

Gluey Love 2411

Chapter 2411

Kenneth still had something very important to deal with. After leaving the design department, he quickly returned to his office and started working again, just so he could get off work on time.

Faith looked at her large office in silence.

How could Raelynn possibly know how to do this?

Raelynn's design had already surpassed hers once, and now it was this dress. If Raelynn succeeded, Kenneth would be more interested in her, and her position in the Alwynn Group would also be in danger.

"Ah..." Faith growled in a low voice.

Why?

Why couldn't things just go her way for once?

Why did she have to enter the Alwynn Group with ulterior motives, and not just be here with pure intentions? She would be able to do things honestly then, but now? She didn't even have the courage to defend herself.

.....

After Raelynn returned to her office, she told Clara to put down her work and the two of them began to get busy.

Clara knew a little about embedding, but under Raelynn's guidance, her skills started shining as well.

Time went by quickly. When an hour had passed, Raelynn had completed the final thread. She looked at Clara and the two of them smiled excitedly.

"Clara, thank you for your hard work. Send the rest of the gold threads back and I'll send the dress down."

"Okay, Rae." Clara was also very tired. When she was focused on one thing, time really did pass quickly, but she was very tired.

Raelynn carefully took the dress and went to the 11th floor.

She was sweating profusely. In order to complete the task in time, she had done her best.

Moreover, she had sent it down personally. She would not take the risk of having someone else sabotage her efforts.

When she entered the elevator, she saw that she was covered in sweat from the reflection in the mirror. Her hair was clumped together, and she did not look put together.

The elevator soon reached the 11th floor. Raelynn had been here before, but she was not very familiar with her surroundings. However, as soon as she stepped out of the elevator, she saw Margery chatting with the model in the hall.

"Miss Hubbard."

Margery turned to look at her. When she saw the red dress in her hand, she looked at Raelynn and asked, "Is it ready?"

Raelynn nodded. "Yes, Miss Hubbard."

Margery was slightly surprised as she asked, "What's your name?"

"Raelynn."

"Raelynn?"

"Yes."

Margery looked at her with a smile. "I seem to have heard this name a lot in the past two days."

Raelynn remained silent. Why? Was she very famous?

Raelynn lowered her head and did not answer. No excuses could change the rumors in the company.

There were many rumors about her and Kenneth.

Margery took the dress and checked it carefully. "Well! Not bad. This technique is more proficient than that made by Faith. But compared with Eden, who has been working for decades, your technique is still lacking. When Eden returns, you can visit her in Dragon City Villa. She will be very willing to teach you."

"Okay, thank you for your recommendation, Miss Hubbard." Raelynn was very excited. As long as Miss Hubbard was satisfied, she would be very happy.

"Well! A good designer, pursuing perfect craftsmanship. I've seen your designs. It's very good. Come on." Margery looked at her with a faint smile.

Raelynn smiled and nodded. "Miss Hubbard, I will work hard."

"Okay! You can go back. I'll call Kenny later. I'm very satisfied with the clothes." Margery headed over to the shooting site with the dress.

Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief, smiled, and turned back to the 24th floor.

As soon as she got out of the elevator, she saw Faith.

The way Faith looked at her was very scary, as if she wanted to kill her.

Raelynn pursed her lips. "Miss Mason."

"Are you proud?" Faith sneered.

"Why should I be proud?" Raelynn didn't quite understand what she meant. "Miss Mason, I'm doing my best in the company. Why would you say that I'm proud? In the art industry, everyone has their own unique aspects. Everyone's designs have their own merits. I don't intend to take the credit from you. And isn't your hand in pain? I was just helping you out." Raelynn knew what Faith was talking about. She didn't really care, because no matter what, Faith would treat her as an enemy.

"So do I have to thank you?" Faith asked with a sneer.

"No need, Miss Mason. Have a good rest if your hand hurts. I'll head back to the office first." Raelynn did not want to say anything more to her.

When she was about to leave, Faith suddenly turned around and looked at her back, saying, "Raelynn, I hope you can have good luck for your whole life."

Raelynn did not look back. She just smiled and replied, "Thank you, Miss Mason. I believe that as long as I am kind enough, luck will stand on my side."

After that, she walked gracefully toward the office.

Faith bit her lower lip hard. Even if she was unhappy about it, she couldn't turn back time.

If she could do it again, she would definitely check the dress carefully. She would never have given Raelynn such an opportunity.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

In his office, Kenneth had received a call from Margery.

She said that she was very satisfied with the dress, which made him very happy.

After hanging up the phone, he immediately gave Raelynn a call.

When Raelynn returned to her office, Clara had already prepared tea for her. As soon as she picked it up and took a sip, she saw Kenneth calling her.

Raelynn smiled and asked, "What's wrong? It's almost time to get off work."

Kenneth praised, "Rae, you did great. Is your injured hand still hurt?"

He was worried about her.

Raelynn glanced at her fingers and said with a smile, "The medicine you gave me was very effective. It's already started scabbing and doesn't hurt at all."

Kenneth replied, "Okay. Head to the garage and wait for me. I'll go down soon."

Raelynn suddenly thought of what she heard in the bathroom. She narrowed her eyes and said, "I'll wait for you in the vegetable market near the apartment. You drive the car back. I'll wait for you at the gate of the market."

Kenneth raised an eyebrow slightly and asked with a smile, "Why?"

Raelynn insisted, "You have to listen to me. Don't ask why. I'm doing this for you to reduce the unnecessary trouble that might potentially arise."

Kenneth smiled and said, "That's not necessary. You don't have to trouble yourself for me."

Raelynn retorted, "That won't do. You are my boyfriend, and I am a responsible girlfriend."

"Haha..." Kenneth smiled. "Okay, girlfriend. See you at the market gate."

After hanging up the phone, Clara looked at her with a mischievous smile. "A man and a woman in love are so terrifying, one hour of not meeting each other feels like a decade. How envious I am."

Raelynn smiled and did not answer.

"Clara, have you finished your work today? We can't let anyone else undermine us."

Clara nodded. "Rae, don't worry. I'm also very serious about my work. I've completed all of my work today."

"Clara, let's get ready to get off work."

Raelynn got up and was ready to pack up and get off work.

Chapter 2412

When Raelynn and Clara arrived at the first floor and went their separate ways.

Raelynn couldn't help but turn around and look behind her. Indeed, there was a suspicious figure following her.

It was rush hour and there were many people around. The girl had on a white jacket, shades and a mask. Her actions were out of place, and her suspicious actions immediately caught Raelynn's attention. She was the girl who was going to follow Raelynn.

Raelynn walked to the bus stop, but her eyes were fixed on the taxi on the road. She was lucky and soon managed to flag down a taxi by the road. After getting in the car, she asked the driver to drive.

The girl behind her thought that Raelynn would wait for the bus, but Raelynn was very cunning. She actually stopped a taxi a few meters away from the bus stop and left.

At the rush hour of work, there were no taxis even after waiting for a few minutes.

By the time a taxi arrived, Raelynn had already disappeared.

She could only stamp her feet in frustration.

She cursed Raelynn for being a cunning fox in her heart.

How could she have known that Raelynn had already figured out her true intentions?

Kenneth soon got off from work and made Luke get the car. He waited downstairs, but he ran into Isla, who was in a wheelchair.

"Kenny." Isla was very happy to see him. She had been waiting for him at the elevator entrance.

Kenneth looked at her with a slight frown. The displeasure on his face was obvious. "Why are you here?"

Although Isla's foot was injured, she was still dressed in a gentle and virtuous manner. Her smile was bright and moving. "Kenny, I'm going for a walk nearby. After passing through the Alwynn Group, I want to go back with Kenny."

She had come here on purpose to wait for him. If he didn't plan to go home, she would have had no chance of bumping into him.

She had managed to stay at his place after all those sacrifices. She couldn't fail.

Kenneth said coldly, "I won't be heading back, you can head home first."

"Kenny, where are you going? Is it because I'm staying at your house that you don't want to go home?" The more she talked, the more aggrieved she felt. She started to get teary.

"If that is true, I will leave, Kenny."

He replied expressionlessly, "Whatever!" before he strode off.

"Kenny, I'll wait for you to go home for dinner tonight, okay?" Isla shouted after him.

However, he acted as if he did not hear her and walked away.

Isla pursed her lips and looked in the direction that Kenneth had left. She was very angry. Why had she come to him in person and why didn't he go home with her?

In his eyes, what was she?

She had loved him for so many years and had put in so much effort. How could she be willing to give up like this?

No, she would not give up.

In the corner, Faith saw what had just happened clearly.

She suddenly smiled, but she was also very jealous that this woman actually lived in Kenneth's house.

This woman was not as beautiful as a flower. She was as shy as a flower. Among all the women, she was just an ordinary one.

To think that she could live in Kenneth's house. That way, her chances would be higher than Raelynn's.

She could make Raelynn and this woman fight.

And she could benefit from it.

Faith watched as Kenneth began to leave. A vicious smile flashed across her face.

A middle-aged woman pushed Isla out.

She deliberately took out her phone and pretended to be on the phone as she walked.

"Hey, Angeline, let me tell you a secret. Do you know Mr. Kenneth? He has a girlfriend. So don't dream about it anymore."

At this moment, Isla had just left the building. Faith took a step forward and was one step ahead of Isla.

It just so happened that Isla could hear what she was saying.

"Oh, don't cry. He has someone he likes. You should bless them. Why are you so depressed?"

"Okay, okay, fine, I'll stop talking. The girl Mr. Kenneth likes has shiny white teeth, and she's warm and gentle. Not only that, she's smart and knowledgeable as well, you're no competition for her."

"Well, I'm hanging up."

Faith hung up deliberately and looked at her phone with a smile.

Then, she naturally put the phone in her bag and continued to walk forward.

"Miss, wait a minute!"

Hearing the voice behind her, Faith smiled proudly. She had taken the bait.

She slowly turned to look at Isla and asked, "Miss, are you talking to me?"

"Yes." Isla asked the servant to push her over.

She looked at Faith and asked, "I just heard from you that the president of your company has a girlfriend. Is your president Kenneth?"

Faith nodded with a smile. "There seems to be only one president in the Alwynn Group."

Isla pursed her lips and gently bit her inner flesh with her teeth. There was a slight pain.

She looked at Faith in front of her, who was also very beautiful and elegant.

The Alwynn Group never lacked beautiful women, and there were many models.

"Then, may I ask who his girlfriend is?" It couldn't possibly be Raelynn, it was impossible.

Raelynn was not worthy of him.

Faith replied with a smile, "Raelynn from the design department is a very beautiful woman. She is extremely beautiful and graceful. Many boys in our company like her."

After saying that, Faith left in a good mood.

Isla's face paled. It was really her.

Isla looked at the orange sunset in the distance and was about to lose her mind. Kenneth was serious about Raelynn.

She held the edge of the wheelchair tightly with both hands. What should she do? She had followed after him for thousands of miles, just for him. Now that her hope had been destroyed, what else could she do?

No, she still had a chance. As long as Kenneth hadn't married her, she would have a chance.

After a while, she said to the maid, "Let's go back to the Dragon villa."

As long as Kenneth did not chase her out, her family would not leave the Alwynn family.

There would always be a chance.

It seemed that she had to thoroughly investigate Raelynn.

She should find something for Raelynn to do.

At the entrance of the vegetable market, Kenneth looked at Raelynn, who was standing in the crowd. She looked beautiful, and the smile on her face was dazzling.

So this was what having a girlfriend felt like.

In the past, he only felt that work was the most interesting thing in his life.

Right then, he had completely changed his mind.

In his life, the happiest thing was to have a companion.

Just like his father, he knew very well what to do with love. Ten years was like a day, and few men could do it.

His father and several uncles had done it.

"Have you been waiting for a long time?" he asked in a low voice. His voice was pleasant to the ears.

When Raelynn heard his voice, she immediately felt relaxed.

"No, I've only just arrived. Let's go shopping first." Raelynn led him inside.

However, Kenneth glanced at her hands before holding them.

"There are so many people. I'll hold your hands." He found an excuse that even he himself did not believe.

Raelynn smiled and did not expose him.

On the other side, Isla went back to her room after returning to Dragon Villa. She then started looking up Raelynn's information.

Chapter 2413

However, to Isla's disappointment, after searching for a long time, she found that Raelynn's background was clean. She had been academically outstanding ever since she was a child.

Her only weakness was that she was adopted, and ended up being abandoned. Her adoptive parents had gone bankrupt a few days ago, and her elder brother had gone to jail.

Moreover, her younger brother had been fired from a car workshop.

Her mother's identity was unknown!

Isla narrowed her eyes. How could a person be clean?

No, it was impossible. There must be some secrets that no one knew.

Oh, her adoptive parents.

Isla decided to meet her adoptive parents. She would definitely find something out.

Unwilling to give up, Isla continued to investigate. If only she hadn't continued to investigate.

Before this, she had thought that she was better than Raelynn.

Only now did she realize that Raelynn's grades had been outstanding ever since she was a child. Isla herself was smart too, and she had learnt many things from being a hacker. Although she wasn't as smart as Kenneth nor Nathaniel, of course.

Apart from that, she was still remarkable.

However, she wasn't ideal in all other aspects.

She could only do one thing at a time, she couldn't be the best in everything.

However, Raelynn was outstanding in all aspects, which made Isla feel jealous.

At this time, Kenneth and Raelynn had already finished grocery shopping.

Looking at the pork ribs in his hand, Raelynn smiled and said, "Kenneth, eating fried pork ribs isn't that healthy. Let's go buy some medicine later and make some tea."

Kenneth looked at her in surprise. "Rae, do you know how to make herbal tea?"

Raelynn raised an eyebrow as she looked at him with a proud smile. "Yes, it's delicious. It's my secret formula."

"Got it. But from today onwards, it may not be a secret anymore, because I have a photographic memory."

"Wow! Really? According to the rumors, you are omnipotent. Now that I've heard you say that you have a good memory, I finally believe that there is such a person in the world." She had a good memory, but she didn't have a photographic memory.

Kenneth stared at her as he asked with a smile, "How many rumors did you hear about me?"

Raelynn thought for a moment before she answered, "There are many versions. Which one do you want to listen to?"

Kenneth raised his eyebrows. Were there really so many rumors about him?

"Say whichever you want."

"Haha... There's a lot. According to the rumors, you're cold and distant, no matter who you were talking to. When I first met you, you did give me that feeling. Besides that, you're even more powerful than your father, and it's true as well. The company is doing very well."

Kenneth's expression suddenly darkened. "I'm not as decisive as my father. My father is worse than me when it comes to ruthlessness. I even let you be bullied in the company's canteen. I suspect that the woman was acting under someone's orders. Luke is investigating and will find out about it soon."

"Oh!" Raelynn had never thought about this.

She didn't expect someone to do this behind her back.

Who could it be?

The people who had recently been hostile to her were Isla and Faith, as well as Magnolia.

Raelynn said, "If you find out, tell me. I wouldn't just take it."

Their goal was to ruin her reputation.

So that she couldn't marry Kenneth.

"Okay! There will be news soon. Let's go home and make dinner first." Kenneth took her out of the market.

They went back home to make dinner together.

At seven o'clock in the evening, the two finished dinner and went to the shopping mall downstairs for a walk. Raelynn was feeling a little full. After walking for half an hour, her stomach was empty again.

At the same time, Kenneth received a message from Luke.

After reading it, it was almost as he had guessed.

He glanced at the girl next to him, then at the milk tea shop not far away, and said, "Rae, I'll buy you milk tea."

Moments ago, he saw a boy buy a cup of milk tea for his girlfriend. The girl smiled happily.

"Okay!" Raelynn also noticed the milk tea shop not far away.

There were many couples buying milk tea.

The two of them walked over. Kenneth glanced at the variety on the milk tea list. He rarely drank this, so he didn't know which one was good.

"Rae, what flavor do you like?"

His voice was always pleasant to listen to, so gentle that it made her heart tremble. It was like a breeze, comfortable and fascinating.

Raelynn pointed to the grass jelly milk tea. "That one!"

Kenneth then turned to the waiter and ordered.

It was rare for the waiter to see such a handsome man. She kept her best smile and asked, "Do you want to add ice cubes?"

Kenneth looked at Raelynn again.

"Do you want it cold? It's not good for your health."

Raelynn didn't expect him to be so attentive, but she liked having it cold.

"Then I'll have it slightly iced. The weather is so hot now, it shouldn't really be a problem."

He couldn't refuse her request, not to mention that she had suffered a lot in the cafeteria because of him.

He couldn't bear to see the people he cared about be bullied.

Kenneth looked at the waiter and said, "Don't put too much ice on it."

"Okay, sir. 12 dollars in total!"

Kenneth took out his phone and was about to pay.

Raelynn asked with a smile, "Don't you want to have it with me? Look at those couples. Each of them has a cup of milk tea in their hands. I think we would feel happier if we had it together."

"Really? Let me order one as well." He had never been in a relationship, so he did not know how romantic it was.

Raelynn looked at the list and picked one for him. "Have the mango pomelo sago one. It's good, I've had it before."

Kenneth nodded with a smile. "Okay, I'll listen to you."

"Haha..." Raelynn smiled happily and held his arm.

Seeing her taking the initiative, Kenneth lowered her head and looked down. He couldn't help but smile.

The moment her arm touched his arm, the soft touch, as well as the faint fragrance from her body, seemed to have hit his chest hard. The voice was very clear and subtle, making his heart tremble slightly. There was a kind of joy that he had never experienced before that gradually spread throughout his whole body.

When he received the milk tea, he carefully picked it up for Raelynn and examined it before handing it to her to drink.

"Thank you!" Raelynn smiled and did not let him go.

What should he do?

The closer she was to him, the happier she felt.

He was careful in everything he did for her, and he was serious about it too.

The more she interacted with him, the less she wanted to leave him. Since she could not leave him, she would never leave him.

"Is it good?" Raelynn asked with a smile as she watched Kenneth take a sip of milk tea.

He probably rarely had this.

The flavor she picked for him was good.

Kenneth looked at the milk tea in his hand in surprise. It was indeed good.

"It's delicious. It's my first time drinking it. Gia and my mom like milk tea very much. I'll refuse every time they ask me to try it."

"Seven." Behind them, Nathaniel suddenly called out to them.

Chapter 2414

Kenneth and Raelynn looked back and saw Nathaniel standing behind them.

Under the flashing neon, he wore a white casual shirt, beige pants, and white shoes. He looked elegant and charming.

However, the way he was eyeing them was a little weird.

"Nathaniel, why are you here?" Kenneth asked.

Nathaniel glanced at Raelynn and then at him. The look in his eyes was clearly telling Kenneth that he did not like Raelynn very much.

Nathaniel walked over to the two of them and said with a smile, "Isla said that you haven't returned home recently, so I thought you were here and came to see you. I didn't expect to meet you here."

"What's wrong? Did Raelynn know that Isla lived in the Dragon City Villa and not allow you to go home?" Nathaniel's words were very direct, and he looked at Raelynn with disdain.

Raelynn did not avoid his contemptuous and contemptuous gaze. She felt that she would definitely be the one to take the blame. After all, she was Kenneth's girlfriend.

"Why do you have to say that?" Kenneth returned. "Did Isla say that to you?"

Nathaniel smiled and said, "Isla is a reasonable girl. She won't say that."

Of course, even if Isla had said so, he would not have told her that it was Isla who had told him that.

Isla called him, feeling wronged. She told him that since she moved in, he had never returned home.

If Seven didn't go back, how could he develop feelings with Isla?

Kenneth said, "I think you're blind. To me, Isla is just a stranger. Although I often see her, the two of us haven't spoken much. You know that this is for the best. It's not that I don't want to talk, but that we have nothing to say to each other. Do you think we can be together like this?"

"So, you don't have to talk about Rae like that. The woman I like has done nothing wrong, and she's kind, so she would never do something like this. It was me who made the decision to live in the condo myself as I've been busy at the company lately, it's too far to travel to and from Dragon Villa."

More importantly, he could date Rae here and would not be disturbed by anyone.

Nathaniel laughed as he looked at Kenneth. "Seven, are you defending Rae? Are you saying that Isla is unkind? Seven, you've known her for seven years, don't you know what she feels for you?"

"She had come to River City to see you at all costs for you. Can't you understand her sincere heart?"

Kenneth replied, "No."

Nathaniel fell speechless.

"Nathaniel, you can leave. You don't have to worry about me. I'll tell you once again that Raelynn is mine. If any one of you tries to do something to her, don't blame me for turning against you."

Nathaniel sneered as he looked at Raelynn. "Raelynn, you really have some tricks up your sleeve. Seven has lost his mind because of you, and now he can't even tell right from wrong. I won't be fooled by you. I've met more women than you've had meals, so you better be careful."

After that, he turned around and left.

Raelynn was speechless. Well, she was his girlfriend, of course they would blame her.

"Mr. Bennet, this is also the first time I've seen someone like you who doesn't differentiate right from wrong."

Nathaniel sneered and continued walking forward without looking back.

"Rae, ignore what he said. Nathaniel has been blinded."

Raelynn answered, "I know. It doesn't matter what others think of me. What matters is what kind of person I am in your heart. As long as you believe me, that's enough."

In the future, they would also be living their own lives. It had nothing to do with others.

Others could only see the surface, but could not see the process of them falling in love.

Therefore, she did not care much about Nathaniel's words.

Kenneth stared at her deeply. "I believe you!"

He trusted her unconditionally because she had not done anything wrong.

She could tell what was on Isla's mind.

"Let's go. Let's hang around for a while longer. I'll send you home." Kenneth held her hand.

Raelynn lowered her eyes shyly and took a sip of her milk tea. The strong fragrance filled her mouth and she closed her eyes in enjoyment.

"Kenneth, let's go out on the weekends, I want to have a real date with you!" She had decided to live the rest of her life with him.

Kenneth replied, "I'll try my best to let Luke spare some time for the weekend. I also want to go on a date."

For the sake of love, Gia and Ricky had been hurt to different degrees.

With the lesson he had learned before, he would definitely be careful to make his love this time successful. They would not have to go through all kinds of ups and downs like them to get together.

A peaceful relationship was also filled with love, there was no need to hurt each other.

"Okay!" Raelynn smiled and asked, "Will it affect your work?"

"Before I met you, I've always thought that dating was boring, but now I don't anymore," Kenneth replied.

"Really? I used to think the same way as you did when I was in school. My life was very boring, I was either studying in school or working part-time. I've never thought of having a relationship. My adoptive father had arranged a boyfriend for me. I've only met him two or three times, and I usually don't contact him. Maybe it's because I'm too boring, he didn't like me."

Kenneth suddenly paused, and his expression darkened.

"Why are you still thinking about him? Stop thinking about him." His tone was very domineering.

Raelynn's beautiful face was full of laughter. "When did I think of him? I was just telling you about my life experience. When I was abroad, I didn't meet any boy who moved me, so I made two foreign girls friends. After returning to China, I only occasionally contacted them."

"By the way, is the management of the elite university very strict?"

Kenneth shook his head slightly. "No, not after I got into college. We can study on our own. We've been doing business from the very beginning. I started my own business when I was very young. I took on some jobs online and made quite a lot of money."

"My mother had always worried about me."

Raelynn smiled and said, "It's really rare for you to be so self-disciplined and hard-working when you were born in such a rich family like this."

"In my impression, the rich sons I've met were all like the kind of people like James."

She had had a headache the moment she saw James. Of course, she had never been this way.

She also believed that there were good people in the world, and there were more good people than bad people.

After Nathaniel left, he drove straight back to his residence.

Chapter 2415

Nathaniel and Austin had known each other since they were young, and had remained close friends.

However, as the both of them liked to drink, they did not stay together.

They lived in their own separate condos, both with the same gray and white interior.

However, it was not as neat and clean as Kenneth's.

He took out his phone and called Isla.

"Heady! Nathaniel." Isla's tone was soft and cute, and she sounded a little wronged.

Nathaniel smiled and said, "Isla, stay at Seven's house. He has been working overtime recently. You don't have to worry."

"Nathaniel, is it because of me that Kenny wouldn't come home? Should I move out?" Isla's words were choked with sobs, but there was a smile on her face.

"Isla, it's not like that. Don't overthink it and stop worrying. Seven's parents will return next month. By then, you should get along well with them. As long as they like you, things will be much easier."

Nathaniel thought that Isla should be able to understand what he meant.

If Seven really wanted to get married and have children, in his opinion, Isla was very suitable for him.

As for Raelynn, she was a girl who had nothing. She even had to rely on Kenneth for her younger brother's job. Someone like her could only be a burden to him and offer nothing of help, and she might even drag him down.

He would never allow such a thing to happen.

"Nathaniel, I understand. Thank you so much for always taking care of me."

Isla was in a much better mood. She was no longer feeling down.

She would stay here forever, and she didn't believe that Kenneth would stay away from home forever.

However, she did not stay idle. She called her friends abroad and asked them to spread some rumors about Raelynn.

After receiving her friends' approval, she smiled eerily. Raelynn would always be someone beneath her, and she would make sure Raelynn understood that.

Kenneth had something to tell Raelynn, so he took her back to the apartment.

Raelynn thought for a moment and thought that she should tell him about Faith.

She did not want her to hurt him.

The two of them sat on the sofa. Kenneth sat next to her and hugged her tightly with both hands. Smelling the familiar scent of her body, he was in a good mood. He suddenly had the thought to hold her tightly for the rest of his life.

"Rae, about the incident in the canteen. The girl who was provoking you is named Yannah Evenbrace, and Luke had found the chat history between her and Faith. Faith was the one behind it all, and I suspect that she has ulterior motives..."

"She does." Raelynn interrupted him as she caressed his face.

"Yeah?" Kenneth did not stop her actions.

On the contrary, he liked her taking the initiative to approach him.

He liked everything about her.

He just suddenly thought of that.

"Do you remember when you called me today but I didn't answer? I was in the washroom at that time, and Faith was calling someone else whom she addressed as 'president'..."

Raelynn told Kenneth about everything that had happened today.

After listening to her words, it did not seem like he was too surprised. On the contrary, it was as if he had already expected it.

During this period of contact, he found that Faith's talent was not as good as when she first applied.

She seemed to have been very clear about the recruitment process of the Alwynn Group. At that time, he desperately needed a good director for the department, so that his mother, who had worked hard for many years, could have a good rest.

Meanwhile, Faith was the most outstanding designer among all the designers.

She had worked as a design director in a well-known international clothing company abroad.

He secretly checked and found her previous company.

Moreover, she had brought the resignation certificate from her old company. He firmly believed that now, there was a big company behind her to support her and to help her on her journey.

It seemed that whoever was behind it had already had their eyes on him for a very long time, but only he was oblivious to it.

Something as intricately planned as this had actually managed to fool him.

"Rae, I won't fire Faith for the time being. I must find out who the company behind her is and what they're up to."

Raelynn didn't know what was going on. She understood what he meant as soon as he said that.

"Are you afraid that I'll suffer?" she asked with a smile.

Kenneth nodded.

Raelynn smiled and answered, "A fool won't be able to hurt me. It's not easy for Faith to make things difficult for me. Don't worry, I won't just take it."

She wasn't someone whom others could take advantage of.

Kenneth smiled and kissed her ear. He ignored his increasing heartbeat and said, "Rae, let me take you home."

Raelynn's body tensed up and bit down on her lips. His kiss had made her feel extremely sensitive.

.....

The next day, when Faith noticed the rumors about Raelynn, she smiled. Isla was already on the move.

Isla, Kenneth's junior, wasn't particularly close to him. She would leave after staying in River City for a while.

Faith did not view her as a competition.

However, Raelynn was the only one whom he treated differently.

He had taken the initiative to kiss Raelynn, which almost drove her crazy.

As soon as Raelynn arrived at her office, Clara turned to her anxiously. "Rae, have you seen the news?"

Raelynn asked, "What news?"

Raelynn thought to herself that no matter how big the news was, it had nothing to do with her.

As a commoner, she only cared about her own life.

"Rae, rumor has it that in order to marry a rich man, you were willing to sacrifice your own brother into prison. Not only that, you didn't even care about your adoptive parents, and Rory even recorded a video claiming that you were an ungrateful child, that you would do anything to marry someone rich... Well, there's a lot more, I wonder who hates you this much?"

Clara was angered at the fact that the people who spread these rumors didn't even know Raelynn's true character.

Raelynn was shocked. "Huh! Clara, I never imagined that I would be on the news one day. Am I really that important?"

Clara was taken aback as her eyes widened. "Rae, do you still have the mood to joke around?"

Raelynn smiled and didn't care at all. "Why not, Clara? It's obvious that they're just jealous of me."

"That's right, but you can't be so careless. You must find out who was behind it."

Raelynn bit her lips. It was either Isla or Faith. She couldn't think of anyone else other than these two people.

In this way, her family background was also exposed.

People gradually started to gather around Raelynn's office.

Chapter 2416

Raelynn glanced at the door and her beautiful eyes flashed.

Clara noticed it as well. She whispered, "These b*tches are all here to join in the fun. I bet they're waiting for you to embarrass yourself."

Clara was fuming. She knew that there were many things going on inside this company, especially when the CEO was a smart and handsome young man.

Everyone here was cunning and had their own intentions.

Raelynn smiled and said, "Don't worry about them. They can say whatever they want to say."

"Some rumors get out of hand. When others have already decided to believe in the rumors, they wouldn't believe me no matter what I say. I'd rather just stay silent and do my own job."

"You've always been so kind." Clara had no choice but to start preparing for the meeting later in the morning.

There were still many things to do after the meeting.

She had never been this busy back in her old company, but after she started working for the Alwynn Group, she felt that everything had changed. There were new challenges every day and it was very fulfilling, life wasn't boring anymore.

In Kenneth's office on the 25th floor.

Kenneth saw the news about Raelynn.

"Raelynn is an ungrateful child."

"Raelynn is a shameless bitch."

"Raelynn is too ambitious for her own good."

"Raelynn is a seductive witch."

"In order to join a rich and powerful family, she framed her brother and put him in prison."

Rory had even filmed a video, so someone had obviously gone to her.

All kinds of insults made him feel like he was about to burst.

Luke stood by him patiently. He cursed internally. It had only been one single night, why had things changed so fast?

"Mr. Kenneth, I'm going to investigate this matter now."

With a sullen expression, Kenneth answered, "No need. I'll do it myself."

"You can attend the morning meeting today." Luke had been with him for many years. If Kenneth himself couldn't attend the meeting, Luke could go on his behalf.

"Okay, Mr. Kenneth." Luke then left.

He suddenly felt a little worried for whoever was behind this. Kenneth was ruthless.

Kenneth turned on his laptop and three minutes later, he had already found the address. He then proceeded to delete all the rumors circulating online.

Then, he called Nathaniel angrily.

"Hello." Obviously, he was still asleep as his voice was muffled.

"Nathaniel, I never thought that you were such a lowly person." Kenneth's words were as cold as ice, and even through the phone, Nathaniel could feel it.

He immediately woke up.

He sat up from his bed, his blanket kicked down onto the ground.

"Seven, what are you talking about?"

"Nathaniel, I've found the address. It originated from the computer at your house abroad. I know that you dislike Rae, but you shouldn't have insulted her like this, and you shouldn't have exposed her like that online. Now everyone is bashing her on the internet. You didn't even know the truth behind what happened in the past. She's just an ordinary girl, why would you do this to her?"

"I told you last night that if you dare to touch her, don't blame me for being ruthless."

Kenneth meant every word he said.

"Hey, hey, hey, Seven, who told you that? Raelynn? What did I do to make you talk to me, your brother who has been here for you for more than ten years, like this in the morning?"

"Raelynn has seduced you so much that you've lost your mind. You're talking so much sh*t in the morning."

"She must be jumping with joy now that she's ruined our friendship for over ten years."

"Also, Seven, I'm begging you to look at things clearly. Only a few hours had passed since we last met, but Raelynn has influenced you so much that you already view me as an enemy now."

"Seven, I advise you to be sober. Otherwise, your Alwynn family will be destroyed by that scheming woman..."

Nathaniel blabbered on.

The more Kenneth listened, the deeper he frowned.

After hearing Nathaniel's words, he replied blandly, "Nathaniel, you are the one who made a mistake. If you aren't deaf, you should've been able to hear me clearly. I was the one who found out your address, you're the one who spread her rumors online to make everyone bash her."

"Rae did not do anything to break our friendship, stop jumping to conclusions."

Nathaniel fell speechless. What was Kenneth talking about this early in the morning?

"Seven, how could I ever do such a thing? Oh, Raelynn really is smart. She's managed to frame me with something like this, what a terrifying woman." Nathaniel muttered as she walked over to his desk. As soon as he turned on his laptop, he saw the news about Raelynn.

Kenneth had sent him everything.

As Nathaniel read everything, he felt his heartbeat increasing in fear. No matter how much he hated someone, he would never do something like this.

Moreover, Raelynn was a girl.

"Seven, I don't care what you say. I did not do this. Shouldn't you ask Raelynn about it yourself? Maybe she's some expert who fooled us both."

"It's not like you've just only met me. No matter how much I hate her, I wouldn't do something like this to her. I will be open about it, I'll take revenge right in front of her eyes."

"Seems like you're still not awake. When you can think clearly, come explain to me yourself."

After saying that, he hung up the phone.

After he ended the call, Kenneth fell deep into thought. As Nathaniel had said, he knew Nathaniel, Austin, and Carson's personality well.

Nathaniel usually wouldn't do such despicable things, and he had already warned him last night.

He would not just ignore their friendship.

Who could it be?

Why did he have to use Nathaniel's foreign address to do this?

Austin, Isla, and Faith.

Austin couldn't have done it, he had been busy recently.

It was either Faith or Isla.

As he counted the odds, Isla seemed the most likely to have done this.

If it really was her, then she would've hidden everything well. She knew how powerful he was, so she must have prepared well.

Therefore, she had deliberately tripped Raelynn over last time only after making sure that there were no security cameras around.

A sharp light flashed across Kenneth's eyes. He would make her learn her lesson as she had dared to plot something like this in his own house. He would make sure that she would remember what the consequences were if she messed with him.

He narrowed his eyes as he stared at the screen of his laptop. He was trying to find the loophole.

He started typing away on his laptop.

Just then, Nathaniel gave Isla a call.

This was well within her expectations.

Her friend had been very supportive. As soon as Isla woke up in the morning, she had seen everything.

Chapter 2417

Isla had a clear purpose, and she knew what Nathaniel was like.

As long as he was prejudiced against someone, it would be hard for him to change his mind.

It was his stubborn character that gave her an opportunity.

She wanted Nathaniel to despise Raelynn and think that she was an extremely cunning woman. She wanted him to think that Raelynn would be a huge burden on Kenny.

She wanted him to think that Raelynn would ruin Kenny's life, and as his best friend, Nathaniel definitely wouldn't just let her be.

The more Nathaniel hated Raelynn, the more he would help her.

"Nathaniel, why are you calling me so early? I just got up and haven't even brushed my teeth. I have nothing to do now. I'm lazy."

Nathaniel suppressed the anger in his heart as he said, "Isla, you can rest well now since you're not working. When you start working again, there will be a lot for you to do, and you won't have time to rest."

"I called you to tell you that Seven will definitely marry you. You don't have to worry about it. It's only Raelynn, it's not a big deal."

Raelynn was such a scheming woman. How could he let her marry Seven and let him be bewitched by her?

Isla pretended to be worried as she said, "Nathaniel, you don't have to do this for us. I would feel sad if this affects your friendship with him. At the end of the day, a relationship is based on mutual interest. If Kenny doesn't like me, I can't do anything too."

Nathaniel reassured her, "Isla, no, you've done very well. Continue to work hard, okay? I'll help you."

"I understand, Nathaniel. It's because I didn't do well enough that Kenny doesn't like me. I will work harder in the future."

Nathaniel's heart ached when he heard this.

"Isla, you are too kind. You don't have to worry about this. Rest assured that I will come visit you in a few days."

"Okay, Nathaniel, but you can't be too impulsive. Take your meals on time and rest well."

"Hehe..." Nathaniel smiled and said in a doting tone, "I don't know what Seven is thinking, but he just wants to spoil other women instead of a kind girl like you. You don't have to worry, Seven will be yours sooner or later." As long as he was there, he would never let Raelynn marry Kenneth.

"Nathaniel..." Isla complained.

After hanging up the phone, he went for a shower before heading to the Alwynn Group.

Meanwhile, when Raelynn and Clara returned from their meeting, all the news about Raelynn was gone.

Clara looked at her in surprise. "Rae, there's nothing here anymore."

Raelynn didn't seem too surprised.

When she came out of the meeting room, she had received a message from Kenneth. He had already dealt with everything on the Internet.

Even if he didn't handle it, she wouldn't worry about it anyway.

If Kenneth cared so much about what others thought of her, Raelynn would be nothing to him.

She was neither a celebrity nor a famous designer.

Whoever was behind this had a clear intention. They wanted the women in Alwynn Group to attack her, to make her the joke of the company.

However, no matter what their purpose was, as long as Kenneth believed in her, nothing would affect her.

One had to lose something in order to gain something, they couldn't have it all.

Was it possible to have everything one wanted?

It was impossible!

No matter if it was Faith or Isla, they were nothing in Kenneth's eyes.

At one o'clock in the afternoon, Nathaniel arrived at Kenneth's office.

Luke knew that Raelynn's incident had something to do with Nathaniel. After sending a cup of coffee in, he left. Now that Kenneth had found out about what had happened it seemed like the office would be a mess.

Seeing that Nathaniel had arrived, Kenneth put aside his work.

Nathaniel was extremely stubborn. If someone left him with a terrible first impression, then his impression of them would only grow worse, never better.

"What are you doing here?" There was a hint of impatience in Kenneth's voice.

He knew that there was no use talking to Nathaniel.

There was no point in arguing.

Nathaniel sat down elegantly, crossed his long legs slowly, and looked up at him with a smile. "I'm here to wake you up."

Kenneth's expression darkened. "No need. We shouldn't talk about it now."

Nathaniel smiled as he insisted, "We should."

"Your stubbornness has made you incredibly dumb, so we shouldn't talk about it."

Nathaniel smiled as he continued, "Seven, you've been to an Elite Academy and come into contact with many things that others couldn't even dream to touch. What you work hard for is the most valuable, purest things and people in your life. But now, you're almost at the bottom of the abyss. Do you even have a future?"

Kenneth knew that Nathaniel was here to lecture him.

"You don't have to judge what I do, but take a look at yourself first."

"The address is your place from abroad, if it wasn't you, then who else would it be?"

"Raelynn." Nathaniel firmly believed in his own thoughts.

Kenneth asked, "Why would she do that?"

Nathaniel answered, "Because I opposed you being together and wanted you and Isla together. She hated you so much that she framed me."

"Don't forget. Last time in your garden, she deliberately pushed Isla down the steps but insisted that Isla fell down herself. You were there to witness everything. All of us know just how cunning Raelynn is, only you don't."

"Is Isla someone that vicious? Would she have injured herself that badly?"

"Yes!" Kenneth replied firmly.

Nathaniel fell silent.

"Why?"

Kenneth answered, "To stay in Dragon Villa."

Nathaniel rubbed his nose. He seemed unable to refute this reason.

Indeed, Isla wanted to stay in Dragon Villa.

"Kenny, don't be so one-sided. Get along with Isla more, and you will find that she is a good girl."

Kenneth pointed to the door of the office. "You can go now. I don't want to waste time on an idiot."

"Also, if you think that Isla is such a good girl, just marry her. I don't like her, and I will never like her."

Nathaniel suddenly stood up and said angrily, "Seven, you know that I treat her like a sister."

Kenneth asked, "So, why are you forcing her upon me?"

"I..."

"Get out." Kenneth pointed at the door. His expression was extremely terrifying, but he still appeared elegant. "When you're no longer an idiot, come talk to me."

Chapter 2418

Nathaniel looked at him helplessly. "Seven, when you let a girl like Isla go, you'd regret it. Raelynn is a cunning b*tch, I'll prove it to you."

Kenneth did not answer. He lowered his gaze, but the anger in his eyes was even more evident.

Nathaniel stared at him deeply before leaving.

The moment the door was closed, he closed his eyes tightly.

Nathaniel really was dumb.

Kenneth's phone started to vibrate. He picked it up and saw that it was Austin.

"What's wrong?" Austin could also feel the suppressed anger in his voice.

"Seven, what's wrong with you? Why are you so angry? I heard that Nathaniel went to look for you. What's the matter?"

Kenneth asked, "Who told you that?"

"Isla, she said that she was afraid that you guys would fight."

Kenneth replied, "It's okay. He left."

"Well, as long as you're fine. Do you want to meet tonight?"

Kenneth replied, "No."

"Sure, next time then."

Kenneth hummed in response.

He then hung up the phone and dialed Isla's number.

Looking at the caller ID, Isla was very excited and proud of her plan. These men were playing into the palm of her hand.

He also called her one by one.

"Kenny." Her voice was very gentle, and there was a big smile on her face.

"Isla, stop playing dumb. You may be able to fool Nathaniel and Austin, but I'm not someone you can fool around with. I'm also not a kind person, I'm much more ruthless than you think I am."

Isla held her phone tightly as she asked with a smile, "Kenny, what are you talking about? I don't understand what you are talking about."

"It doesn't matter if you understand. The most important thing is that your actions caused a conflict to arise between Nathaniel and I. Also, I will assign a doctor to check on your feet every day. When it's fully healed, get out of my house."

After saying that, he hung up the phone.

Isla's expression turned ugly and anxious.

She thought that her plan was flawless, but she didn't expect that he would still be able to see right through her.

The more she thought about it, the more upset she felt. Finally, she could not help but start crying on the table.

After a long while, she stopped crying, and she thought about that b*tch, Raelynn.

If it weren't for her, Kenny wouldn't have treated her like this.

Why couldn't that b*tch just die?

Why didn't she commit suicide after reading the news just now?

Women like her would only harm others if they lived in the world.

How could someone like her, who came from a family like that, be worthy of Kenny?

What was Kenny thinking?

Isla was not convinced. She found the phone number of Raelynn and dialed it.

Raelynn had a lot of work to do today. Although her design draft had passed successfully, there were still many things to follow up.

Her phone rang several times before she picked it up.

"Hello!"

"Raelynn, you little b*tch, you really dare to answer the phone?"

Raelynn immediately recognized that it was Isla when she heard her voice. Her arrogant and domineering voice and her superior tone made Raelynn very uncomfortable.

Raelynn replied with a smile, "I've done nothing wrong, so why wouldn't I? Are you calling me now because the news on the Internet is gone now?"

"Miss Aiden, it's my first time seeing someone expose themselves for their own crime. It was you, right? Unfortunately for you, Kenneth has already settled everything for me."

Now she could almost determine that Isla was the one behind everything.

Raelynn started recording the conversation.

"Yes, I was the one who did it. I, Isla Aiden, am brave enough to admit to it. I want to destroy your reputation. As long as I am alive, don't you dare think about marrying Kenny. Raelynn Edwards, I will ruin you."

Raelynn smiled nonchalantly. "Miss Alden, on your journey to ruin my life, let me remind you something. It is a lawful society that we live in, and any crime committed could ruin someone's life."

"Yes, you're right. I will finish you so that you will never be able to get back up on your feet again. Just you wait, since this incident didn't cause you to be fired from the Alwynn Group, you will run out of luck next time."

Raelynn looked at her screen and smiled. Isla was no match for her.

She didn't care and lowered her head to continue working.

At this moment, Clara walked in with a color palette in her arms.

"Rae, take a look at this color. It seems to be different from what we ordered before. This is the version I just took back from Miss Mason's office. I always feel that the color is not right."

Raelynn got up and walked over. "Let me take a look."

Clara was very meticulous in her work and knew that the company was a competitive one. When Raelynn received credit, she would as well, so she had always been very careful in her work.

For those who studied fashion design, they were very sensitive to the color of the fabric.

At first glance, Raelynn saw that the color was not right. She immediately took out her mobile phone and pulled out the previous version.

In comparison, the color was quite different. She had chosen royal blue, not the shade of blue that was on the palette. It was very dull, and if she had proceeded with it, she would've been done for.

"I'm going to see Miss Mason." Raelynn took the palette and rushed over to Faith's office.

"Knock knock..."

"Come in."

Faith looked up at the door and saw Raelynn entering with an angry expression on her face.

"Miss Mason, I presented you with a different color palette previously, right?" Raelynn asked straightforwardly.

Faith's eyes flashed as she answered, "How could it be? You presented me with this, and now that everything has already been set, you're telling me things are different? Raelynn, what are you doing?"

Raelynn gazed at her coldly as she returned, "I'm saying that someone had deliberately changed the colors. If we proceeded with production based on the current palette, the company would lose money. Miss Mason, did you not check everything properly?"

Faith lowered her gaze slightly as she replied mindlessly, "You confirmed this with Mr. Kenneth previously, of course I wouldn't check it again. I just wanted to run it through with you for the final time, is there a problem?"

Looking at her calm expression, it seemed that she was not surprised at all.

Raelynn was so angry that she laughed. She had never seen such an irresponsible director.

"Miss Mason, there are strict approval procedures for every style and color of the clothes here. You can't pass them if they are not qualified. Now you've come to ask me if there is a problem? Didn't you see the problem when you were looking through it?" Raelynn's words were sharp and her tone was aggressive.

Chapter 2419

Faith said with a smile, "Raelynn, it's none of your business. Why are you blaming me?"

Raelynn knew that she wanted to get away with it. Except for Faith, no one dared to do so.

"Miss Mason, let's be honest. Tell me, what should we do?"

Faith's expression also turned cold, and she said, "What's wrong? Now that you have a good backer, you've become so aggressive?"

"What do you want to ask me about your own question? How would I know what to do? I will only report this matter to Mr. Kenneth truthfully."

"Okay, let's go. Let's go see Mr. Kenneth." Raelynn was also anxious. If Faith wanted to deny it, she could turn against her.

Faith looked at her arrogantly and said in a sarcastic tone, "Raelynn, I know that you are now with Mr. Kenneth. I despise women like you who rely on men to climb up. With Mr. Kenneth's protection, you don't take people seriously, do you? You are a vixen, and you will get your retribution one day."

Raelynn smiled and her gaze became contemptuous. "Miss Mason, my first impression of you was indeed very good. I thought you would be a gentle and kind person, but what you have done recently has changed my opinion of you."

"A jealous and vicious woman. Do you understand that I'm trying to reason with you?"

Crack... Raelynn slammed the color board on her desk.

"Do you have any evidence that I relied on men to get the position? I am indeed with Kenneth, but we love each other. It has nothing to do with work."

"Please don't mix personal feelings and work together. Regarding this matter, without your permission, no one would dare to do it."

Faith knew that Raelynn was not someone to be trifled with, but she did not expect her to have such a stubborn side.

She said that they fell in love with each other. What a joke!

"Raelynn, are you two in love? If Mr. Kenneth really loved you, he would have married you long ago. Would he let you work hard here?"

Raelynn looked at Faith's ugly expression, and the jealousy in her eyes seemed to be overflowing. She smiled and said, "Even if I can marry Kenneth and be a part of the Alwynn family, I will do what I like seriously. I will not go back and be a housewife for him. That is the difference between you and me. What you care about is his identity, status, and money."

"What I care about is that the two of us genuinely love each other. After getting married, we will respect each other's hobbies and interests."

"You won't go back and be a housewife for him."

"Oh! You're talking as if you've already married Kenneth and joined the Alwynn family. You're such a shameless b*tch," Faith said sarcastically and viciously.

Raelynn stated word by word, "It will happen sooner or later."

After she said that, she picked up the color board and left. If she became the wife of the president of Alwynn Group in the future, she would definitely humiliate Faith, a woman who looked down on others.

Faith looked at her with a frown. "What are you doing?"

Raelynn looked back at her and said coldly, "Didn't you say that I found a man to rely on? I'm going to find my man to deal with this matter now."

Faith had done it on purpose. How could she help her solve it?

Moreover, that matter was of great importance and Raelynn couldn't afford to pay for it.

Since she had a man as her backer, why didn't she use him?

Boyfriend, it's time to use you now.

Raelynn left Faith's office and went straight to the top floor to look for Kenneth.

Faith had never dreamed that Raelynn would do this.

Bang, Bang, Bang... Raelynn was so angry that she slammed the door.

When Kenneth heard the loud knock on the door, his eyes were filled with anger.

"Come in." His tone was very cold and heavy.

Who dared to smash his door?

Raelynn pushed the door open and entered, her beautiful little face full of anger.

When Kenneth saw it was her, he instantly suppressed all his anger and hostility.

He smiled and asked, "Rae, what's wrong? Why are you so angry?"

"Hmph!" Raelynn unhappily sat on the office chair opposite him.

She looked straight at him and asked, "Kenneth, do you think you're my boyfriend?"

Although Kenneth didn't know why she was angry, he still answered with a smile, "Yes. Rae, you're my future wife."

Raelynn was very satisfied with his answer.

"Since I'm your future wife and your wife has been bullied, shouldn't you help me?"

"Who dares to bully my wife?"

Raelynn threw the color board on his desk. "The color board I saw with you was changed. Something like this has happened before, so I've always been on guard. Today, I asked Clara to bring it back to confirm it again. I didn't expect that someone would have changed it."

"Oh, let me take a look." Kenneth began to read the color board carefully.

It must be a serious matter if this girl was so angry.

Sure enough, No. 26 and No. 38 had been changed.

These two outfits' colors had been changed.

If they went up this quarter, Raelynn's status would also rise.

That was the reason why he had taken a fancy to Raelynn's designs.

Her designs were not the most perfect, but they were the most fashionable and very in line with the present trends.

Compared with the styles on the market, the clothes she designed were unique and highly recognizable.

However, who was so bold to change the color board?

Knock, Knock...

Kenneth looked at the door and said, "Come in."

Faith walked in with a smile. She was dressed in a black dress, which made her skin look particularly fair.

She looked at Raelynn with a smile and said, "Miss Edwards, what are you doing? I didn't say that I wouldn't solve it for you; I just haven't come up with a plan yet. Why did you directly report the matter to Mr. Kenneth?"

"Miss Edwards, I thought that you were a tolerant and generous person. I didn't expect you to be so intolerant."

"Mr. Kenneth is a busy man, and he has plenty of matters to attend to. We don't have to bother Mr. Kenneth with such a small matter." Her tone was very gentle and soft, but somewhat unbearable.

Looking at Faith, who was so good at acting, Raelynn was stunned.

Did Faith mean that Raelynn was too petty and mean to come here to complain about her?

Haha...

How could she put on such a show?

How did Raelynn get by all these years? The people and things she met were much more powerful and brilliant than Faith. She had also struggled to win.

She suddenly smiled, and it was very dazzling. "Miss Mason, is this a small matter? You didn't treat me like this just now. Didn't you say that this is something I have made up with Mr. Kenneth? Does it have anything to do with you? Since it has nothing to do with you, I will ask Mr. Kenneth to solve it. Is there anything wrong with that?"

"Didn't you say that I climbed up by relying on a man? Mr. Kenneth is my boyfriend. Why can't I rely on him?"

"If you say I'm not tolerant enough, then tell me now, why did this color board become another one?"

Faith was stunned. Every word Raelynn said made her feel ashamed.

Chapter 2420

On the contrary, Raelynn was calm, and even her smile was dazzling.

Because she was the one who did something wrong, she was not confident enough.

Raelynn was so open and candid, completely unhurried.

Faith responded with a gentle smile, "Miss Edwards, I'm trying to find a way to solve this problem."

Raelynn sneered and said, "Faith, forget about acting in front of me. Don't act anymore when you are here. Pay attention to your own demeanor. Since you are tolerant and generous, when I was discussing with you downstairs, you should have shown an attitude of willingness to deal with things instead of letting me come here angrily to solve things."

Faith wanted to put on an act. Sorry, she was not in the mood to accompany her.

"Miss Edwards, I didn't. You misunderstood." Faith was still wearing a faint smile.

In front of Kenneth, she had to be patient. At this time, Raelynn was angry, so she naturally would not speak nicely.

"Faith, have I really misunderstood? Didn't you say that I climbed up by relying on men? Why are you so reasonable now?"

Raelynn looked at her in amusement.

Faith's expression was extremely ugly.

Kenneth didn't say a word; he was also letting Raelynn do what she wanted.

"Miss Edwards, as the design director, of course I won't be as messy as you." Since she said so, she had to climb up.

A good reputation? Of course, it was on her.

Raelynn was just a complete shrew.

"Kenneth, are you just going to watch me being bullied like this? What's the use of being my boyfriend?"

Raelynn looked at Kenneth angrily.

Kenneth looked at the angry woman and felt that she was cute in every way.

Faith was so angry that she had nearly choked.

When Faith was in the office just now, she just wanted to humiliate Raelynn. She didn't expect that when she came here, Raelynn would really use Kenneth to suppress her. That proved that Raelynn was really his girlfriend.

She was so stupid. Why did she come here to make trouble for herself?

Faith was so angry that she almost fainted.

Kenneth came out and put his hands on Raelynn's shoulders. "Alright, Rae. Don't be angry anymore, okay?" He was gentle, and he spoke in a tone that Faith had never heard before.

Faith was completely jealous.

No, no, a woman like Raelynn was just Kenneth's plaything.

One day, when Kenneth got tired of her, he would get rid of her.

"Yes! I'm not angry anymore. I'm thirsty." Although Raelynn said that she was not angry, there was still anger on her beautiful face.

Kenneth smiled gently. "Would you like tea or a soft drink?"

Raelynn answered, "I want to drink hot chocolate."

"Okay, I'll be right back," Kenneth said as he walked out of the office.

Raelynn raised her eyebrows and looked at Faith, who seemed to have eaten a dynamite. Didn't she want to watch that scene?

Raelynn might as well let Faith have a good look.

Faith was provoked by the challenge in Raelynn's eyes. When she came to her senses, she said with jealousy and hatred, "Raelynn, is it interesting for you to do this?"

Raelynn said, "Why not? Didn't you just want to see this scene? Didn't you just want to see how I seduce men? I usually seduce Mr. Kenneth like this."

Faith was almost completely angered by her words.

"Raelynn, you're so shameless. You're a vixen. You'll die a terrible death." Faith could only say this fiercely.

Raelynn said, "You are just jealous. My boyfriend treats me well, but why did I become shameless? Miss Mason, you can't ask to see if and then get jealous."

"You..."

Faith was about to speak when the door was suddenly pushed open. Thus, she could only shut her mouth.

Kenneth came in with a cup of hot chocolate.

When Faith saw that there was only one glass, she looked embarrassed and awkward.

"Here, Rae, your favorite hot chocolate."

"Thank you!" Raelynn took it with a smile, took a sip, and narrowed her beautiful eyes with satisfaction.

Looking at her, Kenneth couldn't help smiling.

He took a step forward and said with a smile, "It's right to do this today. If there is anything you can't solve, come to me." That showed that her boyfriend was a little useful.

Faith was speechless. Her jealous heart once again felt like it had been stabbed.

"Mr. Kenneth, this is what happened today. I didn't know that the color board had been changed, so I didn't pay attention to it. It's my fault. I'll go down and check it out."

Kenneth turned to look at her. His eyes were sharp, and the pressure from his whole body made Faith want to lower her head.

However, as soon as she lowered her head, it showed that she was guilty.

She braced herself to look straight into his sharp and aggressive eyes.

"Can you investigate it clearly?" Kenneth threw out a cold sentence.

Faith's heart tightened.

"Miss Mason, how could you make such a mistake? You are so irresponsible about work. It seems that you have been sitting too long in your prestigious position."

Faith choked, feeling as if she had shot herself in the foot.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Kenneth. I'll handle this matter well."

"There's no need. I'll handle it myself." Kenneth looked at her. "If I have to wait for you to deal with it, we'll never get any sales this year."

"I..." Faith's face was as pale as snow and her whole body felt weak.

"Miss Mason, this is your last chance. If this happens again, I will dismiss you. You can go out first." Kenneth was handsome and ruthless. He hated negligence at work the most.

Faith had obviously violated his biggest taboo.

She was also very aware of this.

Her heart clenched. How could she forget about it?

"I'm sorry, Mr. Kenneth. I got it."

She turned around and was about to leave. Kenneth added, "If we find out that someone has changed the color board, no matter who it is, they must leave the company immediately. Miss Mason, you go and gather the people involved in this matter. I want to investigate them one by one."

Faith's face turned from white to green. She was the one who had changed the color board. She had done it to frame Raelynn to kick her out of the company.

However, she didn't expect that Raelynn was so serious. She found some clues and ran over to Kenneth to complain.

Right then, she had an impulse to strangle Raelynn.

"Okay, Mr. Kenneth." Fortunately, she had arranged a way out.

After Faith left, Raelynn breathed a sigh of relief. She took a long sip of her hot chocolate and said, "She went too far. I obviously entered the company by my own efforts."

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. However, in her heart, she really regarded Kenneth as her lifelong lover, so she expressed these negative emotions.

Kenneth looked at her and said with a smile, "It's okay. They will soon know your abilities."

Raelynn nodded abruptly. "Kenneth, it's lucky that you're here. Hurry up and hug me. I'm not feeling well."

Kenneth was extremely pleased with her request. He had long wanted to hug her to relieve his yearning for her.

He opened his arms and held her in his arms. He buried his head deeply in her shoulder. Smelling the faint fragrance of her body, he relaxed.
