

Gluey Love 2381

Chapter 2381

Raelynn felt very sorry for him. "Why are you so busy?"

Kenneth replied, "Yes! My father wanted to retire when I was 18 years old, but I managed to hang on until now. He just wanted to travel around the world with my mother. My grandfather and grandmother also went on trips. They're already so old, yet they want to travel. We worry about them all the time."

"But the two elders didn't take it to heart at all. This time, they may not come back until winter."

Raelynn smiled and remarked, "It must be warm at home."

Clara said that the Alwynn family was different from other wealthy families. The Alwynn family members were warm and easy to get along with.

"Yes!" Kenneth's eyes were filled with happiness.

Raelynn looked at him, and her watery eyes were full of smiles. "Go ahead. I'll go back by myself later. You don't have to prepare dinner for me. I'll go home to eat." She had to do the live broadcast that night. If she didn't have to do the live broadcast, she could have a rest here.

However, this was Kenneth's office after all. It was inappropriate for her to rest here.

There would be gossip. If she really married him, she could stay here openly.

Only then did Kenneth get up reluctantly. The feeling of not wanting to leave her intensified.

Kenneth moved his body a little and sat back down abruptly. He hugged Raelynn tightly.

She was stunned for a moment and looked at him nervously and shyly.

His dark eyes were overflowing with emotions. His strong emotions were like rolling lava, and they were filled with infinite tenderness and dominance. However, they made her feel clean and pure. They were also a signal to her that she was the only one in his eyes.

Raelynn loved Kenneth being like this.

"What... What are you doing?" Raelynn asked cautiously. She was more on guard than warm. She didn't want to do it again. If she did, she really wouldn't have to go home.

Kenneth chuckled and said, "Nothing. I want my parents to come back early. I want to go to your house to propose marriage soon. I want to marry you as soon as possible."

Raelynn saw the clear reflection of her appearance in his dark eyes, and he seemed to be serious and determined.

She was also screaming in her heart. She wanted to marry this man.

She smiled. "Okay, I'll wait for you to marry me."

She had feelings for him and liked him, so she didn't want to be pretentious.

Even if she was wrong, it would be for a lifetime.

"Little girl, you really are a devil." Kenneth looked at her bright and innocent smile, and his eyes shone.

.....

By the time Kenneth sent Raelynn back and arrived at the restaurant in River City, it had been almost two hours since the appointed time.

The people in the room stared at each other, and their expressions weren't very good.

That was especially the case for Austin. He had worked all night the night before and was dragged here after sleeping for only a few hours. He waited anxiously and became a little angry.

"When will Seven come? If he's not coming, I'm going back to sleep." Austin and Isla were not familiar with each other, but they had heard of each other's names.

Isla glanced at him and pursed her lips without saying anything.

Nathaniel was just about to say, "Call and ask" when he saw Kenneth push the door open and come in.

"Sorry, I'm late." Kenneth walked in calmly. His tall figure and domineering aura brought everyone to their senses.

Carson was calmer. If Kenneth only appeared at this time, there must have been something very important he had to deal with.

When Isla saw Kenneth, her dim eyes suddenly lit up.

"Kenny, you're finally here." She got up and walked towards Kenneth.

No one knew how upset she was earlier. If Kenneth hadn't come, she would have felt bored during the dinner.

Kenneth's voice was cold. "Sit down. Let's eat first."

Then, he walked to Lucian and sat down beside him.

Isla's eyes darkened as she returned to her seat and sat down.

Nathaniel narrowed his eyes and sized up Kenneth. He felt that Seven's expression was familiar.

"Seven, do you already have someone you like?"

As soon as Nathaniel finished speaking, Isla's nerves instantly tensed up, and she looked at Kenneth with a hurt expression.

Kenneth looked at him curiously. Was it so obvious that Nathaniel could see it at the first glance when he sat down?

He replied, "Why do you ask?"

Nathaniel smiled and remarked, "I always feel that your expression is a little familiar."

Isla's gaze completely fell on Kenneth's handsome face, and she couldn't shift her gaze away from him at all. He had stolen all of her attention.

He seemed to be a little different that day. His whole body was filled with faint joy, dazzling and noble. Even the corners of his mouth had a faint arc. Was it because he saw her?

Kenneth had always been shy, so he didn't know how to talk to a girl.

He must have liked her and was too embarrassed to say it out loud.

"Kenny, we've been waiting for you for two hours. We're very hungry now. Let's order something to eat first." Isla's tone was gentle, not showing a trace of complaint because she had waited for two hours.

Carson looked at Isla, who looked completely different from before, and frowned slightly.

Austin also spoke up, "Kenny, I've already been hungry for so long. Try to understand my mood. Hurry up and order something delicious to comfort my stomach."

Kenneth smiled and said, "If you're hungry, you should have eaten first. You didn't have to wait for me to come over."

Kenneth turned around and pressed the bell. Soon, all the dishes were served.

They were all traditional dishes from the restaurant, which could be regarded as a full banquet. There were all kinds of dishes ranging from chicken and duck to fish and seafood.

Nathaniel looked at everything and praised with a smile, "Kenny, did you order so many traditional dishes because of Isla's arrival? Every dish is special. I may gain two pounds tonight."

Kenneth nodded lightly. "It's Isla's first time in River City. If you like it, eat up."

Isla nodded happily. Kenny really liked her. He had prepared everything so carefully.

What she didn't know was that Kenneth hadn't specially prepared anything.

Other than his family and a few good friends, he would not spend time on anyone else.

"Kenny, eat this fish. It's delicious." Isla picked up a piece of fish with her cutlery and was about to place it on Kenneth's plate when she was stopped by Carson.

Others might not know, but he knew that Kenneth never ate the dishes that someone else had touched.

To prevent any embarrassment, he had to sacrifice himself.

Compared to the other two friends, he and Kenneth had lived in the same dormitory when they were in primary school, so Carson knew his temper well.

Isla looked at him with some displeasure. Why did Carson think so highly of himself? She didn't like him. Why did he have to eat the dishes that she had picked up?

Carson smiled and said, "Miss Alden, let's do it ourselves. Kenny may not like whatever you like."

Isla was stunned and glanced at the expressionless Kenneth. He ate very light food, and the fish she picked up seemed very spicy. There were chopped peppers on it, and the dish was sour and spicy, very delicious.

However, she, who was smart, understood it instantly.

Kenneth didn't like others to serve him food.

"Okay, thank you!" Isla smiled gratefully at Carson.

However, at that moment, Kenneth's phone suddenly rang.

Chapter 2382

Kenneth saw that it was Luke calling.

He stood up and looked at the few of them. "I'm sorry, I'll treat you to dinner another day. I have to go discuss an important collaboration right now. Nathaniel, Austin, you two are also partners. Come with me."

Nathaniel and Austin nodded their heads. They didn't dare to be careless in the face of work. After so many years of hard work, it was not easy for anyone to reach this step.

Only they themselves knew how difficult it was to get to that point.

It was also because of Kenneth's help that they could have comfortable and enjoyable lives at the moment.

"Carson, I'll have to trouble you to send Isla back after dinner. The cooperation tonight is very important," Nathaniel instructed. He did not expect the other party to suddenly want to sign the contract that night.

Carson nodded and gave him a reassuring smile. "Alright, alright. Go ahead. I'll send Miss Alden back to the hotel later. Don't worry."

Isla lowered her head and remained silent. It turned out that in their hearts, work was more important than their junior.

However, she could understand that without these contracts, there would not be such a large Alwyn Group.

Alwynn Group relied on these cooperation to expand little by little. She couldn't let Kenny think that she was ignorant.

She arranged her expression and looked up with a smile, saying, "Kenny, Nathaniel, Austin, you guys should go back to your work as soon as possible. I'll go back to the hotel by myself later."

She had always remembered how Kenneth liked well-behaved and sensible girls. The daughters-in-law of wealthy families were all virtuous wives and good mothers, so she had to always be on her best behavior.

Nathaniel smiled and said, "Isla, don't be so polite. Carson will send you to the hotel later so you can take your time and eat."

"Okay!" Isla smiled and nodded.

After they left, Isla's expression darkened.

Carson glanced at her and remained silent. In his opinion, Isla was cunning and he tried his best to stay away from her. He continued to eat his delicious food. The dishes in that River City restaurant were particularly delicious. When he was abroad, he saw Cecilla send photos of the food to his friends. She also told him that she couldn't help sending photos to him when she was having dinner here. He drooled at the thought of the food.

After returning to the country, he was busy with research and equipment orders, so he had no chance to come and eat there.

That day, he had signed a big deal, and he had made quite a profit. As such, he also bought a birthday present for Cecilla.

For the sake of the person he liked, no matter how hard he worked, he felt that it was worth it, because Cecilla had grown up.

Isla watched as Carson ate happily. He didn't seem to care about her emotions.

She was very upset. He was really a man who didn't know how to appreciate women. No wonder he didn't have a girlfriend yet.

She lowered her head and ate unhappily.

"Beep, Beep..." Carson's mobile phone rang. He pushed the silver-framed glasses on his nose. His movements were elegant and noble. When he saw that it was a message from Cecilla, a gentle smile appeared on his elegant and noble face.

"Carson, where are you? Have you finished work and gone home? My family came to the big restaurant in River City for dinner.!"

Carson replied, "What a coincidence. Cecilla, I'm having dinner at the same restaurant too."

Cecilla wrote, "Carson, where are you? I'll come out to see you. My dad is here so I can't come out for too long."

Carson smiled. Cecilla had grown up, but he knew that she was still afraid of her parents.

Carson typed, "Cecilla, I know where you are. I'll come and find you."

Cecilla agreed, "Okay!"

Cecilla glanced at her father, who was feeding her sister some food, and then at her mother, who was chatting with her brother. She pursed her lips and said, "Dad, I'm going out. I'll be back soon."

Lucian's expression was serious. He raised his eyes and there was a hint of doting on his handsome face. He looked at his daughter and asked, "Where are you going, Cecilla?"

Cecilla knew that her father was very protective of the three women in the family. She had a curfew and had to be home before nine o'clock in the evening.

She did not oppose her father's control. After all, it was for her safety, and she was not a playful or rebellious person.

Her father loved their family very much. She smiled sweetly and said, "Dad, I'm just going to the bathroom."

Lucian nodded and continued to feed his little daughter.

Amelia glanced at her daughter's little face. She didn't seem to want to go to the bathroom at all. Her simple thoughts were written all over her face.

"Cecilla, you'll have to go home to do your homework later, so come back soon."

"Got it, Mom. I... I'll go to the bathroom first." Cecilla ran out quickly.

Cecil narrowed his eyes and felt that his sister seemed to be in a relationship.

He looked at his father with only a smile in his eyes. That night, Lucian had been taking care of his sick daughter who didn't eat much, and so he had no energy to pay attention to her.

He bent down and walked out slowly.

He didn't expect to hear a cold voice as soon as he took a few steps. "Cecil, where are you going? Come back and sit down. Manage yourself well."

Cecil grimaced and turned back. Why was he so bitter?

What management?

Ayman was still living a leisurely life, and Diane was still traveling around with her father. Why did he have to manage the company?

However, he still sat back obediently and chatted with Ayman.

Carson glanced at his phone and saw that Cecilla had come out. He then looked at Isla and said, "Miss Alden, I want to go out for a while. You'll be fine alone, won't you?"

Hearing this, Isla was even more upset. "Aren't you sending me back to the hotel?"

Carson smiled and said, "Yes, I'll be back in a few minutes."

As he spoke, he left the private room.

As soon as he walked out of the door, he saw Cecilla who was standing not far away. The girl was slim, and she was nearly 1.65 meters tall. Her pink dress made her look very pure and lovely. He smiled and ran over. "Cecilla."

"Carson." Cecilla threw herself into his arms.

The affection in their eyes was self-evident.

"Carson, it's my birthday the day after tomorrow." Cecilla blinked her big, bright eyes and looked at him with a smile.

Carson nodded with a smile. "I know. Cecilla, I've prepared your birthday present for you. I'll contact you the day after tomorrow."

"Hehe... Congratulations to you, Cecilla. You've grown up." Carson pulled her to sit on a stool beside him. As he looked at the girl's youthful face and her dazzling eyes, his heart softened into a clear spring.

Some fates were wonderful. Even through the video, one could feel the feeling of being moved.

The two of them chatted for a few minutes, but Cecilla didn't dare to stay any longer. Carson also said that he had to send Isla back to the hotel. Cecilla reminded him to be careful on the way and hurried back to the private room.

Carson watched as the little girl ran back happily and stood there with a gentle smile.

Amelia, who had come out to look for her daughter, happened to see the scene of Carson taking her daughter's hand and sitting down. She was stunned and shocked. Her daughter was in love. Looking at that man, he didn't seem to be in school.

Amelia watched Carson leave before returning to the private room.

Back in the private room, she did not dare to tell her husband about the matter, She still had to observe it. Maybe that man was just Cecilla's friend.

If Lucian knew that his daughter had just gone out to meet a man, he would probably guard his daughter for 24 hours a day.

He was already so strict with her.

When Raelynn got home, she saw Ryder sitting on the sofa in low spirits. It seemed as if it had encountered something that made him unhappy.

Chapter 2383

Malia was sitting by his side as well.

Raelynn felt that there was something wrong with the atmosphere.

"Raelynn's back." Malia looked at her daughter and smiled lovingly.

"Yes, Mom." Raelynn walked over and sat opposite her brother. "Ryder, what's wrong with you?"

Ryder glanced at his sister and felt very wronged. Why could a rich person do whatever he wanted?

"Raelynn, James went to the place where I worked, and the boss fired me today."

Raelynn pursed her lips. Indeed, James had made his move.

James had a strong desire for revenge. As long as he could be vindictive, he would never miss it.

"I'm sorry, Ryder." Raelynn had no other choice but to apologize.

That was because people like James couldn't be reasoned with. Even if they went to him for revenge, they would only be insulted by him. On the contrary, they would feel even worse.

The Edwards family loved to bully others with their power. She had seen it happen a lot since she was a child.

Looking at his sister who felt guilty, Ryder felt very sad. "Raelynn, don't be sad. I'm not sad because I lost my job. If I lose my job, I can find another one. I'm sad because I keep thinking, how can there be such a person in the world?"

Raelynn lowered her head and did not speak. There were so many people like James; society was so cruel.

Malia was not worried about that. She was worried about her daughter.

"Raelynn, did James look for you?"

Raelynn looked at her mother suddenly. She knew her daughter well. Her mother was always delicate and sensitive.

"Yes!" She nodded.

Ryder immediately stood up. "Raelynn, did he look for you and ask you to marry him?"

Raelynn nodded slightly. "Ryder, you don't have to worry too much about this matter. Mr. Alwynn has already dealt with it. He wouldn't dare to do anything to me."

"Hmph!" Ryder was very angry, and his handsome face turned red with anger. "That b*stard, I must kill him."

"Ryder, sit down." Raelynn was also very angry. "Killing him will only dirty your hands. I have a way to deal with him. Don't worry, I will go out now."

Raelynn was not a person who could endure embarrassment and humiliation after being bullied. For people like James, there was always some dirty money in his family that could make people bend their backs, and James could crush their dignity under his feet. That was that b*stard's style.

"Raelynn, where are you going? I'll go with you." Ryder had always been very impulsive, but after many years of training, he had improved a lot. It was not that he did not know the ways of the world, but he was still angry. It was normal for those with money and power to suppress others.

Raelynn looked at him. If she went alone, Ryder would definitely be worried. If he went with her, she could also feel more at ease. Anyway, he would not let go of James so easily.

Malia looked at her two children worriedly.

"Raelynn, Ryder, let's forget it. Let's take a step back and forget about it."

She was not afraid of trouble, but she couldn't bear to see her children be hurt!

Her children's safety was the most important thing, and she only had the two of them.

Raelynn looked at her mother and said with a smile, "Mom, don't worry. We won't do anything dangerous. James has bullied a few girls before. I'll go and find them. If they appeal together, James will be completely finished."

Malia narrowed her eyes slightly. That was also a way. She had heard of James' misdeeds from Ryder, and she felt that a scumbag like him must be punished.

He wouldn't even let go of his sister who used to live with him. He's a beast.

After the two went downstairs, Ryder looked at his sister.

"Raelynn, how did you know what James did?"

Raelynn looked at the soft night, and her face was pale. She said, "In his personal circle of friends, I have seen it a few times, and there is a girl who was hurt by him. I have seen her, and I know her."

Let's go and find her first. Those girls are angry but dare not say anything. Let's try to find those girls who have been hurt by him. We must let him be punished by the law."

Ryder narrowed his eyes. Since James had committed a crime, he could bring that guy down. James was not a kind person. If he came to find Raelynn again, she would be destroyed by him sooner or later.

"Raelynn, let's go and find those girls." Ryder did not believe that there was no justice in this world.

He believed that there was justice. Although it would be late, it would never be absent.

Raelynn nodded. They went out of the community and stopped a taxi on the roadside. Raelynn gave the driver the location and they went straight to the destination.

Kenneth had almost finished his discussion. They changed clubs and signed the contract. After the partners left, Nathaniel and Austin also went back to rest.

He clicked on Raelynn's live broadcast platform, but he did not see her doing the broadcast.

He frowned slightly. Didn't she say that she would do the live broadcast that night? Why hasn't it started yet?"

Luke knocked on the door and came in. He asked, "Mr. Kenneth, do you want to go back to the company or go home?"

Kenneth did not look up at him. Instead, he quickly searched for Raelynn's location.

"Lakeside District." He read out a few words in a low voice. He was a little confused. What was she going to do in that area?

"Luke, go and investigate James Edwards. What did he do?" Kenneth knew how unwilling and terrifying that guy was. He had seen the unwillingness on James' face when he left.

He was now worried that James would take revenge on Raelynn.

The people he had arranged would only be able to protect her in secret the following day.

"Okay, Mr. Kenneth." Luke turned around and went out to make a phone call.

Kenneth sat on the high-class leather sofa that was soft and comfortable. He closed his eyes in exhaustion and waited for Luke's message.

The luxurious private room was full of the smell of alcohol. There were a few men sitting on the sofa, smoking cigarettes and holding beautiful women in their arms. Some were also sitting on the side drinking wine and waving their fists.

The whole room was smokey and it was filled with the smell of wine, and body odors. The messy smell made people want to vomit, but some people were addicted to it and could not extricate themselves.

James held a beautiful girl in his arms with a cigar in his hand, and the smoke made his face appear more disgusting and turbid.

A man next to him came over and asked with a smile, "Mr. James, how was the woman last night?"

James smiled arrogantly and said, "Not bad, but she is too thin. I feel good, but she is too hot-tempered. Look at my face; she scratched me. When I got up this morning, I broke one of her arms to vent my anger."

"James, you are so fierce. However, be careful, or she will sue you," the man joked.

James said, "Would she dare to do that? She rented her small supermarket from my family."

Suddenly, the phone on the table rang.

The woman in his arms handed him the phone with a smile.

"Mr. James, it's a call."

"Okay!" Ryder put out the cigarette butt with great enjoyment and answered the phone.

"Say it."

"Mr. James, Raelynn and her brother have gone out. They have gone to the neighborhood in the Lakeside District."

"Oh! What are they doing there?" James was confused.

"I don't know, Mr. James. However, when Raelynn came back in the evening, Mr. Kenneth didn't come back with her."

Chapter 2384

The corners of James's lips twitched coldly. "I knew it. How could Mr. Alwynn like that woman, Raelynn? It's just because she's pretty, so he helped her."

"Go and kidnap Raelynn for me."

He would have a taste of the sweetness before she was toyed with by Kenneth.

"Hehe... Mr. James, let's go now. However, we don't have the money to take a taxi. Mr. James, please do me a favor..." The man's ingratiating voice stopped.

James' voice was full of disdain. "I'll transfer 10,000 dollars to you first, and I'll give you 100,000 after it's done."

"Okay, okay, thank you, Mr. James."

After hanging up the phone, James let go of the woman in his arms and left the room after saying goodbye to the few indulgent men in the private room.

When he stepped out of the bar, he asked the driver to drive the car over and they headed directly to the neighborhood in Lakeside District. It was not far from here, so he wanted to go and pick up Raelynn then go to the hotel.

On the other side, Luke had already found James' whereabouts. Kenneth had reserved some trump cards for people who were hostile to him. With his top-notch hacking skills, he could easily find out the secrets and whereabouts of the other party.

"Mr. Kenneth, we've found out that James is rushing to the neighborhood in Lakeside District."

Kenneth suddenly opened his eyes, which were deep and piercingly cold. He got up decisively and said in a hoarse voice, "Let's go to Lakeside District."

Luke didn't dare to delay as the matter involved Raelynn. It was such a coincidence and something was bound to happen.

She was the future wife of the president of Alwynn Group, and she had to be protected at all costs.

Raelynn and Ryder got out of the car at the gate of the neighborhood at Lakeside District. It was also a high-end district, but compared with other rich districts, it was nothing special.

After they signed in, the security guards let them in.

The girl who lived here was called Ivy Martin. The Martin family had had a business relationship with the Edwards family. Once, because of their cooperation, they had dinner together. James also attended that dinner. When he saw Ivy, he forced himself on her that night. The Martin family also successfully got the cooperation deal of more than one million dollars.

Ivy's matter was suppressed by her family just like that. They knew that Ivy had been unwilling, but she had no ability to refute. Facing the business deal, her parents chose money over her.

When they arrived below Ivy's house, Raelynn looked at Ryder with some uncertainty and said, "Ryder, Ivy may not help us, but we still have to give it a try."

Ryder nodded and said, "Raelynn, it's up to us. We can only do our best."

He didn't want his sister to be destroyed by James.

Raelynn pursed her lips and smiled. She looked at the determination in her younger brother's eyes. His whole being seemed to be filled with sunshine, warm and full of justice.

She knew that her brother was very impulsive. Once he made a move, he would easily lose his judgment.

She smiled and coaxed him, "Ryder, I know that you are kind, but don't be impulsive before you make a move. After you calm down, you can decide what to do."

In life, if one did not suffer, one would not be able to mature.

Over the years, she had worked outside and suffered a lot before she grew up.

Ryder understood what his sister meant. She was worried that he would be too impulsive.

"Raelynn, don't worry. Nothing will happen. I know what you mean. I'll think before I make a move."

Only then did Raelynn nod her head in relief.

Raelynn took him into the elevator and they went straight to the eighth floor.

Ivy's family lived on the eighth floor. Mrs. Edwards had previously come to apologize to the Martin family. Although Raelynn didn't come with Mrs. Edwards, she knew the address.

It had been several years. Raelynn wondered if Ivy was willing to announce the matter to the world.

If Ivy didn't want to say it, Raelynn could only try to find the other women who had recently been hurt by James.

Soon, they arrived at the eighth floor.

Raelynn hesitated for a moment before she raised her hand to knock on the door.

The door was quickly opened by a thin girl with messy hair and a sallow face. Her sunken eye sockets made her big and bright eyes protrude a lot, and she looked a little scary. She was wearing a wine-red T-shirt and holding a gray bear in her arms, looking at them with dull eyes.

Raelynn looked at Ivy in shock. "Miss Martin," she called out tentatively.

Ivy's dull eyes shifted to her again, but she didn't know Raelynn. She just looked at Raelynn in a daze and didn't speak.

Raelynn was very shocked. A few years ago, Ivy was beautiful and charming, and her big, lively eyes seemed to be able to talk. When she looked at people, she was full of youthful vigor, and dazzled everyone she met.

How did she end up like this?

"Who is it? Ivy, didn't I tell you not to open the door for strangers?"

A middle-aged woman's voice came. Then, a slightly fat middle-aged woman in a pink T-shirt and camel-colored shorts appeared in front of Raelynn.

She knew that this was Mrs. Martin. Raelynn had only seen her once and still had some impression of her.

"Mrs. Martin, nice to meet you! I'm Raelynn Edwards. Sorry to disturb you."

When Mrs. Martin heard that it was someone from the Edwards family, strong hatred burst out of her eyes. She scolded angrily, "What are you people from the Edwards family doing here? Haven't you made my daughter suffer enough?"

Raelynn quickly looked at the dull Ivy and seemed to have guessed something.

"Mrs. Martin, can we talk about it? Don't worry, we won't hurt you. James has done all kinds of evil things. I want him to be punished by the law. Miss Martin is also a victim. There are also many girls who have been bullied like James. Everyone is angry but no one dares to say anything. If we work together to bring out the evidence and sue him in court, he'll receive the punishment he deserves. Only then can everyone live a peaceful life."

"Bah, you're right. The Edwards family bullied others with their power. You can do whatever you want with money. That's how my daughter was destroyed by James. She has been suffering from depression for several years and she was destroyed by your family. Get out of here."

After Mrs. Martin finished speaking, she pulled her daughter behind her and quickly closed the door.

Ryder took a step forward and stopped her.

Raelynn stepped forward and said, "Madam, you didn't call the police at that time. Don't you want to seek justice for your daughter now?"

"If it wasn't for the one million dollar cooperation, Miss Martin wouldn't have become like this."

"You watched your daughter suffer for many years. Don't you want your daughter to get better? Don't you want to avenge her? Do you want to bear with it and spend the rest of your life with a sick daughter?"

"Mrs. Martin, a lifetime is a very long time. Do you think you can hold on?"

"James is still bullying women outside. He even wants to tarnish his sister, me, who is not his biological sister. Do you really intend to let such a person go?"

"Mrs. Martin, I will look for other girls who have been injured by him one by one. As long as we stand out together, this matter will get everyone's attention."

There was a flash of hatred in Mrs. Martin's eyes and she also felt regret. However, since things had come to this point, what could they do?

Chapter 2385

If she hadn't been greedy for the one million dollar business deal, her daughter wouldn't have become like this. It was only half a year later that they realized that Ivy was suffering from depression.

It was because of the beast-like James that night that a great shadow had formed in her heart.

At that time, they had just bought a house that cost more than three million dollars. They had borrowed more than one million. In addition, their youngest son was in college, so they were under all kinds of pressure. Left with no choice, they chose to earn hundreds of thousands and swallowed their anger. However, they didn't expect that in exchange, their daughter would fall sick.

Ivy had been beautiful and sensible. She had a dream of being a jewelry designer, but in the end, she became someone who was neither human nor ghost.

Raelynn handed her business card to Mrs. Martin and said, "This is my business card. If you've thought it through, you can call me at any time."

Raelynn knew that that matter could not be rushed. The injured family had their own considerations. Some who feared power would also choose to swallow their anger.

The Edwards family's indulgence towards James had started since high school where he was hanging around with a bunch of bad friends. The parents of the Edwards family didn't care much about it as long as their son was happy.

After James found out that Raelynn was not his biological sister, he came up with other ideas. She tried her best to study and save money so that she could successfully go abroad to study and hide.

Mrs. Martin took a deep look at Raelynn. In the end, she took the business card from her and slammed the door shut.

Raelynn was lost for words. She could feel their hatred through the door.

However, it was too late!

Raelynn and Ryder went downstairs and went out of the community. She was a little hungry.

"Ryder, let's go and have something to eat. Take things slow. We'll visit another person tomorrow." She also knew James' character, and knew that he would not let her go.

She also wanted to protect herself and marry Kenneth.

Thinking of Kenneth, she looked up at the gray sky and began to miss him again.

That excellent and powerful Kenneth, the height he stood at was beyond her reach. However, she still wanted to touch him and become the person he cared about the most.

That feeling became stronger unconsciously, and even her whole body was filled with tenderness.

"Okay, Raelynn. I was very angry when I came back and I didn't eat anything. You're right. We can't be in a hurry, and we'll take things slow. We'll definitely bring James to justice. I won't let him hurt you."

He also heard some gossip, and he also knew what James wanted to do to his sister.

For a moment, his whole body was full of rage, and he wished that he could tear James into pieces.

How could there be such scum in the world? Ryder was very angry and helpless.

Raelynn was very happy because her family cared about her.

In the past, she could only bear it silently.

"Let's go, Ryder. I'll buy you something delicious." Raelynn was in a good mood, and the haze in her heart had been relieved a lot. They would get better together.

"Okay, Raelynn!" They stood by the road and waited for the bus.

Suddenly, a black car rushed towards them. Ryder was very sensitive to cars, and he heard the sound of a car that was approaching them at a very high speed. It was headed right for them, and what was more, the car had no license plate. Ryder's heart skipped a beat and his body moved forward.

"Raelynn!" Ryder pulled Raelynn over. The two of them quickly stepped back and fell to the ground. The car brushed past their bodies.

The thrilling scene filled Raelynn's big eyes with horror.

Screech... The black car immediately stopped again, making an ear-piercing braking sound.

Two burly men got out of the car and looked at Raelynn on the ground with a wicked smile.

Raelynn suddenly had a bad feeling in her heart.

The two men did not say anything more. They pulled Raelynn up and stuffed her into the car.

Ryder used all his strength to get up and he grabbed his sister tightly.

"B*stards, let go of my sister! Let go!" In the night, a heart-wrenching roar was heard.

However, in the next moment, another man got out of the car with a steel pipe in his hand and waved it at Ryder.

"Ah... No, Ryder." Raelynn tried her best to hit the man.

The man was hit and fell aside, and he didn't manage to land a blow on Ryder.

The man was very angry. He got up and gave Raelynn a slap.

Slap...

"B*tch, you're really strong!" The man cursed and walked towards Ryder.

Raelynn only felt that her surroundings were buzzing and she couldn't hear anything clearly.

Ryder rushed up and wanted to fight with the man desperately. In order to end things as soon as possible, another man also rushed up. The two people punched and kicked Ryder.

Ryder endured the sharp pain and stared at his sister who had her head down.

"Raelynn..." Ryder looked at her with concern.

He was beaten to the ground very quickly.

Raelynn's senses had recovered a little. Before she could see the situation clearly, she was stuffed into the car. She turned back to Ryder and shouted, "Ryder, run and find Mr. Alwynn. He will come to save me..."

Her voice was completely drowned, and Ryder stared blankly at the car leaving.

"Raelynn... Raelynn... You b*stards, let go of my sister." Ryder chased after them, but in his eyes, the black car gradually became a little black dot, and finally disappeared completely.

Ryder sat on the road, exhausted, with tears streaming down its face.

There were fewer people in this area at night, and there were not many cars passing by.

Ryder, who was in despair, suddenly remembered his sister's words. When he was looking for his mobile phone to make a call...

Screech! Another ear-piercing sound rang in Ryder's ears. A luxurious Maybach suddenly stopped. A black shadow rolled on the ground and the car disappeared in a flash in front of them.

Ryder was shocked speechless.

"Ouch, my waist, my knees are all broken." Luke was in so much pain.

Kenneth had pushed him out of the car for Raelynn's sake.

Ryder felt that this guy was a little familiar. He seemed to have seen the man in front of him before.

Luke limped to his feet. He looked at Ryder, who was looking at him in a sorry state. Ryder still had tear stains on his face.

"Ryder, are you alright?" Luke knew about him.

He was older than the other party by one or two years.

Ryder's pupils trembled and he stuttered, "I... I remember you... You are Mr. Alwynn's assistant."

Luke smiled and said, "Yes, we saw what happened on the other side of the road. Mr. Alwynn has already gone after him. Don't worry about your sister. Mr. Kenneth will definitely save her."

"Really... Really?" Ryder still couldn't believe what he had heard.

Luke walked over and helped him up.

"Come on, let's go to the roadside and have a rest. I'll deal with the rest. Your sister is Mr. Kenneth's future wife. Mr. Kenneth won't let anything happen to her no matter what."

Chapter 2386

Ryder was frightened by the sentence "Your sister is Mr. Kenneth's future wife".

The night wind blew, and Ryder seemed to be brought to his senses. He trembled slightly. Luke's words were still echoing in his ears, letting him know that he was not hallucinating.

He rubbed his eyes with his fair fingers. He didn't hear wrongly, because the scene in front of him was still there, and he wasn't in a dream.

"Why is she... Is she Mr. Kenneth's wife? How... How do you know?" He really hoped that his sister could marry a good person. It didn't matter if the man had money or not. The most important thing was that the man had to treat his sister well.

Rich people were fond of drinking and bullying others, but he could feel that Kenneth was different.

Luke was taken aback. Only then did he realize that he had spoken so quickly.

"Ah, how can I speak so soon? Your sister doesn't want you and your mother to worry about her. She doesn't want you to know about her current affairs. No, no, no, it's her relationship with Mr. Kenneth. Don't mind what I just said."

"But it can't be false. I have been with Mr. Kenneth for six or seven years. I have never seen him care so much about a woman. He has almost no woman around him, but he treats your sister very specially."

"Do you know? The people of the Alwynn family are infatuated with her. Your sister will be very happy after she marries Mr. Kenneth. You don't have to worry about that. However, don't tell her that I told you about this. Otherwise, your sister will be worried."

Words, like water that was poured out, couldn't be taken back.

He really couldn't change his bad habit of being quick-tongued.

Ryder suddenly gulped, and his pupils trembled slightly.

He nodded hard.

"Okay, I got it." Ryder was very happy that Kenneth had gone to save his sister, but he still couldn't calm down for a while.

Kenneth was mature and steady and could give his sister a good future, so Ryder agreed with them being together.

Despite this, when he suddenly heard about his sister being in a relationship with Mr. Alwynn, he was still very excited. He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

"Mr. Parma, thank you. Should we call the police?"

Luke: "Yes, of course we should. This is a kidnapping. James is finished. The Edwards family are also done for."

Luke slowly took out his phone and called the police.

Ryder's heart felt fiercely suffocated. A rich person could really control a person's life and death.

He suddenly said, "Mr. Parma, the car just now didn't have a license plate."

Luke smiled and patted him on the shoulder. "Don't worry. I'll handle it."

Luke looked at the blood on James' forehead. He had probably been injured as well.

"Ryder, do you want to go to the hospital first? I have to deal with the things here."

Ryder shook his head. Before he saw his sister and made sure that she was fine, he didn't want to go anywhere. "It's okay. It's just a skin wound. I'll wait with you for the police to come here."

Luke watched as he persisted, and just left him to it.

He took out a tissue and wiped the blood on Ryder's forehead. Ryder was very good-looking, but he still couldn't hide his handsomeness despite his sorry state.

Luke thought that this Ryder was also an existence at its peak.

On the other side, Kenneth looked at the position of his mobile phone and soon caught up with the black car that had kidnapped Raelynn.

The night was dark and the street lights were dim. The neon lights from the tall buildings in the distance were shining brightly.

Kenneth's gaze was icy and it was focused on the car in front of him.

He was like a wild beast that had its food stolen, and he emanated a terrifying aura.

Seeing that the car stopped at the entrance of an inconspicuous hotel, Kenneth quickly stopped the car and followed it, but he didn't go up to save her.

Not long after Kenneth got out of the car, another luxurious black car stopped at the intersection. Four tall and strong bodyguards got out of it.

The four of them stopped at the side of the road and Kenneth waited for the right time to send them a message.

Raelynn was brought down by two men. The moment she saw the hotel, her heart turned to dust. She knew that the other party was James.

James was the only one who would do such a thing.

"Let me go, let me go..." Raelynn struggled hard, but it was all in vain. She was quickly taken to the hotel and directly sent to the elevator, which went straight to the floor where James was.

The two men laughed and said, "Such a beautiful woman. I'm afraid that Mr. James will go crazy tonight."

Another man also smiled and said, "I heard that she used to be his sister. He is really a scum. How could he do that?"

"Well, she's not his biological sister, so he doesn't care so much. We need that money to do some things. After we're done, we'll take the money and leave."

Hearing these words, Kenneth smirked. Indeed, it was James.

This time, it was perfectly justified for the Edwards family to perish.

After the two men went out, they were immediately controlled by the other two men in the car.

Kenneth looked at the floor where the elevator had stopped and entered another elevator.

James was rich, and he had booked the presidential suite. After the elevator stopped, Raelynn thought that she could escape if there was a chance. As soon as the elevator door opened, she saw two men standing outside.

All courage turned into nothingness at that moment.

However, she couldn't give up. She had to escape and couldn't let James succeed.

Otherwise, that night either she or James would die!

She would rather die than surrender!

"Miss Edwards, please come out. You can't escape." A man in a suit and leather shoes looked at Raelynn with a smile.

Raelynn pursed her lips and walked out.

Rather than running away, she might as well spare some effort to kill James.

Lest other girls were hurt by him.

"Miss Edwards, Mr. James is waiting for you inside. You can go in by yourself." The man swiped his card and the door opened automatically.

Raelynn stood at the door and hesitated for a moment. She clenched her fists and walked in with a calm expression on her face. However, her bright eyes were dim and she felt as if she was about to die.

She walked in expressionlessly.

As soon as the door was closed, Raelynn saw James, who had just taken a bath.

The lights in the room were very dim. James was wrapped in a white bath towel, revealing his shriveled figure. He was addicted to wine, so his skin was a little loose and sallow, which made him look utterly undesirable.

James smiled evilly and said, "Rae, those people don't know how to pity women. They didn't hurt you, did they?"

Raelynn looked at him expressionlessly.

James knew that Raelynn was proud. She had been better at studying than him since they were children. His family valued men more than women, but they did not treat her badly in life.

Ever since she found out that she was not the biological daughter of the Edwards family, they had not supported her.

"Rae, I know you hate me, but it's your best choice to be with me. My parents are also familiar to you, and so am I. As long as you marry me, I promise not to fool around outside." James could do it for her; he was willing to give up fooling around with other women for her.

Who would want to find another woman when he had such a beautiful woman at home?

Chapter 2387

Raelynn still did not speak, and her eyes passed over James.

She wanted to find another sharp weapon that could kill James.

However, there was nothing here that could hurt someone except a bottle of wine.

Raelynn couldn't help but feel a sense of despair in her heart. Was she going to be ruined by James just like that?

"Kenneth, can I really believe you? No matter where I am, can you find me?" She thought to herself.

At that moment, she wished that Kenneth would suddenly appear beside her.

She hadn't had time to be in a proper relationship with him yet. She hadn't had time to tell Kenneth that she liked him and wanted to marry him.

There would always be such a person in the world where, no matter the time, or place, or situation, as long as you looked at him, he could understand the tenderness in your heart.

Kenneth was that person in her life.

If fate would have it, she hoped to meet Kenneth earlier.

"Rae, let's have a drink first." James looked at the ice-cold beauty and felt an itch in his heart, and his blood surged. This woman looked so charming.

Thinking that the wine glass could be used to hurt someone, Raelynn walked inside.

Sure enough, there were two glasses of wine on the coffee table. Raelynn looked at the glasses, and her eyes flashed.

Raelynn thought that the right moment would be when James raised his head to drink.

She didn't exercise often, so she knew how capable she was.

She could only seize that opportunity. She could either escape or die together with him, or wait for Kenneth to come and save her.

"Rae, this is a 10 year old bottle of red wine. It's very delicious. I remember that you like red wine the most." James picked up a glass of red wine and handed it to Raelynn.

Raelynn did not refuse and took the red wine.

James raised his glass with a smile and looked at Raelynn's beautiful little face. The girl was young and her soft skin shone with a faint luster. She was as beautiful as a doll and touching her felt very comfortable.

He had touched many women, but none of them were as beautiful as Raelynn.

"James." Raelynn called out.

"Rae, I'm here," James replied with a smile.

Raelynn smiled perfectly, like the spring breeze, melting the cold chill.

"Let's die together," she said with a smile. Then, she quickly smashed the wine glass in her hand.

James shrank back in pain. He quickly tilted his head, but the glass still brushed past his ear and hit the opposite wall with a bang.

He was fine. He looked at Raelynn with a smirk and said, "Rae, you are still as fierce as before. I like it."

Raelynn knew that she had failed, but the broken glass gave her a glimmer of hope.

She suddenly picked up the bottle and smashed it hard again.

Bang... James was caught off guard. This time, he failed to dodge and was hit in the chest. The wine bottle fell to the ground, and the red wine stained the carpet.

Happiness was furious. Bang...

He smashed the glass in his hand to the ground.

"Raelynn, don't refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit. I gave you some face because of your beauty. For the sake of our past, I wanted to have a romantic night with you. Otherwise, you would have screamed wildly in front of me."

Raelynn quickly picked up a glass shard on the ground and looked at James with a smile. "James, I won't let you succeed even if I die."

The glass shard in her hand was pressed against her neck.

James sneered and narrowed his eyes. He looked at her fiery temperament and said, "Jasper, you don't dare. Don't you want to be with your brother and mother? If your mother sees your corpse, she will die of anger."

Raelynn's eyes flashed with pain, helplessness and discomfort.

She clenched the glass shard in her hand tightly, and her fingers were cut in an instant. The faint smell of blood spilled out, but James was even more excited.

He had met countless women, and each of them was different. Only Raelynn was the most special and the most beautiful!

He walked towards Raelynn step by step, and his smile became more and more evil.

"Don't come over." The glass shard in Raelynn's hand had already left a bloodstain on her neck.

"Rae, listen to me. Don't make yourself suffer, okay..." The last word was extremely evil and disgusting in Raelynn's eyes.

"Don't come over, James, or I will really die in front of you." Under the tension, the glass shard in her hands pushed forward a little bit, and blood flowed down her neck.

Raelynn's eyes were red, and her big watery eyes were full of fear. Her red lips opened and closed nervously, and her breath was like an orchid. In James's eyes, she was simply too beautiful.

James saw the blood on her neck, which was as delicate as a rose, and he stopped abruptly.

At the moment when Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief, James suddenly stepped forward and gripped her hand tightly, which was holding the broken glass. With a slight push, the broken glass fell to the ground.

"Ah..." Raelynn cried out in despair.

Rip... Raelynn's clothes were directly torn apart by James.

At the same time, the door of the room suddenly burst open.

The lights in the room were suddenly turned up.

James frowned slightly when he saw it. Who was the idiot who was disturbing his fun?

James turned his head and saw the grim-faced and scary-looking Kenneth. Under the light, his whole body was like a sharp glacier.

James stood where he was as a chill ran down his spine.

When Raelynn saw Kenneth, hope flashed in her eyes. He... finally came. He really came. He didn't lie to her. He really could find her.

Kenneth's dark eyes were fixed on Raelynn's blood-soaked neck. Her white shirt had been dyed red.

The dazzling blood made his heart surge with strong anger and heartache.

"Kenneth." Raelynn looked at him excitedly.

Her voice was full of expectation, which broke his heart.

How scared had she been just now?

"Kenneth, how could you..." James' voice trembled. He couldn't believe that Kenneth would come.

Kenneth looked straight ahead, and his domineering figure walked straight over. His handsome features were unprecedentedly sharp. His thin lips were tightly pursed, and he emanated such a terrifying aura that James trembled on the spot; he was so scared that he wanted to die on the spot.

Kenneth stopped in front of James, and his sharp eyes shot straight at him. He stated word by word, "I remember telling you not to touch my woman."

"No, no, no, Mr. Alwynn, I didn't want to touch Rae. She's my sister. I really didn't want to touch her."

James was scared. He really didn't understand why Kenneth liked Raelynn.

The corners of Kenneth's mouth twitched coldly. He clenched his fists and smashed them at James with all his might.

"Ah..." Puff... James fell to the ground, bleeding. There were a lot of glass fragments that stabbed into his back, and the bright red blood was dizzying.

James fainted with that single punch. His face was covered in blood, which showed how powerful Kenneth's punch was.

Chapter 2388

This time, Kenneth looked at Raelynn and saw her trembling body. Kenneth's heart, which had finally calmed down, became angry again, and he didn't know how to vent his anger. He kicked James fiercely, and James was completely awakened by the pain.

"Ah... Boohoo..." James cried out in pain. He had never been in such pain.

"Shut up. If you don't shut up, I'll cripple your crown jewels and make it so that you won't be able to pass on your legacy for the rest of your life."

James immediately stopped crying. Kenneth was simply too terrifying. He had knocked James out with a single punch. He was too scary.

As the eldest son of the Edwards family, he had been pampered since he was young. He had never suffered like this before.

Kenneth squatted in front of Raelynn, his eyes soft, and his voice as gentle as the spring breeze. "Rae, are you okay?"

Raelynn shook her head gently. Until that moment, she was still in a trance and felt unreal. She was saved. The person who saved her was Kenneth, the man whom she liked.

The Prince Charming who was adored by half of the women in the region, Raelynn's boyfriend, really came and saved her at the most critical moment.

Sobbing... Raelynn threw herself into Kenneth's arms. "Kenneth, how did you come here? I thought I would never see you again. Do you know how scared I was?"

Kenneth hugged her tightly. When he heard her cry, his pitch-black eyes became terrifying again. He regretted that he had not crippled James earlier.

"Rae, I'm sorry. I'm late. Don't worry. There won't be a second time."

Just now, when he was dealing with the two men outside, he had been delayed a little. The two men were well-trained with knives in their hands, which indeed delayed him for nearly two minutes.

If he came in two minutes later, he would regret it for the rest of his life.

"..." Raelynn burst into tears. She had rarely cried since she was a child. This time, she was really scared.

James had always harbored evil intentions towards her. She had long known that and had been hiding from him. If she could not escape from him in the end, she would really drag James to hell with her.

It didn't matter if she died, but she really couldn't bear to part with Kenneth.

"Rae, don't cry. Shall we go to the hospital now? You are injured." Kenneth coaxed her softly.

Except for his sister and brothers, he had never coaxed anyone before. That was the first time he coaxed someone, and she was the woman he liked. It turned out that this kind of thing didn't need to be taught, and he could also show her his tenderness.

He found this feeling very strange, but he liked it very much!

"Yes!" Raelynn looked at him and nodded.

Kenneth let go of her. Her white shirt was stained with blood, and the faint smell of blood filled his nose, making him blame himself even more for not protecting her.

He carefully examined the wound on her neck. It was still bleeding. He tore off his shirt and pressed down on her wound.

Raelynn's white shirt was torn apart by James, so she took off her thin coat and wore it in reverse, covering herself.

"Rae, hold this." Kenneth raised her hand and pressed it down on the wound.

Then, he picked her up princess-style and ordered coldly to the door.

"You can come in."

As soon as his voice fell, two tall and strong bodyguards came in.

"Mr. Kenneth." These were all well-trained bodyguards of the Chaosfield Society established by Victor.

"Bring him out and hand him to the police. Then, go and collect the evidence. Find all the evidence of all his crimes that he has committed all these years. I want him to spend the rest of his life in prison safely."

James' eyes widened when he heard that, and fear twisted his expression. Ignoring the pain in his body, he crawled in front of Kenneth like a dog.

James pleaded, "Mr. Kenneth, Mr. Kenneth, I was wrong. I was really wrong. Please let me go. I won't do it again... Please let me go."

"Rae, forgive me. I didn't mean to..."

James could never have imagined that he would end up like this.

He liked to play with different women, and Raelynn was so beautiful that he didn't want to let her go. He didn't expect that he would get himself in trouble.

Kenneth kicked him away with a heavy gaze. "James, I already gave you a chance. It's you who didn't cherish it."

After that, he went out with Raelynn in his arms. After a few steps, he said, "I will follow up on this matter in person."

The bodyguard replied respectfully, "Yes, Mr. Kenneth."

James was filled with righteous indignation, but there was nothing he could do about it. He was so scared that he fainted.

Kenneth carried Raelynn and returned to the car. He placed her on the seat next to me and sent her to the nearest hospital to treat her wound.

However, as soon as he put Raelynn down, she grabbed his clothes tightly and refused to let go.

Kenneth looked at her, and she returned his gaze, feeling wronged and uneasy.

He rubbed her head with a smile and comforted her softly, "Rae, it's alright now. Don't be afraid. I'll take you to the hospital first, okay?"

His voice was very gentle, like a clear mountain stream, lingering on the tip of her heart, making her uneasy heart gradually calm down.

"Rae, I'll take you to the hospital now. You can sit here in peace."

"Okay!" Raelynn pursed her lips and calmed down again.

Kenneth quickly returned to the driver's seat and sent Raelynn to the nearest hospital to deal with her wound.

The wound on Raelynn's neck was not serious. After sewing the wound with two stitches, the doctor prescribed some medicine, and Kenneth took Raelynn back to Dragon Villa.

After the car stopped, Raelynn looked at the castle-like villa in front of her in shock. She was stunned and looked at Kenneth.

"Kenneth, where are we?"

Kenneth said, "My home. It's too late now so I brought you back here to rest. I've already called your brother. I asked him to go back first and told him not to worry about you."

"Oh!" Raelynn was a little nervous. Why did Kenneth bring her back without warning?

She was still... not ready.

"Will it disturb your family if I go in like this?"

She was very nervous, and Kenneth could tell that. He said, "It's okay. Don't worry. Today is Friday. Gia and Martin took my three brothers back to their villa. There will only be the two of us in the house tonight."

Hearing this, Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief.

Kenneth drove directly into the villa with Raelynn.

Then, he got out of the car, opened the door of the passenger seat, and unfastened her seat belt.

He slowly helped Raelynn out.

When she entered the living room, she found that it was luxurious and magnificent, designed in a style that she had never seen before.

The living room was very large. At a glance, the whole room was very bright and warm.

Even if she had been to a luxurious party abroad, she had never seen such a luxurious house.

Kenneth helped her sit down on the sofa and said, "Rae, look at me."

Raelynn blinked her beautiful eyes and looked at him quietly. She was still a little nervous. She clenched her fists on her knees and waited for Kenneth to speak.

Chapter 2389

Kenneth looked at her with a smile and said, "I'll take you upstairs to take a bath first then I'll cook dinner for you."

Raelynn thought that he was going to say something else, which made her very nervous. It turned out that he just wanted her to take a bath.

"Okay! But do you know how to cook?" She nodded obediently, wondering if this pampered young master could really cook.

Kenneth smiled. "Yes."

He turned to look for his mother's treasure chest in the cabinet. As soon as he opened the door of the cabinet, he saw a white medicine box.

He took it back and put it on the coffee table. He opened it and found that there were all kinds of medicines to treat various wounds and injuries.

Raelynn looked at the neatly packed boxes and felt very warm.

"This is the first-aid kit prepared by my mother," Kenneth replied. "There will always be bumps and scrapes in my family."

Raelynn found a problem. When he mentioned his mother, he turned into a different person, changing from the usually cold and distant Kenneth to one who was like a warm breeze.

Only children who grew up receiving their parents' love and care would show such an expression.

Kenneth took out some waterproof band-aids and pasted them over all her wounds.

Then, he led Raelynn upstairs. She asked curiously, "Kenneth, don't you feel lonely living in such a big house?"

Kenneth shook his head. "No, there are a lot of members in my family, and my three younger brothers are very noisy. My father's friends will come here with their children on the weekend, so my mother still thinks it's crowded."

"Ah..." Raelynn thought of that kind of scene and thought it should be very warm.

"Kenneth." Kenneth stopped in her tracks.

Did he hear someone calling him?

Raelynn was also nervous. Didn't he say that there was no one at home?"

Kenneth looked up and saw Martin standing at the stairs on the second floor in his pajamas. He was stunned and his ears quickly turned red.

Martin's surprised eyes fell on Raelynn's hand, which was holding Kenneth's hand. The girl was in a mess, and her clothes were inside out.

Martin asked, "What happened?"

Kenneth asked in return, "Didn't you say you're going back today?"

Martin answered, "Andrew and the other two brothers didn't go. They took Ayman and Cecil went to Lemmon City to find their mother. They said that they missed their mother, and they also wanted to see Marlon and Juliet."

Kenneth was speechless. Those three brats all came up with the same idea!

Martin looked at Raelynn. "This is..."

Kenneth replied, "My girlfriend, Raelynn Edwards."

His tone was urgent and embarrassed.

It was the first time that Martin had seen such a scene. No matter how big a problem it was, Kenneth had always been expressionless. Right then, he was shy. Martin couldn't help smiling as if he had discovered a new world.

"Rae, this is my brother-in-law, Martin."

At this point, Kenneth could only bite the bullet and introduce them to each other.

Raelynn greeted Martin loudly. "Nice to meet you!"

Martin responded, "Hello!"

"Kenneth, you're back."

As the ethereal voice came, Raelynn saw a girl in a pink dress, holding a child in her arms. The girl looked very similar to Kenneth, but as a girl, she was more beautiful, more gentle, and there was a faint, soft light in her deep and bright eyes.

Giada was also very surprised that her brother had brought a girl back, and this girl seemed to be injured too.

Kenneth introduced, "Rae, this is my sister, Giada."

"Gia, this is Raelynn Edwards."

Raelynn smiled and said, "Hello, Miss Alwynn."

Giada nodded happily. "Nice to meet you. Are you... okay?"

Raelynn shook her head. "It's okay. It's just a minor injury. It has been treated."

Kenneth looked at the child in his sister's arms. It was Terrance. "Why hasn't Terrance fallen asleep yet?"

Martin explained, "He was woken up by his brother's kick. I was going to get some milk powder."

Kenneth said, "Then you should hurry on your way."

After that, he took Raelynn back to the room.

Martin and Giada quickly glanced at each other.

Martin smiled and said, "Kenneth is serious."

Giada smiled and nodded. "Raelynn looks pretty good."

Martin didn't say anything. "Gia, you go back with Terry first. I'll go get some water."

"Okay! Hurry up." Giada carried her son back to the room.

Kenneth first brought Raelynn to his room, and then went to the wardrobe next door to get a set of new clothes. Thinking that Martin was at home, he brought a set of white home clothes for Raelynn.

The clothes here were all new, which were prepared by his mother for their guests.

"Rae, this is my room, which is very far from my sister's room. The place we were earlier is my younger brother's space, but he doesn't come back often."

Kenneth didn't say much and tried his best not to embarrass Raelynn.

"Okay!" Raelynn smiled and nodded, looking at him who was more nervous than she was.

She couldn't help but laugh. "Kenneth, why are you more nervous than me?"

There seemed to be a special charm in her laughter, which made Kenneth's ears burn again.

"No, no."

As far as he could recall, his family's impression of him was that he was the kind of person who was silent and taciturn. He suddenly brought a girl back, so it was as if he had broken everyone's taboo.

Seeing Gia and Martin's curious and surprised eyes, he felt that he had indeed been out-of-character.

"Your face is red." Raelynn continued to tease him.

He felt like he didn't know where to look.

He put the white home clothes next to her and pointed in the direction of the bathroom.

"Come down after you take a shower. I'll go downstairs to make dinner." After that, he ran away from the room with a red face.

"Haha..." At the moment when the door was closed, Kenneth heard Raelynn's laughter.

Kenneth was speechless. Hmph! That little woman needs to be cleaned up.

Kenneth hurried downstairs to prepare dinner.

At this time, he did not want to bother the servants at home.

When he reached the first floor, he only heaved a sigh of relief when he did not see Martin.

He walked to the refrigerator in search of ingredients.

Raelynn took the clothes and went into the bathroom. Looking at the bathroom, which was almost as big as her bedroom at home, she just smiled.

In order to save money to buy a house, she only ate bread and had endured a difficult life.

Kenneth's bathroom was so luxurious. It was just that poverty limited one's imagination.

In Giada's room, the couple didn't care about anything else. After feeding Terrance some milk, the child fell asleep obediently.

The couple turned off the lights quietly, leaving only a small night lamp on.

Martin picked up Giada and was about to go to sleep.

However, Giada was very concerned about her brother's personal life.

"Gia, I miss you. Let's go to sleep!" Martin was very anxious. It was too tiring for them to look after their children, but they were also very happy.

Giada knocked his arm away. "I don't want it. I want to go to the first floor to see my future sister-in-law."

Chapter 2390

Martin felt helpless, but he didn't want his wife to be kept awake because of curiosity.

Despite this, he still tried to persuade her. "Gia, don't you know your big brother? If we were here, Kenneth would be very embarrassed. He finally brought a girl back just because he thought we would go home tonight. There was no one at home, so he brought the girl back. If we go down now, he'll be very embarrassed."

In the faint moonlight, there was a burst of light in Giada's bright eyes, which made Martin's heart tighten.

Giada suddenly felt that her husband was right.

However, when she thought of the girl named Raelynn being injured, she was a little worried.

"Martin, put me down first. I'll go to Kenneth's room to have a look. I'll come back if there's nothing else. I won't go downstairs. I'll be back soon."

"Fine!" Martin put her down unhappily.

"Gia, come back quickly. I'll look after the children."

Giada knew that he was depressed at the moment. She stood on her toes and kissed his lips. "Honey, I'll be back soon."

"Okay! Slow down. Don't go too fast. Be careful not to fall down."

"Haha... I know, I know. You always treat me like a child."

When she reached Kenneth's room, she hesitated for a moment before knocking gently on the door.

Knock, Knock... Raelynn, who had just showered, heard a knock on the door.

She nervously walked over and opened the door, only to see Giada standing outside with a smile.

"Miss Alwynn." Raelynn was a little surprised. Why was she here?

Giada walked in with a smile. "Miss Edwards, you don't need to be so polite. Just call me Gia."

Raelynn was a little surprised by Giada's kindness. She thought that people born into such an aristocratic family were very proud, but Giada was not like that at all.

There had been rumors that the daughter of the Alwynn family was a very kind person and easy to get along with.

She was indeed very kind. "Okay, Gia."

Giada smiled and asked, "Can I come in?"

Raelynn was stunned and said with a smile, "Sure... Come in."

She stepped aside and Giada walked in with a smile.

"Miss Edwards, how did you get hurt? Do you need my help? I didn't mean anything else; I just came here to see if you need my help. Kenneth doesn't like to talk, so I'm afraid he will be negligent and careless."

Raelynn looked at her sincerity and let down her guard.

"Something happened earlier, but Kenneth saved me. I'm alright now." Raelynn was very grateful. That night, she almost died.

"It's good that you're fine. My brother should be making dinner. Miss Edwards, you should go down. See you tomorrow morning!" Giada wanted to go back to sleep. She often got up at night to accompany the children so she was very sleepy!

Moreover, Kenneth asked Raelynn to take a bath in his room. He must really like her.

"Okay! See you tomorrow!" Raelynn smiled happily.

After Giada left, Raelynn felt hungry and sleepy. She got up and went to the first floor.

After going out, she went down the path she remembered. When she arrived at the living room on the first floor, she then walked to the kitchen. The dining room was very big, and Kenneth's handsome and busy figure could be seen in the semi-open kitchen.

He had changed into a pair of gray and white casual clothes, and he looked much gentler without wearing a suit.

She slowly walked in and gently hugged him from behind.

Kenneth was cutting tomatoes. The scrambled eggs with tomatoes he made were very delicious. He liked it very much and that was his best dish.

He stopped cutting the tomato and put down the knife. He looked back at her and saw a blush on her face. He smiled and asked, "What's wrong?"

Raelynn replied coquettishly, "I'm hungry."

Kenneth looked at the last dish and said, "It's almost ready. Have a seat first. You can eat it soon."

Raelynn smiled and said, "I want to help you here."

"No, I'm just making scrambled eggs. You can wait for me at the table."

"Well, I'll wait for you to feed me." Raelynn walked out with a smile.

She sat down at the dining table and poured herself a glass of cold water. While drinking, she watched the man cooking in the kitchen. Five minutes later, Kenneth came out with two dishes and one soup.

The chicken soup was cooked by the servants at home earlier. After he heated it up, he made two dishes: scrambled eggs with tomatoes and grilled fish.

These two dishes were simple, and he could cook them.

Kenneth filled a plate with food for Raelynn and said, "Rae, bon appetit!"

Raelynn looked at him quietly, with a smile in her eyes and her eyebrows curved like crescent moons.

"Kenneth, I didn't expect you to do business well, manage well, and even cook so well. You are the perfect man in women's hearts."

Raelynn was really happy that night.

Kenneth was very happy to be praised by her. "I don't care what I look like in other women's hearts. I just want to be the best in your heart."

Raelynn looked straight at him, her eyes full of tenderness and bashfulness. She whispered, "You are the best." Then, she lowered her head and ate.

She ate some of the fish, which smelled and tasted great.

Kenneth served her a bowl of chicken soup. "Drink some chicken soup first."

"Okay! Aren't you eating?"

Kenneth shook his head. "I'm not hungry at all. I had two meals tonight."

He didn't eat much, but even so he wouldn't feel hungry.

Raelynn tasted two dishes and praised him with a smile. "They're delicious."

Hearing this, Kenneth was filled with joy. He was happier than being accepted into an elite school.

"I'll cook for you in the future. Whatever you want to eat, I'll learn to cook it." He was willing to learn anything for her.

That kind of feeling was so sweet!

Raelynn ate with a smile and did not answer him.

What a great man!

She had met countless men, rich and poor, but she had never met a perfect man like Kenneth.

He was domineering, capable, indifferent, gentle, ruthless, and kind. His mixed temperament made her very obsessed with him.

After dinner, Kenneth took her upstairs.

They headed to Kenneth's room.

Raelynn looked nervously at the man's broad back. "Kenneth, where am I sleeping?"

Kenneth turned to look at her with a faint playful smile. "What do you think?"

Raelynn blushed and put her fingers down nervously.

Kenneth took her hand and walked over, saying, "On Monday, let's go get our marriage certificate, and we will have a wedding ceremony later. Is that okay, Rae?"

Raelynn was stunned and surprised. "Isn't it too fast? We've only known each other for less than a month."

Kenneth didn't feel like it was too fast. He smiled and said, "Love comes quickly. You can't stop it, can you?"

"Oh! But, Kenneth, do you really like me?" She wanted to be sure of his feelings.

Kenneth knew how uneasy she was. He put his hands on her shoulders and said, "Rae, if you don't want to, I'll give you time. You can sleep next door tonight."

"Okay!" Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief. "Kenneth, thank you!"

She threw herself into his arms and said with a smile, "I also want to marry you. I want to tell you that I'm very willing to marry you, but give me some time. I won't let you wait too long."
