

Gluey Love 2391

Chapter 2391

When Kenneth heard that she was willing to do so, he was relieved.

He lowered his eyes and looked at the girl's curly eyelashes. Her bright eyes were smiling and her red lips were like delicate roses, very attractive.

He leaned over and whispered in her ear, "Rae, don't let me wait too long."

Raelynn smiled and whispered, "Okay."

There was a faint blush on her bashful face. Her big eyes were so shy and nervous that they knocked into Kenneth's heart. Before she could answer, he quickly lowered his head and kissed her red lips.

Raelynn's eyes suddenly widened. When she came to her senses, she smiled and felt his love with her heart.

The next morning, when Raelynn woke up, the sky was already bright. Her biological clock was used to getting up at seven o'clock.

Unexpectedly, she didn't wake up on time that morning.

She was a little confused as she looked at the beautiful floor-to-ceiling window. The beige gauze curtain was swaying gently. The morning breeze caressed it, cooling the room.

Where was she?

It was such a beautiful balcony. It must be very beautiful to sit there and enjoy the scenery.

Raelynn pursed her lips and smiled. "This dream is not bad."

Raelynn moved and her eyes suddenly widened. "Oh yes, it's not a dream. I'm at Kenneth's house."

She immediately remembered everything.

She sat up suddenly and looked at the big room. She didn't feel anything the night before. That morning, when she looked at the house which was so magnificent, she felt ashamed.

She got out of bed slowly and washed up. Thinking that it was the weekend that day, she didn't have to worry too much.

She stretched lazily and suddenly stopped. She stared blankly in the direction of the door, and her memories flooded into her mind.

The night before, she almost ran into trouble. At the critical moment, Kenneth was stunned and stopped himself.

That man's self-control was frighteningly strong.

She could already feel the aura in his body that was about to explode. In the end, she was sent back to her room.

Under his spell, she had already turned into a puddle of water.

Raelynn's eyes flashed, and a suspicious blush appeared on her fair face. Some people were so charming that even thinking about it would make people blush and their hearts beat faster.

She pursed her lips and quickly turned to walk to the bathroom. She couldn't think anymore. She felt as if she was about to catch fire.

However, that d*mned aura of Kenneth's was too enticing.

In the past, she didn't believe in the words 'give up'. However, there were too many possibilities verified by Kenneth, which made her deeply understand the meaning of these words.

She had an impulse to stay by his side all the time.

"Raelynn, no, no, no. You have to be bashful. Don't think about it anymore."

After washing up, she grabbed her phone and looked at it. It was already past ten o'clock.

Raelynn found a very well-designed white dress and put it on.

Looking at the cut and unique style, that dress was definitely designed by the chairman's wife. In fact, she really wanted to meet Eden, the brilliant fashion queen, who had built up the glorious performance of Alwynn Group.

She looked out of the window with a faint smile. Only then did she realize that she had not slept like this for a long time. She had had a good rest and felt refreshed at the moment.

In the past, on weekends, she had been busy looking for inspiration and doing all kinds of preparations to look for jobs.

Knock, Knock...

Raelynn instantly became nervous. She pursed her lips and quickly opened the door.

As soon as the door was opened, she saw Kenneth standing outside the door. The man was dressed in a light gray casual suit and trousers. Without his usual black suits, he looked more friendly, approachable, and handsome.

"Good morning!" Kenneth looked at her and said lazily.

Raelynn blushed and said with a smile, "It's quite late. I didn't expect that I could sleep in so late."

She had slept until she woke up naturally. Perhaps it was because Kenneth was next door, but she had an unprecedented sense of security. As soon as she relaxed, her sleep quality improved.

Kenneth replied, "It's the weekend, so you can sleep a little longer."

Raelynn said, "I'm usually also very busy on weekends." Usually, she would provide live streaming or work part-time jobs to earn money.

Kenneth took her downstairs and stated as they walked, "You can't be busy this weekend. Let's go on a date today."

Raelynn looked down at the hand that was held by the man. His hand was very warm, and the faint warmth was just right. The feeling of holding her hand was warm and comfortable, which made her involuntarily feel happy.

When they reached the stairs, Raelynn struggled for a moment.

Kenneth looked at her in confusion.

Raelynn said shyly, "Are your sister and brother-in-law still here?"

It turned out that she was shy.

"It's okay, they went back. Terrance and Trystan are going for swimming lessons today. Martin spends time accompanying Gia to go out on the weekends so now, there are only the two of us in the family. The servants are in the backyard."

Hearing this, Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief.

"Oh! Okay!" He said they were going on a date, but she didn't know where.

Kenneth said, "Let's go down to eat."

"Okay!" Raelynn nodded and agreed.

.....

It was very hot in June. After the meal, Raelynn didn't want to move anymore. Thinking of the live broadcast she owed, she felt very guilty.

The date that Kenneth was talking about was to take her to the garden to enjoy the scenery.

She looked sideways at the man next to her. He was sitting on a lounge lazily, showing a rare playfulness. His hands were placed on the table, which were fairer than marble.

His gaze was always so deep. People said that those born with dazzling eyes could capture one's attention if you looked at them for too long, but his eyes could make people sink into them with just one look. In the faint breeze, he was radiant and charming.

Feeling her gaze, Kenneth looked sideways slightly and asked with a smile, "Rae, am I good-looking?"

Raelynn was stunned. It was rare for him to have free time, and he was completely different from how he was usually at work.

Raelynn answered honestly, "You are good-looking, but since you said we were going on a date, are we just going to sit here all day?" He seemed a little lacking in romance.

Kenneth's hand paused on the table. In fact, he really didn't know how to be romantic.

He worked at home during the weekends, and it was rare for him to be as free as he was that weekend.

Kenneth thought about all kinds of romantic things he had searched for online, but they were nothing more than going to the movies and shopping with his girlfriend.

Moreover, what Martin said when he left in the morning was deeply imparted on him; men should understand romance.

Martin was a very romantic person, and his and Gia's life was very interesting.

Kenneth looked at Raelynn and said in a low voice, "We'll go to the movies later. Do you have anything you want to watch?"

Raelynn smiled and said, "It's not necessary to go to watch a movie. Not all dates are set in stone. We can do whatever we like on our dates."

Kenneth asked curiously, "Like what?"

He didn't like to go to crowded places, and there was a cinema at home, but he didn't know if Raelynn would like it.

Chapter 2392

Raelynn thought for a moment and said, "We can go for a walk or go hiking. I don't like shopping very much. I only go out when I need something. It's very tiring to go shopping. I shop online for many things."

"Or if we're at home, as long as we do something interesting together, it's also a date."

Kenneth listened intently. There was nothing wrong with what she said, but her words "are we just going to sit here the whole day?" made him a little suspicious of what she had just said.

It was also a date now, and he would occasionally enjoy the scenery like this.

Kenneth thought for a moment and said, "Why don't we go watch a movie? Rae, I've never seen a movie with a girl." His family's cinema had just gotten some new equipment and he had not experienced it yet.

Raelynn felt the same way. "I have never seen a movie with a boy either."

Her words were undoubtedly pleasing to the ear. "It's an honor to be the first man to watch a movie with you." He got up and held her hand, saying, "Since both of us like it, let's go watch a movie."

When Martin left that morning, he said that watching a movie was the best way to enhance their relationship. He recommended two movies to Kenneth to watch with her.

Raelynn smiled and did not say anything. She just went to watch the movie with him.

In fact, she could tell that Kenneth did not like to go to crowded places. The last time he went to her house, he felt very uncomfortable because he didn't know her.

They arrived at the movie theater behind the villa. The family theater was not very big, but it had more than 20 massage chairs which were noble and luxurious. In front of them was a set of spacious sofas that could be reclined, and one could still see the screen lying down.

Haha...

Raelynn had learned a lot. It's so enjoyable to watch a movie while getting a massage.

The most important thing was that the whole space made people feel extremely comfortable, and the style was elegant and natural.

Kenneth helped Raelynn sit down, and he sat beside her. "Rae, this is a silent massage chair and sofa I developed. They are now being promoted. You can experience it in advance."

The family movie theater contained huge business opportunities. No matter which industry new technology is showcased in, the most important thing was the initial display. He was going to prepare a new product this time. What he prepared this time were all the latest technology, whether they were seats or audio and visual equipment; they were all his latest developments.

"Wow!" Raelynn was really amazed by his talent.

"Kenneth, you're amazing! No, my future husband is amazing!" When she was excited, she blurted out some words without thinking.

That was also the case when she chatted with her classmates abroad.

After saying the words 'future husband', Raelynn's face suddenly turned red.

However, Kenneth looked at her with a deep gaze. His sexy red lips were about to kiss hers.

He finally realized his d*mned attraction of the opposite sex.

Kenneth looked away with difficulty and introduced, "This set of home cinema equipment is the latest design on the market. Rae, you're the first one to experience it. Everything is controlled by voice. As long as you say it, you can watch the movie you want in ultra high-definition, and with state-of-the-art color accuracy."

After saying that, he turned on the projection screen and stated, "Play 'Our Summer'."

Immediately, the movie to be played appeared on the projection screen.

The cinema, which had a 3D-surround sound system, was very comfortable.

After a while, there was a knock on the door. Kenneth stood up and went to open the door. Raelynn turned around and saw him pushing a small dining cart in.

There were peeled fruits, mixed nuts, popcorn, drinks, and hot beverages on it.

Raelynn felt that if she lived like this every day, she would definitely become the most depraved person.

It was too enjoyable.

Kenneth placed the popcorn in front of Raelynn and sat next to her to watch the movie together.

The film had already begun. Kenneth began to introduce, "Martin introduced this movie to me before he left this morning. It should be..." Before he could finish his words, a sound from the screen that made them blush and their hearts race could be heard

The male lead's attractive and extravagant voice sounded.

Kenneth stared blankly for a moment.

Raelynn's face was flushed red. She rarely had the time to watch a movie, so she thought that the movie Kenneth chose should be good. Seeing the beginning scene, she knew that the movie was one that would make her blood surge.

Kenneth suddenly thought of the deep expression on Martin's face before he left.

Martin dug a hole for him to jump down.

Martin, such a coquettish man, could not be underestimated. Kenneth really did not know how Martin managed to win over Gia in the first place.

The trailer became more and more exciting, and Raelynn couldn't bear to look at it directly. How could Kenneth like such a movie?

She looked at him with a red face.

Kenneth looked into Raelynn's questioning eyes and saw the meaning in them.

"Why do you like this?"

Kenneth was clever, and he wanted to beat Martin up. How could he ruin his brother-in-law's reputation like this?

Kenneth forced himself to calm down. His ears were very red, and they were clearly imprinted in Raelynn's eyes. She couldn't help laughing.

"It's... It's a movie introduced by Martin." His voice was serious. He didn't know why such a movie could be played.

However, a small part of him didn't want to turn it off; he wanted to watch it.

He had never seen these types of movies before.

"Oh!" Raelynn murmured softly. The picture on the big screen had changed. The young male lead was riding a bike and playing by the sea with the female lead, their faces full of youthfulness.

Neither of them spoke. They watched the movie quietly. Raelynn gradually became entranced, and the plot became more and more interesting. Kenneth forced himself to watch the movie, but when he looked at her, his eyes could not help but fall on her red lips. His gaze was burning hot and filled with a kind of yearning that had never been seen before.

As the plot progressed, the couple who fell in love with each other in summer finally broke through the line of defense. The bold scene on the plush carpet made their expressions tense instantly.

How could a young man with such a strong spirit withstand such temptation? Kenneth threw himself onto Raelynn. His dense kisses wrapped around her like vines, making it impossible for her to escape. She was forced to bear it.

This time, both of them felt a joyous feeling, and they were unable to extricate themselves from their happiness.

When Raelynn woke up again, she had already returned to the guest room next door to Kenneth's. She sat up suddenly and blinked her beautiful eyes. Her heart was about to jump out of her chest.

She couldn't wait to give herself a good beating. When she was thrown into the clouds by Kenneth, she couldn't bear it and fainted.

"How could this be?" Raelynn wrapped herself in the quilt and rolled on the bed. Wasn't it just a movie? How could such an uncontrollable thing happen?

After a while, she went to look for Kenneth.

She took a look at her clothes, which was a pink and comfortable home dress. Her body was sore, but she felt refreshed. Kenneth had cleaned her body. Thinking of this, Raelynn was embarrassed and angry. Was this the so-called date they liked?

Then they were still on a date for the whole day.

She was about to go downstairs when she heard a girl's gentle voice. "Kenny, your home is so beautiful!"

Chapter 2393

When she heard the voice, she knew that it was Isla,

She stopped at the stairs and didn't intend to go down, because her female intuition told her that Isla liked Kenneth.

Then, she heard Kenneth speak in a tone that wasn't welcoming.

"Why are you here?"

Austin spoke up, "Isn't it a weekend? Since you didn't come out to play, we came here. We have been back for several months but we have never been to your house. We asked Carson to bring us here."

"Carson said that he had something very important to do tomorrow, so he could only bring us here today."

Kenneth's voice was firm and indifferent.

"But I have something to do today."

Raelynn didn't even need to think to know what kind of expression Kenneth had on his face.

Nathaniel looked at him with a smile. "Why don't you rest this weekend? No, Kenneth, I've never seen you cook. Are you cooking with an apron?"

"That's great. We're here for dinner."

Nathaniel's voice was light and casual and his gaze fell on Kenneth's tall body with grievance. It was not funny, but Kenneth had the temperament of a good househusband.

Kenneth stated, "Not today. I have a guest today."

He recalled that the following day was Cecilla's and Cecil's birthday.

Austin complained, "Wow, Seven, we're guests too so you can't treat us like this."

Austin's tone was filled with dissatisfaction. He also understood Kenneth's temper so the few of them were not angry.

In this era, everyone was busy. Some young lady might hold a party that day, and some other person might celebrate their birthday the next day. It was not easy to meet their friends on a weekend. Even if they wanted to go out, their friends might not be free either.

Kenneth was silent. He only wanted to spend the day with Raelynn. After dinner, he had to send her back.

At noon, the two of them lingered in the cinema. Raelynn was so tired that she fainted. He didn't know that he was so strong, so he decided to make dinner for her to apologize.

At that moment, Raelynn heard a short chuckle.

"Seven, you're so mysterious and you're even cooking in person. Who is that guest? Can't you let us meet them?"

Raelynn's heart was pounding. To be honest, she didn't want others to know about her relationship with Kenneth.

Isla felt that something was wrong. She raised her eyebrows slightly and looked at Kenneth's unhappy expression. She smiled sweetly and said, "The person who can make Kenny personally cook for him is extraordinary."

Nathaniel and Austin also nodded in agreement.

Only Carson sat there quietly, not saying a word.

Kenneth knew that they would know about it sooner or later. He looked at them with a gentle smile and said in a sweet voice, "My girlfriend."

"Wow!"

"D*mn."

"What the heck!"

Only Isla's beautiful eyes suddenly widened and her body trembled. Then, she blinked her eyes in disbelief. Kenny had a girlfriend.

She was so sad and heartbroken. She had loved him for so many years. How could he suddenly have a girl? The girl was not her, Isla Alden.

Nathaniel exclaimed, "Seven, you have a girlfriend, but I'm not the first to know."

"We've just confirmed our relationship."

Austin looked at Kenneth in surprise. It was definitely a shocking thing for Kenneth to have someone he liked.

"Wow, Seven, you're finally enlightened. Where's your girlfriend? Let's meet her."

However, Nathaniel was a little worried as he looked at the pale-faced Isla. Others might not know, but he knew that Isla liked Seven.

The visitors were also guests, so Kenneth took off his apron and called the servants to serve them.

"All of you, take a seat." Kenneth led everyone back to the living room.

Isla felt that her legs were weak, so she slowly sat on the luxurious sofa.

Kenneth's home was decorated in a simple style, but it was grand and luxurious.

"Wow!" Nathaniel was envious. "Kenny, how much is your home worth?"

Kenneth said, "This piece of land belongs to my grandfather and it was inherited by my mother. The estimated price of this piece of land is more than 100 million. There are several villas in the back and the park itself is worth about 10 million."

Carson felt his heart tremble. His swimming pool must be made of gemstones.

He asked excitedly, "Kenny, I heard that Dragon Villa was a special gift from your grandfather to your mother, right?"

Kenneth nodded slightly. "Yes, but they're not at home. They've gone on a trip."

Carson praised, "I've finally seen a house belonging to a rich family. For someone like me, even if I worked hard for ten lifetimes, I wouldn't be able to earn enough to afford this piece of land and villa."

Nathaniel and Austin shared the same thought.

On the contrary, Isla was in a much better mood than before and she thought to herself, "Just you wait. Before long, I will be the hostess of this home."

So what if he had a woman he liked? As long as he wasn't married, she would have a chance.

Soon, the chefs and servants came in one after another and got to work.

Raelynn stood at the stairs, not knowing what to do.

She didn't expect Kenneth's friend to come that day.

She quietly turned back to her room. "Well, I'd better go in the room first. Unless I have no other choice, I won't go downstairs," she thought.

She always felt that the atmosphere would be strange.

After making his friends tea, Kenneth sat down on the sofa.

Nathaniel looked at him curiously and asked, "Seven, where's your girlfriend?"

Kenneth replied expressionlessly, "She's still resting upstairs."

Hearing this, Nathaniel captured an unusual aura.

He smirked and asked with narrowed eyes, "She's resting at this time, is there something wrong?"

Kenneth was dressed in a casual black suit, which made him look exceptionally tall. He looked different than he did in his usual suit and leather shoes, adding a bit of casualness and brightness to his handsome appearance.

Hearing Nathaniel's words, Kenneth's handsome face couldn't help flushing.

This time, let alone Nathaniel, even Austin noticed the abnormality.

Austin smirked and said, "Seven, it seems that you've been enlightened?" He dragged the last word for a long time, making him look charming and funny.

Kenneth's handsome face turned even redder. He did not dare to look at the two of them.

Carson looked at Kenneth curiously and said with a smile, "Our 10,000-year-old tree, Kenneth, has bloomed."

Kenneth was speechless.

Isla clenched her fists. Had they been... together?

Kenny had never touched a woman. It must be that woman who seduced him.

She calmed herself down and forced a sweet smile. "Kenny, you must like her very much, right?"

Kenneth nodded slightly, admitting it.

Isla bit her lower lip hard so that she wouldn't lose her composure.

The atmosphere seemed to have quietened down all of a sudden, and they could only hear the breathing of several people.

Nathaniel took another look at Isla. She must be deeply hurt.

He joked, "Seven, I've always thought that the person you liked was Isla?"

Kenneth was stunned. Since when did he like Isla?

Chapter 2394

Kenneth's tone was very serious. "Nathaniel, don't talk nonsense."

Nathaniel smiled and said, "I was just joking. Look, you two are not together. Isn't it a pity that I am?"

"Nathaniel, you're really good at joking." Isla smiled. If she could really be with Kenneth, she would really be grateful to Nathaniel.

Among these people, Nathaniel doted on her the most.

"Don't make such jokes in the future. Isla and I only know each other," Kenneth stated sternly.

There were some things that had to be made clear to avoid any misunderstandings in the future.

Isla was hurt. Did he say that they only knew each other?

Nathaniel smiled, seeing that Kenneth was unhappy. Only then did he realize that Seven was truly uninterested in Isla.

However, there were some things that could not be explained clearly.

Kenneth looked at them and said, "Why don't I show you around? The garden is also very beautiful."

Nathaniel shook his head. "We'll go after we've had dinner, and conveniently, it's also better for digestion. Why don't you invite your girlfriend down? I'm just curious about her."

Kenneth stood up and said, "Then I'll go upstairs to see if she's awake."

"Okay." Nathaniel was really curious about what kind of girl Kenneth would like.

When Kenneth went upstairs, Isla instantly breathed a sigh of relief. She had to steel herself for what would happen next.

If she became the hostess of this place, everything here would belong to her in the future.

Kenneth was the eldest son of the Alwynn family, so she would be able to lead everything in the future.

Those younger brothers of Kenneth's who were still in school were nothing.

She would kick them out in the future. That place was hers and Kenny's.

Isla lowered her gaze, hiding the wild ambition in her eyes.

She had been smart since she was a child, and her computer skills were excellent. She had known that Kenneth's family was very rich. As for how much money he had, she would never be able to spend it all.

She liked that kind of supremely wealthy life.

Knock, Knock...

Raelynn, who was chatting with Clara in the room, suddenly heard a knock on the door.

Clara messaged, "Oh my god, Rae, you're in Mr. Alwynn's family home. Are you really together?"

Raelynn replied, "I'll tell you when I get to work. He came upstairs and called me."

Raelynn also felt that this matter was very depressing, so she told Clara about it.

Raelynn put away her phone and went to open the door.

The person standing outside the door was Kenneth.

"Rae, are you awake?" There was a hint of playfulness in his voice.

Raelynn's face suddenly turned red. She couldn't remember how she came back here.

Kenneth looked at her dress and commented, "It suits you very well."

Raelynn was stunned for a moment before she realized that he was talking about her clothes.

"Your clothes are very beautiful." There was no doubt that the clothes and dresses he put in her room were all very beautiful.

Kenneth appreciated the view for a while and explained, "It was my mother who took the time to do it."

Kenneth took a step forward and kissed Raelynn on the forehead. His kiss was as light as a breeze.

Raelynn felt that her face was burning hot, and her heart beat wildly without warning.

Just when she was at a loss, Kenneth whispered in her ear, "Jasper, let's go down. A few of my friends came over."

Hearing this, Raelynn knew that it was true. She didn't go down just now because she didn't want to disturb them.

"Oh, okay." Raelynn gripped her phone tightly.

She followed Kenneth down the stairs.

When the two of them entered the living room, Isla's pupils suddenly contracted. Wasn't this the female employee she saw at Kenny's company that morning?

Hmph!

With such an identity, she also wanted to marry into the Alwynn family.

Nathaniel and Austin glanced at each other. Nathaniel smiled and praised, "She's a very beautiful girl."

Austin also nodded slightly, "She is very beautiful, just the kind of girl whom Seven likes. No wonder he brought her home."

Carson added, "This girl looks kind. She must be able to get along well with Kenny."

Upon hearing their words, Isla almost died of anger.

How could this woman be as beautiful as her?

Kenneth introduced them with a smile. "Rae, they're my friends, Nathaniel, Austin, Isla, and Carson."

Raelynn was not a timid person. After the introduction, she also greeted them gracefully. "Hello, everyone. I'm Raelynn Edwards."

Isla smiled and said, "Miss Edwards, I've seen you in Kenny's company. Are you an employee of Alwynn Group?" She wanted to see who this woman was.

Raelynn nodded and looked at her. There was a strong hostility in her eyes. Although Isla was smiling, Raelynn could still feel it. "I am a designer of Alwynn Group."

Isla sneered. It turned out that she was just a designer.

Those who could go to work in Alwynn Group were all talented, but those who went out to work came from ordinary families.

Nathaniel looked at Raelynn's beautiful face. In a crowd, she was indeed a special existence. She was very beautiful when she smiled, and her white teeth were also very neat. He had seen many women, and it was rare to see such a charming person, but Seven was the first to get her.

Kenneth sensed Nathaniel's gaze and glanced at him unhappily.

His gaze was overbearing and full of possessiveness. Nathaniel instantly understood that Kenneth was definitely serious.

Nathaniel smiled awkwardly and rubbed his lips unnaturally.

Austin could tell that Kenneth was serious, so he didn't say anything.

Kenneth looked at Raelynn and asked softly, "What do you want to drink?"

Raelynn replied, "Tea!"

"Okay, I'll brew it for you. Have a seat."

Kenneth got up to make tea.

Carson smiled and said, "Miss Edwards, Kenny treats you very well. I've never seen him put so much effort into any girl. Do you know what Kenny is usually like?"

Raelynn shook her head slightly. Amongst these friends, Carson was the most pleasing to the eye and seemed the friendliest.

Carson smiled and adjusted his glasses. "He's usually very fierce and intimidating. He always acts like someone owes him tens of millions, but I don't doubt the greatness of love at all. I've personally witnessed his brother risking his life to pursue his wife."

Nathaniel said, "Well... You should all have seen the news. Their whole family is infatuated. They're willing to lose their lives for the sake of those they like. They really can do such things."

Raelynn didn't say anything and quietly listened to them.

After a while, Kenneth came out with a cup of tea.

"Rae, have some tea." Behind him were two servants who were holding the pastries that they had just made.

"Here are the pastries and cakes that have just been made. You can eat some first. Dinner will be ready in 40 minutes."

"Wow! So exquisite!" Raelynn looked at the small desserts on the plate. She had never seen such delicate pastries.

Isla was speechless. This woman was ignorant!

Kenneth could tell from Raelynn's eyes that she liked it. He smiled gently and said, "Go ahead and eat. I don't have much of a sweet tooth. It tastes good with honey. If you like it, write it down. I'll ask the pastry chef at home to make it for you next time."

Chapter 2395

Raelynn nodded with a smile. In fact, her favorite dessert was the ice cream cake. It was just the right size and melted in her mouth. It was very delicious.

She tasted a few more pieces, and they were all delicious. After the strenuous exercise, she was very hungry. Now that she was eating such delicious desserts, she was even more satisfied.

Raelynn pointed at the ice cream cake and said with a smile, "This ice cream cake is the best."

"Really? I thought you would like these ones with jam and chocolate." Kenneth scooped some ice cream with a smile to feed her himself.

When Raelynn saw so many people looking at her, she felt a little shy, but she couldn't help but lower her head and eat the small piece of cake.

The few people next to him were speechless. They had never seen such a gentle Kenneth.

In front of them, Kenneth was always cold and distant.

There were very few times when he was excited or acted at the spur of the moment.

Isla's heart was filled with jealousy. Kenny had never personally fed her anything, so what right did Raelynn have for him to do that for her?

However, smart women would not lose their temper at this time.

She knew Kenneth's temper. He hated unreasonable women the most.

She smiled and said, "Kenny, I like the chocolate-flavored ones. Can the chef make some for me to take home?"

Kenneth glanced at her indifferently. "Sure."

"Thank you, Kenny!" Isla smiled sweetly.

However, Kenneth did not even look at her. She was very disappointed as she ate the chocolate cake.

Kenneth asked again, "Rae, tell me what your mom and Ryder like. I'll ask the pastry chef to make some for you to take back."

Raelynn thought for a moment and said, "We just started living together, so I don't know their tastes. There's no need for that."

She had been bothering them here for a whole day, so it would be even more embarrassing to ask them to make things for her to bring back.

Kenneth frowned as he didn't like her being so polite. "Then pack up some of every flavor and bring them back."

After saying that, he got up and walked to the kitchen.

Nathaniel and Austin looked at each other. They both felt that they had never seen Kenneth like this before.

"Well! Soon, can we become groomsmen?" Nathaniel smirked and touched his chin, looking very playful.

Austin chimed in, "So doted on; I feel that Kenny is very serious."

Raelynn glanced at the two of them. These two people were really interesting. She was still sitting here yet they said those things so loudly.

However, Isla smiled and interrupted, "Nathaniel, it's hard to say. You know Kenny's character. He has never been in a relationship before. This time, it may just be a temporary novelty. After all, the Alwynn family is in River City, and there are not many families worthy of them."

Raelynn's expression suddenly darkened, and she lowered her head slightly. She understood what Isla meant.

Carson narrowed his eyes and glanced at Isla. He had always felt that this girl was scheming, very cunning.

Seeing that Nathaniel and Austin were not in a hurry to say anything, Carson spoke up, "That's not necessarily true. I grew up with Kenny. He is not the kind of person who only spends time with the rich and disdains the poor. What matters is that the person he likes loves him too. Besides, the Alwynn family has never been short of money, and there is no need to strengthen the family with marriage."

Isla's face suddenly turned as pale as snow.

Raelynn also remembered that Kenneth had said the same thing to her. He told her that he didn't care about her family background.

His words undoubtedly reassured her, which was why she came and stayed here for a whole day. She knew very well what she could and could not get.

The atmosphere instantly became tense.

Fortunately, at this time, Kenneth walked out of the kitchen.

As if nothing had happened, everyone continued to talk about other topics.

The dinner was well prepared. Everyone's favorite dishes had been prepared, and Kenneth did his best as a host.

After the meal, Carson asked Kenneth, "Kenny, are you going to the party held by the Ronen family tomorrow night?"

Kenneth nodded. "Yes, it's Cecilla's and Cecil's birthday."

"Okay, see you tomorrow." Carson looked at them and said, "Everyone, I have some work to do, so I have to go back to the office first. You can leave after having enough fun."

Austin looked at him and smiled, "Carson, why are you like Kenny, only working all the time?"

Carson replied, "Of course I have to work hard in order to provide the best life for the person I like."

Austin looked at his serious expression and praised with a bit of admiration, "Carson, I remember that you were very good at making money since young. It seems that you are not short of money."

Carson nodded and said with a smile, "Yes, but I still have to give my beloved woman a better life. Recently, I've been discussing cooperations with various companies. Only when these projects are successful can I be considered rich."

After Carson finished speaking, he left with a smile.

Austin felt a little envious. It was better to be more educated!

He asked seriously, "Kenny, is it too late for me to start a master's degree?"

Kenneth returned, "Is it useful for you?"

Austin answered, "It's useless. My education isn't tied in with my income."

Kenneth remained silent.

Isla felt that sitting at home was too depressing. Just as she was about to ask Kenneth to take her out for a walk, the door opened.

"Kenneth, I'm back." Giada had not even entered the door when she called out. She was afraid of disturbing her brother's plans.

Kenneth stood up to help her. Giada was carrying lots of things in her hands, and Martin was pushing the twins' pram in.

Kenneth bent over and looked at her niece and nephew. "Tryst, Terry, did you have fun today?" He smiled and pinched the children's little cheeks.

The two little guys were very happy to see their uncle's smile.

Kenneth stood up and met Martin's half-smiling gaze.

Kenneth glared at him.

Martin smiled and didn't say anything.

"Miss Edwards." As soon as Giada entered the living room, she saw that Raelynn was still there, so she was very happy.

Giada greeted Nathaniel, Austin, and Isla.

"Gia, are you staying here now?" Isla knew Giada, but they were not familiar with each other.

"Yes, Miss Alden. I basically moved here after giving birth to the children."

Isla smiled. Why would a married girl stay at her parents' home and not leave? It must be for the property of the Alwynn family.

Hmph!

After she married Kenny, she would not allow Giada to live here. How could a daughter, who had gotten married, come back to live here?

However, presently, she wanted to please this sister-in-law. Only with the help of others could she marry into the Alwynn family as soon as possible.

Isla smiled and asked, "Gia, can I have a look at the children?"

Giada pointed at the babies. "Go ahead, Miss Alden."

Then, she walked towards Raelynn and sat beside her.

"Miss Edwards, I thought you were going back. I went out to buy some gifts today. I happen to have time tomorrow, so I can spend the day with you. You don't have to go back tonight." Giad had to let her big brother catch this good girl.

Chapter 2396

Raelynn shook her head with a smile. "Gia, I didn't go back last night. If I don't go back tonight, my mother will be worried."

Isla happened to be looking at the children. When she heard these words, she was extremely depressed.

Did Raelynn spend the night here? She must be shameless. She must have seduced Kenny.

Isla had known Giada for a long time, but she didn't invite her to stay here.

Hmph!

When she got married, she would kick Giada out firstly.

"Oh! That's true. Auntie will be worried." Giada was a little disappointed. She was too busy that day to come back early.

Kenneth put the things down and asked, "Did you go to buy some gifts?"

Kenneth replied, "Yes. It's Cecilla's and Cecil's birthday. Have you prepared your gifts?"

"Also, Mom and Dad may come back early. Martin won't be able to come back in time tomorrow so you have to go to the airport to pick up Andrew and the others."

Kenneth nodded slightly. "I got it."

Kenneth turned to look at Nathaniel and said, "Nathaniel, I remember that you have nothing to do tomorrow. Why don't you help me pick up my younger brothers?" Although it was the weekend the next day, he still had to go to other places to conduct inspections.

Nathaniel was very happy to help. "Okay, I'll pick them up."

Kenneth responded, "Thank you!"

"We're on the same side. There's no need to be so polite." Nathaniel smiled and picked up the tea to taste it carefully.

It was good tea. Although he didn't really like it, he couldn't waste it.

Isla walked over and said with a smile, "Kenny, it's not dark yet. Why don't you take us to enjoy the beautiful scenery in the garden?"

Kenneth looked down at Raelynn and asked, "Rae, do you want to go out for a walk?"

"Okay!" Raelynn nodded with a smile. She had eaten a lot of desserts, so she could go out for a walk to digest it. Otherwise, she would get fat.

"Martin, give me the children, and I will also push them out for a walk."

Martin knew that Giada wanted to spend more time with Raelynn, so he said, "You can go. I'll look after the children at home."

Austin smiled and said: "Martin, you are a model husband. I don't have the patience to take care of a child, so I will also take a look around."

Martin smiled and said nothing. He pushed the children to the second floor via the elevator and asked the servants to bring some hot water. He wanted to make milk for the children.

Kenneth and Giada brought the others out for a walk. In the garden, there were some very expensive trees that were trimmed very beautifully.

The three men walked in front.

Raelynn liked this place. She really liked it very much. Every tree seemed to have been carefully carved.

"Gia, it's so beautiful here. The children will have a very spacious place to play when they grow up."

Giada also liked this place very much. At first glance, especially in the winter morning, the garden would be shrouded in a layer of white mist; it was as beautiful as a fairyland.

"Yes, the children like to play hide and seek. The forest garden is very big, and it's very fun to play hide and seek. I plan to let Tryst and Terry grow up here. After you and my brother get married, you should also have a child as soon as possible. We will have fun with each other in the future."

As Giada spoke, she observed the expression on Raelynn's face. Sure enough, when she saw that the latter's face had turned red. Raelynn lowered her head and smiled without saying anything.

Kenneth was also worried about this issue. That day, he said that they had been together twice without taking any protective measures. He was afraid that she would get pregnant and wanted to get married as soon as possible. At that time, she deliberately ignored the meaning of his words and did not say anything.

Now that Giada had mentioned it, Raelynn was also looking forward to it.

He didn't take any protective measures that day, and the recent two days were in a dangerous period, so she was a little worried.

Isla, who was listening behind them, had an extremely cold expression on her face. It was impossible for Raelynn to marry into the Alwynn family.

The position of the Young Madam of the Alwynn family belonged to her, Isla. She had liked Kenneth for many years.

"Gia, do you have time tomorrow? Can you accompany me out for a walk? Your big brother is busy, so he doesn't have time to take me out for a walk," Isla said as she wrapped her arms around Giada's wrist.

Giada shook her head slightly and said, "Miss Alden, I may not have time tomorrow. Tomorrow is the birthday of the children of my uncle, so I may need to go there earlier to help."

Isla was stunned. When Giada persuaded Raelynn to stay in the living room, didn't she say that she had time?

Why wasn't there any time for me?

Hmph! She snorted in her heart, and her expression revealed her bad mood.

At that moment, Giada's phone rang. When she saw that it was a call from the studio, she looked at Raelynn and apologized, "Excuse me." Then, she went off to answer the phone not far away.

Raelynn glanced at the three men who were walking in the front. Kenneth was walking in the middle, and he was the most dazzling.

Isla looked around and found that no one was around. Finally, she revealed her true colors.

"Miss Edwards, do you think you're worthy of the young master of the Alwynn family?"

Isla's sarcastic voice suddenly filled her ears. Raelynn turned her beautiful eyes to look at her. Isla was no longer trying to hide her gentle and lovely appearance.

She exposed her sharp claws as if she wanted to tear Raelynn apart.

She was smart enough to act like a gentle, elegant lady in front of Kenneth.

It turned out that Isla was so terrible in front of her.

She smiled and said, "Miss Alden, you must be really tired. It's not up to outsiders to decide whether or not I'm worthy of Kenneth."

Isla smiled disapprovingly, her eyes were full of contempt. "I hope that such an idea can comfort you. I'm telling you, Kenneth is mine, and can only be mine. You should leave on your own, otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite."

Raelynn also lost her temper. She narrowed her eyes to hide her anger. She hated being threatened the most.

"I want to hear how you're going to treat me, Miss Alden."

She had experienced too much and seen too many people like her.

Isla smiled oddly, stepped forward, and said in a proud tone, "I've known Kenneth for several years. We know each other well and we share the same hobbies. What do you have? If you don't take the initiative to leave, I will entertain you well. Remember, the position of Young Madam of the Alwynn family can only be mine."

Raelynn just smiled and did not speak.

This woman was really shameless. If Kenneth could fall in love with a two-faced woman like Isla, it wouldn't be that he was blind, but that she, Raelynn, was.

After all, such a scheming woman was too scary.

Raelynn said indifferently, "Don't be so sure. When you really become the Young Madam of the Alwynn family, come back and say this to me."

After that, she glanced at Kenneth, who was still on the phone, and turned to walk forward. There were a few stone steps in front of her, and below them were pots of beautiful flowers.

Isla's eyes flashed and she followed. Just as Raelynn was about to step down the stairs, Isla suddenly walked in front of her.

"Ah!" She screamed and rolled down the stone steps.

Chapter 2397

Raelynn was speechless. Isla really put her all into her acting.

Was there a need to risk her own life?

Sure enough, some people relied on their acting skills to survive.

"Isla." Nathaniel ran over.

Nathaniel and Isla had known each other for a long time. In his heart, she was a very cute girl, but she was a little arrogant.

Isla's family background was not bad, and she had been studying abroad all these years.

During the years of studying abroad, she had been with Nathaniel.

Nathaniel took good care of Isla from all aspects.

"Isla, how are you feeling?" Nathaniel helped Isla sit up and looked at the indifferent Raelynn unhappily.

"Don't you know how to help me?" Nathaniel glared at Raelynn.

Isla's face was covered in blood, and her whole body was in pain.

In order to worsen her fall, she had risked her life.

Isla curled up in Nathaniel's arms and spoke with tears streaming down her face, "Nathaniel, it's not Miss Edwards's fault. She didn't do it on purpose."

"What?" Hearing this, Nathaniel became even angrier. "Isla, did she push you down?"

Kenneth and Austin also happened to come over and happened to hear Nathaniel's words.

Hearing the scream, Giada also ran over to take a look.

Seeing Isla covered in blood, Giada didn't say anything but just frowned.

"Nathaniel, don't say that. Miss Edwards definitely didn't do it on purpose." After that, Isla lowered her head with grievance, looking extremely aggrieved.

Raelynn looked at Kenneth, who was also looking at her.

She had always been strong in self-control and had always paid attention to her own safety and interpersonal relationship. When she could speak, she would never make a move.

Besides, she would not be so vicious that she would kill people over a few words.

She was also betting that Kenneth would believe in her rather than Isla's words.

Isla looked at the two of them and burst into tears. "Kenny, Miss Edwards didn't do it on purpose."

Hearing her voice, Kenneth looked away from Raelynn's calm face and looked at Isla, who was in Nathaniel's arms. "Rae didn't do it on purpose, but you did."

Isla was stunned and cried even more pitifully.

Kenneth didn't believe her?

She smiled as her face was covered in blood. How could he not believe her?

Nathaniel was angry. "Kenny, the truth is in front of you. Can't you really see it?"

Kenneth frowned slightly. Nathaniel was a smart man, but he wouldn't change his mind.

Once he decided on something, it would be hard to change his opinion.

Kenneth looked at him and asked, "Why would Rae push her? What's the reason?"

Isla cried, "I don't know why Miss Edwards pushed me. I just went down the stairs ahead of her. Kenny, I really don't know how I offended her that she wanted to do this to me."

"Haha..." Raelynn looked at her in amusement. "Miss Alden, although you really want to act, you don't have the talent. If I had pushed you, you wouldn't have rolled down like this; you would have rolled down like a dog eating sh*t."

"Shut up, you vicious woman. Apologize to Isla." Of course, Nathaniel sided with his junior, Isla.

Kenneth's expression suddenly darkened. "Nathaniel, Rae is my girlfriend and my future wife. Watch what you say."

Nathaniel suddenly looked at him and frowned slightly. It was obvious that this was the first time that Kenneth had spoken to him in such a tone.

"Seven, this woman is obviously jealous. I've seen so many women like her. She will do anything to marry into the Alwynn family. You have to be careful." Nathaniel knew that some girls looked very beautiful, but their hearts were corrupt and dirty. They were vicious women.

Kenneth looked at him mockingly and said, "Nathaniel, I believe in my judgment. Rae won't do such a thing."

Raelynn was very happy to hear Kenneth's trust. Indeed, she was very happy because he believed in her. That was enough.

"Haha..." Nathaniel sneered. "Seven, don't you believe Isla, whom you've known for a few years over someone you've only known for a few days?"

Kenneth replied in a low voice, "This has nothing to do with the time we've known each other. I only believe in the woman I love. I can let Carson come back to assess the injury, to determine if she was pushed down or if she rolled down. The extent of the wound would be different."

"Kenneth." Nathaniel looked at him angrily, and his angry tone was deafening. "Don't you know that Isla has been learning all kinds of etiquette for you for so many years and has always wanted to be the woman you like? Haven't you seen all these?"

"Ha..." Giada smiled. "Mr. Bennet, thank you for telling us the answer."

Nathaniel looked at Giada. He didn't understand why she would say that.

However, Isla became nervous for no reason.

Giada explained, "It's because Miss Alden likes my brother, and my Kenneth likes Miss Edwards. She tried her best to get him, but couldn't, so there's only one scheme left. She wants to use all means necessary to climb into Kenneth's bed and let him marry her."

"I guess you fell so hard because you want to stay in the Alwynn family, right?"

"However, I want to tell you that in our Alwynn family, no one is qualified to live here except for the people we trust." Such a small scheme could be seen through at a glance.

A gentleman should be frank, but a villain should be considerate!

Raelynn's beautiful eyes were calm.

On the other hand, Isla lowered her eyes and pretended to be wronged.

"... Gia, I didn't. Why don't you believe what I said? Nathaniel and Kenny know me best."

Giada, that little b*tch, actually guessed what she was thinking. What should she do?

If she didn't stay in Dragon Villa, how could she carry out her plan?

Kenneth looked at his sister and said, "Gia, go and call the family hospital. I'll send Rae back first."

Giada nodded slightly. "Kenneth, you have to send Miss Edwards home safely."

"Yes!" Kenneth nodded slightly.

"Wait." Nathaniel didn't want to let the matter go.

"Seven, do you want to expose this matter like this?" He questioned.

Just as Kenneth was about to speak, Raelynn stopped him. "Kenneth."

Kenneth's dark eyes were filled with anger. When he looked at her, he couldn't help but become gentle.

She asked, "Is there no surveillance camera here? I don't want to take the blame, nor do I want you and your friends to quarrel. I'm not wrong about this."

"When Miss Alden saw that there was no one around us, she took the opportunity to warn me to stay away from you. If I got close to you, she would not be polite to me. I wanted to look for you, but she suddenly ran in front of me and rolled down the stairs."

"No, Kenny, I didn't say that." Isla was a little flustered, but she knew that there were no cameras here, so she dared to do this.

Seeing that Kenneth was indifferent, she angrily looked at Raelynn and said, "Raelynn, why did you frame me like this?"

Raelynn looked at her coldly and ruthlessly. Isla looked into her calm eyes and slowly lowered her head. "You know very well whether I framed you or not. I'm not like other women where I feel inferior because I don't have money."

"If I don't have money, I'll work hard to earn it. I won't do such immoral things. Love values mutual affection. I won't leave the person I like just because you threaten me."

Kenneth looked at her with a gentle gaze. The woman he liked was indeed different.

There was a flash of killing intent in Isla's eyes. She would not let go of Raelynn. She would never let her off.

Kenneth looked at her and shook his head slightly. "There's no surveillance cameras here."

Raelynn was not too surprised. Earlier, Isla said that she and Kenneth shared the same hobbies, so her computer skills should be excellent. The reason why she chose to frame her here was that she knew there were no cameras here.

Hearing this, Isla burst into tears. As long as there was no evidence, what was she afraid of?

Now, Raelynn was deemed guilty of pushing her down the steps.

That crime could be magnified infinitely.

Isla's heart began to swell again.

Now, she could live in Dragon Villa in a justified way. Nathaniel knew exactly what she wanted.

Hearing this, Nathaniel sneered and said, "Seven, since there is no evidence, can we just let the matter go like that?"

Kenneth looked at him coldly. "What do you want? There's no evidence of Rae pushing her, is there?"

"Why not? Isn't Isla's injury the best proof?" Nathaniel glanced at Raelynn with a sneer. This woman was not pure-minded. He would not allow this woman to marry Seven.

In his heart, Islal was the most suitable person for Kenneth.

Raelynn was furious. She looked at Nathaniel with a smile and said, "Mr. Bennet, if you want to bully someone, this is not the way to do it. What if the injured person lying on the ground at this moment was me?"

Nathaniel sneered. "But you're standing there unharmed."

Austin glanced at him and said, "Nathaniel, that's enough. You don't have any proof of this matter, so you can't say that."

Nathaniel looked at his good friend, and his mood was very complicated. "I really can't figure it out. Don't you know Isla? Why don't you believe her?"

Kenneth frowned. Did Nathaniel really want to go against him that day?

Looking at the tense atmosphere, Isla slowly stopped crying. If it went on like this, it would be very unfavorable to her. "Nathaniel, my foot hurts."

Her foot really hurt, because it was indeed really painful to fall down the steps.

"Isla, it's okay. The doctor will be here soon," Nathaniel comforted her.

At this time, Kenneth also asked the servants to bring a stretcher. Nathaniel helped Isla onto the stretcher and carried her back to the villa for treatment.

Kenneth held Raelynn's hand.

Raelynn was a little depressed. She didn't expect that in order to frame her, Isla would risk her life.

Kenneth suddenly approached her, and his gentle breath blew into her ear. His magnetic voice slowly sounded. "Rae, don't worry. I'm here by your side."

Raelynn smiled but did not say anything.

After the diagnosis of the family doctor, Isla was fine. She had bruised her forehead and the ligament in her foot was injured. She couldn't walk and needed to have a good rest.

There were no other major problems.

Hearing this, Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief.

Nathaniel looked at Kenneth and said, "Seven, Isla is Master's favorite disciple. Now that she is injured, it's inconvenient for her to stay at the hotel. There are many servants in your house, so it's better for her to stay here than in a hotel."

What Nathaniel said was exactly what Isla wanted. She knew that he knew her best.

Kenneth pursed his lips. He didn't want strangers to step into the domain of the Alwynn family home.

"Okay!" Kenneth did not agree, but Giada did.

"Gia." Kenneth looked at his sister in confusion.

Kenneth smiled. "Kenneth, Miss Alden is your junior, and it's inconvenient for her to move back to the hotel. Why don't we let her stay here?"

She wanted to see what kind of tricks this woman wanted to play.

"Miss Edwards, let's add each other's phone numbers." Giada walked over with her phone.

Raelynn smiled and nodded. She was very grateful that Gia had believed her that day.

After the two of them added each other, Giada was very happy. "Kenneth, treat Miss Edwards well. You must spoil her well. Don't let her be bullied."

Kenneth couldn't help smiling and said in a doting voice, "You silly girl, you really know how to talk. I know what to do."

Isla pursed her lips. Giada was also someone who was stopping her from marrying Kenneth and moving into the Alwynn family home.

"Rae, I'll send you back." After saying that, Kenneth turned around and ordered the servants to take out the prepared pastries and gifts and send them to the car.

Then, he left with Raelynn.

Giada made arrangements for Isla, who would stay in the guest room on the first floor. After all, due to her injury, it was inconvenient for her to stay on any other floors.

However, Isla didn't want to stay on the first floor. Kenneth lived on the second floor. As long as she lived next to him, she would have a chance.

"Gia, the scenery on the second floor is good, and there is an elevator. You can see the beautiful scenery outside on the second floor. I'll be in a good mood, and my foot will recover very quickly."

Hearing her words, Giada knew that Isla had ulterior motives. She smiled apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, Miss Alden. The rooms on the second floor are ours. There are no guest rooms."

Isla did not believe that there was no guest room in such a big house.

However, she couldn't do anything because she was not married to Kenneth yet. Thus, she smiled and agreed, "Then, Gia, I'll stay on the first floor."

"Yes!" Kenneth glanced at one of the housemaids, Libby. "Libby, you will be in charge of Miss Alden's daily life until she recovers."

Libby nodded with a smile. "Okay, Miss!"

Seeing that everything had been arranged, Nathaniel exchanged a few words with Isla before leaving the Alwynn family home with Austin.

At the Alwynn family's main entrance, Austin looked at Nathaniel. "Nathaniel, what happened to you just now?"

Nathaniel smiled nonchalantly and said, "It's nothing. I just wanted to help Isla. All these years, she's liked Seven so much."

"Seven is also like a block of wood and he might not understand anything about love. Furthermore, Raelynn is very beautiful. I'm afraid that he will be confused by her looks."

Hearing this, Austin smiled and retorted, "Is that possible? Seven has always been rational. No matter what, he is always more rational than us. How could he be confused by a woman?"

Austin also felt that what happened that day was very strange. However, he didn't have any evidence so he couldn't say anything.

Raelynn sat quietly in the car.

After driving for a while, Kenneth turned to look at Raelynn.

"Rae, you were right just now."

Raelynn didn't know whether she should be happy or grateful about his praise. She was glad that she didn't make a mistake with him.

She looked up and smiled sweetly at him. "Kenneth, thank you for trusting me!"

Chapter 2399

"What's the point of thanking me? You're my girlfriend, but I didn't protect you well." In fact, Kenneth blamed himself very much. There were indeed no surveillance cameras on that side, so Isla took advantage of it and made Rae suffer.

"Stay away from Isla in the future," Kenneth reminded her.

Raelynn was a little worried. "She's staying in your house. You..."

"Don't worry. No matter what she wants to do, she won't have the ability to climb into my bed. Gia and the others are watching her, and my siblings are all very smart. They won't leave her behind for no reason."

After saying that, Kenneth smiled evilly. "So, Rae, what were you worried about just now?"

Raelynn's eyes flashed and she quickly lowered her head. "I... What is there to think about? I just... I was worried about you."

"Haha..." Kenneth laughed and drove the car seriously.

"What are you laughing at?" Raelynn blushed and asked.

"Nothing?" Kenneth was happy. He was happy that she was willing to talk to him about these things and cared about him.

"Why aren't you saying anything?" Raelynn stared at him with her beautiful eyes, her fair hands clutching the bag in her hands tightly.

The light on the roadside shone on his face through the glass window. The breeze lifted the long bangs on his forehead, which made him look a little mischievous. However, his usually quiet and indifferent black eyes were shining with a starlight-like smile, and he was very dazzling.

Raelynn's heart raced. Every time she looked at him so attentively, she would be fascinated by him.

She quickly looked away and lowered her head with a red face.

"Okay, okay, okay, I'll tell you." Kenneth's smile faded a little.

"Rae, don't worry. I have never looked at Isla seriously. In my impression, she is not bad, but I feel like I misjudged her after what happened today."

Raelynn whispered, "Wasn't it just a misunderstanding? In order to frame me, she would even risk her life."

Kenneth narrowed his eyes slightly. Although he knew what his sister intended to do, he was not very happy to have such a person staying at home.

"Rae, I'll go back to the apartment near the company these days. After I came back to the country, my mother prepared an apartment for me. It's very big. I occasionally go there to rest and stay there. We're dating now, so I'll take you there. It's not far from here. When we get off work in the future, we can go to the apartment if we want to meet." He took a look at the clock on the dashboard and found that it was still early.

Raelynn was stunned and asked, "Why don't you go home?"

"I don't like strangers being in my house."

Raelynn laughed again when she heard that. Kenneth regarded Isla as a stranger.

For some reason, her heart jumped up again.

"What if your mother asks? How will you answer her?" Raelynn looked at him eagerly. In fact, she wanted to know more about him.

Besides, he often mentioned his mother. It seemed that he was obedient to her.

Kenneth's lips curved into a beautiful smile. "My mom doesn't really care about my personal life. As long as I don't mess around, she won't say much."

"Even if she asks, I'll tell her that I have a girlfriend, and she'll naturally understand what I mean."

Hearing this, Raelynn felt that there was something else going on.

Twenty minutes later, the two of them arrived at Kenneth's apartment.

It was a large-scale, two-story apartment unit.

It was two hundred and ninety square meters in total. Usually, when Kenneth was tired, he would come here to rest. The environment here was very good and it was also convenient.

After entering the door, the pure white decoration was bright and eye-catching.

It was a simple and fashionable decoration style.

Raelynn was shocked. How rich was this family? There were houses everywhere, and every house was beautifully decorated.

"Rae, do you like this place?" Kenneth hugged her with his long arms.

Raelynn looked up with a smile. "I like it, but I like you more. For me, no matter the size of the house, as long as I live with the person I like, I'll live happily."

Kenneth also felt the same way. "There's a big room on the second floor. The kitchen is an open-concept one, and it's less than ten minutes away from the company. If you're sleepy, come here and rest. We can also cook lunch together."

As soon as Kenneth finished speaking, the phone in his hand rang. He motioned for Raelynn to keep quiet and answered the phone.

"Mommy."

"Kenny, what time are you going to the party tomorrow? Can you help me pick up Ayman and the others at the airport?"

"Okay, Mommy. I've arranged it. I'll pick them up."

Abigail said, "Thank you, darling. I'm going to take Jacqueline to the hospital tomorrow as she has been coughing a lot recently"

Kenneth looked worried. "Is it serious?"

"Kenny, it's not very serious. It just worsens at night. She's fine during the day, but it's always uncomfortable when you're sick. After you pick up Ayman, bring them over to the party first."

"Okay, Mommy." Kenneth hung up the phone and took Raelynn's hand, leading her to the sofa.

The white leather sofa was very comfortable.

Raelynn looked at him with a funny smile. "Are you going to bring me here for dates in the future?"

Kenneth smirked, his dark eyes glimmering sinisterly, "Can't I? Hmm..." The last word was full of charm, making her blush and her heart race.

Raelynn answered, "Yes, but I prefer your garden. It's very beautiful."

"I especially like those houses with small courtyards. I like to plant some vegetables and flowers. When I am resting, I specialize in these things, but when I'm at work, I want to focus and work hard there."

"Haha..." Kenneth laughed. "My grandparents have a large vegetable garden in the backyard. You can go and farm with them."

"Wow! Are your grandparents still planting vegetables?" Raelynn was very surprised. A family like them could be served comfortably; they didn't have to do anything.

Kenneth replied, "They've always been farming. The tomatoes and other vegetables for our family were all basically grown by the two of them. They're getting older, and their only hobbies are listening to music, playing chess, and occasionally planting vegetables. They're doing what they like."

There was a hint of happiness and affection in Kenneth's eyes.

He lowered his head and saw that Raelynn was looking at him with a smile. Her eyes were charming, and her long eyelashes were dark and thick. Her luscious red lips were even more attractive.

He couldn't help but lower his head and kiss her. This time, Raelynn didn't refuse or dodge. Instead, she gradually learned to respond to him as he deepened the kiss.

She didn't know what would happen in the future. She just wanted to love him and enjoy the feeling of falling in love when she was with him.

This time, after their relationship was confirmed, and after that day's incident, their relationship warmed up rapidly.

They were no longer reserved, enjoying the joy and happiness brought by each other.

.....

When Raelynn got home, it was already past ten o'clock. She was too tired and sleepy.

However, when Kenneth stopped the car, she still woke up. Her little face was flushed, which was more charming than the moonlight.

He really wanted to marry her as soon as possible.

Chapter 2400

"Rae, I'll send you upstairs. It's the weekend tomorrow so you should have a good rest. I'll call you after the banquet. I've arranged for Ryder and his companions to apply for the jobs. Someone will take them there so you don't have to worry."

Raelynn looked at him and said gratefully, "You're always so thoughtful. I don't have anything to worry about."

He smiled and got out of the car to help her carry her things. After the incident with James, Raelynn's mother, Malia, also knew about their relationship, so Kenneth could go there openly now.

After Kenneth brought the things, Raelynn also got out of the car. The two of them went upstairs together, but they did not notice two sneaky figures in the distance.

When they entered the door, Ryder and Malia were both home.

Seeing her daughter and Kenneth come back with bags in their hands, Malia looked at them with a complicated expression.

She had been really worried about Raelynn.

"Auntie, nice to meet you!" Kenneth greeted her respectfully.

Malia smiled and said, "Hello, have a seat first."

"Raelynn, Mr. Alwynn, are you alright?" Although Ryder knew that his sister was fine, he still couldn't help but worry.

Raelynn shook her head and smiled. "Ryder, Mom, don't worry. We're all fine."

The wound on her neck was almost healed because of the medicine she used.

They talked about what happened the night before. What Raelynn didn't know was that the Edwards family had gone bankrupt.

It was only then that she realized that Kenneth could really make the Edwards family's company close down overnight.

Kenneth looked at her and asked, "Did they close down?"

Raelynn asked, "Are the Edwards family in debt?"

Kenneth shook his head slightly. "I don't know. There's too much evidence against James that even the police can't handle it. Also, the Martin family, whom you went to find, have also provided evidence because they heard of James' arrest. He may be severely punished. As for the Edwards family, I didn't do anything. It's easy for people like them who only care about profit to break the law. As long as the evidence is found, they can easily be taken down."

He was a genius in this aspect, and it was just a matter of moving his fingers.

Raelynn was a little worried. If her adoptive parents knew that this matter had something to do with her, they would definitely not let her go. With their characters, they would only constantly harass her.

Wouldn't that greatly affect her life?

Kenneth seemed to have seen through her worries, and he reassured her, "James is now a stray dog and they can't make any big waves. I'm afraid that they will come to harass you, but I've already sent someone to monitor their every move. Rae, you don't have to worry."

Raelynn didn't know what to say. She was very worried.

That was because the Edwards family had no bottom line.

The most terrible thing for a person was to meet someone who was unreasonable or who had no bottom line.

After Kenneth told Ryder about the job application, he left.

He went downstairs and answered a phone call. Then, he walked to the alley behind the community with a gloomy expression on his face.

The lights in the old neighborhood were very dim. The evening breeze blew, and there were shadows everywhere.

The two people hiding in the alley were the couple of the Edwards family.

Seeing Kenneth walking towards them, the couple was filled with hatred and anger.

It was because of Kenneth that their son was sent to prison. Their family's villa was sealed, their family went bankrupt and was in debt. Now, they could only sleep on the streets. Those were all caused by the man in front of them. They stepped forward angrily.

Mr. Edwards shouted fiercely, "Kenneth, how dare you destroy my Edwards family? Now, you dare to appear in front of me. I order you to take away your so-called evidence immediately. I am also Rae's father. You have ruined our Edwards family like this and still want to marry Rae? Dream on."

Kenneth looked at him and felt that it was ridiculous. "When you abandoned her, why didn't you say that she was your daughter? Now that something has happened, you regard her as your daughter."

The look on Mr. Edwards' face was ghastly. He seemed to have aged a few years overnight.

"That's because she is not our biological daughter, but we have also raised her for more than 20 years. Raising her is equivalent to giving birth to her. A father for a day is a father for a lifetime, so I will always be her father."

Kenneth looked at him with a sharp gaze. "I don't want to hear this again; it only insults Rae. If you dare to make trouble for her again, I will make sure that James will be unable to come out for the rest of his life."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards' hearts tightened when they heard that.

They didn't dare to move anymore and just stood there rooted to the spot.

They didn't care about anything else. What they cared about most was the fate of the Edwards family.

The couple then left silently.

Kenneth watched them leave before he turned around and walked away.

On the second floor, Raelynn looked at her mother who seemed to have something to say. She was so tired but she did not go back to her room.

She knew that Malia was worried and afraid that she would be hurt.

However, despite looking at Raelynn several times, her mother did not speak.

The lights in the living room were very bright, and her mother was much more energetic than when she lived in the rental apartment.

"Mom, do you have something to tell me?" Raelynn knew that her mother knew it and Ryder would not hide it from her.

Malia nodded and spoke out her worries. "Rae, I'm worried that you'll get hurt. He's from a rich and powerful family. They may seem to be peaceful, but in fact, there are many bloody fights in those types of families."

Raelynn had also thought about this kind of problem. She had grown up in that kind of environment since she was a child. For example, for the Edwards family, it was necessary for them to find a son and a daughter-in-law whose family backgrounds were helpful to their family business. Otherwise, they could not get married and join the Edwards family.

"Mom, don't worry. The Alwynn family is not that kind of family. Their family is harmonious, and their parents are reasonable people." Raelynn could still feel it.

Malia knew the story of the couple of Alwynn Group. The story was touching, and the couple was said to really love each other.

She believed that their son would also be a real gentleman.

"Rae, since you've made your choice, I won't stop you. I just want you to be happy."

No one could predict what would happen in the future.

Just like her, she once felt that she would have a beautiful future and could live happily with her family, but in the end, that person still failed her.

The children had been switched. She raised the two children alone and left her hometown. It was a really bitter and difficult life.

Malia was not afraid of suffering, but she was afraid that her children would suffer the same pain as she did. Them taking the same road as she did was something she never wanted to see in her life.

"Mom, thank you. Don't worry, I will be happy. Kenneth is very kind to me. Although I haven't known him for a long time, I can feel his kindness. I want to be with him." Raelynn wouldn't have said that before, but after that day's incident, she felt that she really fell in love with him.

As soon as she finished speaking, her mobile phone on the sofa rang. She picked it up and saw a familiar number. Her face suddenly turned as pale as snow.
