

Gluey Love 341

Chapter 341

There was a wood table with a bunch of roses on it at the balcony. The surrounding dazzling lights created a romantic atmosphere.

Eden liked the place very much. She would dream of a place like this when she was young and she had always wanted to sit down and look at the horizon under the hazy night!

Her heart suddenly calmed down.

"It's so beautiful here!" Eden looked at the horizon quietly. The moon had already risen and half of it was hidden beneath the horizon. It was mysterious and fascinating!

Victor looked at her sideways and smiled softly. He knew she would like it here.

This was Eden's dream when she was young!

Everything that Eden had said and everything that she wanted to do was deeply engraved in Victor's heart.

Victor wanted to accompany her to fulfil all of her dreams in the future.

"Eden, do you like it here?" He asked gently.

Eden withdrew her gaze slowly and looked at him.

She smiled at him and said, "I like it!"

They looked as if they were in love.

They had each other's figure in their eyes.

"Eden, I knew you would like it." He looked at her and his gaze was doting and gentle.

Eden looked at him deeply. Why did she feel that everything seemed to be laid out to her liking?

"Victor, do you know what kind of juice I like to drink?" She asked suddenly.

Victor smiled and said in a pleasant tone, "Eden, you have always liked to drink strawberry juice and strawberry-flavored lollipops, haven't you?"

Eden's heart was suddenly overwhelmed by an inexplicable emotion. She clenched her fists slightly and the complicated emotions in her heart were surging.

"Victor, how do you know that? Or does the other Eden also like the same thing?" She looked at him seriously this time.

Victor pulled out a chair and said, "Eden, take a seat first."

Eden sat down slowly and so did Victor.

She looked at him sideways while waiting for his answer.

Victor glanced at her and then looked at the sea in the distance. "Eden, it's not difficult to know that since we work in the same company!"

"You are really attentive. I also don't know why I like eating strawberry-flavored stuff so much! It seems that I was born to like those things!"

Eden carefully recalled the past few years. That taste seemed to be embedded in her life.

"Eden, perhaps that's something you loved when you were young. You only forgot some things when you lost your memory due to an accident. However, you are accustomed to some things and you still like them subconsciously."

Eden shook her head slightly and said, "I initially didn't know how I got to the Gienger's family. When I was involved in an accident a few years ago, I got to know about it when I overheard the conversation between Bethany and Myra.

I was not adopted by the family. I was actually hit by Bethany's car. She thought I was dead so she took me away.

However, I managed to survive. They were avoiding debts back then and they probably let me live because they were afraid to be involved in murder..." Eden stopped speaking after that.

Reminiscing about the past required courage. These few years, besides Zofia, only Jaida, Jasper and Abigail knew about it.

Victor was completely shocked when he heard that.

He had always suspected that Eden was involved in a car accident back then. Otherwise, it was impossible for her to disappear so quickly.

He only stayed for a few minutes after crossing the road. He went back to find Eden when the anger in his heart had subsided a little.

He had always remembered that Eden ran after him in the heavy rain.

Even though it wasn't the first time Eden did that, he was still worried. He didn't stay too long before turning back to find Eden.

However, there was no trace of Eden when he went back.

The last ray of light in his life had also vanished!

Although he was immersed in pain every day, he still had to deal with the horrible woman, Rebecca!

He actually thought about dying at that time!

"Eden, you said that Bethany hit you and took you away when you were young?" He suddenly asked urgently.

"Yes!" Eden nodded. She did not know why but she wanted to tell him about the matter all of a sudden.

"Ah..." Victor's whole body ached instantly.

The sudden news instantly stirred up the pain that had been hidden in his heart for a long time.

He put his hands on the table and clenched his fists tightly until the blue veins appeared on the back of his hand. He seemed as though he had lost his soul and his breathing became rapid and painful.

Eden was stunned. She asked, "Victor, what's wrong?"

Eden saw that he looked like he was in pain all of the sudden. What was wrong?

Was he agitated by what she had said just now?

Victor suddenly grabbed Eden's hand and looked at her closely. The emotions that rolled under his eyes were shocking!

Eden suddenly felt a great pain in her hand but when she saw Victor's painful look, she just frowned and kept quiet.

"Sir, your dishes are ready." The manager came over with a dining cart.

He looked at Victor and Eden with a gentle smile on his face.

Victor was still in the same state as before. He looked at Eden with a heart-wrenching and guilty look.

Eden tried to pull out her hand and found that Victor's grip was so strong that she couldn't pull it out no matter how hard she tried.

Eden turned around and looked at the manager with a smile. "Serve the dishes then!" She was already very hungry.

She had walked quite a distance and she was really hungry.

"Okay!" The manager nodded slightly and put all the dishes on the table.

He quickly pushed the dining cart away when he saw the tension between Victor and Eden.

"Victor, what's wrong?" Victor remained motionless. He did not even blink his eyes.

He kept looking at her in the same posture.

"Say something, Victor." Eden raised her voice slightly and looked at him worriedly.

Victor came back to his senses Eden yelled at him. He quickly let go of Eden's hand when he realized that her hand had turned pale due to his grip.

"Eden, I'm fine. Don't worry." His voice was dry and slightly trembling.

Eden frowned and didn't look away for a long time.

"You..."

"Eden, I'm really fine. I've thought of something bad just now." Victor forced a smile.

His side face changed between bright and dark under the dazzling lights around him.

Eden sighed slightly. It was obvious that something was wrong with Victor just now. However, she could not ask him what had happened persistently when he didn't want to talk about it.

"I'm glad you are fine! Let's eat first!" She couldn't help but speak in a soft tone.

"Okay!" Victor nodded slightly.

He was still looking at her.

He said in his heart, "Eden, I'm sorry! You have suffered a lot because of me. I, Victor Alwynn, swear that I will spend the rest of my life to make it up for you in the future."

Eden looked at the various seafood on the table and realized that they were all dishes she liked.

She drank half a glass of water and ate two more cherry tomatoes before saying, "Victor, the food at this restaurant tastes really good. The spicy shrimp looks delicious at first glance!"

Victor suddenly took the disposable gloves at the side, picked up a shrimp, peeled it and put it in Eden's bowl.

Eden was moved when she saw that. She looked at Victor and said, "Victor, you don't have to do this. I can peel on my own. You should hurry up and eat!" "No, Eden, I am now your boyfriend. It's a man's duty to peel the shrimp." Victor peeled the shrimp as he spoke. He was much more relaxed and he looked dazzling again.

"Haha..." Eden burst into laughter suddenly. She did not expect that Victor would have such an adorable side.

Victor couldn't help but smile when he saw Eden laughing happily!

She was easily satisfied and would be touched by even a small matter.

After laughing for a while, Eden looked at Victor with appreciation. "Victor, since you have said so, I feel embarrassed to steal your job!"

"Yes. I would not have the opportunity to perform if you eat on your own."

Victor had peeled a lot of shrimps and put them in Eden's bowl.

Eden stopped him when she saw that. "Victor, that's enough. I can't eat too much!"

Victor frowned at her when he heard that. "Eden, you should eat more. Look at you. You are so thin that you will be blown away by the sea breeze if it was strong!"

Eden smiled and looked at the sea in the distance. The sea breeze was very comfortable.

"Victor, I won't eat too much and make myself uncomfortable even if I were to be blown away by the strong wind. You should eat!"

Victor felt helpless when he heard that. His heart ached for her when she ate very little!

"Eden, eat something else." Victor was busy asking her to eat and he was more attentive than any other boyfriends.

Eden didn't know that Victor wanted to give all the good things to her so badly at the moment.

"Okay! You should eat too." Eden gazed into the distance and looked at the moonlight over the sea. It was beautiful and mesmerizing.

That was the first time to see such beautiful moonlight.

Victor looked at her beautiful side face and smiled brightly.

Eden who was looking at the sea, did not realize that!

Victor was still looking at her. Victor felt that waiting for Eden for so many years was like a test to get tough in his grieving life.

A life with ups and downs was probably the best way for people to grow.

Victor held Eden's hand as they strolled on the beach after they had finished their dinner happily.

There was a tall building emitting dazzling neon lights on their left.

The various ships on the sea also emitted soft lights in the dark night.

Many pairs of couple who were holding hands, walked past Victor and Eden.

The evening breeze blew gently. Eden felt somewhat comfortable and closed her eyes.

The damp scent and the sound of the waves caused all the troubles in her heart to disappear at that moment!

Victor had a gentle expression on his face when he looked sideways at Eden's sweet and soft appearance.

He had been thinking about what to say for a long time. At that moment, he blurted out, "Eden, do you want to hear her story?"

Eden opened her eyes suddenly and looked at him. She knew who he was referring to.

She smiled and said, "Victor, you'd better don't talk about it if it would be painful to you."

She was very soft-hearted. If there were any twists and turns in this matter, she would accompany Victor to lose sleep tonight.

Victor said in a sultry tone, "I might not be in so much pain if I talk about it."

Eden stopped suddenly and stood in front of him and she looked petite and delicate.

"Victor, let's find a place to sit down. Take your time.

I'll listen carefully."

"Okay!"

He held her hand with a smile on his face and continued to move forward.

Eden looked down at their holding hands and felt a little helpless. He had held her hand the whole way and would not let go.

He was indeed a good boyfriend.

She jokingly said, "Victor, I am your girlfriend these two days. What should my future boyfriend do if you spoil me?"

Victor stopped suddenly and looked at her sullenly. "Eden, do you still want to be another man's girlfriend?"

His words sounded cold and odd at the same time.

Eden said, "Er..."

Eden blinked her eyes hard and looked at him seriously. "It seems as though I've betrayed you from your gaze and tone.

I've never been in a relationship before even though I am a mother of three. Otherwise, I wouldn't have agreed to this tonight.

If I am able to meet a man who is good to me, my children and my parents, I will consider him!"

However, Eden felt that it was hard to meet a man like that!

"You..."

Eden interrupted him and said, "Let's go. I'm just saying. There is no such man in the world."

"No. Eden, what about me?" Victor looked at her gloomily. If she dared to find other men to be her boyfriend, he would make love to her on the spot!

Victor followed her a few steps and asked, "Eden, don't you think I can do it? I can be good to you, your children and parents!"

Today was the day that Victor had spoken the most over the years.

He would only be himself when he was with her.

Eden glared at him involuntarily. "Victor, don't forget that we are only pretending to be lovers to comfort each other's injured heart. Even though I haven't been hurt by love, I would also like to experience the taste of love. That's why I agreed to your request. Don't you go too far?"

Besides, if I am with you, what should you do if your beloved woman comes back?

If you have thoughts of betrayal, is your persistence and anticipation all these years out of true love or guilt?" "True love!" Victor answered without hesitation and his tone was firm.

"Then you are betraying your true love now!" Eden lifted their holding hands.

Victor was speechless. What should he do?

Should he tell her the truth that she was the one he had been waiting for?

However, he was afraid that she would never want to see him again if he told her the truth.

Chapter 343

Victor wanted to tell Eden about their childhood and what had happened seven years ago.

Both the incidents were his fault.

He could clearly feel Eden's pain when she brought up the incident which happened seven years ago!

No way. He could not take the risk. He had to take it one step at a time. Otherwise, he would hurt Eden again and push their relationship to a breaking point.

He was not willing to see that and he didn't want to do anything that could hurt her.

"Your answers are firm but your actions are not." Eden's tone was a little sarcastic and self-deprecating!

"Victor, what is love?

To me, love is to be able to understand each other, which is also a kind of unspoken tenderness.

We would understand each other even if we do not speak and our hearts would be close to each other even though we are far apart."

Victor replied faintly, "Eden, you're right. Love is companionship without distance. We can't get rid of the longing for each other even though we are far apart. It will not stop us from opening up no matter how far apart we are. It's like a kind of spiritual understanding."

"Hehe..." Eden smiled. "Victor, you are right. Anyway, there are many types of love. The love everyone needs is different."

"Eden, what kind of love do you want?" Victor looked at her quietly. The sea breeze blew her soft hair and her delicate little face looked bright and beautiful!

"I have never thought about it!" Eden raised her head and looked at him sincerely.

She had never thought about it before!

Victor said, "You can think about it now."

Eden shook her head slightly. "I have never thought about marrying someone so I have never thought about what kind of man I need!" She might spend the rest of her life with her three children!

"Eden, why don't you want to marry? You are still young." Was it because of her three children? Victor wanted to ask that but the words couldn't come out of his mouth!

Eden smiled helplessly. "Victor, I don't know how to answer this question."

She really didn't know how to answer him.

She didn't pay much attention to this matter since she already had three children. She had already figured it out when she decided to give birth to the triplets seven years ago.

Victor did not pursue the matter when he saw that Eden was unwilling to talk about it.

Those things would uncover the pain in her heart again!

"By the way, Eden, can I ask you a question?" Victor suddenly thought of Eden's mother and Zaiden.

Eden was in a good mood at the moment. She might tell him about it!

Eden smiled and said, "Go ahead!"

"Why do you have a mother? It makes sense that Mr. Calder acknowledges you as a daughter but when do you have a mother?" Victor waited nervously for Eden to reply after he finished speaking.

Eden was slightly surprised. "Victor, you could tell that it was me by just looking at my back?"

Victor smiled confidently. "Eden, do you know? I might have mistaken other people but definitely not you!"

His words hit Eden and she was slightly stunned!

Eden regained her previous look when Victor looked at her.

Why did she feel that Victor's words were always weird?

His serious look seemed to tell her that she was his Eden. She didn't know if it was an illusion or not but sometimes she had that kind of feeling.

"I met my mother by chance seven years ago. Both of us were alone. After spending a month or two together, we found that we were very much in sync.

She acknowledged me as her daughter and I recognized her as my mother after that. We had been living together since then.

My mother regards me as her own child. I've never felt maternal love since I was a child. I can feel the affection that I've never felt before from her.

She was a very good person and she had known Uncle Calder many years ago. However, my mother seemed to have been hurt previously so she didn't get together with Uncle Calder.

But everything is fine now. Everyone is very happy!"

"What about you?" Victor stopped and looked at her quietly. "Eden, they are all happy but what about you?"

Eden blinked her eyes slightly and looked at him in confusion. Why did the topic come back to her again?

She said, "Victor, Mom and Dad are happy. As a daughter, I feel very happy too!"

Victor was speechless.

This silly girl. Why couldn't she get it when it came to love?

He really needed to wake her up so that she knew she had to think for herself!

Victor looked around and suddenly saw a stone on the beach. Its surface was very smooth and it seemed that people had sat on it frequently.

He pointed at it and said, "Eden, let's go over there and sit for a while!"

"Okay!" Eden answered softly.

After they sat down, Victor moved his hand that was holding Eden's hand and placed it on her slender waist.

Eden looked at him indignantly. "Victor, you're going too far by doing this."

Victor smiled wickedly but his gaze was gentle. "Eden, have you forgotten our previous agreement?"

"What kind of agreement? Did I have an agreement with you?" Eden felt as though she was tricked and controlled by him.

It was not a great kind of feeling!

Alas!

Eden sighed in her heart. Her kindness had led her to this!

She only agreed to Victor's request because she saw that he was in so much pain.

Victor replied confidently, "Eden, we have agreed to be lovers these two days!"

Eden was speechless.

Alright. She would bear with it!

"However, that doesn't include what you are doing now." She wanted to bear with it but she still felt that it was better to make it clear.

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, it's just for two days."

Eden was angry. She shifted her gaze away from him and looked at the distant sea. The flickering starlight was mesmerizing and beautiful!

It had been a while since Eden sat down and admired the bright and starry sky!

Victor glanced at her deeply before he said, "Eden, let me tell you something about Eden!"

Eden nodded. "Go ahead. I'm listening."

Victor thought for a moment. Where should he start?

Should he start from the time when Eden was born?

No. He saw Eden for the first time on her first month birthday.

What happened after that?!

That was when Eden was three years old!

"Eden, I'll tell you about her from the age of three!"

Eden looked up at him suddenly and asked in surprise, "Victor, you still remember what happened when she was three years old?"

"Yes." Victor's tone was firm.

Eden was shocked. "Tell me then!"

"Okay!" Victor smiled slightly. Looking at Eden's delicate eyes and eyebrows on her face, he seemed to be looking at her when she was a child.

Chapter 344

Victor looked at Eden and said, "Eden, her name is also Eden."

Eden looked at him and said, "I know! What is her last name?"

Victor hesitated for a moment before he said, "Eden, I want to tell you this! Her family name is Clement and she is Mrs. Clement's daughter. Her name is Eden Clement."

Eden was speechless but at the same time, she felt sorry for Victor.

When Eden felt sorry for a person, it meant she had started to care for him.

Victor said, "Eden and I are neighbors."

Eden was slightly surprised. "So you're childhood sweethearts? That's right. I heard some rumors saying that the Alwynn and Clement family are neighbors. But isn't Haven the daughter of the Clement family?"

"Yes! Eden, Haven was adopted by Aunt Clement." Victor looked at her and nodded. The sea breeze blew his fringe, revealing the dazzling and gentle expression on his flawless and handsome face.

Eden smiled and said, "No wonder you are so obsessed with Eden!"

She did not expect that Haven was adopted by the Clement family.

Did the Clement family adopt a daughter because of longing after losing their own daughter?

Both Eden and Haven were adopted. However, both of them were really different from each other.

Victor smiled happily and said, "It's not that I am obsessed with her but I can't forget her for the rest of my life!"

Eden smiled and said, "Victor, I didn't expect you to be so faithful in love."

Victor smiled and continued, "When Eden was three years old, she would often pass through the gap in the barrier between our houses.

She would come and find me to play every day and would stay by my side when I was sad.

She would also bring a strawberry-flavored lollipop for me to eat every day and shove it into my mouth even though I didn't want to eat it.

She would always tell me that I would feel better after eating a lollipop.

"Strawberry-flavored lollipop?" Eden's eyes were slightly blank and she looked at Victor thoughtfully.

Why would she also feel sweet and happy when she ate lollipops!

Moreover, the strawberry-flavored ones were her favorite!

Why was that?

"Yes! She loves to eat everything that is strawberry-flavored. She would eat strawberries every day if they are available. She would leave a portion to me no matter what she eats!

The thing that touched me the most was that she would wait for me at my doorstep every day after school. She would be holding half a plate of strawberries in her hand and would be smiling sweetly at me.

She told me that she would finish all the strawberries if I didn't come back and she would keep the biggest and the best strawberries for me.

"Hehe..." Victor couldn't help smiling happily when he spoke. There was a deep longing in his eyes.

Eden smiled and said, "She's a warm-hearted girl."

Victor stared at her and nodded. "Eden, she has always been a warm-hearted girl.

However, such a happy life didn't last long. My mother left us when Rebecca showed up.

My life plunged into darkness after that and Eden was the only person who had accompanied me and warmed my heart."

Eden looked at him quietly and saw the pain in his gentle eyes.

Her heart ached for him involuntarily again!

She didn't expect Victor to lead such a hard life when he was a child!

Victor closed his eyes slightly and suppressed all the emotions in his heart before saying, "Eden still cared for me like always during the difficult times.

I was very rebellious at that time and would quarrel with my father because of the matter related to my mother.

I was too young at that time and would run wildly on the road when I couldn't bear the pain in my heart.

Eden would chase after me every time because she was afraid something would happen to me. She had suffered a lot, and had broken her knees and arms because of that.

But no matter how painful she felt, she would stand up and chase after me. She would guard me like a little angel even though it was raining or at night."

Eden couldn't help smiling when she heard that. "She is indeed a warm and sensible girl. A child's heart is pure. She would be unhappy when she saw you unhappy and she would be sad when you are sad. She is really simple and innocent."

Victor nodded in agreement. He said, "That's right. I've slowly gotten out of the dark times because of her and her bright smile."

"But..." Victor suddenly stopped. Eden had never seen such a painful expression on Victor's face before!

Eden's heart could not help but ache as well.

She patted his hand gently and said with a smile, "Victor, don't say anything more if you are in pain!"

Victor shook his head quickly. He looked at Eden with teary eyes and his vision was slightly blurred. He pursed his lips tightly and had a bitter smile on his face.

"No, Eden, since I've already started, I want to tell you everything."

"Don't force yourself!" Eden could tell from his painful expression that something must have happened to the girl.

Victor suppressed his pain and said, "Eden, I am not forcing myself!"

Eden said, "Go ahead then!"

She wanted to be a good listener but she couldn't help but want to interrupt him.

Victor swallowed quickly and suppressed all the painful emotions in his heart.

He tightened his grip around Eden's waist, as if he wanted to use the strength to give him the courage to go on.

Eden felt that her waist was a little numb. She frowned slightly but still waited quietly for him to speak.

Victor took a deep breath before he spoke deeply, "I had a fierce dispute with my father again on a night of thunderstorms. I had slowly understood why my mother left us at that time!

A child might not understand the meaning of the word "cheating".

But I have slowly understood that my mother left me and my sister because of my father's betrayal. That night, I went to question my father the reason he betrayed my mother.

I also asked him why he brought back the woman who constantly set me up and tried to drive me out of the house!

I might have said something out of impulse and crossed the line at that time. I was slapped by my father twice and kicked hard in the stomach.

But the physical pain I felt did not surpass the pain I felt in my heart."

"I ran out again that night. Eden and Buddy were also at my house at that time. Eden chased me as usual when I ran outside." Victor stopped again and breathed heavily.

Chapter 345

Eden did not ask any more questions. She sat there quietly and waited for him to calm down before he continued.

At that moment, she didn't dare to look at Victor's painful face.

She was afraid that his painful look would be engraved in her heart if she did that.

She would feel pain when she recalled the memories etched in her heart.

Victor needed a quiet listener at the moment.

Eden felt the pain in Victor's words. Victor suppressed the pain in his voice and said slowly, "It was raining so heavily that night that I could barely see the sight in front of me. I was in so much pain and I just wanted to vent it out.

I ran forward as fast as I could. Eden, who was behind me, did not give up chasing after me.

I suddenly realized that Eden was still behind me when I was tired and I stopped running. I quickly went back but I couldn't find her. It has been almost nineteen years and I have never seen her again..."

Victor continued his story after that!

Throughout the process, Eden did not ask him anything.

Eden only looked up at Victor when he stopped speaking. Her movements were a little stiff and she fixed her gaze on Victor's handsome face.

Her face was filled with tears.

Victor's face was also the same. His tears looked even clearer on his fair skin.

He had a fragile expression on his face at the moment. He looked like a fragile porcelain doll whose soul would be gone at the slightest touch.

Victor felt an excruciating pain in his heart when he saw the tears on Eden's face!

"Eden." He called out to her longingly.

He turned his body slightly and hugged her tightly.

He buried his head in her shoulder and closed his eyes. He felt as though he was hugging his whole world!

Eden was slightly stunned and let Victor hug her tightly. His heart-breaking words still echoed in her mind.

Why did she feel that she could empathize with him when he was narrating his experience?

She didn't expect that the CEO who was rumored as cold-blooded, would have such a tragic past and a strong obsession with love.

Those few years of Eden's companionship had become his lifelong commitment, guardianship and waiting.

After all, many people only cared about their own interests in such a highly developed era and true feelings rarely existed.

However, she could see Victor's persistence and sincerity!

She blinked gently and crystal clear tears rolled down her face slowly!

She closed her eyes and suppressed all the emotions she was feeling. She opened her mouth and thought for a long time before she said, "Victor, you have already cherished her when you had her.

It's fine as long as you are sincere and did nothing wrong.

Eden's disappearance is not your fault.

Don't feel that the world is unfair to you. After all, you are the one depending on the world, not the other way round. Let the past remain in the past. If you are lucky, Eden might show up in front of you one day.

She would smile at you and tell you that she is back!"

A strong sense of sadness filled Eden's heart instantly when she finished speaking the last sentence. She was so in pain that her body spasmed a little.

She didn't know why she felt so much pain.

Why did it hurt so much suddenly?

Victor's body that was hugging her, shook slightly when he heard Eden saying the last sentence.

It struck his heart and all the waiting and sadness came to an end at that moment.

He had been waiting for that sentence for a very long time.

He had been waiting for the beautiful girl to stand in front of him and said with a sweet smile, "Victor, I'm back."

No other sentence could make him as happy as he was at the moment!

"Eden, thank you for coming back. Thank you!" Victor's infatuated voice was choked with sobs.

Eden was slightly stunned. She knew that Victor had mistaken her for Eden Clement.

However, a person needed to have a good mind-set to deal with the sufferings in life!

She would bring Victor back to reality again if she spoke at the moment.

Eden thought for a moment. Victor was more in pain than ever before.

She stayed quietly in his arms and didn't say anything!

She wanted to give Victor who was in pain, a world that only belonged to him!

Time passed by slowly. After some time, the night gale brought Victor back to his senses.

Eden was a little sleepy in his arms.

In fact, she felt that his embrace was quite warm. Another reason could be that she was exhausted after strolling today!

That was why she felt drowsy. Eden wanted to find a reason for herself. However, after thinking over and over again, she concluded that she felt drowsy because Victor's embrace was safe and warm.

Victor smiled softly and slowly let go of her. He looked at her drowsy eyes dotingly.

She did a very great job as a listener!

He had told Eden everything about their childhood. If she suddenly remembered him one day, she would know that he was still waiting for her to come back to him!

"Eden, are you sleepy?" His voice returned to its usual flatness.

"Yes! I'm sleepy!" Eden nodded in a daze.

"Eden, I'll carry you back!"

Eden sobered up slightly when she heard Victor's words.

She looked at him and shook her head quickly. "No need. Victor, I can walk on my own! It's a long way back. We can walk slowly!"

As she spoke, she stood up slowly.

Victor held her hand and they walked back slowly.

Victor looked around and found that the people at the beach had already left.

Only he and Eden were there!

The faint moonlight stretched the shadows of two people holding hands, leaving a steady stream of warmth behind them.

Eden asked, "Victor, do you feel much more comfortable after talking about it?"

"Yes!" Victor smiled. "Eden, I feel much more comfortable. Thank you for listening to my childhood story." He thought in his heart but didn't say it aloud, "My childhood story with you."

Eden shook her head slightly and said drowsily, "Victor, no problem! According to your timeline, the girl should be in her twenties now. Are you going to keep waiting for her?"

Aren't you afraid that she is married with children?" After all, nobody knew what fate had in store for them!

Take her as an example. If she was lucky enough to find her parents, would they be upset that she had children before marriage?

Eden smiled at herself and wondered when she would find her parents.

It was fine if she could not return to their side. She would be satisfied if she knew they were doing well!

Chapter 346

Victor looked at Eden sideways and smiled. "Eden, don't you remember what I have told you? She has already come back to me but she doesn't remember me."

Eden said, "What?"

"That's right! You seem to have said something like that! Who is it?" She looked at him and asked.

Victor thought to himself, "Eden, it's you!"

Victor didn't say anything. He just held her hand and walked forward quietly.

Eden knew that he did not want to talk about it when she saw the he didn't speak!

It was fine if he didn't want to talk about it. She could remain curious and perhaps be surprised in the future!

Eden smiled at herself secretly. Why was she so curious about his matters?

Why did she feel like she could empathize with him when he mentioned Eden Clement?

Eden's mind was filled with thousands of question marks.

She had a vague answer in her heart but she didn't dare to get to the bottom of the matter.

Victor asked, "Eden, are you still going to the exhibition tomorrow?"

Eden shook her head. "No. I've used my time well and finished the exhibition. I have jotted down the necessary things. I want to give myself a day off tomorrow..."

Eden wanted to speak but stopped. She looked at Victor and said helplessly, "Victor, you said you're here to talk about business. You can do that but why do you have to stay in the same hotel as me!

I've always wanted to visit Fralstin. I still want to walk around tomorrow.

Not only have I forgotten about this matter, I have also become your girlfriend. Do I need to drag you along when I shop tomorrow?

Shopping is the thing that men are most afraid of, isn't it?"

"Hehe..." Victor chuckled and said, "Eden, why are you so confused?"

How can you forget about that? Who says men are afraid of shopping? I'll accompany you tomorrow!"

Eden pursed her lips in displeasure and said, "Victor, it will be very tiring because I want to visit many places. Are you, a single CEO whose time is precious, really willing to go with me?"

"I am willing to do that!" Victor nodded firmly.

He was afraid of being alone with his thoughts. He was also afraid that Eden would suddenly disappear one day. He didn't know what to do if that were to happen.

He was afraid to revisit the same place without the person he cared about by his side.

The heartfelt pain was indeed very tormenting.

"Alright! I have promised to be your girlfriend for two days anyway. I'll agree to your request because you can also do the same.

Let's be courteous. We don't owe each other anything in the future!" Eden smiled at him before looking at the street that was not far away.

It was almost midnight but the streets were still full of people. The city was busy day and night.

Victor shook his head helplessly. Eden really didn't like to owe anyone favors.

Eden's phone rang suddenly. Eden was surprised and she wondered who would call her at such a late hour.

She glanced at the number and frowned slightly. "Hello! Mom, it's really late. Why haven't you slept yet?"

"Eden, I heard from Kenny that you went to Fralstin."

"Yes! Mom, I'm here to attend an exhibition. I'll go back the day after tomorrow. Zofia is taking care of Kenny and Gia. Don't worry. You can have fun with Dad for a few more days before you come back!"

"I am relieved. You must pay attention to your own safety there. Judging from your voice, I assume you are still outside?"

Eden smiled and said, "Mom, I am still outside but don't worry. I am visiting the night market with Mr. Alwynn. Everything is fine."

There was a sudden silence on the other end of the phone.

Eden glanced at her phone in confusion. The call was not hung up yet. Why wasn't Jaida saying anything?

She yelled, "Mom, are you still here?"

"Oh! Eden, you should enjoy yourself a little longer before you come back. You don't have to rush back the day after tomorrow. Kenny and Zofia are at home. Kenny can take care of Gia even if Zofia is not around.

You have always wanted to visit Fralstin. You should come back after you have had enough fun!"

Uh!!

Eden was surprised by Jaida's change of attitude!

"Mom, why did you suddenly..."

"Eden, I heard that Mr. Alwynn is a very good person."

Eden glanced at Victor quickly.

She smiled and said, "Mom, you've heard a lot! Why didn't I know that he's a good person?"

Jaida asked somewhat anxiously, "Eden, is there any misunderstanding between you two?"

Eden felt even weirder when she heard that!

"Mother, are you in a rush to marry me off? Didn't I tell you that I'll stay by your side for the rest of my life and take care of you?" Her voice was sweet.

"Silly girl. I would only be happy when you are happy. Alright. Your Dad is here and we have to go back and rest. Don't wander too late and rest early!"

"Okay! Bye, Mom!"

Eden hung up the phone and looked at Victor. She smiled and said, "Victor, you are so charming that even my mother said that you are great!"

I have three children. How dare I get involved with a CEO like you?"

Victor didn't know whether he should be angry or he should laugh when he heard that.

An excruciating pain surged through his heart!

"Eden, do you regret giving birth to your three children?" This was the question he had always wanted to ask.

She didn't know who the father of her children was. He was actually very surprised when Eden gave birth to the children!

Eden shook her head slightly and said firmly, "Victor, I never regretted it at all. I don't have a family but I have one after I gave birth to them. I don't care who their father is and I gave birth to them without hesitation!

It didn't matter as long as my life in the future is smoother and my family is happier!" She had nothing else to ask for.

Victor felt happy and distressed at the same time when he heard that.

He said playfully, "Eden, your mom has better taste than you! Why can't you see the good part of me?"

Eden glared at him. "Victor, can you not always say such strange things to me?"

Victor said, "Eden, I didn't say anything strange. You were the one who had weird thoughts!"

Eden glanced at him and did not speak!

Any woman would be attracted to a rich, powerful, and handsome man like him. She was still a woman even though she had children!

She would not be able to resist the temptation sometimes!

However, if she really had the thought, maybe Jasper...

Eden forced herself to stop thinking about it.

She could not think too much. Jasper's life had always been dazzling. He could not have a stain like her in his life!

Sometimes, she could also sense Jasper's feelings towards her.

However, she had disappointed Jasper repeatedly and had hurt his heart!

"Alas!" Eden sighed heavily.

Chapter 347

Victor asked, "Eden, why are you sighing?"

Eden retorted, "Can't I sigh?"

"Do you have something on your mind?" Victor looked at her. She was much more cheerful than usual tonight and she was willing to tell him things about herself.

It was a good start. With these two day of intimacy, he would be able to take advantage of it in the future!

Victor thought about it and felt that he was quite a bad person!

"Can't I have something on my mind? Don't you have a lot of things on your mind too?" Eden teased.

Victor said, "Indeed!"

"Hehe..." Eden looked at the night market around her with a smile. It was still very lively and there was a wide range of snacks!

Eden suddenly pointed to the nearby stall that was selling milk tea and said with a smile, "Victor, can you buy me a cup of milk tea?"

Victor followed her gaze and said, "Eden, let's go!"

As he spoke, he took her hand and brought her to the milk tea stall.

They looked as though they were in a relationship!

The passers-by looked at them in awe and they had admiration on their faces.

After entering the milk tea stall, Victor said to the waiter, "I want two cups of strawberry milk teas!"

The waiter raised his head and asked politely, "Sir, do you want ice?"

Victor said, "No need."

Eden kept quiet. It was very late and she did not want to drink things that were cold.

A few minutes later, Eden and Victor headed to the hotel hand in hand while drinking their strawberry milk teas.

Eden smiled and said, "Victor, it tastes good!"

Victor also smiled and said, "Eden, I think it tastes good too. It is very authentic!"

Eden asked curiously, "Why does a man like you like to eat strawberry-flavored things? I remember that you have strawberry-flavored lollipops in your car..." Eden stopped in her tracks suddenly.

She looked at him in surprise. "Victor, you don't love everything that Eden likes because of her, do you?"

Victor nodded in satisfaction when he heard her words. "Eden, you are right. I like everything that Eden likes. It's something that has been instilled in my life since I was a child."

"Alright!" Eden instantly admired Victor!

After all, Victor was the most infatuated man she had ever seen in her life!

It was heart-breaking to see him so infatuated!

They had already finished their milk teas when they reached the hotel.

Victor took the plastic cup from her hand and threw it into a trash can at the side.

Eden smiled instantly. It was really hard to be angry with a boyfriend like that.

The two of them took the elevator all the way to the fifth floor. Victor still could not bear to let go of Eden's hand. Both of their hands had already sweated a lot at the moment.

Eden did not let go of his hand because she knew that Victor was in pain.

As for Victor, he had taken advantage of the situation and did not let go of Eden's hand when she didn't refuse him!

When Eden saw her room, she glanced at Victor and said, "I've reached my room. It's late. You should go back and rest!" "Okay!" Victor looked at her quietly and was unwilling to let go of her hand.

Eden reminded him again and said, "Victor, I've reached my room. See you tomorrow!"

Only then did Victor let go of her reluctantly!

"Eden, sweet dreams!" After saying that, he quickly leaned in and planted a gentle kiss on her forehead. Without waiting for Eden to react, he turned around and entered the room opposite Eden's.

Eden stood still in a daze. She only came back to her senses when the door of the opposite room was slammed shut.

She could still feel the icy feeling on her forehead that was left by Victor's thin lips.

Eden smiled coldly. How dared Victor, that b*stard, take advantage of her?

Eden was so angry that she glared at the door across her before she turned around and returned to her room.

After closing the door, she changed into her slippers and took a quick shower.

She was exhausted today.

However, she couldn't fall asleep when she laid on the bed.

Victor's words still echoed in her ears.

She carefully recalled what Victor had said tonight.

Eden Clement was also lost when she was six years old.

She had a similar experience and she had also encountered something at that age.

The strangest part was she and Eden Clement had exactly the same taste.

Both of them like to eat strawberry-flavored things.

"Alas!" Eden sighed and stopped thinking about it. How could it be possible?

She turned over again, slowly closed her eyes and went to sleep.

Eden woke up slowly when the first ray of morning sunlight shone into the room through the wide and bright French window.

She glanced outside drowsily. The weather was very good. She smiled slightly. It was really suitable to go out and play in such weather!

Her mood became better suddenly and she forced herself to get up even though she was still a little sleepy. She took out a set of casual clothes from her suitcase and changed into them. She was ready to go out for a stroll after washing up.

Eden was stunned the moment she opened the door.

A clear and pleasant voice reached her ears, "Eden, you are awake. Good morning!"

"Yes! Good morning, Mr. Alwynn!" Eden nodded slightly.

She looked at Victor and saw that he had also changed into a grey casual suit today. He had an upright posture and his black and neat short hair caused his well-defined face to look softer.

Victor saw that Eden was wearing a white casual suit and she was carrying a mini backpack. She looked pure, beautiful and refined.

He asked, "Eden, where are we going today?"

Eden looked at him deeply. He thought for a moment before he said, "Let's go to the eastern side of Fralstin. There is a very fun place there."

Victor thought for a moment before he asked, "Are you talking about the natural environment there?"

"Yes. I heard from Abigail that the place was chosen as a scene in Ricky's movie but I didn't know they would go there and shoot. Let's go there and have a look first! It is a very mysterious place!"

I've seen many descriptions of the place on TV before but I never had the chance to go there."

"Okay! Let's go!" Victor took her hand and walked to the elevator.

Eden glanced at their holding hands and asked,

"Victor, do we have to act like this today?"

Victor turned his head and looked at her. He looked much better than yesterday after a night's rest.

His eyes were very beautiful. His eyes were deep and captivating when he was in a good mood!

"Eden, have you forgotten our relationship? We are lovers at the moment!"

Eden glared at him. "I remember. You don't have to remind me!"

Victor smiled wickedly. His eyes seemed to be smiling at her and his red lips curved into a beautiful arc. "Eden, it's good that you remember. Let's go!"

Eden despised herself secretly as she was dragged forward by Victor.

Chapter 348

Eden could defeat Jasper but not Victor!

There were a lot of people taking the elevator in the morning.

When Eden and Victor got in the elevator, Victor protected Eden in his arms and did not allow anyone to touch her.

His body was pressed against Eden's back tightly. Eden could feel his body temperature and she became inexplicably nervous.

However, people who walked in and out of the elevator would still bump into Victor. He would lean forward occasionally and he would be closer to Eden each time.

Eden had never been so close to a man. Victor's clear and pleasant scent enveloped her body.

However, she was not repulsed by this kind of feeling!

Eden's heart was tormented. She quickly got out of the elevator when they reached the first floor.

Victor was pulled forward by her.

"Eden, slow down!" Victor's alluring voice slowly reached Eden's ears.

Eden did not say anything.

Victor smiled slightly. All these years, everyone knew that he was cold and heartless but he was the only person who was aware that Eden was his soft spot.

Eden looked back at him and said, "Victor, don't always treat me like a child, okay?"

Eden only let go of Victor's hand when they reached the hotel entrance.

The strange feeling in her heart just now had slowly faded.

Victor frowned and looked at her calmly.

Just now Eden...

He had a strange feeling just now but he couldn't describe it. Was Eden nervous just now?

Eden did not look at him. She took out her mobile phone and searched for her destination.

After a while, she said, "Victor, our destination is very far from here. It will take at least a day to go there and come back. Forget it. I don't want to go there anymore."

Eden had suddenly decided not to go there because it was too far!

They had to take the subway and do a transit before they could reach there. It was too far.

Victor knew that Eden had always wanted to go there. How could they not go there?

Victor's eyes darkened slightly and he said, "Eden, wait for me for a while."

Victor walked to the side. He took out his mobile phone and made a phone call.

He returned to Eden's side after hanging up the phone.

Eden asked, "Victor, we..."

Victor interrupted her and said, "Eden, don't worry.

We are heading there. Someone will send us a car later."

"Okay!" Eden nodded. It was much more convenient to have a car.

While they were waiting at the side of the road, Victor was searching for something on his phone.

Eden was bored. She suddenly remembered Paulina, the woman who gave her the business card yesterday.

She took out the business card from her bag and looked at it. Paulina was the Design Director of Country Z.

Eden frowned slightly. It turned out that Paulina was also a design director.

Moreover, she was a design director from abroad.

Eden admired Paulina from the bottom of her heart.

She was really good!

She slowly put the business card into her bag. She would leave Fralstin tomorrow and she might not have the chance to meet her again!

Victor shouted, "Eden."

"Yes!" She looked at him.

"The car is here. Let's go."

"Okay! Let's go!"

Eden followed him to the road.

A luxury car was parked at the side of the road and a man got out of the car. He looked at Victor and said respectfully, "Mr. Alwynn, have a good time!"

"Thank you!" Victor's tone was indifferent as usual.

The man left with a smile.

Eden suddenly realized that Victor's attitude towards her was completely different from that of others.

Victor had a cold and indifferent expression on his face when he was with everyone else but he was very gentle to her!

She still remembered that Victor was cold and arrogant the first time she met him.

She had slowly changed her perception towards him after that.

He would say a lot of hurtful words to Haven but he was gentle with Eden all the while.

Moreover, he would treat her carefully at times.

"Eden, get in the car. Let's depart." Victor had already gotten into the driver's seat.

Eden came to her senses quickly and walked to the other side when she heard Victor's yell.

She opened the door and got into the car.

Victor smiled slightly before he started the car and drove off.

He turned on the navigation and followed it to the destination.

Victor stopped the car at the intersection when the traffic light turned red.

He reached his hand towards the backseat and grabbed a bag. He opened it and handed the breakfast inside to Eden.

"Eden, eat something to fill your stomach first. We will reach the cave in about an hour and a half."

Eden looked at him gratefully and said, "Thank you. You are really considerate. You have even prepared breakfast for me!"

Victor smiled and said, "Eden, you're very thin. You will be even thinner if you are starved." "Pfft!" Eden was choked and let out a laughter when she heard his unconvincing reasoning.

"Victor, can you come up with a better reason?"

Victor laughed and said, "Eden, I think this reason is not... bad!" He trailed his voice at the end of his sentence. Eden could tell that he was a little embarrassed.

"I got it. You're not fat either. You should eat more too. You'll get thinner if you are starved!" Eden used his words to tease him.

"Hehe..." Victor couldn't help but laugh.

"You are so mischievous!" Eden who was about to eat the sandwich, was slightly stunned when she heard Victor's doting tone.

She glanced at Victor sideways and saw that his lips were curled into a doting smile.

Eden's heart tightened slightly. Could she be thinking too much at that moment?

Victor saw that the traffic light had turned green. He put the things back and continued driving.

"Eden, we will be back at noon after we visit that place. Where do you want to go in the afternoon?" Victor asked.

Eden thought for a moment and said, "Let's go to the amusement park."

Victor nodded with a smile when he heard that.

"Okay! Eden, I rarely go to the amusement park. Let's go together." Victor could not suppress the excitement in his deep voice.

However, the aura emanating from his body was still so noble and stern.

Eden looked at Victor's side face. His facial features were firm and delicate and his smiling eyes added a touch of charm to him.

Eden was fascinated momentarily. She only came back to her senses when she heard the sound of a car horn. She quickly lowered her head and ate her food!

Victor and Eden did not speak after that. Eden continued to eat her food. Victor was in a good mood all the way.

River City!

At the Alwynn family's old house!

Rebecca was bored and she was watching the news with a cup of coffee in her hand.

Suddenly, she heard the notification from her phone. She lowered her head and glanced at the phone before she put down her coffee, picked up the phone and looked at the photos that were sent to her.

Her lips curled into a pleasant smile when she saw the photos on the phone.

They were photos of Victor holding Eden's hands while they were taking a stroll together.

A touch of coldness flashed across Rebecca's eyes. "Victor, you denied it previously but can you still do that with solid evidence like this?"

Chapter 349

Rebecca continued to look at the other photos. There were photos of Victor and Eden holding their hands on their way back to the hotel.

"Hehe..." She smiled coldly. "Victor, you little b*stard, do you think you can escape from me? Even your mother couldn't escape from me, let alone you."

After going through all the photos, Rebecca sent them to her secretary.

She asked her secretary to upload the photos online.

She threw her phone on the coffee table after that.

She had been depressed for a several days but her mood had become better at the moment.

She mumbled to herself, "Victor, I am willing to do anything to make you suffer!"

Within a few minutes, the photos of Victor and Eden holding hands together had been circulated in River City.

Kenny, who was reading a book at home, suddenly received a call from his master.

"Hello! Master!" "Seven, bad news. Victor and your mother's photos were uploaded on the Internet again. Have a look at them quickly. I'll help you deal with it first!"

"Thank you, Master! Can you tell me the address where the photos were leaked?"

"The Jotham Alwynn Group!"

"Thank you, Master!"

Kenny hung up the phone and he suddenly exuded a cold aura.

He turned on the computer quickly and the news of Mr. Alwynn dating a married woman popped up on the screen!

"Hmph!" Kenny's eyes were filled with hostility.

"D*mn it!" He roared angrily.

He picked up the phone quickly and dialed his master's number.

"Hello, Seven!" A typing sound on the keyboard came from the other side of the phone!

Kenny asked calmly, "Master, who released the news from the Jotham Alwynn Group?"

"Haha! Seven, you had asked the right question. Rebecca of the Jotham Alwynn Group has always been at odds with Victor because she wanted to snatch the property from the Alwynn family. She would try to kill Victor whenever she has the opportunity."

Kenny tightened his grip on the phone when he heard that. Did Victor have a hard life too?

He thought for a while before asking, "Master, is there any news that is related to Rebecca that is more popular than the news at the moment?"

"Yes. Seven, I am very good at this. Just wait. I will do that in a minute." The punky voice on the other end of the phone caused Kenny's tensed face to relax a lot!

"Thank you!"

"Aww! You are seldom so polite, Seven. I would do my best to help you!"

After hanging up the phone, Kenny sat quietly beside the computer and waited.

His address would most probably be traced if he took action here.

Thus, he asked his master to help him.

Kenny closed his eyes and prayed that Eden would not see the news.

At the Alwynn Group!

Lucian's brows furrowed deeper as he read the news on the computer.

"What's going on?" He was drunk the day before and he was still uncomfortable at the moment.

He shook his head, looked at the computer again and quickly traced the address. "The Jotham Alwynn Group!"

Lucian stared at photos of Victor and Eden holding hands together for a while and pursed his lips tightly.

He pressed the intercom and said, "Anson, come out."

"No. I'll get angry when I see you." Lucian frowned when he heard Anson's resentful voice.

He said coldly, "Victor is in trouble, you..."

Lucian heard the sound of the door opening before he could finish his sentence.

Lucian glared at the office door angrily.

Anson ran faster than a hare when he heard that Victor was in trouble.

He glanced at him with displeasure and continued to look at the computer.

"Lucian, what's wrong? What happened to Victor? Where did he get into trouble?" Anson asked anxiously.

"Take a look at this yourself!" Lucian stepped aside and asked Anson to look at the news on his own.

Anson glared at him. Who was the one who should be angry?

"Lucian, you..." He choked on the words he was about to say when he saw the news on the computer. He was too shocked to say anything.

"Wow! That's good news!" Anson smiled faintly and said, "It's just that the photos that were taken were a little ugly."

Lucian frowned as he listened at the side. How could Anson still have the mood to joke?

Lucian said sarcastically, "You still have the mood to joke around?"

"Uh..." Anson's pupils constricted as he looked at the computer. He blinked his eyes and said, "Lucian, come and have a look. Another piece of news has covered up the previous one. Rebecca from the Jotham Alwynn Group, has been secretly plotting to harm Victor, the eldest son of the Alwynn family in order to snatch the assets of the family. Holy sh*t. This is a very bold head line. I wonder who is behind this."

Anson bellowed angrily.

Lucian frowned and pushed Anson away quickly, causing Anson to glare at him.

Anson's anger had not yet subsided. Why was Lucian angrier than him?

"Get out of the way!" Lucian sat down and tapped on the keyboard quickly.

He tried to trace the address quickly. After a while, he slammed his fist on the table in exasperation.

D*mned it!

It was an address from abroad again.

Anson looked at Lucian who was angry. He looked as if he wanted to speak but stopped on a second thought.

He made a sound and said, "Um!" Lucian ignored him and continued to stare at the computer with the same posture.

"Well..."

"Get lost!" Lucian's cold voice caused Anson's heart to skip a beat.

It was hard to serve Lucian, He was similar to Victor. He also liked to hold a grudge and had no manners.

Anson could only rub his nose when he saw that Lucian was unwilling to pay attention to him. He turned his head several times when he left the room. He returned to his office and was ready to make a phone call.

He took another look at Lucian when he reached the office door. Lucian looked noble and he still sat in the same posture.

Humph!

He must feel defeated because he couldn't trace the address again this time.

Anson thought about it before he went back to his office unwillingly.

Very soon, the news of Rebecca from the Jotham Alwynn Group trying to murder Victor had covered the news of Victor holding hands with Eden.

Victor and Eden's photos were deleted from the Internet quickly and were replaced by photos of Rebecca with a cold and mean expression on her face. The piece of news had exploded in River City.

Rebecca who was excited, was praising her secretary via WhatsApp at the moment!

She was surprised when she went back to her homepage and her phone fell to the ground.

"Ah... How could this happen?" Rebecca was shocked and her whole body shuddered uncontrollably.

She stared viciously at the phone screen that was on the ground.

She was sure that the name and photos on the phone screen was her.

Who was behind this?

"Could it be Victor's friend, Lucian." She frowned. It was impossible. Lucian was not that fast!

Chapter 350

Rebecca's phone vibrated suddenly. Rebecca took a look and saw that it was from Vincent. She picked up the phone quickly and swallowed hard to calm herself down before she answered the call. "Hello! Vin!"

"Mom, what's with the news online? It would cause the stocks of the Jotham Alwynn Group to plummet. Dad is lashing out in his office at the moment. You have to step out and explain what is really going on.

Who released the news?" Vincent was so anxious that he asked a lot of questions in a short period of time.

The Jotham Alwynn Group was in a mess at the moment because of this piece of news!

"I don't know. I asked my secretary to upload Victor and Eden's photos on the Internet to embarrass them. I didn't know why it became like this suddenly.

I don't know what's going on either." Rebecca's agitated voice trembled slightly.

Who was messing with her behind her back?

She had secretly schemed against Victor for so many years but nothing had happened. Why did something happen today?

Could it be that Victor had started fighting back?

That was possible. He had the ability to fight back at the moment!

"Mom, how can you be so confused? Dad is still angry at you. Besides, you haven't returned to the company yet. Can't you wait before you make a move? Didn't I put up with it when Dad taught me a lesson a few days ago?" Vincent hung up the phone angrily after that.

When Rebecca heard the beeping sound, her phone in her hand slipped to the sofa.

She stared at the tea table in front of her sullenly, as though Victor was the luxurious tea table. Her eyes were filled with hatred and anger and she wanted to smash the table into pieces so badly.

"No. I can't get edgy. I have to find out the person who is secretly causing trouble!" Rebecca got up, picked up her phone and handbag and hurried downstairs.

Victor and Eden were eating in a restaurant at the moment.

The restaurant was a glasshouse. It was bright and spacious, and the environment was excellent!

Victor had chosen this restaurant for a meal with Eden after searching for restaurants that had delicious food in the vicinity with his mobile phone.

They would go to find the Dream Cave after that.

He was very attentive when it came to Eden.

His mobile phone that was on the table, vibrated suddenly. He frowned slightly when he saw that it was from Anson. He wondered why Anson would call him at this time.

Eden lowered her head and ate. When she saw that Victor did not answer the phone, she pointed to Victor's phone and said with a playful smile, "Victor, why don't you answer the phone? You'll lose money if it's a million-dollar business!"

Victor smiled faintly before he picked up the phone and answered it reluctantly.

He didn't want to answer calls from anyone today. He just wanted to have a great time with her!

"Hello!" His voice was deep and cold.

Anson, who was on the other end of the line, was shocked when he heard the cold voice. He swallowed a mouthful of saliva and his shoulders tightened slightly.

"Speak!" Anson only came back to his senses when he heard Victor's deep roar.

He composed himself and shouted at Victor, "Victor, why are you so angry? Something serious has happened. Why didn't you look at the news on your phone?"

Victor frowned and did not feel great when he heard that. He had an important day with Eden today.

However, the phone call caused Victor to become instantly depressed.

"What's the matter?" He asked in a low voice.

Anson told Victor about what had happened. Victor's brows furrowed when he heard that.

After that, Victor hung up the phone without saying anything.

He checked his phone. There were really photos of Rebecca and a piece of news popped up.

He clicked on it and looked at it. His eyes were filled with shock.

What was going on?

How did the other party get these photos?

Rebecca had uploaded the photos of him and Eden but she was defeated soon after.

Who was behind this?

Was the person helping him or Eden, or both of them?

Could it be Kenny?

Victor glanced at Eden and said, "Eden, you eat first. Eat more. I'm going to take care of some stuff. I'll be back soon!"

Eden nodded with a smile.

Victor also smiled faintly and got up to leave.

Eden looked at Victor under the sunlight. His tall and straight figure was dazzling and captivating.

However, she did not see Victor's expression turning cold and indifferent and his eyes darkened when he turned around.

Eden felt a little full after eating a few shrimps.

She sat there and drank her tea.

Victor called Lucian when he was outside of the restaurant.

"Hello!" Lucian picked up the phone quickly.

Victor asked immediately, "Lucian, have you found the address?"

Lucian was silent for a moment before he said, "The address is foreign but it's different from the address last time. The person is secretly helping either Eden or us. They won't intervene when the matters are related to you but they will show up when Eden is involved."

Victor's handsome face was cold when he heard that.

He spoke in a low voice, "Lucian, you have to find out the identity of this person no matter what method you use!"

Lucian fell silent again when he heard that.

Victor frowned when Lucian didn't speak.

The surroundings were very quiet and the sunlight was warm. However, one could still feel the cold aura that Victor exuded.

"Lucian." He waited for Lucian with his utmost patience.

The image of Anson's helpless and angry expression when he remained silent flashed across his mind at that moment.

Victor closed his eyes slightly. Lucian was his nemesis. His every move reminded Victor the way he treated Anson.

Lucian said casually, "It's not difficult to find him. Eden's son, Kenneth should know his identity."

Victor widened his eyes suddenly.

How did the question get back to his son? Was Kenny really so remarkable?

Victor reminded, "You must find out who is behind this."

Lucian said, "Okay. What shall we do about what is happening now?"

Victor smiled suddenly. His smile was cold enough to make people shudder.

"Don't you have explosive news? Since the matter has been publicized, you can add more spice to it! Rebecca has been driven out of the company by my father. I want to make sure that she is unable to return to the company." His voice was deep and vicious.

Lucian frowned slightly. After a while, he said, "Victor, you have to be sure that you can win once this game has started. Don't forget about Aunt Jaida!"
