

Gluey Love 2351

Chapter 2351

In the office, Faith saw everything. Her eyes flashed and she pursed her lips tightly.

"Someone is finally able to discipline Magnolia. She's usually good at giving orders, but now that she's been seen by Luke once, she will behave herself for a few days, right?"

"That's not necessarily true. She came here for Mr. Kenneth. Usually, if she hears us talking about Mr. Kenneth, it'll be terrible. Because she would make things difficult for us secretly."

"Let's go. Don't watch the fun, otherwise, Mr. Kenneth might come over here later. I've worked hard for several years to enter Alwynn Group and I'm earning 5,000 every month. I'm counting on my salary to pay off my debts."

Everyone dared to talk about it and returned to their seats to do their work.

Knock, Knock...

"Come in." Raelynn was sorting out some necessary information.

These were all brought back from abroad, which could bring her a lot of inspiration.

Luke walked in and looked at Raelynn. She was beautiful, with a generous and dazzling smile.

"Miss Edwards, this is a cloth sample. Take a look."

Raelynn was overwhelmed by Luke's unexpected presence.

"Thank you, Mr. Parma. Just put it on the desk for me." Raelynn was really happy. She was also cooperating with the fabric manufacturers who worked with Alwynn Group in the past two days.

She was also very familiar with fabrics, so she knew what kind of fabrics were more suitable for certain pieces of clothing.

"No need to thank me!" Luke placed the sample on her desk.

They generally preferred looking at items in real life, and almost all the samples in the computer were reflected through the samples.

Luke didn't intend to leave. He just wanted to find an excuse to ask Raelynn about her moving house.

"By the way, Miss Edwards, when I went to work this morning, I saw you at the real estate agency. Did you buy a house?"

Raelynn was stunned. Why did Mr. Parma see it?

She smiled and nodded. "Yes, I'm going to settle down in River City. so it's not feasible to rent a house long-term, so I bought a small three-bedroom house. I went to complete the transfer procedures this morning."

"Wow!" Luke's face was full of envy. "Miss Edwards, you're so capable."

After hearing what he said, Raelynn felt a little embarrassed.

"Mr. Parma, you're much better than me." In fact, she did not know about Luke's situation at all.

Thus, she just casually said some words of courtesy.

However, as Kenneth's assistant, his strength could not be underestimated.

Luke smiled and asked, "Miss Edwards, when are you going to move?"

Raelynn had never thought about this issue, as she felt that everyday was a good day to move. She wasn't superstitious at all!

"I'm not a superstitious person so I plan to move in in one or two days after buying all the furniture. I just returned to the country and I'm now staying in a hotel. I have no proper place to live, so I can only buy an older house first."

"It's fine as long as it's convenient for you. However, if you need any help, please don't hesitate to ask me." Luke was confident that he would be able to explain her situation when he went back.

"Okay, thank you, Mr. Parma."

"Then I'll go up first." Luke smiled and turned to leave.

Back on the top floor, Luke didn't mention anything about Raelynn when he saw Andrew in the office.

"Mr. Kenneth, there is a meeting in the Public Relations Department at three o'clock, and a meeting in the Sales Department after that."

Kenneth replied, "Okay!"

Hearing this, Andrew was in high spirits. After Kenneth left, he would be able to take a nap.

However, Kenneth stood up and looked at Andrew. "Andrew, come here."

"Kenneth, just tell me. I'm listening."

Kenneth pointed to the computer and said, "This is the question I'm giving you. Come and solve it."

Andrew was lost for words. He could almost hear the sound of his heart breaking!

"Kenneth, this is your office, not my study. Can't you let me rest for a day?"

Kenneth's face was expressionless. "You've been resting for two days. Haven't you had enough rest yet? Make sure to solve it before I come back. I'll check it when I return."

Andrew muttered to himself and walked over slowly. "Kenneth, I don't know how to do it if it's beyond my knowledge'."

Kenneth replied, "It's all the basic knowledge you learned. You're so bad at math."

Andrew was a little scared. Indeed, his mathematics was not as good as his two younger brothers.

"Kenneth, can I buy a cup of hot chocolate?" Andrew wanted to run away. He hated math.

"Everything you want is in the pantry. Go there. There's someone who's in charge of tea, hot chocolate, and other drinks. What do you want? Just ask them to make it for you."

Andrew was speechless. Were the benefits in the company so good?

How could Kenneth not see through Andrew's thoughts?

He said, "Just answer the questions. I'll come back after the meeting."

"Okay!" Andrew sat on the office chair, looking at the mathematics worksheet with a blank expression on his face.

Who was I? Where was I? Would I be able to do it?

Hey! It's not too difficult!

I knew how to do it!

Andrew was very excited!

After Kenneth left, Andrew quickly completed two worksheets.

When he was halfway through the third worksheet, he took out his mobile phone and called Raelynn.

"Hello, Miss Edwards."

Raelynn asked, "Mr. Andrew, what's the matter?"

The last time they had a meal together, Raelynn had saved Andrew, Adriel and Alan's phone numbers.

"Miss Edwards, you can just call me Andrew. Miss Edwards, are you on the 24th floor? I'll come down to look for you. Do you want to have some hot chocolate?"

Andrew was very happy and felt that he and Raelynn could get along very well.

Raelynn said with some embarrassment, "Andrew, I'm at work."

Kenneth said, "Miss Edwards, it's okay. I'll just bring over a cup of hot chocolate."

Raelynn responded, "Alright then!"

"Hehe... Miss Edwards, see you later." Andrew hung up the phone and quickly ran to the pantry. He asked the lady there to make him two cups of hot chocolate, and then he went back to finish the remaining worksheet.

Then, he took the drinks to Raelynn's office.

"Hehe..." Andrew gave a silly smile. He wanted to see if Raelynn had any feelings for Kenneth.

Anyway, he liked Miss Edwards.

He felt that she and Clara were both good people.

The elevator stopped on the 24th floor. Andrew ran out and accidentally ran into Magnolia at the corner.

Magnolia was very angry and she walked very quickly. As such, she was knocked down by Andrew and she staggered back.

The drinks in Andrew's hands spilled on both of them.

Seeing him, and the state that she was in, Magnolia was so angry that she wanted to kill him.

"I'm sorry!"

"Ah... Where did this brat come from? Are you blind?"

The two of them spoke at the same time.

Andrew apologized, but Magnolia's angry shouts were louder than his apology.

Andrew frowned and looked at Magnolia apologetically. "I'm sorry! I walked too fast."

Magnolia was in a rage. Looking at the two cups of hot chocolate in his hands, she thought that he was a delivery person, so she became bolder.

"Are you blind? Why are you in such a hurry? Are you in a hurry to die and be reborn?" Magnolia was so angry that she only wanted to find someone to vent her anger on. It just so happened that Andrew was on the receiving end.

Chapter 2352

Andrew's dark eyes narrowed dangerously in an instant, and his expression soon darkened. "Do you want to repeat what you just said?"

"Why shouldn't I repeat it? What can you do to me? Are you blind? Why are you in such a hurry? Are you in a hurry to die and be reborn?" Magnolia's eyes were red with anger, and she looked at Andrew with disdain.

How dare a delivery person challenge her?

Magnolia's voice caught everyone's attention.

Raelynn also went out to pick up Andrew, afraid that he would not be able to find her office. Hearing Magnolia's shouts, she also walked over.

At a glance, she saw that both of them were covered in hot chocolate, and the atmosphere between them was also tense.

Raelynn was about to go over when Andrew suddenly raised the cup of hot chocolate in his hand and threw it at Magnolia's face.

It was not that he had never seen such a vicious person. In the school he studied in, many of them were the children of rich families, so when they bullied others, they didn't treat them as human beings at all.

That day, he finally saw it. This kind of person was not only found in school, but also in the outside world.

"Ah... You're such a shameless delivery person. I'm going to kill you!" Magnolia screamed maniacally and slapped Andrew.

Raelynn saw that Magnolia had gone crazy, to the point that she didn't even let go of a child.

Raelynn quickly ran over and hugged Andrew.

Slap... Magnolia's slap landed near Raelynn's ear.

Raelynn felt like her ears were buzzing.

The crowd was dumbstruck.

Andrew was speechless.

Magnolia was stunned when she saw that Raelynn was hugging Andrew. Then, she sneered and shouted, "Hey! Raelynn, you really do serve all kinds of men..."

"Enough." Raelynn turned around and angrily rebuked Magnolia.

"Andrew is just a child. Magnolia, how could you hurt a child?"

Andrew was tall and wore casual clothes, but it was hard to hide his noble temperament. However, Magnolia was so angry that she didn't notice it at all.

"Child? Haha..." Magnolia was so angry that she laughed. She was in a good mood when she saw that Raelynn's face was bleeding after being slapped by her. At the crucial moment, her beautiful nails were also useful.

Andrew had thought that he would be slapped in the face. He was about to fight back, but he was suddenly protected by a warm embrace.

"Raelynn, you still call him a child even though he's taller than you. You must be blind as well." Magnolia was overbearing. After slapping Raelynn, all her anger had dissipated.

"Miss Edwards, are you okay?" Andrew suddenly reacted and looked down at the injured Raelynn. When he saw the blood in her ear, his dark eyes fell on Magnolia's face.

"You vicious woman, apologize to Miss Edwards immediately."

Magnolia sneered and said angrily, "Oh! It turns out that you know him. You can seduce Mr. Kenneth as well as the handsome young man. Raelynn, you are really amazing."

Raelynn looked at Magnolia as if she was looking at scum. "Magnolia, watch what you're saying. Andrew is still a child, and he is still underaged."

"Oh my God." Magnolia let out an exaggerated cry. "Raelynn, are you also a cradle robber?"

"Shut up, you vicious woman. If I don't kick you out of the Alwynn Group today, I'll change my name."

Not far away, Faith frowned slightly when she heard this.

Andrew took out a tissue and wiped the blood from Raelynn's ear.

"Miss Edwards, is it painful?"

"Andrew, I'm fine." Raelynn smiled.

Andrew looked at her swollen face and felt distressed. "Miss Edwards, this woman is so hateful."

He glared at Magnolia.

"Hmph! Shameless b*tch and b*stard." Magnolia snorted.

"What?" Andrew was shocked. Such words had come out of a woman's mouth, which made him so angry that he burst into tears.

He quickly took out his phone and called Kenneth.

Kenneth said, "Andrew, what do you want? I'm in a meeting."

"Boohoo... Miss Edwards and I were bullied. In order to save me, Miss Edward's face was slapped and she's bleeding now. Hurry and come to the 24th floor."

Kenneth was stunned for a moment. After he ordered, "The meeting is dismissed," he left immediately.

Upon hearing this, Magnolia sneered and said, "Hey, you still need reinforcements! This is Alwynn Group. Why don't you look at yourself before trying to make trouble here?"

Andrew sneered. "You're looking down on me. Just wait. I'll make sure you're kicked out of here later.."

"Okay, I'll wait to be kicked out of here then." Magnolia knew Raelynn's background, so she knew that Raelynn couldn't pose a threat to her at all.

Soon, the elevator door opened and Kenneth and Luke walked out.

"Mr. Kenneth." Magnolia didn't expect Kenneth to come at this time. She immediately straightened her posture and put on a delicate and soft expression.

"What's going on?" Kenneth's gaze fell on Raelynn's blood-stained face.

Magnolia was the first to speak. She looked pitiful as she said, "Mr. Kenneth, I don't know what kind of crazy friends Miss Edwards has made, and this guy even sent drinks over to her. I don't know what's wrong with him, but he poured hot chocolate all over me. Mr. Kenneth, Alwynn Group has never allowed outsiders to come in, and Miss Edwards is clearly flouting the company's regulations."

Raelynn was lost for words. This idiot could not be saved.

Kenneth looked at Magnolia coldly. "Did you say that my younger brother is crazy? And that he's an outsider?"

Magnolia was stunned. Her face suddenly turned pale. She felt all her blood drain from her body, and her whole body even trembled.

Younger brother, what did he mean?

"Mr. Kenneth..."

"Ha..." Andrew laughed angrily and interrupted Magnolia. Seeing that the arrogant and domineering woman had turned into a timid and pitiful woman, and that she was trying to distort the truth, he thought that the woman should go and be an actress.

She changed her expression faster than he could flip a page. The cameras might not even be able to capture her changing expressions at that speed!

"Kenneth, do you know how she scolded me? When I came out of the elevator, she was in a hurry and bumped into me. I apologized to her twice, but she didn't let me go. I was so angry that I poured hot chocolate on her. She raised her hand and was about to slap me but later, Miss Edwards ran over and took the slap for me."

"This woman scolded me so badly. Kenneth, how can our company recruit such a coarse and vulgar person?"

Magnolia started to feel unwell. This boy was actually Kenneth's younger brother.

No, no, no, how could this be? It wasn't like that. It wasn't like that.

"Mr. Kenneth, Mr. Andrew, I'm... I'm sorry. I really didn't do it on purpose. I'm also a victim. It was Raelynn. She instigated Mr. Andrew to do this."

To Magnolia, Andrew seemed like a slow person, and she knew that Kenneth was a smart person; he wouldn't only listen to Andrew's side of the story.

"What did you say? Miss Edwards instigated me? I've never seen anyone as shameless as you."

Andrew was so angry that he raised his hand and slapped Magnolia.

Chapter 2353

Slap...

Magnolia's head tilted in a daze. That slap had been too sudden.

Kenneth's eyes flashed as he looked at Andrew. "Have you had enough?"

Andrew roared back, "No."

The Alwynn family members had all inherited Victor's stubborn temper.

They would never let themselves be bullied.

Kenneth asked, "Then, what do you want?"

Andrew's eyes turned red with anger. "Kenneth, if this kind of person stays in the company, it will damage the company's image and reputation. I want you to fire her immediately. If you don't fire her, I'll call Dad. If he doesn't agree, I'll call Mom. Mom will do it. All of you can stand aside."

Everyone knew that in the Alwynn family, Eden had the final say.

Magnolia was scared and regretful. Her face was as pale as a sheet. She was angry that she was so short-sighted and offended the fourth son of the Alwynn family.

It was the first time that Kenneth had seen Andrew cry since he was a child. The last time he did was when their parents got married, they went out on a honeymoon. At that time, his younger siblings were three years old. They hadn't seen their parents for several days, so they wanted to cry.

The triplets always clung to their parents. Their parents were not at home, but it was easy to take care of them during the day. However, in the evening, the triplets began to cry and try to find their parents.

But since they grew up, Kenneth had never seen them cry.

Andrew was so angry that day and he caught a glimpse of the outside world; it was more difficult than he had imagined.

"No, no, no, Mr. Andrew. I'm sorry. I didn't recognize you, so there was such a misunderstanding today. Please forgive me. I will never do this again." Magnolia was still waiting to be Kenneth's wife.

After what had happened that day, she had moved from her goal a little further away. It was all because of that b*tch, Raelynn. Without her, Magnolia would not have become like this.

Andrew frowned and said sarcastically, "What are you going to do if it's someone else? You're stepping on other people's dignity. Let me tell you, no matter if you're poor or rich, everyone is equal. If you like to trample on others, I'll let you have a taste of being trampled on today. Pack up your things immediately and get out of Alwynn Group."

Andrew pointed in the direction of the door. "Don't appear at the entrance of Alwynn Group again. I'll dirty my eyes just looking at you."

Boohoo, boohoo, boohoo...

Andrew was so angry that he gnashed his teeth. He was even angrier because he couldn't curse.

Kenneth raised his eyebrows and looked at him. "What's wrong?"

Andrew looked at him with red eyes. His tone was even more uncomfortable, and he was exasperated. "I don't know how to swear and I can't scold people. I'm so ashamed!"

Everyone was speechless.

Hearing this, Kenneth couldn't help laughing.

This silly boy was too cute!

Magnolia looked at Kenneth for help. "Mr. Kenneth, I really didn't mean to."

Kenneth said, "My brother had already apologized. Why didn't you let him go?"

"I..." Magnolia choked. There was a reason why she didn't want to give up. At first, she thought that this brat was just a delivery person, and that he had something to do with Raelynn. That's why she didn't let him go.

Kenneth asked again, "Why did you say that he was instigated by Miss Edwards? What did she ask Andrew to do?"

"I..." Magnolia cried anxiously. "I'm sorry, Miss Edwards. I... I made a mistake just now."

Raelynn said, "I'm sorry but I don't accept your apology. You didn't make a mistake. You insulted me on purpose."

Raelynn was a person who wouldn't normally definitely seek revenge, but Magnolia's words made her very angry.

"Miss Edwards!" Magnolia frowned and looked at Raelynn in a threatening manner. She didn't expect that this woman would be so ungrateful as to not give her a way out.

Who did she think she was?

"Kenneth, don't you want her to leave?" Andrew looked at Kenneth angrily.

Kenneth replied, "It's not the right punishment."

Andrew suddenly burst into tears. "Boohoo..."

He threw himself into Raelynn's arms.

Raelynn was lost for words. This silly boy.

"Miss Edwards, I'm sorry! I'm still young, so I can't protect you. However, don't worry. I'll call my mother now. I won't let anyone bully you."

Andrew took out his phone and dialed his mother's number.

Kenneth looked at him with a frown. "Hang up the phone."

"No."

"Mom."

Eden asked, "Andrew, what's wrong?"

"Boohoo... Mom, I was bullied but Kenneth didn't want to help me, Mom, boohoo... I didn't do anything wrong. I apologized, but the woman didn't let me go and wanted to slap me. Later, Miss Edwards saved me."

Kenneth's eyebrows twitched violently.

This brat really called their mother.

Eden asked, "Andrew, is Kenneth with you?"

"Yes, but he won't help me. Mom, can you come back? I miss you."

Kenneth glared at him angrily. "Give me the phone."

"Hmph! I won't give it to you. If you don't fire this woman today, I won't regard you as my big brother." Andrew was also very stubborn.

Eden coaxed him, "Andrew, listen to me. Kenneth knows what he should do. Give him the phone."

"Here you go!" Andrew handed the phone to him.

Kenneth took the phone, turned around, and went to speak on the phone at the door of the fire exit.

The crowd did not hear what he said. They only saw him standing there quietly. He gently nodded and hung up the phone.

He turned around and walked back elegantly.

Magnolia no longer held any hope. She had really been out of her mind.

Why was she so unlucky?

"Andrew, take Miss Edwards upstairs to change her clothes. I will deal with the things here."

Andrew looked at him in disbelief. "Kenneth, how are you going to deal with it?"

"I'll handle it according to the company's rules. You go back first."

Andrew was a little reluctant. "Kenneth, if you don't fire her, I won't talk to you anymore. The most important thing for an enterprise is the professional quality of an employee. Such a person is like cancer, making people feel sick."

Magnolia was speechless. This brat still said that he didn't know how to swear. Wasn't he really good at it?

"Hmph!" Andrew roared at Magnolia and said, "Miss Edwards, I'll take you to get changed."

Raelynn smiled and said, "Andrew, there's no need. I have some spare clothes in my office. I can change there."

She felt warm in her heart. Few people would help her like this.

People like Magnolia could be encountered anywhere.

Even if Magnolia was gone, there would still be others.

"Well, Miss Edwards, I'll come over next weekend and treat you to a hot chocolate."

"Okay!" Raelynn smiled.

Kenneth frowned. This was really endless.

Was Andrew still reluctant to part with her?

Also, why was she smiling so happily?

Kenneth looked at Magnolia and said in a flat tone, "Look at your behavior. You know what you've done wrong. You don't have to come to work tomorrow."

"Mr. Kenneth... I..." Before Magnolia could finish begging for mercy, she was interrupted by Faith.

"Mr. Kenneth, I'm sorry. I didn't handle this matter well. I just came back and found out about it." Faith knew that if she didn't step forward, Magnolia would really be fired.

Chapter 2354

Kenneth squinted at Faith and said, "Miss Mason, Magnolia is your assistant. You know very well what she means. Do you still want to ask me to let go of such a mistake? Or, you don't want to be the design director anymore."

"Mr. Kenneth, I..." Faith did not dare to plead for Magnolia.

Otherwise, Kenneth would begin to suspect her.

Kenneth glanced at Raelynn, who had been slapped. Her skin was very fair, and the place where she had been hit was particularly obvious. His heart tightened and he left with Luke without saying anything.

Magnolia's face was ashen as she collapsed on the ground, weeping bitterly.

Faith stood by the side and did not comfort her. For her, Magnolia had already been eliminated.

The others were also indifferent. For them, it would be more comfortable to not have such a person in the company.

In the elevator, Luke said, "Mr. Kenneth, it's letting Magnolia off too easily to deal with her in this way. She has taken rebates and bribes from business partners, so how could Faith not know? It's very likely that the two of them are in cahoots."

Kenneth's eyes were calm. "It's okay. She won't be able to find another job in the industry. As for Faith, she may not necessarily be aiming for the position of design director. Although she is talented, she doesn't care much about work. This is the address abroad where Faith has been sending messages. Send it to Nathaniel later and let him check her identity."

Luke instantly understood that Faith was probably a spy sent by the other party.

The matter of XL Group was still a mystery!

"Okay, Mr. Kenneth. I'll send it to Mr. Bennet immediately."

"Yes! Send some medicine and band-aids to Miss Edwards as well later," Kenneth instructed. The elevator reached the top floor. If Luke looked closely, he would find that Kenneth's ears were very red.

When Kenneth returned to the office, Andrew had already changed into a white shirt and a pair of straight black pants. He was thinner than Kenneth and the clothes didn't really fit him well, but he was still very handsome.

"Kenneth!" Andrew still felt aggrieved.

Kenneth walked over and sat down beside him. "Still feeling wronged!"

Andrew glanced at him with reddened eyes. "How can I not feel wronged? I've never met such a person before."

Kenneth smiled and said, "You are still in school. In the future, when you enter society, you will meet a lot of people like Magnolia."

"Andrew, what happened today happened in our own company. If it happened elsewhere, you should learn to protect yourself, got it?"

Andrew nodded. "Kenneth, I know."

Kenneth gently rubbed his head.

"If you're tired, you can go inside and sleep. After work, we'll go and pick the others up. I'll take you all to eat some delicious food." Kenneth's tone was much gentler.

"Okay!" Andrew stood up, took a few steps, and then looked back at Kenneth.

"Kenneth, can I go and see Miss Edwards? If she hadn't protected me, I would have been slapped."

Kenneth replied, "I've already asked Luke to send some medicine to her."

"Oh!" It was a pity that Andrew couldn't see Miss Edwards anymore.

Kenneth smiled. This kid really liked Raelynn.

Knock, Knock...

Raelynn had just changed her clothes when she heard a knock on the door.

"Come in."

Luke pushed the door open and went in. "Miss Edwards, Mr. Kenneth asked me to send you medicine."

Raelynn was stunned. Was it because she had been slapped on Andrew's behalf?

Magnolia had vented her anger on someone else because of her.

However, she had shot herself in the foot that day.

"Thank you!" She said with a smile.

Raelynn didn't know why, but when she thought of the cold and expressionless man, she always had a strange feeling in her heart.

Luke smiled. Looking at her swollen face, he knew that Magnolia had hit her hard.

"You're welcome, Miss Edwards. Magnolia has been fired. You have to be careful. Although she left Alwynn Group, she may still have a strong sense of revenge."

Luke reminded her.

"Okay, thank you for your reminder, Mr. Parma."

Raelynn felt a little helpless. She had no intention of being enemies with anyone. However, life was like this, and so was the workplace.

After Luke left, Raelynn took the medicine and went to the bathroom. After cleaning herself up and applying the medicine, she saw a thin wound that had been left behind by Magnolia's fingernail. The flesh was directly scraped. She frowned. "It's over. My face is ruined," she thought to herself.

Magnolia's sharp nails were simply too terrifying.

Raelynn looked at the band-aid in her hand. Afraid that it would cause the wound to be airtight, she decisively gave up on using it.

When she went out, she heard some noise at the door.

She opened the door and saw that it was Magnolia who had asked Faith to plead on her behalf.

Faith looked at her expressionlessly and said, "Magnolia, it's your fault. No matter how angry you are, you can't be so rude to others, and you can't vent your anger on others."

"You have to leave. You know Mr. Kenneth's temper. He won't let you go."

"Faith, we have been working together here for several months. I beg you. I don't want to leave here. Please help me tell Mr. Kenneth that I really didn't do it on purpose. If it wasn't for Raelynn, how could such a thing happen to me?" Magnolia sobbed, her face full of remorse.

Raelynn looked at everything in front of her without any sympathy.

If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have done this!

With that kind of mentality, no matter where Magnolia was, she would end up like this.

"Faith..."

Magnolia's eyes were filled with hatred when she saw Raelynn at the door. "Raelynn, I won't let you off."

Raelynn looked at her and smiled. "You are the one who won't let go of me. Since I came to work here, I have never offended you. You're the one who doesn't like me, so who can you blame?"

Magnolia choked. Looking back, Raelynn had indeed never taken the initiative to provoke her.

Raelynn said, "We came to work here to learn and to broaden our own horizons, not to attack each other like this."

"Mr. Kenneth chose my work, not because I am very beautiful, but because my work can bring benefits to the company."

After Raelynn finished speaking, she turned around and entered her office.

Faith pursed her lips, ignored Magnolia, and returned to her office as well.

Raelynn was so busy that she didn't leave the office until she got off work. Ryder was waiting for her downstairs.

At noon, it took more than two hours to buy all the furniture. Her brother and mother had already cleaned up the house.

They could move in in two or three days.

Raelynn was very happy.

"Raelynn!" Ryder waved his hand at her.

"Ryder, why are you here again? Stay at home and keep Mom company."

Ryder smiled and said, "Raelynn, you're so beautiful that I worry about you going home alone. Mom is waiting for us at home. Let's go and have dinner downstairs."

"Okay, let's go." Raelynn tilted her head slightly, not letting Ryder see the scratches on her face.

"Raelynn, stop right there!"

A fierce voice came from behind Raelynn.

Chapter 2355

Raelynn turned around and saw that it was the Edwards family.

"Raelynn, Ryder, why are you guys here?" Rory's fat body arrogantly walked towards Raelynn.

Ryder was very angry when he saw Rory. "What does it have to do with you why we're here?"

"Hey! Rory, you've never gotten along well with me since you were young. When you grew up, you still look down on me. I'm telling you, you can't afford to rely on me to climb up the ladder now!" Rory's expression was full of arrogance. Her face, which was not beautiful at all, looked a little ferocious.

Ryder sneered and said, "You really think of yourself as a big shot. Who wants to rely on you? Do you think you deserve it?"

Rory's tone was mocking. They had grown up together for more than twenty years, but there was no sibling relationship at all.

Rory had been a bad child since she was young.

"Ryder, you b*stard." Rory was so angry that she trembled. Every time she quarreled, she couldn't win the argument against Ryder.

"Raelynn, let's go!" Ryder didn't want to talk nonsense with this family.

They really looked like a family indeed.

If Raelynn lived with them, she would be out of place.

Raelynn was so beautiful that she made them look like servants.

James looked at the beautiful Raelynn with an evil smile on his ordinary face. "Rae, I haven't seen you for half a year, yet you are getting more and more beautiful."

Raelynn looked at James and knew the meaning behind his disgusting expression. Her expression gradually turned cold.

She looked over and saw her adoptive parents behind her. They were fat, and they really looked like a family when they all stood together.

Mrs. Edwards liked to indulge in good food, and her figure was also very plump. Fortunately, her skin was fair, so she looked more beautiful than Rory.

Raelynn slowly withdrew her gaze and looked at Ryder. "Ryder, let's go."

"Rae don't leave so soon." James quickly stepped forward and blocked their way.

Raelynn looked at him with a guarded look. She knew how detestable James was.

When he found out that she wasn't the Edwards family's biological daughter, he had set his eyes on her.

He wanted to marry her!

She had thought that Lincoln was fine, but he was even worse.

James looked up at his parents who were not far away. "Dad, Mom, hurry up. It's not easy to meet Raelynn. Let's make things clear before we leave."

Mr. Edwards didn't say anything while Mrs. Edwards quickened her pace.

Mrs. Edwards looked at them arrogantly.

"Oh! Raelynn, we were a family after all. Why didn't you say hello when you saw your parents?"

Her tone was mocking and overbearing, as if she was the queen dowager.

Raelynn's expression. How could this woman have the nerve to say something like that?

"Mrs. Edwards, I'm sorry, but we can't afford to be friends with your family. I still have something to attend to with my brother, so I'll take my leave first."

"Wait!" Mrs. Edwards narrowed her eyes. She really regretted letting Raelynn go.

Raelynn was so beautiful that she could bring back a lot of business for their family.

Although she also liked her own daughter very much, every time she saw her huge body and brought her out, she would be laughed at by those rich ladies.

On the contrary, all of them praised Raelynn's beauty.

Raelynn couldn't marry Lincoln, but she could still marry another rich man.

James looked at Raelynn's beautiful face, and his legs began to go soft.

"Mom, tell Raelynn that I like her and let her marry me." James couldn't wait any longer.

Ever since he had met Raelynn again, the women around him had become more and more unsightly to him.

He only wanted Raelynn.

Raelynn looked at James with a cold expression on her face and felt disgusted.

"James, are you dreaming?" Raelynn's eyes were red with anger.

Ryder took a step forward and shielded Raelynn. Like an angry leopard, he was ready to attack James.

Mrs. Edwards smiled. When she saw that Raelynn's eyes had turned red, she felt much better.

It wasn't that she couldn't raise her own child well, but Raelynn was truly an ingrate.

"Raelynn, it's your honor if we let you marry James. You've also stayed in our house and know what our family is like. You have to work and suffer outside, but it's still not as good as our family's annual income. Isn't it good to marry James and enjoy a good life?"

"Mom, I won't allow her to marry James." Rory disagreed.

Raelynn was so beautiful that it would take away the attention that belonged to her.

"Shut up!" James looked at his silly sister unhappily. All she knew was how to eat.

"James..." Rory was very unhappy. She held her mother's arm and acted like a spoiled child. "Mom, with our family's wealth, James can find any kind of woman he wants. Why does he want a woman like Raelynn?"

Raelynn listened to their conversation and was extremely speechless. Why did this family have the right to dominate her life?

"James, I won't marry you even if I die. Get out of my way!" Raelynn was furious. She had long known that James had such evil thoughts. After returning from abroad, she had carefully avoided him because he was also a scumbag.

With a little money in his family, he spent it all outside, and many girls were cheated by him.

"Oh!" James laughed angrily and looked at her little face casually. "Raelynn, if I hadn't seen how beautiful you are, would I have come to you?"

Ryder said angrily, "James, why don't you take a look at yourself? Are you worthy of my sister?"

James smirked evilly, raised his eyebrows, and looked arrogant. "How am I not worthy? I'm rich. I can marry any kind of woman with my money, even the most beautiful woman in the world."

Ryder retorted, "Really? Then you can use your money to marry the most beautiful woman in the world since that's not my sister. My sister doesn't want to marry you at all. Where did you come from? Good dogs won't block one's way!"

"Get lost!" James didn't want to argue with the poor boy in front of him, so he pushed Ryder hard.

Ryder fell heavily on the ground, and his eyes burned with anger.

"Ryder." Raelynn quickly squatted down to help him up.

"B*stard, I'll kill you." Ryder suddenly got up from the ground and rushed towards James.

James had the upper hand. Seeing that Ryder was trying to attack him, James raised his foot and kicked him in the stomach.

Ryder fell to the ground again. It was so painful that he grimaced, but he hated that he couldn't even defeat James.

How could he protect his sister when he was so weak and cowardly?

James had grown up like a gangster. He often fought and caused trouble, and he did all the things that shouldn't be done during his rebellious period.

A good boy like Ryder would only end up at a disadvantage in his hands.

"Ryder, don't fight with him. You can't beat him. He has fought since he was a child. Don't lower yourself to such a person." Raelynn was furious as she tried to help Ryder up.

As soon as she helped Ryder up, James quickly grabbed her wrist. "Let's go, Rae. Come home with me."

"Let go of me!" Raelynn struggled hard.

James was very strong. His wrist that was holding Raelynn was like a pair of iron pliers, making it so hard for Raelynn to break free no matter how hard she tried.

All of a sudden, James let out a scream.

Chapter 2356

James suddenly let go of Raelynn, and because of the inertia, she fell backward.

"Ah..." She screamed, but she did not fall to the ground as she had expected.

Suddenly, she fell into a warm and safe embrace. She was separated from the person by a thin shirt, but she could still feel the burning heat falling on the soft skin of her arm.

She shivered, and a familiar aura enveloped her whole body.

Raelynn looked up and met Kenneth's dark eyes that held a gaze that was as deep as the sea. A calm and noble aura lingered around her, and her heart jumped wildly.

Their gazes met, and a strange emotion surged from the bottom of Kenneth's eyes.

Her body felt as soft and comfortable as he remembered.

Kenneth also felt the desire rise in his body, and his calm heartbeat suddenly lost its rhythm.

He didn't even know what was going on. When he held the girl in his arms, he felt extremely satisfied.

Ever since he returned to the Alwynn family, his family's financial situation had been very good. He had never lacked anything in terms of material matters. He could buy whatever he wanted. He had his parents' love and a good relationship with his siblings. He had never felt that anything was missing in his heart.

However, right then, he still felt that there was a corner of his heart that he had never paid attention to, and it was filled with some indescribable emotion.

"Are you alright?" Kenneth's faint and pleasant voice entered Raelynn's ears, so melodious that she felt she could listen to him all day long.

She didn't know why, but at that moment, she could detect a hint of tenderness in his voice.

Raelynn was in a trance, but she quickly got out of his embrace. She blushed and said in a hoarse voice, "It's okay. Thank you, Mr. Kenneth!"

"Who are you?" James looked at Kenneth unhappily. This guy had suddenly appeared and disturbed him.

Kenneth's dark eyes were sharp as he looked at James. His deep gaze was like a bottomless whirlpool, causing James to feel an unprecedented sense of danger.

Even if he had been domineering in the bars and clubs for so many years and had an excellent psychological quality, his heart trembled with fear when he saw those deep black eyes.

"Kenneth Alwynn!" Kenneth identified himself in a casual manner.

His calm aura became the most dazzling existence.

This name had shocked half of the region a few months ago!

James knew who he was in an instant.

This man was the current president of Alwynn Group, Kenneth Alwynn.

He had stood at the top of the pyramid since he was born, standing on the shoulders of giants.

He was the world's only elite university graduate, and everyone who spoke his name mentioned it with a sense of awe.

Even the few rich second generations around him were in awe of Mr. Alwynn.

"Mr... Mr. Alwynn." James' eyes were full of fear.

The man in front of him was tall, calm, and indifferent, as ruthless as Victor in his memory.

"Raelynn is a designer of our Alwynn Group. If anything happens to her, your Edwards family will no longer exist."

A threat; that was a naked threat.

However, James and his parents trembled with fear.

Kenneth's words were like a mountain pressing down on their shoulders.

Looking at Kenneth, who was like an immortal, Rory was in a state of infatuation.

She didn't know what Kenneth's words meant.

Kenneth stated, "Get lost!" His cold voice made people tremble.

Mr. Edwards didn't dare to stay any longer. He smiled apologetically and said, "Mr. Alwynn, it's all a misunderstanding. Raelynn, we'll visit you another day." Then, he pulled his wife and children away quickly.

Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief. She knew that James was hard to deal with.

"Mr. Kenneth, thank you!" She was very grateful for Kenneth's timely appearance and his protection. In this way, the Edwards family would be more restrained.

Kenneth's eyes were as beautiful as a painting, but there was a touch of coldness in them. "No need!"

It could be regarded as compensation.

That night was his fault. He had gone to the wrong room.

"Goodbye!" Kenneth turned and walked in the direction of the car. When he had come out with his brother earlier, he saw that scene.

He didn't want Andrew to be exposed in front of others, so he locked the door and didn't let his brother get out of the car.

Raelynn looked at Kenneth's retreating back. Under the sunset, the man's tall figure was like a pine tree, domineering and imposing.

"Wow! Raelynn, is he the president of Alwynn Group? He is so handsome!" Ryder was also very handsome, but compared with Kenneth, he was just a silly boy who was new to the outside world.

Raelynn smiled and nodded. "Yes!"

She looked at him and was a little worried. "Ryder, are you injured anywhere?"

Ryder smiled and shook his head. "No, I'm fine. I was just angry that I couldn't protect you."

Raelynn smiled gently. "It's okay, Ryder. James is a scumbag. If you meet him again in the future, take a detour. Don't waste your time arguing with him."

Ryder nodded, "Raelynn, I understand.

"Let's go. Let's pick up Mom for dinner." Raelynn didn't want to waste any more time. At seven o'clock, she was going to do a live broadcast.

That scene was witnessed by Faith, who was standing not far away. She stood quietly under the sunset, her silent eyes full of jealousy, her expression ugly.

She glared at Raelynn's back. Kenneth had never touched a woman, only Raelynn.

At that time, she shouldn't have shown Kenneth Raelynn's resume.

Raelynn's designs made people's eyes light up. They were not fancy or flashy, but when one saw the clothes, they couldn't help but want to wear them.

"Kenneth, do you like Miss Edwards?"

In the car, Andrew suddenly spoke up.

With a serious expression on his face, Kenneth tightened his grip on the steering wheel and answered, "No!"

His answer was very hesitant. He had a strange feeling about her, but it was probably out of guilt.

"Alas!" Andrew sighed.

Kenneth asked, "Why are you sighing?"

Andrew thought for a moment and then answered, "Kenneth, fortunately, you don't like Miss Edwards. If you like her, how miserable will she be?"

Kenneth was speechless. He heard what his brother said, but why couldn't he understand the meaning behind them?

"Why do you say that?" He asked coldly.

"Because you are very boring. Isn't it boring for Miss Edwards to look at your cold face everyday when she marries you? Nowadays, girls like warm men."

Kenneth was lost for words.

"You're not a girl. How do you know their preferences?"

Andrew was really worried about his brother. He was worried that Kenneth wouldn't be able to get a wife in this life.

"Kenneth, what are you doing on the computer everyday? Nowadays, girls like rich, handsome, and warm men. Otherwise, why would the female students in our class all admire Henrick?"

Henrick was very popular. No matter where he went, he was the Prince Charming in women's hearts.

Kenneth stopped talking. Was he that bad?

Chapter 2357

James, who was not far away, dared to look back. He looked in Raelynn's direction and found that she had already left.

Puff... He let out a heavy breath. No man had ever given him such a terrible sense of oppression.

Kenneth was the first to do so, and Victor, whom he had seen photos of in the financial reports, was the other. They were all very intimidating.

He had always dreamed of becoming such a person, but unfortunately, he had too few opportunities and was too stupid.

Mrs. Edwards was angry and surprised. "I didn't expect that Raelynn could apply to work in Alwynn Group and become a designer there."

Mr. Edwards also had a look of disbelief on his face. "If I had known that she was so capable, I would have treated her better. When she marries into a rich family, we would benefit from it."

Mrs. Edwards glared at him. "What's the point of being so kind to her if it's not our own child? She should be content to repay her debt of gratitude to us after we raised her. What an ingrate. She doesn't know how to be grateful. Instead, she ignores us."

James narrowed his eyes. He couldn't give up such a beautiful woman like Raelynn just like that.

From a young age, he had seen that Raelynn was very beautiful. He found it very strange that he and his parents looked the same, but Raelynn was as beautiful as a fairy.

When he found out that she was not his biological sister, a bad idea emerged in his mind. Unfortunately, Raelynn was very cautious and he had never succeeded.

However, if he and Raelynn fell in love with each other, what did that have to do with Kenneth?

Moreover, Kenneth was busy with all kinds of things everyday, so he had no time to care about Raelynn.

Hmph!

One day, Raelynn would make a soul-stirring sound in his arms.

With that thought in mind, James was in a much better mood.

"Well, Dad, Mom, Raelynn is now working in Alwynn Group. If she develops well, we can do business with the Alwynn family through her connections. At that time, our family will be richer. You should all stay aside and don't disturb her life."

They felt that James was right.

"James, we'll listen to you. Take good care of Raelynn. If she has a good relationship with the president of Alwynn Group, she will be a big help for us to take advantage of." Mr. Edwards had a good plan in his heart.

He, who was blinded by profit, suddenly had an idea.

"Dad, Mom, James, what's so good about Raelynn? Isn't she just a designer?" Rory couldn't bear to see her family being nice to Raelynn. All the love and attention should only belong to her.

"Shut up!" Mr. Edwards glared at her, with an unhappy expression on his face. "From now on, you should lose weight. Otherwise, you can never marry a good man in this life."

"Dad, I don't want to do it. Losing weight is too hard. Our family is so rich. Are you afraid that I won't get married?"

Rory had been poor since she was a child, and her academic results were also a mess. She didn't want to work hard. In her mind, there was only one thought - as long as she had money, she could do anything.

As long as she had money, she could bully anyone she wanted.

No matter how much Malia had taught her, she could not change Rory's mind.

"Our daughter can get married no matter how fat she is," Mrs. Edwards said haughtily. "Isn't Lincoln still thinking of being a part of our family? If you have time, bring Rory with you and let them grow closer."

James said sarcastically, "Mom, don't bring her with you or you'll only embarrass us all. If Lincoln likes Rory, I'll eat my hat. After all, Lincoln does not only like those with good looks, but also is an arrogant person."

"B*stard, what are you talking about? She is your sister, your biological sister." Miss Edwards didn't think that her daughter was an embarrassment. On the contrary, she felt that Rory had suffered for more than 20 years in a different family and had always felt sorry for her.

"Hmph!" James snorted and turned to leave. He was more interested in Raelynn.

After Raelynn had dinner with her mother and brother, Ryder sent her back to the hotel to rest.

After returning to the hotel, Raelynn felt lonely again. That loneliness had been with her for several years.

She hadn't liked the atmosphere of the Edwards family since she was a child. She always felt out of place with that family.

After lounging around for a while, Raelynn took out the tea she had just bought and went to boil some water to brew it.

She was craving it. She liked the light green tea, which tasted mellow and delicious when she drank it!

She sat by the window. The evening lights were all illuminated, and the lights outside were bright. Her delicate eyebrows and eyes were reflected on the glass, and the reddish scar on her face was covered by her hair. Her mother and brother did not notice it.

Unconsciously, she suddenly thought of the handsome, extraordinary, and indifferent face. He was cold and seemed to be ruthless.

She had encountered things that happened in the company that day abroad, but at that time, she had been wronged and no one had helped her.

She felt a little bitter. In a foreign land, she could only swallow her grievances silently because she was unwilling to give up and because she was not in the wrong. More importantly, her confidence gave her courage and made her persist all the way.

However, it was good now. She had a mother, a brother, and a home.

At seven o'clock, Raelynn began her live broadcast.

That day was a live broadcast of mathematics, which was one of the only two subjects she was really good at since she was a student. She discussed the key principles and techniques for students in middle school and high school.

From 7 p.m. to 8 p.m., it was middle school mathematics, and from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m., it was high school mathematics.

After half a year of conducting the live broadcasts, the number of fans in her broadcast room had reached 200,000.

Compared to her language classes, her mathematics classes had more fans. She prepared everything and began to explain the questions from the previous broadcast.

In the restaurant, Andrew had finished his meal while his two younger brothers were still eating.

Kenneth was working on his laptop to deal with some work matters.

Andrew was even more bored, so he took out his phone to watch a live broadcast.

Most of the live broadcasts online were selling goods, so he was not very interested.

After watching a few girls singing, he felt even more bored.

"Hey!" Andrew noticed a familiar figure and he thought he was hallucinating. He took a serious look at it and then exclaimed, "It's Miss Edwards. She's doing a live broadcast."

Hearing Andrew's words, Kenneth stopped typing on the keyboard.

"Alan, Adriel, look. It's Miss Edwards. She's doing a live mathematics broadcast. Come and have a look. Miss Edwards is so beautiful!" Andrew was very excited.

Adriel and Alan quickly gathered around and exclaimed, "Hey! It's really Miss Edwards. She's so beautiful!" Alan also praised her.

"Miss Edwards' voice is so soothing." Adriel blinked his clear eyes and watched with a smile.

"Hey!" Andrew was very excited. "What Miss Edwards just explained happens to be something that I was stuck on for a while!"

Adriel looked at Andrew and felt a little embarrassed. "Why don't you even know how to do this?"

"It's said that 99% of the high school students don't know how to do it. It's very difficult to do it in the first year of high school. You two are exceptions, but my other subjects are better than yours."

Adriel retorted, "You scored only two marks higher than me in last month's exam. Is that what you call good?"

Andrew argued, "Don't underestimate those two marks. They are enough to help me make it into the top ten."

The more Kenneth listened, the darker his expression became. "Let me take a look!"

Chapter 2358

However, Andrew was reluctant to give his phone to his brother. "Kenneth, you don't need to learn. It's boring to watch. Go and do your work. Don't disturb my study."

Adriel chimed in, "Yes, Kenneth. Hurry up and focus. Don't let it affect your work."

Alan spoke up, "Hey! Since Miss Edwards is at this level, she can teach Jacqueline! All this while, Glenn has been teaching Jacqueline but she doesn't like to study."

Andrew smiled and said, "Alan, Adriel, I think Miss Edwards is different from other girls. Look at her every movement and her voice. She is very pure and beautiful, making people want to hide her away. Tell me, what kind of man can match up to such a beautiful girl?"

Kenneth stared at Andrew, speechless.

Didn't he deserve Raelynn?

He asked himself!

Wasn't he handsome enough? He was also excellent!

Alan smiled and said, "Kenneth, this is a job that requires skill."

Adriel replied, "That's right. It's also a skill to find a boyfriend or girlfriend. Miss Edwards doesn't seem to be from this world, but rather, she's like a fairy. She looks like someone whom you want to hold high above in the air as she might be tainted by the world."

Andrew couldn't help but grin. "That's what Mom is like. I miss her."

"Andrew... You're so clingy." Adriel couldn't help but tap his head lightly.

Adriel said, "Andrew, how old is Miss Edwards? She should be wanting to get married soon, right?"

"You idiot. She's already working. Of course, she's at the age of marriage. I want to know if there's anyone among our relatives who's worthy of Miss Edwards. Let's introduce them to her."

Kenneth was speechless. It was as if he had been completely ignored.

Adriel agreed, "Yes, our cousin, Boris!"

Andrew was delighted when he heard this. "Adriel, you're right. I almost forgot that Boris is very doting and filial."

Kenneth frowned. How could Boris, who was so crude, dote on Raelynn?

No, why was he so upset?

Adriel smiled more happily. "Aunt has always been worried that Boris won't be able to find someone to marry. This is great. Aunt comes from a good family, and Boris is also quite handsome. They look very well matched. I'll talk to him tomorrow."

Kenneth looked at him and stated, "Don't tell Boris yet. Ask for Miss Edwards' opinion first. Only if she is willing to meet Boris can you tell him. Otherwise, it won't be good to make a mess. There is a very true sentence that's often written in novels; the impression of meeting for the first time is very important..."

The triplets talked about the marriage of Raelynn and Boris as if there were no one else around. They completely forgot how miserable they were disciplined by Kenneth last time.

Kenneth's expression was very gloomy.

Andrew suddenly spoke up, "Hey! It seems that Miss Edwards' method is much simpler than what our teacher taught, and it's even better than that. Wow, even when I was chatting with you, I still understood!"

Andrew glanced at the time below. "From seven to eight o'clock, and from eight to nine o'clock; that's two hours. These two hours are just the right time for me to watch Miss Edwards' class every night!"

Andrew clicked on the 'follow' button, then glanced at the gift area below before sending her some virtual gifts.

"Freedom sent ten super rockets."

"Freedom sent ten sea stars."

After sending the gifts, Andrew began to carefully read Raelynn's questions.

"Andrew, you are so stingy!" Adriel glanced at him.

Andrew retorted, "With Miss Edwards' character, she will feel uneasy if you send her too much. Don't forget that everyone in this broadcast room is a student."

In fact, he had already sent her a lot of gifts.

Soon, someone spoke up in the comment section.

"D*mn, Freedom is so good!"

"Can you finish watching the live broadcast first and then s? This affects me watching the teacher explain."

"Yes, yes, yes. This is a critical moment. Can everyone be quiet?"

Andrew said, "Look, the people who are in this broadcast room should all be quite serious students, so let's quieten down."

Adriel also took out his mobile phone and searched for Raelynn's broadcast room.

In the broadcast room.

Alan looked up at Kenneth's expressionless face.

"Kenneth, you hurry up and deal with the company first while we're watching the live broadcast. Miss Edwards' explanation is very easy to understand and we can also learn from it."

"Hehe!" Kenneth sneered in his heart. Now they remembered him.

Indeed, he still had official business to attend to.

He dealt with Alwynn Group's affairs during the day and other foreign affairs at night. Some of them were handled by Uncle Dean, but Kenneth was still very busy. He had to go on a business trip the following day and would only come back a week later.

He felt bitter when he thought about it.

Two hours later, after the live broadcast was over, the three of them were still reluctant to leave.

The triplets all sent gifts to Raelynn.

"Everyone, if there is anything you don't understand, you can leave messages below. I will reply to you one by one when I see them. See you tomorrow!"

Only then did Raelynn see the rewards. She had received a lot more rewards that night than usual, and she was a little surprised. After thanking the senders one by one, she turned off the live broadcast.

Then, she took out her luggage to take a shower. Because she was staying in a hotel, she secretly brought her sheets and blanket over. It was hot now, so she didn't need to cover herself with a quilt.

After taking a shower, she laid on the bed but could not fall asleep.

As soon as she closed her eyes, she recalled the steamy and crazy scene from that night.

Raelynn tossed and turned, unable to fall asleep. If she had known earlier, she would have tried to see who it was.

The word 'stop' sounded low and hoarse, so the person was a strong young man.

The more Raelynn thought about it, the worse she felt. She should have seen what that b*stard looked like at that time.

She was full of regret now.

"Ah ah..." Raelynn screamed a few times in distress. She was often in a bad mood, especially in the evenings.

Just then, her phone rang.

She grabbed it and saw that it was Clara.

"Hey, Clara!"

"Rae, were you asleep?"

"I'm about to sleep!" Raelynn's voice was weak.

Clara said, "Okay, it's good that you aren't asleep yet. Rae, do you want to come out for some barbecue? Let's have a drink to celebrate."

Raelynn was a little confused. "Why are you celebrating?"

Clara explained, "I'm celebrating the fact that I was hired by Alwynn Group. They seem to really lack assistants. As soon as I submitted my resume, I was called in for an interview. I went for the interview this afternoon and was too embarrassed to tell you. After receiving the good news, I was too happy for quite a while, then I called you."

Clara was ecstatic.

Hearing this, Raelynn became energetic.

"Wow! Clara, congratulations." Raelynn was also very happy. In the future, with Clara in the same company as her, she was not afraid that she wouldn't have any friends.

It was not easy for a newcomer to join a company. Unless it was necessary, people in the company would often just ignore them. That was, of course, different for people like Faith; everyone would greet them and flatter them.

Chapter 2359

"Clara, where are you? I'll come out now." Coincidentally, Raelynn was in a bad mood and could not fall asleep on the bed.

Clara said, "I'm near your hotel. I'm on an electric bicycle not too far away from home."

Raelynn said, "Then don't ride your bike here. I won't be at ease if you go back late. Just stay with me at the hotel tonight."

Presently, it was almost 10 o'clock. If they ate and played, it would soon be early morning.

"Okay, I'll call you when I get there."

After they ended the call, Raelynn changed into a casual outfit and sat down to make tea.

She wouldn't get drunk because of tea, and drinking tea at night wouldn't affect her sleep. She also had a high alcohol tolerance. However, on the night in the hotel's presidential suite, she had really drunk too much. She couldn't remember how much she had drunk. The door was obviously closed, so how did the man go into the wrong room?

She still couldn't figure it out.

Raelynn picked up the cup and drank up the tea in it. She was still not satisfied.

That was her first time!

"D*mned jerk, b*stard. Don't let me find out who he is, or I'll cut him into pieces."

Boohoo, boohoo, boohoo... Raelynn laid her head on the table to vent her anger. She had been too busy a few days ago, so she didn't have time to worry about that matter. Now that she was relaxed, she was suddenly troubled by it.

What was worse was that she had no one to share this matter with.

She wanted to share it with Clara, but her friend was a person who would sometimes be so forgetful that she would accidentally spill the beans. She did not want her mother and brother to worry about her.

If she didn't share it, she would feel uncomfortable.

Raelynn straightened up, and the scene of her hugging the man's strong waist came back to her mind. She couldn't help but feel her heart beat faster. Her face was burning, and she didn't even know where to look. That feeling was too torturous.

No, no, no, she couldn't think anymore. If she thought about it again, the blood supply to her brain would be cut off and she would lose control of her nervous system.

Whoosh! Raelynn grabbed the backpack on the table, put her phone in it, and left the room.

She had to go out for a walk and relax. Otherwise, she would feel suffocated.

When she stepped out of the hotel, the night breeze blew over her cheeks, making her feel refreshed.

Raelynn took a deep breath, and the restlessness in her heart eased a lot.

River City had always been a prosperous city, and the night was still very lively.

Raelynn walked in the direction she had agreed on with Clara.

After Kenneth sent his three brothers home, he had to go on a business trip for a week, so he instructed his brothers on some matters. He also asked Martin and Gia to come back and stay there, so as to take care of his three brothers.

"Kenneth, you're going on a business trip. The three of us won't tear down the house. Why do you have to ask Gia to bring her two children back to take care of us?" Andrew felt that it was not a good thing to be taken care of by an adult. It was too difficult to live a free life.

Recently, he didn't really want to study and only wanted to play games.

Kenneth looked at him sharply and said, "Andrew, you are in a rebellious period now. If we don't watch you carefully, you'll stay up late and play games, to the point of missing school."

Andrew was speechless. It was only one night, wasn't it?

However, Kenneth clearly remembered it.

"Got it, Kenneth." Andrew returned to his room in a bad mood.

Kenneth suddenly received a call from Dean, asking him to go to the company. There was an important document that required them to meet face to face and discuss.

Kenneth told the servants to turn off the lights at 11 o'clock before leaving for the company.

On the other side, Raelynn was in a much better mood after taking a walk.

Clara arrived very quickly. The two of them found a food stall and sat down to chat after ordering some beer.

Clara filled two glasses with beer and raised her glass to Raelynn.

She smiled adorably.

"Come on, Rae, let me propose a toast to you. Thank you for making me the assistant designer of Alwynn Group. This has always been my dream. I have submitted my resume before, but never got the job. Now, I finally have the opportunity to be an assistant designer. One day in the future, I will also be an excellent designer."

Looking at her serious expression, Raelynn couldn't help but grin.

She picked up the beer and clinked her glass with Clara's. "Clara, congratulations. We're colleagues from now on. Congratulations again."

After she finished speaking with a smile, she raised her head and drank half the glass of beer. She liked this kind of life where she would occasionally come out with her friends to drink a few glasses of beer and eat some delicious food so that she could relax.

Raelynn smiled charmingly, and her dark eyes became brighter.

"Clara, when do you start work?"

Clara answered, "I might have to wait a few days before I officially start work as there's an induction and training session."

Raelynn nodded and said, "Okay. I don't have an assistant now. If you were my assistant, we would cooperate very well."

Clara was also very hardworking. Regardless of whether it was work or life, she worked hard.

Her family was not rich, but she had always lived a happy life with her parents who loved her!

Every time Raelynn went to Clara's house, she liked the atmosphere very much. The family of three chatted and laughed. The last time she visited, they ate a lot. They would be so happy that they could have endless topics to talk about.

However, she now had a home.

Raelynn was also happy. She picked up her glass and drank up.

The beer was ice cold, so it was very refreshing to drink. After a few sips, she finished the glass of beer. She had always been very confident in her drinking capacity!

"Rae, is it easy to get along with people from the design department?" Clara was a little worried.

After all, she was a newcomer. Many things would change after she entered the workplace.

Raelynn thought for a moment and said, "Rae, as a newcomer, the most important thing is to work hard and make full use of our value as soon as possible, to let the company know the significance of our existence. Secondly, you must be clear that you must not get involved in any fights, whether openly or in secret, in the office, let alone deliberately target others. Don't speak ill of others at any time. Thirdly, you should take the initiative to do more things and talk less. Fourth, you should learn from excellent people. Fifth, you should keep a certain distance from your colleagues, even those who are on good terms with you."

"In the company, others will only look at your achievements. They don't care about how you do it. If there's anything you don't know or understand, you can ask me first. Don't work alone."

The people in the design department were not easy to get along with. After all, Alwynn Group was a big company, and those who could be hired were talented.

Raelynn took out her phone and sent a file to Clara.

"Clara, here's a list of the designers and their assistants. What are their tempers and personalities like? What work are they in charge of? I've written down everything for you. Go back and take a good look. You'll be able to handle them well when you start work."

"Wow!" Clara was overjoyed. At her previous workplace, very few people had paid attention to her. After she passed the internship period and became a regular employee, those people began to take the initiative to talk to her.

It was too difficult to be a rookie in the workplace!

That was especially the case for people like them whose backgrounds weren't outstanding.

Chapter 2360

Clara carefully saved the file in her phone and kept it like a treasure. She looked at it twice and only relaxed after making sure that it was properly saved.

Soon, a dish of peeled shrimp and garlic crayfish was served. The crayfish were fried which made them very fragrant and delicious.

The two of them ate fiercely. Before they knew it, the beer was finished, Raelynn asked for another.

Clara's eyes widened as she looked at her friend. Clara's face was burning hot but Raelynn was not drunk at all.

Moreover, Raelynn didn't like that there wasn't enough beer, so she ordered a glass of whiskey.

Raelynn was in a bad mood that night. She wanted to get drunk and have a good sleep. Furthermore, she had Clara by her side, so she drank more boldly.

"Clara, stop drinking. Be my bodyguard!"

After finishing her words, Raelynn took another sip of wine and ate some food to counter the sharpness of the alcohol.

Clara knew that Raelynn had always been unhappy because of her family matters.

Thus, she didn't try to persuade her. No matter what happened to Raelynn, it would be useless for others to try to persuade her. She had to figure it out herself.

Clara had also encountered some things herself. No matter what her parents said, it would not be able to relieve the depression in her heart. She still needed to face the matter herself before she could walk out of the shadows. Therefore, at that moment, she understood the bitterness in Raelynn's heart very well.

"Clara, do you know? My brother and mother are much better than my adoptive parents. My brother always wants to protect me."

Raelynn thought of what happened that afternoon again.

It feels so good to have Ryder step out to protect her!

However, the next moment, a cold and perfect handsome face appeared in her mind again.

D*mn it! He was her ideal type, but it's a pity that she couldn't get him!

"Clara, do you know? There's also that b*stard, James. He has been harassing me ever since he found out that I'm not his sister. He even wanted to marry me. What has become of the world... How could there be such a detestable person?"

Hearing this, Clara was also very angry. "D*mn it, Rae. James is a playboy who has hurt a lot of young girls. One day, we should follow him and take advantage of him when he's drunk. We can put a sack over his head, then the two of us can beat him up with sticks to vent your anger."

"Hehe..." Raelynn laughed. She lowered her head and raised her eyes to look at Clara. Her smile was very evil. "Clara, your idea is very good. We should beat him so hard that he can't even remember his parents. Only then can I vent my anger."

"Okay, Rae. However, you'd better drink less," Clara persuaded her. She was afraid that it would be too uncomfortable for Raelynn to get drunk, as she had to go to work the following day.

"It's okay. I'm not drunk!" Raelynn waved at her with a smile.

Clara had always known that Raelynn was good at drinking, but it was strange that she was not drunk after downing two glasses of beer and a glass of whiskey.

She might not get drunk when she was in a good mood, but the problem was that she was in a bad mood now.

"Rae..." However, before Clara could finish her words, Raelynn shouted again, "Boss, another bottle of whiskey."

Clara tried to coax her, "Rae, you should eat your favorite barbecue. That's enough alcohol."

Raelynn smiled coquettishly. Her dazzling eyes were bright, her red lips were slightly opened, and her teeth were very white and neat. Her charming beauty was something that even Clara could not resist.

"Clara, that's not enough. I'm not drunk yet. Let's have another glass. That's right!" Raelynn picked up her cutlery and ate her favorite crayfish.

In the end, Raelynn finished another bottle of alcohol and patted her belly with satisfaction.

"Rae, that was such a good drink!"

Clara nodded. Raelynn had drunk so much that she was even talking to herself.

"You really don't care that much about your body. Well, I'll take you back to the hotel to rest."

Clara helped her up and walked to the side of the road.

Raelynn did not make a fuss and obediently followed Clara.

After walking for a while, Clara's mobile phone rang. She took it out and saw that it was her mother calling.

"Rae, stand here and wait for me. I'll answer a call."

Raelynn did not speak and just stood there quietly.

"Hello, Mom."

"Clara, your father was hit by a car on his way back. He's been sent to the hospital by an ambulance. Where are you? Come back quickly."

"Mom, is Dad badly injured?" Clara was very anxious.

"I don't know. I'm going to the general hospital now. You can go straight there. I'll meet you there."

"Okay, Mom. I'll be right there."

Clara hung up the phone and looked at Raelynn.

"Rae, I have something urgent to attend to. The hotel is 500 meters ahead. Can you go back by yourself?"

Raelynn nodded and said, "Clara, I'm still sober, not drunk. Go and see your dad."

She had more or less overheard some parts of the conversation, and she still had some reason left in her.

Clara was still worried about her. "No, I won't feel at ease if I don't see you return to the hotel safely. I'm worried, so let me send you back first."

Raelynn shook her head with a smile. "It's okay. Clara, I can go back myself. You should hurry over to the hospital."

After that, she walked forward alone, and her pace was very steady.

Clara saw that Raelynn was still conscious, so she stopped a taxi by the road and went straight to the hospital.

Raelynn was actually drunk. When there was someone by her side, her inherent shyness was still present. However, when there was no one around, she became bold and staggered around as she glanced at her surroundings.

There were two young men who passed by and wanted to go up and flirt with her, but they walked away guiltily after being stared at fiercely by her.

Kenneth was just about to head back. When he was waiting for the red light, he suddenly saw Raelynn staggering around on the sidewalk. He thought that he was mistaken, so he took another serious look. It was really Raelynn. She sometimes giggled, and sometimes she babbled to herself.

Kenneth frowned. Thinking of what had happened in the hotel last time, he was instantly worried.

He drove the car to the side of the road, got out of the car, and followed Raelynn.

Raelynn's footsteps were unstable. She didn't even notice the trees on the sidewalk and she almost bumped into them.

Kenneth's eyes were sharp and his hands were quick. He quickly grabbed hold of Raelynn's waist so that she could avoid the embarrassment of walking into a tree.

"Mmm!" Raelynn felt that the touch on her waist was a little familiar.

She turned around and saw a handsome and perfect face. "Hehe..." She suddenly smiled. What a handsome man.

"Sir, you are so beautiful!"

Kenneth was speechless. As expected, she was so drunk that she couldn't even recognize him.

Raelynn's entire body turned around, and her restless fingers gently brushed across Kenneth's handsome features.

Kenneth was stunned, and his calm heart rippled.

Raelynn smiled. "Sir, do you have a girlfriend?"

Kenneth replied coldly, "No!"

He wanted to see how she would react!

Raelynn looked at him and giggled. After a while, she asked, "Sir, do you think I'm beautiful?" She tucked her hair behind her ear so that Kenneth could see her face more clearly.
