

Gluey Love 2431

Chapter 2431

Nathaniel smiled and said, "Kenneth, you're too outrageous. How could I kidnap Raelynn? What good would that do to me? Let me ask you, do you think I have that much free time?"

"Moreover, am I such a person in your heart?"

"Nathaniel, stop pretending. The other party has your phone number, and the man is still with me. Not only that, but you clearly know that Rae is my girlfriend and my future wife. You even found another four people to insult her. Your viciousness is disgusting."

"Didn't you say that we'll see each other at the park in 10 minutes? Come on, do you dare?" Kenneth was also very angry.

Nathaniel retorted, "Kenneth, I'm sleeping at home. What are you talking about in your dreams?"

Kenneth frowned and scolded angrily, "How dare you act like a coward! Come out!"

Nathaniel asked, "Where are you?"

Kenneth sneered and said, "Don't you know where we are? You asked someone to kidnap Rae and bring her to this deserted hotel room. How long ago did you find such a good position? Huh?"

"Kenneth, don't slander me. Ever since I was driven out by your sister last night, I've been sleeping at home. The more I think about it, the more uncomfortable I feel. That's why I called you to complain. However, you said I kidnapped your girlfriend. Where's the evidence?"

Kenneth said, "There's evidence. You gave him money and called him with your phone number. Isn't this evidence?"

"Nathaniel, don't talk nonsense. I'll see you at the park in ten minutes. I'll bring the police there."

He absolutely couldn't tolerate this kind of thing.

Nathaniel was eager to destroy Rae and wanted her to leave Kenneth. When Kenneth thought of this possibility, he wanted to kill Nathaniel.

Nathaniel was so angry that he laughed.

"Kenneth, I can't reach you in ten minutes."

Kenneth frowned. This guy often changed girlfriends, and he was not very vicious.

Could it be that this idiot had been used again?

Kenneth instructed, "Turn on your video call setting."

Nathaniel complained, "I'm sleeping on the bed. How can I video call you?"

Kenneth retorted, "Okay, then wait for the police to knock on your door."

Nathaniel hurriedly spoke up, "Wait... Wait, who the hell is going to the police station? Fine, I'll start a video call for you."

Then, a video call from Nathaniel came in.

When he saw the scene behind Kenneth, he frowned slightly and exclaimed, "Hey! Raelynn has put up quite a good act. She's found a place like that."

Kenneth saw that Nathaniel was indeed in bed at home.

Kenneth took the phone from the man in Luke's hand and said, "Look carefully. This is your phone number, and you called just a few minutes ago. Also, a short while ago, you transferred 100,000 dollars to the owner of this phone. I have saved your call records, and I will give all these to the police."

Nathaniel was dumbfounded. The number on the other party's phone was indeed his.

However, he didn't have any money missing.

He had been sleeping until that moment, and he still felt very angry. That was why he had called Kenneth.

They were good friends, and they had often argued. However, a few days later, they were eating and playing as if nothing had happened.

However, this time, things seemed to be a lot worse.

"Seven, listen to me. These are all Raelynn's schemes. I definitely didn't get anyone to kidnap her."

"Idiot, why are you still so stupid? You didn't even know that you were being used." After saying that, Kenneth quickly hung up the phone.

Kenneth looked at the driver and said, "Let's go to the park."

If it wasn't Nathaniel, who would it be?

The driver slowly picked up his backpack, took his mobile phone, and walked out of the door.

Kenneth picked up Raelynn and went out with him.

Then, several bodyguards went into the room and took the other men away.

Kenneth put Raelynn in the passenger seat. "Rae, are you alright?"

Raelynn nodded and looked at him with red eyes. "I'm fine. I'm not afraid of anything as long as you're here."

Kenneth gently kissed her forehead and comforted her. "We'll be back soon."

Raelynn knew that he wanted to see who the other party was, and she wanted to find out as well.

Seeing that his delicate facial features were full of love for her, all her worries turned into tenderness.

The two of them took the driver to the park he was talking about.

On the other side, Nathaniel couldn't lie down anymore. If he continued to sleep, he would really be in huge trouble.

After washing up hastily, he took a look at his bank account. 100,000 dollars had been transferred out just a few minutes ago.

D*mn it, who did it?

Who was trying to frame him?

Was it Raelynn who wanted to frame him?

However, was Raelynn so capable?

"F*ck, there is actually someone plotting against me. If I find out who it is, I will tear him into pieces."

Nathaniel grabbed his phone on the table and left the house.

When he got to his car, he called Kenneth.

Kenneth did not reject his call.

"Seven, where are you?"

Kenneth asked, "What are you going to do?"

Nathaniel said as he drove, "I'm going to find you now. I don't want to take the blame. I just want to know who is using me."

Kenneth said, "I'll send you an address to a village that is going to be demolished on the east side of the city. You'd better come over and see who is plotting against you, so that you won't be an idiot."

Nathaniel replied, "Got it."

After hanging up the phone, Kenneth and the others arrived at the appointed address.

At the park, there was a farmhouse with a green sign hanging at the door, with the words "free-range chicken".

Two strings of dried corn and peppers hung at the door.

A man wearing a peaked cap was sitting by the window.

Kenneth motioned for the driver to get off and make the phone call.

The driver knew that a man like Kenneth was a man of his word, so he made the call and entered the farmhouse.

Raelynn leaned against the car window and looked in the direction of the farmhouse window. Through the glass in front of her, she could clearly see the situation inside. She said, "Kenneth, there is only one man sitting inside."

Kenneth reached out and gently stroked her hair. His voice was low and magnetic. "Rae, wait a minute. There will be results soon."

Raelynn smiled faintly. Looking into the man's loving eyes, she also felt sorry for him. She nodded obediently. "Okay!"

After the driver went in, there was only one man sitting in the farmhouse.

The driver looked around, but the man said at this time, "Are you here to submit the video?"

The driver nodded. "Yes."

Hearing the voice through the phone, Kenneth looked at the man sitting by the window with a hint of killing intent in his deep eyes.

Chapter 2432

The man said, "Give me the video and the money will be transferred to your account immediately."

Hearing that, Keh got out of the car decisively.

Raelynn sat in the car and watched Keh's back nervously. The man was tall and his back was straight. Even looking at him made her feel an unprecedented sense of security.

She smiled faintly. It was like a dream. She had never dreamed that she would meet such a good man.

Keh walked straight in, grabbed the man's collar, and punched him hard in the face.

"Ah..." The sudden change and the pain in his face made the man panic.

"Who... are you? Why did you hit me?" The man roared at the top of his voice. That punch was too painful, and his mouth was almost full of blood.

Keh asked, "Did you ask him to kidnap Raelynn?"

The man who was beaten by him was stunned.

"What are you talking about? I was entrusted by someone to get a video. The other party gave me 300 dollars and told me to come over."

Keh was stunned. He had been fooled by the other party.

It seemed that the other party was also very vigilant.

Keh looked at the driver and ordered, "Call the phone number."

The driver responded, "Okay!"

Then, he dialed the number, but there was a mechanical female voice.

"Sorry, the number you dialed is not in service."

Keh immediately took out his phone and dialed Nathaniel's number.

However, Nathaniel directly answered the call, "Seven, I'm a little far from where you are and I can't make it there in time, but I'm already on the way."

Keh hung up the phone again, and his dark eyes were full of killing intent, burning with anger.

The man in the farmhouse did not dare to speak when he saw how terrifying Keh was. He could only allow his nose to bleed.

Keh took out his phone and tracked Isla's phone. When he looked at it, he found it was very close to here.

In fact, Keh had guessed that Isla was behind all this.

Only Isla dared to use Nathaniel so unscrupulously.

Taking advantage of Nathaniel's affection for her, even if something happened, if Isla cried in front of him, that idiot Nathaniel would forgive her. Isla had Nathaniel wrapped around her finger.

He returned to his contact list and dialed Luke's number.

"Mr. Keh, I've already dealt with things here. I've already seen your car."

"You don't have to come here. I'll give you an address. Bring two bodyguards and stop Isla."

Luke was stunned. "Ah... Miss... Miss Alden..."

Keh ordered, "Cut the crap. Hurry up and get there."

"Oh! Okay, Mr. Keh." Luke hung up the phone and went to the address sent by Keh.

On the other hand, Keh stayed behind to wait for Nathaniel.

This time, he wanted to let that idiot, Nathaniel, take a good look and see how he was being used by others.

If Nathaniel was still stubborn, then he should not blame Keh for disregarding his fellow disciples.

After waiting for 30 minutes, Nathaniel finally arrived at the scene.

When he saw the man whose face was covered in blood, he knew that it was Keh who had beaten him up. Keh was known to be ruthless.

Those who had offended him were either beaten half-dead by him or had lost all their fortune.

In the area, few people dared to offend him.

"Wow!" He looked at Keh and smiled. "Seven, you hit him too hard. How did he offend you?"

Keh looked at the man and asked, "Is he the one who sent you here to get the video?"

The man shook his head slightly. "No, the person who asked me to come here was a woman. She's very young and beautiful."

Nathaniel grinned and said, "Seven, look. I told you it was Raelynn. You just refuse to believe me."

However, Keh's expression was very calm, and he called Raelynn to come in.

After Raelynn came in, Keh asked the man again, "Is she the one?"

The man shook his head slightly again. "No, she wasn't as beautiful as this girl. She's about the same height, but the other girl was wearing sunglasses and a mask. Judging from her figure, they're not the same person."

Nathaniel sneered and said, "You're just making it all up. Raelynn has planned a great play and acted well! However, I came a little late and didn't see the previous scene."

"You idiot, shut up."

Nathaniel was speechless. He was an idiot?

Among this group of people, he was the only one who had his full senses.

"Let's go. I'll take you somewhere now." Keh glanced at Nathaniel coldly and walked out holding Raelynn's hand.

If it wasn't for the sake of proving Raelynn's innocence, Keh wouldn't have spent so much effort.

Nathaniel followed. "Where are we going?"

"You'll know when we get there."

Keh brought the driver and the man into the car.

Three minutes later, the two cars stopped at their destination.

After getting out of the car, Keh looked up at a shabby hotel in front of him and walked in with a few people.

After entering the bar, there was a damp, musty smell in the air. There was a fat woman sitting at the bar counter.

Luke had completed his matters. The three of them stood at the top of the stairs and waited for Keh.

Luke stepped forward and pointed to the surveillance camera, saying, "Mr. Keh, Miss Alden is in the room on the third floor and hasn't left yet." Keh glanced at the boss. Luke understood and exchanged a few words with the boss. After that, the boss left for the time being.

Keh saw that there was a surveillance camera in the room. Isla was sitting on a stool, holding a phone in her hand as she waited anxiously. She instantly knew that she was not in a good place.

The purpose was self-evident. It was to capture other people's privacy.

Keh gestured to the driver. "Call the number."

The driver agreed, "Okay!"

He didn't get through before and he also thought that the call wouldn't be connected this time. He immediately dialed the number and turned on the speaker.

Unexpectedly, the phone was connected.

"Hey! Where's the video?" The voice on the call was exactly the same as Nathaniel's, but it was Isla who answered the phone.

Nathaniel was stunned and he was in disbelief. Even if he saw it with his own eyes and heard it personally, he still felt that it was a coincidence.

The driver was very smart. At this time, he knew how to answer the question. "The video has been given to the man. He has returned with the video. You can transfer the rest of the money to me."

"No, I have to see the video of the woman being humiliated by four men first. Only then will I give you the rest of the money."

"Well, I'll wait for you." The driver hung up the phone.

Keh motioned for the other man to make a call. "Tell her that you've got the video and are on the way back."

The man did not dare to disobey and called her. This time, it was also Isla who answered the phone, but it turned into a female voice. She had removed a black, voice-changing device from her neck.

Nathaniel was dumbstruck. It was really Isla, but why did she do that?

"Where are you now?" Isla's voice was very urgent.

"Oh... I'm almost there."

"Hurry up, I don't have much time."

"I... I'm coming. I'll be there soon."

After that, the man hung up the phone.

Keh asked Luke to take the driver and man away, to the police station, but they didn't know that was where they were headed.

Chapter 2433

Keh looked at the shocked Nathaniel, whose mouth was wide open, and asked with a sneer, "Idiot, what does it feel like to be used?" Nathaniel came back to his senses and blinked his eyes. He was very sad and could not accept the result.

"Seven, perhaps Isla has some difficulties that she has no choice but to do so."

"Idiot, b*stard, you are so stupid that you deserve to be used by others."

"Do you have any other difficulties that would make you ruin a person's life like this? Do you know what Rae would have faced if I didn't arrive in time today?"

"You idiot, I really want to send you to the police station too."

Nathaniel also knew that things were very serious. He just couldn't believe that the little girl, whom he had grown up with, had such a vicious side. "Seven, don't say that. I..."

"Get lost! I don't want to see an idiot like you anymore." Keh took Raelynn's hand and went upstairs with two bodyguards.

Nathaniel stood where he was, He opened his mouth, but he didn't know what to say.

It seemed to be wrong to say anything now.

He had been trying his best to make Keh fall in love with Isla, but what about Isla? She pretended to be him and stole his personal information. She took advantage of the techniques he had taught him and used his phone number to kidnap Raelynn.

And she even used his money.

Once everything was investigated, the evidence would be conclusive. If he was convicted of kidnapping, he would be sent to jail.

Isla was trying to ruin his life.

Moreover, she wanted to ruin his life unconsciously.

For the first time, Nathaniel showed his disgust and anger towards Isla.

Nathaniel laughed at himself. Seven called him an idiot. Wasn't he truly an idiot?

The root cause of all this was that he was too stupid, and Isla had taken advantage of him to commit a crime. Additionally, she was also able to prevent anyone from finding out who she was. How clever.

All this while, he had been protecting her. Even just now, he had been trying to persuade himself that Isla must have done that as a last resort. He was just lying to himself. He just didn't want to be disappointed by the girl he had grown up with.

But now, thinking about it carefully, Nathaniel was afraid that Isla would completely destroy him.

Looking at Keh and the others who had disappeared up the stairs, he followed them angrily. He wanted to ask Isla why she did it.

Knock, Knock... Isla thought it was the man who had gone to get the video, so she did not take any precautions when opening the door.

When she saw Keh and Raelynn standing at the door, her body trembled, and a strong sense of fear spread from her heart to every cell in her body.

Why were they here?

Moreover, how could there be nothing wrong with Raelynn? She was still standing there.

The worst case scenario she had come up with was that Raelynn had been destroyed and Kenny found out that Isla had been behind it. As long as she begged for mercy desperately, Keh would not do anything to her for the sake of her master.

No one could get what she couldn't get.

Thus, she wanted to destroy Raelynn and then run away to M Country.

To her astonishment, the two of them came to her together.

"Kenny, why are you here?" Isla asked with a smile.

Isla didn't even think about it. There would be surveillance cameras in the hotels she stayed in, and her crimes would be clearly displayed in front of everyone.

"Isla, why are you doing this to me?" Raelynn's eyes were cold, and her voice was emotionless.

Isla smiled and asked, "Miss Edwards, what are you talking about? What did I do to you?"

Isla was very flustered, but she was still calm on the surface.

Raelynn suddenly laughed and looked at the beautiful girl in front of her. She never thought that there was a vicious heart beneath such a beautiful face.

She said, "Isla, I suddenly thought of a very interesting game. I will treat you how you treated me. The five men are still there. Do you want to experience it since you like it so much?"

Keh was awe-struck. No wonder she was his woman!

Isla's face was as pale as a sheet. She was sure that they already knew the truth. Otherwise, they wouldn't have come here.

"Raelynn, I didn't expect you to be so vicious." She smiled sadly and looked at Keh's handsome face without any expression. He was always like this, making it hard to guess what he was thinking.

Raelynn said, "I'll return to you what you gave to me. I didn't expect you to be so vicious."

Isla's expression was extremely awkward, because she could not guess why Keh had come.

"Isla." Nathaniel's cold voice came from behind Keh.

Isla's legs went limp. Why was Nathaniel here?

"Nathaniel, why are you here?" Isla forced a smile.

Nathaniel smiled and said, "I just want to ask you why you wanted to use me."

Isla clenched her fists and felt a chill run down her spine. "Nathaniel, I don't know what you're talking about."

"Stop pretending, Isla. I'm so kind to you that I want to help you and

I

Seven become a couple, but you used me behind my back.

Fortunately, nothing happene

to

Raelynn today. If your plan had succeeded, I would have been thrown in jail."

Isla pursed her lips tightly. Her plan had failed, hadn't it?

Raelynn was still standing there.

"Kenny..."

"Shut up." Seeing that she still didn't want to repent, Keh's expression became terribly grim.

"Nathaniel, have you seen her true colors now?"

Nathaniel looked at Raelynn, his face full of guilt.

"Miss Edwards, I'm sorry. I misunderstood you before." Nathaniel sincerely apologized.

There was a deep apology in his gentle and elegant eyes. His amber eyes trembled slightly, and they were filled with regret.

Raelynn smiled and said, "Don't worry about it."

However, Keh looked at Isla with disdain. His expression was filled with coldness, and his eyes were solemn. "We already have all the evidence on our side. I will hand everything over to the police in a while."

Isla was anxious and scared. She looked at Keh in horror and cried, "Kenny, you can't do this to me."

"Why can't I?" Keh asked sarcastically.

"Kenny, we grew up together. Are you going to treat me like this because of Raelynn?"

"Then can you treat Rae like this?" Keh was furious.

Isla pointed at Raelynn and said, "Kenny, she is just an abandoned girl whom no one wants. How can a poor woman deserve you? If it wasn't for her, we would have been together a long time ago. I would have become the wife of the president of Alwynn Group."

"Kenny, I've been in love with you for seven years. Have I wasted all those years?"

"Raelynn is just a passer-by in your life. What's wrong with destroying her?"

Slap... Keh slapped Isla hard in the face. "I think you're crazy. Go to the police station."

After that, he asked the bodyguards to send her to Luke who would take her to the police station. Then, he pulled Raelynn out of the hotel.

Chapter 2434

Nathaniel stood there for a while and then quickly followed the couple.

"Seven, I was wrong. I will never be so stupid in the future."

Keh stopped, looked back at him, and smiled coldly.

"If you know you're wrong, there's still hope."

Nathaniel was dumbstruck. Did he really look so stupid?

Nathaniel spoke with a sad expression on his face, "Seven, I really didn't do it on purpose. You also know that I watched her grow up, and I've always protected her. I just can't believe that she would do such a thing."

Keh retorted, "Go back and continue to sleep. I'm afraid you'll get confused again if you can't wake up."

Nathaniel was once again lost for words. Seven looked at him with such disgust. What should he do?

No, he had to do something so that Kenny wouldn't hate him so much.

That's right, he had to find out what had happened to XL Group.

"Seven, Miss Edwards is frightened. You should send her back first. I'll go back to sleep."

Keh was speechless.

He pursed his lips slightly, but in the end, he did not say anything and left with Raelynn.

"Alas!" Nathaniel was in a dilemma.

How was he going to explain everything to his master?

Isla was in prison now, and she had done such a vicious thing. Master would be very sad.

His master doted on Isla the most.

The current situation was really difficult!

However, he didn't dare to talk to Seven. To him, Nathaniel was an idiot who hadn't come to his senses yet.

After getting in the car, Raelynn's mood finally improved.

Isla deserved it, but she did not feel guilty.

A person could be so cruel; it just reminded her of the nature of humanity.

Keh fastened her seatbelt and said, "Rae, don't go to work today. I'll take you to the apartment for a rest."

Raelynn shook her head slightly and said with a smile, "No, I'm not that fragile."

Keh was afraid that she would be in shock, so he smiled and said, "It's okay. Do you have any work to do today? You can rest first."

Raelynn shook her head firmly. "No, I'm really fine. I just think I'm very useless. Every time, I need you to come and save me."

Keh's eyes darkened and he spoke in a low voice, "Don't talk nonsense. If it wasn't for me, how could you have been hurt like this? If there's someone to blame, it's my fault. I didn't protect you well."

Looking at his self-blame, Raelynn couldn't help but smile.

"Well, don't blame yourself. It's your fault, but it was out of your expectations. I will be more careful in the future and protect myself."

Keh still felt guilty and he murmured in a low voice, "Well, let's go back to the company first. If you feel uncomfortable, you can come upstairs to rest."

Raelynn agreed, "Okay!"

Keh drove her back to the company.

As soon as she arrived at the design department, she saw everyone looking at her with a strange gaze.

The matter between her and Keh was no longer a secret.

She didn't say anything and calmly walked to her office.

"Look at Raelynn. She hasn't even become the wife of the president of Alwynn Group yet, but why is she so arrogant?"

"Why can't she be arrogant? With such a big backer, even if she doesn't come to work for ten days or two weeks, no one dares to say anything about her."

"Just her? Haha... Will Mr. Keh really marry her? Bah, don't you think she should look at herself in the mirror? Mr. Keh will think that she's dirty when he sees her."

Several designers stood together and talked about it. They did not take Raelynn seriously at all, and they didn't shy away from lowering their voices. Raelynn occasionally heard a few words. When she was about to reach the door of her office, she suddenly heard them and turned to look at the designer who spoke the most unpleasant words.

It was the designer whose assistant had taken the blame, Miss Jane Clement.

When the few designers saw her suddenly stop and look at them, their expressions were very unnatural.

Raelynn slowly walked back towards them. She looked very calm, but her eyes were unusually cold as she looked at Jane.

She stopped three steps away from the designer and said word by word, "Miss Clement, I, whom you think Keh will disdain for being dirty have already become his girlfriend. As for you, you're getting old and your looks are fading, yet you haven't seduced Mr. Keh yet. You're really 'clean'." Raelynn spat the last word with an icy tone.

Jane's face suddenly turned as pale as snow, and the heavy foundation she had on her face looked like it was about to crack. She stared at Raelynn, as if she didn't expect that she would say that.

"Why didn't you say anything?" Raelynn still asked calmly.

They didn't know what to respond.

Raelynn questioned, "Weren't you very domineering when you were gossiping? Why are you so timid now?"

Jane stammered, "You... You..."

Raelynn retorted, "What's wrong with me? Didn't I just fall in love with Keh? What's wrong with you? You said all that in front of me. You've exposed your true colors in this way. How pathetic!"

After finishing her words, Raelynn felt relieved and turned back to her office.

As soon as she entered, Clara hugged her. "Rae, you scared me to death. I was terrified. Are you hurt?"

She couldn't wait any longer, so she called Luke.

Luke said that something had happened to Raelynn and that they were already on their way back.

Raelynn patted her back gently and said with a smile, "It's okay, Clara. I'm back safe and sound."

Clara let go of her. When she saw that Raelynn was really fine, she was relieved. "Why were you kidnapped so early in the morning? It's terrible to be in a relationship with Mr. Alwynn. If you're not careful, you might lose your life."

Raelynn smiled and said, "I have no choice. There are too many women who like him. If others know that I am his girlfriend, they will always try their best to deal with me. I like him too, so I can only bear this.

There was no doubt that she had fallen in love with Keh.

Clara reminded her, "But it's too terrifying. That happened to you so early this morning, and it made everyone panic. You should be more careful when you come to work in the future."

Raelynn coaxed, "Keh will pick me up and send me to work in the future. You don't have to worry."

"Hehe..." Clara chuckled and gently patted her shoulder.

"Keh is really a good man."

Raelynn smiled and did not deny it.

The days passed peacefully like that for a month. During the past month, Raelynn was on a date with Keh everyday.

In order to give Raelynn a sufficient sense of security, Keh tried his best to arrange for Luke to go on business trips on his behalf.

Luke felt miserable, but Keh was happily in love.

Each day, he only wanted to be with Raelynn, and she shared the same feelings. Keh felt that he had truly experienced the beauty of having a loved one.

His attitude towards Victor had also changed greatly.

Chapter 2435

Every time Victor received a call from his son, he could tell that there was something wrong with Keh.

He called Luke, who told him that Keh was in a relationship. He had finally figured it out. How could he understand the difficulties of being a father if he was not physically there.

He stood by the window and looked at the scenery outside. His tall and cold figure seemed to have become much gentler.

He felt like spring, with the blooming of flowers, was coming.

It had been more than 20 years, and his son finally understood him.

It hadn't been easy for him!

"Victor, we should go back tomorrow. Marlon and Juliet will start their holidays."

"Dad and Mom are in M Country. They said that they will only come back after Spring. They have organized a group of seniors and they want to travel half of the world within half a year."

Eden walked in with a cup of tea.

"Victor, have a cup of herbal tea. I made it just now. It's hot and is good for your health."

Victor turned to look at her and smiled gently. "Okay, dear."

It was still very hot in July. It was not easy for Raelynn to be separated from Keh for a few days. On the weekend, she accompanied Clara to go shopping in the mall.

Clara had the mentality where she would only feel comfortable when she bought a set of clothes for herself every month.

She couldn't afford anything too expensive. Even if it was pricey, she wasn't unhappy if she didn't get it. After getting her salary each month, she would be very happy even if she came to the shopping mall and didn't buy anything.

They strolled around the women's clothing area on the fourth floor of the mall.

The fourth floor was full of imported clothes, each of which was exquisite and beautiful, dazzling people.

However, the C.Y Fashion store of Alwynn Group was always popular. There was a continuous stream of customers in the store.

Raelynn looked at those beautiful and fashionable clothes, and her bright eyes shone with happiness.

The business was good. She designed clothes and they too would be sold there one day. She was really looking forward to it.

Clara followed her gaze and remarked with a smile, "Rae, this quarter, the clothes you designed will definitely become the most popular clothes here."

The clothes under the name of Alwynn Group were all newly designed, and they changed every quarter. The old customers paid special attention to the custom-made clothes, and they would rather spend a lot of money than wear the same clothes as others.

Raelynn smiled confidently and said, "Clara, after all, I have just become a formal designer. If I don't succeed this season, I will work harder next season until I succeed."

She heard from Keh that his parents had returned recently, and he had also moved back to Dragon Villa.

She wanted to visit Keh's mother and learn from her.

She had many shortcomings and she could learn a lot from Eden.

"Well, you are lacking in confidence. Bring out your previous self-confidence and believe in yourself. I will support you."

Raelynn looked at her and changed the subject. "Did you go to dinner with Mr. Parma last night?"

Clara's eyes flashed. "How did you know?"

Raelynn thought, "She actually admitted it without fighting."

Raelynn admonished, "Look at you. You are so naive. If I cheated you, you would have been exposed."

Clara blushed and whispered, "Mr. Parma is a good person. I just entered the company. Apart from you teaching me, Mr. Parma has helped me a lot. It's normal to treat him to a meal. What are you thinking about?"

Raelynn looked at her bashful expression and smiled. "It's not me who is thinking nonsense, but you. Look at you, your face is as red as an apple." Clara lowered her head and patted her face gently with her hands. Her cheeks were so warm that she could feel the heat from the bottom of her heart.

"Haha..." Raelynn pursed her lips and laughed.

Clara became increasingly shy as she said, "Rae, wait for me here. I'm going to the bathroom."

Raelynn responded, "Go ahead. I'll take a walk around here."

She just happened to see a brand she liked. She could stroll around and look at its style.

After Clara left, Raelynn turned and entered the store.

The sales assistant inside was very polite. He greeted her with a smile and introduced all kinds of clothes to her.

Raelynn smiled and learned about the price of the clothes.

That was an ordinary brand, but the starting price of the clothes was 800 dollars. There were some clothes that were more than 15,000 dollars.

It was a foreign brand, and the designer was very famous. No matter from the design of the fabric to the clothing style, he was very careful.

At present, competition in the market was very strong and people from all walks of life were working hard. They all wanted to surpass the leaders in the industry and stand out.

She had studied the market while she was abroad for a few years, and it hadn't been easy.

It was extremely difficult to succeed unless one could really make persistent efforts like Eden to constantly update the style and never let the customers down.

After browsing for a while, she bought a white dress worth 800 dollars.

She had been browsing for a long time, so she felt a little embarrassed if she didn't buy anything. Initially, she had only come in to see the styles available.

After paying the bill, she walked out of the store, but she still did not see Clara.

Raelynn was about to go to the bathroom to look for her when she saw Clara desperately running towards her.

Raelynn thought, "What's going on? What the hell?"

"Rae, Keh, over there..." Clara panted.

Raelynn frowned. "What's wrong with Keh?"

"Oh, you'll know when you come with me."

Clara did not explain further. She pulled Raelynn and ran to another store.

"Clara, slow down. What are you doing?"

Clara pulled her to a high-end shop. She pointed inside and said, "Keh is here with a woman to buy clothes. That woman is so beautiful. Go in and take a look."

Raelynn's heart skipped a beat. How was it possible?

Keh was on a business trip that day, so it was impossible for him to be here.

Clara told her, "Raelynn, I won't lie to you. I've been watching him for quite a while. That woman is very beautiful. She's stunning, be it in her outfit or in her appearance. Keh was taking very good care of her. I came to look for you because I saw them."

ofin

After saying that, Clara pulled Raelynn in.

Raelynn could tell at a glance that the person's suit was very familiar to her. When Keh left that morning, he took a photo of himself and sent it to her; he was dressed in that exact light blue suit.

Moreover, he rarely wore light-colored suits. When she saw him that morning, her eyes suddenly lit up and she praised him for being handsome. He also said that he would try his best to wear a light-colored suit in the future just to make her happy and like him more.

It was less than a few hours ago, and the words he said when he left still echoed in her ears. "Rae, I've just left you, and I already miss you so much.

Wait for me to come back. I love you!"

However, a few hours later, he showed up and went shopping with another woman.

Raelynn felt as if her heart had been cut into pieces.

Raelynn looked at him and saw him taking a pink dress and gesturing to the beautiful girl.

The girl didn't seem to like it. She glared at him, then turned around to look at other clothes. However, "Keh" refused to give up. He held the woman's hand and kissed her on the lips. Raelynn couldn't help but burst into tears.

Chapter 2436

"Keh, you b*stard!" Raelynn angrily ran over and raised her hand. Without saying anything, she slapped him in the face.

Henrick, who had been slapped in the face, was dumbfounded.

Looking at the aggressive woman in front of him, he was stunned.

D*mn, where did this crazy woman come from?

Why did she slap him without saying anything?

"Honey, are you alright?" Alice asked. She was so distressed that she held Henrick's face in her hands.

She glanced at Raelynn and glared at her angrily.

Raelynn was stunned, and her beautiful eyes were wide open. "Honey?"

Did they call each other that?

However, why did she feel that something was wrong?

That didn't seem to be Keh!

Not far away, Eden and Abigail also saw that scene.

"Oh, my son, my baby." Abigail's heart ached so much.

Ricky had not been beaten by anyone since he was a child, especially not by a woman.

"Baby, are you okay? Ah, your face is swollen." Abigail patted Henrick's cheek gently.

Eden also walked over with a gloomy expression on her face.

Her previous son had never even been hit by her.

"Mommy, I'm fine. It's just a little painful." Henrick leaned against Abigail's shoulder like a spoiled child.

Abigail patted his back gently and coaxed him softly. "Don't worry, it won't hurt for long. I will apply some ice for you when we get home later."

As soon as Henrick spoke, Raelynn immediately realized that he... He really wasn't Keh.

"Aren't you Keh?" Raelynn asked involuntarily.

Keh gave Raelynn a meaningful look.

He realized that she had regarded him as his brother.

"Mom, I told you not to buy the same clothes for me and Keh. Look, someone misunderstood and I was slapped. It hurts, Mom."

Raelynn was speechless. This man's coquettishness was very pleasing to the eye.

Eden was lost for words. Was it also her fault?

She glanced at Raelynn, who had tears in her eyes. Her facial features were very beautiful, and her eyes were clear and bright, giving people a good feeling.

Upon meeting Eden's gaze, Raelynn also knew that she had made a big mistake.

Clara was also dumbstruck and thought to herself, "D*mn, I didn't even recognize my idol."

"I'm sorry!" Raelynn stood in front of Henrick and sincerely apologized. "I mistook you for someone else."

Keh looked at her with a smile and asked in a playful tone, "Are you my brother's girlfriend?"

Raelynn lowered her head in shame.

This was great. She had beaten up her future brother-in-law in front of her future mother-in-law.

Keh had once told her that they had a godmother. They called Abigail 'Mommy' and she was Eden's best friend.

Not only that, Raelynn had also offended her two mothers-in-law at the same time.

Ah, ah, ah... She felt like she was going to die. Why was she so impulsive just now?

Alice was annoyed with Henrick's tone and smacked his arm.

Keh immediately admitted his mistake. "Honey, I was wrong."

Alice looked at him without a smile.

Abigail also looked at Raelynn. "Kenny's girlfriend? How come I didn't know that he had a girlfriend?"

Henrick replied, "Mommy, with my brother's personality, do you think he would dare to say it out loud?"

Abigail glanced at him. "What's there to be embarrassed about having a girlfriend?"

Abigail looked at Raelynn seriously.

"Mommy, don't look at my future sister-in-law like that. She will be shy."

Abigail glared at him. "No matter how shy she is, she has to meet people."

Abigail looked at Raelynn rudely. "This girl is very beautiful. I'm really surprised that someone will like your stuffy brother." She looked at Eden and said, "Eden, why aren't you greeting your daughter-in-law?"

Eden was speechless.

Raelynn forced herself to gather up the courage to introduce herself. "Auntie, nice to meet you. I'm Raelynn Edwards."

Eden looked at her very nervous and gentle smile. "Miss Edwards, you don't have to be nervous. Andrew has mentioned you before."

Raelynn didn't know what to say.

How could she not be nervous? Her nervous heart felt like it was about to jump out of her chest. She had slapped someone else's husband.

"O... Okay." She forced herself to nod.

Eden said with a smile, "Kenny has already told us about you and him."

"Let me introduce you. This is Kenny's godmother, Abigail. This is Henrick, my second son, and my daughter-in-law, Alice." Raelynn looked at the gentle and beautiful Eden. Her pleasant and kind voice made her nervous heart gradually calm down.

She also greeted everyone with a smile.

Then, she apologized to Henrick again.

"I'm sorry, I was too impulsive just now." Raelynn felt very guilty. How could she meet him again in the future?

Henrick smiled and said, "It's okay. You got the wrong person and you didn't mean it. My brother went on a business trip in the same suit in the morning. My mother bought these suits for us yesterday. I saw that my brother looked good in it, so also wore it. I didn't expect such a misunderstanding to happen."

It wasn't easy for his brother to fall in love with a girl, so he couldn't let her be scared away by them.

Raelynn was speechless. The misunderstanding was indeed a big one.

She had been too anxious and agitated. If she was more careful, she would definitely have been able to notice the difference between them.

Compared to his younger brother, Keh was more composed.

Eden looked at Alice and said, "Alice, have you picked out the clothes? If you have, let's go downstairs and find a place to sit."

Since they were fated to meet, they might as well sit down and have a chat.

"Mom, I just bought a dress. I don't like anything else."

Eden instructed, "Ricky, you go to pay. Miss Edwards and her friend will go downstairs with us to have a drink and rest for a while."

"Okay, Mom, Mommy. You can go down first." Henrick kissed his wife and went off to pay for her dress.

Eden looked at Raelynn and said, "Miss Edwards, let's go down and find a place to rest."

Raelynn said, "Auntie, you can just call me Raelynn. This is my friend, Clara. She's also working in Alwynn Group like me."

Clara said excitedly, "Hello, Madam! Nice to meet you. In my heart, you are like a goddess. I like the clothes you designed very much."

Eden was amused by Clara's innocent appearance.

"Clara, thank you. Let's go down first."

They all went downstairs. Eden looked at Abigail and said, "Abby, Jacqueline is about to finish her art class. Why don't you let Ricky pick up Jacqueline first?"

Abigail said, "Ah... I was so busy shopping that I almost forgot my little Jacqueline. Forget it. Rick just came back and I'm also pretty tired. I'll pick her up and send her back to her grandmother's house. Her grandmother misses her very much."

Eden said, "Well, remember to come over for dinner tomorrow night." Abigail responded and looked at Raelynn. "Miss Edwards, see you next time."

Raelynn was stunned and wanted to say something in return, but Abigail had already left in a hurry.

Chapter 2437

Eden looked at her and said in a gentle tone, "Your godmother is like this. She has always been in such a hurry."

When Raelynn heard the word "godmother", her face was full of surprise. Did her future mother-in-law acquiesce to her as a daughter-in-law?

She was so excited.

Her future mother-in-law was so young!

Of course, Eden also knew how serious her son was. If Raelynn were not the person he was going to marry, he would never say that he wanted her to meet his parents.

Eden did not care too much about her children's partners. As long as they were kind people, and they loved each other, she had no reason to stop them from being together. Her only wish was that they could make each other happy.

Moreover, Kenny and Raelynn had lived in the apartment for a period of time. They were about to get married.

She had a good character too!

When they arrived at the rest area on the first floor, there were many famous cafes there. They entered a quiet and pleasant cafe and sat down by the window.

Raelynn looked at Eden and Alice. "Auntie, Madam Alice, what would you like to drink?"

Alice looked at her and smiled kindly. "Just call me Alice."

Raelynn nodded somewhat uncomfortably.

Eden said, "I want a strawberry milkshake."

Alice said, "I want a cup of lemon tea, and my husband wants a strawberry milkshake."

Raelynn was stunned. Why did people in the Alwynn family like strawberry milkshakes?

Keh also liked strawberry milkshakes.

"Okay." Raelynn led Clara to order the drinks.

After ordering the drinks, Clara whispered, "Rae, your future mother-in-law looks easy to get along with. She's so gentle and beautiful. She's not like a mother-in-law at all; she's more like your sister."

Raelynn didn't know how to respond. That was indeed the case.

"Rae, you really didn't mistake the person this time. It was I who didn't look carefully. I didn't even know my idol, and I even regarded Mr. Keh as my idol. I feel that I am a fake fan. Do you think I can ask him for an autograph later?"

"His wife is also very beautiful. D*mn... They are a match made in heaven."

Clara was so excited that she could not speak clearly.

Raelynn was happy to see how excited she was. Now, facing her idol, Clara didn't know if she could even drink her tea.

"Yes, you can. Be bold. Mr. Henrick looks good."

When it came to this matter, Clara felt very guilty. "Rae, I'm sorry. I was mistaken and caused you to hit your future brother-in-law." Raelynn was speechless. She had just calmed down when she became nervous again because of Clara's words.

Raelynn smiled and reassured her, "It's okay."

She said it was fine, but that was not the case in her heart.

Her slap was not light.

After a fierce beating, Henrick's face was swollen.

"Hey! Isn't it Miss Edwards?"

Raelynn turned around and saw that it was Faith and her assistant, Lauren.

Ever since the last time they met, Faith had been much quieter. She didn't often find trouble with her. However, when she was outside the company, and in places where Keh couldn't see her, she would always ridicule her.

"Miss Mason, Lauren." Raelynn greeted them politely.

That day, Keh's mother and younger brother and sister-in-law were there, so she didn't want to have an argument with Faith.

The two of them worked in the same company, so they couldn't have any big disputes.

However, Faith refused to give up.

"Raelynn, Mr. Keh is not here.

Isn't it boring for you to go out alone? I heard that you seduced M Keh into bed. Raelynn, you really clever. I have known Mr.

Keh for so long, and the relationship between us has always been very good. After appeared,

our relationship changed."

Faith's voice was neither too loud nor too soft, but they were full of grievance and pain, and everyone around could hear them. Faith was like this every time. As long as she was outside the company, she would slander Raelynn's reputation in front of strangers.

Faith made it seem as if she was the innocent wife and Raelynn was the mistress coming between them.

No matter how she retorted, as long as Faith spoke first, the passers-by would point fingers at Raelynn.

Clara looked at Faith in amusement. This woman was probably wishful thinking.

"Miss Mason, aren't you tired of playing such tricks every time?" Clara could not tell how many times this Faith had played such tricks.

She was so annoying.

"You said you have a relationship with Mr. Keh, but he doesn't even remember who you are. Rae is Mr. Keh's real girlfriend. Why are you so shameless?" Clara had never been afraid of anyone.

It was not the first time for a shrew to curse on the street, and people like Faith were insatiable.

The more patient Raelynn was, the more Faith felt that she was easy to bully.

As expected, Faith looked embarrassed.

She glared at Raelynn. "Raelynn, let's wait and see. You can't marry Keh and join the Alwynn family because I won't agree."

Faith roared as if she had gone mad. In the past few days, the other party had been pushing her too hard. She had not gotten the proposal plan yet, and she only had a little time left. She felt that she was going crazy.

She, who had always looked down on Raelynn, vented her anger on the innocent Raelynn.

"Who is my son going to marry? Why would it need your agreement?" Eden's cold voice came.

Faith was stunned. She looked back at the beautiful lady in front of her, blinked her eyes, and shouted angrily, "Who are you?"

Eden answered with a sullen face, "Keh's mother."

Faith was dumbstruck.

She was so angry just now that she didn't notice what she meant.

Who was Keh's mother?

The most authoritative person in the Alwynn family, and the richest person standing at the top of the pyramid in society.

"Auntie, I... I'm sorry, I was wrong. I was too impulsive just now." Faith apologized with her head down as if she had been wronged.

"Raelynn, that b*tch, why didn't she say that Mr. Keh's mother was here?" She thought to herself.

Lauren was also very surprised. She had originally wanted to chime in with Faith to vent her anger, but at that moment, she was very glad that she did not say a word.

"Too impulsive?" Eden looked at her coldly. "I think you're crazy. I heard every word you just said."

"Miss Mason, you are the current design director of Alwynn Group. Although I have never seen you, I have seen your work. It's a mess. My son is blind."

Faith was anxious and explained,

"Auntie, no, I've always been working hard because of Raelynn. She affected my performance after she joined the company. I have liked Mr. Keh for a long time. When Mr. Keh was not with Raelynn, my work was affirmed by him."

"Later, I was in a bad mood, so my work was affected. I will make sure to adjust myself." Right then, Faith was terrified. If she was kicked out of the company before getting the plan, she would be killed by the other party.

In the business circle, she would no longer be able to stand.

"Miss Mason, it's not easy for you to climb up to this position, but you can't buy the word 'educated' even if you have a lot of money and a high position. After returning to the company, you can resign voluntarily."

"It's not because of what happened today, but because of your work." Eden's words were cold and there was no emotion in her eyes.

Chapter 2438

Seeing Eden like this, Raelynn admired her very much. She was not extremely oppressive, but her cold words carried a kind of majesty that made people admire her sincerely.

"Auntie, I..." Faith's face turned pale. Was Eden saying that she was ill-bred?

"Let's go. Don't disturb my afternoon tea with my daughter-in-law."

"Daughter-in-law?" Faith looked at Raelynn fiercely and roared angrily, "Auntie, Raelynn's family background is not worthy of the Alwynn family. She is an abandoned daughter of the Edwards family."

Faith thought to herself that if she wasn't having a good time, she couldn't let Raelynn have a good time either.

Eden looked at her sharply. "My son is going to marry her. He cares about her, not anything else. You don't have to sow discord. You don't have the right to say anything."

Raelynn was so moved that she was about to cry. She was really moved by her future mother-in-law's strong protection of her.

At that moment, Faith felt like a clown.

By saying that, Faith thought that Eden would dislike Raelynn very much, but she didn't expect that Eden would protect her like this.

Did Raelynn save the universe in her last life?

She had such good luck, and her future mother-in-law did not dislike her at all.

"Auntie, what about the face of the Alwynn family? A woman like Raelynn is really..."

"Shut up! Do you think you're amazing?" Eden didn't want to hear any more words from Faith.

She had seen many people like Faith.

She was someone who didn't want anyone else to get what she couldn't get.

Such a woman was very vicious.

"Mom, what's wrong? You don't look so good. Who made you angry?" When Henrick finished paying for Alice's dress, he came over and heard his mother's unhappy voice.

Alice watched the whole thing from the side. She briefly described the whole matter to him. The more Henrick listened, the angrier he became. Faith looked at Henrick sharply and thought that it was Keh, so she was even more nervous.

"Mr. Keh, I..."

"Get lost!" Henrick didn't even give Faith a chance to speak.

"Mr. Keh, I... I really didn't mean to..."

Faith was incoherent and didn't know what to say.

Henrick was very angry. "If you dare to make my mother angry again, I'll make it impossible for you to exist in this city again."

The thing Henrick hated the most in his life was his mother and wife being bullied.

If anyone dared to bully his mother, he would fight them to the death.

Lauren saw that Henrick was very angry, so she quickly pulled Faith out of the cafe.

Raelynn watched as they left. The drinks they ordered were also ready.

They returned to their seats and had their drinks. Then, Raelynn whispered the reason why they couldn't get rid of Faith yet.

After listening, Eden's eyes flashed with coldness. There were often people who wanted to take advantage of Alwynn Group. It was not that she didn't know, but she didn't expect that Faith was so ignorant.

Henrick was also very surprised that his elder brother had even told Raelynn such a thing. He trusted her very much.

Eden thought for a moment and said, "I can't let her stay in the company like this. I have to find a way to let her take action in advance and make her leave the company."

Eden had already made up her mind and planned to go back to discuss things with Victor in the evening.

"Rae, why don't we draw the snake out of its hole? It will take several days for Kenny to come back from his business trip. I will discuss this matter with him tonight. What should we do? I will contact you then. You should cooperate with us and drive these scums out of the company as soon as possible."

Raelynn quickly nodded and said, "Auntie, what do you want me to do? Just say it."

Seeing that Raelynn was still very nervous, Eden felt a little sorry for her. After they came back, Victor also asked someone to investigate Raelynn's background. Putting aside the fact that she was abandoned by the Edwards family, she was an excellent girl.

After chatting for a while, Eden and Raelynn exchanged phone numbers and then they went their separate ways.

After Eden and her family left, Raelynn was still in a trance and she felt somewhat unreal.

She took a sip of her tea and looked at Clara. She asked excitedly, "Clara, does my future mother-in-law like me very much?"

Clara responded excitedly as well, "My idol is so handsome, but I forgot to get his autograph. I feel like I'm dreaming." Raelynn was speechless.

It turned out that all of Clara's thoughts were focused on her idol.

She looked at Clara's infatuated gaze as she stared at the spot where Henrick had been sitting.

Raelynn felt that if they stayed there any longer, Clara would be dumbfounded.

"Clara, let's go. Let's go back." Raelynn got up and looked at Clara, who was still sitting there motionlessly. She felt amused.

Did she really like him so much?

"Clara." Raelynn reached out to push Clara's arm.

"Ah... Oh, what?" Clara was so excited that she was in shock. She could not distinguish reality from her dreams for a moment, and she felt that everything was surreal.

Raelynn looked at her in amusement. "He's been gone for a long time. Why are you still infatuated?"

Clara wiped her non-existent saliva and responded, "Rae, my idol is so handsome. I just want to stare at his handsome face all the time and not move my eyes away from him."

Raelynn couldn't help but laugh. "You're silly; let's go. My mother asked you to come back to my house for dinner tonight. She'll make you something delicious."

"Wow! Auntie's dishes are really delicious. It's hard for me to refuse. How can I not go?" Clara returned to reality at that moment.

She followed Raelynn out of the mall.

When they returned home, Malia happened to have just returned from buying some groceries.

Raelynn poured a glass of water for Clara before returning to her room to change.

After changing into casual clothes, she sat by the bed and sent a message to Keh.

"Keh, I hit your brother today."

By this time, Keh had finished a six-hour meeting and had just returned to the hotel to rest. As soon as he reached the entrance of the hotel, he saw Raelynn's message.

He took the room card and went in. He took off his suit jacket, sat on the sofa, and replied with three question marks.

Keh was confused.

Raelynn told Keh what had happened that day through a voice message.

After hearing about what happened, the corners of Keh's mouth could not help but turn up in a grin. Ricky must have felt so wronged.

However, at the same time, he was very sad.

"Rae, can you tell Ricky and I apart?" He replied.

Raelynn knew that he would say that, and she wrote, "I can tell you two apart. It's just that I saw him from outside the store at that time. You two brothers were wearing the same clothes. I was too angry at that time, and I cried and ran in. After slapping him, I realized that he was not you."

These words more or less comforted Keh.

Keh responded, "It's okay. It's not your fault."

Raelynn was even more touched when she saw that he was still protecting her.

"I love you, and thank you too!"

She rarely said such things openly.

On the other side, Keh's heart suddenly tightened when he saw her message. At that moment, he couldn't wait to fly to Raelynn.

Chapter 2439

Keh calmed down and replied, "Rae, when I come back, you can tell me yourself."

Love was like drinking water; only the person involved was clear about its taste.

Raelynn's words were a fatal temptation to Keh.

Raelynn was a traditional conservative girl down to her bones.

If it wasn't for the incident at the hotel, she wouldn't have acted so intimately with him before marriage.

Raelynn replied, "I'm too shy, but okay!"

Keh smiled heartily.

Five days later, when Raelynn went to work, she received a message from Eden asking her to put on a play with Clara.

Raelynn and Clara chatted for a while and the latter understood instantly.

When they were in high school, after being bullied, they had a tacit understanding that they would return to the bullies the same treatment they had received.

After agreeing on the plan, the two of them attended a meeting.

The design department meeting was hosted by Faith.

Keh had not been in the company for the past few days. Faith had been looking for a chance to go to the 25th floor, but she never had the chance. The 360 degrees surveillance cameras on the 25th floor had no blind spots, so she couldn't even hide in the shadows.

She had less and less time, and she was absent-minded during the meeting. There were several designers' reports, but she hardly paid attention to them.

As she was not in the right state, she was afraid that she would make too many mistakes, so she ended the meeting.

All the designers went out one after another.

Clara looked at the driver and accidentally poured a cup of coffee onto Raelynn.

"Ah..." Raelynn screamed, attracting Faith's attention.

"Ah! Rae, did you get scalded? Hurry up and take off your jacket." Clara nervously helped to take off Raelynn's white jacket and placed it on a chair beside her.

At that moment, Raelynn's phone rang.

"Hello, Keh." Her voice was neither loud nor low, so naturally, Faith could hear her.

"Are you talking about the new ATM proposal plan?"

That sentence successfully stopped Faith in her tracks.

"Where is it?"

"In the drawer under the desk?"

"Keh, are you in a hurry to use it? Clara accidentally knocked over the coffee, and my hand was scalded. I'll apply some ointment first, and then I'll go up and take a picture of it for you."

"Yes! It's not serious. It's just that my skin is red, but I'll be fine."

"I know, I will be careful," Raelynn said with a bashful expression on her face.

After hanging up the phone, Raelynn looked at Faith, who was standing at the door, and said apologetically, "Miss Mason, I'm sorry. I may have to go to the infirmary."

Looking at her reddened arm, Faith looked away and muttered, "Go ahead. It's just a small injury yet you can't even bear this little pain."

She sneered and walked out.

Raelynn didn't say much and walked towards the elevator with Clara.

Faith watched as the two of them entered the elevator and quickly returned to the meeting room.

Earlier, when she heard Raelynn mention the plan, she saw Raelynn's jacket on the chair and instantly had an idea.

She grabbed Raelynn's jacket and untied her long hair. Her hair was about the same length as Raelynn's.

Raelynn would not come back so soon if she went to the infirmary.

She put on Raelynn's jacket and made a phone call after entering the elevator.

"Turn off the monitoring on the 25th floor for five minutes."

The other party responded, "You only have three minutes. My companion went to the bathroom. He will play games in the bathroom, but he will definitely come back in three minutes."

Faith already knew the exact location of the proposal. After thinking for a while, she agreed, "Three minutes is enough."

The other party said, "Now, the countdown begins."

Faith replied, "Okay, I've already reached the 25th floor."

The moment the elevator opened, Faith quickly let down her hair and covered her face.

Then, she quickly walked out of the elevator and went to Keh's office.

Her heart was beating fast, due to being in awe of Keh, and being in love with him.

After doing this, it was impossible for her to be together with Keh.

With the ATM proposal plan, Keh had worked hard and would reach the peak of the market.

If the other party stole the proposal, although it would not affect the foundation of Alwynn Group, it would also be a heavy loss for them.

Following what she heard from Raelynn's conversation, she wrapped the drawer handle with a handkerchief. She pulled the drawer open and saw that the original proposal was placed at the top.

Faith was excited and nervous. She could finally live.

Finally, she no longer had to fear the deadly blow from the other party.

The president of X.L Group was also a person who would do anything to achieve his goal.

His cold, ruthless, and cruel character was even worse than Keh.

It was he who had found her and asked her to be a spy in Alwynn Group.

Moreover, he had also prepared a very capable designer for her to help her from behind.

She could stand out among all the designers and become the design director.

However, some time ago, because she had only received half of the money from the other party, she was not willing to help them anymore. On one hand, it was because of the money. On the other hand, she had met the president from XL Group, and his arrogant attitude made her particularly angry.

She opened the file and took out her mobile phone. She quickly opened the camera app to take photos of the plan and send it.

She had just taken a picture of the first and second pages when the door was suddenly pushed open. The sound of footsteps could be heard, and she was so frightened that her hand trembled and her phone fell to the ground.

Luke called out, "Miss Mason, come out."

Faith, who was hiding, was ashen-faced. How did Luke know that she was behind the desk?

At the same time, the president of XL Group called her.

Faith wanted to die on the spot, but it was too late.

Keh walked over and picked up the phone on the ground.

Faith saw the gloomy, calm, and murderous look in Keh's eyes. She wanted nothing more than to faint on the spot.

Wasn't Keh still away on his business trip?

How could he suddenly appear here?

Keh pressed the answer button on her phone, and an angry roar came from the other side. "Faith, why didn't you continue after the first two pages? The most important parts of the plan are in the latter pages. Send them immediately. I'll give you whatever you want."

Keh sneered. He didn't even look at the frightened Faith, who was about to faint. Instead, he smiled evilly and spoke in a calm tone, "Mr. Whitehead, long time no see!"

There was a brief silence. After a while, the person on the other end of the call, Ronnie Whitehead, replied, "Mr. Alwynn, you're so scheming."

The other party instantly hung up the phone.

"Miss Mason, come out." Keh turned around and sat on the sofa.

Faith stood up, trembling. When she saw Raelynn in the office, she was stunned and instantly seemed to understand something. A surge of anger filled her whole body. She had actually fallen for the trap.

Chapter 2440

Raelynn looked at her and deliberately asked in surprise, "Miss Mason, why are you wearing my jacket?"

Faith was so angry that her whole body was trembling. "You... Raelynn, you schemed against me?" Her voice could not help trembling and she was terrified.

Raelynn sneered. "Didn't you always say that you and Keh were a couple? Did I steal your boyfriend? Is this how you show your love for Keh?"

Faith was extremely uncomfortable, but most of all, she felt embarrassed and ashamed.

Karma came in the blink of an eye, and Faith had to face the consequences.

Looking at the anger on Keh's handsome face, Faith's whole body shivered.

Raelynn added, "You've been slandering my reputation outside the company this whole time. Faith, if there is a mirror now, you should look at your current appearance, at how disgusting your ugly face and mouth are."

It was true that Raelynn wanted to seek personal revenge. When she was pointed at by those passers-by, she felt very uncomfortable.

Although she knew that some people were malicious, she was still very sad.

Faith was stunned. She had no chance of winning now that Raelynn had hit her when she was down.

Keh stood aside and did not speak. He did not expect that Rae would suffer such grievances when he was not around.

"What did you do to Rae?" His icy tone made Faith's heart tighten, and she found it hard to breathe.

"Mr. Keh, I... I didn't do anything..." She stuttered and was unable to speak coherently. Her trembling body intensified her fear at that moment.

Keh looked at Luke and said, "Luke, get the people from the legal department come up. Miss Mason stole the company's secrets and she has accomplices in the monitoring room. Hand them over to the police together. If the other accomplices in the company are willing to give up their accomplices, they can receive a lighter punishment."

"No, no, no. Mr. Keh, listen to me. Mr. Whitehead threatened me. I'm sorry, Mr. Keh. Please give me another chance," Faith begged while crying. She really couldn't go to jail. She still had a lot of dreams to realize.

Her wonderful life had just begun. How could she spend her life behind bars?

"A threat?" Keh glanced at her indifferently and said sarcastically, "You took a lot of money from Mr. Whitehead. Was that also a threat to you?" "Miss Mason, don't lie to yourself anymore. This time, I was blind. You also taught me a lesson when you found someone to replace you to come up with the designs, but I didn't notice it. This time, it was my mistake."

Faith stopped crying and could only look at him in surprise. How did he find out about this? She signed a confidentiality agreement with Mr. Whitehead and he said that he would never let this matter be known.

Keh's next words answered her doubts.

"Mr. Whitehead can use money to buy people's hearts. If that's the case, why can't you pay someone to come up with designs in your name? He told me everything. Although I did go on a business trip these days, the most important thing was to remove you, the cancer."

"A cancer?" Faith blurted out. She blinked her eyes, as if she could imagine how much Keh hated her that he would call her that.

At the same time, the bodyguards and staff members whom Luke had called for had arrived.

The bodyguard took the crying and begging Faith away.

Luke followed suit.

Only Keh and Raelynn were left in the office.

Keh turned around and suddenly held Raelynn in his arms. He lowered his head and buried it in the depths of her shoulder. He gently smelled the fragrance of her body and the familiar scent filled his nose. All of his longing was released at that moment.

"Rae, I miss you so much." His sexy voice was full of longing.

Yes, he had been away for many days.

He came back the night before and didn't have time to see her because she was going to put on a show that morning.

He had discussed it with his mother before.

Raelynn also missed him very much. Although the two of them called and chatted with each other on the phone everyday, it was far from being as real as physical contact.

"I missed you too," Raelynn said with a chuckle.

Keh began to hug her tightly. Greedy for her scent, he was reluctant to let go of her.

"Rae, let's get married." After saying that, he stepped back and stared at her with his dark eyes. Raelynn smiled shyly and saw the glimmer of expectation in his eyes. "Are you proposing?"

Keh smiled gently, and there was tenderness in his expression. "No, I arranged a dinner party tonight. It's a dinner party that is only for the two of us. I'll ask Luke to send you a dress later. Let's go there together after work."

He had prepared everything in advance just for that night.

Of course, Keh couldn't be so careless for a woman who loved him so much.

There must be a proposal ceremony!

"Okay!" Raelynn stood on her tiptoes and kissed his lips gently.

Keh's forehead rubbed against her cheek happily.

"Do you miss me?" His voice was low and charming, like a feather gently brushing across Raelynn's heart, ticklish and very gentle.

"Yes!" Raelynn smiled gently. Since they met, they had not been separated for such a long time.

"Hehe..." Keh laughed happily. Her heart skipped a beat as he looked at her blushing face.

When he got off work, Keh personally went to the 24th floor to pick up Raelynn from work. He also personally took the dress that Luke had sent over.

The designers and assistants of the design department widened their eyes in disbelief when they saw Keh coming down to pick

Raelynn up. Before they could recover from what had happened to Faith, they were hit hard by this shocking news, making them dizzy.

Keh took Raelynn's hand and left indifferently.

After the couple entered the elevator, the people of the design department came to their senses.

Raelynn and Keh were really together.

Clara looked at the envious gazes of the crowd and finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Those women must have been slapped in the face. Their faces must be in great pain.

They were extremely jealous, right?

Hehe...

Clara was in a good mood and went to have a good meal after work.

She waited for the elevator. As soon as the elevator doors opened, she saw Luke in a suit.

"Clara, I'll treat you to dinner," said Luke cautiously.

Clara's face turned red and she nodded with a smile. "Okay."

Luke smiled excitedly. He took out the roses hidden behind him and quickly handed them to her.
"Clara, here you are."

Clara was taken aback. She knew exactly what roses meant.

She slowly reached out to take them.

Such an obvious acceptance made Luke very excited. He boldly led Clara into the elevator.

Clara didn't know what to say.

The Marriott Hotel had a roof-top garden on the top floor.

Raelynn was brought here after she changed into her gown.
