

Gluey Love 2371

Chapter 2371

Raelynn turned around and saw James with his two men who he usually brought with him. He had an evil smile on his face.

All three of them had malicious intentions in their eyes.

Raelynn was nervous, but on the surface, she remained calm.

She didn't expect him to come so soon. She thought that Kenneth's warning last time was just to scare her.

She glanced at the station and saw that the bus had yet to arrive.

"What are you doing here?" Raelynn looked at him warily and asked.

If James were alone, she could handle him. However, he had two men with him. These two men were typical scums who only knew how to play with girls' feelings.

James smiled and slowly approached Raelynn.

Raelynn could still maintain a calm composure as there were a few other people nearby waiting for the bus.

James might not dare to mess around.

"Rae, don't you know why I'm here? We love each other. You're my girlfriend, and I'm your boyfriend. I'm here to pick you up from work. My car is over there. Let's go. I'll bring you home." James stuck out his tongue and licked his lips. His possessiveness over Raelynn, which she thought was obscene, was evident in his eyes.

"James, get lost!" Raelynn looked at him disgustedly.

This family had no humanity at all.

After all, they were siblings who had grown up together. James treated her well when they were young, possibly because of her beauty.

At least he cared about his sister.

However, James was a beast now.

Kenneth was very domineering and pleasing to the eye. As for this man, she felt like throwing up at the sight of him.

"Hey! Rae, how can you talk to your boyfriend like that?" James walked towards her with a smile.

When the two girls nearby saw the look on James's face, they wanted to defend Raelynn. But as soon as they heard that they were a couple, they immediately backed away.

No one should get involved in a lovers' quarrel.

Raelynn staggered. Seeing that the bus still hadn't arrived, she grew more anxious. Once she boarded the bus, James wouldn't dare to say anything to her.

"Rae, what are you doing? I'm here to pick you up, not to hit you. Why are you so afraid?" James asked as he took a few steps towards Raelynn. He held her hand and walked in the direction of his car.

"Let me go. Let me go. James, don't go overboard." Raelynn struggled hard to free herself.

But as a girl, how could she compete with James's strength?

"Help!" Raelynn shouted.

The people nearby wanted to meddle in their business, but James's two men glared at them fiercely and scared them away.

"James, let go of me. I'll call the police if you don't let me go." Raelynn sat down on the ground.

She wanted to delay as much as possible. This place wasn't far from her company. She hoped that her call for help would attract the attention of the security guards at the door.

James became furious due to Raelynn's overreaction.

"Rae, you'd better behave yourself and go back with me. Otherwise, your brother might not have a job the next day."

Raelynn stopped struggling in an instant when she heard his threat.

James looked at Raelynn, who had stopped struggling, and smiled with satisfaction.

Ryder worked at a mechanic shop. He would lose his job immediately if James spoke to his boss.

And Ryder's job was the most important thing to him.

Without work, he would have to beg for food.

"James, don't go too far." Raelynn knew that people with power and influence liked to play this trick.

He could easily trample on what others cared about.

Raelynn's brother has had his current job for two years. He went for an internship there before graduation and it wasn't easy for him to get an increase in his salary. If James caused any trouble, Ryder would be devastated.

James revealed a cynical smile. His fearless look was what Raelynn hated the most.

"Rae, if you agree to marry me, I will immediately buy a big house for your mother and brother. Isn't your brother still single? Without savings or a house, it would be difficult for him to find a wife. You'll benefit from marrying me."

James thought that Raelynn would agree if he offered the most tempting conditions.

In the past, Raelynn didn't live a lavish life, but she was definitely well off. It would be difficult for her to adapt to a poor lifestyle.

Raelynn felt helpless in the face of such a situation.

James, who was a shameless b*tch, was used to getting his own way.

Raelynn didn't speak and glared at him with hatred.

"Rae, don't stare at me. Get up and come home with me." James reached out to pull Raelynn up.

Raelynn was about to resist when a dark shadow enveloped her. Suddenly, a strong arm wrapped around her waist and lifted her up from the ground.

The man was like a god falling from the sky, securely protecting her in his arms.

Kenneth looked at James coldly.

James didn't expect that Kenneth, who was on a business trip, would suddenly appear in front of him.

Kenneth quickly kicked him in the abdomen.

James's physique was good, but he wasn't as good as Kenneth, who had been professionally trained.

Kenneth looked thin in his clothes. In actuality, he was well-built.

He channeled all his anger into his kick which landed on James's belly.

James fell to the ground and took a deep breath in pain.

Seeing this, the other two men wanted to beat Kenneth up.

However, James stopped them.

He couldn't afford to offend the Alwynn family in River City.

"It seems that you didn't take what I said last time to heart. How dare you touch my woman?" Kenneth emphasized every word.

James's pupils dilated as he looked at Raelynn in disbelief.

Was she Kenneth's woman?

How could this be?

Impossible!

How could the Alwynn family accept Raelynn's status?

"Mr. Alwynn, Raelynn is just a b*stard without a father. I don't believe that you would fall for her. You are just playing with her." James was dissatisfied as he was used to getting what he wanted.

Raelynn was stunned. She didn't expect to be called a b*stard just because she had no father.

Kenneth's face suddenly turned cold. He hugged Raelynn even tighter and said slowly, "That doesn't matter. What matters is that she's my woman."

Raelynn looked at him fiercely and blinked. His words were so touching.

It was as if the noises around her faded into the background, and he was the only one who mattered in her eyes.

Chapter 2372

"Haha..." James didn't believe Kenneth's words.

Even if Kenneth really liked Raelynn, he wanted her to back out.

How could she, an abandoned daughter, become the daughter-in-law of a rich and powerful family?

This was simply impossible. Raelynn wanted to climb higher than him? Dream on.

"Mr. Alwynn, Rae is a good girl. You should let her go. She doesn't even have a place to live now. It won't be good for her if you keep messing with her feelings."

After that, he turned to look at Raelynn, who only cared about Kenneth.

He earnestly advised her, "Rae, don't be fooled by the rich and powerful families. You are a good girl. The higher you climb, the heavier you fall. I am your brother. I won't lie to you."

Kenneth sneered. "It's none of your business. You're no longer her brother. You don't have the right to meddle in her affairs. Get lost!"

James pursed his lips. He was unwilling to give up and didn't dare to act rashly. With just one word from Kenneth, the Edwards Family would be finished.

When the other two men heard that he was from the Alwynn family, they immediately knew his identity.

Who dared to provoke such an important figure!

The two men helped James to his feet. They lowered their heads and didn't dare to look into Kenneth's dark and sharp eyes.

Kenneth warned him, "This is my last warning. If you dare lay a finger on Rae again, I will make your Edwards Family disappear from River City! Your family's projects and the real estate under the Alwynn Group will be taken back one by one. Your Edwards Family will not be able to recover them. Remember, this is my last warning."

The warning sent a chill down James's spine.

His gaze lingered on Raelynn.

He wasn't going to let Raelynn go so easily. As the eldest young master of the Edwards Family, he had never been warned like this. It was all because of Raelynn.

"Let's go!"

After the three of them left, Kenneth looked at the woman in his arms.

"Rae, are you okay?" His tone became gentle involuntarily.

Raelynn shook her head violently and said in a trembling voice, "I-I'm fine. Thank you for what you just did!"

If he hadn't appeared in time, she wouldn't have known what fate awaited her.

Kenneth's brows furrowed slightly. He didn't like how formal she sounded.

"Let's go back to the car first."

Raelynn blushed and whispered, "My legs are weak. I can't walk."

Kenneth was silent for a moment.

He smiled, held her in his arms, and walked to the car parked by the road.

Raelynn was no longer pretentious. She leaned in his arms and felt his breath and the sense of security in his arms, which made her slowly relax.

Kenneth put her in the passenger seat, then he went back to the driver's seat and started the car to leave.

He drove past two red lights and arrived at a place where he could park. Only then did Kenneth stop the car.

His gaze met Raelynn's.

"Are you feeling better?" His voice was low and pleasant to the ear.

Raelynn nodded, still feeling a little wronged. "I'm a little better."

Kenneth took her hand and stared at her intently. Her skin was pale, and her lips were red. She looked stunning.

His voice became hoarse when he spoke.

"Rae, if this happens again, run to a crowded area and call me as soon as possible. I have your number and I can locate your position. A playboy like James is used to getting whatever he wants. He's spoiled and he won't give up on anything he wants. He will definitely come for you again. I will get someone to protect you secretly so you don't have to worry."

"But you have to take care of yourself. I'll pick you up and drop you off work for now."

Raelynn knew that Kenneth was right. James had been doted on since he was a child. Her adoptive parents cared more about boys and fulfilled all of James's requests.

James was wicked to the bone.

Raelynn said, "You would be exhausted. You already have a lot on your plate, wouldn't it be more tiring for you to have to pick me up and drop me off?"

Raelynn couldn't bear to let him get tired.

Kenneth reached out and caressed her head. "It's not tiring. You're my future wife. Why would I be tired of driving my wife?"

Raelynn was embarrassed when he called her his wife.

"Nonsense, we haven't even dated for long and you're already referring to me as your wife?" Raelynn's face turned red to her ears, and the setting sun fell on her face, making her look more charming.

Kenneth tilted her head and kissed her face. He took the opportunity to hug her and whispered, "Rae, I miss you!"

He used to hear his father often say this to his mother. He thought it was gross how his father could never get enough of his mother.

Now that he had someone he liked, he finally understood how his father felt.

Raelynn's heart was beating like thunder. She said with a smile, "Kenneth, you are usually very cold. I thought you wouldn't say such loving words."

It turned out that he was so cute in private!

Kenneth released her. He was also stunned by the fact that he would say such things.

"I used to witness how lovey-dovey my father was with my mother. I thought to myself that I wouldn't want to be like my father when I had a woman in the future. I told myself that I would give her space."

"My mother stays home, and there are no secrets. Her friends and my father know each other. They are honest with each other, and they love each other. In my family, no one will refute my mother's words."

"My mother is also a very gentle person. She will respect everyone's life and opinion and will never interfere with our growth process."

Kenneth smiled again. "Just like now, if we weren't a couple, I wouldn't be able to say those words. People will always change because of someone."

Raelynn quietly listened to his words and asked with a smile, "Did you change because of me?"

"Hmm," Kenneth replied softly.

Raelynn smiled happily like a child.

In fact, she had always been very curious about his parents.

Everyone in River City knew that Victor was famous for pampering his beloved wife.

She said enviously, "Auntie has such a loving family. She must feel blessed!"

"Yes! They've gone on a trip. I'll take you to meet them when they return."

Raelynn blushed and remained silent. She thought it was too soon to meet his parents.

Kenneth said, "Send me the address. We're going to your house now."

"Oh!" Raelynn almost forgot about it.

"Have you figured out your identity?"

Kenneth's eyes darkened. "I'll be going as a friend!"

Raelynn wondered if her brother and mother would believe this act.

In the end, she still sent Kenneth the address.

Kenneth glanced at the navigation and saw that it wasn't far from here. He started driving the car.

Raelynn asked curiously, "Did you go home to see your younger brothers?"

Kenneth shook his head. "No, Giada moved back. She's not working now so she's taking care of her three younger brothers at home."

Raelynn blinked her eyes and thought of a question that she had always been very curious about. "I heard that the Alwynn Family is good at producing twins and triplets?"

Chapter 2373

It sounded simple, but in fact, the process was very difficult.

"I guess so. Both my brother and Giada have a pigeon pair each."

As for him...

Raelynn saw him when he stole a glance at her stomach.

She immediately placed her hand on her lower abdomen shyly.

She said, "My family has a pigeon pair too."

When Raelynn finished speaking, she was stunned. Why did she have to explain like this?

Kenneth couldn't help smiling. "I would like a daughter."

Raelynn was silent for a moment.

Then, she said in a low voice, "I-I would like a daughter too."

Kenneth's smile widened. "Then let's have one together."

"How-how did we come to the topic of having kids?" Raelynn looked at him nervously.

She was a little concerned about what James had said. Was Kenneth really just playing with her feelings?

After all, this relationship was moving too quickly, so she couldn't be blamed for having this thought.

She was afraid that if she fell too hard, she wouldn't be able to recover from it.

Kenneth tilted his head and glanced at her with a gentle smile. "We'll eventually have kids."

Raelynn glanced at him and couldn't help but ask, "Kenneth, are you really sincere?"

Hearing this, Kenneth knew that James's words had made her feel insecure.

Coincidentally, they arrived at Raelynn's neighborhood. Kenneth parked his car and looked at her, saying, "Don't take what James said to heart. You will be able to feel in your heart if I'm sincere. Actions speak louder than words. There's no point in me telling you that I'm sincere."

Raelynn nodded. She figured that she was just overthinking.

A person like Kenneth would always be sincere when they fall in love with someone.

"Get out of the car first." Kenneth unfastened her seat belt.

Only then did Raelynn notice that Kenneth was driving a limited edition Lykan!

She didn't even dare to think about how much the car cost.

As she got off, Kenneth had already taken a lot of things out from the trunk.

Raelynn was shocked. "Why did you buy so much?"

Kenneth looked at her and said, "I didn't know what was a suitable housewarming gift so I asked the salespeople in the mall. These were the items I selected from their recommendations. There's also cake in Luke's car."

Raelynn was speechless.

Her house couldn't possibly fit everything.

"Didn't you give me your card? Why did you still buy so many things?" She felt pressured.

Kenneth smiled. "I want you to live comfortably so that you can create better designs."

"Sir, Miss Edwards." Luke had unknowingly arrived behind them.

"Mr. Parma." Raelynn greeted him with a smile.

Luke said, "Miss Edwards, let's head upstairs."

Raelynn nodded. The three of them carried everything up. It was a lot, but it didn't take much effort for them to reach the second floor.

Raelynn took out the key and opened the door.

"Sister, you're back." Ryder looked towards the door the moment he heard the sound of the door being opened.

"Yes! Ryder, come and help me." Raelynn was a little nervous. After all, Kenneth had brought too many things.

"Okay!" Ryder was also stunned when he saw Kenneth who was standing behind his sister.

Mr. Alwynn? Why was he here?

"Mr. Alwynn, nice to meet you!" Ryder greeted him in surprise.

Kenneth: "Hello!"

Unexpectedly, after they entered, four more men in suits and leather shoes came up behind Luke. They also had big and small bags in their hands. Raelynn was dumbfounded by the amount of things.

After everyone placed down the things in their hands, Luke handed Raelynn a red packet. "Miss Edwards, may this day be auspicious and may things always go smoothly for you."

Raelynn was embarrassed. "Thank you, Mr. Parma. There's no need for the red packet..."

Luke interrupted her. "Miss Edwards, you have to accept it." After that, he handed Raelynn the red packet and left.

"This..."

Raelynn glanced at Kenneth. "Shall I ask Mr. Parma to stay for dinner?"

"There's no need for that. He has to go back to work," Kenneth responded with a straight face.

Raelynn didn't argue.

She turned around and saw the three good-looking men sitting on the sofa.

Ryder smiled and introduced, "Sister, these are my friends from work. I invited them to join in the fun this day."

Raelynn greeted them with a smile.

Looking at the things piled up in the living room, Raelynn felt a little helpless. Although they weren't large electrical appliances, they filled up the entire house.

Raelynn looked at Kenneth helplessly. "Why did you buy so much?"

At this time, Malia's eyes flashed when she came out of the kitchen and saw the room full of things.

She looked at her daughter with loving eyes. "Rae, you're back."

Raelynn smiled and said, "Mom, I'm home. This is Mr. Alwynn, my...friend."

"Ah, really? Invite your friend to have a seat!" Malia approached Raelynn and her gaze fell on Kenneth's handsome face.

Both in height and appearance, he was superior to those actors in movies.

If only he was Raelynn's boyfriend.

Kenneth took a step forward and greeted her respectfully. "Hello, Auntie!"

"Hello, Mr. Alwynn. Please take a seat!" Malia was a little restrained. She was aware of how big the Alwynn Group was.

"Auntie, you're too polite. Just call me Kenneth!"

Malia glanced at Raelynn and she nodded with a smile.

Only then did Malia call out to him, "Kenneth, take a seat!"

"Okay, Auntie! Thank you for your hard work!" Kenneth sat opposite the three boys.

They nodded and greeted each other.

"It's nothing. Have a seat while I prepare dinner."

Malia turned around and went to the kitchen.

Ryder lowered his eyes slightly. He didn't expect Kenneth to come.

He looked over at Kenneth. Despite being seated, he still gave off a powerful aura. His long eyelashes hung down, and he had a clean and handsome appearance. With his noble status, why would he come back with his sister?

He was determined to find out if Kenneth was the person he expected him to be.

Mr. Alwynn had a good character and was young and promising.

Raelynn made tea for Kenneth.

On the other hand, Ryder was busy sorting out the things.

The living room wasn't very big. It would fit the family of three, but any more people would be a crowd.

When he was done, Ryder went to set up the table in the small courtyard.

Raelynn checked her messages on WhatsApp. It was still going to be a while before Clara arrived.

Raelynn looked at Kenneth who was beside her and said, "Have a seat and enjoy your tea. I'll go help out in the kitchen." With so many guests, Malia wouldn't be able to handle things alone in the kitchen.

Kenneth: "Okay!"

Raelynn got up and excused herself before heading to the kitchen.

When Ryder was done setting up the table, he sat on the sofa and chatted with his friends.

Dale's smile was a little reserved. "Ryder, your sister is so beautiful. Why don't you introduce her to me as a girlfriend? I'm good-looking enough for your sister."

Hearing this, Kenneth narrowed his eyes and stared at Dale.

Chapter 2374

In an instant, the atmosphere tensed up.

Ryder, who was sitting next to Kenneth, could feel the shift in atmosphere.

Before Ryder could agree to it, he forced out a word, "No!"

After that, Kenneth relaxed.

Somehow, no one dared to continue this topic.

Ryder could also sense Kenneth's coldness.

He was secretly delighted. If his sister really married Kenneth, she would definitely be happy in the future.

Kenneth listened attentively to the four boys who were talking about car repair.

Kenneth had heard that the mechanic shop Ryder worked at was quite big.

Hearing that they had almost finished talking, Kenneth interrupted.

"Ryder, do you know how to repair racing cars?"

Ryder was flattered and nodded.

"Yes, I do. I major in mechanical engineering so I'm very familiar with all kinds of cars." This was also the reason why his salary increased so quickly.

"I can also design engines, and I'm particularly familiar with the structure of cars. If there's something wrong with a car, I just need to listen and I'll know what's wrong."

He was a little genius in the company.

Kenneth nodded slightly and said, "I also have an interest in racing cars. I bought a racing company not long ago and I'm very short of professionals like you. Are you interested in working for me? You'll be paid a million dollars a year."

"Wow!" The four of them exclaimed when they heard this.

Ryder had the highest salary at their current workplace, and it was only a little over ten thousand dollars.

An annual salary of a million dollars was beyond their imagination.

Ryder gulped. Was this too good to be true?

"Mr. Alwynn, are you serious?" Ryder asked in disbelief.

Kenneth nodded slightly and said, "I'm being serious. We mainly manufacture racing cars for now. Of course, once the company is stable, we will start producing more high-end cars. At present, we're focused on racing cars. Have you ever heard of DF1?"

Ryder and his three colleagues looked at each other and nodded at the same time. DF1 was a new racing car production company founded a year ago. They were envious of how large-scale it was.

Ryder asked in surprise, "Mr. Alwynn, is it your family's company?"

Kenneth nodded. "I had my eye on this company when I was overseas so I bought it once I returned. We're currently short on manpower, so you can apply for a job if you're interested."

"Wow!"

Dale and the others suddenly looked at Kenneth with admiration.

It was as if they worshiped him.

Ryder was eager to give it a try. After all, there wasn't much space for improvement at his current job.

Despite the tough competition, working at a large-scale company would be great. As long as he was talented, he didn't have to worry about anything else.

"Mr. Alwynn, can you give us three days to think about it? I need to discuss this with my sister. My three colleagues here are also very outstanding. Can they apply too?"

Kenneth took out a business card and handed it to him.

"Of course! You can call me once you've made up your mind. I'll send someone over to take you to the Eastern District."

"Thank you!" Ryder happily took the business card with both hands.

Coincidentally, Raelynn saw this when she came out with vegetables in her hand.

"Thank you, Mr. Alwynn!" Ryder was ecstatic.

"Raelynn, let me help you." Ryder happily took the food from Raelynn's hands.

Raelynn was a little confused, but she didn't say anything.

After Ryder entered the kitchen, she asked in a low voice, "Ryder, what were you talking about with Mr. Alwynn just now?"

Ryder looked handsome with the bright smile on his face. "Raelynn, Mr. Alwynn said that the racing car production company he bought is short on talents in machinery engineering. I majored in machinery engineering when I was in school, so I am very familiar with car parts. Mr. Alwynn gave me a chance to apply for a job in the company. If I succeed and do well, I can earn an annual salary of one million dollars."

"Wow!" Raelynn was also stunned. "Is this real?"

"Yes, Raelynn! Mr. Alwynn even gave me his business card." Ryder excitedly took out the business card and handed it to Raelynn.

Raelynn suddenly remembered what James had said that day. He had been embarrassed by Kenneth, so he would definitely hold a grudge and cause trouble in secret.

"Ryder, why don't you give it a try? As long as you're skilled and talented and enter the company with your own ability, you won't be looked down upon, and no one can easily fire you."

"Raelynn, do you also support me?" Ryder was very excited.

Raelynn nodded and said, "Yes, you are talented, so you should go to a big company to work. Only in this way can you improve."

Ryder nodded excitedly. "Mom, Raelynn, I'll go in three days."

Malia smiled and said, "As long as you think it's okay, go ahead. You are now at the age where you should go out and explore. You will never know what might happen unless you try."

"Don't worry, both of you can go out to work. I'll find an easy job nearby. You don't have to worry about me anymore." Malia smiled and didn't say anything more.

The children grew up without a father, so she felt very sorry for them.

Malia quickly composed herself and asked them to bring out the dishes and prepare for dinner.

Clara finally arrived when the dishes were served.

She was carrying lots of things in her hands.

Raelynn took a look and said, "Clara, your presence is enough. Why did you bring so much stuff?"

Clara looked at the warm little house and smiled. "Rae, it's your family's housewarming. Of course I have to bring gifts."

Raelynn helped her with the things and put them aside.

"It's time for dinner. Come over quickly."

Clara looked at the tiny room and said with a smile, "Rae, not bad. It's very cozy."

Raelynn also liked this place very much. "The small courtyard outside is my favorite thing about this house. It's pretty nice."

It didn't matter how big the house was. All that mattered was that they could live together happily.

Clara followed behind her. She was taken aback when she saw Kenneth.

"Oh my! Mr. Alwynn, why are you here?"

Kenneth had some impression of her. They had eaten together last time.

"Hello!" He nodded slightly.

Clara instantly tensed up.

Raelynn dragged Clara over and introduced her mother and brother to her.

After greeting them, they sat down and had dinner.

Malia lived a lavish life when she was young. However, after she had a child, she left her family and became independent.

Having lived outside for so many years, she was also a good cook.

Everyone ate with relish and kept praising Malia. Everyone felt restrained around Kenneth, but they enjoyed the meal nonetheless.

Chapter 2375

After dinner, Raelynn helped Malia clean up.

Ryder ushered everyone to the living room and served them fruits. During this period, Kenneth got up to answer several phone calls. He was very busy with work.

Just as Raelynn came out from the kitchen, Kenneth had just ended another call and returned to the living room.

Looking at Raelynn, he said, "I have to go to the company. I'm leaving now."

Raelynn replied, "Let me send you off."

Kenneth nodded. After saying goodbye to everyone, he walked out the door with Raelynn.

Clara could sense that there was something going on between the two of them. She was definitely going to grill Rae with questions.

When the two of them arrived downstairs, Raelynn looked at Kenneth. "Do you really have to go to work so late at night?"

Kenneth nodded. "Yes, I'll be done in an hour. I'll go home and rest once I'm done."

Kenneth suddenly reached out and held Raelynn in his arms.

"Wh-what are you doing?" Raelynn looked at him nervously. She felt embarrassed and afraid that there would be people around them.

Kenneth lowered his head and looked at how shy she was.

Kenneth smiled and whispered, "Rae, I like it when you're drunk."

Raelynn's face instantly heated up. She pounded his chest like an anxious and angry little rabbit. She warned him, "Don't talk about it, and don't even think about it."

"There's nothing I can do. I can't control my thoughts." Kenneth smirked. "By the way, Rae, the hotel is mine. We can go there whenever you miss me. Anyway, I miss you very much. If you don't like hotels, I have an apartment near the company."

After all, he was in his prime.

He wanted nothing more than to take her home right now.

"Are you shameless? I'll be staying at home from now on, so I may not have a chance to stay at the hotel again. You can stop thinking about it." Raelynn couldn't help pounding his chest again.

The man stood still and looked at her affectionately. He wasn't as serious and cold as usual.

"Then I might have to find a way to marry you and bring you home with me." His hoarse voice made one's legs go weak.

Raelynn didn't expect him to be so frivolous. This relationship was going too fast, and she needed things to slow down.

"Go back to work but don't work too late. Rest early." Raelynn worried that he might overwork his body.

The workload of the Alwynn Group was astonishing. She had seen it before.

Kenneth wrapped his arms tightly around her waist and said in a gentle tone, "Well, give me a kiss so that I'll sleep well."

Raelynn was blushing as she tiptoed to kiss him on the lips. When she was about to leave, Kenneth didn't let go. It wasn't until Raelynn felt that she was almost out of breath that Kenneth reluctantly let go of her.

The street lights were dim yellow. Under the cotton tree, several purple petals were falling with the wind and the faint fragrance of flowers was refreshing. Both of them embraced under the dim lights.

Kenneth said in a hoarse voice, "Well, you should go back now. I'll see you the next day!"

Raelynn was still blushing as she nodded and turned to go upstairs.

When she reached the stairs, she turned around and waved at him.

Kenneth watched her leave before he walked towards the parking lot.

Luke had been waiting the entire time. When he saw Kenneth approaching, he immediately got out of the car and opened the door for him.

When Raelynn returned home, she could sense that the atmosphere was more lively without Kenneth. Ryder was engrossed in chatting with his colleagues.

"Raelynn, has Mr. Alwynn left?" Ryder asked. It was as if there was a hidden meaning behind his smile.

Raelynn noticed it and grew nervous. She nodded quickly and said, "He's gone. He has to go back to the company to work overtime."

Ryder shook his head and said, "He's so busy. It must be tiring!"

Malia smiled and said, "Rae, have some fruits and cake."

Raelynn walked over and sat down beside Clara.

Clara handed her a piece of cake and deliberately said in surprise, "Did Mr. Alwynn buy this? This ice cream cake has eight different flavors. It's so appetizing. Besides, it's made by a famous baker. Mr. Alwynn is so thoughtful."

The Edwards Family would always order the most expensive and delicious ice cream cake for James's birthday.

She had a few spoonfuls. The more she ate, the more she liked it. In the end, she finished the last piece.

Clara looked at her expression and smiled mysteriously.

Ryder and his colleagues were still talking about DF1.

They eventually made up their mind to apply for the job three days later.

The guests only left at eleven o'clock. Clara couldn't find an opportunity to question Raelynn, so she left with disappointment.

The house was suddenly empty again. Ryder looked at the gifts that occupied half of the living room before turning to Raelynn. "Raelynn, shall we open all these gifts?"

Raelynn nodded in agreement. "Let's do it."

The family of three happily opened the gifts. While the gifts weren't big, Raelynn had mixed feelings as these items weren't cheap.

"Wow! Raelynn, Mom can bake with this imported oven. Although it's not very big, it's enough for a family of three."

"Raelynn, this rice cooker is very expensive. The rice cooked must be delicious."

"Wow! Raelynn, we can make popsicles at home with this blender. I'll make them for you and Mom the next day."

Ryder was very excited. It had to be said that the gifts from Kenneth were of use to their family.

Malia glanced at her daughter with worry in her heart. After all, rich families could be heartless. She was afraid that her daughter would get hurt.

Looking at her happy son, she kept quiet and decided to speak with her another time.

The three of them took an hour to clean up the house.

There were many small household appliances in the kitchen. It was a little crowded, but it was very homey.

It had been a tiring day for Raelynn. She took a shower and went to bed. She lived in the second bedroom, while Ryder got the master bedroom since he was the only boy in the family.

Initially, Malin was the one who was supposed to stay in the master bedroom. However, she was reluctant and was only willing to stay in the second bedroom. Although it wasn't big, everyone was content.

Raelynn laid down and scrolled through her phone. Kenneth had sent her a message not long ago.

"Rae, I'm home."

Raelynn looked at the time and found that the agreed hour had turned into more than two hours.

Raelynn replied, "Go to bed early, good night."

In fact, Kenneth had already taken a shower and was waiting for Raelynn's reply.

When he finally received a message from her, he couldn't help but smile.

He sent another message, "I'll rest now. Good night, see you the next day!"

Raelynn smiled. She was feeling a different kind of happiness. She felt happy whenever she messaged Kenneth.

Just as Raelynn was soaking in happiness, Kenneth video called her.

Chapter 2376

Raelynn was shocked as the phone kept ringing.

"What's wrong? Why aren't you going to sleep yet?" When she answered, she saw that Kenneth was dressed in white silk pajamas, leaning against the bed. His freshly washed black hair wasn't waxed, and his bangs covered his forehead, making him look much more handsome.

Kenneth was also looking at Raelynn. She was wearing a pink nightdress, which made her skin look fair and smooth. Her beautiful hair was tied into a ponytail, and her exposed face was shining with a soft luster. He chuckled and said, "I wanted to see you!"

Raelynn was very happy to hear this. Was this what it was like to be in love?

They had only been separated for a short while, yet they already missed each other very much.

Moreover, she thought of changing her appearance according to Kenneth's preference.

At the thought of this, Raelynn hated herself. This was exactly who she was. If she changed in any way, she wouldn't be the same anymore.

Raelynn smiled and pointed the camera at her face. "You've seen me now. Go to bed!"

Kenneth asked, "Rae, where do you live broadcast?"

Raelynn was stunned. "How did you know that I live broadcast?"

Kenneth told her about how Andrew and the triplets came across her live broadcast.

"Rae, they enjoy your lessons very much. When I came back, I saw that they were all engrossed in your live broadcast."

Raelynn asked, "Then do you object to your girlfriend live broadcasting?"

Kenneth shook his head slightly. "No. Whether you're my wife or my girlfriend, you can do whatever you want. You don't have to change your lifestyle for me."

"However, I'm the eldest son of the Alwynn family. Life may be a little hard when you marry me. We might have to stay with my parents. But don't worry, they're very nice."

Raelynn couldn't help but smile. How could anyone not fall in love with this man?

His personality was attractive enough, let alone his background.

Some people may have to take care of the family after they marry into a wealthy family. They might even have to give up their personal goals.

"I know. I enjoy sharing my knowledge with others, especially since my audience is mainly kids. But I don't have much time to do it."

" You don't even go to school. Why are you watching my live broadcast?"

Kenneth replied truthfully, "When I can't see you, I can watch your live broadcast and listen to your voice."

"Kenneth!" Raelynn laughed out loud. "You can video call me like we're doing right now." She started blushing after she said that. Why did she have to say that? It seemed overenthusiastic.

Well, after all, she was no longer reserved in front of him. She had revealed her true self after getting drunk.

It was as if Kenneth had been waiting for her to say this as his smile widened after hearing that. "Rae, I'll keep this in mind."

He sounded like a henpecked husband.

Raelynn's eyes lit up, and she seemed to be falling even deeper in love with Kenneth.

"Thank you for the gifts. It's everything my family needed."

Raelynn changed the subject.

Kenneth said, "It's good that you like it. It's even better that you need it!" Gifting something useful was great as she would be reminded of him every time she used it.

This was why he bought so many gifts in the first place.

Luke's idea turned out to be great so Kenneth rewarded him with a bonus.

Luke smiled when he heard as soon as he woke up. Miss Edwards was indeed his lucky star.

They chatted for a while before hanging up.

Raelynn gave the name of the live broadcast to Kenneth and asked him to go directly to the live broadcast platform to look for it.

After hanging up the phone, Kenneth immediately searched for the live broadcast.

He clicked on it and found several videos of Raelynn streaming from abroad. Her voice was clear and pleasant to the ear, so she easily attracted the attention of many people.

Kenneth couldn't help smiling. The woman he liked was excellent.

When Raelynn went to work the next morning, she brought some food for Kenneth.

Since he was now her boyfriend, she wanted to do things typical couples would do.

A boyfriend should be happy with his girlfriend's cooking, right?

She had never been in a relationship before, but when the girls around her were in a relationship, they would prepare breakfast and eat with their boyfriends. It was probably an amazing experience!

On that day, there wasn't any meeting in the morning, so Raelynn happily brought the breakfast to the 25th floor.

It was very quiet on the 25th floor. Kenneth and Luke were the only ones there. Occasionally, Dean would come to work with his assistant, but he would only come in on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Other times, he would usually work somewhere else.

As soon as she got out of the elevator, she saw Kenneth standing next to a girl with a good figure. She had thick luscious hair, pale skin, sparkling eyes, a pointed nose and lips as red as cherry blossoms. She was very beautiful, and her height was almost the same as hers.

She stopped in her tracks when she witnessed the girl being intimate and holding Kenneth's arm.

Raelynn's eyes widened. In an instant, she felt her chest tighten.

"Isla, what are you doing?" Kenneth was angry.

Kenneth shook off her hand and took a few steps back, keeping a distance from her. His tone was cold.

Only then did Raelynn relax.

Isla smiled and said, "Kenny, what's wrong with you? Did you have to overreact? I was just excited to see you. Nathaniel said that you would come to work today so I wanted to give you a surprise. I came straight to the company to find you after getting off the plane in the early morning." The girl sounded hurt and aggrieved.

Kenneth's expression remained indifferent. "You know that I don't like girls getting close to me. Don't make such intimate moves in the future. I already have a girl I like. If she sees this, I'm afraid she'll misunderstand."

He never did anything ambiguous with a girl he didn't like.

Isla looked at him with her big eyes, as if she couldn't believe that Kenneth, who had just returned from abroad, would already have a girl he liked.

"Kenny, are you serious? Is there really someone you like?" She had worked hard for so many years, but she still failed to win over his heart.

Who was she?

Who stole her position as the wife of the Alwynn Group's director?

"Yes!" Kenneth nodded.

"The girl you like must have a good personality and an excellent family background, right?"

"Kenny, who is it? I want to meet her."

Kenneth remained expressionless. "You'll meet her when we get married."

When Raelynn heard this, she wanted to laugh. Why was he so obedient?

The pain in her chest had subsided. And from this incident, she knew clearly that she was in love with Kenneth.

Seeing him being intimate with another girl made her uncomfortable.

Raelynn was both happy and worried when she realized this.

Soon, she heard Kenneth's voice again.

"I'll ask Luke to take you to the hotel to rest."

Chapter 2377

"Kenny, can I stay at your house? I don't like staying in hotels." Isla would not let go of any chance to get along with Kenneth.

She should have returned to the country earlier. In the past, she had been by his side, and there had never been another girl beside him.

"No, I've never brought a woman or any friends home. My family has always been very strict with our security." Without even thinking about it, Kenneth rejected the offer.

His mother had been hurt countless times, and his father would not allow pictures of his mother to appear on the Internet.

Every child in their family would try their best to protect themselves to avoid worrying the family.

No matter how good a person was, there would always be a chance of betrayal.

Kenneth had hidden his identity overseas for many years in order not to attract others' attention.

Isla was despondent and she asked in a low voice, "Even friends can't go back with you?"

"No!" Kenneth replied straightforwardly.

"Alright, I'll listen to your arrangements, Kenny." Isla's face was pale and her entire body was covered in a layer of sadness.

However, Kenneth didn't notice it at all.

Raelynn could tell that Kenneth was really cold-hearted, but it still depended on who he was facing.

"Okay!" Kenneth nodded.

Luke was standing not far away. He walked over and said to Isla, "Please!" Then, he led the way.

"Miss Edwards." Luke looked at Raelynn and smiled.

"Good morning, Mr. Parma!" Raelynn greeted him gracefully.

It was only then that Kenneth noticed Raelynn.

Luke was very perceptive and brought Isla into the elevator.

After entering the elevator, Isla looked at Kenneth. She saw that his handsome face was different from the coldness just now. Instead, it held a faint gentleness and tenderness.

That was an expression that she had never seen on Kenneth's face before.

A woman's sixth sense was so sensitive that she instantly felt that Kenny treated this woman differently.

However, the elevator door had closed.

She smiled and asked Luke, "Mr. Parma, is that woman an employee of the company?"

Luke nodded. "Yes, Miss Alden."

"What's her name?" Isla asked again. As long as she knew that woman's name, she could find out who she was.

Luke had an apologetic expression on his face. "I'm sorry, Miss Alden. It's not convenient for us to reveal anything regarding our company's management."

Isla frowned. She didn't expect Luke to be on guard against her.

She looked at him with amusement. "Mr. Parma, we have known each other for several years. Don't you know my character? Are you afraid that I will do something to the person Kenny likes?"

Her main purpose was to test Luke.

Luke was also a man with a sharp tongue. He knew how to observe a person's words and expressions, and he also understood Kenneth's temper very well. He smiled calmly and said, "Miss Alden, your words are very serious. You are also an industry insider and a professional. It's not that we are wary of you, but you also know the market here."

Isla smiled and remained silent.

"Wait and see, Luke. When I marry Kenny and be a part of the Alwynn family, I'll fire you. You're so short-sighted. You can't stay with Kenny," she thought to herself.

He was not smart at all.

In the president's office, Raelynn brought out the lunch box for Kenneth to eat as well as a fragrant cup of juice.

Kenneth got up early this morning. He hadn't had breakfast yet, so her delivery was very timely. Raelynn's breakfast was better than an oasis in a desert.

Raelynn looked at him and said, "Drink some juice first. I used the machine you gave me and I made it fresh. It's fragrant and healthy."

He picked it up and took a sip. It was indeed delicious.

"My mom will also make this for me. She also likes fruits very much. It's delicious."

Kenneth took another sip and picked up his cutlery to eat the pancakes and sandwiches.

Everything tasted good. "Rae, your cooking is delicious!"

Raelynn's beautiful face was full of smiles. "I have been learning to cook since I was in school. My adoptive parents don't care much about me so I have to manage myself well."

Kenneth rubbed her head affectionately and said with a smile, "It's okay. You have me. I'll cook a lot of delicious food for you in the future."

"Really?" Raelynn's delicate little face was full of surprise. It was hard to imagine the scene of him cooking in the kitchen with an apron on.

"Really. Why don't you come to my house tonight and I'll cook you something delicious?" Kenneth said as he fed her some of his sandwich. His expression was also very serious, unlike being perfunctory towards Raelynn.

The scene just now reminded him of the scene he saw on campus when he was in university.

The elite schools were very large, and the green plants were also very tall and verdant. When he was in university, the teachers had a unique way of educating the students. The students did not have to come to school at the same time everyday like it was outside. Instead, they only had to come when their classes were scheduled. They were all top students, and everyone's results were top-notch.

Kenneth could sleep in until 11 o'clock in the morning before going for classes.

When he passed by the woods, he saw some couples having lunch under the trees. They shared their food, and he found it very interesting at that time.

It was just that he did not have the urge to meet the person he liked, nor did he have the urge to fall in love at that time.

Raelynn opened her mouth and ate the sandwich he fed her, her soft lips gently pressed against his fingertips. Instantly, an electric current spread throughout his whole body, and his heart rippled. He liked this kind of feeling very much.

Speaking of going to his house, Raelynn remembered the scene just now and asked with a smile, "Will you take me back to your house? Was that your friend earlier?"

Kenneth shook his head slightly. "She's not a friend, but another apprentice of my master. She's my junior, but I'm not familiar with her. I've known her for many years, but I never spoke to her much. She's basically a stranger to me."

Raelynn thought, "You've known her for years but you still say that she's a stranger to you. How sad would that junior be if she heard that!"

Kenneth looked at her deeply. "Did you see what happened just now?"

"Yes! I thought she was the girl you liked. The moment I saw her holding your arm, I felt very sad and wanted to hit you." Raelynn looked at him with a smile. Fortunately, it was not what she thought.

Kenneth put down his cutlery and asked seriously, "Can I take it that you were jealous just now?"

Raelynn blushed and whispered, "You could say that."

"Haha..." Kenneth laughed, seemingly less indifferent, and his smile was gentle and refreshing.

She was jealous because she liked him.

"I asked about my mother's schedule. Next month, there will be a branch of Symantec Group opening. She will come back to attend the opening ceremony. I will take you home to meet them then."

"Okay!" After Raelynn had figured things out the night before, she no longer resisted this matter.

Her agreement put Kenneth in a good mood, and his smile was gentle and doting.

At that moment, their two hearts were clear and warm.

"By the way, what do your parents like? I can't just go empty-handed, can I?" Raelynn still inquired about Kenneth's parents' preferences in advance so that she could buy them gifts.

Chapter 2378

However, people like them didn't lack anything, so it was not easy to buy them gifts.

Kenneth smiled and responded, "As long as it's prepared carefully, they will like it very much."

"Okay!" Raelynn began thinking about preparations.

Alwynn Group was a business giant, and Symantec Group was a real estate giant. The Alwynn family could be said to be the most powerful entity in River City.

Raelynn was lost. How could she prepare a gift?

However, thinking about it, there was still a month left, so she still had time to come up with ideas.

After breakfast, Kenneth said, "Rae, bring some more food for me tomorrow. I'm going on a business trip the day after tomorrow."

"Okay." She was very happy to know that he liked her cooking.

She only returned to her office after Kenneth finished his breakfast.

Raelynn was thinking about something all the way, but she didn't notice Faith.

Faith saw that Raelynn had come from upstairs.

"Miss Edwards." Faith's tone was a little cold. "What are you doing at this time if you're not at work?"

Raelynn immediately came back to her senses. She smiled and replied, "Miss Mason, I went to the roof to find inspiration."

That was the excuse she had thought about in advance. After all, she came from upstairs.

Faith didn't really believe her. It was very difficult for her to get close to Kenneth. Sometimes, she would find various reasons to go to the 25th floor, but Kenneth easily sent her away.

She always felt that there was something going on between Raelynn and Kenneth.

"By the way, Miss Edwards, recently people like the national costumes very much. There is a brand store in the Western District. I heard that the number of sales for this month is amazing. You can go and have a look, and survey the market."

Although Alwynn Group did not often follow the trends and had always created its own style, they had a very high standard for originality and aestheticism. As such, they could only keep trying to find inspiration.

Raelynn knew about this matter and said, "Okay, Miss Mason, but there seemed to be a trend for ideas based on national costumes in the company before. Why is it gone now?"

She remembered that she had seen Alwynn Group's fashionable clothes based on national costumes last season. They were all high-end and very beautiful.

Faith said, "Previously, the chairman's wife was the director of the design department. Now that she has retired, basically, no one can emulate that style anymore. The previous styles have also almost been sold out, but there are still some special customized ones. Mr. Kenneth will still go to his mother to get her to design them."

Raelynn understood that it was not just one or two days since the trend had developed. The quality was good, but the production speed was slow. The production rate was also low, and the price of each batch was terrifyingly high.

The choice of fabric was a very important problem; embroidery, prints, and other materials were all provided by different suppliers. These procedures were all provided with different goods. However,

Alwynn Group's clothing base was very mature, so it should not be difficult to source these materials.

She was very interested in traditional and cultural costumes. Now that she had the chance to find inspiration for them, she would also do her best.

"Thank you, Miss Mason. I got it." Raelynn nodded with a smile. Most of Alwynn Group's customers were young people. It was really difficult to change national costumes into fashionable clothes that suited their ages, but were also stylish.

It was difficult for the public to accept it without being attached to the traditional form.

Faith said, "There are also two new assistants. One of them will go with you, and the other is with me. You and Clara Hansen will work together. She is already in your office."

"Is that so? Thank you, Miss Mason. We'll set off immediately." Raelynn smiled happily, waved her hand at Faith, and returned to her office.

As soon as she pushed the door open, she saw Clara dressed in a black business suit, looking nervously at Raelynn.

Raelynn was speechless.

"Clara, that's great. You'll be my assistant in the future."

Clara looked at Raelynn and felt very wronged. "Rae, where have you been? I came here alone, which scared me to death. The people here are so cold and indifferent. They didn't want to tell me the location of your office. Everyone looks arrogant. I'll be depressed working in this kind of environment."

"We were supposed to take part in a week's training, but there was a shortage of assistants here, so we were pushed to begin work straightaway."

Raelynn smiled and said, "Don't worry. You won't be bullied if I take you with me in the future." She gave Clara a glass of water to calm her down.

Raelynn had experienced it before and had a deep understanding of the situation.

"Really? It's my first time working in such a big company. I'm really nervous." Clara patted her racing heart gently.

A thin layer of sweat appeared on her forehead.

Raelynn gently patted her. "Silly girl, don't be nervous. The people here are all like this. As long as you show your ability, they will immediately be frightened and will never dare to look at you like that again. Here, strength is king."

Clara had already gained the upper hand with the notes from Raelynn, and she understood the situation. However, knowing it and being there in reality was different, and she was still very nervous. If Rae wasn't here, she wouldn't know what to do.

"Rae, can we let others know about our relationship?" Clara asked.

Raelynn smiled and said, "It's up to you. If you want others to know, you can let them know. If you don't want others to know, you don't have to tell them. However, our work is focused on designs, so you have to be careful."

She felt that Clara was very naive. With her personality, it was easy for her to suffer losses, especially in such a competitive company.

"Rae, don't worry. I understand." Clara knew some of the rules and methods in the workplace.

Raelynn said, "Well, let's pack up and go do some work."

"Okay!" Clara was overjoyed. "I don't have to stay in this dull office. It's so nice to go out!"

Isla was sent to the hotel. She was in a particularly bad mood and was very tired, but she couldn't fall asleep. After taking a shower, she called Nathaniel.

"Hey! Isla, where are you?" Nathaniel asked with a smile.

Isla answered unhappily, "Nathaniel, Kenny arranged for me to stay in the hotel."

Nathaniel smiled and replied, "The hotel is not bad either."

"Hmph! What's good about that? I'm also Kenny's guest, but he actually arranged for me to stay in the hotel. This is disrespectful to me. Didn't you say that his house is very big? Isn't Dragon Villa very special? I want to go and have a look. Why didn't he arrange for me to stay in his house?"

Hearing this, Nathaniel found it hard to answer her.

"Isla, you can't blame Kenny. I haven't been to his house since I came back either, so you don't have to think too much about it. His family has a special identity and they are very well protected. For Dragon Villa, if you are not someone they trust, there is no way for you to get in."

Hearing this, Isla felt very sad.

"Nathaniel, do you mean that Kenny doesn't treat us as family members? We've known each other for so many years. Doesn't he trust us?"

Nathaniel smiled and said, "That's not true. Seven once invited me to Dragon Villa as a guest, but I was busy at that time and had no time to go. If you really wanted to go, Seven wouldn't blame you."

"Well, if you want to go to Dragon Villa, I'll take you there one day."

Chapter 2379

"Nathaniel, is what you said true? When will you take me there? I'm on vacation now, and I am free at any time." Isla thought of her plan.

In the company, it was not easy to carry out this plan. If it was in Kenneth's home, the plan could succeed in one go.

Isla couldn't wait any longer. She had liked Kenny for many years. As long as she married him, she could get whatever she wanted.

"Okay, I'll see when Seven is free then contact you. By the way, I'll treat you to a welcome meal in the evening. Let's get together. I'll send a message to Kenny later."

"Okay, Nathaniel." Isla was very happy. Nathaniel still loved her.

"Okay! Send me the location of the hotel and I'll pick you up."

Isla smiled happily. She was in a much better mood and her voice was much lighter. "Okay, Nathaniel."

After hanging up the phone, Isla opened her suitcase and began to choose an outfit to wear that night.

Looking at the suitcase full of beautiful clothes, Isla smiled confidently. She had always believed that she was the best match for Kenny.

However, according to her understanding of him, he liked girls in white dresses the most. Although Kenny had never said that, she usually paid attention to his preferences. He would pay attention to girls in white more often.

In the end, Isla chose a white lace dress. It was a high-end dress designed by Alwynn Group. After she changed, she looked more elegant and pure. She let down her soft hair, and she was like a fairy who had accidentally entered the mortal world.

She looked at herself in the mirror and was very satisfied.

"This is it." She smiled and admired herself in front of the mirror. She was very satisfied no matter how she looked at herself. The fabric was particularly comfortable and made her feel good.

It was worthy of being a famous brand. Every piece of clothing was ingenious.

As long as she became Kenneth's wife, she could change into different sets of clothes everyday.

Isla was waiting for her beautiful fantasy to come true. She had been waiting for that day for many years. From the age of eighteen, she showed her love for Kenny in front of him. However, he was too cold, especially towards girls. His reserved and aloof attitude made ordinary girls afraid to approach him.

Only she could get close to him.

There was also the female employee from that morning. By the way, she had forgotten to ask Nathaniel if Kenny had a girl he liked.

She was right about the tenderness in Kenny's eyes in the morning. In his cold, dark eyes, there had always been indifference and alienation, never tenderness.

For Kenneth, he had always been in control of others. It was the first time Isla saw him being so gentle for a woman, which made her realize a strong sense of crisis.

She grabbed the phone on the quilt, thought for a moment, then put it down. Thinking of the phone call just now, Nathaniel would definitely call her later. She could just wait in peace.

In Kenneth's office!

Kenneth was very serious with his work. He waited until he was done with her work before he glanced at the phone on the table.

Nathaniel had messaged him, "Seven, let's hold a welcoming dinner for Isla tonight. You can arrange it, and we can all go together."

Kenneth frowned slightly. He glanced at his schedule and replied, "I can arrange it, but I may have to work overtime tonight."

Nathaniel sent a message, "Seven, you can't only work, but you also need to enjoy the fun of life. Apart from work, you only eat and sleep every day. Isn't it boring?"

Kenneth took a deep breath. He had felt bored before, but now, he didn't think so because there was a girl in the company that he liked.

Kenneth wrote, "No, it's not boring. You can go to the big restaurant in River City. I'll arrange it."

Nathaniel replied, "In that case, Isla may not go."

Kenneth frowned. He had a good impression of Isla. She was educated and reasonable, and her smile was innocent and lovely. Why wouldn't she go?

He directly made a phone call.

Nathaniel smiled and said, "Seven, it's better to talk on the phone. Isla came from far away, so it's necessary to have a meal together. No matter how busy you are, you should show up."

Kenneth pinched his tired eyebrows and stated, "You know that I'm very busy. I just took over Alwynn Group and many departments are still in the adjustment period. I only have one hour in the evening. I'll leave the rest to you."

Hearing this, Nathaniel felt much more comfortable. "Okay, as long as you appear, Isla will be very happy. I'll hang up and call her now."

"Okay!" Kenneth hung up the phone first.

In the hotel suite, Isla was very satisfied with the presidential suite that Kenneth had prepared for her. The hotel service was also very good, and she could eat anything she wanted.

She had just had lunch when she received a call from Nathaniel.

"Nathaniel." She gracefully pulled out a tissue to wipe the corner of her mouth.

All these years, she had been working hard to learn the etiquette in the rich circle in order to marry Kenneth.

"Isla, let's go to the big restaurant in River City for dinner tonight. They serve all the famous dishes of River City. Seven has arranged it for you."

Hearing this, Isla was overjoyed, and her big eyes were full of shyness.

"Okay, thank you, Nathaniel."

"By the way, Nathaniel, I have something to ask you. Does Kenny have a girl he likes?" She knew that Nathaniel would not lie to her.

Nathaniel was stunned and responded with a smile, "Sibyl, don't joke around. Will someone like Seven, who only knows how to work, have a girlfriend? Besides, even if he has a girlfriend, I will definitely be the first one to know. If he has a girl he likes, it must be you. For so many years, you're the only girl who has appeared beside him."

Those words undoubtedly pleased Isla.

However, she was the only one who knew how difficult it was to get close to Kenneth.

"Nathaniel, don't say that." She smiled shyly.

Had she been mistaken that morning?

.....

When Raelynn got off work in the afternoon, she and Clara returned to the company.

Raelynn wrote a market report as quickly as she could and handed it to Faith.

After reading it, Faith was very satisfied. She looked at Raelynn and smiled. "Not bad. Let's get off work."

"Okay, thank you, Miss Mason." Raelynn returned to the office.

Clara had been running around for an entire day, and she was very tired. She had to endure the fatigue of being a worker no matter how tired she was.

Seeing Raelynn come in, she was very happy. "Rae, can we get off work now?"

Raelynn smiled and nodded. "Yes, Clara. You can go back first."

She had just received a message from Kenneth, asking her to go upstairs.

Clara was a little unhappy. "Rae, today is my first day at work. In order to thank you for your introduction, I wanted to invite you to dinner, but you don't want to come with me."

Raelynn didn't dare to go with her as she had really suffered last time. "Didn't you invite me a while ago? I have something to do today so you go back first. We can eat together another day."

Clara's face was filled with disappointment as she had wanted to celebrate.

"Okay! Rae, don't work too late. Go home early. I'll head off first."

"Okay!"

After Clara left, Raelynn stayed in the office for a while. When she saw that everyone in the design department had left, she went to the 25th floor to look for Kenneth.

Chapter 2380

Kenneth granted Raelynn a privilege, but only Luke knew that. After work, Luke waited for her at the elevator entrance.

After waiting for a while, he saw Raelynn coming up.

"Miss Edwards, please go in. Mr. Kenneth only has 40 minutes as he has to attend a dinner party."

Raelynn nodded and walked inside with a smile.

In the office, the afterglow cast in through the French windows, and the orange light was soft and gentle in the whole office.

The handsome man sat bathed in the orange light. His indifferent expression and straight figure immediately appeared much gentler.

Raelynn smiled faintly. Falling in love with such a man, she felt that her life had reached its peak.

After working for a whole day, Kenneth sat on the sofa and rested. When he saw Raelynn coming in, a faint smile finally appeared on his handsome face, which had been serious for a whole day.

"Sit down!" Kenneth patted the sofa and asked her to sit down.

Raelynn sat beside him obediently. Knowing that he was very busy with work, she didn't make a fuss.

"What's the matter?" She asked with a smile. Her smile was sincere and there was a hint of unconcealable affection in it.

She had rejected Clara in order to meet him.

Kenneth looked at her smile quietly; it was sincere and without any scheming.

He thought that he really liked this girl. He couldn't stop his desires for her and always wanted to see her, but he was too busy at work and had to endure it. When he finally got off work, he felt that each day was as long as a year.

Back then, he felt that his father was very selfish and always dominated his mother.

Now, he finally understood his father's feelings at that time. Because he liked a person too much, he always wanted her to himself and occupy all her time. That strong possessiveness would make his heart burn.

Kenneth felt a little guilty. He had wronged his father all those years ago.

He smiled dazzlingly and said with a smile, "I suddenly feel a little sorry for my father."

Raelynn was stunned. She looked at him and asked, "Why do you suddenly feel that way?"

Kenneth leaned over slightly to get closer to her.

There was a faint fragrance on her body. It was not the smell of perfume, but her unique scent. That faint fragrance often lingered in his mind at night, making him very annoyed and that it was difficult to bear.

He whispered in her ear, "My father used to be like me now. He often wants to keep the woman he loves to himself."

"At that time, I always felt that Dad was fighting with me for Mom. Now, I finally understand that once I fall in love with someone, I really want to tie her to me and never let her leave my sight."

His warm breath sprayed around her ear, and Raelynn's whole body tensed. She stared blankly at the computer on his desk, and her big watery eyes flashed for a moment.

He... seemed to have confessed again.

"Haha..." Her reaction made Kenneth chuckle, and he was in a good mood.

"Rae." Kenneth hugged her.

Only then did Raelynn slowly come to her senses.

Tilting their heads, their lips brushed across each other and an ambiguous atmosphere instantly pervaded the air.

It was as if two currents were spreading through their bodies at the same time.

Both of them were stunned and then they looked at each other, smiling.

Kenneth bent over and kissed her lips. Her soft lips made the desire in his body start to stir.

"I miss you!" He murmured softly.

Raelynn had fallen for him, and the magnetic and devilish voice echoed in her ears.

She looked at him shyly, licked her lips, and said in a low voice, "Me too."

Her actions were undoubtedly the most deadly temptation to him.

"Can I?" He asked for her opinion with blurred eyes.

Raelynn was stunned. At this time, he could bear it and respect her. Her eyes lit up a little.

"We can't do it here. What if someone comes in?" Raelynn was not blinded by love.

They were in Kenneth's office.

"No." Kenneth picked her up and walked inside his private resting lounge.

The office used to belong to his father. Later, after Kenneth came here, he changed the style and decoration of the room. The bedroom on the far left of the office was still a rest and lounge room.

It was decorated in a grayish-white style. Except for the bedroom, everything was almost completely done in transparent tempered glass; it was bright, spacious, stylish, and domineering.

A light gray bed sheet covered the bed, and it looked just like Kenneth's character. It was cold and indifferent.

The moment Kenneth put her on the soft quilt.

Raelynn's body seemed to have come into contact with a familiar aura. An overwhelming and overbearing aura filled every cell in her body inch by inch, and it was like a gentle hand gently caressing her whole body.

Raelynn did not reject that feeling. Instead, she relied on it and wanted to get close to it.

Looking at her shy appearance, the affection in Kenneth's dark eyes grew stronger.

... Finally, in bewitching Rae, both of them reached their ultimate happiness.

Kenneth leaned lazily against the head of the bed like a cat.

Seeing that Raelynn was about to fall asleep due to fatigue, he glanced at the clock on the cabinet. It was already an hour later. If he hadn't had something to do that night, he might not have been able to hold back the whole night.

"Rae, I'm going to a dinner party. Do you want to go? They are all my friends." His voice was joyful and satisfied.

His gaze was as gentle as water as he looked at the drowsy woman. He knew that she was not asleep and that she was probably shy.

Raelynn lazily raised her eyes, and her long eyelashes fluttered gently like butterfly wings.

She shook her head with grievance again. "No, I'll go next time. I need to do a live broadcast tonight."

Raelynn did not object to such behavior before marriage. She liked this man, so she was willing to do it. She never regretted what she did because she was happy.

Growing up in the Edwards family, she had had little happiness. When she grew up in a home that valued men more than women, there were many things that she could not do as she liked.

Therefore, when she knew that she liked this man, she followed her heart.

At least no one else could bring her such happiness.

There were times when people were rebellious. Now that she was free, she also wanted to live the life she wanted as she liked.

Moreover, since Kenneth was willing to take her to meet his friends, it showed that he was at least a little sincere to her.

Hearing her refusal, Kenneth wasn't displeased. On the contrary, he didn't really want his bad friends to know how good she was.

He stared at her with burning eyes, and his eyes were bright.

"Have a rest. I've prepared some clothes for you in the cloakroom. You can leave after you rest. I'll send you dinner soon. If you have nothing to do, you can wait for me to send you home. I'll be back in about an hour."

Raelynn moved her sore body slightly and asked him, "Why are you coming back? Do you have to work overtime tonight?"

"Yes! Recently, there are a few projects overseas to cooperate with, and there's also the matter of DF1. I'll be very busy these days."
