

Gluey Love 2441

Chapter 2441

There were golden lamps hanging on the glass walls on both sides. The lights created different atmospheres as they flickered; sometimes dazzling, sometimes dark, and sometimes mysterious.

There were roses on both sides of the path, and fairy lights hanging on poles around them. There were also heart-shaped balloons and pink ribbons that fluttered in the wind. On a backdrop wall not far away, a wall of flowers and lights formed a picture of love.

Under the beautiful wall, several big balloons swayed with the wind on both sides.

The scene was very romantic, and there was also faint music playing in the background.

Raelynn vaguely guessed something in her heart.

She was so excited that she took small steps. Finally, she saw a tall and powerful figure standing beneath the dazzling backdrop wall, looking at her with a smile.

Raelynn walked forward excitedly. She had only taken a few steps when she heard the sound of a violin.

She knew that song.

"Our Encounter" was a song that she liked very much.

Looking sideways, she saw a handsome man in a black tuxedo singing while playing the violin.

"Wow!" Raelynn was very excited. Wasn't this Sunny Jameson, the singer she liked?

Why was he here?

"Our meeting was destined to be our fate... We, who love each other, everything we do is for love, and in each other's eyes, there's only you..." The song was melodious and lingering.

She liked Sunny very much because his voice was strong and smooth. Especially when he sang in a low voice, the music was gentle and melodious. After finishing the song, Sunny got up, bowed slightly to Raelynn, and left with a smile.

Raelynn's eyes reddened with excitement. She had never dreamed that she could get close to the singer she liked.

However, she didn't forget the dazzling man standing not far away.

She lifted the hem of her dress and ran over to him.

"Keh." She threw herself into his arms excitedly.

Keh's smile was warm, like a spring breeze, and his eyes were full of tenderness. He picked her up and walked around the place. "Rae, do you like it?" He asked in a low voice.

Raelynn rubbed her head against his chest excitedly. "I like it, Keh. Thank you for letting me see my idol, Sunny."

"Yes! I know you like him. Coincidentally, he signed a contract with the company under my name, so I invited him to sing a song for you Raelynn was so touched that her eyes turned red, and she hid in his arms.

"Keh, you're the best. I really like you!"

alone."

Hearing her words, the atmosphere was just right. He gently let go of her and knelt on one knee. He smiled and took out the diamond ring that he had already prepared. Looking up, his handsome face was full of tenderness. He stared at her deeply and said, "Rae, will you marry me?"

His desire for her grew stronger and stronger, and he only wanted to keep her locked by his side.

Raelynn had had a hunch in her heart, but at that moment, she still burst into tears with excitement.

Thinking of what had happened after they met, she was moved.

If she hadn't met him, she would still be alone.

If she hadn't met him, she wouldn't have understood that love was so beautiful.

"Keh, through your eyes, I can see how you view me. I am your whole world. Thank you for letting me have a bright future. Thank you for making me feel that there is someone who loves me so much, and for making me happy. There are so many people in this chaotic world, but I only love you. Thank you, because for the first time, I want to love someone for the rest of my whole life."

"Keh, yes I will. I am very willing to marry you! From the moment we first met, until the end of our lives!"

Compared with Keh's straightforward words, Raelynn's words enriched the proposal even more.

Keh put the ring on her finger with a bright grin.

From the moment he fell in love, she was the only person in his world.

"Rae, I hope that my life with you in the future will be calm, uneventful, and interesting, but it will be our life together. The world is not as good as we think, but it's not as bad either. However, in our world, we are the best for each other."

Raelynn pulled him up and kissed him on the lips.

Keh responded with a gentle smile.

It was hard to describe how Keh felt when he had successfully proposed.

The first time he saw Raelynn, he knew that there was no one else but her!

He'd love to spend the rest of his life with her!

Five days after Keh's successful proposal.

Victor and Eden also took time to meet Malia and discuss the marriage between their children.

Malia could also feel that Keh treated her daughter with sincerity.

She also agreed to their marriage according to Raelynn's wishes.

Eden picked the date as Keh wanted to get married as soon as possible to make Raelynn his legal wife, so the date was set at the end of August. It would be held on August 28th.

The wedding wasn't for another month yet, so Keh was not in a hurry.

The news of their marriage had also spread throughout the company. Keh did not want to hide the matter. He loved Raelynn and wanted to give her the best of everything.

The people of the design department used to be mean or indifferent to her, but now, they all had to treat Raelynn well.

In the past, if Raelynn wanted a cup of coffee, she would have to wait until everyone got theirs first. However, now, all of them were rushing to make coffee for her.

Raelynn was not petty with her colleagues over these things. Instead, she got along very well with them.

She wouldn't change because she was marrying Keh. She was still the same Raelynn, and she was still chasing after her dreams.

In the following days, Keh took Raelynn to prepare for the wedding. From the wedding photos to the selection of wedding dresses, jewelry and so on, he accompanied her, and they chose everything together.

That made everyone even more envious.

Everyone in Alwynn Group knew how much Keh doted on Raelynn.

Raelynn was surrounded by happiness. Every day, she was very happy when she went to work. She was in a good mood and had a lot of inspiration. She stayed up late to draw several versions of the design drawings. When she got off work, she would go to Dragon Villa to look for Eden to ask for her advice.

Eden was also very willing to guide her. Raelynn was very talented, and she understood everything at once. Eden saw a better future for Alwynn Group.

August 28th was a good day. Raelynn and Keh's wedding was held on the lawn of a seaside resort, and the weather was particularly suitable for weddings during that season.

The whole Alwynn family came to the resort in advance for a few days.

On the beautiful dark green lawn, there were many white chairs, and relatives and friends sat down before the ceremony began.

They all looked back at the bride.

Andrew exclaimed, "Ah... My brother has gone too far. He actually married the beautiful Miss Edwards."

Henrick knocked him on the head. "Kid, from now on, she's our sister-in-law."

"Yes!" Andrew replied reluctantly.

When the time arrived, the host, who was standing in the front and wearing a beautiful gown, held the microphone with a smile and announced, "Hello, everyone. I am today's host, Emma. I am very happy to be able to be here together with you by the sea and host this romantic wedding. The sea breeze is blowing, the sun is shining here, and all of you, the friends and relatives of the couple, are gathered here today."

"Now, let's welcome the new couple, Mr. Keh Alwynn, and his bride, Miss Raelynn Edwards."

On the other side of the red carpet, Keh took Raelynn's hand and they slowly walked forward together.

Raelynn wore a diamond wedding dress worth millions of dollars. In the sun, the diamonds sparkled brilliantly, making her look more beautiful and gentle.

Keh was wearing a custom-made dark suit, and the smile on his face could not hide his happiness at that moment.

The handsome man and the beauty walked hand in hand!

Keh held Raelynn's hand tightly. In fact, he was very nervous.

Raelynn tilted her head slightly and looked at him. "Are you really that nervous?"

Keh also looked at her and smiled. "I'm nervous because it's my first time getting married."

Raelynn didn't know what to say to that.

"Well, I'm here. Don't be nervous," Raelynn comforted him in a soft voice.

She had no father or elder brother, and her mother had cut ties with her maternal relatives. As such, Keh walked in with her.

Not far away, Victor held Eden in his arms. Eden, who had dressed up for the occasion, was more beautiful in Victor's eyes.

"Dear, are you happy?" Victor asked softly as he stared at her. His gaze was only focused on her.

Eden looked at him with a smile. After so many years, his love for her had not decreased, but had instead deepened. She smiled and said, "Our son is getting married. How can we be unhappy?"

"Eden, I'm also very happy. Also, I haven't told you today; I love you!"

"Haha..." Eden laughed happily. "Honey, I love you too!"

She hoped that in the future, every child of hers could be blessed by everyone and create a better future with their loved ones.

Victor was as gentle as water. He looked up not far away. The groom and bride were already undergoing the ceremony. As such, he took his beloved woman and walked over.

Beneath the bright blue sky, Keh and Raelynn exchanged rings under the witness of their friends and relatives.

Everyone sitting under the stage applauded and cheered for them.

Keh looked at Raelynn with a gentle gaze.

"Rae, I've arranged everything. In order to prevent Nathaniel and the others from making a fuss, we're going on a honeymoon straightaway."

Raelynn nodded happily. "Okay, Darling. What a pleasant surprise."

The word "Darling" made Keh's face fill with happiness. "Honey, let's run. The car I arranged is right behind us."

Raelynn nodded her head in excitement, and Keh helped her down from the stage.

Nathaniel noticed that something was wrong.

"D*mn it, Keh, why are you running when you've just gotten married? You haven't had a wedding night yet."

Austin mocked him, "Haha... You can only be lonely tonight."

Carson looked at Cecilla, who was not far away, and smiled at her. However, he was greeted by Lucian's stern warning glare.

Carson rubbed his nose and smiled at Lucian.

Nathaniel complained, "Seven is too mean."

Austin retorted, "Who told you to reveal your intentions so early?"

Nathaniel was speechless. Love was so great that Keh had changed.

Henrick had just returned from bringing his daughter to the bathroom. When he saw the bride and groom run away, he was very depressed.

"Nathaniel, why can't you even hold the bride and groom back?" Henrick had also thought of a few questions that would make things difficult for his brother.

Nathaniel was speechless. Why was it all his fault? What about the others?

Henrick stopped talking. He didn't even know where Keh went.

Keh got in the car with Raelynn and drove straight to the airport.

Keh had also learned this move from Henrick.

Raelynn looked at him with a smile and felt very grateful.

"Keh, thank you for our encounter with fate, our love for each other, for us getting married, and your love for me!"

The End.
