

Gluey Love 2401

Chapter 2401

Ryder saw that his sister's expression had changed, and he asked worriedly, "Raelynn, who's calling?"

Raelynn pursed her lips and answered, "My adoptive father."

Ryder was very angry. "Raelynn, don't answer it. They deserve it. It's not your fault, and it's not Mr. Alwynn's fault either. It's James who was too vicious. That's why such a thing happened to them."

Raelynn was not blaming herself. When the Edwards family found that she was not their biological daughter, their attitude towards her, their cold words, and their insults had already made her give up.

Guilt-tripping her could not make her soft-hearted.

They had preferred their son over their daughter since she was young, so she did not have much affection for her adoptive parents.

Moreover, when she was in high school, James found out that she was not his biological sister. Since then, he had always looked at her with lust in his eyes.

Remembering the past, Raelynn only felt upset and hatred surged in her heart.

Raelynn thought for a moment and then answered the phone. "Hello!"

"Rae." The voice on the other side was very kind.

When Raelynn heard this gentle voice, she suddenly felt that she was hallucinating. Why would Mr. Edwards speak to her in such a gentle voice?

The idea of preferring men over women was deeply rooted in the hearts of the Edwards family couple.

They would always believe that their son was the best.

However, their family also liked Rory very much.

Perhaps it was because she was slightly aloof, hence she was not as likable as Rory.

As far as she can remember, her father had never spoken to her like this.

"What can I do for you?" Raelynn asked.

"Rae, I beg you to go beg Mr. Alwynn and let go of your big brother. It doesn't matter if we don't have money, but we can't let anything happen to James. You also know that he is my life."

Raelynn understood. It turned out that Mr. Edwards had come to plead with her.

"When he did evil and illegal things, why didn't you stop him? Do you know how scared I was when he kidnapped me and wanted to assault me? Anyway, I was his sister for more than a decade, yet he wanted to violate me. Not only me, but there are also so many girls who have been destroyed by him."

"If you ask me to beg someone to let him go now, will those girls who have been hurt before let go of him? Mr. Edwards, doesn't a person need to have a conscience?"

"Raelynn, it's not up to you to teach me how to be a person. I know that you have the protection of the Alwynn family and are not afraid of anything. However, don't forget that I have raised you for more than 20 years," Mr. Edwards roared. After so many years of hard work, he thought highly of himself. On the way to becoming rich, he thought that he was an experienced man. Few people could compare with him, and he was superior in words and deeds.

Raelynn hated his tone, and that d*mned guilt-tripping.

That might have been her weakness in high school, but now, she was indifferent.

"But my mother has raised your daughter for more than 20 years. When you raised me, you didn't do your duty as a father. When I was in high school, James had other thoughts about me, but you turned a blind eye to it. I could only try my best to go and study abroad."

"You're the ones who've spoiled James, that he would end up like this today," Raelynn roared at Mr. Edwards in agitation.

Malia looked at her daughter and thought about the grievances her daughter had suffered. She felt extremely uncomfortable and lowered her head to wipe away her tears.

Ever since Rory was young, Malia had treasured her and raised her well, but her own daughter had lived a hard life.

"Raelynn, don't talk about anything else. Tell me, are you going to help us or not?"

Raelynn also told him firmly, "I won't help you with this, and I don't have the ability either. The evidence is conclusive. Do you think there is still hope? You also know the law."

After she finished speaking, her adoptive father hung up the phone.

Ryder had probably guessed what they were talking about.

He comforted her. "Rae, don't be afraid. They are only threatening you. They are arrogant, but you will be fine."

Raelynn nodded and smiled. "I know. It's okay. Don't worry about me."

However, the Edwards family was already at the end of their rope. It was very likely that they would take a more extreme path.

"Mom, Ryder, there are a lot of pastries in the box over there. They were all made by the chefs of the Alwynn family and they're delicious. Would you like some?" In order to liven the atmosphere, Raelynn suddenly thought of the pastries that had not been taken out yet.

Ryder also liked pastries.

"Raelynn, I want some," Ryder exclaimed as he got up to grab the box.

Malia looked at her daughter. Seeing that she had her own ideas and was very brave, she realized that she need not be worried.

"Rae, no matter what happens in the future, you must pay attention to your own safety. Although there are not many people like James, you may still meet them when you are unlucky. My only wish is to let you and your brother live happy lives."

"Mom, I know. I will be careful." Raelynn smiled warmly. That was enough. The happiness she wanted was so simple.

After the family of three ate the pastries and cakes, they went back to their rooms to rest.

Raelynn was lying on the bed, but she couldn't fall asleep.

Beep, Beep...

Her phone notification sounded, and Raelynn took the phone and clicked on it.

It was a message from Clara.

"Rae, what are we going to do tomorrow since it's a Sunday? I want to have a good day's fun so that I'll be full of energy on Monday."

Raelynn did not tell Clara that she had been kidnapped.

Raelynn thought of how Kenneth had something to do the next day and she couldn't go on a date with him. She had nothing to do at home, so she decided to go out with Clara.

Since she returned, she had yet to go around River City.

Raelynn wrote, "Clara, let's go out and play tomorrow."

Clara replied, "Wow! Rae, I finally have an appointment with you. If you marry Mr. Alwynn, if I want to ask you out, do I have to do so in advance?"

Raelynn read her message and grinned. When did this little girl become so humorous?

In fact, she had always envied Clara's life. Her parents loved her since she was a child, and she lived a very happy life.

Raelynn messaged her, "I'll give you all my time, okay?"

Clara wrote back, "In fact, you love me the most, Rae."

Raelynn asked, "Then where shall we meet tomorrow?"

Clara replied, "Let's go to the fair tomorrow."

Raelynn responded, "A fair?"

Raelynn remembered that when they were in high school, the both of them would take a bus for an hour or two, just to go to a fair in River City on the weekend.

Now with the subway, the subway was faster.

The atmosphere in the fair was the best, and a huge variety of things could be found. It was a really bustling place.

In the blink of an eye, Raelynn realized that she hadn't been there for many years.

"Okay, see you at the subway entrance tomorrow morning."

Clara replied, "Okay, Rae. I love you. Good night!"

Raelynn also responded, "Good night! I love you, too! Kisses!"

Raelynn was about to put down her phone when she thought of Kenneth. Was he home yet?

He had just left. Why did she think of him so much?

Chapter 2402

Her plump and luscious red lips revealed a faint smile.

She clicked on the dialog box and sent a message to Kenneth.

"Are you home yet?"

At this time, Kenneth had already returned to the apartment. He had already taken a shower and was about to go back to his room to rest.

As soon as he grabbed the phone on the table, he saw the message from Raelynn. The short few words seemed to contain endless concern for him.

He grinned and he was in a good mood. He clicked on the dialog box, "Rae, I've returned to my apartment."

Raelynn read the message and realized that he did not return to Dragon Villa

"Then you should rest early."

Kenneth went upstairs, and when he saw her message, he pursed his lips tightly. In the past few days, he had actually gotten used to having Raelynn by his side.

That was something that had never happened before. Was this the power of love?

Sitting at the head of the bed, he replied to her, "I miss you."

When Raelynn saw the reply and looked at the three words through the screen, she felt her face turn red and her heartbeat raced. Her face was so hot that she didn't know what to do.

She had a broad smile on her face that exuded tenderness.

It was only in front of her would Kenneth act like that and flirt with her. It was not in line with his overbearing and indifferent CEO's character at all.

It was completely the type she liked, and it also matched her longing for love. In a person's life, how many people could be so lucky? The one who loved her was also the person she loved.

She smiled and asked, "Why do you suddenly say such disgusting words!"

She almost couldn't control her emotions. Her heart, which had finally settled down, flew to him again.

Kenneth responded, "I only say that to you."

Raelynn was speechless. His words are such a tease.

However, what he said made her very happy.

That should be the power of love.

Raelynn then wrote, "I got it. Go to bed early. Don't you have work to do tomorrow? I'm going out with Clara tomorrow."

Kenneth looked at her message and thought, "What if I don't want to go to work? I want to stay with the woman I like all day long."

He then laughed at himself for his childish idea.

He wanted to earn money so that the girl he liked could live a better life.

Kenneth wrote back, "Be careful. Call me if you need anything. Remember to miss me."

He sent that message without hesitation.

He just looked at the screen quietly, waiting for Raelynn's reply.

Raelynn's text said, "Okay, you too. Don't be too tired from work. Otherwise, I will be unhappy if you're not energetic when we're on our dates. Go to sleep quickly. You've already gotten it twice today. Don't think too much."

Kenneth looked at the message, and his mind was filled with pictures of the two of them tangled together.

Kenneth smiled. This girl must have done it on purpose, trying to seduce him through the screen.

He didn't know that her words could make his imagination run wild. At that moment, an extremely strong desire arose in his heart. He wished he could hold her in his arms and let her bear his love in the most domineering way.

He couldn't help but send another message, "Rae, I suspect that you are deliberately reminding me."

Haha... Raelynn couldn't help laughing when she saw what he wrote.

She quickly replied to the message, "Is that so? What are you thinking about? How can you think about such things? Kenneth, you're so naughty!"

She sent the message unconsciously, and she didn't really pay attention to it.

Kenneth smiled. He knew that she was very tired that day and wanted her to rest early.

"Come to my apartment before you go out tomorrow morning. I'll make you breakfast. I'll start working after 11 o'clock."

Raelynn thought for a moment. She also really wanted to see Kenneth, so she simply agreed to it.

"Okay, I'll come tomorrow morning. Good night, I miss you!"

Just because of those words, Kenneth had dreams all night long.

Raelynn woke up very early the next day. She first completed the two live broadcasts that she owed and then put on a sheet mask. She liked to get up early in the morning and do things when she was refreshed and energetic.

After applying the facial mask, she went to the kitchen to make breakfast, only to find that her mother was busy in the kitchen.

"Mom, why don't you take a rest?"

Malia turned around and looked at her with a loving smile.

"Rae, your brother is going out in the morning. His breakfast is almost ready. Go and ask him to get up and eat. Isn't he going to apply for the job today?"

Raelynn nodded with a smile. "Mom, I got it. I'll go and ask Ryder to get up for breakfast."

After the family of three had their breakfast, Ryder and Raelynn went out together. As soon as they arrived downstairs, they saw Rory.

Ryder hated Rory the most. As soon as he saw her, he couldn't help but get angry. "What are you doing here?"

Rory was wearing a floral dress and flip-flops. Due to a lack of maintenance, the back of her feet were covered with a thick layer of calluses which were slightly yellowish and cracked.

Maybe she didn't have a good rest all night, but her hair was greasy and her face was sallow.

"Ryder, can I come back?"

When Ryder heard these words, it was as if he had heard a joke.

"Haha..." He laughed mockingly. "Rory, you must be dreaming. I'm in this situation all because of your big brother."

"You are from a family. My house is so small that it can't accommodate you. You can't stay here. Don't show up in front of me again."

When Rory heard this, she was so sad that she wanted to cry. "Ryder, no matter what, I used to be your sister. How could you treat me like this?"

The Edwards family was gone. She had just lived in the big villa for a few days, but it suddenly became someone else's home.

How could she be so unlucky?

She was born to be a daughter of a rich family, but why couldn't she live a life of one?

"Ryder, do you really want to be so heartless? This woman has just been back for a few days, yet you treat her as your sister. I am your sister."

Usually, if she offended Ryder, as long as she persuaded him with a few gentle words, he would forgive her. After all, she was his sister, and that fact could not be changed.

Ryder sometimes had to forgive her.

Ryder said, "Rory, open your eyes and look carefully. This is my sister. She's a hundred times prettier than you. You're the daughter of a rich family. Didn't you tell me not to talk to you last time? Why are you coming to me now?"

Who would have thought that karma would come so quickly? In the blink of an eye, Rory had lost even her home.

"Ryder, I really don't have a place to go now. Just promise me that you'll let me stay at home." Rory looked at Ryder pleadingly.

Ryder was not a kind person. He had suffered too much since he was young and knew that the more kind he was, the more he would be bullied.

He now knew that some people should be helped, while some people should be avoided at all costs.

"You should leave. We don't welcome you here."

After saying that, Ryder looked at Raelynn and said, "Raelynn, let's go. I'm going to be late."

Raelynn glanced at Rory and nodded slightly.

When Rory saw that the two of them were going to leave, she became anxious and ran towards Raelynn. Rory wanted to teach her a lesson. It was Raelynn who had stolen her home.

Chapter 2403

"Raelynn, go to hell."

A furious roar came. Ryder knew Rory's character. Before her voice fell, he immediately turned back and kicked Rory with his long legs.

Rory was fat and her body was heavy. She had rushed over to hit Raelynn.

Although Ryder's kick was very strong, it was not as strong as Rory's. He kicked her, but not only did the kick not land, Rory kicked him. Before Ryder could pull back his foot, she pounced on them.

The two siblings were about to be pushed to the ground by Rory.

Raelynn suddenly felt a grip on her waist tighten and her feet suddenly left the ground. She smelled a familiar scent.

She looked up and saw the worried expression on Kenneth's handsome face. Their gazes met and she saw the worry in his eyes.

Suddenly, the sound of a heavy object falling to the ground came from behind.

"Ouch!"

"You b*stard, Rory, get off me. You're going to crush me to death."

Raelynn was saved, but Ryder was in trouble. He had been directly knocked down by Rory and almost passed out from being suffocated by her.

Ryder glared at Kenneth resentfully. Why didn't he save his future brother-in-law as well?

Compared to Ryder who had been crushed, Rory had fallen and was in a sorry state.

His arms, forehead, and knees were all scraped, and a faint smell of blood pervaded the air.

Rory herself was also shocked.

She struggled for a long time but could not get up. She could only roll to the side.

"Whew..." Ryder breathed heavily. Finally... He could finally breathe.

"Ro... Rory, can't you f*cking control your weight? You nearly killed me!" Ryder rarely cursed. Being shoved to the ground like that, even the most patient person couldn't help but curse

Rory listened but did not say a word. She laid on the ground and cried.

Raelynn quickly came out of Kenneth's arms and went to support Ryder with him.

"Ryder, are you okay?"

"Raelynn, I'm fine." Rory stood up and patted himself. The environment in the neighborhood was good, and there wasn't any dirt on him.

Raelynn looked at the crying Rory and scolded her in a low voice, "Rory, what are you doing? If you fall down because of your fat body, the consequences can be imagined."

"... Get lost. It's none of your business. You stole Ryder and Mom. Give them back to me. Give them back to me..." Rory cried like a child.

Ryder spoke angrily, "Raelynn, let's go. You don't have to worry about her. The more you care about her, the more excited she becomes. I know her temper best. In the past, when she couldn't get any money from Mom, she cried, screamed, and threw a fit. She never cared about her family. With Mom's salary, after paying for rent and our living expenses, she only had a few hundred left. Every month, Mom gave Rory 200 dollars for living expenses, but she was not satisfied with that."

"Let's go. When she has cried enough, she will leave on her own."

Ryder was so angry that he wanted to kill Rory as soon as he thought of the past.

In short, living with a heartless person was the most annoying thing.

Raelynn was a little worried. She asked, "Rory, why did you come back? Where are your parents?"

When Rory heard that, she became even angrier. "They want to send me back to their hometown. Do I have to stay in that kind of place? If I don't go, they will make me marry an old man. They want me to marry him so that when he dies, they will get his inheritance and pay off the Edwards family's debts."

"... I'm so beautiful, but I'm going to be ruined by an old man. I won't marry him even if I die."

Raelynn was lost for words. As expected, the Edwards family couple would do anything.

Ryder was also speechless. She had said that she was so beautiful, a fairy.

"Rory, you're already twenty-five years old. Can't you be more mature? You can't run back here to make trouble just because your parents want you to do these things. You didn't cherish them when you were with them. Now that there's no place to go, you want to go back to them. How can life be so easy?"

"Is there anything you can do as you please?"

Rory clumsily got up from the ground. Her palms and knees were scratched and bleeding.

She glared at Raelynn angrily.

"Raelynn, if you hadn't come back and we hadn't been switched, we would each live our own lives. Such a thing won't happen now. Mom would give me money every month, and I don't have to go out to work. I would've lived a free life. Now, you have to pay for my life that resulted from the switch."

Raelynn looked straight at Rory with her beautiful eyes. When she heard such words from her mouth, she was not surprised at all. "What about me? Who will pay for my switched life?"

"Rory, the reason why you ate until you became so fat is because you don't want others to look down on you. Besides, you were so stubborn before, why did you come back and want to be with us again? If you have the ability, you can go and work yourself. Raelynn, let's go. She is very capable and she can pester you for the whole day."

Ryder pulled Raelynn away.

Kenneth began to leave as well.

"Ryder, you really don't want me anymore? After all, I used to be your sister. Ryder..." Rory followed him, but he ignored her.

Rory chased after him for a while, but her knees hurt so much that she stopped chasing him.

She just stood there and watched the three people leave angrily.

"Raelynn, Ryder, one day, I will make you regret your ruthlessness today. Isn't it just marrying an old man? It's worth it to marry an old man in exchange for becoming a rich and powerful wife."

Rory went back to look for her biological parents in a fit of anger.

After walking for a while, Raelynn asked, "Kenneth, why are you here?"

There wasn't much expression on Kenneth's face. "I came to pick you up for breakfast."

Hearing this, Ryder smiled happily. Seeing that his friend had already driven over to pick him up, he waved at his sister.

"Mr. Alwynn, Raelynn, I'll go first. Wish me luck in my application."

Raelynn said with a smile, "Good luck, Ryder!"

Kenneth added, "Just do your best."

"Okay! Mr. Alwynn, work hard!" Ryder smiled and ran to his friend's car.

Kenneth smiled and looked at Raelynn. "Don't I look like I'm working hard enough?"

Raelynn was stunned and did not understand what he meant.

"What? What's wrong?"

Kenneth said, "Your brother asked me to work hard!"

Raelynn pointed to the road not far away and said with a smile, "Your apartment is about two kilometers away from here so you can work hard and walk over."

Kenneth was speechless. She was really good at twisting his words.

He hugged her and walked towards his car. "Let's go to the supermarket to buy food first."

Raelynn looked at him and asked with a smile, "So, don't I get to go there and eat ready-made food? Do I have to cook with you?"

"I... I don't like to go to crowded places alone. I want you to go with me."

Chapter 2404

Raelynn couldn't help laughing. Looking at his awkward expression, she found him very cute.

"Okay, okay, I'll go with you, but I'm very curious about how you usually go shopping."

Kenneth pulled open the passenger seat and helped her in. He fastened her seatbelt and said, "I usually wouldn't go to the farmer's market. When I came back to the country from time to time, my mother would take me to the supermarket. If I want to cook, Luke will usually go and buy the ingredients."

After that, he returned to the driver's seat.

Then, he looked at Raelynn and said, "Rae I'm talking about going to a farmer's market with a lot of people, not a supermarket."

Raelynn nodded in understanding and said, "I know what you mean. There is a big farmer's market in about five minutes if you drive along this road. The local news channels often come here to report. There are many wild mushrooms this season, and I can cook them. Do you want to eat them?"

"For example, chicken and mushroom stew. It smells good."

Kenneth nodded and said with a smile, "Okay, let's go and buy it now."

He started the car and drove forward. The corners of his mouth could not help but turn up in a smile. He had missed her the whole night and came to pick her up early that morning to give her a surprise. As a result, he almost gave her a fright. Fortunately, he caught her in time.

Five minutes later, Kenneth parked the car nearby. The two of them got out of the car and went to the farmer's market.

There were a lot of people in the market in the morning, and the vendors' voices also hawked their wares excitedly.

It was rare for Kenneth to come to such a market, and he felt that everything was very fresh.

Even when he was a child, he didn't like to go to crowded places to buy food. It was his mother and grandmother who went out to shop.

There was a corn vendor at the entrance of the market.

Her voice was very loud and her words instantly made Raelynn laugh.

"Come on, come on, fresh corn. It's very sweet, even sweeter than my words." The seller's voice was mellow and rhythmic.

Raelynn liked to eat white corn, so she took Kenneth's hand and ran over.

There were a few women standing in front of the stall. Raelynn waited for one of them to leave before pulling Kenneth to stand in front of the stall to pick up some corn.

They picked one kilogram of corn and then went to buy some mushrooms.

With Raelynn by his side along the way, Kenneth did not feel too uncomfortable.

The mushrooms were 50 dollars for one kilogram, almost half of the original price. It had originally been listed for 120 dollars, and Raelynn had bought half a kilogram then. If it wasn't for Kenneth, she wouldn't be willing to buy it at ordinary times as it was too expensive.

The two of them also bought a variety of other ingredients.

Raelynn sometimes talked about the price. When she met an elderly seller, she would give them the price they asked for. She didn't know how to bargain. Kenneth watched her all the way and smiled.

In the end, they also bought a whole chicken and then went back home.

When she arrived at Kenneth's apartment, she saw that it was almost ten o'clock. She stewed the chicken in a pressure cooker. She planned to have lunch at eleven o'clock so that she would have time to go to the subway to meet Clara.

Kenneth stood to the side and helped. Seeing that she was very serious, he suddenly remembered that she was going out to play that day, so he asked, "Where are you going today?"

Raelynn smiled and answered, "A fair."

Kenneth knew about the fair, and he had been there before as well. It was vivacious, with a dazzling array of goods to be sold.

If he had time, he would also like to go.

With the pressure cooker, the meal was ready in 40 minutes.

Looking at the delicious dishes on the table, Kenneth grinned. He liked this kind of life very much.

He seemed to have gotten used to having Raelynn around despite her sudden appearance.

Raelynn served him a bowl of chicken stew and said with a smile, "Eat up. It smells good."

"Okay!" Kenneth lowered his head and took a bite. "It does smell good."

It was the first time he had eaten it since he went abroad as a child.

"Then let's eat quickly. It's almost time for me to meet Clara." Raelynn smiled. Her eyes were lively and bright, and she was really happy.

Kenneth hummed in reply. He looked at her intently for a while before lowering his head to eat.

After lunch, the two of them went out together. Kenneth sent Raelynn to the subway.

Watching people coming and going at the entrance of the subway and seeing the scorching sun, Kenneth was reluctant to let her suffer.

"Rae, can you drive?"

Raelynn shook her head slightly. "I didn't have time to learn it. When I have time, I'll go and get my driver's license."

"Okay! Be careful on the way. Call me when you get there," Kenneth stated.

"I will. Take care of yourself on the way." Raelynn was about to get out of the car, but was stopped by Kenneth.

Raelynn looked at him in confusion. "What's wrong?"

Kenneth leaned over slightly and kissed her on the lips quickly. He smiled softly and said in a sweet voice, "A parting kiss!"

Raelynn's face instantly turned red. She looked at Kenneth with a smirk and teased, "Kenneth, you're so sweet!"

Kenneth was stunned!

Before he could react, Raelynn quickly got out of the car.

Only when he heard the sound of the door closing did he react.

Then, he smiled in a silly way.

Her girlfriend had said, "You're so sweet!"

What kind of feeling was this?

It was like he was floating in the air!

Every cell in his body seemed to be surrounded by a strong sense of joy.

In terms of sweetness, she was the sweetest. Her skin was fair and beautiful and her dark hair was like a waterfall. Her eyes were full of tenderness, and her smile was very sweet.

Kenneth watched as Raelynn and Clara entered the subway station before he drove away.

Not far away, in a red car, Faith saw Kenneth send Raelynn to the subway. Seeing the intimate action of the two people, she was so surprised that her eyes widened. "Are we together?"

There was a hint of jealousy in her eyes. In that case, she should act according to the plan.

The subway station in River City was usually crowded, and it was even more crowded on weekends. Raelynn and Clara squeezed for quite a while before they got on the subway.

Clara had already seen Kenneth send Raelynn to the subway station. She didn't even have a chance to ask, so the two of them could only nervously hide in the crowd.

In the Alwynn family, Isla had never seen Kenneth since the night before, so she was very disappointed.

After Kenneth sent Raelynn back, he did not come back.

She didn't know what they were up to, and when she tried to call Kenneth, no one answered.

That had never happened before. As long as she called Kenny, he would answer her calls no matter how busy he was. Even if she didn't get through, he would call her back later. From the previous night up until that moment, Kenny hadn't called her back.

Her sense of crisis was stronger than ever.

Could it be because of what happened the day before that Kenny loathed her?

At this time, Isla saw Giada coming down from upstairs. She immediately asked with a gentle smile, "Gia, where is Kenny? Why hasn't he come back yet?"

Giada glanced at her. Seeing the fake smile on her face, she also played along.

She thought, "You're at home, so it's strange that my brother will come back."

"Kenneth is working overtime in the company."

On the other side, Kenneth had just arrived at the company when he saw Luke anxiously waiting downstairs with his laptop in his arms.

As soon as Luke saw Kenneth, he almost ran towards him.

He panted and reported, "Mr. Kenneth, a virus has invaded our company."

Chapter 2405

Kenneth's expression darkened and he said in a low voice, "Give me the computer. Head back to the company and wait for my news."

Luke quickly handed the computer to him and turned back to the company. He was in a bad mood because he was working overtime on the weekend.

The wind wouldn't understand the drifting clouds, the sky wouldn't understand the falling rain, and the boss wouldn't understand the workers!

Alas!

Life was so hard!

Kenneth turned on the computer and started working on it. He was fully focused as every second counted.

Ten minutes later, he had successfully reinstalled the virus back into the other company. He smiled devilishly.

"Whew..."

He breathed a sigh of relief.

Sure enough, it was XL Group. They were putting so much effort into this, what were they really up to?

He hadn't even had the time to look for them and they were already at his doorstep. Fortunately, he had gifted them with something huge, and his life for the next month would be much easier.

He had been studying so hard for all those years and grasped every single concept that he had ever come across. How could they even think to try and steal information from his company with those little tricks?

They must be dreaming!

Kenneth then shut off the laptop and glanced at the view outside the window. It would be extremely tiring and hot to go shopping and to ride the metro on such a hot day.

Kenneth was worried that Raelynn would suffer from the heat.

He opened the car door and got out. His tall figure attracted a lot of attention.

The sunlight casted a soft glow of light on his dark hair, and he looked much gentler.

He put one hand in his pocket and walked gracefully into the company.

Not far away, Faith had just stopped the car when she saw him. She paused in shock. Why was Kenneth here?

Before she had time to think about it, her cell phone rang.

The familiar ringtone of the mobile phone gave her a fright.

She calmed herself down before answering the phone.

"Yes?"

"Faith, didn't you say that Kenneth wouldn't be here today?"

Faith answered, "Yeah, but he just arrived. I saw him entering the company."

"How is that possible? Is there a hacker in the Alwynn Group who is more powerful than Kenneth?"

Faith replied, "No. As far as I know, Dean rarely comes to the company and he is not as skilled as Mr. Kenneth."

"Lucian is very powerful as well, but he has already resigned from the company and is now managing his own company. He is no longer in charge of the Alwynn Group."

"D*mn it, if it's not Kenneth, then who would it be? This time, not only did we suffer a great loss, but they also found out our address."

"Faith, what are you doing? I paid you to accomplish your task, not half *ss it."

Faith started growing anxious. Her complexion was pale and she felt powerless. She had already accepted the payment, and that would prove to be a fatal mistake. She had left evidence for Kenneth as well, and before she entered the Alwynn Group, she had never thought that she would fall for him."

She hurriedly explained, "Mr. Kenneth, no, listen to me. More than 20 minutes ago, I saw Kenneth's car parked not far from my car, so I called you."

"I didn't expect that he would come to the company in 20 minutes, and the company didn't inform him to work overtime. Everyone has a normal rest on the weekends except for some people."

"Well, as you can see, we've already failed."

"Mr. Kenneth, I've already seen it," Faith answered nervously.

"Well, I still have a lot of things to deal with. Next time, open your eyes wider and look properly. Otherwise, I will stop paying you."

Faith paused before she hung up in a daze.

Looking up, he looked at the building of the Alwynn Group with a cold and pale face. This building carried many people's dreams.

It was also a place many women yearned for.

More than 20 years ago, all the women here were after Victor.

Right then, this place had become Kenneth's kingdom.

She was now one of the women who liked him very much. However, she was the only one who was able to get close to him.

How could she let go of such a good opportunity?

Kenneth worked till it was two o'clock, when Luke sent him some documents. After signing them, he said, "Luke, go to the factory and deal with it yourself. I have something else to attend to."

"Yes. Mr. Bennet has already left for the airport. Don't worry."

Kenneth nodded slightly. "Okay!"

After Luke left, Kenneth gave Raelynn a call.

At this moment, she had lost track of how many meals she had had.

She and Clara were eating snacks by a stall when he called her.

The spicy and sour taste reminded them of the summer.

She was surprised to receive a call from Kenneth. She still remembered that an hour ago, she had sent him a WeChat message telling him that she had arrived at the market. He didn't have to worry about her. Why was he calling her again?

"Hey!"

"When will you be back? I'll pick you up."

Raelynn looked at the crowded market. It was the time when there were the most people. "Maybe two hours later. After two hours, it will be almost five o'clock. We will head back then."

Kenneth asked, "So late?"

Cecilla's banquet would begin at five o'clock.

Raelynn replied, "Yes, it's not easy to come out and play for a day. Of course, we should have fun. What's wrong?"

"If you could go earlier, I'll pick you guys up."

"No, you are so busy, why would you pick me up? I'll go home myself, don't worry about me, you can go work. I'll call you when I'm home."

"Okay."

He hung up the phone in disappointment.

It turned out that when you liked someone, you would want to stay by their side all the time.

When he couldn't see her, he would miss her a lot. He wanted her to always be by his side, so he could see her smile and protect her smile. With her by his side, it felt like the world would become much more colorful.

Back then, he was really against the fact that his father was always clinging onto his mother, until he met Raelynn.

This feeling made him really uneasy.

In the market, Clara put down her fork and turned to Raelynn, as if she was about to interrogate her.

"Rae, be honest. How far have you guys gone?"

Raelynn looked at her in confusion. "What do you mean?"

"How far have you and Mr. Kenneth gone?"

Raelynn paused before she took a sip of the cold water.

She then replied slowly, "Well... we're progressing like any other couple."

Clara did not believe her. Was it normal for them to act so intimately in the car?

"Have you guys slept together?"

Raelynn suddenly grew nervous. "W-what? What do you mean, slept together?"

She looked left and right in embarrassment. Thankfully, the two older women were busy working, and the others were talking amongst themselves. No one had heard Clara's words.

Chapter 2406

"You're so smart, don't you know what I'm talking about? Do you want me to be blunt?" Clara asked.

"No, no... I haven't done that!" Raelynn quickly replied.

She blushed as she lowered her head. She didn't dare to own up to it.

It wasn't because she didn't trust Clara, it was because Clara was a little loose with her words. She might end up accidentally telling everyone.

She did not have the guts to make it public.

Clara looked at her oddly. "Why is your face so red when you didn't do it?"

"It's my first time dating, of course I'm shy!" Raelynn replied.

Clara narrowed her eyes. She already knew that Raelynn was lying the moment she saw her avoiding her gaze, but it was too cute.

Well, Clara knew that she had a loose trap, she wouldn't ask about it. If she were to accidentally let others know about it, that would be terrible as the both of them were working in the same company.

This would hurt Rae, and although Clara had just started working in the Alwynn Group, even she could tell that many women who worked there were trying to get with Kenneth.

"But Mr. Alwynn seems like he's treating you well, Rae. You'll be happy in the future, and Mr. Alwynn seems like a loyal man." Clara had observed that much.

On their day out, Kenneth had called her every hour to check on her.

No matter how busy he was in the morning, he still wanted to pick Raelynn up.

She had been in a relationship before, but her ex-boyfriend had never been like this.

Sometimes he wouldn't even call her for a few days, and when she called him, he wouldn't even call or reply to him. It was obvious that he didn't have her in his mind.

She was a conservative person and she wanted to save herself till after marriage. In the end, he thought that she was too traditional-minded and they broke up.

"Rae, if you really like Kenneth, don't be too conservative. You must grasp the right time."

Clara picked up the bottle of water on the table and took a big sip. Her expression was icy-cold as she enjoyed it.

Raelynn suddenly grew curious. When she was abroad, she also knew that Clara had dated twice, but it seemed like both times had failed.

"Clara, I'm very curious. You've fallen in love twice before. What happened? I think you liked them a lot back then."

Clara did not expect her to suddenly become curious about her past relationships. Weren't they talking about Raelynn?

"The two exes I had both wanted to sleep with me, but I refused, because I want to give my first to the man I love the most." Clara had always been adamant about this. She would not give herself fully to anyone who was not her husband.

Raelynn pursed her lips slightly. Was she starting to like Kenneth?

The first time that she had seen him, she thought that any girl who would marry him would be very happy.

Later on, when she realized that he was the man from that night, she had started falling for him. Not long after, she had completely fallen for him.

Therefore, she had given herself to the person she loved the most. Even if they could not be together in the future, she would not regret it.

Raelynn continued to ask, "Clara, how did you find that they don't love you?"

Kenneth was very kind to her, but she didn't know if he really loved her.

Clara thought for a moment and answered, "It's very simple. It's easy to tell what a person is like from their actions. When I went on the first date with my first boyfriend, he seemed like he treated me well, but I could tell from the tiniest things that he didn't love me. I wanted bubble tea, but he was so lazy to buy it that he told me that having bubble tea would make girls fat and ugly."

"We all know that. Why would I need him to tell me about it?"

"As for my second boyfriend, I told him that my parents were seriously ill and might need his help to take care of them. He was so scared that he blocked me the next day. Therefore, I think that feelings can't take challenges."

Raelynn looked at her sympathetically. Clara had never told her about these things when she was abroad, and she didn't want Raelynn to worry about her.

Raelynn realized something. Every relationship was based on benefits.

"Clara, you are so kind. You will definitely meet a good man in the future."

Clara smiled confidently. "That's right. I'm so kind and cute. I'll find my prince charming. I don't need all the wealth in the world, I just want happiness. A plain and simple life is enough with the one I love."

Nowadays, everyone was so fixated on wealth and status, but they had forgotten about their own intentions.

The reason behind most breakups were because one didn't receive enough benefits from the other.

The two of them talked for a while more and continued shopping. They only reached home at six, their hands filled with things that they had bought. Raelynn had a fun day.

When she reached home, Ryder had also just arrived home. She asked, "Ryder, how's work?"

He poured her a cup of tea and answered, "Sis, why are you home so late? I've been having fun the entire day, and mom went out to meet her friends."

"I ended my interview at two, and they seemed to be very satisfied with the four of us. To be honest, we were the most outstanding four back in our car workshop, but when my boss did me dirty, I took the other three of his most skilled workers. He was so panicked that he even begged me to return an hour ago."

"Does he think I'm someone who would return to him just because he's given me a candy, when he kicked me in the face? Why should I give up on a higher salary for him?"

"So, Ryder, have the four of you been hired?" Raelynn was very excited for him. He could finally save up and marry a girl.

Although money was not omnipotent, there were many girls who would want to marry a man who was well-off, so they could live an easier life.

Although she did not have such thoughts, this was the reality.

Many girls would consider a marriage based on their parents' strength and background. It was not that she had never seen it before, but she had seen too many of it.

She also hoped that he would be able to meet someone who really liked him for who he was, so the both of them could work hard together and withstand all challenges together.

"Yes, we have set up a group. The CEO over there is Mr. Alwynn's friend, and he is very polite to us. He treats us fairly, and there seems to be great potential working there. This is the work I want. Thank you, my future brother-in-law. Without his recommendation, I would not have been able to get such a good job."

Upon hearing this, Raelynn scolded, "What are you talking about? Who is your future brother-in-law?"

Ryder smiled and said, "Raelynn, it will happen sooner or later!"

Raelynn fell silent for a moment. She didn't say anything and sent a message to Kenneth. She was already home safe and sound, so she started her live broadcast tonight.

The next day, as soon as Raelynn went to work, she was called to the office by Faith's assistant.

The new assistant of Faith called her to the office in a hurry.

Faith's expression was terrible. She threw Raelynn's previous investigation report onto the table.

"Miss Edwards, this report is not qualified. Go and investigate it again until I think it is qualified."

Raelynn looked at it. Wasn't she very satisfied that day?

Judging by her attitude, it was obvious that she was looking for trouble.

Chapter 2407

Raelynn observed Faith's expression carefully and found that something was wrong.

It had only been one weekend, why was she so hostile towards Raelynn now?

Yes, she could tell that Faith was being hostile towards her, as if they were love rivals.

"Miss Mason, may I ask what's wrong?" she did not really know what was wrong with the design, but at least she was familiar with it.

In order to find a good job and to make herself feel more relaxed, when she was in school, almost everyone was playing and she was learning.

While others were busy dating, she was busy with all kinds of cloth, watching every fashion show, and looking for all kinds of inspiration.

The nationalist-themed fashion was on the rise, and she had indeed paid attention to it, and this was the most popular style in the market now.

Faith paused. She just wanted to find something to ask Raelynn to do, and she didn't see any problems at all.

"Don't you know how to solve the problem yourself? In short, I'm not satisfied with this report. Redo it until I'm satisfied," Faith replied with a cold face.

Raelynn's eyes flashed. She noticed that Faith was avoiding her gaze, so she made a guess in her heart.

"Miss Mason, I've done my research and this is indeed the most popular style right now. You will receive the exact same results even if you asked me to do it again. If you do not trust me, you can ask someone else to carry out the research."

"Humph!" Faith was so angry that she laughed. She looked at Raelynn and said, "Miss Edwards, did you find yourself some support maybe? How dare you say that? Are you trying to push your responsibilities onto others? Is someone like you even worthy of working here?"

Faith didn't know what was going on with herself either. When she thought of how intimate the two of them were in the car, she would feel annoyed every time she saw Raelynn. She could barely control her own temper, and she was dying to tear Raelynn apart.

A useless woman like her who had nothing to her name was not worthy of someone like Kenneth.

Raelynn bit down on her lip. Although she was a non-confrontational person, she was not someone who should be taken lightly.

"Miss Mason, that is why I've asked you what exactly was the problem with the report. Only when you tell me my faults can I rectify them. If I could recognize them myself, I would've corrected the errors when I was writing the report. I treat my work very seriously, I would definitely recognize each of the materials used."

Faith was stunned. She seemed to have dug a hole for herself.

"Forget it. You can leave now. Since you've said so, I'll ask other designers to research again."

"Okay, thank you for your understanding, Miss Mason." Raelynn did not say much and turned around to leave.

Darlene looked at her and said, "Faith, you're not in a good state today. Let me make you a cup of coffee first."

Faith nodded slightly. "Good! Thank you for your hard work. I am indeed not doing that well."

After Lauren left, Faith slumped down on her chair. She hadn't slept at all last night, and she could barely focus now.

She was extremely jealous. She was beautiful as well, but she had no place in Kenneth's eyes.

Well, she wouldn't make Raelynn's life easy as well. Suddenly, she smirked and sent a text with her phone.

It was already noon when Kenneth finished dealing with everything from the meeting in the morning. He glanced at the time. He had slept very late last night, and he was feeling tired.

He picked up his phone and gave Raelynn a call.

Raelynn was just about to head out for lunch with Clara.

"Hey!" She lowered her voice.

Kenneth raised an eyebrow and asked, "Is it inconvenient for you to answer the phone?"

"Ah... No, it's just that Clara is here. She has been hired, and coincidentally works as my assistant now."

Kenneth suggested, "Let's have lunch together."

Raelynn glanced at Clara, who was printing some documents. "I'm going to have lunch with her today. Let's go home for dinner. Is that okay?"

Raelynn could only come up with this compromise.

"I haven't seen you for nearly 20 hours," Kenneth retorted.

"Hehe... I also want to see you, but I've already promised Clara to go to the cafeteria for lunch. You and Mr. Parma can go have lunch together. After work, I'll go over to the apartment to cook for you. How about we make some ribs? I really want to eat pork ribs, but they're too expensive nowadays."

Upon hearing this, Kenneth smiled and agreed, "It's okay. Let's buy it together after work."

He was a little addicted to working and eating together.

Raelynn smiled when he finally agreed and said, "Okay, I'll wait for you in the garage after work."

Kenneth agreed, "Okay!"

At lunchtime, Raelynn took Clara to the cafeteria.

The staff canteen of more than a thousand people was very large, very spacious, and there was a lot of delicious food.

Clara looked at the various delicacies and thought to herself, "There are so many delicious foods in the cafeteria. Why do we have to eat outside?"

"Rae, take a look at that. I've had it before, it's very delicious." Clara felt as if she had found a whole new world.

Raelynn smiled and said, "Eat whatever you want."

Clara glanced at the price and was so excited that she almost cried. "Rae, it's not expensive. The benefits of working here at the Alwynn Group are simply too good."

"Who doesn't know that the staff canteen of the Alwynn Group is better than those outside? Two bumpkins."

Raelynn and Clara looked back and saw a fashionable woman looking at them with disdain.

Raelynn wanted to answer, but Clara looked at the crowd and pulled her hand. "Rae, let's go over there to eat."

Raelynn didn't want to attract too much attention, but the woman's words were really disgusting.

"Miss, we've just entered the company, so curiosity is inevitable. Your words were too harsh."

The woman looked arrogant and looked up and down at Raelynn. "Hey! You're Miss Edwards, aren't you?"

Raelynn's eyebrows twitched when she heard this. How could she know her name?

Raelynn did not speak.

"Why don't you dare to admit it? I heard people in the company say that the new designer was here to seduce Mr. Kenneth. Looks like it wasn't just a rumor."

Raelynn frowned. She seduced Kenneth?

What the heck!

"Who said that?" Raelynn's gaze was cold. Although she knew that others couldn't eat grapes and said that grapes were sour.

She was still angry.

"What? You don't dare to admit it?" People gradually gathered around them to watch the drama unfold.

Raelynn stated, "I'm being nice, so talk properly."

The woman flipped her hair and chuckled.

Her words grew more and more unpleasant. "Didn't I make it clear enough? You, Raelynn, seduced Mr. Kenneth."

Raelynn returned, "What's wrong with me seducing Mr. Kenneth? He's not married, I'm not married, can't I?"

"Also, what does it have to do with you?"

The woman was stunned. She couldn't come up with a reply to Raelynn's words.

Men who applied to the Alwynn Group usually hoped for a brighter future, while women who applied to the Alwynn Group usually prayed for better luck. If they could marry Mr. Kenneth, they would definitely be able to live a good life.

Chapter 2408

Seeing that the woman had remained silent, Raelynn continued, "You deliberately chose to talk about me in front of everyone. Why don't you tell me what you're really up to?"

It was not the first time that something like this had happened to Raelynn.

Obviously, this woman was looking for trouble.

The woman's expression suddenly darkened, and she glanced at the people around her. Everyone was here for the drama.

It was tense at work, so when there was drama, everyone was happy to join in.

"I'm... not up to anything. I'm just annoyed when I see you, you vixen. Why don't you look in the mirror, do you really think you're all that?"

"Haha..." Raelynn couldn't help but laugh, and the smile on her face was as icy as the glaciers.

"You dare call me a vixen as if you're so noble. Since you're a woman of morals, why don't you go for Mr. Kenneth yourself? Come on, just tell me what you're up to."

Raelynn seized this point and refused to let go.

Ever since she went abroad, she had decided to live a good life.

If she wanted to live, she would live well.

"Huh! What could I be up to? Look at you, how could you be worthy of Mr. Alwynn..."

"That's not up to you to decide. You have no right to say that."

Her cold voice was domineering.

Raelynn was extremely beautiful, so she gradually attracted everyone's attention.

Faith witnessed everything as she stood in the crowd. As she looked at Raelynn, who was glowing with confidence that was enough to attract everyone, her eyes flashed. As Raelynn stood in the crowd, instead of making her look bad, the woman had actually done the opposite to Raelynn.

She paused, unable to continue.

As long as one did not feel embarrassed, others would.

In other words, as long as Raelynn did not feel embarrassed, she would be the one who appeared as if she was fuming with jealousy instead.

Seeing that she had nothing to say, Raelynn left with Clara.

Under everyone's gaze, they found a table with fewer people and sat down.

Clara admired Raelynn's courage. If it were her, she would have swallowed her anger and calmed herself down.

Because they didn't know each other, she wouldn't dare to confront the woman.

"Rae, you were so cool just now." Clara gave her a thumbs up.

Raelynn looked at her with a smile. She knew how Clara was, she would only dare to fume in silence. Only with people she was close with, would she dare to talk back.

"Clara, when we're working, we should do our jobs well. If others dare to pick on us, we shouldn't just take it."

"If we just take it every time, their behavior would only get worse."

"When you're working, just focus on yourself and ignore everything else unrelated to you. Focus on your own work. Entering a new company is like leveling up in a game, you get to unlock new areas and learn new skills everyday."

"I understand, Rae. The experience I've gained from working with you is worth much more than what I would gain from working alone for ten years."

Raelynn smiled as she remained silent. She had been forced to grow up this quickly because she knew the Edwards family had decided to abandon her, and she needed to mature quickly.

Raelynn did not tell Kenneth about what had happened in the canteen.

However, he ended up getting to know about it anyway.

Luke told him everything that had happened in the cafeteria.

After hearing this, Kenneth only had one thought, which was that someone was trying to embarrass Raelynn.

Kenneth looked at Luke and demanded, "Go and check if there are any rumors in the company."

Luke's eyes flashed. Was there a need to investigate?

There were so many rumors about Kenneth and Raelynn.

"Mr. Kenneth, it seems that the news was deliberately released by someone in order to make Raelynn give up. Especially when she chose to talk about it in the canteen, almost everyone from the first floor to the 25th floor knew that Miss Edwards had seduced you."

Kenneth's expression suddenly darkened, and no one could guess what he was thinking.

Luke waited for him to speak, but he remained silent for quite a while.

Kenneth insisted, "Go check it out, especially the woman who made things difficult for Rae today."

Someone must be behind it!

"Yes, Mr. Kenneth. I've already made arrangements in the design department. I've heard that Miss Mason was looking for Miss Edwards in the morning, and Miss Mason seemed pissed."

Kenneth looked up at him and asked, "I asked you to investigate Faith. Did you find anything?"

Luke replied, "Her background is very clean. I don't see any problems with it. She had graduated from a foreign design university and won a lot of awards during her studying days. She's very outstanding. Except for these, there's nothing else."

Kenneth asked, "Have you checked her communication records?"

Luke answered, "I've gone through them as well, and they were very strange. All of her contacts were her colleagues or people from the company, there weren't any contacts of her family. It's a newly registered number, she must be using a different number personally."

Kenneth narrowed his eyes. He tapped his knuckles on the office desk and said, "Okay, then continue on with the search. Check her call history again, especially from today. Faith seems fine. We only need that woman's now."

His intuition had always been very accurate. There was something wrong with this woman, Faith.

When his mother left the Alwynn Group, he had personally hired the director of the design department.

Among the many designers, Faith was indeed excellent. However, after entering the Alwynn Group, all of her outstanding qualities were not showcased in her work.

Her performance at work was not as wonderful as what was described in her resume.

This made him suspicious.

Luke nodded. "Yes, Mr. Kenneth."

After Luke left, Kenneth continued to work. He had to finish all his work before he got off.

After Raelynn finished her work, she headed to the washroom.

She was a little confused about what had happened in the canteen today. Why would everyone in the company know about it?

Was it really so obvious between her and Kenneth?

She was not afraid that this matter would be known by others. After all, it was true and someone would come after her sooner or later.

However, she didn't expect it to be so fast!

"Alas!"

Raelynn sat on the toilet and sighed softly.

Indeed, wherever there were people, there was trouble.

"Mr. Kenneth, what's the matter?"

Raelynn was about to go out when she heard Faith's lowered voice.

When she heard the word 'president', she tried hard to hold her breath.

"President, Kenneth is in the company."

Raelynn blinked in confusion. "What's going on?" She wondered.

Faith was talking to Kenneth.

"President, although I'm the design director of the Alwynn Group, I rarely have a chance to enter his office. I can't do what you told me to."

"President, this is not a problem of how much money it is. It's a problem of ability. There are no blind spots on the surveillance video on the 25th floor. I can't do what you said at all..."

Raelynn listened for a while and fell into shock. She gradually understood what was going on.

Was Faith...?

However, at this moment, Raelynn's phone vibrated.

Chapter 2409

Raelynn had not yet recovered from the fact that Faith was a spy in the company. Just then, her mobile phone buzzed and vibrated.

Raelynn was nearly frightened to death as she quickly hung up the call.

Coincidentally, the sound of running water came from outside, which covered the sound of her mobile phone vibrating.

Raelynn held her breath tightly and held her hands tightly. How should she tell Kenneth about this?

Would he believe her words?

While she was thinking, her cell phone vibrated again.

Raelynn had been staring at her phone, but she was afraid that Kenneth would not give up.

Sure enough!

She hung up instantly, but Faith still heard it anyway.

She roared, "Who's inside? Come out!"

Raelynn's chest suddenly tightened. A gust of strong wind blew in from the window.

Faith frowned slightly. Was she too nervous?

Did she hear it wrongly?

In order to be safe, she went to pull on the handles of each individual stall to check just in case of an accident. She couldn't afford an accident to happen now.

When Raelynn heard the sound of the doors being opened, she thought to herself that she was done for.

She was in the last stall, and Faith would reach her soon. There was nowhere to hide in here.

"Miss Mason, Miss Hubbard on the 11th floor is looking for you. She's furious now. You should go and have a look," Lauren said anxiously as she rushed into the washroom.

Faith looked at the last door unwillingly and left reluctantly.

Perhaps it was the sound of the wind, maybe she heard it wrong.

When she heard the sound of footsteps leaving, the breath that she had been holding in for a minute was finally released.

"Phew..." Why was it so tiring to eavesdrop on other people's secrets?

However, it was both nervous and exciting.

Raelynn didn't know why Kenneth had called her, but she couldn't go out yet.

Faith had just left, and she didn't know if she had actually heard her phone vibrate.

Two minutes later, Kenneth began to text her instead of calling her.

"Rae, why didn't you answer my call?"

Raelynn replied, "I'm busy."

Kenneth asked, "Are you... all right?"

Raelynn found his words very strange. She immediately replied, "I'm fine. What's wrong?"

Kenneth answered, "I miss you."

Raelynn almost couldn't help laughing when she saw these three words.

Was this really Kenneth?

Why was he as clingy as a child?

He was like a child, he would be happy when he received a candy!

Raelynn replied, "I'm about to get off work. See you then."

She also missed him.

Raelynn was about to head out when she heard footsteps again.

"Sasha, I know how to meet Mr. Alwynn. As long as we follow Miss Edwards from the design department, we will definitely meet Mr. Alwynn. I heard them say that Raelynn has been very close to him recently."

Raelynn fell speechless.

Had the washroom become the gossiping grounds?

"Oh, whatever, you're so pretty anyway, you'd definitely win him over. By then, I'll just benefit from you."

"Hehe... Well, after work in the evening, I'll follow Raelynn to see if what they said is true."

"Yes, I'll be careful so I won't get caught. In order for our Sasha to become Kenneth's future wife, this is nothing."

The sound gradually faded away, and Raelynn finally came out of the bathroom.

After washing her hands, she could smell the incense in the bathroom all over her clothes.

She didn't return to the office immediately. Instead, she stood at a window for a while and waited till the scent faded before she returned.

As soon as she arrived at Faith's office, she heard an angry roar from inside. "This red dress is the main focus of this season, but it's different from the drawing you designed. The gold thread on the drawing is the biggest highlight of this skirt. Look at this dress now, what does it look like? How could it still be the main focus?"

"What kind of a director are you, with your working attitude, how could we work together? It's only an hour away from the shoot, and everyone's ready. How will I explain this mess to the fans? Is the high end decorating room in the company just for looks?"

"Tell me now, what should I do?"

Raelynn recognized that it was Miss Hubbard, and she had always been well respected in the company.

"Miss Hubbard, I'm sorry. I changed the style at the last minute. Because I didn't have enough gold threads, I..."

"That's impossible. I've been in the Alwynn Group for more than 20 years, and I have never faced such a problem. I've found you the gold thread to block your excuse. Now make it on the spot. I'll use it in an hour."

Faith's heart trembled. She was not the one who had made this dress, how could she perfectly complete the task?

"I'm sorry, Miss Hubbard. My hand is hurting. I can't do it." Faith found an excuse again.

She was upset and felt that her life was a mess.

How did things end up like this? It only took one day.

She couldn't even accomplish the most basic task.

Over the years, Margery was still very young and beautiful. People said that the woman who was doted on by her lover would never grow old, and it was evident in Margery.

Without saying anything else, she took out her phone and dialed Kenneth's number.

"Hello, Aunt Margery."

"Come down, the 24th floor."

As soon as Margery finished speaking, Faith was anxious. "Miss Hubbard, can I have two hours? I can finish it in two hours."

Margery looked at her sharply. "Even if I gave you three hours, you can't do it."

She suspected that Faith wasn't even the one to make this dress.

Only an idiot would give a dumb excuse such as their hand was in pain.

Soon, Kenneth arrived at the 24th floor. Raelynn was shocked to see him suddenly appear. "Why are you here?"

He was wearing a white dress shirt and black trousers. His every move looked elegant.

When the surrounding designers saw him, they all looked at him in amazement.

Kenneth looked at her and smiled. "Something came up."

He then asked, "Do you want to go with me?"

Raelynn shook her head. "No, I'm just here to watch the show."

Kenneth teased, "Seems like you aren't focused on work."

Raelynn's face turned red. "No, I was just passing by."

Kenneth looked at her with a funny expression. Without saying anything, he entered Faith's office.

"Mr. Kenneth." When she saw Kenneth, Faith only felt that everything was dark in front of her.

"Aunt Margery!" Kenneth turned to Margery.

"Kenny, take a look at this. What kind of designer did you hire, how could they make such a serious mistake? This dress is different from the one in the brochures, this problem has never appeared before. I need this dress in an hour, how could I use this now? All of the models and the directors are waiting downstairs, but just because one department messed up, everyone has to wait for you?"

Chapter 2410

Kenneth comforted her with a smile. "Aunt Margery, don't be angry. It's not good for your health. I'll take care of it."

Margery looked at him and questioned, "Will you be able to solve this in an hour?" For so many years, she had been very happy to work with Eden. Now that there was a new worker who was always slowing down her work progress, she was very annoyed. She had to balance her work and personal life, as she had two children to take care of.

Kenneth smiled and replied, "I promise to solve this!"

"Well, I'm relieved to hear you say that. I'll head down first. When it's ready, ask someone to send it to me."

"Okay, Aunt Margery, why don't you go get some rest now. Don't be so angry. If you fall ill, the company will be in a mess."

"If you don't want everything to become a mess, then find someone who is more talented. You have to learn from your father. Don't employ someone whom you can't trust, and fully trust your employees."

After saying that, Margery turned around and left.

It wasn't that she didn't trust Kenneth's, but rather, she didn't believe in Faith's abilities.

It had been almost half a year since Faith had been hired as a designer of the Alwynn Group.

If one couldn't keep up with their work, they would drag the entire company down and make them lose their opportunity. A company as big as this, with so many employees waiting for their salary, would still go bankrupt.

Faith noticed that Kenneth's warm expression was gone, and in place was a cold one.

When Margery was next to him, it was as if he had been as warm and gentle as he was with Raelynn. She had never seen him show her that side before.

"Miss Mason, why are you still standing there? Hurry up and deal with it." His tone was very cold and domineering, making it hard for Faith to breath.

Faith's expression fell. She had no idea how she could fix this at all, and given just an hour's time, she couldn't accomplish this task.

The clothes were made by another designer. What should she do?

As soon as she started altering it, everyone would definitely notice something odd. The designers here were all professionals, they would definitely notice the mistake.

She had a conflict with the other party, and never thought that they would pull the rug beneath her like this.

She wouldn't pay the rest of the money.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Kenneth. My hand is injured. I'm afraid I can't accomplish the task." She lowered her head, and her long eyelashes blocked the emotions in her eyes. Her hands were clenched together.

Kenneth looked at her assistant, Lauren, and said, "Gather all of the designers here."

"Yes, Mr. Kenneth." Lauren quickly left.

A few minutes later, all the designers from the women's clothing design department arrived in Faith's office. When they saw Kenneth there, they began staring openly.

Raelynn stood right at the front.

Kenneth looked at all the designers and pointed to the red dress and gold threads of the model next to Faith. "Who can put the gold threads on this dress in an hour?"

Faith had not expected Kenneth to act like this.

All the designers looked at each other. They looked at each other in silence and did not speak. The last part of the gold thread was done by hand.

It would be extremely difficult. Without experience of at least ten years, it was impossible.

Moreover, it had to be done in an hour. No one dared to try.

Of course, if one had the courage to try and succeed, they would be rewarded for their efforts.

Raelynn actually already knew the whole process. She looked at Kenneth with clear eyes, and there was always a little caution in them.

"Mr. Kenneth... Mr. Kenneth, may I have a try?"

No one expected that Raelynn would be the one to stand up.

Kenneth looked at her careful movements with a faint smile in his eyes. "Miss Edwards, are you sure?"

Raelynn answered, "Mr. Kenneth, I'm very sure! When I was abroad, I learned this technique from an old master. I know how to do it."

She had done it before. If she hadn't at least done it once, she wouldn't have dared to volunteer.

She had created a specially designed princess gown for a little girl, with gold lace and gemstones sewn into it.

Everything had been done by hand, and it was definitely not cheap, but it was extremely beautiful.

The stunning red dress in front of everyone also had a unique cutting. Its design was one of a kind, and it looked both mature and eye-catching. With the golden lace to accentuate the red dress, it would look even more stunning.

It was both visually pleasing and extremely creative.

The hem of the skirt was adorned with peonies sewn with golden thread, and it was beautiful.

"Okay, I'll give you an hour. After that, I need it to be completed." Kenneth believed that she could do it.

After all, she was good at what she did.

However, when he thought of her injured hand, he couldn't help but worry.

"No, Mr. Kenneth," Faith said without thinking.

Kenneth looked back at her and asked in a serious tone, "Why not?"

Faith looked at Raelynn and said sharply, "Mr. Kenneth, Raelynn is a new designer. She can't touch the clothes I've designed. What if she butchers them?"

Kenneth asked, "Why not? You can't do it now."

"I..." Faith was anxious for a moment. She only wanted to prevent Raelynn from stealing her credit, and couldn't come up with an excuse for it.

"Mr. Kenneth, do you want the workers in the factory to do it? They are more professional."

Kenneth looked at her coldly and said, "As the director, aren't you supposed to lead the other designers on their journey to a further destination? If you can't accomplish something, why can't someone else who is capable do it instead?"

"Mr. Kenneth, I'm just saying that Miss Edwards is new here, her skills probably aren't up to par with the masters in the factory..."

"Shut up. It will take more than an hour to find a master who has time to come here from the factory. Do you still have time to wait around?"

Faith paused. Would he not give her this little time?

"Mr. Kenneth, as long as I have one more hour, I can make this dress complete."

Kenneth asked, "Isn't your hand in pain?"

"Do you want everyone to wait for you because of your mistakes?"

"Do you know how many hours the photographer and director have to work every day?"

"I..."

Kenneth didn't listen to her. Instead, he turned to Raelynn and said, "Miss Edwards, take the dress to your office. I want to see a complete dress in an hour."

Raelynn nodded. "Yes, Mr. Kenneth."

Kenneth looked at the designers and ordered, "Everyone, leave now."

Faith bit her lower lip hard. One mistake had caused her image to fall in front of Kenneth.

D*mn you, Raelynn!

The other designers left her office.

Raelynn quickly returned to her office with the dress and gold threads. She didn't want to take Faith's credit, but after knowing about Faith's true intentions, she had to help, especially when she was Kenneth's girlfriend.
