at each other. They would not really fight over something like this, and they had joked about things that were much worse.

Kenneth shook his head and said, "I'm very tired. I'm going home to rest. You guys go ahead. Remember to investigate what I've told you."

Austin saw that he was really tired, so he didn't force him too. "Okay, go home and rest. I will pay attention to the matters over at X.L., you don't have to worry. Have a good rest. I'll tell you the details after I check on it."

Kenneth nodded and told them to have a good time. Then, he left the club with Luke.

After getting in the car, Luke asked, "Mr. Kenneth, are you going home now?"

Kenneth nodded slightly. "Yeah, let's go back."

Luke drove, and Kenneth sat in the back seat with his eyes closed to rest.

The moment he closed her eyes, he could see the smile on Raelynn's face.

He suddenly opened his eyes and looked out of the window at the stream of cars passing them by. He wasn't someone who was really into relationships. It was not that he did not like girls, he just hadn't met any girls who had ever caught his interest.

"Luke, do a background check on Miss Edwards tomorrow."

Luke was stunned. He was very curious as to why the President wanted to investigate Raelynn.

"Sure, Mr. Kenneth!"

Only then did Kenneth begin to feel better.

The weekend quickly passed. On Sunday night, Raelynn called Faith and asked for leave in the afternoon.

At 8:40 a.m., she went to the real estate office on time to meet her brother, and then they went to handle the transfer process together.

Because they had paid the full amount, things went smoothly. After two hours, everything was done and when Raelynn received the key, she was so ecstatic that she almost cried.

"Raelynn! From now on, this is our new home!" Ryder's eyes were also red.

Ever since he was in middle school, he had dreamed of having his own home. As long as it belonged to them, he would be very happy.

Raelynn's eyes were also red. She looked at Ryder and smiled happily. "Ryder, this will be our home in the future. We will pick up Mom later. Today, you and Mom will clean it up. Tomorrow, we will slowly start moving things. In the future, our family of three will live here. We will definitely be very happy."

"Raelynn! Thank you!" Ryder was very touched. He was really happy to have an elder sister, but he was still the pillar of the family. In the future, he must make more money and provide his family with a better life.

Raelynn gently pounded his arm and scolded him softly, "Fool, we are all family. Why do you thank me?"

"Raelynn, I am happy, very happy!" Ryder couldn't help but shed tears.

"Raelynn, ever since I found out that Rory wasn't my biological sister, I've been looking forward to your return. You don't know how much I've anticipated you coming back. Although the Edwards family didn't give us your contact information, I feel that you're better than Rory."

"You won't yell at Mom like Rory did. Mom is a very gentle and kind person, so I knew that my sister would also be as gentle and kind as Mom."

"Now that you're back, it's so good!" Ryder choked with sobs and looked at his sister with tears.

He hated Rory; he had hated her since he was a child. No matter how much his mother taught her, she could not teach her well. Rory was selfish, snobbish, and greedy.

Every day, he would quarrel with Rory.

Raelynn gently hugged him and said with a smile, "Ryder, our family will be together in the future, and things will get better. Don't think about the past anymore."

"Okay, Raelynn. I believe that things will get better." Ryder looked at the new house and was in a better mood.

"Raelynn, are you going to work at two o'clock?" Ryder broke into a smile.

Raelynn nodded. "Yes! I will set off from here at half past one."

Ryder said, "Then, let's go eat something first and then go buy the electric appliances. There is a store selling appliances next to the furniture store. There's still more than two hours left so it shouldn't be too late. After buying the things, I will clean up and move here in a few days."

"There's only a bed and some small electric appliances. It'll be fine in two or three days if the door is kept open. The wardrobes are also built into the wall. This house has been abandoned for almost a year but there's nothing wrong with it."

Raelynn also decided to buy it because of this.

She said, "Let's go and eat first."

The siblings ate happily.

Alwynn Group!

In the president's office.

Kenneth sat quietly on the sofa. He had just come out of the meeting room, and his expression was very bad.

He pulled his tie irritably with a cold look in his eyes.

Something had happened to the other departments, but it had not been solved yet, so Kenneth was in a very bad mood.

Luke carefully brought in a cup of coffee and handed Kenneth the information that he had found on Raelynn.

"Mr. Kenneth, this is the information on Miss Edwards."

Kenneth nodded slightly and took over the document to read.

She was the adopted daughter of the Edwards family, the most popular girl in the second best school in River City. She was the most beautiful girl in the class and had excellent grades.

She had also received scholarships to study abroad in Country M. A few days ago, she reunited with her biological mother, Malia Edwards, and she also had a younger brother named Ryder.

Her ex-boyfriend, Lincoln Rogers, broke up with her!

That night, she was drinking in the hotel because her boyfriend had dumped her and she had also been driven out of the Edwards family.

Kenneth ordered Luke, "Check out Lincoln."

Luke had already done a thorough investigation.

It seemed that Kenneth was unhappy because of Raelynn?

If he was not mistaken, Kenneth was in love.

"Mr. Kenneth, I've already checked. This man named Lincoln Rogers is a friend of the Edwards family. His parents arranged a marriage for him and Miss Edwards when they were two years old. However, Miss Edwards has been abroad all the time, so they've only seen each other a few times. Miss Edwards doesn't like Lincoln. Later, when he found out that Miss Edwards was not the biological daughter of the Edwards family, he changed his mind."

"Miss Edwards asked for half a day's leave today. She went to complete the transfer procedures. I heard that she bought a small, three-bedroom house in North Community."

Kenneth put down the document and said, "Find out when they'll move and send them some gifts."

"Ah..." Luke was stunned.

Had his suspicions been confirmed?

Kenneth looked at him with a frown. "Didn't I make it clear enough?"

Luke was taken aback for a moment, but he quickly came to his senses. "Okay, Mr. Kenneth."

However, when did Alwynn Group have such benefits? How could he not know?

Yesterday, Rachel, one of the designers of the design department, had also moved house, but she didn't receive what Kenneth said!

When Luke moved, Kenneth gave him a red packet.

He had never seen such benefits in other people.

Sure enough!

Kenneth liked Raelynn.

But since when did he like her? Kenneth and Raelynn had never met before!

Kenneth said, "Go ahead. Don't let anyone else know."

Kenneth thought for a moment and added.

"Okay! Got it, Mr. Kenneth. I'll go and find out." Luke walked out with a smile.

Kenneth looked out of the window. For some reason, his mood suddenly improved again.

He got up and walked to the desk. His tall figure looked much gentler.

Suddenly, his phone rang. When he picked it up and looked at it, his eyes softened. "Mom."

"Kenny, Andrew said that you drove too fast yesterday and he got motion sickness, so he didn't go to school today. Did you see your brother this morning?"

Hearing that, Kenneth felt a headache coming on. Andrew really called their mother.

"Mom, I had breakfast with them in the morning. They are okay." As for not going to school, he really didn't expect that as he came to the company very early that day.

"It's fine. Andrew just gets sick easily. You should go home early after work tonight. Your brother cried when he called me this morning."

Kenneth was speechless. That's it...

His brother was really spoiled.

"Mom, I'll go back and have a look now."

Eden said, "Okay, I'm really worried about him staying at home alone."

After hanging up the phone, Kenneth picked up the car key and took the elevator to the garage.

Kenneth didn't call Andrew when he got home. When he arrived, there was no one at home. The servants were cleaning the garden. He went straight to Andrew's room on the third floor. When he pushed the door open, he saw his brother sleeping soundly on the bed.

Kenneth glanced at the game console by the bed. The truth had come out now.

This guy did not have motion sickness but stayed up late to play games.

Now was the rebellious period of his three younger brothers. He, Ricky, and Gia had never been so rebellious.

Andrew hummed as he rolled over comfortably and kicked the quilt aside.

It seemed that he was still dreaming, and the corners of his mouth were raised.

Kenneth pursed his lips, picked up the cup beside him, and slowly poured water into his brother's mouth.

At first, Andrew had only taken a few more breaths, but the more he breathed, the more he choked.

"Ahem, Ahem..." He was immediately awakened.

The moment he opened his eyes, he saw his eldest brother. "Oh my god! Kenneth, why are you here?"

Andrew was completely awake.

Kenneth looked down at his brother. "Motion sickness? Are you feeling uncomfortable? Can't you go to school? Did you cry on the phone to Mom?"

Andrew was speechless. Uh, how did his brother know about that?

Kenneth was very angry. "Do you know? Mom rarely has time to travel. Over the years, she has been working hard for this family. In order to look after the family, she always rushed back from her business trips to take care of us. Now that Mom has time to travel, can't you let her have fun in peace?"

Chapter 2350

Andrew was stunned. He rarely saw Kenneth get angry.

He knew that Kenneth loved his mother dearly and would only smile in front of her.

No matter how busy he was everyday, he would take the time to speak to his mother.

However, Andrew really felt uncomfortable because of how Kenneth drove the car, so he didn't want to go to school.

"Kenneth, I'm sorry. I won't do it again." Andrew was also very uncomfortable. He played on his game console until midnight the night before. That morning, if he went to school, he'd definitely sleep. Anyway, his parents were not at home, so he could sleep comfortably at home.

The most important thing was that he also wanted his mother to comfort him.

Seeing that Andrew really knew that he was wrong, Kenneth's gloomy expression softened a lot.

"In the future, you must go to sleep before eleven o'clock in the evening, and you should also learn self-discipline. In the future, you should be independent. Your parents and brothers can't walk with you. Now is the most important time for you to learn, so you must study hard."

"I understand, Kenneth." The triplets had always performed well academically. Maybe it was because of the good genes of the Alwynn family, but they were all ranked first in their respective classes.

Kenneth asked, "Have you had enough sleep?"

Andrew nodded. "I've slept enough."

Kenneth said, "Go down for lunch. After lunch, go to the company with me. If there's a chance, you should learn."

Hearing this, Andrew wished he could faint at that moment. "No, Andrew. It's enough for Alwynn Group to have you. My dream is to become an excellent doctor. I'm not interested in doing business at all."

Kenneth refuted, "It's better to learn more skills. I'm worried about you being alone at home."

Andrew complained with a sad face, "Andrew, what's there to worry about? There are servants at home, and I won't be eaten by them!"

Kenneth stated firmly, "Get up!"

Andrew looked unhappy. If he had known earlier, he would have gone to school.

Boohoo, boohoo, boohoo!

Kenneth, you're so fierce!

Mom, come back quickly!

Kenneth had lunch with Andrew, who then obediently followed him to the company.

Andrew thought to himself, "The company is so busy. Even if I go to the company, the boss won't have time to care about me. When the time comes, I'll just find a quiet place to sleep."

He could sneak to the 24th floor to play with Miss Edwards.

Andrew had come up with a good idea and was in a much better mood.

Raelynn went to the company on time at two o'clock.

She went to Faith's office to say hello.

Faith didn't say anything. When Raelynn came out, she met Magnolia.

"Hey! Miss Edwards, you must be really proud. You've been chosen by Mr. Kenneth. It's only your second day at work, but you're already late for work. You're so good at flirting." Magnolia's words were not polite at all. They were so sharp that one would feel as if he had been pricked by a needle.

It wasn't that Raelynn had never met such a person before. When she was working odd jobs overseas, she had met people who were more difficult to deal with than Magnolia.

This type of person couldn't be tolerated. They would bicker each time they saw each other, but after a few times, their arrogance would disappear.

A few people gathered around to watch the show.

Raelynn knew that most people in the office wanted to watch a good show.

"Miss Oakley, didn't you brush your teeth before you went out? Why do you have such a foul mouth? Is Mr. Kenneth someone I can seduce just because I want to? You're also very beautiful and charming. Why didn't you seduce Mr. Kenneth?"

"It's not good to say that. Why are you so jealous?"

"My designs were acknowledged by Mr. Kenneth means that I seduced him? If Mr. Kenneth was so dumb and ignorant, would Alwynn Group be as glorious as it is today?"

Raelynn's words were neither too harsh nor too soft, but they caused Magnolia's face to turn pale, and her breathing became ragged.

"Hmph! With your designs, I'd like to see if you can have the last laugh." Magnolia did not believe that Raelynn's designs could sell well.

Raelynn said, "Whether or not I can have the last laugh, no one knows. It's important to be responsible for doing things. Instead of making things difficult for me on this matter, it's better to work hard and let Mr. Kenneth see a different side of you so that you can easily become his wife."

After she finished speaking, she returned to her office gracefully.

Luke, who had just witnessed this scene, stood behind Magnolia and muttered to himself, "Not bad, not bad. Not bad at all!"

Magnolia suddenly turned around and saw Luke. She was shocked. When did he come?

"Mr. Parma, why are you here? What happened just now..."

"Oh! I've already seen what happened just now," Luke interrupted her with a smile.

Magnolia's face turned even paler.

Luke looked at Magnolia with a smile and said, "Miss Oakley, I think that even if you work hard, Mr. Kenneth won't be able to see you. Why? Because you are too vicious. You bully newcomers and suppress them. Mr. Kenneth dislikes people like you the most."

"You'd better give up on Mr. Kenneth as soon as possible. I swear on my life that he will never pay attention to you in this life. Go away. Good dogs will not stand in the way. I hate people like you who are arrogant and think you're better than others."

"It seems that capable people are ignoble in your eyes, how can you be so arrogant while having no capability?"

Luke muttered to himself before walking towards Raelynn's office. He ignored the expression on Magnolia's face.

When he had just stepped into society, he had also encountered such a situation. He remembered that it had rained heavily that day, and the rain had washed the thirty-odd story office building clean.

Under the gray sky, it was misty and cool outside the glass.

As soon as he finished his work, he met a senior who worked in the company.

He didn't do anything wrong, but he was bullied for no reason. He could accept the senior's lesson, but he could not accept personal attacks and humiliation.

He was very angry, helpless, and lonely. Finally, Kenneth appeared, rescued him, and gave him a job as an assistant.

Apart from being somewhat bad-tempered, Kenneth was very kind to him, treating him just like a brother. Thus, all these years, he had really followed Kenneth everywhere.

Kenneth kept a low profile and was calm. At the same time, he also valued talents. When Luke saw Magnolia bully Raelynn just now, he could really resonate with her.

Although they were born into ordinary families, and their parents would usually teach them to treat others gently and to be forgiving, they would not be bullied by others without principles. It was not a long-term solution to suppress their anger.

Moreover, if he suppressed his anger, it would not restore his dignity and peace. Those who liked to bully others would treat them even worse.

Raelynn did a good job just now.

Magnolia was stunned by Luke's scolding.

Luke's words were still lingering in her mind.

Listening to the discussions around her, she was so angry that she almost fainted.

"How dare a mere assistant to say such things to me? Hmph! Just you wait. When I become Mr. Kenneth's wife one day, I'll kick you all out," she thought. Magnolia stomped her feet and returned to her office.
