

Gluey Love 311

Chapter 311

Rebecca had also seen Haven's distracted look when she saw Victor.

"You know what I mean!" Vincent spoke coldly and turned to go downstairs.

"I..." Haven bit her lip and quickly followed him.

Anson smiled wryly as he narrowed his eyes and looked at Haven and Vincent's departing backs.

Haven could not seize Victor but she would do her best to seize Vincent.

Only then she could live a wealthy life.

Anson had grown up together with all of them so he knew Haven's character very well.

"Alas!" Phillip sighed heavily.

He glanced at Anson and asked, "Anson, how is Victor doing recently?"

Anson looked at Phillip in surprise.

Phillip actually took the initiative to care about Victor.

Anson smiled slightly and said indifferently, "Uncle Alwynn, Victor is doing very well."

Victor ate well and slept well because he had found Eden and had three children. Who else could be doing better than Victor at the moment?

He was doing so well that Anson was envious of him!

Rebecca's gaze was slightly cold and she said sarcastically, "I heard that he is dating a married woman recently. Is that true, Anson?"

"Uh..." Anson looked at Rebecca oddly.

She was really fast at investigating the matter.

If that was the case, Rebecca would soon know that Kenny and Ricky were Victor's children.

"Rebecca, you can't simply joke. The innocent girl's reputation would be ruined by your words.

Rebecca, that's not good!" Anson smiled diabolically but his eyes were cold.

Rebecca smiled coldly. She was about to speak when Anson took the lead and said, "Rebecca, how did you know about this?" His words were filled with a strong sense of doubt.

Phillip frowned and looked at Rebecca.

Imogen glanced at Anson.

"Anson, are you questioning if my mother is investigating Victor?"

Rebecca glared at Imogen when she finished speaking.

Anson beamed suddenly.

Imogen's words were very timely!

Anson hoped that Philip would have some doubts about Rebecca even though he loved her dearly.

Perhaps Phillip would investigate Rebecca one day and realize how disgusting she was.

Anson glanced at Imogen and smiled. "Imogen, I didn't say that but what Rebecca said is absolutely false."

Rebecca looked at him coldly and said, "Anson, aren't you and Victor close buddies who grew up together?"

Anson smiled and said, "Rebecca, you are right.

Victor and I are indeed good buddies who grew up together so I know everything about Victor.

However, he was not dating a married woman, like what you had mentioned.

I wonder where you heard the news from, Rebecca?"

There was sarcasm and a hidden meaning in Anson's words.

Phillip, who was sitting at the side, couldn't stop frowning when he heard the heated argument.

He looked at Anson and asked, "Anson, there must be a reason that people are saying that. Is Victor really dating a married woman?"

"Hehe..." Anson glanced at Phillip. His heart ached for Victor at that moment.

With such a father and a step-mother, it was no wonder he had such a hard time.

He replied Phillip unhurriedly with a wicked smile, "Uncle Alwynn, there is no smoke without fire but people also like to make groundless accusations."

The truth would be revealed at the right time!

Rebecca would not get away with it forever.

"Anson..."

"Uncle Alwynn, Victor always has a sense of propriety when doing things. He will never do something like that." Anson interrupted him without mercy.

Phillip was also a heartless man!

If he found out about Eden, he would do something to hurt Eden and her children secretly without understanding the actual situation.

Victor could not fight with Rebecca openly when they hadn't found Jaida.

"I see!" Phillip did not suspect Anson when he saw his insistence. Instead, he looked at Rebecca suspiciously!

He had been investigating the incident at the hotel last time.

He suddenly realized that he knew less and less about Rebecca.

A person who had done too much harm would be bound to cause a catastrophe. Everything would come to light one day!

Rebecca was about to speak when she suddenly saw Victor coming down from upstairs with some things in his hand.

She swallowed back the words that were about to come out of her mouth.

Victor glanced at Anson and said, "Let's go."

His words were indifferent, deep and cold.

"Okay!" Anson stood up.

Phillip felt a sharp pain in his heart when Victor didn't greet him.

He called out to Victor in a solemn tone, "Victor, since you are back, let's have a meal together!"

"There's no need for that. I'm afraid I'll throw up before I eat."

After Victor had finished speaking indifferently, he headed downstairs together with Anson.

"Victor, you..."

Rebecca smiled coldly when she saw that. She wanted Victor and Phillip's relationship to be completely severed.

She looked at Phillip gently. She got up suddenly and chased after Victor.

Victor's return today gave her a good opportunity.

She ran after him and shouted anxiously, "Victor, don't go. You've finally come back for once. You should stay and have a meal with your father!"

Victor and Anson had already reached the stairs.

Rebecca pushed Anson aside, caught up with Victor and blocked his way.

She raised her head and had a determined expression on her face to make Victor stay.

Victor felt a little nauseous when he saw Rebecca's behavior.

He knew that Rebecca was going to cause trouble again. He frowned and said angrily, "Get out of my way!"

A hint of wryness flashed across Rebecca's eyes. She said hurriedly, "Victor, we have not had a meal together as a family for a long time. Don't leave tonight. Stay and have a meal together with us. Your father has been looking forward to your return. Ah..."

Rebecca let out a long shriek and rolled down the stairs.

Her terrified voice echoed the magnificent villa.

Anson trembled violently. Rebecca was simply insane. She wanted to frame Victor again.

She still wanted to put on such a show!

As for Victor, he stood quietly on the stairs and looked coldly at Rebecca who had put up a show.

Rebecca rolled down a few steps of stairs. She was a little confused and her whole body hurt so much that she frowned.

"Mom..." Imogen and Phillip hurried over to take a look.

Rebecca endured the pain and looked at Victor with a painful expression on her face. "Victor, it's fine if you don't want to eat at home. Why did you push me?"

Rebecca cried in aggravation.

Chapter 312

Victor still had no expression on his face as though he was used to this kind of situation.

"Alas, Uncle Alwynn..."

"Victor, get out of here if you don't want to stay home for dinner. Is it fun to hurt your aunt like this?"

Before Anson could finish his words, Phillip's angry voice drowned his voice.

"Uncle Alwynn..."

"Stop talking. Just leave!" Phillip roared with a sullen expression on his face. He looked at Victor and Anson angrily with red eyes.

Anson was unhappy when he heard that.

Victor's handsome face darkened. He was trying desperately to hold back his anger.

Imogen ran towards Rebecca at her fastest speed to help the wretched Rebecca up.

"Mom, are you okay?" Imogen asked worriedly.

Victor was not far away from her. He exuded a cold aura, which made Imogen dared not look up at her brother whom she was afraid of since she was a child.

"I'm fine!" A hint of viciousness flashed across

Rebecca's eyes. She raised her head and looked at Victor with a concerned expression on her face, "Victor, don't be angry with your father. It's all my fault. I didn't take good care of you!"

Victor glared at her coldly, flames of fury burning in his eyes and a bloodthirsty smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

He was about to speak when Phillip suddenly said, "Rebecca, you don't have to speak for him. You're not wrong!"

The reason Philip defended Rebecca was due to Victor's rebellion!

Anson could not listen to it any longer. How could there be such a father in this world who would not listen to his son's explanation and conclude that it was all his son's fault.

He glanced at Rebecca coldly. His eyes were twinkling and he smiled wryly.

He quickly looked back at Phillip and said word by word angrily, "Uncle Alwynn, are you really a good father?"

Did you see what happened just now with your own eyes? If you didn't, why didn't you listen to Victor's explanation? You were sure that he was wrong without even asking him what had happened.

No wonder Victor is disappointed in you. Even an outsider like me feels extremely disappointed when I see this.

That woman fell down by herself just now but she framed Victor."

Rebecca frowned when she heard that but she didn't say a word.

When Phillip was angry, the person he thought was at fault would always be wrong. She had better keep quiet at the moment.

She acted more pitiful as she leaned in Imogen's arms with a heartbroken look. She looked extremely pitiful at the moment!

Phillip frowned. He obviously did not believe what Anson had said. "Anson, how can you say that? Your aunt has always been afraid of pain. How could she fall on her own?"

Anson was speechless when he saw Phillip's behavior.

"Hehe..." He smiled coldly and his heart ached for Victor.

Victor had survived Rebecca's despicable means since he was a child.

He had found his beloved woman but he didn't even dare to recognize her because he was afraid that Rebecca would once again ruin his hard-won happiness.

"Uncle Alwynn, you didn't find it disgusting even though you sleep with a wolf every night.

Sometimes, I really admire you when I think about it."

"Anson, what do you mean by that?" Imogen looked at him coldly. How could he call her mother a wolf?

"What do I mean? You're too young to be deaf. You don't need me to repeat!" Anson was sharp with his words when he was angry.

Rebecca looked up and her gloomy gaze fell on Anson's face. She said bitterly, "Anson, how can you say something like that?

What on earth did I do to you to the extent of being called a wolf?

"You..."

"Anson." Victor suddenly interrupted Anson.

His handsome face was cold and he looked at Rebecca coldly, causing her to shudder.

He sneered and said, "Today's show is wonderful. You can ask me to meet you on the roof next time and jump off the roof directly. My relationship with my father will be completely broken then and your purpose will be achieved."

He strode downstairs after that.

"Victor, you..." Phillip roared angrily as he looked at Victor's departing back.

"Victor, don't walk so fast. Wait for me!" Anson chased after him.

He hadn't vented out all his anger yet.

How could Victor hold back?

Rebecca let out a sigh of relief when she heard Victor and Anson's footsteps slowly receding!

Victor would usually come back alone. He rarely came back with his three friends.

She was surprised that Anson came along with him today.

She was relieved that Phillip believed her.

It didn't matter whether other people believed it or not!

Rebecca's thin body was shaky and she was on the verge of collapse. Her body gradually slid down and she was in great pain!

More importantly, Victor's cold gaze a moment ago frightened her.

"Mom, are you okay?" Imogen looked at her worriedly.

When Phillip saw that, he quickly went downstairs to help her up.

"Rebecca, you know about Victor's temper. Why did you still chase after him?"

Rebecca looked at him with a guilty look on her face.

She said guiltily, "Phillip, Victor seldom comes back.

I want him to stay back and have a meal with you. Hadn't it been a long time since he last had dinner with you?"

"Alas!" Phillip let out a heavy sigh.

"Forget it. He has grown up now. If he is not willing to come back home, then so be it! It's fine as long as he has a happy life outside!" The home would not be peaceful every time Victor returned.

Judging from Victor's behavior, Victor would not forgive Phillip for the rest of his life!

Everyone made mistakes but Victor would never forgive Phillip for the mistakes he made.

"Mom, do you want to go to the hospital?" Imogen asked.

She was a little confused. She felt very uncomfortable when she thought of Anson's cold gaze just now!

"No need. Help me get back to my room to rest!" Rebecca glanced at Phillip gently.

Phillip's anger vanished instantly when he saw her gentle gaze.

"Let's go! I'll help you get back and rest!" His tone was much gentler than usual.

"Okay!" Rebecca smiled faintly when she heard Phillip's gentle voice.

Phillip could never escape from her!

Rebecca felt that Jaida was really dumb. Jaida had never showed up all these years ever since Rebecca threatened her with Victor's and his sister's lives.

Chapter 313

Rebecca didn't know if Jaida was dead or had gone abroad. She did not have any news of her for the past seven years.

Jaida might never return for the sake for her children.

It was Jaida's weakness and incompetence that gave Rebecca the opportunity to take advantage of the situation!

Because of that, Rebecca was able to seduce Phillip and become the madam of the Alwynn family.

Phillip reminded, "Imogen, call the family doctor and ask him to come over and take a look at your mother."

"Okay!" Imogen nodded. She let go of Rebecca's arm and turned to make the phone call.

On the other hand, Phillip helped Rebecca back to her room to rest.

Victor got in the car angrily and glanced at the second floor of the villa coldly.

Anson had also got in the car quickly, started the engine and drove away.

Victor didn't even want to stay here any longer at the moment!

Anson could not hold back anymore when he drove the car to the road outside.

"Victor, no wonder you were not willing to go home when you were young. We all know that you had a hard time but I didn't expect you to lead such a miserable life!"

Anson looked at Victor who had a grim look through the rearview mirror. His heart ached for him!

He was unwilling to bring them into the house whenever he returned to the old mansion. However, he didn't say anything when Anson followed him in today.

Victor came back just to take some stuff and he planned to leave after that. Anson didn't expect such a thing to happen.

Victor leaned his head on the back of the chair and closed his eyes. There was a trace of exhaustion on his cold face. His tight jaw was trembling slightly.

Anson couldn't help but asked, "Victor, do you really want to put up with this forever? Rebecca might not know about Aunt Jaida's whereabouts." He wanted to teach Rebecca a lesson badly!

However, Victor was still concerned for Jaida's sake.

Victor maintained the same posture and didn't speak.

"Victor, you'd better be obedient if you want your mother to live peacefully. None of you will survive if you piss me off." Rebecca's vicious words echoed in Victor's mind.

"She knows!" Victor suddenly spoke dryly.

His company had been on the right track the past two years and he had the ability to find Jaida now.

He was doing his best to investigate this matter at the moment and he believed that there would be news soon!

Anson almost hit the brakes and stopped the car.

"Victor, haven't you told your father about these things?"

"He doesn't believe it!"

Victor's words made Anson speechless and sad at the same time.

He had seen what happened today. Phillip had always thought that Victor was rebellious and disobedient, and he was always prejudiced against Victor.

"D*mn it!" Anson cursed in rage.

Victor said slowly, "Anson, I have found Eden now. Next, use all our connections to secretly find my mother's whereabouts.

I will ask my sister not to return to the country for the time being.

My sister has been looking for my mother all these years but she still couldn't find her.

My mother would send me gifts every year but I couldn't trace the address. Some gifts had the address on it but I couldn't trace it back to her. I suspect that someone is secretly helping my mother and erasing her tracks. Rebecca is not capable of doing that."

Victor would receive his birthday gift from Jaida every year but she had never showed up!

He always looked forward to finding the return address on his birthday presents every year but he had never been able to find any traces left by Jaida!

He had always found it strange!

However, that was only his suspicion since he did not have solid evidence!

"Who could it be? We've been looking for her all these years, haven't we? It's strange that there is no trace of her at all. It is similar to Eden's situation."

Anson suddenly remembered something when he mentioned Eden. "By the way, Victor, why did Eden suddenly have a mother? She was raised by the Gienger family and is the biological daughter of the Clement family. Where did her mother come from?"

Victor suddenly opened his eyes and he exuded a cold and lonely aura.

"I don't know!"

He smiled when Eden was mentioned. His smile was lonely and sorrowful. There was a hint of longing in his restless soul.

He missed her. He would feel happy even if he just looked at her.

Victor closed his eyes again. What was Eden doing at the moment?

Was she tidying her house?

Victor's heart was filled with happiness again when he recalled the scene where Eden wore an apron to cook for him in the kitchen.

Anson asked, "Victor, are we going home now?"

He would accompany him whenever he wanted to go at the moment.

"Go home!" Victor wanted to find Eden but he was afraid that she would not let him in.

"Alright, let's go home!" Anson sneered when he heard that Victor was determined to return home. He smiled faintly and glanced at the cold and noble Victor. His smile solidified and it exuded a coldness!

"Victor, you never let us enter the old mansion with you but you were angry every time you came out from the house. You didn't quarrel with Rebecca every time you went back, did you?"

Victor said coldly, "You really have a lot of questions."

Trivial incidents would happen every time he went back. He had become accustomed and numbed to that.

Rebecca's purpose was very simple. She wanted to drive him out of the Alwynn family completely and let Vincent and Imogen inherit the Jotham Alwynn Group.

Anson said angrily, "I'm just concerned about you."

D*mned Victor. He would always make him angry every time he showed his concern for him!

Anson cared for Victor more than his parents. Why was Victor so ungrateful?

"You'd better show more concern for your future wife!"

Victor looked out of the car window. His face was pale and his cold eyes were deep and cold. His handsome side face looked well-defined under the sunlight.

The dark days had slowly come to light.

Anson stopped speaking because Victor had touched his sore spot.

Abigail did not pay much attention to him the past few days. Anson wondered if he had gone too far or Abigail was very busy that she did not have the time to chat with him.

She didn't reply to his message. His road to pursue Abigail was long!

Victor and Anson didn't speak on the way back.

Anson knew what Victor wanted when they reached the villa.

He turned on his laptop and Victor handed him the card. He quickly got his things done and loaded the data.

Anson poured two cups of tea and planned to sit down and enjoy the tea slowly.

Chapter 314

Anson wanted to see what interesting stuff Victor had recorded.

"Victor, come, have some tea!" Anson handed the tea to Victor.

Victor glanced at the teacup and did not accept it.

Anson frowned when he remembered something suddenly.

He glanced at the time and found it was getting late.

Victor had a habit of not drinking tea after five o'clock.

He was prone to insomnia. He could not fall asleep if he drank the tea.

"Come on, I'll make you an old papa tea!" He would add red dates with goji berries in the old papa tea!

Alas!

Anson shook his head helplessly. He was more tired than a maid today.

He made the tea quickly. He did not hand it to Victor this time. Instead, he placed it in front of Victor.

Victor didn't even glance at him.

He stared at the laptop. The footage on the laptop had appeared. There were scenes of Rebecca entering and leaving the mansion, and occasionally scenes of her making phone calls!

Victor and Anson were not in a hurry and they looked at the footage slowly!

A few minutes later, Anson suddenly saw Rebecca sitting in the living room and looking at several photos.

Anson quickly paused the footage and magnified it. After taking a closer look, he found that the pictures in Rebecca hands were photos of Victor and Eden eating together.

Anson said, "Tsk, tsk, tsk!"

"The old witch in your family is really fast."

Victor's gaze was stern. "She is not but she has people following me!" Victor's voice was terrifyingly deep and cold.

D*mned it!

Victor cursed in his heart!

He did not expect that Rebecca would send someone to secretly observe his every move.

"Victor, you have to be well-prepared. If Rebecca continues to investigate this matter, she will find out soon that Ricky and Kenny are your children." Anson spoke with concern at the side.

He knew how ruthless Rebecca was.

He was a gentleman but he wanted to beat Rebecca up after witnessing what had happened today.

"I know." Victor spoke in a deep voice.

He added, "I must let Eden care about me before Rebecca finds out that I am Kenny's father. I will find an opportunity to tell Eden the truth. What had happened back then would be a big blow to Eden."

The matter was a form of happiness for him but a fatal blow to Eden.

Anson nodded his head when he heard that.

He put down the teacup in his hand and looked at Victor. "Victor, don't be afraid this time. You have been waiting for Eden for more than a decade after all. You must be patient."

Victor was sincere and determined all the while even though Jasper had intervened. Eden was his only hope. With his unwavering faith, he would definitely have a good ending with Eden.

"I know!" Victor had a cold expression on his face and his eyes were fixed on the footage.

"Alas!" Anson let out a sigh!

He hoped that there would be a mistress in the villa soon so that he could move back home to accompany his parents!

Or perhaps...

A hint of joy flashed across Anson's eyes. Or perhaps he could keep his girlfriend company.

Anson became melancholic when he thought of Abigail.

He looked sideways at Victor and asked, "Victor, when will Ricky come back?"

Victor glanced at him coldly and said, "You miss Abigail?"

Anson refused to admit it even though Victor was right. He said, "What do you mean by 'I miss Abigail'? Don't you miss your son?"

"I can call Ricky!" Victor did not look at him as he spoke.

He could tell what Anson was thinking.

However, Abigail had a boyfriend after all.

Anson was speechless.

He felt depressed that Abigail did not reply his WhatsApp message!

He wanted to live and grow old together with Abigail.

He also wanted to live happily with her through thick and thin.

He wanted Abigail to come to his side so badly.

Anson suddenly realized that he had fallen for a woman whom he had only met two or three times.

Victor watched the last part of the footage but there was no useful information.

He turned off the laptop.

Anson lowered his head and looked at his phone. Suddenly, he saw a piece of news on his phone that caught his attention.

He read aloud, "The mysterious real estate tycoon, Zaiden Calder, got married mysteriously. He already has a daughter."

He swiped down and suddenly saw the backs of the family of three. The daughter was resting her head on her mother's shoulder. Anson could only see her slim back.

"Ah!" Anson was stunned and froze on the spot.

"I've just met Mr. Calder for less than a day. How did he get married?

I never see him together with any woman. Where did his daughter come from? It is really strange.

He has always been very mysterious in the business circle. It is strange that he is married. Didn't everyone say that he has no wife and children?

Who is his daughter who suddenly comes out of nowhere?"

There were a lot of weird things going on every year but the most weird things happened this year.

Victor also quickly took out his mobile phone and glanced at it!

He immediately recognized who it was the moment he saw the daughter's back.

He said in surprise, "It's Eden!"

Who was the lady she was leaning on?

Why did he feel familiar about the lady's back?

Victor watched quietly.

"Ah..." Anson jumped up instantly.

He looked at Victor in surprise and asked, "Victor, are you sure you see it right? Is it really Eden?"

"Yes!" Victor nodded firmly!

He could have mistaken anyone else but her!

The girl was Eden!

"That means it is not Zaiden's biological daughter." Anson was confused.

Victor found it weird too. He fixed his eyes on the three people's backs.

Anson thought for a moment and said, "What kind of weird family is this? Eden is not the biological daughter of both the mother and the father. How did they become a family?"

Anson rubbed his chin gently and suddenly looked at Victor in shock. He asked in confusion, "Victor, could it be that we had made a mistake? Eden is not the daughter of the Clement family!"

Victor frowned suddenly and looked at him. He said angrily, "Anson, you were the one who did the paternity test. Moreover, I would not have mistaken Eden. It is too coincidental that she is so similar to Eden Clement.

Even if I had misidentified other places, it is impossible for me to be mistaken about the wound on Eden's knee. I have been handling the wound. It was a little purple at the beginning.

The wound is still there even though time has passed. It's the same wound. I can't be wrong!"

She was Eden!

"Let's go, Victor. Let's go to Eden's house." Anson grabbed the car keys.

"Now?" Victor looked at him hesitantly.

"That's right! I'm extremely curious about the whole incident! We can have a free meal if we go at this time." Anson headed outside as he spoke.

Chapter 315

Victor still sat down coldly and did not get up. His noble and commanding temperament was captivating.

"No!" It was not that he didn't want to go but he couldn't!

He shouldn't procrastinate on this matter any longer. He must let Eden come back to his side safely before Rebecca made a move!

"Why?" Anson looked at Victor with a frown. He wanted to visit Eden and find out if she was Zaiden's daughter.

Didn't Victor care very much about Eden?

Moreover, he wanted to see Kenny and Gia!

Victor didn't say anything and sat there quietly.

"Are you really not going?" Anson looked at him from the corner of his eyes. "Could it be that you still want to eat the stir-fried beef with melon that I made?"

"Get lost!" Victor glared at him.

He was sure that he would throw up the food he ate tomorrow if he ate that!

Victor said coldly, "Go out and buy something for me to eat. I'm hungry." His cold and solitary figure sat upright and his gaze was fixed on the laptop.

"You are a madman!" Anson cursed before he accepted his fate and went out to buy some food.

He picked up the car key and went out.

The wind was blowing outside and the dark clouds were nearly at the same level as the tall buildings!

Anson glanced outside gloomily. "It's going to rain again!"

He arrived at the garage, picked up his car and drove downtown.

However, today was a good day for Eden's family!

Zaiden booked a high-end restaurant and the whole family had a lively meal!

Everyone was laughing and joking and all of them had a happy smile on their faces!

Under Eden's arrangements, Zaiden and Jaida flew abroad for their honeymoon at eight o'clock that night.

Zaiden's news had spread widely in the business world!

Many people had reposted the news in WhatsApp group, Everyone was paying attention to this matter.

Even Facebook was on the verge of breaking down!

Zaiden's really had a big influence in both cities!

Jasper also saw the news. He was not shocked because he knew that Zaiden always had the intention to marry Jaida.

Zaiden had never mentioned it before because of Jaida!

He had been taking care of Jaida for so many years and now they finally became a couple!

Abigail was sitting on the bench at a filming site in Gate City. She almost dropped her cell phone when she saw the news!

Ricky had just finished filming all the scenes. Abigail was about to bring him back. She turned her head and said excitedly when she saw him, "Ricky, quickly come and take a look. Your mother has become rich."

Henrick was speechless.

He smiled faintly and said, "Mommy, even if my mother has become rich, she is still your good sister!"

Abigail exuded a charming aura when she heard that. She looked at Ricky gently with her beautiful eyes.

She pinched Ricky's little face quickly and said, "Hey! My son has such a sweet mouth? Your Grandpa Zaiden had recognized your mother as his daughter. Are you happy?"

Ricky smiled and nodded. "Mommy, I'm happy. Grandpa Zaiden and Grandma will have a home in the future."

Abigail was slightly stunned. She did not expect Ricky to reply in such a way.

"Hehe..." She laughed twice and said, "Ricky, your Grandpa Zaiden is very rich. Your mother would be..."

"Mommy, my mother is not that kind of person. My mother did not become Grandpa Zaiden's daughter for his money. Instead, she wants the lonely Grandpa Zaiden to have a home." Kenneth interrupted Abigail. He knew what she wanted to say.

However, he still wanted to defend Eden!

"Oh my god! Ricky, how old are you actually? You know what I was going to say before I finished my words. I know that your mother is not a greedy person.

However, your mom will have a better life in the future after having this identity!" Abigail knew Eden very well.

Eden did not like to owe other people favors especially family members!

Therefore, she never owed people anything.

She had always felt guilty about being indebted to Abigail and Jasper. Hence, she tried her best to return the favor to them.

Henrick smiled and didn't say anything.

He didn't want Abigail to misunderstand Eden!

"Ricky, let's go. Wrap up. Let's go back to the hotel. We will go outdoors for shooting tomorrow. We need to go to bed early tonight." She got up, revealing her charming curves.

"Okay!" Henrick nodded. Abigail held his little hand and walked out!

Abigail greeted the people along the way. Henrick maintained a modest smile on his face. He nodded and smiled at the people he met along the way.

Everyone at the filming site liked him very much!

On the other hand, Eden, Zofia, Kenny, and Gia strolled along the river on their way home.

The air was extremely fresh because it rained a while ago.

Zofia said enviously, "Eden, Aunt Jaida and Uncle Calder are very happy!"

"Yes!" Eden smiled and said, "Uncle Calder is the ruler of the real estate in River City and Gate City. He is powerful and influential. He could give my mother a better life."

Eden didn't know why Jaida tried to commit suicide seven years ago.

She did not ask Jaida the reason because she did not want to uncover her scars. Jaida would tell her when she was ready to do so.

"That's right! Aunt Jaida will be very happy in the future! Uncle Calder is very nice and easy-going." Zofia was still envious.

She glanced at Eden and asked, "Eden, you must be very sensible when you were a child, right?"

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, why do you ask that?"

Zofia smiled and thought for a moment before she said, "Eden, I can tell from your character!"

Eden said with a bitter smile, "Zofia, sometimes a person is sensible because he is polished by life to become like that!"

Every girl wanted to be doted by their parents and grew up like a princess.

She dreamed of having such a life previously but unfortunately, she didn't have such a life!

After living in the Gienger family for a few years, she understood that others would be jealous of a person who was better than them.

She did very well in her studies, causing Myra to become even jealous of her. Hence, Myra had never been nice to her.

However, after that night seven years ago, she suddenly understood that others would also admire a person when he surpassed them.

They would not look at the person coldly. Instead, they would look at him with admiration in their eyes.

Eden had felt humanity over the years. Her life was not completely shattered because of that.

Instead, it made her braver!

Zofia emphasized with Eden when she heard her words.

"Eden, let's try our best to live our lives in the future and make ourselves better!" Zofia would make her family's food stall better. She had wonderful culinary skills. She believed she could live the life she wanted in a few years time.

"Okay!" Eden smiled gently. The night breeze blew through her soft hair. Her pale face was red because she drank red wine tonight, and she looked more refreshing and beautiful.

Giada and Kenneth followed silently behind Eden and Zofia.

Chapter 316

The next day was Sunday. Eden was free and she woke up naturally.

It was almost nine o'clock when she got up.

She washed up after that. She didn't plan to have a morning jog today. Instead, she planned to understand Darlene thoroughly and finished the theme she gave her!

After washing up, she turned on her laptop, opened the browser and found information about Darlene.

She browsed through every news carefully!

"Mom!" Giada shouted from outside.

Eden turned around to glance at her. She smiled gently. Giada had gotten up.

She got up to open the door. The morning sunlight entered the room through the cracks of the heavy curtains and the dappled light spread across the floor!

Eden opened the door and saw Giada carrying a small bag. She frowned and asked, "Gia, are you going out?"

"Yes!" Giada nodded her head with a smile. "Mom, give me some money. I am going to the library in the city center with Kenny. We feel bored staying at home for the whole day!"

Eden was a little worried when she heard that. She said, "You can watch TV at home."

"Mom, didn't you say that watching TV is not good for the eyes? Besides, I'm not interested in watching TV. Kenny likes reading and I like the atmosphere at the bookstores. I want to find books that are related to drawing." Giada had a determined look on her face.

Eden looked at her helplessly before she turned to take some change and two hundred dollars from her bag and gave them to Gia. "Here, Gia. This is the money for the food and books. Be careful on the road!"

Giada was instantly delighted. "Thank you, Mom! You don't have to worry. Kenny and I are very smart. We won't be kidnapped.

There is also a bus stop outside. It is very convenient to get there and come back!"

Giada waved her hands at Eden as she spoke. She turned around and ran downstairs after that. Eden smiled helplessly when she saw Giada's cheerful little figure.

Eden turned around and immersed herself in designing again. She couldn't extricate herself from it!

She only got up and went downstairs when Zofia sent her a WhatsApp message to ask her to have lunch downstairs at about eleven o'clock.

She had drafted her design after working hard in the morning!

She glanced at it in satisfaction before she turned around and went downstairs to eat!

Kenny and Gia were not at home. Only Eden and Zofia had lunch together.

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, your pork rib soup tastes very good. You have to drink more since you are pregnant!"

"Okay!" Zofia nodded with a smile and asked, "Eden, are you free later?"

Eden asked, "Do you want to go out?"

"Yes! I found a store on the Internet that is suitable to be a food stall. I want to go there and have a look!"

Eden smiled and said, "Okay, I'll go with you later. Uncle Calder left his car here and he gave the keys to me. I'll drive you there later so you don't have to squeeze with other people in the subway."

"Okay!" Zofia looked at her with a grateful smile. She wanted to have something to do as soon as possible. Otherwise, her future life with her baby would be very difficult!

Eden drove the car after they finished dinner.

It was very lively and there were many people on the road, causing the city to become more and more prosperous.

Eden started the navigation and drove to the destination.

She looked at the location and realized that it was not far from her house. It was located just behind her residential area. It would take about five stops to reach there by bus!

It was faster to drive there!

Eden parked the car. She and Zofia got down and looked at the surroundings. The buildings in this area were very luxurious and were in the form of commercial streets.

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, can food stalls do well at a place like this?"

Zofia was very experienced in this field. She looked around and said, "Eden, yes. I sell food at the night market. There are also night markets here. This place is very prosperous and there are a lot of people living here. I'm afraid that the rent will be very expensive!"

Eden also thought of this. She said, "Let's go and have a look first!" "Okay!" Zofia nodded. She opened the navigation on her mobile phone and the two of them headed to the destination together!

Eden's phone rang suddenly. She took out her phone and looked at it before she answered the call with a smile.

"Hey! Dad, are you having a good time? Have you eaten yet?"

Zaiden felt extremely happy when he heard Eden calling him Dad. "Eden, your mother and I have already had lunch. We are going to the beach now. I called you because your mother said that she was worried about you. What are you doing now?"

"Oh! Dad, I am a mother of three. I am not a child. Just enjoy your trip at ease. Don't worry about me. I am looking for a store with Zofia on Upper Street at the moment."

"Why are you looking for a store?" Zaiden asked curiously.

"Dad, Zofia wants have a food stall on her own. It happens that there are stores at the night market here. Hence, we came here to have a look."

"Oh, the stores over there are of high commercial value. The rent is particularly expensive!"

Eden said, "Dad, we will take a look first. We will go to other places if it is too expensive." "Have you forgotten about my identity? The Upper East Sleglund is my territory. Send me the store Zofia likes." Zaiden's tone was quite reproachful.

Eden could only smile helplessly. Zaiden was indeed powerful!

Even the Upper East Sleglund was his property. It was incredible!

"Alright, Dad. However, I am afraid that this will disturb your honeymoon with Mom." Eden teased him with a smile.

"Well! As a father, I have to allocate some precious time to help with the things that my daughter cares about." Zaiden spoke in a doting tone.

"Hehe..." Eden was touched by his sincerity. Eden's gentle smile originated from the bottom of her heart. It was so soft, beautiful and captivating.

"Okay, Dad. I'll send it to you later."

Eden chatted for a while with Zaiden before she hung up.

Eden said, "Zofia, give me the store's location. I will send it to Dad. He said that this area belongs to him and we don't have to look for a store every day."

"How can I trouble Uncle Calder?" Zofia smiled as she sent the address to Eden.

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, this matter is very easy for Dad but it's hard for us. You're pregnant now and it's not good to get too tired. It'll be easier for you if Dad is able to help!"

Eden sent the address to Zaiden as she spoke.

Zaiden called back in less than ten seconds. "Eden, it is a good location. The owner of the store couldn't pay the rent a few days ago, so the store is vacant. It is suitable for Zofia to do a food stall.

Just go there directly. I'll call my assistant and ask him to go there. Tell Zofia that I give her six months' free rent because she is your friend. The rent is two hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year."

"Wow! Dad, do you want to give me one too?" Eden asked excitedly.

"Silly girl. You are my daughter now. Everything I own belongs to you. Just tell me which lot you want."

Chapter 317

"Haha..." Eden smiled because she was overwhelmed.

She was not accustomed to the blessing!

Who said that there was no such thing as a free lunch?

Eden had run into one.

"Dad, I am kidding. Let's talk about that in the future. Dad, you should have fun with Mom and return home happy. Please remember to bring me a gift!" Eden said the last sentence word by word!

She would feel very happy if she could receive Zaiden's gift.

"Got it, silly girl!"

Eden and Zaiden chatted for a while before they hung up.

Eden looked at Zofia who was nervous and smiled. "Zofia, the store that you saw online belongs to my father. The area is very suitable for a food stall. The rent is twenty- hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year but you would be exempted to pay the rental for half a year. However, you'd better go and have a look first to see if you like it or not!"

Zofia was too excited to say anything when she heard that. She didn't expect that she would encounter something good like this.

This rent was really expensive!

She didn't have much money at the moment.

"Eden, the night market nearby is doing great here. I have been here before, that's why I decided to come here and have a look."

Eden looked at Zofia and said, "Zofia, shall we go and have a look first? Someone will be there to receive us. If you like it, you can do business during this period of time. It's not far from home. I can come and pick you up at night!"

"No. You are already very tired from work every day." Eden had helped her a lot. Zofia felt that meeting Eden was like meeting a lucky star.

"What is there to be tired about when I only sit in the office all day? Besides, I can have something to eat for free if I come here. I like the food cooked by your family very much. It tastes really good!"

"Eden, if you like it, I'll cook for you every day!"

"Okay!" Eden agreed readily.

Eating good food and drinks were the only things that mattered besides working hard in life. Eden would not refuse good food!

Eden and Zofia chatted happily as they walked!

Meanwhile, in Jasper's spacious and bright office.

Jasper had been very busy for the past few days. He had been busy dealing with things in his office even on weekends.

He felt a little down when he received a sudden phone call.

His deep and cold gaze were fixed at the news on the phone and he tapped the office table gently with his slender fingers. He had a serious expression on his handsome face.

The person who investigated Eden was really Victor.

He twitched the corner of his mouth and looked at the time. He then looked for Victor's phone number and dialed it.

Victor was dealing with official business at home when he suddenly received a phone call from an unknown number. He hesitated for a moment before he answered the call.

"Hello!" His tone was extremely cold.

"Mr. Alwynn, it's me. Let's meet!"

Victor had an unfathomable expression on his face when he heard that it was Jasper. He asked in a deep voice, "Do you need anything?"

"Yes!" Jasper also replied in an extremely cold tone.

Victor's expression became slightly serious. "Give me the address!"

Jasper said, "Let's meet at the restaurant in Fashion Square at 6 o'clock sharp." His tone was very deep.

Victor could tell something unusual from his tone.

"Okay!" After hanging up the phone, Victor glanced at the computer coldly and his fingers quickly tapped the keyboard.

He knew Jasper's purpose of meeting him.

Eden and Zofia arrived at the street of the night market in Upper East Sleglund.

The street was very wide and clean. Each store occupied a very large area and was more than a hundred square meters.

Zofia smiled and said, "Eden, this is the store!"

Zofia pointed at a store opposite her excitedly. The store was open at the moment. A middle-aged man in a suit was standing at the door and was expecting someone to come!

Eden smiled and said, "Zofia, let's go and have a look."

"Okay!"

Eden and Zofia walked over and the middle-aged man opposite smiled at them.

Eden asked politely, "Are you Dawson?" "Yes. Miss, I am Dawson. Mr. Calder told me to wait for his daughter here. You must be her!" Dawson looked at Eden closely.

He had seen this girl in the car before. Mr. Calder had always said that she was kind.

He realized that she looked very beautiful when he took a closer look at her today. Her smile and eyes were captivating!

"Yes, Dawson." Eden suddenly had a feeling that she had become powerful.

Dawson smiled and said, "Miss Calder, I've been with Mr. Calder since I was a teenager. I've never seen Mr. Calder as happy as he was last night.

Mr. Calder and I are like brothers and I know exactly what he wants over the years. Thank you, Miss Calder, for giving Mr. Calder a home."

Zaiden was an orphan. He had always longed to have a family. Back then...

Dawson shook his head when he thought about what happened in the past.

Eden's heart ached slightly when she heard that. She knew that something must have happened between Jaida and Zaiden. Otherwise, they would not have waited so long to be finally together.

"Let's go. I'll show you inside."

Dawson turned around and walked inside as he spoke. He said, "This place used to be a food stall but the owner's son had lost all his savings because of gambling and he couldn't pay the rent in the end. He had moved out two days ago. The store would be rented out if you come a little later."

"Wow!" Zofia looked at the spacious and bright room and felt very happy suddenly.

She said excitedly, "Eden, it's pretty good here!"

Dawson replied, "Yes, it's pretty good. The night market is also very lively."

"Thank you, Dawson. I will take it then. I have been here before." Zofia stopped. There was no need to renovate the place. All she needed to do was to change the signboard.

She had been looking for a store in this area. However, it was hard to find a store at the night market because the stores were mostly inherited.

Dawson smiled and said, "Okay! We'll sign the contract today. Mr. Calder has told me the details and the process is very simple."

"Thank you, Dawson!" Eden smiled gratefully.

In fact, she always knew that Zofia was not at ease. She would feel at ease if she had this store to do business!

Zofia said, "Thank you, Dawson. Well sign the contract today to spare you a trip from coming back tomorrow!"

"That's what I was thinking!" Dawson took the contract out of his briefcase, placed it on the table and signed it as he spoke.

After that, he gave Zofia the contract to sign.

Zofia was very grateful to Zaiden. She signed her name directly without even reading the contract!

Dawson took out the key from his bag and handed it to Zofia. "Miss Rivera, it's done. This is the key to the store. I will leave the store to you to run from now onwards. I wish you a prosperous business!"

"Thank you, Dawson!" Zofia accepted the key excitedly.

"No need to thank me! Miss Calder, Miss Rivera, I still have something else to do. I will take my leave first!" Dawson smiled at Eden as he spoke. Eden was neither arrogant nor rash. The more he looked at her, the more he liked her!

Chapter 318

Eden smiled and said, "Goodbye, Dawson!"

"Okay!" Dawson smiled gently and turned to leave.

Zofia looked at the things in the store. With this store, she would be at ease in the future.

"Zofia, this place is really good!" Eden was glad to see Zofia happy.

Zofia looked at her with a grateful smile. "Eden, thank you for all this! I really don't know what to do if it weren't for you.

I don't have the courage and I am afraid that reality will crush me. However, everything is fine right now. I feel that life is a lot easier with this store and having you as my friend."

She was very confident that her culinary skills would help the business here get better!

Eden felt relieved when she heard Zofia's words!

Zofia could start from scratch as long as she did not have suicidal thoughts!

Eden understood Zofia's feelings very well. She also wanted to die back then.

She was very disappointed at that time. Jasper and Abigail had to persuade her every day.

She only lived bravely when she knew she was pregnant.

She had no family but the presence of the child would enable her to have a family of her own.

Her greatest wish at that time was to have a home now that she thought about it.

Eden glanced at the time and said, "Zofia, it's still early today. We would have nothing to do if we get back home. Why don't we clean this place first so that I would not be worried about you when you come alone tomorrow!"

"Okay!" Zofia nodded with a smile. The two rolled up their sleeves and began to sweep the floor!

Eden was very good at housework and doing chores was easy for her.

Zofia would occasionally raise her head to glance at Eden. Her eyes were filled with gratitude every time.

Meeting Eden, who was so kind, was like meeting a lucky star.

She felt that everyone who met Eden was very lucky and they would also get the happiness they wanted!

Victor's tall and upright figure appeared in the restaurant at six o'clock. He glanced at the restaurant with his dark eyes lazily.

Suddenly, he saw Jasper sitting by the window. Jasper was leaning lazily on the stool and he was wearing an expensive tailored shirt. His sturdy chest was vaguely visible via his slightly loose collar.

He was more formally dressed today. He looked flamboyant and more reserved than usual!

The expression on his handsome face was much colder than before!

Victor walked toward him elegantly.

He sat down slowly opposite Jasper and he looked mature and noble!

Jasper lifted his eyelids slightly when he sensed a cold aura. He glanced at Victor and maintained his sitting posture!

"What do you want to eat, Mr. Alwynn?" His indifferent tone couldn't help but make Victor wonder what he was up to.

Victor stared at the indifferent Jasper and said in a deep voice, "President Jasper, I don't think you are able to eat in front of me. Why don't we go to the coffee shop!"

Jasper raised his eyes and looked straight at him. Victor really thought too highly of himself.

"Mr. Alwynn, that's not necessary. Let's stay here. I don't have a deep hatred for you! It's fine to have a meal together."

Jasper called the waiter over after he finished speaking!

Victor curled his lips slightly and smiled coldly. He accepted the menu and ordered two of his favorite dishes.

Jasper also quickly ordered the dishes he wanted!

After the waiter left, Jasper smiled and said, "Mr. Alwynn, your company has developed very well in the past few years. Congratulations on the listing of your company!"

Victor leaned back gracefully and narrowed his eyes slightly. "Thank you, President Jasper, you have also made great progress in the past few years!"

Jasper was also a legend in the business world!

He had established the Joye Group with his own abilities!

Moreover, his sister, Abigail, was also a famous agent!

Jasper and Abigail had a very prosperous life in Gate City but Jasper decided to stay here because of Eden!

Jasper was Victor's greatest love rival!

The dishes were served very soon. Jasper did not ask for wine. Jasper and Victor ate as they chatted. Halfway through the meal, Jasper elegantly put down the chopsticks in his hand, picked up the glass of water at the side, and took a sip.

He looked at Victor and said, "Mr. Alwynn, you seem to be very interested in Eden?"

Victor's expression turned cold when he heard Eden's name.

Jasper's expression turned cold as well.

They looked at each other deeply and intense coldness enveloped both of them!

It seemed as though they were competing in a staring competition!

"Haha..." Victor laughed coldly and smiled sarcastically. "President Jasper, when did Eden become yours? Is there any hidden meaning in your words?"

Jasper smiled and avoided answering the question. He asked, "Mr. Alwynn, why did you investigate Eden?"

As a member of the circle, Jasper knew that Victor had a good character even though he had a lot of brutal rumors!

Victor narrowed his eyes. "President Jasper, are you here to meddle with my business?"

Based on his temper, he wouldn't show up here if it weren't for the fact that Jasper and Abigail had been helping him to take care of Eden and his children for the past seven years.

Jasper said in a serious tone, "Mr. Alwynn, I came here this time to ask you to be noble and spare Eden. She has been living a hard life over the years. Do you know what kind of harm you will cause her by being good to her?"

Victor's stepmother, Rebecca, had been investigating the relationship between Eden and Victor!

Victor's heart tightened. He knew what Jasper was referring to.

If Jasper knew that he was investigating Eden, he would also know that Rebecca was also investigating Eden.

Victor distant himself from Eden recently because of that but even so, he couldn't stop Rebecca from laying a finger on Eden. However, Jasper could stop her.

Victor came up with a lot of plans in his mind!

Victor subconsciously clenched the glass of wine in his hand. He hadn't come up with the best solution to this matter.

He could not monitor Eden's every move at all times.

He asked deliberately, "What do you mean?"

Jasper frowned and said, "Mr. Alwynn, there's no need to play dumb between you and me."

His heart surged with passion when he thought of Eden's beautiful features, arched eyebrows and her bright and innocent smile.

He wanted to protect Eden and he would never let anyone bully or hurt her!

Victor squinted his deep eyes lazily and answered casually, "I really don't understand what you mean, President Jasper."

Jasper loved Eden very much but how did Eden feel about him?

It was obvious that Jasper was sincere because he was willing to do such a thing for Eden!

"Victor!" Jasper was furious.

Victor looked at Jasper coldly.

He felt sorry for Jasper!

Chapter 319

Victor could not live without Eden.

He had been waiting for her for so many years!

He was grateful that Jasper took care of Eden and his children all these years.

Eden was the only girl who had ever made him want to live. He couldn't and didn't want to forget her.

Jasper looked at Victor angrily.

Victor smiled elegantly and said, "Jasper, I can only tell you that I will never hurt Eden no matter what I do. You just need to remember this."

"Why should I believe you?" Jasper's tone was filled with anger!

Victor sneered and said, "Jasper, do you have any other choice other than trusting me?"

"I..."

"I've finished lunch and I've already said what I should say. I'll take leave first!" Victor got up as he spoke and left gracefully under Jasper's angry gaze.

Jasper looked at Victor's back. He got up angrily and chased after him.

"Victor, stop right there!"

Victor ignored him. He walked forward with his hands in his pockets.

"Humph!" Jasper snorted coldly and his imposing aura was weaker than Victor's.

He strode after Victor and his handsome face was filled with pride. "Victor, you can't leave until you make it clear today."

The reason he asked Victor out today was to get to the bottom of things!

Victor frowned at Jasper. He emanated an icy cold aura that lingered slightly around Jasper. His lips were tightly pressed together on his dazzling and handsome face and he looked at Jasper deeply.

"Jasper, I've already said all that I should say to you. I have nothing else to say." His tone was cold and he no longer had the patience to continue the conversation.

Jasper sneered and tugged the corner of his lips. He said, "You have to tell me the reason you investigated Eden today."

Victor raised his eyebrows and sneered, "Jasper, I have already told you very clearly that I have no ill intention towards Eden! You have heard every word clearly!"

"Why are you investigating her then if you have no ill intention? I suppose it's not as simple as just being interested in her." He was afraid that Eden's identity would be exposed and cause her harm once again.

Victor looked at the persistent Jasper and frowned slightly. "Jasper, how many times do I have to tell you before you will believe me?"

Jasper said angrily, "I won't believe you no matter how many times you repeat."

"Hehe..." Victor sneered, "Do you think there is any need to continue this conversation?"

"What is your reason?" Jasper persisted.

He was afraid that Eden would get hurt!

Victor had made up his mind and said in a gentle tone, "Jasper, do you think a person needs a reason to love someone?"

Jasper felt as if his heart had been struck by a thunderbolt.

What did Victor just say?

"Do you think a person needs a reason to love someone?" Jasper was shocked. Victor had feelings for Eden-

Jasper was unwilling to think further.

"Victor, you..."

Victor glanced at Jasper who had a painful expression on his face. He couldn't bear to continue to say what he wanted to say.

He walked past Jasper and was about to leave when he saw Eden and Zofia walking towards him.

Jasper's back was facing Eden. He raised his eyebrows slightly and he stared at Victor coldly.

"Victor..."

"Eden."

Victor's word made Jasper swallow the words that he was going to say.

He turned around quickly and saw Eden and Zofia.

Eden looked at Victor and Jasper in confusion. Why were they together?

"Mr. Alwynn, Jasper, what a coincidence!" Eden greeted with a smile.

Eden and Zofia didn't go back home to cook after they cleaned up the store because it was late. They thought of coming here to have dinner instead.

Zofia also smiled and nodded to Victor and Jasper.

Jasper no longer had a cold expression on his face. He asked, "Eden, Zofia, haven't you had dinner yet?"

"That's right, Jasper, we haven't eaten yet. Have you eaten? If you haven't, let's eat together!" Eden looked at Jasper and Victor.

"No." "No."

Victor and Jasper answered in unison.

They glanced at each other quickly and their eyes were burning with anger.

Jasper was angry with Victor for not knowing what was good for him and saying such words at this time.

Victor was angry with Jasper's hypocrisy but on second thought, he realized that he was the same.

"Let's eat together!" Eden walked towards Jasper with a smile.

Jasper smiled at her gently.

Victor watched and did not show any expression on his face. However, deep down, he was furious.

Jasper was provoking him!

Jasper asked, "Eden, how come there only the two of you? Where are Kenny and Gia?"

"They went to the library. They told me that they will eat outside and will only return at eight o'clock. The siblings are bookworms." Eden smiled contentedly. Her three children had been working hard all the while. It seemed that they would be able to do homework on their own when they attended primary school!

"They went by themselves?" "Yes!" Eden nodded and smiled, "They went out in the morning. They didn't want to stay at home even though I let them watch TV!"

"Hehe, the two kids are so sensible that you don't have to worry about them." Jasper's mood became better when he mentioned Kenny and Gia.

Victor followed behind them gloomily. He felt that he was transparent to Eden when Jasper was present.

Zofia also followed behind quietly.

Buddy, who came here to socialize, greeted the guests. He turned around and saw Zofia, who was following behind Victor silently.

"Zofia..." He cried out painfully.

Aisling, who was behind him, walked out at the moment. However, she did not see Zofia.

She looked at Buddy's back and shouted, "Buddy, why are you still standing there? Let's go home."

Buddy ignored Aisling. His painful gaze was fixed on Zofia and he saw Eden put a glass of water in front of her. He quickly withdrew his gaze when he heard the footsteps behind him.

He turned around and walked forward indifferently without even looking at Aisling.

Aisling frowned when she saw that and followed him.

She warned, "Buddy, you have to pull yourself together. Don't be too sentimental. We had spent almost all our savings to buy the land this time. You should know its importance, right?"

"Yes!" Buddy responded coldly and did not say anything else.

Aisling glared at him and said, "Buddy, pull yourself together. You've seen the articles about Zaiden. Go and find out who his daughter is. If we are able to get an investment from Zaiden, it will save us a lot of trouble for the start-up capital."

Buddy's face was filled with anger when he heard that. "Mom, what do you want? You don't want me to have a joint marriage with his daughter, do you?"

Chapter 320

Aisling felt uncomfortable when she heard Buddy's angry tone. She said coldly, "I didn't say that."

"Mom, but that's what you meant!" Buddy stopped suddenly and looked at Aisling, anger written all over his face.

Aisling was so angry that she almost couldn't breathe. Buddy's temperament had changed a lot recently.

Even she was a little afraid to see him.

"Buddy, is this... is this how you talk to your mother?" Aisling was so angry that her chest heaved up and down and her breathing was heavy!

"Mom, don't go overboard!" Buddy wanted to turn around and glance at Zofia again but he resisted the urge to do so because Aisling was present.

His tall and upright figure headed for the garage.

Aisling followed him there!

Both of them did not speak during the entire walk.

On the other hand, Eden and the others chatted as they ate when all their dishes were served.

"Zofia, come, eat more of this fish." Eden picked up a piece of fish and put it in Zofia's bowl as she spoke.

"Okay! Eden, you should also eat more. Thank you for today." Zofia smiled softly.

Victor did not know that Zofia was staying at Eden's house.

Jasper was the only one who knew about the matter and nobody mentioned about it.

Victor didn't talk much. He had become distant with Eden during this period of time.

For Eden, keeping such a distance was the best!

However, to Victor, keeping away from Eden had made him very painful every day!

They had only spoken to each other two or three times the whole night even though they were eating at the same table.

There were all kinds of flavors in the world. Victor only wanted Eden's sweetness!

Jasper asked curiously, "Eden, where did you go today? Where are Aunt Jaida and Uncle Calder?"

Eden smiled sweetly when she heard this. "Of course, he is having a honeymoon with my mother. My mother has finally found a great man after working hard for so many years."

"Haha... Look how satisfied you are!" Jasper looked at her with a smile.

He had affection towards Eden's every move and his dazzling smile came from the bottom of his heart.

Victor glanced at Eden. He was quite interested in the matter.

He was very curious to know why Eden had suddenly become Zaiden's daughter. He was even more curious about the mother she mentioned!

"Why is only your family included when Uncle Calder and Aunt Jaida are married? Why are Abigail, Ricky and I excluded?" Jasper was rather displeased. He had a good friendship with Zaiden.

Eden smiled and said, "Jasper, are you afraid that you don't have a place to give them a wedding gift? Mom and Dad only registered for marriage. They will only hold a wedding after a period of time!

Dad has waited for Mom for many years. When Mom finally agreed to marry Dad, he dragged her to register for marriage because he was afraid that she would regret her decision.

In the end, I was also recognized as his daughter. I also set them up along the way and let Dad take Mom to go for a honeymoon!

Their relationship is exceptionally precious to them. They finally have a complete home!"

Eden felt very happy when she thought of how much livelier her house would be in the future!

"Your family has the perfect combination for having a daughter like you, two grandsons and a granddaughter!" Jasper looked at Eden and smiled happily!

"Yes!" Eden replied before she lowered her head and continued to eat her food.

Victor wanted to ask Eden some questions but he couldn't bear to ask them when he saw Eden's happy smile.

"Ugh..." Zofia suddenly vomited.

Eden quickly put down her chopsticks when she saw that.

"Zofia, are you okay?" Zofia looked at Eden and shook her head. She wanted to throw up because she smelled something greasy.

Eden handed a glass of water to Zofia when she saw that she was better.

"Thank you!" Zofia felt much better after taking a sip of water.

Eden smiled and asked, "Zofia, what else do you want to eat?"

Zofia looked at her and shook her head. "Eden, I am full." She was a little tired today and wanted to go back early to rest!

"Wait for me. I'll be done eating soon."

Eden looked at Jasper and Victor as she spoke.

"Jasper, Mr. Alwynn, both of you should eat quickly! Don't just hold your chopsticks without picking up food."

"Oh!" Jasper responded lightly and did not speak after that. He ate his food carelessly.

Victor just sat quietly and looked at Eden from time to time.

He didn't expect to meet Eden here tonight.

Half an hour later, all of them walked out of the restaurant.

Victor was the one who paid for the meal.

Jasper didn't want to owe Victor a favor but Victor was one step ahead of him.

Jasper said with a smile, "Eden, I'll send you back."

Eden shook her head and said, "Jasper, no need. You can finally relax over the weekend. You should go back early to rest. I drove my car here and we can go back on our own!"

Jasper nodded in disappointment and said, "Eden, be careful on the road!"

"Okay!" Eden glanced at Victor, who had a grim expression on his face and said with a smile, "Mr. Alwynn, see you tomorrow!"

Victor became excited instantly. He looked at her with a hint of tenderness in his eyes.

"Eden, see you tomorrow!" His deep voice was suppressing some emotions that could not be dispelled.

"Jasper, goodbye!" Eden left with Zofia after bidding goodbye to Victor and Jasper.

Victor and Jasper watched them leave. They only withdrew their gazes when Eden and Zofia were out of their sight.

Jasper changed his expression and looked at Victor grimly.

"Mr. Alwynn, we haven't finished our conversation just now."

Victor looked at him sideways and said coldly, "Jasper, I have nothing to say to you!"

Jasper glared at him. "Victor, do you know that Eden almost died seven years ago? She had no desire to live at all back then. Abigail and I had put in a lot of effort to pull her back from the edge of death. She can't withstand any harm. Please be noble and spare her!"

Victor's heart ached at the moment and he couldn't hold back the tears in his eyes. He quickly lowered his head and said in a dull and serious tone, "Jasper, don't look at me from your perspective because you won't understand. I'll tell you one more time, I won't hurt her!"

He did not even glance at Jasper when he finished speaking and he turned around and strode off.

His eyes were blurred with neon lights the moment he turned around. His eyes turned red and his breathing became heavy.

"Victor, do you know that Eden almost died seven years ago?" He had overheard Zofia and Eden's conversation seven years ago and knew that Eden was involved in a car accident.

He wanted to know why God was treating them unfairly.

However, there were too many injustices in this world.

Jasper looked at Victor's cold and arrogant back and suddenly felt that Victor was very lonely. He sighed slightly. Victor's life was not easy.
