

Gluey Love 241

Chapter 241

That was the biggest debt she owed to her three children.

Eden did not feel good deep down in her heart!

Kenneth thought for a moment before he asked, "Mom, are you happy? Why do I feel that you look very nervous when you see Uncle Victor?"

Eden forced a smile when she heard that. "Kenny, did you see wrongly? Why would I be nervous?"

Eden thought about it for a while. She only felt nervous the first time she met Victor.

Her nervousness was gone after she talked to him.

Kenneth thought for a moment and asked, "Mom, have you met Uncle Victor before?"

Eden shook her head and said, "Kenny, why did you ask that? I only met him when I came back here. I don't think I have met him before."

Eden thought for a while and was sure that she hadn't met Victor before.

Kenneth smiled and did not ask any more questions. Didn't Eden notice that her children looked very similar to Victor?

What a silly mother. She only thought about raising the three of them but never thought of herself.

The air was a little stuffy and hot. Eden looked at the dreary night sky and smiled faintly, "Kenny, let's walk faster. It's going to rain soon."

"Okay, Mom!" Kenneth curled his pink lips and smiled happily.

The people around them were in a hurry.

Eden and Kenny hadn't gone very far when it started to drizzle.

"Mom, run. Let's go to the bus stop to take shelter from the rain." Kenneth turned and looked at Eden with a smile. He then pulled her to the bus stop.

Eden smiled and followed Kenny.

A heart-breaking scene flashed across her mind suddenly.

She slowed down her pace.

She turned and looked at the scene and the night sky that was familiar to her at the moment

The scene was the same when she was kicked out of the Gienger family by Bethany that night. She was nine years old at that time and was both annoyed and curious about the world.

She walked in the pouring rain. There was no place for her to go, whether it was just stores or coffee shops. The only place she could go was the bus stop on the roadside.

The bus stop at that time was not as luxurious as it was now. It was simple but it was enough to shield her petite body from the wind and rain.

After that, Brody took her back when he drove by the station and saw her.

Just then, a little girl in a yellow dress ran past Eden.

She was alone and her innocent face was filled with misanthropy.

She resembled Eden who was lonely and helpless at that time!

Eden fixed her eyes on the little girl in yellow. Her eyes were filled with nostalgia and heartache.

She spent her childhood growing up in the midst of ridicule, mockery and other people's bullying.

Especially Myra, who took delight in bullying her.

Eden bit her lower lip slightly. The hatred buried in her heart made her feel a little uncomfortable.

Kenneth looked at Eden's odd expression and pulled her hand. "Mom, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?"

Eden came to her senses when she heard Kenneth's voice.

She lowered her head, looked at Kenneth's worried face and smiled guiltily. She should not have shown such negative emotions in front of him.

She blinked her eyes slightly, collected her emotions and said with a smile, "Kenny, I am fine. It's raining heavily. Let's take shelter for a while before going back."

"Okay!" Kenneth narrowed his eyes slightly. He didn't believe Eden's words at all.

Her mood had fluctuated a lot since she came back here.

The rain was sudden. Many people did not bring umbrellas with them and they looked around for places to shelter from the rain.

The rain was very noisy and Eden was annoyed by everything around her.

Chapter 242

The rainy night reminded Eden of many sad things.

She looked at the shops around her coldly. Her eyes swept across the coffee shop behind the station and she suddenly saw a familiar figure.

Eden thought that she had seen wrongly, so she took a few more steps.

Sure enough, it was someone she knew. He was sitting in a coffee shop with a young and beautiful woman at the moment. They were acting intimate and an eight or nine-year-old boy was sitting next to them.

Eden frowned slightly. Could it be...

She quickly took out her mobile phone and took a few photos.

She zoomed in on the photos and took a look. The photos were not very clear because of the rain. She frowned. No way. It was actually a very good opportunity.

She looked down at Kenny and said, "Kenny, the rain won't stop for the time being. Why don't you accompany me to have a cup of coffee?"

"Coffee?" Kenneth looked at her mother in confusion!

He saw that Eden had taken the photos just now. There was someone she knew in the coffee shop.

He nodded and said, "Okay. Mom, order an ice cream for me!"

Eden smiled and nodded, "Okay! Kenny, you finally want to eat ice cream."

Eden smiled and glanced at the location of the coffee shop. It was not particularly far from the station.

She used her hands to cover Kenneth's head and they quickly ran to the coffee shop.

Eden had already decided where she wanted to sit. When she entered the coffee shop, she pulled Kenny to the seats that were diagonally opposite the family of three and sat down.

A waiter came over at the same time. Eden smiled and ordered a cup of coffee and a caramel vanilla ice cream that Kenny wanted to eat.

She casually raised her mobile phone after the waiter had left.

She took photos of the family of three opposite her.

She made an excuse to go to the restroom and took photos of the family from different angles.

Eden was shocked when she saw the enlarged picture of the little boy. How could he be so similar?

Could it really be what she suspected?

Eden looked at the family of three again.

The woman was dressed in a demure and charming way and she was leaning into the arms of the man with a happy look.

Eden looked around and realized that there were a lot of people in the coffee shop. They probably would not notice her.

She pursed her lips slightly and moved closer to the family of three.

"Dad, come back next week and buy me a Phantom Ninja puzzle. There is a nouveau riche in my class who changes different versions of the puzzles every day. He is very arrogant."

Eden was shocked to the core when she heard the boy call the man father.

She quickened her pace and returned to her seat!

Her eyes flickered when she saw that Kenny hadn't eaten much of his ice cream.

Kenny didn't like ice cream very much. She was afraid that he only agreed to accompany her to the coffee shop after seeing her actions a while ago.

"Kenny, does the ice cream taste bad?" She asked with a deliberate smile.

Kenneth smiled and said, "Mom, only Gia likes to eat ice cream in our family. She could eat three ice creams at the same time."

"That's true!" Eden smiled and nodded. She picked up the coffee and gracefully took a sip.

She smiled lightly. Her eyelashes were thick and curly, her eyes were charming and her lips were glittering pinkish. Her presence would always make the scenery beautiful.

She looked outside and realized that the rain was getting smaller. Even God was helping her.

"Mom, what are you looking at?" Kenneth asked curiously. Eden's eyes were fixed on the family of three who were sitting at the window.

Eden withdrew her gaze slowly and said with a smile, "Kenny, I am very happy today! Really happy!"

Chapter 243

Eden's entire body exuded a pure and lively aura. Her eyes were bright and clear as she looked at her Kenneth with a smile.

Kenneth narrowed his eyes slightly and his gaze was dark. "Mom, I'm glad that you are happy."

He seldom saw Eden this youthful and lively.

She was very beautiful and pleasing to the eye when she was happy.

"Kenny, the rain has stopped. Let's go home." Eden placed her cup down with a smile.

"Okay!" Kenneth stood up and glanced at the family of three at the door.

He had secretly taken some photos when Eden went to the bathroom.

He curled his lips into a smile and followed Eden outside.

Eden had a dreamless night!

The next day, Eden brought Kenneth to the new house and they looked at it together with Jasper. Jasper was quick with completing the procedures.

Eden could start to renovate the house. She also went to the bank to check her deposit. The money was enough to pay for the house so she did not have to take a loan. Eden was very happy to possess the house. She was so happy that she could not stop talking the whole day.

Jasper and Kenneth had never seen her so happy before.

Eden really felt that she was very lucky.

Eden was very happy but Victor was depressed the whole day.

He had bothered Eden and Kenneth the whole day yesterday and he had no reason to meet them today.

The most annoying part was that Anson was not at home when he got back last night so he was unable to share his happiness.

Victor laid on the sofa and stared at Eden's WhatsApp. Her profile photo for WhatsApp was a minion with a mischievous smile.

Victor had spent the entire day idly flipping through his chat logs with Eden and her WhatsApp status.

Anson finally came back with takeout at five o'clock.

Victor glanced at Anson and quickly sat up from the sofa.

He looked at Anson with a dark gaze and asked, "Anson, where have you been for the whole day and night?"

Anson rolled his eyes at him and said discontentedly, "Victor, I'm just staying at your house temporarily, not for the rest of my life. I have to go back to visit my parents during the weekend!"

As Anson spoke, he placed the food on the table and said, "You're an adult but you still need me to take care of your meals every day."

Anson complained as he put the food one at a time on the table.

Victor watched Anson's movements and thought of what had happened yesterday. He instantly forgot all his unhappiness.

He said with a smile, "Anson, I had a great day yesterday. Kenny was very talkative."

Anson paused with a pair of chopsticks in his hands. He quickly looked at Victor, threw the chopsticks on the tea table and said with a headache, "Victor, are you trying to show off in front of me?"

You brag about your happy moments in front of me.

On the contrary, I've been running around because of your matter and I am exhausted. You should be really happy now that the real Eden has come back.

No way. I'll have to get myself drunk one day to see if I have such good luck like you."

Victor frowned when he heard that. He had a cold expression on his face as he stared at Anson coldly.

He said in a cold and firm tone, "Anson, you'd better not learn from me, or I will make you suffer." He was not Victor. How could he have such good genes?

Victor's heart was filled with pride!

"Are you heartless? Don't tell me that only you can do it but I can't." Anson glared at him.

"That's still better than you!" Victor roared.

Anson's expression was cold and he did not say anything. He glared at Victor instead.

Chapter 244

Victor exhaled deeply, pursed his lips slightly and knocked hard on the table with his slender fingers.

He roared, "Anson, why do you have to make me angry every time? I just want to share with you what I did with my son."

"Ah..." Anson was so shocked that he let out a loud cry. He fixed his gaze on Victor.

Victor looked at him with darkened eyes.

After a while, Anson stuttered, "Vic... Victor, you know I'm jealous. Why did you still show off in front of me?

Do you know that when I visited my parents today, my mother nagged me for the whole afternoon to get married quickly. She wanted me to have children to carry on my family line. I was almost driven crazy."

Victor smiled dazzlingly and smugly when he heard that.

"This is sick! Victor, what good deeds did you do in your past life for you to be so lucky in this life?" Anson murmured in disbelief.

"Hehe..." Victor laughed happily. There was blessing in misfortune in his life.

His heart burst with glee when he saw Anson's envious gaze. Anson was finally ruthlessly tormented by him.

Anson had never seen Victor so happy in the past few days.

"Hehe..." He looked at Victor and laughed in an odd manner.

"Victor, this is the first time I've seen you so happy. You can laugh all you like but..."

"But what?" Victor's tone was unpleasant. He felt that what Anson was going to say would affect his good mood.

Anson smiled wickedly, "No matter how good your relationship with Eden was previously, you have been separated from each other for eighteen years. There is a man who was always by Eden's side during the most difficult times of her life."

Victor's eyes flickered. He knew that Anson was talking about Jasper.

"Eden will not get together with Jasper." His tone was sultry but certain. He was sure that Eden treated Jasper as a friend and there was no love between them.

Victor was very certain of this.

He pursed his thin lips tightly and coldly. Who could be sure when it came to relationships?

He would not allow it to happen. He was the father of Eden's child and Eden could only be his.

Anson nodded and said, "Victor, I hope it is as you wish. You should treat Eden well from now onwards. No one can say for sure what would happen when it comes to relationships."

Anson straightened up slightly and handed Victor the chopsticks before he said, "Victor, eat first! Eden is by your side. Nobody can take her away from you!"

Victor glanced at Anson, accepted the chopsticks and ate his food in an elegant but careless manner. His good mood had vanished instantly.

Anson squinted slightly at him. He was worried when he couldn't find Even but was even more worried after he had found Eden!

The world was full of hurt, deception and betrayal. Victor was terrified of these three things.

"We came at the right time. You are all home." Adonis opened the door and came in with a smile on his face.

Lucian was behind him.

Lucian looked glamorous in a white casual suit.

Even though he didn't talk much, Victor, Anson and Adonis could all understand what he meant by his gaze or actions.

Anson raised his eyebrows and looked at Adonis and Lucian. "Why are you guys here? You even came together."

"It's the weekend. We have finally finished our work and we brought you two some delicious supper. Why, are you unhappy about it?" Adonis raised his eyebrows and looked at Anson. He had an expression on his face that seemed to say "I will go home if you are unhappy about it."

Chapter 245

Adonis felt that he was rejected this period of time. Victor, Anson and Lucian, who were like brothers to him, did not seem very happy to see him.

He didn't know what he had done to offend them.

He felt like he was about to be alienated!

He was sobbing in his heart!!

"Come on. You came just in time. I didn't eat much at home and Victor had just started eating." Anson moved to another seat and let Adonis and Lucian sit down.

Victor glanced at Adonis and Lucian calmly. He didn't say anything and continued to eat his food. He didn't eat much in the morning!

He wouldn't be hungry when he was in a bad mood!

Adonis glanced at Victor before he took out the packed barbecue and put it on the table. Victor ate it nonchalantly.

Anson got up and went to the refrigerator to take a few cans of beer. He opened them and gave everyone a can.

The four of them usually gathered together to talk and gossip during the weekends.

Lucian raised his head and took a sip of beer. After putting it back on the table, he looked at Victor casually.

Seeing that Victor seemed to be unhappy, he curled his lips slightly and said, "Victor, I met Eden at the mall yesterday. She was bullied by Mrs. Clement and Haven."

Victor who was picking up his food, froze. He looked at Lucian and asked, "Yesterday?"

"That's right!" Lucian nodded.

Victor narrowed his eyes. No wonder Eden went to the toilet and didn't return for such a long time.

"What was the reason?" His voice was deep and cold. He narrowed his cold eyes.

Aisling was the one who gave up Eden.

However, he couldn't tell her the truth yet for Eden's safety!

Lucian described what had happened. Anson listened and said with a smile, "Seems like Eden isn't someone who can be easily bullied."

He glanced at Victor. Would Aisling regret it in the future if she knew that she had insulted her own daughter?

However, he really couldn't tell Aisling the truth for Eden's safety.

Lucian smiled and said, "I was lucky enough to have witnessed the whole incident. Eden is quite interesting."

Victor suddenly looked at him with dark eyes. Lucian seldom smiled but he actually smiled gently because of Eden.

Anson asked mischievously, "Lucian, are you interested in Eden?"

Victor's body tensed up instantly and he pricked his ears.

Adonis also said jokingly, "Lucian, it's rare to have a woman who interests you. Eden is not only beautiful, she also gives people the first impression that she is pure and nice."

Victor's face became more sullen when he heard that.

"I'm actually quite interested in her." Lucian smiled elegantly before he lowered his head and continued to eat his food.

Anson's heart skipped a beat. If Lucian was interested in a woman, it meant that she had already entered his heart.

He glanced at Victor quickly and saw that his face was terrifyingly sullen. Anson pursed his lips in fear.

Who knew what kind of shocking words would a loudmouth like Adonis say?

Anson felt that the atmosphere had become cold and dreary.

Adonis did not seem to sense the atmosphere. He looked at Lucian with a strange smile and said, "Lucian, I've never known any woman whom you're interested in since young. This means that Eden is very charming! You have to put in more effort."

"Let's talk about it some other time!" Lucian responded carelessly and lowered his head to eat.

Adonis was a big-hearted person. He had a very good family background that allowed him to live comfortably without any worries. However, his main problem was that he was extremely gossipy.

Chapter 246

Anson glanced at Victor and saw that his deep black eyes were burning with rage. They would have to stop discussing this topic or else he would have a tough night.

Adonis would also be doomed.

Anson changed the subject and asked, "By the way, shouldn't the Alwynn and Clement families have an arranged marriage after that incident? Why didn't they make any moves?"

Adonis was very interested when he heard that. He said, "How could Vincent like Haven? The Clement family would not bring the matter up if the Alwynn family doesn't mention it. After all, they have been friends for decades.

When my mother was playing mahjong with Rebecca yesterday, she deliberately asked her about Vincent and Haven's relationship. Rebecca responded briefly. It was clear that she didn't want Vincent to marry Haven."

There was a hint of pity in Adonis's tone. Haven was beautiful but she had evil intentions. She was ruined by Vincent just like that.

In this world, a person should not force himself to have something or someone he can't get.

"Ah! You are better informed than anyone else. I haven't even found out about Rebecca's moves. You save me a lot of trouble by coming over tonight."

Anson narrowed his eyes slightly. Haven tried to trick Victor but she was tricked by him instead. She was really dumb to believe Rebecca's words.

"Of course. In this circle, nothing can be hidden from my mother's eyes. She can get a lot of information after just a round of mahjong." Adonis was very proud.

Anson smiled wickedly. He thought in his heart that Adonis was just like his mother and their gossipy behavior was hereditary.

Victor narrowed his eyes and said, "Pay more attention to Vincent's every move. Rebecca and Vincent would not give up just like that after what happened that night. We will release the video if they do anything over the top."

"Okay. I'll keep an eye on it." Anson nodded his head. This matter should not be taken lightly.

Adonis suddenly slammed the table with force.

He got the attention of the other three men.

Anson said angrily, "Are you crazy? You haven't even finished drinking a can of beer! Why are you acting crazily?"

Adonis glared at Anson with dissatisfaction. "Anson, I'm angry!"

Anson looked at him in disgust. Adonis's bad temper was nothing compared to Victor. He had always been big-hearted. Where did his temper come from?

Lucian asked softly, "There aren't many things that can make you angry. Tell us what's with you."

Adonis exhaled and said agitatedly, "Rebecca just wanted to make things difficult for Victor. Wasn't the Gerard family been banned by Victor?"

Rebecca went to find Mr. King in person and took the initiative to cooperate with the Gerard family. Wasn't she deliberately making Victor unhappy?"

"...Oh!" Anson was also surprised.

"Does Rebecca look like she would accept someone who was dumped by other people?" Lucian asked in a slightly cold tone.

Anson nodded and said, "That's right. Rebecca is not a fearless person. In fact, she is very scheming. We'd better be careful now that she has taken the initiative to help the Gerard family."

Victor glanced at the three of them and said in a cold and ruthless voice, "Don't worry. She couldn't create much trouble. Let's not talk about work during weekends. Manage your own affairs. We will settle with Rebecca sooner or later."

On Adonis's handsome face, the corners of his eyes drooped slightly. He smiled mischievously and said, "Victor, you're not in a good mood?"

Why did he feel so happy instantly when he saw that Victor was in a bad mood?

Chapter 247

Adonis had a very hard time because of Victor all this while.

The best way to avoid disappointment was not to put one's hopes on anyone or anything!

Anyway, his three detrimental friends could give him a hard time. In addition, he didn't have enough personal cultivation!

He could still endure it and he would continue to develop to be smarter so that nobody could hurt him.

Victor looked at him with his clear and cold eyes. He said, "I'm in a good mood! You had to work in the branch company lately. As for the real estate, you have always been in charge of it. Hence, you should continue to stay there for two months."

Adonis looked like he was going to kneel down. He said unhappily, "Victor, repetitive indifference is the culprit that turns your heart cold. Are you sure you want to do this to me?"

Victor looked at him coldly and said, "Do I look like I am joking?"

Anson lowered his head, pursed his lips, and smiled. He didn't look at Adonis' grievance face. He knew very well that Victor was taking revenge!

Victor had a great opportunity but Jasper was able to take advantage of it. How could Victor not be angry?

He glanced at Adonis from the corner of his eye and thought to himself, "If Adonis still doesn't grow from this experience, he will definitely suffer a lot for the rest of his life."

"Victor, how can you bully your friends like this? Things have an expiry date, so does friendship. Let's see how long you can run wild in my heart." After saying that, Adonis picked up the beer on the table angrily and finished it in one gulp.

Adonis was still sitting in the same spot. Lucian thought that he would get up and leave in anger. He did not expect him to be such a coward.

Victor used his time to earn money, not to reason with other people. If others tried to reason with him, they would always lose because he would not reason with anybody.

Victor said in an imposing and nonchalant manner, "Adonis, remember this. No matter how you live, people would only appreciate your success and not your hard work. The society is very realistic. It's all about your capability and the way you deal with people!" It served Adonis right because he was petty.

He happened to offend Victor at the most crucial time.

Victor was actually also petty and Adonis had to suffer for two months.

"Humph! There are lesser and lesser people who are selfless and dedicated. On the other hand, there are more and more unbelievable people." Adonis glanced at Lucian and Anson. He was even more disappointed when he saw both of them lowering their heads and did not speak.

"Isn't it just another two months? I believe I would make it through these two months." His face was filled with fighting spirit.

Anson shook his head. That fool was really getting on track.

No wonder he was the busiest among the four of them.

Alas!

Adonis thought he would not be affected by how people look at him as long as he didn't look down on himself. He was way too rational.

"Let's continue eating!" Anson opened another can of beer for Adonis.

Adonis accepted it without any hesitation. The four of them clinked their beer cans and continued to chat and drink.

The next morning, Eden went to work happily.

She felt relieved because she had settled the matters related to her house.

It was true that things would become simpler if one was really committed to it.

The saddest thing for people was that they believed in freedom but they didn't have the courage to break free because they were afraid that there would be no turning back.

"Cyan!"

Myra's voice came from behind Eden suddenly when she reached the elevator.

Eden smiled coldly and did not stop in her tracks.

Chapter 248

Eden had seen Myra from afar when she entered the company.

Myra came here to work just to kill time and to find out her identity.

Eden entered the elevator with confidence when the door of the elevator opened.

Myra looked at Eden's back and saw that she entered the elevator without any hesitation.

The plan that she had come up with the whole night was in vain.

If Eden was really Cyan, she would have stopped subconsciously or done something else when Myra called out to her just now.

However, Eden was indifferent. Could it be that she really was not Cyan?

"What are you doing standing here? We're going to be late." Haven was wearing a white tight-fitting dress and her outfit outlined her tall and slender figure. She walked to Myra's side and spoke.

"I'm waiting for you!" Myra replied with a smile.

Haven didn't believe that Myra would be so kind to wait for her there.

"Let's go!" Haven walked towards the elevator.

She went to great lengths to work there. She had to make it through the three months of probation.

Myra was about to leave when she suddenly saw Riley.

"Riley, why did you come at this time? Eden has already gone up." Myra frowned as she spoke.

Riley was Eden's assistant. Why did she come later than Eden?

Riley glanced at the time on her phone. She looked anxious but she smiled coldly and said, "Don't worry. She dare not to say anything even if I am late." Riley would act arrogant in front of outsiders.

Especially in front of Haven and Myra.

Her family background was not as good as that of the two women. She did not want to lose face in front of them when it came to work.

"Riley, well done. Let's see how long Eden can stay cocky. You have to teach her a lesson." Myra said with a smile. Eden was very arrogant. She would only stop looking down on them if they gave her a hard time.

"Not for long. We'll wait and see!" Riley sneered and brushed her long hair with her hand. Her smile was cold.

She would have the opportunity to be the design director if Eden left.

At that moment, she seemed to have forgotten the things that Eden had told her previously.

"Since when did an assistant become so cocky?" Lucian's voice sounded behind the three women like a ghost.

"Ah..." Riley was shrieked in shock.

"Secretary Ronen, why are you here?" Myra gulped when she saw Lucian's sullen expression.

Did Lucian hear what she said just now?

Lucian who appeared out of nowhere was really annoying.

Lucian glanced at Riley indifferently and said in a light and sarcastic tone, "We are in the Alwynn Group and I am the president's secretary. Why can't I be here?"

Myra had an awkward expression on her face. She felt like an idiot when she was nervous.

She lowered her head and stood aside, not daring to speak.

Riley was so nervous that she broke out in cold sweat.

"Why are all of you standing there?" Victor's cold voice came from behind.

The women immediately stood aside and greeted in unison, "Good morning, Mr. Alwynn!"

Victor nodded without looking at anyone. Hethen entered his exclusive elevator.

Lucian followed him into the elevator.

Riley had no time to speak. When she saw the elevator coming, she quickly entered it without waiting for Myra and Haven.

Haven sneered and said, "Didn't she say that she was not afraid? She ran faster than lightning."

Haven glanced sideways at Myra and said, "It seems like both of you are familiar with each other."

Myra was slightly worried when she heard Haven's words. She was too anxious earlier that she had forgotten that Haven was by her side.

Chapter 249

"We're all working in the same company. How can we not be familiar with each other?" Myra came up with the perfect reason.

Haven glanced at her but did not say anything. She quickly entered the elevator when she saw that it had arrived.

She felt extremely disappointed when she recalled that Victor did not even glance at her a while ago.

When Riley ran to the office with sweat all over her head, Eden had already come out of the office with the documents from the meeting in her hand.

She was accustomed to the routine meetings every morning to understand the daily work progress.

Eden was a gentle and virtuous woman in her normal life.

However, her gaze was cold and she exuded a deadly sharp aura at the company.

She was so cold that no one dared to approach her easily.

"Director Bleu..." Riley looked at Eden nervously.

"We have a meeting." Eden's tone was cold. She passed by Riley and continued to walk forward.

"Director Bleu, I haven't prepared the materials for the meeting." Riley was anxious. She went to a friend's dinner party last night. She came home late and didn't prepare the meeting materials. She planned to prepare it this morning but she came across a traffic jam on the way to work.

Riley felt that she had been very unlucky recently!

Riley turned around and suddenly saw Victor and Lucian who had already walked out of the elevator. Her pupils shrank drastically. When had they been standing there?

Eden who had turned around, did not see Victor and Lucian.

She looked at Riley coldly and said, "Miss Davis, the company has set the time to start work at nine o' clock. You should have reached the office ten minutes earlier to prepare the meeting materials but you told me that you are not ready yet.

You were like that on Friday morning. Today is Monday and you are still the same. In order not to delay everyone's time, I've already sorted out the meeting material myself."

When Eden had finished her words, she turned around and wanted to leave. She looked up and saw Victor and Lucian. She frowned slightly.

When have they arrived? They were here probably when she turned around just now.

She pursed her lips slightly and greeted them.

"Mr. Alwynn, Secretary Ronen, good morning!"

Lucian and Victor nodded.

Eden left directly after that.

Riley was left behind in bewilderment.

She looked at Victor, who was looking at her with a sullen expression.

Her eyes flickered. She lowered her head, not daring to look at Victor who had a sullen expression on his face.

What to do?

She was caught red-handed by Mr. Alwynn this time.

She pursed her lips and gathered the courage to look at Victor. "Mr. Alwynn, I..."

"If you don't want to work, you can go to the personnel department to settle your salary. The company will give you an additional three months' salary." Victor interrupted her in a cold and firm tone.

After that, he walked towards the office.

Riley was anxious when she heard Victor's words. She ran up to Victor and blocked his way.

She explained agitatedly, "Mr. Alwynn, give me another chance. Such a thing will never happen again. I will do my utmost to complete my work."

D*mn Eden. She must have said those words on purpose because she knew that Mr. Alwynn was behind her.

It was obvious that Eden wanted her to have a hard time.

After speaking, Riley turned and left the scene hurriedly.

She knew Victor's tactics very well. Once he had said something, he would not take it back. The only chance was not to give him an opportunity to speak.

Victor looked at Riley's back coldly. "There's still a next time? She really ran away fast."

"She told Myra that she wants to make things difficult for Eden when they were on the first floor a while ago." Lucian would never show mercy to snatch out pretentious women.

Chapter 250

It would be very difficult to establish trust again once it was destroyed.

"No more next time. If there is a next time, let them go to the personnel department directly, get their salary and leave. I need a good working environment for the staff to work here, not a place for them to scheme and gossip." When Victor finished speaking, he strode towards his office.

Lucian made a cup of coffee for Victor and brought it to his office. Victor was very free because he didn't need to hold a meeting today.

After Lucian left, Victor took out his mobile phone. He felt uneasy that Kenny was alone at home.

He dialed Kenneth's number.

Victor had saved the number after Eden used his mobile phone to call Kenny when they were at the hospital previously.

The call was answered after the phone rang three times.

"Hello! Who is this?"

Victor smiled and said, "Kenny, it's me!" "Uncle Victor, how did you get my phone number?" Kenneth suddenly remembered the night Zofia committed suicide. No wonder he felt familiar when he saw the phone number before he answered the call.

"Kenny, i saved your number when your mother called you with my phone previously. What are you doing at home alone?"

Kenneth smiled and said, "Uncle Victor, are you worried about me?"

Victor didn't expect him to say that. "Kenny, I am actually worried. Aren't you afraid to stay at home alone?"

"Uncle Victor, the society is governed by the law. There is nothing to be afraid of."

"What about your breakfast?" Victor was worried about this. After all, Kenny was only six years old.

However, Victor felt that Kenny was more mature than Ricky.

"Uncle Victor, don't worry. I can take care of myself. I am able to cook breakfast for myself. Uncle Victor, all you need to do is to take care of my mother in the company. You don't have to worry about me."

Kenneth's tone was rather serious. He was worried that Eden would be bullied in a new working environment.

"Kenny, you can rest assured that your mother will not be bullied by anyone in the company. How about I come to pick you up and we have dinner together?" Victor had thought of this on his way to work.

Kenneth frowned slightly when he heard that.

Both Haven and Myra were working at the Alwynn Group.

Those two women didn't have good intentions.

Moreover, Victor had been investigating Eden.

The master had already stopped Victor's men from investigating Eden.

Kenny only communicated with Victor because he was curious about Victor's intentions to investigate Eden.

"Uncle Victor, aren't you busy?" Kenneth asked. A flash of meaningful light flashed across his eyes. Victor seemed to care about him.

"I am free. Kenny, I'll come and pick you up! We'll have a meal together." Victor smiled as he spoke. He wanted to communicate more with Kenny in private. He could not meet Ricky because Ricky was very busy. What a pity that Ricky was not here.

"Alright! I'll wait for you downstairs." Kenneth agreed.

Victor suddenly stood up from the chair happily. "Okay! Kenny, you can come downstairs after ten minutes."

Victor grabbed his car key and went out after hanging up the phone.

"Where are you going?" Lucian asked when he saw that Victor was smiling.

Victor replied in a good mood, "Lucian, I'm going out. Don't always keep a straight face. It's bad for your health. You will only have healthy children in the future if you take care of your health."

Victor left with a smile. His usual cold eyes were cunning and glowing at the moment.

That was the first time Lucian had seen Victor like this.

Lucian stared blankly at Victor's back. He was puzzled by Victor's strange behavior.
